sprinkled with an occasional hit until the eighth when the Infantry scored another marker on an error of the Vag infield and Newton came across with a timely hit.

The ever-aggressive Vags started a rout in the ninth inning that was heart breaking to the doughboy crew who had almost the series in the sack.

Everyone and everybody hit the ball in the last stanza and after the tying run had crossed the pan Robertson squeezed the winning marker home with a perfect bunt that tore the heart right out of the Regimental

The excitement was at tever heat during the last few minutes of play and even Norman of the Vags and Reddock of the Infantry were battling on the ground at home plate after the winning run had scored. What a Better luck next year 29th.

We Make

RUBBER STAMPS

COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

SUITS

$1675 to $2775

New Shades - Styles and Colors

HATS

$300 to $495

New Shades - Colors

A full line of haberdashery of the latest styles, colors and designs-at most reasonable prices.

We will be very glad to have vou visit us whenever you need any men's clothing. We are sure, too, that you will find it very easy to shop here and that our merchandise will please you.

PAYNE

Clothing Co. 1203 Broadway

83rd F. A.

HQ. HQ., BATTERY AND C. T. Several men in the battery have completed the life savings test being conducted at Russ Pool, under the auspices of the American Red Cross, among the list are Sergeant Tate, Corperal Pike, Corporal Nahring and others. Lt. Neely, a recent graduate of West Point, coached the battery team and under his supervision everybody passed the test.

If the kind readers of this column will excuse this scribe, he will take time out to see what all the noise is just outside of the barracks. Here l am back again, it wasn't anything but Hank Drawdy in his high powered armored car. To those of you who are not acquainted with this car, the following information is given. It once belonged to a famous beer baron; it is equipped with a Phillips Pack Saddle, in place of the usual rumble seat, halter shanks are used to secure the top of the windshield, the horn is tuned to sound like a mule left on the picket line, and the body looks like a battery store wagon. It takes the place of a bugle when it arrives in front of the barracks at first call.

Our First Sergeant Sweger has taken to the bridle paths for his weekly recreation. From all reports, he is getting his horse in shape for the annual cross country ride, to be sponsored by the 83rd F. A., enlisted men's

We are having many favorable reports regarding the dance last week given by Battery C. We hope that the other batteries will follow suit. It would be a boast for the Battalion if each battery would take their turn in sponsoring a dance.

BATTERY "A"

Battery "A," was very unfortunate in that it went on Fire Guard this last pay day. We have been lucky so far, as there has been only one fire and that was very close by. Our next door neighbor, Battery C's paint shop was hit by lightning last Monday, which caused the fire. With the fast work of the men of battery A, the fire was extinguished quickly without much damage.

One of our wandering boys has returned from furlough and states that ne had a wonderful time at the World Fair. Pvt. Smith, the Battalion Mail Orderly will probably take over his same old job as mail Orderly and day dream of the wonderful sights he saw while in Chicago.

BATTERY "C"

The Battery is having a busy week tearing down stables, firing a salure and prevaring for a demonstration.

The B. C. Detail regrets to lose Lt. Howard who has been assigned to Hq. Btry. since returning from CCC duty. Lt. Howard was the reconnaissance officer while with the Btry. and we know we will miss him during the school season.

Corp. Anderson has returned from CCC duty in Florida, and says he feels at home on a gunner's seat.

BENNING SPORTS NOW IN

(Continued from page 6) blossomed forth with a substitute for he intra-mural footballl season, but in Phillip T Fry athletic officer, is reputed to have an ace up his sleeve somewhere.

But at the time of writing things are dull. John W. Fan has been forced to content himself with an occasional tiddle-wink match since the Vagabonds trounced the 29th on the diamond, and for the next days or possibly weeks it looks like an occasional sortie "on the green" will have to suffice for diversion.

Blue Eagle posters prove that the Roosevelts are equally proficient at welding the big sticker.

-Chicago Daily News

Maine has gone hell-bent for repeal, Cuba has a stable government.

Non-Coms Receive plied ourself to your job to an ex-Reward Of Years

Reward to several old non-commissioned officers of the 29th Infantry by new promotions to higher grades and appointments to corporal of men who have demonstrated leadership qualities in the famous model regiment of the United States Army have been announced by Colonel William E. Persons, regimental command-

First Sergeant Hans Friis, who prior to his promotion to the highest non-commissioned officer grade in the thing that impresses me most with rearmy, that of master sergeant, was Topkick of Service Company, the transportation unit of the 29th Infantry. Master Sergeant Hans Friis has over 25 years service in the Army. He handled before and have made an exhas seen service in various posts scattered over the United States; his first enlistment was with the 3rd Infantry stationed at Fort Snelling Minnesota and later at Fort McPherson, Ga. His next enlistment was with the 10th Infantry garrison at Camp McKinley, Honolulu and later in Fort Davis, Alaska. His next hitch was with the 16th Infantry at Fort Crook, Nebraska and again he saw service in the frigid territories of Alaska, when the 16th were ordered there three weeks after his enlistment for that Infantry

It was after the termination of his enlistments with the above mentioned organizations that Sergeant Friis first saw duty with the 29th Infantry, which was at the time stationed at Fort Niagara, New York. Shortly after his enlistment for the Twenty-Ninth, the entire regiment embarked for Panama, during the World War where they were assigned the task of guarding the power plants and locks of the famous canal. With the exception of one enlistment with the 33rd Infantry at the Canal Zone, Sergeant Friis has spent the major portion of his time in the army with the 29th Infantry. He was appointed First Sergeant of Service Company, 29th Infantry in September 1932 and now slightly over one year since his promotion to that grade comes the raise to Master Sergeant.

Corporals Joseph C. Grahl and Clifford R. Kilgore are two other members of the regiment to receive pro motions; theirs is to the grade of sergeant. Sergeant Grahl is another one of the regiment's old timers. He has been with the 29th over 12 years and has a total of 21 years service in the army. He is not only an excellent soldier in the garrison but one of the best field soldiers that C Company, the organization with which he has een for the past 6 years, boasts. He is also a sharpshooter with the service

Sergeant Kilgore has been in the army over 7 years, all of which has been with D Company, 29th, a machine gun organization of the regiment. His promotion is well merited as he too is one of the regiments outstanding soldiers and efficient non-commissioned officers. He is also an expert with the machine gun, having qualified as such the last time that the regiment fired the machine guns for qualification.

Privates first class Jesse E. Faircloth and James O. Curry, of D and F Companies respectively are the final promotions in the regiment. Corporal Faircloth has been with D Company for the past six years and is considered as one of the best soldiers in his organization. He has qualified twice as an expert machine gunner. Corporal Curry has been with F. Company for the past four years and has also qualified as an expert with the 30 caliber Springfield rifle. His score was 312 out of a possible 350.

BENNINGITES BACK FROM C.C.C. (Continued from page 5)

company" says one from central Georgia. "Never in my service have I seen such loyalty, attention to duty, initiative and so much all round general efficiency in performance of duty as had been given by this small group of men.

Another to an enlisted man who was and we expect any day to hear that on duty in Louisiana reads: "From the first day of your duty with this -The Hartford Daily Courant or anizotion in May you have whole-tent that I have never seen excelled by any man. Subjected to severe illness with malaria and its after-effects, you still carried on so far as you were permitted to do so by those who were concerned over your health.

"I would like to express to you as regimental commander my appreciation of the invaluable services rendered by the regular army group detailed to my company by the 29th Infantry. Throughout the entire period that were on duty here the personal conduct of these men was above reproach and such as to reflect credit on the service on their regiment. The gard to the 29th Infantry personnel is their initiative, resourcefulness and adaptability. They have all been thrown into jobs they have never cellent record. In behalf of the Forestry Service I wish to extend our thanks for such a high percentage of effective men for field work. Ever since the camp was opened you have cooperated with us to the fullest extent. This man is commended for the high proficiency with which he performed his duties—and for the splendid cooperation he gave the Forest Service.

And so it reads, all through the huge file of letters daily growing larger in the office of the regimental comheartedly, willingly, and loyally ap- mander. The men are back, not for a long earned rest, but to resume their normal duties within the regiment, and to prepare for whatever duty they are called on next to perform; from the trying on of a new style hat to the charging of a machine gun nest, the 29th has led the way.

Howard Bus Line. Inc.

Operating Under Government Franchise Bond and Liability Insurance Provided

SCHEDULE

Fram		From	,,
		Ft. Ben
			-
5:00 AM		6:00
6:00 "		7:50	"
7:90 "	_	9:15	. "
8:30 "		10:45	"
10:00 "		12:45	PM
Ll :45 "		2:15	"
1:30 PM		4:15	64
3:00 "		5:10	•
5:00 "	•	6:00
7:00 "		7:00	"
9:00 "	*	8:00	. "
10:30 "		9:45	46
12:00 M		11:15	**
		12:00	M
Also	"Extras	"⁻and
SCH	OOL B	USES
410	PHONE		224
	710		~ ~

POST

WE BUY

Old GOLD Jewelry AND

DENTAL SCRAPS

UNDER U. S. LICENSE No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

JEWELERS

1121 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS__

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

One of the South's Finest Products..

Toasted to incomparable perfection - Salted to just the right degree That's

TOASTED PEANUTS

Health, energy and delicious flavor all contained in one package - for people everywhere

24 th Infantry On The Old Man Says Promotion Status

Over two years of promotionless service ended Sunday morning for the 24th Infantry, stationed at Fort Benning, when the first regimental order advancing the grade of enlisted members of the unit was published by Colonel Fred L. Munson, commanding the regiment.

Since May 1, 1931, advances in grade Department orders, advances in grade and pay among the members of the colored regiment of the Infantry School were stopped, in order that the Air Corps program instituted to build up the aerial forces of the Army might be carried through to completion as soon as possible. There being only so many ratings allotted to the Army as whole, it was necessary that some organizations lose, for a time, certain ratings, which were transferred to the Air Corps, and the 24th was one of those upon whom the Recently orders from Washington arrived at Fort Benning, stating that the ban was now off, and promotions might be made in the first three grades of enlisted ratings, namely staff sergeant, technical sergeant, and master sergeant, if any vacancies existed within the organizations.

So yestreday morning, with gratification on the part of the regimental commander, and joy in the souls of the Happy Heart regiment, the first promotions were officially published. Men who had done the work that called for more pay and higher ratings than they were holding were elevated

THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

Excellent Curb Service

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT POST EXCHANGE

FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Author-ized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

"The snappy click of the horseshoes on the old model shoes of a soldier may be a perfect prelude to a snappy salute in the ears of some, but the rubber-heeled soldier of today may well be quiet and unobstrusive as it is desired they be. Good old shock absorbers!"

"If a man leans against, sits on, or hunches over your desk, it is not necessarily an indication of undue familiarity or disrespect. He may be enthusiastic on the subject under discussion or just does not know what else to do with his feet or hands and really does need support."

7th Engineers Are Redesignated

Company A, of the 7th Engneers at Fort Benning has been redesignated as Company A, 4th Engneers in War Department orders recently received at Fort Benning, the home of the Infantry School.

Selected as the crack engineer unit of the United States Army to serve as special demonstration troops at the Infantry School and show doughboy officers here the proper function ing of engineer troops, the 7th, (now 4th Engineers) at Fort Benning illustrate the high standards and heterogenous work of engineer troops under war time conditions. Famed as a unit that helped the famous Fifth Division in the World War over the Meuse river early in November, in what General John J. Pershing called the finest achievement of the American expiditionary forces in France, the 4th Engineers still proudly wear the red diamond shoulder patch of that combat division.

to their proper position in the scheme of army life, and today there is a snappier step and a broad grin apparent on the face of the 24th soldiers, for they are feeling truly like their nickname.

Staff Sergeant William H. Ransom, Headquarters Company 24th Infantry is the first man named on the promotion order. For twenty-seven years Sergeant Ransom has soldiered with the armed forces of the United States, and wears on his breast the medal of the Order of the Purple Heart, awarded for wounds received in the Philippine campaign. His new rank, which elevates him to master sergeant, is the highest that an enlisted man may at tain in the Army.

Staff Sergeant Henry Moore, Headquarters Company, has been promoted to the grade of 1st Sergeant, and will be transferred to direct the activities of Company A. Sergeant Jackson Wheeler, Headquarters Company, has been promoted to 1st Sergeant of that organization.

Corporal Shelton Reed, Headquarters Company, will step into the place left vacant by the promotion of Sergeant Moore, when he sews the chevrons of a staff sergeant on his sleeve.

Colonel Munson expressed himself as more than pleased with the opportunity afforded him to reward the work of the personnel, the first that he has had since he assumed the command of the regiment last year.

Table Lamps and Pottery Lamps

Beautifully and correctly designed to harmonize with any room or any decoration scheme -these lamps will please you more than any others you've ever seen. All different styles and color schemes.

Furniture Rugs Philco Radios Leonard Electric Refrigerators

Public Library Invites Readers

The Columbus Public Library has extended an invitation to all the officers ofthe Benning personnel to make use of its facilities at any time they may need them. The Library has the naming of Kelley Hill, the keya large number of books on historical, technical and scientific subjects, in addition to its fiction list, and its magazine subscription list embraces the most prominent and popular magazines being published today.

Maj. Hodges Wins Skeet Club Shoot

Members of the Fort Benning garrison who remember the Infantry Rifle Teams of 1930-31, will remember the crack shot that coached the great shooting organizations, Major Courtney Hodges, who left Fort Benning for duty at the Army War College.

Last Saturday, September 30, Major Hodges again crashed through into prominence by running away with the Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia Skeet Shoot, held on the Montgomery Skeet Club Grounds, by scoring 96 out of a possible 100, in front of a gallery of more than 1,000 spectators.

Major Hodges was a member of the Infantry Rifle Teams of 1910 and 1915, which won the National Championships at Camp Perry, and also captained the teams of 1930 and 1931. REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT (Continued from page 4) platoon on Sackett Hill, which after priding itself on an efficient execution of its mission, apparently was forgotten in the general rush for home, and has yet to be visited. By the way, Colonel Kelley is reported to be in a position to tell us about stone of the defense. Will someone kindly get the story.

And here's the week's best boner, pulled by none other than the sweetheart of the class, Miss "Bull" Kendall. "You remind me SO much of a man named Smith," said she to (a newly arrived shavetail. Lt. Smith grinned and blushed in confusion, while we are still wondering just what is the proper proceedure in such

Before we go, let's spring this brand new simile on the kiddies. "As futile as a student trying to write sketch notes atop a four footed plug"-ask

More Water In Our Wheel

Now watch Fort Benning hum. More money, more building, more men. Whatever helps Benning puts new life into Columbus. We appreciate your business-Big Neighbor.

The Provision Company, Inc.

Selected Styles for Fall

Fall styles selected from among the best the season has produced—with an eye to economy-to durability-to appearanceand made so they'll fit as if you were poured into That's why you them. should drop in our store and see them.

We have long made special efforts to give the personnel of Fort Benning the very kind of service and quality they wanted, and we take pride in the fact that our store has enjoyed their patronage ever since the Post has been here. We invite you, too, to make your purchases here and we are sure that you will become convinced that there is no better men's store in any city. For instance our fall suits are selling this year at:

ALL SIZES

Stetson Hats, Society Brand Clothes, Manhattan Shirts, Socks and Underwear, Dressner Luggage, Bostonian and Mansfield Shoes, and other nationally known makes of men's accessories.

FORT BENNING'S COLUMBUS HEADQUARTERS

1149 BROADWAY

PHONE: 409

Post Stockade Mess InFirst Place Again

At a recent inspection of the thirtyone messes of the Fort Benning garrison the Post Stockade kitchen rated first with Company D, 29th Infantry second and Headquarters Company third.

Major Homer D. Connor, the medical inspector who makes the monthly inspection of the various messes stated that the kitchens at the bottom of the list compare favorably with the leaders at the top of the rating chart.

For the past few months Headquarters Company, Company D and the Post Stockade have been running a close race for the monthly honors. with the choice for first place being equally distributed between the three top-notchers.

The standard of the kitchens are very high and the honor for the best mess rating is strongly contested at Headquarters Company, 29th Infantry els of efficiency and cleanliness.

Tank Notes

COMPANY "E" TANKS

1st Lieut. D. T. Beeler took command of our company on Tuesday of this week. Captain J. C. Horne, former company commander, left us to go to Telogia, Florida, to take com-won first place nine consecutive times in the past year while the Post Stockade and the Station Hospital kitchens have been striving to outdo the Headquarters mess.

The kitchens are inspected for their ceanliness, neat appearance and ordery arrangement it was stated by Major Connor. The kitchens are inspected every day in addition to the monthly inspection by the Medical Inspector, by an officer designated by the Commanding Officer of the Companies as mess officer.

Every day the mess-halls, diningrooms and even the storage cellars are closely scrutinized by the officers in charge of the inspections and the various kitchens and mess-halls of the the Infantry School post every month. Infantry School are regarded as modmand of C. C. C. Company 2401. We wish you much luck while on this duty Captain Horne.

When McNeil and his crew painters get their painting job done we hear that Mack will start on a new ob. Mack says they can't believe that I can start at the top of a well and wall down, but it can be done and I will show them how.

To listen to this man Joe Shannon you will miss a great treat if you go to the fair down town and fail to pay a visit to the radio station booth. Yep these amateur radio bugs will have up a real station at the fair and if you have a message you would like to have sent out over the air they will send it free of charge to any part of the world you want it to go. If you have no message to send and have never seen one of these radio stations in operation see this exhibit. It is something interesting and well worth seeing.

"Pug" Carver used to be the cock of the walk over at the Tank Park but now they have a new one in the name of Woodall. It is said that when this big chested man gives out a command things begin to turn.

29th Shows How To "Lead The Way"

The 29th Infantry, leading troops of the United States Army in more ways than one, stepped out Tuesday. literally and figuratively, to show the troops of the military service how a march should be made by competing the nine and one-half mile hike from Eelbeck Mills on the Buena Vista Road to the 24th Infantry Logging Camp on the Cussetta highway in two hours and fifteen minutes, all of the route being over deep sandy roadbed. The speed with which the Galloping 29th made the march is more remarkable when it is remembered that the normal marching rate for infantry troops is two and one half miles per hour, a speed htat would have required three hours and forty five minutes.

The Headquarters Battalion, commanded by Major Frank V. Schnieder with Company A, 4th Engineers attached, left the camp at 7:45 a.m., to the marching.

followed close by the 1st Battalion, led by Lieutenant Colonel Rowan P. Lemly, and the 2d Battalion under the leadership of Lieutenant Colonel Elmer F. Rice. The route of march was by way of King's Pond and Sulphur Springs, and the leading echelon were played into their location at the Logging Camp by the regimental band at exactly 10:00 a. m. The animal drawn transportation, which had left the old camp site an hour and fifteen minutes before the foot troops. was only fifteen minutes in the lead of the marching men at the close of the march.

Brigadier General George H. Estes, post commandant arrived at the camp and was greeted by the 29th Infantry escort company, under the command of Captain on C. Faith, at 3:30 this afternoon. Genera Estes inspected the guard of honor, and later made an inspection of the tent area of the troops, the rolling kitchens, motor park and picket lines. He expressed himself as pleased with the condition of the men and equipment, and with the way the troops were standing up

Ligarettes

CHESTERFIELD

Of all the ways in which tobacco is used the cigarette is the mildest form \70U know, ever since L the Indians found out the pleasure of smoking tobacco, there have been many ways of enjoying it.

But of all the ways in which tobacco is used, the cigarette is the mildest form.

Another thing—cigarettes are about the most convenient smoke. All you have to do is strike a match.

Everything that money can buy and everything that science knows about is used to make Chesterfields.

The right home-grown tobaccos—seasoned with just enough aromatic Turkish -are blended and crossblended the Chesterfield

Then the cigarettes are made right-firm, wellfilled. Chesterfield uses the right kind of pure cigarette

There are other good cigarettes, of course, but Chesterfield is the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better. Chesterfields satisfy we ask you to try them.

hesterfield

the cigarette that's MILDER

the cigarette that TASTES BETTER.

VOLUME III

FORT BENNING, GA., OCTOBER 13, 1933

The

Conducted By E. F. H.

"Better be damned than mentioned not at all.' -John Wolcot.

We desire to express our gratitude to "Pinch Hitter" for so ably taking a terrible tribulation off our hands last week and allowing us to thoroughly enjoy our vacational practice march without having to keep the Flare Fires Flaming. In fact the Column was so well conducted that we are going to endeavor to entice Pinch Hitter to continue to conduct for the next two weeks while we are on our first leave in two years. We have high hopes that he will do so well that by mutual agreement—his, yours and ours—he will take over the job

SIR SIDNEY'S SUBSTITUTE STEED STUTTERS

Sidney Negrotto, Head-man of the Hounds, Horsey man of the Horsey Crowd, Wielder of the Whip over the Whippers-in and Whatnot, has made the Flare again. Just as Sir Sid was leaving the Department of Experiment on Thursday afternoon of last week, several of his companions and co-workers remarked that they would not be present Friday for what they laughingly call their work, because they were going out to watch the Twenty Ninth Infantry's manuevan advance and an attack through the most impenetrable part of Benning's Bosque to see if the Horses, Mules, and Motors could follow the Foot As everyone else seemed to be goso take a Look See. The situation however, and he decided that he didn't care to take any one of his precious ponies through the jumbled twenty minute piano recital. jungle. So about midnight he mounted the Family Motor and drove out the Troops for the Hazardous Ride. awaited with keen interest. He made the Tactical Error of joincompletely motorized that, from Boss talion, which is horsed, prior to the well-known composers. advance so he decided to follow the trucks in his Motor mount. He glanced at the Gas Gauge and found he was very low-down to almost nothing—on gas, so he drove to the truck which supplied the 2d Bn. with gas and borrowed a supply of fuel. It out the country. so happened that the Gas Truck carand one can of water. In the dark filled Negrotto's car with water. Sir sponsibility. Sidney was straining at the leash Fox stink and with the click of the trickled through the tea-cup full of on December 4.

(Please turn to page 7)

To Be Held Here Sunday Oct. 22

The Infantry School Hunt will hold ts first meeting of the year on Sunday morning October 22, with a drag hunt starting at the Polo-Hunt Club at 8:00 a. m. Breakfast will be served at 10:00 o'clock at the Polo-Hunt Club.

At 8:15 Captain Sidney H. Negrotto, Master of Hounds, will present club pack to Brigadier General G. H. Estes, commandant, after which the hunt will move out at 8:30. The new course of the hunt located generally along the 1st Division Road to the Water Tanks, over Riley Ridge and thence to Reynolds Hill to return over Davis, Bouton and Smythe Hills to the Club, extends over ten miles of the most beautiful scenery on the reservation. Natural and artificial jumps have been skillfully located throughout, and interested spectators are afforded a wonderful opportunity to view the course of the hunt from various spots.

Captain Negrotto will be assisted by the following honorary Whippersin of the hunt staff: Major Kramer Thomas, Cavalry, Major Archibald V. Arnold, 83rd Field Artillery, Captain John A. Nichols, Infantry, Captain James G. Brackinridge, Infantry, Lieutenant Joseph P. Cleland, 29th Infantry, Mrs. Kay Studebaker and Mrs. Sallie Lindsey.

Woman's Club To

The Infantry School Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the 1933-1934 year at the Polo-Hunt Club Troops through the tangled terrain. On Monday afternoon, at which ing for a five day's study of construc-As everyone else seemed to be go. Brigadier General George H. Estes, tion activities at the Post. He was ing, Sir Sidney decided he would al- commandant, will make a welcoming speech to the club members. Mr. Earl didn't sound particularly pleasing, Hazel, head of the musical department of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, will

General Estes has expressed his appreciation of the work being done to the Louvain Road where he ex- by the Woman's Club of the post, try School, during his stay at Benning, ing. pected to borrow a Hard Horse from and his address to the members is

Mr. Hazel, who studies under the ing the Second Battalion which is so Russian pianist Serge Tarnowsky at the Bush Conservatory of Music in Saturday morning. to Buck, the Battalion has as much Chicago, achieved quite a name for Hankering for a Horse as a Flea has himself at the institution. His recital the guest of honor at luncheon given Joseph A. Atkins, assistant executive for Flit. The Chief of the Canines will be composed of selections from didn't have time to join the 1st Bat- Brahms, Chopin, Mojesky, and other Estes. A number of the leading ci- the construction work being carried > the Club has arranged a wonderful the purpose of meeting General tended the Officers' Reserve Corps program for the monthly meetings Croft. The guest list included, in admeeting being held at the post. in throughout the year until next April. dition to Generals Croft and Estes, company with Generals Estes and Ma-These will feature some of the best Major General Paul B. Malone, known speakers and writers through-

November 6 Commodore Herbert ried several ten gallon cans of gas Hartley, Commander U. S. Naval Reserve, and former commander of the and hurry of departure the Sergeant S. S. Leviathan, will speak of his exin charge got the wrong can and periences with his 48,000 tons of re-

A Christmas musical arranged like one of his Hounds scenting the through the courtesy of the Orpheus Club and the Boys' Choir of Trinity Cap on the gas tank he was away with Church under the direction of Mr. a roar. By the time the water had Irwin Vondereau, will be presented

(Please turn to page 7)

Year's First Hunt Studies Construction At Post C.C.C. Camp Here

Major General Edward Croft, Chief of Infantry

et. A few questions and Negrotto possessed the information that, beginpossessed the information that, beginthe Demonstration Regiment which Year Announced Of Inspecting New Construction Work rived at Fort Benning Monday evention activities at the Post. He was accompanied by Major Frederick E. Uhl of the construction division of the Chief of Infantry's office who has been aiding him in his work of which is now under way at the post, making the survey. General Croft, who is the guest of Brigadier General Estes, Commandant of the Infanwas formally greeted Tuesday by the guard of honor from the 24th Infantry, commanded by Capt. Llewellyn D. Tharpe. He will leave here early

At 1:00 o'clock General Croft was attended the at-The entertainment committee of fair as guests of General Estes for Headquarters 3rd Corps Area, who der of his stay, which is expected to is also visiting at the post; Colonel last until Saturday morning includ-Charles W. Weeks, assistant comed an inspection of the Civilian Commandant; Colonel William B. Wal-servation Corps. lace, chief of the tank section of the Church on the reservation; and academic department; Colonel Eph lunch and golf with General Estes, raim G. Peyton, executive officer; Col Colonel Fred L. Munson, command. B. er of the 24th Infantry; Colonel Wil- followed by a dinner given by Colliam E. Persons, commander of the 29th Infantry; Major Frederick E. Uhl, office of the chief of Infantry; Mayor H. C. Smith, Leighton Mcer. Walter W. Pike, Rev. Pierce Har-

Major General Edward Croft ard ris, Edgar Chancellor, and J. Hom-

The Columbus citizens were invited to the luncheon for the purpose of making the acquaintance of General Croft and of hearing his views on the construction program a matter in which the chief of infantry has taken considerable interest as it affects so vitally one of the most important factors in infantry train-

At 2:00 p. m. General Croft inspected the 24th Infantry on their parade ground as they went through their drill and maneuvers. Later, about 3:00 o'clock he made a tour of the post with Lieutenant Colonel at the Officers' Club by General officer, observing the progress of place, and the Cavalry, in second. on at the present time.

Tuesday evening General Croft atlone. The schedule for the remainservation Corps camp at Harmony Colonel Munson, and Colonel James Woolnough last Wednesday, onel Weeks in the evening; a conference with the school faculty, lunch at the 29th Infantry, a meeting with the officers of the tank battalion,

(Please turn to page 8)

To Be Reopened For New Recruits

The Civilian Conservation Corps, reconditioning camp at Fort Benning, through which 10,000 members of the reforestation army have passed last spring and early in the summer, is to be reopened at the post as a replacement base for those men of the CCC that do not re-enroll this fall. It is expected, based on word from Corps Area Headquarters, at Fort Mc-Pherson, Ga., that about 1,000 men in all will be processed in the camp during the next month.

Definite data as to the exact arrival of the new men is not yet obtainable, as the relief organizations throughout the surrounding territory have not yet sent in word of any selection of men, and the precise number of vacancies that will be made due to the discharge of those whose term of six months is completed is not known.

Colonel Frank F. Jewett, who was in charge of the large reconditioning camp at the start of the reforestation work, will again be in command of the new one. The personnel required of the regular army units at Fort Benning, will, of course, be made smaller than the number necessary for the proper administration of the original thousands who passed through here. It is expected that three other officers of the post in addition to Colonel Jewett, and a small force of enlisted men will be detailed on special duty in connection with the administration and supply of the new Conservation-

The three other officers who have been named in connection with the new camp are, Lieutenants, James P. Cleland, 29th Infantry, Malin Craig, Jr., 83rd Field Artillery, and Lieutenant James R. Davidson, 24th In-

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The Sojourners Club held a big dinner for all Master Masons who served as officers during the World War on October 8 in Biglerville

The Infantry Rifle Team won third place in the National Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, being bested by the "leather-neck" Marines, in first

Shadows on the wall were cast by the Infantry School News, when it passed out stickers to the stores in Columbus, that showed the concerns supported the I. S. N. (N. R. A., where is your originality?)

The 24th Infantry football team journeyed to Atlanta to engage Morehouse College in deadly conflict.

Fort Benning mallet-wielders bowed to the poloists from Birmingham to the tune of 7-4, with Captain R. A McClure vainly trying to stem the tide of the Magic City victory,

The Infantry football team downed Piedmont at the old Driving park, Pherson, Robert McNulty, W. J. Field- and attendance at a dinner dance at blanking out the visitors while they tallied 13 points.

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

General Croft Honor Guest At Lunch chestra furnished the music for danc-Given At Officer's Club Tuesday

Chief of Infantry, who is visiting at Fort Benning, was the honor guest Tuesday at a luncheon given at the Brig. Gen. George H. Estes. A number of the leading citizens of Columbus attended the affair as guests of Gen. Estes for the purpose of meet-

Think twice before you order-and then ask for Foremost Ice Cream! You'll find it a revelation-better than any ice cream you've ever eaten, and you'll always come back for more.

> Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES.

INCORPORATED

Major General Edward Croft, the ing General Croft. Included in the guest list were Maj. Gen. Paul B. Malone, Colonel Ephraim G. Peyton, Colonel Charles W. Weeks, Colonel Officers' Club by the Commandant, Fred L. Munson, Colonel William E. Persons, Colonel William B. Wallace, Major Frederick E. Uhl, Mayor H. C. Smith of Columbus, Mr. Robert McNulty, Mrs. W. W. Pike, Reverend Pierce Harris, Mr. J. Homer Dimon. Mr. Edgar Chancellor.

> 29th INFANTRY LADIES BRIDGE CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

Members of the ladies 29th Infantry bridge club assembled Tuesday afternoon at the quarters of Mrs. William E. Persons for the initial meeting of the season. Acting as co-hostess was Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin. The guests were invited for three thirty o'clock when a business meeting was held to decide upon the coming meeting of the club. Afterwards tea was served with Mrs. Faith and Mrs. O'Brien assisting.

MAJ. AND MRS. GAUTIER AND MAJ. AND MRS. FRASER HOSTS AT DINNER DANCE

The Polo-Hunt Club was the scene Saturday evening of a delightful dinner dance given by Major and Mrs. Claude V. Gautier and Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Fraser. The table seating the guests was formed in the form of a cross with a host and hostess seated at each end. The color scheme was green and pink, in the center of the table was a lovely bowl of pink roses while interspersed throughout the table was trailing wandering jew connected at intervals by smaller bowls of pink roses. The club was attractively decorated in red and yellow Autumn leaves and covering the side lights were paper lantterns painted in modernistic designs.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital 1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

ELIMINATE GUESSWORK

WITH THE SIX-BOX ON HAND YOU KNOW YOUR ENTERTAINING WILL BE SUCCESSFUL.

Don't let your party or picnic be a flop-depend on Coca-Cola and guarantee its success. Wherever there's a crowd, there you will find Coca-Cola—always the best, and now, in the Six-Box selling for only

PLUS SMALL DEPOSIT

Popularity such as no other soft drink has ever had makes Coca-Cola the king among the soft drinks. Always the most delicious and refreshing of all!

SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

During dinner the 29th Infantry or | were: Mrs. Pressley, ing. The hosts had as their guests forty-six friends who are members of the Medical Corps.

MRS. GREENE HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Joseph I. Greene was the hostess Monday at her attractive quarters entertaining with a buffet luncheon. The house was attractively decorated with bowls of dahlias and roses. Among the guests were: Mesdames Robert B. McClure, Samuel L. Buracker, George Woodruff, Burrel Cole, Malcolm F. Lindsey, George P. Howell, Richard T. Mitchell, C. K. Mc. Cormack, of New York, Claude D. Collins. Reynolds Burt, Charles Dimon, Russell Newton, Jack Key and Miss Eleanor Garrard.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. LINDSEY ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PRE-CEEDING DINNER DANCE AT OFFICERS CLUB.

Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey were the hosts Thursday evening to a party of their friends entertaining at an informal dinner at their quarters. After dinner the guests were escorted to the Officers' Club where the regular Thursday evening dance was being held. The Lindseys had as their guests: Capt. and Mrs. Sidney H. Negrotto, Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnett, Lieut. and Mrs. George H. McManus, Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Crosby, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph I. Green, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold L. Mace, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles T. Lanham, Mr. and Mrs. George Woodruff, Mrs. Burrel Cole, Miss Eleanor Garrard. Lieut. Malin Craig and Lieut. James J. Matthews.

LITTLE JACK EDDLEMAN CELE-BRATES THIRD BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

Little Jack Eddleman, the attractive young son of Lieut. and Mrs. Clyde D. Eddleman, was the honor guest Saturday at a lovely birthday party given by his parents in celebration of his third birthday. The young guests assembled at four o'clock and games were in order until five when ice cream accompanied by a lovely tiered birthday cake topped by three white candles was served. Invited to the party were: Dudley Traywick, Louise Traywick, Clara Thomas, Felicia Howell, Ann Louise Howell. Cornelia Van Horne, Jackie Stewart, Joe Johnson, Jimmie Bowen, Francis Howard and Billy Howard.

MRS. PRESSLEY HONOR GUEST AT BRIDGE TEA

Mrs. Milton Pressley who before her marriage in August to Lt. Pressley was Miss Hulit Wiley of Fort McPherson, was the honor guest Tuesday when Mrs. Augustus Dudley entertained the members of her bridge

Invited to meet Mrs. Pressley were the members of Mrs. Dudley's bridge club and a few other friends. They

HERALD WANT ADS

CLASSIFIED ADV. RATES 20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents must be made before advertisement is published.

FOR RENT. Small furn. or unfurn. apartment, modern conveniencies. Rock Terrace Apts. 1337 - 4th Ave. Apply next door.

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Whereever We Serve 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

Trechter, Mrs. Harold Kelly, Mrs. McCormack, Mrs. Nathan Dyke, Mrs. Abbot Turner, Mrs. Hugh McMath, Mrs. Dudley Spain, Mrs. Eugene Gray, Miss Paige Michie, Miss Nana

Mrs. Pressley was presented with white pottery bowl as guest of

PERSONALS

Major General and Mrs. Paul B. Malone, with their daughter Miss Gertrude Malone, are the house guests of Capt. and Mrs. Orryl S. Robles. Mrs. Robles was formerly Miss Mildred Malone. General Malone is stationed at Baltimore, Mary land, as commander of the Third Corps Area.

Friends of Miss Betty Welty will (Please turn to page 3)

Dr. R. H. Brown

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Phones Office 4108

"Savin' money's not nearly so hard as it might seem. All you have to do is be a little careful about what you're buying and where you're buying it. You'll find that you can get a lot of necessary articles at extremely low prices." At Silver's, of course!

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY & 11TH ST.

WE BUY

Old GOLD Jewelry AND DENTAL SCRAPS

UNDER U. S. LICENSE No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

JEWELERS

1121 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

At Alsobrook's

Our buyer, Miss Annie Dolan, has just returned from New York with a selection of the latest designs of hats-berets, felt hats and many others in every conceivable style and color. You are invited to come in and make your selections early!

Prices $2.95 to $12.50

Fort Benning Charge Accounts Solicited

It takes more than perfect service to make a good dinner

> The appointments may be perfect, the service may be perfect and yet . . . the dinner may well be a failure if it lacks the necessary originality and deliciousness that only careful planning and buying can give it. The Grocery Department is ready to assist you in preparing for any kind of menu or entertainment.

Grocery Dept.

0 X C H A N G E FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

It Shall Be Nameless

I would like to solicit the aid of our | and evening. friend "benny". Since he doesn't think the name for this column fitting perhaps he would like to submit a better one. And for your own information, benny, of course I know what the name makes it. SO WHAT!

It is understood that the Powers that be in the Tank School are having quite a heated consultation. It seems that the curriculum does not include balancing two plates of food bad. and two glasses of water while dashing across a crowded dance floor without coming to grief. So-Thursday night Supper hops continue to be cafeteria style they are going to have to devise some safe method of procedure for the Tankers. Bill Bowen is the first student to register for the course.

And now, like the movie magazines, we have our most beautiful still of the morning on the post, and it is none other than our Betty Welty. Last Sunday morning as people rode out by the Water Tanks they were very much embarassed to find our Betty reclining in some young man's arms. Everyone rode by with eyes carefully averted and wondered why they picked the edge of First Division Road to practice for a play. Imagine their surprise to find that the poor little gal was passing out with a broken leg. Betty's story is that the horse kicked her and she is living for the day when she can walk down to the stables and kick him back. In the meantime she is up at the hospital holding what looks like a reception every afternoon

Shooting Glasses

Specially ground precision Lenses

CLASON'S

Manufacturing and Dispensing Opticians

1115 Broadway

-Among other things, a per-Andfect roll. It was discovered not at the bakery but in the person of Kenneth Kendall. We were actually witnesses during a doubles match at the tennis courts when Kenny ran for one of Major Lytle's fast serves, missed, slipped, and executed a triple roll and slid in for a home run. Not

Well, the members of the Artillery Club are trying to start a House of David or something (at present it looks more like "or something") so when you see the boys running around with a fuzzy looking upper lip don't tell them that they have dirt on their faces. I don't imagine that they would appreciate it particularly.

And let me tell you something. Were we surprised to see none other than Ray Brisach at the Officer's Club the other day down on his knees in front of alovely brunette lady (who was, I might add very "muchly" pink of cheek). It seems however that Ray only persuading the young lady that he was the person with whom she should have a date with on some particular night in question. All of which makes us think that gallantry is not yet dead.

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 2)

regret to learn that she is a patient in the Station Hospital suffering from broken leg.

Major and Mrs. Philip S. Blackmore are to be congratulated upon the birth of a daughter at the Station Hospital on September 20.

Major General Edward Croft, Chief of Infantry, spent from Monday to Thursday as the house guest of the Commandant and Mrs. George H.

Friends of Lieut. Walter C. Sweeney, Jr., will regret to learn that he is patient in the Station Hospital.

Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey, Mrs. Joseph I. Green and Mrs. Burrel Cole motored to Atlanta Tuesday

Mrs. George Woodruff.
Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hanna returned to Fort Benning Tuesday from Vicksburg, Mississippi, where Lieut. Hanna has been stationed on C. C. C. duty.

Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Purcell arrived at Fort Benning on Monday from Brewton, Alabama, where he has been stationed on C. C. C. duty.

Mrs. Orryl S. Robles, accompanied by her father, Major General Paul B. Malone, left Fort Benning on Thursday by motor for a few days' vinit with Capt. Robles, who is on duty with the C. C. C. at Sanderson,

DRINK

MILK

HEALTH and ENJOYMENT

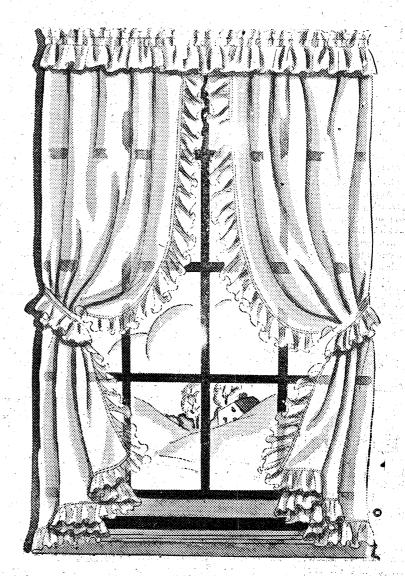

AND ABOVE ALL, BE SURE IT'S WELLS' PASTEURIZED MILK

Our milk is properly pasteurized and produced in clean, modern buildings. Call us and have it left at your door regularly.

MACON ROAD PHONE 1144

Plain Marquisette Priscilla Type

CURTAINS Ready-to-Hang

PAIR

Two styles: plain marquisette in either solid cream or ecru with Priscilla ruffles and tie backs in the same color; or cream plain marquisette with tie backs and Priscilla ruffles in delicate shades of peach, blue, jade or orchid. These curtains are made ready for easy hanging, and come in 2 1-4 length only.

Kirven's Basement

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Phone 556

Columbus, Georgia

VOLUME III OCTOBER, 13, 1933 NO. 25 _Publisher _Editor FELICIA C. HOWELL____Society Editor Sports Editor JACK GIBNEY ____ Louis T. Kunze. _Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,

Reflections Of A Student

Now that the record firing of the auto-rifle has been completed, a brand new set of alibis has made its appearance. Frankie "Dese Dem" Dohs, the Glen Gray fan who so obligingly whistles the accompaniment to any and all types of music, has a typical one. He forgot to observe his BDA, which by the way doesn't stand for Browning's Darling Automatic. Consequently, after burrowing down in the sand, and getting all primed up for a big score, Frankie's first gentle pull on the trigger was greeted with an ear splitting rat-a-tat-tat-tat, as seven or eight of Uncle's beebe shot climbed up into the ozone blue. Poor "Dese Dem" frowned bitterly, his whole afternoon ruined, while good teacher Trechter was all smiles, for who doesn't enjoy having even his direst prophecy come true? To us who pay to have our rifles cleaned though, it was somewhat of a nuisance to find the change lever-ALWAYS set at automatic fire, for Dohs was put one of many horrible examples of the company clerk's fiendishness. But who can be blamed by the man who rushed up and fired with the wrong rifle? Nobody, unless, perhaps indirectly, his date of the previous night. Names in this case are witheld by request.

"Handsome Adolph's" final blow was delivered via a cute little "easy but comprehensive" exam. "Simply touch on the high spots, gentlemen" were the instructions, but after hearing the approved solution, which read like an essay, we'd like to know just what high spots consist of. We say read advisedly, for Handsome Adolph himself had to thumb through voluminous notes in its delivery.

Some of the best work on the ranges so far has been done by Sauer and House, two newly made fathers. What wonders can be accomplished with a happy frame of mind! Will someone kindly find out and report how this happy fatherly feeling can be stimulated in a bachelor? It generally seems to have the reverse effect.

By the time of publication, work on the Machine Gun will be completed, except for the actual firing. This leaves us with but seven more weapons to go—what a snap! Wonder if Captain "Machine Gun" Kelly's hair will have grown out by the time the course in weapons is completed? For two weeks his haircut has been under close observation, and still it holds its first brilliant lustre. Appar- persons would write in their views train. ently the cuppers way up to the top of the crown, lished, a vote taken on the best defileaving but a small rug thereon to cushion the seat of the headgear. Perhaps the cut would not be so noticeable, but for the fact that it contrasts so sharply with an otherwise natty appearance, especially the boots, which are trotted out only for the edification of students, and other grand occasions.

Most of us are wondering what Major Dutch Cota's forte is going to be, if any? So far he has played second fiddle in the other courses, rather a jack of all trades, but surely a major must have some specialty. Is it bayonets, hand grenades, or what? At any rate we are looking forward to his course with great anticipation, for Dutch is quite a boy, and has a semi-indifferent attitude which is very endearing.

At present Major Cota and Cap tain Cummings are the musketry Czars. Friday the class was out getting a dose of range estimating, and received a good example of it from the Captain. A stake had been set out 300 yards from a certain object, but was lost in the tall grass. Captain Cummings appealed to the boys for help, showed them its approximate location, and instituted a diligent search. After half an hours aimless wandering, said stake was located 30 yards closer to the object than said instructor had estimated. Quick now, with the approved "Range Estimating Error Percentage Computing Chart," and figure out the score on this. Thirty yards off at three hundred gives what? Will someone else please dope this out. Anyhow our captain sports the niftiest ten gallon hat on the reservation. What a peak, what curves, what coloring,—ah, What

A Man! Just as soon as he learns that home study assignments are meant to fill out the weekly schedule only, and are not to be taken seriously, he'll be okey.

A strange and barbaric salutation has been developed by certain members of the first platoon. It is accomplished by placing one foot eighteen inches in front of the other, rising on the toes, with one hand on the hip and the other on the back part of the neck, twisting the head to one side, and gracefully calling "YooHoo, Jack". The response is given by skittish Jack Joyce in his own inimitable and charming manner. Another custom has to do with Rex Andrews. Very little can be said on this, beyond the Rex's reaction, which is a sudden straightening of the body, accompanied by a sudden scream or bleat. This noise, once heard, can never be forgotten, due ener, but is rather difficult of description.

Much has been said on the subject of "nice girls" since the class has arrived on the post, but there appears to be a great variation in meaning, according both to the individual using the term, to the time and occasion, and to the listener. In order to get a uniform meaning into this then at the Benning end, start walkphrase, (all things connected with the army should be uniform), it is trail to Rainbow's end. This was one thought to be a good idea if various on the subject. These could nition, and the whole question settled. Thus if you are told to bring a nice girl to a party, there need never be any hesitation on your part as to just what type is wanted. Excess conversation is avoided, and future embarrassment saved.

Our citation for the week's best exhibition goes to student Mitchell, I P. for his fine rendition of immediate action Tuesday afternoon. When a volunteer was requested brother Mitchell stepped up at once, and amidst the plaudits of his comrades, went through the entire ritual. Not the cut and dried method either. but with many fine and breath taking flourishes, proving that his own great initiative had yet to be crushed sions whose main result was to proby the many hours of tedious drill.

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Oct. 9.—When we fired our opening gun over a month ago we promised to keep one eye on the Advanced Class and the other on the post as a whole in order to give due publicity to news worthy happenings. As the weeks passed we realized keenly that insofar as the second part of our platform was concerned we were slipping. The work of a student sometimes leaves little time to gather the choice morsels necessary to enliven a column but this week we step from our role of student columnist long enough to tell this one on our Great White Father, Pete Bonham.

It seems that the better half of the Bonham menage took off for Atlanta last Friday on an after-payday shopping spree as Benning wives are wont to do, paternal objections to the contrary notwithstanding. Before leaving she delivered to her normally during her absence the period from might come and get her and her bundles. Pete, being a dutiful spouse, faithfully promised.

Now Friday for Pete had been a full day. His two-fold duties as father-confessor to Advanced Classites and as a tactical teacher should have try was thrown into turmoil and been enough for one day despite the fact that he had made no plat- cal papers told the tale. War had been form dissertation plus the fact that declared and Leonard answered the he had had his usual ten o'clock call of his country. June, 1917, found S. C., and later received orders that coffee at Dowdall's Tayern, But listening to the world series-that afternoon had sapped what vitality remained and the end of the day found Just three months after Private Pistol Pete in a rather fagged our Chitwood had enlisted he was apcondition. So much so that after an pointed corporal, Company clerk of early supper he decided to take a

The other members of the Bonham household are Pete Junior and the maid. But young Pete had hied him. Corporal Chitwood's services. In as chief of the personnel section at the Polo Club and the maid after the Supply Company of the 11th and ever since. He is regarded as a hufinishing the dishes had left for the presence was confined to the physical. By the time it first rang his nasal accompaniment had shifted into high. And as it continued to ring steadily Mrs. Pete's behest in the depot telephone booth his crescendo was cer- their necessary training preparatory on his records. tainly crescendoing if we know our music. Pete by that time could have sawed through a four-by-four, knot and all.

Considerably later in the evening the sleeping major was awakened by footsteps in the house. He called out, "Is that you son?" but no answer came back. In a louder tone he challenged again this time with to its electrifying effect on the list the name of the maid but still no answer. Finally as he decided that it was time to investigate, in walked Mrs. Pete ready to explode. No amount of apologizing then or later could make up for the fact that she with all her bundles and packages had to navigate alone to the Broadway bus station, wait an hour or more for the next Benning bus, and ing all over again on the long, long situation that didn't depend upon the

> In last week's column we stated that the school first breaks you in, then it breaks you down. Having rid ourselves of this we thought we had said something. But after the week just passed we believe that we failed to complete the picture. The school by this time had not only broken us down but it had taken the remaining pieces, shaken them singly and collactively, arranged them carefully on the ground and then proceeded to flatten each one with a pivoted heel. First the monograph storm that by this time had bit with all its fury Then between breathing spells a heavy logistical cyclone cracked down that had us all reeling. To finish matters came the long afternoon riding ses-

> > (Please turn to page 5)

SATELLIT

Sgt. Leonard N. Chitwood, "Human Almanac," Holds Important Position In Headquarters Staff At Fort Benning

Up in good old Tennessee where the Cumberland plateau extends for miles along the beautiful East Tennessee valley the well-known character Master Sergeant Leonard N. Chitwood, who will be illustrated in this article, was born in the thriving town of Tullahoma, nine miles southwest of Manchester, Coffee County, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

As a youth Leonard graduated from the Fitzgerald and Clark Preparatory School in Tullahoma with excellent marks and went to work for the Campbell and Dann Manufacturing Company. While attending prep school young Chitwood was a thorn in the side to many opposing gridwell-domesticated other half the fi- iron warriors with his devastating ral injunction that whatever he did line plunges, for he played quarter back on the school eleven. The coach 7 p. m. to 8 p. m. should be reserved at the Fitzgerald and Clark Preparaat home plate to await a phone call tory School was Wallace Wade, now from her at the station so that he head coach at Duke University. While with the manufacturing concern he did clerical and general office work and as the old saying goes, was the apple of hte boss's eye.

Later, when the then Mr. Chitwood had reached the age of 21 the counstrife: blaring headlines in the lothe embryo soldier garbed in the olive drab and receiving his first of the Infantry School. training at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. Company B, 11th Infantry. His past He held this job for three years and clerical experience was a boon to in 1924 was placed in charge of the him and request after request came filing. Another three years passed nouring in the Company office for and Sergeant Chitwood was designated self to the younger set's dance at January, 1918, he was transferred to Post Headquarters, where he has been promoted to the grade of sergeant. evening. The only living soul in the In April of the same year the regi who can tell you on the dot almost house when the telephone rang on ment received orders to sail for schedule was Pete Senior and Pete's France and on the 24th left on th Leviathan. The Eleventh, a part of th great 5th Division reached France on the 2nd of May and were garrisoned at Brest and later at Vosges Sector, Alsace Lorraine where they received to engaging in actual combat in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne fensives in the fall of the year. Sergeant Chitwood was in charge of the supplies of the Battalion Unit and on numerous occasions and under very trying conditions kept his organizations supplied with rations and other essentials necessary to the combatant outfits.

For the excellent performance of these duties Sergeant Chitwood received commendation from General Thomas B. Dugan, commander of the Tenth Infantry Brigade, A. E. F. It reads: "During the St. Mihiel Of-September 13 to 16, 1918, fensive. and the Meuse Argonne Offensive. October 14th to November 11, 1918, Sergeant Leonard N. Chitwood showed great courage and bravery by keeping the men in the front lines supplied with rations under most trying conditions. Sergeant Chitwood's devotion to duty is an inspiration to all of his subordinates.

Sergeant Chitwood was discharged overseas in May 1919 as a sergeant "Excellent". Shortly with character afterward he returned to the States with the Eleventh and the Unit took up station at Camp Dix, N. J., and later at Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga.

For the purpose of demobilization he was transferred to Camp Jackson. sent him to Fort Benning, the Home

Sergeant Chitwood's first assignment after coming to the "Battalion of Specialists" was as an assistant in the file room at Post Headquarters. man almanac, the man of the minute, any information regarding personnel of the garrison that you might want

Sergeant Chitwood has passed what is termed the half way mark, starting on his seventeenth year in the service and hasn't one black mark

The Old Schoolhouse

A dull week—only twice would they let us stay until five. Once they even made us go home at 3:30! Not a single report on Adolph, either.

Which makes it very tough on columnists. We could elaborate on that 3:30 recess, though. Not that we didn't appreciate it, but we do object to Captain Matchett's illustration of a proper delaying action. If the sprightly captain had ever been in a similar polition, he'd remember, that he had more important defensive measures to think of than locking the front door. And a real tactician would have had the front door locked anyway.

We do hope that the first time anything so distressing actually happens around here, someone will tell us. We sincerely hope that, the first or any other time, someone will have to Crabb and Guthrie state that the Herald doesn't have to worry about the surplus columnists. That if the old schoolmaster doesn't stop looking the other night, too. through their keyhole, there will be one less, immediately.

That map session of Captain Matchett's gave us one more bright spot, come to think of it.

a position as close as this?" A: (Sleepy voice from the last row) "It's too close."

bennie, the bedbug.

i think that i have developed some enemies. i can't imagine why and i may be mistaken, but when people began messing around in corners with a flit gun, they must be looking for someone and it might just as well be i don't see any reason for such maliciousness, all of a sudden. it must be because there are so many people in block 21 who feel that they can't stand publicity. well, i don't blame them.

if they don't stop picking on me, i'll have to transfer my operations temporarily. i wonder if i could find any good material — or victims — over aaround jimmie mathews place.

i'm going to come back thou there are a lot of myths floating around this neighborhood which i'm going to explode higher than one of major arm's stár shells, such as stoughton's chastity and smith's way with the women.

i'm going to find out why they had to practically tie chief moore to kunzig's rear bumper to get him home i may be ashamed to mention it after i do find out but my curiosity will be satisfied.

i haven't been appreciated lately, anvway. my fellow inhabitants came home those nights last week from the O: "What are the disadvantages of auto rifle range with their trousers so full of stickers that my best efforts went unnoticed.

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY (Continued from page 4)

vide the student body with a rash on the rotunda. If we never experience any of this again it will still be too soon. A Heads and Tails Week if there ever was one.

Logistics alone would have been enough to throb anybody's templets. It came faster than you could say Jack Robinson which in itself was bad enough but the original Jack Robinson had to be the one to teach it! We found out that a cereal was something else besides a breakfast food. We learned to play with blocks again. And if this wasn't enough to make us all children again in more ways than one we discovered that when the teacher said "reach" he meant "head" and when he said "clear" he meant "tail." It also de-

Cotton.

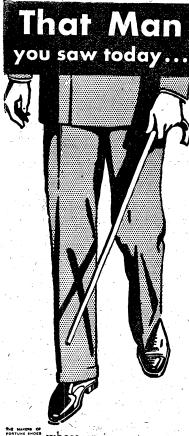

Hundreds of words each day are dispatched on the wires of this firm about cotton. This makes it possible for investors and commodity traders to keep informed on crop, weather and marketing conditions in this important commodity.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, N. W. Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

whose springy step you admired, whose shoes you wished you could afford — that man had just left our store. "I saw one of your ads about tested* Fortune Shoes," he told us. "If you don't mind I think I'll test them.

You can bet your life we didn't mind! We wouldn't mind, Sir, if you'd test them too:

* Every piece of leather that goes into fortune those is tested. Exact-ing laboratory tests in-tire the best in quality and comfort. Nothing is to chance.

bit strange.

Black and Brown Bal and Blucher Oxfords All Sizes $4.50

On Sale At Post Exchange Shoe Department

veloped that the old message center register with its nineteen columns which had been discarded, we thought, some years ago had come back to haunt us again in the form of a computation sheet. We have heard of people who reached a state of snakes and elephants after sufficient training but until last week the experience had never been a personal one. However, if the one we saw that night, with its tail travelling so much faster than its head that it cleared it first and swallowed it next is any indication we must of necessity reach the sad conclusion that someone still owes us a drink.

The Horsey Set has had its inning, culminating Friday in the final test by Cavalryman Thomas who almost ran an absence. During the earlier part of the week it is reported on good authority that Mike Halloran, one of the ardent exponents of the No Horses—No Wars argument and firm believer in the value of the horse as a relaxattor or something presented a sorry spectacle of what the wellbred horse will do when he reported for class with a stiff neck and a strained back, a result of a hurdle he took only to find on coming down that the horse wasnt there. But we digress.

Our main purpose in bringing up the subject in the first place was to acquaint the uninitiated with a proper description of the Benning Seat in which we of the beginners' platoon are still quite proficient, in spite of an excellent brand of instruction from all members of this much-abused group. The Benning Seat is one in which the toes (the rider's) are placed in the ears (the horse's). This in order to steady him (either). At the same time the wing spread (the rider) and the tailspread (still the rider) and the tailspread (still the horse) as little hindrance as possible. It is not absolutely necessary that the tail (this time the horse's) be over the dash board, as if one should be present (meaning a dash board) it should be reserved for the rider as an alternate position.

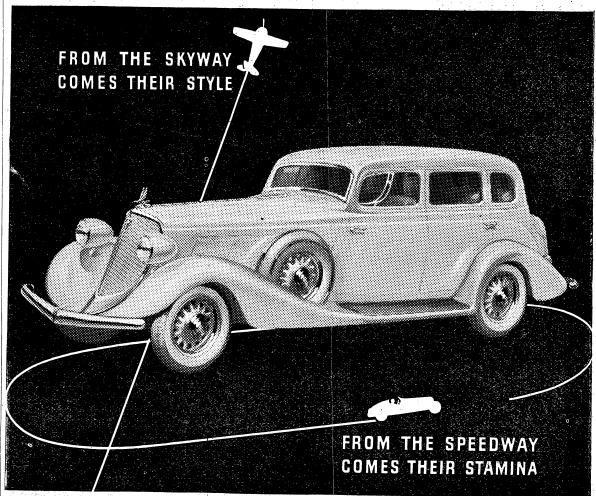

Our final thought with respect to horses, if we have any thought left after such a week is a recommendation to the Infantry Board for the development of a satisfactory anti-knock saddle. To Major Thomas, his disciples and his hay-burners our thanks for a pleasant and instructive course.

One word description of Major Thomas G. Hearn—highish.

We wish to drop for a moment our mask of attempted levity long enough to express our regrets at the departure of Cuban Captain Cordoba y Gomez who is returning voluntarily to share the dangers of his brother officers. May the situation clear soon enough to permit the return of this man who has quietly and conscientiously performed his duties under trying circumstances, a friend of us

Hot shots: Ground Loop Wads worth with his slow drawl on a withdrawl . . . The evident relief of John Student when the teacher slips on his pedagogy and names the student before asking a question . . Doc Dabney, the tactician, riverting to type when he changed RJ 501-C to RJ 501-CC . . . The description by Neal Johnson of the care taken with the British rifleman recruit in the process called "Fitting the Butt," which principle we recommend without charge for the students and saddles of future classes . . . Taking our first hurdles Friday to replace the cobwebs in our eyes with dust, at the same time shaking down the road blocks from earlier in the week . . . An engineer tool wagon is a wagon that the engineers want back and the doughboys want front but which actually goes to the one who thinks quickest . . . Logistic Jack, subway minded, exhorting the boys to follow the green line, thru a maze and daze of numbers . . Students still taking cold baths to cure the sniffles caused by cold baths . . And so to bed for the week-end (meaning both ends) with that unsung hero, the student wife, to minister to our headaches and bruises, who by this time is beginning to wonder if her spouse isn't acting just a wee

The Startling New STUDEBAKERS OF 1934

Sensationally designed! $64 Sensationally priced!

CTUDEBAKER is presenting the lowest priced fine cars in American motoring history in these startling new Studebakers of 1934!

Studebaker has stepped down into new fields of low price and stepped up traditional Studebaker quality in so doing.

The armor-plated bodies of these new Studebakers of 1934 are sensational in their beauty, strength and quiet. They go farther than any standard production bodies in the world in approximating the air-curve symmetry of the latest giant speed planes.

Appealing outside, they're utterly alluring when you open the doors ... with capacious seats, luxurious tailored upholstery and the finest fittings ever provided in cars so low priced. A new ventilating system ass real comfort—allows opening of windshield.

These new Studebakers have that stamina and brilliance of performance which enat led five 85% stock Studebakers to finish among the first twelve in the great Indianapolis Speedway race on May 30 last-and to go through that entire contest without a single adjustment or repair!

They have uncanny "mechanical brains" that make driving almost entirely automatic.

The test of driving will fully convince you that no car you can buy is nearly as good a "buy" as these startling new low-priced Studebakers. The new Dictator Six is $645. The new Commander Eight is $845. The new President Eight is $1045!

Come in today and take out one of these new Studebakers of 1934 for a convincing trial drive.

THE DICTATOR as low as $645 THE COMMANDER as low as $845 THE PRESIDENT as low as $1045

Prices at the factory. Bumpers and spare tires extra

Continuance of these amazing low introductory prices is not assured. Now is the time to take advantage of them before possible revision upward is made nec-essary by higher costs of materials.

Columbus Roberts Motor Co.

510-12-14 12th Street Phones 271-272

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Godwin Signed To Battle Griffin

Football Players Begin Hard Work

The 29th Infantry football team, only scheduled representative of Fort Benning in competition with outside gridiron teams this fall, began their heavy training for the first game last Tuesday afternoon, on their return from the five day practice hike. The 29th aggregation have a stiff schedule ahead of them, there being nine games in all gainst some of the best teams that the colleges of this section have to offer. Beginning with Bowden College, Bowden, Ga. on the night of the 20th, the "Demonstrationists" will take on successively Pensacola Naval station at Benning on the 22d; Georgia Military College in Columbus on the 28th; School of Arts, Oglethorpe University, in Atlanta on Nov. 4; Norman Park Military Academy at Benning on Nov. 11; Bruton Parker College at Benning on the 18th of Nov.; Mercer Freshmen at Benning on Nov. 25; Oglethorpe Freshmen at Benning on Dec. 2; and Bowden College at Benning first cut in the squad Moday afternoon, when the players will be reduced to about 44. Those who make the grade will be placed on special duty during the afternoons of the football season, in order that they may get in proper shape.

When your dog hits the trail and old cottontail is on his way, your chance on his way, your charge of getting him is better shooting West ern Xpert shells.

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service.

So far things look promising. It is still a bit too early in the season to make predictions, but it looks as if the main weakness will be in the tackle positions. Practically all of last year's backfield luminaries are present and a good sprinkling of line-men with experience. A list of the ball-toters that have turned out would read like a roster of all men who have been prominent in lugging in the pigskin for the last two or more years; including 'Possum Prophet, Frank Lee; Blackston, Darden, "7 1-2%" Horton, Herbie Jordan. Jack Harper, Saunders and Hayes. Several newcomers have shown good, Holloway, of last year's Alabama Freshmen who is trying for full-back, standing out. The former 'Bama line-man is a neat punter, and looks like he could hit a line.

The forward wall has a number of Benning old reliables to give it the stiffening needed. Dutch Berish, Dusty Rhodes, Red Wilson, Brute Berry-hill, and Giant Krewson, are all out in uniform, together with the minor stars of Benning's former intra-mural league and a wealth of good heavy material among the newcomers.

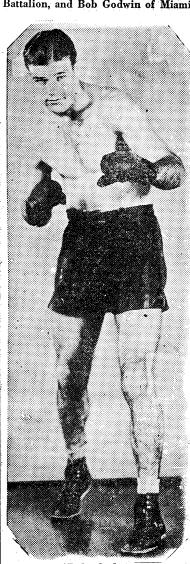

A glance through the schedule, especially those teams that Benning elevens met last year, will give some idea of what the 29ers are bucking. Bowden handed the Green Wave from the 1st Battalion a nice trimming when the Irish invaded the college town last fall. The 2nd Batts walloped the tar out of Pensacola Naval station to the tune of 34-0, but lost a hard game to Norman Park in Columbus. The remainder of the games are a dark mystery at the present time in-so-far as the opposing teams are concerned, but the "Doughboys" will have a tough row to hoe to emerge with a majority of wins.

BOY SCOUTS

The official organization of Troop 11 of the Fort Benning Boy Scouts occured last Friday afternoon. The membership remains much the same as last year, with the exception of a few boys who have moved away. However, new memberships and transfers more than make up this deficiency, The Troop has also gained a new Scoutmaster, Lt. Joseph P. Cleland, who replaces Capt. W. B. Smith, last year's Scoutmaster. The Troop was divided into permanent Patrols and officers were designated. The officers are: J. B. Bonham, Senior Patrol leader; Kenneth Hodson, Patrol leader of the Panthers, Don Leary, Patrol leader of the Flying Eagles, Claude Easley, Patrol leader of the Silver Foxes, and Bill Pearson, Patrol.
(Please turn to page 8)

Coach Decker plans to make his Corn Faces Tough Bowling Matches Opponent In Final Of Coming Fight

Fight fans of the post can get set to witness one of the greatest battles that has ever taken place in this section of the country, and undoubtedly holds prospects of being the best that has yet been shown at Fort Benning when John Corn Griffin, of the Tank Battalion, and Bob Godwin of Miami,

Bob Godwin

Fla. tangle horns in Doughboy Stadium on the night of October 25.

Griffin is getting a nice spot in this shot at Godwin, as Bob ranks 3rd in the list of lightheavies in the country, and comes of the same fighting blood that produces such fighters as the late Young Stribling, Godwin's cousin. The soldier has been yearning for a chance to prove his wares against some worth while opponent at Benning, and efforts have been made time and time again to bring Godwin or Joe Knight here for a fight. But Knight has always wanted too much money to run the risk of having his hair mussed, and Godwin has been pretty busy doing a bit of mussing on his own account throughout northern ring circles.

Griffin estarted training for the macth yesterday afternoon, having been coasting along with light workouts for some time. Heavy work will be in order for the Benning boy from now, in order to get him in the best possible shape for the match week after next. Griffin is ripe for a chance at one of Fistiana's bigshots, and is in the proper frame of mind to give the battle of his life. He wants nothing more than to be placed in the ring with some-one that will stand up and fight it out, with the best man winning, and if Godwin's record is any criterion, he will get his wish.

Godwin is due to arrive at the post ome time toward the middle of next week, as he is fighting in Savannah on the 16th, and wrote Captain Fry that he come to the post to train as soon as possible.

Open Mondav

Ten pin artists of the Infantry School will begin their season on the hardwood alleys officially on next Monday afternoon, October 16, when the Officers' League gets under way with the 29th Officers meeting the Instructors. The Enlisted Men's league will start on Tuesday with the Headquarters Battalion, 29th, meeting 2d Battalion 29th.

Arrangements for the two leagues that will compete this winter include seven teams in the Officers' League and four in the Enlisted Men's. The bowling units of the first mentioned section will include the Instructors, Headquarters Officers, 29th Officers, 66th (Tank) Officers, 83rd Officers, the Advanced and Company Officers' bowlers. The Enlisted men's league will have Headquarters Battalion and 2d Battalion 29th; Infantry School Detachment, and the 66th Infantry

Preliminary matches are being played off and on with the latest one being between the Infantry School Detachment and the Headquarters Officers on Friday afternoon. The I. S. D. which formed the main part of the team that won the Tri-City tourney last winter, have been bowling along ('scuse it, please), and turned in a score of 2837 in a practice match the other evening.

I. S. D.

Like a bad penny, sooner or later we always turn up again, which all goes to prove that you can't keep a good horse in hot water, especially if he drinks. The writing of these notes was discontinued sometime ago for the common-sense reason that the scribe had intimations that mayhem and other pleasant indoor sports of these regions was about to be committed on his personal person, and discretion is the better part of valor, in addition to being able to live

For a change, though, we are go ing to refrain, as far as Mother Nature will permit, from harping on the delinquencies and fallings from grace of members of the Detachment, and try to indite a few words of praise for some of the members who have won it in some way or another.

Before we totally reform, however, we hope someday to get up the courage to ask "Gabby" Gable the reason why he doesn't like to sit in picture shows when there is a full moon vaulting through the blue. It seems that even if "Gabby's" name had been Clark, the petite blonde would still have preferred to see a picture. The South Gawgia Lassies are like that, at times.

"Hoe-race" Campbell having refused to disclose certain pertinent information requested, this column pauses to enquire how in the name of Tucket, he disposed of the three days' rations that were issued on his recent fishing trip. 'Splain dat, pliz!

LOWER PRICES

BUY NOW

31	Ford Town Sedan	$325.00
31	Chevrolet Coach	375.00
31	Ford Sport Roadster	295.00
29	Ford Sedan	165.00
28	Buick Sedan	195.00

1929 Essex Sedan _____ 195.00 SPECIAL

1931	Commander 8 Free Wh
1.	ing Sedan	$495.00
	Rockne De Luxe Seda	n
	LIKE NEW	545.00
1931	Oldsmobile De Luxe

Sedan _____ 395.00

MANY MORE

Trade in the old car as down

Columbus Roberts Motor Company

510-14 12th St. Phone 271

WHY DO DOCTORS APPROVE

NEHI?

TRUE FRUIT DRINKS

They Are

Healthful

And

Refreshing

Nehi Orange-Nehi Grapefruit

NEHI MALTED CHOCOLATE

PHONE 1841

It's useless, because you can RENT A CAR and RIDE wherever you want to go. And you'll likely save yourself a lot of embarassment by filling your date ON TIME.

> EASY RATES GOOD CARS

> > FORD V-8

RENT-A-CARCO.

519 EIGHTH STREET

THE FLARE (Continued From Page 1)

gas, Negrotto and his motor were well buried in the bushes. The War had to be waged, so the advance continued leaving Sir Sidney stuck in the Sticks. By the time the wouldbe Observer from the Department of Experiment had walked back to the bivouac, obtained help, and extracted his car from trouble, hostilities

D O. L. S.

We thought that long ere this we would have many candidates for the Distinguished Order of the Lost Stirrup but we haven't had one qualification since the time Mary Wadsworth tried to climb a tree while mounted on Tom Finley. Two possibilities were reported to us this week but a careful investigation indicates that neither qualified. Cavorting Cam Sweeney technically qualified and broke into the hospital, but we have decided that People who play Polo are not eligible, for if we cited all Polo Players who qualified we would have our column full most Betty Welty, who received a broken leg at riding, was relieved of responsibility in the disaster when the facts in the case came out. It seems that his trucks into the stream, climbed (See article in another part of this Betty was just riding around with out and said to each truck Corporal issue on the Opening of The Infan-Betty was just riding around with the so-called Harmless Horses when one Playful Pony, heard someone in rear of it and without looking back mark "That Looey ain't so much. I to see what a charming Cutie was in range, humorously hurled his heavy hoofs to the rear and busted Betty. So we have no bona-fide candidates to date,-but just wait-the Hunt is about to begin harrassing the Hounds and then we shall see what we shall

PROTESTED PRONUNCIATION

Ten years ago we were a member of the Advance Class at this school Dinner-followed-by-the-Movies Formaand very early in the year we listen- tions. TT's host and hostess are noted to Instructors talking tactics and ed for their hospitality and the dementioning Hill" with the accent on the last syl- ro, to show his appreciation of the lable. We discovered after a week honor which had been conferred upor so that they were referring to a on him, decided to doll himself up hill which had been named after as handsomely as he could. He ac-Major A. E. Bouton, a member of the Corollegy dug out a gradual with Betts.

Class of 1908, who had been killed Uniform and fixed it all up with Betts.

Bo Dabe and Gadgets that regulation of the Provost Marshal, by classmates at West Point who were lations require. The uniform had in the student body raised a fund been made to fit TT before his reand erected a marker on the Hill. cent tour of luxurious loafing on CCC The marker is still on the reservation but was moved to a different it he discovered that the fit was sight last year and the new location close, very close. Our Hero managed christened "Bouton Hill." At the time to shoe-horn himself into the radiant of the dedication of the marker in raiment and hied himself to the 1923 Bouton's Classmates succeeded home of his host and hostess. As in educating the Instructor body in the dinner progressed, it seemed to the proper pronunciation of the name. T. T. that his clothes were contract-But with the lapse of time the old ing, so much so, in fact, that he re-incorrect pronunciation has slipped fused all sustenance after the Salback into use. Two weeks ago we ad. Dinner done, came the Cinema happened to listen in on an Instruct- Carefully our by now and others to pronounce properly the seat. Just as he lowered himself to name of a Brother Officer who was his chair the air was rent with the killed in action. The correct pronunciation is "Bough-ton" with the accent on the first syllable.

WEATHER FORECAST

The weather for the next week is sure to be Fair and Much Warmer the Post goes into wool on the 16th.

PERFECT PERFORMANCE BY PIERCE

Cannonball Thunderbolt Pierce commands the Motorized Headquarof the time. The other candidate, tically impenetrable forest through day morning in all their glory of er Practice-Makes-Perfect Pierce drove Hard Boiled Buck was heard to recan do that myself. All he does is run 'em in the ditch and say You Hunters, Horsey

IMPRESSIVE INSTRUCTOR JOINS

RIPPED-AND-TORN CLUB Tactics Teacher, a prominent personality in the First Section of the Epidemic Department, recently accepted an invitation to a Gorge and Gaze Party-you know, one of those "Boo-tawn liciousness of their dinners. Our He-Duty and when he endeavored to don or doing his stuff before a class of Teacher ensconced himself in his car students and he referred to Bootawn and drove to the Theatre. Arrived Hill. It would seem that more of an there, he carefully dismounted and effort could be made by Instructors, warily walked down the isle to his sound of ripping raiment. T. T. feared the worst-and his fears were founded on Fact. Our Hero sat through the Movies-he had to, in fact he didn't dare leave his seat until the lights were out and his car had been brought around to the side door.

HUNTING TO HOUNDS (Advertise-

It won't be long now. Beginning Sunday, October 22d, late slumberers on Sunday will cover their heads ters Company of the 2d Battalion 29th Infantry. On the recent Practice on Number one Tee will grind their March, Precision Pierce desired to teeth and groan. The air in the vigive his new truck drivers instruct cinity of the Polo Hunt Club will tion and training in trekking trucks be full of sounds from Blaring Bands, through trouble in preparation for Howling Hounds, Stamping Steeds and the night maneuver which we have cheering children. The Infantry mentioned previously in a paragraph School Hunt season is almost upon about Sir Sidney. Accordingly Pierce us and soon the Beauty and Chivled his company into a piece of prac- alry of Benning will gather each Sunwhich flowed a nice muddy stream Cerise Coats, Pink Pants, and Haughabout a foot deep. One after the other ty Horses to follow the Baying Bow-Wows over the Drag Hunt Course. "There you are. Now get it out." A try School Hunt Club). The Hunt is one institution which we can heartily recommend for the amusement of everybody, Young, Old, Hunters, Non-Crowd and Anti-Horsey Crowd. If you are fond of the Hunt you should turn out, for probably nowhere else in the country can you find a better pack of hounds, better horses, a better hunt course, or stronger scented foxes. If you are not a Hunter you should turn out and admire the enthusiasm of those who are. Bands will play and-you can partake of the Hunt breakfast and let your Cook go to

> SUCCINCT AND TO THE POINT We quote herewith a paragraph from a recent Post Circular which to our ears sounds like the judicial conference with summary courts summoning witnesses in accordance with the provisions hereof, will so coordinate and consolidate such requirements for transportation of such witnesses as to effect the maximum groupings in the minimum number of trips nsistent with the exigencies of the service and the convenience of the summary courts. Summary courts will, wherever practicable, conduct summary courts-martial trials at such times as will minimize the transportation requirements under the provisions there-

The above paragraph interests us, inasmuch as we are a Summary Court, and we think it tells us how to get a witness. If such is the case, all we want to know is—how do we get

CITATION FOR THE WEEK Our Citation for this week goes to Lieutenant M. M. Boatner and his Company of 4th Engineers for their commendable performace while on the 29th Infantry's Practice March; and for their invaluable asring work during the unti night March and Maneuver. In the language of Ben Bernie-All Youse Guys is Grand Soldiers.

> WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD MEETING (Continued From Page 1)

In January Doctor D. R. Anderson, formerly president of Randolph Macon, and now president of Wesleyan College for Women, will address the Club members of history and sociology. Doctor Anderson spoke at Benning about two years ago, and many have requested his return since then.

Mildred Seydell, leading Hearst feature writer, who conducts a column in the Atlanta Georgia will tell of her experience in newspaper work. Her talk will be entitled "Catching Cele-cautious | brities," and will feature the February entertainment.

> March has been left open tentatively, although it is expected that a lecturer, either from New York or At- entitled "World Danger Spots." lanta, will speak to the Club on Dra-

The last meeting of the year, in April, will present Lieutenant Reginald H. Kelley, one of the best public speakers at Benning, in a talk

President of the Club for the year is Mrs. Phillip S. Wood.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

RESOURCES OVER_____

----$ 600,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

What price a New Car? if you don't keep it new!

If you're. . . proud of its gleaming lines . . . of its powerful motor . . . of its quick pick-up . . . of its ultrasmartness . . . then you're wise enough to know that it takes care to keep the car that way . . . the kind of care such as only a garage like this can give it. We have the best of tools, the best of mechanics and the best of everything necessary for keeping a fine car in fine condition.

Auto Dept.

EXCHANG FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

RECOVERY—

Can be assisted by your buying only at firms displaying the blue eagle and by insisting on products manufactured under this emblem. Star Brand shoes are made under the NRA provisions and are sold in Columbus only by

SAM NEEL'S SHOE DEPARTMENT Westbrook Bldg.

You Eat

To our neighbors at Fort Benning:

The largest portion of meat served in Cafes and Hotels in Columbus is U. S. Government Inspected passing the same rigid tests as the meat served through your quartermaster at Fort Benning, but off the reservation you must be your own guardian. Inquire about the meat that your purchase. Insist on United States Government Inspected meats wherever you go. There's a reason.

The Provision Company, Inc.

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store Ex perience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHI

FURNITURE

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

BOY SCOUTS (Continued from page 7)

leader of the Beavers. Howard Clark III, was elected Troop Scribe. Any Fort Benning boys who are 12 years of age or over and would like to join are cordially invited to come to the meetings, which are held every Friday at 4 P. M.

HOWARD CLARK III, Troop Scribe.

TROOP 12

Troop Twelve, Fort Benning Boy Scouts met October 5th at the Boy Scout Cabin. Scoutmaster Lt. Meister was not present and Lt. Holly presided.

The scouts were assembled, and after the meeting opened they practised for the coming Court of Honor. Most of them worked on their Tenderfoot tests. The others practiced first aid and signaling. After a time of practice, the meeting was adjourned.

-Scribe: Frederick Ladd

GENERAL CROFT VISITOR (Continued From Page 1)

the Country Club of Columbus on Thursday; and a trip to Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala., Friday, followedd by a party at the Big Eddy Club in Columbus, in the evening. He will leave for Atlanta early Saturday morning.

GENERAL STAFF IDENTIFICATION

We are pleased to announce that we have completed dies and are now prepared to furnish this insignia.

At your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

43 East 19th St. New York

MANUFACTURERS OF MILITARY AND NAVAL INSIGNIA AND EQUIP-MENT FOR HALF A CENTURY.

THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

... which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

Excellent Curb Service

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT

POST EXCHANGE FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Author ized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

Lell me something.

what makes a cigarette taste better

HAT makes anything taste better? It's what is in it that makes a thing taste better.

CHESTERFIELDS taste better because we buy ripe tobaccos. These ripe tobaccos are aged two and a half years—thirty months. During this time the tobaccos improve—just like wine improves by ageing.

CHESTERFIELDS taste better because they have the right kind of home-grown tobaccos and Turkish Tobaccos "welded together."

We hope this answers your question.

() hesterfield

the cigarette that's MILDER
the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

FORT BENNING, GA., OCTOBER 20, 1933

26th Is Fort Benning's Fifteenth Anniversary

CONDUCTED BY PINCH-HITTER

"Better be damned than mentioned not at all." -John Wolcot.

Woe is us! E. F. R., the genial and all observant conductor of this column, has departed hence on leave of absence to recuperate from his arduous duties as Firer of the Flare. Just before departure, in his usual casual manner, he passed a buck of which we, unhappily, were the recipient. Once more we pinch hit. Once more we ask you to bear with us and to join with us in wishing E. F. R. a safe and speedy return.

O'CONNELL'S DISAPPEARING ACT

At a recent fish fry dinner at the Big Eddy Club, about ten miles above Columbus on the chocolate colored Chattahoochee, Captain Gus O'Con nell, the lord of the dungeons, was among te guests who journeyed thence in quest of the succulent cat tish. Being of a helpful nature, he offered to take three fellow guests to the party in his car. Arrived safely, each passenger of the car made careful note of the parking space in orfind his way back to his transportation. Our story now jumps to some hour later when the guests were all seated at the table preliminarily prepared to do justice to the excellent food about to be placed before them. As the french fried onions were passed to Gus he was heard to murmur thickly something about fresh air, and made a dignified exit through the French door leading to the porch. Several hours later the party broke up and the guests proceeded by various means to their respective homes. Not so, however, the occupants of Prison Officer O'Connell's car. Being of the type who enjoy Big Eddy parties they were among the last to leave. Upon proceeding to the parking space of their transportation they were surprised to find no car. They were further chagrined to see that all transportation had left except two over-crowded cars. They crowded them the more, and rode as far as Columbus where other transportation to Benning was arranged. Not until along toward morning, however. Immediate investigation disclosed the O'Connell car carefully parked in front of his quarters and the owner thereof tucked into his bed, sleeping the sleep of the conscience free. His only rejoinder in the morning was "Is my face red?"

McMANUS MANAGED-

Once more Artilleryman McManus makes the Flare. Our story this time has to do with his successful search for a maid named Lizzie. Instructions received from the general manager of his household directed him to proceed via the family gas buggy to a certain address in Columbus and bring

Continued on page 4

Colonel Frank F. Jewett, Infantry, commander of the Special Units of the Infantry School, and officer in charge of the Civilian Consrevation Corps reconditioning camp at Fort Benning, has been orderd to the 8th Infantry at Fort Moultrie, S. C., upon his relief from duty at Fort Benning. effective about November 15, according to a radiogram recived this afternoon from the War Department at Washington, D. C.,

Colonel Jewett has been on duty at Fort Benning a little over a year, having reported here to assume command of the Special Units in September 1932. His promotion to the rank of colonel came only three weeks ago, his commission dating from Oct. 1.

Colonel Jewett has been in service with the United States Army for the last twenty-eight years, beginning his military career as a second lieutenant of infantry in 1905. During one period of his service he was stationed with the 1st Infantry on the Island of Samar in the Philippines, serving with the then 1st Lieutenant Campbell King, later commander of the Infantry School, and on duty at this post when Colonel Jewett arrived.

Colonel Jewett is especially noted at Fort Benning for the efficient manner in which he handled the admin der that, come what might, he could istration of the C. C. C. reconditioning camp at the post last spring, when more than 10,000 members of that organization were processed and equipped to take up their work in the forests of the country. When the reconditioning camp was reopened at Benning Colonel Jewett was again select ed to command it. The news of his impending transfer comes on the eve of the actual opening of the camp. as the first arrivals are expected tocommand it.

Colonel Jewett's service has taken over the entire globe, from the Philippine Islands, throughout the United States, and on the battlefields of France, and he has made an enviable record for himself as an officer. During the World War he held the ranks of major and lieutenant colonel, serving with the 328th Infantry, 82nd Division, and later with the 8th Division. At the close of the war he was placed on duty at the port of embarkation, at Brest, where a large number of

(Please turn to page 8)

A few short years ago the hills to the south of Columbus resounded only to the plaintive chants of the cottonpickers or the songs of the mocking bird while the scent of the yellow iasmine filled the air; now, the boom of guns and clank of metal create a chaos of sound, and the acrid smell of burning powder brings memories of almost forgotten battles. The soldier has replaced the cotton-picker, the drill-field stands where the corn once was planted and the Christie tank roars past the long-forgotten site of the primitive cane-mill. Nothing is left of the familiar scenes of yesterday-nothing but Ol' Massa's home, standing as a reminder of the Southern glories of post-bellum days.

Today—fifteen years later, the scene is dominated by business-like buildings—by yawning excavations and by bustling scenes, all reminding that the wind-swept plain of other days is now the home of the country's greatest Infantry School, placed on October 26th, 1919, east of Columbus on the Macon Road and later moved to its present site. It has grown, far more than anyone could have suspected, and today it is nearing the final stage of its growth, when it will be one of the finest training sites in the country. In another part of this issue is printed the story of the founding and organization of the Infantry School, but one may safely say that never before has the School shown such rapid advancement or made so much progress as in the fifteen years since its inception on the banks of the Chattahoochee.

Radiomen Put On Fine Show At Fair

Fort Benning men again demonstrated their versatility last week by their work at the radio exhibit at the Fair. The boys from the Second Section, who are members of the West Georgia Amateur Radio Association. did a lot of the work incident to putt ing on the exhibit, and your reporter found one of them there, as late as ten thirty in the evening, still plugging away at one of the four transmitters

(Please turn to page 10)

Of Fort Moultrie Near Macon Road Chase October 22 Honor Recently

With the Master of the Hounds cheering the pack, the Infantry School Hunt Club will formally open its 1933-1934 season on Sunday morning, October 22, when the members of the Hunt, in full regalia, move out from the Polo-Hunt Club at 8:30 over the drag course.

The Hunt Club, one of the traditional features of social life at the Infantry School, is also one of the most unique of the many activities carried on there. Supported entirely by the members and carried on during the time that can be spared from official duties, it yearly arouses more enthusiasm among the sport-minded members of the garrison than almost any other item. All members of the Of ficers' Club of the post are eligible for the hunt although not all partic-

Let us take horse for the morning. and follow, as best an amateur might. the progress of the Hunt over the Moving out slowly behind the Mas ter of the Field Hunt, the pack well out in front in charge of the Master of the Hounds, there is time to cast an eye over the field. Officers and ladies in the traditional hunting 'pink" are present in abundance, holding the eager horses in check till the hounds strike the trail. Suddenly there is a whimper from "Middleburg", then silence. A deep bell-like note from "Dan" rings on the air. The hounds have struck, and the hunt is away.

Down the course we go, over a hedge and a stone wall, with "Mary", "Peggy", and "Bob", swift little hariers, well out in the lead, and Dan, Middleburg, and "Sir Sid" merrily singing the way. Over a Hitchcock, a double oxer, and a post and rail, sweeping up to the crest of Cook Ridge, where there is a check. We dismount for a blow, while the M. F. H. and the whippers in cast with the pack for the scent. Only a minute. for Dan Strike and we are off, along Riley Ridge and over a number of chicken coops, then down through the valley and to the water jump. Someone comes to grief, for the horse refuses, and the first "police" of the season is accomplished. Another

(Please turn to page 10)

Colonel Jewett To Founded Fifteen Hunt Enthusiasts Badges Awarded to Assume Command Years Ago At Site Are Preparing For Scouts At Court of

The Boy Scout Court of Honor, which this year is composed of fifteen senior members of the garrison, met for the first time last Saturday in the Scout Cabin to examine members of Troops 11 and 12, and pass them into higher ranks of Scoutdom.

Kenneth Hodson acquired the highest grade of those passing the exammations, being made a Star Scout. Thomas Arms was awarded a badge for marksmanship, proving himself a true son of the army. Scouts Edward Johnson, Jr., Chad Pierson, and Howard Wilson were all passed as Second Class Scouts. William Arms, John Corby, Donald Pence, Dick Snyder, and David Thomas, all were admitted as Tenderfoot Scouts.

The Court of Honor this year is composed of Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Bonesteel, Chairman; Major Albert S. Dabney, Major Harry L. Reeder, Major Phillip S. Wood, Major Frances G. Bonham, Captain Wendell G. Bevan, Captain Donald P. Spalding, Captain Geoffrey Marshall, Captain John Huling, Captain Leroy W. Nichols, Captain Eugene W. Lewis Captain Lloyd Barnett, Captain Edward C. Johnson, Lieutenant Mark M. Boatner, Jr., and Master Sergeant John Magoni, Infantry School Detachment.

Tentative dates for the meetings of the Court for the rest of the year are as follows:

Nov. 11; Dec. 9; Jan. 13, 1934; Feb. 10; Mar. 10; Apr. 14; May 12; June

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The Infantry School News blossomed forth with the Fort Benning telephone directory—in fifteen pages. (The latest opus of this nature has expanded to fifty).

The Company Officers' course formally opened with a message from General Farnsworth, former commandant and then chief of infantry, and addresses by General Gordon, commandcommandant.

The 29th Officers and ladies gave a reception for their new commanding officer, Colonel Monroe C. Keith, with General Gordon present to welcome the new 29th chief.

Morehouse College walloped the 24th Infantry to the tune of 34-6 in Atlanta, with Oliver and Williams being responsible for the lone marker of the Happy Hearts.

The 29th Infantry polo team rode rough-shod over the Artillery in a hard game that ended 7-4. Broedlaw and McClure starred for the 29th, with Shuggs and Roxberry luminaries for the Cannoneers.

Birthday Greetings

Fifteen candles on Benning's cake! Fifteen years of almost unbelievable achievement-from a tiny huddle of temporary shacks to one of the greatest posts in the United States, Benning has grown, to be the home of the Infantry School and one of the most popular posts of the Army.

On your fifteenth birthday, then, Fort Benning, congratulations from your own paper, The Benning Herald.

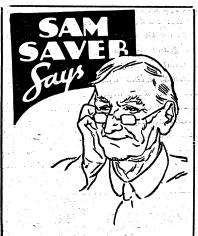

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

Woman's Club Begins Active Season With Tea At Polo Club On Sixteenth

started its eleventh year with a tea at the Polo Hunt Club on Monday, October 16th. Each year the Club gives a tea as a compliment to the new arrivals on the post, who are extended a cordial invitation to become members of the Club.

The guests were received by Mrs. George H. Estes, Mrs. Charles W. Weeks, Mrs. Phillip S. Wood the president, Mrs. William B. Wallace first vice president; Mrs. Jesse A. Ladd, second vice president: Mrs. Phillip T. Fry, recording secretary; Mrs. Oliver E. G. Trechter, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Huston P. Banton, treasurer.

Mrs. Phillip S. Wood, the new president, gave a short talk and said she hoped the new people as well as the old would support the Club and thought they would find it well

"Just give a little thought to your buying before you do it, and you'll do a lot of saving before you're through. You can get more and better merchandise by buying at the right kind of store." The Silver's kind, certainly!

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY & 11TH ST.

The Infantry School Woman's Club worth their time, as a most delightful program has been arranged for the year.

> General G. H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School, gave a welcoming address to the Club. He wished the best of luck to the Club since it contributed so successfully to the social and intellectual needs of the post, and he hoped every woman would avail herself of the privilege of becoming a member of the Infantry School Woman's Club.

The Club was fortunate having Prof. Earl Hazel give a recital. His program was one of the loveliest heard for sometime. Professor Hazel is head of the music department of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, and is a former pupil of the Russian pianist Serge Tannonsky. His program was as follows:

I-Brahms, Rhapsody, No. 1-B Mi-

- 2—Three waltzes.
- 1. Chapin—C. Minor.
 2. Godowsky—Alt Uren.
- 3. Mokrej's Valcik.

III Liszt—Rigollete (Paraphrase) After the musical program of Prof. Hazel's tea was served.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held at the Polo Hunt Club on November 6th at which time Commodore Herbert Hartley, commander U. S. N. R. and former commander of the S. S. Leviathan will speak of his experiences with his "48,000 tons of responsibility."

MISS PORTER TO WED LIEUT. WOOLNOUGH ON NOVEMBER SEVENTEENTH

Of interest throughout Army and civilian circles is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Agnes Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emerson Porter of Waycross, Georgia, to Lieutenant James Karrick Woolnough, son of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. James B. Woolnough of Fort Benning. The wedding is to take place on November 17th at Waycross, Georgia. Lieut. Woolnough Military Academy with the class of 1932. Since his graduation he has been stationed at Fort Benning with the 29th Infantry. Plans for the wedding will be announced in the near

29TH INFANTRY DANCE TO BE CONTRACT BRIDGE TOURNA-HELD AT POLO HUNT CLUB MENT TO BE HELD AT OFFI-FRIDAY

The Polo-Hunt Club will be the cene Friday evening of a dance given by the officers and ladies of the 29th Infantry regiment. The guests have been invited at nine o'clock and dancing will continue until twelve. During the evening a small receiving line will be formed, consisting of Colonel and Mrs. William E. Persons, Major and Mrs. William H. Hobson, Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Purcell, Lieut. and Mrs. David A. Gray and Lieut. Benjamin T. Harris. During the evening the 29th Infantry orchestra will furnish the music for dancing. The guest list will include the officers and ladies of the regiment, former members of the regiment and their guests and escorts. Several informal affairs are being planned to precede the

LIEUT. COL. AND MRS. CHAFFIN ENTERTAIN MEMBERS OF DEB-UTANTE SET AT DINNER PRE-CEDING DANCE

Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin will be the hosts Friday evening at their attractive quarters when they will entertain members of the debutante set at an informal dinner preceding the 29th Infantry dance which will be held at the Polo-Hunt Club. Enjoying the Chaffin's hospitality will be Lieut. and Mrs. Earl A. Macherey, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter A. Huntsberry, the Misses Nell Chaffin, Esther Kelly, Mildred Briggs, Athleen Munson, Nana Seeley, Marguerite Moore, Maxine Rife, Mary Wadsworth, Betty Williams and Kenneth Kendall and Lieutenants Carl L. Westlund, Lauren W. Merriam, Josenh B. Crawford, Audrey D. Smith, Thomas R. Stoughton, Orville W. Mullikin, Raymond C. Brisach, John A. Cleveland, Henry B. Kunzig, Ephraim M. Hampton and Sidney C. Wooten.

CAPT. AND MRS. ROBLES ENTER-TAIN FOR GENERAL AND MRS. MALONE AT THURSDAY EVEN ING SUPPER DANCE

Maj. General and Mrs. Paul B. Malone, who are the house guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Orryl S. Robles were the honor guests Thursday evening when they were entertained by the Robles graduated from the United States at the Thursday evening supper dance Military Academy with the class of at the Officers' Club. Covers were laid for forty guests.

> GENERAL AND MRS. MALONE EN-TERTAINED AT INFORMAL RECEPTION

> Among the many delightful affairs which have been held in honor of Major General and Mrs. Paul B. Malone and their daughter, Gertrude, was the informal reception which was held Wednesday evening by Mrs. Melissa Reiss of Columbus. Throughout the house and on the table lovely bowls of orange and yellow chrysanthemums were used as the ffective decorations. About twenty guests were invited for eight o'clock to meet the honor guests.

MISS ATKINS ENTERTAINS AT DINNER PRECEDING 29TH IN-FANTRY DANCE

Miss Harriotte Atkins will be the hostess Friday evening when she will entertain several of her friends at a dinner preceding the 29th Infantry dance. The guest list will include: Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Pierce. Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Bowen, Lieut. and Mrs. George P. Howell, Lieut. and Mrs. Lynn E. Brady, Lieut. and Mrs. Clayton H. Studebaker, Miss Katherine Lemly, Lieut. Ernest F. Easterbrook and Lieut. Arthur L.

WINTER GRASS (Italian Rye) $7.50 per 100 Lbs.; 10 Lbs. $1.00. Valley Seed Co. 1041 Broadway.

MENT TO BE HELD AT OFFI-CERS' CLUB

Of interest to all contract bridge lovers at Fort Benning and Columbus will be the mixed-pairs bridge tourney that will be hld Monday evening October 23rd, beginning at eight o'clock at the Officers' Club. This will be the first of a series of tournaments that will be held this Winter. The officers in charge of the tournaments and who form the Bridge Committee of the Club are: Capt. Arthur E. Burnap, Lieut. Dwight N. Rosenbaum; Lieut. Lynn A. Brady and Lieut. George P. Howell. Bridge players from Fort Benning and Columbus are cordially invited to join these tournaments. The entrance fee will be fifty (Please turn to page 9)

Dr. R. H. Brown

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Phones Office 4108

Res. 1153

The Cabin

The Place

(In the Waverly Hotel)

For

Fine Foods

PARTY FAVORS

TOASTED NUTS

MINTS

HOME MADE CANDIES NUTS AND FIGS

MITCHELL'S 1204 BROADWAY

Phone 1085

House of 100 Candies

AVOCADOS

FANCY FRUIT

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY

COLLINS BAKING COMPANY

- 1. New plant completed four years ago.
- 2. At that time we had eighteen employees. Now we have thirty-six. Over one hundred people derive their livelihood from the bakery.
- We have an annual payroll of over $35,000, most of which is spent in the City of Colum-
- We pay over $10,000, taxes and licenses to the City of Columbus, Muscogee county, State of Georgia.

COLLINS BAKING COMPANY

We appreciate the loyalty of our friends.

IMPROMPTU PARTIES

Are made all the more enjoyable when the host has had forethought enough to anticipate their needs. The Grocery department has at all times a complete stock of all party necessities, and you are invited to buy yours here.

Grocery Dept.

H A N G \mathbf{T} E X C FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

DEPENDABILITY PLUS ECONOMY

WHEN YOU WANT SOMETHING YOU CAN DEPEND ON—THE SIX-BOX IS YOUR ANSWER!

You can depend on the SIX-BOX for convenience and economy and you can depend on Coca-Cola for flavor and refreshment whenever you open a bottle. It is by rigid standards and it always maintains its flavor under every condition. The SIX-BOX sells for only

Plus Small Deposit

Ask anybody, and he'll tell you that Coca-Cola is his favorite drink. It's won its place through its delicious and refreshing flavor.

SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

1919

was a great year for the Infantry, for on October 26th of that year, the Fort Benning-to-be had its beginning. It has grown now, nearly to its full stature, and it has fulfilled the promise in its earlier years.

1888 was a great year for us, for in that year this business was founded. It too, has grown, so much so that it is now the leading clothing house for men in Columbus. It has established an unbeatable record for service and cooperation at all times.

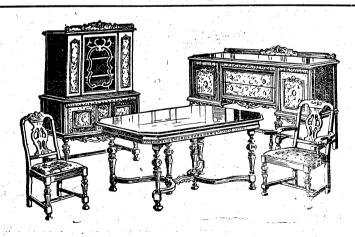

FUTURE YEARS

may they hold as much mutual benefit and interest for each of us as they have in the past, and may our relations grow even closer and more cordial during the next fifteen years!

Hofflin & Greentree

Columbus' Leading Clothiers

VISIT OUR BOYS' SHOP

WE KNOW IT'S HARD

i... to believe that Fort Benning has been here for fifteen years—but that's what the calendar tells us, and we offer our congratulations! We are sure that the future holds much in prospect for the post, and we sincerely hope for an even greater expansion than ever. And we invite you to visit our store—one that has always pleased.

B. L. PENNELL

FURNITURE COMPANY

1249 Broadway

Phone 4618

IT SHALL BE NAMELESS

Was last Saturday a bad day for the 'horsy crowd"? Echo answers, loud and clear "It certainly was." Could it be taht Betty Welty started a jinx to working? At any rate, the handsome Provost Marshall, one Captain Funk is roaming around with a beautiful black eye, and a face so swollen that he certainly does not look like the Post Adonis of yore. All because his horse threw back its head and gave him a nasty blow (at least, that's his story). Of course it might have been worse . . . it would have been sort of bad for the Chief of Police to be 'policed.' Or would it have been fitting? But, be that as it may he is certainly getting a lot of kidding . . . of course, having just been married a few weeks its easy to guess what it would be. Then little Katie Pence couldn't make up her mind whether she wanted to ride a horse or go swimming in the Upatoi, and the horse evidently did not care for such goings on at all, so she did get policed, and in the ensuing melee the horse gave her a thorough face massage with his hoofs so that HER face was not red . . . but black and blue. Then, imagine our surprise when we saw Athleen Munson riding up in front of gallant Tommy Stough ton . . . both on the same horse is what we are trying to say. Her horse just got ready to go home, and left Athleen there. All this with the season just starting too.

Well, the younger generation has a champion at last . . . and no less important personage than the Post Commandant. He says we are all right, and that he isn't worried about the future. That is what he said at the Woman's Club Monday.

The Artillery Club "Destruction Party" was certainly one of the best. The charming bachelors who make up the club membership outdid themselves, and really a good time was had by all. It's too bad that some of the directors of the Dramatic Club were not present, for there certainly was a display of real talent as part of the evening's amusement. One of the high lights of the evening was good old Daniel Boone Walker, all dressed up in his hunting coat.

And speaking of hunting it seems that some of the post personnel nearly went to a 'coon hunt' Saturday night. A coon hunt de luxe at that. The sponsor of the hunt, a casually met civilian, promised them a coon which would be treed right on the road . . and within an hour. You see the crowd was homeward bound from the Cotillion Club dance, and the girls rather felt that perhaps . . just perhaps . . . they were not dressed for the jungles. But it fell thru. Shame too, it seemed such a good idea at first.

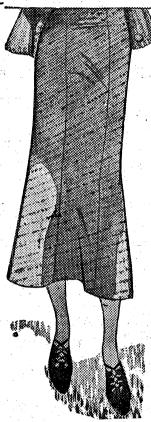

We understand that several of the post debbies are trying to figure out some way to have a slight injury that won't hurt much, and won't disfigure them, so they can get into the hospital. Betty Welty is having such a swell time, and getting so much attention . . . that's the reason.

There's a rumor in the air that two interesting engagements are soon to be announced. Wonder if you can guess who . . . or do you know?

Just a little worried about our friend Benny. Even if he does say sarcastic things about us, still our tender heart would not allow him to be hurt. But there is a large and lusty roach about . . . and was just wondering if it could possibly be archy. Looked every where for Mehitabel, and while Benning has no dearth of cats, there was none with the look of knowing life and love (Please turn to Page 5)

Let's be CASUAL a while

It's mighty nice to talk about (and still nicer to wear) the opulent fashion of the Mae West era; but really now, wouldn't Mae look absurd on a fairway, or smashing a clean ace over the net? . . . So let's drop Mae for a while and go thoroughly casual for a change.

Twin Sweaters turned out to be the sweetest sport dream of some fashion designer's life. These have a slip-over sweater and separate cardigan. In Junior sizes up to 16 and larger sizes from 34 to 40, they come in Autumn's most sporty colors.

$3.95
Second Floor

Separate Skirts mix well with any sort of jacket or sweater. And the best part is, they furnish so many changes of costume for so little expenditure. All-wool in solid colors and bright Autumn tweeds. Sizes 26 to 32.

$3.95
Second Floor

Fabric Gloves get a hand in the fall sport activities for both spectator sports and active wear. In tweed and waffle weaves, either plain or with gay Scotch plaid cuffs. Black, brown and navy.

$1.25 to $1.95 Main Floor

Scarves play an important part in keeping one casual and healthy during the crisp, brisk days of autumn. Kirven's has them in wool and in wool and silk combined. Roman stripes and Scotch plaids.

$1.00

Main Floor

KIRVEN,

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Phone 556

Columbus, Georgia

VOLUME III OCTOBER 20, 1933 NO. 26 L. C. Kunze_____Publisher A. F. Kunze
Felicia C. Howell Society Editor Sports Editor

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

BY MAJOR HOMER L. CONNER, Medical Inspector

POISONOUS PLANT SPRAYS

It is well to know that a danger exists in the eating of fruit and vegetables that are sprayed or dusted with insecticides.

There is a constant war going on for the consumption of all planted crops between men and insects.

Before modern chemical science began to function it seemed that the insects were bound to win the battle.

Previously to 1860 the only chemicals used to combat insects were nicotine, tobacco dust and hellebore. Then paris green was introduced to control the potato bug. Since that time arsenic compounds of various sorts have been used in increasing amounts. Today practically all market fruits and vegetables are treated with some poisen, lead or calcium arsenate being the most common. In this country during the year 1929 fifty eight million pounds of these two chemicals were used to combat insects.

The danger of poisoning from lead or arsenic has resulted in a search for insecticides that will just as well kill insects but which will not effect

Throughout the world various commissions have considered the greatest amount of lead and arsenic that can be left on fruit and vegetables without there being danger of poisoning to the human consumer.

In April, 1933 the Food and Drug Administration announced the figures 2 parts per million for lead and 1.4 parts per million for arsenic as the amounts of these drugs allowed. Amounts greater than these figures are unsafe and if found on foods during interstate commerce are a cause for destruction of the food.

The Government and fruit and farm industries have for years been searching for means and methods to prevent this danger to human health or life.

Today there is no fear of acute poisoning from fruit or vegetables that are obtained from the fruit or vegetable packing industries. Careful washing with acid solutions has removed that danger.

These acid washing methods are not as a rule carried out by the small producer of fruits or vegetables.

It is therefore a wise precaution for everyone who buys fruit and vege tables taht are raised near-by to carefully wash them before eating cooking them.

Strip off and destroy the outer layers of lettuce, cabbage and similar vegetables. Play safe.

Reflections Of A Student

Fort Benning, but it's just a pain half a mile away, under their own in the er, lower anatomy to certain momentum, with that cocky little enerstwhile lucky students, for the blow has fallen, and everyone must move to town to make way for the new construction. That is, everyone except the bachelors, but then they don't count anyway. However be not too dismayed. There's nothing like a good old house hunt to pep up the system, and take one's mind off the cares of life. Don't forget, though, while asking about an ice box, stove etc., to make sure that a complete lawn cutting equipment is in the basement. Remember the Commandant's hint on outdoor police, as this will give you something to do on those deadly Saturday mornings. Now is the time for all good wives to come to the than six months.

Long has that little train of green cars done its duty by God and Country, being pushed and pulled hither and thither about the countryside without a word of complaint. Now Friday the thirteenth dawned clear and bright, an auspicious morning for great events, and our tiny train took the cue. So-o-o, after the first platoon had disembarked at the top of avis Hill, the engine coupling was quietly broken, and off down the grade the cars started, taking a greatly perturbed crowd of runts on one grand ride. Of course the QM enamount of puffing and snorting, the

It might be six million dollars to cars reached the bottom of the hill, gine still a great many yards behind. The cheers of the first platooners were really heartfelt.

Tuesday the class enjoyed a very pleasant morning's canter at Major Wadsworth's terrain exercise. Incidentally the horse had far more exercise than the terrain, but that's immaterial. For many the outing was merely a refreshing relaxation from a siege of lectures, but an earnest few applied themselves assiduously to the task at hand. To these a palm and star are awarded, for without their participation, critiques would certainly turn into the most embarrassing inquisitions. Since three fourths of the aid of their spouses-prove you're time is required to settle inter-naworth more than a horse, and at poleon disputes, there is little for Mr. least lay the bath mat yourself! And Average student to worry about. Take in the midst of your troubles, just for example the hot argument on think of Ralph Nelson, who is about whether or not machine guns can go hula dancers, adepts in the art of to police his fourth house in less out of action in thirty seconds or thirty minutes, carried on by a couple friend, Burns Beall, deserving of of advanced class enthusiasts. Started by an innocent statement, but fanned by the fires of conviction, these two shortly were barking at each other with foam flecked lips and bloodshot eyes. It took all of our gentle major's persuasive powers to separate the combatants, and just in the nicotine, too!

Some of our more ambitious classmates journeyed in to view the great Chattahoochee Fair last week, probably to get a hint on how to solve some of the academic department's "County Fair" examinations. Sparky Baird, magician and golfer extraordigineer didn't wake up until a minute nary, stopped the show in one place or so later, and despite a tremendous by stealing a fakir's (faker's) thun-(Please turn to page 5)

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, October 16.-

Thoughts of an Advanced Class student while strolling: Our nomination for oblivion-the sweet young thing in the beginners' riding platoon who, when asked whether she wanted a flat saddle or one with a horn, re-plied that the flat saddle would do since she did not expect to ride in traffic . . . Students still afflicted with spots before the eyes from an overhaunt us in the form of a moving tion. block . . . Struggling dazedly to move a column of marching troops on Monday from Gettysburg to Plainview only to find that on Wednesday we had to turn them around and march them back again thus prompting us to suggest that, until the commander of troops makes up his mind just which war he is fighting, students he excused from further annovance . . . Con certina wire is so called because it can be put up by ear . . Fretting unnecessarily trying to speck the details of construction of tactical wire, well knowing that our results in Ditch-Digger Heileman's exam will afford him ample opportunity to replace the gooseberry with a razzber ry . . . Logistic Jack Robinson, acting on the erroneous assumption that monographs were to be turned in Monday, giving us a four-hour homework problem that almost ruined our already frantic attempts to submit our monographs just under the wire. necessitating nightly 3 a. m. instead of 1 a. m. sessions. After through this we fear that if Major Robinson saw us in Russ Pool go ing down for the third time his idea of a rescue would be to heave us an anchor . . . We strongly suspect that the person responsible for last week's schedule spends his spare time picking wings off flies, the while chuckling fiendishly and remarking that he hasn't had so much fun since his grandmother's funeral.

Our nomination for obscurity-the major at the parade-ground demonstration of a war strength battalion who, despite the assistance of a high powered loudspeaker truck, purred so confidentially into the microphone as not to be heard by the classes standing within a fifty-foot range of his soap-box . . . Outhouses should not be erected in the presence of the enemy for purposes of camouflage . . Tactical Matchett winding up an interesting "One Hour With You" with an appropriate comparison of a protected withdrawal from the stand point of the defense . . . Reference the same story it would be unfair if the attack committee, holding forth later in the year, should neglect to cover the principles involved from the viewpoint of the attacker, with particular reference to the proper height in feet and inches of the back yard clothes line, a la Pick-and-Shovel Heileman . . . Tactician Gilchrist registering with another bon mot, this time at the parade ground demonstra tion when he announced that the headquarters platoon contained an armorer and a barberer . . . After visiting the fair purely from a detached and impartial viewpoint the happy thought came to us that an efficient rear guard commander might reinforce his troops with a platoon of covering movements . . . Our good honorable mention in that "by a display of great will-power and selfcontrol he did manage to restrain himself for a period of one week from coming to the assistance of the instructor" . . . The same likeable Heileman by withholding his reply to the major's question until said major had uncovered his chart and displayed the correct answer . . . Spending two hours on Father-of Twins Dabney's medical exam, including one hour and a quarter devoted solely to staking out the problem . . . The

(Please turn to page 10)

(Continued From Page 1) THE FLARE

Mac was on his way. In due course, he returned triumphantly escorting Lizzie. But, what's this? His Lizzie was long and rangy and not the prop- and while he stuck to it during the er party a-tall. Must have been a couple of compensating errors. The remark that he was certainly glad E. address given him was erroneous. He made a slight mistake and didn't go have our readers feel that the pubto the address given him. But, being lic is not getting the news just beone of these birds who believe in cause E. F. R. is taking a rest. We accomplishing what he sets out to dose of monographs, medicos and do, he went to SOME address and about a horse. You may believe it or marches . . . The parallelogram of got A Lizzie. He can not understand not. Personally, we do not feel that our high school days returning to why his was not an approved soluhence a dusky handmaiden of broad man-about-town but presently the most but short proportions Yclept Lizzie. recent local bridegroom, appeared As promptly as could be expected Monday morning with a badly swollen, discolored and partially closed right eye. Pressed for an explanation he had his story fixed up right well cross examination, he was heard to F. R. had gone on leave. We can not ask you to hear his story—something a bride of such short standing as Mrs. Funk could have developed so soon such accurate aim.

LATEST DISCATORIAL LURE DEMONSTRATED

We ask you to feast your eyes left of the picture is none other than Lieutenant Colonel R. H. (Scipio) Kelley, erstwhile Roman Senator and present Director of the Department Experiment. This amateur but highly efficient Isaak Walton has been endeavoring to interest his test officers with a new fish lure but failed to elicit from them the required degree of interest. Being convinced, however, of the efficacy of his invention, he started out recently to prove its worth. His success is mirrored in the above picture. The catch (believe it or not) was made at SOPCHOPPY, Florida. Now comes the climax of our tale. The fish were caught with a lure consisting of lightning bugs in a bottle, entirely surcrounded by fish hooks. Sounds fishy, you say, but we have it from the own mouth of the proud inventor. If more proof is needed we refer you to the Post Exchange Officer and his Steward who were eye and ear witnesses to the noble test. Needless to say, The Department of Experi ment, had added to its list of projects, one entitled: "The catching, matching and hatching of fishing fire flies."

BLACK-EYED BRIDEGROOM— Benning's Police Chief, Provost E. F. R. returns. Marshal Funk, lately bachelor and

THE STAFF AT LEISURE-

Since about the middle of May, we have all heard much about how upon the magnificent string of bass the officers at Post Headquarters were pictured above. The fisherman at the struggling under the additional burden of the work incident to the CCC program. The following notes found on the desk of one of the harder working staff officers on Saturday morning, are indicative of how he spent a hard, hard Friday afternoon:

> SOCIAL ITEM-The Chief has come The Chief has went Come again Chief When con-ven-i-ent.

BOOK REVIEW-

I sing this simple little song This plaintive bit of verse Merely to note the days are long And so is 'Anthony Adverse'

STYLE NOTE-Chilly weather's on No Russ Pool waters Feminine charms have gone Into winter quarters.

CLIPPING-

Twas in a restaurant they met Romeo and Juliet, He had no cash to pay the debt

So Romeo'd what Juli'et. Anon.

Ho! Hum! Only fifteen days until

"PINCHHITTER".

SATELLITES

Presenting This Week: Joe Lambert, "Sergeant At Law," of the Headquarters Staff, One of the Best.

By CHARLES T. KEPLEY

furnishes more things than long-horn- which most men consider ample reed cattle and bad-men to the nation ward for 10 to 15 years' service with of which it is a part, as shown by the the colors, and returned to the states. presence of Master Sergeant Joe C. Upon debarking on the continent he Lambert in the United States Army, immediately reenlisted on August 16, Sergeant Lambert, a native of the 1928 for duty with the 29th Infan-Lone Star State, was born in Texark- try at Fort Benning. After spending ana, Texas, on February 23, 1908 and some time with this regiment Sergeant doughboy outmaneuvering Engineer in that fair city he received his early Lambert was transferred to the Infaneducation. A graduate from the Tex- try School Detachment of the same arkana High School, he pursued a station and remained in this unit un-1-year course at the Texas A & M Col. til the termination of the three year lege before embarking upon his cal period under which he was serving. reer as a soldier.

On June 25, 1925 Sergeant Lambert made the first step toward his present profession when he enlisted for the army and was sent to the Panama Canal Zone as a member of the 11th protesting howls of the majority of Engineers and Headquarters Detachment, Panama Canal Division. After serving three years and four days in Texas, largest state in the Union, this foreign possession he was discharged as a Staff Sergeant, a grade

On the second hitch this soldier further advanced his rating by being discharged as a Technical Sergeant-the next to highest rank attainable in the present army without being a graduate of the United States Military Academy-and again reenlisted in this

(Please turn to page 10)

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Date For Griffin-Godwin Battle Is Nearing

High Spots In The tory. Game Scores as Follows: Games of The Week

The Infantry School Detachment bowling team defeated the Headquarters officers aggregation Friday afternoon in a practice game bowled on the Academic Alleys prior to the opening of the regular winter league, by the score of 2695-2373.

The Greencord Bowlers turned in the highest game score this season in the first of the three games bowled when Davis, Heckert, Trott, O'Blennis, and Glenn scored 1010 to the officers' 755, O'Blennis with 218 in this game made the high individual score for the match.

Cerne and Vallo of the I. S. D. bowled in the place of Trott in the second and third games, low man dropping out. Lewis, of the Officers, replaced Hammond in the second and Fry in the third for the losers.

High match score was made by Glenn of the I. S. D., whose consist-

The Shell that Gets the Game

You can depend on the Western Xpert shell to back up good gun pointing and bag the birds. Hard-hitting. Good, close patterns. Patented new Western Seal-Tite moisture-proof wad. Quality—at a popular price. Try it!

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service.

	1st	2nd	3rd
Davis	195	159	164
Heckert	199	166	180
Trott	192	,
O'Blennis	218	201	183
Glenn	206	201	183
Cerne		132
Valo			143
TOTALS	1010	859	826
OFFICE	RS
1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	1st	2nd	3rd
Hammond	104	1	186
Pence	153	159	187
Monahan	165	148	150
Howard	191	159	175
Fry	142	198
Lewis		136	120
Totals	755	800	818

The bowling team of the Infantry School, composed of officers of the Academic sections copped a win over their brother officers of the 29th Infantry by nosing them out by a narrow margin of 2434 to 2395 in a game played at the Post alleys Monday

Roberts of the instructor's team was high man for the individual bowlers and also for the piling up,cmfwypvb to snag the honors for high scorer and 502 total for game. His consistent bowling was one of the highlights of the contest.

Members of the winning instructors aggregation are, Roberts, Kraft, Williams, L. L., Matchett, Williams, F. R. and Easley. For the losers, Renth, Albright, Ferenbaugh, Baade, Decker, Barrett, Howe and Huntsberry.

The next game will be between the Headquarters Infantry School Officers team and member officers of the Tank bowlers.

Headquarters Battalion, 29th Infantry, last year's bowling champions fell by the wayside and humbled them selves to a powerful 2nd Battalion, enlisted men's team in a three game match played at the Post alleys Tuesday night. The Headquarters enlisted team won the first match but the 2nd Bats took the next two to beat their last year's rivals.

The score of the first game was 2nd Bats 764; Hq. Bn. 872. In the second start the Bats overwhelmed the Pirate bowlers 919 to 756 and emerged victorious in the last and third contest aggregating 860 to 759 for the Spare Parts.

McPeeks of the 2nd Battalion played a dual role and was decidedly instrumental in the win. He was high man for the match and also high single player. The individual score for McPeeks was 219 while the match totaled 568.

The next game for the enlisted men's league will be played at the Post alleys between the Infantry School Detachment crew and the bowlers of the Tank Battalion. The con-

(Please turn to page 7)

Bowling Teams Hit | ent bowling of 206, 201, and 183, was | Fans Guessing On | Benning Football Corps Area Golf

Will Corn Griffin give Bob Godwin that extra push on the slide down next Wednesday night when they clash in Doughboy Stadium?

There are plenty of boys at the post right now that would give considerable to know the answer to that question, as the odds on Griffin have soared impressively since Godwin went down in defeat before an unstoppable Joe Knight last Monday evening. Just in case you didn't read the paper, Knight hammered Godwin for the first two rounds, battered him for the third and fourth, and came out in the fifth to send him crashing to the canvas time after time to win a T. K. O. over the redoubtable Bob. And Griffin supporters laid their money before the odds came down.

Morale, self-confidence, psychology, and a defeat complex are all high sounding terms to use in discussing the gentle art of fisticuffs, but they all enter to the question of next Wednesday's battle. In plain Anglo-Saxon, can Godwin come back? Griffin has wonderful chance to step into Bob's shoes as a ranking contender from these parts and is fully determined to attempt fitting the crown to his

The odds are even, ladies and gentlemen; you pays your money and you takes your choice!

The remainder of the card will carry out the come-back motif to a considerable degree. As far as is Batton, of the 24th, will show against it is being repeated. Battling Ossey, another of Mr. Arround semi-final. Batton is the tough Bunker Hill, the cocky, chunky, chin-busting scrapper from the Q. M. will meet Jack Harp in the feature six rounder, and attempt to stop the latter in his campaign to regain favor at the post. Harp has not shown at Benning since he lost to Liddell, but opines that he ha sone or two good fights left to show the cash customers. Hill, one of the best crowdpleasers on the Benning string, needs no lauding of his ability. He is clever, hard-hitting, and can take it. Harp also, is noted for the ability to take it, and swings a mean right hand on his own hook (ouch). Looks like another score for the post matchmakers.

Ching Johnson, the Giant-Killer, will go up against another of the big boys in the person of Frank Mackery in the first six rounder. Ching is also on the come-back trail, after flirting with wrestling game for a brief period, and is tickled to death that he has another chance to chop his man down to his size and cut him off. Mackery, however, may have a word or two to say about that, and he has a nice left hand, and is able to keep out of serious trouble.

Herbie Yuttmeyer, the Medico Flash, is also on the prod to get another crack at Billy Hyde. Herbie got careless some moons ago and Hyde shot one over to the button. Results -Herbie is striving to climb back to his former eminence and polish Mr. Hyde off. He is billed to meet the Mystery Man, newcomer to the post and claimant of the lightweight title of the 8th Corps Area, and if he is, he's good. These Texas Long-horns grow rough, tough and ugly.

A fast four rounder between two members of the 24th will open the boxing.

After Knight Bout With Bowden Boys

The 29th Infantry football team departed for Bowden early Friday morning, and by the time this goes to press the tale has vet to be told as to the outcome of their first game. tion outfit (just by the way, the boys are wearing the 1st Battalion colors this year) is embarking on a stiff schedule, and will be lucky to keep the craft above water against some of their opponents.

Sunday afternoon the Naval Station Typhoon is due to blow up again from the Gulf, and this year the Pensacola boys are said to be offering a more serious threat to opponents than they did last season. Those fans who saw the game will remember the scrapping little team that went down in defeat before the 2d Batts to the tune of 34-0. Fans this year may see a different story, if the advance dope is correct, as it is rumored that several former Navy stars have donned the moleskins for the Typhoon, and that this year it's a fighting scrapping BIG team.

The contest with Bowden on Friday was another one of those vendetta things, as the Bowden boys humbled the Irish of the 1st Batts last year by a pitiful score. A ma-ling match, (just by the way, this is The first appearance of the boneknown at the present time, Cotton time ago was met with applause, so thur Godwin's proteges, in the eight the bouts in Doughboy Stadium, as a bracing effect on the entire team. a record crowd is expected. The reserves early.

Godwin's Chances Team Off For Game Tournament Opens

Match play in the Corps Area golf tournament is scheduled to begin on Saturday morning on the Officers' Club course, more than 60 officers of the Corps Area having qualified as contestants in the match. It is expected by the committee in charge The Green Wave from the Demonstratible that over 100 players will have qualifield by the weekend.

Captain Druid A. Wheeler, 1932 champion, is to be present to defend his title, and is expected from Fort McPherson tomorrow.

Second round match play and first round consolation will be held Saturday afternoon, and third round match and second consolation on Sunday morning. Final play for the championship will take place on Sunday afternoon.

Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant, is an ardent fan, and already has qualified with a 97. He has journeyed to Benning several times to play while on duty at Fort Mac, but this is the first opportunity that he has stood in capacity of host for the assembled golfers.

jority of the Irish players are on the regimental team and reflectively nursing sundry bruises that seem to have held over from last year. The Green Wave has been working nicely in practice the last few days, and have a much better squad turned out than were in uniform a week ago. Almost to a man the old-time stars are presa good one) to raise the curtain. ent, even down to Tommy Thompson, who has changed his mind about stretchers on a fight program some quitting, and thinks he has another season under his belt. If it were only for the morale effect, the presence At present time, plans are to hold of Tommy on the field should have

The game with Pensacola Sunday position of having to search for a last time Godwin showed against Cysuitable opponent, and Ossey is become Smith, the customers crowded ing imported from Miami to fill the stadium and slopped over the sides, so fans are advised to get their organization on the post has shown interest in their practice work.

BOXING

WEDNESDAY NIGHT. OCT. 25TH 8:15 P. M.

Corn Griffin Fort Benning

 \mathbf{vs}

Bob Godwin Georgia

10 Rounds

Battling Ossey VS.

8 Rounds

Bunker Hill Q. M. D.

Ching Johnson

Cotton Batton

 \mathbf{vs}

Jack Harp

6 Rounds

 $\mathbf{v}\mathbf{s}$

Fort Benning 6 Rounds

Frank Mackery Fort Benning

Herbie Yutmeyer vs Fort Benning

Billy Hyde Fort Benning

4 Rounds

Curtain Raiser

Two boys from the Twenty-Fourth Infantry

General Admission 50c

Ringside $1.00

Tickets on Sale at Hubbard Hardware Co.; Wheat's Drug Store; Officers' Club; and all orderly rooms.

Don't Say Goodbye To Your Pay PHONE 1841

Travel cheaply and comfortably in one of The Rent-A-Car Co.'s Cars. You'll get there more quickly and more easily than in any other.

> EASY RATES — COMFORTABLE NO HOUR CHARGE

RENT-A-CAR 519 EIGHTH ST

GOOD UNTIL NOV. 15

1930-31 Ford Windshields—$1.00 installed. (Glass furnished)

Ford valves ground, rings installed $10.00

FREE—Brakes adjusted. Other Specialties.

H. L. BRENNAN
PHONE 9398
Directly opposite Firm Roberts

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT (Continued from page 4)

der. By exhibiting such a superior brand of magic to the gaping multitude, Mr. Baird sorely harassed the hard working wand wielder, who didn't know whether to yell "Hey, Rube," or offer Sparky a job.

Leo May, half man and half woman, was the show's best drawing attraction. He, she or it, was ensconced within a private booth, into which it generally required a deal of persuasion to get one's female companion. (Some were, afraid they'd see too much, and the rest, perhaps, that they'd see too little). And Leo's appearance was enough to turn a pint of corn into buttermilk, giving the illusion of Bull Montana with an overdose of rouge and lipstick. Leo May claims a life devoted to medical science, potency in both sexes, and a six year old daughter. Whether or not the latter was obtained through masculine or feminine functions, or a joint cooperation of both, was left undisclosed. After whetting the appetite of her listeners, the great disrobing was begun, showing first the female side, then that of the male and finally the dramatic whole. Exlamations of both relief and disap pointment mingled together as only a rather soiled and nontransparen bathing suit, stretched over a knotted and padded frame, came into view If Leo's voice had been tenor half the time, and bass the other half, the effect would have been more convincing; but guess that's asking too much for ten cents.

We nominate for a good old fashioned drag brother Howard Quinn. Heres' the latest offense. When asked a question on the range recently, Howard launched himself into a lengthy dissertation on the subject. After he finished with a very satisfied smile, the instructor remarked that though three other questions had been covered, the one requested was still not complete. Whereupon our hero started rather loftily, "Oh well, of course I haven't read the book." Can you beat it!

Saturday evening was indeed a gala date for the dancing stewdents, with both the Cotillion Club and the Artillery bachelors extending invitations for their parties. Some of the pos organizations seem pretty cagy about who they invite, and accordingly we especially appreciated the above gestures. At the Cotillion, everything was fine, and the affair was well chapreoned by Lts. and Mrs. Horton and Emery. Of course a few minor drawbacks like a right on the terrace, and the dance floor antics of a certain rosydance floor antics of a certain rosycheeked lieutenant, can easily be over

The Artillery Club contained the remaining "younger set," and a swell aggregation (especially after twelve), from the 24th Infantry. At the latter place the Gold Dust Twins were seen in their finest fettle. Cannot even a woman separate them? Or is there any woman that wants to!

The Spot Light also features: Joe James, who was so taken with stage fright that he anticipated Cowboy Cumming's cue by five minutes, and had the latter doing some fancy headwork to fill in on their predetermined classroom drama; Major Weir, who has the disconcerting habit of forgetting his spec; Captain Randolph, whose vocal vibrations can jump a machine gun twenty mils; the new map cases, sported by several aspiring members of the advanced class; Jack Joyce, who is now also a member of the yellow dog club; And finally the mighty first squad, admittedly the greatest collection of, er, well of what? —in all time.

As a number of prominent people are at present incarcerated in the station hospital, here's a bit of information for those desiring to inspect this prize collection. Display hours are from 7 to 8 in the evening, and visitors may view the feeding around 5 Pm.—Au'voir!

IT SHALL BE NAMELESS
(Continued from page 3)

such as Mehitabel would be sure to have. But just a friendly warning benny, old palsy walsy.

Noticed one of the Post's most at tractive girls acting most peculiarly lately. Dodging behind trees and so on. Questioned, she said that she is trying to find Col. Rice again with that elephant hunter hat on, so she can get a picture of it. You remember seeing him stepping so briskly when the 29th returned from the hike. Now of course, she could not want it for that "Vanishing Americans" contest could she? Looked sorter cute to me.

Capitals . . .

Washington, London and Paris are three cities served by branches of this firm. They are the three most important capitals of the world economically, politically and racially. Special wires and cables bring news from these world "nerve centers."

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, N. W. Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Anniversary: ,

We are glad, and a bit surprised, to note that Benning's anniversary will soon roll around. The Post has become a fixture, something that seemed to be always with us, just as Star Brand Shoes are "always with us", and we congratulate it!

SAM NEEL'S SHOE DEPARTMENT

Westbrook Bldg.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS_-

.____$ 600,000.00

RESOURCES OVER_______WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

15 Years

For Benning:

Yes, it's been fifteen long years—a decade and a half—and in spite of depressions, economic storms and other vicissitudes, Benning has demonstrated its sturdiness by constant growth and expansion. We congratulate you, and we hope for more improvement in the future than we have ever contemplated in our fondest dreams.

47 Years

For Sears:

Just as Fort Benning is about to celebrate its fifteenth birthday, so has Sears just finished celebrating its 47th anniversary — forty-seven years of bringing satisfaction and economy to the homekeepers of the nation. And, during the NEXT fifteen years, we hope to be of service to the people of Benning just as we have served the United States for forty-seven!

We hardly anticipate the need to impress you with the immense economic value of a Sears store in times like those through which we have just passed. They bring economy and a high standard of merchandise to your reach when money is at a low ebb, and you are able to maintain your buying power at a more nearly normal level. Patronize these stores—SHOP AT SEARS AND SAVE!

1008 Broadway

Phone 3760

Congratulations...

We express grateful appreciation for the good will and patronage accorded us by the personnel of Fort Benning.
We serve you daily at the Post Exchange Grocery.

EVERIDGE'S

The Bakery Beautiful

NOISY MOTOR?

Does the motor of your car clank at every movement of the valves and knock at every piston movement?

If it does, then it's badly in need of the service that our skilled mechanics can give it. Nothing shortens the life of a car more than unnecessary motor trouble, and you can have it eliminated very easily. Call by for an estimate at no cost to you.

Auto Dept.

O S T E X C H A N G E FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone
Not In The Military Service

Infantry School Hunt Has Pack Of Fine Hounds Well-Trained For Chase

Hark Tally Ho! Hark Tally Ho! Hark Tally Ho! We'll chase him Hark Tally Ho! Before we go We'll surely kill or earth him.

Hark! Fifer, Fiddler, Jonah, Giggler, Dido, Fanny, Farmer, Spanker, Spoker, Tanker, Joker Gaylass, Miller, Ranger.

And Dan, Middleburg, Buck, Sir Sid, Roger, Jerry, and the many score or more names, that, though not as rythmic and swinging as these of the old hunting song, are, nevertheless the names of a pack of well-trained, prettyworking hounds; The Infantry School in the four packs of the Infantry and tan, to the lordly and aristo-Hitchcock, and pure bred English fox-hound to the tips of his hackles. Divided into the four packs, the hunt is beautifully marked. pack are largely home-bred dogs, with a sprinkling of imported individuals, mostly odd-voiced animals that are the country.

"couples", a hunting term meaning one recruit hound and one old-timer most famous hounds of this section ry, Sir Sid, and Dan, the pack leaders, were gifts of Mrs. Hitchcock from her Aiken pack, and form the backbone of the keen scented drag group. Like all teams, good hunt packs have "specialists"; hounds peculiarly fitted to bring out one quality of the pack, and like all teams, the rest of the pack attend them in their line of work. The strikes, or hounds with the keenest scent who find the trial, are Dan, Sir Sid, and Middleburg, the latter a present of the Middleburg Hunt of Virginia. These are also the pack leaders, being large handsome hounds with good voices. Once the trail is raised, Dan is usually the first to give tongue, followed by Sir Sid and Jerry. Dan is quite famous for his voice, being the Chaliapin of the pack. His deep ringing tone can be heard for a long distance, calling the pack and the his charges. hunt forward when he strikes. With the pack sweeping like a flame on the

WEWOULD LIKE

To take this means of telling Benning how much we have appreciated its patronage for the past fifteen years, and how, in this, its anniversary time, we hope it will just double in size in the NEXT fifteen.

We are sure that the name Kinnett's will always be your criterion of value and enjoyment!

SOLD AT THE OFFICERS' CLUB

trail Mary, Bob and Peggy come to the front. These three are small hounds, known as harriers, whose business is to follow the trail at a swift pace, and bring the rest of the pack forward. Jerry also is noted for his singing when running the trail, and ears of the huntsmen on a chill morn-

The fox pack, used in the hunting of live game, or fox and wild-cat, is a less pretty, but a more formidable sight on the trail. The fox pack was started with six couples sent from the Coblenz Hunt in Germany, by General Henry T. Allen, M. F. H. to More than 75 animals are included which were added four or five privately owned Walker hounds. Of the lably delete the one thing in the School Hunt kennels; from the hardy, eighteen couple now forming the fox scrapping boar fighter Teddy, "pot-pack Buck and Maude are outstand-licker hound", politely called black ing as strikes, and are ably supported by Lucy, Sand, Wheeler, and Joe. cratic Sir Sid, present of Mr. Thomas The entire pack, formed of the July and Walker breeds, with one or two Blue Ticks, who come in for the kill,

The boar pack are the fighters of the crew. Led by Speck, the trailer, Cry, Teddy, and Ramsey, the most no presents from the famous "choir table fighters of the pack, have hauled packs" of the richer hunt clubs of down and bayed many a pig on the reservation, and all of them show The drag pack, composed of sixteen marks of the combat in profusion.

The coon pack is almost entirely composed of black and tans, chosen working together, has some of the for their ability in treeing the ringtailed brother. Like the boar pack, among it. Four of them, Roger, Jer- there are six couples ofthese hounds, that furnish sport aplenty for the less "Horsey" minded of the Officers' Club.

An interesting point in connection with the 1933-34 drag pack of the Hunt is the fact that eleven of the green hounds are all Benning bred dogs, and show remarkable ability for yearlings. They are all members of one litter, and are hunting their first season this year.

The story of the Infantry School Hunt Club pack would not be complete without mention of Sergeant Thomas Tweed, I. S. D., Master of the Hounds. Sergeant Tweed has been in charge of the Hunt pack since its beginning in 1932, and lives with dogs every minute of the night and day. He is responsible for their care, and training to a large degree, and knows the traits and tricks of each one of test is slated for 6:00 p. m. Friday. The Headquarters Officers bowled their way to a decisive victory over the Officers of the Tanks by the score of 2418 to 2054. Headquarters took the laurels by winning in all three of the games played.

BOWLING TEAMS

(Continued from page 6)

The first game was won by the score of 785-711; the second, 817-658; and the final game, 818-685. Headquarters also boasted of the individual high scorer in both the separate high game and the high tally of the series. Fry, with an average of 199, was high scorer of the series, gaining 597 of the winning points for the victorious team. His best score was 216.

The Headquarters team was com-posed of Pence, Howard, Burracker, Monahan, Fry, and Hammond. The losers were Fairchild, Bigley, Dunn, Fowler, Stewart, Wright and Keiler. Sergeant E. C. Davis of the I. S. D. ednesday night broke the post rec ord with a new high of 724. His individual scroes for the three games were 244, 257, 223.

Infantrymen Work For Court Season

For the past two weeks the basket ball quintet of 1st Battalion Headquarters Company 29th Infantry has been practicing at the Post gynasium in anticipation of the coming season at Fort Benning.

The team will have pracically the same first string to represent them on the hardwood court, among those are: "Mal" Snead, all star forward

"Ripper" Ray, midget guard, another reason for the 2nd Bats downfall last year; Frankie Smith, a very heady and brilliant player; "Len" Knight, rangy center, who subbed on the Green Wave team last season; "Mike" Carpenter, whos sub guarding for the Greenies was the highlight of the season, will again assume this role. A number of other favorable prospects and subs are showing up well. J. Prince plays a nice game at left for ward and N. Hobbs takes them off makes some thrilling music for the of the backboard at the guard posi-

I.S.D.

Without personal rancor of any sort it seems to be a traditional policy of editors to wield the "blue pencil" viciously, and of course they invarwhole story that gives it its reason for existence. So once more we will

Despite the editorial policy, (if any) we still desire to make mention of a few members of the Detachment who have assumed higher places in the scheme of things of this organization. Particularly referring to Messrs. Fannin, Yourick, Allen, H. A., and Womack, all of whom have been advanced in rank with the last few days. Bill has added another stripe and two and one always did make three. Oh Bill! Where's that cigar? Allen also has been promoted to sergeant. Yourick has started the climb back up by tacking two to the sleeve, and Womack hopped up to the dignity of corporal. All fooling aside, and not trying to toss any bouquets but such achievement must be deserved. The I. S. D. doesn't promote on length of service. Just ask the oldtimers.

Where did the genial and chubby Sergeant F. Smith earn the name of Bull O' The Woods"? The 1st Company is very silent. Ennyhoo, since the Bull has returned a number of the boys have been taking an increased iterest in the neatness of the Detachment area, turning out before the dawn tints the eastern sky in very large numbers. Oh, well!

And here's our old griend Vick once more in the lime-light. Vick what makes those circles around a pair of ouffed-up eyes after a return from Columbus? 'Splain dat, pliz.

The bowling team seems to be on the way to another title this year; see the sport page conducted by Scribe Gibney (advertisement) for full details of the same. Old rocking chair may have a few members of the outfit, but how they slay competition on those indoor sports.

Captain Pence has put forth the first call for basketball, in case you don't read the bulletin board. There are to be two teams, one from each company, and a wealth of material for the team to play in the post league should be uncovered, literally and Another promotion that deserves special mention in a part to itself is that of Pfc. Peter (Cockroach) Gaffney, Corporal Gaffney to you, now. Members of the Detachment are familiar with Gaffney's episode with the common household pest of these parts, and also his achievement of "Keyhole Katie" fame.

However, let the dead past bury its dead, Gaff; you got the rating, and you deserved it, and public announcement is hereby made that the hatchet is now formally and finally buried between "Motorcycle Mary" Gaffney and the conductor of this column.

BOY SCOUTS

TROOP 12

Troop Twelve, Fort Benning Boy Scouts met Thursday, October 12, at the Boy Scout Cabin. Lt. Meister called the meeting to order at four o'clock, the scouts divided into their respective patrols and the meeting was opened.

Six or seven of the new scouts pracon the Championship 1st Bat Quint; ticed for their Tenderfoot test, two of

Saturday morning at 9:00 a. m. the at Fort Benning, by Brigadier Gen- 18th, by the slight margin of 7 to 6. eral George H. Estes, Post Command-

The entire 2nd Battalion was assembled on the lawn at Post Headquarters and after the regimental band had rendered the necessary formalities, General Estes presented a beautiful loving cup to Samuel Prophet, captain of the successful diamond aggregation.

The commandant then lauded the baseball team. His speech in short was "'To the victor go the spoils;' as a result of the series your team stands out in front. I want to congratulate you not as a team but as individuals who by hard fighting and persistency have emerged victorious." In concluding his praise General Estes said, "It matters not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

Members of the team who were present at the ceremony were Ward, Nichols, Harkey, Prophet, Saunders, Barron, Collier, Prewitt, Lee, Pyle and Fuller.

It will be remembered that the 2nd Battalion nine won the first half of the baseball series at the Infantry School and at the end of the second period were deadlocked with the Headquarters team for first place honors. A three game series was arranged by Captain Phillip T. Fry, post athletic officer, between the two teams and the 2nd Bats walked away from the Headquarters aggregation by taking two straight contests and winning the post pennant and championship.

the other boys passed their cooking test. The rest of the boys practiced first aid and signaling. Scout Kramer Thomas then led the Oath and the Law and the meeting was adjourned.

FREDERICK LADD. Scribe.

All boys who are 12 years of age or over and wish to join the Boy Scouts are invited to come to the meetings every Thursday afternoon, at four o' clock, at the Boy Scout Cabin.

NOTICE!

Baseball Trophy Is Terrible Tankers Presented To Team Open Intramural By the Commandant Football Season

In the first up-set of the season in championship baseball team of the football at Fort Benning, Company 2nd Battalion, 29th Infantry were pre- D, 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) desented with a trophy symbolic of their feated Company F, 67th Infantry victory for the 1933 intra-mural season (Medium Tanks) Wednesday, October Company D pushed across their score late in the first half, when Vonnie Baggett, fullback for that company, snagged a long forward pass out of the air and raced 54 yards for a touchdown. In the attempt for the extra point "Cue Ball" Smith carried the ball across the goal line in a smash through center, which placed the score at this period 7 to 0.

McCullers, playing at quarter for the Company F, 67th team, received a long forward pass, eluded the tacklers and ran 25 yards for a touchdown. In the try for the extra point they failed when McCullers passed the ball across the goal-line but the receiver dropped the ball.

The Blueshirts of Company F, outplayed the boys of Company D, but the break that came in the first half was their downfall. This team is coached by Lieutenant Wright, who atone time piloted the west-coast army team when it was at the peak of perfection and played colleges along the Pacific coast.

Both teams gave a good account of themselves and from the looks of the action displayed in this game some of the other teams are going to have their hands full when they make their assault on the Battalion championship in this sport.

This was the first game to be played by the Terrible Tankers this season and was also the first in the Company series

> Dependable | Electric and Gas Service

POWER COMPANY A Citizen Whereever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF

to try

NEHI Cola

A BLEND OF FRUIT FLAVORS THAT WILL PLEASE AND STIMULATE YOU

Try it - again

Infantry School

Its Inception, Founding and Growth Into the Country's Largest School of Arms

army officers are viewing for the first technic and tactics of infantry. time upon their arrival for enrollment in the courses of 1933-34, stands preeminent in the army's professional education system. Although it has at- lent work of von Steuben and others tained its present impressive physical form in little more than a decade, its eminence among military educational institutions is the slow product of evolution, the development of the best thought of generations of infan-

A complete history of The Infantry School would, of necessity, include accounts of all the infantry's efforts toward raising its professional standards and increasing its combat efficiency. Such a chronicle could not, in justice, fail to record the work of the many progressive infantry leaders generations, whose of successive thought and influence are manifested in the highly organized Infantry school of today.

Within the limits of a short sketch. such as this, only a few high-lights of the School's historical background can be depicted.

Steuben First Instructor

One of the first, perhaps the first, effectual measure toward the improvement of American infantry was that adopted by General George Washington when he engaged the services of General Baron von Steuben, a Prussian officer of experience and ability, to install a system of training in the Revolutionary army. One of von Steuben's first acts, after his recommendations had been accepted by General Washington, was to organize officers into squads and sections and companies for instruction in the basic duties of the soldier. This very method of acquainting newly commissioned officers with some of their duties was used during our preparation for, and participation, in, the world war, and with some modifications it is still in use in certain of the courses of The Infantry School. The idea of organizing selected troops and using them for demonstration purposes also can be credited, so far as our service is concerned, to von Steuben, and today, a century and a half after von Steuben's time, we find his method still in use at The Infantry School, where model troop or ganizations are maintained and em-

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital 1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

FOR SALE Post Exchange

The Infantry School, which many ployed to develop and to illustrate the Whimsical legislation, which was enacted during the post-revolutionary war period, quickly undid the exceland left the army in a state of disorganization and denuded of leaders, a condition which was manifest at the beginning of the war of 1812. During the years that followed the tiny army was dispersed in numerous frontier garrisons, and little was accomplished toward improving its training until 1826, when Major General Edmund P. Gaines was authorized to establish an infantry post near St. Louis for the purpose of organizing an infantry school of instruction. Here, in 1826, was founded Jefferson Barracks, and the infantry's first school. The time, however, was unripe for such a venture, and in 1828, when the frontier wars with the In dians were claiming the attention of the army, the school was officially closed. This was the first concrete expression of the idea of a regular school to teach the technic and tactics of the infantry.

So far as practical results were concerned, the idea of an infantry school lay dormant for more than three quarters of a century, and it was not until the year 1907 that the first step was taken which led to the foundation of The Infantry School of today and later brought about the creation of Fort Benning. In February, 1907, Lieutenant General Arthur McArthur established a school of musketry, Pacific Division, at the Presidio of Monterey, Cal., for the purpose of raising the marksmanship standards of the Pacific Division. In the creating order a great deal of latitude was allowed in the scope of the school's work, and gradually it developed into an institution whose research extended far afield from purely mechanical marksmanship. Its work soon attracted the attention of the entire army and eventually it lost its character as a divisional schools as plans were formulated and executed to expand it into a national institution. These plans resulted in the transfer of the school, early in 1913 to Fort Sill, Okla. There it operated, more cr less interruptedly, due to the series of crises on the Mexican border which necessitated the dispatching of all available regular troops to the endangered points, and resulted in the cessation of the school's activities for protracted periods.

In July, 1917, the school's title was changed to The Infantry School of Arms, and its organization was greatly expanded in preparation for the training of large groups of officers and instructors for the emergency forces, which were being organized for the World War. Even with its reorganization and expansion the School was unable to serve the needs of the growing army, and in May, 1918, the machine gun department of the school was transferred to Camp Hancock, Ga. The lack of space for target ranges at Fort Sill led to the

83rd F. A.

HEADQUARTERS BATTERY

Tuesday afternoon was spent weigh ing horses. For some time we have been curious to know just what was meant by a hay burning exercise. It is a forced cross country march to the Quartermaster coal scales to weigh horses, or otherwise, a drag hunt. Corporal Pike rode "Baby" and dragged two mules. The remainder of the detail went dismounted.

Private First Class Raymond C. Fosr has been promoted to the grade of Corporal. Corporal Foster has been member of Headquarters Battery for the past five years. He has qualified as an expert gunner and also as an expert horseman. His promotion is well merited as he is one of the Battalion's outstanding soldiers.

Lieutenant Ports has returned to the Battery after a four months tour of duty with the C. C. C. in the wilds of the Everglades of Florida. No doubt Lieutenant Ports will resume his duties as Reconnaissance Officer for the Battalion.

The Battery is having a very busy week, tearing down stables and prepar establishment of a supplementary school, known as the Small Arms Firing School, at Camp Perry, Ohio, in the same month.

Moved from Fort Sill

In October, 1918, th eschool was moved to a site near Columbus, Ga., where it was located temporarily on the Macon road, about three miles east of the city. The Small Arms Firing School was consolidated with the parent institution in the month, but the reunion of the school's dismembered parts was not completed until April of the following year when the personnel of the machine gun center was transferred to the new camp near Columbus.

The temporary site which the school occupied upon its arrival in October 1918, was formally named Camp Benning, in honor of Brigadier General Henry L. Benning, Confederate States Army, a promient citizen of Columbus in Civil War days, and when the camp was moved to its present site in June, 1919, the title of Camp Benning was retained. Originally the school had been intended for the training of thirty thousand officers and men, and the area of the reservation was to have included 250, 000 acres of land. The removal to its present site was made after a survey of lands in the vicinity of Columbus had shown that the land of the present reservation was best adapted for the construction of target ranges and for conducting other features of infantry training.

After the close of the World War. reductions both in the training capacity of the school and the area of the reservation were made. After a long period of contention over the question of retaining the school as a permanent feature of the military establishment, Congress ended the uncertainty on February 20, 1920, when Camp Benning was authorized as a permanent military post. The title of the school was changed on January 30, 1920, to The Infantry School.

In 1922 the first plan providing for the transition of the camp to a post of permanent character was formulated, and in February, 1923, construction work began on the first tually to replace the cantoment types of buildings which had been built in November, 1918. Since that time construction of buildings of perm*. nent character has progressed steadily and under projected plans, by 1940 the entire garrison and School establishment of Fort Benning will be adequately sheltered in buildings appropriate to the character of an institution of the importance of The Infantry School.

Since the establishment of The Infantry School at Fort Benning, many changes have been made in the or ganization of its academic department. Every change has been based upon experience, and has been made with a view to improving and extending the instructional scope of the school.

ing for a Command Post demonstration for the junior officers of the Battalion. All methods of Artillery communications will be demonstrated to the class. Lieutenant Studebaker will have charge ofthe problem.

BATTERY "A"

Battery A, has received most all of the men that were on duty with the C. C. C. and every one is very much pleased to get Cpl. Andrews back with the Battery. Cpl. Andrews has been away with Camp P-63, Bronson, Fla., and says he is glad to be back with

The Recruiting Officers seem to be busy again as Battery A has a couple more recruits in the recruit center, and the Battery will be very glad when they are turned to duty.

Pvt. Hollis, the boy that you hardly ever hear anything from and in a few days wont be able to hear from him at all as Pvt. Hollis has been ordered discharged by purchase. We all hate to see Hollis leave for there are very few like him.

ENGINEERS

Looks as if Bell was going to buy the pool table. Sanford says that Bell Ford. How about that, Johnnie? is the only man in the outfit that he can beat, and believe me he certainly takes Bell for a hay ride.

Polock was discharged Wednesday it? Well, what do you think?

and immediately took on another stack, we are all very proud to have our Supply Sgt. back with us. Polock had a blow out down to his house Wednesday and every one that attended reported a swell time.

If the Second Platoon ever finds a home of their own they are going to stay in it forever and ever. Hoose says that he expects to wake up sometime and find himself asleep. Lassiter says that that wouldn't be anything new that Van Hoose is asleep all the time anyway. How about that,

Stewart was discharged Wednesday and took for parts unknown. We are all pulling for him to have all the luck in the World with his new enterprise. And if he ever wants to come back in the service we will be more than glad to have him in the outfit

Joe Hill was promoted to Pfc. Thursday. That's fine Cuzz, keep up the good work. There's always something for a good man in this outfit.

Johnnie Maddox is the proud owner of a Ford Coupe and although he has alreday had one fire in it, we all think that fire isn't the hottest thing that he has had or will have in the

Some of these days we are going to get a lot of new ratings around here and will all the men be glad of

Benning and Columbus

Friends and Neighbors

Fort Benning and Columbus, two separate communities, have traditionally been friends and neighbors. We of the city consider you of the Post as our very own. We keep an ever-vigilant finger upon the ever-vibrant pulse of the Army's greatest institution.

We cordially invite Benning folks to stay abreast of events in Columbus . . . to stay abreast through the columns of The Columbus News-Record . . . Columbus' only purely local newspaper. Delivered at your quarters every Tuesday and Friday. The NEWS-RECORD costs five cents a week or twenty cents a month. The phone is Columbus, 556, to enter your subscription is a pleasure.

The Columbus News-Record

CONGRATULATIONS

FORT BENNING

On Their

FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

The Provision Company, Inc.

Makers of

(OLD SETTLER'S PURE PORK SAUSAGE)

The Old Schoolhouse

And another week. We remember there are so many earnest endeavorres hate to describe this one-in print. Maybe the whole thing is getting us down. Alderman Baird's cheery greetings for one and all are beginning to lack the old baby-kissing spirit and Verbeck's mustache is starting to

If it weren't getting so painful to laugh, we might have our moments, now and then. The bump that Henderson, in the prone position, makes on the sky-line. Captain Cumming's hat. Captain Randolph's resonance. Someone shadow boxing a pugnacious yellow-jacket, out on a problem. But nothing's funny, any more.

Speaking of Captain Randolph; is he a ventriloquist, an ex-radio announcer, or has he really got 'em?

Someone is compiling a collection of those flights of fancy of Lone Eagle Kent's. It will be published at the end of the school year and entitled; "Advanced Aviation at the Infantry School.'

As mentioned before, morale has dropped with a thud. Even our widely publicized Morale Committee couldn't do much with the ill-fated forty four who've just been booted to town. Of course, Block 21 rose on its collective hind legs and chortled. For once, the bachelor isn't the only goat in the Army.

We might not have any Napoleons, and it may have taken Lincoln,through Bring-it-back-Bloomquist,-to tell us how long our legs should be, but we've just remembered that it took Schanze to tell them what a soldier's left arm is good for.

There are people who would have called him 'Red-apple' Schanze, but that we called the last one dull. We'd along that line, that we can't feel really justified in giving the title to him just yet. He may win it, but it will be a struggle.

> bennie, the bedbug, i had to come back to 21. homesickness finally wore me down.

> i cant be bothered lending a hand to name their own offspring-i mean brain children, of course-but if the lady in question will do something for me, i might be persuaded to heln the thing is this. i have been technique amounts almost to admiration, it is practically flawless, but what puzzles me is that the formula for all these 19-no so far-lucky females has been exactly the same. i cant help but wonder what he will do when the list of prospects runs out and he has to start all over again.

so would the above mentioned lady tell me whether or not the secret of smiths success is that he has discovered some password which is universally fortunate. if that is really it, i could be a real benefactor to a lot of people. wooten might be able to protect his rights if he knew

now that these 44 have followed the first wave to town, i certainly will have to pay more attention to things in that direction. so far, i have had no reports except one rather vague one concerning tommy horton and the ralston hotel. i intend to investigate that one for the benefit of some of my married friends. i may be able to tell them how he gets away

Lt. Col Stutesman Reviews Tankrrs

In the first formal salute of the organization to the commanding officer who recently assumed command of the unit the 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) and Company F, 67th Infantry (Medium Tanks) passed in review before Lieuteant Colonel John H. Stutesman at 9:00 A. M. Wednesday, October 18, at Fort Benning.

This organization is the only one in existence that embodies all the different types of land monitors used by the United States Army, and eighty eight vehicles moved across the mam moth parade ground of Fort Benning in columns five abreast and with a precision that has come to them during the decade that they have form ed a part of the Infantry School Garrison. Veterans of several hundred reviews-some who formed a part of the American Expeditionary Forces in France in 1917-18, operated the motor vehicles in a manner befitting the present standard of training to which they are subjected.

As the signal was given for the parade to start the battle flag of the organization-one they earned at Molain, Ronnossy, Bony, and almost point on the famous Hindenline-was unfurled and the tanks, trucks and automobiles moved forward in unison. Following the Coleneral Motors Trucks that make up the light transportation of the organization, third in the column came the massive 7-ton ordnance trucks, designed and built by soldiers, which are used as a rapid means of transporting the tanks on cross country journeys. Next came ten Libertys, which like the tanks, were born of the World War. After the automotive transportation had passed the reviewing stand the tanks themselves moved forward in tandem formation. Forty 7-ton Renaults, both American and French, led the way in this division, and were followed by ten Mark VIII monsters, largest tanks in the world. As soon as the ground was clear of the slower moving mabefore the spectators in a rapid flour ish. Forming the extreme left of the Ordnance line of tanks, was the most unique event of the program. A tiny Ford Tank, resembling a large beetle, kept pace with the vehicles of a latter

The review was climaxed by the speedy passing of the Christies, pride of the mechanized forces and fastest tanks in existence. Side by side two of these creations of war roared across the field at a speed surpassing forty miles per hour ending Col. Stutesman's introduction to his new command.

> SOCIETY (Continued from page 2)

cents which will be utilized for the

THURSDAY EVENING SUPPER DANCE SUCCESS

Reservations for the Thursday evening supper dance were filled to capacity, several parties being given for out-of-town guests and a number of reservations being in the nature of the popular "no host" affairs.

A Hallowe'en party with decorations, games and favors will feature the regular Thursday evening supper dance at the Club on Oct. 26 and a large crowd is expected.

Those reserving tables for this Thursday were: Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Paul W. Malone, Col. William B. Wallace, Major Lawrence T. I. Barrett, Maj. Emanuel A. Boja, Capt. and Mrs. Orryl S. Re es, Lieut. and Mrs. James T. Carnes, Lieut. and Mrs. M. W. Donahue, Lieut. and Mrs. Clayton H. Studebaker.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Selina Waddington returned to Fort Benning on Saturday having spent several weeks in the East. While away she placed her daughter, Louise, in college at Smith College.

Lieut. and Mrs. August E. Schanze had as their house guest over last weekend Mr. Charles Bobbe of St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Sue Pearce is the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. James W. Clinton.

Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Decker with their two children returned last, chines, the new creations of the Ord- Friday from New York where they nance Department, U. S. Army, crossed were the guests of the latter's family. well in the Old Home Town.

29th Inf.

HEADQUARTERS CO., 1ST BN. We are resolved to give an account of Private Arlin M. Tomlinson's tea party! Our barber, A. M. Tomlinson, is entertaining a number of the men in the Company with a Bally Tea banquet, by Jove! Owing to the tremendous financial burden imposed on his benign self for the expenditures involved Tommy stated that to ladies who havent ingenuity enough he would have to wait until the next issue of canteen checks before he could sponsor the affair. It was stated that he was planning on serving pink tea in keeping with the musical number that will be rendered by himself on the guitar accompanied by watching adv. smith operate for some William Harvey Stanfield, Jr., on his months now and my respect for his violin, entitled Pink Elephants, quite appropriate eh? Tommy has invited several of the socialites of the company including such distinguished Paw Tipper, Blondy Parker, N. Hobbs, Sid Shannon and a host of others. Rice cakes will be served with the "tay" and it is requested not to make a habit of asking for more than one. Several prominent and national games will be played at the event including throw the pillow, duck the pillow, and try to bean and try not to be beaned if you get what we mean. On the next canteen issue date the affair will be staged. Please leave your pet bulldogs at home. Entrance will be by the new R. O. G. S. cards. (To enlighten our readers, it means Royal Order Greedy Soldiers)

> Well, after shooting all his baloney for so long we will endeavor to interest our perusers by telling the one about the Three Bears or little Red Riding Hood.

> Private first class James R. Hendry of this organization has been promoted to the grade of Corporal upon the recommendation of his company commander. Congratulations Hendry may you receive more stripes in the near future.

> Several men in the company have received specialist ratings and Private Wayne L. Howard has been promoted to the grade of private first class. He is an "A" soldier in his own respective line of work and we take time out to offer our congratulations to him.

> The men who have received the specialists ratings are: Private Denver O. Turner, 5th Class; Private Julius E. Prince, and Privates Orris J. Helms and Frank E. Smith rated specialists 6th class. Same to you fellows, may you receive more soon.

Private 7 1-2% Horton has transferred to this company from Company B, 29th Infantry. Look out, Blon-

Private Mallie C. Bruce has also transferred from B Company. Our welcome is extended Mal.

I guess that we have taken up our allotted space this week so we'll be saying, BUENOS NOCHES,

N. HOBBS.

Well, here it is almost winter again and nothing but last year's decrepit old top-coat left with which we must try to stand a long siege of wintry blasts, however, there is always chance that it may not be so cold

COMPANY H-

Joe Maltese is back from the bush country and he still has the same well-fed look that he was wearing when he left. We have a hunch he has not been doing work, judging of course, from the appearance of his food reservoir.

If Dean Littlefield keeps on with his peas porridge hot routine he will be showing his public a few things about the gentle art of hoofing it before many days go by.

'Chunker' May missed the practice march due to the fact that he was discharged on the 10th, and he vows that he is exceedingly angry for having missed it, so angry in fact that he took on a third stack.

We wonder why people who were so eager to make a stab at the outside experienced such a sudden change of heart, for a while it looked as if half the outfit were on their way. Perhaps information dribbled through the lines that all was not Masenheimer, one of the old timrs of Co. H. has transferred back to the company. We are glad to have him back with us again.

The whole outfit says the hike was just so much duck soup for the men, several of the boys say they have corns and they aren't on their feet. Well the outfit has proven quite a number of times that they can take

> ERNEST STEPHENS, Reporter

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The company is very busy these days with demonstrations every day. This company did not lose a man on the hike October 2, 1933, to October 7. 1933. Private Louis Satina chief of the mule section said that he even hiked his old mule down.

Our First Sergeant Houghtby and Tech Sergeant Mitzen are two of the busiest men in the company these days figuring out the men to fill in on demonstrations which call for a full strength company.

The company was commended by the Commanding Officer, 29th Infantry, for the five week period ending October 7, 1933, for having a class "A" company for inspection during that period. This entitles the company to a duck supper which our Mess Sergeant John Faulk puts out to perfection. He has been a mess sergeant for twenty years in the ar- in Boston, Mass. my and sure knows his onions.

Sgt. Jimmy Hayes one of the crack football players of the Regimental Team has a skinned face. He claims he got it out at football practice but they have only commenced football practice and possibly a door flew up and hit him in the face. Jimmy was all state football player from Iowa before he came into the service about two years ago. Headquarters Company is proud of the fact that the company has four men on the Regimental football squad, They are Hayes, Halloway, Herbert and Boze man. Bozeman has been a life guard at the Post Swimming Pool for the past season and won first place in the Post Swimming Meet in the breast stroke of fifty yards. He beat the post record in the 29th Infantry swimming meet. His time was 1:20 1-2 seconds The post record was 1:24 seconds.

Charlie Tuell, Regimental Stenographer at Headquarters 29th Infantry. better known as "Is you dere Charlie" proved himself to be an electrical wizard today when he repaired message center lights. When a bulb burns out that doesn't bother "Is you dere Charlie" one bit, he puts his magic touch on them and they are as good as new. Steinmitz the electrical wizard has nothing on Charlie.

Our ex-economy clerk Corporal Mueller is on a sixty days furlough at the present time. He is spending is

I. M. YARBROUGH.

DIFTEEN years is not such a long time in the millions of years which mark the seconds of the Universe-but fifteen years of such achievement as that accomplished at Fort Benning leaves a lasting impression on the military system of our country. The doctrines of the Infantry School are known and appreciated everywhere and they had their inception in what, fifteen years ago was a grassy, wind-swept plain.

WE WOULD like to congratu-Wate Fort Benning on its fifteenth birthday - its fifteenth year of surpassing advancement in the art of teaching the precepts of the Infantry School. And we give now, our promise of fullest support for the next fifteen years of its history!

Leading Furniture Dealer In Columbus For 39 Years

H. Rothschild

FURNITURE COMPANY

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY (Continued from page 4)

the class while reading the school solution to the same exam when we discovered that he had crossed us up on the use of Gettysburg as the hos-

The distracting martial music of the 29th Infantry band nearby as we tried vainly to reorganize and con-

HERALD WANT ADS

CLASSIFIED ADV. RATES 20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

FLORIDA AT ITS BEST!

320 acres with beautiful clear lake, fine bass fishing, 21/2 miles to R. R. & bus line-ideal for 4 men who want estates for future use. Land well suited for tung oil, citrus or grapes. $4,000.00 for all, or $1,000.00 for 80 acres-good terms.

Stephen McCready, Realtor Ocala, Fla.

FOR SALE: One Female Police Dog, registered, and 4 pups. (Subject to registration) Mrs. F. G. Pierce, Waverly Hall, Ga.

FOR SALE: Spitz puppies—$5.00. Phone 2812-W. Mrs. Ed. Lutje.

INSIGNIA NAVY

GENERAL STAFF IDENTIFICATION

We are pleased to announce that we have completed dies and are now prepared to furnish this insignia.

At your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

43 East 19th St. New York

MANUFACTURES OF MILITARY AND NAVAL INSIGNIA AND EQUIP-MENT FOR HALF A CENTURY:

TWO

for

Wherever Foremost Ice Cream goes it adds to its converts-no matter hen it is served, it still is the most delicious Ice Cream you can obuy. It is dependable —and, to top all, it is real cream ice cream.

Call The

Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES,

INCORPORATED

solidate monograph-muddled brains long enough to pass said medico's exam on Friday the 13th . . . Jack Robinson's thoughtful suggestion that students having difficulty with logistics come forward during the tenminute break, accepted one hundred per cent by the latter who flocked forward like moths to a candle . . Mike Gillespie slipping over a fast question to Logistic Jack in an attempt to G-2 him on what to expect in Monday's exam . . . The Second another excellent demonstration, this the Second Section to date: Two hits, the eminent historian with a platform presence par excellence, winding up the week with a bang with an A-1 Doughboy was rendered hors de performance on chart-making, to the awed admiration of open-mouthed pupils, followed by a demonstration Learning during the same pe- those never resulted in any bloodshed. riod that the Kansas barber and the infantry mind are synonymous . . . ends as the teacher or pupil now reading these lines prepares to turn elsewhere in the Herald with a purr of contented satisfaction if he succeeded in breaking into print or a tinge of disappointment if he didn't.

HUNT BEGINS 22ND (Continued from page 1)

check, harder to strike this time. A short smoke and we are off again at a dead run over Reynolds Hill, with the pack rolling along, sterns up, like a wind-blown mass of tan and white far ahead. Another check on top of Davis Hill while the Whips double in trace of the scent. A cheer from Huntmaster and we mount up, down the valley and over Bouton Hill, a double oxer, post and rail, and more chicken coops. Down the sweep be-low is the Club house, and the hunt breakfast.

Captain Sidney H. Negrotto, M. F. H. of the Infantry School Hunt will be assisted Sunday morning by Sgt. Tweed, Master of the Hounds, and the honorary whippers-in of the Hunt staff, Major Kramer Thomas, Major Archibald V. Arnold, Captain John A. Nichols, Captain James G. Brackenridge, Lieutenant Joseph P. Cleland, Mrs. Kay Studebaker, and Mrs. Sal-

The hunt will start at 8:30 A. M. with breakfast being served at the Polo-Hunt Club at 10:00 A. M. The drag course, as laid out this year, offers a wonderful opportunity for spectators to view the field, as it stretches over some of the most beau tiful terrain on the reservation.

WINTER GRASS (Italian Rye) $7.50 per 100 Lbs.; 10 Lbs. $1.00. Valley Seed Co. 1041 Broadway.

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

SATELLITES (Continued from page 4)

grade for the same organization from which he received his discharge certificate. Shortly after starting on his third enlistment period Sergeant Lambert received his present grade of Master Sergeant, which was one of the most rapid promotions ever made in the peacetime army.

While on duty in the Canal Zone Sergeant Lambert was in the 11th Section ringing the bell again with Engineers when Division Headquarters and 33rd Infantry moved into time on Evacuation. Total score for Panama City during the uprising of October 25, 1925. During the fourteen two runs, no errors . . . Tige Phillips. days that the American Troops occupied the city the Panamanians suffereleven casualties, while one U. S. combat by a blow over the cranium with a flower pot.

The "Sarg" reports that the only enon the part of the students that to gagements of note that he was in were date had been accorded only to Doc the difficulties he experienced trying Dabney and Big Chief Woolnough to ride the Panama street cars, and

This soldier, as an athlete, has an enviable record in both field sports Celebrating the return to normalcy of and football. During the Souththe student body's blood pressure by western Arkansas Track and Field attending Advanced Class Social Meet of 1923, at Arkadephia, Arkansas, Function No. 2, a dance at the Polo he was pitted against Ed Hamm, later Club on Saturday night, where we of Georgia Tech and holder of the were duly impressed with the variety World's record in the broad jump of holds . . . Winding up the week for a number of years. As a student with a mild eyestrain, caused partly at Texas A. & M., he has played footby too much tie on the person of ball with such men as Joel Hunt, Allby, too much tie on the person of American Half-back, when he was Cappy Wells at the aforementioned member of the A. & M. Freshman dance ... And another week's column squad. At this school Sergeant Lambert was coached by Dana X. Bible, present coach at Nebraska University and one of foremost coaches in the country. At High School he played against teams of which such later luminaries as "Rags" Matthews, Klepto Holmes and Julian Joplin, all noted football players of the southwest, were members.

Master Sergeant Joe Calvin Lambert is at present on duty as clerk in the Judge Advocate's office of the Infantry School, and signifies his intention of remaining in this capacity for the remaider of his army service.

RADIOMEN HAVE EXHIBIT (Continued from page 1)

which were standing around. He was trying to clear up the numberless messages which curious people sent out to equally curious recipientswish you were here", "having a fine time", give my love to Ike and Delilah" and the like.

They really are a hard working bunch, these radio lads. The phrases "by-pass condensers", "push pull amplicifation", "udio-frequency transformers" and similar ones bombard the casual listener from every side when they happen to meet a bunch of the radiomen. Their knowledge of radio principles is amazing, and they show an equally amazing aptitute for learning new ones, thereby managing to keep up with the latest in radio work the world over. The messages they handled at the Fair and those which are a part of their routine work, are sent to other members of the American Radio Relay League, of which the Fort Benning station W4ABS is a member. This league is composed of amateur radio operators all over the country, and exists solely for the dual purpose of furthering the interests of amateur radio and for the transmission of messages without cost to the sender. Members of the League have done fine work in research and experimental lines, and their quick action in times of crisis has already been cited numberless times.

Yey, the radio boys of the Post are a fine bunch-you should drop around and see them sometime!

> COL. JEWETT LEAVES (Continued from page 1)

Americans left Europe soil for their return to the United States and peacetime activities.

Colonel Jewett is a graduate of the Command and General Staff School. Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, a member of the General Staff Corps eligible list, and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Minnesota, awarded in 1901.

BLUE EAGLE SPECIALS

"LAST YEAR'S LOW DOWN" PRICES!

SUITS:

SOCIETY BRAND & DEVONSHIRE $18.50 to $35.00

HATS:

STETSON and LEE

$2.95 $3.50 $5

SHIRTS:

MANHATTAN and WILSON BROS.

$2.00 $1.75 $1.50

SHOES:

BOSTONIANS

$3.95 $5.00 $6.50

SWEATERS:

Slip-Over - Coat - Zipper

$1.95 $2.50 $3.00

Leather Cossack Jackets ZIPPER FRONT

$6.50 $7.95 $8.50

WOOL ZIPPER JACKETS 32-OUNCE MELTON

> $3.95 $4.50 $3.75

IN MOST INSTANCES OUR CES ARE EVEN LOWER THAN LAST YEAR

Chancellor Co.

AND BOYS' WEAR

FORT BENNING, GA., OCTOBER 27, 1933

Twenty-ninth To Meet G.M.C. Tomorrow

The

CONDUCTED BY PINCH-HITTER

"Better be damned than mentioned not at all.' —John Wolcot.

This, our swan song, is started with a feeling of relief that when completed, it will mark our demise as a columnist. Our readers, if any, will share that relief when they learn that next week the Flare will be fired reg ularly one more by that master alliteration, E. F. R., himself in person.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT ANNOUNCED

And speaking of E. F. R., our re porter brings in a story to the effect that his leave was slightly marred by an automobile crash. The details are few but we are glad to announce that no one was seriously injured. The family Pontiac was cracked up to the extent of a demolished bumper, fender and wind shield. The meager information came in a letter, which called the accident "unavoidable' That would appear to indicate that the writer was also the driver. We hope that we are too much of a gentleman to say whether the letter was written by Rico or by his passenger. As our contemporary publications would say "At the time of the accident, it is understood he was accompanied by his wife"

DINNER DANGEROUSLY DELAYED

Upon a recent occasion Infantry Boardman and Mrs. Ladd celebrated their china wedding anniversary. Among the guests bidden to the dinner in celebration of that event were Major and Mrs. First Section Hall. It seems that the tactician and his golfing wife had spent a healthy but tiring afternoon on the golf course. Upon arrival at home, the thought of an early dinner and a final retirement to the upper regions at an early hour were so enticing as to drive thoughts of the impending engage ment from their minds. A little later. a call from the annoyed hostess found intimate attire. The peaceful scene was transformed at once into one of hurry and bustle. Since it was a well-known fact that the clothes of the In N. R. A. Parade average woman are to those of the average man as one is to five, it would have been surprising indeed if Bella had not been properly arrayed before Chink got into his tuxedo. Her estimate of the situation was that this preparation was a team affair. While the male of the species tied his shoes, she slipped on his vest and securely buttoned him into it. The discovery, a moment later, that removal of the vest was necessary to place the suspenders in their customary position, caused a slight deay and some chagrin. When Chink's ever-helpful companion, however, helped him into his coat without his vest, there were words which considerably delayed the departure. 'Tis told, however, that (Please turn to page 9)

Flag Race To Be Held Over Benning Course On Nov. 4

A cross-country ride, in which will be tests of stamina, mental and physcal ability, will feature the flag-race to be held at the Infantry School on Nov. 4. 1933. This flag-race is being sponsored by the 2nd Section, Academic Department, and shall not exceed fifteen miles in length.

Sixteen teams will be entered in the race and will represent the following organizations, to which invitations have been extended. Two teams from the Instructors, Academic Department; two from the students of the Advanced Course; three from the students of the Company Officers' Course; one from the students, The Tank Course; two from the 24th Infantry; two from the 29th Infantry; two from the 83rd Field Artillery; one from the 66th Infantry (Light Tanks), and one from the freebooters or all officers not included in the above organizations.

The contest will start from the horseshoe bowl at the Infantry School stables and shall extend over routes known only to the judges prior to the starting of the race. Flags (numbered cardboards) will be placed at various points on the reservation, contestants will be required to follow directions given them and after securing their quota of the flags they are to return to the starting point. The team finishing first is the winner. Directives for locating these flags will be in the form of map coordinates, marked maps, or oral directions and contestants may not carry a map other than those given them by the judges.

Major Kramer Thomas, Cavalry, has been designated as the officer in charge of the affair and will be assisted by Major George J. Rife. Captain Michael E. Halloran, Captain John W. Blue, Captain Joseph A. Nichols, Lieutenant Hammond H. Monroe and Lieutenant James Matthews.

Spectators may watch the race from the starting point which is Horse Shoe Bowl No. 1 at the Infantry School a call from the annoyed hostess found them in their bed room in rather Benning Units Are Well Represented Wallace Grainger ____ Lt. Joseph P.

Fort Benning played a prominent part in the huge NRA parade held in Columbus this morning. The garrison supplied a number of the units taking place in the march, with all ranks from General down to buckprivate and all ages from old-timers in the ranks down to kids of kindergarten age in the procession. The doughboys, the Tankers, the Twentyfourth, the pupils of the childrens' school, and even the debutante set represented the post in one of the most impressive gatherings seen in Columbus for a long time. The parade a tribute to the Roosevelt brainchild. the NRA, created one of the most im-

(Please turn to Page 3)

"Let Us Be Gav" To Benning Pioneer Benningites Are

Club To Usher In Season With Successful Comedy By Rachel Crothers

The Infantry School Dramatic Club, long one of the most important and active organizations of Fort Benning, begins its season tonight with the presentation of their first play of the 1933-34 year, "Let Us Be Gay."

The Dramatic Club in the past has always delighted its audiences with remarkably able presentations of plays of every description. The club has excelled in its mastery of the difficult scenes of the plays which it presented and its handling of dramatic interludes has always possessed a slight savor of professionalism, though the club itself is strictly amateur. It corresponds to what, in other communi ties is the Little Theater Players, nad it work is carried out in the same way that the Little Theatre groups throughout the country operate.

Their vehicle for this first performance is an excellent one. It has been successfully presented on the legitimate stage and it was made into a motion picture which enjoyed great popularity on its showing all over the country. It is a comedy in three acts, with a prologue, and the final rehears-als indicate that the cast is handling it very capably.

The members o fthe cast, also are well-known to Benning audiences. Such names as Major Howard, Mrs. H. L. Reeder, Mrs. Clayton Studebaker ring familiarly in the ears of Benning theatregoers, and the remainder of the cast shows equal promise in this first show. The complete cast

Perkins, the Maid __ Miss Marguerite White man the butler - Maj. Wills T. Howard Mrs. Bouccicault ___ Mrs. Harry L. Reeder Dierdre Lessing, Mrs. E. G. Wheeler Bob Brown ___ Lt. Earle G. Wheeler Kitty Brown, Miss Katherine Lemly

Townley Towne ____ Lt, Edmond M. Rowan Bruce Keene, Lt. Edward K. Purnell Madge Livingston ____ Mrs. Clayton

E. Brady, the stage setting is by Capt. Virgil Bell, another old hand with the Benning Dramatic Club. Mrs. J. E. Pierce is in charge of costumes, and props, Miss Harriotte Atkins is the assistant, and Mrs. Pierce is the prompter.

The officers for the dramatic club this year are as follows: President, Lt. Col. E. F. Rice; Vice President, Maj. Thomas B. Catron; Director, Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth, Business Manager Capt. Harvey J. Golightly; Asst. Business Mgr., Lt. F. H. Lanahan; Publicity Officer, Lt. James R. Pierce. Colonel Rice, Major Catron, and Lt. Lanahan will be remembered for their portrayal of leading characters in the plays of last season.

Be First Plav Of Dies On Fifteenth Primed For Game

With the newspaper presses flashing out the announcement of the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the Infantry School at Columbus, Ga., Sergeant Calieph Moore, Jr., 24th Infantry, one of the few men remaining in service at Fort Benning who have been on duty almost from the founding of the military institution here in 1918, died yesterday afternoon at Walter Reed General Hospital. Washington, D. C. where he was sent for treatment a short time ago.

When the Infantry School of Arms, Detachment advance unit of Fort Benning that was to be, had finally settled at Columbus, Sergeant Moore was selected as supply sergeant of the Colored Section, which was established at the post. Prior to his assignment to the Infantry School of Arms Detachment, (Colored Section), he had served his first enlistment with the 9th Cavalry, becoming a member of Troop M of that organization in March 4, 1914. Upon the disbandment of the colored section of the I. S. D., Sergeant Moore transferred to Company I, of the 24th Infantry, and in June 1925, joined Service Company 24th Infantry, with which unit he was serving at the time of his death.

Sergeant Moore had been suffering from cancer of the stomach, the cause of his death, for some time. He was forty-five years old. His wife and one sixteen year old daughter survive him.

Polo Season Has Started At Post

Polo enthusiasts of the post will soon have plenty to talk over, as the mallet wielders are planning an active campaign for the coming winter.

Slow play started last Sunday afternoon, and Major Archibald V. Arnold states that things are going to speed up from now, with the first game taking place about the middle of next month. The fields are in better shape this year than ever before, as they have been under the Cleland direct supervision of Captain Gee all The play is directed by Mrs. Lynn summer, and much has been accomplished toward making them a great deal faster.

At the present time it planned to have only four teams in the running this winter, a reduction of two from last year. Those who will see action are the Freebooters, the 29th, 24th, and the 83rd, the student teams having been dropped beause of the intensive work on the academic schedule. The round robin tourney will also be a little slower in getting into full swing, as a number of the players are unable to get regular practice due ot pressure of official business.

Right now the Freebooter aggregation, composed of Blue, Nichol, Sweeney, Lucas, and Bloomquist seem to lead the field as favorites.

Dramatic Season Birthday Of Post With Strong Team

Week's Rest May Give The Doughboys A Better Chance With Visitors

The Green Wave of the 29th will go up against an undefeated eleven when it tilts with the G. M. C. team Sunday afternoon in the Memorial Stadium. The 29th is slated by the dope sheets for another licking.

Both teams are reported to be in good condition for the clash. The G. M. C. eleven is highly confident of turning back the Green Wave, which has lost both of its initial games. The Benning team, however, has had a week of careful training since its last defeat and may profit by the mistakes made in the past two losses. Lieutenant Decker, the head coach, believes that his eleven will click better Sunday afternoon than it has thus far in the season. The soldiers in the last game weren't able to muster scoring punch when they had the piaskin in a favorable position. The all-star halfback, Prophet, was unable to play because of a back injury received in the clash with the powerful Bowden gridiron men. The way the tide turns in the game Sunday at the Memorial Stadium may depend to a large extent on whether or not he will be in condition to play.

83rd Has Big Time At Barbecue

The B. B. (Battalion's Best Barbecue) was held on Saturday October 21 1933 in honor of the 83rd Field Artillery Baseball Team, being greatly enjoyed by all members of the battalion and their friends.

Two special trains left the Artillery Siding at ten o'clock carrying the Please turn to Page 7)

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The first meeting of the ladies of the garrison for the purpose of forming a Woman's Club was held in the Club Hop Room on Oct. 24.

The first authentic scandal Column breaks into print in the Infantry School News, and is entitled "The Casual Observer." See Benning Herald of today for comparison.

Crossed rifles appeared in the sky at sunset, and the post regarded it as a good omen. (Fort Benning was then under threat of abandonment.)

Mercer defeats Infantry School football team 7-0 in a hard game at the Driving par. Lindsey, Sharpe, and Swantic played a great game. (Editor's note: How old are Lindsey and Swantic, anyway?) (Writer's note: How old is Anne?).

SOCIAL HOWELL, PHONE 389

General And Mrs. Estes Honor Guests At of nuptial music was rendered by Dr. Dinner Given By Colonel And Mrs. Peyton

General and Mrs. G. H. Estes were honor guests at a beautiful dinner party on Tuesday afternoon given by Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton at their quarters.

The guests were seated at two tables, each decorated in a predominating color note; one in rose, with a lace cloth over rose satin and with a centerpiece of American beauty roses in a silver bowl. The other table was decorated with yellow predominating, a lace cloth placed over pale yellow with a central decoration of yellow chrysanthemums. Slim yellow tapers burned at each end of the

As guests, Colonel and Mrs. Peyton had General and Mrs. Estes, Colonel and Mrs. Fred L. Munson, Colonel and Mrs. William B. Wallace, Colonel

> Dr. R. H. Brown OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Res. 1153 Phones Office 4108

BENNING ROAD

and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall, Colonel and Mrs. Thomas Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jordan, Colonel and Mrs. John H. Stutesman, Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, Major and Mrs. Henry Terrell, Jr., and Major and Mrs. Clarence Huebner.

MISS HELEN SHELTON BECOMES BRIDE OF LIEUT. RICHARD HUNT AT IMPRESSIVE CERE-MONY

The Trinity Episcopal church was the scene last Saturday evening of an impressive wedding ceremony when Miss George Heen Shelton, daughter of Mrs. George H. Shelton and the late General Shelton, became the bride of Lieutenant Richard Johnson Hunt son of Colonel and Mrs. William E. Hunt. The Reverend Geoffrey S. Hinshelwood officiated. The church was decorated with stately palms and ferns. The chancel was banked with palms before which were arranged tall pedestal baskets filled with white chrysanthemums. Seven branched cathedral candelabra holding burning tapers were placed at intervals.

Erwin Vondreau at the organ. Entering first were the ushers, Lieut. Wiliam E. Grubbs, Lieut. Thomas R. Hannah, Lieut. Earle G. Wheeler. Lieut. Joseph B. Coolidge, Lieut. William B. Moore, and Lieut. Richard H. Smith. They were followed by Miss Florence Davis of Washington, D. C., who was the maid of honor. Miss Davis looked charming in a gown of pale green satin fashioned floor length. She wore a small green satin hat with a starched veil and wore green satin slippers and gloves. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. The bride entering on the arm of her uncle, Major Lawrence J. I. Barrett, was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. William H. Hunt of Columbus, Ohio. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of ivory satin fashioned with a tight bodice with high neck line and large puffed sleeves which tightened from the elbow to the wrist. The skirt was floor length with a built-in train. Her tulle veil was caught to, her hair by a cap of point-de-venice lace which was tightened by clusters of dainty orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley. Following the wedding Mrs. Shelton entertained with a reception and dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. Receiving with Mrs. Shelton were Colonel and Mrs. Hunt, Lieut. Hunt and his bride, Miss Davis and Mr. Hunt and Major Barrett. Mrs. Shelton, mother of the bride, wore a dinner gown of black and white with accessories to match. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Hunt, the mother of the groom, was gowned in black lace with accessories to match. She also wore a corsage of gardenias. Before departing for their wedding trip to New York and Canada, the bride changed her wedding gown for a travelling costume of grey wool trimmed with grey fox fur. Lieut. and Mrs. Hunt will be at home at Fort

GENERAL AND MRS. MALONE HONOR GUESTS AT TEA

Benning after November 21.

Major General and Mrs. Paul B. Malone were the honor guests Saturday evening at a tea given by Mrs. Kyle and Mrs. Harrison at the former's charming home in Columbus. Throughout the house colorful autumn leaves and vases of orange and vellow dahlias were used as decorations. The tea table was laid with an Italian cut-work tea cloth. In the center of the table was a lovely crystal bowl filled with pink roses. Mrs. Elliott Waddell and Mrs. Henry Weathers assisted. The guest list included a number of friends of General and Mrs. Malone from Fort Benning and Columbus.

PAN-HELLENIC SOCIETY TO

The first meeting for the season of the Pan-Hellenic Society at Fort Benning will be at the attractive quarters of Mrs. James B. Woolnough, October 31st. Plans are being made for bridge to be followed by tea. All

HERALD WANT ADS

CLASSIFIED ADV. RATES cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

FLORIDA AT ITS BEST!

320 acres with beautiful clear lake, fine bass fishing, 2½ miles to R. R. & bus line—ideal for 4 men who want estates for future use. Land well suited for tung oil, citrus or grapes. $4,000.00 for all, or $1,000.00 for 80 acres—good terms.

Stephen McCready, Realtor Ocala, Fla.

HUDSON SUPER-SIX Coach 1929 Model. Good condition. Price $200. Apply Karl Thompson, owner. Phone

As the guests assembled a program the ladies of the garrison who are members of national sororities cordially invited to attend.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE AT OFFI-CERS' CLUB WAS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The regular Thursday evening supper dance at the Officers' Club this week assumed a colorful aspect as this affair was chosen for the Hallowe'en dance. In keeping with the Hallowe'en season the Club was decorated with colorful autumn leaves, yellow pumpkins shaded the side lights while witches on broom sticks chased black cats around the walls. In addition to the attractive decorations a small pond of water was furnished wherein gay couples ducked for apples. The winning person being awarded a prize for the greater number of apples secured. Dinner was served cabaret style, while dancing was enjoyed until twelve.

(Please turn to Page 9)

Winter Grass (Italian Rye) 10 Lbs. $1.00; 2 lbs. 25c; 1 lb. 15c. Valley Seed Co., 1041 Broadway.

"It's the duty of every wise homekeeper to spend her money to the best advantage and she can do that by considering the expenditures beforehand. Go where you can get the largest variety for the most moderate cost." At Silver's, of course!

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY & 11TH ST.

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

at Alsobrooks

People to whom style really means something will understand why this shop is so popular. We understand what you need we HAVE what you need—in latest models and at reasonable prices—we feature the Knox Hats, $2.95 to $12.50.

FORT BENNING CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

FOLLIES OF 1933

Sponsored by the

COMMUNITY SERVICE LEAGUE

November 10 and 11

SPRINGER OPERA HOUSE

Prices $1.50 - $1.00 - 75c - 50c

Columbus and Fort Benning talent in latest song and dance hits.

This Handy SIX:BOX COCA-COLA BOTTUNG CO.

A Short Cut To A Successful Party — Serve Bottled Coca-Cola!

THE SIX-BOX

Six bottles of delicious Coca-Cola for only

Plus small deposit

All your guests will like it — everyone will appreciate it — and each will praise your foresight in having it on hand. For Coca-Cola is the world's most universal drink for everyone, everywhere.

TRY IT AND YOU'LL KNOW WHY COCA-COLA IS KNOWN FOR ITS FLAVOR EVERYWHERE!

SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

N. R. A.

N. R. A. has come to be a potent factor in American life—just as Star Brand Shoes are the standard of the Shoe industry. The quality of Star Brand Shoes is as fine as it can be made. They are also corsages and presentation bouquets.

Flowers — for Hallowe'en

Benning Boulevard Nurseries

WE TELEGRAPH FLOWERS

PHONE 4176

PHONE 4176

SAM NEEL'S SHOE DEPARTMENT Westbrook Bldg.

We're Not Extra Smart!

IT'S EXPERIENCE THAT HAS TAUGHT US WHAT YOU'RE GOING TO NEED

We could pretend that we're an extra smart bunch of merchandisers because our record shows that we have a happy facility for satisfying our customers. But it's not brilliance that enables us to satisfy you when you're in a jam —nope, we have learned through many years what you're going to need and when you're going to need it. That's why you're making no mistake by coming here first for your culinary needs.

GROCERY DEPT.

POST EXCHANGE Ft. Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

It Shall Be Nameless

I certainly am disappointed in my walk out of some sort of meeting friend (?) benny. It strikes me that he is entirely lacking of the finer feelings. But then I guess he is mercenary like all men. Imagine anyone refusing to help a poor helpless lady unless she can find out what he (resourceful as he seems to be) couldn't find out. However, all for the sake of what he so flatteringly terms my "brain-child," I'll tell him what I have heard about A. D. Smith's technique. What seems to get the best of the poor gals is that sweet dimpled "angel face." Now if you are not fortunate enough to be endowed with that baby stare all I can recommend is Indifference, big boy, Indiffer-And, from all I have heard, you don't need to worry about Wooten. He seems to have a way all his own, just like Bing-boy Kunzig (By the way, a word to the ladies, Bing prefers blondes). Oh, and another thing, another hint about Kunzig's success. He says that things work much better for him if he does his heavy dating during the week while one is resting up on the weekend and rests up while the rest tire out on Fridays and Saturdays. Sounds good anyway?

We recommend the cast on Betty Welty's leg for the Smithsonian Institute. All of her visitors have autographed it and so Betty has decided that she will save it instead of an autograph book.

We wonder just how irked little Bobby Neely was the other day to

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital 1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

THE KIND OF TAILORING YOU KNOW IS GOOD!

We do fine tailoring-and have done it at Fort Benning for years. We invite you to give us a trial, and we're sure we can convince you that our work is just the kind you expect of a military tailor.

Arthur Perlitius

The Tank Tailor

and find a lovely red ticket smeared across the windshield of his car. It seems that the handsome Artilleryman was somewhat annoyed not long ago by the same thing. It strikes me that if he used his bike all the time he wouldn't be in any danger from the M. P.'s because they couldn't get him for speeding and he could carry it right in to meetings with him.

Well, I'll say one thing for Mae Dickerson, she is a bear for punishment. If spills make a good rider she is the best on the post. Last Tuesday morning Mae caused a furor by leaping nimbly from the back of her nag to the fence. Everyone sort of gasped in surprise because they thought that Mae was getting a little bit facetious right suddenly. All was well until she didn't arise with Quite her usual alacrity and then they decided to stop and see if anything had gone haywire. Mae finally came to enough to explain that she had decided to jump before the horse bumped her against a large telephone pole that he was making for. Maybe the idea wasn't so bad after all.

Well, things have reached a point where something has to be done about Piage Michie's failing memory. On top of going to Atlanta and having to wire regrets for a forgotten bridge game to a friend going to the same arty (she couldn't wire the hostess because she had forgotten her name) and forgetting a luncheon and two teas in one week, Paige has pulled the prize boner of them all. The other evening while dining out it seems that a supposedly strange young man came up and spoke to her. Poor Paige was in a fever wondering how to get rid of the person who was trying to talk to her. Then to her horror he sat down and snickered very politely in her face. Finally he explained that he did know her and had played bridge with her just the evening before.

And, by the way, ask Frankie Dohs who is the biggest ghost of them all.

> BENNING IN PARADE (Continued From Page 1)

pressive spectacles seen in this section, with the Benning units contributing a large measure toward its suc-

The post was ably represented in the royalty section of the parade, the parts of "Miss Fort Benning" and "Miss U. S. Army" being taken by Miss Nana Seeley and Miss Kenneth Kendall, respectively, two of the most popular members of the post's younger set. On the speaker's stand the representatives of the post were Maj. General Paul B. Malone, commanding officer of the Third Corps Area, who is visiting with Captain and Mrs. Orryl

S. Robles, and Col. E. G. Peyton. Also well up in the fore-front in the day's ceremonies was the Twentyninth Infantry Band, which played as one of the leading units of the parade, and afterwards took up its position near the Speaker's stand, where it played several selections. It was followed by the Twenty-ninth Infantry unit, and this in turn was followed by the Twenty-fourth Infantry and the Tankers. The Twenty-fourth Infantry Band and the CCC unit from the Post were also assigned places in the parade.

And last, but not least, the kids of the Fort Benning Childrens' School joined those of the Columbus schools in forming one of the longest sections of the march.

FURNITURE

Headquarters for Furniture and all kinds of household furnishing complete line of Sellers' Kitchen and Breakfast-room furniture and Simmons beds, mattresses, springs. At lowest prices and easiest terms.

It will pay you to see us before you buy.

CUNNINGHAM FURNITURE CO

SUCCESSORS TO JOHNSTON-CUNNINGHAM FURNITURE CO.

1014 Broadway

Phone 460

Smart Dresses Are Still Inexpensive

If You Know Where To Shop.

DRESSES

In Silk And Light Weight Wool

Either one being in excellent taste for town wear and informal afternoon wear, with the light weight woolens especially smart.

$15 and 1975

Sizes 14 to 46

Including new Autumn details as cowl necklines, the Chinese influence, woolens with contrasting silk trims, woolens with touches of elegant fur, and new sleeve details. In Autumn's most fashionable colors.

SECOND FLOOR

. presenting the NEW "Invisible" striped of checked

FELT HATS

For wear with the light weight woolens and silks. Including all of the most popular Autumn shades in shapes that are charmingly different from the ordinary run of millinery.

$5.00 to $10.00

genuine MANDRUCCA in brown or black

sports POLO OXFORD $5.95

A genuine mandrucca for active and spectator sports wear. In dark brown mandrucca with underlays of brown calf, or in black mandrucca with black calf underlays. Solid leather heel, leather sole and kid lining.

Phone 556

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

VOLUME III OCTOBER 27, 1933 ----Publisher ._Editor FELICIA C. HOWELL
JACK GIBNEY ----Circulation Manage

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

BY MAJOR HOMER L. CONNER, Medical Inspector

SCARLET FEVER

This disease is more prevalent in the winter months, children are the most susceptible. It is a rare disease in adults.

Scarlet fever, like all diseases of the respiratory system, is a contact disease. The secretions from the mouth, nose and the discharges from the ears and sinuses cause its spread.

Any thing that comes in contact with these secretions or discharges may convey the disease to susceptible persons. The hands, clothing and bedding of the one ill with scarlet fever are always contaminated with these secretions. Coughing or sneezing expel droplets of moisture from the nose or throat which carry the infectious material to persons or objects located several feet away. Promiscuous spitting by one ill with any respiratory disease is always a source of danger to others. Eating utensils and drinking glasses unless thoroughly sterilized spread infection from one person Scarlet fever is not nearly so infectious as measles, mumps, common colds, influenza or whooping cough. Not more than half the susceptible children exposed to it contract the disease.

Scarlet fever is communicable from the very first onset of the disease and be discussed in another article.

it remains so until all abnormal discharge from the nose, throat, ears, or other open lesions ceases. The unrecognized mild cases which often have only a slight reddening of the throat and a rash that lasts for only a few minutes are the common cause for spreading the disease.

These persons are carriers of the particular organism which causes the disease. They are not ill. They continue to play with other children or go to school. They mix freely with others and so expose susceptibles who usually come down with the disease in 3 or 4 days, or a week if they are going to get it.

There is no way of knowing these carriers until after they have spread the disease. Even then many will not be detected. It is fortunate for us that scarlet fever is not highly contagious. Like diphtheria the greatest susceptibility to scarlet fever occurs in childhood, up to the age of 6 most are susceptible, but thereafter this susceptibility rapidly grows less until at the age of 20 we find that about 90 per cent are immune.

The question of finding out if your child is susceptible to scarlet fever and the further question of producing an artificial immunity to this disease will

Reflections Of A Student

In case youse guys don't know about scheme has hung fire, and will probathe NRA, (there's as yet no code for service schools), Columbus is planning a big blue eagle parade soon. Lovely Nana Seeley-picture in last Sunday's podunk-is Miss Fort Benning. Misses Page Michie and Ken-'Sweetheart" Kendall, two charming youngsters, are her attendants. The showing should be splendid, provided the queen doesn't start think ing about her philosophy books in the midst of the parade, and forget to beam upon the great unwashed. Phenix City, Girard, and of course Columbus, are also crowning queens for the occasion, and we can't help looking forward with a bit of interest to inspecting this lineup. Maybe there's something around these parts that even the post bachelors have overlooked.

The good old twenty-ninth, (you lead, we'd rather watch), threw a swelegant dance Friday at the Polo Hunt Club. Several of our classmates were caught climbing in the windows, and promptly ejected, but several more managed to last it out. The music was fine, the floor slick, and the girls got more beautiful as the evening progressed. Herriot was noted providing his latest, a bewitching blonde, with quite a thrill. It must be that cool self confident smile, and halfmasted eyelids, that get 'em. For her part, 'tis said that Jim has at last fallen off that well known wagon at her behest. The dance lasted til 1 a:m, another argument for Friday over Saturday nights for hops. The class entertainment committee has been toying with the idea of a series of four dances to be given during the winter. For two weeks the appare a series for the shore the bly still be under discussion next June unless someone has the initiative to drop his sewing and get down to a little real organization. Let's go, gang, and DO something!

A bad case of "grouping cough" has recently afflicted the class. Every where one hears various members giving that plaintive "gro-o-op, gro-o-op." It must be the fault of that red headed demonstration corporal of the ISD who, by his remarkable vocal accomplishments, has infected the boys with this ailment. However he has now discarded the command "Group" in favor of a hand signal. The razzing DID get pretty thick. Guess he can't

Again Commander Adolph takes a hand. This time his brainchild is an Election Committee. Of all things; we wonder how we managed to get along all this time without it, and are duly grateful to our noble and thoughtful leader for filling this crying need. The Committee's job is to supervise all ballot stuffing, just in case we need to elect anybody for anything. Westlund, Hamilton and Lindquist received the patronage, and jumped right into harness. From three names of their selection we were to pick a representative for the Officer's Club. After a close campaign, featured by much mud slinging, Ray Brisach finally won by a nose. Of course he and Jimmy Durante have a lot in common and the race, perhaps, was unfair. We know of one little gal on Eames Avenue whose eyes will sparkle brighter with motherly pride in her Ray's success. Congratulations old boy on your election as the "piple's choice." (Please turn to page 5)

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Oct. 23-We have had some little hesitation in tellng this one inasmuch as the victim in the case is still confined to a bed in the Post Hospital. We have been assured, however, that his case is not a serious one and while we have all due reverence for the patient's condition we feel that it is really too good

It seems that Cartoonist Jimmy Wharton of the Advanced Class deided, like a good spouse, to treat Mrs. Wharton by taking her to the movies last Wednesday night at Coumbus' leading theater. Accordingly they proceeded to the film house, saw on excellent movie and at the conclusion thereof headed for home. This was by way of preparation for the enrneering exam on the morrow.

Returning to their cozy upstairs Wildwood Court apartment the amiable Jimmy reached in his pocket for the door key only to discover that he had either lost or misplaced it. After a moment or two of contemplation he remembered that the family striker had once solved a similar situation by climbing out on the porch and stepping out to the ledge to open the living room window, somewhat in the manner of a human fly.

Now Wharton although comparatively inexperienced in second-story work, was in rather good physical condition himself after the strenuous acrobatics and gymnastics of the logistics course and decided to do likewise. Suiting the thought to the deed he climbed out to the porch, estimated the distance to the ledge and stepped. But unfortunately he had over looked one factor which had been emphasized again and again by Engineer Heileman and that was, "for all night work add fifty percent to the estimate". Consequently when Jimmy stepped out into space he discovered too late that the ledge wasn't there but by this time it was too late to do anything about it. We would like to be able to say that he made a perfect threepoint landing after his twelve-foot drop but unfortunately such was not the case. Instead he hit the concrete with that portion of his anatomy that is as unmentionable as a first husband. In the language of the supply people it might be said that the impetus came from the rear. He merely sat down on the spur of the moment.

At the present writing Wharton is still in the hospital but from reports received from friends who have seen him. Jimmy insists that he is recuperating rapidly with no bones broken. Assured of this we are now wondering if this one-and-a-half on the part of Jimmy might not have been deliberately planned as one way to pass the Thursday morning engineer exam so feared by the entire class and if, perhaps, the inspiration for it could have come from the jack-knife dive on the platform by Major Wadsworth several weeks before.

In a previous issue we have seen fit to give advice to prospective beecatchers as a result of Schildroth's experience early in September. Hence we feel it our duty to offer a suggestion again. We therefore offer the following: If one would but inspect closely the gyrations of a cat in simthat a sudden jerk of the body causes the landing to be made in such a manner as to hit the ground on all fours, a four point landing as it were. As Major Kraft would say, "It's not necessary but that's one of the prin-

This one was a little tardy in reaching us but we pass it on somewhat in the nature of a late news bulletin. It seems that Cappy Wells, the student father, while attending the recent polo-club class dance, decided that it was necessary to comb his hair. Having thus made up his mind he took in the interior of the building at a glance, found what he was looking for and made for it as the crow flies. Arriving at the door he opened it and passed in, crashing this column and the lad-

SATELLIT

Cpl. Norman H. Hobbs, Conductor Of Satellites Column, To Take Up New Duty With Regiment

quarters and Headquarters Company, 29th Infantry, who a short time ago was conducting the Satellite column and letting the world know of the men of which the army was proud, has been relieved from duty with the Public Relations Office, Fort Benning and returned to his organization for duty as an instructor in the regimental communication school to be held this winter.

Corporal Hobbs hails from Arlington, Massachusetts, where in 1907, August 7th, he was ushered into the world to spend his childhood in this quaint old New England Village. Here as a student at the Parlmin Memorial High School he acquired the basic fundamentals for an education, which has been constantly advancing during the time that he has spent with the colors. As a boy he saw parades, soldiers returning from overseas and patriotic events in which the khaki clad men of the American Army marched. Years after, when he had reached the age when every young man is supposed to give some consideration to what profession he will follow through life, he did not hesitate in coming to a decision. Radios were still a novelty, having never reached the stage of being almost a necessity, and Hobbs, following out his heart's desire, chose to grace the service with his person as a soldier and his ability as a communication ignalman.

Enthusiastically following his chosen profession, Corporal Hobbs has twice graduated from the Post Radio School, where he studied all phases of field communication-telephone, telegraph and radio-and where he ies' dressing room at one and the same time.

As Major Eagles or Captain Phillips would put it, unfortuantely history has not preserved for us what happened next. The report that he backed out nonchalantly with a tactful Pardon me, Sir" has not been verefied. Neither are we fully convinced that in making his withdrawal he tipped his hat to three ladies entering as he passed them at the door. We are confident, however, that these reports en tirely conform with our opinion of just how the major would act, a man whose years of close contact with Broadway celebrities have imbued him with an enviable savoir faire.

The above incident prompts us to uggest humbly to the Conductor of the Flare a substitute contest for the gate-crashers at Russ Pool during the winter months, to be entitled "Wrong Rest Room Ramblers."

Several nights ago the telephone in he Hughes household rang. Ollie left his studies for a moment, proceeded to the instrument and placed the receiver to his ear to announce his presence, but before being given an opportunity to make himself known a sweet demure voice inquired, "Have you gone to bed yet, honey?" Ollie glanced around quickly to determine whether Mrs. Ollie, the only known person authorized to make such a ilar circumstances it would be noted personal inquiry, was perpetrating some sort of a hoay. Having determined that she was entirely innocent his curiosity was sufficiently aroused to request further details but his comeback was interrupted when he discovered two ladies conversing voubly.

We are unable to state whether or not Mrs. Collins, the interrogator in the case, whose telephone is on the same line with that of the Hughes family, has yet been acquainted with description of Ollie's momentory onfusion but we publish the incident merely to caution her and all others using duplex phones against a careless choice of expression that might well be misinterpreted by unknowing eavesdroppers.

Some people are endowed with an insatiable curiosity. One such person

Corporal Norman H. Hobbs, Head- | acquired a knowledge of these subjects that places his name high on the list of technically qualified men of the regiment.

After graduating from this school he did not halt in his quest for learning. In 1932-33 he graduated from the Non-Commissioned Officers' Communication School of Fort Benning, as one of the highest qualified men, hoth tactically and technically, of the Corporal Hobbs has spent eight years in the uniform of a soldier, three of which were served with the 23rd Infantry at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas.

In leaving the plains of the Lone Star state he chose as the next field for his endeavor, Fort Benning, Ga., home of the Infantry School, and the 29th Infantry. As a member of this unit he has completed five years service in the Georgia station. When he came to the demonstrationists his previous experience in an infantry orgunization and the energetic manner in which he performed his dutis soon placed his name among those of the non-commissioned officers of the regi-

For the past three months while serving on special duty with the Public Relations Office of the Infantry School, Corporal Hobbs has written many articles of interest and has done his share toward keeping the publicity of the world's largest school of arms, at par. When he left he was greatly missed, both for his sunny disposition and his capability as a news writer. It was for the interest of the service that he departed to serve as ment who desire to attain some goal.

is this man Mike Gillespie whose place of birth should have been some place in Missouri instead of New York City. Mike is one of the few members of the class honest enough to admit frankly that the instructor has not succeeded in educating him by a bare recital of general principles. As a result Mike has no serious competition in our tally of questions asked by the student. It must be said to his credit that most of the questions occur to the rest of us but we rest comfortably in the belief that Mike will presently come to our res cue and this Mike rarely fails to do.

The other day, while working a problem in rail logistics, one of those overworked situations that depend on the train, Mike happened to glance up to the beaver board on the instructor's platform where a large chart had been installed, profusely covered with blank strips of white paper. The teacher was evidently holding something back. This bothered our good friend Gillespie for the moment but he resisted the temptation and went back to his figuring. A few minutes of diligent application to his arithmetic and he looked up again, only to find that the strips of paper were still up. Now this annoved Mike considerably. He felt that there must be something underneath these innocent white strips that he had to knov about. But a masterful control of willpower brought ompu where he struggled manfully albeit somewhat disconcertedly. Glancing up a third time some few minu es later only to discover that the strips were still up was just a little too much. The my tery of the thing nettled him. Unable to control himself any longer he rose to his feet and in a deep, booming voice asked, "Sir, what's under those pieces of paper-the ans-

Speaking of Mike reminds us of one on Major Wadsworth in his excellent terrain exercise earlier in the week. To Mike's question concerning the initial employment of the howitzer platoon the Major came back with "Does anybody have somebody's plan on

(Please turn to page 10)

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT

Continued from Page 4

Benning is one place where squatter's rights are not observed. Take the sad case of brother Schanze, who, after much creaking and groaning, finally settled on his haunches to watch a field musketry demonstration. Quietly busy hands gathered a small pile of dried grass and placed it under Schanze's plump little fanny. Quickly a match was applied, and the boys moved back to observe the fun. Never slow of action, our hero is nevertheless not one to jump at conclusions. Several sniffs convinced him of a fire, but where? None could be seen. Yet there it was again, an unmistakable odor of burning leather. Can it be? no, it couldn't, but yes, it WAS! Ouch, blankety

You bet they do! Any kid will tell you how good ice cream is, especially Fore-most Ice Cream! And, also, you'll find it particularly adaptable for any entertainment use.

> Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES.

INCORPORATED

blank ad infinitum; It's still an oficial mystery as to how that fire

It was on this same afternoon that teve Hamilton, that trusty section eader, received such a fine commenlation from none other than Col. Bonesteel himself. Good work, Ham, nd sorry that there are no funds ivailable to purchase you a new hat.

Thanks are accorded Mess Officer Harry Dowdall, whose acute eardrums first detected the passage of the Graf Zeppelin overhead early Tuesday nornng. Breakfasting students rushed forth from their meagre meal of eggs and grits to marvel at Her Germanic Majesty as she sailed calmly northward. At low altitude, with all nctors droning evenly, and the na-ional colors of red, white and black painted in strips along the vertical fins. she made a beautiful and awe nspiring sight in the misty light. Not a quiver marked her course above this busy post. What a comparison to our own tiny and frantic truggles, as we take some nine months to accomplish a similar feat.

And in passing, would that Sir Harry's ears were as acutely attuned to the mess gripings as they are to he Graf's motors. Comparatively the former are far more resounding, yet accomplish nothing. Grits, r.ts, and still more GRITS!

Last Thursday was one of those lays about whch you dream, but which never seem to arrive. Sketchng on that day was completed with bang, (quite a bang for some), and vith a sigh of relief the class snapped hut the latches on the old sketch sit. Things had gotten so bad that f you took a student out for a drive, he poor boy couldn't talk. Why? Because he was mentally running conours in and out of every little hill and stream. Some men got so tied up n contours that they're still in a narl. But not so Mr. Brown. He's already blissfully forgotten the mean-As Capt. Bloomng of "sketch." quist said, "Mr. Brown, if you ever could draw, you'd certainly be a car-toonist." Thus we bid a fond goodbye to the teapot domes and hour glasses. May our successors find more pleasure than we did in the old familiar cycle of tramp, set up able, sight, guess, sketch, cuss, and ramp again.

"What's wrong with this picture?" That is the question your student is confronted with these days. Much may be said pro and con about the county fair type of examination, but we'd all be better off if we had a course in short hand first. By the time one completes writing up the irst s xteen mistakes in an exhibit. ime is called, and poor Mr. Student is left with the bag. The powers take dvantage of this, and by including o many unmarked errors, the examinee is, in addition, best with the question of determining which of all he mistakes he sees should be noted on his paper. Our latest exam in nusketry is a good example, but we won't drag up unpleasant ghosts. That ubject is gone too, thank heaven!

No pep

And now they're trying to introduce narried officers into Block 21! This hreat brought all Biglervillagers hotly up on their hind legs, to answer solidly, 'Hell's fire, NO sir!" Long has this area remained a haven for the lonely male. The bachelor, that happy, self centered and freedom loving individual, here maintains his rule unhampered; going, coming, and doing what he likes without fear of feminine invasion or ridicule. As last stand of a fast disappearing race, Block 21 today is a thing of interest and scientific value. The lives of its inhabitants may be observed and studied at one's leisure. Surround he bachelor with such homey contrivances as wives, stoves, children and wash lines, and instantly his apearance changes. No longer at ease, e becomes dour, assumes a strained defensive attitude, and is in fact, a reature of another character entirely.

Rather, instead of destroying this natural resources, let us turn it into national park, endowed forever to he benefit of scientists, and the inriguing of women.

Bayonet and hand grenade now hold the spotlight, along with Major Easley, who is back with us again. He's as much a study as any of his subjects, and far more interesting. He's now teaching the use of the "Chicago baseball, or Russian pine-In other words, grenades, which are "infernal and fiendish instruments of death and destruction." It would be quite an easy course, but like everything else in the army, it's made hard by various and complicated rules and orders. When it takes five cents to hurl a chunk of iron fifty feet, we almost lose hope. As a child we could do the same, far more acurately, and without any order at ill. But now we must worry about tance, swing, body movement etc., much as a golfer knocking out a 300 gard drive.

Bayonet instruction is much more ively, and at least we can take off he outer shirt. The first drill cerainly exposed a wide and varied aso tment of undershirts: some made fishnets look like heavy drapes, while thers had hair growing through the weave and some ever were of silk! Skinny arms, fat arms, long arms and hort arms, hairy chests, smooth chests, unken chests and full chests, all are there. So come around some time, girls, and see the denouement. If he's still your idea after this show. he'll always be!

Willett Baird did his bit to bring fame and fortune to the class by almost winning the fourth corps area colf tourney. Sparloz was beaten by the close score of 1 up on the finals Major Rawson. Good words Sparky-you're a good representative of the old class.

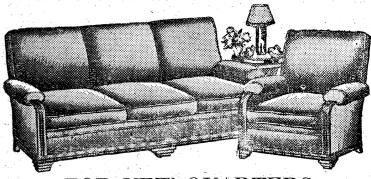

The Old Man Savs

Regardless of the heights reached in earthly endeavor, we still have the common article—man

The English speaking people have wonderful language. Profanity is unnecessary to give emphasis for any other purpose.

Familiarity breeds Friendliness is an art. Be an artist.

A "rubber" arm is fine for your own morale, but remember to give the other fellow a pat. Synonymous with pat is "lend me five."

FOR NEW QUARTERS

2 Piece Tapestry Suite Green or Rust On Terms

"See our window."

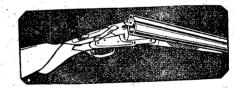

You can be sure of getting the kind of furniture you need at the prices you like to pay at

PENNELL FURNITURE CO.

1249 Broadway

Made To Get The Game

THE OLD RELIABLE

DOUBLE BARREL 12 GAUGE RANGER $18.95 .410 GAUGE SINGLE BARREL $7.69

THE LOAD YOU WANT

80c12 Gauge Heavy Load.... 75c 12 Gauge 3-1-6-1.....

75c 16 Gauge 70c

20 Gauge 65c

.410 Gauge

in addition to the above articles, you will find everything else necessary to complete your hunting outfit, and all of it is sold at correspondingly low prices. Sears' is one store that never sacrifices quality for price-you will get years of satisfaction and service from articles you buy here. Remember to:-

AND SAVE SHOP AT SEARS'

1008 BROADWAY

PHONE 3760

Sputter Hard Start Stall Engine Miss

Before Winter Comes!

Have your car's Water Connections Tightened and the Engine Tuned Up.

> Save yourself a lot of trouble later on by having the water connections tightened up now! And, aīso, have the engine tuned up before cold weather is here. Drive your car by now for an estimate at no cost to you.

AUTO DEPARTMENT

X C H A N G E FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin Loses To Godwin By Knockout

Batton's Opponent Takes Kavo Over 24th Inf. Battler

BY JACK GIBNEY

Corn Griffin lost to Bob Godwin Wednesday night, and in losing achieved more popularity among Benning fans than has been his due for many moons, for Corn went down in defeat with his colors flying, and never ceased to throw leather till the referee had awarded the battle to Godwin by a technical K. O. in the fifth

Beaten conclusively in the latter part of the fifth round, Corn went down under a barrage of blows as he lay helpless on the ropes, went down and came up at the count of nine to move on, Godwin, swinging all the time and trying hard for a K. O. only to go down again and again. Three times Griffin pulled himself to his feet after blows that would have broken the heart and jaw of the average man, came up shaking his head and with an unconquerable light in his

There is ONLY ONE Super-X

Short Shot Stringan exclusive feature of the Western Super-X shotgun load -- enables you to pull down ducks that are 15 to 20 yards beyond the range of ordinary loads. Get your Western Super-X, Xpert and Field shells here — and the rest of your hunting supplies.

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE Fort Benning

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service.

eye, the third time to watch referee Godwin was given a technical knock-Hal Davis raise Godwin's hand in token of victory. It was an exhibition of gameness and plain Anglo-Saxon guts that has never been equalled at Fort Benning, and Fort Benning is saluting Griffin as a fighter who lost-fighting.

Godwin started slow in the first round. Griffin came out of his corner savagely, with the intention of ending the fight quickly. He landed a number of hard punches before Godwin got started, and the fans looked on wondering. Toward the middle of the round Godwin got over a punch or two, and then got Griffin on the ropes with a hard right. It looked like a draw with a possible shade to

The second round opened with a trading session, Griffin's punches were sliding off Godwin's arms as they were held in a defensive position and were deflected low, the referee warning him. Godwin claimed a foul but efused to take time out, and tore into Corn like a wild man, filling the air with leather and landing rights nad left to the head. Griffn weathered the storm but took several more to the head before the round ended.

Round three saw the beginning of he end when Corn slowed up under the barrage of leather that was coming his way. The boys started off with a slugging bee, came out of it to trade lefts, and Corn staggered Godwin with a right to the heart, another to the head, and still another to the body, his glove moving like light-Godwin landed two hard punches to the jaw. Corn countered with a hard right to the head, but took three in return as he rolled along the ropes. Godwin tore in and scored with rights and lefts at will.

Griffin came back strong in the start of the fourth and did most of the punching. Godwin landed a right to the body, and a right to the head. They traded lefts. Godwin backed Griffin into the ropes and sent over a number of lefts to the head. Griffin broke loose and countered with a light left to the jaw, but Godwin hemmed him up on the ropes again sending over rights and lefts in a flurry, ending with a right cross that sent Griffin to the floor for the count of nine. Corn came up and weathered the storm until the bell.

Godwin came out in the fifth, measured Corn with his left, and sent over a hard right. Griffin was taking lots of punishment from those blows but kept boring in. Godwin landed another hard right, and a left that sent Corn's head bobbing. The Tanker recovered and bore in again trying to get close and work on Godwin's body. Godwin landed a right in the middle of the ring. Corn went down, but took the count on his knees and coming up at nine. He stepped toward Godwin, but Bob rushed him across the ring and into the ropes, where he landed a hard left that sent Corn down again, for the count of nine. Griffin got to his out in two minutes and fifty seconds 29th Inf. Loses To of the fifth round.

PRELIMINARIES GOOD

Cotton Batton walloped a little colored boy from Orlando, Fla., around the ring for two minutes and thirty econds, led with jaw and stopped a bone-crushing right, and the semi-final of eight rounds was ended. It was the surprise event of the evening to some, as Batton was leading and well in front while the fight lasted The Unknown Black proved that his reserve left was nothing to monkey with and Cotton was dragged to his orner and worked over for about two minutes before he was able to leave

The most disputed fight of the evening was the bout between Bunker Hill and Jack Harp, which, while not burning up the canvas as a battle, tarted the Benning fans on one of heir tirades against the officials.

The awarding of a decision to Hill vas a most unpopular verdict, but he only one that could have been given under the N. B. A. rulings. Harp impressed the crowd with his howing in the last two rounds, and it was this factor that was largely in the minds of the fans when they booed the decision.

There will hardly be any argument advanced by any fair-minded indivilual as to whether Hill won the first hree rounds. Harp was warned by he referee to get in and fight at he end of the third but continued to dance around and stall through the econd and third, with Hill trying to make a battle of it. In the fourth Harp opened up, and by design or accident, hit Hill low, was warned by he referee, and Hill given a three minute rest. Harp again hit low twice n this round according to spectators at the ring-side, but got away with it, and then went on to take the last two rounds. BUT-with Hill taking the first three, the N. B. A. rulings stated that any boxer fouling another n any round shall automatically lose that round, and the only way Harp ould have won would have been by K. O. Especially displeasing was the show made by Harp of taking a raditional "poke at the referee" when the verdict was announced. Intead of being held back, we doubt f he could have been pushed up to ace Referee Davis. Ching Johnson took an awful walloping from Frank Mackery for six ounds, only to make a Frank Merriwell finish and tag the Tanker on his chin and win by a K. O. with one minute to go. Fans are considering Ching's win in the nature of a lucky break, but the Giant Killer has done it so many times that a lot of them are doubtful.

Herbie Yuttmeyer showed up the Mystery Man, who proved to be Pat Cloud, of the Tanks, to be the exchampion of the 8th Corps Area, in their four-round mix-up. Herbie was contented to tire Cloud out and make him miss badly during the early part of the fight, but came to life and had Mysterious Mose almost out at the bell in the fourth. It was a good fight, just a little slow.

Tarzan Nelson didn't have the stayng ability in his bout with Lightning Lige, and the darker boy took the decision. Nelson acquired a great deal of respect for Lige's punch late in the fourth and was quite occupied staving out of range.

The opening wrestling match was one of the best features of the card. Smoky Joe Wood and Chesty Cooper were not satisfied to keep their fight o themselves, it extended into the ing-side seats, involved the referee, and threatened several times to incororate some of the cash customers. The two boys put on a wonderful exhibition, and had the fans yelling all he way in their torso-tossing, bonestretching no-decision, ten minute set-

Pensacola And To Bowden

The 29er's dropped their second fracas via the aerial route last Sunday afternoon, October 22, when Pensacola Naval Station, up from the Gulf looking for revenge for their trimming at the post last year, tossed wo completed passes itno the end zone, and kicked one goal to win

The Green Wave of the Twentyninth fought bravely throughout the ame and looked, in the first quarter of the melee, as if it would swamp the Gulfers under its powerful tide. But the aerial combination of Gannon to Byng for the visitors was too much for the Greenies.

The Twenty-ninth team, still in pattered condition from its conflict with the powerful Bowden eleven on Friday the 20th, couldn't muster a fierce enough storm to sink the Navymen. Its offense was obviously lame from its loss of the all-star half, Prophet, who received a serious back injury in the clash with Bowden.

A break came to the Green Wave in the first quarter when it broke through the Pensacola defense and blocked a kick, recovering it in the shadows of the Navy's goal. But the Gulfers planted their heels firmly in the sod and refused to cede a foot, in spite of the plunges of the heavy Benning backs. A pass grounded in the end zone placed the ball on the twenty yard line. A fumble of Pensacola's punt by Harper and a re-Please turn to Page 7)

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

A Curren Whereever We Serve 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

BETTER THAN 3.2

A good hot stack of wheats and a plate of piping hot sausages are relished these crisp mornings. The folks in these parts are blessed in that they are furnished the best country pork sausage made from country hogs -OLD SETTLER'S — The pork sausage with a kick. Every pound manufactured under surveillance of trained United States Inspectors.

The Provision Company, Inc.

MIX POPULAR DRINKS

With

NEHI FIZZ

RUMS DR Ginger Ale

Your Friends Will -Tell You That

They Are --

The Best

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS.

__$ 600,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

29TH LOSES TO PENSACOLA (Continued from page 6)

ing team a chance to score. Making the best of the opportunity, Gannon twirled a beautiful pass to Byng, who received it in the end zone for the Navy's first touchdown. A neat place-kick gained the extra point. Tallying again in the second half with another pass from Gannon to Byng, Pensacola won the victory by the score of 13-0.

Gannon and Byng looked the most oppressive for the visitors, while the line of the Benning team deserved mention.

29TH INFANTRY-BOWDEN FOOT-BALL GAME

The Green Wave dropped their first game of the season last Friday, Oct. 20 by a score of 6-0, when Bowden combed the whiskers on one of the oldest plays in football history and scored via the hidden player route, in the last five minutes of play.

The 29th team quite upset the dope by holding the Bowden team to as low a score as it was, since the dope sheet had them down for a pretty shellacking. The Benning line proved to be much stronger than the dopesters had given them credit for, and held the Bowden backfield powerless. The main trouble with the Doughboy offensive was the lack of coordination in the backfield, as the proper combination of backs had not been found.

Holloway, newcomer to the 29th, and player on last year's Alabama Frosh, was listed as one of the outstanding stars from the manner in which he backed up the line. Saunders made several nice trips down the

REPAIR WORK

With us is more than just another job to be done—it is a demonstration of our skill, of our fine mechanical equipment, and of our economical prices. We are in a position to do repair work on any make of care and invite you to drive by for an estimate.

Columbus Roberts Motor Co.

510-14 12th St.
Phone 271-272

Studebaker Pierce-Arrow
White — Indiana Trucks

field for substantial gains, as did Prophet, until he was taken out with a back injury. Hunt, Berish, and Wilson were outstanding in the line.

The score in the last quarter was made by Smith, Bowden quarterback, who went into ambush on the sidelines while a substitution was in progress, and then took a long pass from Kickenson, Bowden half, to run 33 yards for the only score. Massey, Bowden center, and George, Bowden end, together with Kintz, were the outstanding players for the civilian team.

83RD F. A. BARBECUE (Continued from page 1)

crowds over the Central of Benning to the Water Tanks.

The Twenty-ninth Infantry Band furnshed a delightful program and the athletic events provided pleasure and surprise to the contestants and spectators.

Following is a list of events and winners:

Ladies:

Rolling Pin Throwing—Mrs. Flippo won with a target hit.

Needle Threading—Miss McGuire, by the use of three good eyes.

Husband Calling—Mrs. S. H. Workman—with much volume of voice and some effect on First Sergeant Workman.

Nail Driving—Mrs. G. A. McCallum—with a strong right arm and a good hammer.

Husband and Wife Wheelbarrow Push—Sergeant and Mrs. E. A. Gehm with a well lubricated barrow and a down hill grade. Children:

Boys' Sack Race—f. U. West.

Girls' Spoon and Potato Race-Francis West.

Boys' Spoon and Potato Race—Wendell Beyan.

Girls' Shoe Race—Francis West. Boys' Shoe Race—F. U. West.

Girls' Three-Legged Race—Juanita McRae (Pair Captain).

Boys' Three-Legged Race—Edward Gehm (Pair Captain).

Gehm (Pair Captain).
Enlisted Men:
Cigarette Rolling—Evans, Bat. "A."

HHorHsHesHhoe cmfw vbgkqjgkq Horseshoe Pitching—Hq. Btry. Cracker Eating—Duncan, Bat. "A." Indoor Backward Baseball Game—

Headquarters Battery Team.
Pie Eatng—Bryan, Battery "A." Beauty Contest—Jackson and Parker, Battery "A."

Major C. A. Selleck, The Battalion
Commander, presented the following named members of the Base Ball Team with beautiful trophies in recognition of their spirit and aggressiveness during the past season:

Morris, Holloway, Cherry, Mathews, McLeod, Thornhill, Speer, Wilson, Scheeler, Nelson, Lackey, and Rhodes.

Lieutenant C. H. Studebaker Commanding Headquarters Battery presented swimming suits and A. R. C. emblems to the following named members of that organization for having qualified as senior Life Savers during the past summer:

Colin W. Pike, Russell D. Cox, William Gunn, John Nahring, William H. McLean, Andy J. Lewis, Raymond C. Foster, Alvin L. Bridges, Marion Amason, Theophile Cambre.

And the barbecue! Each Mess Officer and Mess Sergeant vied the other in attempting to put out the best and could we take it? Here's hoping for another B. B. B. real soon.

Don't Say Goodbye To Your Pay PHONE 1841

Travel cheaply and comfortably in one of The Rent-A-Car Co.'s Cars. You'll get there more quickly and more easily than in any other.

EASY RATES — COMFORTABLE NO HOUR CHARGE

RENT-A-CAR CO.

519 EIGHTH ST.

Discriminating Men
Of The South Put Their Faith In

SCHWOBILTERS OF BREGUS PAT OFF

fine clothes

$16.50

AND

$19.50

A Great Day for the A R M Y

October 26th, about fifteen years ago, was a great day for the Army—for then the embryo camp was begun which we know to-day as Fort Benning, the home of the Infantry School. Not even the most ardent dreamer could have foreseen what the camp would be or what it will be, and we take this opportunity, on the eve of its fifteenth birthday, to wish Fort Benning another fifteen years of enlargement and expansion.

Men of Fort Benning: We hope that in the past our efforts to please you have been successful, and that in the future, you may expect as much from us as you have always expected—the last word in style, economy and comfort.

The SCHWOB Co.

The Standard Tailoring Co.

1037 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

29th Inf.

HEADQUARERS COMPANY
Headquarters Company mounted section is getting in fine shape for the fall horse show.

Grady McLendon heads the list from last year's horse show. He got three first places and one second place.

Charlie Wright won first place last year in the 4th CA jumps. Says if his horse jumps this year like he jumps from wire in the field no one else has a chance. Shoemake is one of our green jumpers and is doing fine.

Stambaugh says he is getting too old for this jumping stuff.

Joe Sandow reports he has a two legged horse now and that he has retired from the jumping stuff also.

The stable crew are singing these days. We love our stable sergeant all on him at one time better known as Gubberhead. They are looking forward to his retirement and hope he gets Master Sergeant. His familiar words to the crew in the morning: "Let us double up and get a groom and don't get foxy."

We hope you enjoyed your detail last Sunday and hope you like your next detail you get on Sunday.

Louis Satina is still chief mule leader of the mule section and reports he is not going to enter the jumping events this year with his mule Dan.

"Willing to be Corp." Geiger now has been spilt by most all of the best horses in the ocrral. Geiger is now on a furlough and says he wants to get horses off the brain and attend to his cow ranch down in Florida.

Joe Dickman, one of our champion horses, has won the post championship in jumping last horseshow. He has won the fault and out for the past three years. If they get any more stars for Joe Dickman he will have to start wearing them on Grady McLendon's leg.

Joe Dickman is jumping 4 feet and

Sgt. Murphy chief of radio section is now enjoying a 30 days' furlough.

Our indoor baseball teams have made two triple plays in the morning games this week. These games are played between the wire section and the radio section. The wire section has pulled both the triple plays. This is an unusual stunt for baseball and indoor baseball especially.

One of these triples was made in this manner: Dan Walden ran back and with one of his mighty leaps speared a Texas leaguer, threw to first to Easley, and Easley threw to second to Davis and this completed the triple.

-I. M. Yarbrough.

COMPANY, "H"

Your scribe has been hooked for CCC duty and 'week in week out from morn til night you can hear his bellows roar,' veen if it is only for a couple of months. Corp. Owens too, is on duty with the supply section of the Reconditioning Camp, and seems to be quite content with his lot.

J. B. Mauney is working very smoothly in his role as Company Clerk and we are inclined to believe that such efficiency must be the result of plenty of hard trying.

In giving a certain combat signal by hand the other day (section echelon we think) Sgt. Coleman apparently forgot himself and gave quite a creditable exhibition of shadow boxing before he realized where he was. (The above is purely hearsay and if it appears to be slightly exaggerated, well you know how little things can be made into big things).

Pvt. Icl. H. T. (Seaman) Sollie was commended by the Battalion Commander for his excellent work while the Regiment was on the Annual practice march, nice work 'Sea-bags.'

That's all for this time, maybe next week something big will turn up and we can masticate the fabric for a few more paragraphs with you.

'Abbyssinia.'

-Ernest Stephens.

HQ. CO. FIRST BATTALION

What Ho everybody!!! Lots of news this week right off the press. Basketball teams, football games, hallowe' en dances at the Service Club, 'n everything. Sweet stuff!!

To start this week's article after the preliminary boloney always necessary for an introduction we'll 'xplain about the cage quintet. As you know the basketball five is named after Lieutenant Lynn E. Brady of 1st Battalion Headquarters Company and has been dubbed "Brady's Bombers." They have started their practice for the year and can be seen in action at the Post Gymnasium daily between two and three o'clock. Practically the same lineup as last year is representing the 1st Bat's Company team with Ripper Ray, running guard, Hiram Hobbs at standing position, Frank Smith at one of the forward sections and Snipper Snead holding down the other. A toss-up between Knight and Prince for the center and a wealth of new material for substitutes. Here (Please turn to Page 9) welcome "E" Company, better watch your crown—it may adorn the head of the Bomber Captain at the end of the season.

Now for football. Remember the football game played at Doughboy Stadium between the Navy eleven and the Regimental team. Not one man in the whole stands would utter an encouraging yell for their own team, the writer can imagine how the players of the 29th felt when they were being sorely trounced by the powerful Navy gridders. But instead of a companionable cheer the team was subjected to the humiliation of many boos from a number of poor sports that sat in the stands. What do you say to that 29th Infantrymen? Let's turn out a cheering section at the next game and give the boys a big hand even though they are on the losing end of the affray. That old yea bo spirit, gang, what do you say are you with us?

Now for the dancing thrills. For the information of the enlisted dancing set of Fort Benning, Mrs. Setzler, hostess at the Service Club is sponsoring a dance at the aforementioned place on the date of issue of the Benning Herald, Friday, October 27th, 1933. She is giving away prizes to the best looking girl in the niftiest costume

-N. Hobbs

ENGINEERS

There is an epidemic taking the Engineers by storm. Cpl. Lassiter has a baseball team, and Sgt. Jones has a football team under his nose. Won't someone raise a basketball team for us?

A new Flyweight Champion has arrived by the looks of Marshburn. More power to you Grigsby.

Wop was told by a member of the Company to shut his eyes so that the person could give him something. And from the looks of the Wop's ear it must have been plenty to say the least. Now was that nice, Marshburn?

Say, Polock why don't you get a little practice before you try to beat the Sarge on the Hoo-Per-Doo?

Thomas says that he has water on the knee. But from what Tanner says it must be water on the brain. Now what does the rest of the outfit think?

I understand that we have a Dr. in the outfit. Some sweet thing called up from town the other day and asked to speak to her DR. So any time any of us feel a little bad, all we will have to do is call on Dn. A. H. Reeves. Now ain't that as nice as can be?

They tell me Hix is going to say "I do"again before long, but it's going to be "Till death do us part" instead of the usual three year stack. We all hope that you win the war Hix. And also that there won't be very many troubles either.

There is an empty bunk in one of the squads room every night. I wonder if McJohnston won't tell us how he manages to get so many bus tickets. Will you, please, Old Folks?

The basketball team really looks pretty good. And as soon as they get used to playing together they are going a lot of the outfits some real and very serious trouble.

83rd F. A.

HQ. HQ., BATTERY AND C. T.

Well, well we are on the air again to give you a few news notes and a little scandal and a little scandal.

Cpl. Nahring the bald headed Gigle of this organization is the play boy of 35th street, in the vicinity of North Highlands. Cpl. Nahring rode to town with Hooky Rowland, a former member of the battery, to the happy hunting grounds in North Highlands. John is organizing a German Brass Band so that when beer is legalized in Georgia the brass band will fill several engagements at the beer gardens. John and his bands is under contract to play at Boyles

Thirty Acres every Saturday evening. Foots Cutrer the boy with the million dollar smile and the big feet has been invited to attend the convention of wrestlers to be held at Raleigh, Virginia

-C. H. S'

BATTERY "A"

The Battery has been working hard for the last few weeks training quite a number of recruits, to fill the vacancies that were left open by men discharged.

The Battalion announced a holiday and a barbecue last Saturday in honor of the battalion baseball team, which most all the men of this battery attended. The day was enjoyed very much by all, in addition to the barbecue there were a number of events before dinner was served, that gave everybody a laugh. Most of the events were won by men of Battery A, i. e., cigarette rolling contest was won by Pvt. Evans, cracker eating won by Pvt. Duncan, pie eating won by Pvt. Pat Byrne, and we are glad to know that the best looking man in the battalion belongs to Battery A, Pvt. Jackson walked away with that.

Our Cave Man, lion hearted Pfc. Johnson L. A., seems to have changed and calmed down recently as he seems gentle as a baby nurse.

BATTERY "C"

In C Battery at present nothing is happening. We admit that we are tearing down, moving, and rebuilding the stables, complete; training the three inch gun battery and the hundred and five battery for the double firing soon to come; training the detail, reorganized because of many absences on CCCC, for demonstration and tests. The middle of November will see us with two firing batteries, one and half B. C. detail, and better stables than ever before.

Congratulations Fort Benning

on Your

15th

Anniversary

We feel too that the time is appropriate to congratulate our government on having such capable men as . . .

BRIG. GEN. GEO. ESTES, Commandant

and

COL. CHAS. W. WEEKS, Asst. Commandant

In charge of their most Important School

And we know that the government appropriation for expansion will be spent wisely and the school will run even more smoothly than before has been known as the Columbus Headquarters for Fort Benning officers, men and their wives.

For 15

Years CHANCELLOR CO.

We are proud of this honor and will strive more than ever to give even better service in the years to come.

Chancellor Co.

Men's and Boys' Wear

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for your-self that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHILD

FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

The Old Schoolhouse

We'll have to begin, this week, with apologies, restitution and all those things. We heard, some time ago, that one of our comrades with some literary tendencies had been accused of sponsoring this atrocity. So we thought it would be amusing to append his initials and hang it on him for keeps. Get Adolph mad at him and everything.

But we discover that he doesn't think it funny. Can you believe it—he isn't proud of being accused of our authorship. So we publicly, here and now, take it all back.

Now that that's off our chest, we can go on with our sprightly spoofings. But not before we mention the fact that Hamquist can't see why we gave Schanze his apple-toting reputation. Hammie says that he taught Schanze all he knows about the way to an instructor's heart.

Steer seems to have gotten the old school spirit down to perfection too. If you disagree with everyone else, you're bound to be right.

And Major Barrett has been elected honorary class president by popular acclamation.

We were greatly amused, on the day of the mugging formation, by the variety of blouse trimmings. We learned that Felber sports a large and gaudy one which proclaims his ability to translate 'voulez-vous—' into Chinese on any occasion. And Mark VIII Moore is a qualified scoutmaster.

SOCIETY

(Continued From Page 2)
WELFARE COUNCIL TO HOLD MEETING AT POLO HUNT CLUB ON MONDAY

The Welfare Council of Fort Benning will hold its first meeting of the Season Monday at the Polo-Hunt Club with General Estes making the opening address. The business meeting with General Estes at the head of the program will start at 3:00 o'clock. After the business meeting the officers of the Council will be the hostesses at a tea honoring Mrs. George H. Estes who is the chiarman of the advisory board. The officers of the Welfare Council are: Mrs. Elbert J. Lyman, President; Mrs. Thos. B. Catron, Vice-President; Mrs. Jesse A. Ladd and Mrs. Ed. C. Betts, Secretaries; and Mrs. Joseph A. Holly, Treasurer. The members of the Ad-

Bulletin

NEW DRUG STORE

for

FORT BENNING GARRISON

OPENS TODAY

At the intersection of Brown Street and Fort Benning Road there has been opened a modern up-to-date Drug Store for the convenience of the Garrison. This store carries a complete stock of drug store needs and will be open until 11 p. m. each night. The name is

Benning Park Pharmacy

and the telephone number is

762 CITY

BURKES AND WIMBERLEY PROPRIETORS

bennie, the bedbug.

now i know ive got to apologize to the lady. i dont know why she decided to threaten me but i wont be technical. i take it all back.

i finally hooked a ride to town. but i was sorry i thought of it, before we had gotten across the bridge. i was unfortunate enough to pick doug campbell to ride with. I hadnt known that i had any hair until i felt it standing on end.

i had thought that block 21 was bad but i hadnt seen anything. i guess they took the general seriously when he said he didnt care what went on in the village. it has its advantages though, if ninettes dancing academy in wynnton could charge admission to the spectators in the alley every night, the class would be even more sadly bent than it is now. if that is possible.

most of the first squad lives in town, too. thats what you might call a vantage point. close to the seats of the mighty. two of them live in the same house, and can you imagine what a big shovel that janitor has to have.

the natives come around in droves to see verbecks mustache. some of them think maybe he might be sheman again but most of them think he looks more like the oldest preston boy so he is probably safe.

(Ed. Note: Dear benny: Unfortunately the editorial staff had a bad case of mistaken identity last week, which accounts for the initials appended to your column. And we hereby apologize.)

visory Board are: Mrs. Estes, Chairman; Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton, Mrs. Charles W. Weeks and Mrs. George L. Baltzell.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT HELD MONDAY NIGHT AT OFFICERS' CLUB

The mixed couples duplicate contract bridge tournament that was held Monday night at the Officers' Club was a huge success. Due to the large number of players the contestants were divided into two sections of eight tables each. Winners in the first section were: North-South, first Mr. and Mrs. Calvin DesPortes, second (tied) Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. Stuart, and Lieut. and Mrs. Cleland C. Sibley. East-West, first, (tied) Mrs. Paul W. Baade and Lieut. Col. Charles H. Bonesteel, and Capt. and Mrs. Henry J. Matchett. Winners in the second section were: North-South, first, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dismukes, second (tied) Lieut. and Mrs. Russell G. Emery, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. John L. Jenkins. East-West. first (tied) Col. and Mrs. Charles F. Morse, Mrs. Charles F. Colson and Mrs. Francis J. Gillespie. Plans are being made to hold a men's duplicate tournament the date t obe announced

COLUMBUS LITTLE THEATRE TICKETS SOLD HERE

The season membership tickets for the Little Theatre Players of Columbus are on sale at the office of the Officers' Club at Fort Benning. These tickets entitle the purchaser to seats at all four of the shows of the Little Theatre players in Columbus and their price is very reasonable. The first of these shows, "The Brat" is already in rehearsal and will be played during the first part of November.

PERSONALS

Lieut. and Mrs. Lynn E. Brady have as their house guest the latter's sister Mrs. Gerald Swallow of Philadelphia, Colonel and Mrs. Frank F. Jewett have received orders to Fort Moultrie, South Carolina, where Colonel Jewett will assume command.

Miss Barbara Lowe the attractive daughter of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. T. H. Lowe of Fort McPherson, is the house guest of Miss Katherine Lemly.

THE FLARE

(Continued From Page 1) after an excellent dinner, the entente cordiale was entirely restored.

SUBMARINE SIGHTED

Most of our readers left partially consumed breakfasts on Tuesday morning to view the Graf Zeppelin overhead en route to Chicago. None of them got the surprise, however, that was served to Prison Officer O'-Connell with his eggs when his maid said: "Suh, Captain did you see the submarine go by?"

GOLF ETIQUETTE

The recent Corp Area Golf Tournament was a complete success from every angle. It also proved that chivalry is not dead in the Army. R. H. I. P. is still with us. The ranking entrant in the tournament, Major General Paul B. Malone, won his flight.

CENSORSHIP CENSURED

We are for free thought and free expression of opinion. Censorship should have its limits. The publisher of our esteemed contemporary, The Daily Bulletin," recently received copy for the notice of a recently organized class for women in physical exercises. The writers of the notice claimed that the exercises would reduce the hips and other fleshy portions of the anatomy." The published notice had been so altered as to bear no resemblance to the above claim in the original copy. We maintain that this is unfair practice. By our personal observations at Russ Pool during the past bathing season, consumed breakfasts on Tuesday we feel sure that this censorship has morning to view the Graf Zeppelin done the new class out of many puoverhead en route to Chicago. None

MENTAL WANDERINGS The reflection that the hot weather may be over; that the nights are cool; that life is good; that the academic vear is well started; the thought that Infantry School is a misnomer; that it should be called the all-activities school because of the fact that the hunt season has started; that the dramatic season starts this week-end; that the big golf tournament is just over; that the officers' and enlisted men's bowling leagues are in progress; that the fall tennis tournament is about to start; that the C. C. C. reconditioning camp and allied activities go on apace. The conviction that there are several more nearby football games which should be seen; that if succeeding football trips are as strenuous as the one last week-end I will not live to make many more; that the idea of citing in this column the doings of my companions on that trip is a bad one; that they might have as much on me as I have on them. The belief that I have now consumed enough space to turn over the conductor's cap to E. F. R.; that I can now adjourn sine die; that I accordingly do so.

-Pinchhitter.

New Books

RIO GRANDE

By Harvey Fergusson
1933 Knopf.

This book is the romance of a region, but it is also more than that. Taking the Rio Grande valley in New Mexico as its central theater, it portrays in a series of dramatic episodes all the type of men and society that have lived there. The primitive world of pre-Columbian America, the religious imperialism of Spain, the Yankee individualism and the final triumph of industrial civilization are unrolled in swift review before our eyes. We meet pueblo-builders, explorers, missionaries, conquistadores, Indians, Mexicans, penitentes, mountain men, prairie men, revolutionists. Mr. Fergusson has told the story of a colorful and brilliant world, a story that epitomizes the conquest of a con-

Harvey Fergusson has worked, camped and hunted in much of the country he writes about, knows Mexicans, Pueblos, and Navajos through personal contact, and has gathered many stories of the early days from the lips of surviving pioneers.

Self Service Furniture Co.

WE INVITE the personnel of Fort Benning to visit our store — Compare our Prices — to buy furniture at about 30 per cent saving should interest the thrifty furniture shoppers.

WAIT on your self and SAVE		ır	Smoking Stands $1.00
			Small Boudoir Lamps $1.00
	W E		End Tables$1.25
	D E L		Lovely Pottery Lamps $2.00
	I		Spot Chairs$6.00
	E R		Floor Lamps, Choice$5.00
Pay	at S and SAVE	1	Living Room Suites, 2 Pieces, Rust. or Green, only $65,00

Please do not confuse these suites with a cheap suite that sells at this price.

One more BARGAIN you should not miss.

LOVELY WALNUT
9-PIECE DINING ROOM SUITES

This suite is positively worth $50.00 more than we are asking—compare it with any suite under $200.00.

OUR PRICE $100.00

 Tables
 $7.00

 Kitchen Cabinets
 $29.75

Walnut finish Dinnette Suite extension table, 4 chairs, server . . $26.00

Card Table, Special $1.25

Chifforobes $22.50

Baby Beds — Ivory, large size $8.50

at 1032 Broadway

Metal Dish Cabinets — Mop and Broom Cabinets — Mops — Dishes — Stoves — Ranges — Iron Beds — Springs — Mattress — Pillows — Breakfast Suites — Boudoir Chairs — Rockers — Secretary — Refrigerators — Oil Stoves.

CROSLEY RADIOS

SELF SERVICE FURNITURE CO.

 $1032 \,\, Broadway$

Phone 3728

controllable desire to leap off.

Drippings: Beall starting the logistics exam Monday with a copy of a former problem on his desk by mistake, resulting in a Chinese graph of the type we had seen in a nightmare

the night before, when he plotted half the blocks from one sheet and the re-

Norman in the same exam earning his Upatoi University letter, a big black

U", by trying to bend his troops around a moving block. . . George

Taylor and Bee-Keeper Schidroth almost coming to blows as to the relative time for swinging a machine-gun on one's back, despite their good friendship. . . Heileman's descriptive expression: "The coffee-cooling Medi-cos and C. P. personnel". As Mike would say, "Sir, where are the engineers?". . . A fellow called Buck

Lanham, low in rank but mighty in oratorical potency. . . Gillespie again

(this man has really done too much for one week) inquiring at the start of the engineer exam if it would be possible to visit Wharton in the hospital instead of standing the test. .

The student who built a pillbox at the 1st Aid Station in the same exam.

of those hellacious big circles the major mentioned. If any student hit his solution we are ready to play a tune on his concertina. . . We are all hoping the grading principle in supply, as enunciated by Major Hearn ("If your solution is better than ours you get an

A") will also apply in engineering.

rely on Engineer Heileman's humanitarian impulses. More depends on that than on Gandhi's safety-pin.

. . If not we fear the worst and must

... We greatly fear that our grade in the aforementioned exam will be one mainder from the obsolete paper. .

BENNING DAY BY DAY
(Continued from page 4)
that?" Our memory of the reply to this one at the present time is a trifle blurred and we are unable to state definitely whether nobody had or somebody didn't.

Famous replies: The one that stop-

Winter Grass (Italian Rye) 10 Lbs. $1.00; 2 lbs. 25c; 1 lb. 15c. Valley Seed Co., 1041 Broadway.

Capitals . . .

Washington, London and Paris are three cities served by branches of this firm. They are the three most important capitals of the world economically, politically and racially. Special wires and cables bring news from these world "nerve centers."

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

ped the students right in their tracks when Major Kraft said, "The school is never wrong when it places troops in an assembly area."

This week we have made the acquaintance of another estimable gentleman on the school faculty in the person of Major Hearn, the Second Section's Longfellow. We were impressed doubly: first by a presentation that was among the best we have heard from the platform to date, and second, by the extreme heights from which he spoke. From our undersized point of view we are beginning to appreciate what is meant by commanding ground. If we were to describe this brother major of ours we would say that he stood very high in the air and that he was upward of seven feet tall as the crow flies. We look with awed admiration at anyone of such imposing stature but we greatly fear that if we were his height we should turn dizzy and be seized with an un-

Fine Repair Work

On

All Kinds

Of Shoes

Columbus Shu Fixry

1245 BROADWAY

Fenner, Beane & Ungerleider Move to New Quarters

The New York Stock Exchange firm of Fenner, Beane & Ungerleider moved over the week-end from its old quarters in the New York Cotton Exchange Building to new quarters covering 2 1-2 floors, or 43,000 s q u a refect of floor space in the International Telephone & Telegraph Building at 67 Broad Street.

The new quarters are among the most scientifically arranged offices for brokerage purposes in Wall Street, being designed on what characterized as the "hour glass" principle, namely, the order room, which makes up For her part, 'tis siad that Jim has the upper portion of the glass, being directly above the main clearing division which takes up all of the 18,000 square feet of space on the floor below. The location was selected for the reason that it is one of only a few available properties affording sufficient space to house the entire clearing division on a single floor.

GENERAL STAFF IDENTIFICATION

We are pleased to announce that we have completed dies and are now prepared to furnish this insignia.

At your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

43 East 19th St. New York

MANUFACTURERS OF MILITARY AND NAVAL INSIGNIA AND EQUIP-MENT FOR HALF A CENTURY.

WE BUY

Old GOLD Jewelry

DENTAL SCRAPS

UNDER U. S. LICENSE No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

JEWELERS

1121 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

I keep coming back to that word "balanced" on the back of the Chesterfield package

YOU often hear the word balance—something is out of balance—top-heavy, not on an "even keel."

What you read, "Chesterfield Cigarettes are a balanced blend," means that the right amounts of the right kinds of tobacco are welded together; that is, home-grown tobaccos, the right kind, the right quantity—are blended and cross-blended with tobaccos from Turkey and Greece.

When these tobaccos are balanced one against the other, then you have a mild cigarette.

When they are in balance, then you have a better-tasting cigarette.

May we ask you to read again the statement on the back of the Chesterfield package? May we ask you to try Chesterfield?

Balanced Blend

VOLUME III

FORT BENNING, GA., NOVEMBER 3, 1933

Welfare Council Submits Report At Meeting

"Better be damned than mentioned not at all." -John Wolcot.

What an anti-climax! Last week. this column announced our demise as a columnist; we sang our swan song, and adjourned sine die. Now. through circumstances beyond our control, we are resurrected and once more step to the plate with the big stick to pinch hit for the regular conductor of this column. Last week, we told you of his automobile accident. Now we learn that he is on his back in Washington with the flu, thus postponing his return to our midst. But let E. F. R. tell you himself of his troubles in the following letter just received from his sick bed:

"DICTATED DURING DELIRIUM" Dear old pinch-hitter.

I know you're a-twitter Thinking your flare stunt is done But here is a jitter,

And don't be a quitter Again you will have to write one.

This is how it happened. Leaving Benning at the break of day, all went well for a long time; in fact for almost half the first day. Then disasters began descending. While going up a hill in rural South Carolina, suddenly from the top of the hill, from an unknown angle and a neutral corner, burst a sixty-mile-an-hour Juggernant. It led with its left. We dodged and clinched with a cotton cart to avoid punishment. Juggy went on his way and I haven't seen him since. When the referee broke out clinch with the cotton cart, we found we had acquired the right to flaunt the Blue Eagle with Two Stars. Not only had we destroyed part of the South's superfluous cotton crop but we had also paid cash for the destroyed cotton. Furthermore we did our part in helping along the automobile repair

While in Philadelphia I acquired a very bad cold and the long-I stayed in chilly Philly the worse it grew. So we pulled up stakes for the Sunny South. I got as far as Washington, where I fell out of the car and into bed with a temperature. The Doc came around, examined the part in my hair, looked in my ears, in my eyes, up my nose, held my hand for a while and said: "It's nothing but the Three Days Grippe." I ran the temperature for three days but it forgot to stop. 'That's all right," said the Doc, "It's the Five Days Grippe." When I awakened this morning, I felt that my fever was considerably down but I felt a warm glow which I knew could be nothing else than Mother Love. I soon discovered the source. During the night, I had given birth to six beautiful boils

(Please turn to page 4)

General Malone Returns To Duty At Baltimore, Md.

Prominent Visitor Ends Month's Leave Spent At Fort Benning

Major General Paul B. Malone, Commanding General of the Third Corps Area, who has been at Fort Benning since October 2nd on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Orryl S. Robles, wife of Captain Robles, Fort Benning, departed from the post Monday morning, October 30th, at 8:30 a. m. General Malone left the post as a passenger aboard a giant Keystone Bomber, piloted by Lieutenant John H. McCormick of Langley Field, Virginia. They were bound for Balti-more, Maryland, via Polk Field, Vir-

During the period that General Malone has spent at Fort Benning, he has been the guest of honor at many social functions, and as the ranking contestant in the Corps Area Golf Tournament, recently held at this station, he won his flight. He has also taken an active part in various celebrations both civilian and military. This officer is well-known in this locality as he was assistant commandant here in the early days of the

Mrs. Malone and Miss Gertrude Malone, wife and daughter of the General, who had accompanied him on the visit at the Infantry School, will follow him to Baltimore in a more leisurely manner, leaving here Wednesday morning by automobile.

Organization Day Observed By 24th

Commemorating the 64th anniversary of its organization, the 24th Infantry last Wednesday celebrated with an all-day program of events, and a suspension of all duties. For years it has been the custom to celebrate the Organization Day, and that of last Wednesday suffered nothing in comparison to those which preceded it.

A full schedule of entertainment was arranged for the 24th Infantry on their annual holiday. Beginning A. M., when the regiment formed in front of their Service Club until late in the afternoon, when there was a dance in the post gymnasium for the enlisted personnel of the command, an eventful day was planned.

At the assembly at 8:30, the regiment heard while Chaplain Louis Carter ask an invocation, which was followed by a selection by the regimental band. Sergeant William Mc-Cauley, the oldest soldier of the oranization, who has been with the regiment since the days of San Juan Hill, then spoke to the troops and was followed by the newest recruit, Pvt. Arnold Walker. Both men are members of Company B. Colonel Fred L. Munson, regimental commander, addressed the men, and the band then played another selection, the

(Please turn to Page 7)

PROPOSALS AMOUNTING TO MILLION OPENED HERE

Sealed proposals amounting to over one million dollars for the construction of eighty-eight sets of Officers' quarters at Fort Benning were opened last week at the post. Low bidder in each instance was the J. A. Jones Construction Co., of Charlotte, N. C., with $923,000 for the first set of seventy-three and $177,000 for the second set of fourteen. Proposals will be submitted to the War Department for approval before construction is

Play Last Weekend At Main Theater Delights Audience

The Dramatic Club made its sea son's debut with a vivacious performance of Rachel Crother's comedy of ex-marital manners, "Let Us Be Gay," which, if not entirely reaching the Dramatic Club's highest peak of achievement, furnished one more proof that the Benning group of players can be relied upon to provide excellent entertainment.

It has become trite and redundant for the reviewer to comment at length on the mechanics of these stage productions. That settings, lighting effects, costumes, etc., are splendid is now taken for granted. On this occasion there were three changes of scene, all of them attractive, satisfying and complete as to details and atmosphere. Especially fine was the moon-lit balcony.

Mrs. Lynn E. Brady, as Director had in my opinion, one of the most difficult plays to direct, in the hands of an amateur group, that has been presented in the last few seasons. That it was so successfully accomplished bears witness to her skill and application. The play requires a deft lightness in the handling of dialogue and for the most part this was gracefully achieved. In casting this play, the Director made a happy selection in Miss Katherine Lemly for the leading role of Kitty Brown. She has beauty, a charming youthful dignity, and, best of all, a seductive, lowpitched voice which carries well beyond the footlights. These are natural gifts, which with her real aptitude for acting, would be the envy of now struggling recognition on Broadway, or in Hollywood. The road is a long, hard way to travel, and one does not lightly recommend such a career to a young person, but Miss Lemly could be a success if she chose to select that difficult vocation of acting.

Lt. Earle Wheeler made a handsome eading man as Bob Brown, and had moments of dramatic force in his diaogues with the disillusioned Kitty. Mrs. Wheeler was vivid and sparkling in the part of Deirdre Lessing, and also showed a genuine dramatic flair. The scene in the second act deserves a high place in the list of ndividual performances.

Lt. Rowan and Lt. Purnell were ery good in their roles as Townley Towne, the uneasy fiance of Deirdre, and Bruce Keene, the perennial visit-

(Please turn to Page 3)

To Speak At Club Meeting Monday

Will Talk On His "48,000 Tons of Responsibility" As Master of Ship

The November meeting of the Infantry School Woman's Club is to be held at the Polo-Hunt Club on Nov. 6, at 2:15, as the second meeting of the fall session.

Commodore Herbert Hartley, Commander U. S. Naval Reserve, and former commander of the S. S. Leviathan, will address the members of the Club speaking on his experiences with his "48,000 Tons of Responsibility." These include his duties as captain of one of the largest passenger vessels afloat, in which he has had to be housekeeper, navigator, social leader, and business man. He has supervised the buying of food and equipment for the ship, purchasing amounts of food that would keep the average houshold stocked for years, has had in his charge enough silver and linens to equip fifty families, and has directed the use of more general household equipment than the average house-wife sees in a lifetime.

In the social line Commodore Hartley has had as passengers and entertained such a cross-section of notables as Will Rogers, Queen Marie of Roumania, "Bud" Fisher, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, together with almost every notable personage of Europe and

In addition to the regular monthly meetings of the Club proper, there are three sections, each holding a monthly meeting, and so arranged that there is no conflict between the four gatherings. These are the Literary, Garden, and Bridge sections, with the purpose of satisfying the taste of all club members.

The Literary Section, which specializes in the review of the best books of the current year, holds its meetings in the open forum style, and the result is a delightfully informal arrangement. The meetings are held on the second Monday in each month with Miss Jessie Stevens as chairman.

The Garden Section meetings, held on the third Monday in each month at the home of one of the members, helps a great deal in the planning and planting of the post gardens for the year, and last year sponsored a post flower show for the first time. It also enters exhibit flowers in the local shows, and has always made a good showing.

The Bridge Section, the newest department of the Woman's Club, was begun last year, and has proved to be one of the most popular features of the Club activities. Meetings are held on the fourth Monday of each month, with Mrs. John L. Jenkins acting as chairman.

Captain Hartlev Excellent Work During Past Year Subject Of Review By President

> Indication of the amount of work being done by the Fort Benning Welfare Council, and the benefit that members of the garrison and other deserving subjects receive thereby was given in the report submitted at the first meeting of the Council on Monday afternoon, in which the activities of the organization for the last vear were reviewed.

Not all of the many things carried ou and accomplished by the Welfare Committee were incorporated in the report, as the individual members have done a great deal of good at the post that has not been made public, and probably never will be. A few of the more important organization activities range from the distribution of clothing and material for garments to the paying of hospital hills for those temporarily unable to take them up.

A large item of the relief work done consists in the supplying of ready-made clothes, of which more than seven hundred and fifty garments were distributed last year. Material for the making of garments also was distributed, approximately five hundred yards being used.

Eight-five families were the recipients of groceries, and over fifty children are being supplied with milk. About fifteen new arrivals were welcomed with layettes, or complete sets of baby clothes.

A somewhat smaller number of families were assisted by the humanitarian act of meeting bills incurred by the illness, five in all being aided; and the same number of bereaved families were helped by the settlement of funeral expenses.

Members of the garrison are aided in other ways than those mentioned, from assistance in financial difficul-

(Continued on Page 8)

Ten Years Ago Last Week

General Gordon, post commandant, started a post "dress-up" campaign, by issuing orders in the form of a letter to each officer regarding the pproved and necessary sartorial ha

Battery B and the Combat Train of the 83rd Field Artillery Battalion fought to a tie in a thrilling gridiron battle, the first of the intra-mural games of the season.

The Kiwanis, holding their convention in Columbus, visited the post, and were accorded that true "southern hospitality."

Wofford journeyed to Benning to take the Infantry School eleven by the score of 14-13, in a close, hard-fought session with the oval pigskin.

Leather pushers and mitt artists of the garrison prepared for the annual post boxing tourney scheduled to be held the following week.

SE SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

At Recent Meeting Of Welfare Council

The first meeting for the new year of the Welfare Council of Fort Benning was held at the Polo-Hunt Club of the post at 3:00 p. m. October 30.

General George H. Estes, Commandant of the Infantry School made the opening address in which he said in part:

"I wish to express my appreciation, and offer to you my commendation for your unselfishness, interest, and Christian spirit, and I promise you my

NO wonder! You'd have a headache too, if you'd been through the shopping session she's just had! And it was all unnecessary, too, because she could have saved a lot of time and work by starting out at Silver's - then she wouldn't have had to go anywhere else!

SILVER'S

Cor. Broadway & 11th St.

Gen. Estes Speaks your endeavors while I am Commandant." Later he said, "The object of the Welfare Council is to render aid to the military personnel of Fort Benning and their families, and to render such other welfare work as may be the responsibility of the Fort Bening garrison. In doing this you are placing service above self, and in doing so join those 'who profit most by serving best'. You are gathered here because of your interest in your fellow man, and are more than willing to do your bit by aiding in the solution of problems, which, with out your aid and active participation would result in human suffering and possible loss of life."

"You are rendering society a golden service in your practical application of the Golden Rule; for as those of this command that you aid most would say of you 'you are giving the other fellow the same break that you'd like to have him give you if you were in his shoes."

Following the General's address and the business meeting the officers of the Welfare Council for the new year were appointed. They include Mrs. Elbert J. Lyman, president; Mrs. Thomas B. Catron, vice-president; Mrs. Jesse A. Ladd and Mrs. E. C. Betts, secretaries; and Mrs. Joseph A. Holly, treasurer. The members of the advisory board are Mrs. George H. Estes, chairman, Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton, Mrs. Charles W. Weeks, and Mrs. George F. Baltzell.

Following the regular meeting the members of the council served a tea in honor of Mrs. Estes.

P.T. A. SPONSORS CHILDREN'S HALLOWE'EN PARTY TUESDAY EVENING

The Parents Teachers Association were the sponsors Tuesday evening of a delightful Hallowe'en party held for the children of Fort Benning in the Post gymnasium. The gymnasium was decorated for the occasion in colorful Hallowe'en symbols which produced a gay background for the picturesque costumes worn by the children. Prizes were awarded for the best costumes, the judges being and Lieut. Col. and Mrs. John H. list included: Lieut. and Mrs. George Stutesman. The program began at six-thirty with a march of the children around the Post with the Grand Marshal, Lieut. Joseph P. Cleland, es corting the participants, and the 29th Infantry band leading the way. The march started at the "Big Tree" on Lumpkin Road and Yeager Avenue. The children in their colorful and various costumes paraded from there to the gymnasium where the prizes were awarded and refreshments were served. The festivities continued until nine-thirty. The committee of ladies in charge of the party were: Mesdames Norman D. Cota, Hammond M. Monroe, and William W. Eagles, chairman. Assisting this committee were: Lieut. Julian B. Raymond, who acted as master of ceremonies at the gymnasium, Lieut. Harry G. Dowdall, who was in charge of refreshments, and Lieut. Joseph P. Cleland who was the grand-marshal.

LIEUT. COL. AND MRS. STUTES-MAN HONOR GUEST AT TEA

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. John H. Stutesman were the honor guests Wednesday when Colonel and Mrs. William B. Wallace entertained at a delightful informal tea at the Polo-Hunt Club. Colonel Stutesman has recently arrived at Fort Benning to command the Tank Battalion, having previously served at the French Tank School. Col. and Mrs. Wallace had as their guests the Officers and Ladies of the Tank Battalion and of the Tank

LITERARY SECTION OF WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS MONDAY

The Literary Section of the Woman's Club held their first meeting of the season Monday morning in the lounge of the Officers' Club. Miss Jessie Stevens was elected chairman and plans for the next meeting were

DRAMATIC CLUB FILLS WEEK-END SOCIAL CALENDAR

The social calendar due to the Dramatic Club play was full, Friday and Saturday evenings the Officers' Club entertained its members with a special dinner program. Both nights reservations were full. Among those entertaining at dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Browne and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hall of Columbus, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. John H. Stutesman, Major and Mrs. Charles P. Hall, Major and Mrs. Robert S. Lytle, Capt. and Mrs. William R. Watson, Capt. and Mrs. John A. Otto, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Murphy, and Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin K. Wright. Friday evening following the play the Bachelor Club entertained with a script dance at the Polo-Hunt Club, the guest list including the young married set, members of the debutante set their guests and escorts.

MISS BARLETT HONORED AT SUPPER PARTY

Miss Dorothy Bartlett of Prince George, Maryand, the attractive house guest of Lieut, Col. and Mrs. Albert S. J. Tucker was the honor guest Sunday evening at a delightful buffet

Attractive Picture Frames

Etchings - Prints

Studio Shoppe

at

Rosenburgs

backing in every way possible in | Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall | supper given by her host. The guest P. Howell, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter A. Huntsberry, Lieut. and Mrs. Shelby F. Williams, Miss Harriotte Atkins, Miss Katherine Lemly, Miss Barbara Lowe, of Fort McPherson, Lieut. William W. Orr, Lieut. Tom R. Stoughton, Lieut. Francis H. Dohs, Lieut. Stephen O. Fuqua, Lieut. Henry B. Kunzig, Lieut. Ephraim M. Hampton, and Lieut. Raymond C. Brisach.

> OFFICERS' CLUB HOLDS REGU-LAR THURSDAY EVENING SUP-PER DANCE

The popular name that the Thursday evening supper dances made for themselves last Winter continues as is witnessed by the number of reservations that have been made for each

(Pleae turn to Page 7)

Always

- The Purest
 - The Tastiest
- The Best

And sold at the Officers' Club

From Asparagus

To Apples

There has hardly been a big order yet that we haven't been able to fill-or little ones either-no matter what for. We have made a specialty for years of trying to adequately supply the requirements of the post, and we're certain that we can give you what you want at any time.

GROCERY DEPT.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service.

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

is now showing the newest styles in

KNOX HATS

Will be pleased to fit you in one. FORT BENNING CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

Coca-Cola Has Everything — Flavor — Economy — Convenience — Adaptability

THE SIX-BOX Coca-Cola's contribution to

25c

Coca-Cola is the drink made for every occasion, for it has everything that makes a drink popular. Its flavor is unsurpassed, its economy is undeniable, its conven-ience is unequalled and its adaptability—well, everyone knows how Coca Cola suits everyone else.

A justly earned reputation — the world's most delicious drink.

SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHILD

FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

It Shall Be Nameless

"Kay" should be a lucky one for the Dramatic Club from now on. The first play of the season, which was but certainly did right by it. Of course (as everyone knows) a great success, as always there were the usual maid had its share of Kays in it. It was and butler parts which are hard to very ably directed by Kay Brady. The lead was played exceptionally well by Kay Lemly and the part of the lovely, languishing lady done beautifully by Kay Studebaker. Also we hear that from now on that Mrs. Reeder will be known as O-Kay Reeder and the title will be well deserved because her interpretation of a difficult part was outstanding for its excellence. Then, Betty Wheeler played the part of the modern and extremely strong—willed young thing to perfection. Of course we can't foron the whole were played by the women. Of course the handsome hero, Lt. Wheeler, made all the feminine hearts beat faster and in everyone's opinion he was excellent. Eddie Rowan made quite the perfect playboy and houseparty's joy. Then there was Lt. Cleland who was quite amusing. In fact I heard that one person remarked that they didn't see how anyone that was so smart could look and act so

WINTER GRASS (Italian Rye) $8.00 per100 Lbs.; 10 Lbs. $1.00. Valley Seed Co. 1041 Broadway.

KENNY'S VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND YOU WILL BE PLEASED

FOREMOST

SELLS ITSELF!

All that we ask is that you try Foremost Ice Cream once, and we're sure that you'll want it ever afterwards. It's ideal for any purpose for which Ice Cream is appropriate.

> Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES,

INCORPORATED

Well, if there is anything in a name | dumb. That is, I think, proof enough that he was good. Lt. Purnell the "wronged fiance," had a tough part make outstanding but Marguerite Moore and Maj. Howard succeeded in doing so very well. Any way if you didn't get what I was talking about after all this time the point is that I thought the play was swell.

Well, the Hunt was a howling success (in fact, there are a lot of people still howling every time they try to sit down). The first little thing that happened was Bing Kunzig lost his hat going over the first jump and by the time he went back and got it, get the men although the big parts I would say that half the first echelon and all of the second had galloped gaily over his little chapeau. The first fall of the season is credited to one of the Negrotto offspring, caused by her horse falling. A few went down that I don't recall and then Ginny Mace, and after Ginny none other than Capt. Negrotto our. M. F. H. came tumbling into the dust, pink coat and all. At any rate no one seemed at all seriously hurt as all were there for breakfast. After the large and copious breakfast that was served, everyone gathered around and sang the hunting songs till time to go home and eat lunch if they were able to sit down.

> Oh, by the way benny your apology s accepted and I hope that you have learned one thing, NEVER ARGUE WITH A WOMAN since no man can ever do it successfully because as a rule they can't do it intelligently. And don't forget that you still have to name this column. I'll be waiting for an answer.

> > "LET US BE GAY"

(Continued From Page 1) or. Lt. Cleland was convincingly harassed and weary as the poetic suitor Wallace Grainger, dancing attendance on Madge Livingston. This was a good impersonation well-played by Mrs. Clayton Studebaker who fluttered and anguished one moment and shot forth venomous glances the next.

Our versatile and capable Mrs. Reeder, was a riotous hit as the irrascible Mrs. Bouccicault. This is another notable perforcance to go down in Dramatic Club annals. Mrs. Reeder was superbly in character every moment, her quick changes of mood and pungent comments on the vagaries of her assorted house guests were effected with a sure and experienced sense of comedy. A masterpiece was her lighting and smoking a cigar in the second act! The audience was first spell-bound and then rocked by a wave of laughter.

Mrs. Marguerite Moore was very pretty and assured as Perkins, the maid, and Chaplain Howard joined the ranks of that large group of Dramatic Club stars to whom grease paint is so exciting that when they are not playing leads, they will toss off a Butler's part with nonchalnace and professional skill just to keep their hands in, so to speak.

The Dramatic Club faces a formidable hazard in every play of this character: the difficulty of tempo. Professional companies usually have CLASSIFIED ADV. RATES cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified 50 cents. Payment advertisement, must be made before advertisement s published.

FLORIDA AT ITS BEST!

320 acres with beautiful clear lake, fine bass fishing, 2½ miles to R. R. & bus line—ideal for 4 men who want estates for future use. Land well suited for tung oil, citrus or grapes. $4,000.00 for all, or $1,000.00 for 80 acres-good terms.

Stephen McCready, Realtor Ocala, Fla.

a few weeks tryout to settle down are at proper speed. to a smooth well-co-ordinated pace. By the time they open on Broadway, drags and halting moments have been eliminated. The Ft. Benning performers usually make a great advance between dress-rehearsal and the Friday night show, and again, a correspondingly great improvement by Saturday night, which proves that Benning players have a professional seriousness and skill in their work. The reactions of an audience are valuable aids in whipping a cast into that final their admiring reviewer. stage when movement and dialogue

"Let Us Be Gay" was well up in the high reaches of our Dramatic Club's attainments. Several of the players were very young and extremely promising. The more experienced members of the cast were already great favorites with the Fort Benning and Columbus audience so that it was an occasion which called forth enthusiastic interest and approval from the audience, and, once again, the whole-hearted congratulations of

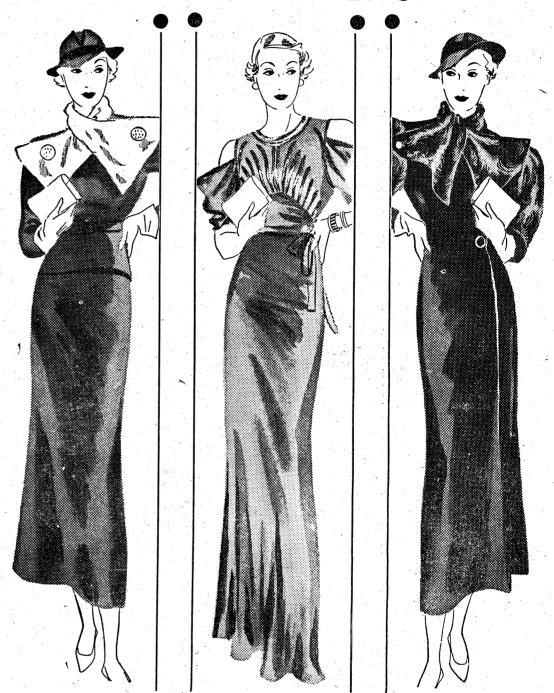

-Mary S. Tucker

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

JEOBGIA

A Cirizen Whereever We Serve 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

WHEN IT COMES TO CLOTHES COME TO KIRVEN'S

DRESSES FOR THE STREET AND SPORTS, Including light weight woolens and silk crepes in the best of Autumn's smartest colors and styles. Also two and three piece knit suits. Woolens trimmed in suede and furs, silks trimmed in velvets. Also swagger suits. Sizes 12 to 44.

EVENING AND DINNER DRESSES. Satins, taffeta, velvets, faille and silk crepes with the various new Autumn ornaments . . . Sleeveless, puff sleeves and long sleeves . . . mostly with the new high front neckline and the deep cut back. The colors range from white to black. Sizes 14 to 40. $15.00 to $59.50

TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED COATS. Including polo sports coats; hand tailored, fitted coats with the new Autumn features; fur trimmed coats with pouch or shawl collars . . . trimmed in either caracul, lapin, dyed squirrel, gaylak, mink, fox, wolf or marten. Sizes 14 to 46. $19.75 to $150.00.

NOTICE

Last date possible to ship parcels to Philippine Islands from West Coast is November 25, advises Post Office Department. Allowing seven days for shipment from Columbus to West Coast, makes November 18 last possible date. All parcels should be mailed as early as possible to avoid Christmas

Second Floor

Phone 556

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

NO. 28 NOVEMBER 3, 1933 VOLUME III ____Publisher A. F. KUNZE

FELICIA C. HOWELL Society Editor Sports Editor Louis T. Kunze Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Reflections Of A Student

a splendid demonstration to the academic department Wednesday morning. The title of his act was "The Infantry-Artillery Team." Though the writer has heard this speech three times before, (it ranks second only to the one on "The Threat of the Yellow Peril), it was never so graphically illustrated as on that fateful day. General Malone assumed the position of director, and using certain unwilling actors from the 29th and 83rd, put across a real lesson in this all important subject. The General pulled the strings, and his puppets hopped—usually in the wrong direction, much to our secret glee. There must have been many that were glad their wives didn't attend the show, for show it truly was. However let us be kind and lay their errors to stage fright. We students learned one thing: that it isn't only dumb lieutenants that can tie up simple problems; and sincerely hope that the faculty learned another: that there is a better way of instructing than by ear wearying lectures. For instance, thanks to Ma jor Selleck we can never forget just where the Artillery liason officers should be. That's one horrible example that is bound to stick!

The Benning Bachelors gave their first dance of the season Friday night. All of the students were "invited," and many eventually made it. The par ty got away to a slow start, probably the men being still saddened by the loss of that dollar "cover charge" but later on things picked up when various pre-dance gatherings made their appearances. Perhaps the most happy of the throng was one Jaromir Jan Jospisil, who was certainly feeling his oats. Is that the right grain? Jerry certainly did right by several of the younger married matrons, thus pleasing himself, thrilling the gals, and giving a couple of still unbroken hubbies a chance for just one more fling. A new member of the younger crowd, introduced as "Lieutenant" Easley, also was kicking over the traces, and causing countless hearts to flutter

Though the dance officially ended at one, there were many who hated to call it quits—some fifty in fact who assembled by mutual consent at Tommy "Fubby Lip" Stoughton's. By four AM the majority had ben forced to bed down for the rest of the morn- CCC duty shows a profitable result. ing, and by five only "Linger Long-er" Lemley and a couple of sleepy tions can have a silver lining; in fact, swains remained. Poor Ad Smith was in terrible straights, as his apartment was also in use, and the call of those sheets was well nigh overwhelming. However, after a bit of tearful pleading these guests departed, and Baby Face could at last snuggle down to sleep.

Sunday morning dawned bright and clear, though how bright it was to those who had attended the above mentioned party is doubtful. The initial hunt of the season was to take place, and there were certainly a number of unclaimed horses at the club. A few of the more sporty students showed up, albeit with a bit of a side the blase Benning natives. To Major General Paul B. Malone gave one who purposely stayed well to the rear, and out of sight, the ride gave the impression of a mass of flying legs, arms and mares, with many good views of the "Benning Seat". Esther Kelley gracefully displayed hers as well as did the old Maestro himself, none other than MFH Sir Sidney Negrotto. His whole performance was neatly done; being off again, on again. gone again in a jiffy. No muss, no fuss, and only a mounting redness upwards from the collar of that glorious scarlet hunting jacket to indicate that anything untoward had happened. But folks, a policing had taken place, a policing no different in execution than the one which you and I encounter from time to time. It was a policing, however, which shall live on down through the ages, growing more ripe, more luscious with each retelling. And yet, knowing the epoch making qualities of his deed, Sir Sidney's innate modesty still held sway-he galloped away without even so much as a single sidewise glance. But we still want to know who trains the fox to run entirely on the course.

> Now that a certain much advertised broken leg on the post is nearing a complete healing, we fear that artilleryman Howard's sallies into society are also nearing a termination. His beaming countenance has been quite an added attraction, from a female standpoint, at many of the local functions, and youthful hearts had once again begun to palpitate with a flutter forgotten to them these many moons. Of course Bud had the avowed intention of remaining the celibate during his lady fair's period of confinement, but we fear the female spirit of sportsmanship is slightly warped when it comes to such an attractive male. And may it be added, the will of man is weak when it comes to refusing a lady. Our hope is that this brief taste of variety has not enticed Bud into other pastures, which are certain to be far less worthy than the present one.

Horseshoe pitching continues to be the most popular recess amusement. And it is a boon to the lunch toting married men who find therein their principle outdoor exercise. Some of the boys are remarkably well versed in the fine points of the game, and the result of many long hard hours of even old man Grinstead himself was seen tossing a leaner last week. Tuesday someone found a volley ball net, and forthwith a new sport was launched. Perhaps an intersquad league can be formed. It would be nice to find something that the famous first could not excel in, at least vocally.

Are you a man of sunken chest and weak arm? Do you want to impress the choice of your heart. If so, apply promptly to Bob Beattie for his course on muscular development. The charge is nominal, being only a few exclamations of awe and admiration. In fact, if you make it strong enough, maybe Bob will show you tremor, and bravely mounted up along. how to make those impressive grenade Please turn to Page 7

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Oct. 30-Caval ryman Thomas, in a post-graduate equitation session, introduced the Advanced Class last week to the genteel sport known as "riding the hounds." We are ready to admit the sport part of it without question but a number of the non-horsey horsemen challenge its description as a genteel one. We in particular looked forward to our initiation with some misgiving, having previously consumed one of Mein Host Dowdall's tasty lunches hastily. As a result our condition on reaching the stable was just what one might expect after a heavy lunch-sort of gorged, you know, and sluggish and only tolerably uncomfortable. This disconcerting feeling was accentuated by the baleful glare of ominous portent with which our trusty steed greeted us as we walked nonchalantly forward to mount, much in the manner of Jack Dempsey beaming on

At various times during the course of the afternoon our innards made their presence too keenly felt when a fish we ate decided unexpectedly that some milk we drank was chis elling in on his territory. Our feeble attempts to smile reassuringly at the others and particularly for a hopedfor psychological effect on ourselves were more than once interrupted by the annoying actions of our horse who insisted time and again in taking off like he'd swallowed an outboard motor.

To give a convincing display of our horsemanship we proceeded to navigate one of the fallen tree-trunks on the outskirts of the hunt-course but the effect was startling to say the least. For while the obstacle was about a foot high our horse made one of those night estimates that call for an additional fifty per cent and then allowed several feet more as a factor of safety. Consequently as our steed leaped upward, and forward we tried our best to do likewise but for some unfathomable reason the forward component joined in with the vertical component resulting in a perfect demonstration of a catapult. Fortunately for us we had jumped with a loose rein and with two quick pulls some what after the fashion of a longshoreman pulling on a tow-line we were able to pull the horse up under us in time to permit landing as a unit. Except for this the scattered portions of our particular student-body on landing would have greatly resembled the multiple distribution the supply people speak about.

We have been told somewhere that there is a divinity that shapes our ends. With this in view we have repeatedly sent up silent but sincere offerings for assistance but the painful after-effects of such a ride cause us to question seriously the efficacy af prayer. We therefore regret to announce that unless some such method of assistance promises better results we will have to return to our lifelong hope, the constant yearning for one of those horses that goes through life listening for someone to sav 'Whoa!"

The description of the student hunt would be incomplete if we neglected to mention one incident featuring again a man who persists in furnishing us with material. Cappy Wells, who broke into print a week ago after crashing the gate into No-Man's-Land, the ladies' dressing room, became separated from his horse at an early stage of the hunt. When located after a brief search he announced apologetically that he had lost his stirrup. We are loath to question a man's veracity, particularly the word of the much-liked Cappy, but inasmuch as he was holding the stirrur at the time and the horse was nowhere in sight we are inclined to the belief that this was a slight inaccuracy of statement.

The Beer, Beams and Butter Boys started bearing down during the week with five supply problems. Because of our tendency to depend upon the (Please turn to page 5)

The Old Schoolhouse

have plenty - have been trying hard and often, these two months. Texas Steer steals Major Easley's stuff now and then and manages to be pretty funny, but we've got to award the Cross of Soochow Creek to Hamilton. (If you don't know that famous decoration, ask Campbell. While you're asking him, get him to tell you about the night the riot section chased the fire-cracking Chinamen in Shanghai.)

To get back to Hamilton; we were fortunate enough to be in Ham's section in last week's mounted massacre of the luckless Vulgarians. Ham has decided ideas of his own about these tactics but, unlike Henderson, he sometimes fails to agree with the big shots. One of these occasions arose and Ham argued long and lustily. The defense committee, represented and advocated by Major Reeder, maintained that, if Company A were to be placed where Ham thought they should be, some unfortunate member thereof was almost sure to be shot squarely in the seat of his best battle breeches. Hamilton, accepting the

All our would-be wits - and we futility of argument with An Approved Solution, finally retired. But he admitted that, "I've always said that somebody was going to get hurt in one of these wars, someday."

> We wish that there were some way of acquiring an enthusiasm for this bayonet. It seems a great deal too much to ask of the average underdeveloped histrionic ability to expect its owner to produce at will faces like Kunzig's and noises like those Andrews can emit under stimulus.

> benny the bed bug i thank the lady very kindly. but i wonder, apropos of the same subject, just what effect smith's latest announcement is going to have on his extra-curricular activities.

now that i have acknowledged my obligation, i can go on to remark on some threats which our feminine contemporary made me. she said something about calling on archy to rid her of my irritating presence.

i have every confidence in archy Please turn to Page 7)

THE FLARE

(Continued From Page 1) and there were the little dears all cozily cuddled under my right

I hope I'll be seeing you. If I ever get back to my Second Batallion, I will never leave it again except by due process of law."

Thanks, E. F. R., for writing most of our column this week. May all your berls be little ones and permit your return to our midst at an early his identity.

LET US BE GAY

The Infantry School Dramatic Club opened its season in most auspicious manner with an extremely able presentation of "Let Us Be Gay," a sparkling comedy of present day life by Rachel Crothers. The production will be adequately reviewed elsewhere in this publication. This column desires, however, to congratulate the Dramatic Club on its opening presentation and to voice our appreciation of the entertainment and our praise for the splendid performances of Kay Lemly and Peg Reeder and the excellent direction of Kay Brady.

BENNING BIRTHDAY

Thursday, October 26th, marked the fifteenth anniversary of the birth of Fort Benning. In celebration of the event, the Columbus Enquirer and Columbus Ledger each published a Fort Benning edition of the paper. The copy for that edition was written compiled, arranged and edited by Public Relations Officer Lovett and his three enlisted assistants, Sgt. Gibney and Privates Kepley and Hamlin. The result of their labors spoke for itself. We desire, however, to extend our heartiest congratulations to them for their splendid accomplish-

INFANTRY SCHOOL HUNT

With a Yoicks, Yoicks and a View Halloa or what hunting term have you, The Infantry School Hunt opened its season on Sunday morning, with a field of 220 riders, the largest in local history. Those who followin three arranged according to efficiency and experience in horsemanship. The riders consisted of men, women and children and presented a riot of color, not to mention costumes. Many of the older officers of the garrison were present, including the Commandant, himself, who saw the field off to a fast start. We wonder if he will wear the traditional pink during the current season. There were a number of minor spills but no serious injuries and everyone finished the hunt. By way of diplomacy, M. F. H. Negrotto came a cropper himself and draped his pink-coated self gracefully over one of the jumps.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY Upon a recent occasion, Colonel nad Mrs. Persons of the 29th foot prepared to pay a social call upon Lieut, and Mrs. O'Connor of that regiment. Upon arrival at the door of the O'Connor domicile, Mrs. Persons was greatly surprised to be warmly greeted and embraced by the attractive visiting sister of Mrs. O'Connor. It seems that the affectionate salutation was due to a mistaken idea that Mrs. Persons was Lt. O'Connor's mother. Colonel Persons was heard to remark that he didn't understand why the mistake couldn't have been made in

S. BROWNE BELT BACKWARDS

What Captain on duty with the Recreation Center Board attended the Commandant's "At Home" on Tuesday with his Sam Browne belt on backwards?

BONESTEEL BUYS BEVERAGE

The only thing that has failed to click with perfect precision around the Third Section of the Academic Department in recent times has pertained to the use of academic autos. It so happened that certain of the otherwise infallible instructors made the mistake of taking the car assigned to Lt. Col. Charles H. Bonesteel, Chief of Section. The assessment of penalties in the form of drinks at Dowdall's Dive failed to curb this pernicious propensity. In desperation and perspiration Charlie the Chief charged Secretary, Stenographer, and Clerk with the responsibility of enforcing the doctrine of "lessez-faire" on said property. This decree was not two days old before the promulgator himself jauntily jumped into the dilapidated derelict of Sgt. Weaver and drove away in the belief that it was his assigned air-wheel auto. Since the two cars are as dissimilar in appearance as measles and mumps, Bonesteel blushingly bought the beverage. The moral, if any, to this fable is that "the native Briton is not superior to the untutored savage."

REPORT REQUIRED

We have felt that long since, the Nth degree had been reached in Army paper work. We find we were wrong, however, as evidenced by the following quotation from the Daily Bulletin of one of the units at this Post:

"Each mounted company will render a report to this Hdqrs. with the morning report daily showing the horses by name which were ridden the day before and by whom each horse was ridden."

On second thought, however, it might be worse. For example, the report might have required each horse named to state whether or not the reduced forage ration was sufficient to keep him in good working condi-

Oh! Pul — eeze, E. F. R., get up out of your bed and walk back here and take this job off my hands.

PINCH-HITTER.

1929 Franklin Sedan Recently Overhauled New Tires Phone Benning 497

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

PUT SOME PEP IN YOUR KIDS!

Pure milk will do more than anything else to help keep your kids full of fun and energy. Give it to them when ever they want it—it makes a fine after-school snack.

Use Your Telephone, Call 1144 City

WELLS

DAIRY CO.
MACON ROAD

Barracks Construction To Begin

Bids for the construction of Barracks Unit No. 4 which will house the Service Battery of the 1st Battalion, 83rd Field Artillery, at Fort Benning, were opened Saturday morning in the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of the pot, and the contract awarded to Grahn Construction Company of Atlanta, Georgia, at an estimated cost of $103,965.

Construction is to begin within fifteen days, with the barracks to be turned over to the constructing quartermaster within 300 days of the letting of the bid. The foundation for the new building has been laid for some time.

The barracks are to be located between the east end of the new Special Units Building under construction, and the west end of the present tank barracks, but will not join the two buildings.

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY (Continued From Page 4)

train, as taught by the school, we find a great similarity in all of our solutions. They all seem for some reason to finish with the same result, a hot lunch at midnight when the trains are gone and a cold supper at high noon when the troops are gone. In several of them we almost hit the school solution on the issue of ammunition-we succeeded in getting it loaded on the field trains without difficulty in a manner similar to the approved gospel but frankness compels us to confess that we then ordered it to the kitchens to be cooked. The error was in a sense pardonable on our part but we should at least have realized that.

While beans may sometimes be classed as bullets the reverse is never true.

On Wednesday afternoon we were treated to another of the school's excellent demonstrations, one on supply. We are still somewhat hazy on the detailed organization of the school but a persistent inquiry makes us believe that they are classed as a part of the Second Section. If this is true our official scorer announces that to date this section has produced three runs, three hits and no errors.

The combined weight of logistics, supply and tactics and the consequent homework it entails on the part of all of us leaves us in a confused state bordering slightly on a case of jitters—we are beginning to have a feeling akin to the proverbial one-armed paper-hanger with the seven year itch. If this keeps up during the next few months we fear we will have sufficient reason to announce our solution to the problem which constantly confronts the editors of the farm journals—how to spend the long winter evenings—unless the school mimeograph should providentially break down.

To return for a moment again to thoughts of the hunt on Tuesday last we feel that we have made some progress in hunt nomenclature at least. We were quickly corrected by those more conversant with hunt terminology when we called a dog a dog, only to learn to our chagrin that a dog was a hound.

While watching the antics of these intelligent animals we experienced a slight tinge of homesickness, particularly when their barks and yelps rent the air, strongly reminiscent to us at least of the midnight wail of an Ozark pot-hound.

We also noted an absence of the usual dog's tendency to scratch for fleas, but we question the advisability of such extremes of cleanliness. A reasonable amount of fleas is good for a dog—it keeps him from brooding too much over the fact that he is a dog.

Comrade Norman's question in one of the supply problems ("Does an escort wagon hold nine tons?") deserves due publicity. An occasional question of this nature, like the dog's fleas, has a tendency to prevent us from brooding too much on our lot as a student. For his defense we must state that in his Naval Academy training such contraptions were never seen from the decks of a battleship. But ask him how many gobs to a boggoon and he's in his element.

On Saturday night we journeyed to the Post Theatre at the behest of our better half to view the Dramatic Club production, fully expecting to be bored by one of those things that builds up to a great let down. To our amazement we saw a play capably handled by all participants in a thoroughly professionla manner. Orchids to the entire cast for an excellent piece of work.

On Sunday morning while on our way to the golf course for our weekly exercise we were mystified by something that is as yet unexplained. Travelling along the inhabited portion of the First Division Road a car passed us with two firemen in it. We are certain of their calling except that the hats did not look capable of fire-hose drainage. Having thrilled since our younger days to the sight of a first-class fire our instincts persuaded us to follow them to the Polo Club. At Benning we are learning many strange things we never knew before, but we confess that a firealarm with horses and a band cause a slight strain on one's credulity. It must have been only a drill.

Short shavings: Bill Hones and his nicht jetzt ein oberschutzer" story The same with his description of Private Hoheheimer and the "rigid iron discipline" of the Cherman Army . . . Learning that in addition to the CP and the OP there is the EP, OP, RP and IP. The field of such combinations is apparently haustible . . . Sitting for the rogues allery photograph, obeying Major Barrett's injunction on where to hold the hands . . . School principle: When making a withdrawal don't forget the dog . . . An enlightening discussion of the infantry-artillery team with us fortunately on the spectating end . . . Bill Hones again providing atmosphere in his discourse on the Italian Army by draping garlic pendulum-wise from the instructor's stand.

WINTER GRASS (Italian Rye) $8.00 per 100 Lbs.; 10 Lbs. $1.00. Valley Seed Co. 1041 Broadway.

Very Special VALUE

WE have picked from our $12.45 and $14.95 lines a number of suits and overcoats which will be sold at $9.99 as long as they last — and they're going fast; come this week. Sizes 34 to 42.

In these suits you'll find Oxford grays, grays, blues, browns, tans, checks and stripes — all perfectly tailored and of quality materials and trimmings. The overcoats are double-breasted, heavy blues and Oxford grays, with a few top coats in light patterns.

Open from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m. 10 p. m. Saturdays — Working Two Shifts

New Fall HATS

Friday and Saturday you may pick any $1.85 hat from our stock and it is yours for one dollar. This is an exceptional value, for these are splendid, stylish hats. Wide selection of shapes and shades. $1

Friday and Saturday Only

The Metcalf Label Is a Badge of Quality and Economy

ESTABLISHED 1920
Two Stores of Public Service

LET US DEMON-STRATE OUR FIN-ER WORK!

in good shape for the cold weather. We're sure that we can convince you of the fact that this department is one of the best handled and equipped in the south, and that we're equally good on all makes of cars.

Auto Dept.

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone
Not In The Military Service

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Tennis Tournament Drawings Completed

Several 1st Round Lewis with score of 6-1, 4-6, 6-1. Lt. Sauer advanced to the second round 29th Drops Poor Matches Played

The Fall Tennis Tournament of Fort Benning is now well under way, having begun with the drawings for men's, ladies', boys', and girls' singles. Saturday morning. Several first round matches have been played and a few of the more important second round matches, the playing taking pace on the Infantry School courts.

In the first round matches of the men's singles Lt. Wooten finally won from Lt. Maxwell by the scores of 4-6, 6-4, and the last bitterly contested set 10-8. Lt. Hornisher had little trouble in the first lap of the tourney, besting Lt. Winston in the first two sets played by the scores of 6-2 and 6-1. Lt. Crosby staged a comeback and won his match by taking the last two sets, 7-5 and 6-4, after ceding the first to Lt. Kunzig by the score of 4-6. Lt. Grinstead defeated Lt. Craig, 6-1, 6-2. Lt. Burns outplayed Capt. Kelly in a 6-3, 6-1 vic-Capt. Wilson eliminated Maj.

PEP... in every step

> Use ⟨ (000+)

Heels and Soles

Hood Rubber Products Co., Inc. Watertown, Mass.

by winning from Lt. Emery, 6-0, 6-4.
Lt. Britt was victorious over Lt. Blair, Game To G. M. C. to the tune of 6-2, 6-4. Pvt. Martin won from T. B. Bonham with the scores of 6-2, 5-7, 9-7. Maj. Blackmore, Maj. Irving, Capt. Phillips, Mr. Calhoun and Julius Evans advanced to the second rounds with byes.

Beginning the men's singles in the second round matches, Maj. Blackmore downed Lt. Grinstead in two out of three sets by the score of 8-6, 6-1, and 6-2. Julius Evans eliminated Lt. ability on the part of the Green Wooten by two straight wins of 6-3 and 6.4.

The first round matches of the boys' singles spelled defeat to Pence at the hands of Spalding, 6-1, 6-2. Griswold took an easy victory by walloping Arnold, 6-2, 6-0. Wilson had little trouble in eliminating Rife, 6-1, 6-2. A hard three-set battle finally resulted in victory for Cota over James Maerten, 8-6, 4-6, 6-3. Cummings licked Faith by the scores 6-2 and 6-2. Bonham downed Kelly 6-0, 6-1. Arms took the first two sets from Partridge with the scores of 6-2, 6-0. George Maertens swept over Bevan with twelve straight victories in the first two sets. Andrews eliminated Bobby McKinnon with the scores 6-0 nl 6-1. Evans, Jackson, Munson, Luse, and Bonham advanced to the second rounds with byes, while Johnson and Pope won by defaults.

Evans began the boys' second round matches with a dozen straight games over Spalding, making the two sets 5-0. 6-0. Munson won almost as easilv from Cota, 6-1, 6-0. Luse bested Pone in two sets of 6-0 and 6-2. Ham Bonham bowled over Cummings with 6-0 and 6-0 chalked in his favor. George Maertens advnaced to the third rounds by winning from Evans 6-2, 6-2. J. B. Bonham lost the first set with Andrews by the score of 2-6 but came back strong in the last two sets and won 6-4 and 6-1.

The ladies' singles have not yet got under way, but Mrs. Keiler, Mrs. Hornisher, Mrs. Schneider, Mrs. Luse, and Mrs. Eagles have entered their name for the contest.

Jane Kraft won from Jaqueline Gilchrist by 6-1, 7-5 in the first round

The 29th Infantry football team dropped their third game of the season to a better-playing Georgia Military College eleven last Saturday afternoon in Memorial Stadium at Columbus, by the score of 50-0. It was a very poor exhibition of grid-iron Wave, and had they put up the same style of game they howed against Pensacola Naval Station the week preceding, there is no doubt but that the Cadets would have been held to a much smaller score.

It was patent from the first quarter what the outcome of the game would be. G. M. C. worked perfectly on everything, interference, passes, and charging, and leaked through the 29th line like it was a rusty sieve. Three touchdowns in the first quarter, two in the econd, two in the third and one in the fourth was the sad tale of the walk-away, and if a good drop-kcker had been present tbere might have been six more points

Individually the Doughboys were triving hard, but there was too great a lack of coordination to accomplish anything toward stemming the tide. Man after man did his best, but there was no concerted effort. The Cadets cut their individual opponents out from the herd, bowled them over, and looked around for another foe while arising from the ground. The stonewall feature of the Bowden game was missing from the 29th line, and the back-field again showed that smooth running combination had not been Latest news from Coach Decker states that the game with Norman Park, which had been scheduled for the 11th at Benning, has been cancelled, and a match with the Georgia Tech "All-Stars," composed of former Tech players, will take its place, being played on Sunday, the 12th. Prominent among the old-timers of the Tech team of yore will be "Tubby" Walton, famous behemoth of the Yellow Jacket line, who is expected to appear in the guard position in the game at the post.

Further information given by the 29th coach is the canceling of the game with Mercer Freshmen on the 25th. To date no substitution of a game has been made.

matches of the girls' singles. Virginia Wadsworth eliminated Lillian Evans with the scores 6-0, 6-2. Peggy Arnold was victorious over Marian Bloomquist, the scores being 6-4, 6-2. Betty Negrotto trounced Madelaine Matchett, 6-1, 6-3. Elizabeth Evans advanced to the second round of the tourney by licking Tulie Williams, 6-2, 6-0. Ann Yancey downed Marian Barrett, 6-0, 6-1. Virginia Pope won an interesting match from Matile Griswold with the scores 6-4 and 6-4. Frances Lewis gained a place in the second rounds with a bye.

With more than half of the entrants in the singles, already eliminated, the annual fall tournament is rapidly becoming a contest of the very best tennis players in this vicinity.

BOY SCOUTS

TROOP REVIEW

Troop Twelve, Benning Boy Scouts, met Thursday, Oct. 19, at the Boy Scout Cabin. Lt. Meister opened the meeting and Tommy Arms led in the Oath and Laws.

Lt. Meister then distributed the community strip, troop numerals and Patrol emblems to the scouts. Afterwards, some of the boys practiced

The time has come, the Walrus said, To talk of many things.'

Including, among others, cakes of ice, tree-sitting, the N. R. A. and major's caps. Not to mention a shotgun, a houn' dog, and an army forty-

To begin with, it seems that Sergeant Frank "Bull of the Woods" first aid and signaling, and others practiced tenderfoot work.

The Boy Scout riding class began Saturday at 7:30 o'clock at the Infantry School Stables. About forty boys turned out the first day and we hope others will come. We have planned for one or two mounted troops and are planning to have at least one mounted overnight hike.

-Frederick Ladd dence?

Smith is either the victim of practical jokers, or there is an Ethopian in the coal-shed, someplace. Why, above things, the portly, not to say corpulent, exponent of the early to rise phobia should take up the somewhat out-worn, declasse, and puerile pastime of roosting in the branches of any convenient cottonwood or chinaberry has a number of the Detachment guessing, just as Smith is till in the fog about the N. R. A., and thereby rates headlines in the erstwhile contemporary of this sheet, the Columbus Enquirer. "Recovery Act Puzzles Smith." See yesterday morning's paper for proof. Also, just why did the amiable straw-boss, known to be a supposedly sedate, settled, benedict, depart from the Detachment Area with two 50 pound cakes of ice, and arrived home with but one is evi-

Everyone Is Driving A Used Car

A Lot Of Them Are Not Half As Good As Ours

A FEW SPECIALS:

'28—Ford Tudor Sedan
'29—Ford Tudor Sedan
'29—Ford Tudor Sedan
'30—Ford Tudor Sedan
'30—Ford Fordor Sedan
'29—Chevrolet Coach
'29—Chevrolet Fordor Sedan
'30—Chevrolet Coach
'29—Buick Coupe
'31—Buick (8) Coach
	11

MANY OTHERS

EASY TERMS — GOOD TRADES

BURRUS MOTOR CO.

Authorized Dealers

1216 - 22 First Ave.

Phone 3500

WATCH FOR

the new NASH announcement! NOVEMBER 7TH bringing out the most epochal news in NASH history!

EDGE-FULLER

MOTOR COMPANY 1444 First Ave.

We, ourselves say "Uncle" every few minutes in the day - speaking of Uncle Sam we are. What with income tax, Government Inspection, N. R. A. and hog processing tax, we know there is an Uncle Sam. We had just about placed him in a class with Santa Claus, but joking aside, we are proud to be able to co-operate with the President. We are proud of our friends at Fort Benningand their steady consumption of the South's best Pork Sausage — Old Settler's.

The Provision Company, Inc.

NOVEMBER 20th:

... That's the big day for the hunters. Open season on doves and quail begins that day, and the would-be nimrods had better begin right now making the final additions to their hunting equipment. The Main Branch -phone 608.

FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service.

THE OLD SCHOOLHOUSE

(Continued From Page 4) but he had better stay in his own

pantry, i mentioned the fact that i have moved to town, didn't i. well, i saw a cockroach the other day, down on fulton street, who was so big that when he ran down the sidewalk and met a dog, the dog had to sniff to make sure that he wasn't another dog. not to mention the one that barked at sam sauer.

verbeck refuses to pay any attention to my insulting remarks con-

Dr. R. H. Brown OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Murrah Bldg.

Phones Office 4108 Res. 1153

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

To make your home attractive and comfortable

We have a large and complete stock of items necessary for outfitting your home for the winter.

We cordially invite you to visit this store at your first opportunity and convince yourself.

You will find our prices very moderate and our service satisfactory.

MAXWELL BROS. AND $f M \ c \ D \ O \ N \ A \ L \ D$ 1141 Broadway

cerning his mustache, so i thought i would send my friend freddie, who has been living on verbecks janitors dog, up to inhabit the mustache. most people dont care much for freddie and so i thought that that might take care of the mustache.

but freddie says that when he tried to move in, he found that a family of owls had already built a nest on i am still trying to get a line on this technique which some have and some merely hope they have. no matter what the lady says about wooten —and i suppose she should know —i would still like to help him out. i heard of cas kent pulling the one about the mental, moral and physical blank and it sounded complicated enough to be effective but i guess it wasnt. anyway, she went home with some one else.

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT

(Continued From Page 4) throws all the way across Norton

Things we'd like to see: Major Lee smile; Cowboy Cummings when he wasn't blushing; Capt. Bloomquist without a map; Lt. Maertens without his notes; Scott with his hair combed flat; Tom Mifflin on a date; Ad Smith when he wasn't talking about himself; and finally a piece of ord nance that wasn't obsolete.

Tuesday night a good dance was held at the Columbus Country Club, with Susie Freeman the man who plays so well at Hamilton, furnishing the music. Among those having an es pecially good time, were Major Bonham, Major Heileman, Capt. Pope; and students Bergquist, Bennet, Kent, Taylor, Dohs, Boos, Moses, Horton, Moore, Wooten, Seeler, (in uniform), James, Johnston, Purnell and Hampton. The big flash of the evening was a very attractive young matron dressed in ravishing white satin. Despite the handicap of a perfectly good husband, she was by all odds one of the most popular things on the floor. The whole affair could have been enjoyed with a much reduced feeling of restraint if the boys hadn't been faced with another horrible writ on the morrow.

Final salutations go to Ed Purnell, another class history maker who, by his extraordinary histrionic abilities. made the dramatic club varisty. In the production "Let Us Be Gay", Ed did a fine job, as did also Kay Lemly and Mrs. E. G. Wheeler. And, by the way, this last production created two thoughts for future improvement.

First, get an electrician who won't forget and leave the audience in brilliant light during an entire act, or play with the stage lighting effects. Second, apply the powder liberally to the actors, in order to keep them from "freezing" into position between lines. Oh yes, and keep back stage prompting down to the first ten rows anyway.

24TH INFANTRY CELEBRATES

(Continued From Page 1) exercises were ended with the singing of the regimental song.

lmmediately there were various contests held on W. O'Connor and Miss Nana Seeley. the parade ground, at which the best dressed noncommissioned officer, and the best dressed private were selected. and informal athletic contests took place. These included a reveille race, in which the various contestants rose from their beds, dress themselves, and make up their beds, the normal routine of a soldier at first call in the morning. The winner was the one who finished first, and did his work in the neatest manner. There was a wheel-barrow shuttle race, a three legged race, and a walking relay race. A special dinner was served in each of the mess-halls.

At 3:00 P. M. the enlisted men of the regiment held their dance in the post gymnasium, with music by the regimental orchestra.. Dancing continued until 6:00.

83rd F. A.

HEADQUARTERS

We'll have to begin this week, with apologies, excuses and other things. We heard some time ago that Cpl. Nahring had organized a Brass Band but the rumor was false. Instead of a Brass Band he organized a string orchestra with headquarters at 35th street, Columbus.

Our indoor baseball team won the championship of the battalion at the barbecue last Saturday. We would like to hear from some other teams on the post, as to their challenge for the championship of the post.

Now for the dancing thrills. The battery will sponsor a dance this

SOCIETY

(Continued From Page 2) Thursday evening supper dance this

COLUMBUS COUNTRY CLUB CELEBRATES HALLOWE'EN WITH DINNER DANCE

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the Hallowe'en dinner dance Tuesday evening at the Co lumbus Country Club. The Club presented a perfect Hallowe'en setting for the occasion. In the banquet hall the table were decorated with yellow cosmos, jack o' lanterns and red and yellow Autumn leaves. Yellow tapers were used. In the ball room the orchestra stage was banked with corn stalks from which peered lights were covered with yellow, orblack cutouts and pumpkins. The lights were covered with yellow, orange and black drapes formed witches at the windows. The host for the evening were: Judge and Mrs. C. F. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dismuke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lummus, and Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, Mr. and Mr. Kirven Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. John Pease. Many reservations were made from Fort Benning and Colum-

FOLLIES OF 1933 TO BE GIVEN BY FORT BENNING AND CO-LUMBUS TALENT

The theatre going public of Columbus and of Fort Benning are looking forward with keen anticipation to the 1933 Follies which will be held on the evening of November 10 and 11 at the Springer Opera House in Columbus. Jack Bailey, well known director from New York, is handling the show and is preparing a delightful program. There will be a company made up of Fort Benning and Columbus girls in lovely costumes, clever skits and song acts. Among the outstanding numbers will be the classical fantasy to be staged by four of the Service League members with a beautiful ballet as a background. The four principals will be Mrs. Edward Swift, Jr., general chiarman of the Follies; Mrs. A. Illges, who is serving as finance officer and is also first vice president of the League; Mrs. William I. Hudson, chairman of music, and Mrs. Georgia Howard Latta, one of the talented new members of the League. Their act will be one of the stellar features of the program.

Noted among the large cast will be many young women from Fort Benning, among them will be Miss Katherine Lemly, who played the after the exercises lead in "Let Us Be Gay"; Mrs. W

PERSONALS

Miss Dorothy Barlett of Prince George, Maryland, is the house guest of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Albert S. J.

Miss Barbara Lowe departed this week for her home at Fort McPherson. She has been the house guest of Miss Katherine Lemly.

Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Pierce, Miss Harriotte Atkins, Lieut. Ernest Easterbrook, and Lieut. Charles L. Decker motored to Birmingham Saturday to attend the Alabama-Kentucky game.

Miss Eleanor Bonesteel spent the weekend in New Orleans as the guest of Mrs. Pauline Curran Perkin while there she attended the Tulane-Auburn

29th Inf.

COMPANY "H"

Sam Prophet was badly injured in the game the regimental team played with Bowden College, the boys will miss Sam more than ever in the games they have yet to play. Everybody is pulling for you Sammie old

'Chesty' Cooper sure took his opponent into camp Wednesday night but apparently the referee was not impressed. No decision was given. Cooper says that he squeezed all the air out of 'Smokey Joe' anyway.

'Squab' Gunsallus happened to an accident in Columbus the day they had the NRA parade, seems like he left his truck to look up one of his old flames and while he was scanning the 'Squaws' the trucks pulled out sans Gunsallus. 'Gunshot' thumbed his way to camp without anything further happening.

We'll be seeing you. ERNEST STEPHENS.

month in honor of the Gigolos of this organiaztion. The most popular Gigolo of the battery will be chosen that evening by applause from the audience. We hope that Cpl. Pike will win the nomination again this year.

Cpl. Tubbs is working very smoothly as overseer for the reconstruction of our stables. We are inclined to believe that Cpl. Tubbs has worked at the iob before as such efficiency must be the result of hard work.

We are still receiving new men every day, Pvt. Booth's kid brother has joined the battery for a three year stay. We hope he has as good a record as his brother.

Hot Papa Muscrove had a fine time roaming over the country, "A Fugitive from a Jane Gang". He is now recuperating in the Post cooler. Happy days

Pfc. Lewis Johnson must be trying to start a new fad. First it was nursing babies, I mean infants, now it is painted finger-nails. Maybe it will be lipstick next. Who knows?

Pvt. Monk has returned from a 60 day furlough and the love bug must have bit him. He is talking about going back already. You better behave,

What Private is afraid he is going to have trouble because he cut in on a certain Sergeant's girl? If he only knew the half of it!

STOCKADE MESS AGAIN IN FIRST PLACE

For the fourth consecutive month Major Homer D. Connor, Medical Inspector of Fort Benning, has given the Garrison Stockade Mess of the Infantry School the highest rating

WEEK - END SPECIAL

LADY

BALTIMORE CAKE

You'll find this one of the most delicious cakes you've ever eaten - rich, tasty, and made skillfully from the finest of ingredients. Only

3.5 c

COLLINS

BAKING CO. 1144 - 13th St.

Men's Gun Metal Blucher Oxfords In Black

$2.95

Men's Brown Calf Blucher Oxfords

$3.95

Brown Elk Lace Oxford White Toe

$3.45

Also a complete stok of Star Brand all-leather shoes for the en-

SAM NEEL'S

Shoe Department Westbrook Building

WE BUY -

Old GOLD Jewelry AND

DENTAL SCRAPS

UNDER U. S. LICENSE No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

JEWELERS

1121 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS

__$ 600,000.00 3,200,000.00

RESOURCES OVER_____ WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

WELFARE COUNCIL REPORT

(Continued From Page 1) ties to the care of those left dependent by death, or other circumstances. A typical example of this type of Commodities...

The commodity markets have been a basic field of this firm since its beginning. Through ample private wire, cable, and radiogram facilities, investors can buy and sell twenty-six different imperishable commodities on organized World exchanges, through any of the firm's branch offices.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

> 13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

post family.

The four year old twins of a member of the garrison personnel were run over by a truck last summer, resulting in the death of one and serious injuries to the other. The Welfare Committee in addition to paying funeral expenses for the dead child, and the hospital expenses for the other, secured suitable clothing for the other five children of the family.

A few weeks later the father deserted the military service, leaving his wife and children and going to California, where his mother lived. There he surrendered to the military authorities, and wrote, asking his wife and children to join him. The mother was expecting another child and unable to pay the expenses for the family to California. A lady in Columbus who knew the family, was anxious to adopt the little girl that had been injured in the accident, but the mother could not bring herself to give it up. She did consent, however, to the adoption of the coming child, on the condition that she not be allowed to see it after it was born. The baby, a girl, was born and, through the services of the Welfare Committee, adopted by the Columbus woman, and given a home where it Point in 1918, and was stationed at will have educational advantages and Fort Benning for over ten years living conditions, impossible with its prior to his retirement. He will main-work is shown in the story of one regaining her strength, the Welfare Council settled the hospital bill, arranged with the field director of the American Red Cross to obtain reduced rates on the railroad fares, and paid the entire costs for the family to join the father in California.

> The operations of the Welfare Council are made possible by the Fort Benning Community Chest, to which the members of the post personnel donate one day's pay each year. In addition to the work of the Welfare council, the Community Chest also carries on other benefit work at the post and in Columbus, and regularly contributes to any drive and fund being launched in the city or at the

Ham Kelley Now In Insurance Field In Columbus

Captain Harold S. Kelley, more familiarly known as "Ham," tered the life insurance field in Columbus and is now an authorized representative of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Capt. Kelley graduated from West

COULD YOU REAR YOUR FAMILY

ON THE INCOME PRODUCED FROM THE TOTAL INSURANCE ON YOUR LIFE?

THEN HOW COULD YOUR WIFE?

THINK IT OVER; AND CALL

ROBISON BROWN, JR.

Special Agent, Ordinary Department LIFE INSURANCE — ANNUITIES

210 MURRAH BLDG.

'PHONE 1637

© 1933, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Home Office, Newark, N. J.

VOLUME III

FORT BENNING, GA., NOVEMBER 10, 1933

The

CONDUCTED BY PINCH-HITTER

"Better be damned than mentioned not at all. -John Wolcot.

Latest reports from the sick bed of E. F. R., indicate that he has been quite seriously ill with a bad case of influenza but that he is much better now. He should be back on the job as Conductor of the Flare in another ten days. We feel sure that the readers of this column join with us in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Dramatic Club Play

After extended try-outs of many Dramatic Club members for parts in the December play, it, at last, has been cast and is in rehearsal. It is "The Bad Man" by Porter Emerson Browne, a western comedy-melodrama. The selection of this type of play marks a departure from former years but should appeal to the majority of Benning theater goers.

The directors of the play ask the good offices of this column in expressing their appreciation to all club members who showed their interest by turning out for this play.

Lost and Found

Practice for last week's Flag Race is responsible for the lost and found notice that reaches us from our Eightythird Field Artillery Scout. It seems that the Lyceum, weekly professional evening meeting of the officers of our mounted outfit, was in session about eight o'clock one evening last week when its calm was shattered by a message to the effect that Lieutenant Thompson, The Pathfinder, had left the stables at one o'clock that afternoon, mounted, and had not been seen since. Adjutant Bevan then took command of the situation and deployed his officers so as to effectually cover the southwestern por-

(Please turn to page 5)

Quartermaster General Makes Inspection

Artillerv Team Is Major General John L. De Witt Mayor Smith Sends

Winner Saturday Of Annual Flag Race

The 83rd Field Artillery team, No. 2, were the victors in the annual flag race of the Infantry School, in which thirteen teams from the different organizations of the post and school participated at Fort Benning Saturday afternoon. The No. 2 team of the Cannoneers finished but a few minutes ahead of the hard-riding No. I team of the same organization, with the Students coming in a close third. It was one of the fastest races seen at Fort Benning for some time, the winning team finishing in 3 hours, 6 minutes, and 21 seconds.

event of the fall season, is held as a test of the stamina of both the riders and the horses participating, and does much towards determining the entrance and efficiency of mounts and men. In addition, due to the rules of the contest, it aids in other military ways, including the ability to follow a trail through wooded country, and the practical use of military maps. The teams, which are composed of four men, who ride in pairs, are given a destination on a map, and on arriving there are given further instructions to their next check or station, which is found by the use of the maps. Each pair of riders covers the same territory but with the stations arranged in a different sequence according to directions. Riders are eliminated for failure to find all stations, bring all "flags" or cards to the finish point, or for finishing the race with their mounts in poor

The winning team from the Artillery was composed of Lieutenants Clayton H. Studebaker, Lewis S. Griffing, Geo. H. McManus, Jr., and Malin Craig, Jr. The second place win-

(Please turn to page 8)

Major General Jhon L. DeWitt, Quartermaster of the U.S. Army, has been a visitor at Fort Benning for the past few days, on an inspection tour of the post. General DeWitt left today for Maxwell Field, Montgomery, where he will make a similar study of construction activities.

While at Fort Benning General De-Witt has made an inspection of post activities, with especial attention to the new construction program now under way, in which, as quartermaster general, he has a great deal of interest. His observations made included an inspection of the partially completed barracks for the Special Units, the The flag race, which is a annual largest project now undre construction, and other buildings now under contract for construction, as well as a study of the projects which are to get under way in the near future.

> Major General John L. DeWitt, Quartermaster of the United States Army, who arrived at Fort Benning at 5:40 P. M. Tuesday, was given the official salute of thirteen guns due his rank at 8:45 A. M., Wednesday morning, the salute being fired by Battery A, 83rd Field Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant George H. Mc-Manus, Jr. Dispensing with further formal ceremony, General DeWitt proceeded immediately to post headquarters, where he received the senior officers of the post, all Quartermaster Corps officers on duty here, and the staff officers of post headquarters in the office of Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant.

To the assembled staff and senior officers General DeWitt briefly outlined plans of his office for aiding the President's recovery plan by putting men to work on construction from funds recently allotted the War Department by the Public Works Administration.

"Of the $55,000,000 alloted the War Department for construction a short while ago," he said, "$31,000,000 already has been obligated and before the end of November all monies allotted will have been obligated by contracts for construction. Work under this program is already under way, and will increase rapidly every

At the conclusion of his talk the assembled officers, the Quartermaster nel J. DeCamp Hall, Quartermaster, Colonel a few years later, Beauregard and Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, con struction quartermaster of the post in General Estes' office. Among matters that General DeWitt inquired into and discussed were the present construction now under way at the post, and that proposed for the near future, especially the erection of new gun sheds for the 83rd Field Artillery, and the improvement of the air field facilities at the post. Captain on a tour of inspection of the activiservice with the Confederate Army in ties being supervised by his office, in-

(Please turn to page 4)

The stork did double duty at Fort Benning recently; possibly the NRA has even invaded the animal kingdom. Anyway, the post's population was increased by four on October 26, when two sets of twins were born on the same

Twin boys, Steve and Cleve, were born to Private and Mrs. Stewart John Miller, Company D, 66th Infantry, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goss are the proud parents of twin girls, Jean Anna and Joan Frances. Mr. Goss is golf instruct or of the Officers' Club.

Welfare Council Begins Work

The Welfare Council of Fort Benning has already begun arrangements for their Christmas activities at the Infantry School, by starting a movement that will insure against empty stockings and lost faith among the kiddies of the post,

The Parent-Teachers Associtaion is ollecting toys, the men on duty at the Fire Stations are renovating them, and the girl scouts are making new clothing for the dolls and decorations for the other novelties.

Fort Benning is without a Big Brother League, such as is found in most of the larger cities and so the ladies of the garrison continue a custom, aided by the department in its spare time and the girl scouts with their good deeds, that will bring happiness to many of the youngsters of the fort and make the Christmas Spirit one hundred percent at the world's largest school of arms.

Letter Of Thanks Makes Inspection Tour Of Post To General Estes

In a letter from the Honorable H. C. Smith. Mayor of Columbus, Ga., to Brig. Gen. G. H. Estes, Post Commandant, the troops of Fort Benning, that participated in the "Buy Now" parade of the National Recovery Act held in the city on October 27th, were commended for their performance, and the success of the parade, which was due partly to the participation of the Fort Benning delegates.

In his letter to General Estes, Mayor Smith thanked him and the troops representing his station in the following words:

"I want to express to you and, through you, to the organization commanders, my deep appreciation of your fine contribution to our "Buy Now" parade held in this city on October 27, 1933. Participation of your troops contributed greatly to the success of our efforts.

At the same time I desire to compliment the men in ranks for their excellent marching and soldierly appearance. It was a real pleasure to see such a fine body of men. As usual the Regulars did their job well.

The troops of the Infantry School that participated in the parade were made up of men from the 29th Infantry, 24th Infantry, and Company F, 67th Infantry (Medium Tanks). The latter organization being the one that furnished the three Christie Tanks-the meahines which created such an interest along the route of marching. The Bands of both the 29th Infantry and the 24th Infantry. two of the leading military musical units in the country, took an active part in the even and rendered suitable selections for the occasion, consisting of marches and patriotic airs.

Jews From The

Interesting recollections of the ingly said of General Lee that "men in a recent rearrangement and revision of the regimental records of the 24th Infantry which disclosed copies of the U.S. Army Register, some of pages of the country's history.

Foremost among the list of army officers found in the Register of 1861 appears the name of Brigadier General Joseph E. Johnson, who a few years later became the faithful and conservative old "Uncle Joe" of the Confederacy. Next in rank came seven colonels, the junior of whom was Robert E. Lee, then serving with the First Cavalry. Since that time the name of the Confederacy's renowned and revered commander-in-chief has been ranked with the greatest military geniuses of all time. It is lov-

early days of the army were revived looked up to him, loved him, fought for him." The name of the then Brevet Major C. T. Beauregard, who was at that time with the Gorps of them dating back to 1850, and con- | Engineers, is included in the roster taining names of then junior officers, as one of the officers resigned from General held a conference with Colothat have since been engraved on the the army in 1861. As a Confederate exhbited an extensive knowledge of the strategies of warfare, among which was his outstanding feat of "corking Batler's forces in a bottle."

In 1861, Captain James E. B. Stuart was retired from the army. A few years later the name of the Gay Cavalier of the Confederacy was stamped indelibly upon the pages of military history as one of the greatest cavalry leaders of all time. Jeb | Jabelonsky then escorted the general Stuart began his brief but glorious

(Please turn to page 4)

Twenty-One Guns

Upon those crosses, row on row, Our memory marks their last, long, quiet-sleep, And drooping under dull November skies, The Stars and Stripes their lonely vigil keep.

By JACK GIBNE One minute to twelve o'clock; November 11, 1933. Across Gordon Field a stray wind aised the dust in small clouds, dimming the lustre of carefully polished shoes and gleaming brass that formed line behind the 75s of the field artillery battery, dummy shells piled near the guns.

Immobile and impassive, the men of the gun crew fixed their eyes on their battery commander, standing with watch in hand, up-raised arm poised rigidly. Everywhere activities were at a standstill, the lone sentry at No. 1 the only movement discernible, pacing up and down before the only movement dcmfwyp shrdlcmfw only guard house. The air was chill, and the battery horses, grouped behind the guns, hung their heads and brought their tails into the wind.

Boom!

As the sound of the shot bounded among the hills of the reservation. the Flag slowly rose on the tall, steel pole, fluttering in the wind, as if in memory. So it had fluttered in France, draped over countless long boxes carried on caissons; so it had fluttered in hundreds of small-town cemeteries throughout the land, as friend and foe turned out to do honor to the Hero; so it still fluttered in those vast fields of grave-blossoms at home and abroad, a spot of color

(Please turn to page 8)

The Big Day Is Near! See The Georgia-Auburn o'clock at the attractive quarters of Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly on Miller Loop.

Five tables were arranged, the ladies playing until four-thirty when tea was served. Entertaining with Mrs. Lem-

MRS. BEVAN AND MRS. BEISH-

ARTILLERY BRIDGE CLUB

LINE HOSTESSES AT FIELD

ly was Mrs. Frank V. Schneider.

SEESOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

GENERAL ESTES AT LUNCH- ficers of the fort. EON AT OFFICERS' CLUB

Major General John L. DeWitt, the Quartermaster General of the Army, was the honor guest Wednesday at a luncheon given at the Club by his host Brigadier General George H. Estes. General Estes' guest list included: General DeWitt, Colonel J. De-Camp Hall, Col. Geo. F. Baltzell, Colonel Charles W. Weeks, Colonel William B. Wallace, Lieut. Col. Joseph A. Atkins, Major John H. Mel-Iom, Major Fred M. Fogle, Capt. Carl H. Jabelonsky, Mayor H. C. Smith of Columbus, Mr. L. W. McPherson, Mr. Henry B. Crawford, Mr. Frank Lumpkin, Mr. W. J. Fielder, Mr. Carl Thompson, Mr. Edgar Chancellor, Mr. J. Homer Dimon, Mr. Rhodes Browne, and Mr. Walter Richards.

GENERAL AND MRS. DEWITT HONOR GUESTS AT DINNER GIVEN BY COLONEL AND MRS.

Wednesday evening, November 8, Major General and Mrs. John L. De-Witt, who are visiting in Fort Benning from Washington, D. C., were guests of honor at a dinner given by Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall, the affair taking place at the Officers' Club of the post. General and Mrs. G. H. Estes were also guests at the dinner, the remainder of the guest list being

> Dependable ... Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Whereever We Serve 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

After the dinner General and Mrs. DeWitt were honored at an official reception held at the Polo-Hunt Club at 9:00, to which all officers of the post, adult members of their families and their house guests were extended invitations. In the receiving line, in addition to General and Mrs. DeWitt, were General and Mrs. Estes, Colonel and Mrs. Hall, and Major and Mrs. Mellom.

DANCE AT POLO-HUNT CLUB SATURDAY EVENING ENJOY-ABLE AFFAIR

Miss Page Michie and Miss Kenneth Kendall were the hostesses Saturday evening at a delightful dance given at the Polo-Hunt Club. The club was most attractively decorated to represent a full blown Summer garden scene. Over the windows green and white striped crepe paper gave effective imitation of awnings, while roses and hollyhocks of every hue were trellissed up the walls. The orchestra tage was banked with Summer greens from which roses and hollyhocks grew. To complete the garden scene lovely Japanese lanterns were used. The ruest list included a number of outof town guests who are visitors on the Post, their hostesses and members of the younger married contingent. Preceding the dance, a number of delightful affairs were given. Among these were a dinner party given by Miss Katherine Lemly honoring Miss Dorothy Bartlett, the house guest of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Albert S. J. Tucker, Miss Mary Wadsworth entertained eight members of the debutante set and their escorts and Lieut. and Mrs. Theodore L. Dunn were the hosts at a buffet supper.

LADIES' REGIMENTAL BRIDGE CLUB MEETS ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The 29th Infantry ladies' bridge club held its fourth meeting of the

The ladies' bridge and tea club of the 83rd Field Artillery met Tuesday afternoon at the quarters of Mrs Wendell L. Bevan, Mrs. John R. Beishline assisting as hostess. Contract bridge was played from two to four. Tea was served following bridge.

OFFICERS AND LADIES OF 24TH INFANTRY ENJOY BRIDGE

The tea room of the Officers' Club was the scene Tuesday evening of the officers' and ladies' 24th infantry bridge club. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James R. Davidson and Mrs. Albert H. Dickerson. The play started at eight o'clock and at ten sandwiches and coffee were served.

OFFICERS' CLUB SPONSORS SEC-OND MIXED BRIDGE TOURNEY MONDAY EVENING

The Officers' Club sponsored the second of its mixed-pair bridge tournaments Monday evening at the Officers' Club. These tournaments have proven so popular that each time the tables have been divided into two sections, each section consisting of six tables. Winners in the first section, North and South, were Major Thomas S. Arms and Capt. Arthur E. Burnap, with Capt. and Mrs. Don C. Faith second. East and West was won by Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. Stuart, Colonel and Mrs. Charles F. Morse finishing second. The second section, North and South was won by Colonel William E. Persons and Mrs. Joseph A. Atkins, with Mrs. Francis J. Gillespie and Mrs. Charles E. Colson second. First place for East and West was tied by Capt. and Mrs. Maurice E. Jennings and Lieut. and Mrs. Russell G. Emery.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S ASSOCIA-TION EXTENDS INVITATION

The American Association of University Women invites the ladies of Fort Benning who are eligible for membership to join the Columbus Chapter. The next meeting will be held Wednesday November 15th at the Columbus High School Library, at 3:30 P. M.

In the program will be included reviews of John Galsworthy's two books: "Flowering Wilderness" and "One More River."

PERSONALS

Major General and Mrs. John L. DeWitt arrived at Fort Benning Tuesday night to be the guests of Brigadier General and Mrs. George H. Estes. While here General DeWitt, who is the Quartermaster General of the Army, will make an inspection of the Ouartermaster activities on the Post. Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly, Miss Katherine Lemly and Miss Barbara Lowe motored to Atlanta Wednesday to Mrs. Walter A. Huntsberry motored to Atlanta on Wednesday.

Cossack Chorus To Appear Locally

"The Cossacks are coming"--a cry of terror in the Middle Ages to the tribes of heathen inhabitants that fringed the Russian Steppes, means today but one thing-the pacific advent of a band of singing men who have been thrilling Europe under the name of the Don Cossack Russian Male Chorus.

These men, former officers in the Imperial Army, "The Singing Horsemen of the Steppes" as they are now appropriately called, thirty-six strong.

GENERAL DEWITT HONORED BY composed of Quartermaster Corps of year Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty are under the leadership of Serge Jaroff.

> Their appearance in this community is scheduled for Friday evening Nov. 17th at the Main Theatre, Fort Benning, sponsored by the Three Arts League of Columbus, also the Fort Benning P.-T. A., The Fort Benning Woman's Club and the Fort Benning Dramatic Club.

> The men march upon the stage in military formation. The military effect is further carried out in their dark-blue Cossack uniforms, the trousers trimmed with broad red stripes. Knee-high leather riding boots serve to remind that the Cossacks were a cavalry unit. Standing at attention, the men await the signal from their leader. Then, without any 'giving of the note,' they begin to sing, achieving effects in crescendo and diminuendo that few, if any, other choruses can hope to approach.

> All that they sing is in Russiannative folk-songs, and both secular and religious choral numbers, all of which are explained in well-detailed trans-

Take this tip: Buy at Silver's-and you'll get an unparalleled measure of courtesy, quality and economy. We've earned our right to the title of "economy store" by always giving the best at the most moderate price. And you can get anything you want here, too!

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY AND 11TH ST.

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

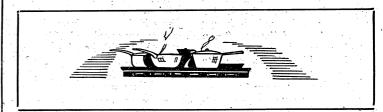

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER____

__$ 600,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

WE KNOW EXACTLY WHAT YOUR COOKING PROBLEMS ARE!

And that's why we are able to please you! We try to keep our stock just the way you'd keep it were you in our place -and we invite you to do all your food shopping here. Convenience, service and economy are the three principal watchwords of this department.

Grocery Department

X C H A N О FORT BENNNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

WE BUY

Old GOLD Jewelry A N D

DENTAL SCRAPS

UNDER U. S. LICENSE No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

JEWELERS

1121 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

6 Bottles in
This Handy SIX-BOX
COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO

BUY THE SIX-BOX Take it with you, keep it on hand all the time! Only

25c

many hosts and hostesses keep the SIX-

BOX always on hand. It provides the world's most delicious drink in its most convenient form.

Any successful

host can tell you

why Coca-Cola is Experience is a great teacher—that's why so so popular...

SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

YEARS OF PLEASING PEOPLE HAVE GIVEN IT

ITS NAME FOR POPULARITY

New Books

TSCHIFFELY'S RIDE

By A. F. Tschiffely. 1933. Simon [∞]Schuster. →

This is the story of the Argentine schoolmaster who crossed most of South and Central America to complete his journey from Buenos Aires to Washington. The true heroes of the adventure however are the two horses, Mancha, the Stained One and Gato, the Cat, true immortals of the equine Ten thousand miles in the saddle from the Southern Cross to Pole Star, but it was the stout hearts of Mancha and Gato that matched Tschiffely's courage and made his ride famous.

From Buenos Aires, Tschiffely, alternating the pack and himself between Mancha and Gato, went northwest to the Andes. Thrice they cross the range, sometimes on dizzy narrow ridges three miles high. Through flood and jungle and quicksand they trudged upward and onward. Through withered prairie and across swollen rivers, over deserts and swamps, from the Argentine to Peru, beyond Ecuador to Colombia, up through Panama and Mexico and thus to Washington -through tropical fevers and bandit thirty weary months.

Advanced In Rank

Through orders received at the Infantry School from the War Department promotions of three officers of Fort Benning are announced. Captain William Hones, Instructor at the Infantry School, is advanced to the rank of Major, 1st Lieutenant Maurice E. Jennings, Chemical Warfare Service, promoted to Captain and 1st Lt. Edof arms, also received a promotion to Captain. All of these advancements are effective from November 1 of this

Major Hones began his career in the army as a 2nd Lieutenant of National Guard on February 6, 1915 to June 27, 1917, and on June 28, 1917 he received a commission as 2nd Lieutenant in the Federal National Guard and was advanced to 1st Lieutenant on the same day. This was during the time immediately after the United States had entered the World War and promotions came fast. On August 5, 1917, this officer was promoted to Captain (Temporarily) and on January 24, 1920, was given a commission as Captain in the Regular areas—these two horses and their soli-tary rider made the long trek for of the Infantry School Company Officers' Class of 1924, and the Ad-

Three Officers Are vanced course, Class of 1929. He has also finished a course at the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and is a member of the General Staff Corps Eligible List. In 1931 as a Captain he finished a period of training at the Chemical Warfare Field Officers' School at Edgewood Arsenal, Mary-

Captain Jennings started in the army as a Private in Company E, 30th Engineers, and reached the grade of ward B. Jackson, student at the school | 1st Sergeant before his commission as 2nd Lieutenant in the Chemical Warfare Service on June 29, 1918. He was honorably discharged while serving in this capacity to be recommissioned as 2nd Lieutenant in the Regular Army on November 26, 1920. He has held the rank of 1st Lieutenant since the same day he was commissioned as 2nd Lieutenant up until the change in his grade on November

Captain Edward B. Jackson was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Hawaiian National Guard on October 19, 1916 and served as Private to Sergeant in Company I, 1st Infantry (Replacement, and Training Battalion). On June 24, 1918 he was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Army to be followed on the 9th of October by a promoiton to 1st Lieutenant. This rank was vacated soon after the war. On July 1, 1920 Captain Jackson was recommissioned 1st Lieutenant and held this rank until his promotion on No-

Capt. Brackinridge Is Detailed To AGD

In orders received at the Infantry School from the War Department, Captain John G. Brackinridge, 83rd Field Artillery has been detailed in the Adjutant General's Department, U. S. Army, to be effective on December 1, 1933. Captain Brackinridge, who has been on duty at Fort Benning, since September 17, 1929, will be stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, as a member of the branch to which he has been assigned.

This officer began his career with the military service as a 2nd Lieutenant of Field Artillery, Officers' Reserve Corps, on November 27, 1917, being accepted for active service on the same day. Following the war he vacated the rank of 1st Lieutenant of Field Artillery on July 1, 1920. After nine years service in this grade he was promoted to the present rank of Captain, on November 13, 1929.

The detail to the Adjutant General's Department was made at the direction of the President after Captain Brackinridge had submitted an application for the change of branches. He has spent twelve years as supervisor of army paper work and is well qualified to fill the position to which he has been assigned.

Army Navy Game Returns Be Given

Returns from the Army and Navy football game November 25, will be received in the Officers Club lobby by short wave and broadcast radio. A football expert has volunteered to diagram the plays on a large black board, giving a graphic decription of the game.

Lieutenant Lamont Here For Duty From Hawaiians

Second Lieutenant James W. Lamont arrived at Fort Benning on the 4th of this month for duty with the 24th Infantry, coming from the Schofield Barracks in Hawaii, where he was attached to the 21st Infantry.

Lieutenant Lamont graduated from the Military Academy at West Point in 1928. He also has a Master of Arts degree from the University of Michi-

(Exclusive in Columbus at Kirven's)

$59.50 and $69.50

A paradox in coats for it's a dressy sports coat as equally at home in the stadium as it is strolling down town fo an afternoon's shopping. Navy with grey fox collar, brown with brown fox or beaver collar and brown or oxford grey tweed trimmed in beaver and with self

SECOND FLOOR

RIDING HATS

$5.00

Soft felts with medium brims give a casual distinctiveness to Kirven's hats for riding and other sport activities. Black, brown and the new winter bright color, hen-

The Famous Slater SPORTS OXFORD

GOLF SHOE

The famous C. B. Slater golf shoe in brown and white combination with brown saddle.

Kirve

Dress-Up for Football

THESE COATS HAVE AS MUCH KICK AS A HOME-TEAM TOUCHDOWN!

They have to be seen to be appreciated! They're correctly designed, correctly made, and correctly priced, and each one will make a first down with you! Get in the scrimmage for them early, and you'll be satisfied!

Hofflin & Greentree

COLUMBUS' LEADING CLOTHIERS

Established 1888

Published Every Friday

Phone 556

NOVEMBER 10, 1933 NO. 29 VOLUME III L. C. Kunze ____Publisher _Editor FELICIA C. HOWELL Society Editor Sports Editor _____Circulation Manager Louis T. Kunze____

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

BY MAJOR HOMER L. CONNER, Medical Inspector

TULAREMIA

This disease of rabbits is very common in South Georgia, and is easily conveyed to anyone who handles an infected animal. Hunters are warned against handling rabbits found dead or which appear sick, sluggish or easily caught.

The U. S. Public Health Service warns as follows: "Beware of wild rabbits, one percent of them are infected with tularemia. Rabbit meat thoroughly cooked is harmless as food because a temperature of 133° F. kills the infecting organism. Rubber gloves should be worn by those who have to dress wild rabbits."

Columbus, Georgia

"Beware of the wild rabbit which a dog or cat has caught, or which a boy has killed-it is probably a sick rabbit. While the hunter should not shoot his rabbits at the point of a gun; let him shoot them on the run at 75 yards away."

GENERAL DEWITT HERE

(Continued From Page 1) cluding a visit to the constructing quartermasters' office and plant; an inspection of the new Special Units Barracks, now under construction; an inspection of the air field; of the sites of different new projects, including the new chapel and officers' mess, that ended at noon.

At 1:00 P. M. General DeWitt was the honor guest at a luncheon at the Officers' Club, General Estes being the host. A number of the senior officers of the post, and leading citizens of Columbus were guests, for the purpose of meeting the quartermaster general. In addition to Generals De-Witt and Estes, Colonel Fred L. Munson, Colonel George F. Baltzell, Colonel-Charles W. Weeks, Colonel J. DeCamp Hall, Colonel William B. Wallace, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph A. Atkins, Major John H. Mellom, Major Fred M. Fogle, and Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, of Fort Benning; and Mayor H. C. Smith, Leighton Mc-Pherson, Walter R. Richards, Henry B. Crawford, Frank Lumpkin, William J. Fielder, Karl Thompson, Edgar Chancellor, J. Homer Dimon and Rhodes Brown, of Columbus, were guests at the luncheon.

General DeWitt devoted the afternoon to inspection of other post activities, making a close study of the work being carried on here by all departments of the Infantry School and the post proper.

guests of Colonel and Mrs. J. De Camp Hall, post quartermaster, at a dinner in their honor at the Officers' Club. With the exception of General and Mrs. G. H. Estes, the entire guest list consisted of the Quarter-Mrs. John H. Mel-Major and lom, Major and Mrs. Fred Fogle, Captain and Mrs. Nathaniel L. Simonds, Captain and Mrs. Carl H. Jabelonsky, Captain and Mrs. Wilbur S. Elliott, Captain and Mrs. Clough F. Gee, Captain and Mrs. Arthur A. Jackson, Captain and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, Captain and Mrs. William R. McKinnon, Lieutenant and Mrs. Carl Sciple, Captain Percy W. Gaylor, Q. M. Reserve, Captain and Mrs. James E. Wood, Lieutenant and Mrs. Arthur B. Foreman, and Lieutenant Walter F. Manuel.

The program for General DeWitt's cupied the entire morning; a lunch warfare.

eon for him and Mrs. DeWitt by Lt. Col. and Mrs. Joseph A. Atkins at 1:00 P. M., inspections of different post activities during the after-

General DeWitt departed from Fort Benning on Friday for a trip of inspection to Maxewll Field, Montgomery, Ala., where he will make a study of construction activities under way at that post, similar to the one he is carrying on at Benning.

NEWS FROM THE FILES

(Continued from page 1) the battle of Manassas, "a happy warrior, laughing and singing through his fine ruddy beard." As a General and chief of the cavalry Stuart proved to be a leader of unequalled ability. The Gay Cavalier was so much loved by the members of the Confederacy that when he was killed even the commander-in-chief said of him, "I can scarcely think of him without weeping.

Found among the names of the officers retired from the army in that vear was Fitzhugh Lee, then a First Lieutenant in the Second Cavalry. and later to become an invaluable leader in the Confederacy. Second Lieutenant Joseph Wheeler, Jr., Regiment of Mounted Riflemen, was little known when retired from the army in 1861, but it was a very short time later that he won for himself the enviable name of "Fighting Joe" and the rank in the Confederate Army of Wednesday evening, at 7:00, the Brigadier General. One of Wheeler's general and Mrs. DeWitt were the most striking exploits was his raid on Rosenerans' army, where he started out with less than 300 men, made an entire circuit of Rosencran's forces, captured more than a thousand prisoners, destroyed four wagon trains with a great quantity of supplies, master Officers of the post and in- and created such shortage of subsitence in the Union army during the three days' battle that men were reduced to the eating of the horses killed on the fields.

In the U.S. Army Register of 1866 is found a name which is of great interest to the personnel of Fort Benning. Jacob F. Munson, Second Lieutenant and Brevet Captain of volunteers. Lieutenant Jacob F. Munson was the father of the present commander of the 24th Infantry.

These and many other names were found on the musty pages of the early issues of the Register, names which at the time of their entrance into the second day at the post consisted of publication were seemingly unimporan inspection of all regular quarter tant, but which later were to conmaster activities at the post which oc tribute much to the history of human

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Nov. 6-There is a saying, trite but true, that evervone makes mistakes, resulting in an inexhaustible sale of erasers with lead pencil and rubber mats with cuspidors. We expect an occasional typographical error to creep into our weekly column and as long as the result is not too palpably painful our tendency in a big-hearted way is to overlook it and charge it to an inescapable fate that controls the whims and whimsies of columnist and typesetter alike. Our own well-meaning but blundering attempts to obtain passing marks in our all too frequently graded tests never fail to impress us, as we read the approved solutions afterwards, with the utter futility of a faultless performance, even though the phraseology used may appear to its author to be incapable of misreading or misinterpretation. But when we, after long hours of profitless thought, finally conjure up an expression for the benefit of our Naval Academy friend Dan Norman and suggest that his mind functions like an automatic trigger to such questions as "How many gobs to a gobboon?" and our efforts are then set to nought by finding that someone has changed our gobboon to a boggoon we are sorely tempted to suggest the propriety of furnishing a bouquet of scallions to our editor, our type-setter or our office-girl. We almost

During the week just passed we were initiated by the high-geared first section in a novel method of imparting tactical instruction, to wit, the historical map problem. In passing we pause momentarily to salute in grateful acknowledgement the hapny choice of Colonel Woolnough and his worthy cohorts in injecting realism into what could have been a colorless and lifeless performance.

To return to this particular one we listened to a heated discussion on the part of some of our eagle-eyed classmates, debating whether or not the advance party commander had dragoons, all because of a comma. We even heard one befuddled mind mutter to hmself as he walked off, "For the want of a shoe the horse was lost, for the want of a comma the dragoons were lost." (We are relating all this in our column with fear and trepidation, hoping that superior authority on this paper of ours does not mangle our dragoons as he did our gobboon).

The difficulty we had with our dragoons tempts us to cry out, as a columnist must from time to time. "Down with capitalism and punctuation!" but our concern was as nothing compared to the problem of the advance guard commander who had the dragoons, and having them was forced to realize from time to time that he really didn't have them. They gave as much help as an ex-elevator boy employed in a parking lot. Heretofore we had envisioned the continental dragoon as a sturdy warrior armed to the teeth on a fiery steed ready, like the Heileman Engineers, for a fight or a frolic. The pitiful spectacle instead of a country yokel, armed with a pitchfork for a lance and gallumphing awkwardly on a flea-bitten hayburner whose energy would make the nags of the ladies' beginners' riding platoon seem like unbreakable mustangs of the western plain in comparison, left us with a sense of disillusionment for things European. We can think of no more fitting climax to the career of our worst enemy than to offer him a commission for life as an officer in command of a plateon of dragoons (not boggoons).

A comparatively uneventful week in terms of news items with publicity value, has led us to turn our futile battery on a harassed newspaper staff. Lest they feel hurt or embarrassed at our salvo we hasten to assure them that, while they owe us a drink, the cost thereof would be nominal when contrasted with the bill that would be rolled up by a local strued in last week's issue as casting at any rate. any reflection upon anyone, for anything that was of a really serious nature would certainly never appear herein. During the past-several years a new system of Artillery - Infantry liaison has been worked out at Benning, but apparently some officers not connected with the post are as yet unfamiliar with the development. This fact caused a conflict of opinion, which in turn was the fuel for the debate three weeks ago in the Main Theatre. However, in good old army style, the higher commander, of course, won all rounds. Naturally no discredit pertains to the local team.

(Please turn to page 5)

Reflections Of A Student

Poor Captain Cummings is in it again. While giving an outdoor critique to the class, a snicker was first heard, followed quickly by several more. From then on it was a matter only of moments until the entire group was in convulsions. Our captain's natural blush deepened, he hesitated, and then once more bravely continued. Again that disconcerting snickering, but to hesitate now would be fatal. The essence of discourse was Make sure of the target before you fire," and Cowboy, despite a searching mental reconnaissance, could not find the center of disturbance. It was then that Major Cota, himself smiling as guiltily as the rest, stepped forward and grasped the Captain's belt buckle; which heretofore had been dangling beneath his mackinaw with a brilliant brassy lustre, much as the elongated medal of some transient revolutionary general.

The citizens of gang infested cities are constantly thankful that the gangsters in general confine their killings to members of their own guild—and a parallel exists in the class. To wit, we are always grateful that the diverting pranks of our trio of humorists, Hamilton, Clinton and Schanze, are usually directed at each other. For instance it would have been extremely disconcerting to any but a highly developed type such as these, to have a rope suddenly jerked from underneath one's ankles in such a way as to cause the victim to execute a double somersault in mid-air. Schanze was the subject of this stunt, but after a cursory examination for broken bones, picked himself up, gave a shake, and was still smiling!

Saturday afternoon a sugar coated lesson in equitation and map reading was dished out by the academic department in the form of a flag race. To many of the entrants, (old Benning natives, steeped in the lore of her hills), this was mere play. But to the hard working student teams it turned out to be quite an undertak-"Aspiring, perspiring," and lating. er almost "expiring," is a good three word synopsis of their performance. For the benefit of any reader unfamiliar with a flag race, a brief explanation is here given. A team consists of four riders, who ride in pairs going in opposite directions around the course. The course is outlined by stations located on a map issued to the contestants, however, only the coordinates of the next succeeding station are given at any one time. Incidentals such as tree climbing, or wheelbarrow rolling are inserted for the edification of onlookers.

In this race the 83rd again demonstrated its fine state of efficiency in walking off with first and second olaces by a comfortable margin. Tommy Horton and Emory, the lad in the scarlet beret, finished third, but their hapless team mates, after a reconnoitering expedition out towards Cusseta, didn't return until about 5:10. The attraction out at that part of the reservation is unknown to us, though doubtless, the gentlemen concerned had their own good reasons for going east instead of south. What's ninety degrees anyway between friends, especialy graduates of Captain Bloomquist's mapping course? Unfortunately for the class Capt. Blue's hope that "The bachelors know the trails of Benning as well as those of Columbus," was denied. But ask the

We trust that nothing was con- hachelors now: they know the trials

Our class bowling team is getting into good shape. So far Henderson, Felber, Stuart, Sauer, Bennet and Bogart have been chalking up some good scores, and Wednesday night get into action against the 29th In-

Monday was one of those cold, cloudy, shiver and shake days, when everyone was pretty well congealed at the all morning outdoor azimuth shoot. The percentage of sniffles heard had increased perceptably, but it's an ill wind that blows nobody a good. For after class some thirty students beseiged the PX with short overcoat orders. Business was indeed brisk, with the coats going at $14.50 on the December account. Appropriately enough the next day our much beloved leather jackets were officially recognized, just after the above purchase had been completed.

To date all still remains quiet on the Block 21 · 23 front, and despite all our journalistic exaggerations, we can't stir up much excitement over there. Someday perhaps someone will rise to the lure and sow a few wild oats, and our hope is that we may be there, pencil in hand.

Johnnie Guthrie is reported to have good story to tell on his striker, or is it the other way around? Don't hide your light under a blanket, Johnnie, for we'd all like to see it!

That hard work is amply worth the effort was well demonstrated by the beautiful decorations at the Kendall-Michie dance. The Polo-Hunt Club never looked so festive, and its appearance had much to do with the tremendous success of the party.

The GLARE also picks up: Leon Scott giving a definition of a back azimuth as "The direction of a line from there to here." On second thought this turns out to be about the simplest and most accurate definition one could have.

Cyril Williams, after listening to Major Heileman's outburst on "piddling" questions, asking "What is the conventional sign for a vineyard?'

Heimerdinger, when asked for the equipment carried by a section, "Oh about three times that carried by the Verbeck, answering the question of "What do you do in this situation?" by that fool proof reply, "Make an estimate of the situation."

Major Cota, on the afternoon of repeal, while discoursing on echelon of elements, "We are so imbued with staggering, etc."

Bogart and Dickey, the Ascot minded students who are now affecting the combination cane and seat made so famous by English racing and grouse shooting sportsmen. And Maior Arms, who carries a rather tricky looking model of the above type furniture, yet keeps us in suspense by never unfolding it.

Henderson, lately dubbed the "Pathe Man," sees all, knows all, tells Major Roberts, who had quite a time getting over his "Mike fright" at his demonstration of the advance guard.

The red apple boy, who fuzed a nce big appie and piac the other grenades on Major Easley's

The USMC hanging on tenaciously like the "good old bulldog: in other words, Lt. Orr still plugging away at that hour long MG exam from 8:00 until 11:30.

Max Maxwell pulled the best of the week though. The class had been arguing against the approved solution in Major Easley's grenade examination, when the latter finally remarked that "Any way, the purpose of the examination has been accomplished, It's at least aroused a good discussion." And here Max struck his blow. "Yes Major, we got the discussion

(Please turn to page 8)

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

(Continued From Page 4) newspaper were they to set them up (as they should) for the entire Benning faculty for referring to the Academic Department last Saturday as the Accident Department.

With the increasing number of terrain exercises on our schedule, now that the cold weather has set in, we have been impressed with the prevalence of a few irrespressible playboys in both classes whose capricious pranks seems to furnish them with no end of amusement, much of which has gone on apparently unnoticed, thanks to the patience of the instructor. To those of us poor mortals who try to listen attentively in order to pick up a few choice morsels of tactical doctrine to enhance our rusted and creaking military mind we trust that this overexuberance of spirit is but a passing fancy whose force will soon spend itself before a counter-effect is necessary to quell it.

The volley ball season during the ten-minute break is now on in earnest. Headed by our good friend and Black Shirt, Fascisti Militiaman Gillespiano, the drive to clarify our problem-dazed thoughts is producing energetic and capable volley-ballers. If our worthy compatriots of the jun-

HERALD WANT ADS

CLASSIFIED ADV. RATES 20 cents per line or fraction of line Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

FLORIDA AT ITS BEST!

320 acres with beautiful clear lake, fine bass fishing, $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles to R. R. & bus line—ideal for 4 men who want estates for future use. Land well suited for tung oil, citrus or grapes. \$4,000.00 for all, or \$1,000.00 for 80 acres—good terms.

Stephen McCready, Realtor Ocala, Fla.

Mrs. Stella Paschall Tailoring Of All Kinds OFFICERS' SHIRTS A SPECIALTY

Ten Years Experience Phone City 2156-R come with the years we would welcome a challenge to engage in honorable conflict.

To the post late Sunday afternoon to attend with our better-halves the reception thoughtfully arranged by our assistant commandant and his gracious hostess, at which our eye like a needle noted that one of our classmates showed up impeccably dressed but minus the customary bars that normally go to make up one's uniform. For once a sense of propriety which we do muster up on occasion prevents us from disclosing the name of the culprit.

The delivery of the oral presentations ("monograph" to you) has begun, starting with an able discussion by Economist Shaw on Vicksburg. He, and those of us who were fortunate enough to cross our monograph-bridge early in the game, can now relax and bask in the reflected glory of a task well done, forgiving magnanimously the defects of later embryo public speakers, grateful to the powers-thatbe that permitted some of us to be the lucky early-birds.

It has been suggested that someone volunteer to unfold the situation calling for a student answer as stated in the requirements, but for diversion to call, not on the student whose name appears on the card profferred by the teacher, but on Major Birdie Eagles or his compatriot, Captain Tige Phillips, for the answer to "What to do?"

The suggestion has merit. It might at least distract them for a moment from their copious note-taking, which we view with mild foreboding but the individual reaction as compared to the group approval reminds us reatly of the fable of belling the at. We learned years ago that in peace as in war, woe inevitably falls to the lot of the volunteer.

Flits of thought: Teachers Bonham nd Arnold teaming up in a wellpresented advance guard problem . . Tactical Matchett also starring in a tactical ride on the regiment in defense . . . Tactician Johnson, the well-dressed major, in another session worthy of note . . . Wondering if the school's butter and egg men, Hearn, Robinson et al, had ever considered the advisability of coffee and doughnuts a la coon hunt fashion, in place of the inevitable cold lunch for the troops which habitually moves us to a compassionate desire

. . . Gally and Fox, in true marine style, successfully accomplishing their respective monograph missions . . . Our normal week-end worries inten- ued absence of E. F. R. sified by a maid-less household when said person's questionable services were dispensed with because she treated china like Japan.

THE FLARE

(Continued from page 1) tion of the reservation. The hospital was notified; a delegation was dispatched to comfort the prospective widow, and the hunt was on

A half hour after the search was instituted, the object thereof rode into the stables and it devolved upon the rear echelon to seek the searchers. Upon return of all searchers to the Field Artillery Club, an immediate trial of the culprit was ordered, The defense made the point that Pathfinder Thompson was not lost but elected to return by a new and more circuitous route. Although the court was hostile, the evidence was complete and damning. The finding was guilty on all counts." The sentence mposed was that the officers of the Battalion be tendered a party at the expense of the guilty person. Said sentence was duly and thoroughly carried out.

Crosby Completely Equipped In connection with the man hunt referred to in the preceding paragraph, considerable interest has been aroused by the equipment carried by Hard Bargain Crosby. His flashlight was entirely in order but the presence in his pocket of a loaded .45 calibre automatic requires explanation. Whether he expected to find horse or rider with a broken leg and considered the possible necessity of putting man or beast beyond the reach of pain is not known. Possibly the fact that the search had interrupted his Lyceum talk incited him to revenge. His defense is that he was informed that there was trouble in the bosque and to come prepared, leaving him in doubt as to what he was to be prepared for. This may of course, be true.

The Accident Department

The Columbus Enquirer of November 4th informed us that one of the teams entered in the Flag Race was that representing "The Accident Department." One of our dumber student officers was heard to remark that the appellation was no misnomer; that it meant it was an accident if they ever gave him "satisfactory" on a marked problem.

Historic Remark Justified Judging from the results of last Tuesday's state election on repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, the Governor of North Carolina spoke truer than he knew whe he made his historic remark to the Governor of South

Oh! Yeah!

The following news clipping comes under the heading, "Believe it if you Carolina.

"Although the British navy gives a daily rum ration to its men, only about one-third of the men accept it; the others take the twopence in lieu of the rum."

No More Tonsorial Work Our commissary reporter turns in the following report covering a conversation between two enlisted clerks:

1st Soldier: "Boy, I've bought myself a box of tooth picks." 2nd Soldier: 'Yeah, what you want 1st Soldier: "I'm tired of shaving matches '

Proposition Suits

One of our better known insurance salesmen was busily engaged the other day trying to sell an endowment policy to a member of the Q. M. C. Detachment. During his sales talk, he laid great stress on the fact that the policy eventually would net $1,000.00 although he paid in only ior class will but make due allow to improve their wartime noon-day $800.00. The next day he received ance for the creaking joints that fare . . . A steady encircling press a letter from his prospect which said: sure by the school's tacticians on our "I like your proposition. Let me flanks, both of which are exposed, know when you want the $800.00 and as the long winter nights approach I'll tell you when I want the $1,000,"

> Wanted: A pinch-hitter to pinch hit for Pinchhitter during the contin-

-PINCHHITTER.

Ten Years Ago Last Week

Senator L. W. Brookhart, Iowa, visited Fort Benning for two days on an inspection trip. Prominent among the Columbus guests at a luncheon in the senator's honor, was Mr. Kunze, of the Benning Herald.

The fund for the maintenance of the Fort Benning Children's school mounted to a new high of $385.00 during the week.

The 29th mallet wielders downed the Instructors to the tune of 7-2, taking the lead in the post league.

The Benning gridiron warriors atempted to break a string for four defeats by scheduling a game with the North Georgia Aggies to be played the following week at Benning.

Dr. R. H. Brown OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Phones Office 4108 Res. 1153

Commodities...

The commodity markets have been a basic field of this firm since its beginning. Through ample private wire, cable, and radiogram facilities, investors can buy and sell twenty-six different imperishable commodities on organized World exchanges, through any of the firm's branch offices.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

 $18^{50} - 20^{00} - 25^{00}$ OVERCOATS

HATS

Leather ZIPPER COATS $650 - $750

$395 — $500 — $650 Bostonian SHOES

Fort Benning's Columbus Headquarters

Put your car in good shape for the cold weather by using our "DeLuxe Service". This service is available for any make of car and includes washing; polishing; lubrication of differential, transmission and all fittings; changing of motor oil; vacuum cleaning; and a thorough mechanical inspection involving 33 different

Auto Department

EXCHA N ST FORT BENNNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

3 NEWS SPORTWORLD

Georgia-Auburn Game Big Event

One of the South's oldest rivalries and one chock full of sentiment will be renewed again on Saturday, Nov. 18, when the football teams of the University of Georgia and Alabama Polytechnic, often called Auburn, engage at Memorial Stadium.

Georgia is the favorite. After a spell of drought a fine Auburn team overcame their opponents from the state of Georgia last year. Auburn's reign seems short lived, however. The Bulldogs have a perfect record this season, while the Tigers have been beaten by Georgia Tech, Duke, and George Washington. They hold victories over Tulane, Howard, and Birmingham-Southern.

North Carolina state, Tulane, North Carolina, Mercer, New York U., and Florida have become victims of a fast-charging, hard-blocking eleven from Athens, Ga. Incidentally, Georgia has the most powerful backfield and the best blocking team in the

Only A Very Short Time Now!

The day is getting mighty near, now, you hunters, and then the fields and woods will be open. Get ready with your last preparations, pick your location, and have plenty of ammuni-

The Main Branch will supply you with everything you need for hunting or for any other sport. Drop in—look over our stock-you're welcome at any time. In addition, you'll find our prices amazing economical considering the fact that we sell only nationally known goods.

Main Branch

POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Ga

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

Amateurs To Scrap In Card Twenty-Ninth Shows To Be Staged At Fort Benning Game With Lupton

Twenty Ninth To Play All-Stars

Gridiron fans of the post and Columbus will get their fill next Sunday afternoon when the 29th Infantry. with the winning side of its slate still unspotted, meets the strong Georgia Tech All-Stars, semi-pro team from Atlanta, in Doughboy Stadium.

At the time of writing little is known of the line-up of the visitors, or that the Lieutenant will start, but the Doughboys have had a change of heart in the last two weeks and seem to have settled down to business.

Featured among the All-Star players is the one and only Tubby Walton. massive chunk of humanity who is scheduled to plant his 279 pounds of stone wall in the guard position. May not be able to move fast, but inversely, may be hard to move fast.

Admission will be by I. S. A. A. tickets or a quarter at the gate.

South, this season.

Little Homer Key, Columbus, and Cy Grant, Cornelia, will lead the in-vincible Bulldog attack. Grant made sport writers use all the adjectives at their command and they are still looking for more. Key, a clever passer, is probably the most elusive open field runner in this section. Other stars to show their wares are: Griffith, quarter; Chapman, potential All-Southern full; Captain Batchelor, potential All-American end, and Moorehead, one of the two outstanding Southern guards.

Auburn has its share of stellar lights too. Firpo Phipps is generally considered the best passer in the Southeastern conference and one of the best in the nation. Kimbrell is a touchdown threat every time he carries the ball. Gump Ariail, All-Southern end in 1932, has regained his old time form and is going full blast again.

The game is sure to be close, for most Georgia-Auburn games are. Above all, it is one of the most colorful and traditional encounters in the South, yearly.

Three Teams Tied In Bowling Race

The bowling team of the I. S. D., last year's champions in the Tri-City league, are stepping out toward the post title this year, having won every game this season, and are holding a Benning Boxer Is comfortable lead over all competitors. Running in second place is the aggregation from the 2d Battalion 29th, Transferred to A.C with Headquarters Battalion in third place, and the Tankers trailing in the cellar position.

Cerne, of the I. S. D., is high-average man for the eague, with Davis, I. S. D., holding high-point honors.

The Officers' Bowling league is still in an uncertain position as far as a leading team is concerned, a number of games having been postponed. The Instructors and the Company Officers are tied for first place with an average of 1000, but have only played three games each. Headquarters team, with the greatest number of games bowled, is in third position, and looks very good for title honors. Captain Phillip T. Fry is leading the league in averages.

The Fort Benning amateur boxing team will start its winter campaign next Wednesday evening against a representative aggregation imported from the Dominion of Canada, and coached by the well-known Scotty Strachan, manager of Charlie Belanger and muchly disappointed chaperone of the Detroit Athletics Club fighters who lost to the Benning boxers in August.

Coach Johnson, of the Benning team, has high hopes for his boys this vear, and is priming them for a shot at national competition. When, and if, they retain the Southeastern title, they are to be entered in the Southern amateur tourney, and those surviving, if any, will be routed straight through the National Amateur tournament next spring.

In the meantime the immediate hurdle to clear is the opposition offered by Les Canadiens. The Canuck boys are all champions in their own right, and are collected mostly from the Province of Ontario, across the river from Michigan and the lake from New York, Pennsylvania, and fighter; he's had to be for the last twelve years, in order to get his share of real you-know-what when the thirsty Americans arrived.

All fooling aside the team lines up pretty good against the Benning boys. They will all match evenly in weights, and the team match will be champion against champion, with the exception of two bouts.

According to present line-up there are to be twelve bouts on the card, one of them being between two Benning boys. The seven already mentioned will count toward deciding the team victory, the remainder being exhibitions.

Of the exhibitions Bennie Woolam and Floyd Lee, both of Benning will open the ball. Billy Floyd will appear against Tom Sharkey, of the Orlando C. C. C. Bill Schneider, a newcomer to the post, meets Bill Herrin, Orlando C. C. C. and "Bomber" Brady meets Albert Reynolds. also of the Orlando C. C. C. Lonnie Wilson, of Benning, meets Johnnie Wilson, heavyweight champion of Toronto in the wind-up fight.

Captain Fry has reduced the prices, and the bouts are to be held in the gym, at the regular time.

Private Garland Morris, Company B, 29th Infantry, Fort Benning, has been transferrel to the 77th Pursuit Squadron, Air Corps, Barksdale Field, Louisiana, and is to report to the commanding officer of that station for duty.

Private Morris is well-known among the fight fans of Fort Benning and Columbus for the performance he turned in during the recent contests of the Infantry School Amateur Boxing squad. His efforts were a great aid in the winning of the Southeastern Championship by the Benning battlers, and the defeat of several outstanding amateur squads by the same

BetterFormDuring

By JACK GIBNEY

A vastly different 29th Infantry team broke the scoring jinx against them last Saturday afternoon, and, although losing to Lupton College of Oglethorpe University by the score of 39-12, can still hold their heads high with pride, for they were not beaten by Lupton School of Liberal Arts, but by Oglethorpe Varsity play-

This statement is no idle xecuse for the loss imposed upon the Green Wave, but is made from the signed story of the game written by Melvin Pazol that appeared in the Atlanta Constitution of Sunday, Nov. 5. Mr. Pazol's exact words, exprsesed in the last sentence of the first paragraph were as follows: "Nine players from the Oglethorpe varsity team were in the Lupton lineup."

Playing against the team they were Doughboys had little trouble in scoring a touchdown in the second quarter, when two beautiful passes from Jordan to Brownsberger and Jordan to Lee carried the ball 48 yards from the 50 yard line. Holloway bucked it over for the score, and try for goal failed.

The varsity, returned to the game in the second half, got careless in the latter part of the fourth quarter, and the Green line broke through to block a punt. Tommy Thompson, the perennial star of Benning athletics, tossed a flat pass for 7 yards to Wilson, and then took the ball around end to score from the 1 yard line.

. Lineups for	the team	is were:
LUPTON (39	Pos.	Benning (12)
McNamara	LE	Wilson
Darracott	LT	Johnson
McNeeley	L G	Santy
McCullough	C	Hunt
Adams	$\mathbf{R}\mathbf{G}$	Pearson
Pickard	RT	Berryhill
Freeman	RE	Goodson
Clark	$\mathbf{Q}\mathbf{B}$	Smith
Leslie	LH	Jordan
Wren	RН	Hebert
Shaw	\mathbf{FB}	Darden

ALL PIGS DO NOT BECOME HOGS

The Choicest blue blooded and blue ribboned become Old Settler's All Pork Sausage, the breakfast of a nation's fighting men. Every pound U. S. Inspected and guaranteed by-

The Provision Company, Inc.

BOXING

Fort Benning Amateur Boxing Team

VERSUS

The Canadian Amateur Team NOVEMBER 15, 1933 POST GYM 8:15 P. M.

Bennie Woolam	Versus Lee
B. Floyd	VersusTom Sharkey CCC
Bill Schneider	Versus Bill Herrin CCC
Jimmy Brady	Versus A. Reynolds CCC
C. Floyd	Versus Mickie Haines
Mike Panos	Versus Frank Hepbum
Norman Phail	Versus Johnny Lacass
Neal Milam	Versus Johnny Burrone
Roy Whatley	Versus Tommy Baxter
Phil Carpenter	Versus Andrew Angloes
Melvin Penland	Versus Alex Bowen
Lonnie Wilson	Versus Johnny Milton

Deciding Game In Tank Series To Be Plaved Here Todav

BY C. T. KEPLEY

The football games deciding the championship of the Tank Battalion of the Infantry School are under way this week, with the final game scheduled for Friday, November 10th. At the time of going to press the results for the last games are not known. Of the five teams that compete for the Tanker Crown, three are still in the race. Company E, 66th Infantry is the only team that has not lost a game or been tied, while both Headquarters Company and Company D, 66th Infantry, are still in the contest, having only been tied once.

Wednesday afternoon the Green Shirts of Company E, 66th defeated the Blue Shirts of Company F. 67th when Swantic threw a long forward pass to Jones, who placed the ball on F Company's 20 yard line. Following this play Swantic hit the center of the line in the same fash ion that wrought havoc with the Quantico Marines in 1927 and gained 10 yards on the play. After attempting two end runs with no gain. Wild Bill again crashed the line and carried the pigskin across the lime marker for the only touchdown of the game. The kick for extra point failed to cross between the goal posts and the score was E Company 6, to F Company 0.

Later on in the afternoon the big boys of Headquarters Company 66th Infantry romped over the Orange Shirts of Company of the same regiment to the tune of 13 to 0. Both teams remained scoreless until the early part of the last half when Dan Sullivan, one-time Tanker line-smasher carried the ball across for two touchdowns, with Chitting Smith showing the fans just how the ball should be kicked for the extra point. McLane, Company F, and Kiker, Headquarters Company, were the star performers in ball carrying, with both men netting large gians for their teams.

Saturday morning Headquarters Company met Company D in the closest game of the season, the score being 7 to 6 at the final gun. In the second half of the game Love of Headquarters Company, received Baggett's punt and crossed the goal line for the first touchdown of the game

Question: Why is Foremost like a Football Player?

Answer: Because it Always makes a Big Hit!

Wherever you find it - no matter how it's served -Foremost is always the most popular of all. It's The All-American of Ice Creams!

> Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES. INCORPORATED

and only one for Headquarters Company. This was a beautiful run, made behind perfect interference on the part of his team mates. Just before the end of the game, Cue Ball Smith threw a long forward pass to Johnson, who received the ball on the 50-yard line and galloped across headquarters goal line for a marker. In the try for the extra point, Smith tried to hurdle the line for the point but was stopped before crossing. Almost as soon as the play stopped the game ended leaving but two teams in the race for the championship.

In the game Friday, Headquarters Company, 66th Infantry, met Company E, 66th Infantry for the crown as kings of the Tank Football teams, and at the time of going to press the result is not known. Final score and winning team will be announced at a later date.

Lt. Reeder, Former Army Player, Is Transferred

First Lieutenant Russell P. Reeder, r., who was assigned to duty at Fort Benning in 1927, relieved, sent to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and then back to the Infantry School in 1932, has received orders from the Wan Department terminating his assignment here in order that he may proeed to the Panama Canal Zone for luty with the Infantry stationed here.

Lieutenant Reeder is the son of Colonel R. P. Reeder, now stationed t Fort Amador, Canal Zone, and is well known throughout army athletic rircles for his punting and kicking from placement while a member of the West Point Football team in 1924-25. It was this man, whose educated oe. used when he was placed in games at crucial moments, that did so much towards keeping the Army team high in the football annuals of the east. When he was assigned to Fort Ben ning in 1927 he played football as a member of the All-Army team, then carried on at the Infantry School, and for the past two years Lieutenant Reeder has been on duty at the United States Military Academy as assistant to Lieutenant Gar Davdison, oach of the Military Academy football squad. Lieutenant Reeder has coached the ends and kickers of the Army Eleven and his coaching has one much towards the success which that team has met this season. He s also well known for his baseball activities, having played as first baseman on several of the outstanding army nines.

In 1928 Lieutenant Reeder's services were requested as a coach for the backfield of the Ninth Corps Area Football Team, in a letter signed by General J. L. Hines, then commanding General of the Ninth Corps Area. He was sent to the Presidio of San Francisco, California, and met much success as coach of the West Coast

This officer graduated from West Point Military Academy on June 12, 1926, and was commissioned 2nd Lieu tenant of Infantry following his graduation. His promotion to 1st Lieutenant came on February 19, 1932.

Lieutenant Reeder will sail from New York in time to take up his assignment to foreign service at an early date.

Companies G and C Lead In 24th Race

The 24th Infantry basketball learue, which has been under way at the post since September 25, has developed into a race between Companes G, and C, for first place, Co. G claiming that honor at time of writing with a one game lead over their closest rivals. Headquarters and Company E are fighting it out for third place, both of them being tied for that position. Company A, with a string of losses, is holding the cellar position.

High scorer for the league so far, Co. A _____7

ENGINEERS

The second Platoon has, or I should say did have, a new mascot. Last Monday a pretty little black and white striped kitty. This kind of kitty is better known as a polecat. It was found making a home in Cpl. Gay's tent. I hope that everyone treats it with due respect.

The outfit was rather lonesome last weekend. All the Joes in the outfit were on pass. Joe Hill and Joe Dlearo were over around Macon and Montezuma. But-where Joe Lowry was or is no one knows. He just isn't here and that's all we know.

Simpson and McDuffie were also on pass. To tell the truth I think that it must have been a wonderful three men out of the 13 who got to pass. From the looks of them both they must have walked quite a lot. How about telling us the secret of how your shoes happened to look like they did?

The Basketball Team won a hard fought game from the M. P.'s Monday afternoon by the close score of 22-21. That was the first game played by the Engineers. And the outfit should be proud of the showing of the team. Bennet and Burnett were the Stars for the Engineers and Boudreau played as fine a game for the M. P.'s as any one should wish to see.

Wilkes seems to have a lot of trouble keepng up with his painting and doing his K. P.s. Won't someone please tell him where he can find the Chaplain; he might get a litlte sympathy from him.

Sgt. Goudeau has gone on a sixty day furlough. I think that he must have been lonesome for the swamps of Louisiana. It has been quite a while since he was down there anyway we are glad to see him out of the hospital and doing things once

The Soccer team looks better every morning. We lost the Championship of the post the last year we had Post league, but I don't think that we are going to lose it again so the other teams in the league may just as well be prepared for a win.

I see where Kennedy took over Hurst's and Lester's contract with the First Sgt. Anyway he was working on the afternoons that the other men were either going to town or sleeping. It was mostly sleeping I think.

The C. C. C.s are taking a lot of our men to keep them (CCC) at work. From what I can find out Pye has perfect control over them. that right Pye?

Merritt seems to think that some of the men in the outfit should be renamed Mules. He says that he has been kicked by both and that the men have it all over the mules. I don't think that he likes soccer as

29th Inf.

29TH INFANTRY Corporal Walton, our message cener chief had a little misfortune this week. One of our class, an outstanding poker player, came and borrowed his cap to play poker with to keep the light out of his eyes. In a short time luck played against him and he lost his thirty-five cents. He flew in a rage and got up, pulled off Walton's cap and threw it in the floor and jumped up and down on it several times. It is fine to win but it hurts

Sergeant Funk left this week for first on the list. There were only is last year's star, Pvt. McLarkin, of Company G, with 140 points. Ellerby of Hq. Co., is next with 75, Johnson, Co. E, third with 72, next Trammell, Co. G, 64 points, and fifth Baugh, Co. E. with 59. League standing Wednesday:

Co. B ---.286 Played Won Lost Pct. ____6 6 Ô 1.000 Co. C .833 .667 Headquarters _6 .667

Co. F.

Serv. Co. ____6

.500

Perhaps you are reserved, it is merely a matter of control. But, try smiling!

Pleasure derived from the downfall of another indicates an ignorance unable to cope with the idea of true friendship. We humans certainly need the helping hand.

You may be an individual but it is team work that counts-especially in the Army.

Treat other people's faults as you would have yours treated. Be as discerning of other people's sensitivity as you are of your own.

in the 29th Infantry who stood this examination and Sergeant Funk stood the Ordnance School at Camp Vail, New Jersey. There were 13 sergeants Basketball season is soon coming around and we are looking forward to it with great interest as we have the leading basket ball team in the 29th Infantry. Corporal Burgis, captain of the basketball team, is working out daily so that he will be in tip top form when the season starts.

Our mess is still putting out and making the best rating in the 29th Infantry at the monthly sanitary inspection. This all comes from Sergeant John Falk.

Everyone is happy at the stables these days. Everything done there these days is made of record the boys Every time a horse is ridden and the name of the horse and the name of the rider is submitted to Headquarters 29th Infantry. This report is made daily.

Our old prize winning horse Joe Dickman is still increasing in his jumping, and we don't want to let the public know just how well he'is doing. Just wait for the Horse Show and see him take all the prizes. Grady McLendon his rider has agreed to put Joe Dickman's badges and stars he wins at the next horse show on his breeches' legs there is no more room on the horse for them. He has so many.

-I. M. Yarbrough.

COMPANY "H"

Another sign of the return of prosperity is shown by our own T. A. He has purchased a vehicle Dyke. (he calls it an automobile) of rather

The Old Man Savs ancient vintage and apparently he is very proud of it, because he spends all of his spare time tinkering with

> Our 1st Sgt. is taking a well earned vacation and Frank Ryles is acting as top-kick during his absence.

Slug Travis will be discharged and gone when you read this, (maybe) he won't tell us what his intentions are in regards to taking on another hitch, but we are of the opinion that Slugger will be around for quite a while yet.

-Steve.

STAR BRAND

HUNTING BOOTS

The hunting boots are Star Brand, which means solid leather. They will make hunting a pleasure and protect your health. They are also excellent for outside work. Come and look them over.

Men's solid leather, black, 16-in. hunting boot. Plain toe, double sole, hook lace. Only

Other solid leather hunting boots

$4.95 AND $5.95

Buy Star Brand Shoes for the Whole Family

Sam Neel's

Star Brand Shoe Dept. 1040 Broadway, Westbrook Bldg.

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Ex perience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCH

FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

SUITS

Overcoats

Alterations Free

 \mathbf{W}^{E} picked a large number of suits and overcoats from our regular $12.45 and $14.95 lines to make up this special offer at $9.99. The overcoats are mostly double - breasted, heavy blues and Oxford grays, but there are also some snappy light colored top-coats in the lot. In the suits are greys, blues, browns, tans, checks and stripes. Use our lay-away plan if you haven't the cash today.

Boys Flapper Suits $6.95

We are proud of this little flapper suit for boys. It is just what they want, and just what we like to sell mothers who demand style and durability. It is a mannish little coat, and carries two pair of English shorts, coat and pants are full lined. Ages 4 to 10.

Men's

HATS $1.85

including a wide assortment of colors and shapes being worn this

BOYS OVERCOATS HERE!

Navy Blue Melton cloth, flannel lined, trimmed with emblems and brass buttons. Sizes 1 to 8.

lined with red flannel, trimmed with bright emblems and brass buttons. Sizes 1 to 8.

$4.95

LUMBER JACKET

These are Rugby and Tom Sawyer make, zipper fastened front or buttons, of durable Melton cloth, large side pockets, elastic and straight bottoms; black, blue, gray and green. Sizes 8 to 16.

$295

Sheep-Lined Leatherette Jackets

A very handsome and warm garment made by Rugby, belted model, high roll collar, large and deep pockets. For the school boy who must face all kinds of weather, this is just the thing. Sizes 6 10 years.

> $945 to

Open from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m. 10 p. m. Saturdays — Working Two Shifts

The Metcalf Label Is a Badge of Quality and Economy

ESTABLISHED 1920

Two Stores of Public Service

ing, until hope left, and she had reached middle age.

Boom!

He'd been a swell guy, that fellow the medical sergeant major used to bum around with. Never a growl where it wasn't called for, and growl or not. always doing his end. Eighteen years they been in the same pillroller outfit together; the Philippines, the Border, hte flu epidemic; until a Kraut slug knocked him over.

Another elderly woman parted the curtains on a front window, to gaze across the parade ground at a tiny figure whose arm rose and fell at regular intervals. Jimmy commanding a battery! "Little Jim" the men had called him so long ago, to dis-tinguish him from "Major Jim," still over in France. And just like Major Jim, except for the lines. Dear Jim, he would never had a lieutenant command a battery.

Boom!

A lean form on a hospital bed stirred restlessly as a shoulder twing ed and his head ached. "A night patrol. Pure dam foolishness right now, with those new troops opposite them, sure to be on the look-out. Tall, big blue-eyed fellows, probably Prussians.

"If that one gun would only stop its eternal firing! For ages he had been listening to it.

"Dam that flare! Hope there isn't anything underneath me. Get your head down, you fool! Here it comes!"

A red, winking, eye that spewed death all around. He ducked his head and hunched his shoulder forward just as it hit.

The colonel opened his eyes at the sound of the next gun. What had he been dreaming of? That was sixteen years ago.

Boom!

St. Mihiel!

The Argonne! Boom! Boom! The thickets of Chateau-Thierry. On through the list of engagements and battles the guns roared a titanic requiem for the nation's dead, rending the firmament and shaking the throne of God in thunderous recollection.

Boom! The last gun.

In Arlington cemetery a soldier, sleeping beneath a marble mausoleum on which burns an eternal light, stirred in his sleep. The guns had ceased, and he was tired and at rest.

83RD WINS FLAG RACE

(Continued from page 1)

ners were Lieutenants Louis B. Ely, Charles N. Howard, James J. Heriot, and William E. Grubbs. The Tank Students' team, which finished third, was composed of Captain Westfall and Lieutenants Wendell G. Johnson, Russell Blair, and Willis S. Mathews. Colonel Burton L. Seeley and Major George J. Rife, Veterinary corps, were the veterinarians, and stations judges were Captains Halloran, John J. Nichols, Major Frank A. Heileman, Lieutenant Monroe and Lieutenant Johnson.

The ride started at 1:30 from the horse show bowl at the Infantry School stables, and the last of the teams finished before five o'clock. An indicator map was arranged which showed the positions of the field to those who attended, and announcements concerning the closeness of the race and the condition of the various competitors and their mounts were made by Lieutenant Robert V. Murphy over a public address system.

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT

(Continued From Page 4)

all right, but you still get the tenths." In closing let us thank Major Bonhan for his presentation of the historical lesson on the advanced guard. Brilliantly put across, it not only held the attention, but effectively taught the principles involved.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital 1006 13th Street

Office Phone 1313

TWENTY-ONE GUNS

(Continued From Page 1) amid the monotony of the white

Boom!

A grey-haired sergeant in the huge, brick and concrete barracks stared at the floor, seeing nothing. Fifteen years! Or fifteen days?

The cold chill of the day sank again into his bones, the same as when, fifteen years ago, a private, just a small part of the huge concen tration camp, had obeyed the jerk of the head given by the weary-eyed medical officer, and passed into the hospital building, long and wooden, with drafts running across the floor, and squatted by the side of a dying brother. The dead march had wailed next day, and Buddy, the only Buddy, couldn't feel the damp rain that hissed through the pine needles. Buddy, who should have been back in college! Boom!

A slim boy, in O. D. at a rigid, recruit attention that had him trembling already, felt the thrill of pride up his spine. This was for Dad, my Dad! That tall, broad-shouldered, blue-eyed Dad who was always so quiet; whom he could just remember slapping a small boy's back as he hurried off to the training camp. It was for his Dad! Wasn't there a creased and faded slip of paper up in his foot-locker? "Killed in action while gallantly leading his platoon at Mont Sec.

Boom! "Sound off, baby! It's all you can do for 'em now. Fifteen times I've listened to y'; and fifteen hundred times I've wished it was for me. Go to a veterans' hospital! Hell! There's still guys worse off than me that there ain't room for. I've only got a touch of gas. If I hadn't got past the exam for this job I guess I'd have finished what was started then. Dam pity some lousy Jerry didn't save me the trouble." The watchman at the new barracks huddled closer to his small fire and coughed rackingly.

Boom!

The elderly woman in the big closed car leaned her head against the cushions and closed her eyes. How long, Lord? Everything the world can offer, and nothing to live for. Not permitted to call "Enough," and go to meet that smiling boy with his new boots and shining bars that she had kissed for the last time with a mother's kiss so long ago

Boom!

The head nurse tapped her desk with a pencil and thought of the years that had passed. Years spent in training after that terse message, "Reported missing"; years spent in the A. N. C. at small pay, that she might have the privilege of going from ward to ward, looking, search-

andOVERCOATS

$16.75

Wool and Leather Zipper Jackets

$2.45 to $4.95

Complete Line Of Hats And Haberdashery at Most Reasonable Prices.

> Blue and Gray Corduroy Pants

> > $2.95

Smith Smart Shoes

PAYNE

CLOTHING CO 1203 Broad

For Advice Or Aid Concerning

LIFE INSURANCE

Call

ROBISON BROWN, JR.

Special Agent, Ordinary Department LIFE INSURANCE — ANNUITIES

210 MURRAH BLDG.

'PHONE 1637

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA Home Office, Newark, N. J.

VOLUME III

FORT BENNING, GA., NOVEMBER 17, 1933

Georgia-Auburn Meet In Football Classic

The

CONDUCTED BY PINCH-HITTER

"Better be damned, than mentioned not at all."

_John Wolcot

We regret to announce that the latest report indicates that E. F. R. has, or had, pneumonia. He appears to be on the mend now, however, and we look for his return when he shall have regained his strength.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS

Our Academic Department reporter brings in the following story about Pete Bonham, Diplomat. It seems that his boss, Colonel Weeks drove Mrs. Weeks to the movies the other evening and parked in the space provided for that purpose, skillfully maneuvering alongside of a parked car with two occupants who were awaiting the conclusion of the first show. While Colonel Weeks parked the car with precision, he left insufficient space between his car and the parked car on his right to enable Mrs. Weeks to get out. It developed that one of the occupants of the parked car was none other than Pete, former welcome member at Thanatopsis Club meetings. While the Assistant Commandant was estimating the situation and determining on his course of action, Pete leaned out of his car and said: "Colonel, I beg your pardon for parking so close.'

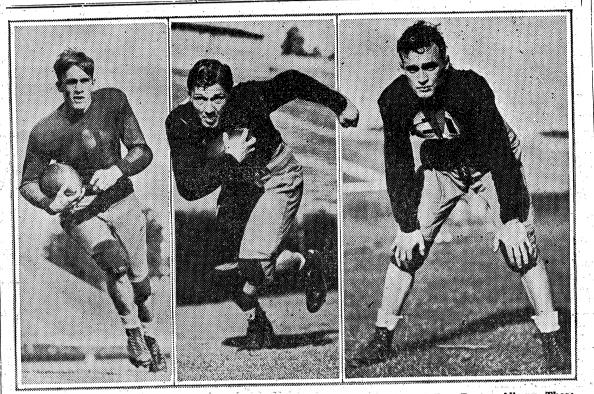

SPEEDER IN TOILS OF THE LAW The other morning C. C. C. widow Robles was arrested by the Military Police for exceeding the speed limit of twenty miles per hour while descending the hill from the Hospital. Nothing unusual in this, you say. Perhaps not, except that her vehicle was a pair of roller skates.

WITH A HALF POUND OF TEA We note that the P. T. A. Crafts hop, has usurped the prerogatives of the Benning stork as is evidenced by the following notice, as furnished by the shop for publication in the No vember 9 issue of our esteemed contemporary, The Daily Bulletin:

cotton suede dresses; also for small last April, Colonel Jewett was placed Charles C. Wiggins, Captain James P. "Orders are still being taken for hoys and girls. These may be had in lounge pajamas and coat."

We'd like to place our order, please, with the C. C. C. for a red-headed, freckle-faced, roughneck boy in baby blue lounge pajamas.

Three U. of Ga. Generals

Left to right: LeRoy Young, Macon; Jack Griffith, Gadsden, Ala., and Sam Brown, Albany. These boys share honors in directing the Georgia attack.

Post Wednesday

Colonel Frank F. Jewett, former commanding officer of the Special Units of the Infantry School, left Fort Benning Wednesday morning enroute to Fort Moultrie, South Carolina, to serve as commander of that post. This was the latest of a series of assign. ments that have carried him from one side of the globe to the other; from the steaming jungles of the Philippine Archipelago during the Insurrection to the battlefields of Flanders during the World War.

Beginning his military career as a second lieutenant in 1905 Colonel Jewett served for a year with the 1st Infantry on the Island of Samar in tice problem which was staged by the the Philippines. At that time there use stationed with the same regiment the company officers' class and a con-Captain in the organization, the man which was held as a part of the adwho later became commandant of Fort vanced class studies. ming and the Infantry School.

post, and reported for duty on September 17. When the Fort Benning supervision, more than 10,000 men

(Please turn to page 8)

Col. Jewett Leaves German Officer At Ft. Benning For Three Inspection Tours

Lieutenant General Frederick von Boetticher, military attache at the German embassy, Washington, who is making a tour of American army posts through the courtesy of the United States government to observe the system of military training in this country arrived at Fort Benning at 10:45 A. M., November 13, by automobile in which he travelled from Fort Mc-Pherson, Ga., where he had been visiting for a few days.

As a part of his program, the German officer witnessed a combat praca 1st Lieutenant Campbell King, later ference on tank supply in the field,

From 8 until 10 o'clock Tuesday Last year he received his orders to Boetticher attended a student presencommand the Special Units at the tation of military monographs at the Georgia then to Fort Benning, where school and during this class heard the monograph of the Battle of Tannenreconditioning camp for the Civilian burg, given in four parts by Lieuten-Conservation Corps was established ant George A. Taylor, Lieutenant in command, and during his period of Wharton, and Lieutenant William H. Please turn to page 3)

U.S. Aviators Here For Refueling Stop

Lawson Field at Fort Benning was visited Tuesday, Nov. 14, by the wideest variety of the latest type of planes, now in use by the Air Corps of the United States, that they have had in several months when a Ford Tri-Motor monoplane, three Keystone bombers and three Curtiss attack planes on the field for the purpose of refueling.

The Ford plane carried as passengers, Lieutenant Colonel Wibb E. Cooper, Medical Corps and Major Herbert A. Dargue, Air Corps, both officers being from Langley Field, Vir-

The group of planes had proceeded from Langley rield they left for Maxwell Filed, Ala.

CONTRACT AWARDED

Latest of the constructon contract awards at Fort Benning is that to the Schildroth. - This battle was one of Lackawanna Construction Company, were prepared for duty in the field the more important of German vic- for the laying of water mains in contories during the east Prussian Cam- nection with improvements which are In addition to being a graduate of paign of 1914 and the rendition of being made to Lawson Feld, Airport of the post.

Bulldogs Favored In Pre-Game Dope

With one team fighting to keep its record clean in a bid for the national championship, and the other squad trying to defeat their traditional foe to smooth over the wounds of a season already filled with three holes of defeat, Georgia and Auburn, the Bulldog and the Tiger, meet tomorrow on the turf of Memorial stadium, where so many colorful battles between the two have been exhibited for the watch-

Throughout the South, thousands of vistors await another Georgia-Auburn game, yearly, for the fun, joy, and excitement of Columbus' annual football has become known from corner to corner. For instance, a young lady being entertained by royalty in England, wrote Columbusites that she regrets having to miss the game.

Georgia, the contender for national honors, is favored over Auburn, whose three losses this year have hurled them from the pinnacle of an undefeated season, in 1932. But the stronger team often comes out of a Tiger-Bulldog battle on the wrong end of the score, as another upset is record-

Little Homer Key, who not only is claimed by Columbus but claims Columbus, will be singing his swan song before home folks. This year he celebrates his last homecoming with many sensational gridion feats tucked under his belt. Auburn will dowell to watch this football mite, and well Auburn knows it.

Some of the game's greatest stars will be on parade at the game. To hegin with, there is Red and Black captain, Graham Batchellor, end Batchellor is considered the South's best bet for a position on the mythical All-American team.

On the same team, there are the three great halfbacks, Arston Grant, Homer Key, and Sam Brown. Grant, called Cy, has been consistently termed the South's most dangerous runner, and that with Beatty Feathers, Dixie Howell and others in Dixie. Key needs no introduction to local people. Brown, called the "medicine man" is considered the South's second most dangerous runner, second only to Grant. Sport writers have said a team jumps from the frying pan into the fire, when Brown is substituted for Grant.

Leroy Moorehead leads the great Georgia linesmen. Tong Perkinson and Opper are other standouts there Fans will be shown almost perfect blocking and touchdown plays when these men and their mates start moving in front of that all-star backfield. Mention should be made of the piledriving fullback, Buck Chapman, who may not play on account of injuries.

Auburn stars include the sensational passer, Firpo Phipps; Casey Kimbell and Sterling Dupree, the speed demons, Truck Talley, the most (Please turn to page 3)

SEESOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN THE SEEDING

Womans Club Book Section Meeting

The Literary Section of the Woman's Club presented a program on children's literature at the Polo-Hunt Club Monday afternoon at 2:00. Books for different ages of children, famous illustrators, the Newberry Prize books, between publishers' editions, good paand recent books on music, garden, per and ink, accurate illustrations, and and near fiction were reviewed. The program was arranged and rendered under the direction of the chairman, Miss Carroll Stevens.

Mrs. Henry Barrett presented a list

Mrs. Stella Paschall

Tailoring Of All Kinds
OFFICERS SHIRTS A SPECIALTY Ten Years Experience

520 First Avenue Phone City 2156-R

FORT BENNING Nursery School

now open at Girl Scout Cabin Sponsored by Fort Benning P. T. A. For information call

MRS. LAWRENCE PETRI __ Phone City 1171 or 1285-R

What Dessert?

... for your Thanksgiving dinner? There's no doubt — for there's nothing like Foremost to top off a perfect meal. Order it — and have the most delicious dessert you've ever eaten.

> Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES, INCORPORATED

of books suitable for children of preschool age, making special mention of the excellent content, as well as the arrangement and illustrations, of the "ABC Bunny Books" and "Hurdy

The method of judging children's books was explained by Mrs. Eugene Lewis, who pointed out the difference attractive make up, as well as helpful and interesting content.

Mrs. Hammond Monroe listed many appropriate books for the 12 to 15 year old boys and girls and then pointed out the necessity for a discriminative choice in the selection of books for children of those ages.

A brief discussion was made by Mrs. John Hall of the 12 Newberry Prize books, special reference being made to the last four: "Hitty," by Rachel Field; "The Cat Who Went To Heaven", by Elizabeth Costsworth; "Waterless Mountain", by Laura Adams Armer; and "Young Fu", by Elizabeth Forman Lewis. These books, Mrs. Hall said, are among the best childrens classics obtainable in literature.

Mrs. Clough Gee reviewed Alice Roosevelt Longworth's latest book, "Crowded Hours", which is a descrip-tion of her life and experiences in Washington Mrs. Gee also discussed "Watching The World Go By", written by Willis J. Abbot; "The Life of Talbot,' by Violet Clifton; and "Testament Of Youth", by Vera Bristow.

Two garden books were outlined by Mrs. Frank Heileman, "Informal Gardens", by H. Stuart Artloff; and "Arrangement Of Flowers", by Mrs. W R. Hind. High spots in these books were illustrated by shadow boxes arranged by Mrs. Raymond Pearson.

Mrs. Walter Wells told of several interviews she had had with different authors, and she briefly outlined the type of fiction which publishers are demanding this year.

MRS. HALL HOSTESS AT CHARM-

Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall was the hostess Monday afternoon at a beautiful tea given at her quarters from 4 to The tea table was laid with an antique filet lace cloth and the color scheme was green and yellow with a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums, flanked by silver candlesticks bearing buring tapers of green. In accordance with the color scheme yellow and green cakes and fruits were served. Assisting at the tea table were Mesdames George H. Estes and Charles F. Morse.

In the living room pine was the motif being carried out with silver vases filled with pink rose buds. Mrs. Hall's guests consisted of members of the Special Units and other friends from Benning and Columbus.

THIRD OF SERIES OF NEWS TOURNAMENTS HELD MONDAY

Columbus and Fort Benning bridge players are enjoying the series of mixed and men's tournaments which are being sponored on the officers' club at Fort Benning. Monday's affair being a men's tournament was well attended. Six tables participated, winning high honors were East and West, first Lieutenant George H. Decker and Mr. Calvin H. DesPortes, second, tied Capt. Don C. Faith and liam E. Persons and Maj. Thomas S. trip to New York. The bride's trav-Arms. North and South, first Lieutenant Colonel John L. Jenkins and Capt. Henry L. Matchett, second, Lieutenant Cleland H. Sibley and Lieut. Lincoln Jones. Following this men's tournament will be a woman's tournament which will be held Friday afternoon at the Officers' Club to which bridge enthusiasts of Columbus and Fort Benning are invited. Entrance fee will be 50 cents per person.

FAMOUS RUSSIAN CHORUS TO GIVE CONCERT FRIDAY IN COLUMBUS

The outstanding concert event of the year for Columbus and Fort Benning theatre-goers will be the presentation Friday evening of the Don Cossacks Male Chorus by the Three-Arts League at the High School Auditorium in Columbus. The doors to the auditorium will open at 8:15 o'clock and the curtain will rise at 8:45 o'clock. These "horsemen of the steppes" are all former members of the Imperial Russian Army and began their singing career in Europe in 1923. Their program will consist of outstanding types of Russian songs and choruses. The rendering of these songs is unusually beautiful having behind them the pathos and longing for the homeland from which these Cossacks are exiles. A few of their selections will be the "Volga Boat Song," the famous "Lord's Prayer" which is an old church melody, and the Russian peasant song.

A member of social affairs in the form of dinners will precede, among those entertaining will be Maj. and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, and several informal affairs given by Columbus

MISS MARY AGNES PORTER WEDS LIEUT. WOOLNOUGH

The marriage of Miss Mary Agnes Porter, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Porter of Waycross, Ga. to Lieutenant James K. Woolnough which took place at Wayeross at 5 o'clock last Saturday was an event of interest in civilian and army circles throughout Georgia, the Reverend John B. Walthour of Grace Episcopal Church officiating.

The artistic decorations of the hurch emphasized a note of simplicity, yellow and orange chrysanthemums in vases and standard baskets being affectively arranged with palms, ferns and foliage as a background. Candelabra, holding lighted tapers. and altar candles added to the imressiveness of the setting.

Miss Elizabeth Pauglin rendered a eautiful program of wedding music. The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin made in straight lines with puffed sleeves and a train. Her tulle vail was in cap fashion, fastened with a bandeau of seed pearls and caught in the body with a band of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses. Mrs. William M. Sweat, who was matron of honor, wore a gown made along the newest fashion with full puffed sleeves. Her hat and accessories were brown, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Emily Elbrius, maid of honor, wore a fashionable gown of brown and yellow, with brown hat and accessories. Her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Mayo, Miss Sue Reavis, Miss Mary O'Quinn and Miss Virginia Gibson. They wore beautiful gowns of yellow faille with brown hats and accessories and carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Lieut. Earle G. Wheeler was the best man. The groomsmen were Lt. James M. Churchill, Lt. Richard H. Smith, Lt. Thos. G. Howard, Lt. Harry C. Britt, Lt. John C. Bahusen, and Lt. T. E. Faison.

The bride and bridegroom left following a reception at the home

Lt. James E. Bowen and Col. Wil- of the bride's parents for a wedding elling costume was a modish suit of blue wool with grey squirrel trimming, worn with blending accessories. After their return they will be at home at Fort Benning.

> SOCIAL CALENDAR FULL AS THANKSGIVING APPROACHES
> Fort Benning and Columbus society is looking forward with much anticipation to the famous Georgia-Auburn game which will be the social highlight of the coming week-end. Thursday evening will start the festivities with the Officers' Club holding its regular Thursday evening supperdance. Making reservations for this affair are Capt. W. P. O'Brien with a party of twenty, Capt. Lloyd Barnett with twenty; Capt. L. Murphy, twenty; Lt. C. P. Lanham, twenty; Lt. J. M. Royal, fouteen; Lt. Brenner with a party of four.

Friday evening the "Benning Bachelors" be hosts at a Script Dance at the Polo Hunt Club to which the younger set of Fort Benning and Columbus has been invited.

(Please turn to Page 3)

No need to be irritated! Of course, if he's been buying at any other store than this, he might not have found what he wanted and may be a little dissatisfied. But that'll just be a lesson—the next time he'll go to Silver's for anything he wants.

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY AND 11th ST.

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

These hats go to your head! They're just what you want—just what you've waited for—and the price range is from $2.95 to $12.50.

FORT BENNING CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

COLD WEATHER DISH

Good pork sausage is the ideal food for cool crisp weather. Served with hot cakes or fried apples and hot biscuits it is unsurpassed at this time of the year. It fits us to resist the wintry blasts of sub-zero weather as no other meat dish can do. Old Settler's Pure Pork Sausage is made from hams, shoulders and loins, seasoned just right. Every pound is inspected by trained United States Veterinarian Inspectors and guaranteed pure and wholesome by

The Provision Company, Inc.

USE THE SIX-BOX It affords a good supply of form

25c

Coca - Cola's contribution to home economy, THE SIX-BOX!

Coca-Cola is the most economical way of refreshing oneself on short notice; and the SIX-BOX is Coca-Cola's most economical form. Six delicious drinks for only 25c - no wonder the SIX-BOX has proved its right to popularity.

Coca-Cola is justly the world's most delicious and refreshing drink

SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING RINGS

Smartly fashioned in the latest designs, these rings will delight you.

We buy old gold jewelry and dental scraps under U. S. License No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

1121 BROADWAY JEWELERS COLUMBUS

NEW BOOKS

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT LIBRARY CARROLL STEVENS

With Nazi Germnay casting sheep's eyes at Austria, with the Saar Valley plebiscite looming for 1935, with trouble in the Balkans as usual, with Cuba in turmoil, with the League of Nations flouted by Japan, and with the French making one vast underground fortification of her entire Rhineland border, it behooves the Timid Order of the Associated Caspar Milquetoasts of the World (consisting

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 2)

The Country Club Dinner Dance and the Cotillion Club ball will be the centers of interest on Saturday evening. As has been the custom for the last few years, the Auburn football team will have its headquarters at the Columbus Country Club.

In view of the Thanksgiving Holiday plans are going forward for a ball to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 29th at the Officers' Club. Thursday, Thanksgiving evening the Country Club will entertain at a dinner dance. Invitations have been issued to all members of the officers' club. Special features and decorations are being planned for both affairs.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE SERVICE

It remains now for the Administration to do its part to correct the freeze and restore Service pay to its former level.

We gladly contribute our efforts and devote ourselves towards this end.

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

(New York)

MANUFACTURERS OF MILITARY AND NAVAL INSIGNIA AND EQUIP-MENT FOR HALF A CENTURY.

of those who have a pardonable desire to remain alive for a few more years) to reflect upon the possible nature of a new war. Fortunately there are two books published this month which will give one a prophetic dose of what the next conflict will be like. They are Beverly Nichol's "Cry Havoc" and "What Would be the Character of a New War?" written by eighteen experts, many of them military men.

Each of these books is rpelete with the horrors of Lewisite gas, three drops of which on your skin is enough to kill you, and of the international character of the armament industry. Some of the experts contributing to the "Character of the New War" are rather complacent.

Lt. Gen. von Metzsch of Germany predicts obsolescence for trench warfare. Wire, he says has ceased to be an obstacle; mines can be detected before they become dangerous.

This diagnosis agrees with what B. H. Liddell Hart had to say in "New Armies for Old" (Current History, March 1933). The machine gun, the use of mustard gas, the tank and the airplane make it impossible for the infantry to be of any use. New wars, both Liddell Hart and von Metzsch say, will be won by mechanical con-Technological unemploytrivances. ment will invade the battlefield; ordinary conscription (which picks stupid men as well as intelligent) will not be enough. The best guarantee for a soft spot far behind the lines in the next war, if von Metzsche is right, will be to know absolutely nothing about electricity or machinery

Both Signor Mussolini and Adolph Hitler should be warned that huge populations, in that they provide superior targets, may prove a handicap in the next war.

The most interesting chapter in the book is that by Francois Delaisi of France, dealing with the international ramifications of war industry. For as he says, "if Hungary buys cyanimide, who can say whether it is for its sugar beet fields or its powder mills?"

The economic chapters in "What Would be the Character of the next War?" are disappointing, Sir Norman Angell is present with his familiar theory that Free Trade would solve everything. Yet we might suggest that neither Adam Smith nor Mr. Grundy of Smoot-Hawley fame has a cure all for the sick post-war world.

De Luxe Service...

Keep your car in the best of shape during the cold weather. Our "Deluxe Service" will enable you to get the maximum benefit from your car even in the coldest of winter and includes washing, polishing, lubrication of differential, transmission, and all fittings, changing of motor oil, vacuum cleaning and a thorough mechanical inspection involving 33 different operations.

Auto Department

POSTEXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the military service.

Ten Years Ago Last Week

Brigadier General Briant H. Wells, new post commandant, arrived at Fort Benning to take over the duties of his new office, on November 6. He was on duty at Washington on the general staff, prior to his assignment here

The Infantry School News printed an intricate set of rules for the entertaining past-time of "Mah Jongg". (For the benefit of the younger generation, a wild form of lunacy related to the Charleston, and first cousin to the Ouija Board.)

The mallet-wielders of the 29th Infantry defeated the Birmingham Sabres by the score of 8-3 in a slow game occasioned by a muddy field, slick from two days rain. The Sabres were further handicapped by the fact that they were riding strange ponies furnished by the 29th.

The Infantry football team, having downed the North Georgia Aggies, prepared for their game with Carson and Newman, from Tennessee by witnessing the game between Georgia and Auburn as the guests of the promoters of the contest.

GA. AUBURN MEET

(Continued From Page 1) improved player on the squad; Gump Ariail, All Southern end, in 1932, and Bat McCollum.

The Bulldogs' pass defense has been excellent all season, but they haven't met the equal of Firpo Phipps, as a heaver. Likewise, Kimbrell and Dupre are the two fastest backs encountered by the Athenians all year. Ariail is again the slashing end that placed him on most all All-Southern teams last year, while McCollum has been a standout in the line in each game all season.

GERMAN OFFICER HERE

(Continued From Page 1)
the monograph was coincidents with the visit of General von Boetticher.
The German Army official was present during the discussing of the strategic points of the engagement by the students and was quite interested in the presetation.

Beginning at 10 A. M. and lasting until 12:00 o'clock, he witnessed a demonstration of machine gun direct laying and firing at Hook Range on the reservation. This demonstration was given by the students of the company officers' class under the direction of Captain George N. Randolph.

At 1:00 P. M. the German officer was the guest of honor at a luncheon, given by General G. H. Estes, post commandant, at the Officers' Club. The guest list of the affair was made up of General von Boetticher, General George H. Estes, Colonel Charles W. Weeks, Colonel William E. Persons, Colonel William B. Wallace, Colonel Frank F. Jewett, Colonel Joseph A. Atkins, Colonel John H. Stutesman, Major T. B. Catron and Major Clyde A. Selleck, and also carried the names of severla prominent Columbus citizens among whom were Mr. J. E. Page, J. Dupont Kirven, T. C. Crawford, William G. Morton, Everett Strupper, and Frank Lumpkin.

Following the luncheon General von Boetticher was conducted to Sackett Hill, where he saw a demonstration of the tactics of a platoon in attack. This demonstrative program was given under the direction of Major Phillip S. Wood, instructor of the Infantry School. From this point the foreign officer was escorted to Fiske Range, where he witnessed a demonstration fring of Hitchkiss and Solothurn machine guns and a modified Browning automatic rifle. This work is being carried on by the Infantry Board as a matter of experiment in the different arms of the service.

General von Boetticher left the post this afternoon by automobile enroute back to Atlanta from where he will continue his visits to the army posts of the United States.

Casual Clothes

for casual occasions

If you're out after utterly blameless and convincing sports outfits, aim straight at this group, and bring down the one that just hits the spot. The liveliest of the new knits, angelically demure if that's your type, or devastatingly dashing, if you're out to startle the world with your chic.

TWIN SWEATER SUITS

Consist of slipover sweater, cardigan and knit skirt. Green, blue or brown in various combinations. Especially nice since the sweaters may be used separately.

$15.00

KNIT SUITS

$19.75

Knitted of swank silk boucle. Three pieces . . . coat, slipover sweater and skirt. Navy, brown, black and green in smart winter combinations.

TWIN SWEATERS

"It's twins" has been the fashionable sports cry of the season. Solid color cardigans with either mixed or combination colors or matching solid slip-over. Green, rust, red, browns and blues.

$6.95

SEPARATE SKIRTS

Odd skirts have always played an important part in the sports scheme of life. These are in tweed mixtures of brown, reds, wine, green, blues and in checks, $2.95.... Flannels in brown and eel grey solids, $3.95.

Genuine Mandrucca

Polo Oxford

for sports

Genuine mandrucca in brown with brown calf underlays or in black. Solid leather heel, leather sole and kid lining.

$5.95

THE BENNING HERALD Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

VOLUME III	NOVEMBER 17, 1933	IBER 17, 1933 NO.
L. C. KUNZE	A State of the Sta	Publisher
A. F. KUNZE		Editor
FELICIA C. HOWELL		Society Editor
JACK GIBNEY		Sports Editor
Louis T. Kunze		Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT, SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

BY MAJOR HOMER L. CONNER, Medical Inspector

Undulant Fever

This disease used to be considered rather rare condition: one only found in countries along the Mediterranean where it was called Malta fever. It is now known all over the their flesh or by their milk. Domestic animals, in this country the cow with its so called contagious abortion, are the main source of spreading the disease $t \epsilon$

The disease is a long continued one and quite serious for until recently there seemed to be no specific method of treatment. Blood transfusions, the blood being obtained from recovered cases now seem to promise good results.

Fortunately man seems to be more or less naturally immune to this disease. That this is so seems to be from infected animals destroys the mals that are infected. These many cows, pigs and goats scattered throughout this country that may transmit the disease either through

Any person who handles or eats the raw flesh from these animals is liable to this disease. Any person who drinks raw milk is also flirting with this possibility.

For your information we report that the milk supply of Fort Benning comes from cows that have been tested and found free from contagious abortion and that as an additional safeguard the milk delivered on the Post is pasteurized.

The thorough cooking of the meat and the pasteurization of the milk proved by the great number of ani- germs that convey undulant fever.

Reflections Of A Student

Natural modesty prevents our dwel- American tree denizens. ling at length upon the success of the class dance held at the Muscogee Club Friday night. However it is not amiss to extend thanks to the Entertainment Committee which put it over, and especially to Clinton, whose foresight insured a happy frame of mind in the merry-makers. The affair provided an opportunity to meet the fairer halves of our classmates, and we are agreeably pleased to note the taste of each and every benedict to be uniformly high.

The 29th orchestra did right well, and almost went harlem in the latter part of the evening. Some of their numbers, staid old choral pieces or chestrated a la Ellington, must have had trouble recognizing themselves in this weird rendition. However emotion was stirred to such a pitch that old man Moore broke his tie, and it took the combined efforts of 3 men to effect a readjustment. Chief lost it again later on, and his search for another was the cause for numerous embarrassed gents rushing off in search of a mirror.

The guests of honor included all members of the third section, academic department, and the gracious patrons and patronesses were Col. and Mrs. Weeks, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bonesteel, and Major and Mrs. McCabe.

Last week the boys were given an opportunity to revert to type, via the Signal Corps M 1807, type EEE56321 ree climbers, (now obsolete). After being harnessed up in his spurs, Mr. Studnet would approach a tree, and cauiously test of its soundness by tapping, miffing, bark breaking, etc. After everal moments of this, the next move vas a careful insertion of the right pur in the bark several inches above he ground. Then followed a slow and painfu proces sof inching one's way wward. The ratio of feet climbed to eet skidded backward was about 6 to

. Figure it out for yourself as to ow long it took to gain a ten foot ltitude. With half the class clinging pine trunks at various heights above ie ground, nature minded folk were minded of a vast grove filled with field of juvenile endeavor has been orcupines, that most slothful of

However after an hour or so, the throwbacks began to come to the forein other words, a few fortunate developed a remarkable state of efficiency in this military art. With that proficiency came simultaneously a desire to impress their more sluggish classmates and what could be better way to do this than by draping the topmost branches with all unguarded hats and coats. Steamboat Kent entered into these operations with the vision of a true humorist, and when someone snatched off Beattie's hat, and came running under his tree, Steamboat called down, "Hey, toss that hat up here". The toss was made, a neat catch executed, and Tom was off to the topmost limbs of a tall pine. Imagine his chagrin when getting ready to leave, to find that the hat dangling so peacefully over head, was none other than his own. Apparenty a neat little bit of acting had been pulled off, especially Beatties frantic pleas, which hitherto Tom had so exquisitely en-

At this same formation a student gazing upwards was heard to exclaim, Say, what's that observation balloon doing up there?" With a prompt reply another, "That's no observation balloon, that's Henderson."

Friday and Saturday the Community Service League dusted out the old Reconstruction Period Opera house Columbus Broadway minded, and put on its Follies of 1933. All talent was strictly amateur, with the exception of a couple of local dance teams and the director, Mr. Jack Bailey of New York. For the reputed sum of sixteen hundred dollars Mr. Bailey journeyed south, supplied the acts, costumes, and settings, and in three weeks whipped into shape a green but willing crew of actors and actresses. Net profits are to be used by the League in furthering its philanthropic work, such as aiding the Orphans' Home, establishing a milk fund, maintaining a chidren's ward, maintaining a community garden, etc., down even to conducting weekly story telling bees for unfortunate children. Apparently but one

(Please turn to page 5)

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Nov. 13-Last Thursday's Daily Bulletin, which we read during the noon-hour while lunch-munching, carried with it a Crafts Shop item that almost caused us to swallow in its entirety a hotdog we were preparing to attack Ouoting this rare announcement ver batim we found the following:

"Orders are still being taken for cotton suede dresses, also for small boys and girls."

We confess but a passing interest in dresses, confined more or less to windy days, as we pride ourself with being of a more mature mind, steeped in the lore of the tactician with tendencies less inclined to the more mundane proclivities but we must confess that the variety of service offered by this splendid institution leaves us a bit curious and intrigued to say the least.

After reading this we paused to reflect on the advantages of this present day era of speed and conven ience to which we have never become thoroughly accustomed. Perchance the pre-motor and pre-radio age to which we were better attuned has gone farther into the discard than we had suspected. At any rate, while we sigh occasionally for the days of vesteryear, the age through which we are now passing rarely ceases to make wonder at the resistless progress modern scinece. Time verily marches on!

Our one previous order, when the girl we ordered was found on delivery to be a boy, cautions us to be wary of placing another, even by this more modern method, until we have satisfied ourself of the reliability of the firm in question. However, the high esteem in which this organization is held, as the result of our exhaustive investigation, tempts us strongly to begin our Christmas shopping early.

Reading further, the next sentence announces that "these may be had in lounge pajamas with coat." We are not sufficiently up-to-date with the fashions to know whether or not lounge pajamas are what the welldressed baby should wear, but never having seen one so attired we are willing to reserve judgment in principle. However we feel that our own old-fashioned ideas which rise to haunt us on occasion incline us to suggest the advisability, in our particular order at least, of substituting a dozen diapers in lieu thereof, capable of employment with either sex. We would prefer to reserve decision, in event of a possible error, as to the purchase of pants or dress, pending final inspection on delivery. As for the coat, in view of the approach of colder weather, we gladly accept with grateful appreciation for their thoughtfulness. If not asking too much we would also prefer that ours come, in addition, with a soldier hat.

Reading still further, we note that orders may be placed for Saturday or Sunday delivery." We consider this to be the last word in prediction and if there is no objection we would prefer ours to come with the Sunday paper on New Years Day. To the above specifications we can add only the hope that our order will be completely satisfactroy if able to walk and talk and call us "Daddy" with a straight face.

The depression has seen countless changes in methods and means and until now we thought we had become more or less adjusted to startling innovations. But with the advent of this new style of production by order and purchase, only the restoration of the pay-cut remains for us to render full and unqualified approval to the New Deal.

On Tuesday of last week we were treated to a rare incident when Captain Red Cummings appeared before us during a demonstration with a dangling appendage protruding from resembling an unhitched belt. Were teacher who whirled aound jumpily

21. 1965 TAX 2560

SATELLITES

This Week, Folks, We Present Pvt. Thomas W. Andrews As A Member Of The Satellites. By CHARLES T. KEPLEY

vided We Fall" contributes something to every branch of the Federal Government. That is what makes the ruling power of a land. A portion of School Detachment, Fort Benning, Georgia, who has been a member of luckiness of the number the military forces since 1909, when he embarked upon his career as a member of the 120th Company of Coast Artillery

Born in Chatham County, North Carolina, April 15, 1888, he spent his early childhood in the scenic Blue Ridge Mountains of that state. A few months before his 21st birthday he enlisted in the army and with the exception of two years his service has been continuous. The 22 years he has devoted to military service have been spent hither and yon, from Fort Fremont, South Carolina, to the Texas plains, then to France with the American Expeditionary Forces, back to the states, next a three year stretch in Hawaii and finally Fort Benning. During this two decades of soldiery his field of duty has been a wide one.

On Jan. 6, 1909, he enlisted as a member of the Coast Artillery Corps and served two years in the 120th Company, then at Fort Fremont, South Carolina. From here he transferred to the 121st Company of the same branch with station at Fort Screven, Georgia. Following the termination of this enlistment Private Andrews broadened his scope of geographical knowledge when he reenlisted for service in the 127th Company, Coast Artillery, at Fort Crockett, Texas. While at this station he was a survivor of the Galveston Flood and assisted in clearing the wreckage left in its wake. Fort Crockett was one of the first sections struck by the tidal wave and the buildings and equipment of the post were a total loss. The men then stationed at the fort rebuilt it and Andrews was among those who carried out the reconstruction. He was on duty here at the dragon?" As it was, we experienced considerable concern, expecting momentarily to find his nether portions unduly exposed, until Colonel Bone steel removed both the tension and the belt simultaneously, thus proving the efficacy of wearing in addition, as Red must have done, a pair of suspenders just in case.

We hereby announce as our personal nomination for the week, Red Cummings for his ability to appreciate a good one or himself and his consequent behavior in carrying on, an excellent illustration of one possessing the admirable quality of being able to take it and still keep his

One word description of Major Cota—pugnaciosish.

One word descripiton of Tactician Johnson—nattyish.

Personal nomination for the best resentation of the week—Major Wood (Rifle Company in Attack) for what might have been in less capable hands a dry and boresome perform-

Famous sayings by famous men: Tank Enthusiast Roberts when he announced that "a tank can knock out anything but an umpire."

Cuff-notes: Classmate Beal, one of the two Beals in the school, inquiring of the instructor, "Which one do you want?" with the prompt rethe front of his mackinaw, strongly joinder from the latter, "You'll do" . . . Doc Sams' capable handling of it hanging tail-wise instead of in front the Battle of Bull Run and the dewe would be strongly inclined to tell scriptive snorting bull by Cartoonist the one about the old maid school. Wharton, the class' second-story man . . . Major Bonham obligingly comwhen little Johnny asked, "What's a plying with Dan Norman's request to in response to faculty question.

Each state of the Union, in follow- start of the World War and as a ing out the early motto of the origin member of Battery A, 3rd Trench nal colonies "United We Stand, Di- Artillery, was dispatched for overseas service. The convoy that carried this organization over was known as the "Jinx" convoy, because of the fact they sailed from New York on the North Carolina to the military de thirteenth of the month, there was partment comes in the person of Pri-thirteen ships in the group and it vate Thomas W. Andrews, Infantry took thirteen days to make the crossing, yet, despite the supposed untrip was made without mishap. While in France Private Andrews knowledge of the technical and tactical use of American artillery placed him as an instructor in the trench artillery school at Laundres, France, where he remianed until the close of the war. Later he was demobilized at Fort DuPont, Delaware, and took up his peacetime duty again with the 6th Company of Coast Artillery. At the end of this assignment he was sent to Hawaii as a member of the 105th Company, Coast Defense, which is now a battery of the 16th Artillery. Upon returning from tropical duty he was sent to Jackson Barracks and placed recruiting as a part of the D. E. M. L., serving five years in this capacity at Winston-Salem, N. C. The closing of D. E. M. L. service also marked the closing time Coast Artillery duty and Private Andrews "joined-up" with the doughboys of the 34th Infantry, but never reached the organization. He was recalled for recruiting duty for a short time and received his last discharge from the Coast Defense Branch.

The call of the open road became too strong and he answered. The demonstration regiment of the Infantry. School were next graced with his services, and from there he transferred to the Infantry School Detachment, where he is now doing duty. As a clerk in the commissary of the world's largest school of arms, his acquaintances are many and the performance of his duty is above reproach. This soldier feels that his time has been well spent with the army and intends to continue for the remainder of the retirement period, which leaves eight years to go.

expose a general map to aid him in reaching a decision in a historical map-problem, resulting in disclosing a map as useful as a condensed map of the world . . . Major Wood's apt description, "A line is not a line and a column is not a column," expressing effectively in one sentence what previously had taken the best efforts of three capable instructors to put across . . . Colonel Woolnough replying to the company officer who anwered: "It depends on the situation" with "Put him on the faculty" . . Elated expressions by the many on the return of the graded test in logistics . . . Learning that the original Dowdall's Tavern was at Chancellorsville . . . Bill Castner's cheering conclusion to an excellent monograph: 'In spite of tactical errors we can still win-this gives me confidence" . . . Major Weir microphoning with the withdrawal dog on a leash Captain Clark of the Beer, Beans and Butter Group visualizing the receiving line with "Mrs. Motor Elements" ... Our recommendation for a change in Tables of Organization, viz., the addition of an S-5 to have nothing to do but receive and reject all recommendations for the battalion commander . . . The apt recital by one wit of the five elements of a decision: "How, When, Where, Why and What Of It" . . . Orchids to Howard Johnson during a recent demonstration, for an accurately delivered clipboard wallop on a play-boy's fundament . .. Dutch Cota's accurate forecast of the death-knell of the 18th Amendment . . . Trying vainly to guess with the Supply Group in a graded test, resulting only in a turnaround and hard standings on cold feet ... Fitts trying to outsit Phipps

Quotations . . .

Availability of quotations on many markets is a benefit to investors in placing their orders. It has long been a policy of this firm to provide quotations on the principal security and commodity markets to accredited individuals.

FENNER, BEANE
& UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street,
Columbus, Ga.
Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN
Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT

(Continued From Page 4)
neglected, and that is Block 21. If only workers were sent over there, we feel certain they would find a golden field for missionary efforts. A weekly button sewing formation for instance would certainly be in order.

Knowing full well the usual type of charitable entertainment, we were happily surprised at the performance, and the audience was very appreciative. (Of course the old trick of creating as large a cast as possible was not neglected). Many of the acts had a time worn theme, but the novelty of seeing one's neighbor perform served to keep up the interest. For example Pauline Lamar, the lady lawyer, brought down the house with her splendid rendition of Mae West songs. Earle Anthony singing "That's why Darkies were Born", and Elizabeth Rainey in her numbers, also produced bright spots. The army was ably represented by Lts. Grubbs and Beishline, and in the chorus by Misses Michie, Seeley and Williams. The latter received a fearsome looking shin bruise from one of her teammates during a dry run, but the wound failed to hinder her go for record. What is heart, or is it the powder that covers it about the smile that covers a broken a broken leg? At any rate the show must, and did; go on, and it was with bump. a sigh of audible relief that Bailey saw the final curtain. He did a good job, and at least gave most of the gals a brand of vocal discipline which they had never (we assume) heard

Lt. Raymond began his radio conerence with this horrible sample of wit. "Gentlemen, this afternoon we are to have a jawbone lecture. I'll supply the jaw, and you all the, er, audience." Why Mister Raymond! Why Mister Raymond! Don't be so subtle! The morning, spent outside, had been quite chilly, and the lecture hall was exceedingly warm. This fact no doubt accounts for so many of the boys taking the Lieutenant seriously when he told us to sleep if we wished, but not to snore. The last three rows were down, almost to a man, including Emery and Maxwell. That all night poker game, in which almost the entire sum of two dollars changed hands, probably was responsible for these two though.

Tuesday afternoon the academic department gave itself away by demonstrating that a demonstration can be ah—demonstrated in less than an hour and a half. Prepared for a full four

Train The Gun, Not The Man!

Is The Advice Of An Oldtimer From A Regimental Machine Gun Company.

"I've watched these expert machine gun instructors around the Infantry School for a good many years", said a sergeant in Regimental Machine Gun Company the other day, and I've decided that none of thm know the real dope. The method I use is better than anything they've produced yet.

"When I first enlisted in 1914 it was in a Cavalry regiment on the border. It didn"t take me long to learn which end of a horse went first and by the time the war came I was a stable sergeant.

"It was about that time that I fell out of an apple tree while watching a ball game. I'd never been hurt before in my life except once when I sprained my ankle jumping over a ditch on the way to Sunday school. And so it had an awful bad effect. Whn I fell out of the tree I lit on my head and a couple of weeks later I decided to transfer to the Infantry. I never have got clear over that bump.

"It didn't take me long to find out that my feet felt better in stirrups than on the dirty ground so I looked around the camp for a Cavalry outfit to transfer back to. But there wasn't any. I did find, while I was traversin' and searchin', a funny lookin' outfit called a machine gun battalion. It had a lot of mules and some horses and so I went in and told the first sergeant I was lonesome for a currycomb and he had the captain fix it up for me.

for me.

"When I got over to the new outfit thye were tryin' to learn how to shoot. But every time somebody would pull a trigger the gun would grind its teeth on the bullet ration and quit. Then they'd take it all part and by the time somebody assembled it again it would be time for recall.

"I watched this business for two or three days and then, lyin' on my bunk that night, I thought it all over. In the mounted service I'd found that kindness and patience were what did it, and I couldn't see why the same things wouldn't help in this case.

"The next morning I went to my corporal and told him I thought I could be of some help. I said all I wanted was to have charge of the gun and take care of it every day. He said that would be O. K. and so here is what I did

"Every night I'd go to the supply room and rub my gun behind the front sight. It soon got so it knew my voice and touch. It would sometimes fire a dry burst of six in pleasure at seeing me approach.

"On the range every morning I would tell it what was expected in simple words. It learned to trust me because I was always careful not to hurt it when I tightened the muzzle gland. Soon it would drink water and even eat cartridges out of my hand six at a time without trying to bite

"Then I taught it to move two mils, no more, no less, when I stroked it on the side of the receiver. By a series of short, easy talks, given in a quiet tone of voice, I told my gun what was expected when we came to the E-target. It got so interested and excited that its rear-sight left wagged up and down, and I was sure it understood. After the first two times over the Ehours of watching the "leaders" perform, it was a most pleasant surprise to hear "That will be all, gentlemen". The shock however, wasn't enough to arouse three reviewers who were still laid out in deep, shall we say, thought, as the class started off. It was a shame to spoil their reverie, and ruined a good story too!

A discovery of numerous nail parings on the floor of the communications laboratory after class leads us to the assumption that at least one enterprising soul has found a more pertinant use for those pliers put out by the wire section than mere wire cutting. Must be a tough guy too, target, I knew that my method of training was success.

"When you use my method you have to be careful not to get too friendly. Once my gun started to turn around and nuzzle me in the ribs after a good practice run. Lucky for me I got the gun cleared because there was a cartridge still in the chamber.

"When the day for record came, we had a long talk as soon as I sat down in position. The gun wasn't half as nervous and excited as I was. I thought, though, I'd better go through the motions so the captain wouldn't think there was anything funny. But that's where I made my mistake. I

(Please turn to page 8)

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

STYLE SILHOUETTES

pine!

o grai

10,400

Suits—Overcoats—Hats—Accessories—each a criterion by which any judgment would be favorable. These men's clothes are truly the silhouettes of the season's styles—and their prices are hangovers from the depression!

SUITS

Our suits have always been the best we could offer you. They're in the top rank of fashion, and it is our proud boast that never yet has one failed to give perfect satisfaction.

$16⁵⁰ $20 $25

OVERCOATS

These are coats that we would recommend to anybody. They're cut in the smartest lines—made of the finest materials and their prices—ah! but you'll have to see them to believe!

18⁵⁰ $20

HATS

The hat is truly the crowning glory of the man's outfit. It has to be perfect in every respect or the rest of the clothes will suffer by comparison. Our hats are just the right thing!

Leather Zipper Coats—$6.50 to $7.50 BOSTONIAN SHOES—$3.95 $5 $6.50

Chancellor Co.

Fort Benning's Columbus Headquarters

NEW Fall and Winter STYLES 4 FORTUNE SHOES

See the new Fortune Shoes now on display. Smart, comfortable — these modern* shoes are being acclaimed by men everywhere. Never before have you seen such value!

* Fortune Shoes are tested. Every piece of leather that goes into these smart choes is tested for quality in the Fortune laboratories. Nothing is left to chance

Post Exchange Shoe Dept.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Canadians-Soldiers Meet Here Last Night Green Wave Of 29th Polo Tournament with the Instructors and Company Officers neck and neck for first another victory on Wednesday night when they stopped the threat of the Canadian team from Windsor, Ontario, and allowed the visitors one win of the seven team bouts. It was a good card, with plenty of action scattered throughout the entire route, but it was evident that the Canucks were no match for the Benning boys.

From Canadians

It is beginning to look as if the post team will have a hard time finding suitable competition in this vicinity, or any other, until they step into national competition. There isn't any question as to their ability; they the Firecrackers electing to receive. are the best amateur organization in the South this year, as revealed by about 7 yards Tubby Bedford, 290the showing made by the three teams that have met them during the last three months.

were nice exhibitions, and a number to take their battles, but the training and condition of the post amateurs was just a little too much. As far as experience, the Benning boys were inferior to the Windsorites in that respect.

The first three fights of the evening were exhibition bouts, with Floyd Lee winning a close decision from Bennie Woolam; Billy Floyd defeating Tom Sharkey, C. C. C. and Ed Brady, Benning, winning a hard battle from Jack Burton.

In the first of the team fights, Charley Floyd earned a decision over George Yourn. Al Schneider, of Ben-ning, knocked out Cliff Boughner in the second, and in the third Norman Phail won a decision over Gene Peliter. Neal Milan lost the

Amateur Boxers Of one. In the fifth Roy Whatley, of the post team won on a TKO from Jack Rockett while Phil Carpenter and Lonnie Wilson won their bouts from Al Stone and Kid Ritz respect-

The post amateur boxing team won Doughbors Defeat Atlanta Team

At Fort Benning, Georgia, yesterday, November 12, the hard fighting Greenclad warriors of the 29th Infantry uncorked a bunch of bewildering plays and completely overwhelmed the Atlanta Firecrackers, a semi-professional team, by a score of 32 to 7.

The doughboys were never in trouble from the start of the game until the sound of the closing gun, and only twice did the visitors threaten their goal. The game started with After two plays in which they lost pound left guard of the Atlantans, dropped back and booted the pigskin to Jordan, soldier quarter-back, who The team fights last Wednesday fumbled on his own 32 yard line. The ball was recovered by the visitof times the Canadian boys threatened ing team, who fumbled on the next play only tohavethe ball go again infantrymen's possession. Jordan passed to Harper and netted a gain of about 18 yards. Following a series of spinner plays and off-tackle plunges that gained little ground the soldiers punted safely to the visitors' 12-yard stripe. Nix, playing at half, for the Atlanta eleven, dropped back in punt formation and fumbled on a bad pass from center, and recovered the ball on his own one yard marker. He punted safely after this play to Jordan at the fifty yard line, and Jordan made a forty yard return to place the ball on the 10 yard stripe in the very shadow of the goal. After two line plays by Jordan that netted three yards, Holloway went through center for 6 yards and on the next rush crossfight for Benning in the fourth bout ed over for the first touchdown of on a technical kayo by Johnny Bur- the game. Harper's educated toe made

To Meet Plavers Of Brewton Parker

The Green Wave from the 29th Infantry, fresh from their victory over the Atlanta Firecrackers last Sunday, will swing into action on Friday afternoon against Brewton Parker College in Doughboy Stadium, with the opening whistle at 2:00.

The Wave seems to have found its stride in the last two weeks, judging from reports of their game with Lupton College and the Oglethorpe Varsity on Nov. 4, and the spirit that they showed last Sunday afternoon. With the exception of a bit of fumbling they seemed to have a scoring backfield combination, and are looking for a win tomorrow afternoon.

There are still three games remaining on the schedule before the moleskins go back into the mothballs and basketball gets under way. These are a contest with the Camp Butler C. C. C. on Nov. 26, Oglethorpe Freshman on Nov. 30, and a return game I. S D. Still Leads with Bowden College on Dec. 9th. to be played in Doughboy Stadium.

possible the extra point. This score came about the half of the first quarter and from then on the soldiers had the game in the well-known bag. Their spinners, reverses, line-smashes and aerial attacks were too strong for the Atlanta boys, who strove hard to stop the advancing horde of doughboy

The visiting team scored their only touchdown of the game when Harper fumbled a punt on the 29th 5-yard line, which was recovered by an Atlanta player. After two unsuccessful atempts at the line, "Tubby" Bedford, who had reposed on the bench since the end of the first quarter, was sent in as a decoy at halfback, and Copeland pulled one of the old time quarterback sneaks and crossed the goalline only by inches. Copeland also kicked the extra point.

The entire forward wall of the 29th team was clicking with amazing precision, for a team that has met such deploring defeats in their first games of the season, and opened up holes in the visitors' line broad enough for an entire drilling section of the regiment to pass through, while the ponyback field took advantage of every breach. The most sensational run of the day was made by Jordan, who returned a kick-off 70 yards before being stopped by the Atlanta safety man. Saunders also made nice gains for the infantry, on an end found 42 yards at onetime and returned a kick-off 50 yards. "Tarheel" Lee demonstrated how the line should be hit in scoring three of the doughboys' touchdowns from beyond the 10 yard line, and also made nice runs for his team.

This was the first game of the season that the Infantrymen have won, and judging from the unbalanced score, it appears that the consistent coaching of Lieutenant George H. Decker, has not gone for nought, as the team hits its stride and eleven men operate as one.

The remainder of the season's schedule will be played at Doughboy Stadium, the gridiron of the Infantry School, when the Regimental Eleven of the 29th Infantry meets some of the best semi-pro and professional teams in the state.

Of Coming Year

Polo activities are rather slow in getting under way this year, as the tournament play does not start until after the first of the year, and the majority of the games being played at the present time are more for the purpose of getting team-work and unison in plays.

Last Sunday the 29th Infantry clashed with the Freebooters, and were slightly in the rear at the close of play. Due to the fact that it was not a scheduled game there was no accurate count kept of goals scored, but great interest was shown by both players and spectaors.

The 24th Infantry, which has been inactive in polo during the past few years, is returning this season, and proved themselves to be slightly better than the 83rd Field Artillery four in a lively contest last Sunday.

This Sunday the 24th will meet the Freebooters in the first game with the 29th trying conclusions with the 83rd immediately after.

Each of the remaining games is In Bowling Races

Bowling has been rather inactive last week, and not much change has been made in the standing of either the officers' or enlisted men's league. The I. S. D. is still ahead, although dropping a game to Headquarters Battalion in the enlisted league to spoil their unbroken percentage; and the 2nd Bn. is trailing in second place. Glenn of the I. S. D., has moved into first place among the league scores, bowling fourteen games for a total of 2074, and a high average of 191.

The Officers league is still in a tie

ToStart After First The Headquarters outfit is still hold. ing down third position, with a better average for games played than any other team in the league. The 29th officers have played the greater number of games, splitting fifty-fifty on wins and losses. The 66th Infantry is just staying out of the cellar with one win, and the Advanced Course Tear has not cracked the shell for a victory yet. Captain Phillip T. Fry is still leading the scorers with 6 games played for a total of 1092, and an average of 182.

STUDEBAKER

GREATER USED CAR VALUES

1931 Ford Spt. Coupe Refinished, Extra Clean $295

1930 Auburn 8 Con. Coupe Radio—6 new tires____$495

1929 Ford Spt. Rdst.____$145

SPECIAL

1931 Commander 8 Sedan Free-wheeling, excellent cond. Reduced to_____$495

1929 Ford Tudor Sedan_____$150

1931 Ford Spt. Roadster____$295

Many More—Late Models Trade in your old car Easy Terms

Columbus Roberts Motor Co.

510-12 12th Street Philco Auto Radio

See the 1934 STUDEBAKER

You'll Get More Birds

The game-getting shot patterns of the Western Xpert shell make every shot count. This hard-hitting shotgun load is a quality shell all the way through, yet sells at a popular price. Has the famous Western Seal-Tite moisture-proof wad. Special smokeless powder. All gauges and all shot sizes. See us for ammunition and hunting needs.

The Shell that Gets the Game

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Georgia
Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service

THEBEST MIXER

OF ALL IS

GINGER ALE

and the best

GINGER ALE

of all is

RUMS DRY

BETTER FLAVOR MORE LIFE

NB-We will pay you 15c per dozen cash for empty Rums Dry bottles with one or more labels attached

Numerous queries have reached the ears of the stooge this week as to why the gobbling of a turkey, plus the sounds of aggravated employment. have been heard to issue from the orderly room during the hours when honest men are ordinarily abed. After tedious hours of investigation into the secrecy which surrounds the affair, a solution of the mystery is placed before the public. It was fold. Gibbs, showing a bit of Yan-merely the one and only Sergeant kee pluck, is now selling bulldogs Inventor doing his stuff in the way of perfecting an instrument that shall be the boon of turkey hunters of the pose of running the vandal to earth. world-in the near future? For further information see Sergeant Gibbs.

The other day, Sergeant Red Mc-Cranie, upon learning that he had just become the father of a baby girl at the station hospital, rushed madly up to the Goldbrick's Paradise and without waiting to be shown the child, scampered into the nursery and in fatherly glee picked a tot to meet his specifications-naturally the child was red-headed. Right then and there Red received the greatest disapponit-ment of his life when a nurse gently but firmly removed the offspring from his arms and substituted one without the auburn hued cranium covering. That's alright Mc, old boy, the best of us make mistakes.

At the time of going to press the famous "Treesitter" is still on the

THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

Excellent Curb Service

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT POST EXCHANGE

FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Author ized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

29th Inf.

Another record of long and more or less notorious standing became past history last Sunday morning when Wimpy King, a newcomer in the company, outsted from the throne the mighty George I. Ragsdale, for years the undisputed hot-cake-eating champion of E, 29. George I. fought valiantly thruoghout the contest, but began to weaken in the late twenties. Wimpy King, with his peculiar south-key call has failed to reveal his whereabouts or restore him to the to the detachment for $.20 a pair (either cash or jawbone) for the pur-

Imagine our embarrassment to learn that the Detachment's Casanova, who has been seen on several occasions of late, promenading the city's great whiteway accompanied by numerous females of grace and distinction, has at last met his Waterloo or whatever deadly weapon that could wreak such havoc. For the other night he ame sneaking into the post from the direction of the Electric City with his nose reposing in the position usually occupied only by the part in his immaculately groomed pompadour, and his mouth located in the vicinity of his right ear. From the disarrangement of this Don Juan's countenance it may be taken for granted that he had made a bad connection with one of the Central of Georgia's limited passenger trains. Surely no loose, and even Sergeant Gibbs' tur- one would atke a well-known poke at this enterprising youngster. Better curtail your social functions. Miller, or you will be looking like a bad dream instead of the answer to a maiden's prayer.

At last an eighth wonder of the world has been found! phenomenon of the human race that far surpasses anything ever displayed by Ringling Brothers Circus, or found in the cages of the world's largest zoos. This unorthodox discovery was made the other night just as the clock (if there was one) struck 12, when the divulger of information entered the tent occupied by Private Mole (of orderly room and corner repute) and found the exponent of modern physical culture reposing in a horizontal position with his feet on his pillow and whistling as he slumbered. Incidentally the whistle was a cross between a snore and the sound of steam emitting from a safety valve.

Just at the moment that the scribe has picked to drag in his shingle for the day and close shop, in comes a report of a former corporal, with a great aversion to pain in any form, for, as the tip carries, he is forever mooching aspirin tablets from his coworkers at post headquarters. We have all heard of autograph collectors and stamp fiends, but this is the first time that rumors have reached our ears of an aspirin collector. Explain yo'self Bevand.

Master Sergeant Leonard Chitwood. personnel sergeant major of post headquarters, is now confined to the station hospital, suffering from illness. Sergeant Chitwood is greatly missed at headquarters and his many friends of Fort Benning express hopes for a quick recovery and return to his usual duties.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS. RESOURCES OVER

$ 600,000.00 3,200,000,00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

The Morning Report

With malice toward none, With justice toward all."—Lincoln.

(The advent of this "colyum' among the already over-crowded pages of the Benning Herald is not intended as competition toward any now firing their weekly shot at the vanities, foibles, and weaknesses of members of this post. It is intended rather, to be run as a contemporary of the estimable "Flare," fulfilling for the enlisted men of the post the same need that that well-written and clever commentary does for the officers of the garrison. Nothing written here is intended to knowingly injure tender feeligs, or ruffle tempers.

Style we have none, but such tabloid "flashes" as we can give on post happenings and events connected with John W. Soldat, we hope will be well received)

With G. I. bread going at once cent per loaf, specialists of the I. S. D. are wearing out two cents worth of shoe leather at each meal, chasing after "seconds," under the new one slice ration now in effect at the Spe cial Units messhall. And the lowering of the bag limit on squirrels from ten to five yer day during the coming season, is causing the pot-hunters of the post not a little concern.

Scribe Gibney of the I. S. D., playing Helpful Henry last week, advises n military-minded doughboy that the flag is stuck on the flag-pole, and drives merrily down the street while the rest of the garrison stand retreat s prescribed in regulations.

Pvt. Guy Hamlin, Co. E, 29th, notably the most bashful man on the nost, is hemmed in a corner by three beautiful femmes at the fights on Wednesday, but gallantly plays host to the ladies from Phoenix City for the remainder of the evening. And the Enlisted Men's Athletic Association invites the judiciary of Chattahoochee County as guests to the fights, thereby following the classic example of carrying coals to Newcastle.

The 29th Infantry football team, on the prod at last after losing four games in four starts, wallop the Atlanta Firecrackers, 36-7 and primes itself for the battle with Brewton Parker College on Friday. While definite news that the Lupton College eleven included nine Oglethorpe var-(Please turn to page 8)

naw method of transporting chow from the plate to his alimentary canal (the first cousin to the famous Holland Tunnel), kept the lead from the very start, and was finally ceded the crown with a new high of thirty-The mess sergeant at last had to boot the new champion from the dining room still hungry!

Husky Milligan, whose massive tonnage burdens the scales at 97, announces that he's going on another diet so that his girl-fried will be able tot reach around him twice!

Burrhead Wallace may still be found, evenings, turning the dials of ye old Philco, trying to get his fav-orite crooner, "Guy Lumbago."

Private Ritchie was razzberried in a big way last Sunday at the football massacre when ,on seeing the crowd leaving before the game was over, yelled, "Don't leave! They're going to issue doughnuts and coffee at Harp's pond at six bells!" Ritchie insists it's a joke. Am I English?

COMPANY "H"

Well, contrary to popular belief. Travis did not re-enlist. The boys all had him doped out for another hitch, but as usual he did the unexpected.

Sollie is back from his furlough and full of stories of life in dear old Florida. Two more boys from Alabama, Brown and Walker, reported in from furlough during the past week and they too are full of renewed vitality.

John (Crooner) Cochran, (Crosby's only rival) is learning quite a few of the latest hits and he gives the boys in the first section a treat ever so often (more often than they want him we are afraid).

-Steve

83rd F. A.

HQ., HQ. BATTERY AND C. T. Well, Well, we are on the air again with the news and lots of scandal. Cpl. Narhring the well known boy about town has gone to the hospital for a short stay. Cpl Nahring attended a meeting of Crusaders and when the free lunch was passed Cpl. Nahring hurt his leg in the scuffle.

The battery had a problem this week with the 29th Infantry, it was a command post exercise. The system of communications worked 100 per cent. The pack animal took off at the end of the problem with pack and all in the direction of the post. It passed a few of the 29th Infantry communication carts and the mules by some pass word took off with the pack horse and mule carts and were all over Davis Hill

Lt. Thomas is back with the battery for a short stay of duty. He has been ordered to the Hawaiian Islands for duty with the Field Artillery at that station. We are all sorry to lose him as he was well liked by all the officers and men of the battery.

—C. H. S.

Company G Still In 24 Basketball Lead

Company G, due to the efforts of McLarkins' educated eye, is still out in front in the race for the 24th basketbåll title, having added two victories to the string in the past week. Company E has moved up into second place, with C and Headquarters dropping one peg each from their former positions. Company A, is still trailing the pack in the tail position.

McLarkin has added 19 points to his total to retain his lead in the scoring. Johnson has replaced Ellerby in second place, the latter dropping below Trammel. Baugh is still in the running and overhauling Ellerby fast.

League standing and scores:

Team	Games	Won	Lost	Pct
Co. G	8	8		1.000
Co. E	8	6		.750
Co. C	8	5	3
Hq. Co	7	4	3
Co. F	8	4		.500
Co. B	8	3	5	.375
Serv. Co	7	1	6	.167
Co. A	8	_0 ·	. 8	.000

UNNATURAL ARITHMETIC

'If you had eight pennies and lost hree, how many would have left?" Little Cohen thought for a minute.

"But for vy," was his puzzled reply, "should I lose three pennies?" N. Y. Guardsman.

Dr. R. H. Brown

Res. 1153

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg. Phones Office 4108

Drs. Miller & Davis

Dog and Cat Hospital 1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

Electric and Gas Service

Dependable

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY A Citizen Wherever We Serve

> 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

This cake is made of two layers of white with Devils' Food cake in between. It is deliciously frosted on the sides with chocolate and on top with white icing.

SPECIAL FOR THE WEEK-END

COLLINS BAKING CO.

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

(Continued from page 5) tried to help too much. I only made a 196. Otherwise I'd of made a sure

"The second time over the gun put the initial of the company in the application square, wrote my first name in the traverse, my second in the search, and my last name in the obli-There are only seven letters

HERALD WANT ADS

cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

Beautiful Red Tabby Orange Persian-Female-8 months old. Apt. H-3W —Dimon Court

WANTED: Boy's bicycle, small or medium frame—also 16 or 20 gauge repeating shotgun, preferably Remington. F. B. 456.

LARGE furnished room for rent-Apply 1413 - 2nd Avenue.

the last space of the oblique with an exclamation point. It was just a little too enthusiastic and got the dot of the exclamation mark about an eighth of an inch too low. That was the only shot that went out for a score of 199.

When we went to France the guns get mixed up and I got a new one. I used the same system with fine success. If you ever make a trip over there you'll find my initials shot all over that Rock on the Marne. But I never did get another gun quite as well trained as that first one.

"It's kindness and patience that does it. Over in the Third Section there always trying to find better ways to train the men into machine gunners. If they'd pay more attention to training the gun like I do they'd get somewhere

COL. JEWETT LEAVES

(Continued From Page 1)

Command and General Staff School, one of the highest military in stitutions in this country, Colonel Jewett is a member of the General Staff unless they refrain from biting the Corps Eligible List, and was awarded mouthpiece off.

TRAIN THE GUN, NOT THE MAN! in my last name so it wound up in a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Minnesota in 1901.

The orders assigning him as com manding officer to Fort Moultrie, the post, where, during the Revolutionary War Sergeant Jasper leaped upon the ramparts and held aloft the flag that had been shot down by the British, came soon after his promotion to Colonel and he will take up the assignment within the next few days.

> THE MORNING REPORT (Continued from page 7)

sity players in its line-up it made

The 2nd Battalion basketeers announce that they are hot after the post title this year, with the return of Dilley, former post star, and the addition of a number of new players to the Old Reliables. And the 1st Battalion champs responded that they are set toretain their penant, when the league starts.

The N. C. O. Club of the I. S. D threatens to pass a by-law forbidding all master sergeants and first sergeants using the club phone for city service

FOR LOW COST LIFE INSURANCE

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Home Office, Newark, N. J.

ROBISON BROWN, JR.

Special Agent, Ordinary Department LIFE INSURANCE — ANNUITIES

210 MURRAH BLDG.

'PHONE 1637

Jigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U.S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgiaa few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

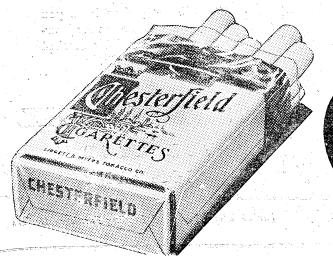

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months $-2\frac{1}{2}$ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

esterfield

the cigarette that's MILDER
the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

VOLUME III

FORT BENNING, GA., NOVEMBER 24, 1933

Million Dollars Awarded In Contracts

Of Dramatic Club

The Infantry School Dramatic Club will present "The Bad Man", a clever comedy in three acts, by Porter Emerson Browne, at the Post Main Theatre on December 8th and 9th. The cast for this delightfully different play is composed almost entirely of seasoned actors and actresses who are well known veterans of the Benning stage. This comedy, which follows he Dramatic Club's opening production of the season, "Let Us Be Gay", is under the co-direction of Major Henry B. Lewis, who is remembered for his polished acting in the plays of the past which have made history for the Infantry School Dramatic Club, and Mrs. Lewis, who is also an experienced

The setting for this melodramatic western comedy is laid on the Mexican Border in the period just following the World War. Gilbert Jones, a youthful Easterner, had persuaded his whimsical old uncle a few month before the war to buy a cattle ranch on the border. Upon Jones' return from the battlefields, he finds the ranch in a state of abject ruin and has to pay a large mortgage to keep from losing the property. The uncle strongly urges Jones' marriage to a wealth girl, Angela Hardy, as a way around the difficulty. Jones objects to being sold off to the girl. To further complicated matters, Mr. Morgan Pell, a shrewd land speculator, and his charming young wife, Lucia, a former sweetheart of Jones, arrive at the ranch for an untimely visit. Pell, with characteristic overbearance to all, arouses the animosity of the entire household. Upon this vexatious dilemma descends, like a thunderbolt, an uninvited and unwelcomed guest in the person of Pancho Lopez, a bloodthirsty Mexican bandit, whose methods of solving the pending problems prove startling and most amusing.

Major Lewis Heads Cast

An excellent cast, composed of actors and actresses of wide experience, is headed by the popular Post Adjutant, Major Henry B. Lewis, whose acting contributed much to the success of "The Red Mill", "Holliday", "Is Zat So?", and "The Best People". Major Lewis will portray the sinster but likable Gilbert Jones, the young Easterner just back from the war, will be played by Lieutenant James R. Pierce, whose outstanding talent is well known to the theare-goers of Fort Benning. Captain Walter C. Phillips, who starred in "Miss Lula Bett", has been assigned the part of the crabbed and invalid uncle. Lieutenant Aloysius O'Flaherty, who has taken part in many former presentations, will be the villain, Morgan Pell. The rolee of Lucia Pell will be taken by Mrs. Walter C. Phillips, who capably handled the lead in "Paris Bound". In supporting roles will appaer Mrs.

(Please turn to page 3)

Officer's Club Is AnticipatingMerry

Christmas Season

The fact that a larger percentage of officers than ever before are to remain at the post during the Christmas season this year will undoubtedly add much to the merriment and festivity of the Yuletide, according to Lt. H. G. Dowdall, the Secretary of the Officers' Club. The Club itself, says Lt. Dowdall is already making plans for a much more entertaining holiday season than it has seen for some time, and its Christmas season program, which has already been partly completed, is one in which variety and enjoyment are mixed in the fullest degree.

Because of the fact that New Year's Day falls on Monday, the customary dance on New Year's Eve will not be held. Instead, the Club is sponsoring a theatre party, begining at nine o'clock, and a caberet party will be afterwards held at the Club after the stroke of twelve. In addition, the dances and entertainments which usually precede Thanksgiving and Christmas will be likewise as colorful as they have always been. Lt. Dowdall promises the "stay-at-homes" this year a lively time.

Colonel Michie Is To Be Stationed At Fort McClellan

Lieutenant Colonel Henry C. Michie, Medical Corps, who has heen on duty at the station hospital, Fort Benning, Georgia, as chief of the medical service since September, 1931, left this post today enroute to Fort McClellan, Ala., where he has been assigned by War Department order.

Colonel Michie has been on active duty with the medical service of the United States Army since 1909, when he was commissioned a first lieutenant in the reserve and ordered to active duty. His commission in the regular forces came in 1911, and three years later he received the grade of captain, reg-ular army, following his gradua-School. Upon the entry of this country into the World War in 1917, he was promoted to the rank of major, regular army, and a month later to lieutenant colonel, national army, from which commission he reverted to his regular rank of major in 1920. Just prior to his assignment to duty at Fort Ranning, when he was serving at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, he received his promotion to lieutenant colonel.

Colonel Michie has graduated from Virginia Polytcehnic Insti--(Please turn to page 3)

Barracks and Apartment Quarters Are To Be Built

Another large contract for the construction of new quarters at Fort Benning, amounting almost to one million dollars, was let at Fort Benning Tuesday afternoon, according to information from the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of the post, when the D. M. W. Constructing company, Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y., was announced as the low bidder on the construction of 30 4-family apartments to house officers of the post. The bid of the D. M. W. Company was $991,850.

Work on the project, according to terms of the contract, must begin within twenty days of the award. The buildings are to be located in the vicinity of the polo fields, in the area bounded by Lumpkin road, the 1st Division Road, the Polo field, and Madden Avenue.

Bids on the construction of these buildings were opened on Nov. 16, and the name of the low bidder, together with the amount of the bid forwarded to the office of the Quartermaster General at Washington, D. C. for approval.

$745,750 For Barracks

The Southern Ferro Construction Company, of Atlanta, Georgia, was awarded the bid for the construction of the 24th Infantry Barracks at Fort Benning, on Saturday, Nov. 18, according to word received at the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, construction quartermaster of the post. The Southern Construction Company's bid, which was low among nine submitted by firms throughout this section of the country, amuonted ot $745,750.

The bids were opened on November 14 in Captain Jabelonsky's office, and the low one forwarded to the War Department at Washington, D. C., for approval. This building, when completed, will conform with the design origtion from the Army Medical inally laid out for the Infantry School, and will be of the same type as the one now being constructed for the Special Units. It will further the plan of the War Department to have all the organizations of Fort Benning housed in buildings of permanent construction in the near future.

The site of the new construction project will be that where the Field Artillery stables were once located, just west of the Tank Barracks. and across the street from Dispensary A. The plot of ground has already been cleared by post worktute, class of 1903, holding a men and construction will start at at early date.

Horseshow To Take Place December 9th

The annual fall horse-show is scheduled to take place on December 9th this year, according to information from post headquarters, and the equestrians have begun to unlimber equipment and test the jumps in anticipation of the event.

Ten classes are scheduled for the show, with eliminations to be run off prior to December 9th. At the present time no definite date has been for these. Children have been declared ineligible for entry, plans having been made for children's show next spring.

The different events include two classes of enlisted men's jumping, polo pony bending race, novice jumping, officers' chargers, handy hunters, ladies' hacks, hunt teams, ladies' jumping, and climax of the show, the junning sweepstakes.

The show this year will follow the procedure in force during the past, with all entries required to be made before Dec. 1.

Benning Glee Club To Have Different Types Of Shows

The Fort Benning Glee Club met at 7:30 Monday evening, at the 29th Infantry Theatre of the post take up matters of importance to the club and also have a rehearsal of the activities which they have scheduled for the coming seasonal

The Glee Club of the Infantry School was formally initiated into the entertainment fields of Fort Benning over ten years ago, and has enjoyed continual success over that period of years, until now they have lost the air of amateurs and taken up their productions in the manner of professionals in height of attainment.

This years the club is working under a handicap as Mr. Erwin H. Vonderau, of Columbus, who has been serving as musical director, ecause of failing health has been ordered by his physician to discontinue work except with private pupils and his choir. Attempts to secure another musical director have failed and at the insistence of the committee in charge Lieutenant Joseph I. Greene, 29th Infantry, who has had considerable experience with chorus and choir direction, consented to take over the direction of music.

The members of the club have arrived at the conclusion that a following on the order of operettas and like productions are out of the question this year, instead the Glee Club will give a number of concerts

(Please turn to page 3)

Western Comedy $1,737,600 AWARDED IN CONTRACTS DURING PAST Riverside Cadets ToBe Next Offering WEEK FOR CONSTRUCTION UNDER ALLOTMENT To Visit Benning As Part Of Course

23 cadets, seniors at the Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Georgia, and members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, will arrive at Fort Benning today at 12:00 o'clock for a visit and observation of the tactical movements of the 29th Infanrty. The cadets will be under the charge of Captain Robert A. McClure, who is well-known at Benning, where he has served as a 1st Lieutenant in the 29th and is a graduate of the Company Officers' Class of 1923, Captain McClure also was on duty in the Academic Department and was in charge of the Infantry School Stables. He is a prominent poloist and is well-remembered for his activities in this sport while at the Infantry School.

The students of the Riverside Academy will come to Fort Benning as a part of their training and during the course of their visit here will make a study of the demonstrative movements of the crack infantry unit. On Friday they shall see the tactics of a platoon in attack, with a demonstration of each phase of the subject. Following this the men will witness a battalion communication set-up, and receive an explanation of the intricacies of army communication. In the afternoon a communication platoon and intelligence section will demonstrate the position it holds in modern warfare and display the part it plays while in action. close of the day's schedule will be an anti-aircraft demonstration by a rifle section of the regiment.

Saturday they will see the organization of a machine gun company and study the forming of combatant units in war preparation. This will be followed by a battalion parade, exhibiting the training to which soldiers are subjected at the Infantry School. Next on the schedule a Howitzer Company will be formed and the distinctive difference between this organization and a machine gun company explained. Prior to lunch

(Please turn to page 8)

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The Infantry football team girded its loins for the coming battle with the Marines, slated for November 24, avowing to repeat their 1922 victory of 15-0. And also primed for the Oglethorpe game on November 17.

4,000 listeners crowded into the new gymnasium to listen to Rabbi Marx, of Atlanta, deliver the Armistice Day address, and to witness the ceremony.

The 24th Infantry eleven downed the Fort Valley team by the score of 73-0 in a breathless track meet in the driving park.

Wedding Of Miss Phyllis Sargent And Lt. Wm.

B. Moore Brilliant Affair Of Last Wednesday

daughter of Captain and Mrs. Charles Richard Sargent became the bride, Wednesday evening, of testant Chapel. Chaplain Willis T. Howard officiated.

The church was beautifully dec-

IDEA!

The birth of an idea!

She's just decided to give Silver's a try and she's still exuberant over the plan! Why don't you, too, come in for any of the little necessary articles you want? You're sure to find them here — at

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY AND 11th ST.

amazingly low prices.

Miss Phyllis Sargent, the only orated with smilax and white chrysanthemums. The altar was banked by tall graceful baskets Lieutenant William B. Moore, at brilliant ceremony at the Pro- while white tapers burned in while white tapers burned in seven-branched candelabra on either side. During the ceremony all lights were extinguished except that cast by the candles, which lighted the chapel with a soft glow.

The nuptial music was furnished by members of the 29th Infantry Band, who played throughout the ceremony. The ushers who served as groomsmen were Lieut. Theodore Decker, Lieut. Sidney Brown, Lieut. Stephen Fuqua, Lieut. C. E. N. Howard, Lieut. Edwin Rowan and Lieut. Orville Mullikin.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, was a vision in her Parisian wedding gown of ivory faille, fashioned floor length. Her exquisite lace veil was an heirloom, caught to her head by a tightfitting cap of tulle fringed by the She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Sargent, matron of honor and her daughter's only attendant, wore a stunning gown of apple green moire trimmed with shoulder lapels of ivory velvet—four trains to the skirt lent an excit-ing note. She wore a tight-fitting turban of ivory velvet with accessories to match.

Lt. Richard Smith was the groom's best man.

Following the ceremony, the Sargents entertained with a reception and dance at the Polo-The Club was dec-Hunt club. orated with palms and silver vases filled with white chrysanthemums. Receiving with Capt. and Mrs.

Sargent were the bride and groom, Lt. Smith and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James Hiram Brooks of California.

The bride's cake, which she cut with her husband's saber, was a lovely white, tiered affair, embossed with valley lilies.

During the ceremony the bride and groom departed for the wedding trip which they will spend in New York, attending, en route, the Army-Navy game in Philadelphia. The bride's going-away costume was a stylish suit of brown tweed, trimmed with grey fox fur. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

Lt. and Mrs. Moore will be at home at Fort Benning after December fifteenth.

ENGAGEMENT MISS WELTY TO LIEUT. HOWARD AN-NOUNCED

Holding the center of interest throughout the Army is the anouncement of the engagement of Miss Sara Elizabeth Welty, daughter of Major and Mrs. Maurice D. Welty, to Lieutenant Charles E. N. Howard, Jr. both of Fort Benning. Miss Welty is one of Fort Benning's loveliest and most talented members of the debutante set which has entitled her to a wide circle of friends throughout Columbus and on the Post. She attended school in Mankato, Minnesota, and in Washington, D. C. Lt. Howard graduated from the U.S. Military Academy with the class of 1931. Upon graduating, he received his orders to Fort Benning with the 83rd Field Artillery. Plans for the wedding have not been completed, however it is expected to take place early in the New Year.

FIRST DINNER DANCE OF SEASON TO BE HELD ON THANKSGIVING EVE AT OF-FICERS' CLUB

One of the most important social events of the Thanksgiving season will be the dinner dance to be held Wednesday, Thanksgiving eve, at the Officers' Club. This will be the first of a series of dinner dances to be sponsored by the Officers' Club. Wednesday's affair will commence at 8:15 o'clock and dancing will be enjoyed until midnight. A delicious four-course turkey dinner with all the "trimmings" is being planned. A capacity crowd is expected and already a number of reservations have been made including: Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall, Major and Mrs. William L. Roberts, Major and Mrs. Charles P. Hall, Major Peter P. Salgado, Capt. and Mrs. John A. Andrews, Lieut. and Mrs. Claude B. Ferenbaugh, Lieut. and Mrs. Mrs. Francis J. Gillespie and Lieut. Washington M. Ives, Lieut. and and Mrs. Forrest A. Hornisher.

MIXED BRIDGE TOURNEY HELD MONDAY EVENING AT THE OFFICERS' CLUB.

The series of bridge tournaments which are being held every Monday evening at the Officers' Club have proven to be a decided success. This Monday evening the third mixed tournament was held. Fourteen tables assembled which were divided into sections of seven tables each. Winning honors for the evening's play were: First section-North and South, Lieut.

Herald Want Ads

CLASSIFIED ADV. RATES

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

FREE: Present this notice to Officers' Club for a free sample of Pepso-Ginger for indigestion.

and Mrs. Cleland C. Sibley, Second place, Major and Mrs. Paul W. Bade. East and West, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. Stuart. Second place, Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis and Mrs. Andrew J. Evans. Second Section—North and South, Lieut. and Mrs. Russell G. Emery, Second, Capt. and Mrs. Phillip T. Fry. East and West, Mrs. Joseph A. Atkins and Colonel William E. Persons, second place, Mrs. Charles F. Colson and Mrs. Francis J. Gil-

(Please turn to page 3)

Special Sale

Monday & Tuesday Only

Picture Frames Etchings and Prints

MargaretHarrison At Rosenbergs

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

Our flowers this Thanksgiving will do more to brighten your home than anything

Benning Boulevard Nurseries

TELEPHONE 4176

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS_____ RESOURCES OVER_____

....$ 600,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

THANKSGIVING

We hardly need to tell you that we'll have all the "trimmings" for your Thanksgiving dinner. It has become a custom to expect the Grocery Department to have everything that might be needed-and to have it when called for.

Cranberries — celery — Apples — and last of all — turkey — all these we have, ready for your a real one — the best you have ever had!

Telephone 16 or 17 for the Grocery Department at any time during open

POST EXCHANGE

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service

A CONVENIENT WAY TO BUY YOUR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS!

Our "Lay-Away" plan will afford you a very convenient way of making Christmas purchases. Just purchase an article, make a down payment, and we'll hold it for Christmas delivery. You need only pay a little each month.

C. SCHOMBURG & SON JEWELERS Phone 478

The Six Box gives vou Coca Cola in its handiest form.

Let Coca-Cola Chase Your Thirst Away!

Coca-Cola is the greatest thirst-chaser ever invented! It will refresh you and at the same time give you greater pleasure than anything you've ever drunk. Always ask for Coca-Cola, the name is your guarantee of satisfaction.

Make the pause that refreshes a part of your daily routine

The Six-Box is sold by all Columbus Grocers

SOCIETY

(ontinued from page 2) GLEE CLUB HOLDS MEETING MONDAY EVENING.

The most important meeting of the Fort Benning Glee Club which has been held this season took place on Monday evening at the 29th Infantry theatre. Plans were made and scheduled for the Winter. For several years the Glee Club has been fortunate in securing talented Mr. H. Vondereau of Columbus as musical director. This year Mr. Vondereau will not be able to continue outside of his private pupils necessitating the discontinuance of the more difficult operattas for the number of concerts, as has been the custom for several years. The Club plans to carols, and Christmas Eve mem- | football games. bers will tour the Post singing. The officers appointed for this vear are: President, Capt. Howard Clark, 2nd Vice-president, Mrs. Norman D. Cota, Treasurer, Lieut. Carl F. Duffner, Secretary, Lieut. Joseph B. Coolidge and Accompanists, Mesdames Norman D. Cota, John E. Nelson, and William H. Schildroth.

PERSONALS

Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Bowen departed Monday for Philadelphia to attend the Army-Navy game. While away they will spend a few weeks in New York.

Lieut. Malin Craig, Jr. left Sunday by motor for a month's leave. While away he will attend the resume its program of Christmas Army-Navy and Army-Notre Dame

Mrs. Orryl S. Robles plans to spend the coming week-end in Gainesville, Florida where she will atend the Auburn-Florida game on Saturday returning to Fort Benning with Capt. Robles who has been on C. C. C. duty in Florida.

Ft. Benning Garden Club Holds First Meeting Last Mon.

The first meeting of the Garden Club, held on November 20th at the home of Mrs. Frank Heileman, brought together an enthusiastic group of women of Benning who are interested in gardens and in beautifying the Post.

Mrs. Heileman spoke on what the club had accomplished during the past year and gave some constructive ideas for future work. Mr. W. E. Joy, of the Joy's Flower Shop in Columbus, then gave an instructive talk on bulbs for indoor and outdoor planting. He showed several varieties of bulbs and demonstrated their planting. Mrs. R. W. Pearson displayed to the Club a most interesting indoor winter garden, grown in a large pickle jar. A delightful tea ended the meeting, and the club, with the cooperation of the Commandant and Mrs. Estes, is looking forward to a highly successful year.

DRAMATIC CLUB SECOND PLAY

(Continued from page 1) George H. McManus, Miss Anne Ryan, Lieutenant Henry B. Kunzig, Captain S. S. McLaughlin, Lieutenant Sidney C. Wooten, Lieutenant Howard W. Quinn, and Lieutenant Arthur L. Cobb.

Captain Virgil Bell, who desined the beautiful stage settings for "The Road To Rome" and "Let Us Be Gay", has been selected for stage manager. Mrs. William H. Hobson, who has arranged for the costumes with a leading Hollywood studio, will be costume designer. The play is to be under the co-direction of Major and Mrs. Lewis. The curtain will rise at 8:45 on the nights of December 8th and 9th at the Main Theatre on this second production of the Infantry School Dramatic Club.

COLONEL MICHIE LEAVES

(Continued from page 1) Bachelor of Science degree from that school; and from the University of Virginia, class of 1907, from which he holds his M. D. degree. He is recognized as one of the foremost dieticians of the army, and a few years ago he prepared a booklet on dietetics which is now in use by the leading railroads and steamship lines of the country, as the first attempt ever made to supply special diets to passengers.

During the period of reconditionin of the C. C. C. last summer, Colonel Michie was ordered on detached duty to Pocatello, Idaho, and was only recently relieved to return to Fort Benning.

GLEE CLUB BEGINS WORK

(Continued from page 1) at times to be announced after the meeting of the members. From indications at present the Glee will furnish their talent at the dedicatory ceremony of the new Officers' Club, which will be dedicated upon its completon in the near future.

This year the club plans to resume the singing of Christmas Carols, which up until two years ago had been the custom on the post, and on Christmas night they will tour the residential and barracks sections of Fort Benning in keeping with an event of English origin that dates back several hundred years.

The officers of the Glee Club for the year 1933-34 are as follows: Captain Howard Clark, president; Mrs. Norman D. Cota, vice-president; Mrs. Guy C. McKinley, librarian; Lieutenant Joseph B. Coolidge, secretary; and Lieutenant Carl H. Duffner, treasurer.

KEEP IN STYLE FOR THE XMAS SEASON!

This is Tuxedo time!!! Is yours one designed in the latest pattern or is it one that is worn out by several years' wear? We have a complete stock of tuxedos, each of which is moderately priced and perfectly made.

Dress for the occasion

Kuppenheimer "Cavalier"

Varsity Town "Prom"

"Master Tux"

VISIT OUR BOYS' SHOP

2nd Floor

HOFFLIN and GREENTREE

Columbus' Leading Clothiers

ESTABLISHED 1888

Main Floor

KIRVEN'S

Phone 328

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

NOVEMBER 24, 1933 VOLUME IIII NO. 31 _____Publisher

L. C. Kunze. A. F. Kunze_______Felicia C. Howell______ Society Editor Sports Editor Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

BY MAJOR HOMER L. CONNER, Medical Inspector

THE MENACE OF OVERWEIGHT The principal dangers of overweight are:

1. Diabetes.

Degenerative disease of the heart, arteries, kidneys and liver. Diabetes is almost always a disease that follows or accompanies that diet plays the important role. Six persons that are overweight will have diabetes to one that is underweight.

Degenerative diseases shorten Thirty three persons that are overweight will show degenerative changes of the heart, arteries, liver or kidneys to give that are underweight. Gall bladder disease and gall stones are much more common in people that are overweight.

There are four main causes for obesity:

1. Over eating and over drink-

A disturbance of secretion of the endocrine glands.

3. A disease of the central nervous system.

4. The family type (hereditary) The family characteristic of overweight is the most common group but even in these cases, when carefully analyzed, we find

Most such families pride themselves on the food table they set.

They have for generations literally eaten themselves into early graves. History shows that the members of these families die from degenerative diseases tween the ages of 45 to 60.

The treatment of obesity due to overeating is simple, but it is only successful when the patient cooperates.

A rapid reduction of weight is not advisable, nor is it usually of lasting success. Relapse to the former good eating habits is the usual rule. Self control is wanting.

Reflections Of A Student

not a drop of gas in the old tank. Such was the plight of one of our better known socialites last Sunday morn. Here was a situation de- the above paragraphs manding the best training our fine old school could impart. Nothing daunted, our hero remembered his spec. From the bottom of his heart came the "fire", uttered at a well delivered rate, and from his feet came the "movement". Thus the obstacle was overcome, and the home objective reached at five!

The local big game has come and gone, thanks heavens, and provided quite an upset. Interesting that is, from the viewpoint of army rooters, who heretofore had been having an overdose of "Georia" administered by ardent southern sports writers. These fellows are naturally prone to boost their home teams, a praiseworthy trait to be sure, but we fear that some of them lack a few of those sporting qualities so necessary to the athletics of which they write. Georgia's defeat was heart breaking to her supporters, hoping for an unbeaten team, and Monday brought forth all sorts of excusforth in Monday of undefeated football teams at this time of year, one is almost if there had been a Benning "leadcertain to find a plush-lined, heavily upholstered schedule. That goes for Army, Princeton and Duke."

And here's Joe McGill in the Constitution, on the same date.

"Duke continued on her way to the Rose Bowl. It appears that Duke will be the team selected, because there is no Eastern team, unless it be Princeton, which merits the bid."

The theory of comparative scores has fallen time and again, but still remains the strongest criterion followed by sports writers. It's too bad then, that these men soso loudly deprecate their own pos-

Four A. M., six miles to go, and | tulates, when for once these postulates carried the right dope. Army, by all sorts of scores has a stronger team than Georgia, and smacks strongly of sour grapes.

> The Georgia-Auburn game brought all kinds of color to Columbus and did furnish a mighty fine brand of football to fans in this section. The best team won a well earned victory, and her supporters were not loath to celebrate. Anyone being on Columbus streets, either before or after the game, vouchsafe this. Singing, shouting, wrangling, confetti throwing groups brought back college memories, and headaches, to that evening and it seemed that every one from miles around was there. What a jostling uproarious crowd that was. At a dollar a couple though, the old coffers must be well filled. Advertising does pay, but a sign carried around the stadium between halves didn't appear very exclusive!

The dance ended at twelve, despite an alleged error on the announcement giving the closing as es. For example, listen to Ed Dan- two. However we confess the time "If one peers behind the record ing over cigarette butts and sand over again. This time we found is not any too restful. Maybe out" along with all the rest, our frame of mind would have been Hearn passing in review before us softened. All in all, it was a pretty nice party!

The first marks of the course were eased out last week, (to the accompaniment of groans, wails, and disappearing aspirins), and the time couldn't have been better chosen. Henderson, Baird and Smith were among the more for-tunate in the quest for "A's," but the majority dropped far below their estimated average. The inner workings and hidden mechanisms of the powers do seem a bit strange at times, but doubtless (Please turn to page 10)

BENNING DAY-

BY-DAY By MAJOR RAMBLE

Fort Benning, Nov. 20-Somewhat in the nature of a small boy who feels keenly the desire for possescion of something similar to (or better than) that which his buddy can boast of, we have felt a slight tinge of envy at our brethren of Company Officers' Class in that they have been able to claim as their own a teacher with an Adolph Hitleresque moustache. Until now we have been unnecessarily sensitive at our own class' inferiority in matching this with a similar boast until it dawned on us that one of our own kin possesed one more reminiscent of Hitler than Hitler himself. We refer to none other than our good friend, Gadget Waterbury.

Speaking of lip-shrubbery reminds us that we ourselves at one time had attempted a similar cultivation but for some reason it was exasperatingly slow in blooming. It might almost have been a case. in football terminology, of a little down with a moustache to go, were it not for the fact that eventually, by assiduous care and a plentiful supply of cosmetics, we finally managed to raise one strangely resembling the handlebar type of the Gay Nineties.

This had been our aim right from the start. We began to have a feeling that with it went a certain dignity the average mortal could never attain. One morning, however, after a particularly damp night, to our deep chagrin we gazed into our shaving-mirror drooped. The distinction of ownership of even this type of facial adornment was shortlived when we walked down the street only to have people start throwing fish to

And speaking of fish reminds us of a nightmarish recurrence a few nights ago quite similar to an earlier experience when logistics and the written monograph had us all on the verge of the galloping jitters. We are not sufficiently well versed in Freudian, analysis to isolate the real cause of such a wakeful night but we are rather prone to suspect a particular map problem conducted during the day by Supply Major Hearn, a problem purposely designed, by someone in a satanic mood, to violate all principles.

At any rate, whether or not it was this incident that set us all of a dither is beside the point. Suffice it to say that whatever it was the effect was one that is not easily forgotten. We have somewhat of a vague recollection of a few of The Cotillion Club entertained the essential details, chief of which was a sort of merry-go-round composed of service and field trains, combat and company trains, and a few "it depends upon the train's" sandwiched in. At any rate when it revolved near enough for us to reach out and grab it we awoke in a semi-daze to find we had a deathclutch on the bed post and a halfnelson on Mrs. Ramble.

This in itself was enough to snuggled down with our head under ourselves struggling with an octopus marked "Supply" when from out of nowhere appeared Major dragging a string of red herrings across our trail, followed in due time by Major Robinson dangling a line plentifully supplied with sardines in cans, evidently a B-ration.

This vision was apparently a throw-back to an announcement made by the genial Major Hearn at the beginning of the course to the effect that Ethiopians in the woodpile would be conspicuously absent. It is of belated interest to note that while this promise has been religiously kept, no mention was made of red herring.

Kraft with a rabbit full of hats, any visitors... How does that quesfurther evidence that a few aces in the hole had been carefully set aside for casual injection into supply problems to avoid routine performance on the part of John Student. Last, but by no means least, came a vision of a battle-scarred tank with Captain Clark riding atop with a five gallon bowl of gold-fish.

Now gold-fish are not herring and are hardly classified as sardines or salmon until properly greased and canned and for a moment this had us sort of non-plussed. It soon developed, however, that these were to feed the dead cats strewn in our path by all four of these estimable gentlemen. Unlike the dead cats referred to by N. R. A. Johnson these were inaended only as attention-diverters with no ulterior motive intended, playfully hurled to keep us out of

This nightmare must have been potent in effect as it ended with Mrs. Ramble shrieking, "Major, come down from that chandelier!" There is nothing like a good herring with a garbage-can scene—it may not be digestible but it is certainly capable of giving us a headache trying to forget it.

Thoughts of a Monographer: A Week Before

Boy, wait till I give mine. . . I'll knock 'em cold. . . This subject will sure keep 'em interested. . Hafta make a snappy talk out of it that'll knock 'em right out of their seats. . . Give 'em a general idea and hten start working on 'em. . . Bang! . . . Drive the fist point home. . . Tell 'em with ringing tones what happened next. Bang!... Show 'em where General "A" was wrong... Bang!... only to discover that the ends had Keep 'em in suspense. . . Build up that next situation strong. Give 'em a vivid picture of it all and then spring the question. . . Bang! . . . Thank you, General "A" did so and so. . . And now we turn to. . . It'll sure impress 'em when they hear me rattle it off without notes. . . Boy, I can't wait till the day comes. . . Nothing to it.

Two Days Before This map looks terrible. . . Wonder how much of a cut they'll give me for it? . . . Does anybody get a "D" on a monograph? . . . My wife looked at me sort of funny then when I asked for dessert. . . I didn't remember eating it. . Wonder what it will be like to be on the platform?... Why did the all grades to date... maid look at me like that? . . . Can't a fellow mumble to himself?

. . Which hand should I hold the pointer in? . . . "Ladies and gen- of cold lunches and uniforms for tlemen"..... No, better not start a few days as the first third of the that way, maybe there won't be school year draws to a close.

tion go? ... Good heavens, wonder if I'll forget like that in front of the class. . . How do they expect a fellow to study before a monograph anyway? . . . Let's try it again... November thirty-first?... No, that can't be right. . . It was in the Spring. . . May the er-er-er. .. Have I forgoten already?..

What, it happened in March? . Good thing I caught that. . . I can't possibly keep going for twenty-five minutes when I've got stage-fright just thinking about it. . . Funny how easy it looks when Major Eagles does it. . . How should I stand when I'm talking? . . Place yourself in the position of General "A". . . What in the world comes next? . . I'm getting scared already... Wonder if they'll let me out of it?

Two Minutes Before

Here comes Captain Phillips getting ready to take notes . . .Wonder if my tie's on straight? . . . Do I look as non-chalant as I know I'm not? . . . Will the bell get me? .. I'm having a hard time breathing naturally . . . What's that funny tattoo I hear? . . . What-my knees? . . . Gotta stop that right now . . . Heart, stop pounding and slip back where you belong . . There goes Major Eagles introducing me . . . What did I do with those notes? . . . Man, I thought I forgot them . . . Had them in my back pocket all the time . . . Didn't think I had so many . . . One last look . . . Come on, pocket, turn 'en loose . . . One last look to make sure they're straight . . . The Ace of spades. . . Oh, Lord, I put on the wrong breeches . . . How can I ever go through with it? . . . There he goes! GENTLEMEN

Just After Funny I never realized what a beautiful day it is!

Bagatelles: Ham Meyer winding up an A No. 1 monograph with

"Like a blind man looking in a coal bin on a dark night for a black cat that isn't there". . . Another group presentation on Tannenberg, to the great satisfaction of a visiting German general. . Learning from Howdy Clark that a six-ton tank consumes a gallon of gas each time it coughs. . . S-4 evacuating men, animals, and tanks . . Major Bonham's apt remark, There is apparently a difference of opinion. That's what makes horse-races." . . Expressions of pleasure and pain on receipt of Learning also that an estimate is an educated guess. . . Thoughts of turkey and cranberry sauce instead

29TH INFANTRY

HQ. CO., 1ST BN. column again after an unexcusable layoff. News around the communication outfit has been rather scarce tho, but we have finally managed to scrape up enough dope to give our kind readers a few minutes of perusual.

Sir Sid Shannon hsa been dea leader in the communication plabring forth a cold sweat and we toon. There was tears in his eyes when he was told that he would last but not least, Frank E. Smith know that the quadruped in question suffered slight palpitations of the heart upon learning of the change that has been made. Anyway the leader's position was turned over to "Mal" who takes to the job like a duck to water. A grave mistake was made the other day tho' when an assistant who went to the corrals with Snead attempted to harness Mal to the cart. The only trouble that the helper experienced was when he tried to put the bit in the Snipper's mouth and for said act of mistaken identity did receive one swift (G. I.) kick in the probuscus. (Whatever that is).

Our Company basketball quintet is rounding into shape under the Next in parade came Major careful supervision of Corporal Harold Ray, coach and captain of Greetings worl', back with the the "Brady Bomber" five. Last year the team was organized and coached by 1st Lieutenant Lynn E. Brady, Commander of this Headquarters outfit, hence the cog nomen, "Brady's Bombers". Mem bers of the hoop ringers sextet are Ripper Ray, Mal Snead, otherwise known as the snipper, Joe Knight throned from his high position as rangy center, "Left Jab" Prince 'Hiram" Hobbs, (so called on ac count of his country manners) and have to give "old Hutto" up and we all Bingville "standing forward who is sure to give a good account ing of himself in future contests.

COMPANY "H"

Quite a few members of the out fit were at the Georgia-Auburn game, although after the firs quarter some of them apparently forgot there was a game anywher near Columbus.

Joe Maltese was still wearing that glum look Monday. Our gues is that he dropped a V or two or the game. You have to be careful with the 'Bama' boys, Joe, they'l surprise you.

Arthur "Anti-Aircraft" Dawso says we have a man in the Com pany who has such a swelled hea that he ought to join the Navy o

(Please turn to page 5)

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 4) his next hitch so the world can see him. Now I wonder?

Corporal Barnett is back from furlough and remarks that he would have given a lot for ten days more. He has just learned about the night problem that comes off soon.

We have 2nd Lt. Gilmer in the company now. He was formerly with "G" Company. We are glad to have him in "H" Co.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

We are still having a fine time playing the indoor baseball game for the first period. There is very close competition between the wire section and the radio section. It is hard to pick the champions.

Sgt. Murphy and Hayes are getting the radio section to clicking

DRESS UP for Thanksgiving

We will assist you in presenting your best appearance for Thanksgiving. We can completely outfit you with the finest of tailored work and you'll agree that each of the garments is the best you ever bought.

Arthur Perlitius

"The Tank Tailor"

these days. They have been reorganized and put under the new NRA Code, according to the position they play best and several other fine fundamentals of the game. The wire section have the following instructors appointed to give their men instruction after supper every night. They are Brown, Thomas and Bunch.

Greeson is an addition to the Wire section and made a wonderful long running one hand spear of Ringenberg's would be home This was Greeson"s initial debut in the game. We are sorry to lose Dock Easley, transferred to Barksdale Field but we have Corporal Wilhite who is taking his place and we expect him to take up where Easley left off. Easley was one of our star baseball play-

We are glad to announce Pfc. Perry's apointment in the Regular Army Reserve as a Second Lieutenant. There are several of the boys growing a moustache now which helps their looks considerably.

Our basketball team is coming alon fine. Last week in a practice game they played Co. "E" 29th Infantry. Co. "E's" team has been the undefeated champions here for the past eight years.

Our company team is composed of Burgess, Greeson, Bigler, Coen, Bryant and Hayes. Hayes is on the football squad and will join the team after the football season.

Tech Sgt. Mitzen is taking a furlough at present and enjoying the opening of the present hunting

First Sergeant Houghtby is our model First Sergeant who is always on the job, keeping the boys

Note: We are offering $5.00 reward to a certain man to get a shave in the last chair of the 12th St. Barber Shop. You can see a black cat and it may bring you bad luck but this last chair is not in the black cat class.

SPILLING THE SCANDAL E. 29TH

Squirrel Landreth and "Hi" Davis returned from a hunting trip Wednesday afternoon with a small bag of game and a large very large, bag of tall hunting tales. "Squirrel" told one about the good old days when he was just a mess sergeant—he's been promoted to corporal now. It seems that "Squirrel", "Hi", and another friend went hunting, with but two guns for the three Nimis really going to give any team a lot of trouble. over the game in great style.

ENGINEERS

working for the 1st Sgt. last Saturday afternoon, and I expect that the Company Commander will find these two boys with two of the cleanest rifles in the outfit next Saturday at inspection. If not-

The Company now has another St. Sgt. St. Sgt. Slater reported in Tuesday morning from Panama, where he has been for several years. We hope that he enjoys serving

Sgts. McConnell and Tooze, are shot he had to surrender the gun to the one without a gun. And the system promoted accuracy in a big way, for "Squirrel" tells that they killed 53-not a typographical error-53 rabbits in less than three hours. Them wuz th' days,

'Farmer" Browning is wearing a most becoming black eye about the barracks. He says he was hit by a basketball—which is the modest "E" Company way, during the current season, of tellin of a disagreement with the girl-friend. I'm a fight-fan, too, but count me out when it comes to a lil' private spat with th' female Primo Car-

Attention wig-makers! Having tried hair-growing formulas galore without sprouting one lone little spring of hair on his very very nude pate, "Baldy" Tidmore declares he's going to get a wig! And the whole company is in a state of frenzied excitement over whether "Tid" is going to be a red-head

Dave Hood reports a decided they agreed upon a few weeks ago what a scrap! Maybe you'd better reconsider, "Smitty", for those rosy cheeks are beginning to lose "that school-girl complexion!

Give Furniture This Xmas!

Easy chairs, lamps, desks, secretaries, what-nots and many other useful articles.

Philco radios and Leonard Electric refrigerators.

Use our "Lay-Away" plan. Deliveries made as late as Christmas

We Didn't Forget the Kiddies

Velocipedes, fire-chief's cars, fire trucks.

dump trucks, automobiles, wagons desk sets and rockers.

Maxwell Bros. & McDonald

1140 BROADWAW

PHONE 460

The basketball team is looking better every day. They won from the I. S. D. No. 2 team last Thursday night by the score of 22-18. Bennet and Burnett looked especially good in this game. Monday night the team defeated the Ordnance team 20-19, it was really a hard fought game from start to finish. Burnett was sinking them from all parts of the floor, and was giving the Ordnance plenty of trouble al lthe way through. That boy Wednesday night the team plays the I. S. D. No. 1 team and they are pointing for this game and we all expect this to be the hardest game they will have. And here's hoping that they get LeBlanc and McDuffie were Well, I hope he does, anyway.

here as well as he did in Panama.

having quite a time getting settled

When a hunter missed a yam tellin' yuh!

nera!

or a platinum blonde!!

slump in his mail business since "Red" Smith and the girl-friend have declared that the armistice was but a scrap of paper—but

And Guy (Pretty Boy) Johnson is making the most of the repeal, (Please turn to page 7)

Quotations . . .

Availability of quotations on many markets is a benefit to investors in placing their orders. It has long been a policy of this firm to provide quotations on the principal security and commodity markets to accredited individuals.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER 13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EACHANGE

in their new quarters. I think that both of them will be mighty well pleased if they ever get settled in one place.

Bell and Sanford were away for a few days last week on pass. Both boys look as if they had a real good time while on pass.] wonder if the girls at home liked their soldier boys as well as they did before the boys joined the Army. How about it?

From the looks of several of the poys they must have had a great time at the Auburn-Georgia game. Crews is still wondering why it was that he spotted 7 points on Georgia. And Sgt. Tooze giving him (Crews) the runaround. And Joe Hill is still trying to get his vocal cord gack to normal.

Lassiter is still wondering why it is that a red headed person can move so fast. To tell the truth several of us are wondering the same thing.

The outfit turned out in force to welcome Dyas back from the Hospital. He had us all scared quite a little for a while. Don't let that happen again, will you, Bear?

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE SERVICE

We have done our part for National Industrial Recovery having signed the President's pledge.

It remains now for the Administration to do its part to correct the freeze and restore Service pay to its for-mer level.

We gladly contrib-ute our efforts and devote ourselves towards this end.

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

(New York)

MANUFACTURERS MILITARY AND NAVAL INSIGNIA AND EQUIP-MENT FOR HALF A MENT FO

Shoe & Hat Shop

Repairing

POST EXCHANGE PHONE 554

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

Thats A Secret!

Wait until the next issue of the Herald - then the whole town will be talking about it!

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Smith Back On Card At Benning Monday

To Meet Opponent Of Former Bouts

The big fight will be on Monday having been praying for for some time. And it has the looks of a natural. All four boys in the double wind-up are good fighters, and both pairs of fighters are evenly matched. Two clever, skilfull boxers will go up against two hitting fools; an old-timer will attempt a comeback; and two natural-born enemies will take it out on each other. So that there is absolutely no reason for the fans to become the least bit drowsy, unless they stay away from the gym.

Harry Allen has met Bull Smith before, to his joy, his sorrow, and his regret. He has won, lost, and come out even. He has put Cyclone on the floor, only to have Smith arise from the tomb and perform legalized mayhem. And he will most likely witness much the same thing on Monday.

Cyclone Smith, the veteran of the Benning, ring who wins and loses fighting, and who carries the respect and admiration of every true boxing fan with him into his corner no matter which way the fight goes, is making his first appearance in a Benning ring in some time. Rumor had it awhile back that Smith had retired, that he was washed up, and through. In reality Bull has been working on the Q. T., taking tights in out of town arenas, and whapping himself irta shape for a come-back.

And here's hoping he makes the

Charlie "Kid" Baisden, the Valdosta southpaw, with a dynamite left hand, and a training-hating disposition, has also become a stranger to the Benning ring. that depends on a wallop to win. Baisden, when he is right, is the he isn't right—you can put it to glove at the post for the first music. He trained for his last Doughbov Cyclone fight with 4-H Posey at Benning, and knocked Posey into a cocked hat, after Posey had taken him on once when he didn't train, and stopped him sudden and quick. So you pays your money and you takes your choice. Baisden alone night; a fight that Benning fans can tell if he is really getting into shape. If he is, things will be interesting, and your money should ride the southpaw Kid. If he isn't it will mostly likely be a petetition of the first Hood-Tetherton fracas.

Hood has made a name for himself at Benning, and then marred it. He came here, met Rip Tetherton twice, won with ridiculous ease the first time, and tried hard to make Rip fight the second. He looked the goods. Then he went to Columbus, fought in some of the local arenas, met a darned good preliminary boy, who was just that, and almost lost. And people said he was flash in the pan.

From all appearances Hood is most likely an occasional fighter. When it's his "night", just try to beat him. And when it's his "offnight" it's "Good-night".

Dapper Doyle is well enough known at Benning not to need any eulogizing. He is a clever little scrapper; a good club fighter with more than his share of wins, and the world doesn't need two columns of type to find it out. Charlie Battle is little known at the post, beyond the fact that he is a slugger that can also take it.

Chick Liddell, the dancing master from the 29th, is making his first ring appearance since his accident in Radium Springs. Chick's hip is all to the good now, and he should be in shape. He usually is. Incidentally Liddell is the only fighter to have appeared at the post, fighting a running fight, and making the fans like it and holler for more.

Jimmy Lundy is another unknown, except for the fact that he also is reputed to a tough nut

Heavy Hess, known to the oldbest that can be found. And when timers as "Mule", is donning a

Brewton-Parker Submerged By Surging Company Officers Green Wave In Battle Last Friday Here Lead In Bowling

fantry swept over the Brewton-Parker Blue Jerseys at the Doughboy Stadium last Friday afternoon for a decisive victory of 25-6, continuing the strong comeback they started two Sundays ago by trouncing the Atlanta Firecrackers.

The outstanding play of the game was a sensational 85 yard run by Darden from the kickoff for Benning's first touchdown. From then on the Green Wave lashed with unceasing fury against the college gridsters from Brewton-Parker, and rolled up 25 points for the Infantry. Although the Blue Jerseys led in first downs, the game was clearly the soldiers' afer the beautiful run by Darden from his own 15 yard stripe for a touchdown.

Brewton-Parker was the first team to tally, intercepting a pass and taking the pigskin down the field from Benning's forty-nine yard line by straight football for their lone six points. The college boys kicked off to the soldiersand the war began in earnest. Darden, the Infantry's flashy half-back received the ball and stepped it down the field, behind perfectly executed interference, for the touchdown that started the Green Wave rolling up and down the gridiron for an easy victory. A few minutes later Hayes intercepted a pass and reached Brewton-Parker's 12 yard line before he was pulled down. Blackstone carried it over for the tally. The next touchdown was made in the third quarter, when Benning recovered a fumble on the 26 yard marker and, with powerful line-smashes by Lee and Blackstone, crossed the goal-line again, Lee having the ball as the score was made. Hayes returned a Blue Jersey punt for 24 yards, and again the Lee Blackstone combination smashed its way across the goal-line, Lee once more tallying for the 29th Infantry.

BENNING IMPROVED

A wonderful improvement was evident in the Benning team, since its slow start this season. line showed power, charging and tackling in admirable fashion. And the backfield combination was unbeatable, clicking off spinners, getting away for gains around the ends, and smashing through the line for yardage time after time.

Theaces of Benning's backfield were Darden, Jordan, Lee, Black-stone, and Smith; while the outstanding linemen were Hunt, Berryhill, Johnson, and Rhodes. Harrison, Mathews, and Friedman showed up well for the visitors.

The Green Wave meets an unbeaten and unscored-on C. C. C. eleven Sunday afternoon at the time in over four years. When he fought before Hess was noted for his punch, hence the "Mule". He's heavier now, and perhaps a little slower, but the punch is still there. He meets Buddy Heath in the main four rounder.

Tiger Thompson has sworn vendetta against Battling Edwards in the first boxing match of the evening. Thompson is a good prelim boy, has won and lost, with the averages even.

The festivities will be opened with a wrestling match, the usual crowd pleasing event presented by the heave-and-grunt men of the post. Just who the mat-manglers will be is not known at time of going to press.

The Green Wave of the 29th In- Doughboy Stadium. The foresters from Camp Butler, Georgia, have piled up 66 points in their first three games, without allowing their goal-line to be crossed, and are doped to give the soldiers the toughest scrap they've had this

> After a poor start because of the lack of sufficient conditioning and practice, losing its four initial contests, the Green Wave has made a strong comeback, fighting hard with a superior eleven from the Oglethorpe varsity and rolling over the Atlanta Firecrackers and the Brewton-Parker college boys for easy victories.

The C. C. C. team from Camp Butler has thrice faced opopsing elevens this season and has thrice outplayed their opponents. Their last victory was won from the Reynolds High School and a semipro team combined, taking the laurels to the tune of 25-0.

Both the soldiers and the foresters are reported in the best of condition and primed for a tough scrap Sunday afternoon.

On Thanksgiving day the Benning Green Wave will meet the Oglethorpe Freshmen at the Doughboy Stadium. And the following week the Bowden gridsters, who dealt the 29th a 60-0 defeat in the soldiers' first game of the season, will be at the post for a return

The bowling leagues of the post have seen one important change during the last week when the Company Officers' team broke in the race in which it has been struggling with the Instructors, and stepped out to take a slight lead in the Officers' League. The remainder of the positions, both in the Officers' and Enlisted Men's Leagues have remained unchanged.

The I. S. D. still holds a comfortable margin of victories in their section, their closest opponent bein the 2nd Battalion.

The high scorers have also retained their positions, Captain Fry still being ahead in the Officers', with 9 games bowled for a total of 1692, and an average of 188; while

(Please turn to page 7)

STUDEBAKER Better USED CARS

1031	Ford Spt. Coupe$	325
1929	Ford Tudor	185
1930	Buick Sedan	495
1929	Ford Sedan	175
	Studebaker Sedan
1928	Chev. Panel Delivery	165

Used car prices are going up BUY NOW

Columbus Roberts Motor Co.

Phohe 2712 510 - 12th Street

PICK YOUR SPORT

and we can supply the right equipment!

We have a stock of equipment covering every sport which you can play in Georgia - all nationally known merchandise to the finest standards and sold at prices which will surprise you.

GET IN WITH THE CROWD

Skating season is here! Buy yourself a pair and join the others on every smooth bit of pavement. Our skates are guaranteed to give excellent service under all conditions.

All Sporting Goods at the Main Branch

FORT BENNING, GEORGIA

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service

BOXIRG

VERSUS

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1933 POST GYM 8:15 P. M.

Kid Baisden

10 Rounds VS.

Billie Hood

Cyclone Smith

10 Rounds VS.

Harry Allen

Dapper Doyle

6 Rounds Charlie Battle VS.

6 Rounds

Jimmie Lundy VS.

Chick Liddell 4 Rounds Heavy Hess

Buddy Heath

4 Rounds

Tiger Thompson vs. Battling Edwards

VS.

Wrestling Bout

Tickets on sale at Officers' Club and all orderly rooms.

Turkev Tournament For Officers Now In Final Stages

The turkey tournament for the officers of the post, which has been under way for the past two weeks, is now entering into the final stage, with all rounds in the semi-final or quarter-final stage, and two of them alreday played

The winner's of Thanksgiving dinners in the 7th and 8th flights, which have been finished, are Captain Guy G. McKinley, Jr., who beat Major William H. Morris in the finals 4-3; and Lieutenant James P. Hulley, who defeated Ma-jor Herbert A. Wadsworth for the

The tournament has been run with handicaps, but in order that each player in every flight might have an equal chance, the better players gave their opponents threequarters of the difference in their handicaps.

Results of the various flights, as they stood on Thursday, were as

(Note: Strokes given in handicap are indicated.)

1st flight, 1st round: Eagles, given 1 stroke, beat Brady 2-3. Ross, giving Lindsey 4 strokes, won 1 up on 22 holes. Baird, giving Bogart 5 strokes, won, 1 up. Decker, giving Pope 4 strokes, won 3-1.

2nd flight, 1st round: McClure, given two strokes, beat Maertens, 1 up. Bell, giving Arms 1 stroke, won 2-1. Lee, given 5 strokes, beat Catron 1 up. Kraft, giving Collins 5 strokes, won 1 up on 19. 3rd flight, 1st round: Williams beat Lanham, no handicap, no scores posted. Yancey, giving Howard 5 strokes, won 1 up. Burnap, giving Kelley 8 strokes, won 4-2. Golightly, given 2 strokes by Purcell, won 1 up. 3rd flight, 2nd round: Yancey, giving Williams 2 strokes, won, no scores posted. Golightly, given 5 strokes by Burnap, won, no scores posted.

4th flight, 1st round: Bonesteel, giving Leary 1 stroke, won 2 up. Hall, given 9 strokes by Jenkins, won 3-2. Maxwell, given 3 strokes by Rosebaum, won 3-2. Hull, giving Horton 1 stroke, won 2-1.

5th flight, 1st round: Watson won from Pence by default. Easley, given 2 strokes by Munson, 36 to 30 per week. Doves have won 2 up. Chaffin, giving Lough 8 strokes, won 3-2. Miller, given Thirty Five Ladies 3 strokes by Blain, won 1 up.

5th flight, 2nd round. Watson, given 3 strokes by Easley, won 2 up Chaffin, giving Miller 9 strokes, won 4-3.
6th flight, 1st round: Trechter beat Frye, no handicap, 3-2. Phillips given 3 strokes by Keiler, won 5-3. Fairchild, given 6 strokes by Clarke, won 5-3. Bain won from Woolnough by default.

7th flight, 1st round: Andrews, given 7 strokes by Weeks, won 3-2. McKilley beat Albright, no handicap, 2 up. Morris, given 2 strokes by Dietz, won 1 up. Baade, given strokes by Brenner, won 5-4.

7th flight, 2nd round: McKinley, giving Andrews 2 strokes, won 1 Morris, given 5 strokes by Baade, won 1 up.

7th flight, final round: McKin-ley, giving Morris 9 strokes, won 8th flight, 1st round: Wadsworth won from O'Connell by default. Nelson, given 5 strokes by Gose, won 1 up on 19. Cummings, giving Wells 7 strokes, won 6-5. Hulley, giving Persons 2 strokes.

8th flight, 2nd round: Wadsworth, given 3 strokes by Nelson,

It is planned to have the remainder of the flights completed by the beginning of next, that the prizes may fatten in anticipation of the axe on Thursday.

Hunting Season Now In Full Swing With BagLimitsChanged

The Fort Benning hunting seas on opened last Monday, and already hunters of the garrison have energy in pursuit of a Thanksgiving dinner on the hoof. To date no prospects for the festive board have been reported.

A number of changes have been this season, most of them pertaining to the bag limit of various kinds of game. One more species per day and 30 per week. Cat has joined the list of those that squirrel, having decreased, have may not be taken, and all limits taken the most heavy cut of all, but two have been changed, two of them being raised.

from 12 to 10, per day, and from mains at the standard level of 1

Participated In TarkevTournament

A total of 35 ladies participated in a Turkey Tournament at the Fort Benning Officers' Club golf course Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. William T. Fitts, Jr., and Mrs. George Kraft tieing for low net score over the 18 holes played. Other "turkey" winners were Mrs. John L. Jenkins and Mrs. William W. Eagles. Mrs. Charles L. Bonesteel was awarded a chicken for making the high net score in the afternoons' play.

The tournament was arranged as a straight handicap competition, players subtracting their club handicaps from the gross score made in the 18 holes of play, thus arriving at a net score for the round.

The tournament was arranged by the golf committee of the Officers' Club as one of the series of novelty tournaments being held during the fall season: Each of the tournaments has brought out a large list of entries. One of the purposes of the straight handicap tournament was to check on club handicaps by their scores made over the 18 holes Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert T. Foster, with a score of 91 for the 18 holes played, had the low gross score made during the tournament play. Score made by winners were:

100	Gross	Handicap	Net
Kraft		14	79
Fitts	102	23	79
Arms		22	80
Foster	91	11	80
Jenkins		36	82
Eagles	93	10	83

dropped five per day, the limit expanded much ammunition and now being 15, but the weekly limit has been jumped five. Ducks remain the same, 15 per day, and 45 per week. Geese have dropped from 8 per day to 2, and to 6 per week. The daily bag on snipe has made in the hunting regulations been raised to 20, a gain of two, but the weekly limit is the same. Rabbits also remain the same, 10 the limit now being 5, instead of 15 per day, and the weekly limit The bag on quail has dropped 15 in place of 30. King Turkey re-

The proscribed list for hunting this year includes fox squirrel, deer, phesants, woodcock, and wood duck.

Practically the same areas are closed to hunting, with promises of their being opened at short intervals throughout the season. The first of these open dates is now in effect, as Area No. 4, north of the Upatoi and west of the Cusseta road will be open throughout De-

Company G Still On On Top Of Heap In 24th Inf Tourney

Company G still holds the lead in the 24th Infantry Basketball Tournament, having won nine games and losing none. Company E has kept its second place, with Company C in third. Company A trails along behind with no victories as yet.

Private McLarkin of Company G is far in the lead as individual high scorer with a total of 186 points chalked for him in nine games. Private Ellerby of Headquarters Company holds second place with 113 points, and Private Johnson of Company E has made 112 points.

The standing of the teams participating in the tourney are as follows:

Org. Played W L Pct. Company G ... 9 9 Company E ... 9 7 1000 .778Company C9 .667 Headquarters 9 .556 Company F....9 4 .445

Company B9 .222 Service Co. ..9

Company A ...9 0 9 .000 The "Big Five" of the individual high scorers are: Private McLarkin, Company G-186 points. Ellerby, Headquarters Company-113 points. Private Trammell, Company G-94 points.

Corporal Baugh, Company E-78

29TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 5) now that he's had a misunderstand-

I'll be "suing" you,and remember that the lil' birdie that always tells things is a personal friend of "Nosey Knows"!

ing with his "one and only".

COMPANY OFFICERS IN LEAD (Continued from page 6)

Glenn heads the Enlisted Men, 10 games bowled for a total of 3185 and a average of 187.

League standings are: Officers' League

Team	G	W	L	Per
Co. Officers				.888
Instructors				.834
Headquarters		7	2	.77'
29th Officers		6	6	.50
66th Officers		1	8	.11
Advanced Officers			9	.00
Enlisted M			,

Team	G	W	\mathbf{L}	Per
I. S. D	18	16	2	.888
2nd Bn	18	10	8	.555
Hq. Bn	21	11	10	.523
66th Infantry	21	2	19	.095

Mix iT

NEF Fizz

The purest — most completely charged — most refreshing carbonated water ever made!

Compare - Nehi Fizz

with any water on the market

NB—We will pay you 15c doz. cash for empty NEHI FIZZ bottles with one or more labels attached.

Big 4 - Day Sale CERTIFIED USED CARS

ENDS SATURDAY NIGHT

-HIGH CLASS CARS TO SELECT FROM.FORDS, CHEVROLETS, BUICKS, DODGES, LINCOLNS ETC.

ROADSTERS— PHAETONS — COUPES — COACHES — SE-DANS AND TRUCKS.

EASY PAYMENTS

NO MATTER HOW YOU CAN PAY FOR A CAR—COME AND SEE US THIS WEEK. YOU CAN FIND A CAR AT JUST THE PRICE YOU WISH TO PAY AND THE PAY. MENTS CAN BE ARRANGED ON MOST ANY REASON-

BUY A CAR-BUY IT HERE-BUY IT NOW BURRUS MOTOR CO.

Authorized Ford Dealer

1216-22 — 1st Ave.

Phone 3500

Auto Department

POST EXCHANGE

DO IT NOW!

FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the military service.

Have you done your car right?

No car can stand just any kind of treatment.

But all of us seem to think so, because we keep putting off the idea of having it repaired until

Our "DeLuxe" Service

will correct most of your car's ailments. It includes washing, polishing, greasing, lubrication, vacuum cleaning and a thorough mechanical inspection of thirty-three operations. LET US

CADETS VISITORS AT BENNING

(Continued from page 1) they will make an inspection of the Barracks, in all probability, those of Headquarters Company and one of the rifle organizations. In the afternoon they will make a tour of the post and see civic and military activities of the Infantry School. The cadets will return to Riverside sometime Sunday While here they will morning. be quartered in the various companies of the regiment and live as the soldiers do in the course of

Patronize Herald Advertisers

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

inspected and guaranteed by

83rd F. A.

Well, well, we are on the air again with the same old line. John Latina the battery barber was seen in the vicinity of 35th street, Columbus, Ga., the other night. He expects to open a beauty parlor in that location for the permanent waves. Cpl. Nahring is confined to the hospital for a few days with a long leg and a longer one. Foots Cutrer, the wonder boy, is in the market for a horse. His lady friend from Tennessee wrote him to buy an old government horse so that she could learn to ride. We suggest that you purchase Mike when he goes up for I. & I.

Tony Catalonette, the well known spaghetti cook of this battery, has decided to try civil life for a while. Tony was discharged this week and expects to open up a cafe in Columbus, Ga., and would like all of friends to pay him a visit at his place of business. It's too bad that the 15% has run Tony away from the army as he was Mess Sergeant for the 83rd Field Artillery Officer's Mess and from all reports he will be very hard to re-

The officers and N. C. O.'s are preparing for the annual Infantry School Horse Show which is to be held next month. We have lots of work to do on our stables and the team has to practice after 3 o'clock each afternoon. Set. McLeod expects to go on furlough next month during the Christmas holiday. He to transact at home.

BATTERY "A"

The Battery motor-cycle Club went on a trip to Brewton, Ala. over the week-end and had a wonderful time. The return trip was marred by a slight accident which eventually lánded all the club members in a ditch. So far the membership is limited to Pvt. Smith, M. and Cpl. Thornhill, but more members are expected soon.

During the past week we lost a number of men, Pfc. Capps Bensley, Killingsworth and Pvt. Frank Taylor have ventured out into civilian life to try their luck, we hope they have some. Cpl. Ariel Thornhill is going to be with us for another three years, at least we hope

Since last going to the press the battery basketball team has been rounding into shape and are ready to take all comers. We are lucky to have two "All Schofield' players in the batery, namely Pfc Kea and Pvt. "Barber" Cotney.

We wonder what would happen if: Sgt. Hudgins missed chow; Fulford's hair was not red; Sgt B. McRae wrecked his new car; Kingfish would leave us go hungry; Cpl. Brown got fat; Pfc. Doc Abernathy danced; Bob Boyett did not get any telephone calls; Pfc. Cameron could keep quiet for fifteen minutes; Fuller had a pack of cigarettes; Johnson, La., couldn't get to Cairo, Ga.; Pfc. Scheeler would settle down and get marstopped writing letters; Boone ried; Pvt. Chaney went to town; Pvt. Crane wasn't goosey; Pvts. Evans & Parker were brunets; Pvt. Gauntt found a hat to fit him; Glenn couldn't find someone to fall in love with; "Pretty Boy" Jackson had a date; Steve Pasiak talked English; Pvt. Ray did not have to borrow something.

24th Inf.

SERVICE COMPANY

Private First Class John Q. Morris, Re-enlisted for this organization for three more years. He has gone to Atlanta, Georgia, on furlough.

Private David Haynes, is visiting sick relatives in Enterprise, Miss. Corporal Alfred Sharp, gone for a month of furlough to Tuskeegee, COMPANY "E" Well, well, we have two new comers in the Company now, Sgt. Joseph Clark and Cpl. Clinton Grady, both of the 25th Infantry. They have been here a little better than a month and are sure enjoying themselves.

Sgt. West Rollins who was very ill about a month ago is doing nicely at the Station Hospital.

The Co.'s basketball team is trying to top the list. Don't worry we will do it, we have second place now. All we want to do now is to beat the mighty "House of Davids" Co. "G". They topped us by a little the last time. Pvt. 1cl Jessie Johnson, holds second place in the big five, Cpl. T. J. Bough happens to be the lucky fifth man.

Pvt. Frank Mathis and Pvt. George Tutt have been highly complimented for having neat and shiny equipment during the past inspection.

A few members of the Company were spectators at the Morris Brown U. and Ala. State Teachers College football game played at the Memorial Stadium in Columbus, Nov. 11, 1933. The on-lookers were: Cpl. T. J. Bough, Pvt. 1cl W. W. Brown, Pvt. 1cl Melvin Orsben, Pvt. 1cl Johnnie Parramore, Pvt. David Fields, Pvt. Harris L. Purvis, Pvt. 1cl. Johnnie Martin, Pvt. Motel Jett, Pvt. William Murrell, Pvt. 1cl. T. S. Hicks. Everybody enjoyed both dance and game.

Johnnie (Pepper) Martin, is hot. Oh, yes, and how! He is the first Platoon's sheik and lover. All the women have been saying good things about him, but he ignores has some very important business their compliments, making believe he doesn't care for them, (you know he's sweet and does he know

-Theodore S. Hicks.

COMPANY "C"

A recent order has detailed 1st Lieut. L. A. Dietz, 24th Infantry, on Special Duty, at Post Headquarters. Upon reporting for this duty, he will cease to further command Co. "C", 24th Infantry. The absence of Lieut. Dietz, will be keenly felt by all members of this organization, as all have well enjoyed the pleasure of service under his command. The best wishes for his continued success is the expression of each member of the company.

2nd Lieut. J. M. Lamont, 24th Infantry, is at present commanding the company. It is hoped that the "Old Spirit" of the 24th Infantry, will register favorably with him during his service with the regiment.

The V-8 Club, composed of the socially inclined members of the company, wentover big on last Saturday evening, sponsoring a dance at the Regimental Service Club. Everything seemed very attractive, namely: decorations, refreshments, 'Miladys' fashions, music, and rhythm of the fantastic toe.

SP E C I A L MOLDS

We will supply you with specially moulded cream, in several designs for your Thanksgiving dinner. Make it more tempting, more attractive and more delicious by serving Kinnett's Ice Cream this

KINNETT'S ICE CREAM

The BREAD of your Choice

Whether its Rye, Whole Wheat, Pullman, Sandwich or Old Time Bread

> Everidge's Has It! For Your Convenience

Fresh Daily At Post Exchange Grocery

Order your Pumpkin Pie, Fruit Cake or other Bakery Delicacies for your Thanksgiving dinner.

We invite you to visit the Bakery Beautiful

EVERIDGE'S

109 - 12th Street

Special Trade-in Sale

THANKSGIVING

Naturally you think of turkey for dinner but what about Thanksgiving Breakfast? Piping hot Pork Sausage, apple jelly, hot biscuits and coffee can't be beat. And did you ever stuff that turkey with Pork Sausage dressing? Try it for a change. Old Settlers Pork Sausage will fill both bills. Every pound U. S. Government

The Provision Company, Inc.

Ten Dollars allowance on any old bed, chifforobe or vanity on the purchase of one of our new four - piece bed - room suites, price

$79.50

Balance on easy terms of $1.00 per week

Any merchandise bought between now and Christmas will be stored free of charge and delivered on the date

CUNNINGHAM FURNITURE CO.

Successors to Johnston - Cunningham Fur. Co.

1014 BROADWAY

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHILD

FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

Bits About That Royal Bird of Thanksgiving

own turkeys it was a widespread tradition for all the branches of a family to gather at the old farm home to share the Thanksgiving feast, praise the cook, and exchange news.

Modern conditions make it more convenient at times for both the younger and the older generation to discontinue these very large oldings. The various younger branches of the family often decide to celebrate Thanksgiving individualing the old folks. One reason for the change is the fact that fine turkeys are now available in almost every market throughout the winter as well as at the holiday season. So they are less of a novelty in themselves, and other conditions lead the modern young housewife to try her hand at cooking them rather than to look for an invitation to the old home.

The less experienced housekeeper, however, is apt to hesitate before the problem of selecting the royal bird. The United States De-

Extra Choice PECANS

Prices 10c to 25c per pound. Put up in packages ready for mail-

Choice fruits and nuts. 1019 BROADWAY

Make this year's

Thanksgiving

one that you'll aiways remember

You can do it-with Foremost Ice Cream—the best finest you've ever

We will supply Foremost Ice Cream in special molds for your Thanksgiving dinner—order it beforehand and you'll be sure of getting it.

FOREMOST DAIRIES.

INCORPORATED

When grandmothers lived chief-|partment of Agriculture suggests ly in the country and raised their that when she goes to market she should look for tags attached to the legs of the turkeys displayed for sale, indicating that the birds have been inspected and graded by the bureau of aricultural economics The turkeys on the retail market generally fall under one of three groups: "Prime," "choice," and 'medium." The principal difference is in the amount of fleshing fashioned Thanksgiving gather and the occurrence of defects due to dressing. Prime turkeys are full-fleshed; choice are well-fleshed, and medium are fairly wellly, or to take their turn entertain- | fleshed. A turkey that bears one of these grades carries its own assurance of tenderness and palatability if properly cooked.

These graded turkeys are widely distributed. A single group of chain stores may absorb as many as 150 carloads of 2,000 turkeys each. Of course the housewife must go to market with some idea of the weight bird she will need. If only four people are to enjoy the dinner, an eight-pound turkey will be ample; in fact, it would serve six or eight if necessary. Perhaps a ten-pound bird would be a better choice for eight persons, and so on, correspondingly, with an increased number.

One must know, too, whether she wants to cook a young or an older turkey, the latter requiring longer, slower cooking. Age is distinguished, as with other poultry, by the flexibility of the tip of the breast bone, which bends easily in young birds.

As the government grades indicate, fleshing is the principal consideration in selecting a turkey. An exceptionally fine bird will have a broad full-fleshed breast, and the back, hips, and pin bones will be fully covered with fat. Young birds are softer meated than older ones, which have coarser flesh and require longer cooking.

A good turkey should also be well bled, well dressed, and free from pin feathers. The crop should contain no feed. There should be no flesh bruises and very few skin abrasions. A dry-picked turkey is to be preferred.

O. E. S. Institued Here Last Saturday

Fort Benning saw the institution of another great organization last Saturday night, when the Fort Benning Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, U. D., was installed by a group of high officers of the Order from various cities of Geor-

The institution took place in the 29th Infantry Theater at the post, beginning at 8:00 P. M., with a majority of members of the society der from various cities of Georfrom Fort Benning and Columbus being present. Grand Patron Lane, of Atlanta, directed the ceremonies, assisted by Past Grand Matron Julia J. Turner, of Atlanta; Grand Secretary Rowena Ward, of Valdosta, and Past Grand Matron

Thanksoiling 2

Let Candies and Fruits from Mitchell's make your dinner more tempting.

> For the most perfect enjoyment of your Thanksgiving feast . . you can depend on Mitchell's candies and fruits. They will act as the perfect complement to any meal.

MITCHELL'S

- Candies - Party Favors -Fruits -Nuts Gift Packages - Novelty Packages

1204 Broadway

网络电影摄影 经产品表 医皮肤 医皮肤

Home of 100 Candies

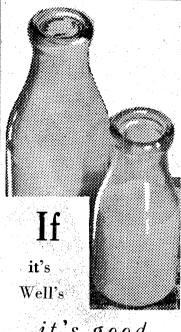

Phone 1085

Ethel Jackson, of Athens, The new unit, which will be an auxiliary of Sgt. Friis Honored the Masonic chapter at the post, and will have approximately thirty By Regiment Here

Officers of the Benning chapter were elected at a preliminary meeting sometime ago, and are to be installed formally in the near future. Mrs. Jean Foster will be Worthy Matron; Master Sergeant Leonard N. Chitwood, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Chitwood, Associate Local Justice, Secretary; Mrs. William J. Stewart, Treasurer; Mrs. Inez McNulty, Conductress; and Mrs. Willie Mae Freeman, Marshall.

The five Star Points are Mrs. John Magoni, Mrs. Oscar L. Mc-Connell, Mrs. Willie Simpson, Mrs. Alice Tooz and Mrs. Blanche Nickelson. Mrs. Melvin C. Wiley is Warden, Sergeant Jesse E. Stewart, is outside sentinel and Mrs. Stewart, Chaplain.

Work on the oranization of the local chapter was begun about the later part of August, by a group at the post interested in its forma-

it's good

Well's Milk is good - the best you've ever tasted and it's pasteurized for vour protection. You'll find it eminently suitable for every cooking and food

WELL'S

DAIRY CO.

Phone 1144

honor to its own at Fort Benning Thursday afternoon when Master Sergeant Hans Friis, Service Company, 29th Infantry, witnessed the last review of the regiment in which he has served for almost twenty years, and from which he will be retired from active service on November 30.

"Pop" Friis, thus known to his comrades in the less formal moments, answered his first roll-call in Haderslev, Denmark, coming to America when he was about 3 The United States Army did years old. Since that time he has visited many lands, both in the service and out, from Alaska to Panama, and New York to the Hawaiian Islands. His first service with the colors began in 1898, when he was on duty with the 3rd Infantry at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and Fort McPherson, Ga., during the Spanish-American War.

TURKEY

At Special

Low Prices

for giving

15c

25c

Thanks-

ONLY IN A

There's a ROGERS Store near you Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

Store can you get Complete Service

Argo, tender, flavorful Asparagus Tips Picnic can 10c Kraft's Mayonnaise or Relish, 8 oz. jar _____14c 1 Pillsbury's pancake

Flour, pkg. 10c

Jello, pkg. 6c

Fresh Prunes, No. 2 1-2 can 17c

Choice Evaporated APRICOTS, pound

Fancy Norway MACKEREL, 3 for _____25c Chocolate Covered

CHERRIES, pound box Dromedary Cranberry

SAUCE, can 17c

DATES, Package 20c

Argo - sliced dessert

PEACHES, 3 No. 1 cans 25c

This is a low price for very tempting peaches!

LARGE

TURKEYS LB. 24c IHANKSGIVING SPECIALS

15c

17c

15c

Cranberries, lb. JELLO, pkg.

FRESH PORK HAM, lb.

UKULELE SLICED Pineapple, can $rac{ ext{NO. }2\frac{1}{2}}{ ext{CAN}}$

PET OR CARNATION MILK, 3 tall cans 19c

CAMPBELL'S TOMATO SOUP, 4 cans WESSON

OIL, Pint can CHEESE, Ib. 15c.

ARGO TINY PEAS, No. 2 can 15c

LARGE STEWART PECANS, lb.

CAMPBELL'S TOMATO JUICE, can

> LARGE SELECT

15c

5c

EGGS

Fruit Cake Material

We have

Full Stock

Dozen

25c

Page Ten

HE BENNING HERAL

riday, November 24, 1955

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT
(Continued from page 4)
the long freedom from grades has

(Continued from page 4) the long freedom from grades has lent false feeling of security. Certainly here was one case where no news was bad news. However, the

We specialize on repairs to electric irons, floor lamps, percolators, waffle irons, electric heaters, etc. Also convert oil lamps to electric lamps at reasonable prices.

Levy-Morton Company
Phone 1433 1028 13th St.

lesired effect has been obtained, and with two tough writs staring us in the face, for more books cracked than otherwise would have been the case. Major Cota kept his word that the writ on Combat Firing would have no resemblance to that of last year. In fact it had no resemblance to anything except a long tiresome drill in writing and re-writing; W. J. Johnson is reputed to have ground out seven pages on his critique alone. It is some solace to hear that last year the author of our musketry text only got a 'C" in a writ on his own subject.

Major Bonham sure had our busses doing some plain and fancy hedge hopping Monday faternoon. But these trusty steeds navigated fashion, making even the cross country car of Col. Weeks' pause in wonderment. True, old number 23 was forced to take a couple of hills "fanny first", but it got there just the same! It is not amiss to mention that these fine old buggies are of war vintage, G. M. C. 1917 ambulances, to be exact. After establishment of the Infantry School here, the present bodies were installed, and since 1920 the trucks have been engaged in handling ye students to and from their work and play afield. For a period of three years they were used to transport, in addition, married students to and from town, but this practice was discontinued several years ago when the Congressional investigation into Army luxury was taking place:

We trust that Major Wells doesn't fear his advanced class cronies might be contaminated by too close proximity to ourselves. At the terrain exercise, when he so adroitly segregated his babes, we took the hint and fell in on their left, feeling very much like the Big Bad Wolf, himself.

Besides having reserved busses, (which average 9 instead of 11 passengers), our seniors also have the entire convoy to park at their doorstep. The next move should all barriers in true thoroughbred fashion, making even the cross country car of Col. Weeks' pause in wonderment. True, old number would be a real benefit, inasmuch as the recitations of the Big Three could be better presented for the edification of us kids!

Dr. R. H. Brown
OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
Murrah Bldg.

For Information or Advice Concerning

LIFE INSURANCE

ROBISON BROWN, JR.

Special Agent, Ordinary Department

LIFE INSURANCE — ANNUITIES

210 MURRAH BLDG.

'PHONE 1637

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Home Office, Newark, N. J.

BUYING:

is a different thing under the NRA. Before, everything was much easier—but now prices are higher and one must be sure of what he's buying. That's why you can be sure of Star Brand Shoes—they're correctly made and they sell at most economical prices, and are known the world over as all-leather shoes.

SAM NEEL'S

SHOE DEPARTMENT — WESTBROOK BLDG.

the cigarette that's MILDER the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

VOLUME III

FORT BENNING, GA., DECEMBER 1, 1933

the day their calling as soldiers and returned to the start of a Mayflower and Plymouth Rock, to ovserve that day as one during which they returned thanks for the many blessings enjoyed by them, as their ancestors did at Plymouth.

November 30 is recognized throughout the United States as a day for the expression of gratitude for the year's benefits. The day was celebrated at Fort Benerating by the customary dinner at each of the 32 messes of the post, and followed by various athletic and social activities.

The menus of the organizations carried many tempting and appetizing dishes, many served in keeping with the custom set by the early setlers in New England several centuries ago.

The following menu, given as an example of the army messes on this day was that of the Infantry School Detachment, the largest mess on the post, with over 600 people who partook of the feast: cream of oyster stew and crisp crackers; young tom turkey; giblet gravy; oyster dressing; cranberry sauce; candied southern yams; buttered mashed potatoes and turnips; creamed corn; buttered peas; stuffed olives; sweet pickles; celery; iceberg lettuce; thousand island dressing; sponge and devil food cake; pumpkin and mince meat pies; assorted candies; assorted nuts; cigars and cigarettes; hot parker house rolls and butter, and coffee. This was prepared under the direction of Captain Leonard Murphy by the cooks of the special units and the students of the School for Bakers and Cooks. In all several tons of turkey were consumed by the doughboys as they kept alive the spirit of

Thanksgiving Dav Quietly Observed C. W. A. Work Expected At Fort Benning Thanksgiving Day the men-ofTo Begin In Few Days

Major Harold A. Kirkham, Medical Corps, Fort Benning, Georgia, will be retired from active duty on November 30, and bring to a Department of the U.S. Army that begun in 1917 when he was appointed a 1st lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

Major Kirkham was called to active duty in 1918 as a 1st lieutenant of Medical Corps in the National Army, which rating he vacated in 1920, to receive an appointment as 1st lieutenant in the Regular Army. He was promoted to captain on January 20, 1921, and major July 20, 1930.

He is a graduate of the advanced course of the Army Medical School, class of 1932.

Brackinridge Leaves Captain John G. Brackinridge, who has been a member of the 83rd Field Artillery at Fort Benning, since September 17, 1929, left the Infantry School Sunday, November 26, enroute to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he is to take up an assignment in the Adjutant General's Department of that station.

The detail to the Adjutant General's Department was made at the direction of the President after Captain Brackinridge had submitted an application for the change of branches. He has spent twelve years as supervisor of army paper work and is well qualified to fill the position to which he has been assigned.

custom — back to the days of the Major Kirkland Is Road Improving To To Be Retired Soon Be Principal Part Of Works Program

Fort Benning authorities late last Saturday had practically finclose a career with the Medical ished the "set up" for putting into action plans for using the $663,000 allotted Fort Benning by the Civil Works Administration Friday. As with other projects for improvement of the post, tentative plans already had been made so that upon receipt of the authorization, actual work might be started with the least practical delay.

First information of definite action by the Civil Works Administration reached Fort Benning authorities through Associated Press dispatches late Friday night. Expressing pleasure that action on plans previously submitted had been favorable, officials early Saturday morning began completion of tentative arrangements already under way.

Actual work undertaken from funds now allotted will be carried on principally under supervisionof the Post Quartermaster. However, laborers will not be hired at the post. As is already the case with work being done by contract under six million dollar allotment made for construction at the Fort by the Public Works Administration, the hiring of labor will be through the National Re-employment Agency.

This agency, a Federal set up under the Public Works Administration and the Department of Labor, has a Columbus office located at 926 Broadway and in charge of Mr. John W. Willis. At this office will be registered those desiring employment on the new Bening projects. No labor will be hired direct at Fort Benning.

Improvements to be financed on the reservation by the Civil Works money include roads, drainage, grading and some improvements on permanent buildings already located at the post. The First Division Road, the highway leading east from the Garrison proper to future wars. We have labored ov- piano wire. For a while, during the Cusseta road is to be generaler the best methods of directing the development of his idea, Ser-ly improved—relocated in some ground fire against attacking air- geant Chisseler thought of using places, graded and drained and a sky hooks to keep the net in semi-hard surface put on it. This road is an artery over which traffic from the Garrison proper to In each infantry platoon, both the east and south parts of the nachine gun and rifle, there will reservation is routed. This includes be a balloon squad. This squad a great majority of the movement will carry the baloon deflated, and of students and troops to the maof students and troops to the maneuver area, which in general lies southeast of the garrison.

The old Lumpkin road, which similiarly is used for traffic directly south from the Garrison, through the range areas, likewise is to be regraded and drained.

Lawson Field, the Air Corps

(Continued on page 8)

Motorization Work Is Demonstrated

With the First Battalion, 29th Infantry, simulating a raiding Red" force, bent upon pillaging the post of Fort Benning, making their attack from the direction of Cusseta, the Second Batalion of the same regiment took the field early Tuesday morning, moving along the First Division road in attempt to repel the invaders.

Staged as a part of the 29th Infantry training scheduled for the year, the two-sided maneuver, which had put almost, 2,000 men into what approximates actual wartime conditions was continued until Wednesday afternoon, when the troops returned to their barracks.

One of the important phases of this maneuver, which was watched with interest throughout the armies of the world, is the efficiency af animal-drawn as compared to motorized transportation. The 'Red" raiders, or First Battalion, are equipped with the conventional animal-drawn vehicles and wagon train, now in use by the majority of infantry units throughout the world. The Second Battalion's 'Blues" are furnished with the latest word in motorized transportation, including motor-drawn kitchens, and machine gun busses, and moves the combat personnel rapidly across country by the use of huge cargo trucks.

The feasibility of applying motorized transportation to infantry uses under all manner of conditions and in all types of country is one of the important projects now under experiment at the Infantry School, and the results of this maneuver are expected to shed considerable light on the sub-

Major Yuill Sent As Instructor To The National Guard

In a recent publication of Army Orders by the War Department, Washington, D. C., Major Charles W. Yuill, 29th Infantry, has been relieved from Fort Benning and assigned as an instructor to the Florida National Guard, with headquarters at Jacksonville, Florida.

Major Yuill began his military career on August 1, 1913, when he received an appointment to the West Point Military Academy. He was made a second lieutenant of Infantry on April 20, 1917, first lieutenant on May 15, 1917, and then promoted to the temporary rank of captain August 5, 1917. His promotion to captain in the regular army came on July 23, 1919, and an advancement to major on October 1, 1932. For service in France during the World War Major Yuill holds five Silver Star Citations.

He first came to Fort Benning in 1921, after he had completed a course at the Army Signal School, Camp Alfred Vail, New Jersey. This assignment was terminated on June 1, 1922, when he was ordered to Governor's Island, New York, as an aide-de-camp to Major General Robert L. Bullard. This reassignment came about at the personal request of General Bullard. Upon completion of this duty, and a tour of foreign service in China, Major Yuill was ordered to Fort Benning, again, this time as an instructor in the Infantry School. This order was dated October 10, 1931, but was not fefective until the completion of his assignment with the 15th Infantry at Tientsin, China. He reported at Fort Benning on June 1, 1932, and has been on duty at this station since that date.

At the beginning of the Civilian Conservation Corps, Major Yuill was ordered to Fort McClellan, Alabama, for duty with that activity in May of this year. This order was terminated on November 10, when he returned to Fort Benning.

R.M.G. Sergeant Expounds Novel Idea "Airplane Trap" To Assist Infantry Is Wierd Invention Of Machine Gunner

happy inspiration. We of the in- fish. fantry have long been struggling | The net or the entanglement planes and the best way of training men to do this firing. We had thought we were making considerable progress along these lines but now it must be acknowledged that a single brilliant mind has cleared all doubts away. We need bother no longer with attempting to shoot down the enemy. Instead catch him in the act.

Regimental Machine Gun Company up the balloon in time of need. is the man who has done the job. These squads will proceed, when Sergeant Chisseler has submitted the company is on the march, on to higher authority, complete with a line parallel with the road and landing field at the post already pictures, a scheme for gathering two hundred yards from it. At was to be improved and get addiin troublesome enemy attack planes to offset the forces of the air in that will be used is made of stout place. But as this wouldn't work he finally decided on balloons.

Some of the greatest puzzles of just as fishermen on the broad mankind have been solved by a Chattahoochee gather in their

machine gun and rifle, there will its share of the piano wire net. The loudest, longest, and fastest we are going to reach up and talkers of each company will compose these squads to insure an am-Sergeant Willie X. Chisseler of ple supply of hot air for blowing

(Please turn to page 5)

Sergeant Hans Friis --- "Old Timer" Sergeant Friis Is One Man Who Proves Old Tale About the Soldier Seeing the World

Service Company, 29th Infantry, Fort Benning, Georgia, who will bring to a close a thirty year career with the United States Army of honor at a farewell dinner at the Service Company Thanksgiving Day.

Sergeant Friis was born at Haderslov, Denmark, came to U.S. at the age of four and after going through the process of naturalization necessary to all immigrants entering the United States, he entered the service of his adopted country on July 9, 189. He enlisted for duty with the 3rd Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and at Fort McPherson, Georgia, during the Spanish-American War. After he had completed his contracted time, "Pop," as he is affectionately known at informal times, returned to civilian life. In February 1907 he reentered the service

Master Sergeant Hans Friis, and as a member of Company K, 10th Infantry, he saw service at Camp McKinley, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii and Fort Davis, Alaska. Sergeant Friis received three enlistments with this oron November 30, was the guest enlistments with this organization ganizationa for the 29th Infantry, then stationed at Fort Niagara, New York. When America entered the World War this unit was dispatched to the Panama Canal Zone to supplement the forces guarding that great waterway. On the second hitch with this unit he was discharged as a staff sergeant and rejoined the folds of the regiment without delay.

Upon its return from foreign service at Panama, the 29th Infantry was stationed at Camp Beauregard, Louisiana, where Sergeant Friis was battalion sergeant major of the 1st battalion. The completion of six years' service in this

(Please turn to page 5)

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

Lt. Cobb Announced

Of interest throughout Army and civilian circles is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Katherine Palmer Lemly of Fort Benning and Lt. Arthur L.

Miss Lemly, who is the only daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Rowan Palmer Lemly, is a populam member of the younger set

Mrs. Stella Paschall

Tailoring Of All Kinds OFFICERS SHIRTS A SPECIALTY Ten Years Experience

520 First Avenue Phone City 2156-R

of Fort Benning and Columbus. | filled with yellow chrysanthemums | guest of Miss Eleanor Bonetseel, Engagement Of Miss She attended school at National graced the individual tables. Cathedral in Washington, D. C., Among those reserving t Katherine Lemly To and Miss Wright's School in Pennsylvania Sha made her debut in sylvania. She made her debut in 1931 in Philadelphia, the home of her mother, where she enjoys a wide circle of friends.

Lt. Cobb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cobb of Greenville, S. C. He attended the United States Military Aacademy at West Point and graduated with the class of Plans for the wedding have not been completed.

THANKSGIVING DANCE DE-LIGHTFUL EVENT OF WEEK AT OFFICERS' CLUB

The Officers' Club was the scene Wednesday evening of their Thanksgiving dance. A capacity crowd assembled for dinner and dancing, dinner was served at eight and dancing continued until twelve. The club was very effectively decorated in pine boughs and autumn leaves while vases

Among those reserving tables were: Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall, Major and Mrs. William Roberts, Major and Mrs. Charles P. Hall, Major Peter Salgado, Mr. W. E. McKee.

There were also five Dutch treat tables which were reserved by: Captain Leonard Murphy, Lt. James J. Gillespie, Lt. Washington M. Ives, Lt. Forrest Hornisher and Lt. Ephraim M. Hampton.

OFFICERS' CLUB SOCIAL CAL-ENDAR FULL FOR NEXT MONTH

The Officers' Club social calendar is full for the next two months with dinners, dances, bridge tournaments and club meetings heading the calendar.

On December fourth the Woman's Club will meet at the Polo-Hunt Club while on the fifth the Polo Club has been reserved in the evening by the Medical Corps who are planning a dinner dance. On Thursday, December seventh, the P. T. A. will hold a business meeting followed by tea. On Saturday following, Miss Anna Dozier will be hostess to members of her ball room class at an informal

Holding the social spotlight for the next week will be the Dramatic Club play "The Bad Man," which is to be held on December 15th. On Friday evening preceding the opening of the play the Officers' Club will prepare a special Oriental dinner for its mem-

In addition plans are going ahead for the Christmas and New Year activities with special programs being planned for each of those holidays.

MEMBERS OF DEBUTANTE SET TO BE HOSTESSES AT DANCE

Miss Anne Ryan, niece of Miss Lillian Ryan, and Miss Maxine Rife, daughter of Major and Mrs. George J. Rife, will be the joint hostesses Saturday at a dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. The Club will be decorated in a holiday motif, with autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums, while likenesses of turkey gobblers cut from brown paper will be pasted around the walls.

There will be a receiving line consisting of Major and Mrs. Rife, Miss Rife, Miss Ryan, Lt. and Mrs. George P. Howell, and Miss Lillian Ryan. Music will be furnished by the 24th Infantry orchestra. The guest list will include members of the young mar-ried contingent, the debutante set, their guests and escorts.

MISS ELIZABETH WELTY AND MISS ELIZABETH RADICKER SHARE HONORS AT LUNCHEON

Miss Elizabeth Welty, whose engagement to Lt. Charles E. N. Howard was recently announced, and Miss Elizabeth Radicker, house

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

were the honorees Monday at a delightful luncheon given by Miss Kenneth Kendall, the attractive niece of Captain and Mrs. Herbert L. Harries.

(Please turn to page 3)

Dependable. Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

A CONVENIENT WAY TO BUY YOUR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS!

Our "Lay-Away" plan will afford you a very convenient way of making Christmas purchases. Just purchase an article, make a down payment, and we'll hold it for Christmas delivery. You need only pay a little each month.

C. SCHOMBURG & SON

1121 Broadway

JEWELERS

Phone 478

A Full Market Basket:

The Grocery Department is one place at which you can really get a FULL market basket. We make a special effort to be completely stocked with staple and fancy groceries, and we're sure that we can please you!

Grocery Dept

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHILD H.

FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

CHRISTMAS Now is the time to make up your list and decide where you must do your buying. And, if you're experienced, you'll know that there's only one choice -SILVER'S! You can get your presents and package wrappings here!

LVER'S

Cor. 11th Street and Broad

For convenience and economy, insist on having the grocer give you the Six-Box.

The Most Satisfying of All!

You may have liked other soft drinks, but you've never had another that's as completely satisfying as Coca-Cola — so delicious —or so refreshing as the most famous of soft drinks. It was the first, and it's still the best.

Coca-Cola has been — is — and will be the first choice of everyone.

The Six-Box is sold by all Columbus grocers.

Look Your BEST

THIS CHRISTMAS!

Make this Christmas even more than ever one of joy and merriment — let your clothes reflect the holiday spirit! We'll be glad to show you the newest and smartest in clothes for the holiday season, all priced most reasonably. This year there will be more doing at Benning than ever before — be prepared for it!

SUITS

Nationally advertised brands of fine suits, made carefully and expertly of the finest materials and in the latest patterns, moderately priced.

OVERCOATS

Our overcoats are the last word in style and in protection from wintry weather. You'll be pleasantly surprised at them, for they're priced moderately.

Hofflin & Greentree

COLUMBUS' LEADING CLOTHIERS

ESTABLISHED 1888

Woman's Club To Hear Program

The Infantry School Woman's Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Polo-Hunt Club, Monday, December 4th at 2:15.

A beautiful musical program of Christmas music has been arranged through the courtesy of the Orpheus Club, outstanding musical organization of Columbus, and the Boys' choir of the Trinity Episcopal Church, under the direction of Mr. Irvin Vondereau.

The following program will be viven:

2 Pianos

"Valse" from Arensky Suite Mrs. J. H. Jenkins and Mrs. G. Shackleford

(a) Jesus Bambino—Pietro yon Violin Obe.—Mrs. Harley

(b) Prixie Pipers—De Leath(c) Cuckoo Clock—YoungMrs. W. B. Rainey

(a) Adoration—Borowski (b) Caprice—Carter

(c) Fairy Sailing—Burleigh Mrs. Lela Langford

(a) Ave Maria—Franz Schubert(b) Hills—Frank La Forge

(c) The Holy Child—Easthope
Martin
Mrs. Fred Garrett

2 Pianos

a) Le Soir—C. Chaminade Mrs. Rolla H. Brown and Mrs. K. C. Kierce

Girl Scouts

AN ACCOUNT OF THE LAST MEETING OF THE CARDINAL TROOP OF GIRL SCOUTS, TUESDAY, NOV. 21.

By Jerry Catron

At the last Girl Scout meeting, plans for the badges were decided upon and published, also the Scouts were told about the diagram of events for the coming season.

A good many ladies are being so kind as to give the different Scout Badges.

One of the badges that has not been given in the preceding years is to be given for this Court of Awards, namely, the Bugler Badge.

A great many plans have been made for the benefit of the Girl Scouts, and the girls certainly ought to be and I am sure they are, extremely grateful to those kind people who are going to try to make this one a happy year for the Girl Scouts.

A good-night circle was formed a little before five o'clock, and while Peggy Arnold repeated the commands for the color guards, Anna May Huling, Madeline Matchett, Ann Cota and Miriam Mangum who were the color guards went to the front of the room and performed their duty admirably.

There is going to be a lot of tennis for the Scouts and also a lot of hikes in the near future.

I am sure that a vote of thanks comes from every Scout's heart, as she thinks over her blessings and opportunities made for her by Mrs. F. V. Schneider, Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth and many other kind ladies and officers.

-Scribe.

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

FOR SALE: Sunbeam Air-Circulating Heater. Cost $85. Used very little and can be bought at a Real Bargain. Phone 1077-W.

Dr. R. H. Brown OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Murrah Bldg. Phones Office 4108 Res. 1153 DECEMBER IS

CHRISTMAS MONTH

K IRVEN'S announces its annual bounty

For holiday shoppers from any old county We've plenty of space in our well arranged quarters For gifts for parents and their sons and daughters For Babies . . . a dress or a sweater or bonnet For Bridge Hounds . . . a card with a monogram on it For Golfers . . . sweaters, or soft suede jackets For Big Brother . . . a tie (and we know how to pack it) For Boy Friends ... new gadgets for after repeal For Housewives . . . smart things for a holiday meal For Debutantes . . . lingerie, jewelry, hose Evening bags, perfumes bewitching to beaux ... In fact, here at Kirven's it's easy and swift . . . This business of choosing a personal gift And you'll find at the start of the holiday season Instead of retiring to island or isthmus You'll stand up and shout "Bring On Your Christmas!"

Spend Wisely,

Thoughtfully,

Cheerfully

And Start Choosing Now

For your convenience we list our departments and the floor they are on:

MAIN FLOOR-

Handbags, Jewelry, Gloves, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Neckwear, Shoes, Toilet Articles, Men's Wear, Notions Linens, Gift Articles, Piece Goods—Silks, woolens, rayons, cottons—Patterns, Candy.

SECOND FLOOR—

Women's Coats, Suits and Dresses, Millinery, Corsets, Underwear and Lingerie, Infant's Wear, Misses' and Children's Wear, Boy's Wear, Draperies, Rugs, Lamps.

BASEMENT-

Women's Coats, Suits, Dresses, Millinery, Women's Shoes, Children's Shoes, Basement General Store—rugs, underwear, men's accessories, blankets, sheets, spreads, hosiery, pillows, etc.

1944 e.s.

Phone 328

VOLUME III

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

DECEMBER 1, 1933 NO. 32 L. C. KUNZE _Publisher _Editor Sports Editor Louis T. Kunze Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,

Here's To Your Health

BY MAJOR HOMER L. CONNER, Medical Inspector

There is no universal rue of diet that can be applied to all individuals. Each case is different; each needs special study and special dietary regulations. The most beneficial regulation governs the intake of fluid, especially that taken at meals. Many fat persons habitually drink three or four glasses or cups of fluid at each meal. These persons should not take fluid at meals.

Stop this practice and you will lose weight. Drink water only between meals when the stomach is the eating habits of the over-

The taking of drugs, especially thyroid is never safe, except under the advice and constant observation of a physician.

A too rapid reduction of weight is not advisable; rarely is the loss of more than 5 or 6 pounds a month a safe procedure.

Excess weight due to overeating can be controlled. Self control will prolong your life and delay the degenerative changes that accompany advancing age.

Happiness throughout an added 10, 15 or 20 useful, active years is the incentive to a correction in

Reflections Of A Student

How drab the academic area would be without those tiny flower plots surrounding the buildings. We must express our thanks | dens. But the economy act caused to the caretakers who supply these a substitution of sawdust for bright touches. And the present straw in the stables, and our coractivity of fall planting aroused poral fears something will have to our curiosity. No one man is responsible for all the gardens, but ever, from the gentle aroma now instead, the most horticulturally tends t his own back yard. The be strong enough to raise more chief clerk of the second section (spare parts) has furnished the most enterprising example of effort, by his novel strawberry rick. This idea is worthy of mention in Popular Mechanics, and consists of a stack of eight or ten old auto tires, with small holes cut in the rims for the plants to grow out of. A large pipe down the center supthe rest of the stack is filled with finely powdered earth. At present the sight is far from pretty, but in about ten days the plants are to be set out, and next spring will give the effect of a beautiful green four years, and is quite an authoriin spare moments.

The earliest flowers (?) are the tulips, then the dahlias, and finalter still possess flowers from their The corporal these left home one night, and are still on the loose. The bushy trees at the south entrance were planted three years ago, but shade the more delicate flowers, and would have been cut down but for Major Catron, whose eye was more pleased by their virile grandeur, than the delicate colorings of a pansy fertilization. The stables furnish large compost heaps, which in turn used to supply the lawns and garbe used to combat souring. Howemanating from these flower beds, minded denizens of each building the ground this year at least will than a good breath. (N. B., this corporal is the baby who stamps the S or un-S on your tactics, writs, so be careful when retrieving that volley ball from the bosom of his pride and joy).

A new game is being played these days by some of the boys. The actual play is simple enough, plies oxygen to the roots, while and consists only of counting the number of separate and distinct strokes that an instructor uses in drawing his example on the blackboard. However, the element of chance is inviting, and bets may be placed with one's neighbor on whether the number will be odd The chief clerk has been doing or even, or will be between one this sort of thing for the past and ten, ten and twenty, etc. Considerable emphasis must be placed ty on his hobby, which he pursues on past performance in making your bets, and form sheets on the various instructors will be gotten out in the near future. As a startly the chrysanthemums. The lat- er; Major Arms believes in the broad, super diagramatic style, and second litter, which so far have while his pictures cover considerable territory, rarely require more meant to set out more roses this than twenty strokes. Major Bonfall, but due to impending con- ham must be discounted, since he struction in the summer has decid- brings in prepared charts. These ed to wait until a more permanent of course lack the appeal engenspot can be secured. There are dered by squeezing for the instructseveral small yearling walnuts, a or to draw just one more line, and foot high, near the N. W. corner. the true sportsman turns up his He also had some chestnuts, but nose in scorn. There are several more losses in the lineup, caused by a timid few who speak without any chart at all, but hang on to the lecture stand with a death grip. When you get a man like Capt. Bloomquist, who is an unknown quantity, excitement is keyed to the highest pitch. For sometimes he spirals his contours, and sometimes draws them on the before the General's "at home," The big question confronting orthodox manner. His woods may too. We noticed they had pretty gardeners of this sandy region is take one, or a hundred, hues. But good appetites at the tea.

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Nov. 27-At the moment we are experiencing that bane of a newspaperman's existenc, a lull in the activities of newsworthy happenings. We feel that either one of two things is taking place - a close hewing to the line by all and sundry or a total inability on our part to ferret out writeable incidents. If the latter we feel, as we have always felt, that our inexcusable lethargy is inexcusable, and are seriously considering the advisability of ordering a headstone with the appropriate epitaph: "Here lies Major Ramble. What of it?"

We are also beginning to feel just a wee bit lonely at the increasing number of casualties among columnists. At the beginning of the year when five of us were pushing our typewriters diligently, we had a comforting thought that there was safety in by and a few fell by the wayside his peculiar faculty for drawing as he talks, and cross ruffing, (here meaning the erasure of one part of a sketch while putting in another) lead to all sorts of complications and arguments.

The tanks did a pretty good job tearing down those slab quarters on Lumpkin road, but apparently one item of interest escaped them. For as one escort wagon was being unloaded at the dump, a spark lit inside the body. Instantly a strange blue flame broke out, and the last we saw of the episode, an excited sentry was trying to control two still more excited prisoners. These were beating frantically at the fire, while a none too calm skinner attempted to pacify a couple of mules, who figured the business didn't concern them, and that nature called elsewhere.

Incidentally, the whole dump caught on fire the next day, and it seemed not to let the whole thing go up, especially since the prevailing wind rightly carries that peculiar "dumpy" smell over the twin villages.

Here's a hint to instructors. When asking a question of 'Moore,' be sure and specify the victim by initials. Both he and Chief believe in a five minutes' suspense last Monday, until Fred finally broke down and accepted the challenge.

Say, are we proud of Earl Berquist, who won the paper chase last Sunday against a big field! He was also on the team coming in third on the flag race, as you remember. This boy most have that certain something when it comes to horses!

We wonder if there's grim sariasm in the title of that paper, "An Abreviated form for an Estimate of the Situation," that Major Hall handed out? If that is an abbreviated form, a full sized one must consist of a ten volume essay.

Final condolences are in order jaunt Sunday afternoon, by getting themselves lost. The class, divided into small coveys, was wending its way through an acre or so of woods. The exercise was designed to instruct in the use of in the case of these two, amply fulfilled a reputation for deceitfulness.

How they became lost, where they went, and what they did, is still a mystery, but the fact remains that two very weary young gentlemen trudged into the locker room at four-thirty p. m., having walked some four miles. And just

SOCIETY (Continued From Page 2)

The luncheon table was decorated in pink with a silver vase holding pink rosebuds.

Miss Kendall's guest list included Miss Elizabeth Welty, Miss Elizabeth Radicker, Miss Paige Michie, and Miss Dorothy Riess.

TURKEY TOURNAMENT HELD AT OFFICERS' CLUB MON-DAY EVENING

Holding the center of interest in the bridge sections of Columbus and Fort Benning was the tournament for mixed couples which was held Monday, the prizes being turkeys given for the highest scores. Fifteen tables assembled, eight in one section and seven in the other. Winning players were:

First section, Nort hand South, first place, Lieutenant George H. Decker and Calvin DesPortes. Second place Mrs. Dwight Rose baum and Mrs. Andrew J. Evans. Third place. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dismuke.

East and West, first place, Lieutenant August Schanze and Mrs. Colsom. Second place, Colonel third.

the thought began to haunt us the school has been more than numbers. But as the weeks went that perhaps there was some truth successful to date in preparing us in the definition we once heard that a columnist is a man who ought tics closing in on one flank and to be shot for what he gets paid for. We are as yet a trifle uncertain as to whether or not this also applies to an amateur like ourselves but the present dearth of scriveners should at least be a warning to us.

We have felt in particular the apparent inability of the substitute Flare conductor to obtain a substitute to put in as a substitution and were bemoaning the fact that it was beginning to be a cold world. A casual glance at the Benning Daily Gazette acquaints us with the fact that among recent arrivals is the Flare conductor himself and the business of according publicity where publicity is due should again return to normalcy. We trust that his recent illness has not impaired his ability to swing a column as it should be swung and hope his weekly offering will again return to serve us as a guide. If he will the ever alert volunteers were in- but do this and leave behind the stantly on the job. What a shame | ill-luck which from all reports has dogged his foot steps and his running board we will feel amply re-

We listened to an excellent description the other Monday morn by Tactician Johnson concerning the surprisingly large quantity of hangers-on who always appear during maneuvers, apparently gathat silence is golden, and kept us thering from thin air, to hear the regimental commander issue his field order. While no one as yet has been found to act with celerity on our frequent suggestions for the betterment of the service in general we are by no means discouraged and will continue offering pertinent advice when occasion demands. We therefore submit that in this day of impending motorization a greyhound bus or a three-ton truck be added to the many burdens of a harassed regimental commander in order to transport without difficulty this special group of assistant listeners from place to place. This will at least succeed in speeding up matters. In the event it is desired to for McKee and Farris. These two reduce materially such field-order intrepid souls took an unexpected followers we offer the suggestion reduce materially such field-order ten to aclaim our thoughtfulness followers we offer the suggestion but the fact that they turned out that it be mandatory for all listeners to attend astride a horse.

We do feel however that this form of assistance during maneuvers assists in some measure in equipping us with a usable trade aerial photographs as maps, and when we revert later on to a retired status. It should enable us to obtain employment in a railroad yard as a capable assistant to the man who taps the car wheels with a hammer and listens. We would be well qualified to help him lis-

> We have been advised and cautioned quite frequently of late that the next war will see an increasing use of fog, smoke and the cover of darkness. We feel that

Wm. E. Persons and Mrs. Joseph A. Atkins. Third place, Captain and Mrs. Don Faith.

Second section, North and South, First place, Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Schaffer. Second place, Colonel and Mrs. Bonesteel. Third place, Captain and Mrs. Stuart.

East and West, First place, Major and Mrs. Paul W. Baade. Second place, Captain O'Connell and Miss Billington. Third place, Lieutenant and Mrs. Lincoln Jones.

WOMAN'S BRIDGE CLUB HELD FIRST MEETING OF YEAR

The Bridge Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club held its first meeting of this year at the Officers' Club on Monday, November 27th at 2 o'clock. A most delightful year is planned in this Section of the Club under Mrs. John L. Jenkins, chairman.

Ten tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. H. J. Banton winning first prize, Mrs. Fay Ross, second, and Mrs. J. M. Lamont, for such eventualities. With tacsupply on the other our mind is becoming increasingly hazy. We have been in a fog since the week before we delivered our monograph and we find that all graded tests to date have left us completely in the dark as to what to do next. There can be no more evident proof of this than the fact that a number of us have already won the Upatoi University's varsity

The Eagles-Phillips team executed a double envelopment on us last Friday by giving us a twentyminute quiz beginning at highnoon and lasting for ten minutes after we had thought ourselves dry in a three-hour graded test by the supply people. Although we can hardly be accused of due preparation by prior anticipation we had sufficiently primed ourselves on the Boers at Bull Run and Samsonoff in Palestine to be able to pass it only to find that it didn't count.

We appreciate the advice of our esteemed Supply Major Hearn to take hold and start nibbling in supply problems, but we question the accuracy of his analogy in comparing it to a boxer sparring around too long before taking a hold. We feel that the picture should have been one of a boxing wrestler and not of a wrestling boxer.

We feel a deep sense of gratitude to the First Section for permitting us an occasional review to reorganize our tactical thought. We were not fortunate enough to be a member of the group conducted by Gob Dan Norman (we would hesitate to call him that if we had a bad cold) but we were partly fortunate in being in a group in the same building even if it was in the most remote corner thereof. Not a word escaped

In our last graded test in supply we succeeded in giving the troops rolls for breakfast. We hasto be the individual pack rolls leads us to wonder just who was horsing who.

Famous sayings by famous men-Major Johnson (Regiment in Attack): "The peculiar thing about this problem is that it is peculiar."

On Friday faternoon we were treated to another persuasive and interesting discourse by Major Roberts on the superiority of the motor over the horse. We learned that the animals of the average infantry regiment in the combined holidays of a year ate up seventeen Chevrolets, that the motors were less susceptible to panics and (Please turn to page 5)

Xmas GIFTS

S U I T S $16.75 and up

OVERCOATS $11.75 and up

SHIRTS

New styles and patterns. Also in solid colors.
$1.50 and up

ZIPPER JACKETS wool and leather $3.45 and up

SOCKS

Hats, Neckwear and all kinds of Haberdashery

PAYNE CLOTHING CO.

1203 BROAD

SERGEANT HANS FRIIS

(Continued from page 1) capacity saw his return to the Canal Zone, this time as a member of the 33rd Infantry, then stationed there. Within a few months after he began this assignment he was promoted to staff sergeant and was in charge of the communication system of the 33rd.

Back from the Central American possession of the U. S. A., Sergeant Friis returned to the 29th Infantry, where he has served continuously to total 19 years with the regiment. In September of 1933 he was appointed 1st Sergeant of the Service Company of the demonstration troops and served in that capacity until his promotion to Master Sergeant in the spring of 1933.

During the career which started in 1898, Master Sergeant Friis has led an eventful existence, filling assignments that have carried him from one side of the earth to the other. His duties in the Hawaiian Islands, Alaska, Panama, and many of the continental post have substantiated the slogan "Join the Army and See the World."

On the evening of November 23, he shared the reviewing stand with the regimental commander, Colonel William R. Persons, as the regiment paraded before them in honor of his three decades with the Army, and the retirement to be effective on the last day of November.

At the close of active duty Mas-

Facilities . .

This firm provides adequate facilities for handling the accounts of individuals and institutions who buy and sell stocks, bonds and commodities.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK FACHANGE

This is no time for Cold Feet

Nope, this weather is a little hard on people whose shoes do not completely protect them. Have yours repaired by the LA-MAC Process at this shop, and you'll get twice as much wear, satisfaction and comfort out of them.

Shoe and Hat Shop

Post Exchange

Phone 554

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

ter Sergeant Friis states that he will take up residence in Minnethat he intends to tour Florida, Alabama and Georgia until next spring before journeying north and sota, his first American home, but settling.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT PROBLEM

(Continued from page 1) the approach of hostile planes each balloon squad will begin to talk about the adventures of last pay day, blow up the balloon, hook up its net with that of the squad on the other side of the road, feed the net up into the air, and catch all unwary planes that strike it.

There have been some criticisms of Sergeant Chisselers plan. Sergeant Allpurpose is of the opinion that piano wire won't be strong enough and that, in fact, it would be a better idea to throw the piano at the plane instead. But here, as usual, the question of supply comes in. The number of pianos manufactured nowadays is limited, few people in time of depression having enough money to decorate their parlors with one. Then, too, it would be a lot of trouble going around with the company truck to collect enough pianos for the purpose. It is also feared that the jangling sound of a piano striking an airplane on the nose would be bad for the morale of the troops.

In reply to this criticism the inventor states that the secret of the whole business lies in using piano wire of a special kind. It is streamlined and has a sharp, razor edge on both sides. When the airplane hits these edges it is immediately sliced into a number of sections. These sections, the sergeant says, will be just the right size for souvenirs. Although this seems to bring up the matter of transportation again we had better let it go at that.

BENNING DAY BY DAY

(Continued from page 4) epidemics, and that there were no spare parts for a mule. We are not exactly certain just which section or group our good major belongs to but we have a slight suspicion that he is not an instructor in equitation. In fact we feel that if we should perchance meet up with him at the school horse show next week, he will be with us on the other side of the fence.

The most descriptive description of the week came when Major Roberts, in acquainting us with the trials of a certain organization during the war, informed us that when an infantry regiment had diarrhoea, like Adam, it haddem.

Bagatelles: Friend Beall becoming the unfortunate victim in a car-steal . . . Learning the derivation of the military term 'liaison' . . Discovering that in a withdrawal you blow up ammunition depending on whether or not you have engineers . . . Wondering if by any chance he hadn't distorted the sentence . . . The instructor who remarked pologetically, "I'm sorry but I'll have to give you a ten-minute break here" . Hitting for once the school solution to a tactical problem, influenced slightly in our decision by the fact that we had had the same problem three times before from other angles . . . Looking forward to a few carefree days to recuperate from our school daze, prompting the thought that temporarily at least we will enjoy the privilege of being a fugitive from the supply gang.

Drs. Miller & Davis
Dog and Cat Hospital
1006 13th Street

Office Phone 1313

To Toyland Which Opens Friday, December 1st

Be here Friday for the opening of Sears' Toyland! He has prepared so many toy-full, joy-full surprises that you'll have the best time ever! See the autos, the trains and the dolls that almost live! Santa Claus invites you, kiddies, are you coming?

Toys! Toys! Toys!

We have toys of every kind, boats, tricycles, airrifles, blocks, Erector sets, dolls, doll-carriages, toy tables and chairs—everything for every good girl and boy. Come on, come in to see them!

Wagon

These wagons are brightly painted and will stand lots of wear.

$1.00

Scooter

You can speed down the walk on these sturdy scooters. Every boy and girl should have one!

$1.49

Everything at prices you're accustomed to expect at Sears!

1008 Broadway

:--:

Phone 3760

NEWS of This

Smith And Allen Fight To Draw As Baisden Loses In Fights Last Mondav night in the gymnasium was a nice tion in spots but Kid Baisden was boxing show, with considerable action until the last bout, when his common failings, and got rath-Cyclone Smith tried to take an out-of-condition Harry Allen to pieces, but couldn't get him to stay put long enough to put across the finishing blow. The first ten-

PBP... in every step

> Use -1100D-)

Heels and Soles

Hood Rubber Products Co., Inc. Watertown, Mass.

The fight card given Monday rounder of the evening, showed acobviously out-of condition, one of er pale around the gills after the first two rounds. Results in both fights were disappointing to the fans, as Baisden threw in the towel, and the Smith-Allen affair was called a very unpopular draw.

We are not trying to step on any toes, but it does seem just a little bit of too bad that the visiting fighters that come to Benning seem to regard the fights here in the nature of coffee money, and so often show up in poor condition for the battle. It is not just to the Athletic Association, which engages their services in good faith, it is not just to their opponents, who try to make a fight out of it; and it is not fair to the fans who pay their money, and want to see some-as a general rule are always in good shape, and this complaint is launched only at the invaders who stall through the matches, of which there have been several of late.

The remainder of the card was very pleasing to the fans in action and results, although the writer's opinion differed in several events.

Dapper Doyle and Charlie Battle ought a pleasing six-round battle vith Battle making a nice exhibition despite the difference in size and reach between the two. Doyle won a decision.

Chick Lidell and Jimmie Lundy gave another crowd pleasing show, with Lundy getting a decision after the limit. He rushed Chick Lidell badly several times during the oout, and gave a rather poor exhibition of sportsmanship by cutting Lidell's left eye with his elbow.

Heavy Hess and Pep Gausey, two of the old-timers in Benning's ring game fought a nice battle, with Hess absorbing considerable punishment until he parked one on Causey's chin and stretched him for the count. Hess is slower than he once was but the old punch is still there.

Tiger Thompson and Battling Edwards put on a slam-bang exhibition in the first fight of the evening, with Thompson taking the count after a barrage of punching. Edwards' artillery was just too much for the Tiger to stand up under.

The wrestling bout which opened the card pleased the crowd immensely, though there were several features that savored of the exhibitions staged in the bouts downtown. There are good wrestlers at Fort Benning that put on a good show. The bout was well liked, and was a good vaudeville act, but not good wrestling.

29th Overwhelms C.C.C. Team From Camp Butler, Ga.

The Green Wave swamped the C. C. C.'s from Camp Butler last Sunday afternoon to make it three in a row for the 29th and redeem the poor start that they made this

There wasn't the slightest doubt about the outcome after the first two or three plays, and it remained just a question of how high the final score would be.

Only one poor moment came for the Green Wave throughout the entire contest, when the Reforestation Boys punted out on the Doughboys' three yard line, and then crashed through to block the punt from behind the goal for a touchback. It was the only possible way that the visitors could have scored on the 29th, as their plays were smothered on the line of scrimmage, their line leaked yardage like a sieve, and the only way that they gained what little ground they did was by the strenuous use of a short pass into the flat zone.

The final score of the game, 37-2 would have been much larger if Coach Decker had not used the opportunity to test out his reserve, and figure a few combinations to use in case of necessity. Every man in the 29th squad saw action, and all of them showed up nicely.

29th Inf.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY FIRST BATTALION

Rad hot right off of the press is this choice bit of news Headquarters Company First Battalion. Everyone had been rather busy around this communication outfit for the past week with general inspections, overnight maneuvers thing for it. The Benning boxers and turkey day dissipations included in the past few days' activi-

> Our first Sergeant, namely Pink E. Bryan is on furlo at the present and is enjoying himself immensely with his dogs and guns in search of the elusive quail and rabbits. Staff Sgt. H. Justice has taken over the duties of 1st. Sgt. during "Pinkie's" absence and Sgt. Albert Bagley is holding down the communication chief's position.

We haven't heard any more reports on "Left Jab" Prince lately but it is expected that he is recovering rapidly from the blow. At the full field inspection the other day someone asked him why he didn't display his crown on his bunk instead of his hat and another snooty individual told him that his name had been changed on the duty roster to King in place of Prince inasmuch as he (Continued on page 8)

Serve

The Life Of The Party

NOVEMBER 30TH

Thanks to the Almighty Thanks to President Roosevelt Thanks to Fort Benning Thanks to Congress Thanks to our friends

We thank You.

The Provision Company, Inc.

Give Outdoor Gifts THIS YEAR!

for children and grownups!

Let your family join the others in the "great outdoors" this year. Give outdoor gifts, ones that will be sources of lasting pleasure to the boys and girls and grownups too! The Main Branch has a large selection of athletic equip-

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

CHANCELLOR Co.

MEN and BOYS' WEAR

Columbus, Georgia

Offers you the largest selection of Clothing, Furnishings and Hats

> AT PRICES AS LOW AS LAST FALL and in some instances even lower

A PLEASURE TO PROVE THIS

MAKE OUR STORE YOUR CHRISTMAS HEADQUARTERS

Gifts Men and Boys Appreciate ARE GIFTS TO WEAR

Chancellor

Fort Benning's Columbus Headquarters

MEN and BOYS' WEAR

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

Editor's Note: The Archaeological Department of the Public Relations Office, digging down through the dust of ages, has uncovered a series of manuscripts dating back to the days when the fish-pools of Hebron dotted the plains of the reservation, and the cry of the whiffenpoof filled the land.

For SUNDAY DINNER

Foremost will always be the best dessert you can get. Surprise the family and please each of them by serving Foremost every time.

Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES,

INC.

Upon translation by the ubiquitious Kibitzer, these proved to be the proverbs of Captain Solomon, more popularly known as the "Lamentations of Job." These, the manuscript avers, were dedicated by the C. O. to Sergeant Gib-Eh-Ni, upon the approach of his majority, and contain much that is of interest to students of military history, paralleling, as closely as they, the army life of today.

Proverbs of Captain Solomon

On Ne'er-do-wells; the recording of their misdeeds; the manner of their service; and their discharge.

1. Some soldiers there be who drill not to prosper, but labor by persuasion of armed men.

2. The days of their service seem endless and are full of trouble; the entries in their service records are in number as the sand of the sea.

3. Yea, verily, their goings and their comings are without number, and their records wax in size like dictionaries; and yet the half is not told, and the company clerk wearieth of oft recording their misdoings.

4. All manner of misdoings is theirs and tho' they drill, it is with a gun corrupted; and tho' they parade it is with buttons half-polished.

5. In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night do they gird up their loins, binding also their sandals upon their backs, and cross in their stealth the mighty Youp-Ah-Toy, for they have no pass to depart openly to the nearby city.

6. Where they anger all by their manner and bearing, and bring contempt on those who seek to wear the uniform aright.

7. They become drunken and are cast into prison with civilians of low repute; reveille cometh; and their voice answereth not the roll, nor can any man swear where they have spent the night.

8. Then doth the wrath of the (Continued on page 8)

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS

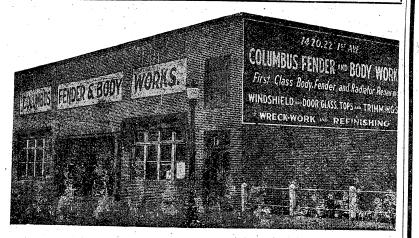

RESOURCES OVER_

$ 600,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

1420 FIRST AVENUE PHONE 165

THE POST EXCHANGE IS OUR AGENT AT BENNING

BUY NOW - -

Suits and Overcoats

Come to Schwob for a grand and glorious array of new fall suits and overcoats. You will be delighted with the many new and smart styles—the clever fabrics and the prices that are so easy on your pocketbook—Schwob and only Schwob can make such quality clothes at such unbelievably low costs.

*1650 and $1950

The SCHWOB Co.

THE STANDARD TAILORING CO.

1037 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The 29th Infantry awarded marksmanship prizes, with Company E. Company H, and Private Fletcher McCrary, Headquarters Company, Corporal Peter Offerman, Co. F, Private Harris Storm, Service Company, Sergeant Otto Parris, Corporal Harry Leftwich, Howitzer Company, and Corporal William H. Ryles, Company H, copping the prizes, which ranged from Elgin watches to civilian suits.

Colonel and Mrs. E. G. Peyton gave a beautiful Armistice Day dinner at the officers club in honor of Brigadier General and Mrs. Briant H. Wells.

General Wells, as new post commandant, was also guest of honor at a reception given by the 83rd Field Artillery at the Polo Club.

The 83rd Polo Team walloped the 29th Malleteers to the tune 11-1.

The Happy Hearts of the 24th Infantry swamped by Tuckegee, lost their first game 10-7, in football.

C. W. A. PROJECTS START

(Continued from page 1) tional hangars and other buildings under the Public Works program. Through funds now alloted by the CWA, it will be possible to extend the usable limits of the field and drain it so that it can be kept in condition at all times.

Many additional minor improvement plans are included in the list of projects recently submitted and now to be carried out.

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 6) was crowned recently. Oh well, better times are coming, Prince, don't feel so bad about it.

And who was the person who engaged in a pillow fight at a recent football game? Another question might be asked as to who came in late the other night and why they were afraid they were going to live before the sun rose on the morrow? Ha!

"Brady's Bombers", a basketball quintet composed of players of this organization are still on the rampage and would like to get a couple of practice games with some other team. Details can be arranged by calling 604 and asking for Corporal Ray, captain of the team.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE SERVICE

We have done our part for National Industrial Recovery having signed the President's pledge.

It remains now for the Administration to do its part to correct the freeze and restore Service pay to its former level.

We gladly contribute our efforts and devote ourselves towards this end.

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

(New York)

MANUFACTURERS OF MILITARY AND NAVAL INSIGNIA AND EQUIP-MENT FOR HALF A CENTURY.

PROVERBS OF CAPTAIN (Continued from page 7) company commander kindle mightily against them; yet on their return he preferreth no charges, for that is too much work in these days.

9. So he admonisheth them greatly and doth threaten them with many words; they smile in their hearts, and laugh mightily up their sleeves.

10. For an angry captain with no recourse to justice is a queer sight

11. So are their days spent in company punishment and their nights in town, yea verily throughout the length of their enlistment.

12. At length the day of discharge cometh and the company commander is rejoiced, the company clerk whistleth as he prepareth the papers, and the heart of the top-kick is made glad at their exit from the morning report.

13. For all things that make the world bitter to the good man the worst is a soldier who hath no pride, having enlisted to avoid work.

Selah!

Lts. Lawrence And Mason Assigned To Ft. Benning

Second Lieutenants George H. Lawrence and Stanhope B. Mason, have been ordered to Fort Benning and assigned to the 24th Infantry for duty, the assignment to become effective upon the completion of their present tour of foreign service. Both officers are now stationed in the Hawaiian Division.

Lieutenant Lawrence and Lieutenant Stanhope are both graduates of the United States Military Academy, West Point, New York, and received their commissions as 2nd Lieutenants on June 9, 1928.

We Make
RUBBER STAMPS
COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

Money To LOAN

up to $300.00

on

Automobiles, Endorsements and other Personal Property.

We cater to the commissioned personnel of the army. Your own personal signature is the only requirement.

SECURITY SAVINGS & LOAN CO.

13th St. and 1st Ave.

Phone 2766

48 million folks Listen

-an estimate of the number listening on a coast-to-coast network

"The great thing Radio can do is to bring Inspired Music into the home"

"It is not necessary to know about music—one can simply feel it, and love it.

"Listening to a cathedral organ or to any great orchestra—who of us has not felt uplifted and refreshed, as by the cool clean air of the mountains?

"To my mind, the great thing radio can do is to bring Inspired Music into the home. My comrades of the Philadelphia Orchestra and I welcome this wonderful opportunity."

Leopold Stokowski
Conductor Philadelphia
Symphony Orchestra

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., the people who make Chesterfield, want you to hear the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra—to many people, the greatest musical organization on the American continent.

We know you will like this music, and although not in the same way we hope you will enjoy Chesterfield—

The cigarette that's MILDER

The cigarette that
TASTES BETTER

COLUMBIA COAST-TO-COAST NETWORK

Every night in the week

VOL. III NO. 33

FORT BENNING, GEORGIA, FRIDAY, DEC. 8, 1933

Ground-Breaking Ceremony Opens Work

The

Conducted By E. F. R.

"Better be damned than mentioned not at all."
—John Wolcot

Keep your heads Down every-body—THE FLARE is Flaming

There has never been a better job of Pinch-Hitting done in any League than the Perfect Performance of "Pinch Hitting" on this Column during our late Languishment. Six times Pinch Hitter came to the Sack and he socked it for a Single every time. He has been importuned, petitioned, and plead with to play regularly, but he has steadfastly refused. In fact he won't even Pinch Hit anymore and has turned in his suit, broken his Pen-holder, and thrown his bottle of Ink out of the window. That is why, Rueful Reader, you find us tapping the typewriter again, and you are all free to write letters of protest to the Editors of the Benning Blast. We are too Wasted and Weak to put up a fight, and besides we never did like this job anyway. And another thing,-if you don't like what we write come around and Sock us, don't Skin us.

CONSOLEMENT FOR A CON-VALESCENT

A few days after our return to Benning, as we curled at ease convalescing on our Couch. a Near Neighbor sent to us a little Jingle which we thought so good that we pass it on to you who may also have suffered. We do not know the name of the Author so we put it in Quotes and let it go at that. "Then hey for the Grippe, for the goodly la Grippe,

For the Frog in the Throat and the Chap on the Lip;

like a cow, And hey for the ache in the back of the legs, And the diet of consomme, water and eggs,

For the mustard that sits on your chest like a cactus For the Doctor you're kindly providing with practus; For Doubleday Doran and A. L.

Burt, For the books you would read if your eyes didn't hurt;

And hey for the pants of which you're so fond,

And the first happy day they're allowed to be donned;

For the first day of work, all bundled in wraps,

And last but not least for the splendid relapse. So let man meet his Maker, a smile on his lips, Singing hey, double hey, for the goodly la Grippe.

We ask your indulgence. We

THE BAD MANIS COMING TO TOWN TODAY! Construction Just

Pancho Lopez, Rural Robin Hood, Swaggers Around Stage in Dramatic Club's Second Production Of Season

and experienced cast, will present the second program of the current season when the curtain rises on Scene No. 1 of "The Bad Man", a comedy-drama, at the Main Theater, Fort Benning on Friday and some of the best talent of the club will be offered.

The play, dealing with life along the Mexican Border, is centered about the "god from the machine" in the person of Pancho Lopez, Mexican bandit and Robin Hood of the Borderland, whose manner setting difficulties straight closely resembles the untying of the famous Gordian knot. bandit arrives unexpectedly and uninvited at the ranch of Henry Smith, uncle of Gilbert Jones, recently returned after services with the American Expeditionary Forces in Flanders, and finds plenty of grounds for his gallantry for the state of affairs, in his own words are in "one damn bad fix." ranch is in a sad state from neglect and has a heavy mortgage to add financial worries to the situation. Smith, strongly urges Jones, his nephew, to marry Angela Hardy, daughter of a land speculator, for her money, to which the boy objects. The drama is enlivened by the presence of Morgan Pell, another land speculator, and his wife, Lucia, former sweetheart of Jones, at the ranch. Pell has antagonized the entire party at the ranch against himself and his ways, so the self-styled "man of destiny" set

The villainous Pell will be played by Lieutenant Aloysius O'Flaherty, an amateur actor of long ex-

The Infantry School Dramatic | perience. He will be remembered | Henry Smith, his uncle, will add Club, made up of a very capable for his capable handling of difficult roles in "The Perfect Alibi" and "Cock Robin", also the Glee Club production of "The Red Mill". In addition to his acting, the dramatic club has many times used his technical knowledge back stage. Saturday of this week. During the course of this presentation lighting and secenic effects. He has been stage manager of many of Benning's most successful produc-

Captain Robert C. Hamlet, who portrays Bradley, a Texas Ranger, has had many years of experience with the Little Theater in the capacity of actor, stage manager and director. He was a member of the Anniston Little Theatre when the organization was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for two successive years. In addition to taking the part of Bradley, Captain Hamlet will be assistant stage manager for the production.

While newcomers to the local audience Lieutenant H. B. Kunzig, as Red Giddings, ranch foreman; Captain Severne S. McLaughin, as Jasper Hardy, business man; Mrs. George H. McManus, as Angela, his daughter; Lieutenant S. C. Wooten and Lieutenant H. W. Quinn as Pedro and Venustiano, Pancho's right hand men respectively; and Miss Ryan as the Mexican Cook will be found capable in the minor roles.

Mrs. Walter C. Phillips will play the leading feminine role Lucia Pell. She will be remembered for her excellent handling of a prominent part in "The Royal Family."

Gilbert Jones, the youthful ranch owner, will be played by Lieutenant James R. Pierce, who so successfully handled the juvenile role in "Is Zat So."

Captain Walter C. Phillips as Theatre

new laurels to his reputation as one of Fort Benning's most capable character actors.

Major Henry B. Lewis, will portray the startling, straight-forward and likable bandit, Pancho Lopez. Major Lewis' record as an actor at Benning needs no expostulation, and it is sufficient to say that most of the succesful productions at the post since he has been here have been staged with his aid. His best known and liked performance as an active Thespian have been "The Red Mill" "Holiday" "Is Zat So," and "The Best Peo

The technical end of the production is in most experienced hands Direction of the vehicle rests with Mrs. Lewis, another of Benning's actresses who is playing a silent part in the current production but directing all of it. Captain Virgil Bell, designer of the settings for 'The Road to Rome" and "Let Us Be Gay" has been selected as stage manager. Mrs. William H. Hobson, together with Lieutenant George Crosby, will be in charge of properties.

"The Bad Man" is a Western play, and will be of great interest to the enlisted personnel of the post because of this fact. For that reason, special arrangements have been made to afford those who so desire, an opportunity to attend. Tickets at a special price will be on sale in all orderly rooms, beginning Thursday, December 7th. These tickets will be good for any seat back of the center aisle at either of the Friday or Saturday performance. The curtain will rise at 8:15, immediately after the first motion picture show at the Main

Started On Thirty Officers' Quarters

The formal beginning of work on the largest construction project under the grant of $6,352,000 allotted to Fort Benning by the Public Works Administration occurred Thursday when Brig. General G. H. Estes, post commandant, broke the ground for the construction of 30 4-family apartment buildings to house students of this post.

The ceremony was attended by a large number of distinguished citizens of Columbus and prominent officers of Fort Benning, with addresses being made by Mayor H. C. Smith of Columbus, General Estes, Colonel Ephraim G. Peyton, post executive officer, Colonel J. DeCamp Hall, post quartermaster, and Mr. E. J. Burns, contractor.

The award of the contract, which totals $991,850, was made by the office of the Quartermaster General, Washington, to the D. M. W. Construction Company, of Brookyn, N. Y., after its bid was selected by Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of Ft. Benning, as the lowest among those submitted on the project.

The speakers for the occasion told of the efforts of Columbus citizens in building up Fort Benning and sentiments that the two communities would continue to work in harmony and mutual helpfulness were expressed. Mr. Burns, of the D. M. W. Company, gave assurance in his talk that the greatest percentage of workers on the project would be recruited from local labor.

The apartment buildings, which will accommodate 4 families each, will solve a critical housing problem at Fort Benning, where a number of the junior officers are now living in buildings of wartime construction, with poor facilities. They are to be located near the edge of the post proper, in the vicinity of the polo playing the Chap on the Lip; For the ice on the feet and the MAJ. GEN. ROBERT U. PATTERSON HERE fire on the brow,

The beginning of construction (Please turn to page 4)

For the Bronchial Tubes that moo Colorful Career Takes Surgeon General Of Army Around World During Period Spent In Foreign Service As Medical Officer

son, Surgeon General of the United spected the company and the band of Columbus Honorable H. ning Monday at 11:30 A. M., from clusion of the inspection of the Dr. J. H. McDuffie, J. Homer Di-Maxwell Field, Alabama, where he troops Major General Patterson mon, Ernest Dismukes and W. C. had been making a visit of inspection for the past few days. While at the Infantry School General Patterson conducted an inspection of the post, from the standpoint of a medical officer. He looked over the entire post, with particular emphasis placed on the work of the Medical Department of this station. General Patterson was welcomed to the post by the usual ceremonies for the occasion. An escort honor Company of the 24th Infantry, formed of the picked troops of the regiment, under the command of Captain Lewellyn D. W. Tharpe with Lieutenants James R. Davidson and David X. Angluin are still marked Convalescent Sick (Please turn to page 6) as platoon leaders, assembled at post headquarters. Upon his ar-Haywood L. Hansell, Major Thom-

Major General Robert U. Patter- rival here the Surgeon General in- as L. Gore and as representative States Army, arrived at Fort Ben- of the same regiment. At the conwas formally presented to the commanding officers of the fort and the staff officers of post headquarters in the office of Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant.

Tuesday morning he made an inspection of the hospital. At 1:30 Tuesday, the Surgeon General was honor guest at a luncheon given at the Officers' Club by Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant, the guest list of which included General Patterson, General Estes, Colonel Charles F. Morse, M. C., Colonel Thomas J. Leary, Medical Corps, Colonel Eph-

Smith, Mayor, Dr. Ashby Floyd, mon, Ernest Dismukes and W. C. Woodall.

Gen. Pattersn's Record

General Patterson, a native of Montreal, entered the service of the army on June 29, 1901, when he was appointed 1st Lieutenant, Assistant Surgeon, U.S. Army. This appointment followed his graduations from the Collegiate Institute and McGill University with the degree of M. D. C. M. His commission was followed by an assignment to the Army Medical School for a course in army surgery, which he completed in 1902. His graduation from the medical institution was succeeded by an orraim G. Peyton, Infantry, Colonel der for duty in the Philippine Islands, with station at Binan, La-

(Please turn to page 7)

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The newly organized School polo team downed the 29th Infantry 9-4 in the fastest game of the season at Benning.

The Infantry gridders walloped the Marines 14-0-and proceeded to polish up plays for the University of Mississippi in the closing game of the season.

Battery C, 83rd Field Artillerv mopped up on B Battery to win the Cannoneer pennant in Football, 13-0.

The game of lacrosse, new to Benningites as a whole, was introduced by Captain Francis H. Wilson, student, who formed an offi-cers' team to play various colleges' in the Southeast.

83rd F. A.

When the Corps Area inspector made his annual visit to the 83rd F. A. battalion Dec. 1, he witnessed the biggest turnout of men since the last yearly inspection, despite the fact, that payday had arrived, and a holiday was just over. Among others that stood forth were the five sets of guns, which, just short by one battery of full regimental equipment, includes 2 batteries of 3-inch guns, 2 batteries of 75's, and one of the big 105's. In addition, just to make an imposing array, there appeared 8 37 mm's, 4 machine guns and 20 auto rifles, and one 45 per man. The infantry hasn't got a monopoly on small

A considerable amount of stepping out was done by the personnel to get things fixed, and even with a 5:00 A. M. reveille we fell short of polishing things up as we wanted to. The gun sheds and stables, together with the barracks, were given a pretty good shine but the horse-manicuring had to be postponed. And were the horses' faces red, when the inspector came around!

the heart of the Q. M. enough to form of a second lieutenant. He some paint to hide the leprous appearance of the stables, as new and old lumber in the same building does look rather spotty.

HQ., HQ. BATTERY & C. T.

The annual inspection is past for this year and from all reports it went over with flying colors. The Inspector was very highly pleased with the general appearance of the battery and the material and stated that the battery certainly must take great pride in its personal appearance.

Everybody works in Headquarters Battery from the Battery Commander on down. Lt. Studebaker and Lt. Griffing are very busy this morning digging a drain ditch at the stables in the rain.

The jumping team is practicing every day for the annual fall horse show to be held at The Infantry School Show Ring this month. The First Sergeant is jumping Shrapnel, the mount of Lt. Thomas who left this month for foreign service. Sergeant Sweger is practicing solo jumping and from all reports is doing very well. He also has mastered the manly art of holding on to his horse's neck.

Cpl. Pike, who holds a commission in the Field Aritllery Reserve Maybe Santa Claus will loosen has blossomed out in a new uni-that Sam Brown belt and those mole skin breeches. The post photographer called for an appointment this morning with Lt. Pike so that he might publish his picture in the home town paper, under the heading "Local Boy Made Good." "The Army Builds Made Good." Men.

Sgt. Tate and Cook Niblett will be discharged this week by expiration term of service and are ready to take on another stack with Headquarters Battery.

BATTERY "A"

The basketball team played its first game in the Battalion Tournament Monday evening Dec. 4 against Battery "C" and emerged victors by a score of 42 to 18.

On Tuesday evening it met Headquarters Battery in the second game, winning to the tune of 53 to 24. Both games were filled with thrills every second of playing time. Starring for Battery "A" were Pfc. Kea, Pvts. Cotney, Mitchell and McGee, aided by the services of Pvts. Hamm and Stewart. Under the coaching of Sgt. Cole and the support of the cheering section, led by none other than "Moon" Underwood, the team should have no trouble in copping the Tournament. Come on gang, get out and root for your team.

Pvt. Gilchrist had to hurry home Tuesday due to the illness of his

Cpl. Thornhill and Pvt. Husband left last Saturday headed for Florida and points south on 40 and 60 days' furloughs respectively. Haven't had any accident reports as yet so they must have arrived safely. Thornhill will probably be singing (Please turn to page 9)

24th Infantry

COMPANY "C"

Captain O. S. Robles, 24th Infantry, has assumed command of Company "C." The members of the company have given him welcome to the company.

COMPANY "E"
Company "E" won another basket-ball game from Company "A" on the 26th. The score was 98 to 10. What a score! Pvt. H. Roy made the first score of the game and Pvt. 1cl. Jessie Johnson made 38 points.

Pvt. Willie Nichols was discharged on the 22d, re-enlisted and obtained a furlough. He expects to visit relatives at New Orleans, La.

Corporal Clinton Grady has been assigned to the Radio School of the 24th Infantry.

COMPANY "F"

The basket-ball team, under the leadership of Cotton Batton, assisted by Pvt. Jack Myers, has at last found its stride, having played ten games and won five. Better work during the remaining games is expected.

COMPANY G

Company "G" is still riding the crest of the wave of sports. The basket-ball team is a machine in which each man has a definite part to play, as can readily be seen by the fact its'standing in the basketball league is 1000 per cent. It has played and won nine games while the rival is second with 800 points. Pvt. McLarkin is high point man with 186 points to his credit, while the second high man has 148 points.

Company "G" sponsored the regimental enlisted men's dance Wednesday night at the Service Club. It was largely attended. The music for the occasion was furnished by the 24th Infantry Jazz Pirates Orchestra, of the universally known 24th Infantry Band. It pleased the guests to a high degree.

HQ. COMPANY

Congratulations to Staff Sergeant Bradford on the addition to his family—Scott Bradford Jr.

Condolences (?) to Staff Sergeant Shelton Reed on the taking of a better half.

A FARM TO RETIRE ON

98 Acres Land, old 5-Room Home, 3 Barns

On St. Mary's Road-Adjoining Ft. Benning reservation. Road connecting directly with Benning Road.

Some good trucking land.

Group of springs on place furnishing amply supply of water for a large lake.

Offers wonderful possibilities for country estate development.

PRICE $1477.50 EDGE & ARMOUR, Inc.

9 - 12TH STREET

PHONE 66

Select Your Gifts Right Now!

Jewelry is the gift that will make Christmas linger longest in the minds of those to whom you give it. It preserves your sentiment just as it preserves its beauty - year in and year

SPECIAL

ELGIN STRAP WATCH

$12.95

Former $25 value

WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD

Select any item in stock! Compare our price with others! If you can duplicate it for less, bring it back and get the difference. Or, if you have already priced jewelry elsewhere, WE GUARANTEE TO MEET IT OR UNDER-CUT THE PRICE.

Rosenberg

JEWELRY COMPANY 1217 BROADWAY

GIFTS MEN AND BOYS APPRECIATE are GIFTS TO WEAR

Leather Jackets $6.50 to $9.95 Zipper Jackets ______ $1.95 to $4.00 Fitted Toilet Cases _____ $3.50 to $10.00 Ladies' Fitted Traveling Cases $7.95 to $15.00 Cheney Neckwear ______$1.00 to $2.00 Initial Linen Handkerchiefs $1.50 box Fur Lined Gloves $2.50 pr. Stetson Hats _____$6.00 Society Brand Suits $35.00

All gifts packed in Fancy Christmas Packages

Chancellor Co.

HEADQUARTERS FOR USEFUL GIFTS

THAT BAD MAN!

Bad Border Bandit, the "Bad Man," of Benning's own is presenting, a collection of costumes! At least play of that name. And what a hectic 21 days those have been! Rehearsals started at the Golf Club, with mere reading and walking through of parts. There the chief interest was the nightly bone a cast of the dice), for the drinks. And then all of a sudden time had slipped by, the theatre was invaded, and acutal trouping, of sorts, begun. Prompting was fast and furious, and for a time it was necessary to even employ a prompter for the prompter.

Hitherto unforseen helped to increase the last minute frenzy. For instance, how to get that Scotch brogue out of Alvarada's voice? Eventually some of the lines were changed, and the doned. Then there was tiny Angela, who was supposed to grab a towering ranch foreman around the neck. A hug was substituted, though her hands still don't meet. And this same foreman had to be the stage! taught to roll a cigarette and play a harmonica. After six bags of Bull Durham had failed, along with hours of musical endeavor, a Carolina built fag, and an off stage musician were resorted to.

"Chizzler" Crosby has proven his worth as prop boy. In fact many of his friends bear witness to the fact that when it comes to locating needed props, and obtaining them free of charge, he has no equal. Chizzler's big line is eight chimes on the clock, and he holds the record as the first player to learn his part. Other of his inventions include the offstage hoof beats, played by a couple of Mexicans knocking on the floor with empty coconut shells. His only difficulty here was caused by an argument as ot which had to be the hind legs. This was solved by only using horses having four front legs. And when you see Red's hat hop off its peg (we hope) be assured that Capt. Hamlett has hit the mark with his pea shooter.

The Costume Company did its bit to help the show along, by sendis here at last! Today, after 21 ing left handed holsters, and .38 days of rehearsing, a little band blanks for 45 pistols. And what (with varying degrees of fear, three of the males spent the evtrepidation and confidence), the ening at home after the first dress rehearsal, laboriously sewing up odd rips, from pants' seat to braid.

It is rumored that our beloved Pat O'Flaherty has been bribed into a liquid diet, in view of the fact rolling by the entire cast (with that he must be bodily lifted from the stage by two underfed peons. However that may be, it is doubtful if said diet could have any appreciable effect in such a short

The play is supposed to be comic, and in order to assist in pickthrust themselves to the fore, and ing up cues, simulated laughter during rehearsals, was inserted in spots. But after such long repetition it was extremely difficult to detect any humor whatever in fateful long "a" in "Madre" aban- the script, and it is sincerely hoped that the audience will be good enough (no matter how painful) to laugh at the selected times. And by the way, a happy thought. There are just thirteen actors on Hiers and Cox were observed the other day helping the 1st sergeant, the first time that anyone has been observed doing so in some weeks. Everyone is caught sooner or later.

ENGINEERS

The cagesters of the outfit have been cleaning house in the Special Units league, with one win from every team. If this pace keeps up, and three out of the next four games are won, it looks like the pennant will fly from the Pontooneer flag-pole.

The two Reeves boys have invented a new game; making the bus departures coincide with their three day passes. When a pass is granted, the busses don't run; and when the busses run, a pass isn't

Write your own music. The kick-and-run boys of the soccer team crave games, having (Please turn to page 6)

Our DeLuxe Service

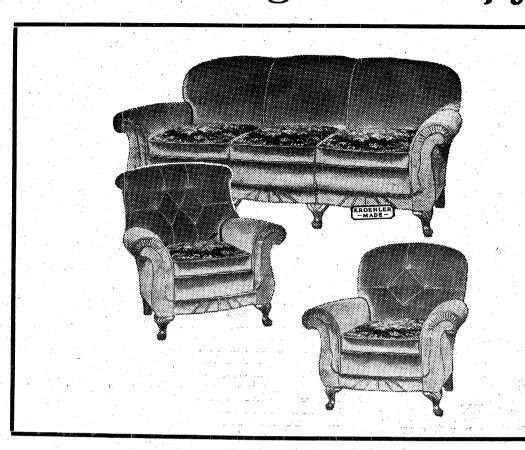

. . . will greatly assist you in doing your shopping early. Have your car put in shape for the shopping season, and it will prove to be an unparalleled convenience to you. Our service includes chassis lubrication, thorough vacuum cleaning, and a mechanical inspection involving thirty-three operations.

Post Exchange

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

FURNITURE The Lasting Xmas Gift!

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

Living Room Suites Dining Room Suites Bed Room Suites

SMOKING STANDS • MAGAZINE RACKS • OCCASIONAL CHAIRS

DRUM TABLES • WRITING DESKS • SECRETARIES • EASY CHAIRS • END TABLES • BOOK CASES • CEDAR CHESTS • COFFEE TABLES

TEA WAGONS • FLOOR LAMPS • BOUDOIR LAMPS • DRESSING TABLES • VANITIES • PIANOS, too

Small down payment — Balance to suit your convenience

ROADWAY 1 1 3 2

公園SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS図

Engagement Of Miss Athleen Munson To Woman's Club Hears Lt. R. C. BrisachOf Widespread Interest

Of interest throughout Army and civilian circles is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Athleen Leigh Munson, daughter of Colenl and Mrs. Fred L. Munson of Fort Benning to Lt. Raymond Charles Brisach of Fort Benning.

The bride elect is one of the most popular members of this year's debutante set at Fort Benning and Columbus. She graduated from St. Mary's College in Raleigh and last winter attended the University of N. C. Lt. Brisach son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Bresach of New York City, graduated from the West Point Military Academy with the class of 30, he is assigned to Fort Benning as a student of the Company Officers' Class.

Plans for the wedding will be announced in the near future.

GIGLIO'S

Food Department Store

Can furnish you with every Christmas delicacy. We invite you to come in and look around.

BUY your fruit cake materials from us. Our fresh and complete stock will be your greatest help.

WE ALSO INVITE YOU TO PATRONIZE OUR MEAT MARKET

Columbus, Ga. 1025-27 1st Ave.

Officers' Charge Accounts Solicited

TWENTY LADIES' NINTH INFANTRY BRIDGE CLUB

MEETS The 29th Infantry ladies' bridge club which has its regular meeting the first Tuesday in each month assembled Tuesday at the 29th Infantry Officers' Club Building with Mrs. John J. Albright, Mrs. Lynn E. Brady, Mrs. Henry C. Britt and Mrs. Ernest M. Clarke acting host-

Six tables of contract bridge were played, while several ladies came in for tea at 4:15.

Among the other bridge clubs meeting on Tuesday was that of the ladies' Artillery Club which met at the attractive quarters of Mrs. Pierre Mallette on Austin Loop, Five tables assembled for play at 2 p. m. followed by tea at four. Assisting Mrs. Mallette at the tea table was Mrs. Clayton Studebaker.

The Tank Ladies' Bridge Club met for lunch on Tuesday at the Officers' Club at 1 p. m. with Mrs. Dwight A. Rosebaum as hostess. After lunch bridge was enjoyed.

OFFICERS' CLUB ENTERTAINS WITH REGULAR THURSDAY EVENING SUPPER DANCE

No form of entertainment at Fort Benning has proven so popular as the Thursday evening supper

Thursday of this week the Club was decorated most attractively with pine boughs and chrysanthemums. Around a hundred reservations were made for dinner and dancing.

Making reservations were: Col. and Mrs. Kelley, Col. and Mrs. Taylor, Capt. and Mrs. Hull; Capt. and Mrs. Buracker and several no-hostaffairs were also added to the list.

Musical Program

The program of the Infantry School Woman's Club for the December meeting was full of the spirit of Christmas.

As the members and their guests entered the rustic Polo-Hunt Club they realized Christmas was "just around the corner." For the House Committee, under the able leadership of Mrs. Robt. Mangum, had beautifully decorated the Club with pine boughs, cotton snow balls, and lighted Christmas trees. A most attractive feature was the group of electric candleabra encircling the stage.

After a brief business meeting conducted by the President, Mrs. Phillip S. Wood, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. R. W. Pearson, a member of the Program Committee, who had arranged the entertainment for the afternoon.

The Club is indebted to the Orpheus Club and the boys' choir of Trinity Episcopal Church, directed by Prof. Vonderau of Columbus for the delightful afternoon of mu-

The program was announced by Mrs. Pearson as follows:

2 Pianos: Valse" from Arensky Suite Mrs. J. H. Jenkins, Mrs. G. Shackelford Jesu Bambino" Pietro Yon; Violin Obligato, Mrs. Harley Prixie Pipers", De Heath Cuckoo Clock," Young Mrs. W. B. Rainey, soprano.

Accompanied by Mrs. Rolla Brown

"Adoration," Borowski
"Caprice," Carter

"Fairy Sailing," Burleigh Mrs. Lela Langford, violinist, Accompanied by Mrs. K. C.

Ave Maria," Schubert Hills," La Forge

The Holy Child," Martin Mrs. Fred Garret, Mezzo Soprano, Accompanied by Mrs. Rolla Brown.

2 Pianos:

Coronation Scene—Moussorgsky from "Boris Goudonoff" Mrs. Rolla Brown Mrs. K. C. Kierce

group of Christmas carols sung by the boys' choir ended the program and tea was served.

Mrs. Robert S. Lytle was hostess for the afternoon while Mrs. E. G. Peyton, Mrs. W. B. Wallace, and Mrs. J. H. Stutesman poured.

While tea was served the pictures of the late Miss Elizabeth Tinker Elmore were on exhibit.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Burrell Cole of Columbus spent several days as the house guest of Lieut. and Mrs. G. P. Harrell.

Mrs. James E. Pierce spent the Thanksgiving holiday as the house guest of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Orendorff of Birmingham, Ala.

Lieut. Col. Rowan Lemly accompanied by their daughter Katherine spent the weekend as the house guest of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Thos. Lowe of Atlanta, Ga.

Lieut. Cobb was the house guest over the week-end of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe of Atlanta,

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

FOR SALE—Quilt 150 yrs. old, Antique furniture, antique vases and other bric-a-brac, etc. For appointment call 776-J.

Capt. Blue and Lieut. James E. Matthews motored to Thomasville, Ga., to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with friends.

Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Morgan of Ft. McPherson plan to spend the coming weekend at the house guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Geo. D. Crosby. Lieut. and Mrs. Morgan in the Philippines.

Lieut. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen returned Wednesday from Philadelphia where they attended the Army-Navy Game.

Mrs. Kramer Thomas left Fort ments, $180,000. Benning on Thursday for an in-definite visit with friends at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Mayor General Patterson, Surat Fort Benning for several days. year.

GROUND-BREAKING CERE-MONY OPENS WORK

(Continued From Page 1) on this project brings the total of work now underway at Fort Benning under P. W. A. funds to over $4,000,000, which is being devoted to permanent construction. Among the larger projects already under way with approximate amounts of the bids are 11 sets of noncommissioned quarters, $71,888; barracks for Service Battery, 83rd Field Artillery, $103,965; 73 sets of ofare enroute to their new station ficers' quarters, $886,500; 23 sets of officers' quarters, $295,000; 14 sets of officers' quarters, $170,000; barracks for the 24th Infantry. $745,000; and 3 bachelor apart-

Projects to be placed under contract in the near future will consume the entire amount allotted to Benning by the P. W. A., pregeon General, has been a visitor sumably before the first of the

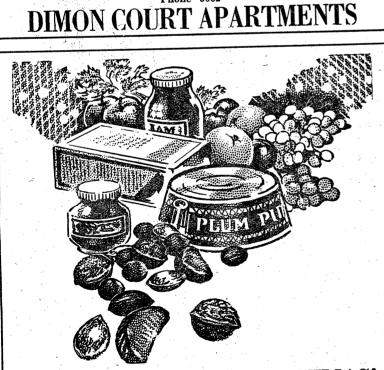

39 REASONS:

Each one of our thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHII H. FURNITURE COMPANY

For 39 Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealers

CONVENIENT LOCATION-MODERN EQUIPMENT

RATES REASONABLE Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

GOOD THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS!

Load up your table this Christmas with real holiday goodies, nuts, fruits and candies which will lend the real Christmas spirit to your menu. We have a complete assortment, and our stock is all fresh and tempting!

GROCERY

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the military service

Literary Section The program is under the direc-Of Woman's Club Meet On Monday

The Fall Fiction meeting of the Literary Section of the Woman's Club will be held at the Polo-Hunt Club on Monday afternoon at 2:15.

The Ideal Gift

Give your friends Canary Songsters $3.75 Parrakeets, pr. $5.00 & $7.00 Fine Pottery Urns, Etc. Choice Pecans a Specialty Valley Seed Co.

1041 Broadway

for the HOLIDAYS

We will supply you with ice cream in special molds, in brick or in bulk for your holiday needs. Call us in town for your mold orders, or call the Soda Fount for your hurry orders!

> Call The Soda Fount

FOREMOST DAIRIES,

INC.

tion of Mrs. C. M. Easley.

A resume of the entire field of fiction will be given by Mrs. Easley. She will give short annotaions of many books which will not be reviewed at length at on the program, but which are of varied interest and appeal.

Mrs. P. S. Wood will review 'Lamb in His Bosom," by Miller, and "Gay Life," by E. M. Delafield.

Mrs. Lloyd Barnett will discuss John Galsworthy's "One More River," and Dorothy Canfield's "Bonfire."

Mrs. H. L. Harries who is noted for her book reviews in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat and the Atlanta Constitution will review "Oil for the Lamps of China," by A. T. Hobart, and "Mr. Darlington's Dangerous Age," by Isa Glenn.

Mrs. J. A. Otto will discuss Janet Beith's "No Second Spring," Williamson's "Woods Colt," and Louis Bromfield's "The Farm."

Red Cross Class Is Completed Here

In a First Aid Course of the American Red Cross, which has been carried on at the Infantry School for the past two weeks under the direction of Field Director Frank A. Cashel, with Corporal Armand J. Parr, Company F, 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) acting as instructor, the following enlisted men of the 29th Infantry have completed the standard course: Corporals Frank Lavender and Frank Palmer, Hq. Co., 2nd Bn.; Sergeants Henry T. Gurley, William M. Southerland, Raymond E. Dalby, Corporals James L. Lowman and Paul Raines, Co. B; Corporals Joseph J. Armand, Jas. O. Curry, Orville L. Dilley, Arthur C. Hensley, Dewey H. Lane, John B. Mc-Coy, Lorenzo E. Brooks, Co. F; Corporals Hubert E. Spears, and Jas. H. McLane, DeRoy Tyler, Co. Privates Theodore C. Entrekin, G; Corporals Jas. L. Faircloth and William B. Linkous, Private Willis K. Caupp, Cannon Company; Privates Laudis A. Coleman, Louis G. Comstock, Roy Garland, Ralph R. Hardin, Dean A. Littlefield, and Grady B. Palmer, Co. H; Privates Ledford Calson, Joseph A. Conway, Douglas H. Eatmon, E. C. Johnson and John W. Zeien, Service Company, 29th Infantry.

1105 BROADWAY

TELEPHONE 512

Kinsel & Petri Company

Jewelers

Stock purchased by Max Rone

This lot is now on sale and has a greatly sacrificed stock of fine diamond rings, watches and brooches, silverware of such brands as Gorham, International, Towle, Schofield and other reliable trade marks. TRULY A FEAST OF BARGAINS!

Selling out complete stock regardless of cost

PRE-Unismas Clearance

DRESSES

Formerly $49.50

$25.00

Formerly $29.75

$16.75

Formerly $19.75

$14.95

Formerly $15.00

$10.95

Formerly $8.95

$6.95

SILKS and WOOLENS

Second Floor

MILLINERY

Felts

Fabrics

Velvets

Formerly $2.95 to $4.95

$2.00

Second Floor

Store Hours 9 to 6

of the reservation known to be

BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

NO. 33 DECEMBER 8, 1933 ME III KUNZE____Publisher _Editor C. Howell____Society Editor Sports Editor T. Kunze____Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald eves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Berning Herald by mail to any address in the United States possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN

HICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

ORT BENNING, Dec. 4—The ct of a graded test on the stumind is closely akin to the ing engendered by a skittish on the student body. The at supply exam is a good exple. As we got nearer and errer to it we found our confi-ce oozing like the tarred cracks July on a Georgia highway unfinally, to keep our lagging rits up, we would find ourselves consciously humming aid of the big, bad wolf?" By peating this often enough and and enough we were able to bethe exam with a normal bloodessure, and the completion of first reading of the problem and us with more plans than an chitect. The second reading set a-wondering as each new angle isclosed itself and by the time started writing an ominous celing of losing our grip had beun to set in. We soon reached e state when an unshakable conaction told us that we were fighting the problem with our shoulds pinned to the mat. At four clock when that mournful sound, Papers in," greeted us we regret ally staggered forward on the verge of the galloping jitters, feeling as though we had skirted the end for an eight-yard loss. It must be the fog of war.

Our Thanksgiving turkey found us well prepared to do a week-day noon meal full justice, after a long siege of sandwich lunches which, matter how delectably pre pared, soon finds us munching them disinterestedly. If anyone had lingered behind us during the meal we fear we must have suggested a rear view of a snaredrummer playing "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

After eating much too much and, after polishing all bones we conscientiously obeyed the advice of Doc Dabney, he whose philosophical and timely suggestions have a way of removing the ills and chills of the monograph-stricken and beyed his injunction to shove away from the table. We have a vague recollection of settling back in our red-plush surroundings, sated, pleasantly torpid and at peace ith the world, feeling like a python at the zoo that has just absorbed four guinea pigs.

We did manage to slip in one day of bird-hunting during the holidays but the nearest we came to bringing home some game happened when a squirrel unexpectedly crossed our path, We managed to get off one shot at him and we feel sure we must have hit him as he seemed to travel faster after we tripped the trigger.

While driving the last part of our journey out we almost succeeded in bagging a pedestrian with a goatee. If properly mounted he would have made an especially fine specimen head for the looky in Mien Host Dowdall's Tav---- ian era leaves us in a sort of quandary. We had always had a feeling while on duty with one of the civilian components that the main difference between a saloon and a salon was that one of them had two O's. Just where we stand with a wet law in a dry state leaves us a bit confused. However the return of the pretzel, the cracker with cramps, does remind us hat there is still some question of the conclusive proof of sobriety. One school of thought believes that man should be pronounced sober if he can say "linoleum" whereas a recent tendency, to our mind slightly unfair, has been to require one to say "standard statistics."

Our personal nomination for the best answer of the week goes to our fellow student, thoughtfully left unnamed by Historian Eagles, who, in response to the question in the recent military history quiz, Which Russian Army, Rennenkampf's or Samsonoff's, first crossed the German border?" replied, Von Prittwitz."

Honorable mention in the same exam goes without competition to the unfortunate individual who guessed wrong on all five of the Γrue-False questions.

Our personal nomination for the pest conference of the week goes to Tactician Arms for his presentation on security.

Cuff-notes: Wondering if our turn to answer a monograph question is soon to come. Somehow to date we have had a feeling akin to that of the old maid, always ready but never called . . . The well-earned holiday rest has found us, like the Blue Eagle, well on the way to recovery . . . Logistician Kraft demonstrating the phonetic spelling of withdrawal . . Our good friend Jimmy Carnes, taking the lead with seventy-two questions asked . . . Wandering around Block 14 the other night trying to locate our dinner-party host's quarters when we saw an unrecognizable couple proceeding in single file. Usually the one who is three paces ahead is the one who is mad. . Fighting in compartments in Tuesday's problem, handicapped perhaps by an insufficient amount of Pullman training . . . Maj. Arms' rare story of security in the Afghan country which we especially recommend for the next Officers' Club mixed bridge party . . . Learing that an OP is an observatory . . . The amiable Bill Kunzman disclaiming all responsibility for parking his car in the path of the motorized kitchen . . . Major Kraft's thoughtful announcement two days before Thanksgiving, "If there are any more questions you can bring them up Thursday" . . . Major Heileman, the school's engineer expert, m his vivid description, "Troops etting their feet wet up to the

Wisions of

THE FLARE

(Continued From Page 1)

and consequently we haven't gone giving Dinner. They built them pround much and probably the lit- a Blind in what looked like Thankstle we have to offer this week in giving Turkey country, baited the he Flare is stale stuff. So if you foreground with Cranberry Sauce have heard all this before, stop and Pumpkin Pie, and sat them-reading and turn the page. We can selves down with their trusty guns ecommend highly the Benning Day by Day Column. You won't find anything old or insulting in Thank you for your Flowers last week, Major Ramble.

WOOD DOESN'T WONDER ANY MORE

You no doubt have heard of the Wood Sisters have you not? You know-Rose Wood and May Hogany. A distant cousin of the pair is at present carried on the Rolls as an Instructor in the First Sec-Not so very long ago the serenity and somnolence of the First Section's War-Time-Built Shack was shattered by an uproar and hubbub on the second floor. The noise became so great that Chief Woolnough put on his hat .nd went home. Even Mrs. Johnson had to stop thumping her ypewriter and go over to the Club or a nerve-quieting Coke. Finaly Even-Tempered Terrell went up stairs to see what might be the matter. There was Old Phil Wood tamping up and down the corrilor tearing his hair with one hand, wildly waving a typewritten sheet of paper with the other. Spying Terrell, Phil stopped his wild pac-"For the love of Mike, Chick, old Chum, Please explain this Diective to me. I can't make a damn oit of sense out of it." Chick took one look at the offending paper and handed it back with the remark "Well Woody old Bean, if you don't understand that, I don't ee how you expect me to. You wrote that Directive yourself last week."

GIRL GOES WEST

Many years ago Horace Greely gave to the masculine part of the country theadvice "Go West, young man. Go west." For decades that sex-discriminatory advice has gone unchallenged. It remained for a scintillant Cinema Star of the present day to give the favored feminine faction a break. Lovely Lady after Lovely Lady is now "Going Mae West." Benning was a bit slow but we now have our Mae West contingent. It is true that at present writing the Contingent consists of only one, but you know how such things grow. At a recent tea on the Post an Up-to-Date Dame from Rainbow Row timidly took her first step Westward. She didn't go completely West nor did she start in to work from the ground up. She began at the top by wearing a marvelous masterpiece of millinery that Mae West would give her own non-Angelic Soul to own. The Hat was such an instantaneous Hit that the Dame from Rainbow Row decided to go all the way. She has abandoned the athletic activities for which she is famous and has doubled her diet. Her Marching Song, in the chorus of which all her friends along the Row join lustily, is-The Curves are Coming, the Curves are Coming. It won't be long now before Fort Benning can point with pride to its own Mae West.

HONORABLE HUNTERS

There is an old Maxim, or a Parable, or an Axiom, or Something which says "There is always Honor among Thieves." Well the Honor among Thieves is a Babe in Arms compared to the Honor and Sportsmanship among the Hunting Hounds (men, not dogs), at Benning. We know of at least two cases where this Sportsmanship has deprived the Sports of their Spoil: In the interest of Economy, so they told their Wives, but really because they are Hunters at heart, Bunny Hobson and Cannonball Pierce went out into athwart their knees waiting for wild Turkeys' appearance. seems that both the Written and Unwritten Law of Turkey Shooting is that the Gobbler of the Species is Fair Prey for any Nimrod's Blunderbuss, but the Hen Turkey is Sacredly Safe from the shoot ers. Hobson and Pierce knew this law and so had looked up in the Book of Knowledge the characteristic features of the two types of turkeys and were sure they could tell a Gobbler from a Hen in the dark with both hands tied. We have digressed, so we now return to the Blind and our Hopeful Hunters. After hours of watchlui waiting there came a stir in the underbrush and three Turkeys strolled up to the open space in front of the Blind and began to make a meal from the Bait. Hobson awoke first and, spying the game, tried to train his trusty musket on the turkeys without waking his Companion in Arms. rierce, however, is a Light Sleeper-that is, he sleeps as well when it is light as when it is dark-and ne awoke just before Bunny pulled the trigger. With a quick glance at the Baited Birds, Pierce truck up the pointed gun with a ry of "Don't shoot, Hobson. Those are Hen Turkeys." During the confusion the Turkeys took to the woods, Buuny thanked Pierce for keeping him from being a poor Sport and shooting a Hen Turkey, and they both went back to sleep. Hours later Pierce awoke and spied two turkeys in front of the Blind. He was just drawing a sead on them when his Co-Hunter Hobson woke up and prevented rierce from firing. "Look what you almost done did, brother ierce, can't you see those are Hen Turkeys just like the ones I almost shot?" During the talking the turkeys took to the tall timber. No more birds appeared before dark so the two Hunters wended their way home, turkeyless, out with the satisfied feeling that they had not been Unsportsmanlike enough to shoot a Hen Turkey. They told of their experience the next day to Sergeant Pete Thompson, described the looks of the birds, and spent a happy hour when Sergeant Pete convinced them that they had passed up Gobblers instead of Hens.

FOOT BALL GAME SATURDAY

What will probably be Benning's last Foot Ball Game of the season will be played Saturday afternoon, December 9th, between the 29th infantry and Bowden College. It should be a Bang Up Game and An added well worth attending. feature, we have been told, will be the Cheering and Song Section. Mike Gillespie, who proved his ability along this line by organizing the songs and cheers so successfully at the Thanksgiving Hop at the Officers' Club, will probably be present in person and if sufficiently urged may Supervise the Shouting.

ANOTHER TURKEY TALE

A Paragraph or two back, we told of the Honor among Hunters which does not permit the shooting of Hen Turkeys. It seems there is another rule of Fair Play by the application of which Major Handicapper Kraft failed to furnish his Larder with a Turkey Dinner. It seems that the proper procedure in trailing the elusive turkey is for the Hunter to build himself a Blind in a part of the woodland inhabited by turkeys, catter Turkey Bait in front of he Blind, lie in wait, and when he gluttonous Gobbler comes out o eat, the Hunter tries to shoot the woods last week to get them nim full of holes before he can get Wild for the portions back in the brush. The portions inhabited by turkeys are not very extensive and there are many hunters. It frequently is necessary hat the Turkey Blinds be built in close proximity to one another. This being the case it is considered very poor form for one hunter to fire from his blind at a Turkey who is feeding in front of another Hunter's Blind. A few days ago Kraft donned his Boy Scout Hunting outfit and went out to his Blind to get a Turkey. Right next door to Kraft's Blind was one built by old Doc Dabney and Cap Cut-up Clark and as Kraft arrived at his own Blind he found his Neighbors had just baited their Hunting Ground and were crawling into their Blind. Kraft baited up, dug himself in, and watchfully waited. In about an hour a nice fat Gobbler emerged from the brush and proceeded to feeding in front of the Dabney-Clark Hang-out. Kraft's Finger trembled on the trigger but No-he would not shoot a Bird in a fellow Hunter's Feeding Ground. No shots from the neighboring blind and after a few minutes Mr. Gobbler strolled back into obscurity. Soon another Turkey appeared and he, too, strolled over to the neighboring Blind. Again Temptation assailed Kraft but Sportsmanship was stronger than Desire and, as no shots came from the Blind, the Turkey filled up on Free Lunch and went back into the woods. This was all the Spartan Kraft could stand. He climed out of his hole and walked over to see what could be the matter with his fellow Hunters. He soon found out. Both Danney and Clark weré sound asleep.

DRAMATIC DOPE

The Dramatic Club's second offering of the Season is "The Bad which is being presented at Man'' the Theatre Friday and Saturday nights, December 8th and 9th. Major and Mrs. Lewis are directing the Play and Major Lewis has the leading Male Role. We have seen several rehearsals and we can assure our readers that if they miss this production they will miss one of the best staged and acted Plays they have ever had the opportunity of seeing. The Production to follow "The Bad Man" has not yet been decided upon but the Dramatic Club Directors are daily endeavoring to reach an agreement. A Revival of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" has been suggested but it would seem too bad to start the Prohibition question all over just after the successful fifteen years' work of The Crusaders and The Society for the Repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. A Revival of Uncle Tom's Cabin has been definitely turned down. They still nave the Works of Shakespeare and Eugene O'Neill to consider. After those a few Modern and Ancient Comedies will be looked over. You can expect a definite announcement soon.

CITATION FOR THE WEEK

The Citation for this week goes without a dissenting vote to Major and Mrs. H. B. Lewis for their Prefect Production of The Bad Man.

> ENG_NEERS (Continued from page 3)

shown wonderfully in practice. Any teams with competition to offer please write or call Company A, 4th Engineers.

Displaying unusual enlargement of the heart as a result of the natty showing at last week's Saturday inspection, the company commander let the outfit off for the rest of the weck. Hard work in the same line might also induce a Wednesday afternoon off once in a while.

"Crip" Thomas has put in the papers for a short discharge, thereby making a secous breach in all engineer athleuc teams. Goodbye and good luck, or:p, and if you are ever in this neignborhood, why goncha c'm up 'n see us s'mtime?

GENERAL PATTERSON HERE (Continued From Page 1) guna as assistant to the Surgeon

Facilities

This firm provides adequate facilities for handling the accounts of individuals and institutions who buy and sell stocks, bonds and commodities.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER 13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK FACHANGE

and Sanitary Officer. He stayed From that date until July of 1911 here for a short time and was transferred to the United States Convalescent Hospital, Corregidor Island for duty. From September 1902 until his return to the states in 1905, General Patterson served at Camp Vicars, Samboanga, where he participated in several expeditions including those of Lake Lanao, Second Sulu, Serenaya against Datt-Ali, Simpetan, Cabacan, and Pikit. These engagements were terminated by an appointment as sanitary inspector, Headquarters Philippine Division at Manila. After completing a round-the-world voyage, for such was the case in the days before the Panama Canal. General Patterson was stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco, California. Following the San Francisco Earthquake in 1906 he was engaged in sanitary work in that city and his labors, in connection with other army officers of the Medical Department, was a major factor in holding the death rate of the catastrophe to a minimum. In June of 1906 he was promoted to the rank of Captain and in July of that year he moved with Company B, Hospital Corps to Vancouver Barracks, Washington.

the Surgeon General carried out assignments at Newport News, Virginia; Camp Columbia, Cuba, where he was stationed as executive Officer of the Base Hospital; Surgeon of the 27th Infantry; duty at Walter Reed General Hospital, Washington, D. C.; Fort Niagara, New York, as commanding officer of Company C, Hospital Corps; duty at Camp William H. Taft, Toledo, Ohio, during the summer of 1909; Adjutant, Camp of Instruction, for Medical Officers of militia at Antietam, Sharpsburg, Maryland; Surgeon during the National Matches at Camp Perry, O., during 1909; Fort Banks, Mass., as Surgeon and Recruiting Officer; Camp Pine, New York, as com-manding officer of a Provisional Ambulance Company; San Antonio, Texas, as commander of Field Hospital No. 2, and director of ambulance companies during the maneuvers of 1911, and after this assignment he returned to Camp Banks, Mass., to serve as Inspector-Instructor, Ambulance Company Section, Massachusetts National Guard during the maneuvers in eastern Mass.

He was promoted to Major, Medical Corps, on January 1, 1910, while on duty at Camp Perry, O., while on duty at Camp Perry, Ohio. In June, 1913, General Patterson was ordered to Washington, D. C., for duty in the office of the Surgeon General and with the American Red Cross until May of 1917, when he was promoted to lieutenant Colonel, and sailed for England in command of Base Hospital No. 5. On May 30, of the same year he joined the American Expeditionary Forces in France in command of his unit.

On December 17, 1917, he was raised to the rank of Colonel, National Army and in February, 1918, appointed to the American Military Mission to Italy, remaining on that duty until May 8, of the same year, when he returned to France for duty as Medical Inspector of the 1st Division. On June 4 he was made assistant to Division Surgeon, Second Division, and the following month was placed in charge of the Advance and Intermediate Sections of Base Hospitals of the 77th and 82nd Divisions. On August 8, 1918, he returned to the United States for duty in the War Department, where he has served almost continuously in the office of the Surgeon General and the War Plans Department.

In August 1930, the Surgeon General sailed for Hawaii, as Surgeon of the Hawaiian Division, remaining on that duty until ordered to Washington in April 1931.

In August 1920 Major General Patterson was detailed as a student at the Army War College and reverted to the regular rank of lieutenant colonel. Since his graduation he has served as commanding officer of the Army and Navy General Hospital, Hot Springs, Arkansas and assistant director, United States Veterans Bureau, in charge of the Medical Division.

General Patterson has had conferred upon him the rank of Officer of the Order of the Crown (Italy). He was awarded the Silver Star citation for gallantry in action during the attack on Fort Bacolod, Mindanao, Philippine Islands, on April 8, 1903; and for gallantry in action at Fort Pitacus River, Lake Lanao, Mindanao, May 4, 1903. He was awarded the Cross of Officer of the Czechoslovak Order of the White Lion. He has also been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal (United States), for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services while serving as commanding officer, Base Hospital No. 5, United States Army, serving with the British Expeditionary Forces at Dannes-Camiers, and Boulogne, France,—by his marked devotion to duty and administrative ability, great numbers of our own and Allied sick and wounded were treated, resulting in the saving of many lives. His services were of material value to the American Expeditionary Forces.

AAisles of GIFIS

Pigskin GLOVES

Natural color, plain slip-ons ... washable ... regular four button length.

$2.50

Gloves

- Main Floor

Gifty COMPACTS

Very special looking compacts . . . some of wood, very sporty . . . all are grand looking.

50c to $7.50

Toilet Requisites

Main Floor

What A BLOW ...

-to see him vank out an atrocious handkerchief of someone's wrong choosing. Choose them here and you'll choose them right. Initialed and bordered linen.

19c to $1.00

Handkerchiefs

Main Floor

Handy HANDBAGS

sports, street or evening, pouches or envelopes, velvets, suedes, calf, boucle.

$1.00 to $12.50

Bags

Main Floor

Honorable MENTION

of unmentionables. Glove silks and crepe de chines . . . both lace trimmed and plain.

$1.00 to $3.95

Lingerie

Second Floor

TIE To This

Some like 'em bright, some like 'em sober . . . we've both extremes and some in the middle path.

55c to $2.00

Men's Wear

Main Floor

STORE HOURS 9 to 6

C. SCHOMBURG Son

AT THE SIGN OF THE CLOCK

NEWS OF THE SPORT WOR

Horseshow Leading Sports Event Of

Large Number Of stables, will see some of the country's finest horses and greatest riders in action as they clear the barriers in competition for cardi-Annual Event

With a swirl of dust and the thunder of flying hoofs, the elevof the Infantry enth horseshow School, given for the military personnel of Fort Benning, will begin Saturday, December 9, at 1 P. M. This show, to be held in the horseshow bowl at the Infantry School

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

nal honors in each of the ten classes into which the classic has been

The horseshow bowl, an extremely beautiful arena, is a natural amphitheatre of great dimensions and embodies all the features that go to make up a perfect riding ring. It is located just above the Chattahoochee River, ideally situated in natural surroundings, and here, in all probability, once burned the council fires of the Cherokee Indians as they held their tribal conferences. Since the institution of the Infantry School here seating arrangements for spectators have been added and two riding courses installed.

The meet will start with the colored enlisted mens' jumping and will continue through ten events to be climaxed by the jumping sweepstakes, open to officers, laaies and white enlisted men. Of chief interest to the spectators is the ladies' jumping. This event is open to all ladies of the garrison and the entry list carries the names of Fort Benning's most expert horsewomen in Mrs. T. L. Dunn, Mrs. John Huling, Jr., Mrs. Wendell L. Bevan, Mrs. Clough F. Gee, Mrs. Clayton H. Studebaker, Miss Gertrude E. Hannah, Mrs. John L. Dicks, Mrs. Frank A. Heileman, Mrs. John A. Otto, Mrs. Chester D. Haisley Mrs. Hammond McD. Monroe, and Mrs. W. P. O'Brien. This event will be shown over course "A," in which the competitors start with the brush jump, cross a railroad gate, reverse the lield, jump a leaning fence, cemetery gate and stile; then to reverse the field again, negotiate the picket fence, post and rail, and, granted they have arrived thus far, leave the course over the stone wall and double over.

(Please turn to page 9)

Versatile Twenty-Ninth Routs Petrels; To Play Bowden College feathers by a 26-6 score.

The game was a pretty even affair until the start of the second lays out for a possible long pass quarter, when Darden, 29th back, and a touchdown. romped off tackle for 60 yards and half ended with a 6-6 score after have been popular all over the Puryear, Petrel star, tossed a long pass to Thompson, who ran it thirty yards for a touchdown.

Holloway got his hands on an Oglethorpe pass in the third quarter to gallop down the field for a 40 yard run and score, with Tinsley who made his first appearance of the season, kicking the extra point. Saunders placed a neat pass in the arms of Red Wilson in the last quarter, with Red making it good for six points and the try for goal failing. Darden again stepped out on a play over guard to make the final score of the afternoon.

It was an air attack for the Petrels after the first quarter as the 29th line proved impenetrable against all attack, and the Frosh completed 17 trys out of 26 for a total yardage of 198.

Jordan Hayes and Saunders, in addition to Holloway, Darden and Wilson, proved largely responsible for the 29th victory. Real credit, however, should go to the Green

Starting line-ups were as fol-

Benning	Position	Frosh
Slocum	LE Th	ompson T.
Solly	LT Th	ompson H.
Cooper	L G	Kuppers
Berish	C	Griffith
Rhodes	RG	Neil
Berryhill	R T	Tone
Goodson	R E	McGeady
Lee	Q B	Swalley
Nichols	H B	Carson
Holloway	H B	Purvear
Blackstone	F B	Clyborn

TO PLAY BOWDEN

Saturday afternoon the Green Wave of the 29th will seek revenge on the eleven from Bowden College, for its 6-0 defeat in the first game that the Doughboys played this season.

Already the dopesters are fig-

G Co. Baske teers Are Still Leading

Company G continues in the lead with an unsullied record in the 24th Infantry basketball league, having won each of their eleven contests this season. E and C are still hanging on in second and third place respectively, while Company A again brings up the tail of the procession in this week's standings.

League standings and scorers: Played W. 11 1.000Co. G Co. E 11 .818 .727Co. C 11 .555Co. F .455Hq. Co.272Serv. Co. 12 .250 0 12 .000

Scorers: McLarkin, Co. G. 274; Johnson, Co. E 173; Trammell, Co. G 145; Ellerby Hq. Co. 141; Baugh Co. E 128.

The Green Wave came forward | uring the 29th boys for an easy with another victory on Thanksgiv- victory, based on their showing in ing Day when they met and van- recent games, and on the fact that quished the Baby Petrel in Dough- Bowden scored its lone touchdown boy Stadium clipping their tail in the first game, by the use of the oldest play known to modern football, where the "hidden" end

According to the dope-sheet the the first score of the game. The rail-birds may be right, but upsets country this season, and the winning streak of the Green Wave has lasted some time. After a sudden reversal of form against the Atanta Firecrackers at Benning the Doughboys have stormed through game after game until their victories now balance the scales with the defeats. And perhaps if the earlier games were played again there might be a different story.

Saturday's game should tell the ale of whether the Green Wave has improved since the season started, or was just riding the crest of a winning streak. The 29th boys started the season out of training, tried to prepare for their first contest in one week, and then took on three tough teams in less than two weeks. Which is liable to make anybody's team drop a few games.

Closer team-work and better condition are very evident on the Green squad at the present time, and Bowden should have an interesting afternoon on its stand.

Dr. R. H. Brown

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Phones Office 4108 Res. 1153

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog and Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

Electric and Gas Service

Dependable

FORGIA COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

FOR SPORTSMEN.

and everyone who likes any sport!

FOR HUNTERS:

What could be more ideal for hunters—or more appreciated than a box of shells—a gun cleaning outfit—a hunting coat—a gun case or any of the accessories which make it the grandest sport of all!

FOR FISHERMEN:

For fishermen-a tackle box-a fine reel-a good rod-a cleaning knife-an assortment of lines and hooks-there are innumberable things which will gladden the fisher's heart this Christmas.

FOR TENNIS PLAYERS:

Tennis players will be eternally grateful for a dozen balls -a racket press, or a pair of tennis shoes.

FOR THE KIDS:

Skates, footballs, basketballs, baseball goods, and any sporting or outdoor equipment which will fill the bill. And remember, we sell only nationally known equipment.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

Serve RUMS DRY The Life Of The Party

What About It?

If you were out in a boat headed for the rocks, if you had lost your oars and somebody should show you a rope, you would not stop to count the strands in it or ask who made it; you would grab it and not stop to ask too many questions.

The National Industrial Recovery Act is the rope that has been thrown to you and us and let us pray that it is strong enough so that we may land on dry land. We thank you.

The Provision Co. Inc.

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

stand the "economy- act."

that put not out.

aunt.

Selah!

13. There are four things uninterested, yea, four things there be

14. And these four are a soldier whose name is on the sick book;

a supply sergeant who waiteth the return of the shovel lent without signatures; a fatigue detail in

Chapter II

Four things there are insatiable; four things wonderful, four things intolerable; four things speedy; four things exceedingly wise; and four things exceeding stupid.

- 1. Four things there are which are never satisfied, yea, four things which know not how to say "it is enough."
- 2. And these four are a hungry soldier; a private called P. F. C. (Praying for Corporal); a civilian money-lender; and a recruit corporal drilling his first squad.
- 3. There are four things too wonderful for man, yea four things I do not understand.
- 4. And these four are the way of a shavetail on his first demonstration; The way of the marksmen who prove they hit what shot at and the way of a corporal who supporteth a wife; and the way of the top-kick with the duty roster.
- 5. There are four things that disquiet the earth, yea, four things that make men rave.
- 6. And these four are an aviator who sporteth clinking spurs; a private who collecteth non-coms' insignia; a dentist who weareth a sabre; and a Quartermaster Corps which drilleth with the rifle.
- 7. There are four things which depart speedily, yea, four things which are rapid in their going hence.
- 8. And these four are an initial clothing allowance; your best girl friend when you lose your rank; a reserve officer who crasheth the Officers' Club; and the novelty of pulling C. of Q.

9. There are four things on this earth that are small in size, yea, small but exceeding wise.

10. And these four are a recruit who giveth the sergeant cigarettes; the sergeant who loaneth the company commander his Ford on demonstrations; and the last but not not the least is the man who devised the 96th Article of War.

11. There are four things which are exceedingly bewildered, yea, four things which know not the

12. And these four are a recruit sentry meeting the officer of the day for the first time; a company clerk who keepeth up on Army Regulations; a colored maid when the tent catcheth fire from sparks; and anyone who tryeth to under-

HORSE SHOW TOMORROW

(Continued from page 8)

This year the list of entries in Class No. 7, white enlisted mens' jumping; and Class No. 10, jumping sweepstakes, have so far surpassed the expectations of the committee that eliminations became necessary because of the limited time for the events. One elimination class was held Wednesday and one was held Thursday in preparation for the coming show.

For those who glory in the sight of thoroughbreds, displays of beautifully executed horsemanship, and the thrills of action that goes with this sport of kings, the horseshow of the Infantry School this year bids well to be the highlight of southern equestrian activities. Visitors from Columbus and adjoining cities are cordially inivted to attend. No admission will be charged, and suitably located seating arrangements will be available for visitors.

83RD FIELD ARTILLERY (Continued from page 2)

"I Wish I Were Single Again" when he returns.

About thirty-five men almost missed supper the other evening watching some gals out out in front of the barracks. If the gals had not left before chow time there would have been a lot of empty stomachs that night. "Kingfish" ought to get waitresses for the dining room, then he wouldn't have to threaten to lock the doors.

Who said U. S. had gone wet? Georgia must not be in the U.S.? -we wonder.

BATTERY "C"

The Chief of the 1st Section has been sick at home for several days, but is out and well now, except that he still wabbles some.

The Signal Sergeant, who hails from the progressive farming section of Alabama, went blank one day this week when someone asked him for the use of a lead bar. "The Artillery has no lead bars," quoth he "I don't even know what they are." He also has a room charge of a Private 1st class; and the captain when hearing of the to be floored, which is 20 ft. x 20 illness of the recruit's maternal ft. and is unable to decide whether to ask for 1400 board ft.—running feet or linear feet of flooring.

other year, the battery is now waitin for the next move while a little

No more news has been heard from the trucks for the 150 mm. guns. They must have detoured to some other post. The Butter and Egg man ventured into the wilds of Florida some time ago and has not yet returned. No one seems to be able to explain his ab-

With stables in order, and the General Inspector behind for an-more training and firing is in or-

The Basketball team took a bad defeat from Battery "A" Monday but still hopes to upset the dope bucket before the series is over.

> We Make RUBBER STAMPS COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS.

RESOURCES OVER____ WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

SCHWOBILT REGULSHED TO BEGULS PAT CELL

The Most Talked About Clothes In The South

PRE-HOLIDAY SPECIALS

When the city of Columbus, Ga., staged its NRA parade, employees at the Home Office of the Schwob Company marched 225 strong. Miss Marjorie Sanders headed the procession for the company, wearing a specially made ensemble tailored by Schwob.

SUITS -smartly tailored in both conservative and swanky college models ... many new fabrics and pattern effects including the latest minute checks, stripes and overplaids (Ready to Wear)

OVERCOATS - New Camel Hair and Wool coats in plaids ... fashionable Llama Hair coats ... Blue Meltons and oxford grays. Models include single and double breasted . . . half belt and belt all around and the Polo Model (Ready to Wear)

AND

SCHWOB

Makers of Schwobilt Clothes

1037 Broadway

Columbus, Ga.

29th Inf.

HQ. CO., 1ST BN.

Headquartres Company 1st Bn., 29th Infantry recently changed to a new rationing assignment when they reported to Company D messhall after having eaten with Company C, 29th Infantry for the past two years.

In this column the members of 1st Bn., Hq. wish to show their appreciation for the fine manner in which the officers and enlisted men of C Company treated the personnel of this command.

The cooperation between the men of Company C and Hq. Co. 1st Bn., was made possible by the propitious manner with which our every need was given prompt and ungrudging attention by the kitchen force with whom we came in direct contact veery day.

Our relationship with you had been of the tenderest nature and we, the members of Hq. Co. 1st Bn., wish to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for over two years of appeased appetites consistently well-prepared meals, furnished by C Company, which has added many an inch of excess advoirdupois to our waist

In conclusion this short article ly and credit should be given to may we wish you all a very Merry Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year while at the same time we formally welcome D Company, our present girth expansion Company to the folds of this organiza-

WE THANK U: Members Hq. Co. 1st Bn., 29th Inf.

HQ. CO., 29TH INF.

For the past week the air around the company has been so dense with the tension of the momentthat you could cut it with a knife. The reason being—the horsemen of the company are about to take part in the annual horseshow to be held on Saturday. Headquarters Company is ready to bet its money on the performances of McLendon, Wright, and Shoemake to bring home the bacon—and a few prizes to add to the collection.

McLendon, on Joe Dickman, galloped off with top honors in the sweepstakes of last year, and proved his worth as a jockey. This year he will ride Perchance, who replaced Joe as a candidate for jumping honors. Sandow declines the honor of a bit of gentlemanly competition stating that the hose clippers have kept him from getting the necessary workouts.

It looks good to see the football team winning so many games late-

Jimmie Hayes for his pigskin tot-

Every Tom, Dick, and Harry in the company has ben combing the woods in search of the elusive rabbit, squirrel, quail, or what have you since the start of the hunting season. Pressly and Holleman, who look much beter slinging hash than they do with shotguns in the crooks of their elbows, have turned in reports of four squirrels and one lone rabbit that were victims of their deadly eye last week. Holleman seems to think the area around Ochillee is sufficiently large to cool his aspirations as a Nimrod, (and cool his puppies).

COMPANY "H"

Since the memorable night of November 18th very few of "H" Company's dance fiends have been seen around the 'skating rink.' While we're not stating our opinion on the question of their courage it is apparent that he who fights etc., can be brought to the front here.

Quite a few of the boys are leaving on furloughs to spend the Christmas holiday with the home folks. While we who are not so fortunate are hoping for a merry Christmas here in ole Fort Benning and vicinity.

We'll be seein' ye.

—Steve, Reporter.

The Six-Box is the biggest quarter's worth you ever bought.

Uniform Prefection

When you buy Coca-Cola, you are getting something that is always uniform, there's no varying in flavor or strength. What you taste one time is what you taste each time - there's no chance of being disappointed in Coca-Cola.

FOR TRUE ENJOYMENT NOTHING EQUALS BOTTLED COCA-COLA

The Six-Box is sold by all Columbus grocers.

about Cigarettes

Not so long ago practically all cigarettes were made by hand

> Now, Chesterfields are made by high-speed machines that turn out 750 cigarettes a minute, and the cigarettes are practically not touched by hand.

BY the use of long steel ovens —drying machines of the most modern type—and by ageing the leaf tobacco for 30 months—like wine is aged— Chesterfield tobacco is milder and tastes better.

Only pure cigarette paper the best made—is used for Chesterfield.

And to make sure that everything that goes into Chesterfield is just right, expert chemists test all materials that are used in any way in the manufacture.

Chesterfields are made and packed in clean, up-to-date factories, where the air is changed every 4½ minutes. The moisture-proof package, wrapped in Du Pont's No. 300 Cellophane —the best made—reaches you just as if you went by the factory door.

In a letter to us, an eminent scientist says:

 $\it ``Chester field Cigar ettes$ are just as pure as the water you drink."

hesterfield cigarettes are just as pure as the water you drink"

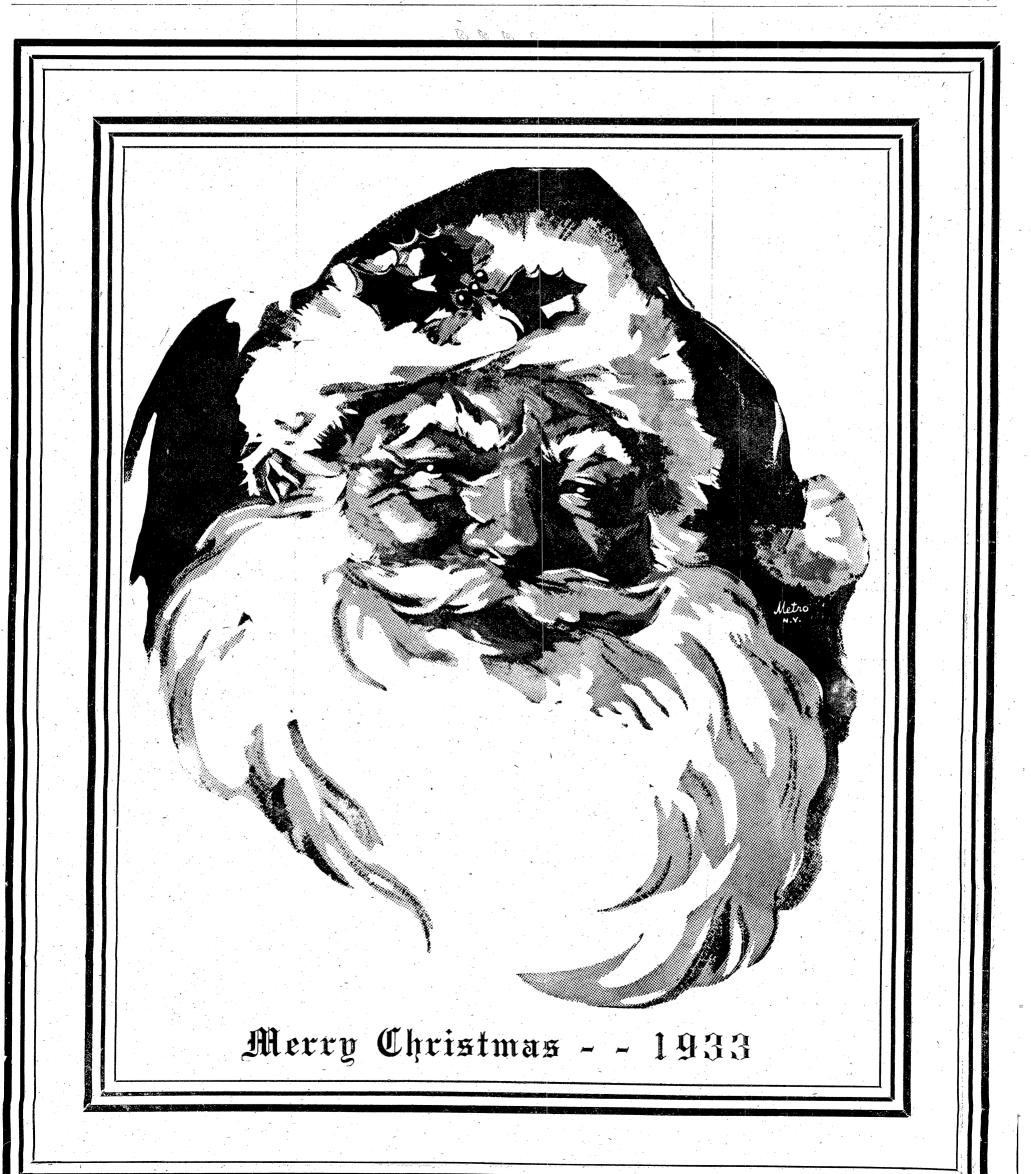

BENNING HERALD

VOL. III

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1933

NO. 34

Sifts for

HER

HANDBAGS

For town, for sports and for evening. Pouch and envelopes for street and pouch and back straps for evening.

$1.00 to $12.50

GLOVES

For street, for sports and for evening. Kids, pigskins, and fabrics. Four to sixteen button lengths.

$1.00 to $5.95

'KERCHIEFS

Linens in white and colors with hand embroideries and appliques. Chiffons and lace edges.

10c to 75c

COMPACTS

Very special looking compacts . . . various shapes and sizes . . . including the new and very sporty wooden ones.

50c to $7.50

PERFUMES

From the fresh youthfulness of Yardley's Old English Lavender to the subtle sophisticated odeur of Guerlain.

$1.00 to $27.50

JEWELRY

Give her rings for her fingers, clips for her shoulders, rhinestones for her throat . . . she'll love it.

$1.00

LINGERIE

Gowns, pajamas, slips, negligees, bed jackets, and step-ins. Both tailored and lace trimmed. Silks, crepe de chine and satins in lovely soft pastels. Lingerie, second floor.

$1.50 to $12.50

Elegance

for the holiday formalities

$15.00 to $59.50

Satin

Crepes

Velvets

Second Floor

Sifts for

HIM

SHIRTS

Including such famous brands as Lastmor (made by Nofade), Eclipse, Reigel and Fruit of the Loom.

$1.19 to $1.65

GLOVES

Pigskins for dress and sport; grey mocha for dress and furlined gloves for driving and dress.

$2.19 to $3.19

'KERCHIEFS

Fine linen handkerchiefs with borders, initials or appenzell work. Hand rolled hems.

19c to $1.00

TIES

Bright colored and sober ties for men of all tastes. Including Cheney's famous ties at $1.00 up.

55c to $2.00

SOCKS

Give him Interwoven hose and you're sure to please. Distinctively smart shades and patterns in silks and wool.

50c to $1.00

PAJAMAS

The famous Universal pajama in broadcloth and silk. Some with elastic, waist, some draw strings. Coat and middle styles.

$1.50 to $5.95

TRAVELING SETS

Leather fold over cases and top grain cowhide cases with zipper openings. Contain various travel conveniences, as mirror, comb, brush, razor case, etc. Toilet Goods — Main Floor.

$1.95 to $12.50

Christmas Bells Will Ring At Benning!

All Organizations To Join Together

"'Twas the night before Christ-

And all through Fort Benning there will be much stirring, not only the night before, but on Christmas day, and days thereafter, throughout the holiday season. Both high and low will unite to make merry, exchange presents and courtesies, and to celebrate the coming of Christ almost two thousand years ago.

There will be much about Christmas at Fort Benning this year that will bring back memories and thoughts of olden days, for customs of the garrison of other years that have fallen into disuse are bemedieval ages will be carried out.

ing revived, and many ceremonies of From the "Little Dutch Band" of the 29th Infantry Orchestra, "oompah-ing" their way around the post, to the solemn strains of the Gregorian chant of the 4th century, and including the post Christmas tree party for the garrison, and the hilarious Christmas tree party of the officers' Club, the holiday will see all manner of functions and parties, both public and private. The Yule log will burn brightly, and the "waits" will serenade the garrison with Christ-mas Carols, while the post forgets the cares and duties of routine work in the annual holiday period.

The first symptom of the approaching event will be felt by the garrison on Saturday, Dec. 23, when, by order of General Estes, all duties and work except necessary guard and fatigue will stop at noon not to be resumed until reveille, Jan. 2, 1934; while the children of the post give their first welcome to Santa Claus at the Main Theatre at the post Christmas Theatre Party.

The Post Christmas tree will be in charge of Chaplain Monohan, assisted by Mrs. Vernon Evans. Chaplain Carter will also have a tree for the 24th Infantry.

At other times during the year, maneuvers, marches, demonstrations, inspections, bridge, flower shows, horse shows, and sports may occupy the adult mind of the garrison, but that day will be children's day. Visions of other presents to come, new tops and playthings, skates, clothes, games, bicycles and velocipedes, will pop into childish heads as that fat and jolly patron, Santa Claus, mysterious and forgotten in the daily grind, stands forth before all others on this day to give out presents of candy and apples to each and every child on the post before the huge tree, hung with stars and decorations. And no one will be forgotten.

Christmas Eve, to the belling chorus of the hounds, the Infantry School Hunt, led by Captain Sidney H. Negrotto, M. F. H., will drag the Yule log, carefully selected days before, into the lobby of Officers' Club, led by the Hunt pack, where the Yule fire will be kindled with a brand preserved from the previous year. Standing around the blazing fire, watching the flames shoot up, the M. F. H. will tell of the Yule tradition, and the members of the Hunt, in traditional 'pınks'' will wake the ghost of "John Peel", and "Drink, Puppy, Drink", till the rafters ring.

Later Herman and Otto. Heimie and Louie, Fritz and Adolph, Schultz and August, members or the "Dutch Band", will play, mingling "Stille Nicht" with "Ach du Lieber Augustin", while the Officers' Club holds open house till midnight.

in the meanwhile, members of the infantry School Glee Club will day seem brighter, in fulfillment of make the rounds of the post, sing- the seasonal spirit of giving. ing the peautitul Christmas Carole.

Aueste Flueres", Slient Night", "Noel", and strains of other songs of old will float out under the venerable oaks and pines of the post. rising through the mignight air un to the stars, as the angels of old sang over the stable in Judea.

HEADQUARTERS THE INFANTRY SCHOOL FORT BENNING, GEORGIA.

Holiday Greetings

The year 1933 has been one of marked progress at the Infantry School. The successful results obtained in all organizations and Departments are most gratifying. I fully realize this was accomplished only through loyal, energetic and efficient effort and whole-hearted cooperation on the part of all individual members of the command.

As the year draws to a close, I desire to express to all, Officers, Army Nurses, Warrant Officers, Enlisted men and Civilian employees, my deep appreciation of your loyalty and effort, and to extend to each of you and to each member of your families, my sincere good wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

G. H. Estes.

Brigadier General, U. S. A., Commandant.

Mass, the majestic music of the Gregorian chant, as sung in the Vatican in Rome, will roll forth for the first time from the throats of a male choir at a military post. Softly glowing candles will light the tableau arranged near the altar, where, in a manger, warmed by the breath of oxen, lies the image of the Infant whose birthday will be celebrated on that day.

One of the most important events on Christmas will be the culmination of the months of effort of the different women's organizations, The Infantry School Woman's Club; the Parent-Teachers Association, and the Welfare Council, who directs the efforts of those who try to make life more worth living For weeks the post children have been bringing outgrown, and forgotten toys to school, where they were collected by the P. T. A. and taken to the Benning fire department, there to be renovated and remodeled by the personnel of that organization during their spare time until they shone like new. Children and families whose financial status prevents the purchase of anything but the necessities each will receive some toy or plaything, and a Christmas basket to make the Private parties and Christmas trees will be in every house at Benning. Organizations will serve Christmas dinners, perhaps "sinking" the mess fund, but having one grand and glorious feast. Some will have their own Christmas trees, where the "company kids"

At midnight, in the Catholic chapel, where Chaplain John F. Monahan will conduct Midnight P. T. A Assists Santa Claus In Providing Toys At Benning

mas season at Fort Benning comes and mothers of the military post; 'What shall I give the children this year?". Brains are racked and finances studied in order to provide a happy day for the youngsters from the highest ranking ofthe rear rank and all do their best to give a satisfactory answer.

And yet there are some who, try as they will, find that with the endless demand on the pocket book for clothes, food, and other necessities prevents that answer being given. They are not destitute or starving, but the low rate of army pay in some cases of large families make it essential that every soldiers of the unit from their own pockets.

What matter if prices are rising, and the dollar is sinking? What matter if there is a C. C. C. company waiting for its commander's return, or an overnight hike in the cold woods the first of next month? This is Christmas that is coming, and as in the past, Fort Benning will celebrate in her own fashion, and in the hearts of these army men and women will be the words that the angels sang on Bethlehem's hills-

"Peace On Earth, Good Will To

With the advent of the Christ- penny be watched to make ends And on Christmas morning the annual question to the fathers the children, like good soldiers, swallow the lump in their throats, and stick out their chins, for they know that St. Nicholas has been just a little too busy this year also to stop at their roof-top.

So an appeal was broadcast for ficers down to the buck private in toys, old new, out-grown, discarded, forgotten, anything and every thing that might brighten the heart of some tow-headed boy of five, or black-haired girl of eight, and cause a brighter gleam to come to their eyes on Christmas morning. First to come to the front in the new cause was the post Parent-Teacher Association, who have acted hand-in-hand with the Welfare Council in almost every line of endeavor. Children were asked to will get a present, paid for by the bring their old toys to school, that they might be collected by the P. T. A. to be turned over to the Council.

And bring them the children did. Wooly dogs, dirty and dusty from storage, trains, with the tracks bent and twisted, scooters minus a wheel, doll beds with a broken leg, play-tables sadly in need of paint, airplanes that had lost a wing in some severe aerial "crack-up", tricycles, kiddy-cars, rocking horses, skates, tea sets with broken pieces, coon-jiggers, steam-engines, derricks, trucks from the tiny threeincher to one that carried a passenger and dumped its load like a real one, toys by the dozen, the hundred, and by the thousand.

And there they were, enough toys for every child on the post with some left over. But in what condition! Some of them broken, others with parts missing, almost without exception needing paint, and all of them in need of some light repair.

Once more the call went forth for help, to be answered by another unit of Fort Benning. Under the supervision and direction of Chief Willis, head of the post fire department, the toys were taken to pieces, painted, and reconstructed. The year-old pride of the colonel's small with fitted with the wing from the son, a broken-winged monoplane, the air-ship of the sergeant's sixyear-old, that had its fuslage crushed beneath a careless, adult foot. The broken play-table was fitted with a new leg, the train-tracks straightened, and a good spring put in the engine, a flat-tired scooter was fitted with wheels from one whose radius rods were bent, and all given a charitable coat of paint that covered a multitude of sins.

And on December 25th children who were prepared to hold up their heads on what was just another day of the month, discovered that Santa Claus had taken on a group of "hired hands" who worked for the biggest salary on earth, a child's happy laugh, and who discovered that it was Christmas Day.

Each year since then the Fort Benning Welfare Council, aided by the P. T. A., the firemen, and other post organizations to numerous to mention have followed out the same program, until by now it has assumed the proportions of a tradition at the post.

This year, in addition to the collecting and renovating of toys, other lines of endeavour have been taken up. Beginning with the Daughters of the United States Army, who have aided Kris Kringle in a practical way with the gift of a $188 check to purchase milk for under-nourished children of post families, organization after organization has adopted some plan of its own, which is being carried through to completion.

The Pan-Hellenic, members of national sororities, have spent their spare time sewing, completing 12 layettes as their Christmas gift to be dispensed by the Welfare Council. And some proud mother will dress the future chief of infantry on Christmas morning in the clothes made by hands that can do other things besides deal a bridge hand.

An instance of individual effort on the part of two people of the post who have applied their artistic ability to the cause of happiness is given by Lieutenant and Mrs. James P. Barney, 83rd Field Artillery, for the rosy cheeks and blue eyes of the dolls that will delight the hearts of the girls were fashioned by their hands.

And the Girl Scouts, plying enthusiastic needles and thread have designed clothes and hats that would rival the best efforts of Parisian dress-makers in order that Dolly Dimples might arrive with the proper wardrobe.

Scrap-books for the Christmas baskets have come from the busy fingers of the Brownies. Several families have been "adopted" by the Girl Scouts, who will visit them on Christmas Eve to set up Christmas trees, decorated and hung with gifts. Other families have been 'adopted' by wives of the instructors of the Infantry School in the same way as the Girl Scouts.

The toys which have been made ready for distribution by Santa Claus will be taken around by the Welfare Council, acting on special warrant from the Spirit of Christmas, on December 22, in order that the mothers may have them to place in the little stockings Christmas mroning. For St. Nicholas is an awfully busy person at this season, and only too glad of help.

(Please turn to page 4)

Phone 328

VOLUME III

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

NO. 34

L. C. KUNZE __Publisher FELICIA C. HOWELL____Society Editor Sports

DECEMBER 15, 1933

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

Conducted By E. F. R.

Better be damned than mentioned. There was no reply to this last re-

John Wolcot

SIR SIDNEY SLIPS

happy howling of Hounds jubilant neighing of Nags.

easily explained. Sir Sidney Ne grotto has returned to our midst from multifarious military duties which have carried him far afield, and he is now free to devote himself to the pleasurable pursuits incident to his chief concern as Overlord of Horses, Hounds, and Hunts.

Sir Sidney has been absent from Benning for a month or more on

D. S. (Doing Something) for the Department of Experiment and in his travels has visited such vantage points as Knox, (where the Cav-alry's Tin Horses are trained), Rock Island Arsenal, (where the tin Horses are tempered), and Fort Riley (the Cavalry's last Hope for Horsey as Sidney, Riley has always meant the Alpha and Omega of everything related to his four-footed friends. Of course Sid could not have been as actively interested in things Equine at Benning as he has been, with coming to the belief that for an Infantry Post we were pretty Horsey, but of course at Riley-well Riley must be just the last word and everything else

our Master of the Hounds had be-delusions he had made two false didn't want to attend a Fox Hunt,

Sir Sidney almost kissed him in joyous acceptance of the invitahim a Horse, they said the Colonel was riding The Hunter-and galloped gaily to the designated gathering place at the time appoint-crowd of two cavalry officers con-hour, when the crowd had increased to a total of four, the Colonel arrived, greeted Sidney, and remarked, "If you are all ready we will start". Sir Sidney, with recollections of the cavorting Chargers, Fair Women and Brave Men.

surrounding the Polo Hunt Club

at Benning on sunny Sunday mornings, stammeringly questioned—"But, Colonel, where is the Field?" Came a snort from the Colonel and the withering reply

-"This is the Field, Captain."

During the ensuing silence a whistle was blown and an enlisted man came into the picture followed by five or six yelping pups. Our Handsome Hound-Master took a look and decided this must be a litter of pups belonging to a prolific Hound, and committed his ty good looking litter of Pups,- versing

Upon arrival he found a on Conformations and

When a Senior Colonel

the Riley Stables)—he Horsev horses).

To a man as mark, nothing but a moment of chilling silence; then, to Sir Sidney's consternation, the Colonel led The Field out after the velping - The Post's increased Noise Nuis-Puppies. Negrotto says that he ance brought on by the Construcwanted no more of The Life of tion Confusion has been consider-Riley and that he couldn't get back ably augumented recently by much to Benning fast enough—back to an Infantry Post where Hunters Hunt and Hounds are Hounds. reason therefore is more or less

PIERCE PROCURES NEW PSEUDONYM

John Barrymore Pierce, formerly known to readers of this column as "Cannon Ball" on account of his extraordinary Drives on the Golf Course, and who received Honorable Mention last week for his exceptional ability as a Turkey Tracker, recently gave a demonstration of excellence in still another line of endeavor. In the Dramatic Club's production of "The Bad Man" last week this versatile Officer portraved the Hero Lover so gallantly and so well that it is rumored that he has been the recipient of many mash notes from Maidens and much mention among Matrons. As a result Beau Brummel Bowen's nose is completely out of joint. In fact if you hear a rumor going the rounds that Pierce has received telegraphic offers to play opposite Mae West in her next Picture you can charge the Canard to the enviousness of Pierce's Pal Bowen.

COY CADDY

One day last week one of our just immature imitations. Before most modest Matrons who is a diligent devotee of the ancient and come thoroughly disabused of his honorable game of Golf, had the misfortune to find all of the regular Caddies taken when she arrivof Cavalry asked Negrotto if he ed at Number One Tee, and was obliged to content herself with the assignment of what the Caddy Master described as "a New Boy" tion. Our Hero borrowed a Horse By the time our M. M. had arrived at the first green she had begun asked for a Hunter but they gave to go "off her game". And her golf went rapidly from bad to worse. It was the Caddy's first time on duty, he knew practically nothing about the duties of a Caddy, and he very prmoptly proved himself more of a hinderance than a help. By the time our Fair Cracked Hoofs. In about half an Golfer had completed the first nine holes she had lost her golfing skill, her patience, and her temper; so she decided to "call it a day". Her every impulse was to send the Caddy away unpaid as she had work ed much harder on the Caddy's duties than had the Caddy, but she thought better of it, deciding however, to make a report on him when she turned the charge slip in. In order to make out the Chit-and the derogatory report—she asked the boy for his name and number. The response of the Caddy was-The response of the Caus, "George Washington Jefferson, Maam". "Yes, yes", yessed the Maam". Lady, "But what is your Number?" Coyly the Caddy made answer "2413 Glade Road, thank you, Maam".

HEADQUARTERS HAS HUMOR

Second Faux Pas. In loud tones From no less a place than Post Headquarters comes the following Summary Court is easily swayed Sir Sidney lauded—"That's a pret-was making a study of the "plans and specifications for additions, improvements, and constructions for the new Tank Park", made possible by the N. R. A., the N. I. R. A., the R. F. C., or some one of the Alphabetcal Activity Appropriations made by the Present Administration. In the course of his research, the Tanker found that provision had been made for "one plastered Officers Toilet". Just what this item meant was not at all clear to the Tanks' Head Man, so he Hot-Footed immediately over to Post Headquarters and entreated Adjutant General Lewis to elucidate. Pancho Lopez Lewis' leering reply was-"Don't worry about It probably means that when the construction is complete, the 66th Infantry will be commanded by a Full Colonel."

COLLEGE CAPERS

We read in The Plainsman, a nublication of Alabama Polytechnic Institute—familiarly known as Auburn,a little item which seemed not at all bad. As we all know. one of the Girls' Dormitories burned down one night during the Thanksgiving Holiday. According to The Plainsman, the morning after the fire some Wit had waggishly posted the following notice on the still smoking Ruins-"Annie doesn't live here any more'.

DOPE FOR DETAIL TO LEAVENWORTH

Among the many remarks passed around by the Sourdough Soothsayers concerning details to the Command and General Staff School probably the outstanding statement in the Loose Talk was that nobody had a chance unless he had been an Aide. This oft-repeated Machiavelism finally reached the ears of Bugs Raymond, a conscientious Corvoheus in the Communications Section of the Epidemic Department. Now it seems that Bugs has never been an Aide (always a help but never an Aide) to anybody but he has an all-consuming desire to get to Leavenworth while his brain cells are still young and flexible enough to absorb new ideas. He finally hit on a scheme which would seem to give promise of success if anything (other than having been an Aide) will work. He organized a Golf Foursome composed of himself and three most enthusiastic Golfers. Bugs being the Junior member of the foursome was the official score keeper. The senior member of the group was the Assistant Commandant, himself. Next in order of seniority—and incidentally control over Bugs present destinies—was Tut-Ankh-Amen Tucker, the Chief of Bugs Section in the Department. The third memwas Bugs immediate Chief. the Boss of the Communications Committee, Hannibal Brislawn. When the Eighteen Holes had been completed Bugs handed in his score card and the four players scores showed that they had ended up in the above mentioned order-and what is more each and every one had made the Lowest Score he had ever shot. We give it as our fixed opinion that sooner or later Bugs will find himself at Leavenworth.

P. T. A.

(Continued from page 3)

on the list of the helpers, is the Red Cross. Arrangements have been made by Mr. Fred A. Cashel. field director of the institution, to nave an entertainment for those members of the command that Christmas finds in "durance vile" at the post hospital, where a present will be given to each patient, and a Christmas tree decorated and placed in the mess hall.

And when all this has been done, those who have accomplished the job will find that they have not given their time, their work, and their thought for nothing, for the Great Recorder of the Supreme yarn. The Commanding Officer when the advocate's plea is the Your Pack must be a Peach". of the 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) laughter of a happy child.

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

have been making so many apologies of late concerning our failure closer. Those of us who harbored to turn up a story worth telling, or better still our inability to appreciate fully the newsworthiness of an incident when it does happen, that it has finally reached the point where we are seriously wondering if the school isn't getting us down. Our weekly offering appears to us to be having the same stimulating effect as a cold cup of hot coffee, filled with a lot of words as meaningless as the things we say to babies.

Our classmates have been guilty of not being guilty of saying or doing the correct thing at the wrong time or the wrong thing at the proper time or something. We have apparently scared off the charming lady who gave us an opening a few weeks ago by taking orders for little boys and girls. even our editor and typesetters have brushed up on their gobboons! and have established for themselves an armor-proof weekly through which we have sought in vain for an opportunity to wean a paragraph. We have even read and re-read the excellent advice of our medical major and his "Health-If-It-Kills-You" column but it, too, has apparently joined the limbo that is now beckoning to us. Should we finally succumb ourselves as we perchance should have done some weeks ago we will at least have the rare privilege of boasting that we have triumphantly succeeded in stimulating an ovrwhelming lack of interest.

Our hard luck offering goes this week to the Gallipoli monograph committee (Fitts-Carnes-Murphy-Norman) who, after working and battling (not bottling) together for weeks, including the Thanksgiving holidays, succeeded in delivering themselves of four-fifths of their oral presentation only to have the Columbus-Fort Benning power line go out, leaving the hall. in darkness just long enough before the finish to have us all still wondreing what the final outcome

As each week has ended we have been deluding ourselves with the thought that the heights of Olympus, on whose crest may be found

FORT BENNING, Dec. 11-We the tactician and his mythical wares, have been coming closer and such an optimistic thought found ourselves set back on our heels yesterweek. Two graded tests in tactics were the cause of this sudden shattering of our confidence in our tactical ability. In one we were seized with an overpowering desire to attack: if not the Reds at least the Blues, only to find hat the problem was one of defense. Our chief memory a week later was that the school, for the purposes of the problem, really did succeed in imbueing in us the proper defensive spirit. For two days thereafter our inner ear heard nothing but a spirited defense from all and sundry, except that in each case it was the defense of one's own solution.

In the second test of the week we had ourselves all tangled up in headachy thought trying to outguess the school on the "Yes's" and "No's" in the estimate of the situation despite friendly warnings to the contrary. By the time we had compared half of Red's three plans with half of Blue's we forgot which side we were rooting for until it dawned on us that we had almost succeeded in capturing ourselves. At that it would have been a good solution. At least we could not be accused of not being original.

On Tuesday morning Ace Cavalryman Thomas treated us to as impartial a discourse on the relative merits of the horse and the motor as we have heard in many a moon. While such a subject is bound to bring forth from the student body many a proponent for either side of the question we were unable to discern a dissenting vote when the major announced that one of the characteristics of the horse was its fluidity.

With this week's weak salvo finished, due to lack of material, we feel that we would be remiss in our obligation to our public (Mrs. Ramble) if we failed to heed her advice and left unmentioned the Dramatic Club's offering which we were privileged to attend last Friday night. To the members of the cast of "The Bad Man" and to all who assisted in presenting t, our congratulations for a splendid evening's entertainment.

PROVERBS OF CAPT. SOLOMON

On Justice; being tried; courts; and other wonders of the Army of Samuel.

- 1. Know ye then, that in the days before the War, even I, Solomon, was a private; and then did sin grievously, yet varily, all of common misdoing of the soldier was mine.
- 2. Know thou of one who unto this day, tryeth the old trick of a then I should not know Article 96". stove-pipe rolled into his pack, that it might be of less weight?
- 3. Go thou then, and pause not till he be warned; for the eyes of a good captain are exceeding sharp, And last mentioned, but not least and all things come to light in an mouth in mine own defense, unexpected field inspection.
 - 4. Woe unto him in that day when the inspection cometh!
 - 5. Yea, verily, in my youth did I sin by an unauthorized furlough, and was tried, even under the 96th Article of War.
 - 6. I was cast into the dungeons of the fortress, and my comrades divided among them the raiment that was left in the squad-room.
 - 7. And the supply sergeant did make all manner of entries on my A. G. O. Forms 32 and 33, which I knew not of till later when the time for payment came.
 - 8. And on that day it was found signature, and I was much cast
 - 9. Yet even then I did not complain, save in my heart, for all are aware that the 96th Article is a mighty weapon.

- 10. And at my trial much mercy was shown me, for an officer of two months service was assigned o my defense.
- 11. Then my soul did cry out within me, saying "Would that my innocence were as great as his, for
- 12. Then were asked questions by the court, and many were answered that had been better left unanswered.
- 13. And once did I open my counsel forbade me, saying:
- 14. "Hush, thou fool, for every moment after 4 P. M. that the court shall try thy case, thou will serve an extra day, in addition to that which thou will surely get.
- 15. And it was decreed that I should abide for a certain time in that community of iniquity which is called Barbed Wire City.
- 16. And the length of my stay was in the ratio of 1 to 3.
 - 17. Then did I say in my heart:
- 18. "Yea verily, he who seeketh to beat the game in the Army of Samuel is like unto one who drinketh that which is brewed in that the payroll required not my the mountain places by moonlight his joy is exceeding, but, alas, it endureth not long'."

Selah.

Lieutenant Colonel Thomas W. Hammond, post inspector of Fort Benning, has been ordered to his home to await retirement from active service with the Army, in a radiogram received at headquarters The Infantry School from the War Department, Washington, D.

Colonel Hammond has been on duty at Fort Benning since August 2, 1932, having reported here from duty with the 16th Infantry at Governors Island, N. Y., and has occupied the office of post inspector since October 31 of last year. He is one of the most widely known officers in the army, and is especially well known to members of congress, as from 1920 to 1922 he was liason officer between the War Department and Congress, and again filled that office, in the coordination of army legislative affairs from 1926 to 1928.

Colonel Hammond was appointed to the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. from Oregon in 1901, receiving his commission as second Lieutenant of infantry in June, 1905. Promotion to in March, 1911, and just prior to lic as yet.

Colonel Hammond the advent of this country into the World War, he was advanced to Awaits Retirement captain in 1916. In 1917 he was promoted to major (temporary) and a little more than a year later to lieutenant colonel, National Army, in 1918.

In June, 1919, he was commissioned colonel, National Army, which rank he held until March 15, 1920, when he reverted to his regular army grade of captain. Three months later, on July 1, 1920, he was promoted to major.

During the wartime period from June, 1917 to June, 1921, he was on duty with the General Staff Corps, and for his services on that assignment was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. On the Completion of that duty in 1921 he was assigned to duty with the militia bureau for one year, and then detailed as a student at the Army War College, Washington, D. C. from which he was graduated in 1923. His promotion to the grade of lieutenant colonel came in 1929.

In addition to being a graduate of the Army War College, Colonel Hammond also holds a Master of Arts degree conferred by the University of Oregon, and is a member of the initial general staff corps eligible list.

Colonel Hammond's plans for leaving Fort Benning to await rethe grade of first lieutenant came tirement have not been made pub-

SOME DAYS BEFORE CHRISTMAS Lodge Officers

I ain't no good t'look at. Me hat is full o' holes, Me clo'es is tore, me shirt's er scream, me shoes ain't got no soles! I nebber gits no dinner, 'cept mebbe twict a year On T'anksgivin' 'n' Crismus! Golly! Ain't dat near! Say! Den I gits er suit o'clo'es, er hat, er shirt 'n' such! I gits 'em soon; 'n' 'Til I does, w'y, nuttin' matters much! I sells me poipers, shines deir shoes, 'n' gits erlong all right. I knows er dandy cellar t'sleep in 't night All snug in nice, warm cinders, me hat t'shade me eyes, Wit' cement sacks t' sleep on. De watchman dere's er prize! I nebber feels de col' at all (Me han's 'n' lips is blue!); Wit' holes in front 'n' holes in back, it jes' goes w'is'lin' t'r'u'. Who cares me shoes is full o' holes? W'at's dat t'fuss erbout? Say! If dey lets water in, dey allers lets it out! I knows I gits me shoes dat fits, wit' soles dat's good 'n' soun', W'en Mister Santer Crismus Claws comes frolickin' erroun'.

I gets me ba'ts insummertime wit' not a cent t' pay; Jes' chucks me clo'es down on er dock 'n' hops inter de Bay. 'N' eats! De bread-line helps us guys er heap I'm here t'tell! 'N' w'en I grabs some cawfee 'n' some hot-dogs, all is swell! Nah! I ain't got no un'erclo'es; fr'm dem yer'll fin' I'm free. Say! Don't yer look fer t'ing like dem; yer'll only come t' me! I got me some las' Crismus, jes' 'cause I had er cough; Dey made me feel all smoth'ry 'n' so I took 'em off. Dey makes er dandy cover! De cellar gits so col' I wisht I had some more right now! De yudders? Well, dey're ol'. But poipers, rags, 'n' sacks 'n' such helps keep de col' night out 'Til Mister Santer Crismus Claws gits rollickin' erbout.

Are Appointed

The annual election of officers for the Fort Benning Lodge No. 57, F. & A. M. was held at the post yesterday evening, Dec. 11, in the Masonic building at the reg-ular communication of the organization. Installation of the officers occured at the same time.

Worshipful Master for the ensuing year will be Staff Sergeant James H. Justice, 29th Infantry, who succeeds Staff Sergeant James E. Freeman, of the 29th Infantry. Staff Sergeant John L. Dickerstaff, 29th Infantry was elected to the office of Senior Warden, and 1st Sergeant Edgar C. Davis, 29th Infantry, to Junior Warden. Technical Sergeant Roscoe Bilyen, Infantry School Detachment, was elected to be Treasurer, and Master Sergeant William J. Stewart, also of the I. S. D. to be Secretary.

Master Sergeant Leonard N. Chitwood, I. S. D. was elected to the office of Senior Deacon, and Private 1st class R. A. Wales, 86th Motor Repair Section, to Junior Deacon. The Senior Stewart will be Lieutenant Lawrence A. Dietz, and Junior Stewart 1st Sergeant Shirley H. Workman, 83rd Field (Please turn to page 10)

STEPPING . . I'll say they're stepping. Just about the best cigarette you ever smoked. Chesterfields are milder Chesterfields taste better CHESTERFIELD 1esterfield They Satist

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN THE SECOND SECON

visitors

A. TO SPONSOR DANCE | OFFICERS' CLUB HOLDS | Bachelors. The Club will be dec- | at Newport. AT POLO-HUNT CLUB FOR MEMBERS OF YOUNGER

The Fort Benning Chapter of the Parent Teachers Association will be thesponsors at a dnace to be held Saturday evening at the Polo-Hunt Club for the members of the subdeb set. The young guests will arrive at seven-thirty o'clock and dancing will be continued until ten. The chaperones for this occasion will be Mrs. George F. Craft and Mrs. Henry J. Matchett.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

Convenience

as you like it!

Why not let KRESS' store make your Christmas easier for you. Our method of sale makes it easier to shop and you have more opportunity to see exactly what you are buying.

Visit Santa at Kress'. Open evenings until Christmas

Our free Parking Lot is always open to you.

I D D C C ' NKLSS

5 - 10 - 25 CENT STORE BROADWAY

WEEKLY BRIDGE TOURNA- orated for the occasion in holiday MENT ON MONDAY

The Officers' Club was the scene Monday evening of the weekly du-This tournament was a mixed pairs handicap affair and twelve tables assembled for the play. The tables were arranged in two sections, six in each. The winners in the first section were: first place, Mrs. James E. Bowen and Mrs. George P. Howell, second, Lieut. and Mrs. Lynn E. Brady, third, Lieut. and Mrs. Lincoln Jones. Winners in the second section were: first place, Capt. and Mrs. Donald C. Faith, second, Maj. and Mrs. Paul W. Baade, and Third, Lieut. and Mrs. Henry C. Britt.

WAVERLY BRIDGE CLUB OF COLUMBUS TO MEET FRI-DAY EVENING

The Waverly Evening Bridge Club which has been the high spot tothe bridge lovers of Columbus and Fort Benning throughout the Winter will meet Friday evening at eight o'clock. These tournaments are being conducted by Mrs. Calvin Des Portes and Mrs. Fred Dismukes. The meeting Friday will be the last of these tournaments until after the Christmas holidays. Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Des Portes, Columbus

LIEUT. AND MRS. GREENE TO ENTERTAIN PRECEEDING DANCE AT POLO-HUNT CLUB

Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph I. Greene will be the hosts Friday evening at a buffet supper at their quarters entertaining before the Bachelor dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. Their guests will include: Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles T. Lan-ham, Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Bowen, Lieut. and Mrs. George P. Howel, Lieut. and Mrs. Wendell G. ohnson, Mrs. Marion Hannah Burt, Mrs. Frances Cole, Miss Agnes Harrison, Lieut. David X. Angluin, Lieut. Ernest F. Easterbrook and Mr. Paul Blanchard.

LIGHTING OF YULE LOG TO OFFICIALLY OPEN HOLI-DAY ESTIVITIES AT OFFI-CERS' CLUB

On Thursday evening, December 19th, the Christmas holiday social festivities will be officially open at the Officers' Club. Following an old English custom, there will be the lighting of the Yule Log, a most colorfuland picturesque event. Members of the Infantry School Hunt will bring in the Yule Log, while the official torch bearer will light it among rollicking hunting songs. Affording added color to the scene will be the presence of the hounds. The Officers' Club will be gaily decorated for theoccasion with holly and mistletoe. In the lobby there will be a glistening Christmas tree, its branches laden with red candles, red, green and yellow balls, make-believe snow and red and green serpentines.

Dinner will be serve dat eight followed by dancing until ten.

BENING BACHELORS TO SPON-SOR SUBSCRIPTION DANCE FRIDAY AT POLO-HUNT CLUB

Among the many delightful holiday affairs to be given for the younger set will be the subscription dance Friday evening at the Polo-Hunt Club by the Benning

CHRISTMAS SALE

Closing out of all hats......$1.00, $1.95, $2.95 and $3.95 At these prices every one can wear a New Hat for Christmas.

DOLAN - HENRY HAT SHOP

AT ALSOBROOK'S

Benning accounts solicited

motif while the 24th Infantry orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing. The guest list will plicate contract bridge tournament. include members of the young married contingent, the debutante set their guests and escorts. Many informal affairs will be held preceeding the dance in honor of holidays

> REGULAR THURSDAY EVEN ING SUPPER DANCE HELD

The Officers' Club sponsored its regular Thursday evening supper dance Thursday. Receiving tables for this affair were: Capt. and Mrs. Walter C. Phillips, Capt. and Mrs. Samuel L. Buracker, Capt. and Mrs. William J. Kunzmann and Capt. and Mrs. Robert T. Fos-ter besides several "no-host" tables. PERSONALS

Lieut. and Mrs. Lynn E. Brady departed Sunday for Philadelphia where they will be the guest of the latter's sister and brother-in-law for the Christmas holidays.

Mis Katherine Lemly is spending a few weeks as the guests of friends in New York and Philadel-

Miss Louise Waddington who is attending college at Smith College will spend the Christmas holidays at Fort Benning with her mother, Mrs. Selina Waddington.

Miss Margery Hall will arrive at Fort Benning on December 19th to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall. Miss Hall attends the Rhode Island School of Design

SELECTED PAPER SHELL PECANS:

Schleys ____25c Lb. Stuarts ____20c Lb. Attractive Xmas packages of 5 lbs. ready for mailing $1.75 MRS. J. W. MURRAY, Terrace Grove
8 Miles on Buena Vista Road

Miss Mary Josephine Hobson will arrive at Fort Benning on Friday evening from Ward-Belmont in Nashville. She plans to spend about a month with her parents Major and Mrs. William B. Hobson.

Miss Elizabeth Catron, daughter of Major and Mrs. Thomas B. Catron, will arrive at Fort Benning Friday evening from the Ogontz School in Philadelphia to spend the holidays with her parents. She plans to remain until January

Extra Choice PECANS

PRICES

10c to 25c

PER POUND

Put up in packages ready for mailing

> Choice Fruits & Nuts 1019 Broadway

The Six Box is Coca-Cola's contribution to house hold economy.

AN OLD STANDBY

Wherever you go, at whatever entertainment you wish to find it—there you will see Coca-Cola —and principally because there's no other soft drink that can even equal it for every occasion. Keep it on hand always-in the SIX-BOX, of course!

FOR MANY YEARS COCA-COLA HAS BEEN THE WORLD'S MOST REFRESHING DRINK

The Six-Box is sold by all Columbus grocers

You'll Enjoy Giving

When You See The Excellent Gifts We

Have On Display-They're Ideal For Christmas.

Service Is A Pleasure - Satisfaction

Guaranteed

OFFICER'S CLUB TAILOR SHOP

THE ASSOCIATED MILITARY STORES

OVER GRILL

OFFICERS' CLUB

Benning-1933 In Retrospect

Jan. 1. Officers offered customary New Year's greeting to General Campbell King.

Jan. 4. An officers' mess management course and a school for stable sergeants opened. Jan. 5. 29th Infantry small bore team selected.

Jan. 6. Benning goes into month's mourning of the death of ex-president Coolidge.

Jan. 10. Company F, 67th Infantry, remodelled by Major Allen Kingman-and Lt. William R. Mac-Kinnon comes to the Post as assistant commandant of the School for Bakers and Cooks.

Jan. 11. Lt. Russell Blair rode bus home, after having car stolen.

Jan. 12. Special course for national guard and reserve officers opened-Miss Barbara King, popular daughter of General Campbell King, died after short illness.

Jan. 13. Lt. Russell Nelson received broken nose when car attempted to climb tree.—Major Ira Rader, air officer of 4th Corps Area, visited Benning.

Jan. 15. 1st Engineers bridged Chattahoochee-and Captain Harland Griswold arrived from "Hulahula-land" for duty with 24th Infantry.

Jan. 17. Winning Company E, 66th Infantry, football team given chicken dinner.

Jan. 18. "Pooch" Derrick, officially as Pfc. Sherman Derrick, 2d Bn. Hqs. Company, 29th Infantry, promoted to Corporal.

Jan. 20. Tony Sarg's Marion-ettes presented "The Merry-Go-Round" and "Sinbad The Sailor" at Main Theatre-and annual bridge tourney opened at Officers

Jan. 21. 29th Infantry Band played for president-elect Roosevelt in Montgomery, Alabama.

Jan. 22. Fire finds way into store room of Battery A, 83rd F. A., damaging supplies. April.

Jan. 25. Master Sergeant Sidney Sprague received orders for transfer to Panama.

Jan. 27. 1st and 2nd Battalions engaged in mimic war during overnight maneuver.

Jan. 31. Tank demonstration given for national guard and reserve officers' class — General (Please turn to Page 21)

Found!

The Perfect Gift for Her! Sterling silver dresser sets by Gorham - International - Brush, Comb and Mirror. Such a gift would be treasured her lifetime. Select one of these exquisite patterns today!

$27 to $35

AMAR

JEWELERS

1201 Broadway

Let The Name On Your Gift Box Denote Quality CHRISTMAS GIFTS!

Dress for the

GIFT ROBES:

These gift robes will make the ideal present for any man. They're artistically designed and made of fine materials in just the way that men like. Give him one this Christmas and see how pleased he'll be at receiving it.

 6^{50} to $^{$}12^{50}$

VISIT Our Boys Shop

Here, too, you can find many gifts that will bring joy and gladness this Christmas Day! And, likewise, they'll bring added comfort and convenience, for they're well-made and designed for real boys of all ages.

Bath Robes

Tie and Handkerchief Sets Zipper Coats Cowboy Suits Scarfs Suits

LOCATED ON SECOND FLOOR

Hofflin and Greentree

COLUMBUS, LEADING CLOTHIERS ESTABLISHED 1888

That the Benning Dramatic Club is a versatile organization, no one can deny. There is now no field left untouched save stark tragedy, and we may as well expect any time now, a brilliant rendition of Strange Interlude, or Mourning Becomes Electra. The Upatoi Thespians ventured into "horse opera" this past week-end and scored with it one of the most amusing hits of the past several seasons. In "The Bad Man", the humour is of the obvious variety, with a little satire limited to the exposition of contrasts in villainy, so to speak. We have the American variety represented by a Big Business man, ably seconded by a petty malefactor with a penchant for mortgage foreclosing. These two come to grips with a Mexican Bandit, the results easily foreseen. This is the primary situation, even tho there is the more customary marital triangle which has also to be resolved

Lewis had an unusually accomplished and experienced cast with which to work, but evidences were everywhere apparent of her fine directional hand and I wish to express my admiration for her work.

Dialogue and movement coordinated to a very nearly professional degree, voices were pitched to audibility throughout, entrance cues were exact, and tempo, that bete-noir of amateur efforts, was even and smooth. Comparisons are pit falls, but as a reviewer I am moved to boldness, and I nominate "The Bad Man" as one of three or four best performances I have seen at Fort Benning. The setting was extra-ordinarily good, the adobe ranch house interior, with a fine vista of sun baked, rolling border country had nice, authentic touch-

The cast contained an unusual number of Benning Stars and so many talented new players that I feel slightly breathless before beginning on the list of laurels! Major Lewis is so richly endowed with

J. W. Bugg

Christmas Baskets

50c and $1.00

PECANS

Special prices on quantities

1226 Broadway

CANDIES

NUTS

es of detail.

FRUITS

CIGARS

The directing was masterly. Mrs.

during the course of the play.

THE BAD MAN—A REVIEW

redeeming traits, for he has brav- play, and she was an important nate his contrast to those craven Man.' American scoundrels, Hardy and Pell, who, on their part, knew not tinguished actors, whose stage ery, too. These qualities illumi- factor in the success of "The Bad

Lt. O'Flaherty, one of our dis-voice, together with his professional finesse make him a sought after person when the Dramatic Club is in the throes of casting, was a villain extraordinary in the part of a morose, sullen, brooding, presence, a sadistic friend, a villain of such machiavillian resources that it was necessary to finish him off not once, but twice in the course of the play. Capt. McLaughlin was a good selection for the part of Hardy. He handled his villanious role remarkably well and proved himself excellent material for future plays. Mrs. McManus was well cast as "Ann-jelly" and was most amusing in her transparent,

Kunzig shows promise as future star material. He was a most appealing Red with walk, drawl and appearance strongly suggestive of our best Friday night Westerns. The Mexican cook was a brief part ably contributed by Anne Ryan. Pedro and Venustiara—henchemen of the Bandit, General

Lopez, played by Lts. Wooten and Quinn were sinister fellows wearing excellent makeups and the most curdling scowls. While their parts were not as vocal as others, their prompt answering of cues, quick movements and general air of tense and instant readiness to execute

(Please turn to Page 15)

man-hunting machinations.

ARMY

NAVY

INSIGNIA and BUTTONS

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold plating. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned, with a solution of soapsuds and house-hold ammonia.

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

> Suggestion Father and Son . . . Why not give a corsage or potted plant to your mother, sister or sweetheart for

veys sentiment so well as flowers, and ours are unusually beautiful.

There's nothing that con-

Christmas?

Gurley's FLOWER SHOP PHONE 436

The entire cast of "The Bad Man" is here shown grouped on the stage at the Main Theater. In settings and in general all-round work, this play stood out among the best that have ever been staged on the Benning boards

Lopez an ingratiating rascal, the and bellow! I can't remember be- Pell, the husband of Lucia. He was dramatic talent, with a special gift the meaning of friendship, loyalty, presence and remarkable speaking for characterization that the aud- or honor, and yet contrived with ience had been for some weeks in all their evil doing to remain stricta state of pleased anticipation, but ly within the law. Major Lewis I humbly admit he exceeded our had a nice conception of the role. expectations. He made Pancho I was so glad he did not thunder

Lt. James R. Pierce and Mrs. W. C. Phillips, two of the star players in the recent Dramatic Club production of "The Bad Man" at the Main Theater last Friday and Saturday.

strut, the accent, the rolling eyes, ing personally acquainted with any and shoulder shrugging, all contri- Mexican bandits in my youth, tho buted to a fine illusion to a legendary Mexican Bandit General. In the bright lexicon of Pancho Lopez the word "ethics" has no meaning, and his moral code is so elementary that the element of virtue is merely the uncompromising loyalty of one friend for another. This is his redeeming trait, or one of his

there were plenty of all other kinds of Mexicans on the Border where I gred up, and roaring or ranting is certainly not a characteristic of the race. Arguing, protesting, denying, or expostulating, the Mexican uses his eyes and his hands and his shoulders, but rarely the full power of his lungs, and I congratulate Major Lewis for his restraint in this particular.

Captain Phillips, another of our most talented players had also a fine character part, that of a pestijerous and argumentative elderly uncle, to which he added his own resourceful gifts. A Yankee twang, a wheel chair and a pair of spectacles that could be looked under, and over, but rarely through were apparently all that was necessary for Capt. Phillips to create his illusion for he lacked the customary Seth Parker make up, and he had to project his character without the obvious whiskers and wig. His lines brought repeated laughs and applause which is ample testimony to his acting skill.

Lieut. Pierce made one of the most atractive "straight" leads we have seen on the Benning stage. He was easy, fluent, and very handsome of the role of Gil Jones, never awkward or inept. His fine physique and excellent direction make him a model leading man. Mrs. Phillips was charming as Lucia Pell, the rare beauty and dramatic ability are always an asset to any Brighten up your home this year with ornaments from SILVER'S. Decorate the tree - let the children help you — and make this the merriest and jolliest Christmas ever!

COLORED LIGHTS

These sets of colored lights are built for long wear. They're non-inflammable, brightly colored, and they'll brighten up your tree like nothing

Set

COLORED BALLS

A few dozen colored balls on the tree will add touches of color that will make it more attractive than ever. They're selling very cheaply here at 59cSet

Also, be sure to inspect our supply of wrappings and Christmas packages. Brightly printed paper, silver cord and ribbon, and bright seals all selling very economically.

SILVER'S

COR. BROADWAY & 11th ST.

Sweets for CHRISTMAS

This year buy your Christmas candies at Mitchells, Whether it's for a gift or for your own table. We have the most complete assortment of candies, fruits and nuts you can find in Columbus.

Candy Canes, Glace Fruit, Novelty Candies, Gift Boxes, Stuffed Dates, Gift Baskets of Fruit, Nuts.

SPECIAL: Pecans, already sacked for mailing.

MITCHELL'S

1204 Broadway

Home Of 100 Candies

Phone 1085

BETTER WAIT

for

the 1934

Buicks and Pontiacs

Coming Soon

Cliff M. Averett, Inc.

1441-43-45 1st. Ave.

Telephones 883 - 884

BEST WISHES

for a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

D.M.W. Contracting Co. Brooklyn, New York

For Christmas:

And at every other time, WELL'S Milk is always just what you want!

> WELL'S DAIRY CO.

> > MACON RD.

Phone 1144

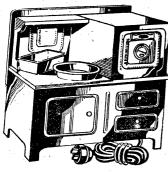

eura se

DeLuxe Tricycles

Ball-bearing wheels and pedals. Heavy rub-ber tires. Steel tube frame baked red and white enamel finish. Chromium plated adjustable handlebars.

$7.95

Electric Range

Here's what's destined to be the pride and joy of many a young feminine heart—an electric range that really heats and cooks: Complete with plug. $1.19

Sears Toyland is ready for you. It's the gayest place in town, Santa Claus thinks, but he would rather have you come and join the fun of toy-shopping than tell you about it. Old Santa will be at Sears' Toyland daily from Saturday until Christmas Eve. Be sure to see him here Saturday afternoon at four o'clock - souvenirs for boys and girls!

Cleaning Set

Another fine Xmas gift for any good little girl, a cleaning set complete with apron, duster, broom, polisher, mop and, last, but not least a Vacuum Cleaner.

$1.19

3-in-1 Walker

Here is the wheel toy you can't resist for the baby. Three in one—first a walker— then a stroller, and as baby grows older a

$4.19

Complete Tool Chest

Just the present for the mechanically inclined hoy. Everything to keep him busy—and useful—for months and months. Includes plan book and full set of tools.

$1.98

1008 Broadway

The opening of work on the new $991,000 contract which calls for the construction of thirty sets of officers' quarters. General Estes is shown breaking ground with a silver shovel, and two of the officials of the D. M. W. Contracting Co. are shown in the foreground with him. Among others in the picture are prominent Columbus officials and high Benning officers.

LODGE OFFICERS APPOINTED (Continued From Page 5)

Artillery. Lieutenant Dietz was also elected as Trustee, and Sergeant J. L. Pope, 29th Infantry, was elected as Tiler.

The Masonic Lodge at Fort Benning, was, organized in October, 1924, with a membership of 58. Since that time, as one of the most active organizations at the post, it has increased its membership to almost 200, and is regarded as one of the leading fraternal and elemosynary units in this section.

Winter...

Branches of this firm, which are located in the principal Southern Cities are conveniently available to accredited individuals who spend their winters in the South

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

> 13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MBERS NEW YORK-STOCK EXCHANGE

Delivered to friends far away Christmas morning The Ideal Gift

FLOWER SHOP PHONE 2837

Bov Scouts

Troup Twelve Fort Benning Boy Scouts met Thursday, Dec. 7, 1933 at the boy scout cabin. Lt. Meister opened the meeting and we said the scout oath and called the roll. We then went outside to play games. One of the scouts was sent through the belt line. We found that he had some carboard in his pants so we decided to have a court. We picked the Judge and other court | Pathfinding merit badge. officials. We then called for witnesses and questioned them. Lt. Meister asked if it was a written law. We did not have any proof that it was a written law so we had to call it not guilty.

We then said the scout law and went out and made a fire in the barbecue pit. Some of the scouts then tried to do a smoke signal and the meeting wasadjourned.

COURT OF HONOR

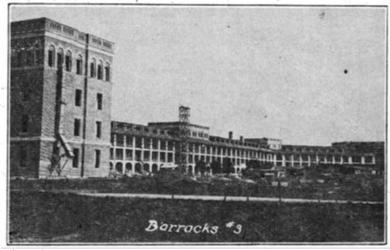

The monthly Court of Honor met Saturday, Dec. 9, 1933 at the boy scout cabin, at nine o'clock. The officials there were Col. Bonesteel, Major Reeder, Capt. Johnson and Sgt. Magoni.

Two of the scouts from Troop Twelve went up before the court one for Second Class and one for

NOTICE

All boys not yet scouts, who are twelve years of age or over are invited to come to the meetings every Thursday at the Scout cabin from 4:15 o'clock to 5:30 o'clock.

-Frederic Ladd, Scribe.

The nearly completed Barracks No. 3, which will house the men of the Infantry School Detachment at its completion.

Garden Club To Hear Address

The Garden Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon, Dec. 18, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Raymond W. Pearson.

Mrs. E. J. Alsobrook of the Ft. Benning Nursery on Benning Boulevard, will be the guest speaker of the afternoon, taking for her sub ject the planting and care of potted the dead of night and sends them plants. Mrs. Alsobrook is recognized as one of the leading florists and authorities on plants in Columbus.

The Ideal Gift

Give your friends Canary Songsters $3.75 Parrakeets, pr. $5.00 & $7.00 Fine Pottery Urns, Etc. Choice Pecans a Specialty

Valley Seed Co. 1041 Broadway

ENGINEERS

The Basketball team won another game from the I. S. D. No. 1 team last Monday night by the score of 37-17. Bennett really hit his stride in that game. He made 22 of the 37 points, and any man that makes that many points in any basketball game has just got to be good. One more game and the Engineers will have the Championship in the bag regardless.

Can anyone tell me who the Cpl. is that wakes up the two shiel out to see their flames in a "Great big automobile?" If it happens again I hope that he doesn't get excited and talk too loud.

From the looks of things Ratcliffe is going to be among for sometime to come. He left rather sudden last week and we haven't seen him since. That's really too bad.

A couble of more weeks and Sgts. Tooze and Johnson will have their new quarters in very good shape. I am pretty sure that both of them will be very well pleased when that time comes.

Monit left Monday for La.

He expects to be gone for some time. They all get homesick for the swamps down that way once in a while. Don't they, "Wop"?

Richards is still wondering when Lowry will be back from that ranks of the A. W. O. L. and believe me I think that there are a lot more wondering the same thing. For instance, Meadows.

If any of you people want to go over the hill just see Cochrans I understand that both Underwood and Ratcliffe were financially helped by him. Don't tell him I said

PURO PRODUCTS

Moth Protected fur closets, Insect Powder and Purifiers for the bath room, and all household uses. Appointments made. Products handled by . .

Mrs. H. Weisenberger 501 Apt. B Lumpkin Road Phone 347

FLOWERS

The

PERFECT GIFT

The Best Way to express Christ-

Delivered fresh, from our greenhouse.

BENNING BLVD. NURSERY

We Telegraph Flowers

Phone 4176

Merry Christmas

to the Fort Benning personnel from-

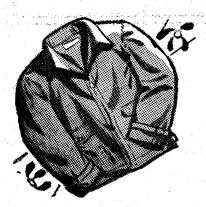

Kinnett's Ice Cream will be sold hereafter at

THE SODA FOUNT OFFICERS' CLUB THE Place your orders for Individual Moulds, Special Designs and Decorated Ice Cream Cakes by calling 69 or 151, Ft. Benning.

Where You Find Men Who Know:

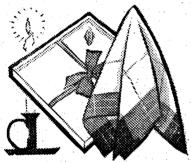

THERE YOU WILL FIND CLOTHING FROM CHANCELLOR'S

Leather Jackets $6.50 - $9.95

Traveling Cases $3.50 - $10.00

Initial Handkerchiefs $1.50 Box

Cheney Cravats $1.00 - $2.00

Why not make your gift purchases at this – Columbus' best men's store?

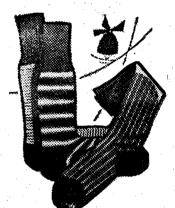

Look around this page. There are a number of ideal gifts for men of taste—gifts such as only a store of Chancellor's kind would have. Show your cleverness and good sense by giving a gift from Chancellor's—truly the gift store of Columbus and Fort Benning.

For that gentleman friend to whom you wish to endear yourself--who has a keen sense of appreciation—there is nothing better than this. It conveys just the right feeling and at the same time is an extremely timely and appropriate gift.

Scarfs $1.50 - $3.50

Wilson Socks 3 pr. $1.00

Cigarette Cases $2.00 - $4.50

Fur-Lined Gloves $2.50 pr.

CHANCELLOR CO.

HEADQUARTERS FOR USEFUL GIFTS - - -

IT DAYS TO TRADE AT YOUR DOST EXCHANGE

Bath Crystals
Bath Mats Bath Sets Bloomers Briefs Bridge Cards Compacts Costume Jewelry Electric Heaters Electric Toasters Electric Waffle Irons Electric Percolators Electric Warming Pads Handkerchiefs Kodaks Parker Pens & Pencils Perfume — Coty
Perfume — Houbigant
Perfume — Yardley
Perfume — Chateau du Parc Pipes Pocket Knives Scout Knives Stationery Toys Vanities

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING, GA.

TOYS

OF ALL KINDS

for

KIDS OF ALL AGES!

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNIING, GA.

You can depend on the Western Xpert shell to back up good gun pointing and bag the birds. Hard-hitting, Good, close patterns. Patented new Western Seal-Tite moisture-proof wad. Quality—at a popular price. Try it!

The Shell that Gets the Game

MAIN BRANCH
POST EXCHANGE
Fort Benning

PATRONIZE YOUR POST EXCHANGE

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Miltary Service for the 1934

STAND BY

COMING SOON

MUSCOGEE MOTOR COMPANY

1501 FIRST AVENUE COLUMBUS, GA.

At Christmastime.

And at every other time during the whole year, these banks are trying to give you the best that's in us.

We hope sincerely that the coming year may bring the best of prosperity to you, and that we may be allowed to assist you in bringing good fortune. And, likewise, we wish to bring you, from every member of our staff, the season's best wishes.

We wish you

A Very Merry Xmas and A Happy New Year!

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

and the

HOME SAVINGS BANK

FT. BENNING REPRESENTATIVE-MR. R. M. HALL, JR.

SLEEPY HOLLOW

CLUB CHAIR

with ottoman to match

FREE

The greatest chair value ever offered in Columbus We invite you to compare them —regular $36.50 value only

$1975

45c

DOWN 50c per week

Extra large size men's chair—form-fitting back, covered in newest tapestries of durable quality—never such a value—and at such low terms—due to this sacrificing price we can only offer a limited number.

MARTIN'S

BROADWAY

Spot Chairs

These will make ideal Christmas gifts! They will fit any corner of the house, and they are useful for every member of the family. Rep covering. Moderately priced at only

Cash

End Tables . . .

. . . and every other kind of table! Give one of these and you'll make a permanent friend. Made of the best materials and in every size and design. As low as

98c Cash

Child's Rocker

We have a large stock of these childrens' rockers which will please the little girl on Christmas day. In red and green.

$1.25

Convenient Terms if desired

B. L. Pennell Furniture Co

Corner Broadway and 13ht St.

Make This A

Jewelry

Christmas

With gifts from

Schomburg's

AT THE SIGN OF THE CLOCK

WATCHES ... RINGS ... FLAT SILVERWARE ... CRYSTAL

BROOCHES...NECKLACES

CHINA ... CLOCKS

The Cabin ...

is the ideal place to eat —

BRIDGE PARTIES

LUNCHEONS

ALL SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Under the management of

JACK WALTON

at the Waverly Hotel

Real Southern Cooking in Southern Style!

There's nothing so appropriate nor so much appreciated as fine furniture for Christmas. These items listed below, and many others in our stock are especially selected as ideal gifts. Moderately priced — beautifully made — expertly styled — they're the finest you can buy!

Smoking Stands

A smoking stand is an ideal gift for any man, and, in addition, it will add a bright spot to any room. These are very good buys at 3.50 up

Gift Lamps

These lamps will brighten up any corner of your home! Why not enlighten yourself by coming to see how beautifully they are suited for gifts?

$3.50

End Tables

flandy—well-made—nicely proportioned to fit your living room just as you would like it—or anyone else's living room! The answer to your Christmas problem!

$2.50

Easy Chairs

For the man of the house—but every body else'll be using it inside of fifteen minutes! Comfortable and long wearing chairs selling as low as

$25.00

H. ROTHSCHILD

LEADING FURNITURE DEALERS IN COLUMBUS FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS

THE BAD MAN-A REVIEW (Continued From Page 8)

commands lent much excitement to the action of the play. Last, but not least, we had the Texas Rangers Capt. Hamlett and Lieut. Crosby who came on the stage for a few seconds only but were forceful and dominating in their short

The program stated that costumes were imported from New York, and they were most picturesque. All in all, "The Bad Man" will not sink into the limbo of forgetfulness, but will be talked about by old-timers for many seasons to come. It will be a basis of comparison for future plays and a source of pride and satisfaction to all the players, the technicians, the director, the property and make-up assistants, and every one who contributed to its success.

It occurs to me, in closing this review, that we hardly realize the excellence of this Dramatic Club work. We are taking it so much for granted, and we hold the Club so severely to a very high standard of entertainment, that we are forgetting what a really extra-ordinary accomplishment it is for a group of amateurs to produce such interesting plays.

-Mary S. Tucker.

Star Brand Shoes For the Whole Family!

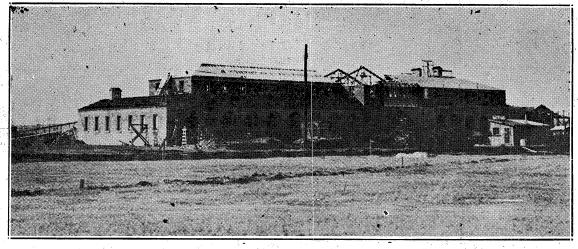

FULL-FASHIONED PURE THREAD SILK HOSIERY THE POPULAR 59c & 79c

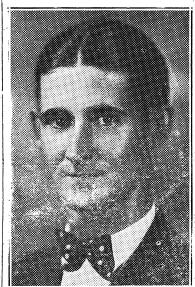

Ladies' Riding BOOTS

SAM NEEL'S SHOE DEPARTMENT

WESTBROOK BLDG.

The new Officers' Club which is rapidly taking final shape under the direction of Captain Golightly and the Recreation Center Board. The Club, which will be a beautifully designed building in harmony with the existing plan of building at the Fort, will be completed sometime next year, it is expected.

Sgt. Otis R. Glenn, of Fort Bening, who is Grand Herald of the Georgia Grand Lodge of Odd Fel

Sgt. Glenn was initiated in the order of Odd Fellows in Fort Benning Lodge No. 93 in the spring of 1924 and served that lodge as treasurer, vice-grand and noble grand. He took the Past Grand's degree in Atlanta, May, 1925. Sgt. Glenn transferred to Muscogee Lodge No. 6 in July of 1927 where he filled to offices of secretary, then noble grand and was then re-elected to recording secretary, to which position he is now filling.

Sgt. Glenn is on the board of trustees of Muscogee Lodge No. 6, has also been Division Deputy Grand Master for this, the Fifth Division. Grand Master Leroy Lewis appointed him Grand Herald at the last session of the Georgia Grand Lodge and thus started him up the official ladder in the Grand Lodge.

Sgt. Glenn is quite popular in fraternal circles at Fort Benning, in Columbus, and wherever he has visited Odd Fellow lodges over the state. His friends predict for him a brilliant record in the order.

Major Irving Is Match Surprise

The most important event of the annual fall tennis tournament at Fort Benning, the men's singles, which decides the championship for the racket wielders of the post, was recently completed on the Officers' hree straight sets from Lieutenant Newman R. Burns, Infantry, Organized Reserves, on active duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps at Harmony Church, by the scores of 7-5, 6-1, 6-0. Lieutenant Burns playing a high, bounding drive, made a hard battle during the first set, and several tigue jacket. It was stated by an times carried the play to set-point with the score at 5-4, but lacked been accepted, for a compartment the drive to take the deciding game. In the second and third sets he locker for a storage bin in which to dropped the driving style of play, hoard his daily supply ration unand began chopping, Major Irving til the situation calls for reenforce-sets in rapid succession.

Both men worked their way through the preliminary rounds in good fashion, with Major Irving encountering some stiff opposition from Julius Evans, who carried the match to five sets before losing. Irving took the first two sets 6-1, 6-1, when Evans made a rally to drive through on the third and fourth sets, 6-3, 7-5, with the fifth going to Irving 6-1. In the first round Irving eliminated Private Miller 6-1, 6-0; and in the second Lieutenant Jacob S. Sauer, 6-3, 10-8, after a hard fight.

Lieutenant Burns took his first round match with Captain Henry E. Kelley, 24th Infantry, 6-3, 6-1; the second round from Captain Walter C. Phillips 7-9, 6-2, 6-3, the third from Major Phillip G. Blackmore 6-2, 6-1; and the semi-final from Lieutenant Forrest A. Hornisher 6-0, 6-1, 6-3.

The remainder of the matches are expected to be completed in the near future, and the majority of them are advanced to the semi-final

I.S.D. Bowlers Out In Front

With the first half of the post bowling league drawing to a close the I.S. D. ten pin artists have cinched the leading position in the enlisted men's league with an average of 900 for 30 games, while he Officers' League is still a close race between the Instructors and the Company Officers. Headquarters 29th Infantry and the 2d Battalion 29th Infantry are giving each other some hot competition for second place in the Enlisted Men's League, there being only one game difference in the stand-

Glenn, of the I. S. D., still retains his lead in the scoring average of the E. M. League, while Captain Laurin L. Williams has shoved Captain Phillip Fry from the top position in the Officers' League.

29th Inf.

Since the members of this Company saw the German training film at the Main Theatre recently everybody and his brother is an overshut-Club courts with Major Frederick zer or about to become one. One A. Irving, of the academic depart- fellow went so far as to repair to ment capturing the title by taking the messhall at the properly appointed time for chow with a coffee bucket slung over his arm and in less time than it takes to tell it was seen exiting from the aforementioned feeding place with an immense loaf of white bread under the spacious folds of a denim fainformant that plans were under way, at least sealed proposals had to be built in said soldier's wallcontinued with a bullet serve and ments to answer the call of a raphard driving to take the last two idly diminishing waist line.

could fill their vacancies when they were given their warrants as such and to be obeyed and respected accordingly.

The custom of the Hitler followers to have frauleins as kitchen coppers drew many unsuppressed exclamations from the doughboys who think that the habit should be taken up in the U.S. Army. That's almost as bad as the peculiar Japanese custom where red-cheeked buxom maidens wash the visitors backs in the public bath-houses of the far east. How most embarrassing!

The Brady Bomber basketball quad sojourned to Seale, Ala., where they played a strong aggregation of cagesters from the Seale High School. The infantrymen were victorious in the contest piling p 36 points to the Alabamians 26. Ripper" Ray, Mal Snead, Prince and Joe Knight were the mainstays of the doughboy offense with their deceptive passing and unerring accuracy in ringing the hoop. Smith of the Hq. quintet gave a good accounting with nine points.

Next Saturday, one day after the issue of the Herald, Seale will play the 1st Bat company team at the

Another popular soldat of this organization went so far as to asl the C. O. why he had not yet been promoted to the grade of an individual who is waiting in line for two more men to be promoted to the grade of overshutzer so that he

Company G Loses First Game In Race

The firs tupset of the season in the 24th Infantry basketball league came on last Friday night, when Company E downed the powerful "House of Davids' from Company G for their first loss of the year was attended by the largest crowd by the score of 36-28. The game of the season, as almost the entire regiment, from Colonel Munson, commanding officer, on down was present.

Dr. R. H. Brown

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Phones Office 4108 Res. 1153

Of course, you'll want to look your best!

Let Christmas day be one when you look and feel at your best! Have a permanent here, and then there will be no doubt of that fact. They cost only $3.50 each.

Post Office Barber and Beauty Shop

Opposite Post Office On 12th Street at Fort Benning!....

and may we remind you that

All Rogers' Stores are heavily laden with holiday merchandise!

Every kind of fruit - nuts - hard candies for your Christmas table!

The Herald Subscription Campaign Starts Monday—Watch Announcement Next Week!

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

The Year In Sports At Fort Benning

Jan. 4-Corn Griffin K. O'd Tommy Hambrick at West Palm Beach in fifth.-While Co. E, 29th lost to Columbus Boys' Team 32-27. and Hubbard Hardware downed the 1st Batt. Irish 33-20, basketball, in Columbus.

Jan. 9-Enlisted men's bowling team received trophy for winning Tri-city Ten Pin League.

Jan. 10-Company E 66th captures Tanker basketball title by defeating Company F 67th, 27-24.

Jan. 11—Happy Hearts of the 24th downed Henley Athletic Club of Atlanta 44-22 on Benning basketball court.

Jan. 13—Tank battalion began elimination bouts to select Tornado boxing team, with Company F 66th stepping into lead.

Jan. 14—Tanker basketball team dropped game to Ft. McClellan Musketeers at McClellan 44-25.

Jan. 15—Tanker cagesters made it two in a row by losing to Anniston Red Birds 42-34, at Anniston.

Jan. 17-Corn Griffin won close decision over Frankie Edgren of Wyoming in Benning gym, with Harold Murphy giving Ching Johnson an eight round boxing lesson. -And Golden Tornado basketeers make it 'Tank Day" by winning their first against Columbus High Blue Devils 42-35.

Jan. 18—Industrial Red Jackets down Green Cords from the I. S. D. on Industrial court, winning 37-

Jan. 19—Hubbard Hardware turned back Kelly's, 46-36; Irish from 1st Battalion walloped Boys' Club quintet 31-21; and I. S. D. lost second in as many days to Waverly Hall 48-26, in basketball evening at post gym—While Head-quarters Company Tankers romped off with amateur boxing title of organization.

Jan. 21—Captain James Drake defeated Captain Richard Bassett 3 straight sets to win fall tennis tourney.-While I, S. D. cagesters dropped another, to St. Luke Methodists from Columbus, 34-31.

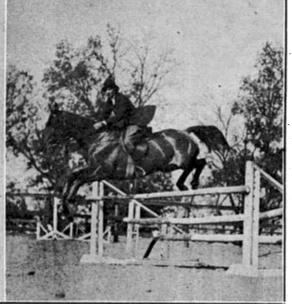

Jan. 22—The annual Infantry School gymkhana held, with riders from all organizations cutting high jinks on French Field.

Jan. 23-Tanker basketball team walked off floor at Industrial in contest with Red Jackets, claiming unecessary roughness on part of students.

Jan. 24-Colonel Fred L. Munson hauls down hole-in-one in golf match between 24th and 29th regiments. And post Simon Pure begin post boxing tourney.

Jan. 26-24th cagesters downed Atlanta Y 45-24 at Benning. While (Please turn to Page 19)

Mrs. Monroe, on Middleburg, after jump off with Mrs. Walter O'-Brien on Lumpkin, both having scored 100 in first jumping. Final scores, Mrs. Monroe, 100, Mrs. O'-Brien, 98; third Mrs. Huling on Baldy, 97; fourth Mrs. Heileman on Tom Finley, 96.

Class 10, the most important event in the show, the jumping sweepstakes, was won by Lieutenant Monroe, on Harry W., score 100, time 1:11. Second was Major Kramer Thomas, Cavalry, on Howdy, score 97, time 1:19 4-5. Third, Mrs. Studebaker on Anita, in jump-off with Private Allman, 29th Infantry on Lumpkin, Private Poer, on Spaghetti, Lieutenant Ely on Tobin, and Mrs. Heileman on Tom Finley, all having scored 96. Final score, Mrs. Studebaker, third, 100, Private Allman, fourth, score from the entire state of Georgia as well as fans from Columbus and Fort Benning, crowded Campbell King Horse-Show Bowl at the Infantry School to witness the eleventh annual fall horse-show of the post on Saturday, Dec. 9.

Mrs. Studebaker Cops Honor In Horseshow Last Saturday

The high point of the event was the showing made by a feminine entry, Mrs. Clayton H. Studebaker, who came close to defeating some f the best of the army's riders in the feature event, the jumping sweepstakes, and who gave an exhibition of horsemanship seldom equalled to capture a third, and takes several other places in the different events of the show.

Results were as follows:

Class 1, colored enlisted men's jumping, won by Private Johnson, Service Company, 24th Infantry on Orphan, after jump-off with Private Haskins on Cy Gronizer, Service Company, both having scored 100 in the first trial. Final score, Johnson, 98, Haskins 96. Third place, Private Ford, Service Company, on Malcolm A, score 97 fourth place, Private Oliver, Service Company, on Logan, score 96.

Class 2, polo bending race, won by Lieutenant William E. Grubbs, 83rd Field Artillery, on Sister, after run-off with Captain John Huling ,Jr., on Bill Tilden, both having made time of 10 2-5 in first time round. Final time, Lieutenant Visiting horse-show enthusiasts Grubbs, 10 3-5, Captain Huling, 11. Third place, Lieutenant Carl Westlund, on Unknown, in jump-off with Lieutenant George H. McManus, Jr., on Freddy, both scoring 11 2-5 seconds. Final time, Lieutenant Westlund, 10 4-5, Lieutenant Mc-Manus, 11 1-5.

Class 3, novice jumping, won by Lieutenant Leon C. Scott, on Hap Gay, after jump-off with Captain Henry J. Matchett, Lieutenant Edmond M. Rowan, Mr. Albert C. Persons, and Miss Virginia Wadsworth all having scored 100 in first jumping. Mr. Persons and Lieutenant Scott scored 100 in secondjump-off. Final scores, Lieutenant Scott 100, Mr. Persons, on Baby Boy, 98, second; Captain Matchett, on Warren M., 97, third; Miss Wadsworth, on Snippy, 96, fourth.

Class 4, officers' chargers, won by Major Charles O. Grace on Jupiter; second, Captain James D. Sams, on Xantippe; third Lieutenant Lewis S. Griffing, on 1st Flight; and fourth Captain Clough F. Gee on Uncle Bim.

Class 5, handy hunters, won by Captain Huling on La Junta, score, 100, time, 44 seconds. Second, Lieutenant Louis B. Ely, on Tobie, score 100, time 1:07 2-5. Third, Captain Gee on Uncle Bim, score, 99, time 54 seconds. Fourth, Mr. Lawrence Persons, on Bob Arnold, score 99, time 58 seconds.

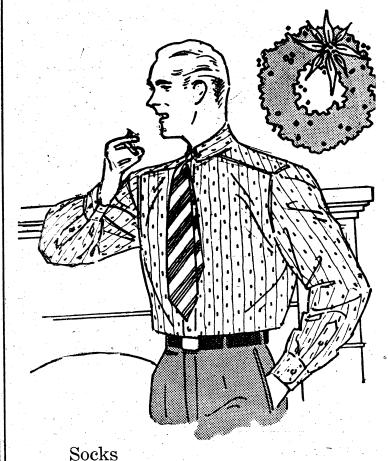

Class 6, ladies hacks, Miss Dot Russ, on Tar Baby, first; Mrs. Burt on Sarah G., second; Mrs. George P. Howell, on Leather Neck, third; and Mrs. Joseph P. Cleland, on Virginia Dare, fourth.

Class 7, enlisted men's jumping, won by Private 1st class Poer. 29th Infantry, on Spaghetti, score 100. 1st Sergeant Pink E. Bryan, 29th Infantry, on High Society, second, score, 99; Private 1st class Edmunds, 29th Infantry, on Cyclone, third, score 98, and Private Pearson, 83rd Field Artillery, on Tobie, fourth, score 97.

Class 8, hunt team jumping, won by team of Mrs. Wendall G. Bevan on Richard, Lieutenant Ely on Blackhawk, and Lieutenant Grubbs on Vincennes. Second were Captain and Mrs. Huling on Baldy and La Junta, and Mrs. Frank A. Heileman on Tom Finley; third Lieutenant and Mrs. Clayton H. Studebaker on Pat and Creek, and Lieutenant Griffin on 1st Flight; fourth Captain Michael E. Halloran on Woolflower, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Hammond M. Monroe on Middleburg and Maude Page.

Class 9, ladies jumping, won by

SHOP AT PAYNE'S FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Ties Shirts Gloves Belts and Belt Sets Suspenders Pajamas Dressing Gowns Handkerchief and Tie Sets Mufflers Hats Shoes

Zipper Jackets Suits and Overcoats at really reasonable prices.

PAYNE CLOTHING Co.

A STORE WHERE QUALITY COUNTS 1203 BROADWAY

BURRUS USED CAR DEPT.

1213 - 1st Avenue

For Real Values In USED CARS

We have most any make or type used car you could want - our prices are right, terms can be arranged to fit most any income, so see our stock of used cars before you buy any car.

Buy A Car — Buy It Now — Buy It Here BURRUS MOTOR CO.

AUTHORIZED

DEALER

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

season in the first attempt at a M. C. 50, 29th 0. regimental team at Fort Benning.

The attempt to turn out a creditable eleven, using material from the three battalion teams, who their fourth game, and pushed over have been traditional gridiron enemies since the establishment of the Infantry School, and many predictions were made as to the probable success of the venture. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that that most essential of all ingredients for a winning football team, a sense of unity, would be lacking. Results speak for themselves.

Out of a total of nine games played against all classes of teams from varsity competition in the Southern conference, through the ranks of the junior colleges, semiprofessional, service, and C. C. C. elevens, the Green Wave emerged with four losses and five victories, scoring a total of 138 points to their opponents' 129. In only one game did they fail to live up to expectations, when they played a strong team from Georgia Military College, which had been undefeated at the time of meeting the 29th, and finished the season with only one loss. The 29th team went under to the tune of 50-0, a much larger score than that made against them by members of the Oglethorpe varsity squad, who won from the soldiers 39-12.

The Doughboys got away to a poor start in the season, playing their first game, with only one week of intensive practise behind them, and immediately after returning from a five-day practice march. They journeyed to Bowden and held the collegians scoreless until the last minute of play, when a 'hidden end", laying out near the sidelines, snagged a long pass for the only score. Bowden 6, 29th 0.

Pensacola Naval Station the Doughboys tried hard, and threatened several times, but the loss of several important key men on the team from injuries suffered in the Bowden game prévented them from stopping the Sailors, and they dropped their second 13-0.

As stated above, the only poor exhibition given by the Green Wave was against G. M. C. The Doughboys were completely baffled by the perfect interference of the Cadets, and went down like wheat before the scythe when the perfect interference of the visitors hit. They

With a 6-0 victory over Bowden tried desperately to stem the tide College on Dec. 9, the football team and score, but couldn't get into of the 29th Infantry, closed what action against a Forward wall that may be regarded as a successful broke through on every play. G.

> The Doughboys got a taste of blood against Lupton School of Arts, at Oglethorpe University in their first score of the season early in the game. It so happened however, that Oglethorpe varsity team had no scheduled game that afternoon, and before the game ended the regulars were taking a hand in holding the Green Wave in check. The Benning boys made a wonderful showing, but were outclassed by players from one of the ranking teams in the state, and lost 39-12.

> And then the tide turned. Still a bit peeved from the last game the Doughboys invited the Atlanta Fire Crackers to visit Doughboy Stadium, and proceeded to trample all over the semi-professional team to vin 32-7.

> The following week, on the home grounds, they took on Brewton-Parker College, to give an exhibition of wonderful team work, and blocking, and won 25-6, with every player on the squad seeing action.

> With the entire team working into full stride, the C. C. C. team from Camp Butler, Ga., proved no obstacle at all, and were swamped to the tune of 37-2. By this time the squad had shaken down into a smoothly running organization, with the selection of a first team rather a difficult proposition. The selection of starting line-ups was largely made by the type of tactics decided on by the coach.

> The Baby Petrels, of Oglethorpe Freshmen were next in line, and the Green Wave rolled them under. 26-6, in return for the defeat suffered in Atlanta.

The return game with Bowden College, the last of the season, was played at Benning, and the Doughboys' did not come quite up to the In their second game against the standard of playing that they had set for themselves. However, everyone was satisfied with the 6-0

A great majority of the credit for the successful season goes to Coach George H. Decker, Lieutenant, 29th Infantry, for coordinating the efforts of the stars from the three battalion units of the regiment, and for the excellent jib he did of outlining team strategy. Assisting him as line and backfield coaches were Lieutenants James R. Pierce, Washington M. Ives, Joseph P. Cleland, and John A. Stewart, all of the 29th Infantry.

See Changes

A change in the ranking of favorites for the Fort Benning polo league, which is scheduled to begin after the first of the year, was made at the post Sunday, Dec. 10, when the 24th Infantry came from underneath to down the powerful Freebooter four 3-2 in one of the best games seen this year at the

The upset came as a great surprise to both players and fans, as the Freebooter team had been lookon hitherto as the logical aggregation to repeat in winning the title of the Infantry School. The 24th Infantry, while ranked as one of the strongest teams in the league, was not expected to offer more than cursory competition, as they have been out of the Benning polo picture for the last two years, and were not judged to have sufficient experienced players to make much of a showing.

Last year the Freebooter riders ran off with the post title in a hotly contested race that resulted in a four wav tie.

of the leading teams in the league attendance from local fans.

Polo Rankings To E and F Leaders In Tank League

The basketball league of the Tank Battalion got under way on Monday evening with two closely contested games taking place. In the first contest-Company F. 66th. downed Headquarters Company 27-23; and F 67th walloped Company last year, went down to defeat beore he hitting power of the 83rd Field Artillery Reds, 6-4 in another suprise, not as strong as that given fans in the previous game. The I Reds have a hard-hitting organization this season, composed of players that have been working togeth- I er for several years, and will make I the race for second place in the league quite close.

The games Sunday were the second of a series of practice contest to be held before the first of the year, and come after a long period of training and practice on the part of players and ponies. They have attracted considerable attention at the post and in Columbus, as the condition of the playing field this season, is such as to permit the fastest type of game. The post league, which begins the first of The 29th Infantry, which was one the year, is expected to draw large

D 44-26 in the second.

Tuesday night found Company E taking F 66th into camp 50-33; and Headquarters losing their second, to Company D 55-23. Wednesday F 67th won another, defeating F 66th 30-20; and Company also kept a clean slate by downing Headquarters 35-7.

The two league leaders, Company E, and Company F 67th, are scheduled to meet before the week is out, to decide top position.

League standings to date are as

Гсат	Played	w	L	Pct.
E 66th	2	2	. 0	1.000
F 67th	2	2		1.000
D 66th		1	1	.500
F 66		1	2
F 66th		1	. 2	.333
Hq. Co	3	0	3	.000

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

ALL DRESSED UP LIKE A XMAS T TREE

New suit and new overcoat. That's the spirit men! Dress up this Christmas. Away with dull care. Times are better. Let's dress better!

SCHWOB LT

PRE-HOLIDAY SPECIALS

SUITS

-Smartly tailored in both conservative and swanky college models . . . many new fabrics and pattern effects including the latest minute checks, stripes and overplaids (Ready to Wear)

OVERCOATS

-New Camel Hair and Wool coats in gray, tan and overplaids . . . fashionable Llama Hair coats ... Blue Meltons and oxford Models include grays. single and double breasted . . half belt and belt all - and the Polo Model (Ready to Wear)

$4050

AND

Makers of SCHWOBILT Clothes

1037 Broadway

Columbus, Ga

NATIONAL BANK FOURTH

COLUMBUS, GEORGIA

Established 1892

Commercial Banking

Savings Safe Deposit Vaults Foreign Exchange

Letters of Credit

Travelers Cheques

ACTS AS EXECUTOR, ADMINISTRATOR, TRUSTEE, GUARDIAN, AND IN EVERY OTHER CAPACITY

SPORTS CALENDAR

(Continued From Page 16) Hubbard Hardware beat the 1st Batts 58-40.

Jan. 27-Green Cords of the I. S. D. continue losing streak, this time to Boys' Club 37-31, in Co-

Jan. 29—Spring polo tourney

Jan. 30-Intra-mural basketball season opened with Kelly's defeating 1st Batt Irish 33-31 in overtime game.

Jan. 31-Terrible Tankers ran wild over the Spare Parts 21-16, in 2d post basketball game of series.

Feb. 1—Post amateurs resumed boxing tourney.

Feb. 2—I. S. D. basketeers lost to 83rd F. A. 45-24. 24th cagesters galloped to victory over Florida A. & M. 35-30.

Feb. 3-Terrible Tankers took lead in Basketball league by defeating Green Wave from 1st Batt 29-26 and 24th Happy Hearts sank Florida A. & M. hopes by another win 45-37.

Feb. 5—Freebooters defeated Students to take lead in polo lea-

Feb. 6—24th basketball team defeated for first time by Louisville Flashes 36-34, at Benning. The 2d Bats stopped winning streak of the Cannoneers 44-28.

Feb. 7—Happy Hearts lost again to Louisville Flashes 39-35-While Corn Griffin, in St. Petersburg, Fla., stopped Eddie McCarthy with a right hook in the third—And Blondy Parker was T. K. O'd by Leo Bailey on same card.—The I. S. D. lost to the Special Units 30-9. And the Golden Tornado boxing team from the Tanks crashed through for the post title.

Feb. 11—Irish of the 1st Battalion won championship of Georgia-Alabama basketball tourney by defeating Cusseta 41-33.

Feb. 13-Tanker basketeers defeated Galloping Gunners to retain league lead 33-19.—And post soccer league was started.—While the 24th cagesters defeated Fort Valley Normal 34-20.

Feb. 16-Georgia Normal and Industrial College lost to Happy Heart basketball team 34-20.

Feb. 17 — Cyclone Smith and Harold Murphy fought to draw, with Rip Tetherton taking a decision over Baby Stribling in the semi-final.

Feb. 18—Special Units 29th won Benning intra-mural bowling lea-

Feb. 21 — Elimination boxing tourney to select post amateur team started.

Feb. 27—1st Batts defeated Special Units 55-26, and Tankers whipped I. S. D. 27-23 in basketball games of post series.

Feb. 28-Corn Griffin K. O'd P. G. Carson while the post ama-Bennie Odell in St. Petersburg, Mar. 1-1st Batt Irish edged out win over 2d Batt Kelly's 39-38 in post basketball floor. Mar. 5-29th Hoofers stepped into lead in polo league with .1000. Mar. 6-Cannoneer basketball team beat Kelly cagesters 47-43.

Mar. 7-Corn Griffin K. O.'d Ted Sandwino in the first at Benning. Tex Wallace played cat and mouse with Ching Johnson for six rounds in the semi-final.

Mar. 8—The 2d Batts walloped the Tankers 42-28, and Pirates of the Special Units defeated I. S. D. cagesters 38-30.

Mar. 10-Kellys downed I. S. D. 31-16, and 1st Batt Irish defeated Special Unit Pirates 48-33.

Mar. 12-Freebooters and Optimists tied for lead in 1st half polo league as 29th lost.

Mar. 13—Kellys beat I. S. D. again, 43-20, as Special Units licks 83rd F. A. 32-30. Mar. 14-Tankers handed another defeat to I. S. D. in basketball by 44-33 score.

Mar. 16—Kellys of the 2d Battalion and Irish of the 1st tie for basketball league lead as Kellys beat Tankers 42-24, and 1st Batts down I. S. D. 44-16.

Mar. 22—Kelly's defeated by 1st Batt Irish in first game of post title series 44-29.

Mar. 23-Kellys evened score by taking victory 32-17.

Mar. 23-Industrial Red Jackets defeated the 1st Batt baseball team 10-6 while the 1st Battalion basketball team captured the post title in third game of series by score of 36-30.

APRIL

April 1—Benning golf team lost to Georgia Tech $10\frac{1}{2}$ to $7\frac{1}{2}$.

April 3-Cyclone Smith and Harold Murphy battled to second draw while Rip Tetherton and Kid Baisden stole show in semifinal in another draw.

April 4-Brady's Bombers from 1st Batt Headquarters made start toward regimental basketball title by downing Regimental Headquarters 32-17 after losing first game to Company E, 29th, to the tune of April 5—Company E cinched title of 29th in basketball by swamping Regimental Headquarters 50-21.

April 7-Co. F, 67th Infantry, defeated Headquarters Company, 66th Inf. 4-1 in first Tanker baseball game and the I. S. D. downs Industrial 3-2 on the diamond.

April 10—Co. E, 66th, defeated Co. D, 66th, 7-4, and Co. F, 67th, beat Co. F, 66th, 7-4, in Tanker

April 11-Rip Tetherton K. O.'d Red Schillings in the sixth and Cotton Batton edged out decision over

14 20.22 1 AVE

teur boxers left for S. E. A. A. U. tourney in Mobile.

April 14—Eleventh annual horse show opened. 9 post fighters survived the first day's battle in Mobile tourney.

April 15—Six Benning amateurs entered finals in Southeastern box-

April 16—Benning amateur boxing team won title of Southeast while the horse show ended as great success and the Question Mark nine of Columbus downed the 1st Bat-

April 17-Co. E, 29th, walloped Co. G, 29th, 19-8 and Headquarters Co., 29th, whipped Co. F., 29th, 10-7 in baseball.

April 19—Post racket wielders bowed to Georgia Tech tennis stars 5-4. Co. F, 67th, beat Headquar ters Co., Tanks, 5-1, baseball. April 20—Co. H beat Company G 12-11, and Co. F downed Co. E, 8-3 at Gowdy Field.

April 21—Saginaw Seeley won a decision over Ben Spivey in Co-

April 22-I. S. D. ball tossers lost to Phenix City Crusaders 7-4

April 23 — Elimination tourney between 29th Students, Freebooters, and Optimists for polo title began with Freebooters and Students tied 5-5 in half-game contest, and 29th riders taking 4-3 lead over Optimists while the post tennis team mopped Auburns' Tiger stars 5-4 at post. Co. E won from Co. H 20-6 and Co. F trounced Co. G 8-7 in 29th baseball games.

April 26-Auburn baseball team revenged tennis players by downing the I. S. D. Grencords 10-5.

April 29—Happy Heart diamond stars won over Knoxville Giants 12-1 and the I. S. D. defeated Eufaula baseballers 3-0 at Eufaula.

April 30—Freebooters eliminated the Students 11-8 in post polo playoff, while 29th Optimists disposed of 29th 8-7. The post tennis team downed Opelika 7-1.

MAY May 2-Cyclone Smith drew with Harry Allen in Savannah. The I S. D. invaded the lair of the Auburn Tiger to win baseball game 6-5 in 10-inning contest.

May 6-Tanker track men licked Auburn Frosh 81½143½ at Auurn, while Atlanta tennis stars lowned post team 5-1

May 9-Corn Griffin won close lecision over Battling Bozo. 4-H Posey stopped Kid Baisden in the

May 12-Co. H, 29th walloped Phenix City Pals 17-2.

May 13-Hard riding Freebooter team captured post polo title in game with Optimists by score of May 16—Headquarters Battalion 29th held track meet with Cannon Company taking the pennant.

May 18-2d Battalion cinder path artists ran off with the 29th title in regimental track meet.

May 21 — Captain James H. Drake captured singles title in tennis by downing Lieutenant George Lynch in 4 set match, and also played Lieutenant Aubrey S. Newman to win the doubles class.

May 22-Lieutenant Donald W Brann crowned golf king as he defeated Major Omar N. Bradley up on the 36th to win post title.

May 23-Gordon Fortenberry won decision over Cyclone Smith-While Rip Tetherton listened to birdies 30 seconds after the 1st round bell against Billy Hood.

May 25—Eliminations for the post track meet were held, with 2d Battalion 29th placing largest number of entries and Coble, Tanker star, shattered post javelin record with toss of 190 feet.

May 26—Captain Drake and Mrs. Reeve Keiler captured the mixed doubles tennis title of the post.

May 27—Tanker track stars won post track meet by overwhelming margin.

May 29—Co. E, 66th swamped Co. F, 67th, 8-1 to win Tank baseball title.

HINE

June 1-Kellys edged out victory over 1st Batts in opener of baseball league 9-8.

from Jacksonville Red Caps in game on Gowdy Field.

June 4-24th Infantry handed Red Caps second defeat 4-3.

June 6-Cotton States tennis tourney, outstanding event of Southern season, opened at post.

June 7-Green Cords defeated Headquarters Pirates 5-4 in 11-inning game.

June 8-Corn Griffin drew with Charlie Belanger and Cotton Batton defeated Dynamite Dunn in post boxing show, while Cyclone Smith battled Harry Allen to a draw in Savannah. The 1st Batt nine downed Headquarters Battalion 2-1.

June 10-Greencords won from 2d Batts 3-2 in ten innings and Wilmer Hines defeated Karl Kamrath in Cotton States tourney semifinals to meet Bryan Grant in the June 11-Bryan Grant defeated Wilmer Hines for singles title of Cotton States tennis tourney; Mrs. Lila Porter won Woman's singles from Evangeline McLaughlin; later teamed with her to win women's doubles over Mrs. Frank Coyne and Mrs. Santan Reid; Martin Buxby and Bert Williams took men's June 3—Happy Hearts won 5-0 doubles from Jack Mooney and Bryan Grant; and Mrs. Porter and Grant won mixed doubles from Bert Weltens and Mrs. Stantan Reid by toss of coin, while the Happy Hearts lost to Macon Peaches 5-4 at Gowdy Field. Company H, 29th, split a double-header with Phenix City Crimson Tigers winning 14-5 and losing 8-2.

> June 13-Tankers dropped game to Kellys by 7-5 score and Benning poloist posted new handicaps. June 14—Galloping Gunners lost to Headquarters Pirates 7-4.

> June 15—1st Batt Irish won from Greencords 7-3.

> June 16-Kellys won from Pirates 15-2.

June 17 — Tankers defeated

Greencords 5-4 in ninth. June 19—Kellys defeated Irish

June 20-Women golfers of Benning and Columbus held Blind

Bogey tourney at post, won by Mrs. H. B. Lewis. June 21—Tankers downed Pirates

June 22-Irish walloped Tankers

June 23-R. O. T. C. humbled Irish nine 8-4 and 2d Batts won (Please turn to Page 19)

Here's A Gift Tip!—

Why not give a box of Norris Candies — A gift perfume set — or a shaving set? They will please many a heart this Christmas! Prices

Benning Road Pharmacy

At the intersection of Brown Ave. & Benning Rd. BURKES & WIMBERLY PROPS.

Benning Accounts Solicited

There's a New 1934

PHILCO

for EVERY PURSE and PURPOSE!

Get your new Christmas PHILCO now—while the selection is complete! Enjoy the unexcelled tone and supreme performance that only a PHILCO can give! You will find a PHILCO for every purse and purpose!

PHILCO 89B

Marvelous new Baby Grand with Automatic Volume Control and other big-set features. Gets police and air-plane calls as well as regular broadcasts!

TERMS HOLIDAY

Other Philcos $27 up

MAXWELL BROS. & McDONALD

FURNITURE

1141 BROADWAY

PHONE 409

Merry Christmas to The Personnel of Ft. Benning

The Post Exchange is our agent at Fort Benning.

Columbus Fender & Body Works

SPORTS CALENDAR

(Continued from Page 18) over Gunners 12-9.

June 24-Greencords won from

Pirates 12-4. June 25-Post tennis team downed the R. O. T. C. 5-0.

June 28-Kellys defeated Greencords to step into lead in post baseball race.

June 29-Irish from the 1st Battalion downed the Gunners 7-1 in fast game while Kid Baisden defeated 4-H Posey, and Rip Tetherton lost to Billie Hood for the second time.

June 30-Kellys downed Tankers

JULY

July 3-Harry Allen won decision over Walker Smith in Asheville. July 5—Kellys downed Pirates

July 6-Tankers beat the Greencords 6-1 and Frank Mackery won 8 round decision over Jack Taylor in Americus.

July 7-1st Batt Irish handed Kellys second defeat of season 4-1. July 9-Tankers defeated the Headquarters Spare Parts 6-2.

July 10-Gunners lost to Greencords 11-1.

July 11-Corn Griffin won decision over Charlie Belanger, while Frank Mackery lost to Bennie Odell in the semi-final and the Irish whitewashed Tanker ball-

July 12-Kellys continued in league lead by defeating Gunners 8-3. July 13—Spare Parts won a ten inning game from Greencords 3-2. July 14—Gunners defeated Tankers 9-8 in comedy of errors.

July 15-Spare Parts stopped Irish in 12 innings by 3-2 score.

July 19-Kellys trounced Tankers 5-1 to take top position in 1st half of post league.

July 20—Gunners downed Spare Parts 5-4.

July 21-Cyclone Smith K. O'd Wild Bill Cox in 1st at Macon and the Greencords defeated 1st Batts

July 24—Corn Griffin T. K. O'd

Merry Christmas

to Fort Benning!

MURPHEY POUND

CONTRACTOR

COLUMBUS

AUCTION SALE

JEWELERS

Starting today at 10:30 a.m. and continuing

Stock consists of Fine Diamonds, Watches, Silverware, Jewelry, and Novelties of all descrip-

NO LIMIT — NO RESERVE

Buck Everett in third and Tankers | Spare Parts 2-0. whipped Greencords 8-6.

July 15-Walker Smith drew with Bennie Odell as Rip Tetherton lost to Puggy Weinert in the semi-final and the 2d Batts opened second half of baseball league by shellacking 1st Batts 8-2.

July 26—Spare parts defeated Tankers 6-1.

July 27—Gunners lost to Greencords 6-1.

July 28-Tankers walloped 1st Batts 8-2.

July 29-Kellys edged out Gun-

July 31-Corn Griffin T. K. O'd Johnny Roberts in sixth and Spare Parts won from Grencords 2-1.

Aug. 1-Tankers won from Gunners 12-9.

AUGUST

Aug. 2—Spare Parts dropped one to 1st Batt Irish 6-3.

Aug. 3-Greencords downed Kellys 5-3.

Aug. 6-1st Batts downed Gunners 6-4.

Aug. 7—Corn Griffin won decision over Battling Bozo in Asheville and Spare Parts swamped Gunners 16-4, while Kellys downed Tankers 4-3.

Aug. 8-Greencords defeated 1st Batts 7-5.

Aug. 9-Co. F, 66th, won swimming title of tank battalion and Kellys won from Spare Parts 5-4.

Aug. 10-Grenecords defeated Tankers 6-2.

Aug. 13-Diamond ball made its first appearance at Benning.

Aug. 14-Greencords won from Gunners 11-4.

Aug. 15-1st Batts downed Tanker 9-3.

Aug. 16-Post amateur boxers defeated Detroit Athletic Club 4-3. The 2d Batts whitewashed Gun-

Aug. 17-Spare Parts downed Greencords 2-0.

Aug. 19-Spare Parts dropped protested game to 1st Batts 5-3. Aug. 16-Kellys whitewashed Gunners 4-0.

Aug. 17-I. S. D. dropped one to

Telephone 512

Aug. 18-1st Batts stopped Piates 5-3 in 11 innings.

Aug. 21-Greencords blanked Kellys 2-0.

Aug. 22-1st Batts swamped Gunners 12-4.

Aug. 23-Kellys triumphed over Tanks 4-1. Aug. 24—Pirates downed Gunners 5-1. Aug. 25-1st Batts nosed out Greencords 3-2.

Aug. 26-2d Batts captured 29th swimming title in regimental meet and walloped the Pirates 11-5 in baseball. Aug. 28-Greencords won from Tankers 7-5.

Aug. 30-Corn Griffin defeated Nate Brown and Cotton Batton lost to Rough House Glover in the semifinal while the Kellys won from 1st Bats 7-2. The women's and children's swimming meet takes place.

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 1—Post bowling alleys opened.

Sept. 2—Tankers won post swimming meet by narrow margin.

Sept. 4—Corn Griffin lost to Buck Everett on T. K. O.

Sept. 5—Tankers defeated Gunners 6-5.

Sept. 9-2d Bats edged out Tank-Sept. 10-24th tennis tourney

Sept. 12-Pirates swamped Gun-

Sept. 13—Pirates stopped Kellys

Sept. 17—Pirates downed 1st

Batts 7-3. Sept. 18—Greencords beat Kellys

Sept. 20—Pirates beat 1st Batts 4-3. Ladies hold first blind bogey tourney of season.

Sept. 21—Kellys beat Pirates 8-3 in play-off for 2d half lead.

Sept. 22-Cyclone Smith defeated Dynamite Dunn at West Point. Sept. 23-Kellys won post title by edging out Pirates 1-0.

Sept. 25—Vagabonds wallop 29th 10-4, baseball.

Sept. 26-29th nosed out Vaga-

Sept. 27—Mobile amateur boxers ost to Benning boys 6-1 team fights. The Vagabonds again walloped 29th 10-4.

Sept. 28-29th again came back to win from Vagabonds 4-3. Sept. 29—29th wins third from Vagabonds by score of 9-3. Sept. 29—29th beat Vagabonds

OCTOBER

Oct. 1—Vagabonds won post title by downing 29th 5-4.

Oct. 4-Women golfers held putting tourney, Mrs. John Hull

Oct. 5-Lieutenant Sweeney stopped polo ball with head, no serious

Oct. 13-2d Batts awarded baseball trophy by General Estes.

Oct. 16—Post Bowling league for officers and enlisted men opened. Oct. 18—Co. D, 66th, beat Co. F, 67th, 7-6 in first football game at post.

Oct. 20—29th Inf. football team lost to Bowden 6-0.

Oct. 21-4th Corps Area golf

Oct. 22-29th Green Wave dropped game to Pensacola Naval Station 13-0. Major Paul W. Rans, from Citadel, S. C. upset dope to win 4th Corps golf tourney over Lt. Willet J. Baird 1 up.

Oct. 25—Bob Godwin T. K. O.'d Corn Griffin in 5th and Cotton Batton was K. O.'d by Battling Ossey

Oct. 27—Cyclone Smith defeated Dynamite Dunn in Phenix City.

Oct. 28-Fall tennis tourney began and 29th Doughboys dropped third game, this time to Georgia Military College, 50-0.

Nov. 4-Annual flag race won by 83rd Field Artillery and the 29th Green Wave lost another to Lupton School of Arts and Oglethorpe varsity 39-12.

Nov. 11—Turkey Tourney for golfers° begun. Headquarters Co. 2d Bn. Tanker won football title in game with Co. E, 66th 6-0.

Nov. 12—Green Wave of 29th wins first from Atlanta Fire Crackers 32-7.

Nov. 15—Post amateur boxers defeated Windsor Atheletic Club 6-1 in team fights.

Nov. 17-29th Doughboys downed Brewton Parker 25-6 at Ben-

Nov. 20-Post hunting season opened. Nov. 22-Ladies turkey golf tourney won by Mrs. George L. Kraft and Mrs. William L. Fitts. Nov. 26-The 29th Green Wave swamped Camp Butler C. C. C Nov. 27-Cyclone Smith and Harry Allen fought to draw and Billie Hood T. K. O.'d Kid Baisden

Nov. 30—Green Wave gridsters walloped Oglethorpe Frosh 26-6.

Dec. 6-Indsutrial Red Jackets defeated Co. E, 29th in basketball

-Indsutrial downed Co. C, 29th, 38-24, in basketball.

Dec. 9-Eleventh annual fall horse show held in Campbell King Bowl. The Green finished football season by win over Bowden 6-0.

Dec. 10-Freebooters lost to 24th Infanrty 3-2 in Polo and the 83rd Reds downed the 29th Blues

Dec. 11—Tanker basketball league opened.

> We Make RUBBER STAMPS COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

Do You Need Money?

HERE IS OUR PLAN

Note for $300.00 8% Interest deducted $ 24.00

Net to you ______$276.00 Payments $25.00 per month for 12 months

Larger or Smaller Loans Proportionately.

Fidelity Loan and Investment Co.

T. E. BAISDEN, Secretary-Treasurer

We also have unredeemed pledges - diamonds from $20.00 up.

JEWELRY

DIAMOND RINGS DIAMOND BAR PINS WRIST WATCHES TOILET SETS BELT BUCKLE SETS PARKER PEN SETS CIGARETTE LIGHTERS STONE SET RINGS POCKET WATCHES BILL FOLD SETS

WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD

Select any item in stock! Compare our price with others! If you can duplicate it for less, bring it back and get the difference. Or, if you have already priced jewelry elsewhere, WE GUARANTEE TO MEET ALL PRICES.

Rosenberg

JEWELRY COMPANY

1217 BROADWAY

CHAS. M. MAY — AUCTIONEER

KINSEL and PETRI

1105 Broadway

until entire stock is sold.

2 Sales Daily 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

Selling out complete stock regardless of cost.

24th Infantry

The Company Basketball Team is steadily improving and with each game shows that Private ELLER-BY will eventually catch up with "Knigfish" McLarkin.

We are glad to learn that Private GARDNER DAVIS has been ordered back to the company from Walter Reed General Hospital.

Since Sergeant Jackson Wheeler has been promoted to first sergeant and has been at the helm of the company, morale, efficiency and general aspects have picked up in a comparatively short time to a degree worthy of special mention. There was never a time that things were moving more smoothly than at the present time, and it is hoped that this fine condition of affairs will continue to prevail.

Sergeants Manlove, Pride, Ran-Setvenson, Bradford and Scipio have formed a Roller Skating Team that challenges any team its weight and age in the world.

At the request of our Company Commander, Lieutenant A. S. Peterson, the company made a creditable showing at the Regimental Theatre Sunday Morning when an excellent address was rendered by Judge William H. Harrison, of Chicago, Illinois.

BAND

The Band Leader is wearing a broad grin nowdays and for no father of a brand new son born December 5th, 1933. If the members of the Band had been permitted to name the baby he would carry the names of nearly all of the great composers.

The orchestras have received several new orchestrations in anticipation of a crowded schedule of dances. The Jazz Pirates are featuring all of hits the from "Moonlight and Pretzels", "I'm No Angel" and "Too Much Harmony".

career and with his wife and child left the following day for New Orleans where he intends to raise turkeys, corn, peaches or just plain The boys were very sorry to see him go but wish him every success and happiness.

Dame Rumor has it that the Ford men of the Band are about to organize the Ford Owners Association. Men owning other makes of cars will not be eligible for this exclusive club.

The Band was highly commended upon both it's appearance and the rendition of the music at the inspection of the Inspector General on December 1st, by both the inspector and the Band Commander, Captain L. D. Tharp.

1st Musician: "Why so glum,

2nd Musician: "I dreamed that the Band Leader was dead". 1st Musician: "Cheer dreams seldom come true".

2nd Musician: "I know that's what the matter".

SERVICE COMPANY

"Micky" finally admits "Yank" Johnson can beat him riding. Saturday afternoon, for the second time, Private Leonard B. "Yank" Johnson, riding "Osmond," took first place in the enlisted men's jumping at the Horse Show Bowl. The second laurels were copped by Private Ambrosia "Runt" Haskins, riding "Cy Groinger," and third by Private Tom B "Turk" Ford, of the Glade Road, riding "Malcolm A." Private Grady "Joe small wonder. He is the proud Gates" Oliver put a nickel in Logan's ear and went for a joy ride for fourth place. Nice going fellows---but-

It grieves your correspondent greatly to report on Leaping. Yowzah! Our only bachelor Sergeant is seriously contemplating a leap into the SET of matrimony in the near future. Aw Bill! give us a break. Tell the boys who the lucky lady is.

Corporal Ford comes up and sees nd "Too Much Harmony". us sometime. Spent the week-end Private David Mason on the sec-in the mess hall. But really, that

'snitches" can tell 'em about bas-ahead, tell 'em. Laugh of the week: Question-Lige what were you doing in jail? Answer-Sitting down, lying down, and praying to get out.

COMPANY "B"

Company B, is still the highpowered Company of the Regiment, and going strong, they went over in the big-way with the General Inspector and the Regimental Commander on general inspection day.

The boys of the Company attend ing the Communication school are doing fine in their sections; Pvt. Hansbury holding 1st place in the Intelligence Section; Pvt. 1cl Robinson and Falson with 1st and 4th place in the Wire Section; Pfc. Lay ranking 2nd in the Radio Section, and Pvt. 1cl Randolph somewhere around in the Message Center Sec-

Kid Shadow (Pvt. Spencer), the sparing partner of Sergeant Pitts and Pvt. 1cl Randolph, was seen in the Supply room sparing for a couple of hours with his mate, and also doing some fine shadow boxing. He said he was getting ready for his week-end contest with the

The Gators Basketball team is not up to the standard. They have won 3 games and lost 9. What is wrong with the old Gator's spirit?

There is only on champion left in the Company. He is Private Barnes, the champion high jumper of the south, and we are hoping that we can keep him for several seasons. All of the baseball players were sold or traded off for cash and I think the Company lost in the trade, but manager Hansbury said he has several players in view for next season, and how we need them.

Pvt. 1cl Nickens and his Bachelor boys are planning a grand surprise for all invited guest who attend the Bachelor's ball on the 15th of December, 1933. It is their 1st an-

COMPANY "C" Bad Breaks

Our good-natured friend, who generally answers to the name of "Neck-Bones", was the center of attraction on last Saturday afternoon, in the midst of a quiet audience composed of good-natured soldiers. With the usual preliminaries of one in authority, our Knight of the Road started his story by saying: "You fellers don't know what traveling is-You got the idea that it's merely playing the 'back-door game', looking for a 'hand-out'. Well, it aint. Now I've been on the road in my days, and I'm tellin' you, in them days it wasn't peaches and cream either, because, when you breezed into a new burg the bulls were ready to give you the "Vag" welcome. Of course you guys don't know what that means, but here's the 'lowdown' on it-I mean by 'Vag' welcome-you see the jail first. Oh yeh, I'm getting to the hard-luck part of my story now. was roamin, I breezed into Boston, and had to leave because everybody was educated but me. Then I drifted into St. Louis and couldn't find a brewery open; hung around New York for a full winter and nearly starved for the lack of graft. Then just as spring opened up, I started out for "Chi". Soon after I go there, I decided not to remain, as I soon learned that I was the only one who couldn't use a machine gun. So, to conclude my story, I finally wound up in "Philly" and actually couldn't find a place to sleep. Now, this is what I calls a rounder in hard luck. Wait a minute before you fellers go. Somebody lend me a bus ticket? I want to go to Columbus, I'm in such hard luck, I'm likely to come back without a 'nip' of

COMPANY "E"

First Sergeant and Mrs. George B. Larkins, are back at Fort Benning after having been called to

C. C. duty in Clayton is sure the bed side of a sick relative in better take notice. putting roses in that boy's cheeks. Atlanta, Georgia. The many friends Aw shucks! The rest of you of First Sgt., and Mrs. Larkins, hope that they had a pleasant trip, ketball. We're not interested in and that the incident was not as serious as expected. that old sissy game, anyway. Go

"E" Company's Basketball team shattered the 1000 per cent standing of Company "G", (House of David) by defeating the House of David 36 to 28, in one of the best and fastest games of the season. This attack destroyed one of the Pillars from the House's foundation. One more assault of this kind and the House will look like the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

The teams consist of the follow

1st Team
Corp Tommie J. Baugh
Pvt. 1cl. Jessie Johnson
Pvt. 1cl. Melvin Orsben
Pvt. 1cl. Alonzo R. Strong
Pvt. 1cl. Jimmie Lee
2nd Team
Corp. James H. McCrary
Pvt. Herbert Clayton
Pvt. Perry L. Thompson
Pvt. Herbert Roy
Pvt. Johnnie Martin
Corp. Baugh is captain and coac of the team and much credit is gi en him for the success of the team.

Baugh is not a stranger to sport fans of Fort Benning, Columbus and allied towns. He is a member of the Regimental Small Bore Team, which won the championship for the year of 1929 and 1932 football star; field and track star and what a wizard at basketball Don't take my word for anything. Come out and see him and his team strut their stuff on the baseketball court, sometime.

COMPANY "F"

Although finishing up on the short end of the pole, the company played a fast and exciting game of basketball against Company "C" and from the record of recent past performances all contenders for the winner of the second half had rock of Gibraltar.

Since the good old Quartermaster has been grateful enough to issue cloth and findings or what ever it might be, and the company being fortunate in having an excellent tailor, the appearance of several of our misfit brethren have improved 100 per cent. One gentleman especially, since acquiring his long trousers is confident that his reign on 6 and 8 is supreme. The trousers seem to have the same effect on the men as on a peacock when his feet are hidden.

1st Sgt.—Pvt. Adams where have you been?

Pvt. Adams — Somewhere in Georgia.

For first class information on 6 and 8 re ladies, their moods and habits, first class speakeasies, and doings at the "Young Men's Social Club" see G. C.

COMPANY "G"

Company G in keeping with its policy of excelling in all events in which the organization participates, came through with flying colors at the inspection on December 1st by Major Harlan Numma, Inspector General's Department, U. S. Army. The dress, equipment and appearance of the men were highly commended by the inspector and after inspecting the quarters he declared Company G as outstanding in the regiment. He expressed to Captain L. D. Tharp, Commanding Company G and Band, as being well pleased with the inspection. Captain Tharp assembled the company and Band and commended the men highly. He stated that he knew the men had worked hard in preparation for the inspection but that the gratifying results were well worth the hard work. members of the company and Band, which was also highly commended, were well satisfied over the outcome of the inspection but we knew we would "put it over". The House of David shall stand as firm as the

HARDIN'S

wants your Charge account

LET US FIT YOU!

Ladies' Coats Ladies' Dresses Men's Overcoats Men's Suits Men's Trousers Men's Shoes

And many other articles of wearing apparel for men and ladies

1303 Broadway

Phone 1123

Give "Him" a New Dexter Air Cooled Filter Pipe 75c With Box of 12 Filters

The Ideal Xmas Gift

DEXTER PIPE FEATURES

A new cooling and filtering principle - the smoke spirals against thin air-cooled metal stem, the filter absorbs the moisture and impurities. Genuine briar root bowl already broken in! No moisture can collect in base of bowl. "No gurgle." Stem fits in bowl so that pipe can be turned and smoked at any angle.

> The Cleanest, Coolest Most Healthful Smoke

CHRONOLOGY

(Continued from page 3)

Campbell King praised Columbus and Muscogee county police-and Major Homer Conner rated station hospital mess first place in monthly mess rating inspection.

FERRUARY

Feb. 1. Experiments made on Chattahoochee in carrying tanks across river on pontoons and ferries.

Feb. 5. Majors Omar Bradley, Sereno Brett, Lewis Davidson, Edwin Harding, Stephen Henry Courtney Hodge, and Allen King man, and Captains Elmer Lindroth and Francis Heraty ordered to take course at Army War College in Washington, D. C .- Benning Dramatic Club presented "Miss Lulu Bett" at Main Theatre.

Feb. 6. Detachment of the Coast and Geodetic Survey arrived at Benning for work in map revision. Master Sergeant Edward Theunich, who retired on Jan. 31, left the Post.

Feb. 7. Colonel Homer Slaugh ter to general staff of war department-and 29th Infantry small bore team won matches over teams from Fort DesMoines, Iowa, and Fort Thomas, Kentucky.

Feb. 8. Captain Leroy Yarborough, public relations officer of Fort Benning, addressed the Columbus Association of Railway Ex-

Feb. 9. Infantry School Women's Club established Barbara King Memorial Scholarship for Tallulah Falls Industrial School for girls.

Feb. 10. Major General Edgar T. Collins, former post commandant, died in Washington after long illness-Tex Slocum, world's champion steer wrestler at Benning with Texas Rangers rodeo.

Feb. 11. Many spills and thrills as rodeo continued.

Feb. 12. 29th Infantry small bore team defeats 22nd Infantry.

Feb. 13. Plans made for mimic war—and Company D had barbecue of wild pigs.

Feb. 16. General Campbell King addressed Infantry School graduates-Colonel Ephraim Peyton spoke at Spanish-American war Memorial Service—and Lt. Col. Rowan P. Lemly assigned to the 29th Infantry.

Feb.17. 29th Infantry small bore team fired match with Plattsburg Barracks team of New York.

Feb. 18. Charles H. Ferenbaugh, died suddenly whlie attending boxing bouts.—Captain Charles Baird, medical corps, ordered to Panama.

Feb. 20. Engineer officers arrive for tests and demonstrations bridge materials-I. S. D. celebrated organization day by resurrecting old frontier days-and Corporal Pike given commission in Field Artillery Reserve.

Feb. 21. Funeral services held for Sergeant James McCann, Battery A, 83rd F. A.—Benning mourned death of Mr. Downing, General Campbell King's favorite

Feb. 23. Bids opened for construction of Special Units barracks -29th Infantry small bore team defeated Fort Meade. rifle team. Special course for motor mechanics opened at Infantry School.

Feb. 24. General Campbell King

GIGLIO'S

FOOD DEPARTMENT STORE

All the good things you expect for Christmas—TURKEY, or other choice meat, and everything that goes with it.

Christmas Trees

Lovely little Spruce Pines and Cedars on sale now. Our tree garden in rear of store will be ready Monday, December 18.

1025-27 1st Ave. Columbus, Ga.

Officers' Charge Accounts Solicited

course for national guard and reserve officers—M. E. Gillioz of Missouri low bidder for construction of No. 3 barracks.

Feb. 26. Major General Lytle Brown, chief of engineers, and other engineer officers guests at luncheon-Captain Robert Wallace given Silver Star for courage in World War.

Feb.27. New class of enlisted men selected for bakers' course. Feb. 28. Master Sergeant George Richards and 1st Sergeant James Johnston retired.

MARCH

Mar. 1. Colonel William E. Persons, new commander of 29th Infantry arrived — tree surgery course opened for enlisted men.

Mar. 3. 29th Infantry celebrated birthday—and rifle team of the 29th won match with Fort Douglas team.—Benning Girl Scouts held semi-annual Court of Awards -Georgia reserve officers held convention at Benning.

Mar. 4. Major Homer Conner rated post mess, giving hospital mess first place—Captain Willis T. Howard, Protestant Chaplain, promoted to Major; 1st Lt. Landon J. Locket, 24th Inf., to Captain. Mar. 5. Robert S. Wallace, nat-ıralist, addresses Benning P.-T. A Mar. 6. Captains Alexander Bolling, Harry Caygill, George Forser, Robert Miller, Floyd Parks Willard Paul, Ray Porter, Lowell Rooks, and Walter Smith, and 1st Lt. Donald Brann assigned to Benning-Fred L. Bund, of Army Motion Picture Service, visited the post—Corporal William Terry, 29th Infantry, shot himself in Howard Bus Station.

Mar. 7. Benning aided Columous in installing and testing radio equipment at police headquarters

Mar. 8. Pvt. Edward L. Brown, Co. E, 29th Inf., killed and other enlisted men injured in truck aceident on Buena Vista road.

Mar. 9. 29th Infantry small bore team lost to 9th Infantry team of Fort Sam Houston, Texas-Major General Frederick Coleman, chief of army finance department, visited Benning-and Colonel Homer Slaughter, former commander of 1st Battalion, left for Washington to join War Department General Staff.

Mar. 10. Infantry School Glee Club gave premiere showing of Debutante"—Three of the en places for individual marksmanship with rifle in N. R. A matches won by Benning soldiers.

Mar. 12. General Coleman left Benning—Horseshoeing course for officers begun at Infantry School stables—and sixteen Ford trucks errived in Benning from Fort Bragg, N. C. Mar. 14. Brigadier General Leon Matile, retired, visited post as uest of his son-in-law Major Osear Griswold—29th Infantry small ore team defeated by 23rd Infanry of Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Mar. 15. Final tests made of experimental drill regulations. Mar. 16. Sergeant Phillip Wald celebrated completion of 13th year as Benning military attache to Coumbus by giving barbecue to friends.

Mar. 17. Construction begun on pecial Units barracks by M. E. Gillioz company of Missouri.

Mar. 19. Major General Stephen Fuqua, Chief of Infantry, arrived at Benning for official visit—Lt. Col. and Mrs. Charles Bonesteel.

Mar. 20. Spring cleaning of reservation begun.

Infantry, 83rd F. A., and 67th Infantry.

Mar. 22. General Fuqua ended official visit at the post.

Mar. 23. Colonel Rowan Lemly arrived to take command of 1st Battalion, 29th Infantry. Mar. 24. Miss Elma

Trulock married to Lt. William McNulty—
"The Road to Rome" presented by Infantry School Dramatic Club.

Mar. 27. Corps area maneuvers called off because of reforestation plans—(shortly thereafter several ed the post for a tour of historical other things also were called off spots.

addressed students at opening of for the same reason)-Captain Phillips addressed Pi Omicron club two guns installed at Upatoi skating rink. entrance to post.

Mar. 28. Corporal Charles Wills, Co. A, 29th Inf., one of the best riflemen in the army, promoted to Sergeant-Major Stephen Henry addressed Kiwanis Club.

Mar. 29. "Buddy" Grace, son of Major and Mrs. C. O. Grace, won Benning marble-shooting championship-2nd Battalion, 29th Inf., won maneuvering decision over 1st Battalion.

Mar. 30. Captain Edward C Betts delivered talk to Rotarians.

Mar. 31. Association of Columous Railway Employees met at the fort-Technical Sergeant Claude Collyer retired from Military Servce-Benning contributed $1,000 to Georgia Hall fund. APRIL

Apr. 1. Lt. Franklin Winnie, California National Guard, won the marksmanship champion of national guard and reserve officers' class n contest at Benning—Midget Ausin truck demonstrated (M. P.'s ave it now)—Captain and Mrs. Charles Sargent announced engagement of daughter, Phyllis rooks, to Lt. William Moore.

Apr. 3. Special Units mess rated highest for March.

Apr. 4. Col. William E. Hunt, nspector-general arrived for visit. Logansville Boys' Club of Hogansville. Ga. visited the post.

Apr. 6. Celebration of Army Day, date of United States enrance into World War. Staff Sergeant Frank Villines and wife inured in automobile crash.

Apr. 8. Mrs. E. G. Peyton enterained Georgia Garden Club at Of-

Apr. 9. General Edward L. King, Corps Area Commander, visited nere. Prof. S. G. Stukes of Agnes Scott College addressed the P.-T.

Apr. 11. Capt. Kearie L. Beery, ifle marksman, ordered to China or duty. Col. R. H. Kelley adressed the local Kiwanis Club. Apr. 12. Benning praised by resident Roosevelt in letter to he post commandant. Apr. 16. Captain H. W. Caygill urt in auto accident in Harris County, Georgia. Apr. 17. Major Wilhelm Phillips. German Ordnance Officer, arrived at Benning for a visit. National Juard class makes study of machine gun firing. Apr. 18. Fort Benning added to ist of army posts to have forestry camps for the Civilian Conserva ion Corps.

Apr. 19. Howard T. Colvin, United States commissioner of conciliation, department of labor, arrived to confer with constructing quartermaster.

Apr. 25. Colonel Frank K. Ross, former commander of 1st Battalon 83rd Field Artillery visited Jeneral King at post headquarters.

Apr. 26. Miss Dorothy Githens, n private life the wife of Major Villiam S. Eley of Fort Benning, gave a concert at Columbus.

Apr. 28. 1st contingent of C. C. C. men arrived at post for entrance nto reconditioning camp. Brigaier General Hartley A. Moon, adutant General of the Alabama Naional Guard visited the post.

Apr. 29. A team representing he 24th Infantry won the national t Benning for official visit—Lt. regimental small-bore rifle match, Charles Bonesteel III, arrived at defeating 21 other regimental he post for visit with parents, Lt. | teams for the honors, in N. R. A. matches.

Apr. 30. The Infantry School Women's Club held a luncheon at Mar. 21. Night maneuver of 29th | Polo-Hunt Club as years' activities end.

May 3. Lt. Willis S. Matthews discussed Russian Five-Year Plan with local Rotarians.

May 5. General Edward King, 4th Corps Area Commander, made an unexpected visit to Benning.

May 7. Captain Floyd H. Barnett, Air Corps, made a bad landing from his back porch—exactly 17 inches—and injured a leg in the mix-up.

May 8. Georgia Rotarians visit-

May 10. Literary Section of Benning Woman's Club ended year with review of past proceedings. General King, post commandant, received letter of praise from Chief of Infantry.

May 12. Stenographic course for enlisted men at Fort Benning ended with graduations of eight men of the post. Phenix City high school students visited the post and were shown points of interest.

May 15. Lieutenant Orestes Cleveland, 29th Infantry, killed by an accidental discharge of army

May 17. General King addressed the students of the Infantry School, in connection with graduation exercises.

May 18. General King, pos commandant, ordered home June 30 to await retirement.

May 19. Leonard Wall, negro employee of the Quartermaster was injured in freak accident when 7 mm. shell which had been lodged in a tree for ever three years exploded.—Benning Garden Club staged first flower show at Polo Club.

May 22. Graduation held for students of Infantry School, addressed the local Kiwanis and explained the budget system as used by the government.

May 25. Private James R. Wilurn, Co. C, 24th Infantry was injured when a telephone pole fell on him. Lt. Richard L. Baughman lauded the military leadership of General Nathan B. Forrest, Confederate Cavalry leader, in an address before the local Rotary Club.

May 26. Children's school graduation exercise held and General King awards diplomas to 30 young-

May 27. 1,000 men of the Civilian Conservation Corps arrived at Benning for entrance into the concentration camp.

May 28. Captain R. B. Lovett was named to succeed Captain Le-Poy W. Yarborough as Public Relations Officer of Fort Benning.

May 29. Major Sidney G. Brown, formerly Public Relations Office, War Department, arrived for sta-

JUNE

June 1. Major General Campbell King, post commandant, relinquished command of the Infantry School and departed for his home in Flat Rock, North Carolina, to await reirement. Colonel Fred L. Munson ssumed command of the post.

June 6. Colonel Charles W. Weeks, assistant commandant of he Infantry School addressed the Kiwanis Club at the Ralston Hotel, using as his subject "The Infantry School."

June 9. Southern college men began arriving at post for summer training period with Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

June 11. The 29th Infantry paraded in honor of the regimental small-bore rifle team, and following the parade the men of the team were presented with medals. Francis R. Barnes, son of Sergeant and Mrs. Francis R. Barnes, was killed in an automobile accident

June 14. Enlisted men of the 1st Battalion 29th Infantry formed

May 9. Private Geo. W. Cotton | a club for entertainment and named 29th Infantry, died at Columbus it "The Savage" Club. Colonel George F. Baltzell addressed the Rotary Club of Columbus and explained facts about the American

> June 16. Colonel William L. Reed, Officer in charge of the R. O. T. C. activities of the 4th Corps Area, arived here for a visit of inspection to the local camp.

June 18. Miss Ermine Trulock wed to Lieutenant Thomas R. Hannah. Members of the R. O. T. C. Training Camp parade for the first ceremony of the establishment.

June 21. Major Dan D. Howe was relieved from duty at Fort Benning and assigned to the Kentucky National Guard. Captain Jean Vautrain, French Army, arrived at the Infantry School from Fort Bragg, N. C., for an inspection and tour of post activities. Government awarded $3,465,041 for construction projects at Benning, to the Public Works Administra-

June 29. R. O. T. C. students be-(Please turn to Page 22)

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

to our friends at

Fort Benning

We hope that you will enjoy a very joyous holiday season, and that we may be permitted to assist you in making it that way!

We have a justly earned reputation at Fort Benning for fine tailoring work, and we believe that you will be convinced after one trial.

May we be permitted to serve you next time?

Arthur Perlitius

The Tank Tailor

Serve

The Life Of The Party

CHRONOLOGY (Continued From Page 21)

gan firing of 75 mm. artillery guns in course of summer training.

June 30. Major General Croft, Chief of Infantry, ended visit to Fort Benning.

JULY

July 4. Observation of National Independence Day by ceremonies of all troops.

July 5. Graduation exercises were held for the southern college students who had been undergoing a period of summer training here. 45 men were given commissions in the Officers' Reserve Training

July 6. Private Paul Jernigan, Quartermaster Corps, died from injuries sustained in motorcycle accident on the Cusseta Road. 29th Infantry held a picnic at the Recreation Camp of the regiment on Upatoi Creek.

July 7. Colonel Woodson Hocker, U. S. Army (retired), a citizen of Columbus and formerly of Fort Benning, died after a protracted July 10. Private Gobel Davis, Company E, 29th Infantry was freed of murder charges in connection with the death of Miss Ethel Tindall of Columbus.

July 13. Major William G. Livesey who graduated from the Army War College on June 29, assumed duties here in connection with the Infantry Board.

July 17. Fort Benning's contingent of Life Guards received a letter of approval from the Field Director of the American Red Cross.

July 19. Major Roland M. Nollock, retired staff judge advocate of the Infantry School, stopped here on a visit of the south. Colonel Fred L. Munson explained to the Kiwanis club "America's part in the Boxer Rebellion."

July 20. Private Edward N. Lassiter, Infantry School Detachment, athletic reporter of Fort Benning, was sent to ritz ...mmons General Hospital, Denver, for observation and treatment.

July 22. Colonel William J. Davis, 87th Division Commander and senior instructor of the Reserve Field Officers' Class, came here for a conference with Colonel Fred L. Munson. Private Garland Lucas, a life guard of Co. E, 66th Infantry, saved Miss Jane Martin from possible drowning at the swimming pool of the post.

July 23. Cannon Company, 29th Infantry, returned from a weekend spent at Juniper Lake, Ga.

July 29. Three of Benning's "3-grade" sergeants were ordered to journey to their homes to await retirement. The men were Master Sergeant Dan H. Tarvin, Master

HENRY GRADY

PEACHTREE AT CAIN

Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

Sergeant William J. Miller and 1st assumed duties as post comman- | Malone, who was visiting Fort | Academy arrived at Fort Benning Sergeant Forrest R. Cobb.

a parade in honor of 1st Sergeant O. Cushman, wives of Colonel At-Joseph H. Smith, who retired on that day.

July 31. Major General Campbell King, former commandant of Fort Benning, retired from active service with the army. AUGUST Aug. 1. Captain Stuart D. Campbell, Quartermaster Corps, retired from active duty.

Aug. 3. Private 1st Class Rodney L. Wright, Cannon Company, 29th Infantry, was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps Reserve.

Aug. 4. Captain Frederick H. Gaston left Fort Benning to take up an assignment to the Hawaiian Aug. 6. Colonel Ephraim G. Peyton elected commander of the 80th Division of Veterans Association. Boys of the Fort Benning Boy Scout Troop No. 1 passed swimmers' test in preparation for a course in Red Cross Life Saving.

Aug. 7. Private Jesse W. Sartain died as a result of injuries received in a motorcycle accident in Columbus.

Aug. 9. Lucius K. Patterson, Jr. son of Major Patterson of the Fort Benning Medical Department, suffered a broken arm in a fall at the post gymnasium.

Aug. 10. Major Allen F. Kingman, commanding officer of the Tank Battalion of the Infantry School, was honored by the largest motor review ever held in the United States. The parade was held on the eve of Major Kingman's departure from Fort Benning.

Aug. 13. Captain Donald P. Spalding assumed command of the Tank Battalion. Fourteen scouts of the Fort Benning troop, passed the Red Cross Life Saving test in the junior division.

Aug. 15. Colonel William Wallace cited for bravery during the Philippine Insurrection. Miss Ethel Woodruff weds Lieutenant Philip H. Draper, Jr.

Aug. 17. Semi-official information was received on Brigadier General G. H. Estes assuming the post left vacant by the retirement of General King. Rosters for the classes of the Infantry School of 1933-34 announced.

Aug. 18.-21 graduates of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, class of 1933, were assigned to Fort Ben-

Aug. 19. Mrs. James A. Dutton, wife of Corporal Dutton, Co. E, 29th Infantry, found dead.

Aug. 20. Academic Department of the Infantry School was reorganized. New arrivals at Fort Benning were guests of honor at a sport dance given at the Polo-Hunt

Aug. 21. Major Allen F. Kingman, former comanding officer of the 66th Infantry, left Fort Benning A program of reorganization took place in Co. A, 7th Engineers.

Aug. 22. Brigadier General G. H. Estes, appointed post commandant to succeed General King arrived at Benning.

Aug. 24. Captain Lowell H. Rooks former instructor in the Academic Department of the Infantry School, left Fort Benning for Fort Leavenworth, Kansas to take up an assignment with the Command and General Staff School.

Aug. 25. The Officers' Reserve Camp held here during the summer, ended.

Aug. 27. Captain Edward Betts, Judge Advocate of Fort Benning, was made a member of the Columbus Bar Association.

Aug. 28. Lieutenant Ovid Wilson, 24th Infantry, left for Ft. Riley, Kansas, to take up an assignment at that station.

Aug. 29. Regimental Machine Gun Company, 29th Infantry, celebrated its third anniversary. General and Mrs. Estes honored at Farewell Party at Fort McPherson, Georgia.

Aug. 30. General G. H. Estes

dant of Fort Benning. Mrs. Jo-July 30. The 29th Infantry held seph A. Atkins and Mrs. Horace Club of Columbus. kins and Captain Cushman, respectively, were injured in an automobile accident at Roanoke, Va.

Aug. 31. Major Kramer Thomas, Cavalry, arrived at Fort Benning as an instructor in the 1933-34 classes of the Infantry School.

Sept. 2. Legal and judicial authorities of the federal government in the Columbus district, were guests of a group of Fort Benning officers at a luncheon.

Sept. 3. Chapter of Order of the Eastern Star was formed at Fort Sept. 5. Infantry School classes for 1933-34 opened at Fort Benning with opening address by Colonel Fred L. Munson.

Sept. 12. Tank Units of the Infantry School observed their fifteenth anniversary. Robert H. Huffenberger, son of Sergeant Hugh Huffenberger, I. S. D., died of a snake bite.

Sept. 14. Congressman Bryant T. Castellow visited the post.

Sept. 18. Children's school opened at the Infantry School.

Sept. 20. Fort Benning received two allotments from the Public Works Administration, for construction and reconditioning work.

Sept. 24. Lieutenant Louis B. Rutte was appointed to succeed Captain Horace O. Cushman as athletic and recreation officer of the 29th Infantry.

Sept. 26. An escort of honor company was formed in the 29th Infantry for the 1933 year and Captain Don C. Faith was placed in command.

Sept. 29. 1st Lieut. Wayne C. Brandstadt, Medical Corps, was promoted to the rank of Captain. 80 members of the company officers' class passed qualification tests in the firing of the service pistol.

Sept. 30. Name of Company A, 7th Engineers was changed to Company A, 4th Engineers. Colonel Oliver S. Wood, of the Office of the Chief of National Guard, Washington, D. C., arrived here for a short visit.

OCTOBER

Oct. 1. Troops of the 29th Infantry began a five-day practice hike. The Officers' Club of Fort club. Benning held its annual meeting and election.

Cct. 2. Major General Paul B. Malone, 3rd Corps Area Commander, arrived at Fort Benning for a visit of one month with his daughter, Mrs. Orryl S. Robles, wife of Captain Robles of the garrison.

Oct. 3. Benning was the host to Kiwanis from western Georgia.-Lieutenant Col. John H. Stutesman assumed command of the 66th Infantry.

Oct. 4. Colonel Frank F. Jewett, Infantry, was promoted to the grade of Colonel. General G. H. Estes, post commandant, praised of Service Company by a parade. the 29th Infantry on the results of n practice hike. Lieutenant Walter ior class of Riverside Military C. Sweeney, aide-de-camp to General Estes was injured when struck by a polo ball.

Oct. 8. 29th Infantry ended the five-day practice march. General and Mrs. Estes were honored at a dinner dance at the Columbus Country Club.

Oct. 9. Major General Edward L. Croft arrived at Benning for a two-day visit. Oct. 10. General Croft honored at luncheon at Officers' Club.

Oct. 15. Infantry School Woman's Club opened by address of General G. H. Estes. General Croft, Chief of Infantry, left Fort Benning for Maxwell Field, Ala.

Oct. 18. The 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) and 67th Infantry (Medium Tanks) staged a review before the commanding officer. Oct. 20. Col. Frank F. Jewett, Commander of the Special Units was ordered to command of the 8th Infantry, Fort Moultrie, South Carolina.

Oct. 22. Infantry School Hunt Club formally opened its season with drag hunt. Oct. 24. Major General Paul B.

Benning, addressed the Kiwanis to witness training phases by the Oct. 26. The Fort Benning fifteenth anniversary was celebrated.

Oct. 27. General and Mrs. G. H. Estes honored at Dinner Party, given by Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton. Infantry School Dramatic club opened the 1933-34 season with a presentation of "Let Us Be Gay."

Oct. 30. Children of Fort Benning give Hallowe'en Party. Major General Paul B. Malone left Fort Benning. General G. H. Estes addressed the Fort Benning Welfare Council.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 1. 24th Infantry celebrated the 64th anniversary of its found-

Nov. 3. The horseshoeing class for enlisted men of the regular army started. In the vital statistics report of the station hospital was an account of the birth of two sets of twins. One set to Mrs. Stewart D. Miller and Private Miller of the 66th Infantry and the other to Mrs. Frank P. Goss and Mr. Goss, professional of the Fort Benning Golf Club.

Nov. 7. Major General John L. DeWitt, Quartermaster General of the United States Army, arrived here for a visit of inspection.

Nov. 9. General and Mrs. De-Witt honored at reception and din-

Nov. 10. Major General DeWitt left Fort Benning for Maxwell Field, Alabama.

Nov. 11. Fort Benning observed the national holiday, Armistice Day, by appropriate ceremonies. Senator Walter F. George visited the post and made an inspection of the troops.

Nov. 13. Lieutenant General Frederick von Boetticher, Military Attache to the German Embassy in Washington, visited Fort Benning on a tour in the interest of the German government.

Nov. 15. General von Boetticher departed from the post en route to Fort McPherson, Ga. Colonel Frank F. Jewett left Fort Benning to take command of Fort Moultrie, South Carolina.

Nov. 16. The enlisted men of the post formed a dramatic club and christened it the "Playmaker"

Nov. 17. 54 Air Corps Tactical School students from Maxwell Field Alabama, came here to witness a demonstration by the troops of the Infantry School.

Nov. 21. Jane Dixon, noted newspaper woman, spoke at a meeting of The Fort Benning Woman's Club.

Nov. 22. Miss Phyllis Sargent weds Lieutenant William Moore. 1st Aid diplomas were awarded to men of the 29th Infantry who had completed a course in that subject.

Nov. 23. The 29th Infantry honored Master Sergeant Hans Friis

Nov. 26. 23 members of the sen-

29th Infantry.

Nov. 28. Captain John G. Brackinridge, 83rd Field Artillery, is ordered to Fort Sam Houston Texas. Major Thomas B. Catron addressed a group of Reserve Officers on Foreign Armies."

Nov. 30. Master Sergeant Hans Friis retired from active duty with the 29th Infantry.

DECEMBER

Dec. 1. Members of the 29th Infantry completed a course in 1st Aid given by the American National Red Cross.

Dec. 2. 4,500 civilians registered here for work in connection with the construction activities of Fort Benning. Hospital Mess is rated highest for month of November.

A Very Merry Christmas

Benning Personnel

Southern Overall Company

Columbus, Ga.

MINNIX

SHRUBBERY CO. 1036 BROADWAY

We have opened a show-room and retail store at 1036 Broadway-second door from Westbrook Building. We have a popular and complete line of all lawns and gardens. We invite you to drop in and look over our line, we anticipate the pleasure of your patronage and acquaintance.

shrubs that will beautify your

Let Us Give You Landscape Suggestions FREE.

Everidge's FRUIT CAKE

A combination of the most delicious Crystalized Fruits, fancy drained peels together with an abundance of Almonds, Pecans and Black Walnuts, flavored with a variety of the most delightful spices which add zest to the festivities of the Happy Yule Tide.

All the varieties of the very best in Bakery Products.

To the personnel of Fort Benning we extend our sincere thanks for their loyalty and patronage in 1933, and wish for you a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

E VERIDGE'S

109 - 12th St.

Columbus, Ga.

UM

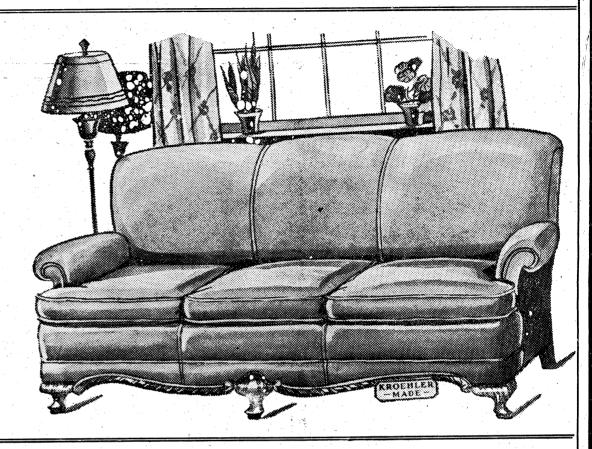

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

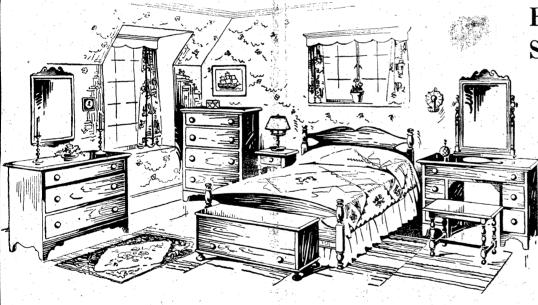

TOMLINSON KROEHLER PULLMAN

All argument to the contrary can convince no one but that Quality Furniture is worth the difference when sensibly priced.

Fine Living Room furniture, made by makers whose reputations have stood the test of time. Ideal for the Christmas gift of enduring beauty and usefulness - Perfect for the gift to that person to whom you want to give something far above the ordinary. Economical, since it preserves its beauty and its comfort for a long period of use.

We can make terms on anything we sell

BEDROOM SUITES....

Solid maple bedroom suites in the Early American style - and their design is strictly authentic. It adheres to one basic style, and a piece bought a year from today will match perfectly with every other piece. This makes it ideal for a gift, since it can be added to steadily, yet still preserve the beautiful uniformity of the whole. Strongly made, beautifully finished in natural shade.

Terms made

ROYAL EASY - CHAIRS

Chairs that are built for every purpose that can be conceived for them. They're equally adapted for reading; conversing or for dozing and they come in various styles and coverings. With or without Ottoman-All have the Royal Easy adjustable backs.

$37.50 TO

$69.50

ROOS CEDAR CHESTS:

A Cedar Chest is an equally appropriate gift for the young lady or for her mother-since it lends itself so readily to a variety of uses. These we have are beautifully finished in Walnut on the outside and natural Cedar inside. With or without auxiliary shelf. Roos Chests have patented protective lining.

$17.50 TO

$45.00

MASON & HAMLIN

KURTZMANN

GULBRANSEN

WURLITZER

MATHUSHEK

KNABE

FISCHER, and others

Upright Pianos $275.00 up

Baby Grands $495.00 up.

Metcalf's -- gifts for boy and man--

As usual, Metcalf is offering unusual Christmas opportunities to Christmas shoppers. Below are listed but a few of the outstanding gift selections we have—in addition to these, we have many others for every member of the family. Be sure to come in and see them—make this your opportu-

To The Folks At FORT BENNING

we wish

MERRY XMAS

May your Christmas and New Year be the best ever! And. while we're saying that, we'd like to add that we'd be delighted to help make them that way. Patronize the Metcalf stores, not only for boys' merchandise, but for your men's, too, during the Christmas shopping period and during the year 1934, and we'll certainly do our best to see that you're satisfied to the utmost!

Two Stores in Columbus

ESTABLISHED 1920

BROADWAY 1222

Our men's suits are truly the finest things we offer. Each is tailored to uniform perfection—each is made of the best materials and each is fitted to you like the best suit you ever had. You won't find a finer or more attractive value than

$9.99 to $16.95

Our finest shirt value. Sanforized shirts, made of best broadcloth in the latest and most comfortable patterns. Fine for gifts! Sizes

68c to $1.38

We have a tie for every taste and every purse. Smart new patterns or the plain colors that are always good are waiting for you. Alone, or in combination with a shirt. Let ties answer your gift problem.

24c to 98c

BOYS' PREP SUITS

Keep your boy well-dressed this Christmas! We offer you finely tailored suits in blue cheviots and fancy patterns that glove. Sizes 10 to 20. fit like a

Breasted 8.95

Extra Pants

Extra 1.95

TWO - PIECE JERSEY

> Well tailored all wool jersey shorts -contrasting jersey blouses. Up to the Metcalf standard. Greens, blues, tans-sizes four to seven

98c to $2.48

BOYS' SWEATERS

1040

Sweaters of every conceivable color and design. Zippers, slipovers, and coat styles with V, crew, or turtle neck. Makes a gift that is very practical as well as good-looking.

$1.19 to $2.95

BOY'S SHIRTS

High neck, sport neck, short and long sleeve, button-ons; plain white, solid colors, and fancy patterns. Makes a perfect gift of rare usefulness.

49c to 89c

MEN'S Lumber Jackets

Nifty, warm jackets made of fine materials—will stand up under all kinds of wear. Warm, comfortable—and priced most reasonably. The Talon fastener is concealed when closed.

$3.45 to $4.95 MEN'S SWEATERS

Nationally-known Rugby sweaters for men in a variety of styles and colors. This is the perfect gift for 'him" for all purposes. He can w Sizes 34 thru 46. He can work in it, or play in it.

$1.48 to $4.45

Better be damned than mentioned not at all-

John Wolcot

With so many of our sources of Flare Fuel busily engaged doing their Christmas Shopping Late, there is a decided dreath of material this week. We find ourself obligated to fall back on oft repeated names and a few fabrications concerning friends. There will be an earnest endeavor to turn over a New Leaf with the New Year and we will truly try to feed a few New Names to the Flare's

HUNTERS HOLLER FOR HELP

Many of our Bold "Bahrams" - (of course you know you 18th verse of the Rubayait) have apparently allocated their Christmas Shopping to their willing wives for most of the steady Standbys seem to spend as many hours Hunting as they did before the shopping season. In fact more so. For only last week two different Hunts spent their usual time game Tracking and added to it many hours of weary walking. Habitual Hunter Hobson was the first one to find himself in a predicament to get out of which he had to do some heavy hiking. Driven on by the desire to gain a Gobbler, Bunny drives daily to his Turkey Blind on which the family budget shows he has spent about fifty dollars in futile feed. One day last week he autoed to the Blind, camouflaged the car, climbed in his hunting hiding-place, and patiently waited for one of the Turkeys, which had been fattening off his Bounty, to appear. Eventually, Mr. Gobbler strolled into the Scene,—"Bang" went Sure Shot's gun—and over on his back rolled the turkey. Before the Hunter could retrieve his Bird there burst from the underbrush a stray Hound Dog that had apparently been tracking the turkey on his own account. The dog grabbed the gobbler and started out across country at a good substantal home-going gallop. Hobson was not going to lose the product of his prowess without a struggle, so he leaped into his car and drove in pursuit of the fleeing Pooch. Buuny and his Buick were gaining rapidly when there came a Bump—the car hit a stump and stopped. The car's etely omp Hike seven miles to reach a telephone and call for a Trouble Truck to drag him home.

Four other Hapless Hunters had troubles a few days later. G. L. (Good Looking) Kraft, W. Loafer Roberts, E. Cupid Johnson, and H. C. (Hunting Continuously) Griswold decided to go on a combined Hunt, pool the proceeds, and have a four family bird banquet the evening of the hunt. To insure a Big Bag of Birds the Four Fanatics made an early start, and Dawning Day found them far afield (Please turn to page 11)

At Festive Board On Christmas Dav

DENNING

A special Christmas dinner, typiral of all troop messes at the post Special Units, Infantry School, by Staff Sergeant Frank Meleno, Mess Sergeant, and Sergeant Earl Cain, assistant Mess Sergeant, under the direction of Captain Leonard Murphy. The menu has been arranged as fol-

Iced Fruit Cocktail Toasted Crackers Baked Young Georgia Turkey Oyster Dressing Cranberry Sauce Brown Giblet Gravy Cold Baked Baby Pig Stewed Tomatoes (Jersey Style) Buttered Baby Beets Steamed Buttered Corn Sugared Sweets Mashed Turnips and Potatoes Parker House Rolls Sweet Butter Fresh Shrimp Salad Piquant Sauce Spiced Ginger Cake Mince Pie Strip Apple Pie

Boston Cream Cake Jerkins Hearts of Celery Mixed Candy Grapes Oranges Mixed. Nuts Cigars Cigarettes Coffee

Officers Assigned To Fort Benning

The assignment of two officers, Major Charles R. Lanahan, Medical Corps, and 1st Lieutenant Russell A. Baker, Infantry, to duty at Fort Benning on completion of their present tours of foreign service nas been made known in orders issued by the War Department, at Washington, D. C.

Both officers will be on their first detail to this post. Major Lanahan, who at the present time is on duty at Manila, Philippine Islands, has been in the Medical Corps during his entire period of service from his first commission as a lieutenant in the Ambulance Company of the Kentucky National Guard in 1917, through commissions in the National Army as 1st Lieutenant and captain of the Kentucky National Guard, and in the regular army as 1st lieutenant, captain and

Two weeks after the entry of this ountry into the World War from its moorings and was no long- les R. Lanahan, who had finished er of any value as an automobile the University of Louisville as an accessory. Hunter Hobson had to M. D. joined the Ambulance Company as a 1st lieutenant in the non-Federal branch of the military forces. In June of the same year he retained his commission when the National Guard of the nation was called into service, and in De- Committee for the ensuing year. cember of the same year received The work of the Girl Scouts in any his regular army commission in community is made many times the same grade. A year later, in more effective and stimulating by October, he was promoted to cap- the cooperation of a group of intain, National Army, holding that terested, public spirited women grade until March, 1920, when he who are willing to stand behind reverted to regular army grade, the girls and lend the advantage only to be recommissioned captain of their sound judgment, broadin June, this time in the regular point of view, prestige and advice. army. His advancement to the The Community Committee forms (Please turn to page 5)

Outfits Celebrate COMMANDANT EXTENDS Protestant Chapel OFFICIAL GREETINGS

Christmas season from Brigadier General G. H. Estes to members is being prepared for the members of the Fort Benning garrison, were extended in a circular to all post on the eve of the annual holiday

> Christmas as a member of the its commandant, and took the occasion to offer his wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, as well as to express his satisfaction with the work accomplished by the School and its personnel during the past year.

Occupying one of the key positions of the military defense system as commandant of the world's results obtained at the Infantry New Year."

Official holiday greetings of the School during the past year showed marked progress in the advancement of the aims of the institution, the development and better personnel on Wednesday, Dec. 20, education of officers of the United States Army in their profession.

"The successful results obtained General Estes, who assumed in all organizations and depart-command of the Infantry School ments are most gratifying," he last summer, is spending his first said. "I fully realize that this was accomplished only through loyal, Fort Benning garrison, as well as energetic and efficient efforts and whole-hearted cooperation on the part of all individual members of the command."

"As the year draws to a close, I desire to express to all officers, nurses, warrant officers, enlisted men, and civilian employes, my deep appreciation of your loyalty and effort, and to extend to you and to each member of your familargest school for infantry war- lies, my sincere good wishes for a fare, General Estes stated that the Merry Christmas and a Happy

Is Planning For ChristmasProgram

A special Yuletide program will be presented at the Protestant Chapel of Fort Benning at 10:30 Sunday morning, with Christmas Carols and instrumental music by the Benning Children's Choir and a string quartette from Columbus. The arrangement of the program is as follows:

(1) Prelude — "Adeste" — arranged by Alfred Tochon.

(Ralph Cotton String tette—Columbus School of Music)

(2) Processional — "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing"-Mendelssohn. (Congregation).

Prayer-Chaplain Howard. Response-Choir. (4)

(5) Children's Choir—"Away In A Manger"—Carl Mueller; "Bethlehem Lullaby"-Johannes Brahms; 'Silent Night"—Franz Gruber.

(6) Scripture Lesson — Chaplain Howard.

Quartette — "First (7) String Noel"—Alfred Tochon; "Music Of The Spheres"—Anton Rubenstein. (8) Vocal Duet—"Dormi, Non Piangere"-Paolo Mauri. (Mrs. Hull and Mrs. Albright).

(9) Children's Choir—"Joy To The World"—from Handel's "Messiah"; "First Noel"—harmonized by Sir John Stainer.

(10) Recessional — "O Come, All Ye Faithful"—Wade's "Cantus

(11) Benediction.

A special invitation to attend the special services on Christmas Eve is extended to the people of Fort Benning and Columbus.

FIRE DEPARTMENT RECEIVE FIRST CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Santa Claus' first present of the by the Quartermaster, and are of season has arrived at Fort Benwere the first recipients of gifts were the members of Chief Willis' and Fire Marshal Geoffrey Marshal's force; the Fort Benning Fire Department.

Perhaps old St. Nick has had an eye on the boys for the past months while they were working so diligently on the renovation of toys for needy children of the post, a job that cost, in addition to efforts expended, loss of much leisure time and well-liked "bunk-fa-

Whatever the reason, Thursday morning bright and early, an enthusiastic and admiring crowd was observed in front of Fire Station No. 1, where lined up against the curb, were two nice shiny, new pumpers.

The trucks were shipped here they had been built and assembled trucks.

the 6-cylinder, Class B type, with ning, and the lucky parties who a pump capable of delivering 750 Dionosi". (Congregation). gallons a minute, 1,000 feet of hose, and a 120 gallon booster pump, each. Other features of the latest addition to Benning's fire equipment, are Westinghouse air brakes, and complete equipment for each truck, including hand fire extinguishers, both the conventional soda and water type, and carbon-tetrachloride for use on fires of electrical equipment, and a type of nozzle that is the latest word in firefighting equipment. Dubbed as reversible "Siamese," these nozzles will convert a single stream of water into a double one when it is necessary to carry the hose lines a long way, or will turn right around and convert two streams into one powerful force, when force is needed.

Each of the two Benning fire from Camp Holabird, Md., where stations is to receive one of the new

GIRL SCOUT COMMUNITY COMMITTEE HEARS REPORT

The Girl Scout Community Committee met at the home of Mrs. Henry J. Matchett, director of Fort Benning Girl Scout Work on Wednesday afternoon, December

Mrs. J. B. Woolnough was elected chairman of the Community the link between the Scouts and the community.

At the meeting on Wednesday splendid reports of work accomplished during the past year were given by the following troop leaders: Mrs. F. A. Heileman, Pine Tree; Mrs. Paul Kellam, Daffodil; Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth, Cardinal: Brownie Pack I; Mrs. C. H. Stude-Pack II.

That it is more blessed to give than to receive has been demonstrated in the unselfish spirit Dexter L. Greeson, Hq. Co., Pvt. shown by the Girl Scouts who have found great joy in planning gifts vin B. Saucer, Hq. Co. 2d Bn., Pvt. and innumerable acts of sweet Edward C. Williams, Co. A, and thoughtfulness during the Yuletide Pvt. 1st class Charles F. Worener. season.

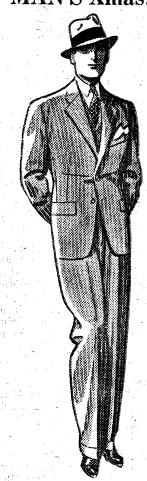

29th Qualifies One Third In Exams

The 29th Infantry, outstanding unit of the demonstration forces of the Infantry School, and foremost among the peace-time organizations of the United States Army, again "led the way" for the rest of the military forces of this country, when the results of a competitive examination for enrollment in the telephone electrician's course at the Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J., were announced by the office of the chief of infantry at Washington, D. C.

In the examination for entrance, which was held throughout the entire army, thirty-three men are selected each year to take the course. which embodies a study of the latest principles and most modern procedure in the use, upk repair of military wire communications systems in the field and garrison. Of the thirty-three successful men the 29th Infantry qualified eleven, one-third of the total number.

Those who will attend the course which will begin shortly after the Mrs. C. A. Selleck, Mrs. R. J. Hunt, first of the year are Private Andrew Allen, C Co.; Pvt. Louis R. baker, Mrs. W. C. Lucas, Brownie Armstrong, Hq. Co., Pvt. Wiley H. Bozeman, Hq. Co., Pvt. John Camp, Hq. Co., Pvt. John D. Coen, Hq. Co., Pvt. Stephen R. Foote, Co. D., Pvt. Claude Holloway, Hq. Co., Pvt. Al-Service Company.

Last Minute Suggestions for a MAN'S Xmas:

$1.50 to $3.50 Handkerchief and Tie Set $1.25 Neckties 55c up HATS $3.45 to $4.95 Shirts $1.55 up Hickock Suspenders $1.00 Scarfs $1.00 to $2.50 Socks 3 Pair $1.00 PAYNE CLOTHING CO.

Belt and Buckle sets

New Books For The Jaded Mind

(Editor's Note: Owing to an unfortunate shortage of available space the following excellent reviews were omitted last week. We submit them herewith for the large number of booklovers of Fort Benning and will endeavor to devote as much space as possible to this type of copy.)

These books were reviewed at the Fiction Meeting of The Literary Section of the Fort Benning Woman's Club. The program was directed by Mrs. C. M. Easley. The reviewers included Mrs. J. A. Otto, Mrs. P. S. Wood, Mrs. Lloyd Barnett, Mrs. H. L. Harries.

"NO SECOND SPRING" By Janet Beith

This novel of Scottish life won the Stokes Award of $20,000 open to novelists of all nations. It is the first published novel of its author—a twenty-eight year old English girl. After graduating from college and teaching in a girls' school several years she has been living with her parents writing and discarding novels.

The scene of No Second Spring is laid in Scotland and early in the nineteenth century. The story is woven around three characters, Hamish McGregor, an uncomproming minister of Calvanist faith, who believes in hell fire and damnation; Allison his wife, a very sensitive, poetic person and Andrew Winter ...

Branches of this firm, which are located in the principal Southern Cities are conveniently available to accredited individuals who spend their winters in the South

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EACHANGE

1203 Broad

To Our Friends At Ft. Benning

... we wish to extend best wishes for a Very Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year. May we hope for your continued patronage.

1141 Broadway

Phone 409

Simon, a wandering artist and man of the world.

As Hamish becomes more absorbed with his work for God, Allison who doesn't share his absolute faith doesn't dare to confess to him her doubts. Then Andrew comes to the Manse. He is a disillusioned young man, a veteran of the Battle of Waterloo, cynical from years of dissipation. He has come to the Highlands to paint and be alone. When he is offered the hospitality of the Manse he accepts it and paints the portraits of the minister and his wife. It is quite a shock to the reader to watch Allison fall in love with Andrew. One day by the sea with Andrew she decides that she might leave Hamish but there are the children so she tells Andrew that he must leave and she goes back to become the minister's wife. Her second spring has blossomed and is over.

The descriptions of the Highland scenery are delightful and the action of the story is kept close to the atmosphere of the town.

THE WOODS COLT By Thames Williamson

The one point upon which reviewers agree in discussing The Woods Colt—a story of the Ozark Mountaineers—is that it is as regionally perfect as fiction can be.

Mr. Williamson explains the title on the fly-leaf. "A woods colt is what you-uns call a bastard—only our way of saying it is more decent—more natural like too; kind of wild and bred in the hills and devil be damned, somethin' that-a-

Clint Morgan is the woods colt of the novel-a young mountaineer who was begotten during a revival meeting with the preacher shouting not very far awaya good old American custom familiar to all students of the folklore of revivals. He is a human full of contradiction. He can kill anyone who has offended him as naturally as he would a squirrell, lives with his cousin when she follows him out to the hillsvet can't take out his shirt tail in her presence to tear off a bandage when he has been shot, for that wouldn't be decent. Young Clint early becomes a bad man, kills a Federal Officer, hides out in the hills and for months evades the forces of the law. When surrounded in a cave he and his girl cousin fight like ground-hogs. The story moves on to its inevitable ending-the woods colt keeps his freedom-a wild thing

There is nothing improbable in this story. The Ozark dialect is colorful easily read and convincing. It is a regional novel that may not have universal appeal, but it is an unusually fine piece of work certain to please the discriminating.

LAMB IN HIS BOSOM By Caroline B. Miller

Many a prize-winning author might be proud to have written such a quiet, unpretentious little masterpiece as Lamb in His Bosom. Caroline Miller is a Georgia woman, who grew up and went to Waver chool she took more than an academic interest in English and in her English teacher whom she married two months after gradua-Now she lives in Baxley, Georgia, where husband teaches school.

At a luncheon in Atlanta when she was asked how she went about getting data for her novel she replied, "I put the children in the back of the car and roamed all over the backwoods section around Baxley. I talked to the older people and heard from them incidents of the early days told in the language of that period. There remains much of the pioneer spirit among the people of this section. I hope that I have captured something of their patience and cour-

(Please turn to page 3)

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

Do You Need Money? HERE IS OUR PLAN

 Note for $300.00

 8% Interest deducted
 $ 24.00

 Net to you
 $276.00

Payments $25.00 per month for 12 months

Larger or Smaller Loans Proportionately.

Fidelity Loan and Investment Co.

T. E. BAISDEN, Secretary-Treasurer

We also have unredeemed pledges — diamonds from $20.00 up.

Sterling

And among other gifts:

CLOCKS WATCHES
CHINAWARE
DIAMONDS
PEN AND PENCIL SETS
CUT GLASSWARE
MEN'S JEWELRY

BUY FINE JEWELRY THIS YEAR

Buy gifts this year from stores that will offer a guarantee of quality. If any gift from this store is unsatisfactory, you may return it and we will make it good. Safeguard your gift-shopping by buying jewelry gifts from Schomburg's.

Schomburg's

C. Schomburg & Son - Jewelers

NEW BOOKS (Continued from page 2)

age and faith, not only in my book, but for myself."

The story is that of the Carvers, era. By modern standards they God." were poor whites but not trash. Their life was as hard and simple, as complicated as any we know. Cean was the first to get married. happily married, but never once did into the cabin.

they say they loved each other. Mrs. Miller catches the true reticence of the backwoods when she says: "His arms went around her and held her close, but never did he tell her how he felt; that would

Once when Lonzo was away on his annual trip to Savannah Cean gave birth to her third child, alone in a cabin with her other two small She went only a few miles away children, only to have to get up to Lonzo's cabin. They were very and kill a panther which had got

This quiet, unobstrusive chroni-

GAY LIFE By E. M. Delafield

This is the story of life in a typical summer hotel on the Cote D'Azur, within easy reach of Cannes and Monte Carlo. It is basically satiric and the conclusions arrived at are remorseless in their inevitability. In the persons of the temporary residents of the hotel, "men and women, posturing and chattering, and each one the re-pository of a secret and complicated history," the phases of modern life most luridly representative of twentieth-century license and in anity are stripped of their glamour by merciless exposure.

With the exception of an Ameri can financier the author has confined herself to the English guests of the hotel. She has written a sort of "Grand Hotel" of the Riviera. It is the sort of novel that affords all of the pleasures of snobbery without any of the irritations of personal contact. (The process is known as the appreciation of social comedy.) The book is full of wit and irony and consistently amusing.

Apart altogether from its very considerable literary merits, the book is an honest and challenging contribution to the sociology of the

> ONE MORE RIVER By John Galsworthy

One More River completed six months before the death of the author in January of 1933 is a novel of modern English society. From beginning of the story where we find Clare Dinny's sister, fleeing to England from her sadist husband and on the boat falling in love and becoming compromised with a penniless young Englishman, Tony Croom, through the description of Dinny's daily life at her family's estate in the country, the gruelling divorce suit brought by Clare's horrible husband, to the conclusion when Dinny-To quote the author, "comes to shore on the far bank of her river" and gains contentment,—the story never drags for the contrasting romances of the two sisters, each of whom is trying to bring happiness and peace out of the chaos and ruin that is behind them, presents many dramatic situations and plays constantly on the emotions.

It seems particularly fitting that One More River should be the last of Galsworthy's works since it brings to a happy conclusion the story of Dinny Charwell, whom the author considered the most charming and fully realized of all his

> BONFIRE By Dorothy Canfield

Bonfire was written by Dorothy Canfield, who is the author of Basque People, The Deepening Stream, Her Sons Wife and numerous other books.

Against the quiet beauty of a Vermont village with its mountains, upland pastures and shaded village streets the author has laid a novel of love and marriage that is very vivid. If you have ever lived in a small village you will appreciate how real the characters are and in Bonfire all the village people play their part. There is Anna Craft, the district nurse; her half brother, the fiery young doctor who is disdainful of all traditions and conventions; the eager young girl who loves him ardently and Lixlee, the primitive beauty from the mountains, who flashes through the entire story like a forest fire. Then there is fat Miss Bessie Kemp, who revels in tradition and gossip and her deaf sister Miss Gussie, who sees and knows far more than anyone gives her credit for. In addition there are many characters who form the interesting and adequate background for the story.

Just as a sudden gust of wind changes a harmless bonfire into the terror of a forest conflagration so does a chance remark or cle will win the hearts of all of us who have our ancestral roots in the courageous lives of the pioneers who builded the South.

(Please turn to page 10)

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

RESOURCES OVER____

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

Chancellor Co. Columbus

Wishes each and all of their many friends at Benning

> A Most Happy Xmas and That the New Year Will See the 15 per cent Cut Restored

Chancellor Co.

Your Columbus Headquarters

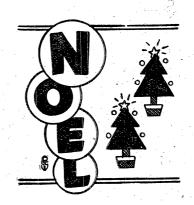

Christmas Greetings

Fort Benning Friends

Chase Conservatory of Music

220 10th St.

STUDEBAKER — PIERCE-ARROW

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

and a

HAPPY NEW YEAR

to the folks at

FORT BENNING

COLUMBUS ROBERTS MOTOR COMPANY

510-12-14 — 12th St.

STUDEBAKER — PIERCE-ARROW

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

Miss Harriet Smith Weds W. A. Harris At Wedding Marked By Simplicity

Dignity and simplicity characterized the wedding of Miss Harriett Smith, daughter of Mrs. DeLand Smith, of San Antonio, Texas and Lieutenant William A. Harris which was quietly performed Friday at 1:30 P. M. at the quarters of Captain and Mrs. W. S. Elliott. Chaplain W. T. Howard read the impressive marriage lines in the presence of members of the family and a few intimate friends.

GIGLIO'S

FOOD DEPARTMENT STORE

All the good things you expect for Christmas — TURKEY, or other choice meat, and everything that goes with it.

Come See Us

We invite you to come in and see our store. We have tried to make it beautiful.

1025-27 1st Ave. Columbus, Ga. Officers' Charge Accounts Solicited

For your last minute Ice Cream Orders:

You shouldn't let yourself get in a predicament, but, if you do, don't forget that you can get things from the Soda Fount via our delivery service at any time between 11 a. m. and 9 p. m. It is designed especially for the delivery of ice cream in small quantities anywhere in Fort Benning.

SODA FOUNT

POST EXCHANGE Fort Benning, Ga

The bride entered on the arm of Captain W. S. Elliott by whom she was given in marriage and was met by Lieutenant Harris and his best man Lieutenant William H. G. Fuller. The bride was lovely in her wedding costume, and ensemble of tan with which she wore a smart brown hat and other accessories to and mistletoe flanked by silver match. A corsage of gardenias completed her costume.

Miss Paige Michie was the maid of honor and only attendant. Her Columbus society. gown was a French model fashioned with skirt of black velvet, an ecru lace blouse, and a corsage of talisman roses. Little Miss Patricia Elliott was the ring bearer. Her frock was of pale blue taffeta.

The bride's table was laid with the three-tiered wedding cake embossed in roses and valley lilies. Exquisite Dresden figurines and Dresden candlesticks in which burned white tapers completed the table appointments. Following the ceremony the bride cut the wedding cake with her husband's saber.

In accordance with the picturesque custom of the Artillery after the wedding the bride and groom were ridden over the post on a flower decked caisson. The merry column was led by a mounted bugle corps which played loud and lustily: "You're in the Army Now" Lieut. L. B. Ely, Battery Commander of Lieut. Harris acted as Chief of Section while three of Lieut. Harris' classmates, Lieut's Chapman, R. B. Neely and J. M. Royal, Jr. drove the wheel, swing and lead teams respectively. The rest of the officers of the battalion rode behind the caisson as out-riders. Behind the out-riders came the wedding party and a host of friends in cars. The ride took the bride and groom first to the quarters of General and Mrs. Estes where General Estes came out to extend his congratulations. From there they rode around the post ending up at the bachelor quarters where Taps" was sounded.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harriett Smith and the late Major DeLand Smith of San Antonio, Texas and is a young girl of beauty and charm.

The groom is the son of Major and Mrs. Hunter Harris of Athens, Ga. and a member of a family distinguished in military life and in southern society. His mother is Mrs. Herbert White of San Antonio, Texas. Lieutenant Harris was graduated from the United States Military Academy with the class of 1933 and since that time has been stationed at Fort Benning as a member of the 83rd Field Ar-

Lieutenant Harris and his bride left during the afternoon for Athens for a visit to his family and on their return from their wed-

To Our Benning Friends:

We have greatly appreciated your patronage in the past year, and we wish now to express our sincere hope that you will have a

VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

HAPPY NEW YEAR

SHOE DEPARTMENT

Located in the Westbrook Buildnig

LIEUT. COL. AND MRS. KELLY MISS WADDINGTON COMPLI-AND MAJ. AND MRS. LYMAN JOINT HOSTS AT BUFFET SUPPER

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Reginald H. Kelley and Major and Mrs. Elbert J. Lyman were the joint hosts Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Bowen, Wednesday evening when they entertained with a delightful buffet supper at the former's quarters on Miller Loop. Throughout the house the color scheme was red and green while on the supper table a silver bowl filled with holly candle sticks bearing red tapers formed an attractive centerpiece. The guest list included about thirty persons from Fort Benning and

MAJOR AND MRS. WOOD HON-OR GUEST

Miss Mollie Goodwyn was the honor guest Sunday afternoon when Major and Mrs. Phillip S. Wood entertained at an informal tea. The guests consisted of members of a lace cloth and in the center was the debutante set and their escorts were invited for five o'clock.

LIGHTING OF YULE LOG TO FEATURE THURSDAY EVEN ING SUPPER DANCE

One of the most colorful features of the holidays at the Officers Club was the lighting of the Yule Log by the Infantry School Hunt which ook place Thursday evening supper dance. A capacity number of reservations were made for the supper. The guest list included: Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Walter R. Wheeler, Major and Mrs. Fred M. Fogle, Major and Mrs. James W. Duckworth, Major and Mrs. Thomas G. Hearn, Major and Mrs. Francs G. Bonham, Capt. and Mrs. Edward C. Johnson, Lieut. and Mrs. Earle G. Machery, Mr. W. C. Mc-Kee and several "no-host" parties.

TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY TO SPONSOR DANCE AT POLO HUNT CLUB

The officers and ladies of the 29th Infantry will be the hosts Friday evening at a dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. Dancing will be enjoyed from nine-thirty o'clock until midnight with the 29th Infantry orchestra playing. A number of informal affairs will be held preceding the dance. Among those entertaining will be Major and Mrs. William H. Hobson, Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Bowen and Lieut. and Mrs. Clyde D. Eddleman.

MENTED WITH DANCE AT THE POLO HUNT CLUB

Miss Louise Waddington, who is spending the Christmas holidays tooned with red ribbon, forming with her sister and brother-in-law, an effective background at the far was the honor guest Wednesday evening at a delightful dance given at the Polo Hunt Club. An informal receiving line consisting of Mrs. Selina Waddington, mother of the honor guest, Lieut. and Mrs. Bowen, Miss Waddington and Bowen, Miss Lieut. Thomas R. Stoughton formed to welcome the guests. The Polo Hunt Club was effectively decorated in the holiday motif with wreaths of holly and mistletoe fes-(Please turn to page 5)

Serve

RUMSDRY

The Life Of The Party

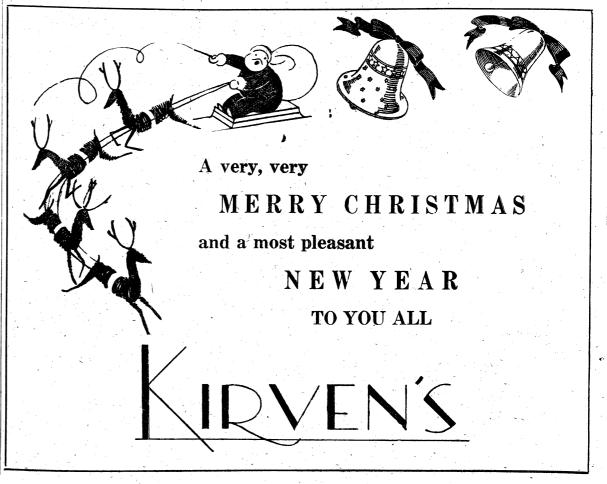

to our friends stationed at Fort Benning

We hope that the holiday season will be the best ever for you and that we may hope for your continued patronage in 1934,

SILVER'S

Cor. Broad and 11th St.

A Store of Xmas Cheer.

SOCIETY (Continued from page 4)

end of the dance floor for a large Christmas tree decorated with all the Christmas trimmings.

The 24th Infantry orchestra furnished the music for the dancing. The guest list included members of the debutante set their guests and escorts.

LIEUT. AND MRS. HOWELL HONOR GUEST AT BUFFET SUPPER

Lieut. and Mrs. George P. Howell were the hosts Wednesday at an informal buffet supper complimenting Miss Louise Waddington preceeding the dance at the Polo Hunt Club. The guest list included members of the debutante set. were: Misses Elizabeth Williams, Florence Garrard, Leonora Dismukes, Kenneth Kendall, Paige Michie and Dorothy Russ, Lieuts. Thomas R. Stoughton, Henry B. Kunzig, Eugene L. Brown, Glenn A. Farris, Sidney G. Brown, Aubrey B. Smith and Robert B. Neeley.

CONTRACT BRIDGE TURKEY TOURNAMENT HELD MON-DAY EVENING AT OFFICERS' CLUB

Monday evening the Offcers' Club sponsored a mixed duplicate contract bridge tournament. The prizes for first and second place were turkeys. Winning turkeys First section, North and South, Mrs. Joseph A. Atkins and Col. William E. Persons, first, with Mrs. Harry L. Reeder and Mrs. Dwight A. Rosebaum, second; East and West, Maj. Thomas G. Arms and Capt. Arthur E. Burnap, first, with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Des-Portes, second. Second section, North and South, Mrs. James E. Bowen and Mrs. George P. Howell, first, with Capt. and Mrs. Charles F. Johnson, second; East and West, Lieut. and Mrs. Russel G. Emery, first with Lieut. Dwight A. Rosebaum and Lieut. James E. Bowen, second.

SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM TO FEATURE CHRISTMAS EVE AT CATHOLIC CHAPEL

One of the most interesting musical programs that Fort Benning will be priveleged to hear will be the services Christmas Eve which will be held at the Catholic Chapel. This program will be a male choir rendering compositions that were composed in the 4th century and that are sung at present in the Vatican. It is interesting to note the Pope Gregory in the 13th century collected and revised these old church choruses hence at the present time they are known as the Gregorian chants. This program is being directed by Lieut. Harry G. Dowdall. Members of the choir will be Mr. J. A. Sikarski, cantor, Lieut. Louis B. Rutte, Lieut. Aloysius E. O'Flaherty, Warrant Officer William H. Vien, Mr. G. R. Bigbee, Mr. John Dobson, and Mr. Theodore J. Lendresse. Warrant Officer George G. Horton will serve as organist. Following this program Chaplain John F. Monahan will officiate at high mass.

SPECIAL SUNDAY SERVICE TO BE HELD AT PROTESTANT CHAPEL

On Christmas Eve, Sunday, December 24, the Protestant Chapel will hold a special musical program of Christmas hymns that will be presented by the children's choir of Fort Benning. Several other of Fort Benning. musical numbers will be given including Ralph Cotton's String Quartet from Columbus.

Services will begin at ten-thirty A. M. and a cordial welcome is extended to all members of the garrison and Columbus.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Elbert J. Lyman and Mrs. Ben H. Hardaway of Columbus will leave Tuesday by motor for a week's stay at Palm Beach and Miami, Florida.

Major and Mrs. Phillip S. Wood had as their house guest Miss Mollie Goodwyn, of Lowell, Massachusetts. Miss Wood was graduated this year from Smith College . Miss Katherine Lemly, who has

Garden Club Holds Interesting Meeting Monday Afternoon

The Garden Club section of the Infantry School Woman's Club of Fort Benning held its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raymond W. Pearson. A very interesting program in which the origin of hristmas and its customs and decorations were discussed at length took place.

Mrs. Rhodes Browne of Colum-been spending the past two weeks with friends in the East returned to Fort Benning Friday. She and her parents, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Rowen P. Lemly, plan to spend part of the holidays with friends in Florida.

Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Crosby left the latter part of the week to spend the holidays with the latter's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Barnett of Atlanta.

Major and Mrs. Fred M. Fogle have as their house guests during Christmas holidays Messrs Wallace and Thomas Hamilton, Jr. who are spending the holidays at Fort Benning from Princeton University.

bus relate dthe very old but beautiful legend of the origin of Christmas and then presented a wealth of lore concerning the introduction and rapidly advancing popularity of Yuletide decorations.

The members of the club learned from Mrs. Pearson how, with native greens, an old wire coat hanger, and a bit of red string, a very beautiful Christmas wreath may be made.

Mrs. E. J. Alsobrook of the Benning Boulevard Nurseries gave an enlightening talk on the care of house plants. "Much may be learned about the care of ferns and other pot flowers by studying their methods of growth in their native setthings". she said. By an observation of the vegetation in fields and woodlands it is noticed that ferns are always found growing best in dark damp places. Very satisfactory results are obtained in the cultivation of ferns when this is taken into consideration.

Refreshments were served at the onclusion of the program.

With the special Christmas program the Garden Club ended a very successful year of study and research work.

OFFICERS ASSIGNED HERE

(Continued from page 1) rank of major occurred in June,

Major Lanahan will be on duty in the eye, ear, nose, and throat clinic of the Fort Benning station hospital. That he is outstanding in this line of work is evidenced by his record as a medical student, for Major Lanahan is an honor graduate of the Medical Field Service in addition to his M. D. degrée, School, class of 1927, and an honor graduate and medlaist of the class of 1927 at the Army Medical Lieutenant Baker, who will report here at the conclusion of a detail to the 31st Infantry at Manila, P. I., entered the Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. in 1920 as a student. He was commissioned as 2nd lieutenant of infantry in 1924, and promoted to 1st lieutenant in 1929.

Fifteen Cent Ride In Ford Trimotor

Those who would be thrilled by taking the air-ways on high—by cruising through the blue in a huge tri-motored Ford transport planehave only to go to the Municipal Airport through Christmas Day and for the unheard of price of fifteen cents they may realize a life-long desire.

Today Captain Ray Loomis and Albert Laney, the latter a local pilot who has made good in big time flying, announced their intention of staying over in Columbus for three more days.

ARMY

NAVY

INSIGNIA BUTTONS

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold plating. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned, with a solution of soapsuds and household ammonia.

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

For Christmas — This Year Buy Better Furniture

Do not be satisfied with furniture bought only because the price is low. This is the time, especially since it's Christmas, to buy the kind of furniture that you will really enjoy for years to come. Our payment plan will enable you to own better furniture, and you will find very little difference in paying for something you will enjoy and paying for something bought as a substitute.

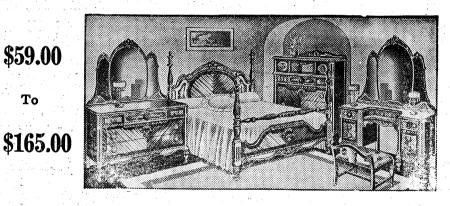

Bedroom Suite . . .

A four piece suite consisting of chest of drawers, vanity dresser and bench. This is of pure gumwood in walnut finish. Very substantially

Kroehler Bedroom Suite

To those who have been wanting really nice furniture we call your particular attention to a KROEHLER Bedroom Suite in beautiful mahogany.

$59.00

HILCO

The 1934 models await your selection here. Besides making an ideal Christmas gift, they will last and give service for several years. A radio to suit your personal requirements — large or small — in various cabinet designs. All can be bought on terms.

From $27.50 $162.00

EASY CHAIR

English Club Style - in a choice of fabrics. This will be a welcome addition to any home, and it will give many hours of comfort. With otttoman free . . .

HUMES

STORE OPEN UNTIL 9 P. M.

PHONE 382

1132 BROADWAY

BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia

VOLUME III	DECEMBER 22, 1933	NO. 35
L. C. Kunze		Publisher
FELICIA C. HOWELL		Society Editor
JACK GIBNEY		Sports Editor
Louis T. Kunze		rculation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT

Lt. Fowler turned out a very enjoyable writ in communications. and everyone made a good mark including Dick Wetherill. Dick was steaming along at a great rate, and quickly completed his wire splicing. A second inspection, however, revealed that he had failed to twist his wires before making the second splice. Slightly peeved, Dick clipped out the section and began anew, working at a still higher rate of speed. But disaster persisted, and it was a considerably disgusted student who now discovered that he'd made the same mistake a second time. At that, he wasn't the last man to finish, this honor again going to Girene Orr.

Along this same line is the sad story of Tommy Nelson. For, after spending less than three hours on his M G problem, he exhibited it with considerable pride to a few classmates. The figures were strange, and further frantic consultations revealed that sure enough, it was the wrong problem.

Ted Seeley raised his squad spirit by sponsoring a squad party Friday afternoon. Members in good standing include Heimerdinger, Broom, Ned Moore, Moses Bristol, Grinstead and James. Guests of honor were Major "Owl Shot" Easley and Lt. "Long Thrust" Maertons. Reports indicate that an exceptionally good time was had by Playboy Dan Norman of the student generals, pulled a fast one recently on one of his playmates. Finding an unguarded tobacco pouch, Dan quickly added a few parings from his art gum eraser. Fortunately, the act wasn't discovered until the victim had loaded up and started in to enjoy his pipefortunately for the onlookers.

We are still wondering what Major Thomas meant in describing the outstanding characteristic of horse cavalry as its "fluidity."

The last bachelor dance was a tremendous success, owing to the Everyone remembers the embarfact that the only admittance fee rassment of Lt. Fowler as he tried was a will to have a good time. Many new faces appeared on the recent afternoon, on knot tying. floor, among them being that of We had to listen to such horrible Forrest Hornisher. Thus till dark puns, as, for example, this one by and handsome man arrived on the Rex Andrews, 'The more you tie scene bearing the glad tidings "I've this up, the better the mark." (Rex just put my wife to bed with a broken finger, now bachelors, do your recently), And this from Lillums stuff." Needless to say, the bachelors did their darndest, and many tires me out, it's so boring."

were the excited questions from palpitating females.

Not to be out-done by the Benthe 29th gave a small and exclustheir dates were invited, while the good old 24th furnished the music. Two of the more ambitious lieutenants journeyed some 180 miles to get their dates, with a return trip on Sunday. It must have been well worth the effort, from remarks still being passed around.

Bill Hones can always be relied upon to put over an interesting demonstration. And, if the story we hear is correct, he is not new at the business. His first burst into dramatics was officially noted when Bill was a member of the advanced class, and about to give a monograph on Waterloo. Bill appeared on the platform, fumbled for his notes, shifted weight, and in general, tied himself up. Members of the faculty were hunched eagerly forward, all set to hand out that "U," when Bill said, "Pardon me, gentlemen, but if you'll excuse me, I'll get someone to give this that really knows the subject. In fact, someone who was actually there at the time." Whereupon, Bill stepped behind a screen, made a few deft changes, and reappeared on the platform as Napoleon himself, even down to the nameplate.

Well, the faculty, conservative to the last, couldn't quite approve of such frivolous conduct, and decided on a "U" anyway. Luckily for Bill though, the commandant had been in the audience, and ordered a review of the grade. The outcome was a "A" and you all can see the high pinnacle now enjoyed Major.

We wish here to request Colonels Weeks and Tucker to please not remain so long in a classroom when both the students and instructor are trying to cut the period short. to fill out a couple of hours one has his composure

BENNING DAY BY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Dec. 18-The tion, will have the horse laugh on us distinctly at a disadvantage, the week by the Supply Group in the person of one Howdy Clark to the from a hot kitchen. effect that we were about to have school at the present moment has us when it reads the product of a dozen nightmares trying to supply result of an announcement yester- the troops. We are still trying to figure how to serve a cold lunch

We have struggled and struggled the opportunity of writing a supply on ours now this many a day, problem. In other words, the foot changing it and correcting it with head, as if our difficulty with is on the other shoe and the school, a new idea here and a new wrinkle latter away with us. The more we change our own brain-child of a problem around the more it is the same thing until we have almost reached the state where we are about to begin all over again, writing the solution first and making the situation fit it. As the logisticians would say, putting the chart before the horse.

Throughout our attempts to draw up a Supply problem our pet aversion has been the train. So much depends upon it. The field trains in particular, to use an appropriate supply term, have provided us with an extra load of grief. We have been conscious in a dumb sort of way that our tendency has been to use them early of late. We always had them behind before but for once, believe it or otherwise. we have eventually succeeded in making them first at last!

The main result of our struggles so far, in drawing up our problem has been to provide us with an acute case of rail headache and as the horse would say on eyeing a bin of musty oats," "It isn't migraine". Rather is it the first acute symptom of low blood pressure, superinduced in turn by poor trafning Bachelors, the bachelors of fic circulation and unnecessary arterial congestion on our main supive dinner dance Saturday night at ply road. Unless our condition imtheir mess in Block 21. Only the proves before we turn our paper in 20-odd members of the mess, and we view with alarm the pop-eyed awe of the instructor when he reads it. If the unfortunate brother student who receives our paper to solve is able to read it. much less understand or work it. in the words of motorization, we will unhesitatingly admit that he is nobody's fuel.

> Speaking of our supply problem reminds us that as the holiday season begins the Supply Group will have deserved a well-earned rest, on account they've completed the Advanced Class Supply course. They can haul in their road nets and reel up their barrio lines with a clear conscience. We feel grateful to them not only for a course well presented but also for the opportunity of providing this humble columnist with many a load of extra ammunition to help fill our column. They have done more than their share to help us set off our weekly blank and now that it is over our only remaining thought is the hope that they play the part of a real Santa Claus in awarding us our grades. This is the time to prove to us that there is a plentiful supply of A-rations for unit distribution.

To them and theirs at the Christmastide, an ample supply of extra forage. We reserve for ourselves only the rare privilege of spending many an extra hour in bed with our twenty-seven magazines.

As for the celebration of the New Year, a world of caution. We hope here at school, by our esteemed their Class I supplies will be plentiful. We trust that they have no difficulty in establishing a refilling point. We would feel remiss in our duty, however, if we neglected to state that we are appealing to their judgment to retain the service elements well under control lest they revert to their homes and discover too late that there really is such a thing as a rolling kitchen.

The past week saw our initiation into the ways of the motor, under the painstaking tutelage of Colonel ing about in the kitchen are a llace's capable ass are a little befuddled in our nomenclature of things mechanical and a bad cold has set in to add to our troubles. We are sensitively aware of an overworked spraynozzle and an alarming knock has developed in our congestion chamber. Our gas-tank is low and there are already progressive symptoms of something gone askew in our float-chamber. We sprained a wrist-pin in the last graded test on supply trying to write fast enough to keep up with the situation before it tripped us. But these troubles weren't enough. Someone had to go and tell us we were all familiar with a wheatstone bridgestraight tactics wasn't bad enough. despite the trend toward motoriza- there but we expect to take the Our only salvation during the

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

1. Woe unto him in the Army of | much gold-bricking. Get thou to Samuel who complaineth of sickness! Yea, verily, though he rend his garments and tear out his beard in much assertion of affliction, yet no man believeth him, and from that day forth he is rated as a gold-brick.

2. Consider the case of Job, since transferred to the Philistine Baloon Corps. A private first class was he of upright life, who dodged not fatigue but was in all things well-off except his health.

3. For boils did afflict him and vex him mightily, yea, verily, boils and the dhobie itch.

4. Then went he unto the 1st sergeant, speaking meekly and saying: "Oh, thou who holdeth in charge the canteen checks, and guideth the destinies of the duty roster. See in me a man afflicted and weary of all life!"

5. "Thou the 1st sergeant, art great and merciful, thy power exceedeth of the sergeant major, for naught but a shave-tail commandeth the company."

6. "Grant then, that my name be enrolled in the book of the ailing. For thou sayeth to one 'Go,' and he goeth. And to another 'Come' and he jumpeth with much speed."

7. But the 1st sergeant was stony in his heart, for he had advance dope that the company was even then slated for fire-guard.

8. And he stated harshly "Not thou, but I, am the most miserable of men. For of late when I say to one 'Go,' he is feeling sick, and when I say to another 'Come,' he sayeth "I am marked quarters," and I am weary of driver."

the kitchen, perchance thy boils will hasten the making of the coffee."

9. Then was Job much downcast, but the company clerk, knowing his plight, inscribed his name on the sick-book when the 1st sergeant was at chow.

10. Know ye then that the Army of Samuel there be those whose skill in healing is great, and an angle worm with wings adorneth their collars.

11. For they possess a liquid more potent than that in the Pool of Jerusalem, by the fish-market. Who-so-ever is touched by it or anointed with this elixir become at once officially whole and fit for duty.

12. And its name is Io-Dine, which in the language of our fathers signified "I am in a hurry to play golf," but now-a-days is used to mean "Thou wilt recover, anywav."

13. And the leeches did pour this copiously over Job, till he resembled a bird-dog in spots, and for three days he shunned the sight of men, staying within his tent.

14. And then did he lament, which ye have heretofore read, called by the ancients the Lamentations of Job.

15. And he said "Truly a complaining soldier is like a cheap inner-tube, which still holdeth air." 16. "It is joyously replaced when it ceaseth to function, and even when it still performeth there is doubt exceeding in the mind of the

CHINESE RESTAURANTS

From THE SENTINEL-Tientsin

By Capt. David D. Barrett

(From The Sentinel—Tientsin) The experience of eating in a Chinese restaurant is one which every one who visits China or lives here for any length of time should certainly not miss. And if one is to get the most out of the experience, he should not select a restaurant which has been affected by foreign influence, but should seek one which caters exclusively Chinese trade. high-class then can the foreigner learn just how the gentle art of dining out is practiced in China, and while the experience may not be altogether enjoyable in every respect, it will certainly lack nothing in the way of interest.

It must be admitted that even the best of the genuine Chinese restaurants fall short in some respects of our standards as to dining places. First of all the entrance to most of them is through the kitchen, and Chinese restaurant kitchens, while they are able to produce some fine examples of the culinary art, would never win any prizes in a mess competition. The general impression one gets is of a dingy room with a dirty brick floor, walls black with the soot and smoke of years, and numbers of huge pots and pans whose interiors may be clean enough but the outside of which have apparently never known a scouring since the day they were bought. Standnumber of cooks and their ants. One judges them to be cooks because they are in a kitchen and are seen pottering around the stoves with ladles and other utensils in their hands, otherwise one might mistake them for ricksha coolies wearing aprons, if you can call a piece of ragged cloth assaying about twenty dollars a ton in grease spots an apron.

The billowing white caps, spotless linen coats, and volumnious starched aprons worn by first class foreign chefs are as conspicuous by their absence in a Chinese restaurant kitchen as are customers in an off-limits barroom.

After penetrating the kitchen and traversing a dark passageway, one reaches the room where the repast is to be served. If one is expecting anything in the way of resthetic appeal here he is almost invariably doomed to disappointment. The most he can hope for is that the place will be fairly clean. There may possibly be a pair of scrolls on the wall in the way of an attempt at decoration. The dining table and chairs generally comprise the only furniture of the room, though one occasionally finds a stand with a couple of vases, and sometimes a k'ang or couch extends along one wall for the benefit of those who, forgetful of Poor Richard's behest, "Eat not to dullness, drink not to elevation,' have dined not wisely but too well and may wish to take a little snooze between courses.

And the waiters! Here again I do not wish to be discouraging, but the truth compels me to admit that the average waiter in a real Chinese restaurant makes a pretty sorry picture. Instead of the unctuous person in decent black and spotless linen who serves us in good cafes at home, we generally find what appears to be another ricksha coolies in baggy trousers, soiled undershirt, sometimes wearing an apron. The waiters' aprons, when they have them, do not usually run as much in grease content as those of the cook and his assistants, but even so have too high a percentage of butter, hog, and other fats to suit the foreign

And now the poor foreigner, already somewhat staggered by the appearance of the kitchen and the waiters, is due for another blow, and that is the sight of the cloth with which the festal board is spread. What a contrast it is to the expanse of starched and snowy linen which we admire so much on dining tables at home. Almost invariably of a dingy gray color, usually thin and worn in texture and bearing on its surface the traces of numerous past feasts, the table cloth is one feature of a Chinese restaurant which few foreigners, even the most hardened old China hands, can endure, and the wise host usually brings one of his own with him.

But how about the food? Ah! now we come to a much brighter coming holidays is to change from a lean to a rich mixture. May the intake be manifold and may we have sense enough to stop typing this column before another pun like that calls forth an effort to supply us with the impetus coming from the rear, producing another rash on the rotunda.

(Please turn to page 7)

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY (Continued from page 6)

To Tactician Hones, orchids for his Battle of the Vulgarians at Mobley. To Contractor Meyer, Colonel Ima Dud Waterbury, Colonel Taylor, and to our company officer brethren who participated, but whose names escape us for the nonce, our gratitude for an entertaining and instructive performance despite a minimum of rehearsals.

M O N K E Y
FOR SALE
Phone 9473

CHINESE RESTAURANTS (Continued from page 6)

any form of Chinese cookery, no matter how good, the average foreigner can usually find much to enjoy among the many and varied dishes appearing on the menu.

The Chinese almost invariably begin the meal with melon seeds, side of the picture, one which I have purposefully saved until I had been able to get a description of the more unpleasant features off my chest. As far as the food is concerned, unless one has an extremely delicate stomach or is one of those persons who cannot stand fried walnut meats, and an assortment of cold dishes, such as cold meats, jellied chicken, and things of that sort, accompanied of course by tea. After the guests have picked lightly at these, the "big food" is brought on and the gins.

The kinds and varieties of dishes served in a Chinese restaurant are far too numerous for me to describe here. Furthermore I am frank to confess that there are many of them which I have never eaten, but there are several kinds which almost all foreigners seem to relish. Among these are turtles' egg soup, pigeons' eggs, roast duck with pan cakes, duck livers, chicken cut in cubes dipped in batter and fried in deep fat, sweet fish, prawns, and various forms of pork.

The pigeons' eggs, in addition to being very good to eat, also provide amusement because of the resistance they offer to chop sticks in the hands of the inexperienced. The eggs are rubbery in texture, and when covered with a slippery sauce are no easy articles to pick up and convey to the mouth with a pair of chop sticks.

Another favorite dish with foreigners is called "chicken velvet." This consists of chicken breast pounded and prepared with beaten eggs. It is a most tasty, and incidentally somewhat expensive, tickler of the palate.

The dishes I have just mentioned pass as rather ordinary fare among Chinese epicures. When we come to what the Chinese think of as delicacies we find birds' nest soup, whale's nose, sharks' fins, "silver ears," bears' paws and certain other rather strange dishes. The ones I have mentioned are really very good, especially the birds' nest soup. The "silver ears" are a species of fungi obtained by burying a log and letting it stay in the ground over a long period of time. The fungi growing on the log, which of course must be of a certain kind (the fungi, not the log), are made into a delicately flavored,

(Please turn to page 9)

We are very pleased to have the opportunity of serving you this Christmas — and hope that your Holiday Season may be the best and jolliest ever!

KINNETT'S products are sold at Benning at The Soda Fount and at the Officers' Club.

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

LOST—On road between Columbus and Benning—A Jacket to red evening dress. Reward—Phone 2472.

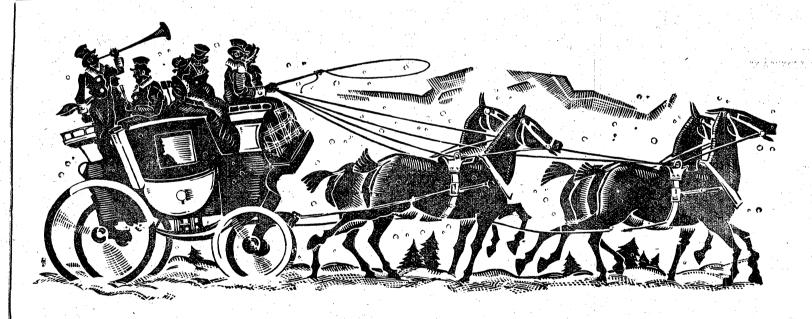

A Right Jolly Christmas To One And All!

and we sincerely hope your New Year may be the happiest and most prosperous one you've ever known.

BURRUS MOTOR CO.

AUTHORIZED DEALER

1222 FIRST AVENUE

to the Benning Personnel we extend Best Wishes for a Very Merry Xmas

Happy New Year!

NEWS OF THE SPORT WOR

Freebooters Better Position In Polo

the Fort Benning polo race when they met and defeated the mallet for a ten day furlough. wielders from the 83rd Field Artillery Sunday afternoon on French Field. The 83rd Reds fought hard throughout the six-chukker contest, but were unable to cope with the team-work of the Freebooters, los-

In the second game of the afternoon the 24th Infantry Whites, who upset the dope-bucket last week by downing the strong Freebooters, went into a slump and ended their game with the 29th Infantry in a 6-6 tie. An extra period of play was called for, but on mutual consent of both teams was not played. Both games were in preparation of the opening of the regular post polo league next month.

A large crowd of fans from Cothe contests.

83 rd F. A.

Three quarters of the outfit has The Freebooters advanced once decided it wishes to be near dear more toward a leading position in ones when old Santa comes to pay a visit, so all very politely put in

The First Sergeant took a furthis furlough for a hunting trip as he usually does or did he take it just for the rest? "No"! He took this little pass to get "married", Wow! Was every one around here surprised? Right now the happy its congratulations and wishes them all the luck in the world.

Wth but a few days from Christmas there is still a tough job wide-open playing of Hq. Co. in ahead; that is a night problem this the second half, when they advanccoming Thursday. So far on the last two problems we have been getting a wet skin but communications were a hundred per cent thereby up-holoding the honor of lumbus and Fort Benning witnessed the Battery, "No matter what the conditions are it always functions".

Eco Is Defeated By Spare Parts Of Headquarter Co.

A well-crowned head fell into the dust in the regimental basketball lough of fifteen days. Did he take league of the 29th Infantry last week, when the Spare Parts of Headquarters Company toppled Co.

E from its eight-year-old throne by a one-point victory, and then go on to take the organizaton title by couple is honeymooning down in downing Brady Bombers from 1st Florida. The whole Battery offers Bn. Hq. by the score of 48-26. The Bn. Hq. by the score of 48-26. The Bombers had previously lost to E Co. by the score of 31-28.

The game was featured by the ed from a two point lead to their overwhelming win. During the first two periods it took all the team work and defense that the Spare Parts had in their systems to prevent Baby Ray and Ripper Snead who were responsible for the majority of the Bombers points. In the second half, however, Bigler tore loose to score twelve points, and place the spare parts in the

It was a wonderful game all the way, and showed up a wealth of new material for the post league, which is scheduled to begin after the Christmas holidays.

In the past two weeks two more men joined from the Recruit Center and were cordially welcomed into our fold.

The old Maestro before signing off wishes one all the "Merriest of all Christmas's". (It ought to be the merriest with the eighteenth Amendment repealed).

BATTERY "C"

The Editor of the Herald Blue penciled our notes last week, and this leaves us somewhat puzzled as to whether or not this will appear in the paper, but if it does we wish to announce that the Battery will give their last dance for 1933, on Saturday night, December 23rd.

A mystery in the First Platoon is a recruit who went to bed at night with his underwear on and awoke next morning without it as yet none knows what became of it.

At last we have the necessary dirt to complete the drain at the stables. Can not let the horses in the paddock now until fence is raised because the Stable Sargeant fears that they might rove out of the paddock and get hurt.

Some of the hearts were saddened when news came out that they could not get furloughs until the mimic war is over.

The old Artillerymen looked at one another on the last road march when word came to put the saddle on the horse three fingers widths from the point of the saddle.

When told at an hourly halt to remove the collar Pads from the Horses neck, one recruit took the collar pads of the collar and held them in his hand.

BATTERY "A

Continuing their winning streak the battery basketball team routed Headquarters Battery and Battery "C" to win the Battalion Tournament with four victories to no defeats.

The other day when the Battery spent the day in the field, Pvt. Monk was trying to feed his horse using the lining of a saddle bag for a nose bag. If Sgt. B. McRae hadn't happened along in time the poor nag would have missed dinner in a big way.

All the men are planning and plotting for Xmas, that 15% cut is going to rob a lot of gals out of presents this year.

The Battery wishes all its friends a very Merry Christmas.

29 th Inf.

Time is tempusing very fugitly around H Company, the anticipation of the Xmas holidays probably has a lot to do with it

The members of the company consider themselves very lucky to have caught their fire guard a week prior to the Xmas week, and well they may.

The grand rush for the Big City has been rather slack to date, but have a feeling this is merely a lull before the storm.

"Warhorse" Scott has taken up the gentle art of tap-dancing, and any time you hear a thunderous clamor emerging from the general direction of the kitchen that will be Scott agitating his puppies.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY Headquarters Company basketball team nosed out the Company team by a 37 to 36 score on (Please turn to page 9)

Ross Is Leader In Turkey Tourney

The golf tourney for the officers ofthe post, which was held on the Officers' Club course Saturday and Sunday, with more than 60 contestants playing, ended yesterday afternoon with Captain Fay Ross leading the field to take the first turkey of fifteen which were ofered as prizes.

The tourney was held over the 18 hole course, match play aganst handicaps. Other winners in the contest were Captain Alexander H. Cummings, Captain Harvey J. Golightly, Lieutenant James R. Pierce, Captain William R. Watson, Lieutenant Claude D. Collins, Captain Ralph B. Lovett, Major William W. Eagles, Lieutenant Jesse E. Traywick, Lieutenant Henry C. Britt, Lieutenant James P. Hulley, Lieutenant Francis E. Howard, Captain Walter C. Phillips, Captain Howard N. Merrill, and Captain John A. Andrews, each of whom received a ten-pound turkey as prize.

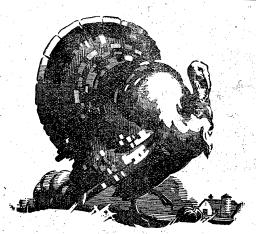

TO OUR BENNING FRIENDS ...

We hope that we may expect a continuance of your patronage during the coming year,

MAXWELL OPTICAL CO.

DR. I. A. MAXWELL BROADWAY

When You Go After His Royal Highness

don't take a chance of becoming go od material tor E. F. R. and the FLARE! Take along Xpert shells and you'll bring home the gobbler. Xpert always gets the game — and it will afford you more pleasure from your sport by being the most dependable shell you ever used.

WESTERN XPERT

THE SHELL THAT GETS THE GAME

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service

This Year

May your Christmas be truly a Merry one and your

New Year Happy and prosperous

The Schwob Co. The Standard Tailoring Co. 1037 Broadway

Columbus

The Twenty-Ninth Infantry Orchestra, directed by Warrant Officer Horton, which plays a prominent part in the musical activities of the Post, and which participates in the Benning broadcasts which are a feature over WRBL.

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 8)

Tuesday, December 19, 1933, at the Post Gym in a fast exciting game which kept spectators in an uproar until the final whistle. It was the first victory over Company "E" and will probably eliminate them from championship prospects after a reign of eight years as basketball champions.

It was a fine game cleanly played by both sides and Headquarters congratulates "E" Company on its splendid team.

Eleven members of the regiment successfully passed the telephone electricians examination for entrance to the Signal School, out of thirty-three enlisted men in the entire Infantry. Of these eleven there were six from this company who made the grade namely: Louis R. Armstrong (second in the Infantry) John D. Coen, John Camp, Dexter L. Greeson, Clyde L. Holloway, and Riley H. Bozeman.

Congratulations to the members of the Regimental Football team on their splendid showing during the past season and wishes for a great season next year.

CHINESE RESTAURANTS (Continued from page 7)

if somewhat watery soup.

I have heard much about the thousand year old eggs, but have never eaten or seen them served. Eggs boiled in tea are, however, a common dish. They are black in color, but taste just like ordinary hard boiled eggs.

It is the Chinese custom to serve the soup at the end rather than at the beginning of the meal, and this course often partakes considerably of the nature of desert as well as soup. A common form is "lotus seed soup," which is really a sort of hot sweet congee, very tasty. Other favorite dessert-soups are orange soup and chrysanthemum soup. In the last, the chrysanthemum petals are scattered over the soup after it is brought to the table in a brazier. After the soup the Chinese very sensibly top off the meal with fruit, often accompanied by cakes.

(To be continued in an early issue)

Dr. R. H. Brown

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg.

Phones: Office 4108 Res. 1153

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

We Make RUBBER STAMPS COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

A Nery Merry Christmas

to our

Kriends At Benning

It has been a great pleasure to us to have been of assistance to you.

Leading Furniture Dealer in Columbus for Forty Years

24th Infantry

club, 24th Inf., gave, on Saturday evening December 16th at 8:00 P. M., in their Club Room, a gettogether party. Refreshments were served. The first orchestra 24th Infantry, furnished splendid music for the occasion. The Secretary, Sergeant Willie B. Wood. hought so much of the party, that after putting forth every effort to put it on, failed to be present. But the surprise of all was that the party was a success. All those who did not enjoy themselves meet us at our club room in the near future and enjoy yourself then. The club will hold its annual election of officers on Tuesday evening December 19th. All members who are anxious and want to make the club a hundred percent club, be present. Of all our Staff noncommissioned officers First Sergeant William B. Smith, Company 'F" is the only True Blue in the ot. Sgt. Smith attended the party and enjoyed himself. Congratulations, Sgt. Smith.

-F. A. Jackson

COMPANY "A"

Private Melachi N. Nobles spent most delightful week-end in Montgomery, Alabama. The boys are wondering what kind of a line

Pvt. 1cl Henry T. Day (Whipper-with-a-nine) is enjoying himself on a one month furlough in Columbus, Ga. Be careful Whipper.

Pvt. Willie Johnson (Adjutant), swears he has the next vacancy for Pvt. 1cl. sewed up in a bag. Bit doubtful, Adjutant.

On Wednesday December 13th, Corporals Jackson and Fritz, two very good friends were in close McCain. He couldn't possibly feed conversation. For some reason Corporal Jackson slapped Corporal Fritz with such force that the echo resounded throughout the building. Corporal Fritz sprang to his feet and said: "Just for that don't you ever speak to me again." But now it seems these boys are better friends than ever.

Old '98 (Mess Sgt. Pearl Johnson) is preparing for his retirement from active service in the early spring of 1934. In the mean time more than two Pvt. 1cl.'s. three Corporals and two Sergeants are working to fill his vacancy. Now just who will be the lucky soldier-we can't say at this time but keep your eyes on Pvt. 1cl.

worse than Old '98

First Lieutenant Albert H. Dickerson, our company commander is on 15 days leave in Miami, Florida. Certainly hope he is enjoying himself in the Garden Spot of Ameri-

Pvt. Ralph Deese (Belly) has placed his request for a two months furlough. According to the way he boards in Old '98's Mess Hall don't see how he can stay out there so long. Beter take your Rations along, Belly.

Pvt. 1cl. Witherspoon (Dummy) had Pvt. Dale of Co. "F" kidnaped (Please turn to page 10)

GREETINGS!

and our very best wishes for a Mérry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year!

We will be glad to have your continued patronage in 1934.

COLLINS BAKING COMPANY

1144 13th St.

Just To Extend Our Best HOLIDAY GREETING

To The

FORT BENNING COMMUNITY

Georgia Power Company

Columbus, Ga.

R. M. Harding, Manager

The orchestras had a breathing spell last week, playing only six dances. We anticipate the week of weeks beginning Monday the 25th instant, and if the precedent estabevery night except Sunday, which will probably be taken otherwise.

By next year we are going to make an effort to contact our Senators and Congressmen with a view to having a law passed prohibiting more than two dances during the holidays, thus enabling an orchestra man to take a short trip of a few days the same as other sold-

The proverbial Christmas serenade will begin at 4:00 o'clock

Christmas morning as usual. The Band will serenade the Commandant, all regimental officers, patients at the hospital, nurses at their quarters, residents of Johnson Street and Block 45 and weather permitting will probably proceed as usual to Columbus, Georgia where members of the regiment may reside.

24TH INFANTRY (Cotninued from page 9)

so he could get his job back as fireman at the 24th Infantry's Thea-1st Sgt. Moore delighted in giving the boys new ideas in "Sheik-Pvt. 1cl. Bernard is taking lessons in boxing after getting licked by Pvt. (Complaint) Thomas.

COMPANY "C'

Sgt. Kelley has just finished making his radio cabinet. If he hadn't been noticed working on it in the store-room, it wouldn't have been believed that he was equal to the task. Really, his cabinet is very much like the factory made cabinet we have in the recreation room.

The men of the Regiment are daily engaged in decorating and all manner of other necessary duties which will serve so well to make our portion of Ft. Benning Christmas a success.

Co. 'C" 24th Infantry send Greeting to all for a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

COMPANY "E"

If in doubt as to whom the officer of the day will be during the approaching holidays, ask the following: Pvt. 1cl. Johnnie Martin, Pvt. 1cl. Jimmie Lee, Pv.t John W. Slater and Pvt. Richardson S. Green. They have each received their Christmas presents in advance. The Company Commander awarded from three to seven days, restriction, (6, 8 and 10 o'clock check) respectively. Each individual accepted with a smile.

"E" Company's basketball team is still winning and expecting to wind up at the Top. On December 14th, the team won a very interesting game from Headquarters Company, 25 to 19, Pvt. Moore Major, Headquarters Co., guarded Johnson so close until it was thought they had gone into wedlock. Yes sir! That boy is to be commended on his splendid playing. Johnson tried numerous tricks but always found Moore Major, in defense.

Sergeant Joseph Clark, was on Special Duty, with the Chemical Warfare Company, from December 11 to 15 inclu ive, taking a course in Gas Defense.

-Rufus E. Williams

COMPANY "F"

Very glad to have one of our best non-commissioned officers, Corporal Benjamin Adams, back from C. C. Duty. The Corporal is in the pink of condition, seemingly weighing about 100 pounds plus. The Supply Sergeant had to draw him a brand new outfit. Here's wishing all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. May the incoming year be one the happiest to you and yours.

-Jno. W. Jones.

COMPANY "G"

"And the House of David Shall That fast and seemingly supernatural quintet of speed and acuracy known as G Company's basketball team is still singing that ole motto as has been adopted by the team. "We came, we saw, we upon the field of honor between enough but that's the limit. Companies "A" and "G" for the ling which of deci the Company demonstrated in no un-Company "A's" ponies. After the smoke of battle had cleared enough so that the score board might be seen it was Company A 14-Company G 70. Now ain't that somethin'?

Now that Thanksgiving day has passed Mess Sergeant Wright assisted by Corp. Porter and a staff of capable cooks and food specialists are preparing for the soldier's big day, Christmas. At one o'clock Chirstmas day the tables in the company dining salon will be groaning under the weight of out of the dining hall with his dirty pounds of food that would do justice to the Hotel Astorbilt in New sciousness after he had entered the York. The wives and lady friends squadroom and had been pronounce take of the bountiful meal at which the proverbial turkey will be the leading entertainer.

The members of the organization are looking forward to the Christmas holidays. "Hamp" has decided that he will make Reveille each morning so that he will remain accustomed to it. The Kingfish has stated that he will either go to New York or Columbus Georgia. -Sgt. William W. Hodges.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The Company is very busy preparing for the Yuletide, being blessed in having the same personnel present and enjoying the best of health, as last Christmas, with the exception of a few retirements.

The Company, as a whole, wishes to congratulate the members of the Headquarters Company Basketball team for their fine qualities in sportmanship. We believe that they put forth their best efforts in every game to defeat their competitors and we know that they did well. Here's hoping for a strong pennant-winning team for 1934. ONWARD!

The work on our new barracks is rapidly progressing and judging from the blueprints, they will take their place with the most modern constructed anywhere in the worlld.

Christmas Greetings are extended by the Headquarters Company to Fort Benning, Columbus, other members of the regiment and to the world at large, and the Enlisted Men's Club, of the Headquarters Company, 24th Infantry also extends to all a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year. Here's for 100 Per Cent Membership during the year 1934. Club Motto: "We Lead -Others Follow". D. E. Oliver, President; John Morris, Secretary. -Louis A. Scipio.

SERVICE COMPANY

Corporal William Brown has finished his Gas Course with the Chemical Warfare Section, and made a very creditable showing in the final tests Friday. "And believe me" says he "that stuff ain't nothing to play with".

Private James A. Hughes, the ong book man from the Pelican State, chucked everything and hopped off Tuesday aftrenoon for a two months vacation in Opelousas,

Our handsome Top Kick is "seeing" a hard time these days without his specs. You must be more careful with those little essentials, Decano. Ok! ok! We won't argue about it, just go ahead and report 'us". You know you lost your glasses and slapped the telephone off the desk and said "scat".

Quite a few of the boys are going hunting these days. Rabbits and quail are the inspiration, but it seems that a full grown rabbit can outwit these baby Gigolos.

Yes sir! a rabbit is a cunning little fellow. Private Liff Johnson took his Rabbit dogs out hunting a few days ago and it took him four days to find them.

"Private Smith" - "Yes sir" "What's your alibi for missing Reveille again this morning". if I had known it was fifteen minutes later I could have made it, etc." "What!!" Can you imagine conquered." At the recent meeting that man. Now, Smitty, enough's Private "Army" must think the a mag two teams was the better, "G" my dear boy, could he give you but a feather-edge? Houdini couldn't certain manner what it thought of make hair grow on that dome after all these years.

BAND

The band has accepted the fact that musicians are supposed to be crazy but a definite conclusion or rather decision has not been made as to which is the crazier, a reed or brass performer. So far the reed men have a slight edge on the brass thanks to Pfc. Ricks who, with his usual unconsciousness and uncanny ability to pull off bonehead stunts. sauntered lazily and complaisantly plate in his hand and regaining conof the men will be invited to par- ed insane by the brass players.

NEW BOOKS (Continued from page 3)

action fanned by the conflicting emotions of these quiet people, leap lished last year is followed there from tongue to tongue. Some of the people affected are seared will be a regimental club dance and ravaged, some greater for the experience some roughly tumbled out of security, but every one and the reader among them, is stirred and enriched by contact with power.

To sum it up Bonfire is a drama of living, fascinating because it is real and in the end the author has made no attempt to solve

OIL FOR THE LAMPS OF CHINA

By Alice Tisdale Hobart

Oil for the Lamps of China is a novel of amazing scope. Mrs. know Chinese life will find in it Hobart has lived in China since 1910 and is thus peculiarly able colors that has been painted by a to set one civilization against another for the illumination of both.

Stephen Chase, a young mining an American oil company oper- pact of the East and West.

ating in China, sets himself with all his Western enthusiasm and self-confidence to the service of the company. He is loyal to the organization and sincerely believes that it is bringing with its oil lamps and modern commercial methods, progress and comfort to China's submerged millions. The book would be worth reading if it contained no other tragedy than that of Stephen Chase at 40, with a wife and child to care for, with no chance to get a new start forced to accept a demotion.

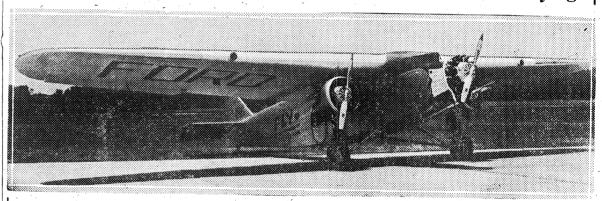

This book stands half way between Pearl Buck's novels of peasant life and Nora Waln's life among the aristocrats in "House of Exile." It pictures all types of Chinese life with a rare sympathy and balance. Readers who the best picture of life in its true Westerner. It can be recommended without reservation as one of the most vibrant, challenging books engineer, who takes a job with that has resulted from the im-

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

IN THE BIG FORD TRI-MOTOR AIRLINER

SATURDAY, SUNDAY & MONDAY MUNICIPAL AIRPORT

Giant Ford Tri-Motor Transportation Plane—Continuous Flying

Pictured above is the famous FORD TRI-MOTOR TRANSPORT PLANE that will be here for three days so that Columbus residents may enjoy the thrills of an airplane ride for only a small sum. This giant all-metal plane has a wing spread of 74 feet and a carrying capacity of 12 passengers and a crew of two. It is powered by three of the famous Wright Whirlwind motors and cost $50,000.

DON'T LAUGH! This is not a joke or advertising stunt, you can take a regular 50c ride for 15c. On our last visit here our patronage was so disappointing that we dropped our regular $1 rides to 50c, to determine whether it was the price or fear that kept the people from taking a ride in this palatial air liner.

We have found that price is the determing factor. In order that everyone in Columbus may enjoy an airplane ride, we have brought the price within the reach of the smallest pocketbook.

SCHEDULE OF RATES

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23

11 a. m. to Noon 15c 12 to 1 p. m. 25c 3 to 5 p. m. 50c

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 24

8 a. m. to 9 a. m. 15c 9 to 10 a. m. 25c 10 to 11 a. m. 35c 11 to 12 p. m. 45c 12 until 5 p. m. 50c

MONDAY, DECEMBER 25

8 a. m. to 9 a. m. .. 15c 9 to 10 a. m. 25c 10 to 11 a. m. 35c 11 to 12 p. m. 45c 12 until 5 p. m. 50c

> COME EARLY — GET A RIDE FOR ONLY 15c

RAY LOOMIS

Ray Loomis, former air-mail pilot and graduate of the U.S. Army flying field at San Antonio, Texas, will pilot the Ford tri-motored plane while in Columbus.

THE FLARE (Continued from page 1)

and rattling along in somebody's Second Mount near the northeast corner of the Reservation. About 2:00 P. M. Madame Kraft received a telephone call from Eelbeck. The message was from her Hunter Husband, and was to the effect that their car had broken down and had she take the Family Flivver and of Eelbeck at 3:00 P. M. until that hour.—The curtain is now lowered to indicate the passing of three hours. The Shades of night have also descended—Colonel Tut-Ankh-Amen Tucker, who was touring along the Buena Vista Road in gathering gloaming, heard long and loud honks of an auto horn coming from a side road leading to the Eelbeck Cemetery. Tuck investigated and found Mrs. Kraft impatiently parked in the black shadows by the burying ground. The Chivalrous Colonel assures us that it is his fixed opinion that the Shrieks of the Siren (Neuter Gender) were made for the purpose of signallin gto the Shooters and that the hoarse honking of the horn was not done to banish Banshees or frighten gruesome Ghouls from the Grave Yard. The sputtering Spouse had been there since 3:00 and was Fair Fed Up. Tucker tried to persuade the lady that the Hunters had hitch-hiked to the Post, and to make sure, they proceeded to Eelbeck and Mrs. K. phoned the other wives. The Missing Men had not yet arrived home and there was much "to-do'. the course of an hour or so, the wilds near Eelbeck were full of Wives wildly hunting their husbands. All four Hunters finally appeared and the united families returned to the Post. There was no Combined Family Feast, howtotal of three small birds.

BEAU BRUMMEL MISTAKEN FOR BELVIDERE

The Second Battalion of the 29th was having one of its Pretentious Parades a week ago and the specacular Ceremony had reached that stage where the Adjutant strides to his post to present the Battalion to the C. O. Beau Brummel Bowbeen towed to the Garage. Would en was the Adjutant on this occasion and just as he gave the commeet them at Cemetery just north | mand "Present Arms" in stentorian tones, one of the newer officers Hunters would continue to Hunt in the Regiment, who was standing censoriously in Skinner's Row was heard to ask one of his brother Harpies "Is that Adjutant Lieutenant Bowen or Lieutenant Brady? can't tell them apart.'

ARMY AIN'T SO AWFUL

With those of us in the Service who think we have Hard Sledding with Post Exchange bills and Post Community Chest, the following etter from an Exchange should go a long way toward making us more ontent with our comparatively cloistered condition.

"A Gordonsville, Va., business man received this week the followng letter from one of his debtors n reply to several courteous requests for settlement:

"I am enclosing $4.00 on my account that is much past due, but wish to inform you that the presant shattered condition of my bank account makes it impossible for me to send you my check in full in response to your request. My present financial condition is due to the effect of Federal Laws, State Laws, County Laws, Corporaion Laws, By-Laws, Brother-inaws, Mother-in-laws and Outlaws, hat have been foisted upon an unuspecting public. Through the various laws I have been held down, held up, sat upon, walked upon, lattened, squeezed and broke unno Combined Family Feast, how-ever, for the Day's Bag had a grand I am, or why I am. These laws compel me to pay a merchants' tax, corporation tax, real estate tax, auo tax, property tax, gas tax, light ax, water tax, school tax, liquor ax and carpet tax.

In addition to these laws I am requested and required to contribite to every society and organizaion that the inventive mind of man an invent. I give to the society of St. John the Baptist, the woman's relief, the children's home, the pro-freemans' benefit, the Dorcas Society and the Gold Diggers

The Government has governed my business so that I do not know who owns it. I am suspected, expected, inspected, disrespected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, commanded and compelled until all I know is that I am supposed to provide an inexpensive supply of money for every known and unknown need, desire or love of the human race and because I refuse to donate to all and go out and beg borrow or steal the money to give away, I am ousted, cursed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, held up, held down and robbed until I am just about ruined. The only reason I am clinging to life is to see what is coming next.''

SEASON'S GREETINGS

The Flare wishes its readers a most Merry Christmas and a Happier New Year.

Make this Christmas a jollier and merrier one by keeping bottled Coca-Cola on hand - in the SIX BOX of course! Serve it frequently, and serve it on every occasion—it is equally appropriate at all

BOTTLED COCA-COLA — THE WORLD'S MOST POPULAR DRINK IN ITS MOST POPULAR FORM

The Six-Box is sold by all Columbus grocers

Subscribe to the Benning Herald

Arrangements are being made in YOUR Company to have a Company Correspondent dish up the news in the Herald; NOW is the time to subscribe, and it's easy, too, for you can "pay as you go" — in three or two payments — one a month.

The Price Is Only

per year

(JAWBONE)

That are ideal for "Last Minute" Shoppers

- ^c Perfumes—Coty, Houbigant, Yardley, Chateau du Parc.
- Bridge Cards.
- Kodaks and Cameras.
- ^c Compacts.
- Electric Heaters Toasters Waffle Irons - Percolators - Warming Pads.
- Parker Pens and Pencils.
- Pocket Knives and Scout Axes.
- Stationery Toys

And Many Other Equally Appropriate and Acceptable Gifts.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service.

Metcalf's

Organization

Wishes the entire

Personnel of

Ft. Benning

A Merry Christmas

and a

Prosperous New Year

DENNING

VOL. III

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1933

Major General E. L. King Dies Suddenly

Fort Benning Has Joyful Observance Of Christmas Dav

A colorful old medieval custom, rich in legendary lore, was observed by the Officers' Club Thursday evening when the Infantry School Hunt, led by Captain Negrotto and accompanied by a pack of belling hounds, dragged into the club lobby a sturdy old Yule log, lighted it from a brand preserved from last year's Yule fire, and as the log burned brightly in the large, open fireplace, the members of the club shook the rafters with the mellow old strains of old Christmas songs and hunting melodies. Captain Negrotto then told the story of the origin of the burning of the Yule log-how it first came into existence as a Nordic ceremony and how it was later adopted by the hunt club of England, where the historic old feudal lords would come in from their hunt and hang the game about the great hall, and after the Yule log was lighted they made merry with singing, story-telling, drinking, and banquetting. When Captain Negrotto finished the story, the game which the Benning hunters had bagged was hung before the fireplace, a brand from the Yule log was put aside for the lighting of next year's log, and the entire club membership was then served dinner amid the playing by the Twenty-ninth Infantry orchestra of the Christmas carols.

The feeling that Christmas was at last here 'was realized by the enlisted men when they received word that their holidays would begin earlier than had been expect-The Twenty-Ninth Infantry, scheduled to stage a mounted regimental parade Saturday morning, were relieved from that and other duties on Saturday. It was on Friday also that the toys gathered by the Women's Welfare Council and the Parent-Teachers Association and renovated by the firemen the various homes of little folk on the post so that on Christmas Eve night old Santa will not have to burden his back with having to carry so many extra playthings about the post.

dren of Fort Benning, found Santa of the legendary Pied Piper of Hamelin. The post Christmas tree, the annual event at Benning which holds an undisputed place deepest down in the hearts of the tots of the post, reigned supreme Theatre. Each and every child at the party received gifts of candy, apples, oranges, nuts, and other fellow Santa Claus himself. Santa then brushed back the snow-white locks from his attentive ears and gave the little ones the much-looked-forward-to opportunity to whisper their final requests as to what to bring them on Christmas.

A special Yuletide program was presented Christmas Eve morning

New Year Greetings To Each One Of You 1934

The Benning Herald

at the Protestant Chapel of Benof Benning were distributed among ning, with special vocal and instrumental music. The Children's Choir sang Christmas Carols, and the Ralph Cotton Stringed Quartet from Columbus will render several selections of old classic melo-Saturday, given over to the childies and Yuletide strains. Sunday quired during the year. (None were evening there was the Secretary's recorded as being policed). Claus with a following of happy, "at home" at the Officers' Club carefree children that rivalled that from 8:00 P. M. until 12:00. This was featured by the "Little Dutch Band" which played such jolly old "Stille Nacht," German tunes as "Stille Nacht," "O Tannenbaum." "Dutch Band," and "Ach du Lieber Augustin," and tots of the post, reigned supreme the singing by the members of Saturday afternoon at the Main the club of the Christmas Carols. The party held away until nearly midnight, when it retired to the Catholic Chapel for Midnight Mass. tasty sweets from that jolly old Here the majestic music of the Gregorian Chant, as sung in the Vatican at Rome, rolled forth for the first time from the throats of a male choir at a military post. Softly glowing candles lighted the tableau near the altar, where, in a manger, lay the image of the Infant in commemoration of whose

(Please turn to'page 8)

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The Ladies' Riding Class gave an exhibition of their abilities ac-

The Infantry School News published its first special edition of 18 pages to celebrate Christmas.

History was made by the prespost theatre. (The history being the presentation of the stage play by the Dramatic Club not so long

The Freebooters dropped two football games, one to the 1st Batts, 29th, and the other to the 2d Batts of the same outfit, scores being 65-0 and 80-6 with Romploski and Johnson holding a track when returning punts.

Organization of the first Boy Scout troops at the post loomed on the horizon as a call for prospective members was broadcast.

Tank Weekly Puts Out Attractively Printed Edition

The Tanker, mimeographed organ of the 66th and Company F of the 67th Infantry at Fort Benning issued its first issue last dant. Prior to his assignment to ning issued its first issue last week with printed covers.

The Tanker, which is the result of a great deal of enterprise on entation of "The Bad Man" at the the part of several members of the ironclad outfit, has been issued for several years in mimeographed form, with covers stencil-drawn by artists of the regiment. In its new jacket, the paper begins operation as a semi-monthly, with the cover printed by the Twenty-Fourth Infantry Print Shop instead of being mimeographed as before.

The Tanker contains articles by several writers in the regiment, by Chaplain Willis T. Howard and company notes from each of the organization's units. The supervis-

(Please turn to page 4)

Fourth Corps Area Commander Dies At Fort McPherson

Major General Edward L. King, commanding officer of the 4th Corps Area, died suddenly at Fort. McPherson on Wednesday, December 27, from a heart attack which occurred as he was hunting on the reservation.

General King was quite well known among the personnel at Fort Benning, as he has visited here numerous times, both privately and in his capacity as corps area commander, and the news of his death was received with regret.

Since he entered the Military Academy as a cadet in 1892, General King, had acquired a notable record as a soldier, holding the Distinguished Service Cross, the Croix de Guerre with palm, a citation for gallantry in the Philippine Insurrection, was an Officer of the Legion of Honor, and several other citations for his service in the World War.

General King was born in Bridgewater, Mass., on Dec. 5, 1873, and at the time of his death had just passed his 60th birthday. While a cadet at the Military Academy he was noted as an outstanding athlete, and was captain of the football team for two years. He also served for one season as head coach of the Army team in burden his back with having to During the World War he was on duty with the 28th Division as chief of staff, and was instrumental in checking the advance of the German Army in the Marne defensive. Later in the conflict he was promoted to brigadier-general, (temporary), and served on the Somme and in the Meuse-Argonne as commander of the 65th Infantry of the 33rd Division, (Illinois National Guard).

His service includes a period as aide to Brigadier General E. V. Sumner in the department of Colorado in 1898, and the same assignment as aide to Major General H. W. Lawton in Santiago, Cuba, in the same year.

In 1921, after serving with the Army of Occupation in Germany, he was detailed to duty as director of the Army War College, and later sent to the Cavalry School command of the 4th Area he served as commandant of the Command and General Staff School, at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

General King's death came quite without warning as he was participating in a drag hunt over the Fort McPherson course. Dismounting from his horse he complained of feeling faint, and was hurried to the post hospital, where his death occurred very shortly.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Edward L. King, who before her marriage was Miss Nancy Vose Sumner, of Harrisburg, Penn., and a daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Andrews, who at the present time is with her husband, Lieutenant

(Please turn to page 8)

ESOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN THE SECOND SECO

New Year's Eve Party To Provide Merriment At Officers Club This Week

Year's morning. Every available for the evening were: spot of the club will be used to acmake this occasion a huge success. The guests will arrive at twelve Clark, Shelby Williams. and supper will be served shortly after. An out of town orchestra has been engaged. There will be specialty numbers with confetti and serpentine to add to the gay spirit.

Among the many guests reserving table are: Lt. Col. and Mrs. Hall, Maj. and Mrs. Hobson, Maj. and Mrs. Selleck, Maj. and Mrs. Barrett, Capt. and Mrs. Perry, Capt. and Mrs. De Pass, Capt. and Mrs. Otto, Lt. and Mrs. Rosebaum, Lt. and Mrs. Dunn, Lt. and Mrs. Emery, Lt. and Mrs. O. H. Bennett, Lt. and Mrs. Rutte, Lt. and Mrs. Fitts, Mr. J. E. Chancellor. SUB-DEB PARTY HELD WED-NESDAY EVENING AT THE OFFICERS' CLUB On Wednesday evening the Officers' Club entertained the younger girls and boys at Ft. Benning with an enjoyable supper dance. The youngsters arrived at 6:30 for supper and danced until 9:30.

The club was attractively decorated in the holiday notes with holly and mistletoe forming the back ground. Reserving tables for their sub deb daughters were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Kraft, Capt. and Mrs. Morris De Pass, Capt. and Mrs. H. M. Monroe, Lt. Andrew

COL. AND MRS. PERSONS EN-TERTAIN THE REGIMENTAL RIDES WITH DANCE CHRIST-MAS EVENING

Colonel and Mrs. Wm. E. Persons were the hosts Christmas evening when they entertained the group of regimental brides at a delightful dance at the Polo Hunt Club.

A receiving line consisted of the honorees and Colonel and Mrs. Persons formed to welcome the guests. For the occasion the club was decorated with bunches of holly and mistletoe tied with bright red rib-

The ideal dessert - made under ideal conditions that's Kinnett's Ice Cream! Made in all popular flavors and to special order in fancy molds.

Sold at the SODA FOUNT and the OFFICERS' CLUB

Completing the Officers' Club bons garlands of red paper draped full holiday program will be the the lights, while at each end of night club dance which will be be- the club were gay Christmas trees. gun at the stroke of midnight New The young brides sharing honors from thence the sauce to meat is game, is played by two guests sim-

Mesdames Richard Hunt, Wm. commodate the merry makers and McNulty, Thomas Hannah, Walter tireless efforts are being made to Huntsberry, Carl Macherey, Raymond Kendall, David Gray, Ernest and every person takes his chop fingers extended. Thus the idea

COTILLION CLUB OF COLUM-BUS HOLD COLORFUL MAS QUERADE BALL CHRISTMAS

The Columbus Country Club was the scene Christmas evening of one of the most delightful affairs of the holidays when the Cotilion Club entertained with a masquerade ball. Miss Betty Williams president of the club served as hostess for the evening.

The ball room decorations were outstandingly attractive, the color scheme being blue and silver.

During the evening a number of specialty numbers were given while at midnight masks were removed and the grand march was held. Leading the march was Miss Williams and her escort James Huff. While the line of colorful costumes marched prizes were awarded for the two most outstanding. Mrs. Bell Gardner, Mrs. Jefferson Box, Mrs. Barschall Andrews and Mrs. Geo. Phillips were the judges. The young ladies who are members of the Cotillion Club are Miss Betty Williams, Miss Helen Flournoy, Miss Dorothy Fletcher, Miss Lenora Dismukes, Miss Louisa Cargill, Miss Louise Hart, Miss Eliz. Gardner, Miss Martha Hunt, Miss Florence Garrard, Miss Jane Fox, Miss Loaine McLaughin, Miss Almarine Slade, Miss Mary Barnes, Miss Jeanne Freeman, Miss Sara Brown, Miss Eleanor Young, Miss Martha Hunt.

OFFICERS' CLUB HOLDS FOR-MAL DINNER DANCE ON THURSDAY EVENING

Numbered among the most enjoyable affairs of the crowded holiday program at the Officers' Club was the dinner dance Thursday evening. Contrary to the usual Thursday evening dinner dances this week's affair was begun at 8 p. m. and dancing continued until twelve.

A number of guests from Columbus and Fort Benning assembled to enjoy this delightful affair. Among those reserving tables were: Col. and Mrs. W. R. Wheeler, Major and Mrs. Thomas G. Hearne, Major and Mrs. James W. Duckworth, Major and Mrs. Fred M. Fogle, Major and Mrs. Francis Bonham, Capt. and Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Lt. and Mrs. Claude Ferenbaugh, Lt. and Mrs. W. G. Johnson, Lt. Gaylord Phipps, Lt. and Mrs. Earl Macherey, Mr. W. C. McKee.

PERSONALS

Lt. and Mrs. Phillip Draper are spending the Christmas holidays as the house guest of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Woodruff of Columbus. Lt. Draper is stationed at West Point, N. Y.

Maj. and Mrs. Morton Eddy, Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas are guests of the latter's mother Mrs. Buttolph of Columbus over the Christmas holidays

Miss Eleanor Harding of Washington, D. C., is spending the holidays at Fort Benning as the house guest of Miss Mary Wadsworth.

Miss Elizabeth Beatty with her brother is visiting at Benning.

CHINESE RESTAURANTS

From THE SENTINEL-Tientsin

Continued from Last Week

The Chinese apparently do not subscribe to the Shakespearian of wine. The fist game, a variation adage, "To feed were best at home, of the old "stone-scissors-paper" ceremony," for there is little ceremony in the serving of a Chinese meal in a restaurant. The food is the same time shouting out what placed on the table in large bowls, they guess will be the total of sticks, and, grabbing himself a portion conveys it to his bowl or direct to his mouth. Of course the polite Chinese will always remember the persons on his right and left, particularly if they are foreign guests, and will help them to choice bits which he has picked out with his own chop sticks. We would consider it the height of boorishness to offer a guest a bit of food from our own forks but such is not the case in China.

During the course of this general dipping into the main dishes by all the guests around the festive board, the table cloth unavoidably comes in for severe punishment, which is one of the reasons why the Chinese are not particular about its being clean at the start of the meal, knowning that it will become a mess as soon as the feast is well under way.

Some of you may wonder what are the liquid accompaniments of fist games, and have to kan pei a Chinese feast. The commonest wine is what the Chinese call "yellow wine" (huang chiu). This does actually have a pale yellow color, Chinese restaurant and in an adand is invariably served warm, in jacent room hear loud shouting very small cups. It is a good thing as if the guests were hurling inthe cups are small, as a favorite sults at one another, do not be the playing of the "fist game" in which the loser must take a drink ultaneously sticking out a number of the fingers of one hand, at of the game is to guess how many fingers your opponent will show, make up your mind what you are going to put out, and call the total. If both call correctly or incorrectly, neither drinks and the game continues. Sometimes the loser may pay his forfeit by taking a mere sip of wine, but on other occasions it may be stipulated in advance that the cup must be drained to the dregs. After paying this forfeit the loser must hold out his cup upside down, to show that not a drop remains. This the Chinese call Kan pei or "dry cuy," the equivalent of our "bottoms up."

Yellow wine comes in many prices a good grade being sold in restaurants for around eighty cents a "catty" or pot. The taste is difficult to describe, but is rather pleasant. The wine is not particularly potent when drunk in moderation, but if you lose too many a number of times, you will probably feel the effects rather decidedly. If you happen to be in a sport at Chinese dinner parties is alarmed for fear that a free fight is about to start. It is merely some of the boys, who have become heated with wine, playing the fist game.

Another kind of Chinese wine which I advise foreigners to refrain from drinking is called shao chiu, and is really not a wine at all, but very strong spirits disreal business of the evening betilled from kao-liang. One drink of it will often kick a foreigner farther than a squirt of Post Exchange Flit will knock a mosquito. Incidentally as far as taste is concerned, it is the original fire water, and little persuasion is required to keep most persons from taking more than a trial run.

(Please turn to page 3)

You Should Be By This Time!

After those hectic Christmas weeks it's about time for anybody to be a bit jittery. So if you are, just save yourself trouble by doing your Post-Christmas shopping at Silver's. Everything you need under one roof.

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

CLEARANCE

SHOES =

ONE LOT OF SUEDES

Including high and low heels in black and brown suede.

Prices formerly ranged $4.95 to $7.50. Now Broken sizes 3 1-2 to 9, AAAA to B

$3.95

ONE LOT OF KIDS

Including black and brown kids in high and low, heels.

Prices formerly $5.95 to $7.50. Now Sizes are broken

ONE LOT OF SUMMER SHOES

The ideal purchase if you are planning a trip to Florida resorts, or for wear next summer. Includes white and blonde kids and watersnake.

Prices formerly $5.45 to $7.50. Now

Broken sizes. High and low heels

Books closed. Purchases on January statement payable in February.

SHOES

MAIN FLOOR

CHINESE RESTAURANTS (Continued from page 2)

In the majority of Chinese restaurants the meals are served in private rooms, but some, in addition, have a hall equipped with a stage in which bankers, war lords, and other people with money are accustomed to fling their big parties. At these affairs the theatrical performance may be a very long one, while the actual dining part of the show lasts a much

Mrs. Barrett and I once attended a combined dinner and theatre party in Peking given in honor of a certain warlord, who by the way was recently assassinated. Our genial host told us to come about eight-thirty and we were foolish enough to take him at his word. During the course of the party no less than eight plays were given, and we were forced to remain until the last one, which was of course the best, as the leading "lady" was Mei Lan-fang, the most famous of Chinese actors. departed earlier would have been an insult both to the host and the guest of honor.

About twenty minutes of the Chinese theatre is a severe dose for the average foreigner, so our condition after enduring many hours of the caterwauling and screeching of the actors, the scraping of the Chinese fiddles, and the hideous banging of the cymbals, may be more easily imagined than described. We knocked off about midnight for a really excellent meal, to which we did full justice, trying to make up in a small way for the agonies of the stage performance which continued unabated the while. After dinner we returned to our backless stools for another round of plays and I give you my word it was four o'clock in the morning when the graceful Mei Lan-fang finally made his appearance on the stage.

We are great devotees of Mei Lan-fang and will usually walk miles to witness one of his performances. but on this occasion we tarried not to enjoy his art, but thanked our host and made our way home as best we could in the rosy dawn of a beautiful Peking summer morning. It took several days for us to recover from that experience.

Of course the food served in restaurants is not the same as that consumed by the average Chinese family at home, and any more than most of us in the U.S.A. are accustomed to subsisting on breast of guinea hen or terrapin soup as a steady diet. As a matter of fact, however, many of the Chinese common dishes, what some people call "coolie chow," appeal to me as much if not more than the highly-touted delicacies such as birds' nest soup and whale's nose. One of the ordinary forms of the "coolie chow" is simply finely cut meat cooked in a sauce with vegetables. Another staple article of Chinese diet which I recommend to all and sundry is the well known chiaotze. This consists of finely chopped meat, vegetables properly seasoned with ginger, soy sauce, and other things, encased in a covering of teamed or Irled dough

The price of Chinese food in first class restaurants, even for delicacies, does not seem high to us, compared to what some of the relatives of Jesse James who run eating emporiums at home have the effrontery to ask for their product. It is not usual to charge for the separate items on the menu, the commonest method of determining the chit being by prearrangement for a stipulated menu for so many people. Of course if you are not careful the boniface may occasionally try to run in a number of extras on you but experiences of this sort are infrequent.

I remember one occasion when a number of us dined at a restaurant in Peking where the excellent

(Please turn to page 4)

Buy In Columbus During

THE PERSONNEL AND CIVILIAN WORKERS OF FORT BENNING ARE INVITED TO TRADE WITH THE FOLLOWING FIRMS:

LUCK

to you for 1934

May you meet with good fortune at every turn!

Self Service Furniture Co.

1032 BROADWAY

LOUISE D. HANCOCK, Manager

Phone

3728

GREETING TO YOU

A happy and prosperous New Year is our wish for you.

THE BEST PLACE TO DINE.

Happy New Year!

Here's our wish that

yours will be one that you'll want to remember!

H. C. SMITH

3 good drug stores

It's Here At Last!

1934

Best wishes and luck for you during the New Year!

WOLFSON COMPANY

Paper, Wrapping Paper, Bags and Twine 939 BROADWAY PHONE 113

It's New Year again

and we wish you every possible happiness for 1934!

Columbus Office Supply Co.

111 - 12th St.

We Print The Benning Herald

MAY be a howling success for you in every possible way!

The Columbus News-Record

Columbus' Newest and Newsiest Newspaper

THE BENNING HERALD Published Every Friday

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia

VOLUME III DECEMBER 29, 1933

L. C. KUNZE Publisher Sports Editor __Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

during the year that gives us such an "at-peace-with-the-world" feeling as does tonight. None other quite comes up to it in comparison. It is a rare occasion when we feel sufficiently foot-loose, fancy-free and lulled of conscience to permit the escape of such an observation but for some reason or other we allow ourselves this one opportunity to soliloquize lightheartedly. For today we have neither a care nor a dime in the

Our reasons for such as announcement may appear a trifle cockeyed but such as they are we crave indulgence while we list them before we forget them our First, a surcease (whatever that is) from our lot as a student which leaves us blinking in the strong light of a carefree atmosphere for a few precious days of freedom from toil. Our metaphor or simile or something is a trifle involved even to ourselves. What we started to say, in the words of Woolworth, was that we ddn't have a darned thing of a serious nature to do that needed doing. The first symptom of such a state is the sub-conscious tendency to peel one's self of one's normal inhibitions.

Our last minute Christmas shopping is done with and by now our trusting offspring has had renewed once again his wavering faith in Santa, the gent who remembers him once a year but who by so doing, gives us the doubtful privilege of recalling him monthly for an indeterminate time to come, paying homage at NRA prices on a fifteen percent cut. The memory lingers on however, until the din of our creditors is sufficiently lulled to permit us once again to ease into debt gracefully and nor-

The holidays are still ahead of us, days when we can plead not guilty of not doing nothing. It is still rather odd to find ourselves exhibiting a sort of childish glee as a result of school being out, particularly when we compare it to our anticipation short months before when we experienced a similar mood at the thoughts of school and nine months of foot ease. Comparing it then and now prompts us to announce that our vision of the life of a school-boy was as pleasant as a recruiting poster and equally deceptive.

Our final reason for our present mood is the fact that the bills have not yet started coming in. We do expect ere many more days have elapsed to find ourselves in the same position as the man who opened his pocketbook in January only to have a June-bug drop out.

This fleeting mood contrasts sharply with our student daze of of it. To Benning then a HAPPlast week. The school by then had eenewyear!

FORT BENNING, Christmas been working on us steadily for Night—We know of no single night four months and when the school starts working on one, one is being worked on. We had begun to feel like the latter end of a misspent life. To express it more briefly but equally effectively, like a flea going to the dogs. Sort of low and flattened after bouts with graded tests and marked problems, so low we could put on our skates and our high hat and do figure eights under a dachshund and flat like the man who elephants step on the chest of.

> All this was the natural consequence of a student body highly charged with tactical doctrine and mimeographitis until we really believed we were a trifle busier than the elevator-boy to Mae

> It had almost reached the state where we had visions of ourselves mailing out our Christmas cards from the hospital attaching to each one the postcript, "You can tell how we are by where we are at."

Perchance we can blame a balmy Christmas day for our present outlook on life. It would appear that this year the usual unusual weather has been more unusual than usual. We saw a sweet young thing yesterday afternoon riding gaily athwart a horse in semi-sum-(We refer to the rider's garb, the horse wearing only a saddle). This and a painless fall on the concrete when the horse shied reminds us that a year ago this time our chief recreation consisted of ice-skating for hours on end. It is merely a question of which type of asphalt one pre-

The steadily increasing traffic jam at the No. 1 bridge each morning of last week, is merely a forerunner of what is to come when the real construction actually gets under way. The topsy-turvy state of the scenery with its signs of excavation on all sides has us looking forward eagerly to standing in a crowd once again to watch a good snappy steamshovel.

begun rather auspiciously. The he placed his mutton on the gratfloor is still littered with the tell- ing over the fire and removed it tale signs of the rashness of a fond when done to his taste, after which father, forgetful for the moment it was dipped in condiments and of a steadily contracting pay-check. eaten. The result again was ex-Our Christmas dinner is behind us tremely pleasing. and we are now well qualified, after two turkeys in a month, as a drumstick-twister-offer. We have assumed for ourselves a day of Hsing Lou, which has branches ease, our only contribution to a both in the British Concession and perfect dinner other than the eating thereof being to help put the letters in the soup. We have issued ourselves the twenty-seven extra magazines often-mentioned in supply and we expect to be extremely busy for the remainder of the week doing nothing and lots quality of the food and wine put us in such a happy frame of mind that we gave vent to our joyful feelings in bursts of jocund song. This must have led the proprietor to believe that we were far gone in our cups, for when he presented the bill it was well above the figure we had agreed upon for the total cost of the meal. What a rude awakening was his when he found himself faced with an array of perfectly sober guests who steadfastly refused to pay for anything which had not actually been consumed.

CHINESE RESTAURANTS (Continued from page 3)

Just a word about the method of tipping in Chinese restaurants. Ten per cent of the bill is a fair amount here just as it is almost everywhere else in the world. When you give your tip, the waiter shouts the amount out at the top of his lungs. The reason for this is that all tips are put in a common pool and divided at the end of the day among the help, not equally, but on a basis of length of service, importance of duties performance, and so on. Thus the waiter who receives your tip must let all the others know what it was so that he cannot be accused of trying to hold out any-

There are of course many different kinds of restaurants in the larger cities, many of which cater to the people of particular provinces. Peking, for example, in the days when it was the capital, was of course a mecca for persons from all over China and the number of famous restaurants was legion.

Then there are the Mohammelan restaurants, of which incidentally there are a number in Tient-In these places no pork is served or used in preparing the food. A great dish in Mohammedan restaurants is what they call hsuan yang rou (dipped mutton). It consists of very thinly sliced raw mutton, of which each guest picks up a portion in his chop sticks and then dips it into a vessel of boiling water placed on the table in front of him. There are usually four guests to a table and all use a common vessel, but the procedure is perfectly sanitary on account of the boiling water. After the mutton is cooked to taste it is dipped in soy sauce and other condiments and then eaten without ever having left the chop sticks in its journey from platter to mouth. And let me assure you that mutton cooked in this way is much nicer than a jab in the eye with a pointed stick.

Speaking of cooking mutton, we used to go frequently in Peking to a Mongolian restaurant where the piece de resistance consisted also of mutton, but prepared in a different way from the Mohammedan fashion. The meal was served in a large courtyard paved with stone. Disposed around the courtyard were large iron baskets, each topped with a grating inside of which a wood fire was burning. * * * Each guest was provided with a At any rate the holidays have pair of iron chop sticks with which

> As far as Chinese restaurants in Tientsin are concerned, they are not especially famous, but the Tung the Peiping Park, is probably the best. This is said to be run by the same management which conducts the famous restaurant of the same name in Peiking.

> In closing don't expect to find "chop suey" or "chao mien" in North China restaurants, as they are exclusively southern dishes. GIBNEY-

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

On Messes, Meals, and Mess Ser-

- 1. Know ye all that a poor meal is even as a ditch dug on a rainy day by an extra duty detail-All thank heaven when it is finished.
- 2. Knowest thou of a company which rejoiceth in its mess sergeant? Speed then thy transfer hither, for it is a place of Paradise
- 3. The waist belt of those who hunger and thirst are therein expanded, yea verily without limit; yet the dish yelept slum gullion that even if the mighty man enteris passed not, and its name is unknown in those parts.
- 4. He who would be esteemed as worthy the name of Mess Sergeant must hold ever in his right hand the meat cleaver and in his left the key to the ice-box, and many counts of its contents must he make.
- 5. Yea, mightily must he bestir
- 6. For they delight in much sleep and folding of the hands for rest, even though the hour of breakfast is nigh and the guard from the first beginning in the Ardetail clamoreth for chow.
- 7. Yea, verily, he must regard he cooks with rigour and trust them not—for truly a good cook is an artist and temperamental above all men.

8. Truly must be see that the coffee fainteth not from weakness. and that the butter waxeth not mighty in its strength.

9. For a good mess sergeant preserveth at chow time, and concerneth himself that the recruit from Cottonwood receiveth as much of the pink ice-cream as doth the oldtimer seated near the kitchen to whom the K. P. owes four-bits.

10. He restraineth those in improper uniform from eating, and seeth that a liberal portion is ladled to such as have washed their

11. For since Hector youthful canine chasing a legging string the mess sergeant has been held responsible for the manners of recruits.

12. He scanneth the garbage can closely lest the silver ware be presented to the pigs, and in this wise doth often detect the burnt roast which the cook would fain conceal beneath large cabbage leaves.

13. He keepeth his eye ever on the alert lest the sanitary inspector cometh, and so sharp is his watch eth unheralded yet the dish cloths are not seen.

14. For the mess sergeant has even wadded them down his trouser-leg.

15. One sin, and only one hath a good mess sergeant. When any with a stern mien and fixing eye inquireth "Scald ye the dishes after each meal?" glibly doeth he lie, and say "Oh, yes, sir!" in a virtuous tone.

16. Yet not in the knowledge of man has this scalding taken place my of Samuel.

17. Yet by so saying of an untruth he save the company commander the writing of many indorsements and his own warrant continueth longer in force.

18. The monthly account of those who run the commissary doth the good mess Sergeant scan with much scrutiny and close reading, even as an M. P. regardeth the pass whose date has been changed. 19. And the ration account re-cordeth unheard of savings, and the captain doth receive much praise for work which none has done but he mess sergeant.

20. For the mess sergeant who receiveth all the credit due unto him is not; yea, verily, is as hard to find as a guard-house without drafts in the Army of Samuel.

83RD FIELD ARTILLERY

HEADQUARTERS BATTERY

ning a few words that "you all" outsiders may know all the low down on our Battery practically Caissons Go Rolling Along." every member of the outfit took wild hog hunt today. If the boys rest of the Battery and the old Maestro comes in.

"Twas two nights before Christ mas and all was quiet". Did I hear some one say "quiet?" Yep, you guessed it, it was one of those Artillery dances down at the 29th we are not going to inquire any more, because we inquired enough, again because as far as they were the Battery over the week-end. concerned the dance was over. an Artillery affair, then there iealousy aroused.

Now to come to Christmas day itself. All the members of the Battery, that is all that were not on furlough and those that were not on pass, were treated to a dinner fit for kings and we have to thank Sergeant Osbon and the rest of the kitchen force for the fine dinner they gave us and for taking all the pains to see that we were satisfied. At this dinner we were greatly honored by having Major Selleck and his family, Captain Bevan and his family, Lt. Studebaker and his family, and Lt. Ports and his sister as our guests. May we all be here again next Christmas.

the 24th Infantry Band for stop- company.

ping by our Barracks the morning While the old "Maestro" is pen- of the Twenty-Fifth and playing some music for us. The piece that was most appreciated was "As The

The clock is striking and that the opportunity and went out on a means the old Maestro again has to sign off until next week but have any luck in catching any of until then good-bye and pleasant these pork chops we were promis- memories. Wait! One more word, ed that we would be able to have Headquarters Battery wishes a a barbecue, if so, that's where the Happy and most Prosperous New Year to one and all.

BATTERY "A"

Christmas may be gone but it's not forgotten by any means. Everyone had a wonderful time, Theatre. We don't know why and plenty to eat and plenty to drink, we mean water. We hope the boys that were able to take furloughs why most of Headquarters enter had as good a time as we had in

This is one time in the year when Through the medium of this article all the boys wish there never was we are making an appeal that the a horse, as much as we all love? next time a dance is given by the them. Wednesday morning the Bat-Artillery, don't ballyhoo it as one tery had a paper chase and had special Battery dances, but publish a whale of a time, the weather was ideal for a wild ride. Most of will be no questions asked and no the mornings are spent in having drag hunts, dragging two horses and hunting for a place to rest.

The Battery Basketball Team were presented with a trophy last Friday in recognition of their fine playing in winning the Battalion Tournament. The presentation was made by Major Selleck with all the officers of the Battalion pres-

TANK WEEKLY OUT (Continued From Page 1)

ing editor is Lt. C. C. B. Warden, the art editor Capt. LeRoy W. Nichols and the editor Corporal W. B. Stearnes. It is published by Before I forget, I want to thank voluntary subscriptions from each

Rose Bowl Scene Of Festivities New Year's

Pasadena is putting itself in readiness to receive more than a host of visitors on New Year's Day, when its Tournament of Roses, one of the great floral fetes of the world, will be held for the forty-

Dr. R. H. Brown

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN Murrah Bldg. Res. 1153

Phones Office 4108

There is ONLY ONE

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE Fort Benning, Ga. The Post Exchange Is Not Author-To Sell To Anyone Not In The Miltary Service

THE COMMANDANT

A recent picture of Brigadier General G. H. Estes, Commandant, The Infantry School.

fifth time. The choice of a foot- by police estimate, 1,200,000 perball team from New York, that of sons, and an even larger throng is Columbia University, to play Stan-expected this year, if the day be ford in the Rose Bowl on the af- fine. What the huge multitude, ternoon of that day lends more than ordinary interest to the annual East-West gridiron classic; but the chief attraction for the majority of the visitors will be, as always, the parade of flowers in the fore-

A year ago the streets of Pasadena, along which the procession of flowers moved, accommodated, crowded into a town of 100,000 population, sees is a parade that is hree miles long, consisting of more than 100 large floats decorated with flowers, chiefly roses. Interspersing it will be picturesque horsemen, reminiscent of the Valley. Hunt Club which established the Tournament of Roses. More than a score of bands play.

A Single Theme Used The floats this New Year's Day will all be on one theme, "Tales of the Seven Seas in Flowers." For almost forty years the float builders were allowed to follow their individual tastes as to subect, but in 1928 the idea of a unified theme was introduced—largely through the influence of a newly formed women's section of the ournament committee. "Songs in Flowers" were then presented with such success that the plan of one theme for the pageant was permanently adopted. Only live greenery and flowers are allowed on the tournament entries, with preference given, in the judging, to roses. More than 5,000 people work all night before the Tournament of Roses to put these flowers in place, many blooms being kept in water down to the last minute to preserve their freshness. The floats cost each year at least $100,000. Two thousand people take part in the parade, riding on the floats or horses or in marching clubs and bands. The line of march, about four miles long, ends at Old Tournament Park, where the floats may be viewed by those who want to see them a second time, without

The floats are entered largely by cities of the Pacific slope, though there are commercial divisions also. Chiefly it is the other towns of Southern California that vie for honors; it is too good an opportunity to overlook—an opportunity to impress their names on the tourists assembled in Pasadena. Every (Please turn to page 6) their occupants.

EQUITATION

Equitation is the science of sticking to a horse through thick and thin. It is practiced to some extent in the Cavalry.

Other branches of the Service have also taken up equitation with certain variations and appropriate

It is written: "Never look a gift horse in themouth. It is also bad policy to look at a vicious horse from the rear.

In order to be a good horseman one must learn to post. It does not follow, however, that in order to be a good postman one must learn

When rising to the trot one should invariable return to one's seat. It is considered very bad form to quit the horse at this particular juncture.

More advanced riders are fond of riding to the hounds. Which does not mean the same as going to the Quotations . .

Availability of quotations on many markets is a benefit to investors in placing their orders. It has long been a policy of this firm to provide quotations on the principal security and commodity markets to accredited individuals.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

For Those NEW YEAR'S

Parties . . .

there's nothing like

The SIX-BOX

25c

For those joyous New Year parties keep it on hand in the SIX-BOX and you'll make your party merrier than ever.

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT — WITH BOTTLED COCA-COLA IN THE SIX-BOX

> THE SIX-BOX IS SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS.

$ 600,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

Serve

The Life Of The Party

A happy New Year to each one of the Fort Benning Personnel

ROTHSCHILD

Leading Furniture Dealer of Columbus for 39 Years

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORL

Basketball Race In Twenty-Fourth Sees Exciting End

The first half of the 24th Infantry basketball league ended last week with Company E and Company C fighting it out for second place, the coveted position next to Company G finally being won by

The contest took place in the post gym on Friday, Dec. 22, and according to all information was a grand and glorious scrimmage, that ended with an 18-12 score. Company C was just a little too nervous over the chance to finish second in the race to make all their shots good.

Co. G, "The House of David," were the unquestioned victors in the 1st half, finishing with a good lead over Co. E. At the conclusion of the game Friday afternoon, Colonel Fred L. Munson presented prizes to the first and second place teams in the first half, and also to the two high scorers of the league. First place in the scoring was won by Private McLarkin of Co. G, with a total of 330 points, second going to Private Johnson, of Company E, with 197.

Play in the second half will begin after the holidays.

FROM THE EDITOR

With the celebration of Christmas holidays at the post comes the usual slump in athletic activities of all variety, and this year is no exception to the general rule.

Except for isolated instances the cagesters, leather-slingers, hardalley bowlers, and various and sundry specimens of athletic ability are devoting their time to recovering in diverse ways from the old Spanish custom of distending the tummy and befuddling the accuracy of the eye that is prevalent all over the country during the Christmas season.

Of course there is the perennial crop of hardy hunters who de-light in delving into the hills and hollows of the reservation in quest of furtive flaunters of fur and feather, but we will leave their antics and activities to the more able pen of E. F. R. and the Flare. So please excuse the scarcity of sportive information in the current issue of this publication. It is not the editor's fault and after the ball is over, the recording of athletic activities will be resumed in full force.

And a Happy New Year to you!

BOSE BOWL GAME (Continued from page 5)

effort has been made during the last decade to have the Tournament of Roses be a California fete. Other cities are represented on official bodies preparing for the pageant and the founder-town insists only that the traditional idea of roses and New Year's Day and the original site, Pasadena, be maintained.

For years the tournament had a popularly elected queen. May Sutton, first of the California tennis marvels and a Pasadenan, was queen in 1908. Queens were dropped, to be revived lately with the association making its own chocie of a particularly beautiful girl. The most distinguished person available is selected as grand marshal. This time Admiral W. S. Sims has been Seas theme.

It was a struggling little town, chosen, in keeping with the Seven trying to forget the collapse of the California boom of 1887 through such social diversions as its own community afforded, that gave oirth to the Tournament of Roses. through the Valley Hunt Club. Members always held a holiday picnic and Charles Frederick Holder, famous as a sea naturalist, suggested that the flower fetes of the Riviera be duplicated here.

On an. 1, 1890, therefore, the Valley Hunt Club members tied roses to their buggies and saddles and rode out of town to an oak grove. They went in parade formation and in the afternoon indulged in horse sports. Pictures were taken and sent East, to provoke more replies than any of the founders had dreamed. The clubs leaders had sensed they had seized on something that would attract attention-the coupling of roses and New Year's Day in the minds of Easterners. They repeated each year until thousands began coming and the club surrendered drection to a Tournament of Roses Association, that still carries forward.

The parade, of course, can be only a half day's entertainment. What to do for their visitors the rest of the day has always been a problem to tournament committees. Horse sports soon lost their appeal.

In late 1901 the University of Michigan football team was on a barnstorming tour. Pasadena induced Stanford University to send its team down to play Michigan on Jan. 1, 1902, to the great dismay of the Western eleven, which lost,

The next year an equally exciting form of entertainment was attempted--a revival of ancient Roman chariot racing. At Tournament Park spirited bloods of the

A doctor ordered the old vicar to take some hot whisky each day. "But," objected the patient, "I'm afraid my housekeeper would leave

"She need not know," replied the doctor; "just tell her you want some shaving water."

Some weeks later the doctor called at the house to inquire for the vicar.

the housekeeper. "The poor unfortunate gentleman's shaving himself morning, noon and night.

Clinging To Decency The door-bell rang and dad answered it.

"Any old clothes to sell or give away?" asked the old man, who had pushed the button.

"Do you think I want to join one of these nudists' colonies?" growled dad as he slammed the door town raced equally spirited teams of four horses. Amateur chariot races were a feature for four or five years, until one of the drivers was nearly killed. After that professional stables furnished horses and drivers and hippodromed the show in approved circus fashion.

We Make RUBBER STAMPS COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

Football Returns

After nearly ten years of that, the public began to lose interest, the tournament committee harked back to its football experiment. In a sea of mud, Brown University and Washington State College started the modern series. Jan. 1, 1916. Colleges have met every New Year's Day since, as representatives of East and West, except in the war years, when service teams were substituted.

The annual football game is noncommercial. Expenses of the Tournament of Roses Association, about $30,000 a year, are first deducted, along with the expenses of the Then the remainder is divided three ways, one-third to each team and one-third to be applied to the debt on the Rose Bowl, which was dedicated with the 1923 game. When this stadium, seating 85,000, is paid for, the tournament association will step entirely out of the financial cut, except for its annual budget. The association paid for its old Tournament Grounds out of profit from the chariot races and presented the property to the city for a park, and the city already holds title to the land on which the Rose Bowl is located.

The championship team of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Conference is always selected as the Western contender and names its own Eastern opponent. To avoid any unpleasantness in the case of ties in the Conference standin, howevr, the Tournament of Roses is planning to turn over entire selection of the Western team to the Coast conference.

More Cheer

Bellboy's Voice: "I've a Christnas message for you, sir." Traveling Man: "Shove it under the door."

Voice: "Can't sir. The bottle's uncorked."

We Wish You A Happy New Year!

always find this lahel . . .

SCHWOBILT REGISTATION OF THE STABLISHED NO 12

The Schwobilt label is the South's hallmark of fine clothing. Its presence in a coat is a guarantee of quality.

$16.50

$19.50

Suits and Overcoats in all the new colors and the latest fashions, moderately priced. We invite your visit.

The SCHWOB Co.

The Standard Tailoring Company

1037 Broadway

Columbus, Ga.

fine printing:

when you want printing

that actually breathes distinction — then you'll get it at this shop.

Columbus Office Supply Co.

111 - 12th STREET PHONE CITY 328

-Engraved Cards

Printing

Rubber Stamps

Ruling

之人*动*物/2-5/1/ Bookbinding

COMPANY "C"

Company "C" Celebrates

Christmas with an exuberance of good cheer pervading the very air. Sgt. Benjamin (Pick Tom) Thomas, and his excellent array Thompson, Mrs. Calloway, Sergeant of culinary artists went over the top with the dinner, provided for are to be congratulated for bringthe men, their families and sweethearts. The large dining hall was beautifully decorated with holly, mistletoe and cedar, with beautifully decorated Christmas tree arranged in the center. Music was furnished by a radio concealed in the foliage. Every one was loud in praise of having a grand and glorious time, and departed wishing he did not fail to slip and fall down mand our best efforts in their perthe company a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

A Fast One

Speaking of hunting here is one. Rabbits are reputed to be fast on foot but the fastest ones are found in Arizona. It happened this way. One adventurer of this company was hunting this elusive animal, and upon encountering one, fired at him, hitting the mark. The rabbit started for a hole, and in order to capture him before he entered, our gentleman started to run the rabbit down. Just before reaching the hole he noticed that a button was missing from his coat. The hunter in question being fleet on foot realized that while running he had gotten into the path of the bullet, which ripped the button from his coat. "Believe it or not." -Guy T. Curtis.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

Quite a number of the members of this company attended the Sunday Services held in Regimental Service Club and the regimental Christmas Tree program was rendered by the school children. The latter feature ably directed by Mrs. R. B. Calloway, was unique, especthe two pantomines. The first portrayed the shepherds giving gifts to "Child in the manger" and the second was a similar scene of the wise men. The renditions showed painstaking training, and it was by far the best program witnessed by this regiment.

Chaplain Carter made it possible for Santa Claus to come and not

BURRUS

Pre-Inventory

SALE USED CARS

FRI. - SAT.

50 Good Values

Most any make or model FORDS

CHEVROLETS BUICKS CHRYSLERS LINCOLNS

Down Payments are small

Monthly Payments are easy

We sell our used cars right

Burrus Motor Co.

Phone 606 1213 1st Ave. USED CAR DEPT.

Company "C" celebrated the and were of such an excellent quali- kers. ty that the kids could hard y be kept quiet. The 24th Infantry did not have one empty stocking. Chaplain and Mrs. Carter, Mrs. C. T. A. P. Jackson and Private Frazier ing such a grand yuletide spirit to the regiment.

> Colonel F. L. Munson personally inspected the tree and extended greetings to the regiment. Our commanding officer is never too busy to take an interest in the regiment's activities.

Santa Claus was as jovial as ever but in some manner, his legs had This we attribute to our varied become bowed since last year. But and diversified duties which de-one child was left giftless. The the chimney, making quite a compresents were carefully selected motion and bedraggling his whis-

-Louis Scipio.

SERVICE COMPANY

As we draw near the close of the year 1933, it is fitting that a resume of the year's activties, triumphs and defeats be presented. Our triumphs as a spur of encouragement, and our defeats as stepping stones to victory in the approaching year

In baseball and basketball 1933 was very unkind. The retrospect presents a picture of fruitless effort and discordant team work. This we attribute to our varied and formance and necessitate the use of every available man; thus allowing only a minimum of time for group practice and training.

That the track and field meet of June 3, 1933 was huge success is undisputable. We are grateful for the success of our entrants.

Organization Day prizes were also won by members of the company in such a number as to warrant more persistent effort in the years to come.

Our sick report shows that the health record of the company is of a standard far above the aver-

Discharges without honor, and desertions are so very rare that this, too, is a source of pride.

Our only two deaths, that of Sergeants Herbert Allen and Calieph Moore, Jr., are among our sad reminders of the year about to close. But this is offset, in some degree, by the fine records being made by Corporal Perkins Ford, and Pvts. 1cl McBurnett Grigsby and Willie Jones with the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Ably commanded by Captain M. E. Halloran, and supported by 1st Lt. H. M. Monroe and 2d Lt. J. J. Mathews, the success of the past year was inevitable. Needless to say 1st Sgt. Fletcher Reeves has played his part—and that exceedingly well.

The Service Company, 24th Infantry desires, through this medium, to wish its many friends throughout the service the Happiest of Happy New Years.

-George E. Burton

Hey, Corporal!

have vou heard the latest story on Private Throttlebottom? No?

Then vou've failed to read

The Benning Herald

All the news of your company is to be carried in the Herald, just as soon as your company correspondent comes through. Some of the outfits are already carrying more, and yours too, is in line. Get the Herald now, send it to your family, and let them read what you're reading. And, be sure to get the latest dope on the whole outfit yourself! You'll find it here.

The price? It's only

$1.50 JAWBONE

We'd be insulting you if we made it less!

See Your Company Representative

MEDICOS, ATTENTION

How a Government Patient Spends the Day

(As the fiction writers do it) 9:00 A. M.—Is awakened by a Howsame fashion as was the Sleeping Beauty in the old fairy tale.

9:05 A. M.—Says regular morning prayer: "Please God, make me a cripple for life."

9:10 A. M.—Nurse gently bathes his hands and face with perfumed

9:20 A. M.—Eats dainty tidbits for breakfast fed to him by same nurse. Inhales deeply from a Turkish cigarette she lights for him.

10:00 A. M.—Is visited by welfare workers who shower him with cigarettes, writing paper, stamps,

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

NAVY

INSIGNIA and BUTTONS

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold plating. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned with a solution of soapsuds and household ammonia,

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

chocolate, and toilet articles.

10:30 A. M.—Joins in the morning hymn: "I Don't Want to Get Well." 10:40 A. M.—Nurse takes his pulse, ard Chandler Christy nurse in the holding his hand five minutes longer than necessary.

> 10:50 A. M.—Nurse writes letters for him to his fair admirers, showing decided jealousy over the affectionate terms he dictates.

> 11:30 A. M.-Ward surgeon orders spiked egg nogs for him.

12:00 M.—Ditto 9:20.

1:00 P. M.—Goes for a long motor

4:00 P. M.—Ditto 10:40 A. M.

4:30 P. M.—Has some of the latest snappy magazines brought to him for his perusal.

5:30 P. M.—Listens to a concert of the latest jazz over the ward radio. 6:30 P. M.—Ditto 12:00 M.

7:00 P. M.—Attends movies in hospital auditorium. 9:00 P. M.—Shoots pool in the hospital recreation hall.

12:00 M.—Is served a midnight lunch tucked in bed and kissed good night by his nurse.

(As it seems to the patient) 3:00 A. M.—Is awakened by hardboiled ward master and forced to eat raisins and dry bread in preparation for a stomach pumping. 6:30 A. M.—Is awakened by night nurse taking his temperature. 7:00 A. M.—Is awakened and told to snap out of bed by ward master. 7:15 A. M.—Hungrily watches the other patients eating breakfast denied him.

7:30 A. M.—Makes his bed three times before corners are sharp enough to satisfy hypercritical

8:00 A. M.—Stomach pumped. 8:30 A. M.—Monologue by ward surgeon.

"Cough."

"Cough again."

"Now say ninety-nine."

"Say a—a—ah."

"Now this isn't going to hurt vou."

"Put him on light diet nurse." :45 A. M.—Monologue by nurse: "Here's a nice dose of castor oil for you. What are you doing in bed with your shoes on? Smoking in bed too! If I ever catch you doing it again I'll report you to the ward surgeon. Now hurry up and drink this oil so that you can go to the laboratory for a blood test." 00 A. M.-Has arm punctured five times before vein is struck and blood flows.

9:30 A. M.—"Get the money off the bed! Here comes the O. D."

10:00 A. M.—Has tooth pulled. 10:30 A. M.—Crippled-for-life pa tient who starts humming: 'I Don't Want to Get Well." 11:00 A. M.—Is baked in electric apparatus which leaves him with a feeling of having been cooked on one side and left raw on the other. 12:00 M.—Eats a dish of cereal and drinks a glass of milk. Takes a quantity of bitter medicine.

1:00 P. M.—Helps ward master clean up ward. Is cheered in his labor by the joyful tunes of "Oh Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight?" and "When You and I were Young, Maggie," the two cracked and wheezy records donated to the

3:00 P. M.—Attempts to read "The Old Ladies' World" and "Healing by Thought," the ward's sole liter-

4:00 P. M.—Is put to bed because of a slight temperature.

5:00 P. M.—Supper of milk toast and tea, followed by several vari-

TYPOGRAPHICAL TEARS

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly, You can hunt till you are dizzy, but it somehow will get by. Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps; It shirks down into a corner and it never stirs or peeps, That typographical error, too small, for human eyes, Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The boss he stares with horror, then he grabs his hair and groans; The copy reader drops his head upon his hands and moans— The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be But the typographical error is the only thing you see. (Knoxville, Iowa, Express)

(Dedicated with derision to the proofreader on The Herald)

A CATECHISM

Q. When do you right shoulder

A. Whenever the girl is willing. O. How is a salute rendered?

A. By inclining slightly forward from the waist, puckering the lips as though about to whistle, and letting them smack resoundingly on the maiden's.

Q. When is an officer saluted?

A. Only when the salute cannot be omitted without risking punish-

Q. What are the duties of the company clerk?

A. The chief duty of the company clerk is to lose the payroll and not be able to find it until after pay day.

Q. What is the weight of the rifle?

A. The weight of the rifle cannot be definitely stated as it varies according to the length of the march. The rifle steadily increases birth Christmas is held. The special mass sung was the "Missa de Angeles," composed in the fourth composed in the fourth century.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION (Continued From Page 1)

The festive boards of the various organization mess halls groaned under the enormous weight of special Christmas dinners, prepared with assiduous labor by the various mess sergeants, who had been planning for weeks for this the most elaborate festive occasion of the entire year. The soldiers' ainner is the most keenly anticipated of all events and the Benning ones always come up to expec-

GENERAL KING DIES (Continued from page 1)

Commander Andrews, U.S. N. at Manila.

Burial services for General King will take place at West Point, probably on Saturday.

Major Kramer Thomas, Cavalry, Captain Sidney H. Negrotto, Mrs. Clayton H. Studebaker, and Mrs. Walter P. O'Brien, all of Miami, were attending the hunt at Fort McPherson when General King was taken ill.

eties of nauseating medicine. 7:00 P. M.—Misses the hospital movies on account of being in bed. 9:00 P. M.—Lights out. Is squawked by O. D. for talking instead of rolling over and going to sleep.

"Oh, hell!" -Our Army.

And There Is Nothing To Do About It

Wifie: "My husband is so good to his employes."
Wifie: "Yes, he came home last night all tired out, poor fellow, and I heard him murmur in his sleep, 'Jim, I'll raise you ten.' And business is so dull, too."

Such A Dummy!

"How are you getting on with George?"

"Oh, he's a most disappointing lover. I purposely blew out the electric light fuse before he came over last night, and he spent the whole evening mending it."

(As We Bucks Would Write It) in weight during the day, being twice as heavy at night as it is in the morning.

> Q. Of what important use is the gun sling?

A. The gun sling is used in putting rookies through the gauntlet

Q. What is the battle sight?

A. The battle sight is the look in your buddy's eyes when you drain his bottle instead of taking the little snifter he so kindly offered you. Q. What is a fine sight?

A. Seeing your corporal being squawked by a superior is about the finest we know of. Q. When do you do an eyes,

A. When you don't wish to salute an officer approaching from the left.

Q. When should a buck fall out on the march? A. Whenever possible.

Q. What kind of sham maneuvers are greatly enjoyed by all doughboys?

A. Playing tanks.

Q. What should a buck who desires an appointment as company

A. Smoke the brand of cigarettes preferred by the top-soak.

Q. When is the guard relieved? A. When the Officer of the Day passes him up without asking him his General Orders.

-Our Army.

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA POWER (E) COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

. which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

Excellent Curb Service

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT

POST EXCHANGE Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

De Luxe Service for your winter driving!

Put your car in good shape for the cold weather by using our "DeLuxe Service". This service is available for any make of car and includes washing; polishing; lubrication of differential, transmission and all fittings, changing of motor oil; vacuum cleaning; and a thorough mechanical inspection involving 33 different operations.

Auto Department

EXCHANGE POST FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service.

WE BUY, SELL, STORE AND CRATE FURNITURE THWEATT & SON

FURNITURE

We handle all kinds of good used furniture, gas stoves, refrigerators, dining and breakfast room suites.

PHONE 2715

1244 BROADWAY

Estes Monday

A time-honored custom of the army was observed at Fort Ben-the officers of the garrison assembled at post headquarters at 11:30

A. M. to make the annual New

They were received by Brigadier General G. H. Estes, commanding officer of the post, in his office, the officers being presented in unit groups by their commanding

The traditional New Year's call is a custom of the army the origin of which is lost in the mists of antiquity, but whihh is observed in every post of the army through-

Four Finish Work

At B and C School

officers.

out the world.

Year's call on the commandant.

VOL. III

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1933

The Flare

Conducted By E. F. R.

Better be damned than mentioned not at all-

John Wolcot.

"We still believe in Santa Claus but our faith is failing rapidly. On Christmas Eve, as has been our long continued custom, we suspended the old Sock from the mantle. Christmas morning we cautiously crept to the Chimney-Place and found that Santa sure enough had paid a visit. But what we wanted mostest was missing. We looked carefully through the Loot hoping against hope that Old Saint Nick had left us a restoration of the 15% Pay Cut and a release on the Freeze. Just as we had feared our frenzied search proved futile. All of which reminds us of a Paraphrase (Author Unknown) of Carrie Jacob Bond's End of a Perfect Day. We hope you like it.

"When you come to the end of your monthly pay

And you sit alone with the thought That you've spent it all since the break of day

For the things that your wife has bought

You sadly look at your check-book's stub

With it's balance of thirteen cents

Oh where has it gone - aye

there's the rub-

And whither and where and whence?

So this is the end of my monthly

And the month still young and

And the next pay-day so far away And so many bills still due

I can't think where it has gone and went

But I feel that my heart will breakFor just in an hour or two I've

What it took me one month to

HAPPY HOLIDAYS AT BENNING

Being a few notes picked up here and there during the Recent Rest Period.

YULE LOG RHYTHMS

We have always been somewhat supercilious concerning the Horsey wa and we have been particularly remiss in raising paeans of prase for the pomp and pageantry of the Hunt and the Hunters. We were so painfully prejudiced that when someone suggested that we attend the Lighting of The Yule Log Ceremony at the Club we couldn't think of a thing which had less appeal. But in a spirit of Fair Play and Christmas Charity we put our prejudice in our pocket, crossed our fingers, and wandered clubward at the time set for the Big Show. Came a blast of mus-ic 1 m the 29th Infantry Orchestra, the doors were thrown open, and in marched Sir Sidney Negrotto, M. F. H., followed by his entourage of Lads and Lassies, (Please turn to page 2)

Ft. Benning Mourns DeathOf Maj. Gen. Edward L. King

Out of respect to the memory of General Edward L. King, commanding general of the 4th Corps Area, the post mag at Fort Benning flew at half-staff from reveille yesterday morning until 2:00 P. M., when Battery "A" of the 83rd Field Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant George McManus, Jr., fired a salute of thirteen guns, the honor due his rank as an officer.

General King died suddenly at Fort McPherson, Ga., on Wednesday afternoon from a heart attack which came on as he was engaging in a drag hunt over the reservation there. Funeral services were held at West Point, N. Y., at the United States Military Academy, yesterday.

Hospital Mess Is First In Ratings

The Fort Benning Hospital, for the second consecutive month, was awarded first place in the ratings of the various post messes for December in the regular monthly inspection by Major Homer D. Conner, medical inspector of the Infantry School. The Post Stockade, which held the lead for four straight months before the Station Hospital moved up to first place, was judged second best in Fort Benning, with Special Units third and Headquarters Company Twenty-ninth Infantry, fourth.

Major Conner, in his regular monthly inspections of the post messes, rates them according to sanitary conditions, the manner in which the mess is conducted, the arrangement of the kitchen utensils and equipment, the neatness of the personnel and of the building, and the contents of the menu for the month.

The competition for first places in the regular monthly mess ratings is very spirited, for all the messes are kept in good condition On the principal that Napoleon maintained in stating that wars are won by the stomachs of the soldiers and with the sad experience gained in previous wars of the disastrous results of unsanitary mess conditions, the United States Army keeps its food conditions very highly sanitary. The regular monthly inspections and ratings do much toward maintaining the excellence in sanitary mess conditions that now exist, by creating friendly competition among the various messes on the post.

Pvt. Helms Goes To Veterinary School

Private James T. Helms of the Veterinary Detachment of the Medical Department at Fort Benning will attend the Veterinary School at the Army Medical Cener in Washington, D C., which commences on the fourth of February. Private Helms' selection o attend the school was made hrough the recommendation of Veterinary Surgeon. He has second lieutenants have been assigned to duty with the 24th Infantry at Fort Benning on completion of their present tours of foreign service, according to information received at headquarters the Infantry School from the office of the War Department, Washington, D. C.

(Pease turn to page 8)

SEVERAL OFFICERS ARE Officers Pav New ASSIGNED TO BENNING Year's Call On Gen.

The officers who will arrive here sometime this summer, are First Second Lieutenants Gellert A. Phillippine Department, Second Lieutenant Madison C. Schepps, China; Second Lieutenant Frank waiian Islands, and Second Lieu- Iowa; William E. Maulsby, Jr., who are as Civil Engineer from the Poly States as a private at the United Military Academy from South Car-States Military Academy Detach- olina.

One first lieutenant and eight ment at West Point, N. Y. in 1920, and entered that institution as a cadet in 1921. He was commissioned as a 2d lieutenant Air Service in 1925, and transferred to ning on Monday morning, when the infantry the next year. His promotion to 1st lieutenant came in

The remaining officers were graduated from the military academy in 1928, with the exception of Lieutenant Maulsby who was com-Lieutenant George B. Peploe, and missioned from West Point in 1929. All of them have served a short Douglas, Edgar E. Enger, James period of duty with the Air Corps M. Ivey, and Thomas M. Tarply, Lieutenant Douglas was appointed Lieutenant Douglas was appointed all of whom are on duty in the from Ohio to the Military Academy; Lieutenant Enger from Oreron; Lieutenant Howard from the who at the present time is with Missouri National Guard; Lieutenthe American forces on duty in ant Ivey from South Carolina; Lieutenant Maerdian from Mon-R. Maerdian, on duty in the Ha-tana; Lieutenant Maulsby from Lieutenant Schepps from tenants Charles F. Howard, and New York, after receiving a degree on duty in the Panama Canal Zone. technic Institute of Brooklyn in Lieutenant Peploe, who was born 1923; and Lieutenant Tarpley, who in England in 1900, first entered is a graduate of the Chemical Warthe military service of the United fare School, was appointed to the Four members of the enlisted personnel of Fort Benning, who have been undergoing a course of instruction at the School for Bakers and Cooks, at this post, finished their studies in the culinary are recently and were awarded certificates by Lieutenant William R. McKinnon, assistant commandnat of the School for Bakers and

The successful student bakers are Private Durward V. Goodrich, Company B, 29th Infantry, Private James H. Armstrong, Company F, 29th Infantry, Private Lester G. Parker, Company F, 67th Infantry, and Private Gus Croley, Headquarters Battery, 83rd Field Artillery.

Other soldiers who began their studies in the bakers course on Tuesday include Private Vilous M. Wallace, Regimental Machine Gun Company, 29th Infantry, Private Lester Pruitt, Company A, 29th Infantry, Private 1st class Walter A. Johnson, Company E, 29th Infantry, Private 1st class Henry L. Bopp, Battery C, 83rd Field Artillery, and Private Walter P. Doster, Headquarters Company, 66th Infantry, (Light Tanks).

NEWSPAPER COMMENT

The nation's press backs Gener- Defense Act. al Douglas McArthur in the recommendations contained in his annual report for an Army of 165,-000 enlisted men, restoration of full pay, and other badly needed of the 1920 schedule. measures for saving our National

In his recent annual report General Douglas McArthur, the Chief protected. of Staff, declared Uncle Sam's Army policy when, according to the N. Y. American he said:

'The American system of land defense is obviously designated full. strictly and exclusively for DE-FENSE. . . . This fact is universally appreciated by military men throughout the world.... But the smallness of our organized forces places an extraordinary premium upon EFFICIENCY."

In sum, the country must have not a great army, but an Army both ADEQUATE and EFFICIarmy is needed it is needed badly, the N. Y. Journal asserts.

Before the war, Congress had felt with the late William Jennings Bryan that an army was a uxury-a million farmers would spring to arms and it would be good night" for the enemy.

The war showed differently. The National Defense Act was passed in 1920, giving us an army which could safeguard the country until the million farmers were mustered and trained.

Judging by world conditions, we need an army today even more than we did in 1920.

Yet its strength is only 120,000 of all ranks—considerably less han half that authorized by the General McArthur, Chief Staff, thinks the Army should be raised to at least 165,000.

That would be only about half

Other Americans think the same. They would like to see men proided with jobs, and the nation

The McArthur recommendations will come up in Congress early next year.

Congress should adopt them in

The farmers can't spring to arms ny more rapidly now than they did before.

Protests appearing in the reports of the Chief of Staff of the Army and the Secretary of the Navy against the "pay freeze" applied to the Services add to the likelihood that Congress will be asked to remove what men in the After the World War, Congress Army, Navy, and Marine Corps to be predicts the N. Y. Sun.

"In addition to the 15 per cent cut in their meager pay enlisted men have been denied the reenlistment allowances formerly authorized, have suffered a reduction in clothing funds and have lost additional pay for skill in marksmanship. All in all, the feeling seems to be growing among them that they are victims of indifference and unfair treatment."

It is the credit of the Army rank and file that when buck privates whose pay had been cut to $17.85 were called upon to act as "clerks, cooks and guardians of Government property in the mobilization of that great corps of civil-

(Please turn to page 3)

Ten Years Ago

Last Week'

The garrison prepared for a clean-up campaign to begin next, mainly to remove the many eyesores, native, domestic, and imported, that dotted the post.

Miss Jane Wells, daughter of General Wells, post commandant, was married to Frederick deP. Townsend, of Muskegon, Mich.

The Irish of the 1st Bn. downed the Cannoneers of the 83rd Artillery by a margin of 6 points, with Romploski again starring as he made the only score of the day.

The Freebooter football team of the 29th Infantry, disbanded and withdrew from the post league.

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia

JANUARY 5, 1933 NO. 37 VOLUME III L. C. Kunze Publisher
A. F. Kunze Editor _Society Editor Sports Editor _Circulation Manager Louis T. Kunze----

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Jan. 1-By now our headache has been sufficiently bromo-seltzered to permit of a few reflections on the muchneeded holiday season just ended. Our house is gradually easing into a state of student normalcy again now that the maid has dusted off our lunchbox for use on the morrow. The family mousetrap will have to go without cheese for a few days until the house's Class I supplies are functioning as they were before the much-needed and surprisingly short vacation season. Our better half has supplanted our holiday loaf with a sandwich-loaf and the can-opener has been sharpened for instant The days are already beginning to be longer, a sad but true omen of school-daze to come, as the downhill climb (or slide or whatever) from January to June gets under way.

We have caught up ever so slightly on lost sleep, perhaps not as much as had been anticipated but we always did sleep slow at best and it would appear that during our days of foot-ease for some unaccountable reason we slept slower than ever. Mrs. Ramble has become quite undisciplined as a result of our attempts to just hang around the house just hanging around, so much so that she exploded once to the effect that having the same man around the house all the time was what spoiled matrimony. We tried on one occasion to set ourselves right with her and make up for our disposition to be indisposed by agreeing to play with her in an evening of bridge. We have always got a great kick out of being her bridge-partner and this one attempt was a rueful reminder that no exception was anticipated. As one of the tank instructors would say, our shims are still sore.

We made one further attempt to work ourselves into the good graces of the family sandwichmaker by promising after repeated pleadings to take her riding. To prove our sincerity, the night before we had removed our boots and spurs from the family hope chest and after shaking the moths and the moth-balls loose had pro- dian of boxes, lockers, laundry and ceeded to try them on. It wasn't PX vegetables, Sergeant Morgan. our fault that we couldn't get them Rapid progress on the new offioff and had to bed ourselves down for the night with them on but quarters for a dinner-party leavwe do object strenuously to being awakened out of a sound sleep to be told that if we were a gentleman we would cut our toenails occasionally.

A well-meaning neighbor induced us to try our hand at golf pedestrians. A new way of disduring the holidays for the first posing of one of Doc Dabney's time. We should have known bet-six glasses of water: to keep our ter than to start sowing our wild false teeth in. In training for the oaths this late in life but once annual physical. Trying vainly again the habitual tendency to to remember a recent story that make incorrect decisions, so pain-had us laughing so much we almost fully evdient to date in tactics, busted an inner tube. Whatever stayed with us. Never again will became of the pageant ex-Benwe be guilty of mashies in the iningites have described to us? cold, cold ground. Our sense of Suggestion prompted by a remark humor did permit us to derive overheard from a Benning young- mail.

some enjoyment from the afternoon's labors when we saw so many varieties of undrepinnings in knickers but even this light form of amusement was dampened when we returned home and turned on the looking-glass our-

Musings: Several holiday stories were uncovered during the week but a sense of proportion forbids the re-telling. Benning busily occupied with construction activity. Post beautification rapidly progressing. Benning Herald columnists all taking a wellearned rest in the last issue except this one who should have taken one permanently. of the morrow sympathizing again with the ups and downs of the

A leisurely automobile tour through the post. Ground broken for the barracks of the hard-working 24th Infantry of San Juan Hill fame. All men who joined since then are still recruits. Jiggs Hall, we just learned, is named after a tireless school carpenter answering to the name of Jiggs because his real name is unpronounceable. And still holding forth in his usual energetic manner. The first evidence of a bigger and better First Division Road. Suggestion: Uniform traffic signs superimposed on the traditional Infantry School shield.

Unionalls. The fifteen percent Enbarrassing moments op-Christmas cards from friends we forgot to remember. Potential tank-coursers anticipating more work with sledge-hammers. Outstanding monographers Cappy Wells, Bill Kunzmann, Ham Meyer and Ollie Hughes, selected to repeat for the benefit of company officers. Captain Williams, high-powered motor and tank instructor, tactfully noncommittal as to the relative merits of gasoline brands. The New Year's reception. Admiring enviously the natty gyrene dress uniform. Class casualty: the much-liked Bill Brenner resigning to accept a good offer in civil life. Class Christmas present to the efficient custo-Reporting to he wrong ing us as embarrassed as the proverbial harpist who brought his instrument to a social gathering and then wasn't asked to play. New General Motors ads of kneeaction wheels to be followed a year hence by attachments to kick

THE FLARE

(Continued from page 1)

Yule Log, and Hounds. We went to Scoff and we remained to Praise. It was as pretty a Christmas picture as one could care to The Yule log was fitted into the Fireplace, and duly lighted by Sir Sid the Torchbearer. Then we thought the party broke up. We must have not only been struck dumb by the beauty of the spectacle but we must have been rendered Deaf as well, for it was not until I read in the Columbus Ledger the next day that Sir Sidney had spoken at great length and had given us the complete history of the Yule Log Tradition; and the members of The Hunt had lifted sweet voices in songs of the Hunt. Pleased as we were with the Party we do not think we were as flatly floored as that. It would appear that Long-hand Lovett. the Professional Pressman, had given out advance information and the M. F. H. forgotten to follow the schedule.

UNHAPPY LANDINGS

A very charming Young Lady, who is acquiring a higher education at Ogontz, came back to Benning to spend the Happy Holidays with her Parents. One of the first things to do was to hunt up Betty Welty and find out, first hand, all about the riding accident which had resulted, for Miss W., in a broken leg, a short stay in the Hospital, showers of sympathy and just too much attention for words. It all sounded to our Sweet Scholar like too good a Racket to miss. This other Betty decided to do a little Rough Riding of her own. She forgot, however, to let the horse in on the secret and the fall did not quite follow schedule. Instead of landing lightly on a leg, her landing was made on her head. Result— "slight concussion" and not a broken skull. And, of course, the Medicos didn't put a Plaster Cast on the skull to be used as an autograph album for signatures of sympathetic friends.

A dashing Lieutenant of Artillery, whose wife specializes in the Steeple Chase, decided to go on one of the Holiday Hunts and show the world that he, too, wore Riding Breeches in his family. Tallyho - Yoicks Yoicks - and away went the Field. Spurred on by his admirable ambition, our Hero rode as he had never ridden before. Yoicks-Yoicks-He soon led the Field. Yoicks and a few more Yoicks and he was soon leading the Pack. One more Yoick and his Horse stepped on the Fox and fell, throwing the Rider firmly and flatly on Terra Firma.

In every Cloud there is a Silver Lining. The above sad story has a Sequel. The Unhappy Landing just recorded was the forerunner and the contributing cause of a Happy Landing. A brother Officer of our hapless Hero was also madly riding in the same Holiday Hunt. As he came up with the fallen Hero, Brother Officer spied the riderless steed galloping over the ground in the distance and immediately tore off in pursuit. Slowly he gained on the runaway-he caught up—drew along side and reached out and firmly grasped the bridle of our hero's charger. The runaway picked this very moment to suddenly stop. Brother Oficer still had a firm hold on the halted horse's bridle. Something had to give way. It did. The grasp on the bridle held but Brother Officer left his own mount immediately-described a perfect ster: A free round-trip ride for post kiddies on the 22-calibre railroad. Sadly contemplating the fect-back contest at a chiropracafter reminding the missus to rethe dead letter office for our fan

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

Supply Sergeant.

- 1. If perchance, it happeneth that the supply and mess sergeants be as brothers, then it behooveth the company to make note thereof. For one bribeth another. Yea, verily, the mess sergeant doth covet more and better clothing, and the supply sergeant another and larger handout.
- 2. A good supply sergeant collecteth much property and keepeth it under close watch within his tent. For by doing so he maketh strict account thereof, and gaineth the praise of the company commander.
- 3. And in time it comes to pass that a supply sergeant is moved to give out a few articles concealed within his tent. Loudly does he call, and long, but, verily that which is received by the men is not what was desired.
- 4. For there be many who gaineth size 9EE, when they requested 5 AAA. And others are given the underwear of heavy wool when summersault in mid air-and made room, the dance floor was coma perfect two point Happy Landing on both feet.

And while we are on the subject of Unhappy Landings there was the talkative fair Femme who, at the Hunt Breakfast, complained that, although she enjoyed riding, every time she opened her mouth great clods of clay landed in it.

GONE GOOSE

One day, between Christmas and New Year, the silence and serenity of Miller Loop was disturbed about of many Geese. A large flock of elephant ducks was beating it out of the frosts of the frozen north and were heading for warmer climes. One of the neighboorhood's Heavy Hunters heard the honks and rushed out in the yard. He took one look at the low-flying flock and noted that they were headed one point east of south. Hunter hurried into the house, grabbed his fowling piece, climbed into his car, and headed south, hoping to have a goose for New Years Day Dinner. the race—The Geese in the air and the Goose in the car. Due to detours which delayed slightly the Hunter's progress, the Geese gained a slight advantage, but Our Champion clung to the Chase. The Hunter stopped his car just short of the Gulf of Mexico, but the Geese never even slowed up, and as the New Years Dinner disappeared in the haze he sorrowfully climbed into his auto and drove back home.

CUSTODIAN CLEANS CLUB

CLEVERLY In the midst of the New Year

Party at the Club, an incident occured which indicated the ingenuity and demonstrated the dependability of Dowdall the beaming Boniface of our only Hostelry. As all know—except the three or four post People who were not therethe Club had done itself proud and had assembled all the appropriate appurtenances for a Synthetic Hilti, shreds of serpentine cleaned, but Mine Host Dowdall couldn't summon his Sweepers without spoiling the Supper which was being served at the tables adjacent. Dowdall delayed only a moment and then hit on a happy Solution. The Master Mind, in preparing for the pleasure of the Club's Guests, had procured from somewhere a famous Floor Show end of a week's vacation, well and had kept it up his sleeve, so knowing that the re-opening of to speak, to spring on the party school was as inevitable as a per- later in the morning. But right at this point in the proceedings he tors' convention. And so to bed, produced two performers to strut their stuff. By the time the acromind us in the morning to call at batic dancer, whose routine mainly the dead letter office for our fan consisted of rolling around the

That which dealeth with the the days are hot, and the night cooleth not. And the wrath of these does wax mighty.

- 5. Keep thou always in mind that a prudent supply sergeant retaineth always the new for himself, and forget not that he is accustomed to pass out that which
- 6. Neither must thou expect that supply sergeant should stoop to drill like the common soldier. His august position prohibiteth such doings, for when requested to turn out by the company commander, he sayeth that he cannot then check the 35's, or keep strict account of the property within the
- 7. Neither must thou expect that a supply sergeant maketh a good shot. For, being in collusion with the mess sergeant, he waxeth fat and round, and groweth indolent in his ways. So that when he doth assume the prone position he keepeth his head and feet near the ground with difficulty, and moveth up and down even like un-(Please turn to page 4) paratively clean. The Dancer had dragged out the debris on her cos-

MONK MEETS WITH A MISHAP

After several days of Holiday Leave, Adjutant General Lewis, the Bad Man of Mexico, showed up bright and early on January 2nd at the Office where his Assistant, Longhand Lovett, works. Lopes Lewis was sporting a badly bruised Beak. Sheriff Funk, who knows all and, we fear, has an axe to 8:00 A. M. by the hoarse honking grind with Pinch Hitter, Phoned us the information concerning the contused countenance. We wended our way to Post Headquarters and insisted on an interview with the injured man, but found him rather reticent. Question—"Where did it happen?" Answer—"In the dark". When did it happen" was the next question, and the answer came back—"Between Dawn and Dark". You can see for yourselves from the above contradictory answers that direct questions were not eliciting information, so we tried other tactics. We noticed that the Assistant Adjutant General's Chair was vacant so we inquired where "He is over at the Lovett was. Dentist office" came the prompt reply. "Ah-Ha-So you bumped your Beak on Lovett's Teeth" said we. "Lay off me" said he. "I'll answer no questions and tell you no tales." Whereupon we left the Battered Beauty with the promise to write the best story we could think up, and the following is it. Monk meandered down to Radium Sprngs to spend Sunday and see the New Year in. The two attractions of this famous resort which were instrumental in making Monk decide on this locale were the Orchestra-Lewis loves good music - and the Crystal Pool -Monk is a marvelous swimmer. The nasty looking Nose, instead of being something to cavil and carp at, is really proud proof of his ability as a dumb but daring diver. During an exhibition of his excellence, our Adjutant General arious Hail to a Noisy New Year. climbed to the highest take-off he It was not long before the dance could find and made a beautiful floor became clogged with confet- straight Nose Dive into the deepnart of the Pool eral debris. The floor had to be at the point where the plunge was made the water is 35 feet deep and has a strong upward curent, The Daring Diver smashed his Snozzle

CITATION FOR THE WEEK

on a stone at the very bottom of the Pool. And that, Readers, is how it happened—"Believe It Or

The Flare's Citation for the week goes to Buddy Tharp, eleven year old Son of Captain Tharp. Buddy, armed only with his Twenty two rifle, journeyed to the Jungles of the Oswichee last week; and there in the tangled thickets, where Old and Haughty Hunters had failed, brought to bag with a single shot floor, had retired to the dressing the Record Gobbler of the Season.

NEWSPAPERS BACK McARTHUR

(Continued from page 1)

ians for whom minimum pay was fixed at $30 a month" grumbling came from the Army that it was not perceptible to the general public. The Army is not supposed to grumble, but some-body ought to grumble about it when Congress assembles in Jan-

When the Regular Army took over from the Department of Agand training the Civilian Conservavation Corps, there was considerable curiosity as to what the effect might be on the Regular Ar-The answer is just out, in Chief of Staff Douglass MacArthur's official report for 1933, the N. Y. News comments:

"There is, naturally, the sore spot rubbed up in the Army over the fact that an Army private's minimum pay is $17.85 a month while a CCC man starts at $30, even if he does have to send most of it home.

But more important than that from the point of view of the counofficer framework.

The Army is normally called tion camps, another 460 as inspectlege R. O. T. C.'s. This year the Army has also had to release about Chesterfield tobacco to CCC camps, of which there are

As a result, says General Mac-Arthur, there is many a Regular Army battalion with only one officer on duty. The First Division, spearhead of our land forces with most of its strength concentrated in our own Second Corps Area, should have 403 captains and lieutenants at peacetime strength but has now only 127 on duty with it.

The rest of the Regular Army is similarly under-officered.

This lack of officers (says Gen. MacArthur) has brought Regular Army training in the continental United States to a virtual standstill and has destroyed the readiness of units for immediate and effective employment on emergency

So the sensible thing for us to do is to bring the Army up to the strength and efficiency it had before the depression began its inevitable drains on the Army. Our defense forces, land and sea, are the best and cheapest national insurance we can buy. They are try's safety is what the CCC de- more than that. They are insurmands have done to the Army's ance that we cannot possibly do without.

We think Gen. MacArthur deupon every year to detail about serves the country's thanks and 460 of its 12,000 offcers to the congratulations for having called Officers' Reserve Corps instruc- attention in so detailed and clearcut a manner to the present perior-instructors for the National lous (we use "perilous" advised-Guard, and 680 more to the Colly) condition of our land forces. ly) condition of our land forces.

"By reason of his service at the personal observation since of European army methods", The N. Y. Times declares, "General Douglas MacArthur is our highest authority on the organization, training, and efficiency of the United States Army.

When he says in his report to the Secretary of War that "at this moment the Army's strength in personnel and materiel and its readiness for employment are below the danger line," the statement should have the sober attention of the country. The Army is not prepared if it lacks the officers necessary to lead its units and if the training of both officers and men is not regularly kept up. In both respects the Army suffers today. In many cases, the Chief of Staff declares, there is but one officer on duty with an entire battalion. The authorized peace strength of the First Division (headquarters New York City) in captains and lieutenants is 403, and it has only 127, including staff officers. There have been only seven company officers with the Twenty-sixth Infantry "since the mobilization of the CCC."

"This lack of officers," warns General MacArthur, "has brought Regular Army training in the continental United States to a virtual have been detailed to the camps of 3,100 officers and many non-coms front in the World War and his of Army officers have to be di- bat soldier.

verted every year to duty with the National Guard, the Reserve Offizens' Military Training Camps. General MacArthur's recommendation that Army officers with the CCC be replaced by reserve offi-It may be doubted possible. would give the Army the increase in officers and enlisted men that General MacArthur urges, in order to bring its strength up to half the complement indicated by the National Defense Act. Congress would not listen to General Pershing when the country was prospering. But adequate mechanization, motorization, aircraft, and artillery modernization should be provided for the compact army

Is the Cavalry passing? is the N. Y. Sun's caption on this editorial:

"General Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff of the Army, sees two methods which might be followed to assure that this arm shall have ability to carry out its mission. One is the complete mechanization of all cavalry units by the provision of "mechanical carriers" for soldiers and cargo, standstill. Hundreds of officers suitable for scout and reconnaisance work and others designed for the CCC, although even in normal combat in any average type of times "we are unable, under the terrain." The second method is 12,000 officer set-up, to meet the the replacement of the horse and full peacetime requirements." By mule by motor vehicles for every this he means that a large number purpose except carrying the com-

Adoption of the first method is prevented now by lack of suitable cers' Training Corps and the Citi- machines, and probably will be prevented in the immediate future by lack of funds though General MacArthur asks that funds be provided at once for complete cers should be heeded as soon as mechanization of one cavalry brigade, to be stationed at whether Congress at this time Knox, Kentucky He recommends that all other cavalry units (Please turn to page 8)

INSIGNIA BUTTONS

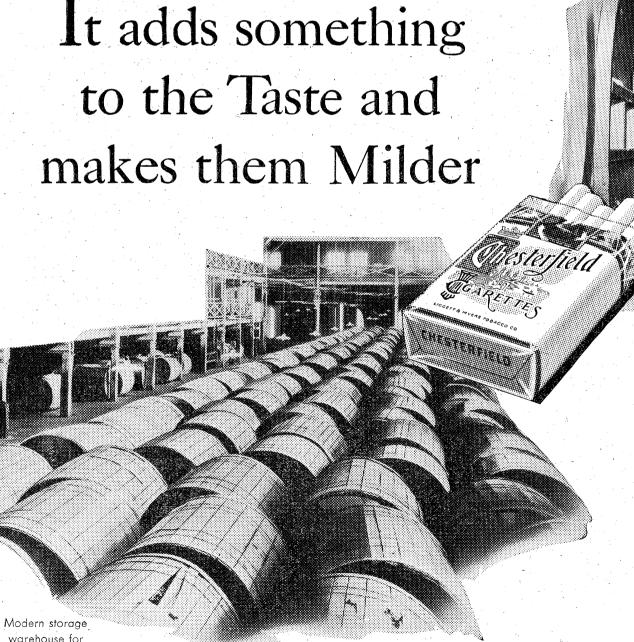

MEYER >

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold plating. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned with a so-lution of soapsuds and household ammonia.

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

> EUROPEAN WINE CELLAR

OMETHING like the method of ageing fine wines is used in ageing and mellowing the tobaccos for Chesterfield cigarettes.

The picture you see here was taken inside one of our modern storage warehouses where the tobaccos for Chesterfield are put away.

There are about four and one-half miles of these Liggett & Myers warehouses filled with thousands of casks of Domestic and Turkish tobaccos, most of it lying there ageing and mellowing for Chesterfield cigarettes.

It takes just about three years to age the tobacco for your Chesterfields.

Everything that money can buy and that science knows about that can make a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better, is used in making Chesterfields.

EMISOCIAL HIGHLICHTS

Infantry School Woman's Club To Hold Regular Meeting At Polo Club

Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Polo-Hunt Club on Monday, January 8th at 2:15.

Dr. D. R. Anderson, formerly president of Randolph Macon College, now President of Wesleyan College for Women, will speak at

When your dollar buys most for your after-Christmas needs — shop at

SILVER'S

You'll probably find a thousand things you'll need after the holidays. And when you do, you'll know that you can get them best

-most economically-and most conveniently at Silver's. Buy now-and save

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

. which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a. m.

Excellent Curb Service

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT

POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not

In The Military Service to 9:00 p. m.

yourself money later.

DO YOUR PART

The Infantry School Woman's his meeting. Dr. Anderson is an authority on History and Sociology and is an informal pleasing personality.

At this meeting Mrs. William G. Linvsay will play the following piano selections: Country Gardens by Percy Grainger and Au Convent by A. Borodin.

COLONEL AND MRS. HALL HOSTS AT DANCE IN HONOR OF MISS MARGERY HALL

Among the most delightful events for the debutante set during he full holiday program was the dance New Year's evening given by Colonel and Mrs. J.-DeCamp Hall at the Polo-Hunt Club in honor of their daughter, Margery, who has been spending the Christmas holidays as the guest of her parents. A small receiving line consisting of the hosts and Miss Hall formed to welcome the guests. Four young ladies and six bachelors were asked to assist. They were: the Misses Nana Seeley, Kenneth Kendall, Elizabeth Caton, and Eleanor Bonesteel and Lieutenants Joseph W. Stilwell, Jr., Joseph C. Crawford, Stephen O. Fuqua, Jr., James O. Boswell, James J. Heriot and William E. Grubbs. The 29th Infantry orchestra played and the guests danced from nine to twelve.

COLONEL AND MRS. PERSONS HOSTS TO REGIMENT NEW YEAR'S AFTERNOON

Colonel and Mrs. William E Persons were the hosts to the officers and ladies of the 29th Infantry at an informal tea New Year's afternoon to wish them a "Happy New Year." The guests were invited from four-thirty until six. Mrs. Norris A. Wimberly assisted the hosts in receiving the guests while at the tea table. Mesdames Henry C. Britt and Claude B. Ferenbaugh poured.

LADIES' OF MEDICAL CORPS MEET FOR BRIDGE AND TEA

The monthly meeting of the ladies' bridge club of the Medical Corps met Tuesday afternoon at the nurses' quarters. Four tables of bridge assembled at two thirty and played until four thirty when several other ladies arrived for tea. Winning prizes at bridge were, Mrs. Henry E. Fraser, first place, Mrs. James E. Brumette, second, Mrs. Burton A. Seeley, third and Mrs. John F. fourth place. Entertaining at this meeting were Mesdames Raymond A. Pearson, Lucius K. Patterson and George C. Rife.

MISS NANA SEELEY ENTER-TAINS PRECEDING DANCE

Miss Nana Seeley was the hostess Monday evening to a few of her friends at a buffet supper preceding the Hall dance. Miss Seeley's guest list included friends

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

WANTED—Day bed or studio couch and a reed Chinese lounging chair. Phone City 3502-J.

FOR SALE—Boston bull pups 11 wks. old. $15 to $20. Guinea pigs, 35c pair. Phone 3965-J.

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

mong the Benning younger set.

After dinner the guests proceeded to the dance at the Polo-Hunt

MRS. REISS AND MRS. CHIS-HOLM HOSTS AT TEA NEW YEAR'S AFTERNOON

On New Year's afternoon Mrs. Melissa Reiss and Mrs. Jean Chisho'm were the hosts to a few of their friends entertaining with a ea from six to eight at the chaming Pou mansion on Front street in Columbus. The tea table was laid with a venetian point lace cloth. In the center was a silver bowl of red roses flanked by silver candlestick burning red tapers. Mrs. Maxwell poured while her attractive young daughter served.

The guest list included about 30 friends from Columbus and Fort Benning.

29TH INF. LADIES BRIDGE CLUB MEETS TUESDAY AF-TERNOON

The 29th Infantry ladies' bridge club met Tuesday afternoon at the 29th Infantry Officers' Club. Six tables assembled for bridge while a number of ladies arrived for tea. Winning prizes for the day were: Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin first, Mrs. William B. Yancey, second and Mrs. Morris B. DePass, third. The hostesses for the affair were: Mesdames Henry L. Barnett, Morris B. DePass, Carl F. Duffner, George H. Decker, Clyde D. Eddleman, James E. Bowen and Selina Waddington. At four thirty sandwiches, tea and coffee were served.

LT. AND MRS. HONAN HONOR GUEST AT TEA

Lt. and Mrs. Honan were the honor guests last week when Colone land Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton entertained at a delightful tea at their quarters.

Throughout the house holly and mistletoe were used as decorations.

Receiving with the hosts were: Lt. and Mrs. Honan. Assisting Mrs. Peyton were Mrs. C. N. Weeks, Mrs. W. B. Wallace, Mrs. DeCamp Hall, Mrs. Fred L. Munson. Mrs. R. H. Kellev.

The guest list included about 175 friends of the honorees.

PERSONALS

Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph H. Cleland have as their houseguest Mrs. George Steinmeyer of Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harold L. Mace returned Tuesday from Jacksonville, Florida.

Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly returned Monday with their daughter, Katherine from a two weeks' visit to Miami, Florida.

This week sees all the young college set returning to their studies having enjoyed a full and a gay holiday vacation. Among those leaving for their various schools were: Miss Elizabeth Catron on Tuesday for Ogontz, Miss Louise Waddington on Tuesday for Smith, Miss Esther Foos on Tuesday for Vassar while on Wed-(Please turn to page 8)

PROVERBS OF CAPTAIN SOLOMON

(Continued from page 2) to a rocking chair.

8. Neither is his eye-sight keen, for the checking of many records has dimmed his gaze, so that the black becometh invisible at 200 yards.

9. But, lo-be there a man in the company who purloineth even as much as one button, O. D. from the supply room, let him beware; for that same supply sergeant spotteth it while yet afar off.

10. Now a good supply sergeant keepeth many things in the supply room, some of them strange to the Government Issue of the Army of Samuel. For the company commander maketh many and strange demands; he calleth for issued lightning bugs on demonstrations, for which the quartermaster furnisheth no light. He also demandeth good axes, sharp and with strong handles, for those who transgress and chop wood for the kitchen from four in the morning till the hour of breakfast.

11. When the day of salvage cometh, a good supply sergeant lieth cheerfully; also he taketh one and maketh many therefrom, and yet leaveth the original so that it deceiveth all who gaze thereon. And by doing so he turneth away the wrath of the company commander, and instead doth win praise that the auditor findeth no shortage.

12. And Lo!—when the day cometh that the general inspector arriveth, then doth the supply sergeant prove himself a true magician, for he findeth all manner of things. Has an article been lost or thrown away, or left, even though it be on the furthermost end of the reservation, still has he found it, and that which he findeth not, he replaceth.

Selah!

REASONS:

Each one of our more than thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all you shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE COMPANY

For Thirty-Nine Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

Miller-Taylor SHOE COMPANY'S

Pre-Inventory Sale CONTINUES

offering nationally known brands of shoes at very moderate prices.

For Ladies:

I. Miller - Matrix - Vitality

For Men:

Stacy Adams - Florsheim - Friendly -Fortune

This IS Your Opportunity to purchase America's finest footwear at prices which will be a great saving for you.

LLER-TAYLOR

SHOE COMPANY

1130 BROADWAY

29th Inf.

The Company has had a long rest during Christmas and New Years and one of the best we have

The bowling tea mconsists of Sergeant LaBonte, Red Burns, Private, first class, Corporal Wilhite, and Private Bitals. The first half of the bowling season is over and we came out in second place. We miss Pvt. Hall and Cameron stars on the team of last year.

We had a contest for the biggest liar in the company and Corp. Wahu Walton said "Lookout boys here I come:

'Boys when I was in the old army cavalry I went down to the stables one morning for my horse and found him kicking and whimpering. There was a water bucket hanging just outside his stall. When I arrived at the stable my horse grabbed the water bucket in his mouth and threw it at me and I got him some water.'

Charlie Wright says "Corp. Wahu Walton's horse don't know noth-You ought to see that horse of mine. I took him down to the ring to do some jumping in the horseshow bowl and every time he jumps and tips one of the jumping bars he will shake his head meaning 'I will try to do better next trip.' McLendon our star horse jumper showed up about the time Wright was finishing his tale and said "If you want to hear a real one gather around. Here goes: -about some three years ago we had a horse named Red McDonald. The boys thought he died but late one afternoon I saw a drove of grasshoppers coming up over the hill and didn't think anything of it until next morning. Next morning I found that these grasshoppers had eaten the horseandwere pitching his horseshoes to decide just which one of them would eat the saddle.'

Private B. R. White has made the highest mark in the Post Horseshoers School for the year 1933, making an average of 981/2 percent. We are all proud of White

THESE YEARS"

A picture filled with excitement, delightful romance, thrills and fun.

Presented by the Ford Motor Company.

Rialto Roval Tues. Jan. 9 Thurs. Jan 11

Burrus Motor Co. Phenix City Motor Co.

29th Infantry, Sergeant "Storm" Frank White, who is a star pitcher on the Headquarters Battalion Baseball Team. He had two brothers who served in the world war.

COMPANY "E"

The holidays are over and all the men are back on the job.

Most of the men made New Year resolutions and "Believe it or not", some of them went until Jan. 2 before breaking them. That ought to be some kind of a record. First Sergeant Davis made a resolution to make bigger and better fatigue details during the coming year. The trouble is that he is a man of Company "E" dropped a close game to "H" Company football team last Saturday. Oh, maybe the score wasn't so close but the members of the team will all agree that there were some parts of it

Sergeant Gurley is very glad (?) to be back on the job with his The most used bayonet class. command is "Ground rifles and cross over". The members of the class are hoping he will soon decide which side he wants them on.

Of course while Sergeant Gurley is busy with the recruits, Sgt. Dalby is getting a breathing spell. He has had a tough time trying to teach them how to take interval to the right.

Pvt. Ben Barlow has just returned from Wayne County, Miss., where he spent his holidays. He came in with mud up to his knees and looked to be about half starved to death. Pvt. C. L. Davis is back to duty after visiting the alligators and mud-turtles southern Florida. He was greatly over-joyed over the fact that land has been discovered on his father's property. Pvt. (as you were) Private First-Class Newton spent his holidays in the wilds of Alabama. Pfc. Polk spent his holidays as usual running around with the recruits. Pvt. Elmer Rials decked up with his red tie and blew into the city. As yet don't know whether "Red" Gibbs or Peter Stiffes is out of a shack.

Certain members of the company still prefer the old tub baths down at the house in place of the modern showers that are to be found in the barracks.

At last, Henry Ford is doomed. Ex-sheriff Murdaugh has invented a piece of machinery that runs without fuel. Henry, you have reigned long enough. Please step aside for Murdaugh.

Private G. I. Ragsdale has been discharged. Now what in the world will the "Goldbricks" do. They haven't "G. I." to do their

The men were very anxious for the holidays to get here. They had lots of work to do on their equipment. The trouble was that they waited until the night of Jan.

1 before they started. "Wimpy" King went home and the minute he stepped in the door, the doctor was called. He found out that it wasn't the mumps but just fat that the good old army chow had put on him. "Nigger" Justice is still trailing along behind Recruit Petty. Better watch your step, Petty.

Half-pint has been recommended for "over-shootser". Pop" Falgout will be next. Who

That's all there is. There aint no

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

All of the boys have returned from their passes and furloughs and the day room again resumes it's normal appearance as the crowd congregates therein to relate happenings during their brief respite from duties during the Yuletide and NOO YURS holidays.

Several of the men in this organization whose homes are in Florida returned laden down with oranges grapefruit and even cocoanuts to make the remaining days of idleness happy for the members making such a great record. White who were unable to be home on has a brother in RMG Company, Christmas. Among the contingent that sojourned to the land of Sunshine and alligators for the seven day rest period were Malvin Snead, who incidentally spent the night before Xmas with Queenie waiting up to see Santa Claus. Next in order was James Hendry, Jimmie for short, Denver Turner, H. C. Smith, (not the mayor), Wayne L. Howard and last but certainly not least Mr. Hennessey Henderson, hog catcher extraordinary from the good old state of Alabama.

Henderson reported a scarcity of wild boars in the palmetto jungles but told a story about seeing a whole flock of wild cows just as he shot his last round of ammunition, and what a STORY.

The rest of the fellows who have recently returned are wandering around the company with that long ost love expression on their phy.

Our sympathy to Mrs. and Private First Class M. F. Crawford, of this organization, who were hurt when their sedan skidded while enroute to Florida on a fishing trip. Here's hoping for a speedy recovery for your wife, yourself and Private Sikes of B Company.

In this article we wish also to congratulate the members of the Brady Bomber basketball aggregation for the fine showing they made in a bid for the Regimental championship. Even though defeated by E and Regimental Headquarters Companies the supremacy of the 1st Battalion is to record in sport accomplishments and it was no easy job. Members of the basketball quintet are Mal Snead, Rip.

83rd F A

HQRS., HQRS. BATTERY AND COMBAT TRAIN

The Liaison Section is known as the Allied Section. The personnel consists of the following, four noble on's of Italy, one Armenian, two frogs, one Spaniard, one Georgia Cracker and two from old shanty town. The section was well scattered during the holidays. Sciortino paid a visit to his five grandmothers. What a man. Can you imagine one soldier having five grandmothers? Isdale made faces for animal crackers during the holidays. Kitchen spent a few days in the hooch-scow from all reports he tried to hock a feather bed and he got the bed hung up in the hock shop door and they had to tear down the partition to get it loose. Sgt. McLeod donated $20.00 to help Al Capone continue his per Ray, F. Smith, Julius Prince, Joe Knight, Fuzzy Davis and Hiram Hobbs.

"Who's afraid of the big bad wolf."

—N. H. H.

COMPANY "H"

Well when you read this the working class will be back in harness again, for as this is written the end of the holidays is creeping up. Oh, well, all play and no work makes more headaches.

A flock of E. T. S.'ers are getting out in the near future and are thrusting an experimental (Please turn to page 8) case against the government. Sgt. MeLeod's name will appear on the honor roll in the Hall of Fame at

The Battery conducted a Pig Hunt during the Christmas holidays. About twenty men took part in the hunt. 1st Sgt. Sweger was master of hounds. One hound by the name of Bolivar brought up the rear with "Wild man" Gunn. The Battery hunted high and low but no pig could be found, as from all reports the pigs were spending the holidays in the vicinity of Jamestown and could not be located in the creek bottoms. The next time the battery goes out on a pig hunt it is going to take its pigs with it.

BATTERY "C"

With the holidays over again and most all the men back from furlough Battery C starts off 1934 with maneouvers limbered.

The Supply Sergeant has made a resolution to do more horse back riding this year. He went riding Pay Day afternoon.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen from the hall of Battery "C", one bicycle, model 1928. Any information pertaining to the recovery of this bike will be appreciated.

In response to remarks in last week's Herald by Headquarters Battery, the reporter wishes to state that being overloaded with intoxicated drugs is a poor way to appear at a public gathering, to wit; a dance, and show jealousy over the name in which the dance was sponsored. No Battery is harred from giving a dance.

CLEARANCE

The Famous and Nationally Known

FOOT DELIGHT SUEDE SHOES

Included in this January Clearance of this famous quality shoe for ladies who really love fine footwear are suedes in black and brown in pumps and ties . . . including both high and low heels. Also as a convenience to you, Kirven's shows below the exact sizes in stock at this low price.

Originally priced at $7.50

Now

Here Are The Sizes

$495

81/2 AAAA $\mathbf{A}\mathbf{A}$ -5 Α 2 7 4 1 \mathbf{B} 1

Main Floor

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin To Meet Veteran In Finals

Maloney Picked To Meet Griffin In Final Of Next Card

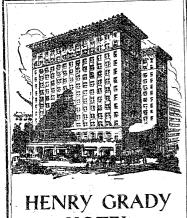

Fight fans of the post will have a chance to slake their thirst for gore and action on January 16, when the first professional card in a month will be staged in the gym at the post.

Advance dope from the athletic office states that John Corn Griffin, who went down in fighting defeat before Bob Godwin in his last appearance at the post, will make the start of his come-back march against Jim Malone, big swat and swing from little old New York. And did Mrs. Griffin's boy pick a hard one!

All who saw Griffin lose to Godwin at the post will agree that the big Tanker was putting up a grand and glorious battle till the referee stepped in and awarded the fight to the visitor, and there are some who claim that Griffin could have continued the fight, among them being Corn himself.

In meeting Maloney, Griffin will have a chance to prove that he can stand up against the big fellows for Malone is known as one of the big-time circuit in the box ing game.

Maloney is the same boy who

HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

HORSES

(With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)

I've taken the nags as I've found them, I've had my picking of remounts, And four of the lot sure were prime; One was a half-bred devil, One was a horse just in name, One I half halted in Frisco, One fell in a ditch and went lame.

I was a young man at Riley, Tender as hell to begin, But old Aggie Austen she schooled me, And Aggie was clever as sin. Faster than lightning 'cross country, Very erratic she were, Ran up to a jump and sat down on her rump,— And I drew some insurance on her.

Then I was given a monster, The highest I ever was on, Threw me up into a sapling, And when I came down he was gone. "Jumper" they classed him at Riley, Said he would go six foot nine. He did a reverse—(but I had a swell nurse) Camels are not in my line.

Next I was given a dray-horse, Schooled in the West Riding Hall Advertised as a splendid four-gaiter, (Walk, trot, stumble, and fall) He wasn't so agile and supple But yet he could manage somehow To turn at the trot—in a four-acre lot. But now he is hitched to a plow.

I've applied tannic acid diluted To places not mentioned in print I've fumbled and fallen like you did I've worn all my limbs in a splint. I've bought me a nice brand new remount, The most wonderful things he can do. But—because you're my friend And have something to spend, I'd sure like to sell him to you.

—Inf. School News, 1923.

through the ranks of the heavies, and has played tick-tack-toe with Boxing Tournev the Garrulous Gob in their many encounters in the squared circle. Starts January 17 Heretofore he has lacked the necessary push to make the grade for the title, but has won for himself the name of "The Perpetual Challenger" among the sport-writers of the country.

As an interesting point in connection with the coming fight with Griffin, Maloney is meeting Johnny Risko in Miami, Fla., Monday evening, January 7, the winner to get a shot at Mickey Walker, the Toy bulldog, some-time later in the month. Latest news from the ring-side at Miami states that 205 pounds when he completed his the vicinity of 205 pounds when he completed his training on Tuesday, and is in wonderful shape. Which gives Griffin a few extra pounds to wonder about.

Plans for the semi-final bout have not been completed as yet, came up with Jack Sharkey Amateur League

Southeastern Tournament May Be Held Here Says Rumor

The post intra-mural boxing season is slated to get under on January 17, with bouts taking place approximately every week thereafter until February 9. Lieutenant Howard R. Johnson, assistant athletic officer, who is in charge of the Simon Pures for the Maloney weighs in the vicinity of competition, is expecting some stiff contests between the five teams training on Tuesday, and is in entered, and is looking for some additional material to add to the post team.

January 17 the Black Pirates from Headquarters Battalion 29th, will touch leather with the Cannoneers of the 83rd; and the Kelly leatherpushers will meet the Tankers. This bout and the one to follow on January 24 will attract the most interest when the Golden Tornado again clashes with the Blue Thunderbolt, as the two organizations have been traditional enemies from time immemorial, more so in boxing than in any other line of sports. The Irish and the Black Pirates will also stage a combat that evening.

January $\tilde{30}$ will see the Gunners of the 83rd and the Tankers in action against each other, while the 1st Batt Irish and the Kelly's try conclusions. February 5 the Black and Captain Fry prefers to wait and not arouse false hopes of the fans by a premature announcement. However he did release the event would probably feature two (Please turn to page 7)

Pirates will meet the Gunners again, while the Blue Thunderbolt Evans Is DownedBy and the Green Wave stage another battle of the elements.

The final bouts will be held on February 9, when the Tankers meet the Gunners for the second time and the Irish and the Black Pirates stage the closing battle of the tourney.

The Tankers, holders of last year's title, are looked upon to repeat for the pennant this season, although the Irish will put up a strong battle with any team in the series. The Kelly's lost several good scrappers by discharge and transfer, and unless new talent is unearth, may not make their usual good showing.

Company A, 4th Engineers is to be attached to the 83rd for the tournament and it will probably be a race between the Pirates and Gunners for secondary supremacy

Winners and runners-up in the post tourney are to compose the post team, and big things are in prospect for that particular aggregation this season.

The first of these is the rumor that the annual Southeastern Amateur boxing tourney is to be held at Benning this year, with boxers from all over this section coming to swap punches. Although news from other battlefronts is scarce, it looks rather as if the Benning boys will retain their S. E. A. A. U. title this season, and if such should prove to be the case, Lieutenant Johnson, has stated his hopes of taking the post amateurs to the National Amateur tourney. which is to take place in Boston. All of which, while still in prospect, would be a big thing for the post in the athletic line.

Bonham In Suprise

J. B. Bonham upset the dope bucket Sunday afternoon when he met Julius Evans in the finals of the boys singles division of the annual fall tennis tourney by defeating the favorite 8-6, 3-6, 7-5, to cop the title for the ensuing year in the younger division.

Evans had been doped to take the contest easily after the showing he made against Major Irving in the men's singles by forcing the post champion to a five-set match in the semi-finals before admitting defeat.

Bonham's victory may be attributed to the improvement that he has made in his style of play dur-(Please turn to page 7)

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

POWER (COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

AND SERVICE Start The New Year RIGHT!

> A short time in the garage with our De-Luxe Service will put your car in excellent shape for 1934. It comprises a thorough mechanical examination, cleaning, inside and out, and greasing.

Auto Department

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

$ 550,000.00 $3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representive—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

Seven Teams Enter Jumping Trials To In Post Basketball BeginJanuary 12th League This Year

The post league in basketball is scheduled to get under way next Monday evening, with seven teams entered this year, in place of the six that competed last season, the Medicos having reentered the ber of entries. struggle for the garrison title.

The league this year promises to be even more hotly contested than last, with the Irish from the 1st Battalion, last year's champions, retaining the majority of their league-leading organization, and the Kelly's from the 2nd Battalion puting out one of the strongest aggregations that they have shown since the days of Kjelstrom and Franz.

Each team in the league will meet each other team four times for a total of 84 contests, and the league should run throughout most of January, February and early March. The schedule of games has not been published as yet, but it is expected that the customary two games per evening will take aggregation.

Another strong factor to be considered in the league this season and although not figured among ner has upon one? is the bolstering of the Greencords from the I. S. D., by the addition of Gilbert, formerly of the Medicos, and the work that the Special Units have been doing in their own league, which has been under way for some time.

The Tankers have been occupied also in running off a battalion league, though keeping rather quiet as to what manner of quintet they will put on the floor. The work done with the team during the first half of last year, shows that Coach Rosebaum knew what he was doing with his players, and gave the Golden Tornado a nucleus

PBP...

Use (-H00D-)

in every step

Heels and Soles

Hood Rubber Products Co., Inc. Watertown, Mass.

For people of jaded palates, Kinnett's Ice Cream will almost certainly "hit the spot". Serve it next time for dinner and watch the effect it makes.

Sold at the SODA FOUNT and the OFFICERS' CLUB

The Equestrians of the post will begin the winter round of weekly jumping competitions on January 12 instead of the 13th as previously scheduled, with one contest to take place each week for an indefinite period, depending on the num-

The weekly winners this year are to be awarded a silver goblet, with a trophy going to that rider making the best score for the season, based on the highest total score for the series. Absence from more than one weekly competition will disqualify the competitor for further consideration for the series trophy, though not from the weekly prizes.

Horses will be available for practice on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, (holidays excepted) from 4:00 to 5:00 P. M.

The competitions are open to all members of the garrison and their house guests, with a small entry fee being charged.

around which to form the current

The Artillery also will have a the leaders, may prove the surprise factor of the league.

The Medico aggregation furnishwith the problem of putting out a former baseball exploits, they have will probably depend more on 29th will be handicapped by the absence of Hayes, who was injured in the football season, and will probably not appear on the court during the first of the season.

EVANS DOWNED BY BONHAM

(Continued from page 6) the last few weeks, having added a lot of steadiness that has helped his game wonderfully. Added to this he showed the development of a flatter drive and a harder service. Evans' game while showing more finish, was not quite as hard and fast as that played by Bonham, and it was this factor more than any other that went toward the victory.

The remainder of the matches are being played off on the post courts and should be finished short-

GRIFFIN-MALONEY MEET IN NEXT CARD

(Continued from page 6) light fast boys in a ten two-minute round battle. The remainder of the card, with the exception of the curtainraiser, will follow custom, with two six-rounders, a fourrounder in the boxing line, and the opening event being one the popular wrestling matches.

"Swear?"

"Sure." "Smoke?"

"Drink?"

"Sure."

"Pet?"

"Sure. Now strut your stuff and stop asking questions."

Motorist (returning from inspection of victim): "Well, he'll never walk again!"

Wife: 'Good heavens! Whatever makes you think that?"

Motorist: "He's just told me so. He thinks it's far too dangerous."

Dr. R. H. Brown OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Murrah Bldg. Phones Office 4108

24th Inf.

COMPANY "A"

The men of the Company enjoyed one of the most pleasant Yuletides spent in Fort Benning, Georgia since arriving here, Oct. Thanks to the Commandant!

Sergeant Jackson took his 2nd furlough in 20 years during the certy Insmiatu -ETARHTESHTE holidays. The DEPRESSION certainly must be over.

Old '98 is steadily preparing for his retirement early in the spring of 1934. He is drawing a list of Army Clothes. What are your plans, Sarge?~

COMPANY "C"

The New Year has started with the usual amount of prospects put out by the "local reporters" (soldiers). Their programme of events. so far, range from the re-imbursement of the 15% cut, down to the payment of the National Adjusted Compensation. It might be mentioned also that some of our "News Hounds" are beginning to reorganize the regiment. It's funny how the New Year affects military men, especially, on the question of money matters. Oh, well, it must be natural, as each year makes its advent full of new hopes. Such is Ever stop to think of the psystronger organization this year, chological effect a Christmas din-Just before Christmas a fellow endures the presence of stew, hash, beans and what-not, with the expectation of es the unknown quantity. Faced making up for lost time at Christmas dinner, then reaches the tatop-notch team to equal their ble for the big feast at the appointed time and finds that there is so very few men to choose from, and much before him that his appetite fails him. Isn't that awful? Well, team-work than individual stars.

Reid, just make them all good and Headquarters Battalion of the there will be nothing to regret at there will be nothing to regret at Xmas time.

"Low-down" says ten days is a long time to hang around broke and do nothing. A fellow can think of more to buy around Xmas time while broke, than any other time of the year with money in his pockets. He further states: How can a fellow in his condition do any better?

-C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

For the close of the year, The West End Legions, the noted Club of Company "E", gave their dance on the 29th of December, which was a sensation of the vear. Everyone had a glorious time, the compliments were great.

The company surely had a Merry Christmas. A wonderful dinner was served for the members of the Company and their families and guests.

A number of men of this Organization took advantage of the holidays and went on furlough, visiting local towns throughout Georgia and Alabama.

-Theodore S. Hicks.

COMPANY "F"

Old Company "F", 24th Infantry was all full of smiles and jokes Tuesday morning when the 1st Sgt. called the roll and every member answered "here". Everyone enjoyed the short vacation and the good neals that the old timers prepared.

Every body in the company was wondering why Pvt. Lucius T. Gilbert (Legs) drew two new bed sheets from the Supply Sergeant and his eyes were all full of tears. We later found out that Pvt. Gilbert had been detailed for Guard after prearranging a date on old Six and Eight and his handkerchiefs were not large enough to dry his tears. Better luck next time, "Legs".

COMPANY "G"

With the advent of 1934 and the whole world wondering what it will usher forth, especially the army, the company pauses and points, not without pride, to its achievements of the old year of 1933.

During the maneouvers it ac-ability to lead the regiment in baseball has been thoroughly demonstrated and the trophy reposes along with several others in the orderly room. Company G has just finished the first half of the basketball season having lost but one game and will no doubt win every game of the second half. It placed second in the checker tournament and, were the tournament to be held again, would probably win first place. During the visit of the Inspector General Company G was outstanding in the regiment. The Company Commander commends the regimental escort company in a manner which is a credit to the regiment. The company is very effeciently represented in the "President's Own" CCC Army, having rendered valuable assistance in the organization and maintenance of the colored CCC Com-

However, Company G does not ntend to rest upon these laurels. It is facing the future with a calm satisfaction of believing that it quitted itself creditably and receiv- will be an even better organization ed several commendations. Its at the end of the present year,

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

SERVICE COMPANY

Say fellows! Did you notice that boop-oop-a-doop look on Morris' face when he pulled in the other day? Well spare a minute; here's the dope.

Atlanta, famed gateway of the South, home of Coca-Cola and Pvt. 1cl John Q. Morris, was honored with his presence for an extended visit. Reading between the lines you see-nothing. So back to the lines we'll continue our little story.

To meet your old friends after several years absence is, in itself, one of life's keenest joys, provided of course, they're employed 'n everything. But it seems that the unemployment situation has robbed the Army boys of the pleasure of feeds, shows, parties, etc. at the expense of admiring home folks. No sir, it doesn't look good in print but, neither does it feel good when vacationing doughboy's funds (Please turn to page 8)

HOSTESS' DELIGHT!

-That's The

SIX-BOX

which sells at only

There's nothing like bottled Coca-Cola to add life to any entertainment—that's why so many hosts and hostesses are buying the SIX-BOX every day. Why don't you, too, join the rest of

COCA-COLA HAS MAINTAINED ITS POPULARITY BY BEING ALWAYS THE BEST OF ALL!

> THE SIX-BOX IS SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

NEW YEAR:

We have made an earnest attempt to please you in every way in the past, and we think we have succeeded. May we be permitted to carry on through 1934 in the same way? We will assure you of our unfailing support and cooperation on every occasion.

Grocery Dept.

POST EXCHANGE

FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

24TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 7)

start dwindling. And-where is that friend in need we heart of so often and so seldom meet? Judging from the past ten days he's in the company street. And there's the catch—it's tough when a guy has five whole days to use as he sees fit and can't raise two "whale baits". So now with the advent of the New Year everybody's hopeful and all set for the return of the

The week end provides material for two short "Hymns", the words which are "There was a guy named Chubby, who served both here and 'yawn'; a copy his head did rubby; Three Cheers for Georgia cawn! And then there was another bird, suppose we call him Talley. He ain't so hot on avenues, but how that boy can Alley."

-George E. Burton.

which has now become history the band has reason to be proud of its organization. It has had an exceptionally busy year, especially in concrets and dances. During the summer months it often played its regular concerts on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights ending the week with a concert for the CCC Army on Saturday night and beginning the next week by playing for a baseball game on afternoon. However, it accomplished its mission (keeping the morale at a high degree) and is glad that it had the opportunity to render its assistance. It is not known what it faces during the year 1934 but "Semper Paratus" always prevails in the

as usual serenaded the Post, playing the first Christmas carol on Benning Veterinary Detachment the Commandant's lawn at about at the Medical School in Washo'clock. Several officers' families were serenaded and thence to the hospital and nurses' quarters. From there it went to where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Block forty-five and ended the John Russell Helms, are now program in Bradley's Area. After a sandwich and cup of coffee of the University of Alabama. it went to Columbus where it serenaded until noon. At the nurses' quarters the usual custom of serving coffee and doughnuts was highly appreciated by the members of Both orchestras were kept very busy during the Christmas holidays and the boys are glad the period is over so they can have a little time to themselves.

The entire Band journeyed to Montgomery, Alabama, New Year's day, where it participated in the emancipation celebration at the State Teachers' College.

-Sgt. Wm. W. Hodges.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The Headquarters Company Emergency Club gave a party at the Quarters of Master Sergeant William J. Miller (retired) on Third avenue, in Columbus, Dec-ember 28th. Everyone seemed to have had a very enjoyable time.

"Major" Moore is now serving the "Bach Belt." Corporal Baugh is the New Champion manager.

Private Jas. W. Torrence will leave in a few days for his home in North Carolina, having receiver exile of a romantic steed. ed word that the old sheriff is

Staff Sergeant Shelton Reed is no longer Canteen Steward. Several nights before he was relieved go home. Then according to his report—he slept in any vacant stick awhile. bunk he could find in the quart-

When down-hearted, come down in the "bottom" and pay the Headquarters Company a visit. There are several who can talk away the

The Regimental Glee Club had its initial meeting on Tuesday, January 2nd, at which time it was organized for the ensuing year. Everyone is anxiously awaiting in a card game). the first concert.

-Louis A. Scipio,

Philip Russell Now WithFenner-Beane

Philip W. Russell, who has been a member of the law firm of Wing, Lakin, Russell & Whedon, is retiring from that firm to become a partner in the brokerage house of Fenner & Beane on January 1.

Mr. Russell has been practising law with the same firm for thirtytwo years, having entered the law office of White & Wing in 1901, shortly after he was admitted to the bar. He became a partner several years after, at which time the firm name was changed to Wing, Russell & Waterson.

Mr. Russell for several years has been a member of the Committee of the Bar Association of the City of New York having to do with equity receiverships. He has also served for a number of years on the Lawyers' Committee of the BAND Looking back to the year 1933 New York Group of the Investment Bankers' Association.

PERSONALS

(Continued from page 4)

nesday Miss Eleanor Bonesteel left for Auburn and Miss Mary Hobson for Ward-Belmont.

Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton have as their house guest their son-in-law and daughter Lt. and Mrs. Honan, and their two children. Lt. Honan is stationed at West Point as Tactical Officer.

PVT. HELMS GOES TO VETER-INARY SCHOOL ON FEBRUARY 4TH

(Continued from page 7)

been in the army but thiriteen 1932, and has rendered such out-On Christmas morning the band length of time that he has been chosen to represent the Fort ington, D. C.

Private Helms finished school in Shipperville, Alabama, residents. He is also a graduate

The Army Medical Center in Washington offers the most thorough course in veterinary work avai able anywhere in the United States Army. Therefore the Veterinary Detachment of Fort Benning has made it a custom to send at least one enlisted man to the school each year, qualifying him to render highly expert service to the detachment.

NEWSPAPERS BACK McARTHUR

(Continued from page 3) gradually re-equipped in accordance with the second method.

Full mechanization of one cavalry brigade does not mean the immediate doom of the spirited cavalry charger, but when the Chief of Staff of the Army looks with cold eye upon that charger its doom is not far distant. The true friend of the cavalry horse at this time is the watchdog of the Treasury. The need for economy will provide the greatest obstacle to any wholesale overhauling of the cavalry and to the wholesale

-Our Army.

29TH INFANTRY

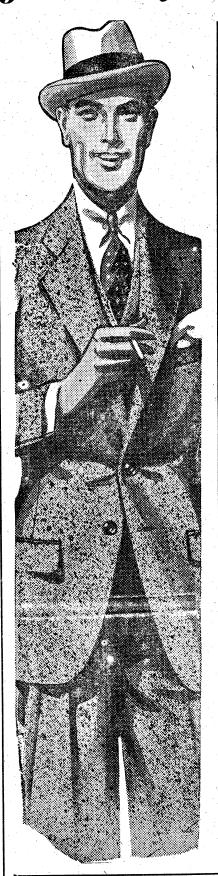

(Continued from page 5) toe in to see how the water is outfrom that duty, he had to "work side. From what we gathered, so late" that he was unable to there is plenty of nothing to do outside, so the boys had better > Things have been pretty quiet during the holidays-"Shotgun" Pyles went out with the intentions of shooting rabbits and got half-shot himself. Buck Whitlock went to town and had to thumb his way Dean Littlefield literally threw six cans of his beloved S. R. W. (a kind of tobacco) to the tobacco addicts of the Company.

(They are supposed to have won it See you anon-

-Steve.

METCALF'S January Clearance Sale

YOUR FIRST OPPORTUNITY of 1934 to buy fine merchandise at bargain prices! Metcalf's, as usual, leads the procession, and our January Clearance Sale is one of the most sweeping we've ever had. An amazing number of items-not to be carried over-are being offered to you in this sale. Be sure to come and purchase what

MEN'S 100% all wool SUITS

In serges, blue cheviots, oxford greys, browns and others. 1200 suits, costing from $12.50 to $15.00, wholesale, for Spring and selling to you at. . . .

SALE PRICE

$8.88 AND $11.88

TOPCOATS Oxford - Blue Cheviots, Etc.

SALE PRICE

OVERCOATS

SALE PRICE

$7.98

MEN'S SHIRTS

"Tailored By Wilson"

Extra fine broadcloth in solid and fancy patterns and all sizes. Sanforized-won't shrink. Worth $1.95.

"Sir Gallahad" broadcloth shirts in solid and fancy patterns. (The kind Fort Benning wears). In all sizes, fast colors and full cut. Extra special at - - - Another real shirt buy, full cut - - - fine, fast color broadcloth - - - in solid colors and fancy patterns. All sizes - - - while they last. . . .

Clearance Sale Price $1.28

Clearance Sale Price 98c

Clearance Sale, Price

79c

MEN'S HATS

Latest styles and coors - - - hundreds to select from. This is our regular $2.95 value and it is selling at

Our regular $1.85 hat

now on sale for the

January Clearance

Clearance Sale Price

Boy's Department

Boys' "Tom Sawyer" and "Collegiate" Shirts

CLEARANCE SALE PRICE 68c - - 2 for $1.25

Boys' Collegiate Khaki | Boys' Fine Woolen Shirts 48c

Khaki Short Pants 48c

Happy-Y-Kid Woolen Shorts 69c - 89c - $1.18

Boys' Sheep-lined Coats $1.98 || ive.

Boys' Wool Sweaters..... 89c

Boys Prep Suits

All wool suits with long pants in sizes ten to eighteen inclus-

Ex. Pants $1.48

Two Stores 1040 and 1222 on Broadway

MEN and BOYS' WEAR

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1934

Pay Cut Continues Until July First

FORT BENNING HOST TO 29th To Celebrate FECHNER SATURDAY

Emergency Conservation Work for the United States, made a brief visit to Fort Benning Saturday afternoon, during which he inspected the two colored companies of the Civilian Conservation Corps station at Harmony Church on the reservation, and stopped for a Benning by the naming in his honshort time at post headquarters or one of the important factors for a visit to Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant.

Dr. Fechner arrived at Harmony Church about noon Saturday, and on the invitation of Captain Herbert L. Harrie, commander of the conclusion of the meal he made an Corps, A. E. F. inspection of the camp and of the new buildings under construction. Dr. Fechner with his wife and niece are on their way back to Washington from a sojourn in

When the C. C. C. was organized last April as a measure instituted by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to combat the effects of the depression on the people of this country, Dr. Fechner was chosen as the best of the men available to head the great work. As chief of one of the main branches of this nation's recovery, he is charged with the successful completion of the mammoth wrok of reconstruction now under way all over the country.

His visit to Fort Benning, which was one of the largest reconditioning camps in the United States during the whirlwind days of the C. C. C.s nativity, is the first that he has made to this post in his present capacity. The two companies that he viewed and inspected today are but a small part of the 10,000 men that passed through here to prepare them for service in the fields and forests.

The United States Army is vitally interested in the work of which Dr. Fechner is the director. Not only is it a mission to be accomplished, but it also is the testing Salvation Army. of this nation's preparedness for mobilization, and a testing of the tremendous task of outfitting and running the organization of the C. C. C., over 350,000 strong.

The C. C. Chief arrived at post headquarters about 2:15 P. M., where he was met by General Estes. Dr. Fechner remained about an hour at post headquarters, talkng with the general.

Dr. and Mrs. Fechner left Benning for Atlanta about Sunday or for a visit to Fourth Corps help these projects in some way. Department orders received at the they returned to Washington.

Dr. Robert Fechner, Director of New Rifle Range Is Named For War Hero

The memory of another of this country's heroes of the World War has been perpetuated at Fort of military training at the post.

The new rifle range along the Blue and Grey Road, between the 23rd and 9th Infantry which will be used for the training of the military personnel in the shooting of small arms, principally the .22 calibre rifle, has been two companes stationed there, had named "English Range," in honor lunch with the personnel. At the of Captain Math L. English, Tank

> Captain English was appointed a 1st lieutenant, Tank Corps, National Army, in 1918, and promoted to Captain, Tank Corps, National Army, about two months While serving with the 344th Battalion, Tank Corps, he so distinguished himself for bravery and extraordinary heroism in action near Cheppy and Exermont that he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and an Oak Leaf Cluster. He was killed on Oct. 4, 1918.

A suitable monument is to be erected on English Range bearing a bronze tablet with the following

"ENGLISH RANGE" named in honor of MATH L. ENGLISH CAPT., TANK CORPS, A. E. F. D. S. C. (OAK LEAF CLUSTER) Killed in action 4 October, 1918.

Personnel Thanked For Its Donation

James Halliday, head of the local relief headquarters of the Salvation Army, has written, thank ing the Fort Benning personnel for their donation through the Community Chest toward the Christmas basket project of the Captain Halliday states in his etter that the pos Army to fulfill its part in that made it possible for the Salvation mobilization. To date the Army, Army to provide needy families which originally was only to have in Columbus with extra large bags a small part in the program of of groceries during the Christmas emergency conservation work, has season, each bag averaging enough proved the only governmental food for six people at four meals, agency capable of grasping that and in addition to give a Christmas entertainment for the many poor children in which the Army is interested. In addition each child received a bag of apples, oranges, candy and small toys.

The donation from the Community Chest to worthy relief and charitable organizations of Columbus is a regular custom of the post, fantry, Fort Benning, on expira-and is made in order that all of tion of his present tour of forbus is a regular custom of the post, the post personnel may be able to eign service, according to War

(Please turn to page 7)

Organization Day

Preparations for the observance of the organization day of the 29th Infantry, which will take place on March 3, are alreday under way at Fort Benning, with the appointment of a board of officers to determine what the wishes and desires of the regimental personnel are in regard to the program of events in the celebration of the Unit's birthday.

The 29th Infantry, which is the largest peacetime regiment in the United States army, enjoys a holiday on this day, with various kinds entertainment planned for the officers and men.

The members of the regiment who will form the board to ascertain just what form the celebration will take this year are Major Frank V. Schneider, Captain John A. Otto, Lieutenant James E. Bowen, Jr., and Lieutenant Francis E Gillette, all of the 29th Infantry.

Capt. Smith Goes To 66th Infantry

Captain Harvey H. Smith, Infantry, student in the tank course of the Infantry School, who recentreceived orders assigning him to duty with the 7th Tank Company at Fort Snelling, Minn., is in receipt of further orders from the War Department at Washington, D. C., which reassigned him to duty with the 2d Battalion 66th Infantry, (Light Tanks), at Fort Benning.

Captain Smith, who began his studies in the tank course last fall came to Fort Benning as a student in the advanced course, class of 1933, from Fort McKinley, P. I., in 1932. He had previously attended the basic course of the Infantry School as a member of the class of 1921.

His career as an army officer began in 1917, when he was ordered to active duty as a second lieutenant of infantry from the Officers' Reserve Corps. A year later he was appointed the 1st lieuhe was promoted to captain.

In addition to graduating from the basic course of the Infantry School, Captain Smith also holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Defiance College, Ohio, class of 1913, and a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University, class of 1917.

Lieutenant Lionel C. McGarr, who at the present time is on duty in the Hawaiian Islands, has been ordered to duty with the 24th Inpost recently.

PRESIDENT CONTINUES 15 PERCENTREDUCTIO

Appreciation For Cooperation

Colonel William E. Persons. commander of the 29th Infantry, has expressed his appreciation of the cooperation of the regimental personnel with the Military Police of Fort Benning, in a communication addressed to the regiment as a whole. Colonel Persons' communication stresses the work that the Military Police are doing in upholding the high state of discipline at this post, and expresses the belief that the efforts of that branch of the military service at Fort Benning are highly appreciated.

At various times throughout the year, the 29th Infantry is called to assist the Provost Marshal by the detailing of men to duty with the M. P. section, and Colonel Persons' remarks relating to cooperation show that the work done by these members of the regiment has been observed in a commending light.

Col. Morey Here For Short While

Colonel Lewis S. Morey, finance oficer of the 4th Corps Area, arrived at Fort Benning Friday be based on a comparison with the morning, January 5, to conduct a short course of instruction for auditors of special property accounts, at the conclusion of which tive cost of living was 21 per cent he retured to Fort McPherson, Colonel Morey was at Fort Benning last in November, 1933, when the maximum reduction that could he conducted an inspection of property accounts of the post, in his official capacity.

Colonel Morey, prior to his transfer to the Finance Department of the Army in 1920, was a cavalry officer, having been commissioned in that branch of the service as a second lieutenant in tenant of infantry, National Ar- 1900 after four years of study at my, which rank he held until his the United States Military Acadcommission as a 1st lieutenant of infantry, regular army, in 1920. the World War he served as a In 1929, while on foreign service, major and lieutenant colonel of present law. In making this rec-Field Artillery in the National Army, and reverted to the regular army rank of major in 1920. He was promoted to lieutenant colonel about two months later and transferred to his present branch of the service. His rank of colonel was awarded in 1929.

Colonel Morey has an outstanding record as a military student, having finished the Infantry-Cavalry School in 1907 as a distinguished graduate, the Army Staff College in 1926. In addition he is corps eligible list, and was award- not inconsistent with our policy of ed a M. B. A. degree by Harvard advocating an increase in wages University in 1925.

All officers and enlisted men at Persons Expresses Fort Benning, showed intense interest Wednesday in the order issued from the Executive Office in Washington, continuing until July 1, 1934, the 15 per cent cut in pay all permanent Federal employees. Under the terms of the order, the pay of all officers, enlisted men and civilian employees at Fort Benning, and the pay of postal clerks and other permanent Federal employees in Columbus is affected.

> The loss in pay among the officers, enlisted men and permanent civilian employees at Fort Benning by the 15 per cent reduction order was stated, at headquarters of the post, to be approximately $53,000 monthly. This is based on the present average payroll at the post, for the permanent members, of $300,000 per month.

> The action in continuing the reduction came somewhat as a surprise to those most interested and affected, as rumors emanating from Washington had been to the effect that at least 5 per cent of the reduction in pay was scheduled to be returned to the Federal employees, effective January 1 of this year. This action, however, as explained by President Roosevelt in the Executive Order carrying the reduction forward to July 1, 1934, obviously was impossible under the provisions of the law which requires that the reduction in pay of Federal employees shall cost of living during the first sixmonth period of 1928. The index figures showed that the comparalower during the last six-month period of 1933 than it was during the basic period of 1928, and since, be made was 15 per cent ,that amount of reduction in pay had to be continued.

In the President's budget message to Congress, made a few days ago, there was made a recommendation for continuing until July 1, 1935, the provisions of the present law authorizing and requiring the President to reduce the pay of Federal employees by present law. In making this recommendation Mr. Roosevelt stat-

"The estimate of appropriation submitted in the budget are predicated on the continuation of certain economy legislative provisions which I ask to be enacted and which are appended hereto. The most important is that having to do with redutcion of compensation of Federal employees.

"It is eminently fair that, the cost of living having fallen as com-College in 1908, and the Army War pared with 1928, the employees of the government sustain some rea member of the general staff duction in compensation. This is

(Please turn to page 4)

SEES SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

Officers' Club Sponsors Bi-Monthly Supper Dances; First Held Last Night

year the Officers' Club plans to entertain twice a month with the Thursday evening supper dances instead of having them weekly affairs. The first of these dances was held Thursday, January 11th with a capacity crowd making reservations. Entertaining for the

Every penny counts after the Christmas bills come in-so you will do well to buy at Silver's-you'll get more for every dollar than you ever did. And, in addition, you'll find a hundred things you need here-each one just what you want.

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

Beginning from the first of the evening were: Colonel and Mrs. Charles W. Weeks, Major and Mrs. Maurice O. Welty, Capt. and Mrs. Robert T. Foster, Capt. and Mrs. Harvey J. Golightly, Lieut. and Mrs. Dwight A. Rosebaum, Lieut. and Mrs. William C. Lucas, Lieut. and Mrs. Wendell G. Johnson, Lieut. and Mrs. Willis S. Matthews, and Lieut. and Mrs. William J. Verbeck.

OFFICERS AND LADIES OF 24TH INFANTRY TO HOLD DANCE FRIDAY EVENING

The Polo-Hunt Club will be the scene Friday evening of a dance to be given by the officers and ladies of the 24th Infantry. Dancing will be enjoyed from nine thirty to one with the regimental orchestra furnishing the music. Several informal affairs will be held preceding the dance.

MISS ATHLEEN MUNSON TO ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PRECEDING DANCE

Miss Athleen Munson will be the hostess Friday evening at a dinner party given at the Officers' Club for about twenty-five of friends in the younger set. The color scheme for the table will be pink and white. A center piece of white and pink roses and snapdragons flanked by silver candlesticks burning pink tapers will be used. After dinner Miss Munson plans to escort her guests to the Polo-Hunt Club where the 24th Infantry dance will be held.

MEDICAL CORPS TO HOLD SUPPER DANCE AT POLO-HUNT CLUB ON SATURDAY The officers and ladies of the Medical Corps will be the hosts and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis. Saturday evening entertaining with a supper dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. The guests will dine at a horse-shoe shaped table which will be arranged in the Club. During the dinner the 24th Infantry orchestra will play for dancing. The table decorations will be a center piece of narcissi and snapdragons flanked by silver candlesticks burning tapers.

MISS WILLIAMS ENGAGEMENT TO LIEUT. BROWN AN-NOUNCED

Holding the center of interest of Fort Benning and Columbus society is the announcement of the engagement and coming marriage of Miss Elizabeth Greer Williams of Columbus to Lieutenant Sidney Glen Brown of Fort Benning. The bride-elect, only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Allison W. Williams, retired, of Columbus is a descendant of prominent Ohio and Georgia families, her mother being the former Elizabeth Greer of Oxford, Ohio. Her paternal grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. Reding Williams of Columbus. Miss Williams is one of Columbus and Fort Benning's most popular debutantes. She attended school in Hawaii and was graduated from the Washington Seminary in Atlanta. Lieutenant Brown is the son of Major and Mrs. Sidney Glen Brown of Fort Benning. He graduated from the United States Military Academy with the class of 1931. He was formerly with the 29th Infantry, being assigned at present as a student assigned at present as a student at the Infantry School. The wed-ding plans of Miss Williams and Lieut. Brown will be announced at a later date.

FIRST OF SERIES OF BRIDGE TOURNAMENTS BEGINS MONDAY AT OFFICERS'

The first of a series of contract bridge tournaments was held Monday evening at the Fort Benning Officer's Club. This series of games will last over a period of two months at the close of which the Post champions will be chosen. On January 15th players will arrange themselves into teams of four, the players consisting of officers representing Post activities. On January 29th, mixed teams of four will play. On the other Mondays throughout the month, Januray 8th and 22nd, mixed pairs will play. This week's affair was conducted by Lieut. Dwight A. Rosebaum and Lieut. Lynn E. Brady. The winners for this event being first section, North and South, first, Capt. and Mrs. Don C. Faith, second, Major and Mrs. Paul W. Baade, East and West, first, Major Thomas S. Arms and Capt. Arthur E. Burnap. Second Mrs. Vernon Evans and Mrs. Jesse A. Ladd. Second section, North and South, first, Mrs. Lynn E. Brady and Lieut. James E. Bowen, second, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. Stuart, East and West, first, Capt. and Mrs. Phillip G. Fry, second, Capt.

Week-End Special

LEMON-CHEESE CAKE

35 c

A delicious cake, made with tempting lemon-cheese filling-just right for every person and for every appe-

Hurry-up entertàinments are no longer a problem-with the SIX-BOX at only

When your friends drop in unexpectedly at the most outlandish hour possible, there's no reason to be flustered - just serve bottled Coca-Cola from the SIX-BOX and they will be just as pleased as Punch. It will add punch to your parties, too!

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES — COCA-COLA'S PRINCIPAL REASON FOR POPULARITY.

> THE SIX-BOX IS SOLD BY ALL COLUMBUS GROCERS

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

TANK LADIES BRIDGE CLUB MEETS AT OFFICERS' CLUB

Mrs. Andrew J. Evans was the hostess Tuesday to the members of the Tank Battalion bridge club when she entertained at an informal luncheon at the Officers' Club After lunch the guests assembled for bridge.

MESDAMES BARNEY AND GRIFFING ENTERTAIN MEMBERS OF LADIES AR-TILLERY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. James P. Barney and Mrs. Lewis A. Griffing entertained at the former's attractive quarters Tuesday afternoon with a bridge party complimenting the ladies of the Field Artlilery. The guests

(Please turn to page 3)

INSIGNIA BUTTONS

MEYER >

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold plating. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned with a so-lution of soapsuds and household ammonia.

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

and we'll do our best to see that everything you wish is granted!

The Grocery Department is proud of the fact that it is able to serve you promptly with anything you may want. We do our best to keep fully stocked with what we think you'll need and we only ask that. you make your requests known to us.

Grocery Dept.

Post Exchange

Fort Benning. Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service

39 REASONS:

Each one of our more than thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all you shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE COMPANY

For Thirty-Nine Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 2) arrived at two thirty and played until four thirty when tea was served. Three tables assembled for contract bridge with Mrs. Clayton

VISITOR HONOR GUEST AT LUNCHEON

H. Studebaker winning first prize.

Mrs. Geo. E. Steinmeyer, Jr., St. Louis, Mo., who is the house guest of Lt. and Mrs. J. Cleland was the honor guest Monday at a delightful luncheon at the latter quarters.

The luncheon table was graced by a point de venice lace cloth; the center piece was a silver bowl. White and pearl carnations flanked by silver candlesticks bearing pink tapers.

Mrs. Cleland's guest list included: Mrs. Steinmeyer, Mrs. Douglas Campbell, Mrs. Arc P. Johnson, Mrs. Carlton McNeeley, Mrs. J. A. Ladd, Mrs. H. L. Harries, Mrs. Ted Dunn, Mrs. Hal Mace, Miss Mary Telfair, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Frank Bowen.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Burt Orndorf of Birmingham, Alabama, is the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Pierce.

Miss Katherine Lemly departed Tuesday for Atlanta to be the guest of Miss Barbara Lowe. While in Atlanta she will attend the performances of the Chicago Civic Opera.

Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin are leaving Friday, January 12, for a ten day's stay in Palm Beach and Miami, Florida.

We Make RUBBER STAMPS COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

Order it today and learn why it's so popular in Columbus and Fort Benning. It's smooth creamy deliciousness will recommend it to the most hardened appetite.

Sold at the SODA FOUNT and the OFFICERS' CLUB

Anderson Speaks One thing, this old "Maestro" had a sneaking feeling that some of the boys would be troubled with

The Infantry School Woman's Club was very fortunate in bringing Dr. D. R. Anderson here to speak at the January 8th meeting.

After the business meeting Mrs. William G. Livesay played two beautiful piano selections: "Country Garden" by Percy Grainger and "Au Convent" by A. Borodin.

Dr. D. R. Anderson was introduced to the Club by Mrs. John E. Hull, chairman of the program committee. Dr. Anderson was president of Randolph-Macon College for eleven years, and now is president of Wesleyan College for Women at Macon. Dr. Anderson is an authority on History and Sociology and is an informed speaker of pleasing personality.

Dr. Anderson gave a most delightful and interesting talk on a "General Scheme of the Remaking of America." He spoke of the times we are living in, and of the different program adopted by President Roosevelt to bring us out of the depression and said nothing worth anything unless it is making stronger human beingsa wiser and a better world. He spoke of the troubles from which the world is suffering as not troubles of a system, but as troubles of the people; and only by making wiser and better people, can we hope for a better world.

Tea was served after Dr. Anderson's talk. Mrs. Maurice D. Welty was hostess for the afternoon and Mrs. Charles H. Bonesteel and Mrs. Paul W. Baade poured tea.

Literary Section To Hold Meeting

The Literary Section of the Women's Club will meet on Monday, January 15, at 2:15 at the Polo-Hunt Club. The subject of the program will be "Recent Poetry and Drama."

This will be one of the outstanding meetings of the year. Lt. C. T. Lanham will read selections of the outstanding poetry that has appeared during recent years and will conclude the group of selections with some of his own poems. Lt. Lanham has contributed poetry to Harper's Magazine where he has recently had two poems published.

Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth, an outstanding member of the Fort Benning Dramatic Club will read selections from the current plays and discuss the high lights of the season's drama.

Miss Carroll Stevens the chairman of the Literary Section will preside at the meeting.

83rd F A

HQ. HQ. BATTERY AND C. T.
It seems as if Headquarters
Battery started off 1934 with a bent and purpose of never having any one absent. When the holidays were over we found to our

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

RESOURCES OVER

$ 550,000.00 $3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building.
Fort Benning Representaive—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

surprise every one was present. One thing; this old "Maestro" had a sneaking feeling that some of the boys would be troubled with homesickness and would not return for a few days, but as usual "he" was wrong and every body was back, happy and full of smiles and greetings to their friends.

The basketball season opened Monday night and the Artillery lost its first game. The score does not show the fight our boys put up, but they were in that game from the opening whistle to the last. The whole Artillery is behind this year's team and I know the team will carry the Gunners' flag to the top. Good luck, boys!

BATTERY "A"

Now that everybody has gotten over the holidays, the old grind will start and we, most of the men are glad, they prefer rather to be busy than idle.

Pvt. Simmons, who left us without leaving a forwarding address, has returned to the fold.

Pvt. "Archy" Underwood got sick of the Coast Artillery and returned to his friends. They all come back, sooner or later. We wonder if he and "Moon" are related, they do favor a lot.

The battery lost its Beau Brummell when Pvt Boone got discharged. He is now driving a taxi in the city.

BATTERY "C"

Cook Land has returned from CCC duty. The battery welcomes his return for all know that Land can cook biscuits and not sinkers. He also informs us that Sgt. Jack Johnson will be back on the first of next month.

Pvt. Baskin was awarded overshootcher in the Ice Department so we know the brass on the harness will really shine now.

Sgt. Johnson has built a stonewall around his house. To keep the wolf from his door.

DeLuxe Service

Our DeLuxe Service will fit your car well for the cold.

It consists of a thorough mechanical examination and tightening up involving thirty-three operations, lubrication of all moving parts, and a complete cleaning of interior.

Drive by for an inspection at your very first opportunity

Auto Department

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service.

Columbus' Newest and Newsiest Newspaper

The Columbus News-Record

Full from front to back with the kind of articles, features and editorials that you like to read. Published twice each week and delivered to Benning by mail . . . to Columbus by carrier boy. Don't wait any longer . . . call today!

SUBSCRIPTION

$2.00

PER YEAR

Call City 328 Or City 2221

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia

JANUARY 12, 1934 NO. 38 VOLUME III ____Publisher L. C. KUNZE A. F. Kunze______Editor
Felicia C. Howell_____Society Editor LOUIS T. KUNZE_____Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Jan. 8.—A week, with the result sure sign of the end of the holidays is the accumulation of an endless supply of bills, resulting one might say in an acute case We have heard of billiousness. that a good business man discounts his bills but never before had we rested so sublimely in blissful ignorance as a result of similar reasoning. Ours had been discounted so much we had ourselves existing in a fool's paradise, deluded with the notion that our pay-check could at least cover half of them. But while we had discounted ours to our own satisfaction we had failed to acquaint our creditors accordingly and they as a result exhibited a businesslike lack of interest.

Somewhere during the holidays we learned how to handle such a One of our acquaintsituation. ances explained that his method of paying his bills was to write the name of each creditor on a slip of paper, placing the names in a hat from which he drew impartially, writing checks for each one drawn and continuing the process as long as his stub balance permitted. He further informed us that in the event of an overzealous dunning on the part of any of his numerous creditors his mve then was to write to the firm in question, explain his system of payment and warn them politely but unmistakeably that if such requests for payment did not cease he would find it necessary the following month to omit their name from his hat.

Whether or not some such method will solve our own problem is I hope they blow it up." difficult to state. Of more immediate concern is our as yet unsuccessful search for a hat big enough. In the meantime we are praying for the banks to declare another mausoleum.

Tactician Roberts selected a particularly cold morning last cation to recharge our exhausted week to drive home a few more much-needed tactical principles in one puts a vapor lock on us. Othanother terrain exercise. To his credit be it said that despite cold spines, chattering teeth and running noses his usual persuasive progress thus far as a motor meperformance resulted in a forenoon chanic, despite the school's best that the post exchange garage is being swamped by the conscience-stricken. Trouble-shooting has had us sort of gun-shy and our success or perhaps even as throw back on at it to date warrants the belief the wire squad. that if our frame of mind is any indication we have already earned a leg on the winning of a baffle-

The tank school experts got in a few more innings during the of a piston pin boss.

FARISH

Captain Farish, the tank school's electrical expert, deserves our citation this week for his exhibition of fortitude, patience and mildness of speech. Words fail us in an attempt to describe the particular situation adequately but we feel that some effort should and Chief Moore deserves some be made to preserve the incident for posterity.

During an A-1 dissertation on ignition circuits to which close attention was being paid, some of our tank-students in the same building were tuning an obstinate motor whose main response was a progressively louder series of backfires. The ignition instructor went painstakingly on, the boom, boom of the sick motor notwithstanding. A slightly raised voice on the part of our electrical exboom, from the other end of the building. Lifting the voice anboom, merely resulted in an an-Finally, despairing of out-talking and throat. this persistently protesting and ailing motor, Expert Farish resignedly commented in a confidential but ever-patient tone, "Well,

Concentrated five o'clock ses on motors and tactics have left us little time for collecting choice morsels of news. Perchance change in our title to "Much Ado About Nothing" would bring us luck. This and a little emulsificylinders are needed before someerwise we are apt to find ourselves registering for the CWA as a specialist of parts. Our personal

PAY CUT CONTINUES

(Continued from page 1)

in industry. For wages there have fallen far beyond any reduction contemplated for Federal employees, and in most cases are even now substantially below compensation paid Federal employees under the maximum reduction of 15 per

His recommendation, however, was that a change be made in the tion of 5 per cent of the pay reduction of all Federal employees, effective, July 1, 1934.

Army personnel at Fort Benning and Columbus have noted another phase of the President's recommendation to Congress for new legislation for the fiscal year beginning, July 1, 1934. This concerns the "pay freeze" contained freezes, have sustained reduction in the Economy legislation of the in compensation of more than 25 last Congress. By its provisions, maximum reduction that could be automatic increases in pay, based effected, this being fixed at 10 on promotions and length of serv-other governmental agencies. They per cent, instead of the present 15 ice could not be made during the should, in 1935, be released from

THE STUDENT PRINTS

How nice it is to return once more after the Hectic Holidays to the peace and quiet of old Upatoi University, to see once again the beaming countenances of our classmates, and the welcoming smiles of our instructors. This general spirit of happiness tells more vividly than words of that wonderful feeling of fellowship which binds us together in the ever interesting, always exciting and sometimes exhilarating quest for knowledge. Though far from these burr-kissed hills we've wandered, our hearts were ever here, filled with love for dear old A. H. 4, and throbbing with a desire once more to bend our shoulders to the common good, and do our bit towards pushing the old school to even greater heights of academic laurels. There is not a man who deep down has not a burning hope to win his "U" for the school in some one of the big games, either as a left back on the code team, Lieutenant Fowler gave out some cheering news at his first session, stating that even men had come. won letters in the last communications writ. This apparently was not so good as the topography game, where eleven men crashed through. To date the second squad has high average in letter men with a 50 per cent.

As noted above, some of our holiday seekers journeyed far, sort of recognition for his feat of driving alone to Buffalo, 1105 man inspired by one of the higher feelings of life could have done that, as Chief himself admits it was so cold he never left the house. We wonder who he visited.

Dohs, Mifflin and Walsh took the same amount of time getting to New York. Poor Frank had a hard trip home though, as for some reason his mates failed to pert was met in turn by a boom, appreciate his keeping them waiting an hour and forty minutes at hind a pillar to a Familiar Friend, return starting point. But after ascertained the name, and made a other notch to overcome this boom, all, it does take considerable time Blushing Belated introduction. to wash that morning after feelswering BOOM BOOM BOOM. ing out of one's eyes, ears, nose based entirely on rank, and length of service, the effect of this legislation was that while officers might be promoted or have their pay status otherwise advanced during the year, their basic pay was "frozen" at what it was when the original legislation took effect, that is on July 1, 1932.

Johnnie Guthrie was also troubled with that ailment, only his finally bowed his manly head and accepted help from his S. Y. T.

In his recommendation to Congress, the President would continefforts, leads us to the belief that ue for another year the general our rating as an occupational provisions of this legislation, but would exempt specifically from its effects the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. Explaining this action, he stated:

"Among the legislative provis-ions appended hereto is one prohibiting automatic increases in compensation except in the army, navy, and marine corps. The personnel of these three services are engaged in a life service to their country.

per cent. They are therefore, in other governmental agencies. They per cent. In effect, then, the rec- fiscal year which ends June 30, the restrictions of automatic inommendation calls for a restora- 1934. Since pay of the army is creases in compensation."

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

On Sundry Things.

once came to the country of the that much may be done that needs Israelites, and a terrible plague did fall upon the land.

2. And the name of this plague was "De-Pres-Shun", which in the language of the ancients mean "I Am Afraid To Spend What I Have Lest I Should Not Get More."

3. And much money was required to the fight the plague, so rations that others might be full.

action, which was generally known as "Kut", but more particularly as "Pay-Freeze" and "15 percent", yea, not the least among these was the Army of Samuel.

5. And from the highest to the lowest none were spared, yea, verily, the blight did touch all.

6. The officer did sorrowfully recall Junior from the academy of military teaching, and arrange that he attend the day school in town; and the private regretfully return the chariot on which all but the last three payments had been made. And still others did restrict their expenditures and live frugally, lest the out-go exceed the in-

7. And in those days had arisen a leader, one Roos-E-Velt, who was to take the people into the Promised Land. For so the people had willed, and they set him upon the high places.

8. And looking around him, Roos-E-Velt saw many idle, yea, many who had nothing with which to occupy their hands. And he

Thad Broom is also relating one on himself. It seems that he and miles, in thirty-one hours. Only a the family were honor guests at a tea given in Washington, which was attended by our Chief of Infantry. After the introduction, General Croft asked to meet Mrs. Broom, who was standing close by. Now Thad has always been a modest fellow, and the proximity of so much rank completely demoralized him. His mind went blank, and the name of the general went with it. In considerable confusion Thad excused himself, rushed be-

Our own Christmas story is not so personal, and very simple, though touching. We were patiently waiting at the Greeting ride back failed to wait. So there Cards counter in the Post Exhe was stranded in Washington change, when a rather hurried without a cent. A deal of frantic mother dashed up and rudely inphoning failed to locate a good terrupted a congenial couple of Samaritan, and it was with the clerks with the demand, "Will you greatest humiliation that John please give me a Christmas present for my daughter's teacher, which will not cost more than twenty-five cents!"

> And before we forget it, who remembers the 29th Infantry lieutenant at the machine-gun demonstration in attack, who galloped madly to his platoon, hopped off his horse and sat flat on the ground; His remark, "Pardon, Gents, this is not part of the demonstration," brings to mind that keys on the roof of their barn. merry quip of Major Wadsworth, Drawing a fine bead on the unwho, after doing his renowned side- wary fowl, Forest began applying split off the la "Excuse me."

It has been two weeks since the holidays, and we are off for another long 5 months of work. How many days, oh noble Cataline? Let's hope at least that we don't have the new Japanese machine gun thrust upon us, to study. Weight 80 pounds, rate of fire, 9,075 rounds per minute, gasolinedriven, fired by a spinning disc, and with a penetrating power of four times our own gun, it must be some weapon. It it takes four times as much study to master it as it does the present weapon, said, "These will I take and put 1. Know ye then that evil times to work, that they be not idle, and doing. And they shall be called the "See-See-See" for the people will look on many strange things as the result of this."

9. And the Army of Samuel was named as the agency which alone was fit to fulfill the job.

10. Many were called, and few rejected, till they numbered as the that some were placed on short leaves of the tree, and therefore they were known as the "reforesta-4. And it came to pass that tion army". And one did salute a among those who suffered this private, and quarrel with the company commander, while still another did acquire a grievous malady, known as the sickness of home, for he had never been away from his mother.

11. Still others did count themselves as too good to work beneath a soldier, whose pay was less than their's. Yet did they learn differently for the old soldier is a clever man, skilled in the way of extracting work from others, and wise in the ways of the malingerer.

12. And in time their term of service was at an end, yet did many re-enroll, for the service was good, and the chow plentiful.

13. And Roos-E-Velt said in his heart: "The work done by the Army of Samuel is good in its results, and the cockles of my heart are at last warmed toward them. I will therefore reward them by taking some of the load from their

14. But that is another story, which ye shall hear at a future can spec it by next year.)

Many sighs of relief went up at the completion of the annual physical exam. Especially from those members whose gain at school has been more physical than mental. The medicos were very fair indeed, and so far as we know marked no one as "obese, though we ourselves had elected a few private candidates to the title. An ingrowing toenail, and a case of flat feet on one of the largest and handsomest members of the class, were about the most serious ailments uncovered.

Sid Brown fell a victim to the soft and enticing folds of a hospital cot, when he reached the blood pressure booth. There a two minute rest in the prone position is prescribed after exercising. Now Sid has long been famous for his ability to sleep sitting up, but much speculation has been made upon his ability while The question is at least definitely settled, for Sid reached a complete state of unconsciousness in the fast time of 10 seconds, flat!

The quest of the Holy Grail, was a cinch compared to Hornisher's quest for wild turkeys. It seems that he took a shot at every hawk and buzzard on the reservation before he was finally put straight on wing identification. His latest adventure was a Stealthy Stalking of four of Sgt. Phillips' tame turprinciples of good marksmanship, breathing, squeezing, holding a praying. In fact, he'd almost reached the flinch, when a wee child ran up, and from out of the mouth of this babe the great huntsman was enlightened.

The citation for the week's most daring adventure goes to Easterbrook, Coolidge and Dohs. These intrepid explorers brought back five beautiful sea shells, intact, from the far off shores of the Gulf of Mexico.

The citation for the most astounding news item of the week goes to Lt. Raymond, who sprang next year's students will spend at this gem upon his class: "The bigleast two extra years under Cap- gest thing in the world is its cross tain Lucas. (That is, if he himself section."

Instruction Course For Officers Held

A course of instruction for officers on duty as company commanders of Civilian Conservation Corps units began at Fort Benning on Monday morning, under the direction of Colonel Fred L. Munson, 24th Infantry, commander of District "H", C. C. C. The course, which lasted for three days, embodied studies of administrative and supply problems, as well as the medical care, and preparation of foods. Sixteen officers from camps in Georgia, Alabama, and Florda were detailed here for the purpose of attending.

Colonel Munson opened the course with a short talk at 8:00 o'clock Monday, following which Captain John E. Hull, personnel adjutant of the Infantry School, also spoke to the students for a short time on personnel. The remainder of the morning was occupied by a conference on administration by Captain Robert C. Hamlett, assistant adjutant of the C C. C. for District "H," and by a talk on welfare work by Captain S. L. Buracker, welfare officer of the district. Colonel Charles F. Morse. post surgeon and district surgeon of the C. C. Spoke to the officers in the afternoon on medical admin-

Tuesday morning the students listened to a short talk by Colonel J. DeCamp Hall, Quartermaster Corps, who is district supply officer, and spent the remainder of the morning in a study of supply as it pertains to procurement, invoices, property accounting and surveys of property. This class was directed by Captain James E. Wood, Quartermaster Corps, assistant supply officer of the district. The afternoon was spent in a demonstration and lecture on the preparation of foods, given by Lieutenant William R. McKinnon, subsistence officer.

Wednesday morning Captain Gee, Quartermaster Clough F. Corps, delivered a talk on motor transportation, followed by another talk on rail transportation by Captain Wilbur S. Elliott. The remainder of the morning was occupied by a lecture on finance by Captain Lloyd S. Partridge, and the afternoon in an examination of the three days' work.

Officers who attended the course, and the camps of which they are in charge are Captain William R. Meyer, Field Artillery, Reserve, Butler, Ga.; Captain Russell B. Reynolds, 22nd Infantry, Warm Springs, Ga.; Lieutenant Gilbert E. Linkswiler, 4th Engineers, Clayton, Ala.; Captain Henry G. LaGarde, Coast Artillery Reserve, Fort Gaines, Ga.; Captain Roy D. Brannen, Infantry Reserve, Albany, Ga.; Captain Lowndes W. Arnold, Infantry Reserve, Bainbridge, Ga.; Lieutenant Paul Kelam, 66th Infantry, Bloxham, Fla.; Captain James C. Horne, 66th Infantry, Telogia, Fla.; Captain Fred L. Koosa, Quartermaster Corps Reserve, Vilas, Fla.; Captain William M. Henderson Coast Artillery Vilas, Reserve. Captain William F. Upton, Infantry Reserve, Sumatra, Fla.; Captain Alexander D. Tisdale, Coast Artillery Reserve, McIntrye, Fla.; Captain Henry C. Winters, Ordnance Corps Reserve, Newport, Fla.; Captain John M. Tatum, Infantry Reserve, Baxley, Ga.; Captain Allen W. McComb, Cavalry Reserve, Soperton, Ga.; and Captain James C. Pruitt, Signal Corps Reserve, McRae, Ga.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The Terrible Tankers downed the 1st Batt Irish 31-6 to meet the Kelly's from the 2d Batt for the post title. Romploski again starred, making the only Irish touchthe kick-off, and the Green-shirt fell on the ball across the line. Swantic, Grantham, Lindsey, and Mattingly were the stars for the

(The Infantry School News) was short of gossip during this period ten years ago, the above bit being the only thing of historical value recorded.)

Lt. Fry Assigned To 66th Infantry

Lieutenant James C. Fry, Infantry, who at the prestn time is a ant.

student in the tank class of the Infantry School, has been ordered to duty with the 66th Infantry (Light Tanks), at Fort Benning, effective on the completion of his present course of instruction on February 1, 1934.

Lieutenant Fry was assigned to duty with the 24th Infantry at Fort Benning in 1931, and detailed down when Grantham fumbled on as student in the advanced course of 1932-33. Upon graduation from that class last May, he was assigned to attend the tank course during the current school year, which will be completed next month. His military career began as a student at the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, in 1919, being commissioned as a second lieutenant of infantry in June In 1924 he transferred to the Air Service and stayed with that arm of the service until December of the same year, during which time he was a student at the Air Service Primary Flying School. In 1927 he was promoted Dental School at Carlisle Barracks, to his present rank of 1st lieuten-

Major Rose Recent Arrival At Fort

Major Walter A. Rose, Dental Corps, who has been serving at the Gorgas Hospital at Ancon in the Panama Canal Zone, arrived at Fort Benning Sunday the 7th for duty at the station hospital. Major Rose had just completed a tour of foreign service when he was ordered last July to Fort Benning.

In October, 1917, Major Rose began his career in the United States Army, when he was appointed Dental Surgeon. Four months later he was commissioned First Lieutenant in the Dental Corps, and in October, 1918, he was advanced to the rank of Captain. His promotion to Major came in October of 1929.

Major Rose is a Doctor of Dental Science, which degree he received from Ohio State University. He is also a graduate of the Army Pennsylvania, where he finished in the class of 1930.

Air Travel . . .

Quotations are supplied by this firm to transport planes of the Eastern Air Transport and American Airways. Investors who conserve their hours by air travel will find this an interesting and valuable

Fenner & Beane

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

What - A - Man

Was Sergeant Jones! He knew how to gauge windage in a cyclone--but he didn't know the latest scandal about Private Smith!

Why?

BECAUSE HE DIDN'T READ THE BENNING HERALD

The kind of paper you like to read and send home to the folks!

Begin taking it now-and look for YOUR Company's notes! And, tip off the writer to any good stories you may hear!

ONLY

1.50

JAWBONE ... FOR 52 ISSUES

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin And Maloney Are Headliners

Excellent Card Is Lined Up For 16th

Once again John Corn Griffin goes up against a big boy, one Jim Maloney, who started to startle the fistic fans about ten years ago in staid old Boston, and has been keeping up his act ever since. Maloney's recent loss to Risko in Miami has only heightened the interest in the bout as it brings Corn's chances a little higher in the scale instead of leaving him the under-dog in odds.

Mrs. Maloney's boy, Jim, has met them all, high, low, and medrum, and the ledger stands today with the credit side very much in his favor. Over a period of approximately ten years he has had 65 recorded fights, and Maloney alone knows how many not on the books. An average of a fight about every two months, with a few sandwiched in on Sunday. And the 65 Jim has come out the winner on an even half-hundred.

As stated above, Maioney's opponents have included the high, low and medium of the boxing game. Jack Sharkey has won, lost and broken even with Jim; Primo Carnero, the Italian Man-Mountain has also won and lost. Wolf Larsen, Sully Montgomery, Jim Griffith, George Cook, Jack Delaney, Jack Renault, Johnny Risko, Tom Heeney, K. O. Christner, and Johnny Dixon, have all heard the count or watched his hand raised in victory, and some of them have taken weighed 208 pounds; a lot of beef for Griffin's' 185 to handle. Maloney is thirty years old, which is an advantage to Corn. And he elected to break with Churchill behas a world of experience with the fore he reached the title, and lackbest in the game.

Griffin, who has the wise and venerable Danny Long as his trainer, is laying his campaign on speed, speed, and just a little more speed. He is going to make Mr. Maloney move around fast, get him all tired out, and then shoot the works. Corn is admittedly faster and lighter on his feet than the Boston boxer, and if he stays out in the center of the ring and makes Maloney carry the fight for the first six rounds, stands a good chance of coming out ahead.

But Maloney may have a word or two to say about that.

The semi-final bout between Rufus Miles and Lope Tenorio is of the spot ten-rounder variety, with boys stepping two-minute frames instead of the conventional three. And again the post fans are in for something new in the line of boxing.

Miles is well-enough known in this vicinity to need little lauding. The reputation that he has established for himsélf in North Carolina, especially in his defeat of Sergeant Sammy Baker, speaks for itself. But Mr. Tenorio is another matter.

Tenorio is a Filipino, which alone should be sufficient recommendation. That breed of fighter has held almost a monoply on the lighter weights for years, and is known as the scrappingest branch of the human race in existence. Those of the old-timers who saw action in the Philippines can bear witness. Tenorio started his ringcareer under the tutorship of decisions over him themselves. But Frank Churchill, producer of not often enough to unbalance the champions, who brought out Clever Sencio, Clarence Dencio, and Pan-Maloney, as he weighed in at the cho Villa, all of them Filipinos, ring-side against Risko last week, and all of them world champions. And Mr. Tenorio was headed the same route.

(Please turn to page 7)

Jimmy Maloney

Lt. Johnson To Be Student Next Year

Lieutenant Howard R. Johnson. 24th Infantry, has been relieved from assignment and duty with that regiment and ordered to duty as a student in the Advanced Course of the Infantry School, according to orders from the War Department, Washington, D. C., received at Fort Benning recently.

Lieutenant Johnson is well known at the post and in Columbus for his work as assistant athletic officer, which he has been carrying on since June, 1932, and as coach of the Infantry School amateur boxing team, champions of the Southeast, and the 24th Infanrty football team in 1932, which won the colored title of this reg-

He has been on duty at Fort Benning since August, 1931, when he was assigned as a student at the Infantry School, in the company officers' course, from which he graduated in 1932. His commission as a 2nd lieutenant of infantry came in 1926, when he was serving as a flying cadet. His first military service was a private in the 49th Bombardment Squadron, Air Corps. After graduation from the company officers course he was detailed on special duty as assistant athletic officer, in 1932, and that fall piloted the 24th Infantry football team to victories over the majority of the outstanding colored teams in the South.

He was appointed coach of the post amateur boxers, and developed a team that ran riot through the S. E. A. A. U. tourney held in Mobile in April, 1933, capturing five championships and the team title. Since then the organization that he developed has won victories over a number of the leading serious threat to the 2nd Bn.-1st amateur boxing teams of the Bn. duet of long standing. United States and Canada, and is So far the three leading teams expected to retain its Southeastern are all from the 29th, with honors title this spring, as well as make above even. a good showing in the national tournament which is to be held in ers are as follows:

Intramurals Begin Here Last Monday

The post intra-mural basketball league began last Monday night, and from all appearances will re-fight before the season is ended, Chamberlain, 2nd Battalion24 top. Of the seven teams entered Bigler, Hq. Battalion21 in the league, there is not one so outstanding above the rest, on the showing made so far, that would Basketball Lead entitle an unbiased opinion as to the result.

Monday night the 2nd Batts followed the dope sheet to down the 83rd Gunners 55-32, though things looked for the Kelly's in the first half. Chamberlain, Lee, F., and Bridges, were the outstanding players. The same night the last year's champions, the 1st Batt Irish downed Tankers 41-34, with things again looking bad for the Thunderbolt meeting the Medicos, with the Pill Roller team taking the lead at the half only to lose out 37-29 in the second. The 2nd Batt team-work just didn't seem to click in this one.

Special Units dropped their first game to the Headquarters Battalion of the 29th, 46-16. The Black Pirates had no trouble handling the Spare Parts in the second half, S and assumed the proportions of a League standing and high scor-

Team
1st Battalion		2	0	.1000
2nd Battalion	2	2	0	.1000
Hqrs. Battalion	2	2	0	.1000
Special Units	1	0	1	.000
Medicos	1	0	1	.000
83rd F. A.	2	0	2	.000
Tankers	2 -	0 .	2	$.000^{\circ}$
High Scorers
Snead, 1st Battalion
Coen Ha Battalion				. 21

Divided In 24th

The 2nd half of the 24th Infantry basketball league has seen the powerful "House of David" from Company E toppled from its throne with Headquarters and Company G leading the league with 1000%. E Company has dropped to third place having lost one contest.

The remainder of the teams in the league are occupying relative-Tuesday night saw the Blue ly the same positions, with Company A trailing.

League standing and high score

Team	P	W	\mathbf{L}	Pct.
Headquarters	2	2	0	.1000
Company G	2	2	0	.1000
Company E	3	2	1	.667
Company F	2	1	1	.500
Company B	2	1	1	.500
Company C	1	0	1	.000
Service Co	1	0	1	.000
Company A	2	0	2	.000

BE SURE YOU MAKE THE MOST OF EVERY STRIKE

When you see a prize in hand—don't take any chances with poor tackle. The Main Branch sells the best of fishing tackle and sporting equipment for every sport.

Post Gymnasium TUESDAY, JANUARY 16

Final — 10 Rounds

CORN GRIFFIN Benning

JIMMY MALONEY $\mathbf{v}\mathbf{s}$ Boston

Semi-final — 10 Rounds

RUFUS MILES Columbus

 \mathbf{vs}

LOPE TENORIO Philippine Is.

6 Rounds

BILLY HYDE 29th Inf.

STRATTON SMITH Columbus

6 Rounds

FRANK MACKERY vs

CHING JOHNSON 29th Inf.

4 Rounds

SANDY HUFF 29th Inf.

vs

TONY VIGGINS Columbus

Wrestling, 15 Minutes

TOUGHY POWELL vs CHESTY COOPER

Benning

Benning

Tickets on sale at Officers' Club and all orderly rooms

Boxer - Wrestler Meet In Ring

At one of the recent contests staged in Columbus, witnessed by a number of wrestling fans from Fort Benning, the public saw a match between a boxer and a wrestler, in which every advantage went to the latter. Incidentally the boxer lost.

This is written with no attempt to start a fuss, or any bad-feeling, but a change could be made in the running off of such an event that would make it more fair and interesting. There is no doubt but what the question of which is the better is still dominant in the fans' minds, for there are others beside the writer who were dissatisfied with the decision on the last bout. And it is a question that the fans and writer would like to see answered in a fair and equitable way.

Therefore; why not the fight go the limit announced, be it five, seven or ten-rounds. Should the wrestler pin the boxer's shoulders to the mat in any one round, award that round to the wrestler. Should the boxer knock the wrestler down. not wrestle him down, but knock him down, give that round to the Should either man be knocked out for ten or moré seconds, award the fight to the other. And may the best man win.

GRIFFIN TO MEET MALONEY

(Continued from page 6)

ing a good manager, has wasted his efforts so far in trying to force the welter weight champion into a corner to sign for a battle Boxers are boxers, and not managers, and always make a poor showing when they try to match wits with other managers.

It is enough to say that Tenorio's ability is such that his time is taken up filling engagements all over the country, so much so that at a prior time he requested Captain Fry to arrange the date of the next card to coincide with his now open dates if he was to appear. Tenorio is one of the cleverest boxers and fighters in the ring today, and is noted as being one of the best showmen ever to appear. He will bring a bag of tricks with him new to Benning.

Billy Hydè will again meet the Tanker Mite, Stratton Smith, in the main six-rounder. Rail-birds at the post are laying odds on Smitty to stop Hyde.

The first six-rounder will show Frank Mackery in a vendetta battle against Ching Johnson. Johnson recently took a beautiful plastering from Mackery until the last, round, only to connect and stretch Frank on the canvas in the last thirty seconds. Take your choice.

Sandy Huff will meet Tony Viggins of Columbus in the first boxing bout of the evening. Huff is favored to take a decision in four rounds.

The festivities will be opened by another of the popular grunt-andgroan contests between Chesty Cooper and Tough Powell, two of the better known wrestlers on the post. Both boys are good, and put on a hard, clean fast match.

The bouts will start at the reg-

PERSONNEL THANKED

(Continued from Page 1) Each member of the garrison gives one day's pay annually to keep up the enterprise.

Last year, in addition to the donation from the Chest, the enlisted personnel of the post went without one meal just preceding Christmas Day, and the supplies thus saved were used to provide over a thousand meals for the needy of Columbus. The food was cooked by army personnel and served from rolling kitchens stationed at various spots throughout the city on Christmas day.

24th Inf.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The Company has started the new year with a determination to make this a banner year in all respects. Many improvements are being made and the spirit of progressiveness is apparent immediately upon entering the company

Staff Sergeant Scott Bradford, the Distinguished Marksman, went hunting and missed every rabbit that he shot at. He reported that his gun was no good and the rabbits would not stand still long enough for him to take a deep breath and let a little out.

The Company Basketball Team is making the regiment take notice; only five strong but five good Master Sergeant Warfield is the proud possessor of a black derby and a red neck tie. This combination really sets him off. When he goes to church on Sunday, he is a credit to the company and attracts the attention of the surrounding country.

-Louis A. Scipio, Reporter.

BAND

The Band quarters have again Good hunting, Sarge. assumed the studious air of a famed seat of knowledge. In fact it could be properly called the 24th Infantry Conservatory of Music. Harmony classes have been resumed and everybody is carrying an arm full of manuscript paper around with them and three or four pencils behind each ear.

Corporal Frank Ruffin, jovial saxophonist of the Jazz Pirates Orchestra, after a stormy scene with the girl friend came to the barracks and wrote "The Jazz Pirates Stomp" which the orchestra has been featuring. After a few days had elapsed and said Mr. Ruffin and girl friend had tearfully admitted that each was at fault and they would never speak crossly to Help a Pal out some? each other again; in fact after a particular sentimental evening Mr. Ruffin returned to the barracks and wrote a soulful and melodious waltz which he has named "The Pirates Love Call".

Not to be outdone, our august hauling around a carload of manuhas decided that he will write an overture as soon as he can find Coming events cast their shadows before them." It has reached the ears of the writer that Corporal Nicholas (Little Nickey) was seen talking to HER over the phone and crying as tho his litlte heart would break. Dear me!

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

SERVICE COMPANY

Presenting an array of personalyouth, beauty and brains, but extremely sensitive. Last week's reflections caused so much unfavorable comment the trusty Royal shudders to think of the injury, shame and injustice it has indirectly contributed to. Never mind old pal, the doctor knows what ails you. A nervous collapse. Rest and then a general overhauling. Oh, sure, that's natural, nobody likes repair shops but it'll do a lot of good. Just ask some of these birds who know.

Sergeant Joe Coleman's in the hospital suffering from some sort of 'surgery'. Ask him. No? How about Chubby, he's having his wrist repaired. Impossible! That leaves only one chance. Ask Mickey, he's got a broken leg and Broncho Busters are reliable. Bip, bip. 'Come in. Like to speak to Mickey please. Oh, so sorry-he's got complications of heart and general troubles? Ooooooh, let's get out of here, that's contagious."

"Well", says the Royal "I'll have to be in worse shape than this to go to the garage."

the wrong garage lately. Sho nuff 'Elbee", not that blind are you? Even Casey can see better than that and he's never made over 220 or thereabouts.

He's finally outgrown that boy ish figure and baby face, and forsaken the primrose path for more 'Stable" pursuits. He's gone in for the cinema. Yes he's a full fledged motion pitchah fan—Guy Kibbe sure played his role in Gold diggers of 1933 Sunday night, but wait till he sees Cradle snatchers

A telegram, a hard luck tale-Our hero furlough bent. Third father dead to no avail-On furlough he no went.

-George E. Burton.

COMPANY "A"

The members of Co. "A", 24th Infantry have made a New Year's resolution and that is: Not lower than 1st place in anything that happens in the year 1934 sports, so look for closer competition in every line of sport.

Why ask the reporter just how long it took the Top Sergeant and 20 dogs to catch poor old Bro Rabbit? If you must know here goes: It took the Top just ten (10) days.

Keep your eyes open and your ears clean on this column and get the treat of your life.

The gang would like to know just why is it every time Charley (Dumox) Loyd gets his face caught out in the air, his wonderful squad leader, Corporal Fitzherbert A. Jackson, tells the whole world about it? A poor private should be when absent from Reveille, thrown on the flag at Reveille and not at 8:00 A. M.. Wake up, Father Jackson.

Sgt. Ed Crosby (Bing), the singing Sergeant from the Borders is some happy man and his big reason is popularity at the dances. What is the girl's name, Sarge?

Corporal Fritz (Blimp) seems to be very happy here of late; especially after learning that his only friend, Corporal Jackson, is going on furlough. Bet they will have some fun then. Eh what?

Sgt. Sargent was told by the band leader, who has also been 1st Sgt. a few days ago to have a special telephone put in the Day script paper and several boxes of Room for his use only. Wondered pencils and erasers wrote a stir- what caused tihs request and learnring march for the band calling it ed that 20 calls from the girl dur-'Semper Paratus". Private Riley ing business hours are just too

-Pvt. 1cl James Pollen.

COMPANY "C"

Ole "Nimrod" with his trusty shot gun started out ahunting and after much difficulty (hitch-hiking and walking) he finally reached the territory in which, according to tradition, he was to be monarch of all he surveyed. So, after a short rest he loaded his rifle and prepared to rend assunder the first ities, fine upstanding flowers of game he saw. Several hours having past and no game, he decided to apply his scientific methods to fool the game into his path. After scattering most of his lunch over the ground, our "Old Timer" decided that he would take a short nap and awaken upon a hunch that the game had appeared.

Now a dream is something that has long been proven that a man has no control over.

Thus, "Ole Nimrod" found himself surrounded by a host of rabbits, squirrels and quail. The latter being the most desired, the plan was to lie quiet and upon closer approach of these rare birds he would let them "have it" and call it a day. Food will attract most any kind of game, bird or what have you. However, and unfortunately a cat and a few sparrows happened to be enjoying this unusual lunch when "Ole Nimrod" at once fired into the flock, after being awakened by a falling branch from a tree. Half asleep, he ventured to secure his prize and then home to tell the news. Upon his arrival to the barracks, he stated, upon answer to question, that he

And speaking of garages. Some- had decided not to go hunting, but body's been backing their Ford in went to the city instead. In the meantime he had related the above incident to another soldier who did not belong to this regiment. However, he did have some friends in the regiment. Thus, the story.

-C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

What serious happening occurred in a certain Sergeant's life of this organization during the past week, whatever, rendered him very cool, calm and collected. The boys seem to rejoice over the break they are getting. I don't know what it was but regardless, something similar should have happened years ago. Now he is a modern soldier, see nothing, hear nothing, and say nothing, prior to this occurrence, see all, know all, and hear all. Try and get something out of him now, you would think you were talking to a deaf, dumb, and blind MAN. Some of the sport fans wants to know what's wrong with "E" Company's basketball team. This is the idea: The depression has hit the team same as everything else. Both centers, Orsben and Thompson are out of the games for an indefinite period. Roy is now playing center, but does not seem to be able to out-jump his opponent. Private J. Johnson, is suffering from the effects of (O. M.). Private Strong is looking and hoping for his intended ?. Corp. McCrary is too busy clearing up domestic affairs. The coach is in love, so you can't expect very much results under the present condition.

Personally I think they're all suffering from T. B. (S) troubles. At a secret meeting, held recently, strictly for basketball players, it was revealed that the entire team had joined the N. R. A. Like to know. do N. R. A. members in tend to do their part on the basketball court or elsewhere? We prefer the basketball court.

The team put on a very poor exhibition in the first two games played during the second half of the Basketball League. Co. F, defeated E Co., in the first game and E Co. defeated Co. B.

E Company suffered it's second defeat from the hands of F, Company's team. One of the biggest dope upsets, of the season.

-Rufus E. Williams, Reporter.

COMPANY "F"

Mr. Durden is having quite a hard try to figure how he will ever get a pair of breeches made out of one finding for Pvt. Mitchell Johnson (Meat House). Try re ducing a wee bit, Meat House

Any information desired pertaining to any thing from 1898 up to the present date—see Melody Jack the leading trumpeter of Co. "F" 24th Infantry.

We are planning to detail a tutor for Pvt. Willie Wood, to teach him how to take care of his equipment, such as belts, bayonets and overcoats R. C.; oh, just equipment in general!

COMPANY "G"

The Kingfish just won't stay out of the news. Sunday morning he was crying lustily in the company street and upon being asked "how come" he tearfully replied, "I am crying because I have only one father and one mother". Some people just have to be greedy.

The House of David easily won the first game of the second half of the basketball series from Company C last Tuesday by the score of 41 to 22. At no time was the "House" in danger. The Kingfish as usual was high point man scor ing sixteen points. We are well represented on the regimental basketball team as would naturally be expected.

George Marshal is wearing a bruised eye these days, the origin of which is undetermined but we suppose it's the proverbial door

Sergeant Arthur Jones has been detailed on special duty as military police and may be seen pounding the mythical pavement in the wee small hours of the morning in the blocks.

Sergeant Washington has been detailed on special duty as sanitary police.

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

fine printing

done in one of the best shops in Columbus . . . that's what you get when you come to the

Columbus Office Supply Co.

111 12th Street

Engraving . . . Lithographing Ruling . . Bookbinding . . Filing Equipment . . . Office Supplies . . . Blank Books

Phone City 328

We Print The Benning Herald

Take Examination

Sergeant Sanford H. Hamilton, Detachment Medical Department, Fort Benning station hospital, will be examined in the near future for appointment to the grade of Second Lieutenant in the Medical Administrative Corps Reserve. A special board consisting of Lieutenant Colonel Thomas J. Leary, Medical Corps; Captain Max V Talbot, Medical Administrative Corps; and Captain Ray L. Reed, Medical Administrative Corps Reserve, have been detailed to make the examination.

Sergeant Hamilton has six years service in the United States Army, all being spent in the medical department. He was at the Sternburg General Hospital in the Philippine Islands for one year, at the station hospital at Fort Benning for the remainder of his Sergeant Hamilton was a resiof Dandridge, Tennessee, prior to his enlistment in the army. He is twenty-four years old High School. His father, Hilton Hamilton, is living and Dandridge.

Pvt. Stolier Made Corporal Recently

Private First Class Bernard Stolier of Headquarters and Headquarters Company, First Battalion, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, Fort Benning, has recently been promoted to the grade of Corporal. He has been in the service of the United States Army for more than seven years, all of which time he has spent at Fort Benning. At present he is acting in the capacity of company clerk.

Corporal Stolier is one of the most popular young enlisted men at Benning, being well known on the post as a singer, actor, enter-tainer, and athlete. He is an original charter member and one of the founders of the Revellers' and Savage Dance Clubs, and of the Benning Playmakers, the enlisted men's dramatic club, of which Corporal Stolier is now Business Manager. He has also played on the First Battalion and Post base Corporal Stolier is twenty-seven years old, a native of New Orleans, Louisiana, and is a graduate of Soule Business College.

29th Inf.

HEADQUARTERS CO.

Sergeant "Spud" Murphy, radio expert, must be in love as he is staying in close and saving his money these days. Pvt. 1cl. G. C. Brown is on a 10 days' furlough. Corp. Mueller, our company clerk, has been on a two months' and 22 days' furlough, thumbing his way back from Boston to Florida and then to Fort Benning. We are all glad to see him back. He left here on or about time to arrive in Miami, Florida in time to go to the World's Fair on the Graf Zeppelin, but he missed it by a few inches and had to thumb his way back.

Guy Smith, one of our old timers could write an excellent book about life in Alaska. He tells of only 127 people living on a tract of land as large as the state of Texas. Smith has held all the ranks from Master Sergeant to Buck Private. He has done quite a bit of prospecting in Alaska and upon his retirement in the next two or three years expects to try his luck at it again. He is also one of the highest distinguished shots of the army.

Grady McLendon, champion amateur featherweight boxer of Fort Benning, is going through some hard workouts to defend his title here next week. It seems that he will have it easy, winning by a knockout over all the other boys Sgt. Hamilton To in his weight. He hits a boy so fast they think someone is holding their hands.

Four men of the company recently completed the Red Cross First Aid Course and have been awarded certificates. They are: Sgt. John S. LaBonte, Sgt. James L. Hayes, Cpl. Cecil L. Richardson, Pvt. Riley H. Bozeman.

HQ. CO., FIRST BATTALION

Now after that comes the news of this communication outfit. There really haven't been many changes around these here parts, stranger, except that the interest in pinochle has reached a new high and Topkick Burke and Paul Revere Hampton have been roping in all the experts around the Company at 50 centavos a sitting. Oh well, somebody loses, somebody wins.

Hurrah, basketball season back again and from the outlook seems at Fort Oglethorpe two years, and like the 1st Battalion Green Wave is going to duplicate last season's performance by walking away with the proverbial bacon. But as some sport writers would say and quoting an ancient provert, "they have a long row to hoe;" and what row!! As anyone knows any athand is a graduate of the Maury letic team needs support so let's wet and of course they take a turn out 100 per cent you Irish bath the following Saturday night they can be cruel enough to put the winner.

N. HOBBS, Co. Reporter.

COMPANY "E"

Company "E" is planning on giving a supper at the last of the month for the Second Battalion Baseball players.

The many friends of Jim Puckett were very sorry to hear of his accident although he was not hurt seriously and he will not be confined long.

Pvt. Briggs, of the third platoon, has been voted on as the laziest man in the Company, which distinction he has held for the last five years.

Pvt. Wayne County Farlow claims that it is just going to be too bad for the Recruiting Officer in Mississippi when he sees him, for there are several things that he didn't tell him about the Army. Especially about reveille.

Pvts. Fortenberry and Jordan are still big licks in the Fellowship Club.

We have the largest sick rethat some of the boys got sorta derful Christmas.

rooters and amplify our choice for and taking off so much dirt at once him on guard Saturday and Sungave them a bad cold.

> Pvt. Andy Brown is working his self to death these days winding the clock up at Headquarters. Just think, it is only an eight-day clock too.

Pvt. Josh Parish, our Company crooner, is worrying himself to death because he can't sing like some of the big radio stars.

The soldiers of today think they have a hard time but Corporal Jim Dutton says that they should have bene back in the "Tent area" with him and General McRay, when Jim had to hold his salute one hour and five minutes and hen the General would only say 'Good morning, Jim."

If there is nothing in for this company next week, you will know that Corp. Jim was killed.

COMPANY "H"

The holidays are gone now and we are all back in the fold again. Two or three boys apparently went too far away and consequently ports known in the history of the they are having a little trouble Company on account of washing making their way back. All in down the plaster ceilings. It seems all though, everybody had a won-

Shavings . . . Price wonders how

"Porknose" Kelly says he day . . . is going to take a poke at 'Gunner' DePratt if the said 'Gunner' does not stop making fun of his smell-"Penguin" Gunsallus says he got that way smoking 'Kools' . 'Shake-a-leg' Cooper claims he has more rhythm than Eddie Cantor or Ben Bernie ever possessed . . . And that's the 'Carp'

-'Steve' Stevens.

Dr. R. H. Brown OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Murrah Bldg. Phones Office 4108

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

POWER (COMPANI

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1934

NO. 39

BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, January 15-The Medicos had their inning the first of last week at that harbinger of Spring, the annual physical. Our chassis was inspected from cowl to rumble-seat, knee-action was tested with sludge hammer and what appeared to be a balloon-tire inflation test of some sort was also included. From the impressions made we fear greatly that many more moons we will find in our boxes a long list of symptoms somewhat reminiscent of the faults a garage mechanic once found in our second mount when we had it inspected prior to making a long trip. We've suspected for some time that an excess of carbon has begun to accumulate in our cylinders, making it difficult to distinguish between a piston ring and a piston slap but apparently this was the least of our troubles. Our toe-in was poor and our alignment was nothing to write home about; even our hopping was irreversible and our freewheeling showed a pronounced tendency to jam on the turns. We knew our battery was low as a result of the holidays but we were hardly prepared for a specific gravity reading of 1150 that Captain Farish has repeatedly warned us about. We are not exactly sure what it means but whatever it in dicates it sure bodes ill.

The endless stream of undraped classmates reminded us of a parade of the wooden soldiers before receiving their first coat of paint. A wide variety of chassis chassisses or whatever the plural is) was on display—enough to give any Fisher body man a lifetime of ideas for improvement, streamline or no streamline. It brought to mind the man who went to a nudist masquerade with raisins stuck on his chest, posing as a cookie.

We felt not unlike a bad photooverexposed and underdeveloped. By the time we got through it was a wonder to us that we were able to get out of bed, as the last vestitge of physical well-being long since been removed. what we started to say in the first place was that it takes a lot of personality to look like an embryo tactician while going through the mill at an annual physical.

The best physical exam story heard to date was the one about the student who walked up to the eye-man with his glasses in his hand, confessing to weak His response in answer to the latter's query as to whether or not the top on the chart was, "What chart?"

Mention of the annual physical would be incomplete were we to overlook the presence in our group undergoing examination of one Howdy Clark, erstwhile supply tactician. Our first sensing of his presence came while our back was turned, caused by a distinct heatwave examination from we knew not where. Turning and greeting him as respectfully and as nonchalantly as it is possible for one undraped student to greet a fully

(Please turn to Page 2)

Best Of Companies In 29th During '33

A compilation of records for the year 1933, recently completed in he 29th Infantry, shows that Comnany C, of that regiment, has earned for itself a distinction as one of the most soldierly and efficient organizations of the 29th.

A regular procedure in the regiment is the selection of the neatest appearing and best drilled member of the body of men mounting guard, with the selected soldier acting as orderly for the commanding officer of the 29th Infantry for that day, an honor which is much sought after by the various units.

Records for last year show that of the total number of men selected as orderly for the commanding officer. Company C furnished 108. more than twice as many as those selected from any other company, and speaks highly for the record of the organization.

General Estes Now Member Of City Post Of Legion

Brigadier General George H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School, heads the list of Fort Benning World War Veterans who recently have transferred their American Legion memberships to the the Charles H. Harrison Post n Columbus.

In sending in his application for local Post, membership in the General Estes took occasion to commend the ideals and efforts of the legion and, when interviewed on the subject of Fort Benning membership, stated:

'I am wholly in sympathy with he efforts of the local Post of the American Legion to enlarge its membership at Fort Benning. This Post has certainly been a good and useful friend of the Army, and I believe every officer and man elirible for membership should consider seriously becoming a member in order to increase its prestige and power for good."

"The splendid pronouncements of the Natinnal American Legion at Defense are of special interest not in the regular service, but also to all thoughtful citizens who appreciate the value of adequate preparedness for national emergency."

tional Defense resolutions affect ing the Regular Army as adopted by the Chicago convention and rehe could read the second row from ferred to by General Estes are, in part:

> "An adequate national defense requires:
> "1—A Regular Army of 14,000 officers and 165,000 enlisted men. "2-A Natl. Guard of 210,000 enlisted men with proportionate officers, and with adequate provisions for forty-eight weekly drills and fifteen days annual training.

"3—A Reserve Corps of 120,000 officers (the minimum number to meet mobilization) with a cycle of training so arranged each year as to maintain a standard reasonably efficient throughout the Corps and

(Please turn to page 8)

BENNING DAY- Company C Judged GYMKHANA SATURDAY Former Soldier At BIG EVENT OF WEEK

Both Grown-ups and Children To Display Horsemanship in Annual Event Held On Practice Polo Field

The Infantry School gymkhana, being made on foot leading the annual mid-winter carnival of horse. horsemanship at Fort Benning, is to be held on January 20 this is open to members of the 24th year, on the practice polo field at Infantry in which each contestant the post. Entries for the medley is allowed three minutes to perof athletic, novelty, and comic form any stunts they may desire. events will include officers, enlisted men, women and children of the garrison, and it is expected ous stops, removing some part of that the field of competition will the tack at each point, and then be large.

One event, the pair novelty race. in which officers and ladies of the garrison competed with wheelbarrows, horses, and other equipment, has been dropped from the program, and an enlisted men's trick riding event, has been substituted for the enlisted men's wa ter carrying race. Otherwise, the program remains the same as it has been in past years.

The first event on the program will be the enlisted men's relay race, in which the riders from scratch, ride bare-back to a line, put on two pieces of denim clothing, ride to a second line, and there remove it. At the second line, the other men of the two teams put the denim clothes on, rides to a third line dismounts, and removes it, and returns to the first team member, who again dons it and returns to scratch.

The potato collecting race is the second event on the program, open to officers. The riders start from scratch carrying a bucket, ride down a line collecting potatoes, and return to the starting

The ladies' novelty race will see the riders starting mounted carrying a pair of pajamas riding to a line, dismounting, and dontheir riding clothes, riding to a second line picking up a neck rope and snapping it around the horses' necks, riding to a third point, where the neck rope is removed Chicago on the subject of National and placed on the ground, then returning to the starting point, only to World War veterans now reversing the procedure with the pajamas on the way, the last lap spectators.

The leading men's trick riding The officers' novelty race will see the contestants making varireversing the procedure on the way back, and then, when all equipment is again on the horse, lighting a cigarette, mounting on the off-side, and returning to the starting point with the lighted have a race of their own in which going to duty. And on that duty prizes will go to the first boy and first girl.

The children's bicycle favor race is open to all children of the garrison between the ages of 11 and 15 years, with the youngsters riding down lanes to secure favors. Prizes are to be given to the first boy and first girl.

The musical chairs for ladies is program with the feminine cenchairs. There are to be enough chairs for all but one of the contestants. When the music, which will be furnished by one of the post bands, stops, the riders will dismount, retaining hold of the horses' reins, and attempt to se-the winner is determined. The last event of the day will be the mounted wrestling, which will be open to enlisted men of the service Company, 24th Infantry. The riders are to mount ning the sleeping garments over bare-back, pair off, and attempt to dismount any other contestant. The last man left mounted, is to be declared the winner.

testants is to be eliminated until

The program is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p. m. Civilians from Columbus are cordially invited to attend the gymkhana, and parking space has been arranged for

Benning Is Victim Of Auto Wreck

John Simpson, who died Sunday the result of burns suffered in an automobile accident, was one of the best known men at Fort Benning while he was in service there, prior to entering civilian life last summer. He arrived at the post as a member of the 29th Infantry when the first troops came here from Fort Sill, Okla.. and after transferring from Benning when the post-war demotions of non-commissioned officers were made, returned here, and again worked his way up through the ranks to become one of the outstanding sergeants on the post.

Known to his comrades as "War-Set," a cognomen derived from his penchant for keeping equipment always in readiness for service, Sergeant Simpson introduced many a recruit into the ways of army life and discipline in a manner that has caused him to be remembered by the majority of the enlisted personnel of the post, and the news of his death to be heard with regret. For quite some time before he left the military service he was on duty as 1st sergeant of the recruit center at the post, where all new men are retained for The children under 10 years will a period of quarantine prior to he found many an opportunity to smooth out the bumps for the "rookie" and make life a little perhaps the feature event of the brighter for the lads who were away from home for the first taurs riding around a circle of time. (Incidentally, the writer was one of those who were eased into line by Sergeant Simpson when a newcomer to the of the Army).

Whatever he was doing, off duty or on, he was always the same cheerful helping "War-Set" to cure a seat. One or more con- those who soldiered with him; doing his duty in the manner that accomplished most, and when it was finished forgetting his rank and position and mingling with others as a man among men, liked

> Mr. Simpson's military service began in 1913, as a member of Company A, 10th Infantry, and he served with that organization throughout the World War, being discharged in 1919 as a corporal. He immediately reenlisted with Company A of the 29th Infantry, and, before that enlistment has expired, had been promoted to the grade of 1st sergeant. In an effort to escape administrative demotion by order of the War Department in 1922, the year when so many noncommissioned officers were reduced to bring the army to peacetime strength, he transferred to the 8th Infantry at Fort Moultrie, S. C., but was unable to prevent reduction. He again transferred to the 22d Infantry at Fort Oglethorpe, from which organization he was discharged in 1925.

> Simpson immediately reenlisted for Company G, 29th Infantry, and returned to Fort Benning, being discharged in 1928 as a sergeant. He again reenlisted, While serving in Company F, 29th Infantry as a sergeant he purchased his discharge from the military service to accept the position in Columbus that he was occupying at the time of his death.

aredness for national emergency." SCOUT COMMUNITY

The Girl Scout Community Com- | tee assigned the following duties mittee met at the home of Mrs. to members of the committee: Mrs. Henry J. Matchett on Wednesday afternoon.

Interesting reports of Yuletide activities were given by Mrs. H. B. Wadsworth and Mrs. F. V. Schneider, Cardinal Troop; Mrs. F. V. Heileman and Mrs. John Huling, Pine Tree Troop; Mrs. Paul Kellam and Mrs. T. C. Merzens, Daffodil Troop; Mrs. C. A. Selleck and Mrs. R. J. Hunt, Brownie Troop, No. II.

Mrs. J. B. Woolnough, chairman of the Community Chest Commit- Matchett.

C. W. Weeks, vice chairman; Mrs. G. H. Estes, advisory committee; Mrs. Matchett, director of Ft. Benning Girl Scouts; Mrs. F. S. Partridge, treasurer; Mrs. B. J. Weir, court of awards; Mrs. A. V. Arnold, mounted troop; Mrs. T. B. Catron, summer camps and house committee; Mrs. J. D. Hall, local camp and Mrs. E. J. Lyman, publicity. Mrs. John Huling was presented by Mrs. Heileman and invested as a Tenderfoot by Mrs. Phone 328

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

Columbus, Georgia

JANUARY 19, 1934 VOLUME III NO. 39 L. C. KUNZE ____Publisher FELICIA C. HOWELL ___Society Editor Sports Editor

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from Page 1) clothed instructor we were distinct- cal in record time. ly aware of a sense of extreme heat uncomfortably close.

The mysterious cause of this sudden increase in temperature became known when Howdy peeled its latest ailment, to wit, shimmydown to within one notch of our level and displayed a pair of shorts that must have been designed by an interior decorator in an unguarded moment. There is still considerable discussion as to whether the basic color was lavender or old rose but the opinion is unanimous that the design thereon, repeated at frequent intervals, was a pnik forget-me-knot with a shrinking violet soulfully inter-

To say that this display caused a commotion would be to admit the loan of a pair of mules. The a reportorial lack of a sense of proportion. Rather might it be stated in mildest terms as causing a stampede. One student called for a fire extinguisher, a second started to turn in a fire alarm, and one undraped student body was later reported to be out in the hall reaching for the axe marked "In case of fire." This latter could not be verified, but it was true that when Howdy leaned over near the radiator while putting on a slipper a spark was seen to jump while the gap was a little over two inches. The color tack. . . Wondering what relationwas so loud that the doctor in the ship, if any, exists between his next room pumping up the arms Four Lax Sisters and the Four had to close the door to read the Marx Brothers. . . Marine Gally instruments on his dashboard.

To the post medical personnel in putting over a an efficient, where the Flare has gone.

smooth and thorough annual physi-

During the week-end we succumbed to an overpowering urge to pull our car to pieces to correct ing. We removed all the shims we could find except for a few that escaped us and fell unto the crank case. We enjoyed the experience immensely even though we apparently failed to correct the root cause. When assembled our car still persisted in shimmying on down grades. As yet it is not known whether the same holds true when climbing a hill as the motor has not yet been replaced. But motor or no motor we can always back up and if this should fail we have already been offered motor was noisy anyway.

Cuff-notes: Tactician Bill Hones featuring again in a well-portrayed terrain exercise, ably abetted by the soft spoken but amply descriptive Cussetta sheriff. . . Evidence of the return of the class seinsayuma evidenced by the reception accorded the clever bulletin-board cartoon of Jimmy Wharton, ground-loop expert. . chids to Machine-Gun Kelly of the Weapons Section for his demonstration of machine-guns in the ataward of the Haitian distinguished service medal. . . A decided dearth goes our citation (which we hasten of contestants recently for the to publish before our rejection slip Croix de Questionnaire, the class announcing our most up to date awarded for interrogators to the ailments is received). for a task manner born. . . And a welcome to well done in that they did succeed the Student Prints as we wonder

29TH INFANTRY

COMPANY "F"

Company "F," 29th Infantry extends a welcome to Lieutenant Bache, Sergeant Barnes and Pfc. Bright on their return to this organization from detached service with the C. C. C.

The Company joins in congratulating Privates Adams and Maitland on their promotion from Privates to Privates first class.

Company Jester

Visitor: "Dear me, what is that terrible noise upstairs?"

S. G. T. Jr.: "Oh! that's nothing, that's just Ma draggin' Pa's pants across the floor."

Visitor: "But that shouldn't make such a racket."

S. G. T. Jr.: "Oh! I don't know, Pa's in them."

McLean: "Boo-Boo-Boo-Boo Boo-BOO." 1st Sgt.: "What were those remarks. Pvt. McLean?" McLean: "Oh! I was just croon-

1st Sgt.: "Oh! I thought you were booing me."

New Officer: "Why do they call that officer "The Duke."

Old Officer: "That's because he is no 'count."

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

Outside of the climatic conditions in the Post and around this Company there isn't much to relate this week.

Private Bruner A. Burke has been appointed assistant to Pfc. Weaver who is a helper for Sergeant "Red" Sheppard. Keep up the good work Bruner. A little tip from someone who knows: The fiery-headed supply sergeant requested the extra help so that he could center more of his attention on the grand old game of pinochle.

While we are on the subject of jinochle venture to say that the championship honors took wings over night and the champs, or rather the new champs, Cpl. Ripper Ray and Pfc. Mal., "Hutto" Snead are holding down the cup. Remember boys, uneasy is the head that wears the crown", and you are liable to find yourself way down at the bottom of the list at most any time. Maybe John H. Young, corporal. United States Army, will come in for a little glory soon, anyway it is about time he was winning one or two games.

Wotta life, wotta life. The Company, and all of the members formed in front of the barracks last the Place-Where-Much-Is-Spoken. Tuesday morning for the purpose of marching to Simpson range for gas instructions, but alas, alack the cheery smiles vanished from the faces of the Headquarter's men when they finally emerged from the Lacrimatory, (tear to you) gas, which they were compelled to enter sans their masks. Most of the men were crying about their lost dogs but it looks more like they were mourning their 15 per cent pay cut.

Enough of this for this week tho'. See you next Herald day.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The Company was inspected by the Regimental Commander last Saturday and he was very much pleased with the appearance of of Headquarters Company barracks and the equipment.

The basketball team won three games last week; I. S. D., Tanks, and a team from Pensacola Naval Air Station.

Greeson was high score man making baskets with 15 points in the I. S. D. game and Bigler was high score man making baskets with 13 points in the Tank game. Greeson was high score man making baskets in the Pensacola Naval Air Station.

The following men of the company have been given ratings:

Specialist 4th Class Hurst from the radio section. Specialist 5th Class John D. Grace second cooks. Specialist 6th Class Bigler, Bitala, Bryant, Coen, Davis, O. H. Fricks, Greeson, Steckel, Stewart.

Anyone wanting some pointers on handball see Herman E. Ringenberg, one of the best in the company. Ringenberg plays the game because he loves it. He plays it the year around.

Sometime this month the Regiment will have a mobilization test and everyone will stand it. This test is carried out with the full spirit of a mobilization. All the carried out the men are put on a duty with the battalion the first train and taken for a ride and then it is all over. And Sherman said "War Is -

January with everyone cordially of them thar' fish stories. They'll and urgently invited to attend; look good in print, and, Robert L. special duty and all.

COMPANY "G"

Most all "G" Co. can thing of But it will udoubtedly be worth all the present disturbance when this is over: There is already a promise of great improvement.

Captain DePass and Lieutenant Crawford are unable to brag on the beautiful mess hall just at present, but feel it will reach even greater heights than in the past, 'when the work's all done this fall".

Now that the holidays are over, everyone is back in the fold: Joe Garrison, it is certain, will be near for fifteen days.

brings thoughts of celebrating, and just what caused a certain Corporal to go to sleep on one bus and Fort Benning and Corn he is just awaken in Lanette, Alabama. My, a big baloney. my, the heart will leard one to the far corners of the earth.

When the supply sergeant came back (prematurely from furlough) to assist in the preparation for the coming mobilization and learned that most of the preparatory work had been accomplished, he registered such pleasant surprise, that words are incapable to describe it. All of which is just more credit to Corporal Johnson, who is acting supply sergeant and doing an excellent job.

SERVICE COMPANY

Well back again trynig to break (Please turn to Page 3)

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

ON SUNDRY THINGS

15. And it came to pass that Roose-E-Velt, leader of the people, stood before the Ancients, in council convened, and in the name of the place was Kon-Ga-Ress, or

16. And he did speak unto them of many things, and mindful of the plight of the Army of Samuel, he did open his mouth and say: "Yea, verily, those who bear arms, and wear the armor of the Army of Samuel have tasted enough of the medicine called 'freeze," therefore I beseech you to make their burden lighter, and their doses of "kut" large. For these are honorable men, and some of them know no other trade, yet many must leave the service of the Army, for they have not where-with to pay their bills."

17. Having spoken thus, he took his seat, confident that those who had the welfare of the people at heart would be merciful unto those who could not help themselves, having not the power of the vote, nor any say in the government.

18. And the elders consulted among themselves, taking things into consideration.

19. And one did say: "Lo these have no need of money, for does not the government furnish them with everything, even unto roofs over their heads?"

20. And still another: "These had no "Kut" during the years of famine, when others were starving" taking not into consideration that the Army of Samuel had not ceased to work, nor that they likewise had no increase during the years of plenty.

21. But there were some, also who said: "Roose-E-Velt is right, these deserve consideration. For was luxury forgotten in the days though the government furnish of famine.

everything, yet they must shekels to have it cut again to their figures, or buy new. And which of you does wear a suit for three years? Would you the Army of Samuel shaveth not, like unto the Philistines? Or shine not the sandals, like unto the barbarians? And how then shall they pay the barber, or purchase the things necessary to the appearance of a good soldier?'

22. But their voice was small, like unto that of one crying in the wilderness, and many in the Kon-Ga-Ress thought only of the money expanded to save the people, for it was great in its magnitude.

23. And thinking, they remembered the accounting to the people, and of the power of the Vote, and they said unto themselves: 'We must truly make some saving; these have no say, or any powerful enough to take their part. Yet must we appear to be merciful, lest the people remember the days of old, and the honor of the Army of Samuel."

24. And the leader of them did say unto Roos-E-Velt: "Some of the burden shall we take from their shoulders, but not all, for there are still some not of the Army of Samuel who work not, nor is their pay twice as great. Therefore shall their dose of "Kut" be smaller, and the working of "Freeze" shall be more mild, though the newest in the ranks shall be entitled to as much as he who is growing grey in the Serv-

25. And so it was ordered, and the Army of Samuel did rejoice for now they could again buy the Bull-Dur-Ham, which is close to the heart of all military men, and pany Commander of Company E, who has been away on CCC duty for the past few months down work attached to a mobilization is Florida-way reported back for of the week. Glad to have you back, Captain Horne, and don't for-A retreat parade on the 26th of get to come around and tell a few Ripley is still gathering material for his column.

TANK NOTES

This month has been a busy one these days is calcimine, paint, wat- for the boys who are out on reer, N. R. A., C. W. A., P. D. Q., cruiting service. A peep down at Recruit Center shows many new Among them are: Pyts. faces. Cordell Parker, Julius M. Barfield, Eugene R. Prince, Melvin E. Abbott, Francis M. Brooksher, Preston Brunson, James Chambers, George S. Griffin, Walter M. Hall, Grestle G. Fuller, John H. Wood, Henry L. Dunaway, and Charles A. Sallette. To each of the new fellows is extended a "Terrible Tankers" welcome and they enjoy their stay while members of this battalion.

Jimmy Maloney who took the Speaking of holidays, naturally count from Tanker "Corn" Griffin, of Boston but to the fight fans of > Little Stratton Smith made a big hit with the fight fans by taking a well earned victory over Billy Hyde. To many of the boys Smittie was the best bout of the evening.

After the decision of the Mackery-Johnson fight the writer is in the belief that Mackery will never win a decision over Johnson, even if he knocks him out. Good going Mackery it should have been your fight.

Staff Sergeant Stewart and his bowling team are still pegging away up at the alleys and making a good year in this sport. Of course they next bouts.

Captain James C. Horne, Com- haven't been able to put the skates' under the I. S. D. team but "WHO HAS?"

> The Tank basketball team defeated Carrollton by a one point margin at Carrollton Saturday night, a much better showing than they have been making in the intramural loop. However, expect to see them knock down a few teams before the season is over.

Company D, won thé battalion boxing tournament held recently at the post gym. This was Company D's first victory in the pugging world, and, to them goes our congratulations for having won the championship of the battalion.

Congratulations to the newly appointed non-commissioned officers of the battalion and here's wishing all a successful New Year.

Major Hoople, of Hq. Company, hung up his socks Christmas night but all he got the next morning was the "razz-berry." Too bad, Wiley, didn't you ever hear that old saying, "there ain't no Santa

A note from Corporal Gunter, yho is down in Florida on furlough says that he is having one hard time snowing the girls under in that warm climate.

From Company F-61 learn that Corporal Segrest hasn't been caught trying to spend any more canteen checks in Columbus for theatrical purposes.

Captain Neundorfer is back with the battalion for duty after several months stay with the CCC, Army stationed at Ridgeland, S. C.

To Lieutenant Dunn who has been appointed boxing coach of the battalion team. Every success in turning out a team that will retain the championship, and by the way, these amateur fights are something to see and you don't showing for this to be their first have to buy a ticket. Go see the

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued From Page 2) into print after a long absence. Haven't much to say as the news is short and the work long.

Pfc. R. W. Mitchell has just returned from a sixty day furlough spent in the wilds of Fla. (though he doesn't look any wilder than before he left).

"BABY" Ricker the pool room orderly has been on short rations since Sgt. Harrison has been on furlough. He only uses one box of Copenhagen a day now.

1st Sgt. Klemm is stepping around in a new Ford V-8. Too bad girls, but he is married.

Sgt. T. E. (Ikey) Smith and some more of the boys motored up above LaGrange the other night to an old fashioned "Breakdown" Don't see why they had to go way up there for, we could always breakdown in Columbus or Phenix

Pfc. Carwile recently returned to the company after an absence of about three years spent in Panama and other jails.

"Daniel A. K. Puckett the Boone" of the Service Company has been seen oiling his rifle and squeezing off a few dry ones. Said that he was going to welcome the target season back with a 340. Lookout, Klemm, he is from Arkansas, too.

-Reporter by proxy.

COMPANY "D"

The company is missing the pres ence of First Sergeant Herman G. Humphrey, who is enjoying a ninety day furlough. With Sergeant Wilbourn, who is now "Acting One Spot", everything is normal as we haven't failed as yet to have at least two or three extra kitchen police for Sunday duty.

There is a rumor circulating that Corporal King and Private Foote are experts at the art of playing bridge. If there are any persons who know it to be an absolute fact that the two are excellent at the game, please notify Corporal Remelsberger, as the has been engaged in several games with both parties and hasn't yet noted any remarkable ability of either of the two at bridge playing.

Several enlisted men and Officers of the company have visited St. Mark, Florida on numerous occasions for the purpose of fishing and have never failed to bring back from four hundred to seven hundred pounds of fish each time. On every trip that has been made, we find that some men are very poor sailors as the fish feeding detail has ranged from three to five each trip.

On the morning of January 16, about 9:00 o'clock, the entire company was shedding tears and lots of tears. No, haven't lost the best friend and it seems rather odd to see a bunch of grown men gathered at what appears to be a crying contest, but most anyone would have cried under similar circumstances, as every member of the organization is aware of the fact that tear gas does bring tears.

COMPANY "H"

win the chmapionsip this year and Company has contributed a lot to the team in the form of players, Frank Lee, Cy Slocum, Skinny Fuller, and 'Sap' Saunders all doing their part. Littlefield deserves a lot of praise too, for his work in eeping the team in physical trim.

Shaving . . . Sgt. Cody was seen gazing longingly at the plentiful CWA paint. . . Howard finally came into his own. . . 'Luck' Ryles pulled his guard at last (After pulling most of his hair out). . 'H" Company has the only travel ing soldier in the U.S. Army. . And we still don't know where next weeks blarney is coming from.

-Ernest Stephens.

HQ. 2D BN., 29TH INFANTRY WARNING to Headquarters Bn. and First Bn., 29th Inf. "Be ware of the BASKETBALL games that are csheduled fro the near future." 'THE OLD SECOND BATT" is out for blood."

Private John H. Lakey has just returned from a SOJOURN at Maxwell Field, Ala. Sergeant Gilbert Strangand, our supply sergeant, is all hot and bothered about the drill we are having these days it is worrying the OLD SARG. Private Bennie Hill is out for AMATEUR BOXING he is also taking up Wrestling, but it is with the A & R FUND, Second Battalion. Luck to Bennie. Private Billie Floyd is also out for AMA-TEUR BOXING and on his spare time heis studying love through the True Story Magazine. Corporal The 2nd Battalion Basketball Darden, Company Clerk is also team has an excellent chance to taking a few lessons in the ART

Three Promoted Here Recently

Promotion to higher rank has come to three members of the 29th Infantry according to regimental orders recently issued by Colonel William E. Persons, commander of the organization.

The men who are all members of Company B, 29th Infantry, have all been promoted to the grade of corporal, They are Private 1st class John B. Banister, Private 1st class Lowell F. Washam, and Private 1st class John B. Foust.

Private Albert L. Henderson, who recently enlisted at Fort Benning for the 29th Infantry, has been assigned to Company G of that regiment for duty.

Major Frank V. Schnieder, Captain Walter P. O'Brien, Lieuten-

OF LOVE.

The S-3, Second Battalion, Lieut. James E. Bowen fell the other day and sprained his ankle. He still has the old fighting spirit of the "OLD SECOND BATT" and has been on the job every day. A speedy recovery S-3. The boys of the Company has been enjoying a few easy hours over the week ends at the Recreation camp of 2nd Bn. Hq. Company on Shell Creek. They seem to be at home when they are out there where they can heart the WILD CATS growl and the OWLS HOOT. Corporal Otis Laird has been appointed the president of the ant Lynn E. Brady, and Lieutenant James K. Woolnough, all of the 29th Infantry, have been designated by Colonel Persons as judges for the bayonet qualification trials which will begin soon for the regi-

-John Newsom.

Private Edward O. Capps, and Private Lamar W. Havard, recently enlisted for the 29th Infantry, have been assigned to Regimental Machine Gun Company and to company G respectively for duty.

INSIGNIA and BUTTONS

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold pleting. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned with a solution of soapsuds and household amproves hold ammonia.

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

.. that Chesterfield has a modern up-to-date Tobacco Factory in far-off historic Smyrna

So important is the handling of Turkish tobacco in making Chesterfield cigarettes that Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., maintains this specially equipped plant right in the heart of the famous Smyrna tobacco section.

It is the largest and most modern tobacco factory in the Near East.

Turkish tobacco, you know, is the best "seasoning" there is for cigarettes. At all times Chesterfield has in storage—at this plant and in America—about 350,000 bales of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco.

the cigarette that's MILDER the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

经国SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS以及

Series Of Parties Given For House Guests Visiting At Fort Benning

Mrs. Patsy McClelland and Mrs. Tuesday at her quarters. The guest Fort Benning have been the guests of honor at a number of delightful affairs. Mrs. James E. Purcell, daughter of Mrs. McClelland and sister of Mrs. Owens, entertained her guests at a bridge luncheon

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

Get friendly with the SILVER'S advertisements

They'll be your sign posts to economical and convenient buying. In them are listed each week the outstanding articles we have, and you'll profit to the ultimate degree by reading them closely. Get the "Silver's" habit and learn to

SILVER'S

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

L. L. Owens who are visiting at list included in addition to the honorese, Mrs. Wm. E. Persons, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Thomas R. Hannah, Mrs. Clyde E. Eddleman, Mrs. Jesse T. Traywick, Mrs. John A. Stewart, Mrs. George E. Martin, Mrs. Marion Burt and Miss Beverley Hale. On Thursday, Mrs. Traywick entertained the visitors with a bridge luncheon which included two tables of contract bridge. Mrs. Stewart entertained Tuesday with a bridge luncheon, while Mrs. Eddleman was hostess Friday entertaining with a bridge

> OFFICERS BRIDGE TOURNEY HELD MONDAY EVENING AT OFFICERS CLUB

The first of a series of bridge tournaments consisting of officers organizational teams of four was held Monday evening at the Officers Club. Participating were teams of four representing the Academic Department, 24th Infantry, two teams from the 29th Infantry, two teams of "Freebooters," a team from the Tanks and one from the Students. The winning teams and the officers comprising them were, first, 24th Infantry, consisting Capt. Harland C. Griswold, Capt. Edward C. Johnson, Lieut. Robert R. Martin and Lieut. James M. Lamont, second, Academic Department, consisting of Lieut. Col. John L. Jenkins, Lieut. Col. Charles H. Bonesteel, Major Thomas G. Arms, and Capt. Henry J. Matchett, third, the Tank team consisting of Capt. Joseph A. Stuart, Capt. Fay Ross, Lieut. Andrew J. Evans, and Lieut. Theodore J. Dunn. The next contract bridge tourney to be held will take place on next Monday night at the Officers' Club being in the nature of a mixed pairs tournament.

COMMUNITY SERVICE LEAGUE OF COLUMBUS HOLDS BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

The Columbus Community Service League held a mixed bridge tourney Tuesday evening at Hardaway Hall, the lovely country estate of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hardaway of Columbus, at eight o'clock. Throughout the house lovely bowls of chrysanthemums and gladioli were used as decorations. Among those playing from Fort Benning were: Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Charles H. Bonesteel, Maj. and Mrs. Paul A. Baade, Major and Mrs. Thomas G. Arms, Capt. and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, Capt. and Mrs. Don C. Faith, Mrs. Jesse A. Ladd, Mrs. Vernon Evans, Mrs. Dwight A. Rosebaum, Mrs. George P. Howell and Lieut. George H. Decker. There were fifteen tables of bridge. In the first section first place was won by Capt. and Mrs. Faith, with Mrs. Rosebaum and Mrs. Evans, and Miss Helen Flournoy and Mr. John Illges tied for second. In the second section the winners were first, Mrs. Carlos Beck and Mrs. Myrtle Blackmon with Mrs. J. D. Thomason and Mr. J. B. Biggers second and Maj. and Mrs. Baade,

CAPT. AND MRS. MATCHETT PLAN DINNER FOR HOUSE GUESTS

Captain and Mrs. Henry J. Matchett will entertain Saturday evening at their quarters complimenting their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson of Minneapolis. Dinner will be served to fourteen friends of the hosts. After dinner bridge will be in order.

The guest list will include: Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Rowan Lemly, Lt. Col. and Mrs. J. A. Atkins, Lt. Col. and Mrs. J. J. Jenkins, Major and Mrs. Lucius K. Patterson, Lt. Col. and Mrs. O. J. Leary, Capt. and Mrs. Guy McKinley.

WEDDING OF MISS ELIZABETH WELTY TO LT. HOW-ARD TO TAKE PLACE IN FEBRUARY.

Plans for the wedding of Miss Eliazbeth Welty, only daughter of Major and Mrs. Maurice D. Welty, of Ft. Benning, to Lt. Charles E. N. Howard, Jr., son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. C. E. N. Howard, retired, of Washington, D. C., have been completed. The young couple will be united in marriage on Feb. 7 at the Fort Benning Protestant Chapel at 8 p. m. with Chaplain Miles I. Howard officiating.

Miss Welty will have as her maid of honor Miss Kenneth Kendall of Fort Benning. Lt. Howard's best man will be Lt. Robert A. Ports. The groomsmen will be Lt. Daniel I. Walker, Lt. Arthur L. Cobb, Lt. Sidney Brown, Lt. Sidney C. Wooten, Lt. James J. Heriot, Lt. Robert B. Neeley.

Lt. Howard is stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He plans to arrive at Benning around the first of February.

A number of pre-nuptial affairs are being planned for this popular bride-elect.

PERSONALS

Among those from Fort Benning who motored to Atlanta during the past week to hear the Chicago Opera Company were Capt. and Mrs. Guy C. McKinley, Jr., Mrs. Joseph I. Greene, Major Peter P. Salgado, Miss Katherine Lemly, Miss Athleen Munson, Miss Margaret Moore, Lieut. Arthur L. Cobb, Lieut. Tom R. Stoughton, ach, Lieut. Stephen O. Fuqua, Lt. James O. Boswell, and Lieut. Melville Hampton.

Miss Barbara Lowe of Atlanta is the house guest of Miss Katherine Lemly.

Lieut. and Mrs. James E. Purcell have as their house guests the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. Patsy McClelland and Mrs. L. L. Owens of Jackson, Miss.

Miss Beverley Hale of Natchez, Miss., is spending a few weeks in Columbus as the house guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. George E. Martin.

Miss Marie Gorgas Wrightson of Washington, D. C., granddaughter of the late Maj. Gen. Wm. C. Gorgas arrived Thursday to be the house guest of Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm L. Lindsey.

Literary Section Hears Talk By Lieut. Lanham

The Literary Section of the Woman's Club of Fort Benning met on Monday afternoon at the Polo-Hunt Club. Miss Carroll Stevens, the chairman, presided. The subject of the program was "Trends in Recent Poetry and Drama". The feature of the meeting was the reading of the outstanding poetry of the last few years by Lt. C. T. Lanham, who is himself a poet of note and a member of the Poetry Society of America. Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth, director of the Fort Benning Dramatic Club reviewed the current success on the New York stage and read from Eugene O'Neill's play, "Ah, Wilderness."

Lt. Lanham read selections from E. A. Robinson as examples of character sketches. For this he selected "Richard Cory" and "Miniver Cheevy." Instead of reading from the sea poems of John Masefield he gave as the perfect ex (Please turn to Page 5)

Capt. and Mrs. Henry J. Matchett will have as their house guests over the coming week-end Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of Minneapolis, Minn.

THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

. which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

Excellent Curb Service

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT

POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

$ 550,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building.
Fort Benning Representaive—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

39 REASONS:

Each one of our more than thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all you shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHILD

FURNITURE COMPANY

For Thirty-Nine Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

The Six - Box

25c

A PLACE ON EVERY PANTRY SHELF

There isn't a home in the world that doesn't need Coca-Cola, for it is a prime favorite with everyone who appreciates the value of real refreshment at the right time. The deliciousness of Coca-Cola makes it the world's most delightful drink. Sold in the Six-Box at all Columbus Grocery stores.

> AT ANY PLACE -- AT ANY TIME --ALWAYS THE SAME COCA-COLA

Garden Section Of Woman's Culb To Hear Talks

The Garden Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club will hold Branch he read "The Unbeliever," its regular meeting on Monday, January 22, at Mrs. Robert G. Mangum's quarters at 2:30.

Capt. Robert J. Whatley will speak on "Roses" at this meeting. Mr. J. Williams, a landscape architect of Columbus, will speak on "Some of the Features of Landscape Gardening."

There will be an open discussion on the planting and care of Richly flavored—and made from the richest cream beaten to a frothy consistency that makes it extra delicious. No wonder we can say that "It's A Food—Not A Fad!"

Sold at the SODA FOUNT and the OFFICERS' CLUB

LITERARY SECTION

(Continued from Page 4) pression of the man Masefield the poem, "Consecration". In speaking of George Sterling he said that Sterling threw stars and comets around as we would salt and pepper shakers. From Ann Hempstead which gives a very touching picture of a man who watched by Christ. Particularly effective was the reading of Ridgely Torrence's describes a lynching with great feeling and the reaciton of the caught blackbird. Louis Untermeyer's, "Caliban of the Coal Mines" pleads the case of the miner lost in the darkness of the mine. In Aline Kilmer's "With my Back Against a Wall" you see something of the fighting spirit and idealism of the wife of Joyce Kilmer. Lt. Lanham read the selection from "The Shropshire Lad" of A. E. Housman with unusual understanding, protraying the po-et's simple and crystal clear style. Other poems from Housman in-cluded "Lancer" and "To an Athlete Dying Young." "The Listeners" of Walter de la Mare with its eerie quality and suspense was compared to the famous story of Stockton's, "The Lady and the Tig-er". From Edna St. Vincent Millay, whom Lt. Lanham spoke of as the greatest woman poet since Sappho, were read the sonnets, "What Lips My Lips Have Kissed" and "Euclid Alone Has Looked on Beauty Bare." Eleanor Wylie's use of assonance, her exquisite workmanship, and the diamond brittleness of her style were brought out in the reading of some of her better known poems.

Lt. Lanham concluded with the reading of several of his own poems which have recently been published in Harpers Magazines. In "The Soldier" he states his philosophy of life; in "Empire Builders" he finds new worlds to conquer among the planets for those of us who are adventurers; in "Execution" he paints a picture of the silent drama of electrocution.

Mrs. Wadsworth in speaking of the recent plays on Broadway spoke particularly of the Kaufman,

GIRL SCOUTS

CARDINAL TROOP

The meeting Tuesday 16th began with a serious talk to the girls of the Cardinal Troop, given by Mrs. Schneider concerning badges. Almost the entire troop is taking athlete's badg eand Mrs. Schneider hoped to persuade the other scouts to follow suit, so the entire troop can work together in basketball and tennis. After Mrs. Schneider "The Bird and the Tree". This finished speaking, Mrs. Wadsworth read a leter which Chaplain Monahan wrote to the Cardinals about the Christmas play. His praise of Mrs. Wadsworth's unselfish part was appreciated by her scouts who knew how hard and how willingly both she and Mrs. Schneider worked with the play. This was followed by the selection of songs which are to be learned this year. Unanimously the "Prophylactic Pup" was chosen and three patrols voted down the "Hiking Song" in favor of the "Poor Old Slave."
The leaders had decided already upon the Scout's hymn. The discussion ended at this point and relay races and a game which Anne Cota forgot to name kept everyone active until five o'clock. At this hour the good night circle was formed and songs were sung ending with "Taps." With a salute for her leaders each member left and the meeting ended.

> Ryskin, Gershwin, music comedy "Let 'em Eat Cake", by the authors of "Of Thee I Sing" and of "Tobacco Road" which is an adaptation of Erskine Caldwell's novel and whose scene is laid in Georgia. In her reading of Eugene O'Neill's play "Ah, Wilderness" she gave you an inkling of the rich comedy parts that have been giv-en to George Cohan as a smalltown newspaper man back in 1906. The son Richard has just discovered Swinburne, Ibsen, and Oscar Wilde. He sets his family wild by quoting bits from these and from the Rubaiyat, especially with Omar's "And thous beside me in the wilderness, ah, wilderness."
> Those who see "Ah, Wildernss" will find it a human, kindly, surely drawn picture of pre-war home life and a compassionate study of the tribulations of adolescence.

2 Men Are Given Commendation

Two members of the 29th Infantry have been selected for commendation and honor by Colonel William E. Persons, regimental commander, in orders published recently by headquarters of that organization; the one for the neatness and soldierly appearance of his equipment at a recent inspection, and the other being selected as color guard for the regiment.

Private Roscoe Barton, Cannon Company 29th Infantry, the neatness and good appearance of whose equipment drew the attention of Colonel Persons at an inspection a short time ago, is in receipt of a letter of commendation. Barton has been in the military service about 11 months, and prior to joining the 29th Infantry, lived at Bowman, Ga., where his parents, A. J. Barton. live. He is doing regular duty in the organization, but shows indications of being good material for a non-commissioned officer.

Colonel Persons said in part in his letter of commendation:

"Such a display of neatness by a soldier indicates a pride in his personal appearance, which will bring credit to himself, his company, and his regiment. It is a mark of an outstanding soldier."

Private 1st class James H. Mc-Lane, Company G, 29th Infantrty, who was selected as regimental color guard, has about 4 years service, all of it with the 29th Infantry. His home is in Valdosta, Ga. He was selected for the honor of guarding the colors because of his soldierly bearing, and the excellent manner in which he drilled and performed his duties.

First Fashions for SPRING

Swagger Suits in the new spring mode

For Dress For Sports

$19.75 to $49.50 SIZES 14 TO 20

You'll love the casual, windswept look of these suits; you'll adore the new spring colors; you'll glory in the flattering tweeds, the smart wool crepes... heather mixtures, plaids and solids. Mostly two piece; but some have vests, others have scarfs.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin Kayoes Maloney In Fifth Round

In Bout Tuesday With Veteran

Corn Griffin met Jim Maloney in the Benning gymnasium last Tuesday night, and the results to Mr. Maloney are sad to relate. And there is only one question about the entire fight. How did Maloney stand up as long as he did under Griffin's punishment?

Griffin has always appeared at his best against big boys, and the Boston boxer was no exception to the general rule. True, Maloney has slowed down some, but the right hand that he parked on Corn's head early in the second round would have done nobody's migraine good, and Corn had to watch his step.

Maloney was fat, but far from being out of shape. It was just the fact that Corn was faster, and when he hit, hit hard, that ended the battle the way it did. It is entirely probable that Maloney underestimated Griffin's ability, and never got over the shock of those opening punches. There is this rumor and there is that theory, but the facts are that Corn Griffin, pride of the tank battalion, ace of the service scrappers, did something that Johnny Risko, the Bouncing Baker Boy, who will meet Mickey Walker nevt month, could not do, and that is put Jim Maloney on the floor for a count

The first round was perhaps the only one in which Maloney showed any real opposition, but Corn shook off his punches and came back for more. Maloney's roundhouse swing with a right that ended on the side of Corn's head in the second was the most dangerous blow the invader landed throughout the battle. In the third Griffin opened a cut over Maloney's eye, and then sent him down for a count of four, when Jim's sec-

Check Our USED CAR Values

30—Ford Coupe	250
'31—Ford Tudor	285
'30—Dodge Coupe	295
'32-Ford V-8 Coupe	375
'32—Ford V-8 Tudor	395
'32—Chev. Coach	395
'32—Chev. Fordor	425
'33-Pontiac Fordor Sed	575

MANY OTHERS

ALL PRICES

TERMS — TRADES

Burrus Motor Co.

USED CAR DEPT.

Phone 606 1213 - 1st Ave.

Corn Looks Good Poloists Resume Activity After Lavoff During Christmas Holidays

Fort Benning polo players and the post witnessed the con-swung into action Sunday after-tests indicating that attendance standing of the teams in the innoon after the holiday lay-off with two games being played be-

The games, which are in preparation for the post tourney, played without handicaps, the Freebooters defeating the 24th shown everywhere. 7-3, and the 29th Blues losing to the 83rd Cannoneers 7-4. The Freebooters and the 24th Infantry are the two strongest teams in the league, although competition is likely from the 83rd team.

not done with any intention of getting Maloney off from a lick-ing, as this writer Maloney's corner, and the second really thought his man was cut A. badly, and didn't want him to run the possible risk of a blinded eye. Lt. Johnson, referee, called for a medical examination, which disclosed that the injury was minor, and Maloney continued the battle. And right here is where a lot of fans got mixed up. The fight was continued as from the beginning of the fourth round, although the third had not ended when the towel was thrown. So it is a question as to whether the end came in the fourth or fifth round by time. The starting of a full round after the examination made it five rounds of fighting, with the third round the short one.

The fourth round found Corn driving Maloney aroun dthe ring and slamming over hard rights and lefts to the body. The punishment began to tell, and in the going the limit. fifth, after backing Maloney up to his corner with rights and lefts to the head, Corn-let drive with a right behind the ear and sent him to the canvas, and it was all over but the shouting.

Corn weighed in at 184, and Maloney at 212.

Lope Tenerio and Rufus Miles round spot semi-final, with Miles further punishment. getting a rather unpopular decision. The Filippino was getting and had there been five more nicely into camp. A draw would a deci have been liked better by the vision.

a well-earned decision. Smith, though the smaller of the a K. O. by the sponge-tossing britwo, plainly has the Indian sign gade. on Hyde when they put on the gloves.

Mackery around the ring. Incidentally, although the decision went to a draw, it looked as if Johnson on his elbow. had a shade the better of the argument, as he had Mackery just a little woozy several times. Sandy Huff and Tony Viggins opened the boxing with a fourround battle that was a honey, although a draw. Both boys tossed leather from start to finish and nicely with Billie Floyd going like pleased the crowd no end.

Chesty Cooper and Toughy Powell put on a wrestling match that rather showed up Powell as the cleverer of the two boys. How about a decision on those wrestling matches?

polo players and the post witnessed the conat the post tourney will go above tween the Freebooters and the the records of previous years. Batt Irish at the hands of the 24th Infantry, and the 83rd Field Artillery and the 29th Infantry.

Polo, which is one of the fastest, Headquarters Battalion, which and most thrilling, sports in the placed the Pirates in a two-way world, is gaining rapidly in popularity at the post, and considerscheduled to begin shortly, were able niterest in the standing and ing come through with a clean ability of the various teams is

Two contests are scheduled for next Sunday, the Freebooters meeting the 29th Infantry, and the 83rd Field Artillery clashing with the 24th Infantry. The latter game is expected to be the A large number of spectators closer of the two.

getting Maloney off from a licking, as this writer was sitting in Preparing For S. E. A. U. Tourney

The annual carnival of the amateur leather-pushers at the post, which will finally terminate in the selection of the team to represent Benning in the S. E. A. A .U. tourney scheduled to be held here the first of March, began in the gymnasium on Wednesday night, with the Tankers taking a 62-30 victory over the 83rd Field Artillery, and the Black Pirates of Headquarters Battalion losing to the 2d Battalion Thunderbolt 52-

The feature of the bouts was the gameness of Vallery, of the Kelly's in finishing his match with a broken jaw, and winning by a K. O., and by the great number of "sleepy-time" victories on the program, only four of the twelve bouts

The ball was opened by Charlie Floyd and Greeves, represent-ing the Tanks and the Gunners respectively in the featherweight class, after Rowan, of the Tanks won by default in the bantam-weight. Floyd had little trouble with Greeves after the second round, and the Gunner's seconds fought a nice battle in the 10 tossed the towel to save him from

Floyd Smith, of the Tanks, lost the only battle for that organizastronger as the fight grew older, tion when Fillipone, of the 83rd, rocked him and reeled him around rounds would have taken Miles the ring for three rounds to take a decision in the lightweight di-

Neal Milan, Tanks, and Pinky Stratton Smith and Billy Hyde Anderson, 83rd, matched blows in fought a slam-bang battle in the the welter class with Milan, after feature six-rounder, with Smith clouting the taller man for a round and a half, being robbed of

Killen, Tanks, 154, and Harer of the 83rd, 152, put on another Ching Johnson and Frank Mac-inice battle till Harer went down in the first six-rounder, in the second for the count. Morfought a rather slow two rounds, ris, Tanks, and Gilmar, 83rd, last-when Johnson began running ed about one and a half minutes of the first round, when Gilmar took the count reclining gracefully

Reid of the Tanks and Rich of the 83rd also put on a short battle. Rich took one on the button, and then helped himself to a ten second rest about the middle of the first.

The 2nd Battalion started out a house on fire to win by a K. O. over Crawford, of the Headquarters team, in 49 seconds. Crawford never laid a glove on Floyd.

Howard, 2d Bn., and Coffee, Headquarters, furnished the feath (Please turn to page 8)

2nd Batts Lead Intramural Race

tramural basketball league since last week is the defeat of the 1st tie with the 2d Batts for the league lead, both teams to date havslate.

The Irish lost to the Headquarters outfit last night to the score of 37-30, in one of the best games seen on the local floor in three years.

The 2d Batts also played Friday night, taking the Tankers into camp to the tune of 5019, in a very one sided affair.

Monday night mounted out of the cellar position by a win over the Special Units, taking the victory by a one point margin. While not the best brand of ball was played, the game was exciting all the way and furnished plenty of action for the fans. The second game of the evening found the 83rd Field Artillery holding Headquarters Battalion down to a much smaller score than was expected, the final total of points being in Headquarters favor by the score of 37-24.

League standings and high scorers to date are as follows:

Team	P	W.	L	Pc.
2d Bn	4	4	0	1.000
Hq. Bn	4	4	0	1.000
1st Bn	3	2	1	.667
Medicos	3	1	2	.333
83rd	. 4	1	3	.250

Sp. Units ... Player Team Points Games Chamberlain Hd. Bn. 83rdGreeson 2nd Bn. Cotney Hq. Bn. Burgess 1st Bn. Snead 83rdMcGee

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

Rooms from $2

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

STRIKE SPLASH SWISH

and any angler can tell you that the strike of a game fish is the most thrilling thing in the world.

When you go after the big ones (or little ones either) be sure you have the best of tackle. The Main Branch sells only the best of nationally known makes of sporting equipment. ...

83rd F A

HEADQUARTERS HEADQUAR-TERS BATTERY & COMBAT TRAIN

On the air again with the same old line of gab. The battalion Basketball team is still trying to win the majority of their games but lady luck seems to be against Worlds of material this year and they will get together before the last half starts. What is needed more redlegs in rooters section.

Cpl. Nahring took an active part in a play entitled "London Bridge is falling down", sponsored by the belles of 35th street, Columbus. John got all excited and fell off the bridge and sprained his shoulder. The audience thought that it was part of the act and gave Cpl. Nahring a big hand. John was dressed like Prince Charming.

Swiftly Phillips has got it bad, mean that he is staying out at wonder where my wandering boy is night a little later than usual hanging his hat these cold nights.

The rumor has started that the Artillery is going to be motorized in the near future. What will become of Sally when the motors arrive. The battery is sending a few men to the motor school to take a course in driving and maintaining of transportation.

BATTERY "C"

Another local boy makes good Pvt. Rentz won his first fight in the amateur class when he knocked his opponent out last Monday night. Pvt. James, C. also put up a good fight, but lost the decision after he had floored his opponent Webb, "Spike" says that he still has a lot of good fighters who will fight at a later date, and maybe Rich, who fights in the heavyweight class, will be unchallenged.

Pal McGuire has brought a chair cushion from home, and all hope it will be easier for him in the Q. M. office from now on.

Sgts. Chewning and Miller had a narrow escape Sunday morning when the truck in which they were riding left the road and turned over in a stream near McClouds Hill. The wrecked truck is now at the stables, where it is being repaired by Napper and Greene, with lots of advice from all ex-mechanics and future mechanics.

The Btry regrets the loss of the gun shed with the concrete floors and running water, which we don't believe will be in the one that is now being erected.

Believe it or not. Btry C now has enough men for duty so that each man can ride one horse and all the horses in the Btry will be out. (including Fireside) But the stable sgt's, horse looks at him every morning with tears in his eyes, and Pop says "Bucheneer has to go to the hospital".

BATTERY "A"

It looks as though "A" Btry. has come out of the kinks at last, and are showing a little interest in the mighty sport called boxing. One round Hallmark won a decision over James of Btry. "C" KO Greaves came through with a clean decision over one of the tough engineer boys. Battling Parish held his man to a draw, and Cespiva the leather slinger frog from La. only man to suffer defeat.

Private Head, the banjol playing wonder, finds it hard to stay away from Atlanta, after receiving a letter from a certain girl.

Wondered several times why Pvt. Evans was always wanting to go like a train. the other night we found out it was just a new way asking for a cigarette.

Pvt. Chancey says he is way ahead of some of the fellows in the battery on points as he has started chewing Beech-nut tobacco.

24th Inf.

Private Harold McCray, poet extraordinary, composed the words to the march. "Semper Paratus" the melody. The music itself was a church services Sunday. two months' job for the band leader. McCray is smart and Irvin Berlin has nothing on him.

of the Jazz Pirates orchestra, during his soulful and sentimental moments is writing the words to 'The Pirates Love Call' written and arranged by Corporal Ruffin.

The Band challenges the regiment at auction bridge. See Wysinger, Hodges, Ricks or little Nick-played for the Regimental Officers night while the Jazz Pirates furnished the harmony for the Maids Club dance.

Hodges and "Little Sergeant in fifteen minutes after hearing Nickey" represented the Band at

A beautiful but thoroughly unfamily (skunk) decided that he or she (sex undetermined) would lie under the barracks and listen to Pfc. Penrose, tenor saxophonist | the music. We are told that music hath charms that sooth the savage beast. Said skunk was perfectly satisfied and charmed while the band was warming up on a march but when the band started on the "Unfinished Symphony' little skunkies fighting instinct was aroused and he craved action. The writer doesn't know that there is about "The Unfinished Sym-The Happy Hearts orchestra phony" to arouse the ire of a layed for the Regimental Officers skunk, but needless to say, the sight while the Jazz Pirates furn-Symphony is still unfinished as far as the 24th Infantry Band is concerned.

-Sgt. Willian W. Hodges.

HEADQUARTERS CO. Miss MABLE E. INGRAM, Mother-in-law and Sister-in-law, re-WILLIAM H. RANSOM, have returned to their home, at Cuthbert, Georgia. They spent a pleasant holiday at Sergeant RANSOM'S Quarters, No. 312, Bradley Area . Private GARDNER DAVIS is now enjoying a two month's furlough; this is his last, having only about two more months before completing an equivalent of thirty . The 24th Infanvears service . . try Childrens' School is now having its examination for the seme-being made . . . Captain JAMES P.

with the regiment again . . . Head-Mrs. ARDELIA INGRAM and quarters Company has a basketball Team to be proud of . . a Team that can TAKE and GIVE. spectively, of Master Sergeant In the game versus Company "F", Monday night, they displayed the stamina required by all winners. Wishing you all the luck. Any team can play well when they are out in front but to be able to fight well when in the rear, shows fiber. that kind admired by all good sportsmen . . . Imagination is the power or process of forming images or pictures in the mind; this is manifested by a member of the Regimental Staff (a staff sergeant) who is earnestly trying to Some excellent marks are acquire that manly decoration—made...Captain JAMES P. a "MUSTACHE". Here's hoping GAMMON has returned from C. that in spite of a not too fertile C.C.. duty and is glad to be back (Please turn to page 8)

IS YOUR OUTFIT IN?

ster.

IT SHOULD BE, because the HERALD is making an attempt to get 100% representation from the units at Fort Benning each week. If it is not see your company correspondent and find out why YOUR organization is not represented!

FOR YOUR FAMILY the HERALD makes an ideal present for they can see just what's happening to you and to everyone else at the Post. For yourself, you'll keep abreast of the doings in your own outfit. Subscribe NOW!

The subscription price is only

PER YEAR

Sent wherever you want it!

THE BENNING HERALD

Communication To Be Held By Post Lodge, F. & A. M.

Next Monday night, January 22nd, 1934 at 7:30 p. m. a regular communication will be held at Ft. Benning Lodge No. 579, F. & A. M. just south of the 29th Infantry theatre.

The Master's degree will be conferred and all Master Masons are invited to attend, also a special invitation is extended to the members of the 1933-34 class of the Infantry School.

Regular meetings are held on the second and fourth Monday in Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Air Travel . . .

Quotations are supplied by this firm to transport planes of the Eastern Air Transport and American Airways. Investors who conserve their hours by air travel will find this an interesting and valuable

Fenner & Beane

13 West 11th Street, Columbus, Ga. Phone 2272

BERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

AMATEURS ACTIVE

(Continued from page 6) er battle, with Howard taking a lead in the second which gave him the decision.

Williams, Headquarters, won by default in the lightweight class.

The welter weight battle between Vallery and Cranford, 2d Bn. and Headquarters respectively, was the highlight of the evening. Vallery drew blood from Cranford's nose early in the first, but the Pirate's glove was torn and time out was called. The rest did Cranford good, for he came out and drove Vallery around the ring with a series of rights to the head and jaw. It was presumably at this time that Vallery's jaw was broken, as the Headquarters battler, did not hit him hard enough in the remaining two rounds to accomplish that much damage.

Vallery came out of his corner in the second stronger, and made Cranford carry the fight to him, timing his punching nicely and punishing the Pirate badly with straight rights and lefts. The third round was the beginning of the end. Cranford, tired and worn, tried desperately to lay Vallery away, but the Kelly's scrapper took his time, measured the Pirate nicely, and let him have the K. O. punch with eleven second to Burton, of the Headquarters team, proved the surprise of the evening when he made the mighty Roy "Ace" Whatley work pahlenty hard for three rounds to take a decision.

Penland, Headquarters, wound up the evening by rocking Chief Gill 2d n., to sleep with a series of lefts in forty-five second of the first round.

"Here's a pair of army socks for you," muttered the military mule as he let go with both hind

Benning received word that a rigantic new stadium was to be built on the post, in addition to four other buildings, including a new theatre, baseball field, bas-ketball court, and officers' club. (Results so far comprise the stadium, gymnasium, baseball field, and thereare with the officers' club another thing entirely).

The 2nd Bn., 29th annexed the post football title by defeating the Terrible Tankers by the close score of 12-7. Kjelstrom and Daniels led the way for the Kelly's, with Sharpe upholding the Tankers' hands as much as possible. With this game ended the third football season at Benning.

Cage stars of the post prepared to tackle the quintet from Fort McPherson, which had substituted for Furman College at the last

Benning Team Defeats Auburn

Among the other things accomplished during the past week in the athletic line-was the feat of Headquarters Battalion basketball team in journeying over to Auburn to whip the Tiger to a standstill on the Auburn courts, and return with the kitten's whiskers to the tune of 38-23.

It was a glorious victory for the Pirates, and one that will enhance their chances in the of the fans for the post title. Headquarters, not figured strongly in the preseason dope, has come through strongly to tie with the Kelly's for first place with a clean slate.

Auburn just couldn't get going in the game, which was played last Wednesday night, and were stringing behind at the half, 17-13. Tme Tigers scored only 1 points in the second period to the Pirates 21. Coen and Bigler were the big shots of the Pirate team scoring 13 and 14 points respectively. Quinney, of Auburn, showed up best for the collegians, making 11 points of the team total.

24TH INFANTRY (Continued from Page 7)

soil, that he will look like CHES-TER CONKLIN in about ten days . This is "OLD SOLtime . . . This is "OLD SOL-DIERS' " year for discharge—the old fellows are oiling up their joints and taking various forms of exercise; this procedure only taking place every three years . . . Services at the Service Club, Sunday, were well attended and an excellent program was rendered. -Louis A. Scipio, Reporter.

COMPANY "G"

The cage men are still romping away with all comers. In an easy game between Companies F and G last Thursday afternoon G Company won by the score of 46 to 21. The Kingfish was, as usual, high point man scoring 17 markers.

Co. G didn't win the merit flag but we were in the race and intend to offer stiff competition in the chita" was trasnferred from the organization to the Army War College, Washington, D. C. hate to lose "What A Man" and wish him every success in his new organization.

Acting Private Hampton, dean of catchers, has returned to Fort Benning after an extended tour of the state (Albany).

The House of David Club will give a dance at the 24th Infantry Service Club Saturday. The president had intended trying to borrow GENERAL ESTES NOW MEMth enew Officers' Club had it been finished but since the club had not been completed the House will be compelled to use the Service Club.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

> 1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

is temporarily residing in the Post hospital. Speedy recovery.

G Company's basketball team journeyed to Tuskegee to see the New York City play Tuskegee Institute an exhibition game only to find that the game had been played at four o'clock. The boys, not to be outdone kept on to Montgomery where the team was scheduled to play at 8:30 and arrived in time to witness the entire game. The Renaissance is the best color-

BER OF CITY POST OF LEGION

(Continued from Page 1) with provision for the training of Sorry to announce that the 1st at least 25,000 reserve officers for the next fiscal year.

"4—A Reserve Officers' Training Corps in each qualified school and college desiring it so as to provide the necessary source of supply Renaissance basketball team of from the Officers' Reserve Corps with the restoration of the six weeks annual camp for the advanced-courses students.

"5-Citizens Military Training Corps for not less than 50,000 youths per year for one month."

ed team in the country. -Sgt. William W. Hodges.

The whole country bas been waiting for this New DODGE!

With the following points of superiority:

- "Floating Cushion" Wheels
- All-Steel Safety Body
- Modern "Air Wheel" Tires
- 7-Point Ventilation
- New Luxurious Interior
- Automatic Clutch
- 6-Cylinder Economy
- Hydraulic Brakes
- Long Wheel-Base

See all this in the New DODGES now on display in our showerooms

CAR GIVEN AWAY FREE!

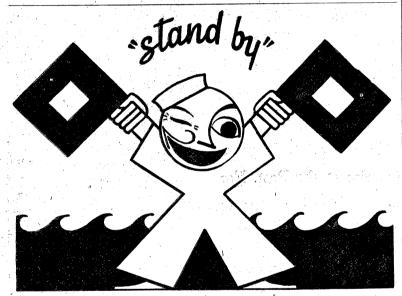

SATURDAY, FEB. 3

Everyone visiting our show rooms will be given a free chance on Car now on display.

PATTERSON-POPE

 \mathbf{R} C O M P1416 - 1ST. AVE.

We Cordially Invite Benning Personnel

THE 1934 CHEVROLET GOES ON DISPLAY

SATURDAY, JAN. 20th

Knee-Action Wheels-the revolutionary new feature that changes the ride to a glide and gives you smooth riding comfort wherever you drive—is only one of the important improvements you will see in the new Chevrolet for 1934. Don't miss r first opportunity to see all the surprising developments that allow us to say with confidence-

You are cordially invited to attend own first showing of the 1934 Chevrolet. Remember the date—and bring your family and friends.

rive it be satisfied with any other low-priced car

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1934

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Jan. 22-The shortage of column-writers has us in a sort of quandary. When the school year started the Herald had more columnists than there were columns, a fact which prompted us to join up ourselves for no good reason except that it appeared to us that there was safety in numbers, and we always were a good joiner anyway. But as the weeks and months have passed with one casualty here and another there we have had a sense of being gradually forsaken until now it would appear as though we are left with an irksome task that is fast becoming irksomer to us and yawnproducing to our public, if we ever had one.

The clever lady columnist of our day, followed in short order by Bennie the Bedbug whose weekly chirp, or blast or whatever it is that a bedbug does, gave a few minutes respite from the cares of an embryo tactician whose penchant for turning the wrong flank became increasingly painful as the days rolled by. The Little Red Schoolhouse folded its doors like an Arab might have done if he'd been civilized, leaving us to shed another reportorial tear at the bier of a stricken fellow-sufferer.

But we typed on merrily, albeit painfully, content in the knowledge that the Flare would roll up with its barbless but pointed of their call on General Moseley. paragraphing our own shortcomings until now even that rare treat has been denied us. About the time we welcome him back again we find once more that he has backed into his hole and pulled the hole in after him.

We were more than content to thumb our Herald through for our own weekly proofreading, secure in the belief that an inside page relegated us to a well-merited obscurity, basking in the reflected glory of the Flare's deserved post of honor on the outside page. Now to find ourselves lifted from the inside and dropped on the outside, even if it be for one issue, seems a little too much. While there's no point to the thought, like there isn't to so much of what we say, it reminds us of the man who defined a skeleton as a thing with its insides outside and its outsides gone.

he of the Afghan folk-lore. The duty. dragons brought with them their outstanding quality of presenting to their foe the same anatomical sight that delighted the heart of Frederick the Great. In addition the major's latest historical map problem introduced us to a French commander with a yen for omelettes on the field of combat, to say nothing of the report of the advance guard commander that a battle was brewing, a statement which is still causing considerable discussion as to whether or not a typographical error had crept in. E. Kitrel, Headquarters Company

Of late we have voiced an oc-(Please turn to Page 2)

Bridge Bids To Be Opened

Colonel Peyton Go To Ft. McPherson

Brigadier General G. H. Estes and Colonel Ephraim G. Peyton, commandant and executive officers of the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga., went to Atlanta and official visit at the office of Major General George Van Horn Mose-

General Moseley has recently reported at Fort McPherson and assumed command of the 4th Corps Area, having been assigned by the Department as successor September daze has long since to Major General Edward L. King, passed into the limbo of a former who died suddenly while on a few who died suddenly while on a fox hunt being staged for him by officers from Fort Benning.

Both of the Benning officers are well known in Atlanta and Fort McPherson, as General Estes, before coming to Fort Benning last September to assume command of the Infantry School, was in command of Fort McPherson; and Colonel Peyton's assignment preceding his arrival at Benning in the fall of 1932, was at Atlanta, as a major general in command of the 30th Division, of which the Georgia National Guard is a part.

General Estes and Colonel Peyton returned to Fort Benning on on from week to week, covering Friday evening on the completion

Class in Army Field Communications to necessary equipment for each soldier was taken, his personal be-Open Februray 12

Information pertaining to the first of the enlisted men's classes regularly held at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga., which annually bring a large number of enlisted personnel of the regular army and national guard from over the entire United States and its possessions to this post, has been made public by the War Department, Washington, D. C.

The class, which will be in army field communications, both radio and wireless telegraphy, will begin on February 12, with eleven members from other posts and garrison listed as being detailed to attend, and will continue until June Pete Bonham's dragoons return 15, when the military students will cerning the army convoy. ed last week with Tactician Arms, return to their home stations for

> Those ordered so far to attend the course are Technical Sergeant Michael J. Barry, Headquarters Company, 11th Infantry, Fort Benjamin, Harrison, Ind.; Corporal along the way to Fort McPher-William L. McShea, Headquarters Company 34th Infantry, Fort George G. Meade, Md.; Corporal Edward L. Patterson Headquarters Company, 9th Infantry, Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Sergeant would have filled every one of the Arrie H. Landrum, Headquarters Company 8th Infantry, Fort Moultrie, S. C.; Private 1st Class Oscar 6th Infantry, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; Private 1st Class Harry T. (Please turn to page 8)

General Estes And TWENTY-NINTH READY FOR MOBILIZATION

time regiment of the United States | flat cars and lashed in place, sup-Army, packed up, down to the last plies for two days were placed in shoe-string yesterday and loaded onto trains, preparatory to leaving Fort Benning for a post of em-Fort McPherson Friday to make an barkation, upon the receipt of secret orders at regimental headquarters early yesterday morning.

The orders, which were received by Colonel William É. Persons, ordered the regiment to mobilize immediately and proceed by rail to the nearest port of embarkation, there to receive further orders as to their ultimate destina-

No reason for the sudden move of the regiment was made public by the regimental headquarters upon receipt of the ordres, and no information was given out other than the fact that the forward echelon composed of a part of Regimental Headquarters and a section of the Service Company and Band, Companys E, F, B, D, and a section of Service Company would entrain at 10 o'clock, to be followed by the main body, composed of Headquarters Companies 1st and 2d Battalion, Cannon Company, the remainder of Service Company, Regimental Machine Gun Company, and Companies A, C, G, and H, would entrain at o'clock.

Surplus equipment was hastily checked, packed into crates, and prepared for shipment. Only the necessary equipment for each sollongings checked and prepared for day showed, when "further notice"

The 29th Infantry, largest peace- and howitzer carts were loaded on box-cars, and in a space of time that it takes an ordinary person to dress for dinner the first troops were ready to move.

A few minutes before the troops were to load on the trains for transportation further orders were issued that the regiment would remain at its present station until notified otherwise, but that the loading would be carried out in accordance with the original plan as a training measure for the

So the troops, prepared for field action, completed the mobilization, loading and unloading equipment and transportation, climbing into the cars and climbed out again. without the expected train ride.

The mobilization test is an annual feature of the training of the 29th Infantry, and is made for the purpose of testing the efficiency and preparadness of the regiment to take the field on an instant's notice. Ever since the test has been given at Benning the troops have "stripped for action" with but an hour or two notice; packed every bit of equipment belonging to the organization loaded into cars, and prepared to leave their home and sustain themselves in the field. And every year the test has had the same result, the regiment ordered to remain at their post until "further notice."

As the result of the test yester-shipment home, rolling kitchen, is given at last, the 29th will be escort wagons, machine gun carts, ready. TANKER CONVOY GOES ON TRIP TO ATLANTA

In an impressive convoy consistthe Infantry School at Fort Ben-February 1st.

Leaving Fort Benning Wednesday morning at eight o'clock, the motorcade proceeded leisurely son in Atlanta, stopping at intervals for changes in drivers, mechanics, and operators of the different parts of the convoy train, so that each member of the class various positions having to do with the motorcade by the time the students returned to Fort Benning Capital City about two o'clock day morning, February 1st, Wednesday afternoon, and the tank- nine o'clock.

ers stopped over at Fort Mcphering of ten ton-and-a-half Ford and son. Wednesday evening the mem-Chevrolet trucks the twenty stu- bers of the Benning convoy train dents of the Tank Course class of were the guests at a special dinner given in their honor by the ning journeyed to Atlanta Wed-Ford Motor Company in Atlanta. nesday the 24th. On the convoy to Thursday morning the tank stu-Atlanta each member of the tank dents made a tour of inspection of class got practical experience in the Ford and Chevrolet assembling pony trusses, and carrying two the operation of every phase con- plants, where they were shown roadways, each twelve feet wide, It is through the plants by the officials separated by a railing and light one of the last undertakings of the of the two companies, seeing the standards, and a side-walk about class before the final graduation entire process involved in the construction of automobiles and trucks from the main plants in Michigan. The convoy returns to Fort Benning some time Friday.

First Lieutenant Melvin E. Meister, one of the Tank Course Instructors, was in command of the convoy, while Colonel William B. Wallace, Chief of the Tank Section of the Infantry School acted as supervisor and advisor.

The final graduation exercises of the Tank Course class will take place in the Academic Area of the The student convoy reached the Benning Infantry School Thurs-

Bids On Bridge Will Be Opened At Fort Benning

Bids for the construction of the new combined highway, railroad, and footbridge across the Upatoi Creek at the entrance to the post of Fort Benning were opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky constructing quartermaster of the Infantry School. Twenty-five organizations from all over the country, have taken out plans and specifications on the project for the purpose of prepraing bids. Practically all of these are probable bidders, and include the following: M. E. Gillioz, Columbus, Ga; Columbus Chamber of Commerce; J. A. Jones Construction Company, Columbus, Ga.; Hardaway Contracting Company, Columbus, Ga.; Atlanta Builders' Exchange, Atlanta, Ga.; Smith-Pew Construction Company, Atlanta; Ga.; Virginia Bridge and Iron Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Southern Ferro-Concrete Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Algernon Blair Co., Montgomery, Ala.; Cornell Young Co., Macon, Ga.; Kan-sas City Bridge Co., Kansas City, Mo.; American Bridge Co., Baltimore, Md.; McClintic Marshall Corporation, Baltimore, Md.; W. F. Jackson Co., Inc., Atlanta, Ga.; Jacobson Bros. Co., Chicago, Ill. Associated General Contractors of America, Charlotte, N. C.; F. W. Dodge Corp., Birmingham, Ala.; F. W. Dodge Corp., Atlanta, Ga.; George D. Auchter Co., Jackson-ville, Fla.; T. A. Loving Co., Goldsboro, N. C.; C. T. Felix Co., St. Petersburg, Fla.; Dupont-Leonard Co., Detroit, Mich.; Robert S. Fiske Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Rust Engineering Co., Birmingham, Ala.; and the R. J. Reid Contracting Co., Birmingham, Ala.

The bridge, which will replace the present highway and footbridge and the present railroad bridge now spanning the Upatoi at Outpost No. 1, will combine all three methods of crossing in one structure, to be located between the present bridges. The present highway and foot bridge, which has long been inadequate to accomodate properly the flow of traffic to and from the post, is 254 feet in length, placed on four three feet wide, and is of metal and wood construction. The new from parts shipped to Atlanta bridge, which will be of the latest concrete and steel type, is to be 321 feet long, with a road-way 26 feet wide, and a sidewalk five feet in width, as well as the section for the railroad tracks, which will make its over-all width about forty-seven feet, ten inches. There are to be three nine and a half foot light standards at intervals along the hand-rail which will be three and one-half feet in height. and two eleven foot pylons with bronze lanterns and tablets at either end.

> The construction of the new (Please turn to page 2)

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

VOLUME III

Columbus, Georgia

JANUARY 26, 1934 L. C. KUNZE ___Publisher .Editor FELICIA C. HOWELL... Sports Editor Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

A YEARLY REMINDER INFLUENZA

Influenza is a communicable diease spread by contact with the discharges from the nose and throat of a person having the diséase, or from a carrier, usually by coughing and sneezing. A carrier is a person who is able to give a disease to someone else but who is not himself sick. Any person might posibly be a carrier.

How May Influenza Be Avoided?

Avoid crowds when the disease is prevalent. Walk to work as much as you can. Get all the sunlight you can.

Keep fit, Go to bed early and don't get overtired. Be sure the room where you are is always well ventilated. Drink plenty of water and don't let your system get clogged up. Exercise outdoors.

Keep away from all persons who are coughing or sneezing. Don't let them sneeze cought or talk in your face. Keep away from persons who have coughs or colds. Wash your hands frequently and always before eating. Be sure dishes and glasses are washed in boiling water. Avoid the common drinking cup and towel.

Keep Fit, Protect Others

Keep away from theaters and avoid social gatherings when you have a cold. If you feel hot or chilly or have pains n your eyes, ears, head or back, see a doctor. Report to the out-patient department in the Dispensary or call the atending surgeon.

Avoid giving the disease to others. Cough or sneeze into your handkerchief, or, what is even better, use old cloths or paper napkins that can be burned. Always remember — COVER YOUR MOUTH WHEN YOU COUGH OR SNEEZE!

Have your room always wellventilated. If you have influenza, STAY IN BED until the doctor home prevented an immediate retells you you can get up, or for three or four days after you feel perfectly well. It is better to be away from the job for a few days than forever.

Keep Fit If You Are Taking Care

Of Someone With Influenza Wash your hands immediately after handling the patient or anything soiled with his discharges. with someone who has influenza.

Burn or boil clothes soiled with discharges and scald all dishes and glassware used by the patient.

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from page 1) good friend Burns Beall comes to of unfathomable quiescence, prompted no doubt by the safe station. passage of the sixty-first day of grace as a new car-owner at the insurance company's expense, and once again becomes his former tion satisfactorily self, sole proprietor of the title, The Class' First Aid to the Hesitant of Speech, Amplifier of Platform Generalities and Deft Producer of the Tongue-Slipped Word.

One subject these days guaraneither case with a call for a ruling from Economist Shaw. What a five percent raise means with however. If the school should a sixty-cent dollar is a little be- perchance ask us to draw a diayond us. Personally we'd rather go on playing tactics, refusing our of a gasoline buggy we warn them own flank while we refuse to refuse the school's. It's beginning to look as though the thing the country needs most today is a good five-cent nickel.

ready gathering. Something tells intelligence.

us we're going to have ourselves casional complaint over the fail- a time with it. It isn't that we're ure of our classmates to stand out lacking a mechanical trend. Far among their fellowmen as regards from it We have become so monewsworthiness. This week our tor-minded that only yesterday when the missus told us to take the front again after a long seige the dog out for some air we started looking for the nearest service

Rather is it an overpowering sense of futility at the failure of our powers of absorption to func-With ignition and combustion and viscosity all setting in we are beginning to feel as incompetent as a cheerleader with an inferiority complex. As we sit here in the kitchen with our typewriter on our lap and our feet in the oven something tells teed to produce an interested us our probabilities of passing are gathering is the pay-cut. Whether as slim as Sally Rand's chances we gain five percent and keep the in a blushing contest. Our tongue give it to you. This old "Maestro" freeze or lose all except the freeze is sweating and our clutch is slipis a most subject with the maping. It must be a sign of mid-jority viewpoint wavering from dle age—the time when a man day to day depending on the most is thinking that in a week or two recent news item from your fav- he'll feel just as good as ever. orite paper, always winding up in Perhaps all we need is a little bicarburetor of soda.

We are convinced of one thing gram of the power transmission now that our gears will be in an awful mesh.

Our column would be uncomplete this week were we to overlook another citation to Bill Hones, The latest bugaboo of the stu- tactician, author, statistician, chief dent body is the motor exam, the houser and German Army expert

The Student Prints

Uncle Sam's finest (?) are now well engulfed in the after Christmas Gloom Period so familiar to knowledge seekers everywhere. Humor, at a time like this is like playing the radio before breakfast But some fiends in Pollyanna's dress confided this story to our unwilling ears, so we'll pass it on, just to get even.

A recent bride elect was famous for her aversion to that article of gent's evening wear known as the night shirt. Naturally, as the time drew near for the nuptial service well wishers of marital happiness put out a great line of propaganda about the groom's penchant for said habiliments. The compaign was so successful that the poor girl was completely vexed. For what could life offer with such an ogre intruding upon the sanctity of a dainty boudoir? However, at the last minute the truth was admitted, and the charming girl partially reassured.

But the ingenuity of the best man had not been reckoned with, for just in the nicotime he succeeded in substituting in the groom's suitcase a nice fuzzy grey flannel knee action nightie, for a silken outfit of more modern de-

The bride, says our informant, who swears to the authenticity of his yarn, did the unpacking aboard their train, and only the fact that her roller skates were left at turn to mother.

Orchids, (since we don't really have to buy them), are hereby tendered Capt. Brislawn, who was able to put over a communications writ that even his own assistants differed on. We reread his last requirement thirty-eight times and are still wondering. Anyway, Do not allow visitors in the room there were 90 different solutions, try and pick an "A" out of that!

> A New York advertiser of Men's Wear claims the newest style in a "planed wrinkle" in the shoulders and pants leg. Did he get his idea from the break out creases in the white trou of good old West Point?

> And by the way, the old school goes back next year to the ancient system of marks? That is, yearling corporals second class sergeants and first class officers. Many of us doughboys doubtlessly owe what chevrons we wore (if any) to the fact that that system wasn't in style "in our day."

> In closing, will someone please erase that chalk "WC" written so conspicuously at the east entrance of our santum sanctorum?

83rd F A

HQRS., HQRS. BATTERY AND COMBAT TRAIN

This writing gets me, I have plenty of news for the readers of know how I'm going to start to does not give you all the news you want to know about this Battery.

It seems as if there will be a few mechanics around this Battery. A few days ago a notice was posted to the effect that any one could apply for a place in the Tank Corps Mechanics School. The illustrious Corporal John Nahring seems to have filled all the necessary requirements to enter and hence we offer him congratulations and wish him all the success in the world.

Many of the boys would like to know where the gossip room is. It's not up to the old Maestro to inform them of the "whereabouts' of this so called "den" but he sure

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

On Athletes in the Army of Sam- through his nose? Go then and tell Consider ye the athlete, he drilleth not, neither does work, yet the top kick in all his glory has not such an easy time as one of them.

2. For when the championship of the post does loom into view, then does the company commander bethink him of the honor given unto the winner thereof, and craftly lays his plans.

And those who toss the ball, or throw the spear, as well as those who are fleet of foot, or swim like unto the fish in the water, are placed on duty of a special kind, so that while the duty roster does state that they work mightly, yet do they spend their time in pursuits of a pleasure to close proximity to what they call 'bumbs".

4. When the perplexed sergeant gathereth together the men for the labors, then also does he gather thereinto the athletes, and they clamor with a loud voice, say-

"Such work will undoubtedly give us the Charlie Horse and also a pain in the neck. The company commander has decreed that er legion. we practice the game during this time especially."

6. And the sergeant perforce must let them go, so that the others in the company are overworked, and grumble like unto good soldiers.

7. Lo, know you of one who chargeth the line like unto the war-horse, and scenting the bat-tle from afar, cryeth "Ha! Ha! the Top Kick, that he may be transferred unto thy company, and thou shalt gain many points as being one who has the organization interest at heart.

8. Canst thou run the swiftly thyself, and smite the ball lustily with a club? Hide not thy light under a bushel, but boast loudly and long of thy achievements, and of the time when wert in the "Majors", that thy work may be little, and thy reward great.

9. For it is customary of old that when two men are considered for advancement in the Army of Samuel, and one shall be quiet, and hard-working, with long service, and the other, strong of arm and weak of mind, with ability to exthem, or in rest for the fray in cell in the sports, then shall he who is loud and blatant in his talk be made non-com, and he who is modest and preferreth to work given a specialist fifth class.

11. But in time to come shall be thy reward.

12. For the athlete wasteth his time in idleness and spendeth his substance in riotous living, and the modest man applyeth himself, until he is transferred to any oth-

13. And when he returneth with many stripes on his arm, and much rank on his coat, then shall the others say unto themselves: "How can such a one advance thusly. For when in this company he was only a private".

14. Having taken not into account that a prophet is not without honor save in his own company.

posed of "Two Bears" and one so plying for a job as cook. called "Machine-Gun Spik". It seems uncanny how this organizato be known to only a few. After they have found the "low down" on one of the subjects that is under observatio nthey then go down this innocent man. Not jealous of this club but would like to know how they get all this information so closely guarded.

The basketball team did not come up to the expectations of all the Artillery but in the last few games it showed enough improvement to make the other members of the league take notice.

Again the old Maestro foretells that the Artillery team will come through with a smashing drive and sweep all the others off their feet.

Another "Prodigal" son that was on detached service has returned. Glad to have you back in the fold Corporal Williams.

BATTERY "A"

The battery news reporter, Pvt. Goodwin, has been so busy answering the day room telephone that he didn't have much time to get any news for the battery this week.

Lt. Chapman of this battery is now in the hospital. The Battery as a whole, wishes to Lt. Chapman, a complete and quick recovery.

the Benning Herald but dern if I baseball team seems much brighter with a former major league pitcher think they did it much good. Since then this person has been working out daily in some remote spot public and the old flipper seems to be as god as ever. He has regained control and has an assortment batsmen dodging and has speed galore. Initials are Pfc. Burkett.

BATTERY "C"

Percy Parker left the battery stormy-clouds of which are al- for his latest instruction on combat can tell them that the personnel last week by purchase discharge. spent in the construction of the of this secret organization is com- He is now with Co. 1403 CCC, ap- new structure.

The Battery boxing squad is now training on full time and there tion can find out things that seem should be some good bouts at the end of this month.

We hope to encourage the fat men of the battery to join the running squad and try to reduce to ni the "den" and pass opinions of the size of an artilleryman. This will also relieve the excess burdens of their horses.

Sgt. Miller needed advice and assistance to get out a detail equiped with long handle shovels. Sgt. Miller was in free-wheeling too long after dinner.

BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION

(Continued from page 1)

bridge, the lowest girders of which are to be above the high water mark made by the Upatoi in 129, when the present bridge was under six feet of water, will necessitate a detour from the present concrete highway. This detour, which will carry all traffic during the construction of the new bridge, is to run to the left of the present concrete road from Columbus, turning off to the left about three hundred and fifty yards from the present bridge, and running below the level of the embankment on which the road is located, returning to the highway about ten yards from the entrance to the present bridge, which will be used Prospects for the Battalion 1934 until completion of the new one.

Also involved in the construction of the new bridge are new apin the fold. It seems as if said proaches to it from the north and humbly begs of your pardon if he pitcher had some trouble with his south ends, and the moving of arm in the early part of his Outpost No. 1 farther up Sigercareer, but is so modest about his foos Road, about fifty yards. There abilities we are not able to learn it will be situated on an "island" very much. Although, he did tell in the middle of the highway, us that some major league spent splitting the stream of traffic, $800.00 on said arm but didn't and providing a means for traffic to pass behind as well as in front and on either side of the building.

The new bridge will be from away from the prying eyes of the ten to twelve feet higher at road level than the present one, thus preventing any recurrence of the flood of 1929, which interrupted of curves that will keep opposing traffic for a number of days until the water fell. The greater height will place the prospective structure above the highest water the Upatoi can attain.

Approximately 250,000 will be

Garden Club Hears Talks On Planting Of Shrubbery

The Garden Club met on Jan. 22 at the home of Mrs. Robert Man-The members listened with interest to talks given by Capt. R. J. Whatley, post gardener, and Mr. Williams, civilian landscape artist.

Florida . .

Following its custom, this firm will expand its facilities in Florida for the winter season. Branch offices are now maintained in Miami, Jacksonville, Miami Beach, Pensacola, Hollywood and Orlando. Give-up orders accepted.

Columbus, Ga.

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

29th Inf.

The company's indoor baseball team is getting in some valuable training this past week and this week and under the heading of unusual occurrences the following is noted:

Wire section indoor baseball team defeated the radio section

Capt. Whatley included in his talk ing one of the comic events. practical instructions in preparing the soil for planting, in feeding plants, in extermination of pests, in watering gardens, and in special care of roses and sweet peas. He explained the processes involved in plant nutrition and growth. tions. He demonstrated the correct pruning of rose bushes. Mr. Williams explained how to plan the planting of shrubbery and flowers on a small lot and stressed simplicity as the keynote to success. More information about roses and care of plants completed the program. Tea was served.

Herald Want Ads

cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

Manuscripts, Monographs and other work typewritten-40c per thousand words. Experienced military typist. Clean work guaranteed. Phone 3461-M, City.

Sergeant "Spud" Murphy was the star of the game.

Headquarters Battalion basket ball team is still defeating every team played this season. are leading the basket ball league in the post at present.

All are looking forward to the Gymkhana which is held on Saturday afternoon of this week at 1:30 p. m. We have some boys that want to enter the wheelbarrow race. Private Satina and his mule Dan are thinking of enter-

The weakness of Fred Haigler has been discovered at one of the basket ball games this week. He had half a dozen girls around him talking about a mile a minute in direct violation of garrison regula-

"Steve-O John" Camp's morale is going up. He has just got a long letter from Maderestates that he is on his way back to Headquarters Company.

CANNON COMPANY

Cannon Company points with pride to Private Roscoe Barton who brought honors and commendations galore from the Regimental Commander, on January 13th, 1934, with an exceptionally neat display of his equipment and clothing.

You have all heard many fish tales but here is one about squirrels: Sergeant Tom Tompkins was visiting in South Georgia recently and came back with two grey squirrels. According to Tom it is very simple to obtain them. "While driving along I noticed the squir-the purr of the motor jumped on in Tom's back yard. the running board, and there they stayed until I arrived at my home."

only

rels and throttled down my Ply- Ripley will not explain this but if mouth so as to enjoy their pranks you take a stroll through Block W and capers. The squirrels, liking you will see the squirrels playing

-Private First Class Chesser is (Please turn to page 7)

FOR EVERY HOME-FOR EVERY AGE-Coca-Cola

Everyone—young and old—likes Coca-Cola. And, there's a good reason, too, because there's no other soft drink that quite approaches the distinctive flavor of this, a cleverly combined mixture of all that's best to give the best flavor. The Six-Box-is sold at all Columbus grocery stores.

For more efficient and pleasing working hoursthe Pause that Refreshes

the cigarette thats MILDER the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

SEES SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS II

Mrs. William B. Wallace Hostess At Tea ing dish and a set of silver salt and Betty Welty. Following the In Honor Of Visitors At Fort Benning

Mrs. William B. Wallace was Sye and also in honor of Miss Lorthe hostess Thursday afternoon at her attractive quarters on Eames Avenue when she entertained with a delightfully informal tea from four to six. The tea was given in honor of her house guests, Mrs. E. H. Ramm and Mrs. J. M.

SATISFACTION

Shop at Silver's

when you're next

You can get everything you need here—and everything

at the most economical prices possible. Just drop in when you're in town and learn how easy it is to

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

shop in here.

in town

raine Lawson the house guest of Maj. and Mrs. Clyde A. Selleck. Throughout the house and on the tea table gladioli, sweetpeas and

MISS WELTY GUEST OF HON-OR AT BRIDGE SHOWER

Miss Elizabeth Welty, the poputhe honor guest Thursday at a lovely bridge tea which was given by Mrs. Glenn B. McConnell at the quarters of her sister, Mrs. Robert G. Mangum on Rainbow Avenue. Five tables of contract bridge assembled and played until four o'clock when tea was served. The tea table was laid with a lovely lace cloth, a center piece of nar-cissi was used. White tapers completed the appointments. Playing bridge were: Miss Welty, Mes-dames Clyde A. Selleck, Lloyd S. Partridge, Burton A. Seeley, Wendell A. Bevan, Herbert L. Harries, Robert G. Mangum, John R. Beish-A. Hunt, Stephen A. Hanmer, Wm. A. Harris, and the Misses Marguerite Moore, Athleen Munson, Esther Kelley, Maxine Rife, Lorraine Lawson, Elizabeth Ports and Kenneth Kendall. Arriving for tea were: Mesdames William C. Lucas, Daniel Ellis, Charles N. Howze, Anthony S. Howe, James M. Royal, the Misses Dorothy Russ, Lor-In the living room vases of pink raine Mellom and Nana Seeley.

During the afternoon the host-ess and guests presented Miss and pepper shakers. MISS WRIGHTSON IS HONOR GUEST PRECEDING DANCE AT POLO HUNT CLUB

Miss Marie Wrightson of Washington, D. C., the attractive guest of Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey, was the honor guest Satsnapdragons were used. The guest urday evening at an informal suphist included a few friends of the hostess.

* * * | per given by her hosts preceding the Bachelor dance at the Polo-Club. Invited to meet Miss Wrightson were: Lieut. and Mrs Carlton McNeeley, Lieut. and Mrs. Theodore L. Dunn, Mrs. Tracy Davis, Mrs. Marcrum Cole, the Misses dar bride-elect, whose wedding to Dorothy Russ, Louisa Cargill, Lieut, Charles E. N. Howard will Ethel Underwood, Esther Kelley. Ethel Underwood, Esther Kelley, be a social event of February was Kenneth Kendall, Nana Seeley, Elizabeth Ports, Capt. John W. Blue, Lieuts. Ernest Easterbrook, Robert W. Ports, George E. Lightcap, Malin Craig, David Angluin, William E. Grubbs, James G. Heriot, Joseph B. Coolidge, Henry B. Kunzig, Lt. Moore, Messrs. Henry Trost, William Lyman and James

CAPTAIN AND MRS. MANGUM HOSTS AT DELIGHTFUL DINNER

Captain and Mrs. Robert G. Mangum were the hosts Tuesday evening at their quarters when line, William B. Moore, Richard they entertained at a delightful dinner party. Eight guests were seated in the dining room while two tables with covers laid for six each were placed in the drawing room. The color scheme was pink, the dining room table being decorated with a silver bowl of pink In the living room vases of pink gladioli were used. The guest list gladioli were used. The guest list included: Colonel and Mrs. William E. Persons, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Burton A. Seeley, Major and Mrs. Clyde A. Selleck, Major and Mrs. Maurice D. Welty, Major and Mrs. Fred H. Fogle, Major and Mrs. William D. Mueller, Major and Mrs. John F. Corby, Capt. and Mrs. Wendell A. Bevan, Mrs. Ticknor of California and Miss Ticknor of California and Miss Lorraine Lawson of Fort Hoyle:

OFFICERS CLUB ENTERTAINS WITH POPULAR THURSDAY EVENING SUPPER DANCE

The semi-monthly evening supper dance which is held every other Thursday evening at the Officers' Club was an outstanding event of this week with a capacity number of reservations. Among those reserving tables were: Colonel and Mrs. Reginald H. Kelley, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. Nichols, Lloyd Barnett, Horace M. Woodward, Harold S. Kelly, Lieut. and Mrs. Francis H. Lanahan, Claude D. Collins, William C. Lucas, Mark A. Boatner, and Robert A. Howard.

DAUGHTERS OF ARMY HOLD LUNCHEON AND SHOWER FOR BRIDES AND BRIDES-ELECT AT OFFICERS' CLUB The monthly luncheon of the Fort Benning Chapter of the United States Army was given in the Oriental Room of the Officers' Club on Thursday, January 25; with covers laid for thirty-five.

Honorees at this affair, which proved to be a shower, were recent brides, Mrs. Richard A. Hunt, Mrs. William B. Moore, and Mrs. William A. Harris, Mrs. Milton Pressley, and the brides-elect, the Misses

MRS. ETTA JOINER MRS. A. ADAMS Now located at No. 6 Loeb bldg Ladies' & Men's Tailoring Alterations & Repairs DRESSMAKING Expert Workmanship JOINER TAILORING SHOP Betty Williams, Athleen Munson, luncheon a short business meeting was held at which plans were made for the Fashion Show to be given by this Chapter at the Polo-Hunt Club on March 10. Styles from Columbus shops will be modeled by Army Daughters under the capable direction of Mrs. Herbert A. Wadsworth.

OFFICERS' CLUB HOLDS BRID-GE TOURNAMENT MONDAY EVENING

The third of a series of duplicate contract bridge tourneys which have been held since the New Year took place. Monday evening at the Officers' Club. This tourney was in the nature of a mixed pair affair. The winners for the evening's play were: North and South: Capt. and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, Major Maxson F. Lough and Capt. Arthur E. Burnap, Mrs. Jas. E. Bowen, and Mrs. Marcrum Cole, third. East and West: Capt. Joseph A. Stuart and Lieut. Andrew J. Evans, Mrs. Francis G. Bonham (Please turn to page 5)

INSIGNIA BUTTONS

MEYER >

adapted for long wear. MEYER METAL is the same color as 18 K. gold with no gold plating. It improves with age, and can be easily cleaned with a solution of soapsuds and household ammonia.

At Your Post Exchange

N. S. MEYER INC.

NEW YORK

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

$ 550,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representiive—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Jurniture Specials

Floor Lamps Living-Room Suites $69.50 up. Bedroom Suites $69.50 up Majestic Radios Electric Refrigerators

Martin Jurniture Co.

42 YEARS OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE ESTABLISHED 1892

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

39 REASONS:

Each one of our more than thirty-nine years is but another reason why you should do all you shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCH

FURNITURE

For Thirty-Nine Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

Bridge Section Of Girl Scouts Plan Woman's Club Will Hold First Meeting

The Bridge Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club is to hold its first scheduled meeting of the Cardinal Troop for points. The 134 on Monday afternoon January 2, at 2:00 o'clock at the Officers' Club.

The Bridge section previously met earlier in the month, when the regular December meeting, which was postponed, was held.

A large number of the members are expected to attend.

WEEK-END SPECIAL

True Fruit Orange Cake 35c

An unusually delicious cake, temptingly flavored with orange. It will make a hit with all the family. Why not order one today?

Collins Baking Co.

With Pardonable Pride We Present The

1934 PLYMOUTH

Special Showing SATURDAY, Jan. 27th SUNDAY, Jan. 28th

Don't ask us how it was done! But one of the biggest, safest, most luxurious automobiles you'll see this year, is in the lowest priced group!

It will be on our showroom floor to morrow. It has a lot of things you'd not expect in a low price car. Especially its performance we call it the 1934 Plymouth ride.

> And this Plymouth has plenty more to talk about . . . 77 horse-power, hydraulic brakes, safety-steel body, rigid-X-frame and valve seat inserts.

> Come in—arrange for a ride. It's an experience you will be glad to know about.

TRY THE 1934 RIDE

You are cordially invited to see and ride in the Plymouth at one of the following:

Patterson-Pope Motor Co.

1415 1st AVE. — PHONE 1143

McMurria Motor Co.

1137 6th AVE. - PHONE 2590

French Motor Co.

1315 BROADWAY — PHONE 1143

Novel Contest

CARDINAL TROOP

The Scout Cabin, January 23rd, was the scene of the beginning of a contest between the patrols of Blue Eagle Patrol, under Madeleine Matchett, carried away the highest number this time for welfare work by bringing ninety-nine magazines and gaining four points. However, the Trefoil Patrol (leader, Jane Kraft) earned two points for fifty-nine magazines and also tied with the Blue Eagles by winning two points in a game which was played. The Blue Eagles should give a vote of thanks to Peggy Arnold who was appointed to collect donations for welfare while the Trefoil owe two of their points to Frances Lewis, who occupies the same position. The Bamella Patrol of Esther Weeks received one point for second place in the game.

Mrs. Schneider, who was in charge of the meeting, gave information concerning two badges, namely pioneer and scribe. There will be a pioneer hike February second. Directions and requirements were given as to the equipment of each scout. Anyone may go on this hike, though it is primarily for those taking the badge. Lt. Green will instruct scouts taking scribe every Tuesday evening

As tennis is being studied very seriously for athlete's badge, this discussion was followed by a short talk on tennis, rules, courtesies and general information. Mrs. Schneider appointed a day for the scouts to meet her at the court to practice the pointers she had given them.

Mrs. Tucker then gathered the troop around the piano and taught the correct method of singing the scout hymn and other songs. The singing took up most of the meeting but the game which gave the two lucky patrols valuable points ended the day. When the gun was fired the troop departed.

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 4)

and Mrs. Robert T. Foster, while Capt. Charles F. Johnson and Capt. John J. Albright and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Desports tied for third.

PERSONALS

Lieut. and Mrs. Carl F. Duffner have as their guest the former's mother, Mrs. Louise Duffner of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Stephen Barnett of Atlanta is the house guest of her son-inlaw and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. George D. Crosby.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin returned Sunday from Palm Beach and Miami, Florida where they spent a few weeks.

Major and Mrs. Clyde A. Selleck have as their house guest Miss Lorraine Lawson of Fort Hoyle, Maryland.

Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Ellis of Columbia, South Carolina, are the house guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. William C. Lucas.

Colonel and Mrs. William B. Wallace have as their house guests the latter's mother Mrs. E. H. Ramm of New London, Wisconsin, and her daughter Mrs. J. H. Sye of Fort Hoyle, Maryland.

Capt and Mrs. Daniel Ellis of Columbia, South Carolina, are the house guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. William C. Lucas.

Medicos

A. W. O. L.

Bargains are very nice things sometimes, but when it comes to food buying, a bargain is something that is liable to be a boomerang.

The Grocery Department sells only the highest grades of staple and fancy foods and we take pride in the fact that we maintain an unusually complete stock. Always call on the Grocery Department, you're sure to be pleased.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

KIRVEN'S BASEMENT DOLLAR SPECIALS

New Wash Dresses _____$1.00

Made of fine quality 80 square prints in a wide assortment of 1934 styles and colors. Sizes 14 to 52.

Ladies' Bloomers, 2 pair _____$1.00 Or 59c each. Extra size.

Ladies' Panties, 4 pair $1.00 Or 29c each. Regular size.

Men's Outing Pajamas $1.00 Comfortable stripes outing.

Ladies' Flannel Pajamas $1.00

Regular $1.38. Made of figured flannel.

Ecru Marquisette, 8 yards $1.00 A beautiful curtain material.

40 inch Boston Net, 5 yards $1.00 In ecru color only.

Ruffled Curtains $1.00

Made of swiss dot marquisette in priscilla and crisscross styles. 2 1-2 yards long.

Ruffled Curtains $1.00

Made of fast color marquisette in solid rose, orchid or gren. 2 1-2 yards long.

Pure Finish Sheets $1.00

Size 72x99.

KIRVEN'S BASEMENT

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Action-Filled Bouts Held Wednesday

Tankers Leaders In Post Tourney

The second round of the post amateur boxing tourney held last Wednesday night was featured by the fact that every one of the bouts was packed with action and interest from start to finish, with honors being split between the Burton-Morris battle and the Schneider-Hill scrap.

The outcome of the two matches between Headquarters Battalion and the Tankers, and 2d Batt and the 1st Batt ended with the 1st Battalion assisting in putting the skids under the Kellys in the athletic line by winning 54-30, and the Tankers moving toward their third consecutive post title by downing the Black Pirates 46-34.

Rowan and McMahin of the Tanks both won their battles by

You cannot match Our Used Car VALUES

See These Bargains '28 Whippet Coach ___. $ 95

l	'28 Ford Coupe	110
l	'29 Ford Coupe	175
	'29 Chev. Coupe	195
l	'29 Essex Sedan	150
l	'29 Chev. Fordor Sedan	225
ŀ	'30 Ford Coupe	250
l	'31 Ford Coupe	285
l	'30 Dodge Coupe	285
l	'31 Ford Town Sedan	325
l	'28 Buick Club Ccupe	165
١	'31 Chevrolet Coach with
۱	Radio
١	'32 Chev. Coach
۱	'32 Ford Coach V-8	395
١	'32 Ford Coupe V-8	395
١	'32 Chev. 4 d. Sedan	425
Į	'33 Ford DeLuxe 2 d	525
١	'33 Ford DeLuxe Cpe	525
	'33 Pontiac Sedan	55 0
	If you don't find the car l	isted
	here that you want we	nave
	several others to select fi	om.
	Liberal terms - good tr	ades
		α

Burrus Motor Co.

Authorized Dealers Used Car Department

Phone 606 1213 1st Ave.

default in the bantamweight and featherweight classes.

Tanker Floyd, 124, feather king of the S. E. A. A. U., stepped out of his class to make points for his team by appearing in the lightweight division against Lorimer, of Headquarters. Floyd put up a wonderful battle, but the extra poundage of Lorimer, who tipped the scales at 136 was too much, and the Tanker lost a close decision.

Milan, of the Tanks, Southeastern welter champ, had no trouble disposing of Beard, Hq., 148, by a K. O. in 2 minutes and fifteen seconds of the 1st round.

Killen, Tanks, 154, also won a T. K. O. over Counts, Hq., 158, after making a target of the latter's jaw for a minute and a half.

Burton, 167, Hq., met Morris, Tanks, 165 in the lightheavy division, and what a scrap! Morris, more experienced than Burton, took the first round undisputedly, stabbing Burton with a left, followed by a right to the short-ribs time after time. Burton came out in the second, however, and worked Morris to a fare-thee-well, around the ring, hammering with everything but the time-keeper's clock, and he couldn't reach that. Morris was plainly tired by the end of the round, and had absorbed a lot of punishment. In the third Burton came out to use a beautiful onetwo punch that staggered Morris time after time, but couldn't put him down for the count. Morris was plainly out on his feet at the bell, with the decision going to Penland, Headquarters, 176, met Reid, Tankers, 179, and took some nice blows to the head before he floored the Tanker with a right to the jaw for the count of nine. Reid was not badly hurt, and came up strong to catch another right, this time to the solar plexuc that put him down for the count right at the end of the first round.

Billy Floyd, 2d Bn., runner up for bantamweight honors in the Southeastern tourney 1933, hammered Wilson, 1st Batt scrapper, for about half of the first round before the Irish seconds tossed the towel. Wilson was clearly outclassed and didn't stand a chance against Floyd, although he was as game as they make them and stayed as long as he could.

Dern Tutten, of the Irish, gave Howard, 2d Batt, a bad case of right-handitis in the featherweight division to win by a K. O. early in the first.

BASKETBALL ENDED FOR FIRST QUARTER

By the time this week's issue between them to give the Blue of the Benning Herald has gone to press the first quarter of the intra-mural basketball league will be history, and the last week will be marked as one of those milestones in the athletic progress of the Infantry School.

Monday night the tie for the eague leadership that existed between 2d Battalion 29th Infantry, and Headquarters Battalion of the same outfit was broken; and the Kellys, supreme rulers of the roost in almost every line of athletic endeavour since the infancy of Fort Benning went down in defeat before an organization that as short as two years ago was not teams had matched point for even considered as offering compoint through most of the third even considered as offering competition in any line of sport. The result of the game Monday night was foreseen by the fans for almost two weeks prior to the contest, but the important and startling thing about Headquarters victory is the fact that marks the rising of a new star in the Benning athletic firmament. The rest of the teams in the league spent the entire week in shaking down into some semblance of a standing in the league with out much success. Last year's champions, the 1st Batt. Irish, have an undisputed hold on third place, and seem likely to remain there, unless they topple the Kellys several times. At time of writing the Tankers were holding fourth position by a slight margin over the 83rd Field Artillery. The Medicos, in sixth position were closely threatening a three way in case of a win Thursday night over the Tankers. The Special Units,

The contest between the 1st and 2d Batts last Thursday night was fairly even during the first half. with some beautiful guarding being done by both teams. In the second half, however, Oikari and McAllister got hot, and sank seven field goals and one free-throw without a victory to their credit, brought up the tail of the league.

Schneider, 1st Batt met Hill, 2d Batt, in the lightweight match, with the two boys staging a slugging exhibition that had the fans standing on the seats and shouting themselves hoarse. It was a honey of a scrap all the way with Schneider taking a close but well earned decision.

Goss, 1st Bn., 142, fought Woolam, 2d Bn., 145 in the welter division, and gave a wonderful exhibition of a boy that couldn't hit outsmarting a boy that could take Whatley, S. E. A. A. U. middle hamp, fighting in the lightheavies this year, met Brady, his opponent of Mobile days, in the 175 pound class. Whatley started slow, but in the second seemed to wake up and sent Brady to the floor twice before being awarded a T. K. O. in the second.

Phil Carpenter, 1st Bn., 169, won T. K. O. over Little, 2d Bn., in the second round, when Little cut his neck on the ropes, and the referee made his quit. It was not much of a fight, as Little alternately stayed at very long range, and then rushed in to wrestle with opponent.

Fountaine, 1st Batt., won a wellearned decision of Gill, of the Kellys in the heavyweight class, after dodging Gill's suspended right for three rounds.

Thunderbolt a substantial lead that the Irish could not overcome. High point man for the game was Snead, dish that fans had been holding with 15 markers to his credit. Score 44-33.

other hotly contested battle, with to sink seven field goals and two free throws. The first half was the closer of the two periods, with in the second the Tankers pulled ahead to win 39-34, after the two quarter.

Headquarters Battalion broke one of its customs in Friday's game with the Medical Detachment when they took the lead 25-18 at the half, the first time they have been in front in the first half this season. The game was a foregone conclusion that the Pirates would win, but the Pill-Rollers put up a hard battle to make the final score 39-32. Coen, of the Pirates was highpoint with 15.

The Special Units dropped another to 1st Battalion in a game that ran according to the sheet in the second contest Friday. devoting their time mainly to keeping the Irish from running the score up too high. Snead was again high point man with 12

Monday night's contest between the Kellys and Pirates was the their breath for some time, and the contest was no disappoint-The second contest of the ev- ment to the spectators. The two ening, between the Special Units teams battled on even terms durand the Terrible Tankers was an- ing the first half with Coen doing the majority of the scoring Randall of the Tankers, going wild for the Pirates, and every one on the Kelly team accounting for points, so that the score at the end of the second quarter stood 10-10. the score standing at 15-16; but In the second half the Kellys started dropping them from the center of the floor, but committed too many fouls, which combined, with the assistance of the spectators, who drew two technicals for the Blue Thunderbolt by booing, gave the Headquarters team eight chances at the basket, seven of which they dropped for points.

(Please turn to page 7)

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

1006 13th Street Office Phone 1313

ONLY THE FINEST OF SPORTING GOODS

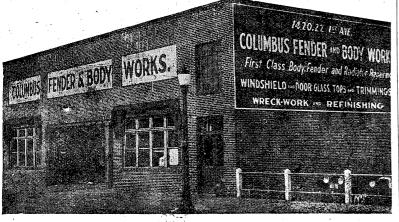

We sell sporting goods for nearly every kind of sport that can be played at Benning-and we want to stress the fact that we sell only nationally known and properly made brands of equipment. You can depend on what you get at the Main Branch. Phone 608.

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

1420 FIRST AVENUE PHONE 165

THE POST EXCHANGE OUR AGENT AT BENNING

(Continued from page 6) The entire game, which ended with something sensible to write about. a 29-27 score was one of the best contests in some years, and neither team was clearly outclassed. Both had good team work, both were hitting the ring. Coen was high point with 12 markers.

The second game between the 83rd Field Artillery and the Tankers found Sharpshooters McGee and Cotney of the 83rd matching their wierd and unorthodox ball tossing against Bragan and Randall of the Tanks, and coming out the winners on a 42-39 score.

Tuesday night of this week the Pill-Rollers handed the fans a big surprise in the second half by coming back strong to hold the 1st Batt Irish to a 42-38 win, after being behind 28-14 at the half. The Irish seemed to be sluggish, and couldn't get going, while the Medicos fought and scrapped over every point made by either team. Dickens of the Medicos was high point with 14.

The second game between Special Units and the 83rd ended with the Green Cords cropping their sixth straight game by the score of 23-41. The Artillery team work was much better in this contest, and the points more evenly divided, with McGee, 83rd and Daniels, Special Units tied for point honors with 9 each.

League standing Thursday: Played W Team Pct. Hq. Bn. 6 1.000 2d Bn. 6 5 .8331st Bn. Tanks333 Medicos Special Units High Scorers: Snead, 1st Bn... Cotney, 83rd

29TH INFANTRY

Chamberlain, 2d Bn.

Greeson, Hq. Bn.

Jordan, 1st Bn.

(Continued from page 3) learning fast. Recently he has acquired this form of knowledge: "The more you study about women the more you know, and the more you know the more you forget; the more you forget the less you know, so why study?"

SERVICE COMPANY

A. W. O. L.

R. M. G. COMPANY A. W. O. L.

HORS. CO., FIRST BATTALION

This is the old communication outfit on the air again and there week. First want to say that this Company possesses three bulletin boards. One of them for administrative details, another for routine bulletins and one for inside information on some of the boys in the Company who have been found out!

Here's the real story: Some fellow with an over-developed sense of humor cut out the clipping about the dog-eating panther in East Pitsburgh, Tenn. and put it on the to get his name in the "Benning "bunk" bulletin board with the in- Herald." How did that happen? scription thereon, "STUNKY'S None other than Pfc. Bill C. Jacks their neck there, and maybe part the noted huntsman from Louisibeing none other than Skinnay ana, he says that the ducks are so Davis of the radio section.

To better the one on Davis, somebody else put a picture of Private ren on the same board wtih an inbig-hearted donors from the com-signed to this company for duty. pany, among whom was Cpl. Ben Stolier, who generously contributed 2 cents, American money; Norman H. Hobbs, who pledged four, (cents also) and several other fellows who promised everything from a dirty pair of hose to a slab of breakfast bacon. Boy what E. Bowen, has gone to the hosthese schemers can't think up isn't pital for an operation. Wish him have lost that famous leather hardly worth thinking about!!

Now with all of those off of our his time of trouble. chests we will try and think of Sergeants James Davis and Albert L. Bagley were both discharged per ETS and immediately took on another stack.

Private Schramm, radio bug, was recently turned to duty from the regimental recruit center. Welcome to the outfit. Schramm.

COMPANY A A. W. O. L.

COMPANY B A. W. O. L.

COMPANY C A. W. O. L.

COMPANY D A. W. O. L.

HD. CO., 2ND BATT.

Here is another warning to opponents scheduled to be met in he near future on the amateur boxing card. The old Second Bat has got to win, and for that reason alone is going to knock 'em cold and that ain't no Maybe.

Private Billie Floyd, welterweight fighter, has another K. O. to his credit. He knocked out his opponent in 45 seconds, Wednesday evening Jan. 17. 1934.

Private Arthur Bellah has just returned from 45 days' furlough out in the open spaces in Arkansas. He reports that the situation is well in hand, and that his plans are to return there and settle down for life, when his time expires in the Army. It's a blond! Private Robert L. Tillery has also recently returned from 26 days' furlough down in old Birmingham, Ala., and brings sad news. Upon return he reported to the First Sergeant that he had lost everything while on furlough. Don't know so much about that, in view of the fact that he had some very important business in Birmingham over the week end.

Private Erwin Stroud has been relieved from the polo stables recently after several months of leisure down there. Stroud is a great boy, but has a weakness for horses. He loves them, he showed the writer several pictures of different nags at the stables after being relieved and remarked "gee I wish I could be with them." We know the horses miss the poor

Private Arthur Hansen, our Radio expert, has purchased some new equipment for his set, and after making the new additions to really is plenty to talk about this the rig, he reports that he can get anything that he wants over the radio Arthur is a real radio man but I don't think that he is as good as he reports. He is going to Atlanta about the first of February and take examination for first class operator's license, commercial

A boy in this company made a remark several days ago that he had been in Benning five and onehalf years, and had his first time thick down there when they fly over you can't see the sky above you. Corporal Frank Palmer, the McDonald's future wife and child-Blushing Blonde from Mobile, confirmed this statement by saying scription that read, "Brother can that he had hunted down there. you spare a dime". Under the Private Coward having enlisted for picture were the name of several the 29th Infantry, has been as-

> The boys would like to know who the two hundred pound brunette is that Pfc. Clay was seen with several days ago in P. C., Ala.

Sorry to report this week that the Battalion S-3, 1st Lieut. Jas.

The boys reported a very pleasant week end at the recreation camp on Shell creek.

COMPANY "E"

Can you imagine: "Nigger" Justice not trying to take Pvt. Petty to the show but getting beat to it by Pfc. Lat Polk going to bed without tying knots in somebody's clothes, putting a stool under sombeody's bunk or putting an egg in "Wayne County" Farlow's sock; Red Gibbs falling in love and writing love letters; Corporal Chanka running over Sgt. Gurley; Pvt. Tidmore bursting his sides with laughter; Pvt. Paul Lee standing an inspection without getting gigged; Corporal Wallace not being a tablewaiter; Pvt. Matigue Cavender going to bed and getting up with the same amount of clothing on; Pfc. Tiny Cary sleeping and not snoring; Pop Falgout acting almost human at times; Cpl. Dutton not talking about the Tent Area; Whimpy King not going ack for thirds, fourths, and fifths for hotcakes on Sunday morning; Andrew Brown and Meat Houlthouser working themselves to death; Husky Millikan taking a reducing course; Pfc. McLeod getting thrown off guard; Sad Sam Jones not eating on the first table; Josh Parish not trying to croon; Cpl. Ward not telling about his baseball experiences while in the Majors; Pvt. Red Bullock asking somebody on the green and To help them win a game or two. then whipping them; Pvt. Briggs not goldbricking; Pvt. Ex-Sheriff Murdaugh not inventing something and going around singing; First Sgt. Davis forgetting how to blow a whistle; Pvt. Tosh and Cpl. Mixon looking so much alike and still not being brothers; Cpl. Roorda looking up to Cpl. Chanka; Sgt. Dalby going over two days without a round of golf; Pfc. Newton being love struck; Pvt. Shehane acting like a man sometimes; Pfc. Sisk not getting a phone call all day; Pvts. Joe Dutton and Peter Stiffes riding all day without having a puncture; Happy Long being anything but a big Lick; Pvt. Taylor not having white paint in his ears; Cpl. Irvine shaving off nis moustache.

-Slim.

COMPANY F A. W. O. L.

COMPANY "G"

EXTRA! A new Song One Corporal (we'll Dance Man. not mention his name) saw fit to grace a Twenty Ninth Infantry Dance with his talent the other After hearing the sighs night. emitted and seeing the "bed-room" eyes displayed during this performance, we begin to feel afraid for Gene Austin and his laurels.

Notice that the Columbus paper; gave Pfc. James H. McLane a pat on the back for being appointed Color Guard in his company; saying that "Mac" had had over four years service in the Twenty Well we're not official about the length of time, but we do know that some of that four years was spent in Hawaii, no doubt with a "uke" and one of those things they wear around

COMPANY "H"

Sgt. Ryles, one of the "Old Guard," was discharged per E. T. S. the 16th and took on another stack.

'Raven' Poe was also discharged on the 18th and expects to re-enlist for foreign service. At this time however, he is busy letting an old football injury heal.

Wonder if Cy Slocum ever got the sugar for his pudding, and if McNeal will ever slip up and give two bottles of milk, and if we will ever get to pull a guard without drawing the 3rd relief.

Shorts . . . John Godfrey must all the luck in the world, through jacket . . . We never see it any I.S.D.

From high to low, of all degree, We gossip bout the I. S. D., From Major down to "sub" K. P.'s We catch the scandal on the breeze. The red brick building gives a start,

Where "C. C." Hickey does his part,

Poor Hickey's almost lost his mind, fights and fun. Attending to the daily grind. It's C. C.'s here and C. C.'s there, I believe there's C. C.'s in his hair. Tom Cox is next put on the spot, You may go hunting, Tom does not, gave that shot-gun lots of squeeze,

And all the turkey did was sneeze. It won't be long 'fore Cox will range,

The woods in quest of squirrel or goose.

And tall Don Isham's on the loose. He growing fuzz beneath his beak, gets it so much "down" per week.

How come we haven't won a game, Of basketball? Is this the fame Of the I. S. D.? Or perhaps it is Because the boys have rheumatiz. Another thing, they need a yell To back them up. So what the hell? Get over there and give a shout If you know just what the game's about.

too, And here we have the latest flash That Flippo got into a crash.

And damaged up that green sedan, Along with cuts upon his "pan". Now just between us, you and me, We wonder what kind of a spree, We'll have next month to celebrate, The birthday of this outfit great. Let's hope it's good as last year's

Or even better. Here we pause, Until the next week rolls along, When we'll sing some more of this crazy song.

more . . . LeBlanc has put on a few more inches in the vicinity of the waist-line . . . Gray goes around nowadays with a dreamy look in his eyes (we have felt that way too) . . . Billy Hyde has formally placed the 'mare' on all his belongings, both personal and issued . . . And here is the end of the page . . . (Thank Goodness). -Ernest Stephens.

Tankers

If the amateur boxing team pulls thru' a few more of the teams in the Post Tournament like they did the Gunners of the Artillery the Tanks will be able to retain their two year title with ease. These amateur fights are featured with action and those that haven't been up to see the boys do their stuff are missing out on a lot of good

The basketball team nas won two games during the past week in the tournament. It is too early to predict the outcome of the tournament, but a fellow wouldn't go wrong by putting money on Hq. Bn, 29th Infantry These boys have certainly come out of the rut in the last year or so of sports and have a good bid on winning any of the Post Intra-Mural sports.

Wonder who it is with the sweet voice who hails from other points than Fort Benning, and is always calling up a certain sergeant in Company D. Imagine his embarrassment!

The following new recruits have joined the battalion during the past week: Pvts. Cloyd W. Hall, Gavin E. Graham, and William A. Pickett. Private Hall has been assigned to Headquarters Company, Private about.

And if you don't you can holler, Private Pickett, to Company "D".

Corporal Henry S. Heath, Company D, has returned from a well earned furlough spent up in them thar' hills of good old Tenn. Glad to have you back, Hank. Next time you leave for them thar hills don't be gone so long as they say it's bad business.

Famous last words: "I know that was what you said Sergeant, but I didn't believe you in the first place.'

(Please turn to page 8)

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA POWER (E) COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

FROM RADIATOR TAIL-LIGHT

In every inch of your car there is something that might be wrong and might shorten the life of the automobile without your knowing it. Drive by and let us put it in shape with our DeLuxe Service. This is the most complete tightening up, inspection, lubrication and cleaning you've ever heard

Post Exchange

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

A Whole Carload

The Newest Furniture The Most Joyful Prices

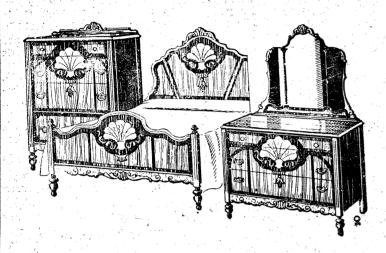

Occasional Chairs . . .

Bought especially for our February Sale. Wonderfully assorted patterns in tapestry and Rep coverings. Now is your chance to take advantage of a REAL BARGAIN!

$7.95

Pay only 45c down and 50c weekly

WALNUT BEDROOM SUITE

This three piece Walnut Bed Room Suite, including large Vanity, Roomy chest of drawers and large poster bed . . . You need only pay four dollars down . . . balance at one dollar weekly. A wonderful chance to buy a fine set of bedroom furniture . . . don't wait too long and deprive yourself of the opportunity.

FREE!

Vanity Bench With Each Suite.

FREE!

NEW ASSORTMENT

FINE RUGS

Smokers ____

End Tables $1.19

Whatnots _____ $1.98

Complete

Panel Bed Coil Springs Felt Mattress

Pennell Furniture Co.

1249 BROADWAY

Phone 4618

Notes From John's Scrap Book By John H. Newsome

A civil denial is better than a rude grant.

A man would rather be called wicked than dumb. Some hearts are useless until they are broken. The resources of civilization are not yet exhausted. Wise men mind their own business—the foolish cannot. A bird is known by its note and a man by his talk.

CLASS TO OPEN

(Continued from page 1)

Hamor, Headquarters Company 12th Infantry, Fort Howard, Md.; Private 1st Class Melvin Koch, Headquarters Company 18th Infantry, Fort Hamilton, N. Y.; Private 1st Class Reuben L. Hunnicutt, Headquarters Company 22nd Infantry, Fort McPherson, Ga.; Private 1st Class Emanuel S. T. Street, Headquarters Company 23rd Infantry, Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Private Ray G. Bauman, Headquarters Company 10th Infantry, Fort Thomas, Ky., and Private Donald H. Harris, Headquarters Company, 16th Infantry, Fort Jay, N. Y.

TANKERS

(Continued from page 7)

Being a benedict seems to effect some people in the most unusual of ways. For instance a little incident that happened a few days ago in "E" Company's supply room. One of the characters is one of that company's newest benedicts.

"Big Sarge Gilley" barges into the supply room and accosts Corporal Edwards:

Edwards - "Sure what size would you like to have"

"Big Sarge"—(in a matter-sort of-way) "Make them 111/2 EE."

And we hear by the grapevine telegraph that he was very serious.

Master Sergeant Guthrie is in the opinion that the autos should have more knee-action after looking over the new price list.

Sergeant Jim Dennis is back with Company E after spending several days furlough in Ind.

Ellis Vallery has taken over a new job down town as the big Pork and Beans man. Vallery howbout this big bean dela that you are putting on.

John "Corn" Griffin is spending a few days down Florida way. Don't come back with another car load of turkeys, "Corn", and try to make believe you killed them yourself-all in one day.

For a dessert that's as near perfect as any you've ever tasted serve Kinnett's Ice Cream, the finest you can

Sold at the Post Exchange and the OFFICERS' CLUB

Announcing:

THE OPENING OF

Foremost Auto Stores

1006 Broadway (Next To Rankin House)

Columbus' New Auto Supply Store

A Complete Stock of Automobile Parts and Accessories

SATURDAY, JAN. 27

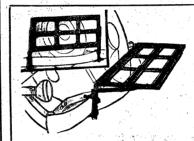

WHY YOU CAN BUY HERE FOR LESS

In opening this store, we do so knowing that you will find here many advantages in auto supply purchases. It shall always be our policy to honestly present reliable merchandise at reduced prices. Our plan calls for volume sales, quick turnover, low overhead, cash and carry sales—all of which mean lower prices for you.

OUR PRICE POLICY

If you can buy it for less elsewhere—Return it unused and we will refund your money or the difference.

M. P. EBERHART, Mgr.

Rear Luggage Carriers $1.79 Side Luggage Carriers 60 In. Long

79c

Cigar Lighters 19c to $1.19

Flash Lights 49c

In Any

Gear Shift Balls 12c up

SPECIAL

(Opening week only)
AMERICA'S FINEST
MOTOR OIL 15c Per Qt.

100% Pure Pennsylvania

Banishes Sun Glare

Visorettes

59c up

59c up

Gas Tank Caps 5c up

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1934

BENNING DAY-

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, January 29.-Captain Severne MacLaughlin, custodian of Colonel Wallace's inner sanctum and the school's expert diagnostician for ailing tires, springs, shock absorbers and shackle-bolts, slipped over a fast one last Monday afternoon that was high, wide and on the inside. In his introduction to this particular conference he casually remarked that among other things he would indicate during the course of his talk just what question on the subject of the moment would be asked in the forthcoming motor exam.

Now the student body is a gullible thing and despite an occasional provocation which tends to cause one to masticate thoroughly before swallowing, the belie fin Santa Claus is still as real as the real Santa is imaginary. As a consequence this frank admission, while somewhat startling and unexpected, made sufficient impression to cause all and sundry to whip out their notebooks and spend the remainder of the hour with heads cocked, pencils poised and ears alerted. When the period had ended with the combined notebooks of the class still as bare as a nudist's clothes-line—our simile is admittedly subject to criticism for its inaccuracy but a better one escapes us for the nonce-one courageous soul suggested to the good captain that we were still waiting for the list of questions to be asked. To which the latter replied, 'Oh, that? Well, everything repeated twice."

Wednesday was spent in a rather novel manner, what with a minute inspection of the 29th Infantry motor stables, a choice noon meal as the Service Company's guests and, in the afternoon, a personally conducted Cook's tour of the Benning hinterlands under the tutelage of Instructor Holly, motor chassistician and convoy conduct-

This diversion included a few impromptu entertainment features. as well as instructional value, in which both ends of the class starred. To Cappy Wells and Johnny Johnson the class is indebted for furnishing color to the afternoon's motorcade.

Cappy ("Report") Wells, official student conductor, class herder and leading man in two October episodes ("A-Hunting We Will Go" and "Go In And Out The Washroom") was riding the rum-ble-seat of the tank section's pickme-up, much to the envy of the remainder of the student body, busily engaged in branch-dodging The cross and foot-slogging. country ability of his particular vehicle was at its best time and time again as the trucks painfully chugged and strained where the going was bad, resulting in the casting of covetous glances at our brother major each time he passed our lumbering vehicles. Finally the column came to a sudden halt as Cappy's car floundered in the soft, gooey Georgia mud, imbedding itself waist high in the red clay before finally giving up. This stoppage of course called for immediate action and Cappy was seen

(Please turn to page 4)

OFFICERS VISIT AUTOMOBILE PLANTS

ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS OF THE TANK SCHOOL at Fort Benning's stay in Atlanta last Wednesday and Thursday was a tour of inspection of the big Chevrolet and Ford plants here. As guests of the managers officers spent several hours in the plants and later were entertained at luncheon. On the first row at the left, Colonel W. B. Wallace commanding officer of the Tank School is seen, and third from left is Perry Burrus of Columbus.

LARGE STANDING ARMY NEEDED

General Estes Reiterates Sentiment Of General McArthur's Message In His Address To Graduating Members Of Tank Class

Baltzell Receives

Brigadier General G. H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School, officially presented the Distinguished Service Medal to Colonel George F. Baltzell, Infantry, active head of the Infantry Board, on Gordon Field at 4:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and the 29th Infantry, largest infantry unit of the United States Army, passed in review before General Estes and his staff, and Colonel Baltzell, to do honor to one of the leaders in the military educational Expeditionary forces, during the day morning, February 1, 1934. World War, and was announced at the first of the month. It is one of the highest honors that the the tank section and were handed government of this country can thei rdiplomas by General Estes confer upon a member of the military forces, and is only awarded for distinguished and meritorious services.

Persons, regimental commander. General Estes who received the review, and his staff, consisting of Colonel Ephraim G. Peyton, executive officer, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph A. Atkins, plans and training officer, Major Maurice D. Welassistant plans and training (Please turn to page 5) is toward motorization and mechanization, and those officers whose Award For Service and information do not keep them abreast of the times will certainly be overlooked for preferment when the next national emergency arises.

Our Army is Striving to keep pace with modern science, what we msut have, and what we are working for is a swift, smashing military machine full of pep and Thus key-noting the entire purpose of the United States Army of today and the tank branches of it in particular, Brigadier General G. H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School brought to a system of the Army.

The award of the D. S. M. was close the 1933-34 session of the made to Colonel Baltzell by the tank section of the Infantry buildings comprised the veterinary War Department for his work with School a tFort Benning Go of the Infantry buildings comprised the veterinary general headquarters, American graduation exercises held Thurs-

Twenty officers completed the course of instruction offered by as the closing act of the curriculum. The exercises, which took place in the tank administration building at the post, began at 9:00 The 29th Infantry was led in the review by Colonel William E. A. M., and were by the simplicity of ceremony, and the concise and of ceremony, and the concise and brief speech made by General Estes.

A radio message from Major General Edward Croft, Chief of Infantry, at Washington, was read to the class, conveying his congratulations in the following words: "Please extend to the graduates

(Please turn to page 5)

"The trend of army development Two More Projects Now Nearly Ready

The opening of bids on two more construction projects being carried out under the grant of almost $6.352,000 made by the PWA last fall for construction at Fort Benning, took place on Wednesday morning, January 31, when Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of the post, selected the lowest on each project to be forwarded to the quartermaster general at Washington, D. C., for approval. The two projects concerned are the combined new guardhouse and Provost marshal's office, and the group of three hospital unit at Benning.

The guard-house, which will be located on the corner of Wold Ave., and Kilgore Street, on the site of the present Bakers & Cooks School, will be a guard room for the regular guard details of the post, a barracks for the members of the military police detachment, and as an office for the provost marshal and prison officer and their clerical and administrative forces.

The building is to be two stories high, of brick, stone and concrete construction, with a tiled roof following the same general type of architecture as the dispensary of the station hospital, also located on Wold Ave. General outside dimensions of the building are a

(Please turn to page 8)

Hardaway Co. Gets Contract For Upatoi Bridge

Definite approval of the bid of the Ben H. Hardaway Company of Columbus, for the construction of the combination highway and rail-road bridge over Upatoi Creek at the entrance to Fort Benning was announced by the Quartermaster General of the Army at Washington early Tuesday morning. Official word of the approval was re-ceived at Fort Benning by a radio from the War Department. The amount of the bid, as approved, was $223,000, and according to its terms, work on the project must start within fifteen days of the official awarding. This award will take place in the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of Fort Benning, as soon as details can be worked out. According to announcement Tuesday, this would occur either late Tuesday or Wednesday morning.

The Upatoi Bridge, a mammoth structure of steel and concrete, will be constructed from a part of the $6,352,000 National Recovery Administration funds allotted to Fort Benning by the Public Works Board, for use in the completion of building and other projects for the development and improvement of the Infantry School plant.

The floor level of the new bridge according to the plans and specifications, will be approximately ten feet higher than the roadway in the present structure, which will place the lowest part of the bridge proper above the high water mark of the Upatoi Creek at the post entrance. This will necessitate raising the grade of the roadway approaching the bridge from each end. This work is also included in the contract.

During the time this grading work is in progress, traffic will be routed over a detour road to the left of the present highway, using the present bridge until completion of the new structure.

The only important change in the routing of traffic when the new bridge is completed will be the shifting of Outpost No. 1 about fifty yards farther up Sigerfoos road toward the post proper, and the moving of Lumpkin Road to join with Sigerfoos at the Outpost by the shortest possible route.

The new structure is to combine the present railroad and highway bridges over the Upatoi Creek into one unit with a five foot walk for pedestrians. The entire length of the bridge will be approximately 321 feet, and forty-seven feet wide. The roadway for traffic will be about 26 feet wide. The present bridge is 254 feet long by thirty wide, approximately, and is inadequate to carry the increased traffic into the post.

Fittings of the new bridge will be of the most modern type, including an eleven foot light pylon, at each end, and three nine and a half foot light standards at regular intervals along the sidewalk. The hand-rail of concrete and steel construction, three and a half feet high will also run along the side-

The proposed structure is to be located between the present highway and railroad bridges, with its northern end beginning at the extremity about midway between the two present structures.

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN THE SECOND SECON

Officers And Ladies Of 29th Infantry Hold Dance At Polo Hunt Club

On Saturday evening, the Polo-Hunt Club was the scene of a dance which was given by the officers and ladies of the 29th Infantry. For this occasion, the club was decorated in the Valentine spirit; from the rafters were festooned bunches of red hearts while over the fire place was drawn an image of Cupid with his darts and arrows. At the far end of the Polo Hunt Club a receiving line consisting of Colonel and Mrs. William E. Persons, Lieut and Mrs. Benjamin T. Harris, Mrs. L. W. Merriam, Mrs. T. J. Conway, and Lieut. James O. Boswell was form-

HENRY GRADY

HOTEL

PEACHTREE AT CAIN

Atlanta, Ga.

550 rooms of comfort and convenience. Each room has ceiling fan, circulating ice water, radio and either shower or tub bath; corner rooms have both. Open Dining Terrace and Coffee Shop.

J. F. de Jarnette Vice-Pres. & Mgr.

Rooms from $2

ed to welcome the guests. The 29th Infantry orchestra played and dancing was enjoyed from nine to midnight.

OFFICERS' CLUB TOURNEY ASSEMBLES BRIDGE LOVERS

The fourth of a series of contract bridge tournaments wes held Monday evening at the Officers' Club. This tourney was for mixed teams of four and seven tables assembled for the evening's play. The winners were first, the team consisting of Capt. and Mrs. Don C. Faith, Mrs. Charles F. Colson and Lieut. August E. Schanze, and second the team of Mrs. John L. Jenkins, Mrs. Thomas J. Leary, Mrs. Thomas S. Arms and Mrs. Henry J. Matchett.

MEMBERS OFFICERS' CLUB INVITED TO PLAY IN THE WORLD'S OLYMPIC BRIDGE TOURNEY AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Members of the Fort Benning Officers' Club are invited by the Columbus Country Club to participate in the World's Olympic Bridge Tournament which will be held throughout the world on Thursday evening. This tourney is the most important and widely advertised in the bridge world. Authorities from every country will participate. A number of reservations have been made from Fort Benning including: Col. W. E. Persons, Capt. H. W. Gould, Capt. and Mrs. E. C. Lewis, Capt. and Mrs. Don C. Faith, and Lt. and Mrs. R. G. Emery.

MEMBERS OF FORT BENNING SOCIETY HOSTS AT SCAV-ENGER HUNT ON MONDAY NIGHT

Capt. and Mrs. James P. Gammon and Capt. and Mrs. Edward C. Betts were the hosts Monday evening at a novel and delightful scavenger hunt. The guests assembled at the Polo-Hunt Club where they received a list of thirty articles with instructions to have these articles at the Polo Club by eleven o'clock. The chase for the various and sundry articles led the guests a merry chase from Ft. Benning to Columbus to Cusseta and back to Ft. Benning. The first to arrive with the complete assortment of treasure were; Mrs. Walter C. Phillips, Mrs. Howard N. Merrill and Capt. Wilbur E. Elliott.

Following the hunt a delicious supper was served at individual tables. The guest list included approximately a hundred friends of the hosts.

CAPT. AND MRS. DEPASS ARE HOSTS AT DINNER PRECEDING DANCE

Capt and Mrs. Morris B. De-Pass, Jr., were the hosts at a delightful dinner Saturday evening preceding the 29th Infantry dance. Nine guests were seated in the dining room while three individual tables seating four guests were placed in living room. Green and white was used as the color scheme, white narcissi and snap dragon, flanked by green tapers were arranged artistically on the tables. The guest list included; Major and Mrs. William H. Hobson, Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, Capt. and Mrs. Herbert L. Harries, Capt. and Mrs. Michael E. Halloran, Capt. and Mrs. Walter P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Box, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Borom, Mrs. Selina Waddington, Major Kramer Thomas and Major Lawrence J. I. Barrett.

OFFICERS' CLUB TO ENTER-ITS MEMBERS AT SPORTS DANCE THURSDAY EVEN-ING

The Officers' Club was the host to its members Thursday evening when it entertained with an enjoyable sports dance. In addition to dancing novelty entertainments were afforded. The festivities started at nine and continued until midnight with the 29th Infantry orchestra furnishing the music for dancing. A number of informal dinners were given preceding the affair. Among those entertaining were: Lieut. and Mrs. Louis B. Ely, Lieut. and Mrs. Clyde D. Eddleman and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walton of Columbus.

HOUSE GUESTS ENTERTAIN-ED PRECEDING SPORTS DANCE

Miss Josephine Blanchard and Miss Ann Keller the attractive house guest of Major and Mrs. Clarence Huebner were the honor guests Thursday evening when Lt. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen entertained at dinner at the officers' club.

After dinner the guests were escorted to the officers' club where a sports dance was held.

Lt. and Mrs. Bowen had as their guests a few members of the younger set.

PERSONALS

Miss Dale Heard of Dallas, Texas, is the house guest of Lieut. and Mrs. William C. Lucas.

Mrs. Harriet Weeks of Washington, D. C., is the house guest for a few weeks of Lieut. and Mrs.

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

Manuscripts, Monographs and other work typewritten—40c per thousand words. Experienced military typist. Clean work guaranteed. Phone 3461-M, City.

WANTED—by educated, cultured widow, position as companion, hostess or housekeeper. Address Mrs. Margaret P. Smith, P. O. Box 270, Opelika, Ala.

Those epicures who like spaghetti—real Italian Spaghetti—are in for a treat at the supper which is sponsored on February sixth at the Catholic Club house on Eighth street and Broadway. The supper is being prepared by Mrs. A. Spano, who also cooked the spaghetti for the alst supper and the success of the last one is a sure indication that the one next Tuesday will be full to the brim with everything enjoyable.

Another outstanding affair of (Please turn to page 3)

James R. Pierce.

Mrs. George Newcomb of Wanpum, Wisconsin is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. George C. Clark.

Major and Mrs. Clarence R. Huebner have as their house guests Miss Josephine Blanchard and Miss Anna Keller of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

In Silver's we feel a responsibility for the customer which you will not find in most other stores. We try in every way possible to please you, and it is our proud boast that we have rarely failed. Why not try Silver's next time?

SILVER'S

Cor. Broadway and 11th St. Make Silver's YOUR Store!

Above The Standard

IN QUALITY AND FLAVOR

foremost

Ice Cream and (Cellophane-Sealed) Milk

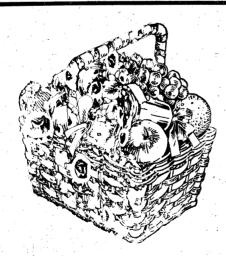

THIS WEEK-END

FRESH - FRUIT STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM

Foremost Dairies, Inc

PHONE 771

Jaded Appetites?

Then Let Us Suggest A Few Of Our 'Different' Foods!

Of course you—and the entire family grow tired of eating the same sort of foods day in and day out. Did you know that you could get all sorts of delicacies at the Post Exchange? Things that will actually make your mouth water—and make the family think that there's something worth living for after all! We will be glad to give you suggestions.

GROCERY DEPT.

Post Exchange

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

25c

BOTTLED REFRESHMENT SOLD CONVENIENTLY

The Six-Box will give you Coca-Cola in its most convenient form. Just pick it up and carry it out—six delicious bottled Coca-Colas just for the small price of 25c. Surely there's no other bargain in the grocery store that equals this one! And the Six-Box is sold at all Columbus grocery stores.

IT HAS EVERYTHING -- PURITY -- FLAVOR and REFRESHING TASTE!

NAVY

MEYER'S ALL-IN-ONE improved

LIQUID ROUGE

for MEYER METAL & ACID TEST INSIGNIA & BUTTONS Under ordinary conditions a simple solution of soap suds and household ammonia suffice as a cleanser and polisher; however, where a stronger and quick acting agent is necessary to do the work we offer ALL-IN-ONE LIQUID ROUGE, put up ready to use with dauber included with every bottle.

Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons
At Your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

Ten Years Ago Last Week

The Fort Benning branch of the Infantry Association was formed at a meeting of all infantry officers in the post theatre. Colonel M. C. Kerth, commanding officer of the 29th Infantry, was elected president.

Fort Benning went through a cold spell rather like the one experienced this last week.

Construction on four additional sets of officers quarters in Block 14 was begun, to bring the total of houses in that area to twentytwo double sets.

Calculator's widow and orphans were discovered in the 29th Infantry area six months after his demise at the hands of a poisoner.

FLOWERS BROS.

Successors to METCALF'S BARBER SHOP 1222 Broadway

Will appreciate a continuance of the patronage which this shop has enjoyed in the past.

Ladies & Mens Hair Cuts 25c Shaves 15c

Childrens Hair Cuts 15c

A Message To Every Lady of Fort Benning

Announcing the opening of ...

The LADY FAIR BEAUTY SHOP

Oil Permanents $3.50	Finger Waves dried25
	Plain Facials $1.00
ods $5.00	Plain Facials with Pack $1.50
Shampoo and Finger Waves .50	Manicure50

We Solicit Your Patronage

Miss Minnie McCune Mrs. Billy Cody

205-207 Drs. Bldg. — Phone 1661

40 REASONS:

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE

For Thirty-Nine Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

T. Foley Treadway New Gen. Agent

The appointment of T. F. Treadway as general agent is announced by the American National Insurance Company. In making this appointment, of general interest in insurance and business circles, of-ficials of the company say: "We are confident of a successful business in Georgia under the able leadership of Mr. Treadway. Much success is bound to come to a man who intelligently directs his efforts and work as Mr. Treadway does. We also feel that business in Georgia is on the upward trend."

Mr. Treadway, one of the best known and most aggressive insurance men in this section, was 11 years district manager of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company, in which capacity he made an unusual and enviable record. He is said to be the only underwriter in the United States to produce one to four applications per day for 250 consecutive days. It was such an outstanding feat that the insurance magazines took it up and Mr. Treadway was interviewed by more than one representative of these publications.

G. S. McCarter, home office supervisor, who is in Columbus this week, states that the American National has assets of over $50,000,000, surplus of over $8,-000,000 and insurance in force of over $500,000,000, and in regard to liquidity of assets ranks among the first five life insurance companies in the United States.

JUNIOR CATHOLIC SUPPER (Continued from page 2)

the coming week in Columbus will be the Mardi-Gras Ball and Bridge party at the Elk's club which is sponsored Feb. 9th by the Junior Catholic Club. This will be one of the last pre-Lenten festivities in the city and will be a colorful, entertaining one. The bridge rooms will open at 7:45 and the game will begin promptly at 8:00. After sixteen hands, either contract or auction, refreshments will be served and prizes will be awarded. Players are asked to bring their own cards.

At the ball, following the bridge, prizes will likewise be awarded for the most attractive costumes, and entertainment of all kinds is being arranged. Dancing will last until

For reservations for bridge, please call Mrs. Joe Davidson, 2197; Mrs. Mark Mote, 3442-R; Miss Louise Starratt, 1730-J; or Miss Sara Kennon at 3175-J.

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND YOU WILL BE PLEASED

GIRL SCOUTS

May Now Wear These Shoes

Officially Approved by the NATIONAL COUNCIL

The National Council of Girl Scouts has put the stamp of approval on these well-built shoes. You may now complete your official uniform by adding a pair of these shoes. And mothers and dads will appreciate the fact that here is a shoe built for hiking and scouting; a shoe that will stand up under the hardest wear.

Mocha, Elk oxford. mocassin vamp, leather sole. Sizes 21-2 to 9. AAA to

main floor

Flexible Brimmed SPORT HATS

Kirven's Basement Hat Department has just received a new spring shipment of these casual, economical, chic sport hats. Fabric crown with flexible brim that will stand rough and careless handling. Including all the most popular shades of spring.

hats

basement

Spearmint TOOTH PASTE

2 large tubes 29c

A new and economical toothpaste with a pleasing after taste. Especially suitable for smokers. Leaves your mouth tingling with freshness.

toilet goods

main floor

THE BENNING HERALD Columbus, Georgia

Published Every Friday

FEBRUARY 2, 1934 VOLUME III NO. 41 ___Publisher A. F. KUNZE Editor
FELICIA C. HOWELL Society Editor Louis T. Kunze____ _Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

"Early diagnosis is essential:" These are the two slogans that are producing results in the education of the General Public. Cancer deaths in this country amount to the enormous figure of 125,000 each year. Early diagnosis and treatment by X-Ray or surgery continue to be the most important and most promising hopes of cure of this terrible disease.

The American College of Sur- permanent cure.

geons has on file a total of 24,448 cures of cancer collected during the last three years.

These are all cures that have persisted for a period of five or

These figures represent to you and me that cancer is not hopeless condition we used to think

Cancer can be cured. The earlier the disease is discovered the better the chance of a complete

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from page 1) to dismount on the offside to lend a hand in pushing his transportation loose from its moorings. Digging his toes in and with superb knee-action and much eclat, he heaved as the class cheered, but with no progress to speak of. It wasn't until he spat on his hands and went to work in earnest, swaying rhythmically to and fro, as the rear wheels spun frantically again and again that the first signs of life appeared from the grounded vehicle. Even then the stubbornness of the beast was all but overpowering until the class took a hand from its various positions perched high and dry atop the succeeding trucks in column by heaving in unison with Cappy's rocking motion. The final effort came only when the vocal chords of the class had become sufficiently crescendo to attain the proper crescendo and volume to cause it to turn loose its grip and jump out Except for that we might have been there yet. Earlier in the day Johnny Johnson, efficient referee, pug fancier and ballyhood writer, gained undying fame when he came to the aid of a cross-country truck attempting to negotiate a difficult passage of streamlines in some uncivilized portion of the reservation, At the spot in question it was necessary to prepare a footing of treetrunks and boughs. Volunteers were called for and Johnny, nothing loathe, stepped forward, axe in hand, to denude the forests. His main effort was directed at an innocent-appearing tree, all of three inches in diameter, which rose maaxe—it was twice as dull as it should have been—bit in, nick by nick, abetted by his grunts and the advice of the multitude, offered freely and volubly. Suggestions that he start at the other end and work down were made to no avail. Even the highly appropriate advice of one wit that he fall out in favor of a beaver was scorned as he hewed away, whittle by whittle. His perseverance was finally rewarded, however, and with the warning cry of "Timber!" and the aid of a five-mile wind the inoffensive arbol fell in the brush, resulting in a five-minute search by found and put to use.

Bon mots that linger: Phipps' phamous reply to Major Reeder Tuesday morning when the latter, attempting to illustrate a tactical principle in a problem of decision, inquired, "If so-and-so were the case, what then?" to which our Gaylord answered in his usual shy and reticent manner, "Well, sir, that puts YOU on the defensive.'

The Mae West movie Sunday night reminds us of the description we heard of her recently to the effect that she goes out and comes in and comes in and goes out and forgets to come in again.

The approaching motor exam has us all of a dither. Despite our attempts to apply the results of our motor conferences to a perfectly good car, less than a year old, we're still baffled by our inability to produce the desired effect. Our brakes have been slipping for some time and although we've oiled them three times they still slip. We've come to the conclusion that it must be the wrong brand of oil.

The other day someone suggested that our motor was missing This of course was foolish as we soon proved by lifting the hood. Anyone could see it was still there. But we did forget to fasten it down afterward and during the night all the piston pins got loose. It was only after a prolonged chase in the garage next morning that we succeeded in catching them

Our powers of absorption for things mechanical are so poor as jestically to a height of at least to be disheartening. We don't tality rates for spare parts . . . Colonel Bonesteel and his weapons between a brake lining and a gas lining and it's almost got us to the breaker-point. We fear we're nothing but a rank armature after

Run of the mind: Artilleryman Arnold's choice aid-memoire for the use of artillery-oranges in attack, bananas in defense . . Winning our leter in a dry run of withdrawing under the cover of daylight . . . A first-class inspection of a first-class outfit, Capt. McClure's Service Company . . . Recommendation to the Infantry Board-the issue of trench- of wintry blasts which has stoppthe entire class before it could be mirrors to all soldiers as an aid ed us temporarily in our outside to all-round defense . . . Motor studying.

The Student Prints

"Fire," the command of the gunner rang out strong and clear in the crisp afternoon air. "Thump' went Number One's finger on the trigger. But our sturdy little 37 mm. didn't bat an eyelash. Accordingly, in pursuance of par. 12, Section II, Part Four of Volume III, Basic Weapons, the piece was cocked again, relaid, and the above performance repeated. In fact, twice more was the ritual gone through with, while the student gun commander, undergoing examination, fidgeted with impatience at the recalcitrant weapon. When the final "thumps" failed, that Fount of all Knowledge, Tripod Mounter McNulty, was hastily summoned. The good Sergeant cast a practised eye upon the piece, tapping and feeling of a screw here, or a bolt there. For a hang fire is certainly nothing to fool with. And then, after a due wait, the breech was ever so carefully opened. By this time the erstwhile gun crew was well away from the piece, and in fact everyone had managed to inch unobstrusively behind some sort of shelter. And now at last completely opened, Tripod Mounter cautiously lowered his eye to the breech. A clear blue sky met his gaze! Ladies and Gentlemen, that gun had never been loaded! And if our memory is right, it was none other than brother Schanze who had closed the breech without the round. Old "Hangfire" himself!

The above reference to Sgt. Mc-Nulty brings to mind his oft repeated admonition, "Don't press the eye too tightly against the rubber eyepiece." Well might we heed this warning, for it's founded on a personal experience. One time, when McNulty was young and frivolous, he himself pressed his eye too closely to the eyepiece, and the slight counter recoil of the gun created so much suction that said eye was halfway drawn out of its socket. It took al lthe Post's nurses and all the Post's surgeons, to put Sergeant McNulty together again.

We hail Actor Author Kent as an outstanding classmate of dear old '33-'34. His latest feat is a published article in the Infantry Journal on troop training in Machine Guns. The same week the issue appeared, Tom won his "U" in Indirect Laying, Machine Gun!

And speaking of famous people it is reported that Tactician Ad. Smith uttered quite an audible sigh of relief when he got his 8 word ticket in radio. Things looked bad for a while, but, as Ad modestly puts it, "It was in the bag all along."

Don't forget to put a Big Ring around the dates of Feb. 9th and 10th on your calendar. Thief" is being presented by the Dramatic Club and features such players as Brisach, Pospisil and Halley. It's sure to go over in a BIG way! We can't wait to see Jaromir Jan as the dumb detective, or Adolph as a passionate lover. Ray will lend just the right

Expert Holly figuring the morcohorts in another demonstration that clicked . . . Ham Meyer asking if he might take a horse along on the recent convoy . . . Kingfish Dan Norman keeping score on the "Yesses" and "Noes" in Major Reeder's estimate of the situation . . . Shocked expressions on the receipt of the new week's schedule with two and a half days of graded tests, wherein the school emulated the advice of Pete Bonham to the effect that when you concentrate, concentrate... Motor Expert Meister and his Connecticut energy . . . And the approach

Proverbs Of Captain Solomon

tines, and a wonder as to the protection given by the Army of Samuel against them. 2. And the leaders of the people knowing this, gathered unto themselves in council, that they might select some means of diverting their attention, and that the people might inquire not too closely into the manner in which the government was run, or the affairs of the military administration.

3. And lo! There was one who conceived the plan of putting forth the Army in sudden array, so that the people might see them spring to arms over night.

4. And the Army of Samuel was told that at M-hour they would prepare to take the field, loading all baggage camels, and carrying the cooking pots. And the order was that each man should carry only that which was necessary, and that upon his back.

5. And that which was left over, including the garter of the temple dancer, and the silken togs with which he had smitten the hearts had been packed.

1. And it came to pass that in of many, the soldier should bundle those days there grew among the into a roll, that it might be transpeople a great fear of the Philisported to his home.

6. Then he did the recruits, not being wise in the ways of the Army of Samuel, dispense with many articles that they had collected with much labor and persistence, including the aforementioned garter, even down unto the small packet of clay tablets that was the choicest collection of street numbers in all Judea. For these they did not wish the home folks to see, but preferred that they should be held in good esteem by them.

7. But the old soldier, having been in many campaigns, did as he was bid, and in addition to his own, bundled forthwith into the bag the choicest things of those abandoned by the recruit, especially the clay tablets. For verily, he had "Mob-El-Ized" before.

8. And the M-hour came, and the baggage was loaded unto the camels even unto the cooking pots, so that there was not room to place a straw, and still there was more left upon the ground that

29TH INFANTRY

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY | taking a rest-maybe-anyway he The Radio and Wire Section are still at war playing indoor baseball every morning. They are going to sign a truce some day.

The mobilization held in the company last week gave all a thrill. Most of the boys were sending their personal belongings to someone in civil life. Mae West was the most popular address of them all. Wonder what Mae West would do with all the soldiers' civilian clothes? Her famous picture "I'm No Angel" must be misunderstood by some of the boys. One of them gave a Salvation Army girl a five spot and she replied "I will meet vou in heaven."

The Battalion Basketball League Team is winning without a They play struggle in all games. two games in post this week and go for the week end to Pensacola.

Private Hurst, one of the radio operators has been rated specialist 4th class.

Corp. Richardson, expert pool shark in this company, seems to have all comers bluffed. When he comes in the pool room everyone puts the cues in the rack.

Sergeant LaBonte and Corp. Wilhite are entertainers from 11: 30 a. m. to 12:00 noon every day in the art of pool shooting.

Pfc. Brandon has been transferred from dining room man to Student Cook. Also have a new cook from Company "B," 29th. His name is Adcock.

Corp. Mueller, company clerk having returned from a furlough recently, has been suffering from stiffness in his elbows from thumbing his way over the country.

Sergeant Villa, of the band (better known as Pop), has organized a 30-piece band of the American Legion in Columbus, Ga. A series of concerts and dances has been arranged by him for the Spring and Summer.

SERVICE COMPANY

Pfc. Abraham R. Hummel has visited his relatives. Here's hoping you had a good time Hummel. Notice that Doc Harrison has just reported for duty. Doc has been touch of savoir faire to make it a well balanced production.

Bing Kunzig was surprised to about his Ford. see that his efficient co-members of the entertainment committee had again decided to hold a dance, with himself in the role of money fore the Company Commander on changer. "Non-Rigid" feels that charges of "Mopery in Attempt to while he was only TOO glad to Creep," but for various reasons bank the last dance, a repetition they have never been able to get of the affair could be better af- the proper dope. It is not Pvt. forded by some of those who gave Gunter's fault. birth to the idea in the first place.

was on furlough. Judging from his appearance, Doc is all set to get down to work again. Saw him in the mess hall scoffing-up on some of Frank Hollaender's chow. Don't know whether he was just naturally hungry—or maybe glad to get some beans, beef and spuds under his belt. Greetings, salutations and Congratulations to Staff Sergeant Jno. L. "Jiggs" Biggerstaff. Learned recently with much surprise that he has taken a life-long suite on the ole ship of matrimony. Wishing you and yours the best of luck and much happiness Jiggs, and here's hoping the aforementioned "Ship" avoids all storms and sails peacefully along.

Pvt. "Moon" Stewart had a great big smile on his face. Asked him why and he happily informed me that he and several other fellows had completed their job of washing the kalsomine off the walls and ceilings of the company barracks. They didn't see the Company Commander's car parked near the porch, believed that their sight will be improved very much when they finish cleaning it up and have it looking like new again. COMPANY "D"

It seems irregular that Sergeant Kilgo has of late formed a habit of taking three day passes. It is natural for the "Shack" men to take all the passes allowed them, but Sergeant Kilgo is not yet in their class. However he may be anticipating a plunge in the Deep Sea of Matrimony—who knows? Pfc. Ragan made application for a transfer to Barksdale Field, about two weeks ago and after the Company Commander had approved of it, Ragan suddenly decided to withdraw the application. The reason, no one knows, but we have a good idea. Just lately Ragan has placed another application for a transfer to Barksdale Field, and so far is still in the notion of just returned from a motorcycle transferring. Pvt. Ragan is the trip to Pennsylvania where he paint slinger and we wish him the best of luck at his new post if transferred. It has been noted on every occasion when Pvt. Sullivan returned from his frequent trips to Mississippi, he was wearing a dreamy look in his eyes. The cause is un-known but he is not worrying

Several non-commissioned officers of the company have threatened to bring Private Gunter be-of the Tank Course my heartiest congratulations on their having completed successfully the course of instruction. On behalf of the Infantry, I extend to them best wishes for contniued success in their future activities."

(Continued on Page 6)

TANK CLASS GRADUATION (Continued from page 1)

In addressing the graduates, the commandant said: "Today marks the close of the tank course of the Infantry School for the term 1933-34. It also marks the close of another chapter in the story of the professional life of each of you. I hope that you have found the writing o fthis chapter both interesting and instructional. I know it will be most useful, so I urge you not to permit what you have learned to pass into the oblivion of forgotten memories, but by continued study and reading, an dby seizing such opportunities for practical work as may present themselves, continue to maintain your knowledge and skill.

"The trend of army development anization and those officers whose interest and information do not keep them abreast of the times will certainly be overlooked for preferment when the next national jor war of the future will see a emergency arises.

pace with modern science. What we must have and what we are working for is a swift, smashing miliary machine full of pep and vigor. I must admit that at the present time the Army of the United States is more or less of a rattling skeleton, entirely inadequate for an offensive and of questionable adequacy as an instrument of defense. In his last Annual report General MacArthur insistently urged a minimum peacetime fighting unit. He reiterated a program of 14,000 officers and 165,000 enlisted men for the regular Army, a National Guard of 210,000 men with proper proportion of officers, an active Organized Reserve of 120,000 offierc of whom 30,000 would get summer training every year. He wished the R. O. T. C. units might be placed in every college and advanced school and that the C. M. T. C. might handle 50,000 young men each summer.

"That is his idea of the skeleton army that America needs in is toward motorization and mech- time of peace and the least we can afford upon which to risk the national welfare.

"Our War Department General Staff has concluded that any marather noticeable swing away from the heavy and ponderous armies "Our army is striving to keep of the pas to more mobile and powerful, though somewhat smaller successful as will always be the organizations.

"The Infantry has its machine guns, small cannon, trench mortars, and automatic rifles, all special infantry weapons. Since the ganized activity. World War such equipment has been improved and the next war will see the infantryman with a very light machine gun or semiautomatic shoulder weapon.

"The troops will be better able to direc tfire upon critical areas and to defend themselves from low-flying airplanes.

"Motor equipment will enable group to move faster; ammunition, supplies and equipment will be speedy and able to resist small arms.

"Cavalry will still be used for reconnaissance and attack and for protection of wea kpoints in formations.

"The horse is no faster than he was in Ceasar's day, but in the next war he will ride to the scene of activity in a fast motor truck and then go into action. As you know, the Army is mechanizing and motorizing two Cavalry units just to see how it works.

"As for field artillery, better carriages allow fast handling without damage to delicate mechanism. Fast trucks and tractors do the towing.

"With progress in transportation and communications, command will be accomplished to an accelerated degree beyond any previous experience.

"Each officer must therefore take advantage of every opportunity to fit himself to assume his proper place in this modern army. This school is one of those oppor-

"The Prime Minister of Great Britain when he last visited the United States made a prophetic statement in one of his speeches. He said, "The one certain thing about was in that it makes another one equally certain." All Europe is an armed camp today. It truly is a world organized for was in which we now live, with hopes and plans for peace relegated to conferences upon a bargain basis. And what are we of these United States to do about it? Just what we are doing, I'd say, first maintain the very best schools we possibly can for the training of efficient and qualified leaders of units of all sizes and arms, and second, keep abreast of all scientific development which will enhance our defensive strength and familiarize ourselves with advances in mechanical equipment of all kinds which will promote our ability to fight. We will then have a firm and stable foundation upon which to build an effective machine for national defense.

"Nothing in this world in which there is the breath of life can remain at a standstill. It is progression or it is retrogression. It is squarely up to each one of you gentlemen to make the momentous decision which in your own case, it shall be. Will you continue to advance in your profession or will you allow yourself to drop behind in the march into the future?

"I am well aware that we of the Regular Army are at this moment laboring under many handicaps, both in our personal lives and in the maintenance of the Army as an efficient agency of national protection because of the financial traits in which our finds itself. But it has always been the pride of the Regular Army that no matter what happens, no matter how severe the trial, no matter how dark and hopeless the prospect, every officer and man will be found with head up, shoulders back and eyes intent upon the objective set and moving always onward and upward to accomplishment of whatever task may have been set by destiny.

"The trouble with many of our citizens and with their efforts toward economic recovery is the trouble with the attitude of many toward all desirable things: We have far too much wishbone and not enough back-bone.

"You have done well here, and we feel that the course has been case where there is loyal, energetic and efficient effort and wholehearted cooperation on the part of the individual members of an or-

"I express the real appreciation of the School, Command, and Faculty, and am most sincere in wishing to each of you continued success and advancement in your chosen profession."

At the conclusion of his speech General Estes handed each of the officers his diplomas, and spoke a few personal words of goodbye.

Those officers who received their diplomas Thursday morning were Captain Paul D. Connor, Raymond O. Miller, Fay Ross, Harvey H. Smith, William R. Watson and Chester C. Westfall; and Lieutenants Frank S. Bowen, James C. Fry, Francis E. Howard, Wendall G. Johnson, Lincoln Jones, Jr., Henry I. Kiel, Otis McCormick, Richard T. Mitchell, Cleland S. Sibley, Richard G. Thomas, Harold W. Uhrbrock, Edwin J. Van Horne, Russell Blair, and Willis S. Mat-

AWARD GIVEN BALTZELL

(Continued from page 1) officer, and Major H. B. Lewis, post adjutant, then made a mounted inspection of the troops, while the regimental band played mili-

Kinnett's Ice Cream is sold in any form, whether in the cone, in dishes, in bricks, in cups or in special molds. Just order it by 'phone and it will be sent immediately.

Sold at POST EXCHANGE and the OFFICERS' CLUB

An Announcement

WE HAVE RECENTLY MOVED TO NEW OFFI-CES ON THE SECOND FLOOR OF THE GAR-RARD BLDG. CORNER BROADWAY & 12TH ST.

We will welcome a continuance of the same patronage which you have given us since our founding several years ago. On the other hand you may expect from us the same intimate personal service you have always had.

We invite you to come to see us any time and on whatever occasion you may be in need of the kind of service we render.

SECURITY Savings and Loan Co.

BROWN NICHOLSON Executive Vice President SECOND FLOOR — GARRARD BUILDING — BROADWAY AND TWELFTH STREET

1 DAY TRADE-IN Nationally Advertised CRUSADER TIRE Sale! Treate

With a Most Liberal Allowance for Old Tires

Bringing Prices as Low as

FOR 29x4:40 AND YOUR OLD TIRE

POPULAR SIZES 30x3 1-2 Cl $3.45 Reg. 29x4:20-21 29x4:50-20

30x4:50-2128x:75-19

Less 50c allowance for your old tire

Satisfaction Guaranteed Or Your Money Back

1008 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WOR

HQRS. STILL LEADS IN BASKETBALL RACE

improvement in the playing of most of the teams, with Headquarters Battalion still staying out in front and showing no indications of losing that position. The remainder of the league has all indications of developing into a beautiful dog-fight before the season is finished with each team scrapping for dear life for every game.

The Tankers and Medicos fought a close battle in the last Thursday's contest, with the Pill Rollers coming back strong in the second half to overcome a 21-14 lead held by the Tanks, and tie the score with one minute to go. Fighting under pressure, the Golden Tornado worked down the floor to sink that precious field goal for a 39-37 win, with Williams, Tankers high point man for 15 markers.

The Kellys had a walk-away in their contest with the 83rd Gunners in the other game of the evening, having no trouble in taking a 47-32 victory. Chamberlain was high point with 10.

The Fighting Irish from the 1st Batt took the Tankers down a peg Friday night when they swamped the Tornado with a barrage of baskets to win 48-26, with Jordan high point man with 13; while the Headquarters Pirates made a 29th night by rolling the Special Units over 52-31 with Greeson scoring 16 points for hon-

Monday night the second places Kellys got the surprise of their lives when the low-ranking Medicos forced them to come through with two quick field goals in the last minute of play to win 35-31.

PEP...

in every step

Heels and Soles

Hood Rubber Products Co., Inc. Watertown, Mass.

The last week of the intra-mural | It was a case of a fighting team basketball league saw a wonderful determined they wouldn't be improvement in the playing of swamped plus a little deadness on the feet for the 2d Batts. Bridges was high point with 16. The second game Monday was an exhibition given by the Irish of how to outpass and out play a sharpshooting team from the 83rd Field Artillery. The Gunners tried someone else's game when they matched guarding and passing ability with the 1st Batts and only snapped out of it the second half to save a total disgrace. The final score was 38-29, with Snead snagging 17 points for honors. Tuesday night the Headquarters Pirates coasted through to an easy victory over the Tankers, without getting into a sweat at any point in the contest. Greeson's high point honors of 14 helped in Pirate's 40-27 win. The Special Units quintet, exclusive occupants of the cellar position to date, upset the dope bucket with a mighty kick and shout Tuesday night, to give the Kellys their second bad scare in as many nights and again make them sweat out last minute points to win. Whether it was done by mirrors or magic, the Greencords showed more pep and ability than they have all season, and tied the Kellys up in the last of the game till McAllister crashed through with three rapid field goals to give them a victory 38-32. Weiss, of the Special Units, was high with 17 points.

League standings:

mong ac st	and and a
Team	Played	\mathbf{W}	L,	Pct.
Hq. Bn	8	8	0	1.000
2d Bn	9	8	1	.888
1st Bn.		6	1	.750
Tanks		3	5	.425
83rd F. A.	8	2	6	.250
Medicos	7	1	6	.144
Special Uni	ts 7	0	7	.000

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 4)

Pfc. Kennedy, one of the efficient Slum Burners, is preparing to take a furlough. He fears that he is getting underweight. and is going to take a rest and try to gain some of his lost weight.

HQ. CO., 2ND BATT. Here is some Sad News, although it is good news for oppo-

The second half of the 24th Infantry basketball league is well under way with the mighty quintet of Company G again out in the lead with a clean slate to their credit, and closely trailed by Hq. Co., which has astonished the dopesters with the execution put up in recent games.

McLarkin, as usual is heading the big five in the scoring, with Ellerby again running second.

League	standings	and	sco	rers:
Team	Played	\mathbf{w}	\mathbf{L}	Pct.
Co. G	5	5.	. 0	1.000
Hq. Co	5	4	1	.800
Co. E	5	3	2	.600
Co. F	5	. 3	2	.600
Co. C	6	3	3	.500
Co. B	5	2	3	.400
Sery	5	1	4	.200
Co. A	6	0	6	.000
Scorers:	**	′ .
McLarkin,	Co. G	.		105
Ellerby, H	Iq. Co			91
Johnson,	O. E			70
Trammell,	Co. G			49
	J.,

nents met last week. 2nd Batts lost its basketball game on Tuesday evening the 23rd and on Wednesday 24th lost the boxing matches, and on top of all of that got "Mobilized" Thursday with the rest of the 29th Infantry. There was only one thing wrong with the "Mobilization" and that was on the part of Private Harper— Redmayne and John McCaslin who thought they really were going some place and gave an argument to that effect. The Mobilization came to a close by getting pictures made from the Air, then home-happy once more.

Corporal Paul Blackston has recently returned from 30 days furlough, reporting a very good time while in the old home town down by the sea.

Private Charles Hansen has also returned recently from 30 days furlough, Charles spent his 30 days way up in old Detroit. Mich., the city of ice and snow. Upon his return to Benning he reported to his brother, Arthur, who is also a member of this Company, that the situation was well in hand, except for one thing, and that was, he had to go to Atlanta pay day on some very important business. Arthur after investigating this found that Charles had fell in love with a girl on the bus, who lives in Atlanta, while returning to Atlanta. Charles said to Arthur "Brother, this is confitial, it was love at first sight and you can't imagine how I feel, and for that reason alone I have got to get to Atlanta and see her again.

Corporal Robert Duck returned from CC duty this week from down in Florida where he has been for the past six months. Glad to see him back

Would like to know what the conference was all about that kept Pvts. John Lakey, Billie Floyd, Erwin Stroud and his pal Simon Adcox out on the Drill field until

The boys reported a very fine week end at the recreation camp except for one thing-John Lakey didn't get any sleep while he was out there the bob cats had him worried.

Bill Redmayne and Wiley Patrick have a bunk fatigue contest going in their spare time. Bill reported that Wiley had about three hours on him at this time.

So long until next week. -John H. Newsome.

> COMPANY "E" Bed Time Stories

One fine morning I decided I would crank up my old Ford and go visit the King and Queen. I was a Freeman and don't like to Co. G Again Leads with little trouble but this time the crank caught my Enfinger and to Ward off further trouble I put a piece of Gause around it. Oh, how it was Akin when I raised the Hood and I Grant you, I had never seen such a Petty trouble. There was a Berry caught in the timer. If I had been a Youngman I would Bender around my knee. Sure didn't want any Moore of this so had to Cary by bags and put them in my Austin. I had but three Nichols to my name when I started down the Lavne in a Southerland direction toward the lower Borders of the Country. Had to go over a Bald-Ridge and at the foot of it were two Brdiges which the heavy Raines had almost undermined. On arriving the Porter took my bags and the King's Page showed me in. The King was a Lowman and the Queen was very Gurley-ish. About that time the Stewart came in and announced that the Cooke had Oikari for dinner but it still needed Browning some before it would be Brown enough. He gave me a drink and asked "Is that Jinright or does it need some Newberrys. Said he would get his Bowen arrow and show me how to be an Archer. He lay aside his Swords but the Bell rang and we found the Queen wanted to ride in my Austin also. I felt like giving him a Polk in the nose for having a wife and told him to Walker down and I'd Joiner later. Wright he exclaimed. It isn't Justice but everything is going to be alright if we only have

-Slim.

COMPANY "F"

Sergeant White, who has been on detached service with the Civilian Conservation Corps at Waycross, Georgia, has returned to this organization.

Company "F" feels proud of the recognition by the Command-ant of its 100 per cent membership of all eligible officers and enlisted men of the organization in the Local Post of the American Le-

The Inspector General cited this outfit as having one of the superior cesses of the Regiment. The cafeteria style of serving meals is desirable because of its economic value in the saving of food, labor and dishes and its value in keeping food in a warm and edible condition. This method of serving meals is combined with the system of "warming ovens," designed and made by the Company Mechanic to dry and keep the dishes warm until the meal is ready to serve and makes Company F a very desirable place to

COMPANY JESTER

W. C. B. "Can anyone tell me what is a Metaphor?"

S. M. "Sure, it's to keep cows in."

Pvt. Skates took his girl friend out in the back yard to show her his new stables but she scon found out it was only a stall.

COMPANY "G"

Heard the first sergeant 'storming" about company maga-(Please turn to page 7)

KEEP BOTH EYES OPEN When you're buying Sporting Goods!

The sort of equipment that you choose to play with matters a great deal in the sort of performance that you are able to give. We sell sporting goods for nearly every kind of sport that can be played at Benning—and—we want to stress the fact that we sell only nationally known and properly made brands of equipment.

You Choose the Sport-We Have The Equipment

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS .. RESOURCES OVER

.$ 550,000.00 .$3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

Announcing

ODOM-WILLIS CO.

Local Authorized Dealers for

WILLYS 77

For Economical Transportation Willys Lead

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representaive-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

29TH INFANTRY

(Continuéd from page 6) zines being carried to the squad rooms not so long ago, and thought his warning against this had been heeded until the other day. He found one of his favorite stories torn from a current magazine. Well, if you can't take the magazine, that's one way of getting what you want. Better draw 'em a picture next time, Ser-

"Aviation is a failure!" And that's why Private Marley missed reveille the other morning. He was seen early in the morning trying to make Benning the "Air Way" (air you going my way?).

At first we couldn't understand Private Booker's mdinight serenade from his bunk, but when he was seen the next morning moving cautiously, not turning his head quickly or walking too fast, and complaining of an uneasy feeling in his middle-every-thing regarding the joyous spirit the previous night is cleared up for

Speaking of serenades, since Pete Booker's "debut", learned he is not even in the running when "Jakie" is around. His was a true serenade in proper form under Sergeant King's window, and could be heard for miles around. Had a suspicion that the sergeant didn't appreciate this as serenades should be.

Since "I'm No Angel" hit Benning, it seems Private Burford's ardor for his little "lots o' mamma" is dying down a little, and "come up and see me sometime" seems to be running thru his mind all the time. Never mind H. T., you'll soon be back to your dairy farm and then you can forget them both.

COMPANY "H"

The outfit worked as smoothly as usual for the mobilization problem, and everything went off without a hitch. Should mention, however that 'Monk' O'Dell tried to do a Charleston as he climbed aboard the train and as a result he skinned a shin on the step of Charlie Gray is a brand new corporal and we are glad to ofour congratulations along with the rest of the company.

Corp. McLane was discharged via the purchase route Saturday 27th. Hate to see Mac go but best wishes go with him.

Shorts-Cooper got his furlough and is well on his way to Arkansas by now-Dawson had to stay with us Thursday (M-day) night for the first time in months-Hyde and Pike are neck and neck for 'Shack' honors-and this is one week that no news is good news.

-Ernest Stephens.

83rd F A

Saturday night at the Artillery dance we were given a treat by Class Emmet First Thompson who introduced, for the look for "Turkey Gobbler Hop." Not" he is the inventor of this new poral John Booker, Company A dance creation, which will in time go down in the annals of dance history as being an equal to the already famous "Varsity Hop." Every one extends their congratulations to this new dance master In giving Thompson a little Herald publicity this writer hopes he does not hurt the feelings of the Battery's other two Pvts. Gunn and Rhodes.

Private Rhodes also came in for a little glory that night. He caught a fainting girl and carried her off the floor like a big hero. Pfc. Thempson thinks so much of this brave act that he is gathering contributions to buy Rhodes a medal. He is also sending Pvt. Rhodes' name in to the Carnegie Institute to have it engraved among the names of our immortal heroes. Rhodes is another one of the boys who has come through when the time and crisis arrived. —C. H. S.

BATTERY "A"

Business seems to have picked up quite a bit for the tailor as he has been replacing quite a few buttons on all coats of Pfc. Shelton Brantley. Brantley is the proud father of a 9 pound baby boy. By 1953 he might be hanging around "A" Battery mess hall waiting for the chow bell to ring.

A group of stalwart "A" Battery soldiers were gazing with longing eyes and watery mouths at an advertisement of rare Paul Jones and Antique Whiskey, Cpl. Johnson came strolling by and naturally stopped to see what the excitement was about. "Boys" he remarked "I sho would like to have a quart of that 'Anti-Kue' whiskey.

Sincere sympathy to Pvt. Hebert, who returned from a ten day emergency furlough with the sad news of his mother's death.

BATTERY "C"

The fighting squad is in good shape new, and the Battery expects some good fights from them. They have added "Nick The Barber" to their ranks, who sure will step some fast rounds with some

The Gunner Corporal of the Second Section has gone to Cincinnati to get his papers signed.

Sgt. Miller states that all the pipes at his home freze except the one that he smokes. It is impossible for that thing to freeze.

24th Inf.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

Private Gust J. Lee please notice Good House Keeping Magazine "To take the GLOSS off blue serge, press with a rag soaked in VINEGAR." It is constructively recommended that Private Lee use vinegar both fore and aft; mostly aft . . . Sergeant Bradford is still trying the boys out in checkers; at this writing he is still the loser, having been beaten by such brilliant minds as Sampson, Sldge Hammer Davis and othfirst time, his famous and long ers. . A report on the basketball team's progress will be published It is something original, unique in next week's notes . . . Nominaand something rare. "Believe it or tion for a guardhouse lawyer: Corare now available at the Post Service Station.

MOTOR

"America's Finest Motor Oils"

AMERICAN OIL CO.

J. D. Thomason, Distributor

It will soon be time for base- form you of my health, and of ball and the Headquarters Company team will show a different front from last year; they are making hay while the sun shines.

SERVICE COMPANY

The Gymkhana entrants from the company had a swell time last Saturday and won prizes to boot. Hale, Green and Futch won 1st. 2nd and 3rd places in the Equipment race, while Menson, Harrow and DeBardelaben took the honors in the Mounted Wrestling. Baby Jenkins just couldn't miss event. Despite the fact that his broken leg is still in a cast he looked on from the side lines and expressed disgust that no one could or would compete against Pollard in the Trick Riding.

Private Willis W. Barnes "Rus ty" has returned from his furlough in Birmingham. He reports a gain of seven pounds, falsely Keystone, mess sergeant and small-bore man, got a miss the other day for record. Sowing in the mess hall and reaping on the firing line.

-G. E. Burton, Reporter.

COMPANY "A"

Happy to state at this time that the great ladies' man, Pvt. King, who recently underwent an operation at Station Hospital, is rest-

According to all outward appearances, one would soon be under the impression that things in Co. "A' are not so hot, especially when an old soldier solicits the aid of people unconcerned to help him gain the rang of High-Private (Pvt. 1cl.). Wonder if the officers and non-commissioned officers of the company mean anything to him? Truly hope "Attorney" be successful, but things still look dark on the horizon.

Don't eat her cooking; if you do you are bound for a flop and according to Corp. Fritz' statement 'you really flops hard." is true, would like to state here that, according to the law of averages, Corporal (Father) Jackson must be Company "A's" best cook. What about it Corp. Fritz?

Pvt. 1cl. McCain, youthful Assistant Sgt., with the assistance of the 1st Sergeant, has drawn up new plans for the sole purpose of balancing his Budget. Here they are: "Mr. 1st Sgt., please let me have no credit a'tall, only one (1) $2.00 Coupon Book. Please don't let me have no USAMP Coupon, no sir, but I just got to see Mae West; and Top Sarge what ever you do, don't let me have any Bus Checks-just let me ride with you; and for my tailor work, well, all my clothes are in the shop now. That will be all. Thank you Top.

Pvt. T. (Nutty) Tate, in figuring up his bills for the month, found that he had exceeded his budget and wanted to know just how he managed to do so. Then he began to check: "Deduct Post Exchange Coupons, deduct $3.00 bus checks, deduct $2.15 barber bill, deduct $5.00 Bruch Bros., deduct $2.29 USAMP Coupons, deduct $1.75 laundry. Now let me check. Pay $17.85. Total bills, $18.70. Due Co. Fund, 85c. Boys am I seeing things? In de name ob de Lamb, what is my gal gwine ter do?"

Respectfully. Pfc. Jas. Pollen.

COMPANY "C"

Applied Psychology Pvt. Lewis: "Where did you get that swell suit you had on last nite. Taylor?"

Pvt. Taylor: "Got it from Chicago. Why?"

Pvt. Lewis: "I thought you didn't get it around here-it really fits you good." Say give me a cigarette, will you?"

Pvt Taylor: "Yeh, I thought so.'

Some Lingo A certain Wise Guy individual in this company, after learning a little slang, wrote the following letter home: Dear Mother:

I am writing you a letter to in-the progress I am making in the army. You see, the uniform is lea has volunteered for the old arquite an asset to a soldier, in my of K. P. After returning from spite of the small pay. However, a furlough last week. I have a good car that won't stop for a Red Light, and a swell girl who just wont "Don't." Last but not least, I have two suits of clothes that are just Too Tite. So, you see, all's well with me. Your son-Jim."

The reply read as follows: 'Dear Son:

Your letter received, and glad to learn of your rapid success while in the service. I know there is small pay to be received, yet, I know you to be thrifty. Now, Son, about that car you bought. I think you foolish to get one that does not stop for a Red Light, when you have Old Betsy here who will stop any time you say Whoa. Again, what on earth do you want with two Tite suites, when you have two suits of overalls here that just fit you. And that City Girl you got that just won't Don't, you had better come here to Sally Ann, you know she always would listen to anything you said."

-C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

E Company's basketball team was defeated by G Company, in a very uninteresting game played January 25th. Score 50 to 22, and airtight game was expected, but due to lack of co-operation on the part of E Company's team, sport fans were surprised.

Do not intend to underrate G Company's team, they are good and possibly better balanced than E Company's team, but a better fight was expected.

For some reason, E Company's team has lost the old fighting spirit; but it is hoped that same will be found before it is too late. We must end up in the money.

So get going Gold-Diggers.

COMPANY "F" Notice that Pfc. Sandy Billings-

The company has gone in moaning from the loss of their famous athlete Pvt. Myers, Jack M., who transferred to Hg. Co.

LOGGING DETACHMENT

The Logging Detachment out on the Cusseta Road has sprouted recently, among other things, a brand new M. D., or more correctly, a surgeon. The low-down on the whole affair is this:

Sgt. Joe Manuel was approached in a very secret and confidential manner the other afternoon by one Pvt. Guyden, otherwise the Man with the Iron Nerve, who has a very bad case on a certain young lady claiming the post proper as her residence. Guyden had a violent "yen" to rest his eyes on the perfection of all female pulchritude, and, in an effort to transport himself from where he was, (the logging camp), to where he wasn't (the post), decided that Sgt. Manuel, being an expert in such matters, could easily be persuaded to the amputation of one of his (Guyden's) digital units. The idea, of course, being a hasty trip for treatment to the station hospital.

The estimable "Doctor Frog' and the equally respected Mr. Castor Oil were setting the affairs of the political world between them the other day, the main bone of contention being the respective donation of our two main political parties to the welfare and happiness of the Army in general. Castor Oil's claim was for the Democrats, contending that they had accomplished more than the party represented by the baggy and ponderous elephant. And for once Dr. "Frog" agreed with

"Why, certainly" quoth the lat--Rufus Williams, Reporter. ter "Look at the 15% cut."

THE 1934

PLYMOUTH

IS STILL ON DISPLAY

WE INVITE YOU TO COME AND SEE IT AT OUR SHOWROOMS

Patterson-Pope Motor Co., Inc.

1415 First Ave.

Phone 412

American National Insurance Company

GALVESTON, TEXAS

ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT

of

T. FOLEY TREADWAY, GENERAL AGENT.

for

STATE OF GEORGIA OFFICES THIRD NATIONAL BANK BLDG. COLUMBUS, GEORGIA

Morning, Noon and Night You'll find more than 2,000 cold plate lunch combinations at the

Wynnton Delicatessen

'A Retreat for Jaded Appetites'
Fresh Philadelphia Scrapple
Open every Day and Sunday, too, till Midnight

Florida . . .

Following its custom, this firm will expand its facilities in Florida for the winter season. Branch offices are now maintained in Miami, Jacksonville, Miami Beach, Pensacola, Hollywood and Orlando. Give-up orders accepted.

Fenner & Beane

13 West 11th Street, Phone 2272 Columbus, Ga.

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

TWO MORE PROJECTS BEGIN

(Continued from page 1)

106 foot front on Wold Ave., with two wings extending to the south, one on Kilgore Street being 121 feet in length, and the other toward the tank school, seventy feet in length. Each of the wings is to be thirty-three feet in width, with the center section of the building approximately forty feet long by thirty wide.

The first floor of the structure will contain the guard room in the longer wing, with offices for the officer of the day, officer of the guard, and sergeant of the guard, together with a lavatory. toward Kilgore street and extend around the back of the west wing. The center section of the first floor will contain a registration room, vault for records, office for the chief military police clerk, two rooms for noncommissioned officers, a room for the 1st sergeant of the M. P. detachment, a dark room for development work in police photography and fingerprinting, and a shower room and lavatory. The east wing will consist entirely of offices, including one each for the provost marshal, assistant provost marshal, motorcycle squad, prison sergeant, police and prison officer, police and prison clerks, prvost sergeant, room for the call men and an office where a desk sergeant is on duty twenty-four hours a day.

The second floor of the guard house will be used entirely for living quarters for the military police personnel, there being five for fifteen men, recreation room, squad rooms designed to accomfor fiftee nmen, recreation room, odate about eight men each, six four rooms for noncommissioned rooms for noncommissioned officers, a recreation room, shower room, and lavatory.

The center section of the building will have a basement underneath, in which will be the supply office and store-room, a mothproof room for the storage of clothing, boiler room and coal storage room, and a temporary detention room for prisoners. The entire building is to be plastered on the interior, with linoleum laid floors, and be of the most up-todate construction. There are to be two entrances to the provost marshal's section on Wold Ave. one to guard room section on Kilgore Street, and one to each section on the south end of the build-

The veterinary hospital unit, which is to be located in the stable area, near the site of the present buildings, will comprise a barracks building, operating and dressing rooms; a ward building for convalescent animals, and an ambulance garage and parking shed.

The barracks building, or hospital proper, will be of two-story construction, following the same type of architecture as the guard house, seventy-eight feet long by fifty deep, with a thirty-foot open dressing floor for treating slightly injured animals at one end. On the first floor will be located the operating room, dressing floor, pharmacy and storage room, night attendant's room, office, orderly room, record room, and shower and lavatory room. The second for fifteen men, recreation room, four rooms for noncommissioned officers, and shower and lavatory room There will be a rolling steel door opening into the dressing room for passage of animals. In the basement will be the boiler room, and storage room.

The ward building will be approximately 135 feet long by 36 feet wide, with a cart shed at the front entrance. The interior will consist of a number of kennels, six box stalls, eight single stalls, four double stalls, and a colic stall, as well as a grain room, saddle room, hay and bedding room. It will also follow the same type of construction as the guard house, with two rolling steel doors in each side of the building, and one at each end.

The ambulance garage will be an "L" shaped structure with the garage in the long wing, with a rolling metal door at the front, and general dimensions of twenty-seven by forty-four feet. The parking shed will consist of an open-sided shed with tiled roof forming the short wing. This building also follows the same type of construction of the other two.

Work on the two projects will begin shortly after the approval of the award of contract by the War Department.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street THE

Post Exchange

has a

DELIVERY SERVICE

from its

SODA FOUNT

which is designed for the delivery of Ice Cream in small quantities on the Post. The hours of this service are from 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Excellent Curb Service

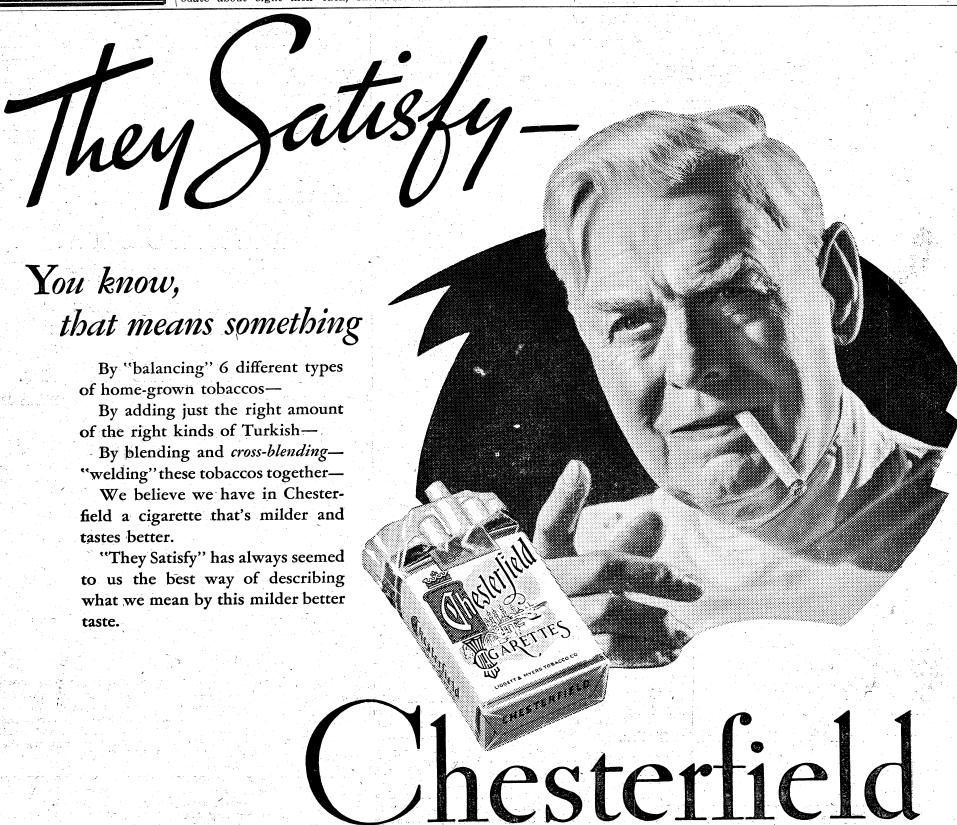

Telephone 69

SODA FOUNT

POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service

the cigarette that's MILDER • the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

Mechanics Course

Opens At Benning

Another large class of enlisted students began work in a motor mechanics course at Fort Benning

Monday morning, under the supervision of the tank section of the Infantry School, the course to continue until the end of the April, up by the enlisted specialists will be the upkeep and repair of motors, trouble-shooting and a general mechanical course that will enable them to make efficient and quick repairs to motorized trans-

The tank battalion of the Infantry School has the largest number enrolled there being 38 students from this organization. They and David H. Mattingly, and Pfc.

Horace Dickerson, Pierce B. Kiker,

Everett L. Kingsbury and Henry

J. Smith, of Headquarters Company, 2d Battalion 66th Infantry

(Light Tanks); Corporals Hubert L. Crow, and Pvt. Samuel Egelnick, Charles A. Sallete, George and Edward P. Allen, of Company D; Corporal William C. Carver, and Privates Theodore A. Glass,

James M. Watson, and Cecil F.

Woodall, of Company E; and Privates James C. Hodge, Norton T.

Thibodeaux, Mack L. Walburn, Thomas E. Harwell, Hugh D.

Bramlett, and Edward M. Mitchell,

Company F 66th Infantry

Company F 67th Infantry (Me dium Tanks) has enrolled Sergeant-Lewis B. Clapsaddle, and Corporals Robert E. Anthony,

Crawford H. McInturff, Joseph T.

Mullen, Alton W. Plemmons, Chas.

W. Segrest, Fred G. Stiegel, Arthur O. Topper, Leonard C. Walls,

M. Bryan, Benjamin A.

Sergeant Thomas J. Gause.

portation in the field.

Included in the studies taken 1934.

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1934

BENNING DAY-BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, February 5-Last week the First Section, with the Fourth Section (Motor) attached, launched an offensive on the Advanced Class with a view to complete befuddlement. This mass attack, consisting of two and a half solid days of marked problems and graded tests, made such a deep penetration all along our front that our line, hitherto well-disposed buckled first into a perfect "U" and then kept on giving until our right and left guides were later discovered deep in enemy territory arguing as to whether or not we had, in the first place, the wherewithal to make a withdrawal with But we digress.

By Wednesday night the first day of exams had spent itself and ourselves with it. At eight A. M. Tactician Hones, ably abetted by the remainder of the First Section, had gathered us unto his bosom long enough to shake us down for a few U's in an oral expression of combat orders. Those he missed in this first inning he caught up with later on in the morning in another one, this time a written quiz on the same subject

By noon we were able to turn to our sandwich-munching and gather ourselves for a new onslaught at one o'clock when the motor storm struck. Colonel Wallace's cohorts had prepared a thirty-six question concoction that Solomon in all his wisdom would fain have flunked. By four P. M. we had developed acute symptoms that Doc Sams later diagnosed as a cross between auto-intoxication and locomotor ataxia. And in this chastened mood we hied ourselves homeward and wired to our "Twins today. More tofriends. morrow."

On Thursday we reported for the second round, an all-morning session as a diagnostician to a Class "B" truck whose ailments were more numerous than an expert hypochondriac could discover from an unabridged almanac. And by the time we had lifted the hood to see if the motor was missing and crawled out from under for the eighth time with a fresh list of shortages each time we were ready to be decorated with a Ubolt. If this motorization thing keeps up we're going to do our bit in the next war as a cam-follower. Friday bright with it another all-day session, a four hour exam in the A. M. and a three-hour session in the P. M. About one more have set in.

Every once in a while the Herald's boggoon man throws us for a loss. And when he does he extracts from our weekly awfulling a left-handed subtlety that we've taken great pains to produce. As witness the meaningless statement concerning Motor Expert Holly figuring mortality rates for spare parts. This good teacher had gone to great lengths to impress on us the mortality rates of spare parts but in an unguarded moment had slipped in the word "morality" in lieu thereof. Our quip, therefore, should have read, "Expert Holly figuring morality rates for spare parts.

(Please turn to page 4)

NATIONAL DEFENSE WEEK

Emphasis Is Placed On Comparative Weakness Of Army As Week Dedicated To National Defense Is Named

aside as National Defense Week in a movement sponsored by the Reserve Officers' Association, with the Columbus-Fort Benning Chapter of the R. O. A. leading the movement and in charge of the campaign for this vicinity. Other organizations of service and exservice men are also taking part in the movement to foster an adequate system of National Defense for this country, and the Benning Herald is proud to lend its support, not only as the servant of the military personnel at Fort Benning, but also as a loyal supporter of any movement for the preservation and protection of this country.

The United States Army is today going through a condition which has faced our Army at every period of history subsequent to war. The National Defense Act of 1920, conceived with the errors of the past and the lessons of the World War fresh in mind, is receiving continually diminishing support. We have a skeleton defense today which bears but slight nature. A primary essential to relation to that prescribed in 1920, and which is totally inadequate for the assurance of national security.

The Regular Army has shrunk from a strength authorized in 1920 of 17,726 officers, 280,000 enlisted men to a present strength of 12,- sult of gradually decreasing funds 000 officers, 118,000 enlisted men. There are but approximately 55,-000 enlisted men in the continental limits of the United States available for assignment to combat organizations on mobilization. The National Guard is less than fifty per cent of the strength audtional Defense Act of 1920, with February 12 to 22 has been set thorized in 1920. The Officers' Reserve Corps, while impressive in number, is inadequately supported in respect to the essentials of training. There is no enlisted reserve.

This condition of weakness in personnel shown, while not generally appreciated by our people, is unquestionably well known to all military experts. This weakness is unfortunately, not confined to personnel. Our reserve of material is also inadequate even for our limited forces, and consists, in the main, of obsolescent stocks of World War equipment. This is particularly true of weapons and motor and mechanical transport. It is dangerous in this time of progress to delay the modernizing of the small army authorized for National Defense. Every army of any importance in the world today is quietly but effectively working toward a rearmament, including the motormechanization ization and their forces. The rapidity and force of the next major offensive may startle the world and secure results decisive in their adequate defense requires that constant effort be made to keep abreast of modern improvement in the mechanics of warfare.

The present condition in which the Army finds itself is the remade available for military purposes, which during the past two years have shrunk approximately 32 per cent The War Department has consistently urged upon the Congress the maintenance of the National Defense under the Nathe following objectives, which are believed to be the minimum assurance of reasonable security:

A Regular Army of a minimum of 14,000 officers and 165,000 enlisted men.

A National Guard of at least 210,000 men.

An Officers' Reserve Corps of at least 120,000 members, at least 30,000 of whom will receive active training yearly.

A Reserve Officers' Training Corps adequate, with other sources, of maintaining the Officers' Reserve Corps.

Citizens' Military Training Camps which will train a minimum of 50,000 youths annually.

The statement has been made by more or less violent partisans of pacifism and disarmament that the cost of our Army should be reduced to what it was in 1914. That is another generalization that will not bear analysis. In 1914 we had an Army aggregating about 100,000 men, and costing $113,000,-000 per year; and when we got into the World War we found that we had to rebuild and reorganize it from the bottom up in order to make an efficient fighting machine. The lessons of the War taught us to build the more efficient military organization which we now have. Today we have an Army of about 140,000 counting the Philippine Scouts, and this year we are spending somewhat less than $290,000,000 on it.

But included in this amount are large sums to support essential organizations and activities that did not exist in 1914. More than $75,000,000 is required annually and Lonnie C. Wiley. (Please turn to page 4) The 83rd Field Artillery has as students Corporal John Nahring, and Private Charles R. Matthews of Headquarters Battery, Private Joseph C. Bougard, Battery A, and Private Clarence E. Sutton,

Battery C.

(Light Tanks).

On the student roster from the 29th Infantry are Sergeant Howell C. Mangum and Privates Richard W. Mitchell, Albert K. Puckett, Douglas R. Eatmon, Rex Carmichael, Daniel W. Huntley, Ernest R. Pearce, John W. Zeine, Emory S. Ward, Thurman T. Ford, all of Service Company. Privates Chas. Madge Carr......Miss Nana Seeley J. Reck, William D. Redmayne,Mrs. Jas. E. Wood and Harry A. Chamberlain, Head-William Carr......Lt. G. M. Nelson quarters Company 2d Battalion, Lt. L. B. Ely pany E, Private Henry N. Entre-Dr. Willoughby.....Lt. J. P. Hulley kin, Company F, Private John V. Rev. Mr. Spelvin... Capt. M. DePass | Hogue, Company G, Sergeant Clarence M. Rogers, Corporal Burton Griffin, and Private Grover M. Carter, and Ty Morris, Cannon Company, and Corporal Arthur A. Dawson, and Privates Richard C. Gunsallus, George H. Wright, Columbus Adkins, Cecil F. Goodson, Robert C. Merritt, Odom Brown, of Company H.

Sergeant Thomas F. Pierce, and L. Chapman, Roy E. Boogs, Wayne and Oscar L. Duncan Jr., are enrolled from Company C 2d Chemical Regiment; Private Robert G.

(Please turn to page 8)

CLUB PRESENTS THIRD SHOW

"Stop Thief" Selected As Third Production Of Current Season By Infantry School Dramatic Club

the Main Theater, the Dramatic Club of the Infantry School will current season, "Stop Thief" the sparkling farce written by Carlyle

There is little that can be said of the ability and talent of the of these and rigor mortis would Infantry School Dramatic Club which has not already been repeated many times over. It has shown for many years in the past that it possesses to an unusual degree the organization and material with which to stage successfully the most difficult plays, and the undoubtedly be an added feather in the caps of the Benning actors.

Concerning the play itself, your reviewer was forced to content himself with but a list of the fantry School Dramatic Club, and characters and wait until opening night to see what it will be like. It is very well cast. That is evident at first glance to those who are familiar with the talents of the Benning players. Not many of them have appeared on the made in selecting characters for plays in the past leads us to bepresent its third offering of the lieve that this one should prove no exception in acting ability, in stage performance and in general smoothness of action.

Likewise, the work of the varistage-managers, propertymanagers and those in charge of make-up and costumes has lent to the former productions a finished air which is rarely matched in amateur theatricals. We have in mind, of the more recent performances, the stage scenery of "The Road to Rome" and "The comedy will be shown tonight will Bad Man," both of which showed excellent taste and conception in their general appearance. have not yet noticed anything amateurish in the work of the Inwe are confident that in "Stop Thief" we will not break this record.

A detailed description of the large cast would not be of any particular advantage at this writeup, and for that reason we will boards of the Main Theater be-compromise by merely listing the F. H. Lanahan.

Tonight and tomorrow night at fore, but the remarkable record cast of characters, which are as follows:

Joan.... ...Miss Kenneth Kendall Mrs. Carr...Mrs. Ephraim Peyton Caroline Carr.....Miss Maxine Rife James Cluney Lt. R. C. Brisach Private William T. Ritchey, Com-Mr. Jamison... Jack Doogan Capt. R. C. Hamlett Joe Thompson.....Lt. J. J. Pospisil Sgt. of Police Capt. Wilbur Elliott Police Off. O'Malley. Lt. Mackin Police Officer O'Malley

Lt. W. R. Mackinnon Police Officer Clancy

Lieut, Arthur B. Foreman Police Officer O'Brien

Lieut. J. A. Cleveland, Jr. A Chauffeur Capt. J. E. Wood Privates James L. Stallings, Joney The President of the Infantry School Dramatic Club is Lt. Col. H. Glasure, Clifford E. Sheppard Elmer F Rice, the vice-president is Major Thomas B. Catron, the director, Mrs. Herbert A. Wadsworth, the business manager, Capt. Franks, from Flight B 16th Obser-Harvey J. Golightly and the assistant business manager is Lt. L. Barnard, and William C. Power,

EMISOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Marriage Of Miss Welty To Lt. Howard Solemnized At Impressive Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Welty and Lt. Charles Edward Nason Howard Jr., which was solemnized Wednesday evening at the Protestant Chapel was one of dignity and beauty. The full military ceremony was performed in the presence of friends in military and civilian circles.

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

EAT PLENTY

Kinnett's Ice Cream is one thing that you can never get enough ofbecause it is healthful as well as delicious and tempting. Eat it whenever you want it-it cannot hurt you in any way.

Sold at POST EXCHANGE and the OFFICERS' CLUB

The chapel was decorated with stately palms and graceful southern smilax. The altar was draped in white and festooned with smilax, at each end were tall pedestal baskets of pastel colored gladioli. From the altar, burning tapers cast a soft glow of light.

As the guests assembled, the 29th Infantry orchestra rendered nuptial music. To the strains of the wedding march the groomsmen entered forming two lines of three each at the altar. They were Lts. Sidney Wooten, Daniel Walker, James Herio, Arthur Cobb, Robert Neeley and Sidney Brown.

Mi's Kenneth Kendall, the bride's only attendant was maid of honor. She was lovely in a rose crepe gown fashioned with a jacket, the long skirt forming a train. Her hat and shoes were silver. She carried a bouquet of pink and yellow rose buds and freezias interspersed with palma violets. The bouquet was tied with pastel shaded satin ribbon.

Miss Welty made an exquisite bride as she entered on the arm of her father, Major Maurice D. Welty. She was met at the altar by Lieut. Moon, and Lieut. Robert Ports. She was gowned in her mother's wedding dress of ivory satin and point de venice lace. A long pleated train formed the skirt. A tulle veil was caught to her head by a lace cap. Over the veil fell a lovely panel of lace.

Her old-fashioned wedding bouquet was of white rose buds and lilies of the valley.

As the bride and groom left the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the groomsmen formed an aisle of drawn sab-

Following the ceremony a reception was held by the bride's parents at the Polo Hunt Club. The club was attractively decorated with palms, smilax and baskets of early spring flowers in pastel shades.

A receiving line consisting of Major and Mrs. Welty, Col. and Mrs. C. E. N. Howard, parents of the groom, Richard Welty, of Queensburg, Penna., grandfather of the bride, the bride and groom and members of the wedding party.

her flowers were freezias and rose

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over satin. Her cake was a lovely three tiered affair embossed in rose buds, which she cut with her husband's sabre.

During the evening the bride changed to her traveling suit of beige tweed with fox fur. Lt. and Mrs. Howard will be at home after the first of March at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

ENGAGEMENT MISS MOORE TO LIEUT. STOUGHTON IS ANNOUNCED

Of wide spread social interest throughout military and civilian circles is the announcement of the engagement and coming marriage of Miss Marguerite Ann Moore to Lieutenant Robert Stoughton, of Fort Benning. Miss Moore, the charming and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parker Moore of Dallas, Texas, has resided at Fort Benning for the past three years with her uncle and aunt, Major and Mrs. Hugh C. Gilchrist. During this time, she has been a great addition to the younger set. Miss Moore attended the Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. Lieutenant Stoughton is the son of Mrs. Anna Stoughton of Spanish Villa, Peanette, Pennsylvania. He graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, with the class of 1930 and is at present assigned to the Company Officers' Course as a student. Miss Moore and Lieut. Stoughton plan to be married in the early part of June.

MRS. HUGH C. GILCHRIST HONORS BRIDE-ELECT AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Hugh C. Gilchrist was hostess last Thursday at a beautifully appointed luncheon announcing the engagement of Miss Margue rite Moore.

Those present at the luncheon were Misses Betty Welty, Alice Churchill, Gertrude Hannah, Nana Seeley, Betty Williams, Athleen Munson, Elizabeth Munson, Marge Hall, Esther Kelly, Molly Goodwin, Maxine Rife, Maybelle Easley, Elizabeth Wells, of Savannah, Kenneth Kendall, Eleanor Bonesteel, Mrs. G. E. McConnell, and Miss Sue Hardenbergh of Fort Hamilton, N. Y.

REGIMENTAL LADIES BRIDGE CLUBS MEET

The Artillery Ladies' Bridge Club held its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the attractive quarters of Mrs. George H. McManus, with Mrs. McManus and Mrs. George F. Crosby as hostesses. Three tables assembled for contract bridge at two thirty o'clock and tea was served at four thirty. Winning highest score for the afternoon was Mrs. William C. Lucas.

The 29th Infantry Officers' Club building was the scene Tuesday afternoon of the 29th Infantry

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

Manuscripts, Monographs and other work typewritten-40c per thousand words. Experienced military typist. Clean work guaranteed. Phone 3461-M, City.

WANTED-by educated, cultured widow, position as companion, hostess or housekeeper. Address Mrs. Margaret P. Smith, P. O. Box 270, Opelika, Ala.

Mrs. Welty, the bride's mother, Ladies' Bridge Club with Mesdames Donald C. Faith, Chester D. Haisley, Joseph I. Greene, Mrs. Howard wore black lace, claude B. Ferenbaugh, Thomas R. er flowers were freezias and rose Hannah, David W. Gray, Francis E. Gillette and Walter A. Huntsberry serving as hostesses. Seven tables of progressive contract bridge were played, with Mrs. Earle A. Johnson winning the first prize, Mrs. James E. Purcell was second and Mrs. E. F. Hill, third. Tea was served to the bridge players and several tea guests at four

POLO HUNT CLUB SCENE SAT-URDAY EVENING OF DANCE

Lieut, and Mrs. George H. Mc-Manus and Mrs. George F. Crosby were the joint hosts Saturday evening when they entertained at a delightfully informal dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. For this occasion the Club was decorated in red hearts and big red cupids with bows and arrows in the true Valentine motif. The 24th Infantry orchestra played for the dancing. The hosts had as their guests

(Please turn to page 3)

THIS TIME make surt of REAL ÉCONOMY

At Silver's you get a guarantee of economy which is not often given-just your entering the store is enough to assure you of more than you ever had. Why not shop here and make your budget-building easi-

SILVER'

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

A Store For Everyone

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

$ 550,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building.
Fort Benning Representive—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Add A Little SPICE To Life!

Do you plod along with the same old menus every week knowing exactly what you're going to have for Thursday breakfast or Saturday lunch? Or do you vary your meals a bit—as you can when you grocery shop here? Add a little spice to life—drive by here and let us show you how you can really enjoy your meals.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service.

40 REASONS:

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHILI

FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

SOCIETY

members of the younger set. Many delightful informal supper parties were held preceding the dance. Entertaining were: Capt. and Mrs. Samuel L. Buracker, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles T. Lanham, Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Decker, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis B. Rutte and Lieut. and Mrs. Harold L. Mace.

REGULAR MONDAY EVENING BRIDGE TOURNEY HELD

Six tables of contract bridge assembled at the Officers' Club Monday evening for the mixed pairs contract bridge tournament. The results of the evening's play were: North and South, first, Capt. and Mrs. Donald C. Faith with Mr. Calvin DesPortes, second. East and West, first, Colonel William E. Persons, with Mrs. Joseph A. Atkins and Mrs. Henry W. Matchett, second. Plans are being made for the tournament that will be held next Monday evening. This affair will be an organizational team contest.

LT. COL. AND MRS. CHAFFIN HOSTS AT DELIGHTFUL

The attractive quarters of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. A. D. Chaffin was the scene Tuesday evening of a delightful dinner party. The color scheme for the dining table

> Dependable. Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

MEYER'S ALL-IN-ONE improved

LIQUID ROUGE

MEYER METAL & ACID TEST

INSIGNIA & BUTTONS Under ordinary conditions a simple solution of soap suds and household ammonia suffice as a cleanser and polisher; however, where a strong-er and quick acting agent is necessary to do the work we offer ALL-IN-OME LIQUID ROUGE, put up ready to use with dauber included with every bottle. Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons

At Your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MÉYER INC.

was green and white. A large silver bowl of white narcissi and green fern flanked by silver candlesticks bearing green tapers served as the center piece for the

Colonel and Mrs. Chaffin had as their guests for the evening Capt. and Mrs. Henry L. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hill, parents of Mrs. Barrett; Capt. and Mrs. Donald Faith, Capt. and Mrs. Edw. J. Renth, Lt. and Mrs. Clyde Eddleman, Lt. and Mrs. William Stuart, Lt. and Mrs. Joseph Cleland, Lt. and Mrs. Jesse I. Traywick.

After dinner the guests were escorted to the post movies.

OFFICERS AND LADIES OF MEDICAL CORPS HOLD DINNER AT OFFICERS' CLUB

One of the outstanding events of the week was the dinner which was held Tuesday evening at the Officers' Club with the officers and ladies of the Medical Corps as hosts.

The supper table seating fiftynine guests was arranged in the lobby of the club. Vases of pinks, white and lilac snap dragons interspersed by bunches of maidenhair fern served as decorations.

After dinner the post movies were in order.

Serving on the entertainment committee for this enjoyable affair were: Mrs. S W. Matthews and Mrs. H. J. Banton with Mrs. G. F. Aycock as chairman.

PERSONALS

Miss Harriotte Atkins departed Monday for a month's visit with friends at Fort Leavenworth. While away she will spend some time with Miss Molly Brown in Chicago.

Mrs. Selina Waddington left Monday for a month's visit with friends at Fort Leavenworth, Kan-

Miss Kathleen Orndorf of Birmingham, is visiting her brotherin-law and sister, Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Pierce.

Major and Mrs. Vernon Evans have as their house guest the for-mer's mother, Mrs. J. H. Evans of Washington, D. C.

Lieut. and Mrs. Richard T. Mitchell departed Tuesday for Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where Lieut. Mitchell has been ordered for station. En route Lieut. Mitchell plans to visit friends and relatives in Florida.

Mrs. James R. Pierce left on Monday for Fort Leavenworth where she will be the guest of friends.

Major Kramer Thomas, Lewis Griffing and Lieut. James J. Matthews left Monday for Tampa and Miami, Florida, where they will ney and Mrs. W. Hobson. take part in the horse show in those two cities.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Try

dairy products

Ice Cream and Cellophane-sealed Milk

The purest and best you can buy

Foremost Vairies, Inc.,

PHONE 771

Mrs. Seydell Is Heard By Club

The Polo-Hunt Club was the one on Monday afternoon of one of the most interesting and successful meetings of the Infantry School Woman's Club held so far during the year.

Mrs. Phillip Wood presided and called the meeting to order, after which the minutes were read by the secretary and the treasurer gave her report up to date. The president then announced regret the resignation of Mrs. H. J. Banton, who had served most capably as treasurer during the 1933-34 season. This was made necessary by Mrs. Banton's departure from the post. Mrs. Max Talbot was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

A committee, with Mrs. Seeley as chairman, was appointed to investigate the advisability of sponsoring a concert by the Glee Club from the University of Georgia at some time early in April.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned, after which Mrs. Wood introduced Lt. Joseph Greene, who delighted the auditions. Schuman's "Two Grenadand Robert France's "Marie Ann Fenster"; he was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. E. Nel-

The high note of the afternoon's program came with the presentation of the guest speaker Mildred Seydell, feature writer for the Hearst newspapers, who gave a most fascinating talk on "Chats With Celebrities." It is rare to find the combination of brains, beauty and vivacity in one person, but Mrs. Seydell possesses each of these qualities to such a marked degree that her success in any undertaking is assured.

In the words of the speaker "to catch any celebrity one must have the proper bait," so when interso when interviewing that forbidding dictator Mussolini, Mrs. Seydell chose flattery. In the case of beautiful Victoria Marie, at that time queen of Spain, bluff and perfection of costume turned the trick. As we all know the Irish are fond of humor, so when interviewing President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State, a clever story was the bait that opened the way to a most satisfactory chat. Clarence Darrow, the clever and distinguished lawyer, was inveigled into an interview by the bait of curiosity when he arrived to participate in the Scope evolution trial at Dayton, Tennessee.

Mrs. John Corley was hostess for the afternoon, being assisted at the tea table by Mrs. A. Dab-

Literary Section To Meet Monday

The Literary Section of the Fort Benning Woman's Club will meet on Monday afternoon at 2:15 at the Polo-Hunt Club. Mrs. P. S. Wood will preside. Among the interesting books "We Explore London" will be reviewed by Mrs. E. J. Machery. Mrs. C. F. Gee will discuss the recent Russian sensation "Kapoot". Mrs. O. N. Randolph will compare Paul Morand's "Indian Air" with "Tschiffeley's Ride", both of these books give pictures of South American life. Miss Mollie Goodwyn, who spent her Junior year at Smith College studying French at the Sorbonne in Paris will review "Paris to the Life" by Paul Morand and Sidney Dark's "Paris". Mrs. John E. Hull will discuss "Bali" and "Italian Winter", a literary travel book. Mrs. Wood will review other travel books of the season and give some high lights from Peter Fleming's "Brazilian Adventure".

The feaure of the program will be a travel talk by Mrs. Walter H. Wells "Tanker Travel" in which she will tell of her adventures in Europe last summer.

For Spring

NEW KNITS

15.00

$29.75

SPRING

DRESSES

$8.95

$49.50

Whether you like your clothes casual for spectator sports wear (you'll find our new spring knits perfect for that); or whether you like to be dressed to the minute in detail, you'll find your desire at Kirven's. Everything for spring.

Ready-to-wear — Second Floor

THE BENNING HERALD Columbus, Georgia

NO. 42

Published Every Friday

FEBRUARY 9, 1934 VOLUME III

----Publisher A. F. KUNZE
FELICIA C. HOWELL
JACK GIBNEY Society Editor Sports Editor Louis T. Kunze____

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT, SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,

Here's To Your Health

By Major Homer L. Conner, Medical Inspector

MEASLES

Measles is very prevalent in Columbus at the present time.

It is a communicable disease which attacks persons of every age. but particularly children. It is a dangerous disease, chiefly because it is so often followed by pneumonia. The pneumonia may be fatal. Careful treatment and nursing are necessary to prevent this and other complications.

German measles is a different disease. It too is very contagious. An attack of either disease, while not common, may be had more than Measles is transmitted by the discharges from the mouth or nose and is communicable from the sick to the well even before the rash appears.

The first symptoms are usually a cold in the head, the eyes are red and watery and sensitive to light: fever. The rash or breaking out there is a dry cough and some of the skin does not appear until the third or fourth day.

The fact that measles is not recognized until the rash appears, combined with the fact that it is so contagious even before the rash is seen, makes this disease very difficult to control.

Adults who develop measles are, as a rule, much sicker than the

We have many adults at Fort Benning (Estimated 600) who have never had measles. An especial plea is made at this time for your assistance and cooperation in preventing the spread of measles or other respiratory diseases.

Measles as well as all other respiratory diseases, common colds, other indoor gathering where the sore throats, influenza, mumps, are all spread by discharges that more liable to pass it on to you.

come from the mouth or nose.

In the presence of an epidemic, even though you have once had measles it is well to consider that the least symptom of respiratory disease may be the beginning of this disease.

Prevention of the spread measles and all other respiratory diseases is largely a very personal one and depends almost entirely on the curtailment of your own activities as regards work and pleasure whenever you have and for as long as you have a cough or discharge from the nose or mouth.

Social activities should now be curtained. Persons with colds or any symptoms of respiratory disease should not attend theatres or schools.

The spread of all respiratory diseases means contact with someone in the active or contagious stages of those diseases.

Isolate yourself if you have a cough or cold. Do this early. Don't wait until the disease is fully developed. Keep by yourself until the disease is cured.

This is the only means by which measles and other respiratory diseases can be prevented. The more strictly you follow these rules, the more certain you may be that you are not the one responsible for the spread of these diseases to others.

The fact that these are not followed, means that now and for the next three or four weeks every person who has not ha dmeasles should protect himself from contact with other persons as much as possible.

If you have not had measles keep away from the theatre or any thoughtless or careless individual diphtheria, scarlet fever, and etc. with a respiratory infection is

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from Page 1) stenographer at a mail-chute.'

On Tuesday Colonel Bonesteel entertained again with a well-chosen series of weapons demonstrations that merits another citation. During the course of the afternoon it became necessary to transport the class bus-wise from one hill to another. At the debussing end Major Easley, about to begin his explanation, noticed a cloud of dust moving rapidly over the horizon. frantically bouncing along to catch up in time to partake of the new draw up to the already normal hoped for the best, can plod along verse-Elliot.

sized gathering of some thirty odd Such a sentence, which takes a students, and Adolf Waterbury was paragraph now to correct it, and seen to dismount, having been that weakly at best, occasionally caught short at the embussing pulls our punches like a fish—cart point. The usual class greeting to peddler going down hill, crediting such an incident, a backlash of sugus, pugnaciously-speaking, with gestions for future improvement, the description, "He jabs like a left our hero unperturbed as he quist to improve his course, strode forward nonchalantly, saluted the instructor and directed, "You may carry on, Major."

To Gadget then, an orchid for his sang-froid under fire, despite the movement now afoot in his squad to elect one man as his brother's keeper.

On Friday last the news that the First Section had become engaged in a fire-fight gladdened the hearts of the multitude, in hopes that the long-overdue papers on the Estimate of the Situation might pos-

The Student Prints

The recent fire in the First Section caught Dramatist Hones deeply immersed in the correction of the Combat Orders papers. However, the first whiff of smoke was enough to rouse the Major to action. Quickly, TOO quickly, he estimated the situation, and rushed to the phone to report "There's a fire over here," to the operator. Next he bustled bcak to retrieve the papers on which he was working. Time passed, and the smoke grew thicker. Still no fire engines! After 15 minutes Major Hones again made a trip to the telephone. This time he asked for the Signal Officer, with dire plans in his heart towards the tardy operator. But no sooner had the situation been explained, than said Signal Officer calmly cut the now sweltering Major off, with the reminder that the latter had thoughtlessly failed to carry out instructions in Section XIV, par. 5b, Garrison Regulations, on the proper procedure in reporting a fire!

The blaze raged on, but at that failed to consume the now famous Estimate of the Situation" notes? Long overdue, they were promised to be returned Tuesday, but Wednesday still finds them AWOL. Anyway, there's only one "U" in combat orders.

Highlights of the past week include: Mysto Magic McNulty, pulling everything but a white rabbit out of his pocket during the trench 'motar" demonstration, we counted a detonator, fuze, knife, larimper, and finally a box of matches, after he really got going-John Guthrie having lightning strike twice in the same place. He was caught dead on both questions. The class heavyweight doing their exercises three times daily, attempting to comply with instructions from the post surgeon. Johnson, W. P., tried standing on one foot on the scales, but he still weighed just as much. Heimerdinger and his four drop pigeons. And finally that long hard pull Wednesday morning, with only a five minute break, "on the doctor's orders."

our gloomy way, muttering the while like the dark-skinned maid leaving the court-house after losing a divorce suit and the custody of her four pickaninnies as she mumbled, "Jastice, jastice they calls it, and they ain't none of them his'n!"

What-nots: Dire visions, later proved unfounded, of spending Monday's sub-zero grounded under a palsied truck and wondering, with running noses and chattering teeth, how best to keep warm. . . Resulting in a decision to try putting our feet in our pockets and our head under our arm.

. . Birdie Eagles and Pete Bonham teaming up in the best historical map problem to date. . . Waterbury's squad discussing the best method of adjusting their squadleader's timing-gears ... Suggesto improve his course prompted by swollen index fingers at Tactician Hones' exam on oral orders-that his explanations of hiding ground and shooting ground be amplified to include pointing ground. . . Box Jammer Morgan thought fully providing a "Where-Do-We-Go-From-Here" chart, starting backyard rumors of impending orders. . . Secretary Mc-Cabe, able custodia nof the sanctum sanctorum, thoughtfully boosting a morale beset by graded tests and pay-cuts by announcing the latest on pay legislation. . . And

Benning Boasts Bullthrowers

Infantry School Hunt Members To Demonstrate Prowess As Cowboys On Local Cattle boys and rabid fans of the Westto be given a chance to strut their customary pink and blue. to don ten-gallon hats, chaparajos, and swing a mean lasso in a wild-bull

And you heard it right the first

It all began like this. Some time ago, or perhaps it was when the aborigines resident on the site of Fort Benning reservation when it was taken over by the government in '19, departed for the hinterlands of North Highlands and Wynnton, there took up its abode on these hallowed precincts, a herd of cattle. As above stated, whether they came after or before the reservation is beside the point, which is that among said bovine clan there are reputed bulls. Date reports from the tenants in Area No. 1 state that an attempt to drive these avatistic specimens of the barnyard bossy away from a collard patch resulted in one small ngero boy being chased up a persimmon tree where he proceeded to gorge himself into a state of indigestion and colic.

Resolved that these innocent inhabitants shall no longer be forced to flee for their lives, or spend the night shivering beneath the bed while the blood-thirsty beasts stamp and snort around the threshold, the Hunt has put forth a call for cow-boys and horsemen of all manner and means and vato aid and assist in rounding up movie rights.

Wild and wooly drugstore cow-said bovine gentlemen of the aforementioned herd, whereupon ern magazines and pictures are two members of the intended hunt shall proceed to demonstrate their stuff Sunday afternoon, when the ability with the "reata" and tie-Infantry School Hunt doffs its rope.

First to offer his services for the hazardous job was Captain Robert C. Hamlett, Infantry-Reserve, whose recent portrayal of the part of the sun-scorched son of the Sierras in "The Bad Man" made such an impression. All joking aside, Captain Hamlett has had previous experience with a rope, and is much worried over the prospects of his assignment Sun-

It seems in addition to ability to throw a rope, the capturing of cattle, especially of the wild bull variety, requires a horse that knows a little about the subject, and a saddle that is stauncher in construction than the French and McClelland types Also, just any old rope will not do. Just like Paderewski and his piano.

Assisting Capt. Hamlett in his position as Chief Roper and Bull Thrower will be Lieutenant Albert H. Dickerson, who also lays claim to knowing a little about the manner of whirling a lariat. Other self-confessed cow-valets have made themselves known since the announcement of the hunt, and a good time is expected to be had

The hunt will begin at 8:00 a. m. Sunday, returning when, and if, they succeed in corralling the rampant Bull Durham ad.

And a private opinion is that riety, experienced or prospective, Hollywood would pay big for the

National Defense Week

(Continued from page 1)

for maintenance of the Air Corps, us in neglecting reasonable prewithout which an army is not an cautions. If we were to go back army nowadays. In addition the to 1914 we might as well abolish sum of $50,000,000 is needed for direct and indirect support of the be as helpless as a babe against National Guard, the Officers' Reserve Corps, and various phases of civilian training. The World conclusively War demonstrated the need for a modest program of this kind. Deducting these new items we find that we are spending $48 a year more per man than we did in 1914, for a more modern army, equipped with more modern and expensive weapons, and at a higher plane of efficiency. In other words our military budget has increased only because airplanes, chemical warfare, and tanks have come into the picture, every up-to-date military machine.

airplanes and anti-aircraft weapons and by chemicals, but by armed forces in proportion swarms of machine guns, rapid fire cannon, and other intricate and devastating devices of destruction. Preparation for defense against these things costs money—but this does not justify the Army entirely, for we should another nation with modern equipment.

It is a matter of history that the Central Powers had completely disregarded, if not disdained, the American military strength in the years just preceding our entry into the World War. And if the United States had then possessed the skeletonized framework of a strong establishment, suc has we have endeavored to maintain during the past ten years, under increasingly difficult handicaps, there is strong reason to believe that Germany would never and are now essential parts of have provoked this country into that conflict.

We cannot possibly turn back the clock to 1914. Warfare has become complicated, not only by tions of the world with an army of any size, and in percentage of population it ranks forty-fifth. It is a framework upon which, if properly maintained, a large and efficient force could be built up within a reasonable time.

(Please turn to page 8)

Infantry School Detachment

perfect imitation of the country cousin come to town, please call on scribe Gibney, whose specialty is stopping on these lonely roads for perfect strangers, to give a helping hand. Only don't ask him to push you to the gas station.

Among other things that the versatile M. P. section has taken

And the time is rolling closer Marrying the Boss' Daughter."

والمركب للمعين يرفيع ومراكأ الإطفاء

Anyone interested in seeing a | for organization day. Gabby Gable is all in a dither, having saved the money from last year's party to use again, and thus get a step ahead of the boys. Such industry.

Barney (James to you) Knox, who recently returned to our midst from the cold, crool civilian world, is taking a course of instruction in under studying Top-Kick Mowup within the last few days is the ry; hopes of some day occupying art of landscape gardening. If the August seat behind the end more information is desired take desk filling his mind. As an aid a look to your right when going to Barney (James to you) in his discussion, and inquired, "Is that sibly have gone up in smoke. It part of the class?" A pause then is with a feeling of deep regret as everyone eyed quizzically what a rescued and those of us who apparently was an extra-bus load and those of us who apparently was an extra-bus load for the best can plot along. And the time is rolling closer when the part of the class?" A pause then is with a feeling of deep regret is suggested that the Detachment furnish one copy, bound of "From Rags to Riches" or apparently was an extra-bus load along the best can plot along the part of the class?"

And the time is rolling closer when going out the gate and witness the handiwork of the boys, inspired by a tailspin, only to find ourselves draped around the bedpost in a retable to partake of the new mate of the situation might possible to you) in ms out the gate and witness the handiwork of the boys, inspired by a tailspin, only to find ourselves draped around the bedpost in a retable to partake of the new mate of the situation. And the gate and witness the handiwork of the boys, inspired by a tailspin, only to find ourselves draped around the bedpost in a retable to partake of the new mate of the situation. And the gate and witness the handiwork of the boys, inspired by a tailspin, only to find ourselves draped around the bedpost in a retable to partake of the new mate of the sibly have gone up in smoke. It is suggested that the Detachment furnish one copy, beautiful the partake of the

NEWS OF THE SPORT WO

Amateur Boxing

The next to last of the matches in the post amateur boxing tourney were held on last Monday night, when the 2d Battle Kellys downed the 83rd Field Artillery, and the 1st Batt Irish won over the Headquarters scrappers, in both instances by the score of 62-16.

The feature bout of the evening was the set-to between Penland, of Headquarters, and Carpenter of the Irish in the lightheavy section. Both boys represented the best in the leatherslinging line at the post, and possibly in the entire south, and they staged a battle that was a battle from the opening gong.

Floyd of the Kellys won his fight by default in the bantamweights. Reeves, 2d Batt, lasted for one minute and forty-six sec onds of the first round with Whitley, of the 83rd, when he ran into a storm of slaps and punches that stretched him for the count. Whitley looks like the new featherweight champ.

Filipone, 83rd and Phail, 2d Batt, clashed in the lightweight division of the first match. Both boys were of the slugger type, and spent three very earnest rounds trying to rock each other to sleep, with Phail taking a close decision in a last minute rush.

Polewada, 2d Batt, met Wilson, 83rd in the welter class. Wilson, with a deadly right, sent the Kelly fighter to the canvas in the first for a count of nine. Polewada weathered the gale till the bell however, and came back strong in the second to win by a T. K. O. after knocking Wilson halfway through the ropes.

Hiers, 83rd, failed to land a blow on Whatley, 2d Batt, in the middleweight class, before he stopped a right to the button and rested on the canvas for the count of ten in the first round.

Sully, 2d Batt, won by forfeit in the lightheavy class, as did Little, 2d Batt, in the heavyweights.

Wilson, 1st Batt, won his bout by default in the bantamweight division, as did Shaw, of the Irish, in the feathers.

Mann, Headquarters, lost a close decision to Dean, 1st Batt, in the lightweight class, after three rounds of beautiful boxing.

Goss, 1st Batt, stood off at long range after catching a few of Locke's blows on the head that the Pirate's fighter sent his way. Goss' longer reach stood him in good stead, and he won by a T. K. O. in the second.

Basketball Teams Maintain Nearly Same Positions In Intramural Play Round Robin Taken By Benning

ral basketball league have not changed materially since last week the teams maintaining their relative positions, although the 1st Batt Irish and the Tankers have dropped slightly in their percent-

The Tankers and Medicos fought a close first half in their contest last Thursday evening, with the Pill Rollers taking the lead 27-21 at the halfway mark, but McGee, Cotney and White got leose in the last period to crash through with a scoring spree that put the game on ice, 52-40. The second game of the evening, betweent the Headquarters Pirates and the 1st Batt Irish, was another of those heart-breaking contests for the Irish supporters, as they watched their colors sink beneath the Pirates fire in the first half, and go completely under in the second to the tune of 41-31. It was a hard fought game, with the superior team showing its abil-

Friday night the Kellys went on a rampage against the Tankers, playing almost every man on the Thunderbolt squad, and having no trouble in rolling up a 53-37 victory. The Special Units proved ineffectual against the Medicos in the second game, with the Pill Rollers going into the lead 16-11 at the half, and finishing strong in the last period to win 44-23.

Tuesday night the 83rd Gunners gave the Pirates the scare of their lives when they took the lead in the last few minutes of play, and it was only some pretty shooting by the Buccaneers that gave them snatched-from-the-fire win to the tune of 41-30. The second game

Boone, 1st Batt, won by forfeit in the middleweight class.

Burton, Headquarters, met a boy a little too experienced for him in Brady, of the 1st Batts, and took a boxing lesson that lasted for three rounds. Brady won a pretty decision, but Burton was in there all the time trying, and never backing up.

Carpenter and Penland opened their battle nicely, exchanging heavy blows from the start. Penland connected with a right that half-punched, half-knocked Carpenter down, and the Irish battler took a count of nine resting on his knee. Both boys scored heavily throughout the remainder of the round with honors about even Carpenter came out in the second to punish Penland badly on the infighting, but the Pirate sent over several hard body blows and landed with two hard blows to the head as they started slugging. Carpenter saw no profit in this and backed away shooting lefts to Penland's head, and trading at the Penland laid off at long range in the third, and made things hot

Standings in the post intra-mu- | which was the highlight of the week's play in the league, found the Kellys hammering their way to a close victory over the Irish for the second time this year, the score standing 16-14 at the half and ending 39-36.

> Wednesday night the Tankers found easy pickings in the Special Units quintet, easing into the lead in the first 18-13. The Greencords stiffened in the third quarter, but couldn't hold the Tornado and went down to defeat undar a 40-25 score The second game was another exhibition of cool team work and marksmanship by the Headquartres Pirates, who downed the Medicos 45-29.

Scering honors for the league have shifted around quite a bit in contrast to the standings. McGee, of the 83rd, who makes impossible shots from all angles, came through with 28 points in the contest with the Pill Rollers to place him in a tie for first place in point honors, Greeson holding down the other side of the dead-

Standing and scorers are as fol-

Team	Played	Won	Lost	Pct.
Hq. Bn.	11	11	0	1000
2d Bn.	11	10	1	909
1st Bn.	10	6	4	600
Tanks	10	4	6	400
83rd	10	3	7	300
Medicos		2	8	200
Spcl. Uni		0	10	000
McGee, 8
Greeson.	Hq. Bn.			_ 114
Cotney, 8	3rd			102
Snead, 1s
Coen, Hq	Bn.			89
Burgess,
Chamberl	ain, 2d	Bn		89

Cage Lead Still Held By Co. G.

Company F broke the tie with Company E in the 24th Infantry basketball league during the last week and stepped into another with Headquarters company, that being the only change in the league standings. Company G is still out in front by a comfortable margin, with Headquarters and F tied for second place, E and C tied for fourth, B in sixth, Service just staying out of the cellar, and A trailing with a clean slate as far as a win is concerned.

McLarkin accumulated 34 points during the week to retain his hold on scoring honors, while Ellerby added nine to his total to step into the three figure column in points. Johnson, Trammel and Lite retain their respective positions. Loomic standings and seeming

1	. League	standin	gs an	a scor	ers:
	Team.	Played	Won	Lost	Pct.
	Co. G.	6 .	6	0	1000
	Hq. Cc.	6	4	2	667
	Co. F	6	4 .	2	667
	Co. E.	-7	4	3	570
	Co. C	7	4	3	570
ı	Co. B	7	3	4	426
l	Service	6	1	5	167
ı	Co A	. 7	0.	7	000
l	McLarkin	, Co. G			. 139
ŀ	Ellerby,	Hq. Co.			_ 100
	Johnson,
	Trammell	, Co. G			62
	Lite, Co.	C			62
П

for the Irishman, although taking one for every one he landed. Penland scored with a blow to the head that shook Carpenter but he back-pedalled out of danger. Carpenter scored with a right to the body and a right to the head. They traded and Penland alnded two snapping lefts to the head at the

It was Penland's fight by a de-

Malleteers Will

Mallett wielders of the riding set are due to swing into action on French Field at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the first game of a round-robin that will precede the regular spring tourney, and which will run for the remaining three Sundays in this month.

The four teams representing he Freebooters, 83rd Field Artillery and the 24th and 29th Infantry will play under team handicaps, three fourths of the difference being awarded the weaker team. From present indications the Freebooters are the favorites in the series, and look like repeaters for the post title, although the 24th four are offering some strong opposition.

The 29th quartet while retaining several of last year's stars, are not feared as greatly as they have been in past seasons, as they have not hit their stride this year. Cush man, O'Connor, and Westlund, who s playing from the student ranks, have failed to show their last season's fire in the tougher contests, but on the whole have been playing good polo.

The 24th Whites, returning to an active status this year after a wo-year lay-off, have put out a strong combination that has already given considerable trouble to the strong Freebooters, and caused several headaches on the other two teams.

The Gunners are also showing Freebooters (6) an improvement, since their indi- Officials:

Three Places Are Riders At Tampa

Benning horses and riders won three places in the Tampa horse show, held on Wednesday, in which several riders from the Infantry School are in competition.

Major Kramer Thomas riding Howdy, tied for first in the four foot-six jumping class. and took third place in the jump-off at five feet. Blue Point, with Lieutenant Lewis S. Griffing up, tied for 4th place in the same class, but loss on the toss-up.

Middleburg, with Lieutenant James Mathews, 24th Infantry, topside, took fourth place in the ightweight hunters class, and Bluepoint came through for second place in the jumper scurry.

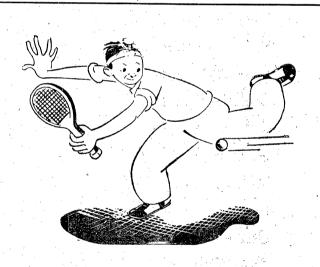

No other entry was made by the Benning team in the Tampa show.

ridual players have gained some experience since last year, most of them were playing their first season.

Schedule for the round robin tourney with handicaps officials of each game is: February 11:

Freebo	oters (6)	vs	24th	(3)
83rd F	. A. (3)	vs	29 th	. (6)
Februa	ry 18:
83rd (3) v	s Freeb	ooters	(6)
24th (3)	vs	29 th	(6)
24th (3)	vs	$_{2}83rd$

29th (6)

GET OUT AND ENJOY YOURSELF

There isn't anyone on the post who wouldn't benefit by getting a little fresh air now and then, and there isn't a better way of getting it than by indulging in some sport.

When you want any kind of sporting equipment, come to the Main Branch. We sell only the best-made by nationally known makers, and we have everything you'll need.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

NATIONAL DEFENSE WEEK

February 12th - 19th, 1934

We're Solidly Behind . . .

Humes

Chancellor Company

Kirven's

Sears Roebuck & Co.

Ralston Hotel

Tom Huston System

Fourth National Bank

Red Bird Cab Co.

F. D. Leebern

Fidelity Loan & Inv. Co.

Collins Baking Co.

Cols. Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

G. & H. Paint & Glass Co.

Metropolitan Cafe

Robinson Radio Service Co.

United Oil Corp.

The White Co.

Dolan-Henry Hat Shop

Thweatt & Son Furniture Co.

The Cricket

H. Rothschild

Schuessler's Kash & Karry

R. M. Harding

Wells Dairy Co.

Lady Jane Shops

Columbus Bank & Trust Co.

Maxwell Bros. & McDonald

Burrus Motor Co.

Max Rones

Muscogee Motor Co., Inc.

Conn Radio Service

Everidge's Bakery

The ARMY

This coming week is National Defense Week. We who are listed on this page wish to congratulate Fort Benning, and through it the whole Army, on its having achieved so much during the past year and express a sincere wish for even more during that to come.

We fully realize the tremendous importance of the Army in our National Defense, particularly at a time like the present, when the political and economic world is in a condition nearly approaching chaos.

We therefore wish to lend our full support to the Army and to Fort Benning, and urge that everyone do the same on every occasion. Now is the time to guard our Army's strength and ability most carefully, so that it will be kept at the greatest possible peak of perfection.

Mrs. Foster Wins First Place

Mrs. Robert T. Foster, playing 9 holes of golf with only a brassie, took first place in the ladies one-club tourney held at the Officers' Club links last Wednesday morning, coming in with a score of 46. which with her 5 handicap strokes, gave a score of 41 to win. Second place in the first flight went to Mrs. Lloyd H. Cock

The tourney was held as one of a series of novelty contests arranged for the feminine golfers of the post during the winter season, and consisted of playing nine holes of golf, using any one club selected by each competitor. After once tee-ing off, there could be no change of club until the ninth hole shots, pitches, putting and driving had been played, the approach all being done with the one stick.

First place in the second flight went to Mrs. William T. Fitts, Jr., with Mrs. H. B. Lewis taking second. First place in the third flight was won by Mrs. Julius Newgord, with Mrs. Clyde H. Selleck second.

Mrs. Foster was unusual in her choice of club, as the majority of the contestants elected to play with mid-irons.

A. W. O. L.

ORDNANCE COMPANY
MEDICAL DETACHMENT
MOTOR TRANSPORTATION CO.
MOTOR REPAIR CO.
LOGGING DETACHMENT

29th Infantry

HEADQUARTERS CO.

Members of the company were glad to see themselves in action in the movies last week at the main theatre. Training Film No. 13, of Infantry Signal Communications of a Regiment in Attack, was made here during last Easter. This will be shown all over the army. Sergeant LaBonte and his message center was the center of attention.

The Battalion bowling team, composed of Sgt. LaBonte, Private first class Bitala and Red Burns are traveling along in first place now in the post bowling league. The men are making the highest scores in the post league.

John Falk, mess sergeant, has come out again 3rd high in the post in the mess rating for the month of January and was high in the 29th Infantry.

The following men have passed the Red Cross course in First Aid and have been awarded certificates: Sgt. LaBonte, and Sgt. Hayes, Corp. Fuller, Keene, Hamilton, Richardson, Pressley and Pfc. Bozeman. The Regimental Commander stated that he was highly pleased with the results of this work and feels that both the man and the company will benefit from the knowledge gained.

Corp. Keene and Thomas are the new corporals in the company. Sorry to lose McLendon and Hamilton by transfers.

Sergeant Jimmy Hayes, Chief of radio section in code construction has been recuperating on a furlough for the past month and a half at his home in Tampa, Florida. He was star quarterback of the Regimental Football team, dislocated his shoulder in the last game of the season and has been resting up since. Expects to start out this week with the Battalion Basket Ball League, Ringenberg, one of the outstanding men of the company, famous for his handball, says the thought that makes him happy is; "The Lord is my shepherd and I shall not want, and if I am weak and you are strong to you the braver deeds belong.

CANNON COMPANY

The Cannon Company has made a wonderful improvement in the Day Room by the addition of two large comfortable lounging settee's and several chairs, and soon we hope to have the contemplated lighting system and probably a new radio. When it's all fixed up it will be one read about and sel-

The Company Commander discovered a fire in the Academic Area the other afternoon on his way home. He gave the alarm and was soon followed by half the Company to the scene of the fire, who by the time the fire department arrived had the fire under control and had moved all important papers and files out of the building. Not throwing roses on anyone but it is believed that the alertness and fast working on the part of the Cannoneers probably saved the whole building.

All who witnessed the fights last Monday night could readily see that it was duel between the Cannon and First Battalion, and even though we did come out on the mall end, we boast of being game and keeping the old ball rolling until the rest of the Headquarters Battalion gets over the measles. Old standby "Chief" Penland, came through with a victory which was one of the best fights exhibited this season.

During the nast week the Company has been test firing with a sub-calibre device for the 37 MM gun. This device was developed by Captain Kelly of the Dept. of Experiment and the Ordinance at the request of the Company. It is very valuable training and permits firing at fixed and moving targets. The ordinary ammunition allowance does not permit sufficient training in firing and particular firing on moving targets but this new device promises to be a great aid in developing anti-tank gunners. Gob Hamer and Slats Parsons have been having lots of fun chasing the moving targets over the Terrain.

-Henry E. Taylor, Jr.

SERVICE COMPANY

All is quiet on this side of the cuartel. Pfc. (Pop-eye) Sizemore after getting relieved from duty with the C. C. C. finally got away on furlough. Pfc. Trigg returned on Tuesday from his reenlistment furlough having spent the entire furlough in Tennessee. Here's hoping that the Wagon Transportation Platoon will find someone to relace the Honorable Paul M. J. Crane, their prize member, while he rests up at the hospital.

Sgt. Doctor T. Harrison has been ransferred to the Motor Section from the Animal Section. Good uck, "Doc," don't run any of the puddle jumpers" into the trees.

It is understood that there will be a new addition to Garrison Regulations in regards to running over fire hose. Wonder just who is the cause of this.

—"Нарру"

REGIMENTAL MACHINE-GUN COMPANY

Hello, everybody! Come up and see us sometime and get the measles.

New experimental boots were issued to the company and they are going to be well liked.

Watch out for plenty of news notes in the next issue.

James Brown, 1st Sergeant.

COMPANY "B"

Company "B," 29th Infantry, is pleased to announce the arrival of two new oficers, First Lieut. James R. Davidson, and Second Lieut. Walter A. Huntsberry. Lieut. Davidson came from the 24th Infantry. Lieut. Huntsberry has been attached to Regimental Headquarters Company since his assignment to the Regiment.

Among those recently assigned to the Company include Privates John Motes, from Goshen, Alabama, enlisted January 27, 1934; John Parr from Damascus, Georgia, enlisted January 23, 1934; Bobbie Renfroe from Milledgeville, Georgia, enlisted January 23, 1934; and Floyd Howler from Company "L", 30th Infantry, reenlisted January 25, 1934

Members of the Company who have recently returned from fur-lough are Privates Percy Daw and Aubrey Melvin. Private Daw spent a 30 day furlough with his mother in Frisco City, Alabama.

Private Melvin was also given 30 days which he spent with his parents in Altha. Florida.

The Company continued its good record of 1933 by again qualifying 100 per cent in bayonet training;

COMPANY "C"

After 10 months of freedom, we are again quarantined for an indefinite period of time, but we hope that we don't have any more measles cases as all of the house boys are hurting since they can't leave quarters. "Deuce Wild" Jackson and "Hollywood" Dickerson are well satisfied with the quarantine, as their deuce wild game draws a full house (mostly sweaters).

Bayonet instructor Sergeant "Pug" Dev is now in the hospital due to an accident received while on the bayonet course. He says he fell and bruised his knee, but we think the real reason is that after running the course and getting the water on his knee hot and instead of the usual "Woof, Woof", he took a break and the sudden change of temperature froze the water and left "Pug" with a stiff knee.

After leading the regiment for Commanding Officers' orderlies for 1933 with 108 orderlies, we are still showing great improvement in any thing that we undertake and we hope to be on the top at the end of 1934. Let's keep up the good work, boys.

-"Punchy" Able -"Bill" Owings.

HDADQUARTERS COMPANY FIRST BATTALION

After being marked A. W. O. L. for a week (this Company news column, not the reporter), we will fall back in step and blab to the dear readers the short and long comings and news of current interest for this organization.

At last members of this outfit are showing signs of the delightful Georgia spring which is in the offing and the old volley-ballers can be seen in action most any day during the afternoon respites from duty. Venture to say that this company has the best volleyball sextet in the Post and if anyone would like to dispute this, kindly call 604, 1st Bn. Hq. Co. and make arrangements with Corporal Stolier, Viva la volleyball!

Now for a little dirt on some certain fellows who have not exactly been behaving themselves lately: Won't someone please ask Corporal Hobbs who Rosa Lee is and where he met her at. Maybe it was at the President's Ball at the

(Please turn to page 8)

Star Brand Shoes are Better

Men's Oxfords

Gun Metal Blucher Oxford. All sizes. Star Brand, of course!

$2.65

Black Oxfords

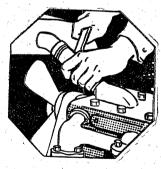

Black Calf Blucher Oxford. Built-in Arch. Rubber Heels. Tan, too.

$3.95

SAM NEEL'S

SHOE DEPARTMENT
Westbrook Building

Make Your Car A Means of Pleasure!

Don't allow it to spoil your leisure hours!

Your car can be a source of much annoyance to you at times, and it always picks a time when it is needed most. It can be, however, the most useful and enjoyable thing you have—IF you take proper care of it. Avoid breakdowns by using which consists of thirty-three different mechanical operations, a thorough cleaning inside and out and a thorough lubrication. Drive by today, and take no chances.

Our DeLuxe Service

We are equipped and prepared to do painting work on all automobiles.

AUTO DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Any Person Not In The Military Service.

News From The Organizations -:-

83rd F A

HQ., HQ., BATTERY, & C. T.

Sergeant Dodd has returned to the batter for duty after a long vacation with the C. C. C.'s at DeFuniak Springs, Fla. Sgt. Dodd is glad to be back with the battery again.

Recruits are coming in very fast these days. The battery is now over strength but we can use all the men that we can get hold of as the artillery always has lots of work to do. Hope that the recruits will carry out their duties to the best of their ability.

Still waiting for the latest dope on Motor Transportation. From all reports the Service Section will be metorized with about 11 trucks and two station wagons. The rumor must be true as we are sending an N. C. O. and one Private to the Tank Motor School for instructions.

Private Cutrer is still in the limelight regarding his social standing in town. Very sorry to hear that the old Log Cabin burned down and the furniture destroyed and hope that the surveying officer will survey the property and that you will be relieved of the responsibility. Wonder what Exhibit "A" will look like?

BATTERY "A"

The battery has had two men return from C. C. C. duty this week; Pfc. Lamb and Pfc. Forroux, after an absence of several

Cpl. Peter Brown was discharged February 6, and couldn't wait until the next day to re-enlist.

BATTERY "C"

The game on the reservation get a break last Friday, when the famous hunter set out to bring in the game from area number 1; only to find that the gun which he was using would not fire, and as he states, the gun snapped five times while rabbits were running circles around him. Nice alibi, sergeant, but we firmly believe that you forgot to load the blunderbuss.

The following day this huntsman, none ohter than C Battery's stable sergeant, set out to hunt quail in Columbus, where he bag-ged five of them. This, of course, was a new hunting area that few people knew about

The Battery saddler is confronted with the prbolem of preparing a saddle for the mess sergeant. Although none of the saddles are in the shop that could be made longer and wide enough so as to allow a pillow or so for padding.

Can't say enough for the fighting squad of Battery C, which is representing the Battalion in the Post Amateur Boxing Tournament and the way they stay in there and battle it out with whoever

they meet

Somewhere in South Carolina plans are being made for the homecoming of the Supply Sergeant who has not been home in of their son and husband, Herbert about seven years. He will not Gause. leave Benning until the 10th so Amo as to allow completion of plans.

The happiest minutes of Champ

Clark's life are when he has his feet cocked on the top of the desk in the day-room and is talking to his girl over the telephone.

NATIONAL DEFENSE WEEK

(Continued from page 4)

Students of the national defense today, however, state that this skeleton framework is weakened far below the limit of safety, and they are practically unanimous in their opinion that we cannot afford to abandon, or permanently and drastically to reduce, the present program until the world is definitely organized to settle all international disputes by amicable means.

TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 7)

Country Club. Also enquire about Pfc. Weaver's nap on the springs of a certain bed in a local hostelry and who the Swedish dame was he met recently. Maybe she just bane come from Minnesota. Ha!

Try to get down to brass tacks now and tell who is on furlough. et cetera. Sgt. James Davis has departed for 90 days after erenlisting for his old organization here. Sgt. Albert L. Bagley is on detached service at the Motor Repair Shop. Privates Orris Helms, Wayne L. Howard and Edward L. Bankston have also left for their homes on 30 days vacations.

Auf Weidershen until next Fri-

-N. H. H.

COMPANY "D"

Corporal King has been making week-end trips to Atlanta almost every week and always comes back wearing a big smile. Something must be very entertaining in Capitol City for the Corporal.

"Knock-Out Ghost" Ghastly has been detailed for duty with the Bugle Corps to fill the vacancy caused by Private Eaton, who is transferred to Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Alabama.

Corporal Register returned from town the other day with a badly scratched face. He stated that he was involved in two or three fights, but it leaked out that he was merely trying to eat with a fork while under the influence of intoxicating beverage.

Sergeant Wilbourn has had a new radio installed in his room, and is having lots of company to help him enjoy the "Mountain Music that is very popular among the "Hill Billies".

-T. R. H.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY SECOND BATTALION

Some good news this week; the Company was complimented by the Battalion Commander on their general appearance and drills at the Parade Saturday. They were also complimented by the Battalion Ex. Officer, on Monday, on their drills.

Corporal Harry L. Blackburn has recently reutrned from 30 days furlough, way down in Alachua, Fla., the City of Sunshine. Harry reported a very nice time, while in the old home town. Sorry to report that he has met with an accident since returning from furlough, and is now recovering in the station Hospital.

Private Hurschel Handley has large enough for him, there is one also recently returned from 30 days furlough. Hurschel reported the situation well in hand, and immediately put in a request for discharge.

Short on news this week, but will try and do better next week. -John H. Newsome.

COMPANY "F"

The oficers and enlisted men of this organization join in offering their heartfelt sympathy to the Gause family in the bereavement

Among the new men recently as signed to this company for duty are John M. Minter, George Cullom, Leroy P. Rogers, Albert W Butler, and James C. Dixon.

The men of the company want to take this chance to welcome our new Mess Sergeant, "Swede' Oikari. He has surely been feeding us well and every one should cooperate by saving in every way possible and keeping good order in the Mess Hall. He will sure ly appreciate it.

Sgt. Henry Mathews is back to duty after spending a rest period at the Station Hospital. He claims he got out with half time for good behavior.

"Red" Gibbs went to the country visiting and guess what—he fell in love and is actually writing should be impossible for him.

love letters and going to the picture show.

Latamore James Polk is looking very much pleased these days. There is a big bunch of recruits just assigned to the company and he is trying to figure which is the best way to "snow" them under.

One of the cooks, Pfc. Jennings Brown baked a cake the other day and is afraid to give his second cook the recipe for fear he will beat him out of his job.

Another of the cooks, Junie Borders, who is on a furlough, comes out every day or so to get some good eats, while he has nothing to do with the cooking of them.

The company has been under way with it's annual bayonet training the past week. The men are really enjoying it for Capt. Faith has been having doughnuts and coffee sent out every morning, and does it hit the spot? And how! "Whimpy" King believes he could run the course O. K. if he could only remember to fix his bayonet before starting.

The Second Battalion Basketball team is going great and as everyone knows the coach is First Sergeant E. C. Davis.

-Slim.

COMPANY "F"

Lieutenant Bache has been relieved from duty with Company F and has been assigned to Regimental Headquarters Company The Company joins in wishing him much success in his new duties.

Lieutenant Fuqua has been placed on special duty with the Post Inspector for six weeks.

Sergeants Thompson and White, who were discharged during the past week have re-enlisted and are on furloughs.

Loren T. Honeycutt has enlisted with the Twenty-Ninth Infantry and has been assigned to Company

The Company Jester

Col. Sims E .- "Why did your people name you Bill".

Cpl. Sims W.—"Because I was born on the first of the month".

Cop-"Say, what are you looking for in that gutter Soldier?" "Gimp" Bennett-"I dropped a Cop-"Are you sure that is the place you dropped it".

"Gimp"-"No, I dropped it on Second Avenue".

Cop-"Then why are you look ing here. This is First Avenue."
"Gimp"—"There is more light

COMPANY "G"

"HC", after working himself into a "strain" to get-show tickets for his lady loves who were to meet him at the soda fountain at six, finally gave up waiting at eight o'clock. Never mind, Nick, you can take yourself just that many more times, now that you have made the grade with the tickets.

Saw a prominent amateur pug and his weakness attempting to find solitude at the dance in Columbus, Saturday, to escape the sharp tongue of well meaning friends who seem to take his love affair less seriously than he is inclined to do.

Since speaking of amorous adventures, it was noted that "BC" found a "Million Dollar Baby in the Five and Ten", and came back to Camp with his pockets full of her "Popular Wares"

Observed that Private Miller who has recently joined the Company, after having had a number of years service in China, has succeeded in mastering a good portion of the language of that Country. In our opinion, if he is capable of such an accomplishment, nothing

The painters are putting the finishing touches on the barracks now and the squad rooms show a decided improvement. The members of H Company are going to be proud of their new home.

Hank Waldo is back from the Everglades, where he has been on CCC duty. The wild look is gradually fading from his pan as he grows more accustomed to the civilized world.

The measles epidemic has cramped the style of a few of H company's most ardent town-goers, they can easily make up for it when the ban is lifted, however.

Hubert Wells, 'mustache' man, is the genuine article at last. For the past several months he has performed ably and efficiently the duties of corporal and now that he has been promoted—congratulations.

Shorts: Tree Pyles had to pay extra on a tailor-made suit on account of excessive elongation of his carcass. Things to avoid: the mad scramble for white shirts on the eve of a parade-Sunday toursguys who want to borrow a show fare ('til I draw some') -And see you next week.

-Steve.

C. W. S.

CO. "C" 2ND CHEMICAL REGT. The 2nd Chemical Regiment, all of which is inactive except Co. "C" will soon blossom forth with their new Regimental insignia. The coiled copperhead is no reflection on the sobriety of the Chemical It means poison to the troops. This Company is to be enemy. completely motorized and will soon receive ten new trucks. Seven members are now taking a course at the tank school in order to handle them efficiently.

We have just finished the training of the post personnel in defense against Chemical Warfare. After becoming proficient in the use of the Gas Mask all troops were, marched thru tear gas and even the most hardboiled men broke into tears when the masks were removed.

The Company will say good bye to the old tents in a few days and move into the barracks now occupied by Battery "C", 83rd F.A. We probably won't know how to act in permanent buildings. The patter of the rain and the howl of the wind will be missed. One becomes attached to the old tents, believe it or not.

Sgt. Jarvis just completed a course for non-commissioned officers at Edgewood Arsenal, Md. and was given a three months re-enlistment furlough which he is now spending with Mrs. Jarvis, at Troy, S. C.

Private Lucas, also a member of this organization, was given a three months re-enlistment furlough which he is spending with his pals in Columbus.

Tankers

Welcome to all of the new officers who have joined the battalion during the past week. May your tour of duty with the Terrible Tankers be one of the best that you have ever had.

Congratulations to Private First Class Bryant Griffin and Marion Glisson, both of Company "D" who have recently been appointed to the grade of corporal. We wish you fellows the best of success in the grades recently attained.

Sergeant Bingham says that he is still in the belief that Sergeant Ivy did not take his girl straight home. I too, doubt it, Bingham, and if I were you I'd do a little prowling around and find out a few things. We warn you tho' to beware.

Old man Love up in Headquar-

Q. M. D.

Detach-The Quartermaster ment's supply of Staff Sergeants Taylor will soon be increased. The present Taylor of the third grade is Marshall E., who-through concentration and plenty of spinachmanaged to land No. 1 on the eligible list in the fall of 1932 and jumped pronto from corporal to the first three grades.

The second Staff Sergeant Taylor is James B., who will soon report to this post from Fort Adams, R. I. He is being sent here as replacement for Staff Sergeant Clair E. Herron, who was recently transferred to Benicia Arsenal, Calif-Staff Sergeant Herron's home is in California, and while on furlough in the land of oranges and Mae West, could not bear to leave his home state. He submitted his transfer application, which was approved without difficulty. He was one of the youngest first three grade men in Fort Benning and made many friends during his tour of duty here.

Recently the strength of the detachement was increased from 112: to 117 by the transfer of five new men from other organizations in the post. These men are Privates Louis B. Anthony, Alfred P. Boucher, John P. Coogan, Noah H. Holbrook, and Grady E. McLendon. Many other transfer applications have been submited but could not be favorably considered due to a lack of further vacancies.

The detachment's first sergeant recently returned from a furlough in which he visited several points north, including New York. Full report of First Sergeant Gross' activities is lacking, but it is expected that he will soon apply for quarters on the post.

ters Company told the Personnel Sergeant Major that he had every thing fixed. He certainly did!

Wonder who it was who after drinking three glasses of tomato juice said to the fair young waitress, "Just bring me another whole pitcher full of that stuff-it is the best drink that I have had since the night before."

Abie "Big Shot" Thomas pulled a fast one the other day. He was on pass thru Thursday noon but Wednesday was pay-day so Abie had to come out to get his herds. The quarantine for measles had just taken effect so when he went in to get his pay the Company Comander asked him if he had ever had the measles? Bloomberg was in a hurry to get back to town so he said, "Yes, Sir, I had 'em on both sides." You know, measles on both sides. Well, said the Company Commander, "You just had to tell one lie before you got out of here didn't you? SCRAM!

From the fair city of Columbus, Georgia comes the sad tale of the little girl who had been informed that the soldiers of the post had been put under a quarantine for a period of thirty days. Said she, to the one and only "Square Head", "Boy, what you'se doin' down here when you'se knows good and well that you'se has done bin put under 'canteen' for thirty days? You'se sho' bettar get back to the Fo't in a hurry or I won't be seein' you'se for six months as dey will have you'se in 'canteen' under that Fo't Benning jail." And all of the time "Square Head" had us believing that he was rushing a dear little school teacher off her feet. "Just goes to show what facts will reveal," says detective Tobe Sweat.

Then there was the corporal who said, "Ed, I don't know what I have done or said this time; but whatever it is I apologize." Nuf' said!

News From The Organizations

Engineers

COMPANY "A"

Santa Claus certainly visited the Engineers the first of last month. St. Sgt. McConnell was promoted to 1st Sgt. Sgt. Johnson made Staff. Corps. Evans, Jones and Wanner made Sergeant. Pvts. Gay, Ivey, Limber, Van Hoose and Dyas were promoted to Corporal and a lot of fellows were greatly encouraged by larger pay checks for 1st Class and specialists ratings.

Cox and Schellinger were visitors up at LaGrange last week-Both reported a grand time and that pavement sure wears the soles off shoes something terrible.

Wilkes was down to Albany giving the gals a treat, how about giving us the lowdown on how you

The Bear and Crews received a free ride from town Saturday afternoon—now is that nice, boys? I don't think that many of us would enjoy it very much.

Some of the fellows are wishing that it would hurry up and be time to park the pontoons for the summer. Don't cry too much, it will only last a couple of months long-

I wonder if the company won't ante up and give Slade back the dollar he lost in the Black Jack game last week. Really he seems to be all brokenhearted over the fact that the peso has taken wings and hasn't returned. Please give him a little sympathy.

The two Joes (Dlearo and Hill) went over to Middle Georgia last Saturday on a joy ride. Doggone, some of the rest of us would certainly apreciate it if we were able to do all the things some of the luckier ones can do.

We are all mourning over the fact that McJohnson has been discharged and we see no more of him. All of us miss 'Old Folks' something fierce. Good luck to you, Mac.

Corp. DeCoux is sporting a Chevrolet these days and seems to be having a mighty good time doing it. How about a ride, Dick?

24th Inf.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY The Joy Maker's Club of Fort Benning, Georgia, is contemplating sponsoring a dance at the 24th Infantry Club at an early date. The President, Albert Gaston, has ropointed new officers, namely: Misses Selma Tinsey, Vice President; Ruth Garrett, Financial Secretary; Louise Bivins, Recording Secretary; Fannie McGray, Treasurer; Charlotte Pearson, Treasurer; and Leila Tate, Chaplain. . . This company was shocked upon learning of the death of a comrade and friend, Pvt. Gardner Davis, died at the Station Hospital on Monday morning at 5:55 A. M. "Sully", as he was called throughout the company, was a great favorite with all. It is very difficult to realize that he has passed on and has paid the debt that all must eventually pay. He fell about five months short of having completed an equivalent of thirty years service. He is gone but his many friendly associations, in the past, will never be forgotten. . . Private Purvis, Clerk in Regimental Headquarters, has been trans-Infantry. Sergeant Bradford referred from Company "E" 24th ported to the company barracks Sunday morning as usual and had the usual "Boston" placed on him under the leadership of Major Moore. He left immediately after . . "Crip" Washington, who has the record of saying more words per second than the ordinary man can in three minutes, was found wanting when given a message of File Clerk in the next room. -Louis A. Scipio.

BAND

Reporter.

On January 29th the Band journeyed to Montgomery, Alabama where it participated in various presidential celebrations. A parade, several concerts in various parts of Montgomery kept the Band busy the first afternoon and evening and on the second day there were several concerts in the city, a broadcast program followed by a concert for the personnel of Maxwell Field where the Band was quartered. From 8:00 until 9:30 the Band rendered a concert in one of the huge hangars where the Presidential birthday party was held. The Governor and many high civilian and military dignitaries were present and enjoyed the program.

Both orchestras have received several new numbers and are hard at it rehearsing them. The dance library now includes the majority of the hits from the late musical productions of both stage and screen.

Private Love has lost the sleeping championship to Private Fendall Williams. This gentleman on Sunday morning will get up for breakfast, after which he wends his way to the recreation room finds a comfortable chair and sleeps until dinner, eats, returns to recreation room and comfortable chair where the Sand Man visits him until supper; eats supper, returns to recreation room, comfortable chair, etc., until show time; enters show late, sees half of show, sleeps half; returns to Band recreation room, chair and sleep until the Charge of Quarters awakens him at Taps. then goes to bed where he sleeps sound until Reveille. He is good.

Habits form easily and are hard to become separated from. Monday morning the band leader passed out a selection, "Sleeping Beauty" a very colorful little thing. The band played it and the band leader prepared to dismiss the band and to his very great consternation, lo and behold, musician Chism had decided to add a background to the number. The dear boy was sound asleep.

-Sgt. Wm. W. Hodges

SERVICE COMPANY

Roll Call

Reeves is the first sergeant, Bassham's next in line, Coleman's stable manager, Hairston's always cryin', McNeill's athletic man, Willis for discip-Brown for equitation, Burton for this scrip. Coleman butchers up the wood, Daniel is no 'lion' man, Ford's a CC top kick, Goodin also ran. Lucas owns a flivver, Parker rides the broncs, Pinckney, he's a Gigolo, and Robinson recounts The clothes you draw each quarter The hard to realize Sharp issues at the stables, And makes out I & I's.

COMPANY "A"

It seems that we are in for another week of sunshine and warmth and the way things are going in the Good old City of Washington at the present time, makes one feel pretty good. It looks as if the boys are going to have a few more beans for the girls.

Pvt. (Pop) Gray, the wise old bird with plenty of brains, has been made Judge of the "Court of No Appeal" of the First Platoon. Be easy Pop. Your time on the local boxing fans as being one of bench is short.

The Company is well represented at the Enlisted Motor Mechanics things that can't be learned by | (full-back) on the regimental | Use your own judgment. these outstanding young men will team, and showed great ability as not be taught or demonstrated by the instructor. Now please Pop, please don't take charge of the

One of our leading young men is often heard singing the follow-

"If I had wings like an angel, Over ditches, roads and fences I would fly,

I'd fly to the side of Corporal (Father) Jackson

And there I'd be willing to lie." Lord I am so lonesome I could just scream for amusement."

Please don't scream this time

So it has happened at last. Would like to remark right here, folks, that this reporter has been on restriction for three long days and nights, all this time away from the little one and was he sick? Almost lost three pounds a day. Made up the mind not to miss another call as long as there is an Army. The boys regret very much seeing this restriction because for three long nights and days they laid awake listening to snoring.

COMPANY "A"

The greatest hunter of all time went hunting Saturday and did he get any game? Five poor rabbits, three quail and a couple of snipes, but no one saw them other than the hunter. Speaking of no other than the good old Top Kick. Hope you present evidence next time, Sarge, Old Pal.

Just why the handsome Sergeant can't sleep these nights is the worry of the Company. He was seen walking up and down the company street a few nights ago in his shorts. Have things become that serious, Crosby?

Pvt. Willie (Gator) Edwards has just returned from a three months' furlough, spent in no other place than Gator Ville, Fla., and believe it or not, the poor fellow is so thin until that a look in his face shows just what he's got in his hip pock-Don't worry over his condition folks, Old '98 will soon have him back on his feet again.

COMPANY "B" The company is in mourning. The newly arrived member of the company, (Mr. Alligator) was found dead about fifty feet from the second Platoon barracks on the morning of February 1, 1934. The burial was on Tuff Hill. Three members of the company are held for the murder, Pfc. Luther Mc-Coy, Pfc. Moses Payton, chief hash slinger of the company, and Pvt. Lee T. Parker, trainer of the Gator. Sgt. Pitts and Pfc. Nickens and Attorney Hansbury are investigating the case.

Sergeant Bradwell the "Half Pint Mess Sgt." arrived from furlough and can't keep still. He is wondering if they are going to send him back to the woods. Wouldn't know about that, but luck to you Sgt.

The brain trust doesn't seem to be doing so well since the absence of one of the head men (Pvt. Kink). Boys get together and start the old wheel to rolling.

—By Haw

COMPANY "C"

Pvt. Heard (Seldom Heard) has called the Company Reporter's attention to a "write up." In this connection, the reporter believes that Pvt. Heard is due an apology, having been passed over while writing about the outstanding men of the company. Readers will need no introduction to Pvt. Heard, as the garrison has seen him in action while engaged in many events. First, he has established himself in the opinions of a "passer" and ball carrier. Baseball and basketball are also his hobbies. His association with the company teams have proved to be the cause of our team winning the regimental championship for two successive years. As an individual, he has contributed much of his time to sports one of the most important recreations for soldier spectators.

_All Mixed Up

Mess Sgt.: "Well Worsham, what have you for dinner?" Worsham:

"Potatoes. onions, peef, carrots, celery and turnips.' Mess Sgt.: "Gee, that sounds good—Where is all this?"

Worsham: "In that pot over on he stove."

Mess Sgt.: "In a pot-It must be a stew."

Worsham: "Sh! I'm giving you the Ritz, don't you see those people in the mess hall?"

Mess Sgt.: "All right, you had better serve those vegetables on separate dishes-That's right, give the men varieties."

The Historian

Corp. Mainer: "Private Harris, what is it that Lincoln said about fooling people?

Pvt. Harris: "You can fool all the people some of the time, some of the people all of the time, but not all of the people all of the time '

Corp. Mainer: "That's right, you are smart. Now get, a real bunk tag and place on your bed."

C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

"E" Company staged a nice come back in the Basketball game with Hq. Co., February 1, 1934, score 42 to 17, in favor of Company E. Corp. Baugh, was the outstanding star of the game, for out of the 42 points obtained, he was credited with 14 for high man.

The entire team showed quite a bit of improvement over the previous game.

Roy is doing nicely at center. Just can't keep Strong, Johnson. and Lee, from under the goal. When either of these boys get a possible chance at a basket, try and stop them, they are good.

Pfc. Leslie S. Morisettee, is the proud possessor of a commendation handed down through a chain of command, for efficient, and excellent service rendered at the Reconditioning Camp.

Two more souls made happy, Pfc. Winford W. Brown and Pvt. Frank Mathis, of this organization as a token for loyal and efficient service, Pfc. Brown was rated Specialist 3rd class and Pvt. Mathis appointed Pfc. These two soldiers deserve the grade and rating bestowed upon them. Pfc. Brown, enlisted during the World War. He has over 16 years of service, is chief radio operator of the regiment, and is rated very good. Pvt. Mathis has over 7 vears service and possesses the qualities of an excellent soldier. He has been on duty, with the company overhead during his entire period of enlistment giving the company commander a chance to observe him at all times. Pvt. Mathis keeps his equipment in first class condition at all times and presents a neat, soldierly appearance.

It is hoped that Brown and Mathis will continue their quiet and efficient service and continue to

-Rufus E. Williams.

COMPANY "F"

Pvt. Spareribs quit a certain job as striker up in post on account of a disagreement between him and the maid. Pvt. Ribs thought that he should not take orders from the maid as he had no mean ability in the art of self in more service than she. He four words by the Regimental Ser-geant Major, to be delivered to the Pvt. (Slow-Kid) Rainer. The he has played in the back field pounds and the maid about 175. —Sgt. W

There was a little dispute between F Company's two chief gamblers, Pvt. Benny Perry, (Ga. Skinner) and Pvt. Willie Spruell, (Stud Pokerist), over a certain table in the company recreation room. Pvt. Perry won the argument, being the fastest talker, he utterly swept the 1st Sgt. off his feet. Pvt. Spruell then countered by challenging Pvt. Perry to a duel by the fist route. Pvt. Perry being a gentleman of utmost refinement, naturally refused.

Pvt. Hodo being on guard payday night seemed a little hard to find on his post. After looking for him several minutes without results the O. D. went and got the Sgt. of the Guard and finally rounded him up. The O. D. asked him where he had been so long. Pvt. Hodo replied, "I have been walking slow and everything, and went down behind the mess hall and everything, and it was raining and everything, was watching for fire and everything, and everything was all right." The O. D. told him to continue walking his

Pvt. Benny Perry broke one of the light shades in the recreation room the other day. Of course the price of the shade $1.50, is only pocket change for Pvt. Perry, but he thinks this amount should be taken from the Company Fund. It can't be done, Bennie.

Corp. Buku Adams, Fletcher, and Pvts. Billingslea and Spareribs are the company's representatives on the smallbore team and are going strong. Here's luck to you boys.

Pfc. Allen Johnson, who is a very short timer, having only a few days to do is undecided whether to reenlist for the USA, or the CWA. Take the army Allen, times will be better after a while.

Pvt. Shoals was admitted to the hospital the other day with the measles. Very sorry for Pvt. Shoals, but the Company must have a representative for everything that comes up.

Pvt. Ocie Henderson "Marko." is getting very friendly with Pvt. 'Gab" Esters here of late. Wonder what's up. The whole company is watching the outcome of this friendship. Everytime Pvt. Esters is bugler of the guard, Marko can be seen catching the 2:15 bus for town. Not accusing you of anything Marko, it just looks kind of spooky.

-Lucius T. Gilbert.

COMPANY "G"

Corporal Tillis recently transferred from the company to Fort Meyer, Va. The organization hated to see such a fine soldier and athlete leave but wish him every success in his new organization. Corporal Tills is one of the few members of the regiment awarded the Purple Heart.

The House still stands. The Basketball team is as yet undefeated in the second half of the series. In the game played last week between A and G Companies, we, as usual, came out on top with a score of fifty-two to eleven. The Kingfish, also as usual, was high point man.

The supply room resembles a paint shop and the mess hall has been issued a brand new uniform of gray and green. The supply sergeant requisitions for paint, and a memorandum is appended thereon and returned to the organization reading, "None available." The Company Commander climbs into his car, proceeds to some unknown destination between here and Washington, returns to the Company supply room, tells supply sergeant to unload his car; result, "Plenty Paint." The ease in which he gets "unprocurable" defense. He is also considered to said that somebody would get hurt the Company to wonder, "What supplies causes the members of be one of the regiment's best foot- messing with him if he didn't quit. manner of man is this that doeth

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

Girl Scouts

CARDINAL TROOP

The Trefoil Patrol was proud to add four more points to their score last Tuesday at the Scout meeting for welfare work. Their lead in welfare work for this week was probably doubly appreciated as the captain, Mrs. Matchett, visited her older scouts this day. Two points were gained by the Musketeers by Directory . . .

A directory of the Branches and Other Connections of this firm has been printed. It lists sixtyseven branches and twentysix correspondent offices. This directory will interest accredited investors who travel in the East, Midwest, South and Southwest. Copies available.

Fenner & Beane West Eleventh Street

Phone 2272 Columbus, Ga. welfare donations.

Announcements were then made about badges. The Pioneer hike, postponed last Friday on account of the cold we had then, will be held Sat. afternoon from 12 to 4. All those who wish to go meet at the scout cabin, bring a pen knife and read the requirements in the handbook. For practical work in horse-woman badge Maj. Arnold will drill the scouts from four to five, taking ten minutes with each girl. Tennis instruction for athletes, bades is given Monday at the tennis courts. Anyone wishing to spend Friday evening working on star finding badge, meet at Mrs. Matchett's bringing a blanket for every pair. Scribe is held at Lt. Green's every Friday at four p. m. Mrs. Merrill instructs the needlewomen and dressmakers on Wednesday afternoons.

As Colonel Weeks has given the troops an excellent patrol chart, colors were chosen for March. The Bamella patrol's will be kept in red, the Blue Eagles in their name's colors, the Musketeers in Green, and the Trefoils in yellow. Mrs. Schneider then invited all the patrol leaders and assistant leaders for tea at her house on Monday.

The anouncements over, the four new scouts, formerly Daffodils, became Cardinals and were appointed to their patrols. They were Helen Fairchild, Beatrice McNulty, Betty Ruth Rarey, and Mariam Barret. Mrs. Matchett then took the meeting over. She had two purposes for her visit, one, to teach the scouts to form a new horse-

It Always Happens

By Cpl. N. H. Hobbs

It always happens that the toughest non-com in the Company will enter the day room about the time you park your seat on the pool table to shoot a difficult bill-

When you are in a hurry to make eville your spiral puttee will slip from your grasp and unroll the ength of the squadroom floor.

When you are detailed on duty at the corrals your best girl will happen by to contradict your story about being the man in charge of the whole shebang.

When you are preparing for a week end party your name always finds a place on the daily detail for a kitchen police.

When one needs money while shooting dice or playing cards he will always go broke.

About the time you try to slip off to the canteen without a tie on, an M. P. will appear on the scene.

When you bet on some other basketball quintet to beat the Head-shoe for their ceremony and the other to drill in signalling. After the horseshoe was formed and the flag ceremony took place, Mrs. Matchett kept the girls busy with signalling until the last fifteen minutes. This time was given to Mrs. Tucker for singing. The time being short, the meeting unceremoniously broke up at the end of Mrs. Tucker's last song.

the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

quarter's team you will always

When you decide that you'll have another helping of the delicious banana pudding at chow the K. P. will sing out, "There ain't no more".

MECHANICS COURSE

(Continued from page 1) from Company A 4th Engineers, Privates Charles N. Dooley and Joseph L. Hottman from the 17th Ordnance Company, and Private Floyd E. Coleman from the 72d Ordnance Company.

ANY TIME IS THE PROPER TIME FOR Coca-Cola

Whether it's at an entertainment—or whether it's at a lull in the day's programme—you can depend on Coca-Cola to fill in. There's no other soft drink so delicious, so delightful, or so refreshing as this. Buy it today! Sold in the SIX-BOX at all Columbus grocery stores.

FOR PERFECT SATISFACTION KEEP BOTTLED COCA-COLA ALWAYS ON HAND

You buy Chesterfield cigarettes every day. You may buy them one place today and another place tomorrow - or you may buy them the same place every day.

It is estimated that there are this day 769,340 places in this country where Chesterfields are on sale all the time.

> To make Chesterfield Cigarettes we get the best tobacco and the best materials that money can buy.

> We make them just as good as cigarettes can be made.

> We pack them and wrap them so that they reach you just as if you came by the factory door.

You can buy Chesterfields in 769,340 places in the United States and in 80 foreign countries.

> "A package of Chesterfields please"

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1934

NO. 43

BENNING DAY-BY - DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Feb. 12-One more Benning milestone was passed in safety last week with the return of the motors exam. And with it came many a grateful sigh of relief occasioned by reading on an inner page that innocent-appearing but potent word of words -"Satisfactory." Were we of a poetic urge we might compose a sonnet with this all-powerful word as its title but being of a baser mould we needs must pass up such an opportunity for one more gifted, hoping that some day somewhere someone will do it justice. As for ourselves suffice it to say that once more there creeps over us that indefinable something, the same satisfaction experienced by the nudist recruit who burns his britches behind him.

Another hurdle was hurdled Wednesday afternoon when Aircraftsman Weir presided with a marked problem a la air corps. The score of this one is yet to be published but should we receive due credit for putting our balloon to bed in safety, surrounding it with a battery of powerful searchlights for purposes of concealment the good major needs must return us at least another "S" to the good. We feel that ere long a surplus thereof might help tide us over the leaner days ahead.

The school's expert gas-man, Jeff Marshall, also featured along similar lines Thursday afternoon. The state of Pennsylvania will never know just how close it came to suffocation at our hands. We are still a bit confused, however. our chemical nomenclature and beg to raise a question as to the appropriate classification of this, our weakly column. We wonder whether it might properly be termed a persistent or a non-persistent gas.

Tuesday's map maneuver spensored by Tactician Hones was responsible for an undue share of excitement and perturbation in many Columbus homes the night before. It seems that the commanders of the opposing forces were the recipients, at 6:00 p. m., of a limited amount of confidental information concerning the situation of the morrow-just enough for the purpose of orientation. Included among the instructions was the warning to notify both high commands premptly proceeded to do. In turn each commander proceeded to telephone his respective staff officers, relaying all information received with just enough in the way of extra embellishment to make the situation appear pessimistic or optimistic as the case might be. By 8:00 p. m. even the most casual Columbus switchboard operator must have noticed that something of an unusual nature was afoot.

The particular message that placed the greatest strain on normally placed souls was the one to the effect that the next information would be released at 2:00 a. m. at Biglerville. A previous message to the effect that actual time

(Please turn to page 4)

NATIONAL DEFENSE WEEK

AN EDITORIAL

We have all seen quite a bit about National Defense during the past few days and particularly statistics about the alarming discrepancy between the authorized and safe limit of personnel for the Army and the actual number.

We fully believe that this is no time for trifling. The state of the National Defense, as brought out in the past few days, is really very serious. The Army, the National Guard and the Reserves are all much lower than is actually required for adequate protection. And, particularly now when the whole world is in a condition of unrest, with riots in Austria and France, with bad feeling in the Polish Corridor, with China and Japan virtually in a state of war, with Russia's power looming up greater every day, the United States Army has been allowed to reach a dangerously low point. We do not believe that even the pacifists will deny that we suffered unnecessarily during the last war-and no one will deny that the world is in much the same political turmoil as it was immediately preceding the World War.

Likewise, a great deal of the present pacifist propaganda will do much more harm than good, since the Regular Army and the National Guard have no adequate method of answering their attacks. Only lately General MacArthur in his strong stand for a larger Army demonstrated unusual boldness in stating the Army's case so clearly. It is beyond precedent for a Regular Army officer to come out so strongly on any point as the General did and we are very glad that the Army has a Chief of Staff who is so much in favor of plain talk as General MacArthur.

This paper has so far not expressed any editorial opinions on any subjects. We believe that this is a favorable time to do so, however, since the fate of the country rests in the hands of the Army and Navy and they are not nearly in the condition which they should be in order to carry out an effective program of defense. We believe that this is especially true of the Army, because its role in time of war is the actual defense of the homes of the country, and it certainly is not in a position to do this properly. It has not sufficient strength—its mobility is far below the standard required for modern warfareand its morale, while still at the highest level it has ever reached, is in danger of lessening a little under the continued discouragement of small pay.

Certainly, now is the time for us to begin work toward obtaining a larger Army and a more effective one. The example set here locally is one instance—the classes of the Infantry School have been cut down during the past term because of inadequate funds. This is striking at the root of the training system of the Infantry-it is playing with fire. We believe that a restoration of the former size of all training groups, that a bringing of the Army to full strength, and that a complete modernization of the Army are essential steps toward an adequate National Defense and should be undertaken at the earliest possible moment.

Finally, we want to express our pleasure at the cooperation between the staff in disseminating information regarding the condition of National Defense. There has undoubtedly been a very great deal of good work done by these officers and business men and it will show itself in results obtained. We have a great deal of pride in the fact that there has always been a close liaison between the civilians and the Army, and the cooperation during National Defense week is most gratifying.

GENERAL ESTES SPEAKER

Commandant To Speak As Part Of Program Planned For National Defense Week By Reserve Officers Association Of Columbus And Benning

American Legion Hall on National Defense General Estes' talk will be one of a number sponsored by the Reserve Officers' Association, Columbus-Ft. Benning chapter. The public is invited to hear the talk by General Estes, which will be made at a general meeting of the Association.

Other talks have been made during the past week, some by Fort Benning officers and others by members of the Association The majority of them have stress-United States Army among those of the world is dangerously low very strongly on the alarmingly and the defensive strength is much low numerical strength of the below a safe level. The recom- Regular Army, the National Guard and to the Columbus chapter, Or-

Brigadier General G. H. Estes, Arthur, as embodied in his recent Commandant, Ft. Benning, Ga., report, typify the attitude of the greater number of speakers, many of whom have used his figures as the basis of their talks.

A comparison made between the Army of the United States and those of other leading nations of the world, has, according to the substance of the talks which have been made, demonstrated that the defensive forces of the country are in a state comparable to that before the country entered the World War. Our unpreparedness at the beginning of that conflict from Columbus and other cities. has subsequently been the subject of much discussion, and the presed the fact that the position of the ent state of world politics has led some of the speakers to comment mendations made by General Mac- and the Reserves.

A series of ten talks have already been made, and three more are scheduled for the remainder and this is the first time, as far of the week. Those who have spoken are as follows: Lt. Carlton O. MacNeely, Mil. Int. Res., who spoke on Tuesday and Monday of this week; Col. R. H. Kelly of Ft. Benning, who spoke Tuesday; Col.
T. H. McHatton, who also spoke on Tuesday; Col. E. G. Peyton, Ft.

The staging was excellent, costumes Benning, who spoke on Tuesday and Wednesday; Major Joseph Though the weather was the most Jacobs, who spoke Wednesday; Lt. H. A. Meyer, of Ft. Benning, who made a talk Thursday; Major John Carter and Lt. MacNulty who spoke also on Thursday.

Talks will also be made, in addition to that by General Estes, der of DeMolay.

Dramatic Club Is Success In Third Play Of Season

CAST

(In order of appearance) Joan-Miss Kenneth Kendall Mrs. Carr-Mrs. Ephraim G. Pey-

Caroline Carr-Miss Maxine Rife. Madge Carr-Miss Nana Seeley. Nell--Mrs. James E. Wood.

William Carr-Lieutenant G. M. Nelson.

James Cluney-Lieutenant R. C. Brisach.

Mr. Jamison—Lieutenant L. B. Ely. Dr. Willoughby—Lieutenant J. P. Willoughby-Lieutenant J. P. Hulley. Reverend Mr. Spelvin-Captain M.

B. DePass. Jack Doogan-Captain R. C. Ham-

Joe Thompson-Lieutenant J. J. Pospisil.

Sergeant of Police-Captain Wilbur S. Elliott.

Police Officer O'Malley-Lieutenant W. R. Mackinnon. Police Officer Clancy-Lieutenant

Arthur B. Foreman. Police Officer O'Brien-Lieutenant

J. A. Cleveland, Jr. A Chauffeur—Captain J. E. Wood. Book Holder—Mrs. R. C. Hamlett.

The Dramatic Club frolicked through an uproarous farce comedy for their latest contribution and demonstrated once more that they can be relied upon to offer a good show. "Stop Thief" furnished abundant laughs, as one dilirious situation followed another in rapid succession. The plot was an ingeniously complicated maze of suspicion and bafflement, involving several absent-minded people who mislaid small objects, and two industrious crooks who celebrated high holiday out of this state of affairs made to order for their benefit. The jittery and confused condition of the family involved must have been contagious, for after seeing two performances, I have not been able to find anything I put down for the last forty-eight hours!

Every member of the cast contributed effectively to the comedy treatment of this hilarious farce, from Mrs. Peyton, the bewildered and plaintive mother, to Captain Wood as a chauffeur whose part though voiceless, was, nevertheless outstanding as a model of "what the well-dressed cheuffeur should as I can remember, that we have had an actor-director. Captain Hamlett not only directed the play, but acted the leading role of Jack Doogan, the plausible crook, and in both capacities he showed uni-and make-up very pleasing. disagreeable we have had this year, attendance was very good and no better commentary can be made than to say the audience was glad it had braved the icy winds and sleet to see again those reliable and valiant Benning troupers who to the Boy Scouts of Columbus always furnish us good, enjoyable entertainment.

-Mary S. Tucker.

EMISOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Officers' Club To Have Washington's Birthday Dance; Many Reservations

Plans are being made to celebrate Washington's birthday are being made this year with a costume ball at the Officers' Club, to be held on Wednesday evening the 22nd.

This affair will be in the nature of a dinner dance, dinner to be served at eight p. m., and dancing to continue until 12 p. m.

The club will be appropriately decorated in red, white and blue with symbols carrying out the Washington birthday motif.

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

Many reservations have already been made for this occasion.

Among those reserving tables were: Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall, Major and Mrs. Hugh G. Gilchrist, Major and Mrs. Charles O. Grace, Capt. and Mrs. Wm. J. Kunzman, Capt. and Mrs. Leonard Murphy, Lt. and Mrs. F. J. Gillespie, no host, Lt. and Mrs. C. B. Warden, Lt. and Mrs. Edw. K. Purcell, Lt. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ver-

OFFICERS' CLUB HOLDS VAL-ENTINE PARTY THURSDAY

The regular semi-monthly Thursday evening supper dance which was held this week, was a more festive occasion than usual due to the fact that it was the officers' club St. Valentine's dance.

The club presented an attractive background for the gay Valentine decorations of red hearts and cu-

There were a number of reservations made for dinner and dancing. Entertaining were: Major and Mrs. J. N. Robinson, Major and Mrs. J. H. Mellom, Capt. and Mrs. H. E. Kelley, Capt. and Mrs. Daniel R. Fox, Lieut. and Mrs. William Lucas, Lieut. and Mrs. Wm. H. Schildroth Schildroth.

MRS. PHILIPS WEDS LIEUT. DICKS AT QUIET CEREMONY Of social interest to Fort Benning and Columbus was the marriage Friday evening of Mrs. Ethel Price Philips to Lieut John L.

The wedding was solemnized at eight p. m. at the quarters of Capt. and Mrs. James T. Gammon in the presence of a few intimate friends with Chaplain Willis T. Howard officiating.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of green crepe trimmed in beads. It was a French model designed by Lucile Poray. Her corsage was white gardenias and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony Lieut. and Mrs. Dicks departed for a wedding trip to New Orleans where they will attend the Mardi Gras.

They will be at home after March 1st on Wildwood Drive in Columbus.

LT. COL. AND MRS. CHAFFIN HOSTS AT DINNER

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin were the hosts Thursday evening at a dinner party honoring Brig. Gen. and Mrs. George H Estes

The table was laid with a lovely lace cloth in the center of which was a silver bowl of pastel shaded snapdragons and gladioli, silver candlesticks bearing pink tapers completed the center piece.

Col. and Mrs. Chaffin had as their guests: Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Estes, Colonel and Mrs. Charles F. Morse, Lt. Col. and Mrs. John L. Jenkins, Major and Mrs. H. H. Morris, Major and Mrs. J. F. Cor-

MISS WRIGHTSON HONOREE
AT DINNER PRECEDING DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

Miss Polly Wrightson of Washington, D. C., the attractive house guest of Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm Lindsay was the honor guest last Friday evening at a dinner party given by Lt. and Mrs. Joseph Greene.

A silver bowl containing white narcissi and yellow jonquils, flanked by silver candlesticks bearing yellow candles, offered the attractive table decorations.

The Greens had as their guests: Miss Wrightson, Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm Lindsay, Capt. and Mrs. John A. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Woodruff of Columbus, Lt. David Angluin.

After dinner the guests were escorted to the post theatre for the Dramatic Club play.

HOUSE GUESTS SHARE HON-ORS AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Miss Wilcox, the house guest of Major and Mrs. John F. Corby and Mrs. W. B. Tickner, house guest of Major and Mrs. W. D. Mueller, were the honor guests Monday at a beautiful bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Charles F. Morse at the Columbus Country Club.

Twelve guests assembled for lunch and bridge.

Invited to meet the honor guests were: Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Tickner, Mrs. Corby, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. T. J. Leary, Mrs. J. A. Atkins, Mrs. Rowan Lemly, Mrs. Lucius Patterson, Mrs. Jesse A. Ladd, Mrs. Chas. O. Grace, Mrs. H. J. Matchett.

GARDEN SECTION MEETS

The Garden Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting on Monday, Feb. 19th, at the quarters of Mrs. Charles W. Weeks, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Rhodes Browne and Mrs. Reynolds Flournoy of Columbus will be guests at the meeting. Mrs. Flournoy will speak on "February Planning and Planting."

PERSONALS

Mrs. Marian Burt, Mrs. Joseph Greene and Mrs. Burrell Cole departed Monday for a motor trip to Miami, Fla. While there they will attend the horse show.

Lt. and Mrs. N. C. Pilet left

Monday for New Orleans where they will attend the Mardi Gras as the guests of Lt. Pilet's parents.

Friends of Miss Anna Keller of Ft. Leavenworth will regret to learn that she is in the station hospital as the result of a broken

Lt. and Mrs. Dwight A. Rosenbaum have as their house guest Miss Jessie Hodges of Olathe, Kansas. Miss Hodges has been the guest of honor at a number of delightfully informal affairs. Saturday Mrs. Rosenbaum entertained her guest at a brdige luncheon held at the Officers' Club.

Friends of Major Thomas S Arms, Capt. A. H. Cummings and Lieut. E. Bowen will be glad to learn that they are rapidly improving having been operated upon recently at the Station hospital.

Major and Mrs. W. D. Mueller have as their guest their daughter Mrs. W. H. Tickner of San Francisco, California.

Mrs. Harry Lightfoot Gordon is the house guest of Colonel and Mrs. Reginald H. Kelley.

Girl Scouts

Cardinal Troop

The latest interest according to the meeting on February the 13th for the mounted troop of Ft. Benning is the Gymkhana dated for Saturday. Mrs. Arnold informed the Cardinal Troop of the various events and who was to participate. There will be a needle race, a potato race a relay and others. The

(Please turn to page 3)

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

is sold at Fort Benning through the

COFFEE

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

GET A HEAD-START ON YOUR SPRING OUTFIT . . .

And the best place in town to get it is from the complete and correct spring collection we have just gotten in . . .

OUR MILLINERY HAS DISTINCTION AND IS MODESTLY PRICED! $1.95 to $12.50

Dolan - Henry Hat Shop

Ft. Benning Charge Accounts Solicited

In Alsobrook's

New Knit wear for spring!

to $29.50 $15

The new Spring Knit-Wear is in! Here are your suits for Sports, Streets and Dress. Two and three-piece garments in all the glorious new Spring colors, including pastels, navy and black. The Gotham label is the symbol of Correct Style and Quality.

Ready-To-Wear - - Second Floor

Do You Shop At Leisure?

You can shop at leisure in Silver's because you know you can get so many different and necessary things un-der one roof. Take your time -stay as long as you likeyou're always welcome in our

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

A Store For Everyone

Literary Section

Mrs. P. S. Wood presided over the Travel meeting of the Literary Section of the Fort Benning Woman's Club on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Wood brought in the magic carpet on which the guests were taken to "Bali" by Mrs. John E. Hull. In speaking of this fairy island tucked away in the Dutch Indies Mrs. Hull mentioned its and the unspoiled premitive quality of its people and customs. Reviewing C. S. Brooks,' "Italian Winter" Mrs. Hull went from "Italian Florence to Venice to Rome following the literary landmarks which interested the author, who is quite a world traveller and who has written ten other travel books Mrs. E. J. Machey in discussing :We Explore London", by Jan and Cora Gordon, gave a picture of two expatriates who returned to London after many years in Paris.

For EVERYONE

Everyone, from youngest to oldest, can safely eat Kinnett's Ice Cream-and it's equally delicious to everyone. It's very economical, too, and makes an ideal dessert.

Sold at POST EXCHANGE and the OFFICERS' CLUB

Mrs. Brandt Honors Mrs. Bush At Party

Mrs. William Brandt entertained with a surprise birthday party Tuesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ida Bush, of Montone Falls, New York, who is sixty-

The party was held at their home at 504 Gordon Circle, Fort Benfamous dances and native festivals ning. Bridge and games were played, Mrs. Charles Bumford winning at contract bridge and Mrs. Harry Wiesenberger taking first place at auction. Mrs. P. J. Mc-Nulty won the door prize and the prize for guessing was won by Mrs. Harry Wiesenberger and Mrs. M. C. Wiley. Mr. Sgt. William Brandt, Mrs. Bush's son cut the first piece of cake and the guests were served by Mrs. Harry Foster. A color scheme of pink and white was used for the decorations. Mrs. Bush received a large number of beautiful gifts from her many

Those present at the party in-Mrs. William Stewart, Mrs. Charles Bumford, Mrs. P. J. McNulty, Mrs. M. C. Wiley, Mrs. Harry Foster, Miss Blanche Fullington, Mrs. Harry Wiesenberger, Mrs. M. O. Bell, Mrs. P. Petoskey, Mrs. Tera Bozeman, Miss Agnes Setzler, Mrs. A. L. McConnell, Mrs. D. Hamscher, Mrs. S. H. Workman, Mrs. Tooze, Mrs. H. Taylor, Mrs. H. M. Allen, Mrs. B. Silvermaster, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. E. C. Maxwell, Mrs. J. Hickey, Mrs. C. W. O'Blenness, Mrs. J. C. Dotson, Betty Foster, Betty Hickey, Mr. Sgt. Wm. Brandt and Mr. Sgt. Harry Foster.

Their adjustment to the every day things of life in the English city makes a novel travel story of the kind rarely met.

Miss Molly Goodwyn reviewed two books on Paris. She gave an interesting glimpse of the way in which Sidney Dark had woven the history of famous French places into the scene we see today. The ghost of Marie Antoinette, Robespierre, Charlotte Corday haunted the Tuileries and the Champs Elysees. In Paul Morand's clever sketch book of Parisian characters, "Paris is the Life," you see the Continued to Page 8

Wednesday — is the first day of

LENT

SUGGESTIONS

Each week during Lent we will carry articles of food suitable for this season's menus. We invite you to call on us for anything you may need in the grocery line, at this season or any other. We will also be pleased to offer any suggestions which may prove helpful.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

MR. AND MRS. HIPPLEHEUSER ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hippleheuser were entertained at a luncheon and bridge Wednesday evening by Mrs. Jean M. Foster. A party of fourteen old friends were present to help make their visit pleasant after an absence of over five years. Mr. and Mrs. Hippleheuser may be remembered as being on duty at Fort Benning when the Infantry School first moved to this locality and until about 1925 when they moved to Fort McPherson and have been located at the Field Artillery School.

GIRL SCOUTS (Continued from Page 2)

girl scouts will compete with ten of Montgomery Scouts as well as Boy Scouts of the post. There will be a luncheon at the Polo club at noon Saturday for all mounted troops for all who sign the bulletin at the scout cabin and bring twenty cents.

There will be tennis Monday if the weather permits and every Monday that the courts are available. Due to bad weather star finder was postponed last week but was held Friday after the first show. From now on all energetic meeting.

Scouts who bring magazines or other welfare donations take them to Mrs. Matchett's house directly. Hand Mrs. Schneider a slip of paper stating the articles and the amount brought.

Today the point score for the month was added. The patrol coming in first was the Blue Eagle Patrol with 35 points. Second place 34 points was won by the Trefoil Patrol. The Musketeers brought their score to 19 points while the Banella took 4. Virginia Wadsworth's patrol brought in over a thousand magazines this week. A good night circle ended the beautiful feet this

A smart combination of black silk kid and black silk kid and black patent leather . . . Or, in a combination of spring taupe fawn brown kid.

$9.00

spring will walk to

A beautiful combination of spring taupe kid and fawn brown kid in one-eyelet tie. Notice particularly the high throat.

$7.50

high fashion in these

An especially smart combination of the newest marine blue kid . . . blue chester pig trim and trim stitchings in spring grey.

$9.00

modern classics

Shoes

Main Floor

THE BENNING HERALD

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia Published Every Friday

FEBRUARY 16, 1934 VOLUME III NO. 43

L. C. KUNZE Publisher
A. F. KUNZE Editor FELICIA C. HOWELL Society Editor Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from page 1) and problem time were entirely asks questions afterward. different had long since been forgotten. And Biglerville on a Gettysburg map is one thing while Biglerville to a Benningite is something else again. By the time this message had been relayed down to battalion brass hats its true purport had been lost. In its stead went the word that the class 2:00 a. m. The remainder of the evening was devoted to frantic two 21-4 victories by the younger phone calling and the pacification of otherwise dutfiul wives.

Whether or not any student answered the call we have been unable to verify but there is still considerable suspicion that Economist Shaw and Cartoonist another enjoyable and thoroughly Wharton came closest to proving professional performance.

that a good soldier obeys first and

The volley-ballers of the Company Officers Class journeyed Krizward the other noon-hour to engage in friendly combat in a volley ball jousting contest with their elders, at the behest of Kingfish Dan Norman. Considering the creaking joints of the elder statesmen and the dearth of substitutes would assemble at Biglerville at the score was relatively close, ending, as near as we can recall, in set. Next time the seniors hope to be able to place a full team on the court.

> Our citation for the week goes to the cast of "Stop Thief!" for

ENGINEERS

Looks as if all of us will have to fire in one of the tents last week buy ourselves an automobile to stay in style. Sgt. Slatter has blossomed out with a Ford Coach. How do they do it?

All are wondering how Hoose is getting along with the new girl these days. Don't see him around as often. Van are you going to be 'Shack Man" too?

Pugh has decided that some people have rather hard hands. Don't worry about that, Pugh. I once had the same experience. So I can help you think hard things about him. Does that suit you?

Sgt. Tooze and crews are stil trying to find out who is the best pool player. Or who can talk the other out of the most games. Will some one find out which of them are leading at the present time?

The Second Platoon had a small for some of us.

Understand that Schellenger was just a little put out by the fire, or did he put the fire out? Maybe he got so hot thinking about the girls up in LaGrange that he just set the tent on fire, Gosh!

The boys were doing squads right and left last week for the first time in quite a while. Some had forgotten how it felt to do those things. But, Sgt. McConnell and a few others hadn't.

Some one said that it wouldn't be long before we would be in our new home. Think that we are going to oust the Headquarters Battery right out and take charge. Now we are going to be in some comfortable barracks, and I don't hink the time can come too soon

83RD FIELD ARTILLERY

BATTERY "A"

All the battery recruits have been turned to duty, which is going to make K. P. and guards farther apart. Pvt. Dorminy mounted guard for the first time Saturday and was chosen as Orderly which was an honor very few have achieved. The Battery gigolo, Pfc. Aberthe near future or at least that is the current news at the present time. Some say he is going to be bound in Holy bonds of wedlock, but personally don't see why a man with all the charm and sophistication that said Gigolo has would want to marry. He has an un-canny knack of making new acquaintance's, and is continually seen, with some member of the fair sex dogging his footsteps and in some way or other it always happens to be a new one but that can easily be explained. "Doc" is a very handsome man of medium build with curly black locks, pearly teeth, and sparkling blue eyes if he doesn't snap up this chance he will still have to be, "Just a Gigolo".

The news reporter of Battery 'A", knows all, sees all, but won't tell anything on himself.

BATTERY "C"

Private Horner and Napper made their first attempt this year to spend a week-end pass in the baseball park of Columbus, Ga., but the cold and sleet drove them to camp early in the night.

Sgt. Jack Johnson has returned to the battery after eight months with the CCC. No doubt he is glad to be back but Dan Cupid has pierced his hear,t and it may be wedding bells for Jack soon.

All of the members on the boxing team have placed in the Post Amateur Team with Filippone the lightweight champ of the post and Whitley tide for featherweight Wilson made a wonderful comeback in his second fight and knocked out his man in the first round. that are—oh so large. Can't tell All the battery joins in and wishes you this girl's name for the simple them the best of luck in their fureason that I don't know it, but ture fights.

The Student Prints

By far the outstanding event of the past week was a firing demonstration with the 37-mm gun on tank targets. Captain moving "Repeat" Pope commanded, and his crew of three men consisted of Sergeant "Maxie" Nulty on the sights, Corporal "Group" McClain as number one, and a very efficient sight setter, whose name at present escapes us. The target, a cloth covered box framework, was made to zigzag across the terrain by a very tricky mechanism consisting of a truck, numerous pulleys, and a long length of rope. Hits were almost continuous after the first three rounds and that, coupled with the speed and smoothness of Captain Pope's team, won universal praise from we, the people.

In that dramatic fashion did the weapons section turn us over to the tank course. And despite ex-tank-QM-er) Hamilton's staunch defense of the awesome monsters, there are few of us, now at any rate, who would care to venture forth against an enemy popping away at us with those peppy little French guns.

Still inspired by the above demonstration, some of our own classmates later in the week put on a very creditable problem with a similar target. Seeley, Guthrie, Quinn and Houser were the boys who pulled the wires.

That was the afternoon we overheard, (eavesdropped, if you must), a couple of instructors talking. The subject was grades. One, a pleasant faced, well built captain, declared that in ROTC work he solved the difficulty by standing at the op of a flight of stairs and tossing the papers downwards. Those alighting on the top step got an "A", those on the second, a "B" We might add that from personal experience there are several more instructors here at school who seem to have also discovered that method of award.

Mispronunciation of proper names is a common failing of those who are brought in contact with large groups of people. For instance in our own group we hear Borgquist' for Bergquist, "Schanz' for Schanze, "Patay" for Pate, etc. The best one however remained to an honored employee of the Officers' Club to pull. "Mistuh Humdinger has a telephone call, suh.' Reference, of course, being made to Heimerdinger, who, by the way, pulled a nifty himself the other day. "How big should a one-pounder emplacement be", questioned Major "Cards Up" Heileman. To which Hy alertly replied, "Big enough to get the gun into, sir"

The tank section got off to a running start Tuesday. Lined up upon the good old overworked terrain were all sorts, sizes and shapes of land travelling war ma-When "any seventeen' chines. students were invited to go for a ride, we joined the rush of some seventy others. Luck of a kind came our way, and we discovered Squeezing through a narrow trapnautical looking canvas strap. This it seems, was our seat. A football helmet with a bob was handed in, the doors closed, the engine started, and away our craft snorted. Visibility was not only poor, but dangerous, since one could barely see even by leaning close to the slits in the conning tower, and proximity thereto was a highly questionable factor, dependent upon the sudden jerks and starts of our temperamental steed. In addition, her hot and fetid breath soon filled our narrow cell with choking fumes. Need it be added phase us! that it was with the greatest thanksgiving that we at last painfully hoisted a bruised and battered body out of the tank, Hypocritically admitted that "It was a

29TH INFANTRY

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The Company has 20 men attending the Enlisted Communication Specialists Course at the Infantry

The men are: Corps. Fuller Burgess, Richardson, Wilhite, Thomas and Keene, Pvts. 1 cl. Bozeman, Pattison. Walden, Private Lee, Bigler, Bryant, Coen, Davis, O. H. Fricks, Greeson, Hebert, Holloway, Mauldin, Williams, and Steckel.

The Company welcomes Hall back from CCC duty. He has been Assistant Mess Sergeant. Hall will strengthen our bowling team as he is one of the best in the regiment.

Cook Trogden returned from a 30 days furlough this week.

Private John D. Grace, who has traveled across the United States several times cooking on pullmans and in hotels, and who has visited all the crowned heads of Europe and the ball heads of the United States is now taking a shot at doing straight duty and says he likes

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

Of course it's no longer news about the quarantine, but it is news that it will last from now on, due to the fact that we keep breaking out with a new variety of measles about ever so regular. All of which is further proof that: "Every thing we do, we do it well". Not kicking, understand, this is just a normal growl, but we do hate to be so snug and comfortable dursuch disagreeable weather while our neighbors so kindly condescend to pull our guards etcetera.

Speaking of growls, here's another one which justly deserves a most sympathetic ear. That is the heart-rending wail of the down-tothe-house detail, among which are several newly-weds — victims of Yuletide romance. Hesitate to predict the outcome of this delicate situation, but sincerely hope that the results will not be disastrous.

Having a great time with our new boots. Aside from a few whose knees are so far down in the boots that they can't bend their legs; a few who have to wrap their spiral woolens underneath to get a fit; and still another few who "just ain't made right no how", all are well pleased and rarin' to try them For barracks use (The only use we've had for them) they are excellent; for looks they can't be beat-now: Can they take it in the

Since Sergeant "Isador" Lang, the roving, raving, rhyming, poet has lef tto wander in the wilds of the upper Upatoi as Range Guard life has been quiet and peaceful, nevertheless we regret the temporary loss of him and his optimism.

SERVICE COMPANY

Now that the freeze is over (not the pay freeze) and the office radiator is thawed out and working, will scribble a few lines ot the

Just received a letter from Pfc. J. W. Clarke who is spending his reenlistment furlough in "Philly" and he says that the skating is served gratis between "phases" by a most remarkably generous mess sergeant. But the last, the wildest,

Major Roberts released us to put pitiful flames, brandishing pine branches and letting loose with the most blood curdling of yells.

The fire didn't have a chance. It

Short Notes: McNamara, by his

Fluent, Forensic, Flow, particularly

"vicious" used on his write papers,

Boyhood emotions stirred again out a brush fire.

swell ride" and left our steely found written on both his last two.

fine there, only a few degrees below zero. The office force here all voted that they would rather do their skating in Georgia.

All of the men in the Service Company are stepping out in brand new boots "donated" by the Department of Experiment for experimental use. Thanks, brother, thanks!

Private Ray "Bucky" Harris has just secured his release from the Army via the purchase route. Who said it didn't pay to save your clothing allowance? Luck to you Bucky, although it is still mighty cold outside.

Privatés First Class Carver and Comer were discharged today and are going to try their luck on the outside for a while. So long boys, and good luck.

Private Stannard of the Personnel Section has announced the arrival of a new member of his family, Miss Nora Eugenia Stannard, who came on the crest of the cold wave on February 10, 1934. Congratulations old man.

Adios,

-"Hasty"

CANNON COMPANY

Have just put two large hand painted picures in the dining room. Corp. Smith works over time planning different things that will be to our advantage.

Sergeant Shaw has rejoined the Company after being away on CCC duty for the past eight months. Since his return he had the First Platoon in an uproar telling about his wild experiences in the jungles of Florida. To most people he is better known as "Sergeant Shingles".

Sergeant Tom Tompkins has just put in for another three day pass. It seems that every time Tommy does a charge of quarters or a guard, he needs a three day rest. You might say that he is getting to old to take "em" but Tommy states that he will challenge anybody to a hike with full field packs and put ten dollars on the side that he will out-last them.

The Cannon Company is organizing a volley ball team under the supervision of Sergeant Morrow. That in the next day or so that it will be prepared to beat any other team on the Post. If you don't believe this statement just give a ring at 506 and we will back up the challenge.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY FIRST BATTALION

The Fighting Irish of the 1st Battalion have lived up to their cognomen in the recent amateur boxing series held at the Post gymnasium by vanquishing every team that was in the race.

Like to talk about this because there are in this Company two of the teams' foremost boxers; Private Philip D. Carpenter and Private Alfred B. Schneider and are we proud of them, you bet! But the praise doesn't stop there, Team Coach Lt. Kendall comes in for his share of the glory but as man to man and newspaper reporter to a lonesome little tank all by itself. friend to more sympathetic hands. "Who's afraid of the big, bad Once more, however, we joined wolf!" The handwriting looked like door, we found ourselves upon a in a rush. This time for the coffee Bill Hones', as well as the red apple drawn so well on Schanze's writ on Combat Orders.  A substitute for the old class yell of and greatest rush of all, was when "Code Room's Open" is now "One More and We Go".  And the new class song as given by an un-known wit, "U, You're Driving Me Crazy".  The scrap shovel anas everyone, even some of our more dignified brethren in the onymously placed on Henderson's desks.  The Big Class Dance will be held on either March 2nd or 3rd.  And finally the Great Advanced Class, raced towards the Interclass Struggle, Beattie's P-Ants versus the Upatoi Weasels, was the one phase that couldn't featuring such Volleyball stars as "Ground - Gripper". Pressley, "Nerts" Nourse, "Antonio" Bennett, "Stub" Lockett "Nokemout" Maxwell, "One Shot" Farris, "Magwith the words "vigorous" and abgab" Roth and others. Play,

(Please turn to page 5)

Frank!

MEYER'S ALL-IN-ONE improved

LIQUID ROUGE

for

MEYER METAL &

ACID TEST

INSIGNIA & BUTTONS

Under ordinary conditions a simple solution of soap suds and household ammonia will suffice as a cleanser and polisher; however, where a stronger and quick acting agent is necessary to do the work we offer ALL-IN-OME LIQUID ROUGE, put up ready to use with dauber included with every bettle ery bottle.

Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid
Test Insignia and Buttons

At Your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

When in Atlanta make the Henry Grady Hotel your home. 550 fireproof rooms, each with bath, ceiling fan, circulating ice water and radio.

Our food is the best, both in the Terrace Dining Room, overlooking Peachtree, and in the Coffee Shop. The prices are most reasonable.

Room rates are in keeping with the times.

We will be glad to have you, and will make you feel at home while in the city.

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

ATLANTA, GA.

An irreproachable standard of Purity

All Foremost products are made in accordance with the highest possible standards.

Always ask for Foremost products — ice cream and cellophane sealed milk.

foremost dairies,

Inc.

Col.Munson Moved To Headquarters

Colonel Fred L. Munson, 24th Infantry, has been relieved from command of that regiment and assigned to duty with headquarters staff, the Infantry School, effective July 31, according to War Department orders which were received at Fort Benning Thursday.

Colonel Munson has been on duty as commanding officer of the 24th Infantry since August 2, 1932, when he arrived at the post to fulfill that assignment. He has several times been in command of Fort Benning during the temporary absences of the commanding general, especially during the last summer, after the departure of General Campbell King, to his home to await retirement.

Ordnance

Will soon be in the new Bar, racks, and proud of them too, although sorry to leave tents, for they have been a real home.

Pvt. Bill Ard (Cue Ball) has gone on furlough to his home in Southern Georgia. Good luck, Bill, have a good time with the girls. All of the boys are glad to know that Private Harry Volz has been promoted to grade of Corporal. Corp. Volz is now at the Ordnance Field Service School at Raritan Arsenal, New Jersey.

-G. C. O'Neil

29TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 4)

the perusers of the Herald want to say that Sergeant Pink E. Bryan, 1st soldat of this organization played a paramount role by caring for the two fisticuff proteges like a foster father cares for a son. And did Abe Schneider and P. Carpenter walk the chalk line! Whenever the Top appeared on the scene the boys would say to each other, "We're in for plenty of road work, now".

Now for a good word for Cpl. Mike Carpenter: There is really no use in telling our readers who he is as about everyone in the post knows Mike. His untiring work with the boxing team meant much to the boys and helped to put the 1st Batalion pugilists right at the top of all amateurs in the Post.

Seven men in this Company are taking the communications course at the Infantry School this year. They are: Pfc. Davis, Acting Cpl. Haik, Privates Schramm, Prince, Lyles, Alford and Private Ferguson.

COMPANY "A"

"A" Company's Walter Winchell is in the field on this two-sided maneuver and the scandals will have to go unpublished this week. Sorry, old pal! Hope you'll be here next week with a flash.

COMPANY "B"

The fights at the gymnasium Friday evening terminated the Post boxing tournament. The fact that the 1st Battalion 29th Infantry, came out on top was due in no small degree to the efforts of members of B Company. Lieutenant Kendall, himself an intercollegiate fighter of first ed this outstanding aggregation of fighters and brought them up to the standard necessary for them to win this competitive tournament so keenly contested. Tarzan Wilson's glove throwing of straight lefts and right crosses cornered a total of twenty-two points during the season, while Dean was not far behind with a total of sixteen. Parker and Seymour were on the squad throughout the season and cheerfully absorbed a lot of back-stage punishment that contributed greatly to the success of others. Nevertheless the experience they gained this year will undoubtedly serve to promote them to more active participation next season. In addition, Doyle acted in the capacity of trainer, a worthy contribution of personnel services that added much to the comfort and condition of the fighters.

COMPANY "C"

During the past week, nothing unusual has happened. Might mention that Company "C" is still in quarantine, a fact that was very noticeable over the week-end. The only comparison of the long faces will be found at the Corral.

Sergeant Elmer Kimbrell has returned for duty after spending some time in the Post Hospital. It will be remembered that Sgt. Kimbrell met with an almost fatal accident while on CCC duty at Brewton, Alabama.

Sergeant Rayl is spending a few days at home, recuperating from a severe case of flu. Have not interviewed the Sergeant since being discharged from the Hospital, but understand the rest is doing him good.

Corporal Bill Owings, the company Checker Champ, met with some stiff opposition in a certain red Wilkey. Red says that checkers has long been a past time with the people in and around Huntsville, Ala. and has participated in a couple of games himself. Not bragging, not so bad myself. Ask McKnight.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY SECOND BATTALION

Here is some good news this week, just scored 84 points in two games of basketball, with Hq. Bn.

Shortly Franklin has just returned from three days pass up in Rockmark, Ga. where he said he spent the three days hunting. Shorty had a great hunting story, but it did not work out so good. After investigating it was found that he spent most of his time on pass near Fort McPherson, Ga. where he has a friend. She is a blonde.

Corporal Duck was appointed Sergeant this week, PFC Specialist 6th Class Isbill was appointed Corporal. Pvt. Spec. 6th Class Gordon was appointed Pfc. Pfc. Alderman was rated Spec. 6th Class. Pvt. Bennie Hill was also rated Spec. 6th Class. Luck to all the boys on their promotions.

About all the news for this week. So long until next

So long until next.

— John H. Newsom.

COMPANY "F"

Private Henry Creamer was called to Plant City, Florida on February 10 because of the death of his Grandfather. The Company offers it's condolence to Private Creamer in his bereavement.

Privates Fred B. Gill and James A. Hosselton and Private First Class Bailey Singleton are attending the Communication Specialists School at this Post.

Private Oscar L. Thompson is on a twenty-day furlough. Pvt. Thompson is visiting relatives and friends in Atlanta, Georgia.

Private Honeycutt has been admitted to the Station Hospital for —S. F. W.

COMPANY "H"

Rabbit Palmer was on guard last week and pulled quite a boner. At the last minute he came running down to the C. of Q. saying that someone had stolen his belt, with the able assistance of the above mentioned, however the belt was located among the debris on Rabs bunk, (much to his regret).

Amos Dowden is back now and "H" Company is going to be well represented in the next track and field meet with 'Tarheel' Saunders, Sam Prophet and Amos in the line-

Corp. Dawson, Pvts. Goodson, Gunsallus, Wright, Adkins, Merritt

We Buy Late

Model Used Cars

COLUMBUS ROBERTS
Motor Company

514 12th St.

Studebakers

and Brown are atending the school for motor mechanics.

Shorts: Wells shaved his moustache, Waldo still has his however. Tombstone Adkins did a combination barrel roll and side slip on the ice last Saturday for a perfect one point landing. That's all.

-Steve.

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

'29 Model Buck Sedan—Driven 15,000. Orig. paint, A-1 condition. '34 tag. Price $275. Phone city 4443.

Drs. Miller & Davis
Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313
1006 18th Street

Dependable
Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway

R. M. Harding, Manager

At Ringside and At The Party Table

Cocoloa is still the delicious and refreshing drink that everyone likes.

In the Six-Box Only

25c

Where you go—you find Coca-Cola—Whenever you go—you expect to find it—so why not play safe and have it in your home at all times, so others may have it too? In the Six-Box Coca-Cola is the handiest, most economical drink on the market.

CONVENIENCE — ECONOMY — AND COCA-COLA
ALL IN ONE LIGHT CARTON

Give your car the attention it needs

OUR DELUXE SERVICE is one that will cost you less in the long run. It will make your car give longer and more dependable service and the thorough cleaning, lubrication and thirty-three mechanical operations which comprise the service will put our car in shape for anything.

We Do Painting Work On All Makes Of Automobiles

AUTO DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Basketball Teams End First Half Of Current Season

The first half of the post intramural league is now history, and what a whirl-wind finish there was to that half. The four games that will stand out in the memory of post fans of the cage game are the contests which began on Saturday night, when the Kellys sprang the surprise of the year and downed the Pirate five, and the three of this week, when the Kellys repeated their victory on Monday night, went under on Tuesday, and edged through by the skin of their teeth in the final and deciding play-off game Wednesday.

The remainder of the games played in the league since last Thursday were of minor emportance in comparison to the quartet of contests staged by the Thunderbolt and the Pirates, and the coaches, realizing this, gracefully postponed or forfeited their contests so as not to block the tracks, for the league leaders.

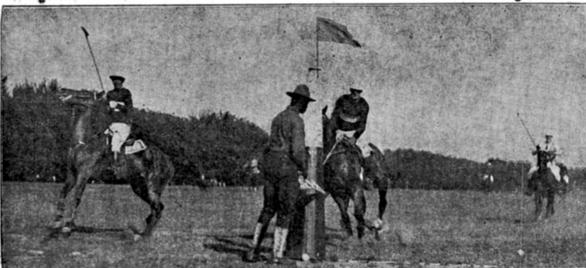

Last Thursday night the Irish took the Greencords into camp without any trouble, downing the Special Units to the tune of 55-12, with Cown and Snead tying with 14 each for point honors. The Greencords were badly disorganized and played the poorest game they have this season. The second contest was between the Gunners and the Tankers, with the Tornado trailing from the start, and never able to overhaul the Galloping Gunners, who were led by Cotney in the scoring with 17 points.

Saturday night came the blowoff! The Pirates, figured as sure winners of the first half, battled desperately against the Thunderbolt attack in the first half, and the smallness of the score, while not close, shows the brand of ball both teams were playing. The second half started with the Pirates trailing 12-4, and trying with might and main to get under way and run down the Thunderbolt, but McAllister, with his "Big Bertha" shots, proved to be too much, and the second half was even more bitter for the Pirate supporters to swallow than the first. The final score of the contest was 42-15, with McAllister leading the procession for thirteen points.

The second game of the evening found the Irish winning an easy victory from the Medicos 42-17, with Cown leading the scorers with a total of 14. Williams H. M., played an excellent game for the Pill Rollers.

Monday night the fun started. In the Tanker-Medico tilt, which was a scheduled game, the Pill Rollers came from behind in the third quarter to do some wonderful and again, finally winning by a margin of one field goal in the last minute of play. Pyles, red-headed guard for the Medicos led the scorers having 12 markers to his credit. The 83rd Special Units contest, the other scheduled game of the Greencords.

A Shot Made By An Infantry Poloist-The Polo Tournament

In the play-off game between the 2d Batts and the Pirates, it was plain from the start that something was ailing the Headquarters quintet. From the sidelines it looked like a case of going "stale," for after playing a great game in the first half, and holding the surging Thunderbolt 14-14 at the half-way mark, they went all to pieces, especially in the third quarter, letting the Kellys break through time and again for "snowbirds" under the basket . In the last stanza the Pirates rallied slightly, but McAllister brought "Bertha" into play again, and it was just too sad. The final score was 42-29 with McAllister contributing 15 points to the team total for scoring honors.

The Tankers and the 1st Battalion locked horns in the first game of the second half Tuesday night with the expected result. Warren of the Tanks went wild in the second half scoring, but failed to pull the Tornado out of the 28-14 hole they had fallen into at the half, and the contest ended 51-41, with Snead high for 16 points.

The second game of the play-off was bitterly contested by everyone in the gymnasium from the spectators to the water-boys, and developed into one of those gruelling, guarding games with little scoring Bryant and Coen led the attack for the Pirates in the first half, and despite the close team work of the Kellys put Headquarters in the lead 15-13 at the half. Bigler addfighting and tie the score up time ed his efforts to Coen's in the sec-

Polo Tournament Starts Sunday On French Field

The informal polo tournament evening, was forfeited by the which was scheduled to begin last Sunday afternoon, will start this Sunday, the field having been rained, or more properly sleeted out last week. The mild weather of the last few days however, has all four teams in the league this placed the grounds in wonderful condition, and fans will be assured of some fast action.

The teams which will meet Sunday afternoon are the Freebooters and the 24th Infantry, which should be the best contest of the day, and the 83rd Gunners and the 29th Blues. Using the three-quarter handicap system the 24th four will start the contest with a twogoal lead on the Freebooters, the 24th team rating a handicap of 3, and the Freebooters 6. The 83rd Gunners will hold the same advanage over the Blues.

ond half, while Bryant dropped into the reserves, and though the Kellys fought tooth and nail to get ahead, the game ended with the score standing 30-28, favor of the Pirates. Bridges of the Kells was high with 11 points, closely trailed by Coen with 10.

Wednesday night found the air in the gymnasium charged with electricity as both teams, one game apiece to their credit, met for the last time to decide the supremacy. Starting fast, the Kellys smashed through in the first quarter for eighteen points, and it looked like another 2d Batt victory, but the Pirates got a grip on themselves and steadied down to with the Kellys trailing 27-31, and from that point on it was simply question of which team ahead at the bell. The final field goal of the game, which gave the 2d Batts victory, was made by Dilfollowup, and although the Pirates dropped a penalty toss for another point later, they could not gain the lead and lost the game 38-37, and the league lead.

League standings for first half, and the Big Five were:

Team	Played	W	L.	Pct.
2d. Bn.	. 12	11	1	.917
Hq. Bn.	. 12	11	1	.917
1st Bn				.668
83rd	. 12	6	6	.500
Tanks	. 12	5	. 7	.417
Medicos	. 12	3	9	.334
Special Units	12	0	12	.000
Scorers:
McGee, 83rd	d			136
Cotney, 83r	d			136

Snead, 1st Bn.....133

Greeson, Hq. Bn. 115 Jordan, 1st Bn. 96

Opens Officials for the contest will be

Major Arnold and Lieutenant

Hughes for the first game, and

Captain Nichols and Lieutenant

Dietz for the second. The first ball is to be thrown by Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant, at 1:30, with the second contest taking place immediately at the finish of the Freebooter-24th match.

Post fans are again reminded that the quality of play shown by season is above average for the post, and some hotly contested games are in prospect. Parking space will be provided as usual.

At the conclusion of the round robin tourney which will last until March 4, the details of the post tourney which will decide the championship of the Infantry School will be announced.

First Batts Win Amateur Boxing Crown Of Benning

The Green Wave of the 1st Bat-talion crashed through with a bang last Friday night in the final bouts of the post amateur boxing tourney to down the defending Tankers in a carnival of slugging and boxing that showed action creditable to the Olympic games, and ended with the way in front in the scoring. The total points scored by all teams in the tourney were as follows: 1st Batt 214, 2d Batt 186, Tanks 174, Hq. Batt 124, 83rd F. A. 90. In capturing the post team title, the Irish also crowned one post champion, Phil Carpenter, lightheavy.

The two final matches of the tourney, which were held on Saturday night, were between the Headquarters Battalion and the 83d Field Artillery, which ended in favor of the Pirates 44-30; and between the Irish and the Tanks, with the final score standing 54-30 in favor of the Wave.

Results of the bouts follow:

Solomon, Hq., won by forfeit in the bantamweight class, as did Whitley, 83rd, in the featherweights.

Filippone, 83rd met Grey, of Hq., in the lighthweights, with both boys fighting a beautiful battle for three rounds. Grey dropped to the canvas from a hard right in the second just as the bell ended the round, and took a shellacking in the third to lose a decision. Filippone winning the lightweight championship of the post by his victory.

Wilson, 83rd, and Locke, Hq., met in the welter division with Wilson's right proving too strong for the Pirate boxer. Locke went (Please turn to page 7)

Get outside and enjoy yourself more!

Our Athletic Department Can Outfit You For The Sport You Prefer

You may be a tennis fiend—a fishing bug—or an enthusiast in most ANY sport—but no matter what it is, we can outfit you just the way you want. We sell only the best of sporting goods, made by makers with national reputation. Telephone 608.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Boxing

(Continued from page 6)

to the canvas in the first for a count of five, and got to his feet dazed and shaken, Wilson, rocked him again with another right as Locke stood there with his hands down, and the referee gave the fight to the Gunner by a T. K. O.

Harris, Hq., middleweight, Penland, Hq. Heavyweight, and Tartar, lightheavyweight all won by default, Penland thereby taking the post champion in the heavy class.

The tussle for the post team title between the Tankers and the 1st Batt Irish began with Shaw, 1st Batt 120, meeting Rowan, Tanks, Shaw sent Rowan to the canvas for a knock-down with no count in the first, landing a right to the head, but caught some stiff punches from the port-sider when he came to his feet. Rowan ran into a wild left hook that sent his back but did no damage and caught another right to the head just before the bell. The two fighters devoted most of the second round to swinging and closing, with Shaw getting a little the better of the exchange. Both determined to end matters in the third and spent the first part of the round slugging with Shaw landing the more blows, though Shaw's right hand a little wild. was doing most of the work and he had a nice lead, sending Rowan to the canvas for a count of nine with a right to the head a minute before the bell, to win the decision and first blood for the Irish.

Tanker Floyd, Tanks, met Dizzy Dean, 1st Batt in the featherweight Dean claimed a foul early in the first and the Irish second threw in the towel, when he saw how badly his man was hurt. Medical examination showed that Dean had been fouled, but the admitting of defeat by the second lost the battle with the Irish protesting.

Goss, 1st Batt, met Weaver, Tanks, in the lightweight class. Goss was half pushed to the floor early in the round, but came up to send Weaver down for a count It was Goss' round by a of nine. margin. Goss connected with a right and left in a neutral corner in the second that again sent Weaver down for a count of nine, but the Tanker came to feet and weathered the round turning things into a slugging bee that was to his disadvantage. Weaver landed the majority of the blows at the opening of the third, trying for a K. O. to redeem the fight, but Goss shook them off and kept driving him around the ring, with a straight left, until the Irish battler led with his left and crossed his right to the button for as pretty a K. O. as seen this year. The Irish were in the lead.

Milan, Tanks, 146, met "Stormy" Weather in the welter weight class. Milan was the younger and better conditioned of the two and it was plain the Irish were just trying to save points by having a man in the ring. Weather showed old-time experience however, and stuck right in there, stepping inside blows and sending in a few of his own, with Milan almost half ashamed to hit him. The seconds threw in the towel after two minutes and thirty seconds. Score even, with Milan winning the post

Brady, 1st Batt met Devilier, Tanks, in the middleweights. Brady spent the first round feeling out his opponent, waiting for a chance to shoot over a hay-maker. Deviier carried most of the fight, with Brady waiting for the kill during the first, and half of the second, when Brady brought his hands down to the body and made Devilier flinch. The Tanker made a nice show though and stuck his left into Brady's face several times but the end was in sight at the bell. The third opened fast with both boys showing action and Brady storming after the Tanker like a wild man. Devilier hung on however, though badly tired, and continued to send his best Brady tried his best but couldn't get the Tanker into position for a K. O., and spent the entire round trying to send Devilier down. The showing made by the Tanker was a wonderful exhibition of gameness and surprised the fans considerably. The decision went to Brady, nutting the 1st Battalion ahead, and giving them the post championship.

Carpenter, 1st Batts, met Reed, Tankers in the lightheavy class. Carpenter gave an exhibition of boxing in the first, without doing any apparent damage to Reed, although those pecking blows slowed him down a bit. and came in with a looping right that caught the Tanker off balance and reeled him into the ropes. The Irish fighter speeded up a bit and showered punches on the Tankers' head for the rest of the round with any damage. Carpenter was putting up a nice boxing show, and was clearly ahead at the end of the second without having exerted him-The match turned into a slugging bee in the third, which was more to Reed's taste, and he made a better showing. Carpenter went back to his jabbing tactics, however, devoting most of his attention to Reed's face, and had Reed bleeding at the nose and mouth slightly at the bell. There was no doubt about Carpenter's victory, which gave him the post title in the lightheavies.

Crowan, Tanks, met Boone. 1st Batt in the heavyweights. Both boys started slugging at the opening bell, and stood toe-to-toe for the majority of the first round, with brief breathing spells to see where each other were. Boone had a slight shade the better of the exchange. The crowd was wild over one of the best slugging bees ever seen at the post. There was not much science, just stand and throw leather, on the part of both The second was much the same way, each fighter willing only to land punches whenever possible, not thinking of defense, and both were taking terrific punishment, with Boone again gaining a slight advantage. The third round opened the hottest of the trio with Boone pouring leather into his opponent, and taking them in exchange, but still staying ahead. Blow after blow went in and still they came back for more with Crowan getting tired, and shaky reet, at the bell. Boone won the decision.

The decision given by the judges in the Floyd-Dean affair, was a ruling that while Dean was fouled, the seconds forfeited the battle by throwing in the towel before a medical examination had been made, and the win went to Floyd.

Post championships and runnersup, who will comprise the team representing Benning in the Southeastern in March are Billy Floyd, 2d Batt, bantamweight champion; Charlie Floyd, Tanks, and Whitley, 83rd tide for featherweight honors; Filippone, 83rd, lightweight champion; Neal Milan, Tanks, wel-

LOGGING DETACHMENT Happy days are here again, since the arrival of Mess Sergeant Horace Braswell, from a 90 days furlough.

The Logging Detachment is in mourning since it lost the brains of the Army kitchen, better known as Pig Tails, Spare Ribs, Butter Milk and Corn Bread. Maybe Sergeant Manlove will learn how to handle a mess before he retires?

The little bus is missing one passenger a day since our Jaw-Bone king, Delma Fewell, overdrew his bus and canteen allowance for thirty days.

Sergeant Manlove have been relieved from duty with the Logging Camp and has been assigned to Headquarters Company 24th Infantry, but not as a Mess Sergeant, just as plain old Sergeant.

Since the cold spell Uncle Joe is having the time of his life fixing burst pipes in and around the Logging Camp. When better plumbing is done Uncle Joe will do

The walking exchange, better known as Doctor Frog, is now bankrupt and has been since February 1st, 1934.

SERVICE COMPANY

Imagine a guy taking a pass because "The Boys" told him he was off for the day. Private Menson doesn't mind admitting he was AWOL but what hurts him is no one offered to do his week for

Why they served ice cream in the Mess last Sunday is still a mystery. Pvt. 1cl. Knowles Freeman was sitting at the table playing big town man and clinking his teeth together like a Browning machine gun on the front line and inspired this conversation. Freeman what's the matter with "Man this stuff is cold." you?" "Yes, but don't you know that ice cream puts vitamines in your blood?" "Well, if that's what it is I'm going right to the fire and get 'em out.'

What handsome Polo boy fell in love with what dark eyed siren last Friday evening? Yes sir, he's moon struck again, and it only took an "Alma-matter" to handle the situation.

No joke to be deaf-advertise-No joke to be dumb-anment. other advertisement. But there to be some speculation among the best minds as to how a man can jump off a two foot porch and break his thigh, cut his nose, sprain his wrist and black his Kangaroo court was called and the verdict is incomplete. The defendant does not desire to make a statement.

-G. E. Burton.

BAND

The Band, as usual, will be quite busy institution on February 22nd. There will be a Washington's Birthday Matinee Dance for the 24th Infantry and their friends at the Post Gymnasium from 4:00 to 8:00 P. M. at which both the Happy Hearts and Jazz Pirates orchestras will dispense sweet and red hot rhythm. An immense crowd is expected and it's "The Talk of the Town".

Privates Fendall and Elone Williams have been appointed privates 1st class. They are now ready and willing to take charge of the Band giving the Band Leader a much needed rest.

Members of the Jazz Pirates Orchestra are just beginning to thaw out. They were caught Satur-holder, and Penland, Headquarters, heavyweight champion. Runners-up are Rowan, Tanks, bantam; Phail, 2nd Batt, lightweight, Goss, 1st Batt, welterweight, Killen, Tanks, and Brady, 1st Batt, tied terweight champ: Whatley, 2nd for second in the middleweights, Batt, middleweight champ; Carpenter, 1st Batt, lightheavy titlecided to visit, in an open truck returning from a dance engagement at the Polo Club.

Penrose: "Chism, what does ppp mean on a musical score?" Chism: "Thats an easy one, it means Plenty Power Please". -Sgt. William W. Hodges.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY The funeral of the late Private Gardner Davis, Headquarters Company, 24th Infantry was held at 1:15 P. M., Friday, February 9th, 1934. . . The skies were overcast, accompanied by a drizzling rain, which seemed accentuate the sadness that was in his comrades hearts. . . The services were both solemn and impressive. . . In an organization like the Headquarters Company where the personnel seldom changes, when the Scythe of Death cuts down one—it affects everyone more forcibly than in other units. . . The Chaplain's sermon text-"After Death-What?" -was worthy of serious thought and will remain (judging from personal feelings and expressions of others after the funeral). . . When the three volleys were fired, signifying the three farewells, brought down from the days of the Romans, then only did we realize the loss of our friend. . . Private John Morris accompanied the remains to Washington, D. C., the place of interment.

Sergeant Hubert Manlove is back from the Logging Detachment and is now on duty with the company. . Private John Jensen is back after an extended absence. . . Private 1cl. Joseph Stout after giving excellent service in the Sec-Battalion Headquarters is scheduled for detail in the Post Exchange, 24th Infantry. . . Although his services will greatly augment the staff of Post Exchange Steward, Sgt. John G. Reed, yet, it is regretted that he had to leave a place that he filled with such satisfaction to all concerned.

The Joy Makers Club of Fort Benning, Ga., is planning on taking a part in a program which will be held at St Mark's A. M. R., Church, Feb. 25, 1934, located at Sixth Street and Second Avenue, Columbus, Ga. Friends are invited to attend... The President, Elbert Gaston, states that applications for new membership will be disapproved until July 1, 1934.

COMPANY "A"

The Company enjoyed a quite week-end; the reason for such was no other than being "Ice-bound".

Assigned to Command of the Company is Captain Clinton E. Fenters, one time Company Commander of Co. "E" and Co. "C" 24th Infantry. Truly hope that by no means whatever, will we lose the temporary Company Commander, 1st Lieut. A. H. Dickerson.

The truth and nothing but the ruth is the thing that hurts most. That is why Corp. (Blimp) Fritz wanted to tap this reporter on the chin, but he seemed to forget that the reporter tips the scales at two hundred pounds. Now take it easy, Blimp.

It is really true. The bachelor game. The perfect bachelor was the City of Columbus this Saturday past one hen and one fryer and he didn't show up in the Fort until Reveille, Monday morning. Who would do such a thing other than a shack Commander. Can't fool the old gang, Sam (Sweet) Bass, Jr.

Pvt. (Hog) Carter rejoined the Company on the 9th after having spent one lovely month on furlough in Columbus. The "lovely" part is his story but the reporter knows from experience that the only lovely thing in Columbus is four bits per one half. You can't fool us, Hog.

Sincerely, -Pfc. James Pollen.

day night when the cold wave de- two alligators from the Alligator Farm in Florida. They are expected to arrive in the near future. He also wrote to the management of the animal training union in Bridgeport Connecticut, for pamphlets on the care and nomenclature of 'gators, and plans to give an exhibition in the summer.

> The second platoon "Sheik" (Olds) must be taking a course. He is seen after completion of his days work with books scattered all over his bunk writing and reading and it was said that he informed the other "Sheik" (Butler) he had better study and analyze the second General Order of Guard Duty which reads thus: "Keeping always on the alert and observing everything that takes place within sight or hearing".

The company made an excellent showing at the Commandant's first inspection this year and the Company Commander expressed with deep interest how pleased he was with the company on this inspection. What it takes to make a good showing we got "IT".

-Hawkins and Randolph.

COMPANY "C"

As a general rule, all military men when walking seem to have a general appearance in bearing; however, during the freeze of yesterday, the ice being all over the ground, each individual seems to have a method of his own trying to hold his feet while going from place to place in the Post, Some were less fortunate than others and had the terrible experience of hitting the ground in hard places. At this hour there have been no serious accidents reported.

Since the rumor is going around that we are to receive five per cent increase of pay beginning the first of this month, have noted that there are many changed expressions in the faces of some comrades. Yesterday, a friend inquired: How much was five per cent? Told him that it amounted to one dollar on twenty. He was surprised, and replied "Tho't it was more than that. I'll have to cancel my new Easter suit at that rate." Hope it is not the case with all of the men, because if so, they will be badly mistaken when pay-day ar-

-C. J. Ragsdale, Reporter.

COMPANY "E"

First Lieutenant Paul Cooper, Commanding Officer, Company E., 24th Infantry, was very well pleased with the appearance of the company, during the inspection, Saturday morning, February 10, 1934, when several comments were received from the General, Colonel and Major.

Pvt. 1cl. Melvin Orsben and Pvt. 1cl. Leslie S. Morisette, of this organization are attending the Motor Mechanics Course being held at the 100th Motor Transport Company under the supervision of Captain C. F. Gee, QMC.

-Rufus E. Williams, Reporter.

COMPANY "F"

Pvts. Cureton and Hobbs are getting to be very popular of late. Pvt. Cureton received a letter from of all time broke the rules of the France and refused to let anyone see the contents thereof. He told seen taking two Gospel Birds to the Company it was from the For-

Pvt. Hobbs received one from London, England. He said it was from Scotland Yard. Keep going, Hobbs, you will be the head man of that Yard some day.

Pvt. Minnewetter Henderson went on a month's furlough the othe rday. He said when he returns it will be only a week before his discharge. Wonder if we are going to lose Pvt. Henderson.

On Fridays, just prior to inspection day every Pvt. in the Company can be seen on the run trying to dodge Corp. "Bucu" Adams. Corp. Bucu can tell a fellow more to do in two minutes than can be accomplished in a week. Before the corporal's return from CCC duty, there use to be quite a few gatherings around the Company,

Continued to Page 8

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

Directory . . .

A directory of the Branches and Other Connections of this firm has been printed. It lists sixtyseven branches and twentysix correspondent offices. This directory will interest accredited investors who travel in the East, Midwest, South and Southwest. Copies available.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272 Columbus, Ga.

24TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 7)

but since it's hard to find a private in the company street.

Pvt. 1cl. John D. Batton, better known as Cotton Batton, has announced to the company his retirement from the prize ring. Ever since his encounter with the Unknown Black he hasn't cared very much for the fight racket. Another crooner.

-Lucious T. Gilbert.

COMPANY "G"

It is said that every time Captain Tharp approaches the barracks paint buckets in the store room begin to tremble, brushes begin to weep and fire extinguishers and windows faint, to say nothing of web equipment expiring. When he nears the latrine the building moans and groans and even the leaves on the trees cringe in fear. At any rate the quarters were up to the minute at the inspection of the Commandant Sat-

Decisively defeated Headquarters Company on last Tuesday on the basketball court to the tune of 35 to 15. The Kingfish was high point man having scored twenty weekly regimental enlisted men's dance at the 24th Infantry Service Club on Wednesday night. man tanker by way of —Sgt. William W. Hodges. and the Panama canal.

Glad to state that the First Sergeant, who has been a patient at the Post Hospital for a number of days, has returned to duty.

LITERARY SECTION (Continued from page 3)

nun, the concierge, and the famous flea market.

Mrs. O. N. Randolph, taking a map of South America, traced the journey of Tschiffeley and his two creole horses Mancha and Gato from Buenos Aires to the Canal zone to Mexico City up to Fort Sam Houston, St. Louis and Washington. His adventures over the Andes and across the desert make thrilling adventure. In reviewing Paul Morand's "Indian Air" she traced an airplane flight across South America and gave a glimpse of the many interesting cities of the continent and of its historic Inca ruins.

Mrs. G. F. Gee reviewed in her amusing style the sensational book on Russia, "Kapoot." She told incidents of Carveth Wells, the author, peculiar adventures after he left the guidance of the official Russian tour on which he started to make his investigation of the Russian myth.

The feature of the program was the talk on "Tanker Travel," by Mrs Walter H. Wells. Major and Mrs. Wells have a "Tanker Santa Claus" who places at their disposal his fleet of two thousand oil tankers and tempts them with the magic of far places. Last summer they took a French tanker and sailed for Antwerp, visited the Kiel Canal to see the largest tanker afloat christened, wandered G Company will sponsor the around France and Paris, vagabonding with friends in Brittany and returned home on a German tanker by way of the Azores

40 REASONS:

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

people know it!

Same thing with a good cigarette or a good wood-fire.

All you need is a light. And all you want is a cigarette that keeps tasting right whether you smoke one or a

That's what people like about Chesterfields. You can count on them. They're milder —and they taste better.

In two words, they satisfy. That says it.

the cigarette that's MILDER • the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1934

BY - DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Feb. 19.— Several months ago that most worthy of post charitable organizations known as the Crafts Shop gave us pause one noon-hour as we read its announcement in the daily bulletin offering to take orders for little boys and girls. We hastened to place curs before the supply was exhausted but apparently waited just a mite too long. Either that or our request was lost in the resulting scramble for a high priority on delivery dates. It is quite possible that our specifications were a little too exacting for prompt delivery from the lo-cal dealer. For all we know the manufacturer at the present time might be busily engaged in rushing to completion a special factory built job, embodying not only our own pet ideas but a few of the more recent 1934 features as well, such as improved knee action, dual carburetion, quadripoise suspension or more modern developments in upholstery. At any rate we still have faith.

What we set out to say originally was that since this event, despite a careful daily perusal on our part of the Benning Gazette, we had been unable to amplify or clarify its announcements until one partciular item was brought to our attention a week or so ago which we felt merited due publicity. Se refer to its offer for sale at reasonable prices of some whatnots. Accordingly we devoted considerable time and space in the preparation of last week's column to this one feature. only to discover that it had been omitted when the Herald came off the press. Hence our apology for delayed treatment.

Now if there is any one thing our home in Columbus lacks, the need for which is keenly felt, it's a what-not. We have wanted one for lo, these many years but until now the price was a little beyend the reach of our meager purse. The drastic reduction in price of what-nots—we believe these were offered at $1.25 eachreminds us again that we should buy one before it is too late. A what-not by itself presents a rather forlon appearance, however, and we needs must make our purchase of a conditional nature, subject to the ability of the Crafts Shop to procure for us, in good condition, one serviceable, firstclass whoosis.

Every sizeable gathering of ar my men to the casual observer consists of a group of military officials whose outward appearances lend proof to the thought that they are alike in outlook, training and inclination. Which is another way of saying that we all appear to be cast from the same mould. It is only as a result of long intimate association, or perhaps of some casually uttered remark, that we are enabled to pry loose from July 1, 1922, and received his comtheir native reticence those who are wont to hide their light under a bushel. Such a person is our good freind Ben Waterbury, one of the four most popular advanced class squad leaders, whose inventive genius has but recently come into its rightful prominence. We (Please turn to page 2)

BENNING DAY-Colonel Little To Take Command Of Twenty-Fourth

> Colonel J. Millard Little, Infantry, is relieved from an assignment with the 81st Division, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and from further detail with the Organized Reserves of the 4th Corps Areas, effective on August 1, and will take up an assignment with the 24th Infantry, upon his arrival at Fort Benning.

> This is Colonel Little's second assignment to the Infantry School for in 1923-24 he was a member of the Advanced Class of the Officers' institution of this station. He started as a 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry in 1899, and on July 21, 1917, he was appointed Major. This appointment was followed by a temporary one promoting him to Lieuteant Colonel for the duration of the war. In 1920 he received a commission as Lieutenant Colonel and in 1925 one as Colonel. He is a native of Georgia and a graduate of the Middle Georgia Military and Agricultural College. Since entering the service Colonel Little has completed courses at the Army School of the Line and the Infantry School Advanced Course.

Officers Ordered To Duty At Other Assignments

Lieutenant Colonel Burton A. Seeley, Veterinary Corps, is bringing to a close his first tour of duty at the Infantry School, having arrived here on October 1, from Fort Lewis, Washington. His new assignment is to the Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C., where he will pursue a course of instruction at the Army Veterinary School.

Colonel Seeley began in the army as a veterinarian of the Quartermaster Corps in 1909, upon his graduation from the Iowa State College of Agricultural and Mechanical Arts with the D. V. M. degree. Since that time his service has been continuous and has led to the commission as Lieutenant Colonel with rating as an authority in his line of work.

Under authority of the War Department, Washington, D. C., five officers of the 83rd Field Artillery, Fort Benning, Georgia, will terminate their tours of duty with this organization, and report to the Field Artillery School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, not later than October 6, 1934, to take a course of instruction at that institution.

The officers affected by this special order are 1st Lieutenants Arthur L. Cobb and William C. Lucas; 2nd Lieutenants William Grubbs, James J. Heriot and Robert A. Ports.

Lieutenant Cobb, a native of Alabama, graduated from the West Point Military Academy, mission as a 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry. In 1929 he transferred to the Air Corps, and later to the Field Artillery, of which he is now a member. He first came to Fort Benning in 1927 and was assigned to the 15th Tank Battalion for duty. It was from this unit that

(Please turn to page 2)

RESERVE OFFICERS TO TAKE 14-DAY COURSE

An active training course of hours of the afternoon were spent 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) and 67th Infantry (Medium Tanks), Tank Units of the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, has been assigned to eleven officers of the United States Reserve Corps, by direction of the president.

The course, which started on February 18, embodied all phases of study for the various tanks with which the army is equipped and is given in order that the reservists of the U.S. may more fully understand the operation and maintenance of the infantry's most valuable support—the tank.

The officers who are undergoing the study are: Major Forrest Hill, Decatur, Georgia; Major Clarence A. Will, Fort Pierce, Florida; 1st Lieutenant James M. Brooks, Logansville, Ga.; 1st Lieutenant John H. Spencer, Tampa, Fla.; 2nd Lieutenant Walter S. Barnes, Milledgeville, Ga.; 2nd Lieutenant Harry N. Jenkins, Kline, South Carolina; 2nd Lieutenant Paul J. Boothe, Atlanta, Ga.; 2nd Lieutenant Harry E. McWilliam, East Point, Ga.; 2nd Lieutenant John L. Moore, McColl, South Carolina; Michael L Smith, Willston, South Carolina;

Timmonsville, South Carolina. The course, for the full fourteen days of active duty, was planned by and is given under the supervision of Captain Harvey H. Smith, of the 66th Infantry. Captain Smith is an authority on every type of American tank and is fully qualified to instruct the reserve officers during their training. The officers arrived on Monday February 19 from their respective homes and were sent to the station hospital for a physical examination. After the exam they were conducted on a tour of inspection ists will have range firing for of the battalion tank park, which each of the weapons they have had been opened and ready for studied. These firings will take the visitors. At 2:00 p. m. Cap- place at English and Simpson tain Arthur H. Luse, 17th Ord- ranges of the reservation. Saturnance Company, escorted them on day, February 24, the officers will a tour of the Ordnance shops, be attached to various companies work is carried on. The closing barracks and men.

2nd Lieutenant William H. Ward,

fourteen days duration with the on a tour of the Tank Section of the Infantry School. Tuesday morning the Reservists were given a class in Company Administration, covering the maintenance of a morning report, sick report and duty roster. Lieutenant Cranford C. B. Warden, adjutant of the tank battalion, served as instructor in this session. From 9:00 until 10:00 a.m. the class was engaged in practical work stripping, assembling and functioning of the Caliber .45 automatic pistol. Following this period a forty-five minute session was devoted to the study of the Browning air-cooled machinegun, which is part of tank armament. For the remainder of the morning period the officers were instructed in the stripping and reassembling of the 37 mm. tank gun. During the afternoon they were given a three-hour lecture and demonstration on mess management by 1st Lieutenant William R. McKinnon, Quartermaster Corps, of the school for bakers and cooks.

The first session on Wednesday was one on Company adminis-tration during which the officers was reviewed their previous studies and delved into the supply question and keeping of schedules for a line company. Lieutenant Warden supervised their study. From 9:00 a. m. until 11:30, they studied the duties of a crew for a six-ton tank, and in the afternoon, under the same subject, they studied the duties of a medium-tank crew. In both classes an officer of the regular army directed the students.

Thursday was a holiday for the observance of George Washington's anniversary. Friday morning will be divided into three sessions, during which the reservwhere all the mechanical repair for the Saturday inspection of and spills galore last Sunday mornof the bovine species which have been roaming the reservation nad damaging crops. The exciting hunt resulted in the capture of two bulls—and the spilling of half a score of mounted Nimrods. Major Archibald V. Arnold and his daughter, Peggy, were the stars of the day, bulldogging the male bossies and capturing them alive.

HUNT CAPTURES BULLS IN ROUND-UP

At nine o'clock Sunday morning the impressive troop of more than eighty toreadors sallied forth in quest of their bevoid quarry, which have invaded the confines of the

The Infantry School Hunt of Benning reservation and wrought Fort Benning experienced thrills havoc with many a promising field of corn and vegetable delicacies. ing in one of the most unique and The thick fringe of woodland in interesting hunts ever undertaken the south part of the reservation on the reservation—a wild bull along the turbulent Chattahoochee hunt to capture some of the males was combed for miles before a was combed for miles before a bull was sighted. Suddenly the huntsmen's halloo rang through the forest, heralding the discovery of the first bull of the day. Captain Sidney H. Negrotto, master of the hunt, swung the field of nearly a hundred riders around into a skirmish line. Three bulls, wild and wooly young fellows with mean looks in their eyes, were surrounded. The male bossies suddenly lowered their shaggy heads and charged. Right through the circle of mounted hunters the

(Please turn to page 7)

National Guard To Open Classes Here Monday Morning

Approximately forty-five tional guard and reserve officers from the entire United States will begin their studies in the company officers' course of the Infantry School on Friday morning.

This is the fourth class of officers to be assigned to duty at the school this year, one class, the tank course for regular officers, already having completed its studies, and two more, the regular company officers' and advanced course still being in progress. There has been a drastic cut in the number of officers assigned to the company officers' class this year, as compared to last, there having been enrolled 156 in the 1933 course.

The officers will be enrolled and issued equipment, and assigned to quarters on Friday and Saturday, beginning actual class work on Monday. Brief opening exercises will be held Monday morning, at which Brigadier General G. H. Estes will address the students, welcoming them to the School.

The officers who are expected to attend the course, and the locality or organization with which they are serving are as follows: Lieutenant John A. Amber, 181st Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, Lieutenant Edger Rea Austin, Infantry Reserve, Captain Howard A. Bentley, 130th Infantry, Illinois National Guard, Captain Sterling C. Burke, 141st Infantry, Texas National Guard, Lt. John R. Bradley, Infantry Reserve, Captain George H. Cleas, 132d Infantry, Illinois National Guard, Lieutenant Robert W. Colglazier, Infantry Reserve, Lieuten-ant Charles W. Colston, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant James W. Dunham, Engineer Reserve, Lieutenant James J. Fogarty, 71st Infantry, New York National Guard. Bernard Franklin, 122d Infantry, Georgia National Guard, Lieutenant Glenn P. Gardner, Infantry Reserve, Captain Harold C. Gibb, 107th Infantry, New York National Guard, Lieutenant Laurence D. Glerum, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Harry C. Hardesty, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Donald V. Holliday, Infantry Reserve, Captain Daniel H. Hudelson, 160th Infantry, California National Guard, Lieutenant William M. Johnson, Infantry Reserve, Captain Charles H. Jones, 143rd Infantry, Texas National Guard, Lieutenant Lawrence M. Kirk 101st Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, Lieutenant Douglas J. Lawder, 159th Infantry, California National Guard, Lieutenant Lowell H. Ludwig, 201st Infantry, West Virginia National Guard, Lieutenant David A. McAdam, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Geo. A. Markell, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Gerald R. Momeyer, 112th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard, Captain Robert E. Moore, 138th Infantry, Missouri National Guard, Captain Robert

J. Rogers, 105th Infantry, New York National Guard, Lieutenant (Please turn to page 2)

R. Moore, 168th Infantry, Iowa

National Guard, Captain Henry A.

Ratterman, 147th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, Lieutenant Peter

THE BENNING HERALD

Phone 328

Louis T. Kunze____

Columbus, Georgia

Sports Editor

Circulation Manager

Published Every Friday

FEBRUARY 23, 1934 VOLUME III NO. 44 L. C. KUNZE Publisher
A. F. KUNZE Editor FELICIA C. HOWELL Society Editor

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

By Major Homer L. Conner, Medical Inspector

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

WHY THAT COUGH?

Did you ever stop to realize what a cough is, what it means, why it should be, how it is caused? A cough is really a protective act that is started by something that irritates the respiratory tract. It is a symptom of a disease of the ears, nose, throat or air passages in the lungs, or it may be just a reflex effort to remove a foreign substance from one ofthe respiratory passages. Whenever you cough there is a violent and sudden expulsion of air from the lungs. This is just nature's way of trying to get rid of something that irritates or something that collects or accumulates in the air passages. A cough is therefore a warning that something is wrong.

The reflex which causes the cough while most often beginning in the air passages, may be caused by some disease not connected with these. For example some disturbance of the heart, kidneys, stomach or intestine may cause a cough.

A persistent cough is weaken-The constant muscular act- be investigated.

of Ben's persistent search for mechanical short cuts to lighten the labors of organizations honored by his commanding presence but we had no idea that he could find time in his student daze to gratify this inventive urge until he rose ion, and perhaps pain wears one out. It demands attention. Coughs are acute or chronic. cough such as one gets with a common cold does not last long and it responds quite easily to The chronic cough, treatment. usually not as severe, persists. A cough may be dry or productive. The character of the material raisstreaked, may suggest the cause.

The sound produced by the act of coughing varies with the amount of air expelled and the muscular action behind it. It is also modified by the location and extent of the irritant. Thus we may have a metallic or brazen cough; a hollow cough; a hacking cough; a crowing or whopping cough; a barking or cigarette cough. A cough may signify only the ordinary common Military Academy, class of 1926, cold. It may be the beginning of influenza, or broncitis, or measles, or whooping cough, or pneumonia, or tuberculosis, or even a disease of your heart.

Every cough that persists should had heard on numerous occasions | stoking produces an effect not unlike a Nevada lethal chamber. One mgiht almost say that the pipe is still in its hay-day. It was merely a question of time, therefore, before cur good friend Big Ben (for whom the famous alarm clock was not named) gave birth to this boon of the ages the "Waterbury one-man smoke

Captain Spalding of the local tank battalion satisfied the curiosity of last weeks student gathering on Sackett Hill concerning the tank known as Fu-Manchu. For the benefit of those interested we pass it on. The name comes from its four speeds forward, known mechanically speaking as the low, the high, the low-high and the high-low.

The truth of the observation of some ancient seer to the effect that "time sure does fugit,, was on which, once having aris- in evidence last week when the en, challenges the world for cor- elder statesmen, having dallied not a dilly, hied themselves hither to a joint session with the younger set in A. H. No. 4 to be greeted on arrival by a wall clock some fourteen minutes more to the noonward than our own.

> No sooner do we accord due publicity to our student brethern than we find them withdrawing gracefully from the limelight, leaving no parts of their armor vulnerable. Such is the case with Prompter Beall, Cappy Wells, Bee

OFFICERS ASSIGNED

he was detailed to the Air Corps at Brooks Field, Texas, and upon completion of his schooling he reutrned to the same organization. Lieutenant Cobb is well-known in the garrison for his baseball activities, having been a member of the 1930 Infantry School team, and since that date for having aided in coaching his organization nine. He is also well-known as a polo player and is a member of the artillery team.

Lieutenant Lucas is a member of the 1919 class of the United States Military Academy, with his commission as 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry dated June 12, 1923. He served with the Infantry arm through his premotion to 1st Lieutenant and on June 10, 1932, transferred to the Field Artillery. In 1931, Lieutenant Lucas accompanied the contingent of Gold Star Mothers on the Pilgrimage to the Cemeteries of Europe and following this assignment was assigned to the Infantry School as a student in the Company Officers' Course for 1932. Upon graduation The acute from this institution he applied for a transfer to the Field Artillery, which was granted.

2nd Lieutenant Grubbs is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, West Point, New York, class of 1926, with his commission as 2nd Lieutenant of Field ed thin or thick, pus or blood Artillery, dated June 12, 1930. He was assigned to the 83rd Field Artillery of this station upon his graduation and hase served as a member of that organization since. Lieutenant Grubbs was a member of the West Point basketball team and since coming to Benning, has also been a member of the "Mus-keteers," an all-star team picked from the garrison.

2nd Lieutenant Heriot is also a graduate of the United States with a commission as 2nd Lieutenant of Field Artillery dated June 12, 1930, and an assignment to the 83rd Field Artillery as his first one in active service. In 1931 Lieutenant Herict was a member of the faculty of the West Point preparatory school, conducted at this post for enlisted men desiring to enter the academy. Prior to his assignment to the Field Artillerv School, Lieutenant Heriot was on duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps in this vicinity.

2nd Lieutenant Ports was a member of the same class as Lieutenant Grubbs and Lieutenant Heriot. wtih an assignment to the 83rd Field Artillery as his first after beginning duty with the regular army. At the start of the Civilian Conservation Corps project he was detailed with that activity at DeFuniak Springs, Fla.

Special orders of the War Department, Washington, D. C., received at Headquarters, The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, announce the assignments and terminations of duty at this post for a number of officers. Among those who were relieved and reassigned are Lieutenant Colonel Andrew D. Chaffin, 29th Infantry, who is relieved from duty with that regiment and assigned to the Infantry School as an instructor. Colonel Chaffin has

We still have hopes of proving our the year ends.

Notebooknotes: Claude Collins christening the "Where-Do-We-Go-From-Here" chart as the No. 1 boy to receive orders . . . Claude joins the satellites on the local post staff ... Movie actor Mur-phy in stentorian tones orderlying his horse . . . Colonel Stutesman's concise and to-the-point introduction to the tank demonstration, prefaced by his apt analogy of the hog that killed the rattler that bit the soldier . . Tank Expert Roberts registering his approval of ready reference points, such as the O in Ohio . . . And Cappy's announcement re student club dues that was not hard to had one of the most varied of military careers since his entrance into the service in 1900 as a private of Company B, 26th Infantry. He received a commission as 2nd Lieutenant from the ranks in 1903 and during the 31 years service has risen to the ranks he now holds. He is a graduate of Burritt College, Spencer, Tennessee, class of 1900; Henorary graduate of the School of the Line, class of '22: General Staff School, 1923; Army War College, 1928; and a graduate of the Tank School, class of 1932. He was a member of the General Staff Corps from October, 16, 1917, until September 4, 1921, and is now a member of the General Staff Corps Eligible List. Colonel Chaffin received his first assignment to Fort Benning, upon his completion of a course at the Tank School, March 11, 1932, and has served as Regimental Executive Officer for the 29th Infantry since his arrival here. It is not known at the present time just what Colonel Chaffin's duties with the Headquarters Staff will be.

Major Julius G. Newgord is relieved from duty with the Medical Department and will report to the Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of pursuing a course of instruction at the Army Medical School. This officer was first ordered to Fort Benning on May 25, 1929, following an assignment at Fort Totten, New York, and has served continuously since his arrival with the Medical Corps activities at this station. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, class of 1903, from which he holds the M. D. degree.

Major William A Smith, Medical Corps, Panama Canal Department, has been relieved from that station and assigned to the Medical Department of Fort Benning effective upon completion of his tour of fereign service. This will be Major Smith's first assignment to the Infantry School. He s a graduate of the University of North Carolina, class of 1914, and the University of Pennsylvania, class of 1916, holding the M. D. degree of both institutions. In 1922 he graduated from the Army Medical School and in 1923 from the Army Field Service School. Major Smith began his military career in 1917 as a 1st Lieutenant of the Medical Corps.

Captain Fay Ross, 66th Infantry, Fort Benning, is relieved from assignment to that organization and assigned to the Department of Experiment for duty.

Captain Ross was first sent to the Infantry School as a student of the Company Officers' Class, September 8, 1932, and upon completion of that course he was assigned to the 66th Infantry.

Captain Robert G. Howie, Infantry, is relieved from duty with the 3rd Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and assigned to Fort Benning for duty with the Academic Department. This assignment will take effect on or about June 25, 1934. Captain Howie began his career with the National Guard, serving as Chief musician and Band Leader, Field and Staff Band and Headquarters, 2nd In- land, class of 1922, and holds the fantry. Illineis National Guard from June 1916 to October 1916; is also a graduate of the Infan-Band Leader, Headquarters Com-try School Company pany. 2nd Infantry, and 132nd In- Course of 1932-33. fantry, Illinois National Guard 1st Lieutenant Claude D. Col-July 1917 to December 1917. He lins, Infantry, is relieved from duimpartiality to all and sundry ere received an appointment as 1st ty as a student at the Infantry the year ends.

Lieutenant of National Guard on School, Fort Benning, Georgia and November 17, 1917, and was appointed to Captain, Infantry, United States Army, on June 2, 1919. After his discharge from temporary duty he was accepted as a 1st Lieutenant of Infantry, regular army on July 1, 1920, and premoted to his present rank on August 1, 1930. This officer is a holder of the Silver Star Citation for war service and the Purple Heart for wounds received in action. This is his second tour at the Infantry School, having graduated from the Basic Course of this institution in 1922.

Captain LeRoy W. Nichols, 66th Infantry, is relieved from assignment with that unit and reassign- his arrival at this station assigned ed to the Infantry School for duty to the 66th Infantry for duty.

NATIONAL GUARD (Continued from page 1)

William J. Rowland, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Millard F. Saul, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Frederic P. Sheridan, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant Leiland W. Shull, Infantry, Lieutenant Frank C. Smith, 108th Infantry, New York National Guard, Lieutenant Clarence W. Springer, 156th Infantry, Louisiana National Guard. Charles N. Staley, 1st Infantry, Maryland National Guard, Captain Harold A. Thompson, 102d Infantry Connecticut National Guard, Lieutenant William J. Thompson, Infantry Reserve, Lieutenant De-Laugh W. Utter, Infantry Reserve, Captain Troy D. Walker, 186th Infantry Oregon National Guard, Lieutenant Henry R. White, Infantry Reserve, Captain William H. Williams, 135th Infantry, Minnesota National Guard, Lieutenant Harold L. Wilson, Infantry Reserve, Captain Charles A. Young Infantry Reserve, Captain Larry Zimmerman, 117th Infantry, Tennessee National Guard.

with the Headquarters Staff. Captain Nichols was first sent here on September 9, 1932, at which time he received his assignment to the 66th Infantry. On a previous tour of duty at Fort Bennnig he graduated from the Company Officers' course of the Infantry School, class of 1927. Just what Capatin Nichols' duty with the Headquarters Staff will be is not known at this time.

Captain Rutledge M. Lawson, Infantry, now on duty with the Headquarters Staff, The Infantry School, is relieved from this assignment and assigned to the 24th Infantry of this station for duty. Captain Lawson is a graduate of Wofford College of South Carolina and holds the A. B. degree of this University. He is also a graduate of the Infantry School Basic Course, class of 1921, and the Advanced Course of the same institution in 1932.

Captain Edward Jenkins, 65th Infantry, San Juan, Puerto Rico, is relieved from this assignment and assigned to the 24th Infantry, Fort Benning, Georgia. Captain Jenkins started in the army as a 2nd Lieutenant of the Officers Reserve Corps and saw active service during the Wolrd War. On July 1, 1920, he was accepted as a 2nd Lieutenant of Air Service and transferred to the Infantry arm on March 10, 1921. He received his promotion to Captain on October 1, 1931. Captain Jenkins is a graduate of the Signal School Company Officers' course, class of 1927.

1st Lieutenant Robert N. Young Infantry, is relieved from duty at the Signal School, Fort Monmouth. N. J. and assigned to the 24th Infantry, Fert Benning, Georgia. Lieutenant Young served during the war as an enlisted man in Companies A and C, Student Army Training Corps, and was appointed 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry, January 5, 1923. He is a graduate of the University of Mary-A. B. degree of this college. He assigned to the Infantry School for duty with the Headquarters Staff. Lieutenant Collins was sent here from the 6th Tank Company Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, last year for the purpose of pursuing a course of study in the Advanced 1st Lieutenant Stephen S. Hamilten, Infantry, is relieved from his present duty as a student of the Infantry School, upon its completion and detailed in the Quartermaster Corps for service. Lieutenant Hamilton was sent to Fort Benning in 1920 following a course in the Quartermaster Corps Motor Transport School, and upon in class a few days ago and spoke so nonchalantly of his smoke-lifter. His exact words in answer to a question concerning the proper employment of field artillery escape us for the moment but we do remember so much of his order as includes the desire "to smoke hill so-and-so untilH-hour when he will lift the smoke." As to the exact nature of this smoke-lifting device we have but meager information. What concerns us most just now is the underlying motive that started our hero on his latest urge for the army's improvement. For most inventions there is some dire need fairly crying for solution, some rection, improvement or alleviation, Some assert that Ben's latest brain-child was the result of a need for de-smoking a hill that had been smoked beyond the saturation point. More logical, perhaps, was the suggestion that the occasion was brought about by excessive inhalation of the fumes from Ham Meyer's pipe.

Ham is the proud possessor of a first class incinerator, famed for its pungent potency. It is guaranteed to de-bug any vermine infested ice box after the first Keeper Schildroth, and Gangless three puffs and is capable of mak- Dan Norman. Many another woring combustible whatever proporthy sen has yet to break into tions of cabbage plant, Bermuda print, due in part to our impergrass and horse hair are placed fect G-2 system and in part to therein. Five minutes of constant a more or less native reticence. take.

(Continued from page 1)

BENNING BOYS WIN IN GYMKHANA HERE

(Gaylord Hamilton)

The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of Fort Benning staged a thrilling gymkana with the Girl Scouts of Montgomery, Alabama, Saturday morning from ten to twelve at the Campbell King herse show bowl. The boys and girls competed

News . . .

Investors in the fifty cities reached by wires of this firm have available a coordinated news service on the security and commodity markets.

Fenner & Beane
13 West Eleventh Street
Phone 2272
Columbus, Ga.

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

in a variety of interesting novelty races, including a potato race, relay race, needle threading race, bending race, and musical chair race. The score for the gymkhana was close, The Benning Boy Scouts winning first place with twenty points and the Girl Scouts from Montgomery winning a close second with nineteen. The Benning Girl Scouts were third with six points.

The events started at ten o'clock with Major Archibald V. Arnold directing the contestants. The thirty horses were divided into groups of ten and lots were drawn to determine which group of mounts each team would get.

The first contest was a potato race. A rew of buckets lined the two ends of the horse show bowl, with piles of "spuds" in the center of the bowl and half-way from the two rows of buckets. The contestants were assigned buckets and sharpened lances with which to spear the potatoes and carry them to the respective buckets. When Major Arnold gave word for the race to begin, the contestants rode in from the ends of the bowl and speared industriously at the piles of spuds. In the squirming jumble horses, Scouts, spears, and spuds, in which many a poor Irish potato had its eyes punched out by the ambitious participants, cccasional contestants emerged from the center of the bowl with potatoes on their lances and rushed to their buckets to deposit them. The spuds had to be both speared and put into the buckets without the riders dismounting. Peggy Arnold of the Cardinal Troop of the Girl Scouts of Fort Benning won first place. gaining five points for Benning Girl Scout team. Harriet Thomas of the Montgomery Girl Scouts was a close second and won three points for her team. Bill Pearson fo the Benning Boy third gaining one Scouts was point.

The second event was a relay race, in which three teams consisting of eight players each were entered. Four contestants of each team were stationed at each end of the bowl and the first rider of each team was given two buffle balls. At the starting whistle three riders representing the three teams galloped to the other end of the bowl, where the buffle ball was handed to the second riders of the relay teams. These galloped rapidly back to the opposite end of the bowl and passed the buffle balls on to the next contestants. The Benning Boy Scouts won first place in the race, with the Montgomery Girl Scouts second and the Benning girls third, making the Pretty homes and building lots on Fort Benning paved road. Easy terms.

FOR SALE

HOUSES FOR RENT

F. FRIEDMAN 1027 Broadway three teams tied for first place with six points each. The winning team was composed of Julius Evans, Jr., Dick Schneider, Delbert Munson, Dan Cota, Wendell Bevan, Jr., Dick Joiner, Max Talbot,

(Please turn t opage 7)

Children's Hair Cuts 15c Other prices in proportion FLOWERS BROTHERS Successors to Metcalf's Barber Shop 1222 Broadway

Coca Cola Keeps No Hours ... It's Always Good!

At midnight or midday — Coca-Cola is equally good — as refreshing as ever.

And, In The Six-Box Only

25c

For those who work at night and those who work by day—for those who stay awake at night and those who are about in the daytime, Coca-Cola is the ideal soft drink—because it is always delicious and refreshing.

THE SIX-BOX IS THE GREATEST TIME AND LABOR SAVER EVER INVENTED

Sach year Turkey and Greece ship us thousands of bales of fine tobaccos—

But why send 4,000 miles for tobacco?

...because spicy, aromatic Turkish is the best seasoning there is for a cigarette.

It adds something to flavor and aroma that no other tobacco can give.

Chesterfield uses Turkish tobacco—from Samsoun, Smyrna, Cavalla and Xanthi.

Then it blends and cross-blends them with various kinds of choice homegrown tobaccos in the right balance to give you a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

© 1934. LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

A leaf of Turkish tobacco-smaller than the palm of your band—800 or more to the palm of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.

A leaf of Turkish to palm of your band—800 or more to the palm of your band—800 or more to the palm of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.

A leaf of Turkish to palm of your band—800 or more to the palm of your band—800 or more to the palm of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.

A leaf of Turkish to palm of your band—800 or more to the palm of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.

SOCIAL HIGH CHTS SEE

Many Entertain At Annual Costume Ball In Honor Of Washington's Birthday

The annual costume party of the Officers' Club was held Wednesday night. There was a large attendance of post people and heir guests, who enjoyed the evening thoroughly. A number of dinner parties took place at the club before the dance, several of which were no host parties. Those entertaining at the party were Major and Mrs. Charles Grace, and Major and Mrs. George Rife, Major and Mrs. Hugh C. Gilchrist, Major Lawrence J. I. Barrett, Capt. and Mrs. Wm. Kunzmann, Mrs. and Mrs. Will McKee of Columbus, and Lt. and Mrs. Wm. J. Verbeck.

There were many interesting costumes, which added to th gayety of the evening. The prizewinners for best costumes were:

Best couple. Lieutenant and Mrs. J. E. Purcell, as a Scotch couple;

Yourself the luxury of a look at our store

before you buy anything — you're sure to find everything

and anything you

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

need.

first ladies', Mrs. Oliver W. Hughes, Benning servant: Second ladies', Mrs. Theodore L. Dunn, pirate; first men's, Lt. John A. Stewart, spirit of Saturday night; second men's, Lt. Raymond Brisach, as Groucho Marx.

Colonel E. G. Peyton, Major Lawrence J. I. Barrett and Lt. Malin Craig were the judges.

MAJOR AND MRS. GRACE AND MAJOR AND MRS. RIFE HOSTS AT DINNER PARTY Major and Mrs. Charles Grace and Major and Mrs. Rife were jointly hosts at a lovely dinner at the Club Wednesday Their guests were Major and Mrs. James S. Brummette, Major and Mrs. James W. Duckworth, Major and Mrs. William D. Mueller, Mrs. Tickner, Major and Mrs. Albert G. Kinberger, Major Wal-ter A. Rose, Captain and Mrs. Charles Baird, Captain and Mrs. Stanley W. Matthews, Captain and Mrs. Crawford W. Sams, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert E. Hammersberg.

LT. AND MRS KAMIEL MAER-TENS ENTERTAIN WEDNES-DAY BEFORE DANCE

Lieutenant and Mrs. Kameil Maertens entertained at their quarters on Wednesday evening before the dance. Their guests were: Major and Mrs. George L. Kraft, Captain and Mrs. Malcolm Lindsey and their house guest, Miss Polly Wrightson of Washington D. C., Captain and Mrs. George Pope, Captain and Mrs. Oliver Trechter, Captain and Mrs. George N. Randolph, and Lieutenant Frank Elder.

SEVERAL NO-HOST DINNERS WEDNESDAY .. PRECEDING COSTUME BALL

One of the delightful no-host gatherings at the Club Wednesday was as follows: Captain and Mrs. Leonard Murphy, Lieutenant and Mrs. Cranford Warden, Captain and Mrs. Arnold J. Funk, Captain and Mrs. J. A. Nichols, Captain and Mrs. Bessette, Captain and Mrs. Llewellyn D. Tharp, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Nelson, Lieutenant and Mrs. William S. Triptenant and Mrs. William S. lett, Lieutenant and Mrs. Francis

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

NEW SPRING STYLES

For Your Approval

Blues, Greys, Beige, Browns, Blacks, and Whites. The newest styles in Pumps, Ties and Straps. Medium and High Heels.

$5.00

$6.00

$8.50

$10.50 $11.50

Nice assortment of

Sport Low Heel Oxfords

Beige and Brown

$3.95

Watch our windows daily

MILLER-TAYLOR SHOE CO.

1130 BROADWAY

PHONE 2405

Other No-host dinner groups at the officers club on Wednesday were as follows: Lieutenant and Mrs. Claude Ferenbaugh, Lieutenant and Mrs. Mark Boatner, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin K. Wright Lieutenant and Mrs. Oliver W. Hughes, Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas J. Bross, Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold L. Mace, Lieutenant and Mrs. N. C. Pilet, Lieutenant and Mrs. Theodore Dunn, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Albert H. Dickerson.

Colonel and Mrs. Decamp Hall, Major and Mrs. John H. Mellom, Captain and Mrs. Wilbur Elliot, Simmons, Major and Mrs. Vogel, Captain and Mrs. James Wood, Captain and Mrs. Benjamin W. Gally, Captain and Mrs. Arthur A. Jackson, Captain and Mrs. Robert G. Mangum, Lieutenant and Mrs. Glenn B. McConnell, Lieutenant and Mrs. William R. MacKinnon, Lieutenant and Mrs. Foreman, Lieutenant and Mrs. Andrew J. Evans, and Lieutenant and Mrs. George C. Mergens.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Francis J. Gillespie; Lieutenant and Mrs. Charles F. Colson, Lieutenant and Mrs. William T. Fitts and their house guests, Lieutenant and Mrs. Shaeffer, Captain and Mrs. James P. Wharton, Captain and Mrs. Harvey Cassedy, Lieutenant and Mrs. Daniel P. Norman, Captain and Mrs. Benjamin W. Gally, Captain and Mrs. Horace M. Woodward, Lieutenant and Mrs. Lawrence A. Dietz.

Seated at another table were: Lieutenant and Mrs. James E. Purcell, Lieutenant and Mrs. Clyde P. Eddleman, Lieutenant and Mrs. John A. Stewart, Lieutenant and Mrs. Washington M. Ives, Jr., Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert Martin, Lieutenant and Mrs. Wendell Johnson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Howard R. Johnson, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin J. Van Horn.

CAPT. AND MRS. WM. KUNZ-MANN HOSTS BEFORE DANCE AT CLUB

Captain and Mrs. William J.

Kunzmann were hosts at a lovely party at the Officers Club on Wed-Their guests nesday evening. were: Major and Mrs. Walter H. Wells, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Berry, of Columbus, Captain and Mrs. Frank Williams Captain and Mrs. Morris B. DePass, Jr., Captain and Mrs. Walton W. Cox, Captain and Mrs. Huston J. Banton, Captain and Mrs. Sydney H. Negrotto, Lieutenant and Mrs. David Fowler, Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold A. Meyer, Lieutenant and Mrs. Theodore Dunn, Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Lieutenant and Mrs. John B. Grinstead, Lieutenant and Mrs. Richard G. Thomas, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin Cummings.

MAJOR LAWRENCE J. I. BAR. RETT ENTERTAINS WED-NESDAY EVENING

Major Lawrence J. I. Barrett's guests at the Club Wednesday were: Mrs. G. H. Shelton; Miss Barrett, Lieutenant and Mrs. William Lucas, and their house guest,

Fine

WATCH REPAIRING

REASONABLE PRICES All work guaranteed

NEAL-PETRI CO.

Jewelers

101 - 12th St.

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

FOR YOUR LENTEN MEALTIMES —

In these days of fast transportation, the planning of your Lenten Miss Dale Heard, of Texas.

LT. AND MRS. VERBECK EN-

TERTAIN AT DINNER WED-

NESDAY EVENING AT CLUB

Lieutenant and Mrs. William

(Please turn to page 5)

menus is not nearly as hard as it used to be. We have fresh seafoods on hand practically all the time, in an astonishing variety. Buy your groceries and supplies here and save yourself a whole lot of trouble.

We will be very glad to assist you.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

A REALLY BEAUTIFUL

LIVING ROOM SUITE

6-PIECE ENSEMBLE

OFFERED TO YOU EXTRA SPECIAL! A Living room suite of beauty, utility and quality, yet priced moderately low. You'll be captivated by its delightful beauty.

2-PC. TAPESTRY SUITE • END TABLE • OCCASIONAL TABLE • SPOT CHAIR •

TABLE LAMP.

BEAUTIFUL THREE-PIECE FIBRE SUITE

This suite consists of a 68" settee. a rocker and chair. A very attractive and useful suite of furniture for any home.

FOUR PIECE

BEDROOM SUITE

$6400

Convenient Terms If Desired

MAXWELL BROS. & McDONALD

1141 BROADWAY

PHONE 409

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

SOUTHEASTERN TOURNEY BIG EVENT

Eluggers Of Cotton States To Meet In Annual Meet Here

Boxers from all over the Southast will be congregated at the est next week for the annual carival of amateur fistiana, which s being held at Benning this year, ind followers of the ring game are comised their fill of slugging, skill, and science.

The post amateur team, holders of last year's team title, are looked pon as favorites to repeat in this year's tourney, and although the post boys may drop a crown or two, they are looked upon to ome through in other weights to nake up the difference.

The most notable competition far entered in the race is Ede Freyer, of Georgia Tech, who will compete in the welter-weight class this year. Freyer was champion in 1931, and then took a twoyear lay-off. This year he has Innounced his intention to recapture his crown, and in order to do

VALUES!

'29 Ford Tudor
'30 Ford Coupe	$250
'31 Ford Tudor	$295
'32 Ford V-8 Coupe	$375
32 Ford V-8 Tudor	$395
32 Ford V-8 Phaeton	$375
'32 Buick 32-57 Sedan	$595
33 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$550
•

Several others $25.00 and up. Liberal Terms and

and

Trades.

Burrus Motor Co.

USED CAR DEPT.

1213 1st Ave.

Phone 606

Benning's prides, Neal Milam.

Milam himself does not seem to be much worried over the competition to be expected from Freyer, but regards him as the outstanding contender for the crown. Neal, since winning the title has had a world of experience against the teams that have worked here and against the boys on the post squad, and is working one hundred per cent in championship form. If Freyer should take the title he will have to battle for it. The rest of the weight classes that Benning will enter into will se esome stiff competition offered by the post fighters, both in defense of their titles, and in attempts to gain new ones.

Beginning with the lightest division, the flyweight, Benning for the first time in years has a good entry in Eddie McShea. Due to the physical standards required of Uncle Sam's nephews, it is hard to get a man in this weight that is strong enough to put up a good battle. McShea, however, who is stationed at the post attending school, is a former national contender, is compactly built, and packs a beautiful wallop for a little man. He should go far.

Billie Floyd, runner-up in the '33 tourney against Charlie Floyd will represent the first string in the battles Billy was the only stiff opposition offered to his name-sake last year and unless there appears a wonder man hitherto unheard of, looks good for the title this season.

The featherweight division well represented as Billie Floyd, last year's bantam-weight king, is fighting in that weight. Floyd showed in the post tourney that he still packed the old sock, and was just as clever as ever in the boxing end. Another possible and very powerful factor to consider in this class is the threat offered by Al Schneider, although at the present moment. Al is in the cold. Some few weeks ago word was received at the post that Schneider had made the mistake of participating in fisticuffs on a professional card down in Florida, and Lieutenant Howard R. Johnson, team coach and arbitrator in the post tourney, barred him from further competition until he had established or fail to establish his amateurism. At the present moment word is being awaited by Schneider that will give proof of his now-whiteness in the proffessional-amateur line. Should he be reinstated it looks as if two Benning boys will once more fight for a title.

The lightweight class will be represented by Filipone, post titleholder, and Phail, of last year's squad. Filipone possesses a hard punch, and can take punishment

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS

$ 550,000.00 $3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representaive—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

DRAG HUNT HELD FOR CHILDREN OF POST

The Junior Drag Hunt of Fort Benning, composed of sixty-five young boys and girls of the post under fifteen years of age, took part in an interesting and picturesque drag hunt last Saturday, sharing the thrills of the occasion with eleven members of the Montgomery Girl Scouts. The hunt followed the Mounted Scout gymkhana which was held at the horseshow bowl last Saturday morning, and in which the Boy and Girl Scouts of Fort Benning and a troop of Girl Scouts from Montgomery, Alabama, participated. The hunt was made over the course used by the adult drag hunters of Benning, which contains numerous difficult jumps, across small ravines, brush jumps, gates, fences, and stone walls. The youngsters took all the jumps like vet-with anybody, his principle failing being in the boxing line. Lieutenant Johnson is working on this feature and is rounding the Gunner champ in shape very nicely. Phail, fighting his third year on the post squad, has developed into a dangerous body puncher who loves a slugging match, and is one hundred per cent improved from when he first fought for the post.

The welterweight class has Milam as mentioned, and "Speedy" Goss, long, lanky and clever youngster from the Irish squad. Milam, as stated, is in fine fettle, and Goss, with his long reach, and punch, is going to cause a lot of worry among the 145 pounders.

The middleweight class, always Benning's strong point, has two of the best boys in that weight that can be found in the South today.

"Ace" Whatley, powerful puncher, post champion, Southeastern champion, and Olympic quarterfinalist, is ready and waiting for the boys to step up and be bowled Whatley, with his eye over. turned avidly on larger fields that the local ones, is working his head off for the coming tourney, and should repeat without mistake. Ed Brady, runner-up as a member of the Mobile team last year, is fighting for the post this season, and giving his best to meet "Ace" again for the title. These two will undoubtedly clash in the final meet, with dire results to some-

Phil Carpenter, off-and-on scrapper from the Irish squad, who captured the post title in the lightheavies, will again make an attempt to gather in the Southeastern title Carpenter, undeniably on of the best light-heavies in the South today, has had little success in his endeavours since coming to the post. Each year he has gone to the closing bouts, only to lose out, although last year's battle left some doubt in the minds of the spectators as to whether he actually lost or not. those who know boxing, after watching his work this season, predict that he will make the grade this season. Burton, a newcomer to the Benning squad, made a wonderful showing in the post tourney, and is going to give iots of trouble in the tourney, although a little lacking in experi-

Penland, 1933 champion in the Southeastern, is in good shape to defend his crown and should give little trouble.

The thrilling ride began in the afternoon with Tommy Arms and Peggy Arnold acting as masters of the hunt and Laurence Persons and Betty Negrotto hunting the One of the pack leaders struck the scent and the remainder of the pack of thirty-two hounds chimed in, causing the woodland to ring with stirring melody. The pack of hounds, composed of sixteen experienced hounds and sixteen young running mates, swept down the trail like a streak. Right. at the heels of the pack rode the young peolple of Fort Benniing tnd Montgomery, jumping hedges, fences, stone walls, ravines, and winding in and out among trees and brush, keeping always close upon the belling hounds.

Captain Sidney H. Negrotto, Master of the Hunt at Benning, supervised the young people in the hunt. And never did the legendary Pied Piper of Hamelin, with his magic music, lure so energetic and adventurous a following of youngsters as did Captain Negrotto Saturday afternoon with his colorful pack of hounds on the drag hunt.

The boys and girls of Fort Benning gave proof of the fact that they boast of some of the very best riders on the post. They managed their mounts with perfect ease, and every rider took the jumps like seasoned horsemen.

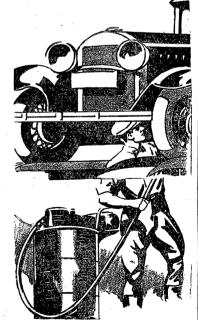

The thrills and interesting experiences which the Benning and

(Please turn to page 7)

1420 FIRST AVENUE PHONE 165 THE POST EXCHANGE OUR AGENT AT BENNING

You wouldn't abuse a Horse as you do your Automobile!

You take good care of your horse-because if you don't he will be hard to replace. Why not be just as careful with your automobile? It is subject to many ailments just as the horse is. Bring it by today and let our De-Luxe Service put it in first class condition.

We Do Painting Work On All Makes Of Automobiles

AUTO DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to cell to anyone not in the Military Service.

Serve it as often as you like

Kinnett's Ice Cream tastes good and IS good at any time and for any occasion.

SOCIETY (Continued from page 4)

Verbeck entertained at dinner at the Officers Club on Wednesday. Their guests were: Lieutenant and Mrs. Frank Bowen, Lieuten-ant and Mrs. Douglas Campbell, Lieutenant and Mrs. Cleland Sibley, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Joseph Cleland.

CAPT. AND MRS. MALCOLM LINDSEY HOSTS PRECED-ING BACHELORS DANCE

Captain and Mrs. Malcolm Lindsey entertained at dinner on Saturday preceding the dance at the Polo-Hunt Club given by the Benning Batchleors.

This delightful affair was planned in honor of their attractive house guest, Miss Polly Wrightson of Washington D. C. Miss Wrightson has been entertained at a number of delightful affairs

> We Make RUBBER STAMPS

Columbus Office Supply Company

WE'RE GLAD TO BE ABLE TO EXPRESS OUR PLEAS-URE AT THE PROSPEC-TIVE RESTORATION OF THE PAY CUT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SERV-ICE.

WE WISH YOU THE BEST

since her arrival.

The guest lis tincluded several members of the younger set of Fort Benning: Miss Esther Kelly, Miss Nana Seeley, Miss Molly Goodwin, Miss Maxine Rife, Lieutenant Henry B. Kunzig, Lieutenant James Heriot, Lieutenant Thom as Kent, Lieutenant Gerald Chapman, Lieutenant Lauren Merriam, Mr. Albert Persons, Lieutenant Edward Winston and Mr. George Griswold.

HANDICAP BRIDGE TOURNA-MENT MONDAY AT OFFI-CERS' CLUB

On Monday night at the Officers Club there was a handicap Bridge tournament.

The winners were as follows: First, Lieutenant and Mrs. Brady, Second, Captain and Mrs. Gould, Third, Mrs. V. Evans and Mrs. Ladd, Fourth, Captain and Mrs. Albright.

BENNING PEOPLE PLAN TO ATTEND BALLET AT AT-LANTA

Among those having tickets for the Monte Carlo Russian Ballet to be given in Atlanta on March first are: Captain and Mrs. George V Pope, Captain and Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey, Lieutenant and Mrs. Joseph I. Greene, Mrs. George P. Howell, Mrs. James E. Bowen, Mrs. William C. Lucas, and Mrs. Charles T. Lanham.

PERSONALS

The many friends of Mrs. George P. Howell will be distressed to learn that she is a patient at the Post Hospital, having been thrown from her horse while jumping. Mrs. Howell suffered a painfully bruised knee but was not severe-

Lieutenant and Mrs. Nunez C. Pilet have returned home to Fort Benning after a most delightful etn days spent in New Orleans They were in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras period.

Mrs. Mark Boatner, Sr., of New Orleans is now visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. Mark Boatner, Jr.

The regular monthly meeting of the Army Daughters wes held on Friday at the Officers' Club.

Miss Roma Kilgore, formerly a member of the hospital staff at this post, was a recent vistor while on the way to South Georgia to visit relatives.

Pasteurizatioi

ISN'T ALL!

Products Have Flavor

Delicious Ice Cream . . . healthful cellophane-sealed sweet milk . . . You can depend on perfect satisfaction when you make it a point to ask only for Foremost.

Dairies, Inc.

Bonnie Lass

And very, very bonnie are these bleuses in stripes, checks and plaids. You've: just got to have one with a spring suit.

$1.95

Stitch in Time

If you start sewing right now, you won't know what it is to see a new season dawning, and not have a thing to wear. Printed silk crepes.

$1.50 yd.

Front Face

$5 and $10

Fashion Flash

When a black or navy dress has a bit of lingerie at the neckline, it becomes a Paris protege. We've lots of them for you.

$8.95 up

Hasn't Scratched Yet

If you're rough on shoes, get some oxfords of mandrucca . . . and see how swell they wear. They're right good looking with enough grain not to scratch.

$4.95

In The Bag!

That's a nice fashion point this spring. A handsome handbag tops off your ensemble with a dash of perfection. These are in navy, beige, black, brown, white and grey.

$2.95

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

1008 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

BULL HUNT (Continued from page 1)

bulls rushed, unhorsing several riders and making a mad dash gentlemen cows were once more rounded up. This time, Major Arnold and his daughter, Peggy, bulldogged one of the male bossies, jumping from their mounts and pinning the bull to the ground. With the help of Sergeant Thomas Tweed, another of the wild bevoids was captured by the Arnold combination. The third bull made his escape, but the proud Nimrods brought back two of the wildest and most formidable looking bulls that have ever been caught on the Benning reservation. The capture of the buls on the Fort Benning reservation adds another page to the glamorous history of hunting in this section, which was once a very happy Hunting Grounds for the primitive redskins, who were always successful in bagging an abundance of game with their unique weapons along the banks of the tumultuous Chattahoochee. When and how these bulls made their invasion of the reservation tion is a mystery. Whether, gypsylike, they made an odyssey here from some unknown bulldom, or whether their debut into the society of wild life on the reserve merely dates back to their escape from a Benning barnyard, it is not known. However, it is interesting to remember that a Spaniard, Hernando De Soto, was the first known white man to penetrate into this section—and that the Spaniards have always been famed for their love of bull-fight-

Captain Sidney H. Negrotto was master of the hunt, supervising the unique Fort Benning reproduction of the famous "Battle of Bull Run," last Sunday morning. Major Archibald V. Arnold and his adventurous and tomboyish young daughter, Peggy, were the outstanding stars of the occasion, taking a leading part in the capture of the wild bulls. Major dition by proving themselves bet-William H. H. Morris was spilled ter at the supposedly-feminine art from his mount into a ravine of threading needles and winning Captain Wilbur S. Elliott, in an first and third places in the con-quarry, was thrown down an embankment. Mrs. John A. Otto was unhorsed when one of the bulls charged her mount; and Mrs. Walter P. O'Brien also made a forced landing when her horse stumthrough the woods. Finally the bled in an attempt to jump a shrub-fringed ravine. In spite of the many minor mishaps, the entire troop of more than eighty toreadors returned to the post in time for dinner, without injuries and with two prize wild bulls.

CHILDRENS DRAG HUNT (Continued from page 6)

Montgomery Scouts had in the mounted gymkhana and on the drag hunt were quite as exciting as any of those experienced in the books about the Rover Boys, Don Sturdy, the Outdoor Girls, or the Bobbsey Twins.

The next undertaking of the youngsters of Fort Benning is to be a Children"s Rodeo, in which there will be various kinds of trick riding, racing, and horsemanship of every kind. There will also be two wild bulls in the show, which are sure to furnish excitement for everyone. The bulls were recently caught on the reservation in his hand. His partner at the during a hunt in which nearly a hundred grown-ups and children participated. Peggy Arnold, a member of the Benning Girl Scouts, took a leading part in the capture of the bulls.

SCOUTS WIN GYMKHANA (Continued from page 3)

and Fred Ladd. The Montgomery Girl Scout relay team was composed of Harriet Thomas, Ruth Rice, Alice Weber, Billie Weber. Sarah Sanford. Julia Irving Harris, Janet Lifsey, and Harriet Englehart. The Benning Girl Scouts in the race were Virginia Wadsworth, Jerry Catron, Phillis Partridge, Ann Betts, Barbara Monroe, Ann Cota, Mildred Yancey, and Margie Holland.

In the needle-threading race which was the next event in the gymkhana, the boys smashed traattempt to head off the escaping test. The Montgomery girls were

ENGINEERS

A party of six men from the company spent the week-end cruising on the Chattahoochee, using a pontoon boat and outboard motor. Coach John was captain of the expedition, and reports that as a result of the trip singing and yodelling will be discontinued in the second platoon due to the fact that Lassiter dropped "ole Ug' (his guitar) in the river. What's your reaction, boys?

"Rudolph" Watts has recently returned from an expedition to Marietta. Rudy is a real lady-killer. He admits crippling a few anyway. We wonder if his success with the ladies has anything to do with his remarkable (?) pool shooting.
Pvts. 'Gc' Sessions and 'Horse'

Power are grinding hard to earn a diploma from the tank school. Hoodlum says his jinx is worksecond. Each team consisted of two players, one at each end of the bowl. The first of the two rode down to the other end of the horse show bowl ith a piece of thread other end of the bowl had the needle. Between the two the needle was to be threaded and carried back to the opposite end of the bowl by the second rider. A team consisting of Fred Ladd and Don Spalding won first place and Jimmy Maertens and Tommy Arms third, both teams of the Benning Boy Sceuts. Alice Weber and Ruth Rice won second place for the Montgomery girls.

A bending race was next, in which the contestants had to ride in and out a series of hazards without overturning them. First, there were eliminating contests in which the three best riders were chosen for the main race. Two girls from Montgomery and one Benning Boy Scout survived the eliminations. In the final contest, Julius Evans, Jr., won first place, with Harriet Thomas second and Julia Irving Harris third, both girls from Montgomery.

The last event of the gymkhana vas a musical chair race. The contestants rode around a large circle of chairs, while the Twenty-Fourth Infantry Band played popular music. When the music stepped the riders had to dismount and, still holding on to the horse, seat themselves in the chairs. There were less chairs than riders, so the scramble for seats was most exciting. Contestants sat in each others' laps in their enthusiasm to get chairs, and the horses themselves showed tendences at times to be seated, also. The large circle of Scouts rapidly diminished, until there were but three contestants. With the score of the gymkhana very close, the representatives of the various teams fought desperately for points. Ruth Rice of Montgomery first place, Irvin Shehan of the Benning Boy Scouts was second, and Carwin Shaw of Montgomery was third. The final score was: Benning Boy Scouts 20, Mentgomery Girl Scouts 19, and Benning Girl Scouts 6. The Boy Scouts of Benning were presented a cup for winning first place in the gymka-

There was exhibition jumping close of the gymkahana in which Kramer Thomas, Tommy Arms, and Betty Negrotto each made a score of 100. Other contestants were Wendell Bevan (98), Marian Blunquest (95), Margie Highland (95-, and Ann Cota, Lwrence Persons and Virginia Wadsworth.

Captain John Huling. Jr., directed the Boy Scout team from Benning. Mrs. Henry J. Matchett, was in charge of the Benning Girl Scouts, and Mrs. I. M. Sheffield was director of the Girl Scouts from Montgomery. Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Huling assisted Major Archibald V. Arnold in officiating at the gymkhana. There was a large crowd at the horse show bowl to see the interesting con-

HEADQUARTERS CO.

The Headquarters Battalion Bowling team is still going strong but a half game behind, in second place. With Hall back from CCC, the team will be belstered up a great deal and it is hoped will put the team back in first place. Sergeant LaBonte, Red Burns and Bitala are doing some fine bowlnig.

The Company celebrated George Washington's birthday this week by taking a rest from all duties. These great men's birthdays are appreciated very much by all men.

The Company won another duck supper for last month's height standing in physical efficiency. This is one of the marks of leadership and the Company is very proud of it.

Geiger from the mounted section was discharged the past week. Another soldier will be made happy by his rating but the company is sorry to lose Geiger.

Hebert is taking Spanish and is improving rapidly. Herbert is one f our outstanding athletes.

WANTED: Any one who has a discarded hair brush, please get in touch with Sgt. Yarbrough, as this much wanted article is very urgent, to replace shoe brush that is worn out thru fair wear and

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

Salutations and greetings friends: Just a few words or remembrance to our friends in the 29th, and perhaps enlighten you as to ng overtime this month. He even lost his rabbit foot.

Our company acquired three new ones" last week. Pvts. Reismann, Bell, and Tassin. Glad to have you.

We are sorry to hear that Red Slade has lost his brother.

Corp Prunty went to Alabama Monday. Was Georgia glad to get him back!

We have been hearing a lot about "shacking" recently. What's it all about Wop and Copey?

ELFRED LASSITER.

the length of submission and return to regular duty status, so that you may be relieved of the added burden in performing our duties.

The boys all seem to be in fine spirits, and we hope that by the time this is published to be released from quarantine. The first few days were hardest but gradually the urge to be with the fair lasses of Columbus faded. Even the "Down at the house men" have (Please turn to page 8)

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Electric and Gas Service

Dependable |

POWER (COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

NAVY

ALL-IN-ONE improved LIQUID ROUGE

for MEYER METAL & ACID TEST INSIGNIA & BUTTONS

Under ordinary conditions simple solution of soap suds and household ammonia suffice as a cleanser and polisher; however, where a strong-er and quick acting agent is necessary to do the work we offer ALL-IN-OME LIQUID ROUGE, put up ready to use with dauber included with every bottle.

Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons Your Post Exchange or Dealer

N. S. MEYER INC. NEW YORK

WE SINCERELY HOPE THAT THE NEAR FUTURE WILL SEE THE 15% CUT RESTORED.

We congratulate the Senate on the stand they have already taken.

CHANCELLOR C O M P AMen's and Boys' Wear

- Fort Benning's Columbus Headquarters

40 REASONS:

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

OTES FROM THE ORGANIZATIONS

29TH INFANTRY

(Coninued from page 7)

ceased to moan and fret. It may be of interest to some of our close friends if we loosen up and let you in on a few secrets. Sgt. Bernard Lang and poet of this organization has been blessed the company "Hawkshaw" interrowith a new baby girl. Further blessings were extended to Cpl. Ladson I. Geddings, and Pvt. Joseph J. Hedgepath, both of whom have announced the birth of fine boys in their families respectfully. Cpl. Geddings states that the new addition and young man of the family has inherited his own excellent qualities as a soldier and barks out commands quite naturgive any dope on the new experiwears as they haven't as yet been put to test. One thing we do know though, for looks and comfort they've got it all over the old wrap leggings. Last week we took the Outpost No. One (1), to Torch Hill and back in record time. In returning we took the route around Russ pool back to the Barracks. As we neared the habited area near Main Theatre, orders were given to slacken speed in observance of speed laws on the reservation, but alas, too late. Old Julie age 22, a faithful hard working mule, decided not to take it any longer, so relaxed and died on Ingersoll Street near Vogle Avenue. This was a sad ending, and everyone of us felt a sinking in the heart as Julie passed to the unknown. This was soon forgotten however, for soon after reaching the barracks supper was served, and everyone ate plentifully of steaks and slum.

So long till next time.

SERVICE COMPANY

Last week we had the "chills" so this week we broke out with the messles-you know just something different. But we didn't thing that so many of our bosom pals would desert the fold. There is Sal Lewis. Mail-man Brown. Pepper Martin, and last but not least "Watta Man" Stannard who have all gone for a short visit eleswhere during the "frost".

We have uncovered some good ball players too, some of the lightweights are, Slim Holleander, Shorty Ricker, Pee Wee Julian, Tiny Ezell, and the well known Cordwood Smith, all experts in their lines, with their lines, or what have you We had almost forgotten, Swart has returned from a meeting with the Better Housing Committee of Seeleyville, Ga. What sales talk that boy must have put over-he has a swell understanding.

Last night was a night of -we had fire drill at the Corrals. Talk about turning out animals the whole thing was a big success. Just the right amount of exercise for a perfect night's sleep, and what appetites we had this morning-how about it Mess Ser-

Rumer from the orderly room has it that the Top Kick on learning that an inspection of barracks was soon to take place, immediately began to clean off his desk an accumulation of memorandums. In so doing he filled two waste paper baskets. How about a load of wood Sgt.? Sgt. Doc Harrison it seems is well pleased with his transfer from the mules to the motors. No

> We Make RUBBER STAMPS

Columbus Office Supply Company

ing for a lost Missouri Canary during our usual nocturnal maneuvers but he adds that there is a similiarity between a mule and making two Post basketball chammotor in that when they stop, they are equally hard to get started again.

What member of the Company, gates, was responsible for the recent change in regulations governnig motor traffic? And what young man about town couldn't stand prosperity? That's all this week, come up and see us next week, Mae's brother, HENRY.

COMPANY "B"

B Company, as a unit of the 1st Battalion, featured extensive-It's a little early just new to ly in the two sided maneuver which took place February 14th. mental boots for the Infantry Needless to say every man in the outfit was thoroughly tired at it's completion yet the morale and enthusiasm of every man was as high at the end as at the beginning. It is believed that this fact was mules and carts for a walk thru due in no small part to the complete knowledge that every man had of the situation at all times.

Sergeant Kern was the victim of an unavoidable accident during maneuvers in which he was seriously injured. He was struck by a charging herse and in falling struck his head against a stump The impact opened up a scalp wound several inches long and possibly caused a slight fracture of the skull. In addition the scalp would was pretty well filled with dirt making the development of a serious infection possible. Sergeant Kern is not "Out of the Woods" yet but due to his physical reserve and high spirit it is believed that he will fully recover.

Private Schubert, who has been n furlough due to the illness of his mother, has returned for duty.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY FIRST BATTALION

'Oogle-oogle" seems to be the new by-word of the men around this One B-N Communication outfit. What the significance of the phrase is no one seems to know but Phil Carpenter, our amateur boxer acquired the saying recently. We think it has some relation to the "Hooey" on toast that is served at a cafe in Columbus. It is also stated that gin and vegetable soup makes a delicious combination.

Everybody in the Company has been compelled to have their hair cut, a la G. I. and are some of the boys raving about it. Umm!! It will just necessitate that the boys abstain from seeing hon until the crowning glory grows out again. A lot of the fellows have written their girls and told them that they will probably be confined to the limitations of the Post on account of the measles. Tut tut!! You had better hope that she doesn't read a copy of the Benning Herald. or am Î the one that should be wishing such? Now a word about the 1st Battalion basketball team. Everyone of you know that we have a good team, we have beat the first half hampions one game and have come close to downing the muchvaunted Pirates of the Headquarters Battalion. But wait, we haven't finished yet. You all know that a team cannot win or be inspired without their sideline support and at a recent contest between the Pirates and the Green Wave, I'll venture to say that there was at least three men pulling for the 1st Bats. I also happen to know that there ere mere than three 1st Battalion rooters at the contest. Let us show he proper spirit by turning out 100 per cent to witness these encounters and amplify our choice for the Irish team who are fighting hard to capture the second half of the series. Remember what the team did last more will he be concerned in hunt- championship, aided us in capturing the crown, the 1st Bats had to fight mighty hard to beat the Kellys and they did defeat them pionships in a row. That wasn't all though, they invaded the hardwood courts at the Alabama- Georgia tournament and also walked away with that title.

Our team still possesses those capabilities let's get out there and holler our lungs cut for them and help them to win still a third championship.

N. H. HOBBS

CANNON COMPANY

Captain Renth has just started The chart is a progress chart. posted on a special bulletin board where every one can see it. At the end of each week we will be graded in different subjects and the grades will then be transferred to the chart. This system will give an accurate record of our knowledge and has already created much interest both in this company and in other companies in the Regiment.

No wonder Cpl. Fate Thomas is going around with a big grin from ear to ear—he has just joined that mighty and misty fraternity of Fathers. He is now the proud father of a large eight pound boy. Congratulations, old man!

The other day while giving a lecture up in the day room, Lieut. Smith asked Pvt. Bonifay to name the two kinds of drill. Pvt. Bonifay brightened up thinking that he was going to make a good impression on Lieut. Smith and said "squads right" and "squads left." Maybe he didn't make such a good impression after all.

Cpl. Davis, our stable sergeant, has been doing well with the new feeding experiment that Col. Chaffin is trying out. Col. Chaffin has given him much praise for the work he is doing.

Famous Sayings of Famous People Chesser: "It is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all." Duke Januszak: "Girand, Mann, It's half an hour after get un! first call!"

Gallmon: "Gimme a smoke." O'Neal: "Bout as well."

"Who's got two show Orr: fares?"

COMPANY "E"

Beware! Company E has the measles, or at least our star recruit, Shehane, caught them and caused the company to be put under quarantine. No more guards and fatigue detail for a while but on the other hand, no shows and no "going down the house."

The officers and non-commissioned officers of the company are planning on contests and games of all kinds to help pass the time away while under quarantine. Capt. Faith has also purchased several sets of real good books, playing cards, chess and checker boards, magazines of all kinds, volley ball and net, and indoor baseballs. So, with a little company spirit, this old shut-in period won't be so

The men thought of having a liar's contest, but on second thought, didn't for there was no one to compete with "Tent Area" Jim Dutton.

Sgt. Dog Dalby had a little accident. (No, not drunk for he doesn't drink-much). It seems that for some reason or other his car suddenly left the road and back fender came in contact with the road bank and the result was a bad dent. He said why should he worry-five percent.

All the soldiers, Happy Long, and Jim Dutton have completed the bayonet instructions. Some of the shack men had a hard time qualifying but of course the officers in charge had sympathy for year. Although the Artillery, who gave us another chance at the them.

A very common sight around here these days is Red Gibbs running around with his little letter box under his arm and looking very love-struck.

It has been a nightly habit of Josh Mule head Parish to utter little prayer for a promotion and then to run down the first thing in the morning to look on the board and see if it had been answered. Several mornings ago, Josh was found lying in the hall, dead to the world-his prayers had been answered.

Cavender states that he has had several nights rest lately. Maybe Polk wants to become an expert rifleman.

Bosco Temes has begun practice early to make sure he makes expert rifleman.

If anybody wants the low-down on old Love-struck Sisk, just ask G. B. Moody. He should know.

If anyone should want First Sergeant Davis, he will be found on hole No. 7, out on the Golf

COMPANY "F"

Pfc. Lawrence E. Rowland has returned from a forty-five day furlough which he spent in Mississippi. How about those Mississippi girls Rowland?

Private Clyde R. Hughes has been promoted to the rank of Private First-Class. Congratulations to you Pfc. Hughes.

Pfc. Lawrence J. Adams, who is scheduled to retire in the near future, set a mark for the majority of the young soldiers to shoot at on the Bayonet Court last week by running the course in thirty seconds with a score of 58 points. Who says he needs to retire?

Private Herman T. Vallery, who has been in the Station Hospital undergoing treatment for a broken jaw, received in an amateur boxing bout at the Post gymnasium, has been returned to this organization for duty.

Private Frank Reismann Jr., formerly of this organization, has transferred to Company "A" 4th Engineers. The Engineers will get you if you don't look out.

COMPANY "C"

We are well pleased to hear that Pfc. Wilkins is making a good start in life, and a very good one too, since he was seen buying the following articles from the commissary:

One side of bacon Ten pounds of flour Ten cans condensed milk Yes, we agree, Johnnie, nothing is anymore sacred to those who

COMPANY "H"

Well, the 2d Bn. basketball team came to the front and won the first half by a narrow margin of 38 to 37. The Hq. boys tried hard but they could not cope with the savage determination to win of the 2nd Bn.

Sgt. Ryles is back from furlough and he seems glad to be back in the fold again.

Jones, the boy with the elongatess claims he was a champion broad-jumper when he was going to school. You can show your wares Jonesy, before many days go by.

Fuzzy Braswell is a First Class Private again. Stick with it this time, Fuzzy, and don't try to make two out of one again.

Shorts . . . In the words of Chan, Berrong can portion it out but he cannot receive it. . . Billy Hyde is on furlough at last. Phil Scott is making trips across the Upatoi with suspicious regularity. . . 'Sap' Saunders can drink more milk than anybody else in the company. . . And Gunsallus drinks his fast and doesnt care who knows it.

BATTERY "A"

The Battery has had a number of men to go on emergency furlough in the last two week's.

Sgt. Boyce McRae, was taken to the Hospital a few days ago with pneumonia. The last report was that the sarg, was getting along fine.

BATTERY "C"

The skin list in the battery acts some what like the temperature. It rises and falls. The detail has a steady raise while the 1st Section has a steady decline.

Pvt. 1cl Horner has re-enlisted for three more years and is taking the Communication Course at The Infantry School.

Speedy Stewart, who spent last Saturday night in a vacant house in Columbus, Ga., was surprised Sunday morning when he awoke and found himself dressed in a night gown. Battery "C" had their first R. S. O. P. Tuesday. Their two new Battery Reels and as far as we know everything went fine. We hope that we will now be able to have R. S O. P. and not horse exercise and stables.

COMPANY "A"

Well, folks this is some week, believe it or not, yet strange things do happen even here in this little world of ours, Fort Benning. You're Gonna Lose Your Gal' is true as far as this reporter is concerned because he's done lost his gal. Speaking of no other than Yamacraw, the big pounder from the Borders. rived in Ft. Benning, Ga., on March 16, 1933, gained popularity over-night by annexing a shack soon after arrival, held shack for 11 months only to be thrown out one cold Saturday night in this very month of February simply because he thought he had a number nine when he really had just a five. Now the poor boy realizes that he is not a whipper at all; just only a shack supporter. But you should have seen him moving into quarters about dusk Sunday afternoon, loaded down with his clothing and equipment. What the boys would like to know is just why Yamacraw left his keys behind Don't let that be an excuse for going back, Yam.

No wonder Sgt. Handsome Crosby is so happy this morning. He is tickled pink to just have it known by all concerned that he is not the only one in the company that can't hold a shack. le late you in finding this out. Sarge Corn-Plaster Howell Sargent, Corp. Beau Hammons and Corp. Humpy Murphy have much information to offer along this line.

Well, it happens here and elsewhere. Just another shack took a tumble. Pvt. Judkins was awakened one morning by the steady tap tap tap of the rent man's hammer tacking up a rent sign on his Gal's door. Although the poor sap had drawn $15 Post Exchange coupons his lady insisted that he draw $20 more to pay the present and past rent then due. Try as he would all he could get was "No" from the Top Kick. Just another shack vacant. (Please turn to page 9)

OTES FROM THE ORGANIZATION

24TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 8)

The big Blimp is happy over the misfortune of the reporter only he regrets having the big fellow around the company because he, the Blimp, can't make his dips without being seen. Please tell us Blimp, where you took those $12 in groceries too.

Pvt. Gorilla Banks, the once Big Shot of the Square Circle was asked at singing the other day just what was the matter with voice; it was noticeably bad. The Gorilla stated that the reason why he was singing bad was because his foot-work was like the control on a Radio; when they hurt him he gets static in his throat.

Well, the Top Kick is preparing for the hunting season next fall. He began by ordering a rabbit dog for $20 only to find out later that he could have purchased one for just two bus tickets. Asked why he wanted a rabbit dog he replied: "Well, when I miss with my gun, the dog will pick them up." Quite wise of you Saves Quite wise of you, Sarge, old pal.

Just a tip boys: If you don't want your secrets known don't talk about it around the Supply Room or in the 1st Platoon Barracks around the Blimp and whatever you do please keep it away from Pvt. Scrounch Giles, the wandering boy who sees all and tells

- Pollen.

COMPANY "B"

After two dummy runs for the Area Competition the Company is back up to standard. All are present except a few bad boys in the Can and a couple on furlough.

Manager Hansbury and his Gator nine are getting on line for Spring training. He has his eyes on several new players but don't seem to get together with them. I think their prices are too high with our funds so low. Well, anyway, we are going (so they say) to Florida for the training, the equipment was shipped last week and I think we will get an early start sometime this week.

Father Rhone is enjoying a 15 day furlough down in Wayside, Ga., with his mother and father. Have a good time father because we will have plenty for you to do when you get back.

Don't rush boys, but listen! Pvt. Wright Alexander, our second hash slinger, is being discharged some time this month in the near know what that future, if you means. He will have loads of funds and if you are his pal in bad standing with him, you had better get yourself together.

Pfc. Cue Ball Nick, our Criminal Lawyer, lost a very important case for Pvt. George Washington last week. We don't know exactly what the charges were but Cue Ball told his client to plead insane. Even at that the poor boy pulled a half of Calendar anyway. Better luck next time, Cue Ball.

Our chief member of the Brain Gang). Trust will be out of the can today and all of the members will get together and the old Brain Trust will be formed once again. And we hope that they will put out some good stuff this time.

-Hawkins and Randolph

COMPANY "C"

detailed on Special Duty at the 24th Infantry Exchange, after serving as Clerk at 1st Bn. Hq., 24th Inf., for several years. He likes his new assignment very well.

Pvt. Henry Cason is now on duty at 1st Bn. Hq., 24th Inf., as Clerk, and is sitting around awaiting the receipt of Boards and Charges. In other words—he's a rearin' to go.

last inspection, came through this company like a Wizard of the profession, leaving much misery in his wake to some of the individuals who are losing their teeth gradually each day. A complete store on this subject is contemplated by the Reporter in next issue oif the Benning Herald. Watch for it. For me to write it now while some of the men are in pain might imperil my position.

-C. J. Ragsdale

COMPANY "E"

Pfc. Johnnie Parramore of this organization, is spending a twomonths' furlough in Thomasville, Georgia, we wish him a jolly good time, with the cows and chickens. The weather is so terribly cold in that city until one can't make much progress, sitting out under the appletree shade.

To a friend and Pal, Russell T. Crawford, cheer up, old pal, the worst is yet to come. They are like street cars, you miss one and catch the next.

The checking out on pass on one of the Don Juans of this organization seemed to trouble Corp. Tommie J. Baugh, recently. Baugh applied for a pass himself but due to the importance of the work he was supervising, he could not be spared.

Johnnie Martin, is spending lots of time in camp here of late, maybe he can tell us why. How about it Johnnie?

Sgt. W. W. Hodges, the man who tickles the Ivory, for the big ten orchestra, is so popular with the ladies, that on several occasions, a special telephone extension has been temporarily installed, in several places where the orchestra plays, in order that Sgt. Hodges won't take too much time out. -Rufus E. Williams.

COMPANY "F"

Private Lonnie Woods, our silent man of the Company, has returned from furlough and looks like he has been well taken care of. We are glad to see him back so he can go on guard, it will set some of the boys back.

Private Andrew Henderson (Bad Foot) was seen riding in the rumble seat of a certain Ford roadster known to the Company. We believe he owns a half interest in this said Ford. Private Winfred Rucker (Cab Calloway) did his first guard as bugler last night, the parts of the call that he could not finish with the horn he would finish with his mouth.

The writer at this time can proudly state that Pfc. Frasier, received from Parent-Teachers' Association a valuable present, something really to be proud of, something to be admired and cherished. This beautiful token, for invaluable service rendered in connection with his duties at the children's school, due to his kindwillingness to respond and produce at all times make him a worthy recipient of above mention. Keep the good work up! ("OK" The

COMPANY "G"

At last Corporal "Pop Eye" has conclusively demonstrated to himself and the world at large, and especially to the members of Company G and the Band, that he has no more chance of beating Staff Sergeant "Head" Trent on the Pfc. Norman Harding has been pool table than the writer has of sprouting wings and flying. In an exhibition game between the two, "Pop Eye" was so decisively defeated that he was not seen around the pool room for two weeks.

In one of the largest bits of comedy seen in years G Company's basketball quintet defeated Company F's five to the tune of 49 to 30 at the 24th Infantry Service Club last night. At no time was The Dental Surgeon upon his the House of David in danger and in the last half the second string men were used frequently.

We face the new week with a full field inspection leering at us on Saturday morning. It has been reported that the rifle and pistol belts have been keeping the men sleeping in quarters awake every night since the Company Commander announced that he would have a full field inspection next Saturday, and he wanted those belts shined and when he says shine he means SHINE. It seems as the one of the belts heard him and every night at twelve o'clock the belts hanging on the wall chant that mournful tune, "Shine

-Sgt. W. W. Hodges

HQ. COMPANY

The Joy Makers' Club of Fort Benning, Georgia, through its President, Elbert Gaston, announces the acceptance of the application of Miss Willie Mae Davis, a former member, who through sickness allowed her membership to lapse. This application was accepted because Miss Davis was a former member, who stood high in the Club and by reason of her record, a vote for waivering of suspension of membership applications, was unanimous. The Officers and Members are very glad to have her back. However, five other applicationns were turned down for new membership. These will be reconsidered at a future

-Louis A. Scipio.

SERVICE COMPANY

Private Bullard just couldn't take it (six months) so he took tops instead.

And Rev. Corley can't see why he's always getting caught when he attempts to alibi. Maybe the parson's eyes betray him. Anyway his alibis just don't seem to register—less than a week.

Short-shorts jumped into prominence long ago. But only recently have shorter-shorts taken the spotlight. Sarg. McNeill puts match sticks in his to avoid burning his fingers—and another feature about that system is the practical economy of using OPB's.

Oh doctor, come quick! Brown swallowed another bet. Anybody can see that man's just the hole for 45c!

in hard luck. Even chewing up the cubes can't offset a Hi-Jacker, and "Pap" Bradley jumped at the chance to catch back.

Pvt. J. A. Hughes has completed his two months' tour of the south and informed the boys that the CWA was getting along fairly well without his services. However, if they need a good manager, or superintendent he might consider the matter.

If Smith keeps on making 96's and 97's at the motor mechanics' school they'll have to put weights on him to keep him from catching up with the Piccard brothers. Out the clouds Smitty.

-G. E. Burton.

BAND

The Band rendered a special concert at the 24th Infantry Service Club in the observance of Negro History Week which was very largely attended. Several officers and their families were in attendance as well as a great number of visiting friends from Columbus and out of town. Band was assisted by Mesdames Carter, Tresville, Bryson and Thompson, Corporal Burton, Service Company and Mr. Robert Mc-Cauley.

The orchestras are facing a busy week with dances scheduled for Tuesday, two on Wednesday. Thursday both orchestras play for a dance at the Post Gymnasium, one on Friday and another on Saturday. Other than the above mentioned nights the members of the orchestras will be off duty every night.

The Regimental March, "Semper Paratus" which was written and arranged by the band leader made a decided hit at its first rendition Sunday morning. Since the writing of the march a regular epidemic of music writing has hit the band, and every time you see a bandsman you will also see a flock of pencils behind his ears and in his pockets.

-Sgt. W. W. Hodges.

LOGGING DETACHMENT

The mess Sgt. had a smile on his face some few days ago because he had a $100 ration saving. Oh, boy, you should see him now since Pvt. Spence has put him in driving.

Course Begins In Mess Management

In order that the commissioned officers of the United States Army may have a more comprehensible idea of mess managementthe operation and maintenance of an army mess hall—a Troop School Mess Management Course will commence at the Infantry School on Monday, February 26. This school will continue through March 16 and will have 23 pupils enrelled in its initial class.

The students will be furnished training manual "The Army Cook," from which the text will be taken for the course, and which the officers will study for recitations and practical work. One-hour classes will be conducted daily, except Sundays and holidays.

Captain Philip T. Fry, Infantry, assisted by 1st Lieutenant Harry G. Dowdall, Infantry will serve as instructor of the school, while Captains Henry L. Barrett and John J. Albright; 2nd Lieutenants James K. Woolnough, Earl G. Wheeler, Richard J. Hunt, William B. Moore, Edmund M. Rowan, Edward G. Winston, Sewell M. Brumby, Richard H. Smith, Lon William H. Bache Smith, William A. McNulty, Dan Gilmer, Henry C. Britt, Orville W. Mullikin, Thomas R. Hannah, and James M. Churchill, Jr., of the 29th Infantry; 1st Lieutenant Dwight A. Rosebaum of the 67th Infantry; and 2nd Lieutenants William A. Harris, Gerald Chapman, Robert B. Neeley, and James M. Royal, Jr., of the 83rd Field Artillery, have received details as students.

See there were friend fowls served for dinner. Spence and axe-man Simes are eating around 800 this month and they say we haven't very much of an appetite.

We have a new method of driving log wagons at the Logging camp since mule skinner Joe Lew is said it can't be done. Sgt. Manuel has changed four lines to two. Wind-shield Delma Fewell says he can hardly drive with one instead of two; Sambo Johnson says he would rather ride his team instead of -Mike Henley.

Read The Benning Herald

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS ONLY $1.50 PER YEAR WANT IT. YOU MAY ORDER IT BY MAIL ... BOX 368, CO-LUMBUS, GA.

Spring... You Can Feel It In The Air You Can See It At Metcalf's

A LOOK AT OUR STORE WILL GIVE YOU SPRING FEVER...

MEN'S SPRING SUITS

A special lot of suits in all the new spring shades. Why not select your Easter suit now? A small deposit and payments as you wish will have it paid for by Easter. These suits are easily worth $15.00 to $18.50 on today's market. All sizes.

§995_$12⁴⁵

MEN'S SPRING SUITS

This is an outstanding value in the men's clothing field. These smart, new suits are made of excellent woolens and beautifully tailored. They are $22.50 values on today's market. They come in all shades and sizes, and we make any necessary alterations free of charge.

$14⁹⁵

Men's Shirts

Fine pre-shrunk breadcloth shirts in white, solid colors and fancy patterns. 7-button front and other fine features. All sizes.

89c each, 2 for $1.75

Shorts and Shirts

Combed yarn white shirts. Broadclotto, solid color. white and fancy pattern shorts, all sizes.

24c

Men's Hats

Hats for Spring—assorted colors, light shades. In all head sizes and ideal for your spring wear

$2.38

ODD PANTS

Men's all-wool pants. Made by "Happ". Extra fine quality, assorted patterns, all spring colers. All sizes in waist and lengths. Special

$2.48

Men's Socks

Durable, long wearing socks in various colors All sizes and patterns. Selling at the very moderate price of

18c pair, 3 for 50c

Men's Knickers

All-wool, plus-six knickers for the sportsman. In blue cheviot, tweeds, grays and tans. Made for long

$2.48

BOY'S DEPARTMENT

1040 Broadway

BOYS' PREP SUITS

Navy Blue cheviots. grays and tans. Also checked woolens. With two pairs of pants.

Sizes 10-12 $6.98 Extra Pants $1.95

Sizes 13-18 Extra Pants $1.95

Boys' Mickey Mouse Caps

A new arrival of the above models for boys in tan, gray and blue.

95c

BOYS' FLAPPER SUITS

All - wool blue cheviot coat and two pairs -of pants. In sizes from 5 to $5.98

Also Eton suits in blue and gray, consisting of coat, shorts, blcuse and $5.48

SWEATERS

Woolen sweaters for the little fellow. In all colors, browns, grays, blues, etc.

All sizes for the little boys

89c - $1.48 - $1.98

Lumber Jackets

Rugby made. of blue melton cloth. Also in tans and grays. Sizes from 4 to 18.

$2.95 - $3.95

Boys' Dept. METCALF'S

TWO STORES OF PUBLIC SERVICE

1040 and 1222 Broadway VOL. III

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1934

110. 40

TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY

THE birthday of the 29th U. S. Infantry is March 3, 1901. We celebrate this day of actual organization rather than February 2 of the same year, the date of the authority for the creation of the Regiment.

But our history really goes back much farther. A 29th Infantry fought valiantly through the War of 1812; another had an impressive record during the Civil War. These were really the foreign for the 29th Infantry in which we take so much pride today.

Unfortunately, in the reduction of the army that followed these wars, what was left of each of the old 29th Regiments of Infantry was combined with the remnants of other regiments to reorganize, after the War of 1812, the 6th Infantry and, after the Civil War, the 11th Infantry. So, the identity of the 29th Infantry was lost during two periods of (mostly) peace, until Colonel W. M. Van Horne organized and first commanded the present 29th Infantry at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, on March 3, 1901. In our pride in our Regiment of today we do not forget the two glorious old Regiments that preceded us.

IN THE PHILIPPINES

After organization, the first stations of the 29th Infantry were Fort Sheridan and Columbus Barracks. It left them in February, 1902 to move to San Francisco by rail and, on April 1, to sail for the Philippine Islands on the transport "Sheridan." Exactly one month later the transport docked in Manila, where the Regiment was transshipped and sent to the islands of Cebu, Panay and Negros. Native Chieftans there were indulging freely in piratical expeditions and banditry. In the vicious work of putting a stop to them Companies E, G, and H enjoyed the most opportunity for active service, and it was Company E that subdued and captured the famous bandit leader Adriano Concepcion.

When the Regiment returned to the United States in 1904 it was stationed at Whipple Barracks, Arizona, Fort Douglas, Utah and Fort Du-Chesne, Utah, with headquarters at Fort Douglas. Nothing of importance took place during the next three years. In 1907 the Regiment again sailed to the Philippine Islands from San Francisco, this time on the transport "Logan." In September, 1907, it took station in the new and beautiful post of Fort McKinley, about twelve miles up the Pasig River from Manila. During this tour there was no fighting for the 29th, so after a peaceful sojourn it again returned to the United States in 1909, occupying the old posts at Fort Jay, Fort Porter and Fort Niagara, all in New York, with headquarters at Fort Jay.

IN PANAMA
After five years in New York

the Regiment embarked on another useful experience when it sailed for Panama in 1914 for duty in the Canal Zone. The greatly improved quarters at Camp Gaillard when the Regiment left three years later are one tangible evidence of its constructive work there.

During the period of the World War, until 1918, the Regiment, with other American forces in the Canal Zone, performed the extremely difficult and important duty of the guarding of the great Canal. Constant and untiring vigilance was necessary to protect the vital docks and locks.

The autumn of 1918 found the Regiment at Camp Beauregard, Louis ana. There a partition process took place when the 29th Infantry furnished personnel to form the 84th Infantry, and both became parts of the 17th Division.

The delay caused by the fatal 1918 influenza epidemic prevented the Regiment from leaving the United States. In March, 1919 the Regiment moved to Camp Shelby, Mississippi, and assisted in the enormous task of demobilizing emergency units. Upon the completion of this work the 29th Infantry was moved to Fort Benning, Georgia, during October, 1919, where an Infantry School was being founded. The Regiment had a leading part in this great project, and has ever since been one of the essential elements that make our Infantry School a leader of the world.

C. C. C.

Early in May, 1933, the regiment furnished a large percentage of officers and men that operated the CCC camp at Fort Benning. The officers and men assigned to this work organized and equipped CCC companies here and later moved the companies to work projects and established work camps. That the work was well done is shown by the numerous letters of commendation received by the Regimental Commander.

DEMONSTRATION REGIMENT

The 29th Infantry is the Demonstration Regiment of the Infantry School, a title of which it is more than proud.

The teaching method of the Infantry School rests on a four-fold basis "explanation, demonstration, imitation, examination." One of these, "demonstration," is the task and responsibility of the 29th Infantry. Consequently the officers and men of the regiment must be and are able to give flawless and realistic "demonstrations" of the many and important subjects that the company and field officers of our Infantry learn at the Infantry School.

1901-1934

ORGANIZATION DAY

THE GEORGIA POWER COMPANY AND ITS ENTIRE PERSONNEL ARE PROUD TO HAVE THIS OPPORTUNITY OF CONGRATULATING THE TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY UPON THE COMPLETION OF THIRTY - THREE YEARS OF HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL AND USEFUL SERVICE TO THE NATION IN TIME OF PEACE AND IN TIME OF WAR — AT HOME AND IN FOREIGN LANDS.

R. M. Harding

National Guard Commences Class Work

Officers Assigned To Benning

Capt. L. H. Ginn

duty and assigned to the Infantry School for duty as a student in the regular course for 1934-35.

Captain Ginn began his military career as a 1st Lieutenant Medical Reserve, May 31, 1927, and was accepted as a 1st Lieutenant Medical Corps, Regular Army, August 3, 1928, with a promotion to captain on July 17, 1930. He is a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia, Class of 1927, and holds the M. D. Degree of that university. Since his entrance into the army he has graduated from the Army Medical School and the Army Field Service School.

Capt. Ginn is ordered to report here not later than Sepember 1st of this year.

Lt. N. K. Edward

1st Lieutenant Nye K. Elward will be relieved from duty at the Signal School, Fort Monmouth. New Jersey, upon completion of his present course of instructions and Benning for duty as a student in the Infantry School for 1934-35.

Lieutenant Edward served during the war as a member of the Student Army Training Corps and Lt. Col. John S. Upham, is a gradupon the cessation of hostilities uate of the United States Military in France he was graduated from that institution on will be his first to any of the ser-June 12, 1924. He was commis- vice schools.

sioned as 2nd Lieutenant of Infan-Captain L. Holmes Ginn, Jr., try on this date. His promotion Medical Corps, who has been stationed at the Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C., for some transferred to the Signal Corps time, has been relieved from that for duty.

Lt. Guy S. Meloy

1st Lieutenant Guy S. Meloy, Jr., has been ordered to report to this station for duty in the Infantry School as a student for the 1934-35 class, with the new assignment to be taken up as soon as he finishes his present tour of foreign service in the Hawaiian De-

Lieutenant Meloy is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, class of 1927, and received his commission as 2nd Lieutenant of infantry on this date. He was only recently promoted to the rank of 1st lieutenant.

Lt. J. S. Upham

2nd Lieutenant John S. Upham, Jr., 34th Infantry, Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, has been ordered to report at this station for duty as a student in the 1934-35 class is under orders to report at Fort of the Infantry School, and is to report in time for the starting of the school on or about September

Lieutenant Upham, the son of appointed to Academy, class of 1928, and his West Point Military Academy and assignment to the Infantry School

Officers Leaving Benning the great conflict he was awarded Lieutenant Earl C. Berquist, who the Silver Star Citation. Captain

Lt. E. C. Berquist

1933 as a student in the Company fantry School Company Officers Officers Course, has been detailed Class of 1926. as a student to the Signal School, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, for the class of 1934-35.

Lieutenant Bergquist came to Fort Benning in June, 1933, from the 19th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. Immediately upon his arrival at the Infantry School he was assigned to duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps with station at Telogia, Florida, and remained on that duty until the opening of school. Lieutenant Bergquist was ordered to active duty from the Organized Reserves in 1927 and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry, Regular Army, in October of that year. He holds a degree from the University of North Dakota, from which he graduated in 1927. Last fall he was promoted to 1st Lieutenant of Infantry with rank from Oc-

Capt. J. A. St. Louis

Captain Joseph A. St. Louis, Infantry, who was assigned to Fort Benning, January 2, 1934, has been relieved from this assignment and reassigned to the Quartermaster Subsistence School, Chicago, Illithat institution in time to enroll in the 1934-35 class.

Captain St. Louis, while at this station, has been on duty as assistant to the Quartermaster, and was sent here from the 6th Infantry, Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, where he performed regular troop duty and details with the Civilian Conservation Corps at Eldorado Illinois

He started in the army as a 2nd Lieutenant in the National Army, serving in this branch throughout the World War, to be commissioned in the regular army as 2nd Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, in have been combined into the one Lieutenant of Infantry on July 1, 1925. His promotion to 1st Lieu-course, both for facility in adsioned in the regular army as 2nd 1920 and promoted to captain on the same day. For service during was assigned to Fort Benning in St. Louis is a graduate of the In-

Lt. J. E. Bowen

1st Lieutenant James E. Bowen. 29th Infantry, has been ordered to the Field Artillery School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, as a student in the 1934-35 class of that institution.

Lieutenant Bowen first came to the Infantry School on an assignment from the 8th Infantry, Fort Moultrie, South Carolina, in 1930, as a student in the Company Officers Course for 1930-31. Upon his graduation he was assigned to the 29th Infantry, where he has served continuously. He has been noted for his work as an athletic coach in the demonstration regiment in all lines of athletic endeavor. In 1931 he served as head of the United States Military Academy Coaching Course, conducted at this station for enlisted men wishing to enter the Academy. For his work in this line, Lieutenant Bowen received special commendation for services as an instructor.

Lt. O. W. Hughes

nois, and is to report for duty at 34, has been ordered as a student students in the 1934-35 class of to the Cavalry School, Fort Riley, Infantry School, which will be Kansas, upon completion of his present course of instructions.

He came here last August upon an assignment from the 17th Infantry, Fort Crook, Nebraska, pursuant to orders which assigned him to duty as a student in the Infantry School. His career as an Army officer began in 1918 when he was appointed as a cadet at the Military Academy from the state of Ohio. He was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry in 1922, and graduated from the Signal School, tenant came in 1927.

(Please turn to page 4)

REGIMENTAL COMMANDER

COLONEL WILLIAM B. PERSONS

Bids On New Chapel Are Open

A Chicago firm was awarded | The confessional will be located the contract for construction of the double doors, with a half-dome in new Chapel building at Fort Ben- the rear of the church over the Work is to be started in the near future.

The new chapel will fill a longfelt need at Fort Benning for a proper place to conduct divine worship, and will be used by the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish Denominations, alike. Each of the Chaplains of the three faiths will have a separate study and the chapel is to be so arranged as to be fitted for the correct observance and carrying-out of ceremonies of all three

The building is to be located at right angles to Sigerfoos street facing east. Approximately $75,000 will be expended on it.

The building will be constructed along lines of early American architecture, of permanent construction, concrete and steel, finished in stucco, tile and stone trimmed. The church will be surmounted by a tower 103 feet in height from the ground, the tower to be trimmed in stone and covered with a roof of lead. It will be of octagonal form. The building proper will be 74 feet in length by 50 feet in width, with the belfry to be 19 feet square at the base and approximately 45 feet high. It is to have a single entrance in front, next to the Chaplain's study in the console organ in the chancel propvestibulé.

sanctuary. The windows are to be of commandant, was as follows: trimmed in stone.

there will be a vestibule of circular form with four bays, then entering the church proper there is a vestibule with a stair case to the choir loft on either side with a chapel and study on the right and a vestry on the left. There will be four large pillars supporting the dome of the nave and four small pillars supporting the balcony. In the balcony will be two organ chambers over the chancel with 10 pews over the vestibule, of the nave. The vestibule upstairs will contain restrooms. The ceiling of the nave will be domed, as will the sanctuary and chancel. The interior of the building will be of panelled mainsetting, and ornamental plaster and wooden pillars. It will have a covered pulpit of carved wood. The news, downstairs, are to be arranged in two sections, 12 to the row, in a nave 48 feet square. Communion rails will inclose the chancel and sanctuary. A will be on the right and left of the chancel, with a choir stall and

84 In Next Infantry School Class

War Department orders receiv- officers attending the School. known next year as the "Infantry School Course." The official orders assigning the officers to this post as students names thirtyfour more than a previous newspaper story published earlier in the week.

The year of 1934-35 will see the inauguration of the "Infantry School Course" at Benning, the curriculum being a combination of the studies formerly contained in the "Company Officers" and 'Advanced Courses." The ministration, and in order that greater benefits may result to the attending being graduates of the ments and to work out their appli-Infantry School courses of the cation to the Infantry in combat. preceding school year.

The assignment of twenty officers of the regular army as students in the 1934-35 Tank Courses of the Infantry School became known at Fort Benning with the orders, relieving the officers concerned from their present duty on completion of their assignments, and detailing them to take the course.

(Please turn to page 4)

General Estes Is Speaker at Opening Exercises Monday

of instructions in which 45 National Guard and Reserve Officers from the entire United States are enrolled were held at Fort Benning Monday, February 26, with Brigadier General G. H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School welcoming the students to Fort Benning, by a brief speech in which he described the purpose of the Infantry School and its course of instructions.

"We are living in the most dramatic period of recorded history of man," said General Estes. "Here at the school we attempt to keep abreast of the trend of thought and development in our particular sphere. New improvements and new inventions present themselves with startling possibilities. Unquestionably, we are on the thres-hold of amazing and important changes in the application of the principles of military science. It is essential for us to keep step with these new developments and to work out their application to the infantry in combat."

The new class of officers is the fourth to be held at the school this year. There has been a drastic cut in the number of National Guard and Reserve Officers assigned to the school this year as compared to last.

General Estes' speech, which he delivered in his official capacity

'In my official capacity as Com-In the main body of the building mandant, it gives me pleasure to extend to you gentlemen a cordial greeting and warm welcome to your tour of duty here will be pleasant and profitable and that the schedule of work prepared for you will prove to be both interesting and instructive. We shall do our utmost to consummate all of these. The School exists to afford you the opportunity for professional improvement. What you get from it depends very with 10 pews over the vestibule, largely upon your individual efand four long pews on each side fort. We offer the opportunity but it is squarely up to each of you to grasp it and to secure from it the greatest advantage to yourself. The final value of the course to you will be measured by the wood and plaster finish, with wood- character of your service after you have completed the time of instruction and are again called upon for duty with the unit or organization to which you are assigned.

"From the military, as well as the social and economic points of view, we are living in the most dramatic period of recorded hissecond and third chaplains' study tory of men. Here at the school we attempt to keep abreast of the trend of thought and development in our particular sphere. New improvements and new inventions present themselves with daily frequency and with startling possibilities. Unquestionably, we are on the threshold of amazing and Lieutenant Oliver W. Hughes, a student in the Advanced Course of the Infantry School, Class of 1933- of the regular army to duty as present status as a separate class, science. It is essential for us to learn the large status as a separate class, science. It is essential for us to learn the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science. It is essential for us to learn the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class, science in the large status as a separate class. vith the majority of the officers keep step with these new develop-

> Primarily, the mission of the School in so far as you are concerned is to prepare you for your most important military duty—that of leadership in your respective spheres of command. You will receipt of recent War Department find The Infantry School a practical institution. Theoretical instruction does not displace practical work, it supplements it. The importance of execution is stressed. The necessity of personal leader-It is not known at the post at ship is emphasized. The subordithe present time whether the list nation of the details of technique of twenty will comprise the entire or the elaboration of abstract plans roster of officers to attend the to the accomplishment of the ob-(Please turn to page 5)

THE BENNING HERALD

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia

Published Every Friday

VOLUME III FEBRUARY 23, 1934 NO. 44 _Publisher ___Editor Jack Gibney Sports Editor
Louis T. Kunze Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

By Major Homer L. Conner, Medical Inspector

Typhus Fever

Recent newspaper articles indicate an increasing amount of typhus fever in Georgia, in fact to such a degree that the U.S. Public Health Service has recommended and begun active measures to prevent the further spread of this disease.

Typhus fever occurs in two forms-one, called the epidemic, is quite severe with death in 10 to 80 percent of the cases; the other form called endemic, (which means the presence of an occasional case) is milder with very few deaths.

For years typhus fever has been present in this section of the country and until recent years has been thought to be transmitted only by the body or head louse of the human. It is now recognized that lice from animals, and that fleas and ticks of various kinds may convey typhus. In epidemics the human louse is the most frequent carrier of the infection. In the occasional or sporadic case it may be any blood sucking insect. The question then arises as to how the infection is kept alive between sects cannot be assured, every one human cases, for often there are who contacts that patient should periods of several weeks or months wear louse proof clothing.

OFFICERS LEAVE BENNING (Continued from page 3)

and four long pews on each side of the nave. The vestibule upstairs will contain restrooms. The ceiling of the nave will be domed, as will the sanctuary and chancel. The interior of the building will be of wood and plaster finish, with woodpanelled mainsetting, and ornamental plaster and wooden pillars. It will have a covered pulpit of carved wood. The pews, downstairs, are to be arranged in two sections, 12 to the row, in a nave 48 feet square. Communion rails will enclose the chancel and sanctuary. A second and third chaplains' study will be on the right and left of the chancel, with a choir stall and console organ in the chancel proper. A second railing will enclose the sanctuary, with a circular raised platform in front of the altar. The confessional will be located next to the Chaplain's study in the vestibule.

Lt. R. B. Wheeler

1st Lt. Richard 66th Infantry (Light Tanks), Ft. completion of the course at the Benning, Ga., has been relieved Infantry School, Lieutenant Warfrom an assignment to this organization and ordered to the 7th Infantry, Vancouver Barracks, Washington, to report at New York for sailing to this post not later than May 4.

Lt. Wheeler first came to Benning for duty as a student in the 1930-31 Company Officers' Course, and upon completion of this course of instruction he was assigned to the 2nd Battalion, 1st Tank Regiment, now the 66th Infantry. He from the Infantry School Company has served with this unit until his Officers' Course of 1931, and holds orders of reassignment were re- a B. S. degree in Agriculture from

This officer entered the military class of 1921.

in any given locality without Investigations finally pointed to the rat as the animal reservoir which kept the disease alive.

The insect which sucks the blood from a human case of typhus becomes infected; this insect infects the animal or other human not by injecting the infection during the act of biting but the the deposit of its infectious intestinal content near the bite wound; the feces is mechanically rubbed into the wound during the subsequent act of scratching.

The prevention of endemic typhus fever is now thought to depend mostly on the eradication of rats.

The control of epidemic typhus is based on the control of lice.

When an occasional or sporadic case occurs the prevention of its spread to others depends entirely on the measures taken to insure that no blood sucking insects, (lice, fleas, bedbugs) gain access to the patient.

In the case of patients, whenever freedom from blood sucking in-service in 1916 as a cadet at the United States Military Academy. but was only able to complete about two years at this institution before the World War. He was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry on November 1, 1918, and promoted to 1st Lieutenant in 1923. Since entering the service he has graduated from the Tank School, class of 1923; French Tank School and Centre d'Etudes des Chars de Combat, class of 1928; and, the Company Officers' course of the Infantry School, 1930-31.

Lt. C. C. B. Warden

1st Lieutenant Cranford C. B. Warden, 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) is relieved from that orranization and assigned to the 22nd Infantry, Fort McPherson, Georgia, for duty, to report at that station not later than June 30th. Lieutenant Warden's first tour of duty at the Infantry School was an assignment to the Company Officers' Course of 1930-31. This details followed a tour of foreign service at Tientsin, China. Upon den was assigned to the 1st Tank Regiment at the station, where he is at present on duty.

This officer started in the military service as a Private in the 31st Tank Corps and served throughout the war in this unit. In 1921 he was granted a commission as 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry and promoted to 1st Lieutenant in 1926. Since his entrance into the army he has graduated the A. and M. College of Texas,

Lt. C. T. Lanham

1st Lieutenant Charles T. Lanham, 24th Infantry, Fort Benning, stands relieved from this organization with a reassignment to the 17th Infantry, Fort Leavenworth. Kansas, to report at this station not later than June 30th.

As a writer Lieutenant Lanham has made a name for himself for his prose and poetry over the entire country, his articles having been frequently published in some of the largest periodicals, such as Saturday Evening Post, Harpers, etc. As a soldier, he has built up a reputation for duty as an instructor at the world's largest school of arms. He is one of the few officers who have received their commissions since the close of the World War who are now on duty as instructors at a military educational institution of this country, and, when Headquarters 4th Corps Area was selecting officers to lecture to the various Organized Reserves throughout the Southeast there was no hesitancy as to his selection for this important duty.

Lieutenant Lanham was appointed a second lieutenant of infantry from the Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in June, 1924. His appointment to the grade of 1st lieutenant came in 1929. two years prior to his assignment to the Infantry School, Fort Benning, as a student in the company officers' class of 1931-32. Upon his graduation from that course in June, 1932, he was assigned to duty with the 24th Infantry, and detailed on special duty with the academic department of the school. He has been on duty here

Lt. N. C. Pilet

1st Lieutenant Nunez C. Pilet. Infantry School Detachment Staff, Fort Benning, is relieved from further duty with that organization and is assigned to the 30th Infantry, Presidio of San Francisco, California to report there not later than June 30 of this year.

Lieutenant Pilet was sent here as a student in the company officers' course of the Infantry School, class of 1930-31, from the Panama Department of foreign ervice. After his graduation from the school of arms he was assigned to the Infantry School Detachment and has been on duty there ever since.

Lieutenant Pilet was commissioned as 2nd Lieutenant of Infantry June 15, 1924 and promoted to 1st Lieutenant on March 21, 1930. He is a graduate of Louisiana State University, class of '24, and holds the B. S. degree of that institution. Since his commission into the army he has graduated from the Infantry School company officers' course of 1930-

Lt. Carl Robinson

1st Lieutenant Carl Robinson, who accompanied the 67th Infanry (Medium Tanks) to Fort Benning, from Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, in 1931, has completed his tour of duty with that unit and is assigned to the 30th Infantry, Presidio of San Francisco, to take effect not later than June 30th, 1934.

Lieutenant Robinson was appointed to the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, from the state of West Virginia, in 1917. He received a commission as 2nd Lieutenant of infantry in 1918, just ten days prior to the declaration of peace. He was discharged from active duty as a 2nd Lieutenant and reenrolled as a 1st lieutenant on July 8, 1923.

Since leaving West Point Lieutenant Robinson has graduated from the Infantry School Basic Course of 1920, and the Tank School, class of 1929.

Lt. H. M. Monroe

1st Lieutenant Hammond McD. Monroe, 24th Infantry, Fort Ben-Please turn to Page 15

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

Third Section came into its own last week on account of it started a course in tank-gunnery. Instruction started at a halt, then ac a trot and finally, in true attack style, by leaps and bounds. First honors for originality in firing go to our esteemed classmate, Machine Gun Dan.

Norman as a rule is an expert shot and it is only fair in relating this one that we preface our remarks by admitting that his firing was more or less of an experimental nature. The particular operation he was engaged in was known as zeroing the gun. Because, Dan mistook this for zeroing the target was merely incidental. It was just his way of experimenting. Furthermore after qualifying in his navy days on a sixteen inch gun with anchors aweigh and seas awash, such a thing as firing the 37-MM. gun sub-calibe rwas child's play and merited no particularly serious consideratio. To a navy man this was mere fungo-shooting. When Dan's turn came to shoot he squeezed into the tank via the trick trap-door, carefully sighted and let fly. His head came up for air as, with a contemptuous expression for such kindergarten shooting he eyed the target. A sense of politeness prompts us to suggest that his next move was to expectorate but the description would be inaccurate. He simply spat.

A perceptible pause, then a request to mark the target. Another pause and a red flag.

Dan mumbled something of a biblical nature, submerged again and whanged away once more. Same result. A third shot met with the same response.' By this time the rail-birds were gathering and what Dan lacked in the way of target perforation the crowd made up with helpful suggestions as the red flag began to appear with monotonous regularity.

Suggestions that he fix bayonet or possibly move the tank up closer were met with disdainful silence. A reminder that as a final stroke he could always use the tank's crushing power met with the same response. When another wit suggested that he try a bean-shooter Dan glared back spat anew and fired again. But this, too, gave signs from the pits somewhat in the nature of a Communistic uprising. By this time the flag was in shreds and the handle had been worn to a stump.

Dan's consistent shooting has been until now unsolved. For a time t appeared as though he were not calling his shots corectly. This could hardly have been the After each mark he called case. he shot everything he could think And having exhausted his and the crowd in general. His Kate Smith. calling may not have been accurite but it was certainly all-inclus-

What actually happened was that in squinting through the telescopic sight he mistook his mustache for the horizontan cross-hair.

Bill Kunzman tied Norman's rec-

FORT BENNING, Feb. 26-The ord Tuesday morning during machine-gun firing from moving tanks as he made the fifty-yard run spitting fire, magnanimously deluging all targets except his own. One more beltful and he could have killed every wildcat on the reservation.

> When our turn came to fire from a moving tank we were doing fine until the tank hit a stump, causing the turret to crack our conk with a resounding succession of plinks.

Our shooting citation for the week's firing goes to Doc Sams, the class' popular horse-drawn medico, for making a perfect score of ten bullseyes in the onepounder sub-caliber firing.

Another incident worthy of note was the double demonstration of withdrawal from a tank, featuring Carnes and Schildroth. For a time it was difficult to tell whether they were in trying to get out or out trying to get in. Getting out of a tank cramps one's style no end or one's end no style or something.

The orders ice having been broken by Claude Collins, the tank converts, Colson, Fitts, Carnes and Gillespie crashed through with orders for the tank school! As was also the case with Higgins who didn't ask for it and is still wondering how come.

The Hughes household featured twice during the week, once when Ollie came through with orders for the Cavalry School and again when Dollie, the wife of Ollie, took first ladies' prize at the Wednesday night masquerade dressed as a Nubian maid from the Benning everglades.

Receipt during the week of the second batch of grades was greetwhich became more pronounced ed with varying emotions. Some were as happy as a mouse in a creamery, others were glum while a few more were glummer. One or two of our own prompts the thought that we needs must get a gither on ourself.

Rumors of the return of the paycut are still prevalent. If something doesn't happen soon we'll have to return our bills marked "Insufficient Funds." Our idea of a genius these days is a man who can keep out of jail, out of debt and off mailing lists. While our honeymoon was spent on the sands at the Waikiki beach our The mystery of Sub-Calibre last few anniversaries have been spent on the rocks.

Under the tutelage of the First Section we are gradually becoming better qualified to handle large bodies of people. Unless the new promotion scheme goes through our next best bet will be vocabulary on the shot he started to resign and set up as a masseur in on the gun, the man in the pits for folks like Paul Whiteman and

> And lest we forget, after again ourself left in the lurch in last week's issue by our fellow columnists, we plead again for the return of The Flare and The Student Prints. We're fast realizing what a first-class columnist we're not.

EIGHTY-FOUR ASSIGNED Continued from Page 3

Tank Course, but it is entirely probable that others will be detailed in orders to be issued from Washington.

The list of officers who have been detailed as students in the course of the Infantry School incrudes First Lieutenants Thomas H. Allen, John H. Allen, John H. wichard Wetherill, Jr.

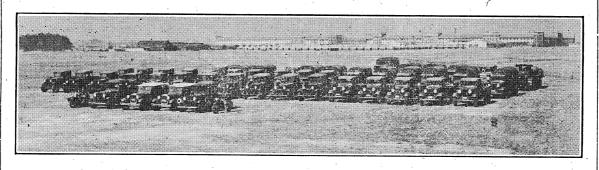

Bennett, Douglas Campbell, James J. Carnes, Charles F. Colson, Joseph G. Felber, William T. Fitts. Jr., Francis J. Gillespie, Charles C. Higgins, Forrest A. Hornisher, Montgomery McKee, John C. Shaw, Lucien F. Wells, Jr., and Second Lieutenants Robert B. Beattie, Edwin A. Cummings, John B. Grinstead, Wilhelm P. Johnston, James W. Lockett, Ralph T. Nelson, and

N. G. CLASS OPENS (Continued from page 3)

jective set is accentuated. You are expected to take your work seriously. Uncle Sam is hard up. He cannot afford to give you a vacation here on pay. He expects you to give value received. May I impress on you that a great deal of the joy of life consists of doing perfectly, or at least to the best of one's ability, everything which one attempts to There is a sense of satisfaction in such work, full, rounded, exact, complete in all its parts which the man who leaves his task in a slovenly condition can never

So I carnestly urge you to pursue your studies with the determination to derive from them the ut-

NEW TRUCKS FOR TWENTY-NINTH

A view of the new trucks which have recently been brought to Benning for motorizing the Second Battalion, 29th Infantry

es of the military side of your re- ley, 130th Inf. Ill. N. G.; Sterling | fantry, Ga. N. G.; Glenn P. Gardspective lives.

C. Burke, 141st Inf. Texas N. G.; The officers who are attending Lt. John R. Bradley, Inf. Res.; most professional benefit from this the course and the localities and Capt. Geo. H. Class, 132d Inf. Ill. Laurance D. Glarum, Inf. Res.; opportunity which is yours and organizations from which they N. G.; Lt. Robert W. Colglazier, assist us, as we shall assist you, have been assigned are as follows: Inf. Res.; Chas. W. Colston, Inf. ald V. Holliday, Inf. Res.; Capt. in making your attendance at The Lt. John A. Ambery, 181st Infan-Res.; Jas. W. Dunham, Engr. Res.; Infantry School one of the most try Mass. N. G.; Edgar R. Austin, Jas. J. Fogarty, 71st Inf. N. Y. pleasant and profitable experienc- Inf. Res.; Captain Howard A. Bent- N. G.; Bernard Franklin, 122d In- Inf. Res.; Capt. Chas. H. Jones, Lt. Harold L. Wilson, Inf. Res.;

ner, Inf. Res.; Capt. Harold C. Gibb, 107th Inf. N. Y. N. G.; Lt. Harry C. Hardesty, Inf. Res.; Don-Daniel H. Huddelson; 160th Inf., Calif. N. G.; Lt. Wm. N. Johnson, 143d Inf. Texas N. G.; Lts. Lawrence M. Kirk, 101st Inf. Mass. N. G.; Douglass J. Lawder, 159th Inf., Calif. N. G.; Lowell H. Ludwig, 201st Inf. W. Va. N. G.; David A. McAdams, Inf. Res.; Geo. A. Markell, Inf. Res., Gerald R. Mo-meyer, 112th Inf. Penna. N. G.; Capt. Robt. E. Moore, 138th Inf. Mo. N. G.; Capt. Robt. H. Moore, 168th Inf. Iowa N. G.; Capt. Henry A. Ratterman, 147th Inf. Ohio N G.; Lts. Peter J. Rogers, 105th Inf. N. Y. N. G.; Wm. J. Rowland, Inf. Res.; Millard F. Saul, Inf. Res.; Frederick P. Sheridan, Inf. Res.; Leiland W. Shull, Inf. Res.; Frank T. Smith, 108th Inf. N. Y. N. G.; Clarence W. Springer, 166th Inf. La. N. C.; Capt. Chas. N. Staley, 1st Inf. Maryland N. G.; Harold A. Thompson, 102d Inf. Conn. N. G.; Lts. Wm. J. Thompson, and Delaugh W. Hutter, Inf. Res.; Capt. Troy D. Walker, 186th Inf. Oregon N. G.; Lt. Henry R. White, Inf. Res.; Capt. Wm. H. Williams, 135th Inf. Minn. N. G.;

You hear a lot today

.. and there's something too in the way tobaccos are balanced that makes a cigarette milder and makes it taste better.

about balanced diet -

I keep coming back to that statement on the back of the Chesterfield package—

> CHESTERFIELD. ···(IGARETTES

ARE A BALANCED BLEND OF THE FINEST AROMATIC TURKISH TOBACCO AND THE CHOICEST OF SEVERAL AMERICAN VARIETIES BLENDED IN THE CORRECT PROPORTION TO BRING OUT THE FINER QUALITIES OF EACH TOBACCO.

We believe you'll enjoy Chesterfields and we ask you to try them.

the cigarette that's MILDER

lesterfie

-the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

ESSOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS &

Army Daughters Hold Fashion Show night at their quarters in honor of At Biglerville Hall On March Tenth Ball, daughter of Colonel and Mrs.

ville on March 10 from four to six. Rife, Miss Georgia Baltzell, Miss ties of six.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or tables may be reserved by calling Mrs. O. W. Griswold at 856. Admission will be thirty-five

RAIN AND HAIL FAILS TO KEEP PICKNICKERS FROM ENJOYING THEMSELVES

A number of members of the younger set who had planned a picnic last Sunday evening were forced to stay indoors by the small storm that passed over Fort Benning at just the wrong time. The picnic was held however at the

Mrs. Stella Paschall

Tailoring Of All Kinds OFFICERS SHIRTS A SPECIALTY

Ten Years Experience 520 First Avenue

Phone City 2156-R

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

We Congratulate The Twenty-Ninth Infantry

All that you may need in everyday houshold goods — you can buy here — and all at very moderate prices. We'll always please you.

Cor. Broadway and 11th St.

The Fort Benning Chapter of quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Dethe Daughters of the U. S. Army | Camp Hall. Those who took part will present its second annual fash- were Miss Polly Wrightson of ion show and tea dance at Bigler- | Washington, D. C., Miss Maxine Styles from several Columbus Molly Goodwin, the house guest merchants will be modeled by of Major and Mrs. Philip Wood, members of the chapter. Mrs. H. Miss Marjorie Hall, Lieutenant A. Wadsworth will direct the pro- and Mrs. Shelby Williams, Lieugram with the assistance of First tenant David Angluin, Lieutenant Lieutenant A. E. O'Flaherty as Joseph B. Crawford, Lieutenant stage manager. There will be John A. Cleveland, Jr., Lieutenant twenty tables for four guests each Edward G. Winston, 2nd, Lieutenand twenty-seven tables for par- ant Gerald Chapman, 2nd, and Lieutenant Lauren Merriman.

THURSDAY NIGHT SUPPER DANCE HELD AS USUAL AT OFFICERS' CLUB

A number of Fort Benning people enjoyed the regular Thursday evening supper dance at the officers' club. The briskness of the weather made the warmth of the club fire and the music of the orchestra, even more pleasant than usual, it seemed. There were two large parties and many others came in after supper to join in the dancing.
LIEUT. AND MRS. MAERTENS

ENTERTAIN THURSDAY EV-ENING

Lieutenant and Mrs. Kameil Maertens were hosts at a delightful supper Thursday evening at the Officers' Club. Their guests were: Colonel and Mrs. Charles W. Weeks, Colonel and Mrs. Charles H. Bonesteel, Major and Mrs. Claudius Easley, Major and Mrs. Norman D. Cota, Major and Mrs. Hugh C. Gilchrist, Captain and Mrs. Alexander H. Cummings, Captain and Mrs. John Otto, and Captain and Mrs. Henry E. Kelly.

YOUNGER SET GROUP ENTER-TAINED BY MAJOR AND MRS.

Major and Mrs. Phillip S. Wood were hosts at the Thursday night Officers' Club dance, in honor of their niece, Miss Molly Goodwin, of Massachusetts who is now their house guest.

The guests were: Miss Nana Miss Lorraine Mellom, Seelev. Miss Mary Bickerstaff of Columbus, Miss Marjorie Hall, Miss Esther Kelley, Miss Polly Wrightson, Miss Maxine Rife, Lieut. Ned Winston, Lieut. William Grubb, Lieut. David Angluin, Lieut. Wooten, Lieut. Gerald Chapman, Jr., Lieut. Frank Elder II, Lieut. J. J. Herriot, and Lieut. James Church-

COLONEL AND MRS. ROWAN P. LEMLY ENTERTAINING VISITOR

Mrs. Joseph E. Brown, of Kalamazco, Michigan, is now the house guest of Colonel and Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly at their attractive quarters in Miller Loop. They are entertaining Mrs. Brown at dinner tonight, before the 29th Infantry dance. The guests are: Major and Mrs. William H. H. Morris, Jr., Major and Mrs. Maurice D. Welty, Major and Mrs. Charles P. Hall, Captain and Mrs. Wilbur Elliott, Captain and Mrs. Guy Mc-Kinley, Captain and Mrs. Walter C. Phillips, Mrs. Harriet Weeks, Lieutenant Robert Pierce, Mrs. W. H. Noble of Fort McPherson, Ga. and Lieutenant George P. Howell.

LIEUTENANT AND MRS. NEL-SON ENTERTAIN IN HON-OR OF HOUSE GUEST Lieutenant and Mrs. G. M. Nel-their house guest, Miss Charlotte William G. Ball of New York City. Also sharing honors was Miss Jessie Hodges, house guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. Dwight A. Resebaum.

Mrs. Leo A. Bessette, Captain and Mrs. John A. Otto, Captain Walter A. Bigby, Lieutenant and Mrs. James P. Hulley, Lieutenant and Mrs. Reeve D. Keiler, and Lieutenant Thomas Kent.

After the delightful dinner Lieutenant and Mrs. Nelson and their guests attended the Tank dance at the Polo Hunt Club.

MAJOR AND MRS. CATRON ENTERTAINING GUESTS AT THEIR QUARTERS THIS EV-ENING

Major and Mrs. Thomas B. Catron. 2nd, will be hosts to a party of their friends at their quarters entertained last Saturday in Miller Loop tonight. Their guests are: Colonel and Mrs. Fred L. Munson, Colonel and Mrs. Albert S. J. Tucker, Colonel and Mrs. John H. Stutesman, Major and Mrs. John F. Corby, Major and Mrs. Sidney G. Brown, and Ma-The guests were: Captain and jor and Mrs. Henry Terrill, Jr.

MRS. WILLIAM H. NOBLE VIS-ITING CAPTAIN AND MRS. WILBUR H. ELLIOTT

Mrs. William H. Noble, wife of Colonel William H. Noble of Fort McPherson, Atlanta, Georgia, is spending the week-end as the house guest of Captain and Mrs. Wilbur S. Elliott.

SYLVIA LENT GUEST OF COL-ONEL AND MRS. TUCKER

Miss Sylvia Lent, the celebrated violinist, who appeared before a large audience in Columbus Friday night, was the guest of Colon-(Please turn to page 8)

We congratulate the Twenty-Ninth Infantry on the 33rd Anniversary of its organization -March 3, 1901.

HUMES

for Furniture, Pianos, Radios, Refrigerators

10 DAY

SPECIAL BENNING

Strictly Authentic, Colonial Reproduction

OLID MAPLE

BED - ROOM SUITE

FOUR PIECES

Poster Bed-Choice of Chest or Desk Chest-Choice of Large Vanity (as shown in left of illusitation) Bench to Match. A suite of this quality ordinarily sells for $125. Twin beds available.

ANY PIECE MAY BE BOUGHT INDIVIDUALLY

NOTE: This is an "open group." Any piece bought now may be matched later. A wide variety for your selection.

HUMES

Mrs. Scott Will Lecture On Stage At Woman's Club Meeting March 5th

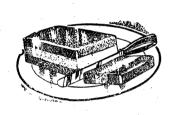

The Infantry School Woman's Club, of Fort Benning, at its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon, March 5, at two o'clock, will have present at the meeting Mrs. Samuel Scott, one of America's foremost lecturers on current plays and stage personalities. Mrs. Scott will talk on "The Current Broadway Plays," illustrating the address with stereopticon slides of scenes from the various outstanding successes of stage productions.

Mrs. Scott has appeared in nearly every important American city from coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf, delivering lectures before clubs, colleges, schools, and universities. Her association with leading New York producers such as the Theatre Guild, Morris Gest,

Herald Want Ads

20 cents per line or fraction of line. Minimum charge for any classified advertisement, 50 cents. Payment must be made before advertisement is published.

DAFFODILS for sale, 65c for 100. L. G. Bowers, Jr. 695.

In any quantity or flavor you want ..

You can buy it just as you like—and as much as you like—whenever you want it!

Sold at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club

Girl Scouts

The meeting on Tuesday, 22nd, began by basketball instructions by Mrs. Bache. She demonstrated two throws which were practiced most of the time. Then she gave the order to run around the field. It was rather tiring but it was warming. After a few more minutes of practice she left. Next Saturday morning the gym will be reserved at 10:30 for scout basketball.

Mrs. Schneider, after postponing the scout masquerade till the first Friday in April, called for the formation of a good-night circle. She introduced a new way of playing follow the leader while singing to keep the winds from penetrating. Just before the meeting broke up Mrs. Tucker made an announcement about the last recital of the Three Arts League. The violinist is a young woman whom Mrs. Tucker admires very much. Her program sounds very interesting.

Mrs. Schneider then dismissed the troop.

and numberless others, has definitely established her reputation in all the key cities of the road as one of the most intelligent and dynamic lecturers on the theatre and promoter of good plays. In her witty and inspirational talks, Mrs. Scott deals not so much with the problems of the playmaker as with the problems behind the footlights; but Mrs. Scott is one of the very few experts who come with first aid to those in front of the footlights. Her talks are illustrated with stereopticon slides of scenes from the latest Broad-way "hits" and enlivened with fresh anecdotal material on personages of the casts as well as the playwrights.

Equipped by years of study of the dramatic literature of the world, by active work in the management of dramatic stock companies, by contact with New York producers and personalities of the stage, by first hand study in the chief centers of creative activity overseas, especially of the theatrical productions of the experimental theatres in Germany, Italy, France, England, and Ireland, Mrs. Scott has a rich background for her work in making known to American audiences the significant features of the contemporary the-

AN IMPORTANT ITEM ON YOUR PANTRY SHELF

Keep the Six-Box in a prominent place . . .

Six Coca-Colas For Only . . .

25c

Coca-Cola, especially in the SIX-BOX is an important item on your pantry shelf—because it is your means of livening up the day. Keep it for the Pause That Refreshes . . . and learn how pleasant work can really be!

MAKE "THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES" A HIGH POINT OF THE DAY

To The 29th Infantry Congratulations:

To the Officers and Enlisted Men of the Twenty-Ninth Infantry

Congratulations to America's finest regiment on this, your

33rd Birthday

Your remarkable progress in the comparatively short time in which we have been priviliged to know you truly fills us with pride in the thought that perhaps we, too, have contributed something in that progress.

And especially are we delighted to have the further opportunity of cooperating with you in presenting this issue as a tribute to the entire personnel of the Twenty-Ninth.

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 6) el and Mrs. Albert S. J. Tucker at Fort Benning during her stay in this vicinity.

Ladislas Helfevein, Miss Lent's accompanist, was also a guest of Colonel and Mrs. Tucker.

PERSONALS Marian Hannah Burt. daughter of Colonel and Mrs. James C. Hannah, and Mrs. Marcrum Cole, of Columbus, returned Tuesday evening from Palm Beach and Miami. They attended the horse show in Miami and returned to Columbus by way of the Bok Tower and Tampa.

Major and Mrs. Neal C. John-

News . .

Investors in the fifty cities reached by wires of this firm have available a coordinated news service on the security and commodity markets.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272

Columbus, Ga.

MEMBE S NEW YORK STOCK FYCHANGE

son and Major and Mrs. Archibald Arnold, who attended the Mi ami horse show together last week returned early in the week to Fort Benning.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Claude Collins spent last week-end at Fort McPherson as the guest of Captain and Mrs. Thomas Ramsey.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin Cummings were the guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Crump Garvin at Fort McPherson over the week-end.

Mrs. William Lucas and her house guest, Miss Dale Heard of Dallas, Texas, left the early part of the week for South Carolina. Mrs. Lucas was called home because of the illness of her mother and Miss Heard is now visiting friends in Aiken.

Mrs. George P. Howell's many friends will be glad to hear that she has returned to her quarters from the hospital. Mrs. Howell suffered a fractured knee when her horse fell and is still convalescing from the injury she thus sus-

The many friends of Mrs. Charles Landon will be sorry to learn that she is a patient at the Post hospital and hope for her rapid recovery and return to

The little daughter of Major and Mrs. Cook, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Post hospital early in the week is now recovering nicely.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Aloyisius Eugene O'Flaherty are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Daniel, at the City hospital Lanham. in Columbus on February 20.

Mrs. Samuel Scott, of New York City, formerly of St. Louis. will the week-end guests of Lieutenant be the house guest of Mrs. Phillip Mrs. Wood over the week-end.

Scott will speak on Monday at the Woman's Club on the subject of "Current Broadway Plays." Many lovely parties are being given for this attractive visitor during her stay here.

AND MRS. MITCHELL LEAVE FOR CHANGE OF STATION

Lieutenant and Mrs. Richard Mitchell. who have been here for the past year and a half while Lieutenant Mitchell completed the Infantry School and the Tank School courses, left recently for their new regiment at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Mitchell have been very popular at Fort Benning and leave behind them many friends who hate to see them go. They are first enjoying a brief leave in Florida before going to their new station.

Before their departure they were the house guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Dan Norman.

Captain and Mrs. Malcolm Lindsey, Lieutenant and Mrs. Joseph I. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. George Woodruff and Mrs. Marcrum Cole of Columbus have returned from Atlanta where they attended the Monte Carlo Russian Ballet on Thursday evening.

Motoring to Atlanta together to attend the Monte Carlo Russian Ballet on Thursday were Colonel and Mrs. Albert S. J. Tucker, Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, and Major and Mrs. Archibald Arnold.

Another congenial group that attended the Russian Ballet consisted of Mrs. James Bowen, Mrs. Lynn Brady and Mrs. Charles T.

Lieutenant and Mrs. William Schaeffer of Fort Oglethorpe were and Mrs. William T. Fitts, Jr., at their home in Columbus.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS

the Infantry on its thirtythird anniversary— We would like you to make it a habit to think of us when you think of furniture-for living room, bed room-for every room in the home.

To the leading regiment of

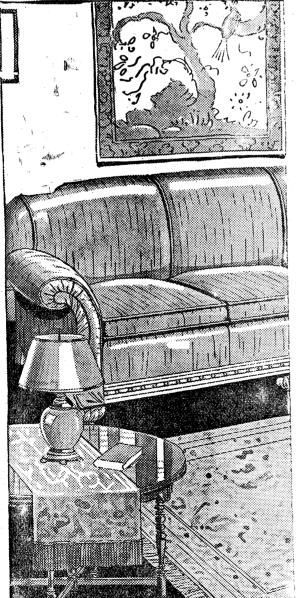

LOWEST PRICES

1014 Broadway

EASIEST TERMS

Phone 460

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY UPON ITS COMPLE-TION OF 33 YEARS OF MERITORIOUS SERVICE.

> We think it has been one of the greatest privileges of Columbus to have the Infantry School and the Twenty-Ninth Infantry near here and we want you to know that we are solidly behind you in every way.

WE WILL BE PLEASED TO HAVE YOU VISIT OUR STORE AT ANY TIME YOU MAY NEED FURNITURE.

ROTHSCHILD

Leading furniture dealer in Columbus for 40 years.

The Pioneer Hike

It had been talked about and planned for so long that it had to be one came home completely satis-Starting from the scout cabin the "Pioneers" walked across the field by the gravel road leading to block 40. Sedately they passed through the street and up the hill of Rainbow Row once truely in the wood the group in the lead headed

THE 29TH INFANTRY gets a salute from us!

And we're proud of the fact that the crack Infantry Regiment of the Army is stationed near our city.

We invite you to visit our store at any time for fine men's clothing of all kinds.

We sell clothing, men's furnishings, hats and shoes.

1203 Broad

CLOTHING

The Pioneer hike finally took by Jane Kraft began to sing. The place after several postponements. song didn't last long but proved contagious for everyone's spirit relaxed and each had the true hiking rather a special excursion to meet feeling. The way seemed longer everyone's hopes. It was, for every- and the destination farther each step that was taken. Two girls were called for attempting to take short cuts and straggling from the main body. At last, however, the woods ended. Yellow sand appeared stretching to the river. Knap sacks were dropped, canteens opened, and the hikers threw themselves gladly on the sand.

Evidently Phillis Partridge was a trifle proud of her "preparedness". She first exhibited her wa ter-proof boots by wading safely in the stream. Next she produced mercurochrome from a first aid kit. It was lucky she had this for a few cuts were inevitable. So, Phyllis has easily shown how well she observes the scout motto.

The troop divided into little groups, ranging from two to six in number and built fires. When the flames had died down and only the coals were left, kabobs were cooked. Lunch was a lazy affair with each person dictating only to personal needs and taking all the time wanted. Mrs. Matchett and Mrs. Schneider walked from one group to another forcing reluctant fires to burn and giving advice about outdoor cooking.

When the lunch period came to an end the scouts buried their fires and cleaned up their camp sites. Mrs. Matchett took a few girls for pioneer instructions while the rest languidly lay in the sun awaiting their turn. The second band of scouts listened to the groans of

Make It A Point To Ask For toremost

The delicious flavor, the richness. the knowledge of its purity through pasteurization, these should be enough to make you always ask for Foremost milk and ice cream.

toremost

Inc.

Congratulations to the 29th On Their Anniversary from an ex-service man of the 332nd Infantry. Closing Out complete stock of Kinsel & Petri and welcome you to this feast of bargains.

MAX RONES

Purchaser of KINSEL & PETRI STOCK 1105 BROADWAY

Sgt. E. C. Davis Holder of D.S.C.

More than fifteen years have passed since the signing of the armistice which brought the World War to a close. This lapse of time has brought changes in the personnel of our regiments, already the World War veteran is the exception in our companies.

First Sergeant Edgar C. Davis, Company "E", 29th Infantry, was born at Lewisburg, Tennessee, July 22, 1898.

We spend very little time thinking of those days of 1917 and 1918. Very properly, our thoughts are directed toward the future. Very properly, also, on Memorial Day each year we remember our heroic dead, but we are very prone en-those in the first who were vainly attempting to make a fuzz stick. Some girl announced that she cut her hand more than she did the wood. The strangest thing about the two objects to be made was that the fuzz stick which looked simple was ten times harder to fix than the broiler. Needless to say the latter looks most complicated from the picture in the scout

The walk home at first seemed shorter but the hill up to 40 suddenly took likeness to an Alpine mountain. At last even it was conquered and the official dismissal took place at the top. Everyone went home tired but extremely happy.

OFFICER'S

and

ENLISTED MEN'S Regulation

GARRISON CAPS

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your dealer or post exchange

Ask for Meyer or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons.

N. S. MEYER, Inc. NEW YORK

Even minor details are given careful attention by us. It takes more than good merchandise to keep customers satisfied nowadays. Smallest details are watched carefully.

Frank Olver Co.

Wholesale

Paper Products & Confections. Mfrs. Blue Bird 3rooms and Mops.

912 Front Ave, Phone 343 COLUMBUS, GA.

them daily blinds us to their heroic on the anniversary of the organitirely to overlook our heroic com- zation we should remind ourselves rades who are still with us. The of the heroic actions of our comvery fact that we associate with rades who do daily duty with us.

Sergeant Davis attended High deeds. They do not remind us. It School at Lewisburg from 1913 to is especially appropriate then, that 1916, and was a student at Morgan (Please turnto page 14)

We Congratulate THE 29th INFANTRY On Their 33rd Anniversary

BENNING BLVD. NURSERIES

BENNING ROAD

PHONE 4176

WE TELEGRAPH FLOWERS

It Is A Pleasure For Us To Congratulate the 29TH INFANTRY On Its 33rd Anniversary

WE INVITE YOU TO MAKE USE OF OUR EASY PLAN OF BORROWING MONEY.

Fidelity Loan & Investment Co.

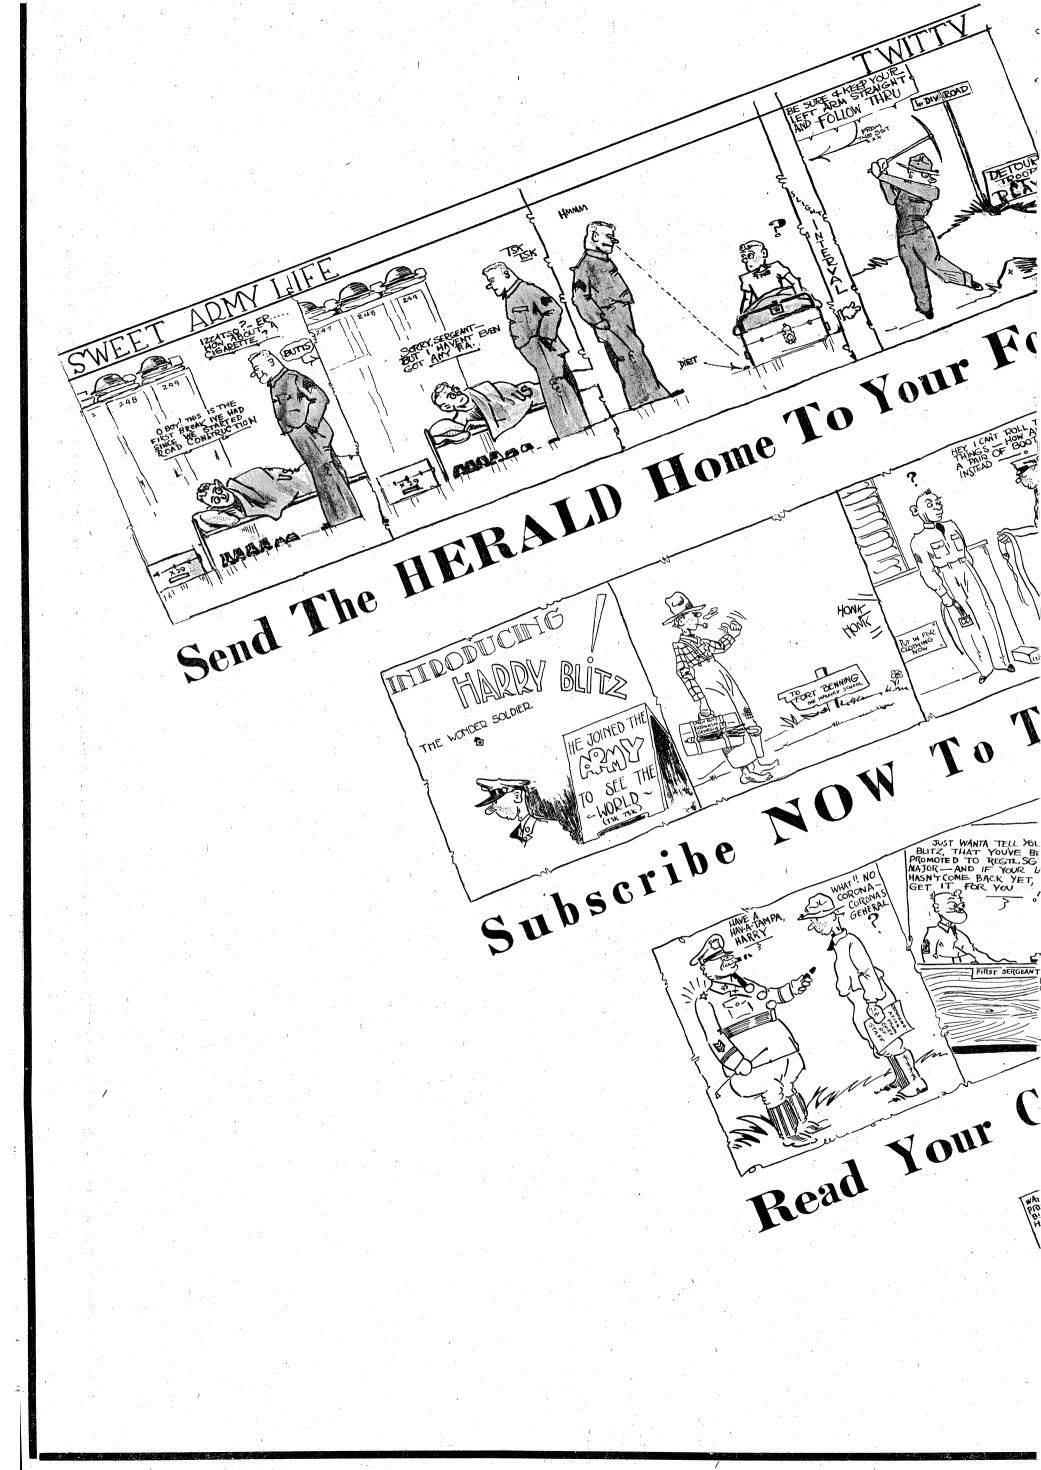

1206 FIRST AVENUE

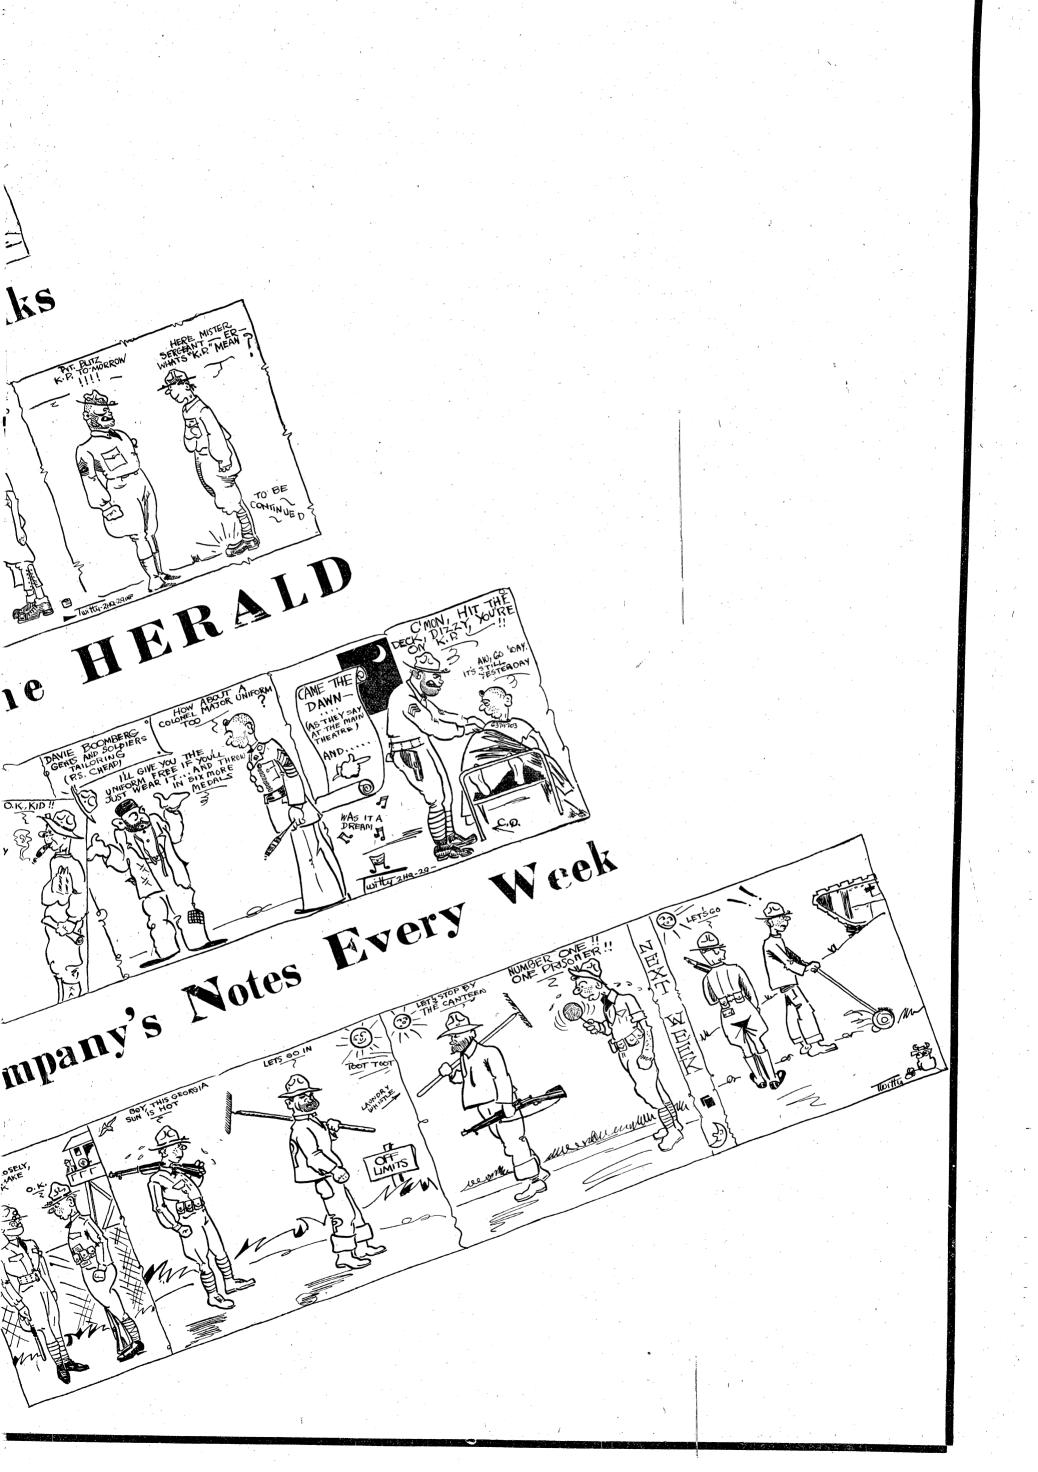

Here's A Pat On The Back

FOR THE TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY ON ITS COMPLETION OF AN EXCELLENT THIRTY-THREE YEARS OF EXCEPTION-ALLY FINE SERVICE. WE ARE INDEED VERY GLAD THAT WE HAVE THIS OP-PORTUNITY TO CONGRATULATE YOU— BOTH OFFICERS AND MEN—AND WE EX-TEND A VERY CORDIAL INVITATION TO OUR STORE AT ANY AND ALL TIMES AND FOR ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING YOU NEED.

COLUMBUS' LEADING CLOTHIERS ESTABLISHED 1888

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Benning Likely Southeastern Champ

The post amateur boxing team, champions of the 1933 Southeastern boxing tourney, look like the logical outfit to gain the crown for 1934, if the showing made in the preliminary round of the tourney Thursday night can be taken as a criterion. The Benning boys looked good Thursday night, and should have no trouble in adding this year's pennant to their laurels.

The outstanding fights as far as the Benning team was concern ed were the exhibitions given by Milam and Goss in the welter-High, studied his opponent for one round, and came out in the second to win by a beautiful T. K. O. Goss, fighting a cagey, thinking battle, felt out his opponent in the first, got the range in the second to take that round by a wide margin, and polished his man off in the third very nicely.

Phail, in the lightweight class, took a well-earned decision over Henry Allen, of the C. C. at Bloomingdale, leaving no doubt in anyone's mind as to who had won Elmo Fryer, former welterweight the battle. Mann ran into a streak of tough luck, and succumbed to back trail, and who most likely a solar plexus blow early in the will come through to meet Milam first round in his battle with Roper. Filipone came through nicely in his match with Cates, of Mobile to win by a T. K. O. in two byes to go through to the the second.

Geld, of Mobile, won without a Tech, in that section. Billy Floyd bit of trouble by a K. O. early in also drew a bye in the preliminary the first round, almost before he round, as did Whitley and Charley had time to get warmed up. The Floyd. Ed Brady was another of only other battle that Benning those on the lucky list, which was dropped in the first round was the finished off by Penland and Reid, loss suffered by Polowada against in the heavyweight division.

Polo Tournament Finals Are To Be Played at Benning Sunday Afternoon Teams After Him:

The Second round of the spring Polo Tournament, which was held Basketball Proves Sunday afternoon on French Field, of Fort Benning, found the Freebooter four downing the 83rd Gunners 14 to 5, in a fast riding, hard hititng contest.

The second game between the 29th Blues and the 24th Mallet wielders was somewhat of a surprise to the spectators in its endweight division. Milam, meeting ing, although much closer than the Leatherwood of Georgia Tech first contest. The 29th Infantry playing under a two-goal handicap, came from behind to down their white-shirted opponents 9 to 5. The final round of the tourney, which will be played next Sunday afternoon, will see the two strongest teams on the post, the 29th Infantry and the Freebooters, who are both undefeated, clash for the topmost position in the race. The 83rd will also meet the 24th in the second contest of the afternoon.

> champion, who is on the comein the finals.

McShea, tiny flyweight who represents Benning in this class, drew finals without a match, and will Phil Carpenter, meeting Victor meet Tony Scordas, of Georgia eld, of Mobile, won without a Tech, in that section. Billy Floyd

There are many excellent places to fish around near here-both in Geor-

Surprise To Fans

Followers of the cage game at the post have received a couple of nasty jolts in the outcome of several recent game, and the contents of the old dope-bucket have spilled all over the lot.

The 2nd Batts, winners of the first half, have already dropped two contests, only to do an about face and down the Headquarters Pirates for the only loss the latter team has suffered in this section, while the 1st Batt Irish, who finished in third place in the first half, are leading the league at the present time on a percentage basis. The teams that rolled the Kellys under were the Tankers, a terrible upset, and the Green Wave, which was not expected.

83rd Gunners, spliting even on wins and losses, are giving the Kellys a close race for third place, while the Medicos are just managing to stay out a three way tie for the cellar position with the Tankers and Special Units, who also upset the beans by downing the Tank Tornado.

League Standings and the "Big Five" are as follows:

Team	\mathbf{P}	\mathbf{W}	\mathbf{L}	Pct
1st Bn	6	5	1	.83
Hq. Bn		4	1	.80
2nd Bn		3	2	.60
83rd	6	3	3	.50
Medicos	4	. 1	3	.25
Tanks		1 .	4	.20
Special Units		1	4	.20

During Short Time

When considering the outstand-

Baseball, football, and basketball are the sports in which this diminutive star excells. He has been the regular 2nd baseman of the 1st Battalion for the past two years. He was quarterback and captain of the Green Wave of 1932, and was the spark-plug that nearly lead that outfit out of the depths of the intra-mural league to a Post Championship. Then in 1933 he was quarterback of the 29th Regimental team.

For two years Jordan has been regular member of the 1st Battalion basketball team, and for two years this team has won the post championship. This present season is his third on the courts of Fort Benning and at present his team is leading the league again and look to have an even chance to again take the cup.

Although Jordan is one of the smallest men competing in Benning athletics, he makes up in fight for what he lacks in weight and height. Modest, a good sportsman and always trying, this young man has been a credit to his company, his battalion, and to Fort Benning. We wish him many years of success in whatever he may undertake.

Sgt. Kjelstrom

No one who has witnessed an athletic contest in which a Second Battalion team was a participant can ever forget Kjelstrom.

In baseball his gallops from deep center to home plate to pour a little friendly admonition in the ears of an unwilling umpire, have added a great deal of local color to the baseball season.

In football he is now occupying a valuable position as coach and advisor to the younger lads who are coming up, but his headwork and uncanny sensing of the correct thing to do, has carried on the tradition evolved around him, as the outstanding "money-player" of Fort Benning.

In all other sports, Kelly's personality has been a fundamental background upon which the teams of the 2nd Bn. are built and no more fitting compliment can be paid the teams, than being called the "Kelly".

A few years ago, he made a trip to Camp Perry as a rifle team candidate. He came back with the Marine Corps Cup, a reward which was much sought after by all the exceptional rifle shots in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

The difficulty in discussing Kjel They Even Name strom's record as a soldier and athlete is not in a discription of what he has done, but rather to find some flaw in his makeup which would show his failure in any line of endeavor during his 13 years at Fort Benning.

The writer of this article has only known Sgt. Kjelstrom since 1930, but he has the sincere opinion, shared by the large majority at Fort Benning, that in this man we have a type which any group in society would be glad to claim as their own, and the 29th Infantry, and the Infantry as a whole can consider themselves fortunate that we have Kelly as a "Doughboy".

Congratulations

To The 29th

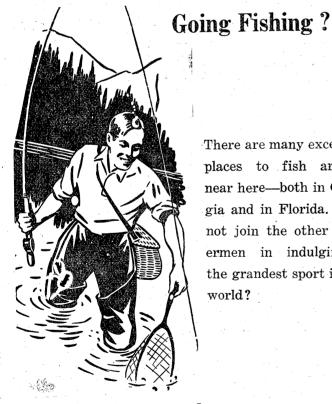

Daily Delivery to Fort Benning

Harper's Drugs

Phone 396

Jordon Of 1st Bn. Makes Fine Record

ing athletes of Fort Benning, one who must not be overlooked is Private Herbie Jordan of the fighting Irish of the 1st Battalion, 29th Infantry. Jordan is on his first enlistment, but during his short career in the service, he has made an enviable record in his company and on the athletic fields of Fort gia and in Florida. Why not join the other fishermen in indulging in the grandest sport in the world?

For Fishermen — and for all other Sportsmen

The Main Branch has always a complete stock of fine sporting equipment. We sell only nationally known sporting goods made expertly by the most reputable makers of the country.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

THE SCHWOB COMPANY

1037 Broadway, Columbus, Ga.

Sgt. Charles Banks Proof That A Man Can Do Everything

Back in 1913, when many of our recruits were just beginning to see the light of day, a man enlisted in the Army at Jackson Barracks, La. Arriving at the Recruiting office he approached the officer in charge and said, "Sir, I am 21 years old and I want to be a soldier." He certainly has had his wish. Charlie Banks is a soldier in every sense of the word.

Having attended the Lakeland Florida High School, where he was developed as a baseball and football star, Charlie Banks has played coached and inspired army athletics throughout his service. He has played on Battalion teams, Regimental teams, Post teams, All star teams and Semi Pro teams in both sports and taken them all in his stride. A natural eye, plenty of intestinal fortitude and a level head has carried him to and kept him at the top of Service Athletics even against the handicap of age. Although he is 41 years old he is still a crack 3rd baseman and how he can hit.

The following is a Military and Athletic record:

CHARLES H. BANKS Born Banks, Alabama, 1892.

Enlisted November 11th, 1913 at Jackson Barracks, Louisiana. Asgd 22nd Inf. at Texas City, Texas, December, 1913. Aptd. Corporal in Co. "H", 22nd Inf., July, 1916, at Warren, Arazona. Aptd. Sgt. June, 1917, Fort Totten, N. Y. Discharged December 5th, 1920, at Fort Niagara, N. Y. Re-enlisted May, 1923, at Fort McPherson! Georgia. Aptd. Corporal June, 1923, in Co. "L" 22nd Infantry. Aptd. Sgt. May 1924. Aptd. 1st Sgt. December, 1927. Served as 1st Sgt. in Co. "L" 22nd Inf. until ordered to Hawaiian Department in 1929. Served as 1st Sgt. Co. "G," 21st Inf. from August 1929 to September 1931. Served as 1st Sgt. Co. "C", 29th Inf. from October, 1929 to present date.

Baseball 22nd Inf. Regt. team, 1914, Texas City, Texas; 2nd Division team, 1914, Texas City, Texas; 22nd Inf. Regt. team, 1915 and 1916, Douglas, Arizona; 6th Brigade team, (Please turn to page 14)

USED CARS

Easy Terms, Trades

'30 Ford Coune

ov rora Coupe	φΔυυ
'30 Ford Tudor	$250
'31 Chevrolet Coach v Radio
'32 Ford V-8 Coupe	$375
'32 Ford V-8 Tudor	$395
'32 Buick "8" Sedan	$575
'33 Ford Tudor	$525
'33 Ford DeLuxe	٠

Many others—

All Prices

Burrus Motor Co.

Fordor $575

Authorized

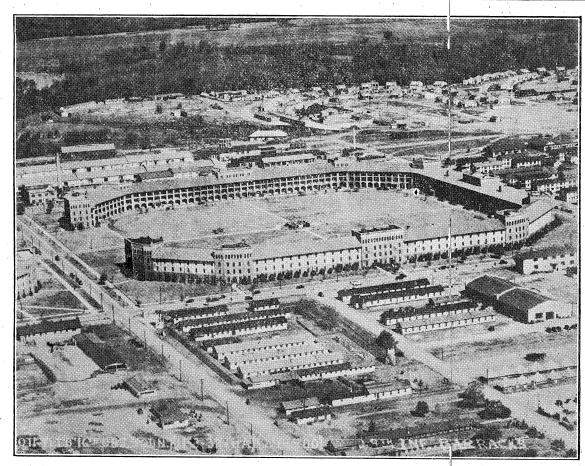

SALES

USED CAR DEPT.

1213 1st Ave. Phone 606

THE BARRACKS FROM THE AIR

An aerial view of the barracks which house the 29th Infilintry.

SECOND DANIEL BOONE

About forty years ago there was he was in his element, for it took | daddy of all gobblers hangs out, born up in the mountains of North Carolina, where the states of Tenn., N. C., and Kentucky clasp hands, a mountain boy. He was one of ine children. His forebears came from those original settlers who formed the Jamestown Colony along the tidewaters of Old Virginia. As the history of our great country has developed the historians have traced for you the migrations of these early American settlers west over the Appalachain range into the valleys of the Ohio, the Tennessee, and the Father of waters, the great Mississippi. These were a sturdy stock of pioneers, men of courage and virility. In the mountains and valleys they made their settlements, fought off the savage Indians, and endured privations that only the bravest of men and women could have survived. They held to and expanded their settlements and at the same time sent their sons and daughters father west to build our great country and fight her battles for a place in the family of nations. It was from such men that Daniel Boone descended. It was from such men that the hero of this tale descended. Like his ancestors he loves a fight, whether combating the forces of nature or serving in our armed forces. It is to such men that the Army and Navy of the United States have always looked for service and leadership in times of peace and war-men like Stephen Decatur who said, "Our Country may she always be right, but our country right or

It has been truly said that the backbone of a country is its citigenry; the backbone of an army its noncommissioned officers. This brings us to our hero, a splendid non-commissioned officer of our regiment the 29th Infantry, whose proud motto is, "We Lead the Way".

For twenty years our modern Daniel Boone, Sergeant Peter Thompson, Headquarters Company, Second Battalion, of the 29th Infantry, affectionally known as "Sergeant Pete", has followed Old Glory, all but three years of which have been with the regiment. He is not of the original Benningites, having come to the Infantry School in 1919. For eight years he served as a range guard, three of which were in the leadership role of "Chief Range Guard." In this duty him back to the soil, riding the range from one corner to the other of the 150 square miles covering 100,000 acres of territory. His duties as range sergeant imposed upon him a big responsibilitymanaging the tenants, fighting forest fires, and protecting the game of what is now the happy hunting grounds of the modern nimrods of the officers and men on duty with the Infantry School.

With a rare sense of proportion which guides him in a proper mixture of work and play, he has demonstrated another admirable them true according to Sergeant leadership role as guide to lesser Pete, about his experience in guidhunters, ranging from Secretaries of War to private soldiers. If you have been his charges. One is the want to know where the gran-story of his going out with a call on Sgt. Pete. If you want a comrade who can get you there and bring you back over long-lost trails, go afield with this old master hunter. He knows the ways of game and he will teach even the most skilled hunters new tricks of the trade, at the same time keeping within the most ethical standards of sportsmanship. In a word Sgt. Pete/is a sportsman in every sense of the word. With him, it is the chase not the quarry.

Among the old Benning hunters there are many stories, not all of ing the hierarchy of hunters who former Commandant to bag a gobbler. It seems that after a series of unsuccessful quests to bag a turkey, Sergeant Pete's hunting companion delivered an ultimatum that he would take one more turkey hunt with him, and that, if he didn't get a gobbler, then it was all over for Sgt. Pete as a future guide. Steadily the Major General and Sgt. Pete sneaked into a blind above Ochillee. Came the dawn, and suddenly in front of the blind there was the rustle of heavy wings. Vaguely a big gobbler silhouetted himself against old Sol, just below the eastern horizon. "Thar he is, Gen'al," whispered Sergeant Pete.

"Let him have it!" "Bang"! rang out the General's gun. "You got him, Sir, I'll fetch him," exclaimed Sgt. Pete, scrambling through the wall of pines. "Steady!" Commanded the general, "I retrieve my own game."

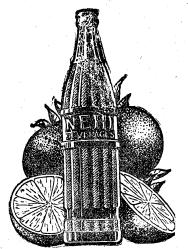

Sergeant Pete followed timidly behind the general who, with gun in hand, sneaked up to deliver, if necessary, a final salvo into his flopping bird. With the pride of the hunter who has bagged his first tiger, the General reached down and laid hold to a huge gobbler, only to find that the old bird was securely anchored to a scrub pine It didn't take the General long to estimate the situation. We can't put into the record here the oaths that he, a skilled swearer

"You'll do plenty of time in the guard house for this, trying to put a trick over on me like that. I know, you tied this old tame gobbler up in the tree, knew he would fly down at dawn off the roost, that I would shoot him, and that you'd run out and cut the string off him. . .'

The writer confronted Sergeant Pete with this yarn to which he came back with a characteristic twinkle in his blue Anglo Saxon eyes: "That make a good tale, sir, but hits another one of them lies the boys around here likes to tell on me. I ain't so dumb as to try to pull no sech stunt on a Major General, especially General Col-

We Make RUBBER STAMPS Columbus Office Supply Co.

Instant Orange Juice

-Just Remove Cap

ORE and more Orange Juice—for its health value, for its refreshing qualities -science is prescribing it for new uses.

NEHI True Fruit Orange is made from the juice of selected, tree-ripened oranges and bottled under rigid sanitary condi-

For breakfast, for health diets, for guests, for parties-just uncap a bottle of

NEHI ORANGE

True Fruit Beverage

SGT. CHARLES BANKS (Continued from Page 13(

Preparotory School from 1916 to Ga.; Post team, 1927 to 1929 incl. 1917. He enlisted at Nashville, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.; 21st Infan-Tenn., on September 26, 1917, and try, 1930 to 1931, Schofield Bks., 1915 and 1916, Douglas, Arizona; 2nd Battalion, 22nd Inf., 1917, Fort 1930 and 1931, Schofield Bks., T. Bks., T. H. Totten, N. Y.; Post team, 1918, H.; Plattsburg Bks., N. Y.; Post team, Ga.

1919 and 1920, Fort Niagara, N. Y.; Semi Pro., 1921 and 1922, North and South Carolina; Post team, 1923 to 1926 incl., Fort McPherson, H.; All Schofield Bks. team, H.; Post team, 1932, Fort Benning, CASH PAID

for

Old Gold and Silver

United States License No. 628

C. SCHOMBURG & SON JEWELERS

1121 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

At the sign of the big clock.

We Salute the 29th Infantry on its 33rd Anniversary tomorrow

May we add our con-gratulations, too?

ON THE THIRTY-THREE YEARS OF EX-CELLENT SERVICE GIVEN BY THE TWENTY - NINTH INFANTRY SINCE MARCH 1, 1901.

UST as the Twenty-Ninth leads the way for the Army, so does the Ford lead the way among other motor cars. Beautifully styled-magnificently built-and perfectly designed to fit every individual's tastes and requirements. Each of them is priced at a most modern figure.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO SEE AND INSPECT THE NEW FORDS HERE.

Burrus

COMPANY MOTOR

1221 1ST. AVE.

22nd Inf., Regt. team, 1915 and 1916, Douglas, Arizona; Semi Pro. 1917 and 18, New York; Post team, 1919 and 1920, Fort Niagara, N. Y.; 22nd Inf. Regt. team, 1923 to 1926, Fort McPherson, Ga.; 21st Inf. team, 1930 to 1931, Schofield

High School baseball and football at Lakeland, Florida.

The example presented to us by a man of 1st Sgt. Bank's type is one to inspire and encourage both officers and men of the service. To know that we have men of this high standard in the army gives us an assurance and a guarantee that all emergencies will be met and overcome in the future as in the past.

It is the hope of the army that new men entering its ranks will mark the record and emulate the characteristics shown by 1st Sgt Charles H. Banks.

> SGT. E. C. DAVIS (Continued from Page 9)

was soon thereafter assigned to Company "H" 61st Infantry, at Gettysburg, Pa. In November, 1917 he moved with his regiment to Green, North Carolina, where he received training as a member of the Division. In Febuary, 1918 Sergeant Davis' Division moved to Camp Merritt, New Jersey for embarkation, and left for France in April, 1918. Sergeant Davis participated in all the engagements in which his Division fought, among them the Saint Mihiel, the Argonne and the Meuse Argonne.

For his actions at Dun Sur Meuse, General Orders No. 37, War Department, 1919, gave Sergeant Davis the D. S. C., and cited him as follows:

"He voluntarily advanced alone against an enemy machine gun which was holding up his Platoon near Dun Sur Meuse, France, November 5, 1918, Capturing 13 prisoners, and continued the advance until the days objective was reached and the platoon's position reorganized."

It is interesting to note that during his war service, Sergeant Davis was never wounded, never gassed and never in the hospital.

Sergeant Davis returned from France in April, 1919. Was discharged as Sergeant in April, 1919, and remained out of the service until January 4, 1921. Since this last date he has been continuously in the service. In January, 1921 he was assigned to Co. "G" 61st Infantry, and was promoted to the grade of Sergeant January 19,

Congratulation

to the 29TH

on their 33RD BIRTHDAY

THUR ${\mathbb R}$

THE TANK TAILOR Located in the Tank Area organization until it became inactive in October, 1922, when he was transferred in grade of Sergeant to Co. "G" 29th Infantry.

On Sepember 21, 1921, he trans- He reenlisted in grade in Headferred in Grade to Co. "K", 29th quarters Co. 2nd Battalion, 29th Infantry and remained with that Infantry on January 4, 1924. On August 11, 1926, he was appointed 1st Sergeant, then transferred to Co. "E", 29th Infantry, his present organization.

CONGRATULATIONS

to the

TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY

from

Muscogee Motor Co., Inc.

1501 FIRST AVE.

Columbus, Ga.

MARCH 3rd

Is the thirty-third anniversary of the organization of the 29th Infantry — and it has since filled an important and honorable position in the country's defense — we wish to add our congratulations to those of many others.

1141 BROADWAY

PHONE 409

Leonard Electric Refrigerators

Philco Radios

HEADQUARTERS CO.

Hurst, one of our fast radio operators, has just returned from a furlough which he states has been spent in exploring the jungles of North Highlands. Brown, G. C., is still quarantine bound in his home in Columbus, Georgia. He went to his home last week to take a load of wood and measles was discovered while absent from his company so he has been taking a rest at his home.

The company is glad to hear that they will get shooting pay this year effective after July 1, 1934, for experts only. The pay is only for one year and the next two years following will be without pay. The $60.00 is worth working for.

The men of the company attending the Post Signal Communication School, 21 in all, are having a fine time playing with maps, contours, radio (dar ditta-dar) etc. Corp. Fuller says the Radio "dar ditta dar" has just about got him. He says everything he hears now is "dar ditta dar.'

The following men in the company has been rated specialist 6th class: Privates Phillips and Becke-

The Battalion Basketball team is in first place and expects to stay there the rest of this season. They are playing wonderful basketball. (Please turn to page 18)

SUBSCRIBE

NOW To The

BENNING HERALD

$1.50 Year

WATCH REPAIRING

REASONABLE PRICES

All work guaranteed

NEAL-PETRI CO.

Jewelers

101 - 12th St.

When in Atlanta make the Henry Grady Hotel your home. 550 fireproof rooms, each with bath, ceiling fan, circulating ice water and radio.

Our food is the best, both in the Terrace Dining Room, overlooking Peachtree, and in the Coffee Shop. The prices are most reasonable.

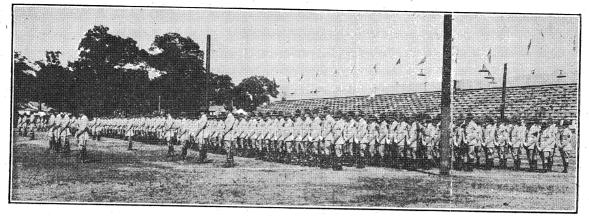

Room rates are in keeping with the times.

We will be glad to have you, and will make you feel at home while in the city.

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

ATLANTA, GA.

THE REGIMENT IN REVIEW

The Twenty-Ninth Infantry drawn up in review in Doughboy stadium.

Sgt. Vines Head Of One of Army's Best ning, is relieved from duty at this

Sgt. Vines, Mess Sgt. of Co. F. 29th Infantry, is a man who prides himself on his ability to turn out excellent meals despite any adverse conditions. His slogan has always been, "The men must feed well and on time."

Modest, reserved, and seldom aroused to anger, Sgt. Vines will always fight for his principles, one of which is efficiency. He has the distinction of being the first Mess Sgt. to have the cafeteria system in his mess. He has worked with Capt. Horan, and later Capt. Yancey and Lt. Duffner, to make the "F" Co. Mess what it is todaythe best and most efficient mess in the regiment. There is little need to discuss the merits of the cafeteria system of feeding as compared to others, because it has been proven, by results shown, to be superior to other systems, and Sgt. Vines has made it the success that it is.

Let us look at the Service Record of Sgt. Vines: He joined the cavalry at Fort Bliss, Texas on May 29, 1916. A year later he was in France with the 2nd Ammunition Train of the 2nd Division. While overseas he was in five major engagements. Although he was a cook at the time, he frequently had to take a hand at carrying ammunition forward, and facing death was no novelty to him.

Sgt. Vines does not like to talk of his war experiences because it recalls sad memories of his departed friends. But he does talk willingly on the feeding difficulties that confronted the kitchen force. To have the rolling kitchen overturned just before time by some stray artillery fire was not unusual. To make a meal out of "monkey meat" bread and coffee was a frequent occurrence, at the Argonne and St. Mihiel Vines has seen men nonchalantly eating a hearty meal in the presence of a host of unburied dead.

After the Armistice, Sgt. Vines spent seven months in Germany with the American Army of Occupation. He became a Mess Sgt. in 1919, was sent to Camp Travis (now Fort Sam Houston, Texas) where he remained until 1924, and was then transferred to Co. D, 29th Infantry at Fort Benning. In 1931 he was transferred to Co. F, 29th Infantry, where he has re-

On holidays Sgt. Vines has the opportunity to spread himself and exhibit his culinary arts. Thanksgiving Day is his day of glory because on that day he rules as king, but every day he brings happiness to the men of "F" Co. by giving them meals that always stand out as superior.

OFFICERS LEAVE BENNING (Continued from page 4)

station and reassigned to the 4th Company Messes Infantry at Fort Missoula, Montana, effective not later than

> Lieutenant Monroe was sent student in the 1928-29 company

School, and left here at the completion of this course to pursue one at the Cavalry School, Fort Riley, Kansas. After graduation from this institution he was assigned to the 24th Infantry, the organization from which he has just been relieved.

Lt. Monroe was a cadet at the here following an assignment at United States Military Academy West Point, New York, to be a in 1915, and was commissioned as 2nd lieutenant of infantry in officers' course of the Infantry 1918 to take part in the World War. His promotion to 1st lieutenant came in 1919.

Since the close of the war, this officer has graduated from Infantry school company officers course of 1929, and the Troop School Officers' course of the Cavalry School, class of 1930. He is noted here for his participation in lacrosse games which were held here at one time.

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

VE THIS

So You Will Know Where To Get These Special Prices

H. C. Smith Is Ready For Planting Time

BEANS, Bush		ОК
Red Valentine, lb.	15c	Wh
Bountiful	17c	Lor
Burpee's Str.	15c	PA
BEANS, POLE	100	Mos
Kentucky Wonder, lb.	20c
McCaslin	20c	RA
Nancy Davis	20c 20c	Dw
BUSH LIMA	20c	SQU
Kendersons, lb.	. 000	Gia
POLE LIMA	20c	$\mathbf{W}\mathbf{A}$
		Klee
Small Lima, lb. Speckled	20c 20c	Tom
BEETS	200	Irisl
Detroit Dark Red, oz.	5c	Stor
Crosby's Egyptian	5c	GAI
Early Blocd	5c	Ear
CABBAGE		Tall
Early Jersey Wakefield,		Chai
OZ.	10c	PEF
Charleston Wakefield Early Flat Dutch	10c
CANTELOUPE	10c	Ruby Pime
Rocky Ford oz.	10e	Long
Emerald Gem	10c	$\widetilde{\mathrm{Red}}$
Georgia Collard, oz.	5c	RAL
Cabbage Collard	5c	Turn
CARROTS		Long
Danvers, oz.	10c	TOM
CUCUMBER, oz.	10c	New
EGG PLANT		Earli
Improved Spineless, oz.	20c	June Marg
KALE	200	Pond
Siberian, oz.	5c	TUR
LETTUCE		SEE
Big Boston, oz.	10c
ceberg	10c	Hasti What
MUSTARD		Tenn
Southern Curled, oz.	5c	Hicko
Smooth Leaves	5c	Golde
Approximately and the second s

OKRA
White Velvet, oz.	5
Long Green	5
PARSLEY
Moss Curled, oz.	5
RAPE	9
Dwarf Essex lb.	15
SQUASH	190
Giant Crook Neck, oz.	100
WATERMELON	100
Kleckley's Sweet, oz.	50
Tom Watson
Irish Gray	50
Stone Mountain	50
GARDEN PEAS	5c
Early Alaska, lb.
Tall Telephone	20c 20c
Champion of England	20c
PEPPER
Ruby King, oz. Pimento	20c
Long Red Penner	.20c 30c
Red Chili	30c
RADISH	300
Turnip Radish, oz.	10c
Long	10c
TOMATO
New Stone, oz. Earliana	15c
June Pink	20c 35c
Marglobe	20c
Ponderosa	35c
TURNIP SEED oz.	5c
SEED CORN
Hasting's Prolific, pk.	50c
wnatley's Prolific	60c
Tennessee Red Hickory King	50c
Golden Dent	60c 50c
	300

White Dent	50
Snowflake	90
Truckers' Favorite	. 90
GRASS SEED	. 30
Shady Lawn, pk.	30
Italian Rye	10
Bermuda	25
ONION SETS ONION PLANTS	200
ONION PLANTS
CABBAGE PLANTS
SEED POTATOES
FERTILIZERS
Garden Fertilizer
Vigoro
Sheep Manure
Bone Meal
Nitrate Soda
Mello Soil
FLY SPRAYS SPRAY PUMPS
SEMESAN
TOBACCO DUST
ROSE DUST
FUNGTROGEN for Roses	2
BLACK LEAF 40
INSECTROGEN
MOLOGEN for moles
OROTOX for Crows
APARISTOGEN for plant	t
LIME-SULPHUR SOLU-TION
OIL SPRAY
ROSE AID for Scale
Stock and Davidson as A.	201
"Star" Sulphurous Compou	nd
for Poultry Lice Compou

See us also for Drugs, Drug Sundries, Prescriptions, Perfumes, and Toilet Accessories, Candies, Cigars, Cigarettes, Soda and Ice Cream.

H. C. SMITH DRUG STORE

1002 BROADWAY

Branches: 701, 3rd Avenue

1500 1st Ave.

29TH INFANTRY Continued from Page 15

The bowling team is also traveling along in high spirits. They have a chance to tie for first place. Hall is the dark horse expected to spill the score of the present high team.

Fred Haigler has started going to church now and is trying to persuade all the other boys to go. Chaplain told them of a soldier singing over radio in Mississippi last week and remarked he did not know Mississippi had a radio station. Haigler said he was going to get him straightened out about that next Sunday night.

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

Kinda like to say a word or two for remembrance haven't any news though but keep your peepers open, 'cause if anything happens I'll be sure an' tell you.

2. Since our last bit of script in the Benning Herald, we have had good fortune, everybody got well so now we are out of quarentine. Like all good Americans we do enjoy freedom, so with the first announcement that we were once more free, a hasty retreat to the showers for a wash up and the entire company, almost, checked out for Columbus-wine, women and song.

SERVICE COMPANY

All is quiet on the Service Company front. Major Connor, the Medical Inspector, put the damper on the Service Company when he put us in quarantine on account of measles. We have four cases in the hospital, but from all reports they are doing nicely.

Sergeant Whetsell, our company clerk, has returned from the Carolinas where he spent a short va-The climate must have agreed with him there as he gained ten pounds in weight while away. Maybe he could sleep later every morning.

Most of the Service Company personnel could be easily mistaken for convicts right now, the CWA is painting the barracks and nearly everybody in the barracks has few stripes of paint on them. Looks like the paint will all be rubbed off before the painting is

Well, we were all set to go out and knock out a score of 333 this target season but it looks like we will have to wait until 1935 to do

Oh, yes, we were all for a holiday, next Saturday, it being the 29th's birthday, but this has been postponed until a later day on account of so many companies being quarantined for measles. Any-

May We, Too,

Congratulate

the

29th Infantry

33rd Anniversary

We, too, stand ever ready to serve

> D. A. Striffler MORTICIANS

we get our holiday-let's hope so -Hasty.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY FIRST BATTALION

At last we have found out the meaning of the phrase that appeared in this column in last week's edition, namely, "Oogle oogle". It was stated that the strange mutterings are the by-words to gain entrance to a popular speakeasy in town and was originally intended to be "oogle, oogle," (three times) but if one happens not to be in full possession of all his mental and physical faculties he can simply say "Ooogle-oogle" and hold up one finger, which accomplishes the same purpose.

We understand that Cpl. John H. Farmer was beaten very badly in a pool game the other day while opposing "Top-Kick" Bruner A. Burke. Let us give you a little tip, John, that boy is plenty good, he even told the scribe that he used to beat the best of the boys down Birmingham way.

Our own little Corporal Ben Stolier has added another endeavor to his list of accomplishments by accepting the position offered him by Lt. Johnson, assistant Athletic of-ficer of the Infantry School. Ben is now, officially known as the student manager of the amateurs and he even had his name in the paper, also his picture. Are we proud of him, you bet!!

Now for a little bit about volley ball. We have recently purchased a new net and ball and we issue a challenge to any Company that wants to compete with us. We claim to have the best team in the Post and anybody that thinks differently please call 604 and we will meet you at any time. Our team called Cannon Company the other day and offered them opposition but on account of not having our first string players out with the sextet, we were given a severe trouncing, but we venture to say, (listen to this, you Cannoneers) that when we put our good boys on the court, you will be lucky if you get a smell

This is all the dope for this week We'll be seein' ya!!

COMPANY "A"

To begin with we find the Company in Quarantine for the measles. Our Shack men are a bit blue, but to interest them as well as other members of the Company, we have arranged a number of tournaments, such as pinochle, checkers, bridge, rummy and pitch. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of each game. These tournaments have been conducted in the mess hall during the evenings. We find that the mess hall affords plenty of room for the players and the enthusiastic Sweaters. Pfc. Beck, is at present the leader in the pinochle ring, but Corporal Baker is trailing him by only six the supervision of Corporal Reaves. Each night after the games doughnuts and coffee are served.

It is to be remembered that Company "C" 29th Infantry put on a good show at the Georgia-Auburn football game in Columbus, Geor-We would like for Company for this instrument. "C" as well as the rest of the Regiment stand by and watch the coming demonstration of silent drill, and First Call being sounded at It was dropped on us put it on for them.

Pvt. Usick, is a member of the special duty group, but due to the fact that he had not had the measles he was confined to the Company also. The Little Frenchman, (as he is called) is entitled to a bonus from the State of Pennsylvania and can not go to the Red Cross to fill out the application for it, we tell him that it is merely a tough break for him. So stick in

There has been a hot argument as to the best indoor ball team between the 1st and 2nd Platoon. The manner in which he performed his 2nd Platoon was a game ahead duty. Sgt. Cain returned to Com-when Sgt. Sheriff got busy and di-rected his team. Hard luck failed ber, 1933 and has been on duty way, maybe it will be warmer when in the second game, too. The third for the following day. This game proved to be the hottest of the three. During the fourth or fifth inning of the game Sgt. Sheriff was hot under the collar and ordered the entire platoon out. Asked why he got them all out, he said, "Nothing, I just wanted to look them over".

Promotions in the Company are still numerous, among the ones for this month we find Pfc. Smith, WJ is appointed Corporal, Private Wade is appointed Private First Class. Privates McBurnett and Merchant were rated Specialist 6th

The inspecting Officer decided to interview Pfc. Jordan:

Insp. Off.: "Into how many pieces can you take your rifle?" Pfc. Jordan: "I can take it all apart, Sir" Insp. Off.: "But you aren't supposed to do that." Pfc. Jordan: "Yes, but I can,

COMPANY "B"

Friends of Sgt. Kern will be delighted to know that he is getting along splendidly. He has been moved into the ward and is able o see visitors.

We are glad to say that Sgt Helton has returned from his emergency furlough. His wife is recovering from pneumonia.

Pvt. 1cl Brookshire has returned from a 90-day reenlistment furlough. He was at the home of his parents in Easley, S. C.

Private Fred Owens was discharged on the 25th of February. He is expecting to reenlist for We trust he will enjoy Panama. being there.

COMPANY "C"

Just a few notes from one of the quarantined companies, but it won't be long now. The Medical Inspector said the 4th or 5th would be long enough, and I'm thinking the same thing. After 30 days in storage, you other quarantined outfits get yourselves some time, then Corporal Bill Chow Line Owings was given a pass over the week end, but I'm afraid his garden will need re-working, after this cold snap. Bill boasted one of the best gardens in his community last spring, and from all indications, he will have a better one in 1934.

Sergeant McKnight has improved considerably in his checker playing, during our seven games series, he played a couple of draw games; Mac always plays a good game, but his men give out too quick. He says that's the only fault he finds with the game.

Corporals Watson and Sylvester, who are quartered with First Battalion Headquarters Company, and rationed with "B" and "D" companies, want to know when the quarantine will be lifted, both boys are looking mighty thin in the Midpoints. They are playing under Riff. Here's hoping they can hold out for a few more days.

I understand that First Sergeant Banks is thinking very strongly of having the telephone disconnected since Sergeant (Pug) Dey has been discharged from the Hospital, saying there will be no further use

Having covered most of the worthwhile news of the Company, so we will 4:50 A. M. tomorrow, I will now prepare for breakfast.

—Bob.

COMPANY "D"

Floy S. Cain and Thomas A. Crews of this organization have been promoted from the grades of Corporal and Private First Class to Sergeant and Corporal respec-tively. Sergeant Cain has been in the Military Service for about eight years. He has been on duty with Company 1409, CCC, at Conway, South Carolina as Mess Sergeant. He was highly commended for the again, 2nd Platoon was victorious with the company since the date of return. Corporal Crews has been game was immediately arranged a member of Company "D" for the past four years and is now performing the duties of Transport Corporal. Sgt. Cain and Cpl. Crews are well known and have a number of friends at Fort Benning

B" COMPANY IN RETROSPECT

Since last Organization Day numerous changes have occurred in the personel of Company "B" Captain Earle A. Johnson, the Company Commander, and Second Lieutenant William B. Moore being the only officers now with the Company who were with it at that time. Second Lieutenants Richard J. Hunt and Orville W. Mulliken who had been company officers for one year were transferred to new assignments in the First Battalion. Newcomers to the Organization include Second Lieutenants R. E. Kendall, D. W. Smith and W. A. Huntsberry, while First Lieutenant J. R. Davidson was recently assigned after a transfer from the Twenty-Fourth Infantry. The turnover of enlisted men was extensive too, there being seventy new members who have joined since July, 1933.

The inauguration of the Cilivian Conservation Corps affected the Company to no small degree. Second Lieutenant Moore remained in command of the Company while Captain Johnson selected a cadre of Non-Commissioned Officers consisting of Sergeants McGuire, Barr,

Cooks Brommer and Branch, who reported to the local conditioning camp and organized Company 1413 CCC. After the conditioning period, Captain Johnson was ordered to proceed with his Company to the vicinity of Homerville, Georgia, where Camp was established and construction work begun. Captain Johnson and the Regular Army Enlisted Personnel did not return to Fort Benning until the middle of September after a summer of varied and valuable exper-

There have been no changes in the key positions of Company "B" Please turn to Page 17

> Congratulations to the 29th

> > Infantry on its

33rd Anniversary

Southern Overall Co.

FURNITURE

We handle all kinds of good used furniture, gas stoves, refrigerators, dining and breakfast room suites.

WE BUY, SELL, STORE AND CRATE FURNITURE

THWEATT & SON

PHONE 2715

1244 BROADWAY

Organization Day

BECAUSE WE'VE ALWAYS TAKEN PRIDE IN BENNING

we take especial pride in complimenting the 29th Infantry on the highly successful thirty-three year record which tomorrow commemorates.

The White Bank

Accounts of Ft. Benning Personnel solicited.

CAPITAL & SURPLUS $550,000.00 RESOURCES OVER

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building.

Fort Benning Representaive-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Well, about all we can hear over in this section of the Tank World is the "Shacktown Blues." One of the boys made the remark that men of note, men we never dreamed of, are shacking out nights. Well, we didn't know that they were taking up shackin' but we did know that a few of them were wigwaming Little Sister Hines says that he has always dreamed of a baby in his arms, in an old time rocking chair by an old time log fire. John Kicklighter seems to be in the belief that the little fellow will get his dream. Now can you beat that?

We can't understand why "Pug" Carver wasn't interested in the basketball tournament. You know, the one Alabama recently won.

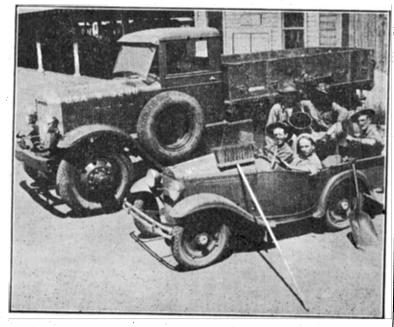

Headquarters Company takes great pleasure in congratulating "Nub" Bennett for being such a good sport as to go all the way to town to meet one of our fellow soldiers and buy him a nice supper and take such good care of him. Now when it comes to good sportsmanship you can just leave it to "Nub" to take care of everything. "Nub" says he would feed the hungry even if he had to sleep with the rats, and report to the Company Commander.

The staff of clerks in battalion headquarters are all wondering how in the world they are going to get used to using a typewriter without a bell on it. They were all working wonderfully but due to the new and most efficient file clerk in the Sergeant Major's office we had to remove them in self defense. It is understood that our friend the Editor was sitting in his chair the other day working away on a stencil when all at once the bell on his typewriter rung and something real small and delicate hit him in the eye. Now he won't exactly accuse the file clerk but he says he looked guilty when he was approached on the subject. It sure is too bad you get like that isn't it,

Here is something that is expected to make the rest of the Battalion laugh. Corporals Hodges and Hall accompanied by Sergeant Begal Stewart was seen the other morning manhandling the Howard Bus Line, in that they were hanging right tight to the bumper of the said bus. Stewart said that was just one thing, and missing reveille was another.

Sergeant Chol was heard to say, or try to say, Co-Co-Co-Op-op-eration ("cooperation" for the benefit of those that have not had the pleasure of listening to him) anyway, as the talk gos, he was trying to tell some one that all the gang that rode with him was "Cooperation" and was that a laugh, because that is the very thing that some one told him about his assistant.

LARGE AND SMALL OF IT

Large and small trucks which are used by the Twenty-Ninth Infantry as part of the Motorized Second Battalion.

29TH INFANTRY Continued from Page 16

during the past year except in the mess. First Sergeant John D. Brown enjoys the distinction of being the senior First Sergeant on the Post with about a year and a half to go for retirement. Sergeant G. Anding has just returned from a three months furlough and resumed his duties as Supply Sergeant. Corporal R. G. Johnson has been handling the Mess quite capably since last October. Those who have been awarded Corporals chevrons during the last year include J. L. Banister, V. J. Black, A. Chaffin, W. L. Evans, W. W. Logan, J. E. Tumblin, J. C. Findlay, S. E. Jones, Jr., P. E. Echerd, J. S. Foust and L. F. Washam.

Athletic awards inthe Company go to Pvts. R. B. Wilson and M. Dean, and Pvts. 1cl. H. P. Cown and E. J. Attaway. The two former were members of the First Battalion championship boxing squad while the latter two are giving a good account of themselves on the Battalion basketball team.

The entire Company and friends of Sergeant Kern have been greatly concerned over the serious injury he sustained on the last Regimental maneuvers. The Medical Officers reported the possibility of serious complications for several days after the accident occurred but his rapid and almost amazing recovery has dispelled these fears.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY SECOND BATTALION

After being A. W. O. L. for one week due to an error on the writers part we will try and give all the dope. So here is one for you "BAGGING A TURKEY IN THE COLONELS' TURKEY BLIND". It was Feb. 15th, the last day of the hunting season when Sgt. Pete Thompson asked Pfc. Bill C. Jacks, the noted huntsman from old Louisiana, if he could kill a turkey Jacks replied, "Sure, I can, let one fly over, come into the blind or anything, and watch me bag him."

The old Sarg. said, "Well, I'll take you out and let you kill the old man "Gobbler".

So Jacks ate early chow and was ready to leave at 11:30 A. M. On the way out the Sarg. gave him every detail, Jacks gathered from the dope the Sarg. gave him, that there were three turkeys in this vicinity that patronized the Colonels' blind, two gobblers and one hen. One was a rather large gobbler and might be seven or eight years old, the other was a young gobbler and about two years old and weighed about twenty pounds.

They soon arrived at the blind, dismounted, loaded their guns, the Sarg then gave Jacks his final instructions and went away to another blind, although Jacks had a suspicion that the old Sarg didn't believe that the birds would be in that afternoon.

Knowing that the Colone, had tried his luck the whole season and hadn't been lucky enough to bag one he wondered why he should have such luck. Jacks was very lonesome—he watched the doves feed on the bait, a few minutes had passed he was dozing, he heard something "scratch, scratch", he thought it was doves, at the same time he glanced around, his heart did a flip flop! He was there, one of the Colonels turkeys!

Jacks' thoughts were to bag this bird now, but he remembered what the Sarg said, "keep still don't get in a hurry he'll come out in the open". His gun was a cheap make, a double barrel and if he pulled the rear trigger both barrels would go off with a roar, so he figured two loads of No. 2's in the head would kill the gobbler quicker than one, Jacks is an expert rifleman and just knew he couldn't miss. He could just see the turkey on the Colonels' table the next day. So he took aim. It was a thick place, and a fog seem to cover his eyes, the Sargs words kept on ringing in his mind "don't get excited" he won't see you he'll come up closer", but he just couldn't wait any longer-he took what he thought was good aim jerked the rear trigger. "Boom", both barrels sent their deadly load of shot into the air, the gun went off over his shoulder the turkey slid and lay Jacks ran forward withut his gun, the turkey jumped up and ran into a thick woods on foot, a wing dragging the ground broken. He had missed the head and got a wing instead, so he ran the turkey for over half mile, cursing himself for leaving his gun outside the torn up blind. Soon he lost him in the thickness of the woods, he then returned for his gun and searched until late in the afternoon for the lost turkey.

After giving up the search he returned again to the blind, and sat down to wait for the Sarg to return for him at about 4 P. M.

Please turn to Page 18

Engineers

COMPANY "A"

Friend Smith was planning a trip to Atlanta but due to the fact that some of our men have measles he has decided to postpone said trip for fourteen days. How come, Smitty?

One-Punch Slade has decided that he can't take it and is transferring to Fort Mac. Goodbye, old boy, and best of luck.

Anyone desiring to know the whereabouts of our company shieks, Bennett and Burnett, please communicate with Sergeant Edwards, of the QMC Detachment.

Sgt. Jones scored a touchdown when he found a job suitable for Abie Sanford—tractor driving.

We wish to express our deep sympathy for all shack men in this hour of their affliction. Their distress has even moved us to perpetrate the following:

Here's to our shack-men

Whose hearts are brave and

Many a night you've gone to

In all kinds of weather, rain or cold.

Brace up fellows and don't be blue

'Cause the measle quarantine finally got you.

Crews wishes to extend his undying gratitude for the fourteen days quarantine. Just a few more days and he can buy a new car.

Mazaroli and Bear seem to have fallen in love with one said Hooperdoo. Mazaroli is thinking of buying it, or at least he has made one good down payment.

Since the quarantine our phone is pretty busy. Sgt. Ivey seems to be the man-about-town, or should I say from town, huh, Ivey?

Pfc. Elfred Lassiter.

We Make RUBBER STAMPS Columbus Office Supply

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

CONGRATULATIONS

29th INFANTRY M. M. MESSER

1022 Broadway

Phone 790

1901 1934 CONGRATULATIONS to the

TWENTY-NINTH on its

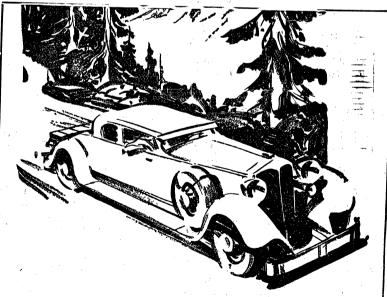

33rd BIRTHDAY 1900

1934

Haircuts 25c

SPECIAL Singe Ha rcut Tonic

Z. A. BROOKS BARBER 1024 Broadway

SAFELY HIGH SPEEDS

High speed is almost an essential, these days, and your automobile will give it to you—if you're careful enough to keep it in good shape. Let us keep the car in shape with our DeLuxe service, a thorough mechanical inspection and cleaning at a very nominal price.

We also do painting work on every make and model of car.

AUTO DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to any person not in the Military Service

CONGRATULATIONS

to the

29th INFANTRY

on its

33rd ANNIVERSARY RACINE HOTEL

A Good Residential Hotel

News From The Organizations

BATTERY "A"

We want to encourage members of this battery to attend more of the basketball games, for it seems as if the team has hit it's stride, and are going to win more games this last half.

On a specially arranged card Pvts. Scott, and Cameron, were brought together in a grudge fight Tuesday afternoon. It seems as if Cameron told a joke on Scott which he resented and immediately challenged him to a duel. As the bout wasn't announced we didn't expect many spectators, but I dare say we had a record-breaking attendance for a one bout card. The bout took place immediately after chow with Scott taking the nod after three rounds of terrific mill-

Round one. Both boys came out with a rush. Scott feinted, stepped in close and nailed Cameron with a long over hand right, Cameron retaliated with a one two to the bread basket, making Scott look very sick, but he went into a clinch 'till he regained his wind, both boxing cautiously at the bell. Cameron's round.

Round two. Scott bounced all the way across the ring and nailed Cameron with a looping right uppercut. Cameron backed around the ring with Scott in close pursuit and finally catching him against the ropes peppering him with left jabs and a sizzling right flush on the button that no man could have stood up under. At the count of six the bell sounded, thus saving Cameron from a K .O. Scott's round.

Round three. Both boys came out weary but game, with Cameron taking the offensive. Cameron snapped a short right to the jaw and began rushing but Scott, with his superior boxing skill and foot work, easily staved him off with stinging left jabs and seemed content to coast along, which he did, winning the round, Scott's Round.

HQRS., HQRS. BATTERY AND COMBAT TRAIN

The old Maestro is back again after a two week lay off and he hopes to supply all the anxious readers with all the dope he can possibly hand out.

Private First Class Bernard and Private Sciortino jointly made their debutante appearance in the Columbus Social Register last Saturday night. From the news I received they were given a thunderous ovation and Bernard, like a big shot, was very happy. Private First Class Thompson who was on the welcoming committee was showering the two debs with powdered glass and shouting "What a

Every one in the battery was happy to see Staff Sergeant Dodd return to duty from CCC service. given in his honor ies. During the course of the banquet Sergeant Dodd gave a very interesting talk on CCC activity at DeFuniak Springs, Fla. Although Sergeant Dodd said he liked it down in the everglades. He says he prefers to be back in the Headquarters Battery has gone into the circus business. All our horses are now located under the tion room looking like a million big top and Sergeant Lee's duty is bucks. . There is plenty of buckto patrol outside of the tent and ing in "H" Company nowadays, see no one gets in without paying to see all the freaks of the horse pass to the theatre. . . 'Hoot' Gibkingdom. The main attraction of son, DRA, has scented spring in ant time and states that things are the show is a bow-legged mule by the air and promptly sunk half the name of Henry and whose trainer is the ever popular Pvt. his pay in a ring for 'somebody'.

—Steve.

Bryant. The music for the occas ion will be supplied by the bugle corps who will be situated in a mountain wagon drawn by six white horses. Swiftly Phillips will announce every event on the pro-

It is now time to sign off so Headquarters Battery says "Au Revoir" until next week.

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 15)

While sitting there in the blindheart broken-wondering if the Colonel had such luck, he heard a slight noise to his right and Lo and Behold! There was another gobbler coming after his share of the corn and peas.

Jacks' heart went through the same old flip flops as before only about ten thousand times worse, with his blind all torn down from the squabble with the first one and he feared that this one would see him so that he almost passed out.

The gobbler kept approaching, he came up until about four feet of him-so near that Jacks thought old man gobbler was looking him in the eyes. He couldn't stand this any longer, when he turned his head Jacks shut his eyes. Turkey soon walked off a short distance, Jacks eased his gun up, pulled the trigger on the right barrel, this time the turkey dropped, he rushed forward as before, but with his gun, seizing the turkey around the neck, pressing his head to the ground with his heels, he soon made sure that he wouldn't do as his grandfather did.

He took his turkey and met the Sarg two and one half miles from where he was to call for him. The Sarg congratulated him on the fine bird; he was very fat, he had eaten the Colonel's food all this year, but refused to be shot at by him and by misfortune stepped into the path of a rookie huntsman. The gobbler was presented to the Colonel, who is none other than our Regimental Commander, by Sergt. Pete Thompson and Pfc. Bill C.

Corporal Frank Lavender has re cently been appointed Sergeant, Pfc. J. R. Miller has been appointed Corporal, Pvt. Arlie York was appointed Private first class, Private Bill Redmayne has recently returned from 25 days furlough down in Alabama. Bill reported a very nice time while on furlough. John H. Newsom.

COMPANY "G"

We're sorry to know that Pvt. Joyner of this company is in the hospital with a broken leg as a result of a motorcycle accident. The accident happened on Glade road. It is said that an automobile backed out of a side road suddenly and Pvt. Joyner ran into it before he could possibly stop. Cpl. Morris also of this company was with him at the time but was uninjured. The corporal is said to have joined the bird gang as the accident was taking place and went into training for track immediately after-

COMPANY "H"

Hensley, our whistling troubalast week at "Society Hill" and dour, has added a bunch of new Cpl. Pike was master of ceremon- songs to his repertoir. He can be heard from dawn 'til dusk warbling the latest hits of the week.

Sam Street is back from furlough, says he had a swell time while his money lasted. Bennie Woolam had a good rest on his furlough, so he says.

Shorts-Joe Maltese is on a diet again, we suspect that he is in love. .. 'Bushy' Graham has the recreathe best bunk every day gets a

Medicos

Our adjutant, who is also detachment commander, recently returned from leave, expressed surprise, wonderment and gratification at the manner in which the Medico Machine functioned with precision and dispatch in the handling of added activities such as CWA, PWA, etc. This but natural as the beauty and artistry of a celebrated oil painting are notably perceptible only when viewed from afar.

Some things other folks are not familiar with:

That rarely does an MD enlisted man "ride" the sick book; That MD personnel on pass, leave, furlough or sick in hospital necessitates the doubling-up of work on someone else, with rarely (?) a grumble; That MD officers at Benning often "pull" four to five OD tours every month with little or no sleep; That no matter how many holidays other troops may have advantage of, the MD continues to function 7 days a week diligently striving to care for gold-bricks, KP's and sick folk.

What with added activities and a nurse occasionally laid up with usual diseases of childhood" the Chief Nurse is sorely pressed to maintain a full working staff. It is suggested that bike-riding be eliminated, as a nurse, subject to 'charley-horse", cannot function properly

Many new profiles in this outfit as a result of discharges, transfers,

Pfc. Noe, discharged the 19th, stated he "Mae go West" being a young man comparatively.

Recent fledgings who have come o nest under the wings of Caduceus are Privates Harris, Grimes and McDaniel.

Pvt. Deere, on furlough, states he is enjoying being fattened along with his femmes, subsisting of course on corn bread and butter

Our Sergeant Major, in conducting a class in Hospital Regulations, says, "if you want to know more about these here regulations, come up and see me sometime".

-Robert E. Olsen.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The President of the Joy Makers Club of Fort Benning, Georgia, Elbert Gaston, attended the meeting of the Classy Q. Club, in Columbus, Wednesday evening. gave some interesting remarks on 'Cooperation among the Clubs"... The President, Miss Susie Johnson, invited the President and offciers of the Joy Makers to a dinner to be given at her home, Wednesday evening, February 28, 1934, at 7:30 o'clock at 319 24th street, Columbus, Georgia.

The Cadet Corps of Tuskegee Institute will make their annual visit of the Infantry School, on Tuesday, March 6, 1934. . . A very interesting schedule of inspection and entertainment has been tentatively arranged. Captain James P. Gammon, 24th Infantry, will conduct the visitors around the post and explain the operation of the Infantry School. A parade will be tendered the Cadets by the First Battalion, 24th Infantry.

Private McFadden has returned from an extended furlough. He reports having had a very pleason the up-grade on the outside. . Private Henry Kirk asks that per-mail to the Company Barracks, where he will be unavoidably detained for the next ten days. . One of the many unknown things to be classed with the missing link is the reason why all of those good cases that are rehearsed pro and con in the barracks break down after crossing the sill of the Company Commander's door. . . Staff Sergeant Reed is the last and latest victim of the Headquarters Company "Boston" Epidemic. Sergeant Bradford put in on him. Reed threw a perfectly brand new and innocent pack of playing cards out of the window and remembered that he was late for town. . Staff Sergeant Abraham Trent is now in charge of the Drum and Bugle Corps, 24th Infantry. . . He may be seen at any Reveille, Retreat or rehearsal formation listening to the sweet notes of the bugles and soothing rhythm of the drums.

-Louis A. Scipio.

COMPANY "A"

If the news in this column is no longer entertaining please don't blame it on the reporter. He has been threatened with a horrible death; nothing more than being found in bed one early morning with his throat cut from Yea man Yea. Gosh man; I shiver when I think of it. But why Blimp, just why are you going to do all this to poor ole me? You have forced my hand Blimp; you have forced me to post a Bulletin requesting the services of the Black Ace and Lightning. Now watch you step, Blimp, and watch this column also.

Lieut. Dickerson was recently placed on Special Duty with the Special Units of The Infantry We wish him a pleasant School.

tour of duty.

All we could hear around the Company the past week was: "Spring time in Columbus" sung by no other than Pfc. Yammacraw) Pollen. Asked why such a sudden burst of happiness just after his misfortune of a few days ago replied: "Well, they can change that song about 'You gonner lose your My gal done took me back and believe me I am gonna stay." Well Yam, the company is hoping you stay for a long time.

Well, Pfc. (Gink) Marshall finally gained a space in this column having narrowly escaped publicity upon many different occasions. We rather think it is terrible when a person, through no fault of his, deserts a nice warm house on a cold and rainy night in nothing but-now just what was wrong is not known to this reporter. Maybe Gink will enlighten his ole pal.

Yours, -Corp. Humpy Murphy.

COMPANY "C"

Last week proved to be one full of painful adventure, especially the first part. However, the latter part brought smiles and much conversation from our "Top". The conversation part required much effort, due to fact all of his molars had been extracted. There is no need to elaborate on this subject, for when you see him, you'll know the rest.

Private Cason was quite pleased to see his name in print last week, and desires to have another writeup. I should like to inform him that history is a record of facts Therefore, if you do not accomplish outstanding projects—how can I write you up? Do your best and we'll tell the world.

Someone tell Private Guillory that there is a bird's nest over his bed—just move it, and he won't be puzzled any longer.

—C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

family rejoined the company from sons interested please address his furlough, on the 25th. Reports a very delightful trip, down in New Orleans, Louisiana. las, Jr., began walking while away.

Corp. Tommie J. Baugh, keeps Sgt. Caesar Slade, and Pvt. Motel Jett, up and down on the Checker Board. Corp. Baugh, boasts as the champion, and Sgt. Slade and Jett, are trying to crash his average. It is really amazing to see how Baugh treats Slade and Jett, on the Checker Board.

The company wishes to extend their appreciation to Corp. James H. McCrary, Pvt. 1cl. Winford W. Brown, and Private Russell T. Crawford, on the showing they made during their radio test.

—Rufus E. Williams.

COMPANY "F"

With plenty of time on their hands and nothing to do, while barracks Sunlying around the day, musing over the wonders of kid Dan Cupid, Pvt. "Chick" Haisley asked Pvt. "Bad Foot" Henderson to sing him a love song. Oh my, Oh my!

The following guard detail was placed on the Company Bulletin Board last Friday with the members thereof having years of service as follows: Sgt. Dunn, 26 years; Corp. Fletcher, 15 years; Pfc. Albert, 27 years; Pfc. Nelson, 14 years; Pvt. Brown, 16 years; Pvt. Adams, 25 years, and Pvt. Jackson, 21 years. Total 144 years. How's that for an Old Guard? Lucious T. Gilbert.

COMPANY "G"

Sweet Young Thing: "I just admire soldiers and my, a corporal! What company are you in charge of? My, but you look swell in your uniform, are you married?" Corporal Seats: "No lady, I'm not married, but I am available."

Corporal Sellers and his staff of landscape artists are still work ing for the flag and intend to win it at the next flag inspection. Gorley says if they can get any green paint they are going to paint the hedges and the grass around the orderly room.

Private Rachal, long time coffee cooler, has been relieved from special duty at the 24th Infantry Exchange and is now in charge of the orderly room.

G Company is giving C Company a break. We have given them two weeks in order that their two stellar players would be able to play when we meet them on the basketball court. These two stars are now in the hospital and wo wish them a speedy recovery.

Kingfish: "I will be one glad baby when pay day comes."
Highpocket: "I don't see why you won't have a d—d dime when you leave the pay table."

Kingfish: "I know it, but you see, the 1st sergeant will issue can teen checks soon after pay day.

-Sgt. Wm. N. Hodges

BAND

Orchestr The Jazz Pirates members are still receiving cor gratulations from "the public" fo the music played at the dance given by the So C 25 Club a Pierce's Auditorium and the No Commissioned Officers' Club a the 24th Infantry Service Clu last week. Our august band leader was great demand by the members the gentle sex at the dance give by the So C 25 Club in Columbi Friday night. During his stay the dance he tripped the light fa tastic every time the orchest played a number.

The numbers written and a ranged by Corporal Ruffin as Pfc. Penrose of the orchestra ha been well received at each rene tion. These boys are coming a bid fair to rival Paul Whitems Private Willie S. Nicholas, and Arthur Lange, Archie Bleyer a a few more of the lesser lights.

-Sgt. Wm. W. Hodg

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COLUMBUS, GA.

CONGRATULATIONS

To the Demonstration regiment of Fort Benning upon the fine record of thirtythree years since its organization on March third 1901.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COLUMBUS, GA.

Congratulations

TO THE TWENTY-NINTH INFANTRY ON ITS THIRTY - THIRD ANNIVERSARY — WE ARE PROUD OF THE FACT THAT WE ARE PRIVILEGED TO HAVE THE ARMY'S FINEST REGIMENT STATIONED ON PERMANENT DUTY NEAR THE CITY OF COLUMBUS.

City of Columbus

We Congratulate The 29th!

ON THE 33rd ANNIVERSARY OF ITS INCEPTION AS A REGIMENT OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY

Superbly styled, handsomely tailored here is as fine a suit as any man needs. Made of extra fine all wool worsteds in the stylish two button no ch lapel model. The fabrics are new and distinctive. Beautifully lined with genuine celanese, which looks and feels like silk, but wears even longer. New blues, grays, and tans in a perfect fit for every size from 34

$1495 to $1695

MEN'S SUITS

Splendid values for the man who prefers dignity combined with style. Not too extreme, yet cut along up-to-date lines. Handsomely tailored from all wool fabrics that offer maximum wear and hold their shape and crease. Blues, tans, and grays in soft or hard finished fabrics. Sizes 32 to 46.

$995 to $1245

1901-1934

"We Lead The Way"

The Infantry Leads The Way— And the Twenty-Ninth is undoubtedly the leader of the infantry. As it goes, so goes the rest of the Infantry Arm—and we are proud to congratulate it on its thirty-third anniversary.

> We hope that, whether on battlefield or in barracks, you may find each year more propitious and more profitable, and may you always lead the way for all the others!

Two Stores of Public Service

1040-1222 ON BROADWAY

MEN'S SHIRTS

Genuine sanforized broadcloth shirts bearing the Sir Galahad label. These shirts are tailored by Wilson and are of excellent style, material, and work-manship. Most of Fort Benning is familiar with the quality of this shirt in white. It also comes in solid blue, tan, and green, and in a variety of fancy patterns. We have all sleeve lengths patterns. We have in sizes 14 to 17.

$119

MEN'S HATS

For several reasons we have featured City Club hats for men because we believe they are best for the money. They are first quality felts, have genuine silk linings, and silk ribbon bands. Snap brim style in various width brims and all colors. Sizes $6\frac{1}{2}$ to $7\frac{1}{2}$.

$238

T N E R

NIFTY FLAPPER SUITS

Pinch-back belted coat with two shorts. New pin-check worsteds, and stylish light gray and tan flannels. Navy blue cheviots are always good, and these new ones are unusually good-looking. good-looking. Sizes 4 to 10.

Mickey Mouse caps, made by Tobias, to match

Happ-Y-Kid Woolen Shorts

Your boy will be "dressed up" in these. They have that swan-ky English shape. Full-cut, correctly styled, and well-made throughout, these shorts are tailored of the best flannels, worsteds, and tweeds, in grays, browns, tans, and blues. They formerly sold at $1.48. 4 to 14 special at ory stripe. Sizes 2 to 11.

Blue Cheviot Longies

Boys' Koverall—Drop Seat

drop seat, open front, indestruc-

Your chest will swell with pride when you see your son in these. We consider this number the best in "the outstanding line in America." Of course, they're tailored by Happ. They come in all wool blue and oxford gray cheviots. Sizes 8 to 20. when you see your son in these.

Dirt won't hurt him in this out-fit. This coverall comes with drop seat, open from harding tible buttons, and has all points of strain bar-tacked. Your Two For choice of two tough fabrics, blue pin stripe denim or blue hick

VOL. III

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1934

BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMLE

FORT BENNING, Mar. 1.—The week just passed has been a busy one. It was a week of five o'clock sessions, with a schedule of varied Here Recently instruction ranging from indoor map problems to terrain exercises without troops and field exercises with troops. The end of such a week leaves us with the feeling that much water has flowed under the bridge from 8 a. m. Menday to 5 p. m. Friday and with the hope that much of what has been offered in the way of instruction remain with us for many

The average busy week brings with it at least one advanced classic worthy of paragraphing. But full as last week was. we confess that we have been unable to uncover anything susceptible of absurd or exaggerated description. Such an admission implies, as we have expressed on occasion with painful regularity, a column difficult to write and uninteresting to read. It leaves us with the feeling that we are saying nothing but oddments of high unimportance, like the man who, when discovered with his hands in the alphabet soup, stated that he was groping for words.

Last week's weather, like the school schedule, could hardly be said to lack variety. The middle of the week was of an unsettled nature, with cold spells, warm and several attempts at rain. The end of the week went out with one of those clearing-up showers that was clear up to your neck. But the session that remains most vivid of all was the Monday morning terrain exercise with Major Evans on Jordan Hill when the state of Georgia went back on the cold standard. As one student expressed it, it was so cold he spent the morning debating the advisability of phoning his home in Columbus to have the iron deer taken in off the lawn.

A description of last week's busyness prompts us also to confess that we did have a free period from 1 to 2 Monday afternoon. An occasional period of this nature is welcome. As Bill Kunzmann expressed it, it enables us to catch up on our lying.

Tuesday afternoon Major Irving held forth with an interesting series of demonstrations of slew and fast tank combat practice on er items on the afternoon's pro- took place in 1931. gram was a portrayal of the right and wrong way of crossing a thick log, the right way being to tank belly vulnerable."

This column would be incomplete were we to neglect a number of well deserved citations earned during the past week. In the order of happening here goes:

To Mike Gillespie, commanding the 29th in Thursdays field exercise, and to his battalion commanders, Bill Castner and Hal Granberry. for their handling of a dif-(Please turn to page 6)

BENNING DAY-Colonel Peyton To Leave Post

Lieutenant Colonel

Commanding Officer I. S. D. Has Long Record Of Service

Major Thomas B. Catron, Infantry, commander of the Infantry School Detachment at Fort Benning, Georgia, received his promotion to lieutenant colonel by order of the War Department, Washington, D. C., Monday. The official announcement of Major Catron's advancement arrived at Fort Benning on March 5, and his new rank will date from the same day.

Lieutenant Colonel Catron was born in 1888, in New Mexico, and entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, as a cadet in 1905. On June 11, 1909, he was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry. Promotion was somewhat slower in the pre-war Army than it is nowadays for the younger officers, and it was not until 1916 that he was promoted to 1st lieutenant. Lieutenant Catron reached the rank of lieutenant colonel during the World

In January, 1918, lieutenant Colonel Catron was detailed on duty with the military intelligence section of the general staff and later became a member of that body. He served as assistant G-2 at General Headquarters and Headquarters The First Army and later became G-2 of the VIII Army Corps He organized and directed the first two courses of study at the Intelligence School at Langres.

In the fall of 1919, he reverted to his regular army rank of captain, and in July, 1920, received his majority in the regular army. One year later he was detailed as instructor at the General Service School. He graduated from the Staff School in 1923.

His service since then prior to coming to Fort Benning, included four years as assistant to the commandant of cadets at the Military Academy at West Point, and four years on duty in the office of the chief of infantry at Washington, D. C., where he was serving at the time of his assignment to the 29th Holliday Hill. Included among oth- Infantry at Fort Benning, which

After serving about six months with the demonstration regiment. Major Catron was assigned to comcross without unduly exposing the | mand of the Infantry School Deunder side of the tank. As a Chinaman might express it, "Him has commanded ever since. In addition to his duties on this detail, he is also assigned to the second section of the Academic Department of the Infantry School as an instructor, and makes frequent lectures tours to the Reserve Officers Schools throughout the 4th Corps Area.

For his service during the war, Major Catron has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. the evidence against Mrs. Gordon, He is also a member of the initial the suspected murderer, which

Major Catron Made COLONEL MCADAMS IS MAKING INSPECTION

Commanding Officer Of Sixty-Sixth Infantry Has Long And Interesting Career

Colonel John P. McAdams, commanding officer, 66th Infantry (light tanks) of Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, arrived at Fort Benning at 8:45 p. m. Tuesday, March 6, on a tour of inspection of the 2nd Battalion, 66th Infantry, a part of his command which is stationed at the Infantry School.

Lieutenant Colonel John H. Stutesman, commanding officer of the 2nd Battalion, called a meeting of all officers of the tank unit Wednesday morning, which Colonel McAdams attended.

Colonel McAdams has a long and interesting military career, which began as a private in Company B, 4th Kentucky Infantry during the Spanish-American War. Before his discharge from that organization in February, 1899, he had attained the grade of Sergeant and liked the military life so well that he enlisted in Company C, 13th Infantry in June 1899. He served with that regiment for two years being discharged as corporal to accept a commission as 2nd lieutenant of infantry in July 1901 His promotion to 1st lieutenant came in 1906 and he held that rank for 10 years until in 1916 he was promoted to captain.

Shortly after this country entered the World War, Captain McAdams was promoted to Major (temporary) and later to lieutenant colonel National Army, and Colonel of infantry. In 1919 he reverted to his regular army rank of captain and in July 1920 was promoted to major, regular army. A year later he was promoted to ieutenant colonel. His commission as colonel dates since September 1, 1932.

Prior to the World War he at-

To Leave Post

Colonel E. G. Peyton, Executive Officer, who is to leave Benning in the near future to become Chief of Staff of the Eighth Corps Area.

tended several military educational institutions. He is listed as a distinguished graduate of the Army School of the Line, class of 1914 and graduated from the Army Staff College in 1915. During the war he was selected by General Pershing as one of the officers on his personal staff. He served first with the G-4 section, General Headquarters A. E. F., and later when the service of supply headquarters was established at Tours he was chosen as deputy chief of staff of the service of supply which assignment he held (Please turn to page 8)

Talented Cast To Present Next Play: "Ladies Of The Jury" March 23rd-24th

"Ladies of the Jury," a well-|liam Moore, better known to Benconstructed comedy with an unusually good cast, will be prematic Club, on March 23-24 as the final production of the school year. ome of the post' teur actors, together with one or two faces which will be seen for the first time on the Benning boards.

The plot of the story is centered around the trial of an attractive young woman for the murder of her husband and is concerned chiefly with the deliberation and verdict rendered by the jury. The first act takes place in the courtroom where Mrs. Crane the leading feminine role, which is played by Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin and her fellow-jurymen-and-women are listening to the summing-up of general staff corps eligible list. | part will be taken by Mrs. Wil-ning Theater-goers, as Phyllis Sargent. The jury is composed of sented by the Fort Benning Dra- Mrs. Pratt, (Miss Esther Kelley); Cynthia Tate (Miss Esther Weeks); Mayme Mixter (Mrs. C. Included in the cast of 22, are W. Pence); Mrs. Dace, a bride of short standing (Mrs. A. W. Stewart); Mrs. McGuire, an Irish cook (Mrs. O. W. Hughes); Jay J. Pressley, the jury foreman, (Captain Mark W. Brislawn); Tony Theodolphus, a Greek Bootlegger, (Lt. Julian E. Raymond); Bromm, a World War veteran, (Lt. Claude B. Ferenbaugh); Mr. Dazey, a reand Mr. McKaig, a true-to-type Scotchman, (Capt. H. L. Barrett).

is composed of Lieutenants R. A. two attorneys, Colonel Charles W. W. G. Fuller, clerk of the court,

(Please turn to page 3)

Recent reports from Fort Benning indicate that Colonel E. G. Peyton, Executive Officer at Fort Benning will shortly be transferred to take over the office of Chief of Staff of the Eighth Corps Area. Colonel Peyton has only been at Fort Benning for a comparatively short time but in that time has made many friends and acquaitances both at the post and in Columbus. His successor as Executive is not yet definitely

Before his assignment to Fort Benning, Colonel Peyton has had a long career of distinguished military service, particularly in executive positions, in which he has held many responsible posts, and his work in these positions has been repeatedly commended. His selection for his present post was made by the Adjutant General at the personal request of Major General Campbell King, with the approval of the Chief of Infantry.

Colonel Peyton's military service began on June 15, 1895, when he was appointed a cadet in the United States Military Academy. In February, 1899, following his graduation from the military acadfollowing his emy, he was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry, and two years later was promoted to first lieutenant. In March, 1907, he was promoted to captain, and assigned to the 18th Infantry. Three years later, he was detailed to the Philippine Scouts with the rank of major, in which capacity he served from 1910 to 1912. While on duty with the Philippine Scouts he participated in numerous field operations against hostile Moros on the island of Jolo during the insurrection of 1911-12. Upon the conclusion of this campaign he was highly recommended by the governor of the Moro province for his able cooperation with the civil authorities in the disarmament of the Sulu Moros. He was also commended for his ability by John J. Pershing, then a brigadier general, under whose command he served on the Mexican border from 1913 to 1915 as a captain in the 18th Infantry.

In May, 1917, a month after United States entered the World War, he was promoted to major, regular army, and in August of the same year, was advanced to the temporary rank of lieutenant colonel, national army. Ten days later he was assigned to the 320th Infantry, 80th Division, composed of southern troops, which was being assembled Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va. In May, 1918, he sailed for France with his division, which went into training in the British sector Arras, where he remaned until August. In the meantime, on July 30, he was advanced to the rank of colonel, and placed in command altor, (Capt. Grant A. Schieliker); of the 320th Infantry, which he commanded during the St. Mihiel offensive and in the Meuse-Argonne. For gallantry in action in The legal staff of the production this latter drive, he was cited in divisional orders, and for his cour-Howard and Tom Kent, as the ageous leadership and his refusal to leave the field after being tem-Weeks, as Judge Fish, Lieutenant porarily blinded by gas, was laten awarded the silver star by the and Captain Arnold Funk, as court War Department. His executive (Please turn to page 3).

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS By MARJORIE H. GREENE

Army Daughters' Fashion Show At Biglerville Center Of Interest

Dame Fashion will be on display each and twenty-seven tables for Saturday afternoon from four o'clock to six when the Fort Benning Chapter of the Daughters of the Herbert A. Wadsworth will direct United States Army will hold a the program with the assistance of delightful fashion show and tea at Biglerville. All the forthcoming fashions for Spring and Summer consist of Mesdames Marion H. will be shown for every age, from Burt, Albert H. Dickerson, Francis the stately matron to the teeniest J. Gillespie, Russell G. Emery, Wiltot. Many of Columbus' prominent liam A. Harris, Charles T. Lanham, stores are contributing styles for Malcolmn F. Lindsey, Winston R. this occasion. Among these are Kirvens, Alsobrooks, The Child-B. Moore, Milton G. Pressley Arrens' Bazaar and Kayser-Lilienthal. Twenty tables seating four guests

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager parties of six will be arranged around the raised promenade. Mrs. B. Moore, Milton G. Pressley, Archibald W. Stuart, John H. Stutesman and Charles W. Weeks and the Misses Margeret Hall, Gertrude Hannah, Esther Kelly, Athleen Munson, Maxine Rife, Dorothy Russ, Mary Wadsworth and Betty Williams. Following the show, Girl Scouts will serve tea. The music for the dancing will be furnished by the 29th Infantry orchestra. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Tables may be reserved by telephoning Mrs. Oscar W. Griswold, Fort Benning 856.

HOUSE GUEST HONOREE AT DINNER '

Mrs. Joseph E. Brown of Kalamazoo, Michigan, the charming house guest of Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly, was the honor guest Tuesday evening when her hosts entertained with a dinner at their attractive quarters on Miller Loop. Bouquets of early Spring flowers in pastel shades were used throughout the house and on the center of the dining tables. The Lemlys' guests were: Mrs. Brown, Major and Mrs. Robert S. Lytle, Capt. and Mrs. Herbert H. Harries, Capt. and Mrs. Morris B. DePass, Jr., and Lieut. George P. Howell. After dinner the guests were escorted to the Post movies.

MAJOR AND MRS. BONHAM HOSTS AT DINNER SUNDAY EVENING OFFICERS' AT CLUB

Major and Mrs. Francis G. Bonham were the hosts Sunday even-

Engagement Of Miss Gertrude Hannah And Lieutenant Fuller Announced

out Army and civilian circles is the announcement and approaching marriage of Miss Gertrude Hannah to Lieutenant William H. Fuller, U. S. Army. Miss Hannah, the charming daughter of Colonel and Mrs. James Hannah, retired, has since her arrival in Columbus last Summer been a decided addition to the debutante set of Columing when they entertained a number of their friends at a delightful dinner given at the Officers' Club. The center piece for the table was a lovely silver bowl of yellow jonquils flanked by silver candle sticks with yellow tapers. The guest list included: Colonel and Mrs. William E. Persons, Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin, Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Rowan Lemly, Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, Major and Mrs. Henry Terrell, Jr., Major and Mrs. Benjamin G. Weir, Capt. and Mrs. Walter C. Phillips, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles F. Colson, Mrs. Joseph E. Brown, Major and Mrs. Frederick McCabe, and Major Lawrence J. I. Barrett. After the dinner the guests were escorted to the Post movies.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. OTTO HOSTS AT DINNER SATUR-DAY EVENING

Captain and Mrs. John A. Otto were the hosts Saturday evening when they entertained a few of their friends at dinner preceeding the 29th Infantry dance. A silver bowl containing pink and white snapdragons and gladiola flanked by silver candlesticks bearing pink tapers were used as the table decorations. Capt. and Mrs. Otto had as their guests: Major and Mrs. William H. Hobson, Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider and Captain and Mrs. Don C. Faith.

COLONEL AND MRS. PERSONS HOSTS TO MEMBERS OF

YOUNGER SET AT DINNER Colonel and Mrs. William E. Persons were the hosts Saturday evening to a few members of the younger married contingent and the members of the debutante set when they entertained at an informal buffet supper at their charming quarters on Eames Avenue preceeding the 29th Infantry dance. The guest list included: Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph E. Cleland, Lieut. and Mrs William B. Moore, Lieut. and Mrs. James K. Woolnough, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter A. Huntsberry, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. MacNeely, the Misses Nancy Baker, Nana Seeley, Elizabeth Ports, Polly Wrightson, Lieut. Lauren W. Merriam, Lieut. Joseph B. Crawford, Lieut. Edmond M. Rowan, Lieut. William E. Persons, Jr., Mr. John P. Persons and Mr. Albert C. Persons.

29TH INFANTRY DANCE HELD T POLO HUNT CLUB URDAY EVENING

The Polo-Hunt Club was the scene Saturday evening of the monthly dance given by the officers and ladies of the 29th Infantry. The club presented a Springlike appearance with its decorations of forest green. An informal receiving line consisting of Colonel and Mrs. William E. Persons, Lieut. and Mrs. Willis S. Matthews, Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Davidson, Lieut and Mrs. James K. Woolnough and Lieut. and Mrs. William H. Bache was formed to welcome the guests. Furnishing he music for this enjoyable occasion was the 29th Infantry orchestra which played for the dancing from nine

(Please turn to page 3)

Of widespread interest through- | bus and Benning. While here, she has taken an active part in Columbus dramatics and being a horsewoman of unusual ability has participated in all the horse shows on the Post. Miss Hannah attended school at Beverly Hall and Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Virginia. She is the sister of Mrs. Marion Hannah Burt and of Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hannah. Lieutenant Fuller is the son of Colonel and Mrs. A. L. Fuller, C. A. C. Colonel Fuller is now the commanding officer at Fort Barrancas, Florida. He is the grandson of the late Rear Admiral and Mrs. W. C. Wise. He was graduated from the United States Military Academy class of 1933 and is now stationed at Fort Benning with the 29th Infantry. The date for the wedding of Miss Hannah and Lieutenant Fuller will be announced

It's Perfect for Parties

There's nothing in the world that adds so much to the enjoyment of a party as Kinnett's Ice Cream.

Sold at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club.

Let Your Hat Express Your Individuality! BUY IT AT

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

AT ALSOBROOK'S

FORT BENNING CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

$ 550,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

THE HOME SAVINGS BANK OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

40 REASONS:

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every difficulty.

> We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHI FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

Engraved ...

... the very word carries with it an aura of distinction. Why not have your wedding invitations . . . your cards ... your writing paper engraved. The work is done for us by one of the country's best engravers . . . at a very nominal

COLUMBUS

OFFICE SUPPLY

111 - 12th Street

Phone 328

Woman's Club Hears Very Entertaining Talk By Talented Speaker Last Monday

The Polo-Hunt Club was the scene on Monday afternoon of one of the most interesting and successful meetings of the Infan- to midnight. A number of infortry School Woman's Club held so far during the year.

Mrs. Phillip Wood presided and after a short business meeting Mrs. Wood introduced Mrs. A. S. Tucker, who delighted the audience with three beautiful selections: Hilton Puftej's "Hobby on the Green" and two Cuban dances "La Comparsa" and "Mala Guena" by Lecuona.

Mrs. Wood then introduced Mrs. Samuel Scott of New York, nationally known reader and dramatic authority. Mrs. Scott who came to Fort Benning as the guest of Mrs. Phillip Woods talked on "Current Broadway Plays."

Mrs. Scott is a charming woman and a fascinating talker. She holds you spellbound not only with the content of her talk but with her keen sense of humor, which she directs at herself as often as at the world. Mrs. Scott has made a life study of the theatre and she has a vast store of information from which to draw. She has hundreds of friends among men and women of the theatre, playwrights, producers, actors and these furnished the background for Monday's lecture was based entirely on the plays of the year and was accompanied by beautiful slides in which the actors and scenes from the plays were shown. The lecture was preceded by the mention of a few very new plays, not accompanied by slides. Among the plays discussed were "The Green Bay Tree," a brilliant English play; Eugene O'Neill's "Ah, Wilderness," in which George M. Cohan is the star; "The Pursuit of Happiness," concerning bundling, an old American custom in which you went to bed to save firewood; the comedy "She Loves Me Not" "Wednesday's Child," a play that deals with the children of divorce and presents a child actor who is marvelous"; "Men in White," a splendid play about doctors; "Roberta" a musical comedy starring Dennis King; "Mary of Scotland," with Helen Hayes.

Mrs. Scott said that the purpose of the theatre was to enter-

Mrs. Benjamin G. Weir was hostess for the afternoon being assisted at the tea table by Mrs. E. F. Hill and Mrs. H. L. Barrett.

SALE---

Pre-Easter Sale

FRI. - SAT. - SUN.

Numerous Specials

more than a million and one items under one roof.

In this sale you'll find a larger variety and a greater economy than you've ever had before. Come by one of these days for anything you need for any room in the home.

5 - 10 - 25 and $1.00 STORE

Corner Broad & 11th St.

SOCIETY

(Continued from page 2)

mal affairs were held preceeding this dance.

REGIMENTAL BRIDGE CLUB

The 24th Infantry bridge club held its monthly meeting Tuesday evening when the officers and ladies met at eight o'clock at the 24th Infantry Officers Club. Eight tables gathered for contract bridge and played until ten-thirty when sandwiches and coffee were served. The hostesses for this affair were Mesdames James M. Lamont and Robert R. Martin.

The ladies bridge club of the Tanks held its monthly meeting Tuesday when four tables assembled at the Officers' Club for lunch followed by bridge.

Entertaining for this affair was Mrs. Leroy W. Nichols.

and tea club also met Tuesday at the 29th Infantry Officers' Club with eight tables of contract. Play started at two-thirty o'clock and continued until four when tea was served. Several non-playing guests arrived for tea. Winning high honors for the afternoon's play were: Mrs. Wm. Moore, Mrs. Morris De-Pass, and Mrs. Harold Gould.

Entertaining this month were Mesdames Charles N. Howze, Guy C. McKinley, Washington M. Ives, Earl A. Johnson, Anthony T. Howe, Raymond E. Kendall, Earl J. Macherey and Richard A. Hunt.

PERSONALS

Friends of Lieut. James E. Bowen will be glad to know that he has returned from the Station Hospital where he underwent an opera-Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Rowan P Lemly have as their house guest Mrs. Joseph E. Brown of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Mrs. August E. Schanze left last week for a months visit with friends in St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Selina Wadington will re-was the guest of friends. Friends of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin will be sorry to learn that they are ill in their quarters with illness.

> DRAMATIC CLUB (Continued from page 1)

Other characters which have an important bearing on the part of the play, are Evelyn Snow, former maid of Mrs. Gordon, which part will be played by Miss Gertrude Hannah; Suzanne, maid to Mrs. Crane, played by Mrs. Guy Mc-Kinley, and Doctor James, an alienist, played by Lieutenant Chas. M. Howze.

The selection of "Ladies of the Jury" as the final production of the Dramatic Club for this year, is a most fortunate one; for the final verdict of the jury and the manner in which they arrive at it, furnishes a surprise ending play was originally written and Fiske, who starred in the New turn to Fort Benning on Monday York production. It was later tion of the recruiting service was The 29th Infantry ladies bridge from Fort Leavenworth where she produced in talking pictures with desirable.

Edna May Oliver, well-known character actress, in the leading role of Mrs. Crane.

COLONEL PEYTON LEAVES

(Continued from page 1)

ability and his skilful leadership of his regiment was also recognized by the War Department's award of the Distinguished Service medal.

After the armistice he served with the American commission to negotiate peace, and commanded the military personnel on duty with that body. His services on this mission were highly commended by Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State, in a letter to General Pershing.

Upon his return to the United States he was assigned to the Third Division, at Camp Arkansas, where he served until the summer of 1920, when he was placed in charge of recruiting acand abundance of laughs. The tivities in Mississippi, following representations made by senators accidated to Mrs. Minnie Maderne and congressmen of that state that a change in the administra-

Spring Is Just Around the Corner

Kirven's Wash Frocks Are Already Here!

You'll be delighted at these lovely wash frocks . . . You'll adore the new spring fashions, particularly the shirtwaist effects that were so popular last summer (and will be more popular this spring and summer) . . . and you'll readily agree that these wash dresses are easily equal to those selling at higher prices. Be sure and see them. They are new. They are fresh. They are styled Spring 1934 to the last stitch. And they are economical because they are equally as nice for sports or street or house wear.

In A Large Variety of Styles and Colors

KIRVEN'S BASEMENT

THE BENNING HERALD

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia Published Every Friday

VOLUME III MARCH 9, 1934 NO. 46 .Publisher A. F. Kunze. Editor Felicia C. Howell Society Editor Jack Gibney. Sports Editor

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT, SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

Here's To Your Health

By Major Homer L. Conner, Medical Inspector

Tuberculosis

We are told these past several ever the "white plague" remains death with eighty-five thousand human sacrifices each year.

There seems now to be only one hope in the further control and prevention of tuberculosis; /that. is an answer to the following questions.

a. "From whom did he get TB?" b. "To whom did he give it?" The answer is to discover and protect every one who comes in contact with a case of tuberculo-

This past year a new method of testing with tuberculin was brought out by Grozin which is simple and more reliable than former tests; one that can be used more extensively as a means of telling if one has tuberculosis. This test does not however tell us if the disease is active and We therefore must spreading. use some other method to tell these The cure of tuberculosis depends largely on its early dis-control of tuberculosis.

coverv.

Physical examination alone is not years that tuberculosis is not as usually enough to detect the very common as it used to be. How- beginning of this disease. X-ray of the chest and the careful inas one of the principal causes of terpretation of the films has been and still is the most reliable method of determining whether or not one has tuberculosis. This has been a costly and time consuming 1924. He was appointed a 2nd procedure and therefore one that could not be used in the examination of a great number of child ren at one time. It is among children that we find the beginnings of tuberculosis.

It is among children that we now have the opportunity of doing our best work in the cure and prevention of this disease. The possibility of controlling tuberculosis has been greatly improved this past year by the discovery of a photo-engraver by the name of Powers who developed a mass-production X-ray machine and cheap paper X-ray films.

The use of the new tuberculin test and the examination of all reacting children by these new Xray methods are predicted to revoand the prevention of its spread lutionize the diagnosis, cure, and

Officers Assigned To Post

Capt. R. G. Howie

Captain Robert G. Howie, Infantry, has been relieved from duty with the 3rd Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and assigned to the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, for duty in the Academic Department of that activity.

Captain Howie first came to Fort Benning in 1921 for duty as a student in the Basic Class Number one of the Infantry School, and upon his completion of the course of instructions in 1922 he was ordered to Fort Wayne, Michigan.

This officer saw his first army service as chief musician and band leader, Field and Staff Band and Headquarters, 2nd Infantry Illinois National Guard, rising from this position to the rank of captain on June 4, 1919. He vacated this commission and was accepted as a 1st lieutenant of infantry on July 1, 1920. His promotion to came on May 1, 1918, and on July the rank of captain (permanent) came on August 1, 1930.

For his services during the World War, Captain Howie, has tation, and the Purple Heart Medal for having been wounded in action.

During the course of his army career this officer has completed courses at two service schools. He graduated from the Infantry School Basic Course in 1922, and the Tank School of 1931.

Capt. R. L. Ring

Captain Ronald L. Ring, Infantry, is under orders relieving him from the 23rd Infantry, Fort Sam Houston, Texas and ordering him to the Infantry School for duty Minnesota and holds the Bachelor with the Academic Department, of Philosophy from that college. a good time?

to report at this station not later han June 30.

Captain Ring was first ordered here from the 65th Infantry in Puerto Rico for duty as a student in the Infantry School, but was sent to the Tank School, Fort George G. Meade, Maryland as an instructor instead of carrying out his previous assignment. Upon completion of this detail he was again ordered to Fort Benning, where he reported on July 31, 1932. Upon graduating from the Infantry School in 1933, he was dispatched to Fort Sam Houston for duty with the infantry of the 2nd Division, which assignment he is now carrying out.

Before the war Capt. Ring was a 2nd lieutenant of the Organized Reserves and was accepted for active duty on August 15, 1917. His appointment as 2nd lieutenant of infantry, Regular Army, 1, 1920, he was promoted to his present rank of captain.

Captain Ring is a graduate of the Infantry School, Company Ofbeen awarded the Silver Star Ci- ficers' Course of 1924, and a graduate of the Advanced Officers Course of the same institution for the year 1932.

Lt. C. A. Carlsten

1st Lieutenant Chester A. Carlsten, Infantry, has been ordered from the 3rd Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minnesota, to duty with the 24th Infantry, Fort Benning, and is to report to this station not laer than June 3 of this year.

Lieutenant Carlsten is a graduate of Hamline University of

He was a 2nd lieutenant of the Organized Reserves at the opening of the World War and during the course of the conflict he rose to the rank of captain (temporary). In 1921 he was accepted for a commission as 2nd lieutenant of infantry in the regular army and promoted to 1st lieutenant on the same date. He was discharged as a 1st lieutenant and reenrolled as 2nd lieutenant of infantry on December 5, 1922. His present permanent rank came on March 2, 1926.

In 1923 Lieutenant Carlsten graduated from the Signal School Company Officers Course and in 1932 from the Infantry School Company Officers Course.

on or about June 30, it will start Benning.

Lt. R. J. Butchers

2nd Lieutenant Ralph J. Butchers, Infantry, has just received that time. orders relieving him from duty with the 65th Infantry, Henry Barracks, Puerto Rico, and assign-Benning, Ga., upon the termination of his present tour of foreign service.

This will be Lieutenant Butchers' first tour of duty at the Infantry School, when he reports to the regiment to which assigned. He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, class of lieutenant of infantry on June 9, 1928, and on September of the same year he was transferred to the Air Corps, only to return to the initial branch in the spring of 1929.

Lieutenant Butchers is a graduate of the Communication Officers Course of the Signal School, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, for the year of 1931, and it was from this institution that he was ordered to his present tour of foreign serv-

Tank Notes

It is a pleasure to announce the following promotions in Company F-67 Infantry. To the grade of W. Corporal Alton your career as a soldier.

Nell Tucker seems to be in the belief that someone is trying to rub he recently pulled off. Don't take it that way, Nell.

We'll be glad to see the return of Cable Coble, Jr. who is spending a well earned furlough down Douglas way. We need his help in giving you more notes for this

In case you want to brush up on the foreign countries, learning their main productions and just sible physical conflicts with those where they are located ask Private Reid, Company "D". Believe me this boy knows about them all.

One of our Tank School boys seems to think that "Squarehead" is studying something else besides motors. Not thinking about a trip up in Alabama are you "Square-That is one thing that head ' would make you forget about a motor.

Congratulations to the Post Boxing team for winning the South-common sense. Without which you eastern Boxing Tournament. We aren't. regret to say that one of our boys failed to retain his title but at that he gave one of the best bat- preferable than 26 whacks over tles of the evening and did not lose his fight by any big margin.

Sergeant Ivy, we hear, is out in his collection that is really worth the price of one buck. It is a snapshot of our one and only Calvin taken back in the 90's when men were men and the women were glad of it. Now tell us. Calvin.

Ivey, did you and Billie have

Officers Leaving Post

Lt. C. C. Hageman

Second Lieutenant Caroline tion. Clara Hagemen of the Army Nurse Nurse Corps in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. She will leave on a transport from New York on May 4th for San Francisco, where she will depart on the 26th of May for her station in Honolulu. Lieutenant Hageman began her career with the Nurse Corps in 1930.

Lieutenant Hageman, whose When this order goes into effect home is in Jonesboro, Arkansas, received her assignment from the his second tour of duty at Fort Surgeon General of the United tion Corps at Fort Knox, Ken-States Army on May 27, 1930, for duty at the Station Hospital at Fort Benning. She has been with the Benning Nurse Corps since Leaving Fort Benning on March 3 for a two months' furlough prior to her departure for the Hawaiian ing him to the 24th Infantry, Fort | Islands, Lieutenant Hageman will | pointed a 2nd lieutenant of cavaljourney to New York. From there she will leave by transport on May 4 for San Francisco, and on May 26 she will leave San Francisco for Honolulu, Hawaii, where Corps there.

Capt. W. W. Cox

Captain Walton W. Cox, Cavalry, now a student in the Advanced Officers' Course of the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, has college. Since entering the servreceived orders from the War Department relieving him from duty at this station and assigning him Troop Officers' Course, 1922; The to Ordnance duty at Edgewood Tank Class of the Infantry School, Arsenal. These orders will be 1932-33; and, the Advanced Class carried out in time to permit Cap- of the Infantry School, 1933-34.

tain Cox's reporting at that sta-

Captain Cox first came to Fort Corps at the Fort Benning Station Benning in 1932 for duty as a stu-Hospital has been assigned to the dent in the Tank Course of the Infantry School, and upon his graduation from this institution he was detailed as a student in the Advanced Class of the same school, the assignment he is now carrying out. During the time between the graduation exercises of 1933 and the opening of the 1933 Advanced course, Captain Cox was detailed on temporary duty with the Civilian Conservatucky. From Fort Knox he was despatched to Squaw Creek, California while with the reforestation

Captain Cox began his career as an enlisted man in the 1st Squadron of Cavalary. New Jersey National Guard, and was apry, Officers' Reserve Corps, on August 15, 1917. He was discharged at the end of the war and appointed a 2nd lieutenant of cavalry, regular army, on October she wil Iserve with Army Nurse 26, 1917; 1st lieutenant in the same branch on September 8, 1919. His promotion to captain followed on July 1, 1920.

Captain Cox is a graduate of Yale University and holds Bachelor of Arts degree of that ice he has undergone courses of instruction at the Cavalry School

MEDICOS

miss: "Who's shall be made to emulate key-hole Popular song Afraid of the Big, Bad Marriage?" A spasmodic rendition by Benning's Junior NCO Conjugal-Stat-

"If I knew the secret of self control I'd be even greater man than I am now."—as confessed by Prof. T. J. Cauley, Economics Dept., Private 1cl Albert T. Emory University in Life Maga-Huddon to the grade of corporal. zine. (In observing the medical Congratulations fellows and may officer in attendance at daily sick you continue to move upward in call his greatness doubtless would be materially aided.)

Snap out of it, gang! Sergeant's exams April 2nd. Two NCO vait in about the big spud deal that cancies at writing, one sergeant and ditto corporal. Disregard the fetid odor emanating from remarks of chronic sore-heads that all forms of competitive contests and academic regents are fixed. Bear in mind that merely having the authority to give orders to subordinates does not necessarily indicate you are a leader of men. And to best meet mental verbal or posover whom you may have control in the near future, first learn how to TAKE orders before you consider yorself fully qualified to GIVE them.

Corporal Neal, WRGH (excook MD Benning) is aspirant for RA MAC. Tch! Tch!

Contract bridgers of MD employ, by far, the most effective method of play existing. Their system?

A two inch scar or scratch on an exceedingly likeable chin is less thoracic vertebrae or adjacent area.

The Major again preempted the Sergeant Majors' office force on collecting old photos. He has one initial perusal of current "Film Fun"!

Genius in Receiving Office! A ollaborator-composer of the song Black Moonlight.

column that will effectually interjust when did you get the nerve est the majority especially to one to stand up by the side of a big who sincerely desires to omit per-'gator and have your beauty sonalities, as much as possible, and struck. Watta man. disparaging remarks such as will ing in the diet kitchen. (Toots). reflect discredit and perhaps tend to cause ill feeling. No attempt peepers whose optics are more or les frequently ebonyed.

Pvt. (Pop) Tynes the pillroller Romeo is still snowing the girls under for candy via the correspondence route. Tynes has that certain thing that goes over big with the ladies but we believe he is wasting his talents in the Sergeant Major's office and suggest that he start writing for Breezy Stories or True Confession Magazines. (Hooey).

The latest report from the Personnel Sergeant on sugar reports is the sugar market is still firm but not cornered.

All the boys look as though they were in their second childhood these days, going around with school books under their arms, with the Sergeant and M. A. C. exam coming off next month.

It has been suggested that the Fighting Pillrollers add two new members to their basketball squad, Staff Sgt. Kernick and 1st Sgt. Hofer, because nothing can get by

Sgt. Snake Black was discharged he 1st and has decided to desert he Army and become a lobbyist in Washington. He says he will object to everything that congress tries to pass.

Former Corp. Herbie Yutmeyer has a new C. O. these days having Merely combining card sense with recently given over things military for wedded bliss.

Sgt. Olsen arrived back from Washington a short time ago with all the latest dope on the pay cut and other official data. He must have been hob-nobbing with some of the big shots, to have secured so much info.

A certain member of the Nurse Corps was overheard to suggest that stirrup straps be made of steel and that in some manner ice be covered with cotton so as to It is most difficult to conduct a make it more shock absorbent.

Because so many of the cooks are being discharged these days is no reason for a blond member of the personnel office to start study-

-R. E. Olsen

-T. H. Belcher.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The company took part in a battle last Wednesday and Thurs-

Two of the heroes of this battle who came in with their tongues hanging out with full information of the enemy were Private Clyde Holloway, and Fred Haigler, intelligence observers. They got into the enemies' lines and got their information and returned. Onehalf hour later the entire army was captured.

This great victory is due to the efficient work of the following noncommissioned officers of Headquarters Company:

The radio boss was Sergeant "Spud" Murphy, who looked like he had been fighting wild cats when he came in. Sergeant Jimmy Hayes was second in comcommand.

The Message Center boss was Sergeant LaBonte.

The Wire Section boss was Sergeant Barney.

Corp. Richardson was boss of intelligence.

The company is glad to know that 100 percent of its members have contributed a day's pay to the Post Community Chest. This charity organization has doing some great work.

Holt, one our mounted men had an accident, falling from his horse in going over a hurdle. The company was sorry to see him go to the hospital and hopes he will return for duty real soon.

The men of the company appreciate the twilight semi-concerts in the 29th Infantry Band Squad room. These concerts are under the supervision of Sergeant Pancho Villa (better known as Pop) Sergeant Pop is considered one of the best tuba players in the Army.

SERVICE COMPANY

The quarantine has been lifted, and the channel swimmers are a thing of the past. The painters are still with us-sorry to say, and they are as thick as ants in a barrel of sugar. Henry, Carwile's pet shadow, has left for the longhorn state—for a rest! Who kid-napped our "Shine?" Boots, boots, he disappeared dyeing boots.

Sergeants Martin, Lewis, and West are back with us again and the painters got them too. had wagon drill the other dayeverything went over greateven the added attraction put on by Corporal Saunders and his trusty steed, Piggy. What a Ro-

Pfc. Brobst has returned from a visit to old Virginia, with that far away look in his eyes, and a vacant waistline. Staff Sergeant Thomas J. O'Leary is getting better looking every day-even the train crew is missing him now. Any ice today lady Our tailor is doing great business—thanks to absentmindedness and the painters. That is all this week.

COMPANY "B"

Among those who have recently returned from furlough are Pvts. Paul Hammock and Bennie Wat-Pvt. Hammock spent 30 days with his parents in Manchester, Georgia, while Pvt. Watson passed most of his time in Macon, Ga.

Pvt. White was discharged on the fourth of March and has departed for his home.

Sgt. Neely has transferred to the Finance Department, Co. B, has lost a valuable man. Pfc. Blouin transferred to the I. S. D. wish him lots of success.

HQ. C., 2ND BATTALION

The greatest discussion in the Company now is painting. We have plenty of wet paint at present, and I don't mean maybe. Our 1st Ser-

PREPAREDNESS

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following are extracts from a recent speech made by Colonel E. G. Peyton, Executive Officer of Fort Benning, who is soon to depart for another assignment. Colonel Peyton made the address as a part of the program for the recently observed National Defense Week.

For this serious national emergency, (Col. Peyton speaks of the last war) we had to mobilize, organize and train more than 4.500, 000 requiring a new officer personnel of almost three times the enlisted strength of the then regular army. Sixteen training camps for hte training of 40.000 officer candidates opened on May 15, 1917, followed by two other similar camps each of three months duration. The selective draft act was passed on May 18, 1917. The training of new officers was designed primarily to determine the character and aptinde of the candidates and to give those who qualified for commissions a three months start of their fellow citizens on the rudiments of the military profession. In other words, they were given such training as would enable them to utilize their knowledge to begin the training of citizens who were soon to be unloaded upon the min train load lots. Their higher education was to continue during the intensive training of the enlisted men and to culminate in the schools of actual war experience on modern battleields. Along with these preliminary measures, further valuable time was consumed in creating the machinery for operating the Draft Act. It was more than six months after our declaration of war that citzens were sent to camps for military organization and intensive training, and it was not until the following summer or late spring that these partially trained troops were used effectively in offensive military operations in Europe.

We were indeed fortunate to have allies capable of holding our enemy in check until we had this necessary time to partially prepare for combat, but we can't count on this good fortune next time In our next emergency we must ourselves hold our enemy in check and at the same time complete the organization and training of the war winning civilian component of the army of the United States, the Reserves, to insure victory and hasten the return of peace.

In the absence of allies to hold our next enemy in check, that enemy will hold the watch and sound the gong for our first contact with him. The Regular Army and the National Guard must be on hand for that first contact, but both of these components have been seriously limited in their preparedness measures and inagequate training for such mortal combat by economic necessities.

geant W. D. Harvey and the supply Sergeant, Sergeant G. N. Stragand, have had a great discussion on the subject, the supply sergeant can't figure out why his paint job doesn't have the gloss that the 1st sergeant's does; the old sarg is turning gray over the situation. The 1st sergeant is very busy around the office with his paint brush cleaning up the furniture, while the supply sergeant is hanging around trying to find out the secret of the gloss. The supply sergeant will often wonder but will probably never know the 1st sergeant's secret.

Another discussed subject of the week is that of two N. C. O's and a Private First Class who were holding a conference in the lower squadroom a few days ago, over a letter, that each of them had written to theirs. It read thusly: Darling, don't you worry Lassiter, little dream house down on the Grigsby.

(Please turn to Page 7)

It can be shown more specifically how lives and treasure can be saved by adequate peace-time preparedness measures. By far the greater portion of our citizens called for the next national emergency will be armed with the military rifle. In order to make such a citizen effective as a soldier he must have confidence in the skillful use of his weapon, which can only be acquired through careful training.

For instance, the military rifle is loaded by inserting a clip of five cartridges in the magazine and each cartridge is inserted into the chamber by the bolt action. Now suppose the citizen highly trained in the use of his rifle can stop an enemy with each shot that he fires and suppose through neglect of training in the use of the rifle through any cause whatsoever, the untrained or partially trained citizen can only make one hit in firing his clip of five cartridges; it then follows as a mathematical fact that it will take five untrained or partially trained citizens to accomplish the results with his rifle expected of the highly trained citizen. This means that we must expend five times the clothing, ammunition, rations, pay, equipment, transportation, medical care, and other necessities on untrained or partially trained men to accomplish the results to be expected of highly trained men. Now if we convert this five to one ratio of untrained to trained men into the millions of able-bodied citizens that may be required for a national emergency, the cost in treasure will be stupendous.

Furthermore, to accomplish with untrained or partially trained men, the results in battle to be expected of trained men, the firing line must be thickened by the same five to one ratio, thereby giving the enemy clearer, better, and more numerous human targets upon which to direct his fire, with the ultimate result that thousands of lives will be needlessly exposed and sacrificed and thousands of homes throughout the country will be thrown needlessly into bereavement and mourning in somewhat the same five to one ratio.

In a similar manner the lives of citizens are placed in jeopardy in war through neglects of other peace-time training requirements, especially the training of officers, who are directly responsible for the lives of the groups of citizens they command, train and ultimately lead in battle.

Engineers

COMPANY "A"

McGowen kept up his very efficient work in the orderly room until he put roller skates on Corporal Dlearo and sent him out in the company street. After the day's work, your witer thinks Corporal Dlearo will be "regular."

Will some one please inform the writer why so many matches were struck in front of the Bulletin Board on the night of the fifth?

The Company is building a bridge at McBride's Ford and it is quite a job-but that's what good ole Engineers are for. In other Corporal Dyas is gone on an emergency furlough to his home in Huntsville, Ala. We hope it's not so serious as first reports indicated. Key, being an underschuster, think he can manage the squad until the Bear gets back.

Don't worry too much about that "first-class", Frog, you will get one soon. All good men do.

We put on a demonstration for class of Officers from the School March 5th, and put up a double apron barbed-wire entanglement in nine minutes and 55 seconds. The detail consisted of Cochran, Ramey, Bell, I'm gonna build you a beautiful LeBlanc, Palmer, Maddox, and

-Pfc. Elfred Lassiter.

Subscribe $\mathcal{N}ow!$

Now is no time to miss the Herald ... you'll find more in it for the men of Benning than there's ever been bfore. Take it yourself, or send it home to your family. It doesn't cost much . . . the

$1.50

yearly subscription price is only

The Benning Herald

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORL

BENNING TAKES MOST OF FIRST PLACES IN S. E. A. A. U. BOUTS

Without any great amount of anyone except their opponents, leaf to the post laurel wreath.

From the preliminary bouts on as to which team would win the title, although there was considerable doubt as to which titles the Benning team would win. With the exception of the welter division however, the post boys came through handsomely to garner everything from flyweight to heavy, and run up the biggest score ever seen at a S. E. A. A. U.

The new Southeastern champions crowned at the post include, Jack McShea, lightweight, Billy

We Make

RUBBER STAMPS

Columbus Office Supply Co.

Floyd, bantam, Charlie Floyd, Post Boxers Show featherweight, Joe Filipone, light-Power In Winning weight, Roy Whatley, middle-weight, (whose list of titles is too long to indicate here), Phil Car-Classic Of South penter, lightheavy, and, upset of the tourney, Jess Reid, heavy.

Those who had the hardest batfuss or argument on the part of tles to capture their titles were led by Carpenter, who caught the the post amateur boxing squad fast and clever Bill Irby from Eustepped out last week to gain an- faula, in the final round. Phil other leg on the Southeastern A. was a little too good for the local A. U. boxing title, taking all but boy, however, having got into shape one of the eight weight champion- nicely, and won hands down. Reid, ships to win the team title for who defeated Penland, 1933 champ another year, and add another for the title, was a surprise sprung by Lieutenant Johnson at the last moment, and showed his class Thursday night, there was no doubt beautifully. In justice to Penland he was a trifle off form, but anyone would have lost to Reid's stabbing left.

Neal Milam, 1933 welter king, was the only one of the Benning boys that failed to renew his claim to the crown, and it is far from a disgrace that he did not do so. Milam met Eddie Fryer, 1932 champ, as clever a fighter as has ever appeared in the Benning ring, and battled him to a standstill in one of the best and bloodiest battles ever seen at the post, only to lose a decision that could have gone to either man with equal justice. It was just a case of bad luck for Neal, he was not robbed, neither did he lose badly,

Lieutenant Howard R. Johnson, team coach, plans to take the boys to the national tourney in St. Louis later in the spring to gain more glory, although it is not expected that the full squad will go along

Benning Cyclone Slated To Meet Liteheavy Champ

Walker "Cyclone" Smith, pride of the 29th, is out to show the wiseacres that he is far from being through in the ring game, for word was received at the post Thursday morning that Walker had been matched once more to meet none other than the lightheavy title-holder of the world-Maxie "Slapsey" Rosenbloom, on the sixteenth of this month, down in Macon, Ga.

Walker ran afoul of Maxie once before, and the ring clown who wears the crown is still slightly puzzled as to just who was in the ring with him. The Savannah fans went so wild about the fight that the gossip spread, and Macon, having Maxie in their midst for a few days, decided to promote an exhibition of fisticuffs, and looked around for an opponent, preferably Smith.

Smith could be had, as Miss West says, and so the boys will mix it up next Friday night.

Irish Are Leading Field In Cage Intramurals

With slightly more than one week on the post intramural basketball league, the 1st Battalion Irish have upset all the dope by stepping out ahead of the field and led the stretch all the way through the second half. Creeping up gradually but still one game behind in the number played, (which lowers their percentage accordingly) are the Headquarters Pirates, with the Kellys, 1st half champions, trailing in a distant third position.

The second half will most likely finish in a two way tie between the Irish and the Pirates, unless the Kellys shake the dust out of their eyes, and down both teams within the next week or ten days. It is entirely possible that they may do this, the situation that the leadership is in right now being that of the man lighing a cigarette on a keg of dyna-

Should the Pirates, the most likely contenders, capture the second half, fans are in for another of those thrilling court duels, like the Pirates and Kellys put on at the close of the first section. And it will be any man's choice.

> BENNING DAY BY DAY (Continued from page 1)

ficult problem over difficult ter-

Lieutenant Ives and his

SUBSCRIBE NOW

To The

BENNING HERALD

$1.50 Year

doughboy engineer company for demonstrations.

And to Johnny Johnson for his putting a G. I. bridge across the work in training the Benning Upatoi in four and a half min-amateur boxing team and winning the tournament, all of which was To Lieutenant Boatner and the done without loss to a high acaengineers for their river-crossing demic standing as an advanced classite.

BRADLEY KNIT

Sports Dresses $12.50 - $22.50

Hofflin and Greentree

COLUMBUS LEADING CLOTHIERS ESTABLISHED 1888

 SECOND FLOOR BOYS' SHOP

It's Nearly Time For You To Start... On Your Spring Fishing Trip!

GET YOUR TACKLE and YOUR OUTFIT READY

We sell only the best of Sporting Equipment

If you haven't already gotten Spring fever you may expect to in a very few days—so start getting your fishing and sporting equipment ready for the big day. The MAIN BRANCH sells only the best of nationally known and expertly manufactured sport-

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

News From The Organizations

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 5)

beach. And, too, I'll have roses hanging over the door, and maybe later on darling, little - - - on the floor." However we know the boys are serious about all of this, for one of them, HLB, has already purchased a farm down in Florida and, RLD, the other has recently returned from Florida. The Private First Class, JHMc., well he is going to settle down up in the mountains of Tennessee. are glad to report that the Bn. S-3 1st Lieut. J. E. Bowen is recovering from his operation, sorry to report that he has orders to leave us soon. Billy Floyd has just won the bantam-weight championship of the Southeast. The boys would like to know who the big blonde N. C. O. is, who was seen in a certain beauty shop in Columbus a few days ago. . . Well, he got all shined up anyway.

This is about all the news. So long until NEXT.

-John H. Newsome.

COMPANY "G"

The Company celebrates Organization Day in a big way: In fact, one of the most elaborate demonstrations in years was experienced (it was enjoyed by every man present, and every one was). Since then, it has been a subject of controversy as to who enjoyed it most. First Sergeant Simpson or Supply Sergeant Notgrass. Sergeant Simpson seemed to have a wonderful time getting the right men at the right place at the right time, and Sergeant Notgrass experienced the same trouble with the equipment for the Company. The buglers turned out to be the "Gold Bricks" of the outfit when their equipment was weighed. We had our suspicions as to how the buglers should be classed before this, but have final proof on them now and intend to push the case.

In this corner, we have Private First Class John Baker, weight 120 pounds (with two pair of breeches on), champion windjammer of the Post. He stepped out on the field of battle, Friday, full of "Wim, Wigor, and Witality" as usual. The poor fellow had to carry so much equipment - that one could hardly see him; in fact, the only way he could be recognized was by his hot cha cha harmony. The next round begins when "Pee Wee" reads this.

Just a moment, ladies: Ah! here it is. It is on "Pop Eye" Holcomb. He has been sweating for hours, trying to get one more penny for show fare, only to find that he could have gotten it "Jaw-Bone."

COMPANY "H"

All is quiet on the Rhine this week, practically the whole Battalion is in quarantine with the measles. H and G company being the only hardy ones so far.

Peloquin entered the hospital the past week and panic threatened the shack element until they found out that he was not a mea-

Shorts-Louie Phillips drew an TS last Friday and mind that we still have a century or more to do.

COMPANY "A"

Here we are again, still in quarantine, but things are looking brighter as the boys (especially Shack Boys) are in hopes of freeare still receiving greatest attenis leading with a score of 6112 etc. What the army needs is more while Cpl. Wooten is second with and better brass to polish!

These scores are the total for twelve games played with a different partner each game. The contest ends Wednesday March

All the older recruits have just about learned Pfc. John Kibitzer Crow. For until just recently they would congregate around his bunk for their nightly lecture on various subjects.

Certain members of the Company would like to have the followng questions answered:

Why does Cpl. Smith trail the two Bennett around after boys?

Who disapproves of THAT ransfer to the 1st Platoon, Sgt. Sheriff or Pvt. Nabb?

Why did Pvt. Stevens lose his Special Duty job in the kitchen while Cpl. Andrepont is Acting Mess Sergeant? He states that he will get it back.

The pool tournament between the wo remaining contestants, Sgt. Hamscher and Pfc. Strother has been postponed due to the statement of Sgt. Hamscher, which corners of the side pockets stick This being a fact the Sergeant would lose a number squeeze shots.

Everyone knows that Pvt. Boullion's girl has gone to visit relatives in some distant city. Due to the expression he wears during her absences. We will all know when she comes back to the "Ideal Shack Man."

COMPANY "D"

The Company is glad to welcome home Cpl. Frank C. Galloay and Pfc. Glenn T. Duckett who have just returned from duty with the Civilian Conservation

Since we have been quarantined for measles there has been quite a noticeable improvement in the Mess. We have more space in the Mess Hall and at the same time the Chow has improved greatly due to the fact that there are not so many men rationed with the company and the cooks can prepare the food better.

There are quite a number of shack men whose faces are seen around the company every night since the quarantine. Don't take it too hard fellows, it won't last forever.

First Battalion Headquarters and Company "D" will soon begin spring baseball practice, according to our Coach, Lieut. Clyde D. Eddleman. From all information to be gathered the team will be a strong competitor for the Battalion Championship.

-- C. Dyess.

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

Out of the darkness comes a wee voice, the cry of R. M. G. Company, we crave attention.

Since our release from quarantine with the measles, an even more contagious disease has broken out in the Company. It is the one and only germ the soldier breaks up his usual rest periods, ers, but we will start with what bat. meaning the customary afternoon scrammed... 'Buck' Whitlock made nap. This particular germ ener- later. a nice haul with the cards last gizes the body and induces persweek. . . Littlefield is eagerly piration, as the result of many awaiting his day which comes the queer doings. If the Johnnie who is 10th. . . All of which brings to in the next bunk spends fifteen minutes brushing and polishing shoes and equipment, he follows suit and continues for twenty minutes or until he has satisfied himself that his now looks the best. The disease has spread to such an extent that no one is satisfied unless his mosquito-bar is arranged on his bunk in the now modern dom Friday. Our entertainments and up to date fashion. Streamline or nothing! Other items subtion. Back to Pinochle, last week ject to punishment were bunk we had Pfc. Beck and Cpl. Baker tags, brass latch and reinforceleading but this week Cpl. Scalzo ments on foot lockers, shoe eyelets,

COMPANY "A"

To those young and adventurtheir brains each morning, hoping them will be picked to fill the vacancy of Old '98, stop and think of the number of Corporals and Privates First Class of Co. "A" that were promoted to the grade of Sergeant in Co. "A" 24th Infantry since September 1918. If you will search the records for proof you will find, to your surprise, that only one Corporal and one Private First Class was promoted to Sergeant in the past sixteen years; searching further you will find only two Corporals were was, "During damp weather the appointed to grade of Sergeant between June 1907 and June 1916. Judging from the past promotion status of the Company over a period of twenty-five years, one can easily see that it should be around September 1942 before another Corporal will be advanced to the grade of Sergeant in Co. "A" 24th Infantry. This does not include the number of Corporals that were transferred to the Company and appointed Sergeant and then transferred to some other Company. Now you poor little Corporals can just take it easy for several more years; don't go around telling your girls that you are going to be appointed Sergeant in a few more

-Humpy

COMPANY "B"

The Company is coasting along now, after winning the Company Area Competition for the month of March 1934. We were a few points over the House of David. and the boys can take it easy for a few weeks anyway.

Our Supply Sergeant Pitts is on the war path and we do not know what is wrong with him. Is it that he worked too hard for inspection? or is it Dr. Polk?

Promotions are the only talk around the Company. Our veteran Sergeant McCauley was made 1st Sergeant for retirement after 30 years of faithful service in the old U. S. Army. He will depart from us on the 31st of March. Well. 30 years more wouldn't hurt the Vet, and we hope he will last that long out in life.

Kid Shadow, as we know him, but the real name is Jack Legs Diamonds, was at it again. We cannot tell just what he was doing but the boys are watching him. Watch your step, Diamond.

Well, it is time for spring training and boys are getting a slow start this year. We are short of players and Manager Hansbury an extended stay somewhere in don't seem to make a trade with Georgia on a Chaplain's pass. We dreads, "The Buck Germ." It the other Company for new playwe have and some repairs. From his appearbad shape. Now and then, after some adjustments underenath he down. After several of these operations, Private Warren walked over, greeted Whyte, and said: that's why they have Mechanics' and walked away.

—Hawkins and Randolph

COMPANY "C"

Private Worsham is all smiles several years ago, while a member ous Non-Commissioned Officers of of the same team, he finished on the Company who have been pol-the big range with qualification ishing their brass and dusting off as Sharpshooter. His excuse for not making Expert was that he against all probability that one of shot too much at Camp Perry. We doubt that he will go to Perry this year, and while we hope that he makes Expert, if he should fail to do so, what then will be the ex-

> Taylor: Ward, what kind of beans are these?

Ward: Boston baked.

Taylor: Yeah! If you got off a train in Boston with them, and told a cop they were Boston baked he'd run you ragged.

-C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

The Company's Basketball Team is still holding second place in the League, our next game is with The Mighty House of David. We are out to win this one from them. Pvt. 1cl Jessie Johnson is the high point man of the team, having a score of 177 points. Pvts. Nicholas. Franklin and Jordan have returned to the Company from furlough, they enjoyed their stay and had a splendid time.

The West End Legions, the not-ed club of Company "E," are giving a Costume Ball on March 12, 1934, at the 24th Infantry Service Club. They are celebrating their first anniversary.

-Theodore S. Hicks

COMPANY "F"

Lefty Henderson Pvts. Spareribs Lewis had a little fistic bout to settle a personal grudge. The referee's decision was a draw. Lefty a split lip. It would have been worth $2.00 at any ringside to see these two bantamweights strut.

The other morning there was such a loud squawking and jumping in the recreation room that every one ran down to see where the fire was. Upon arriving it was discovered that some soldier had played a through card in Pvt. refused to pay the last card. Geech was trying to extract same from

Pvt. Buck Johnson has been giv ing Pvt. Meathouse Johnson secret training every evening, the results of which caused Meathouse to turn out for the Company basketball team and become the star of the first game played, making shots from all positions on the floor. Buck says that he will start training him for a wrestler next month.

Pvt. Blaine Dingbat Adams, the prodigal son, has returned after are glad to have you back, Ding-

Gilbert.

COMPANY "G"

The Company gave a very good account of itself in the inspection Private Whyte was under his for the flag last Saturday morning Ford Coupe ("T" Model) making and altho we lost it to Company B by a very small margin the Comance, his car seemed to be in very pany Commander was very well pleased at the excellent showing we made; and, living up to our motto would start the motor only to have it struggle, puff and stop or choke fully decided that we will win the flag at the very next inspection. In the baskeball game Tuesday night between G and Service Com-'Why don't you get a new car, panies, the House gave the horsethen all you'll have to worry about men a severe beating. The Ser- ficials of the camp where he was will be gas and oil." To this, vice Company did manage to make Whyte replied, "Oh, yeah! Well, twenty points to the forty nine ing his services but he was badly made by the House. After the needed at this station. schools, to work on the cars that first quarter The House quintet won't move with gas and oil-You practiced passing the ball instead go to a school, and should know; of trying to make goals and in am I right?" "Yep," says Warren fact very seldom attempted to shoot a basket.

The company baseball team is over the coming target season. beginning to stretch and yawn from You see, he is a member of the its long winter's slumber. In a Regimental Small Bore Team and short while the boys will unpack feels that he has some shooting the old gloves and what have you, technique up his sleeve. Well, and limber up in preparation for that machine which yearly wins the regimental pennant.

G Company's mess is leading the regiment and also the mess of several other organizations of the Post, according to the last statement of Mess Standings.

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

SERVICE COMPANY

Private Grady Oliver is still confined in the Station Hospital and from recent reports he has professed religion. But Chubby Watkins refuses to let illness interfere with his poker games, etc.

Colbert's furlough came to a dramatic close Monday morning just in time to witness the hanging of Turk Ford on a nail in No. 8 latrine. That Logan and Yank Johnson did it. Logan picked him up and Yank hooked his overall suspenders on the nail. A kodak is the only instrument that do the scene justice when Turk said so pathetically "Hey, boy! Come get me down from up here."

The Glee Club members are warming up for that trip to Atlanta-and since the program last Thursday was so well received Ned Jackson has been exercising his vocal cords on "The Last Roundup". Oh yes, there are a number of recruits in training including our old pay, Luke. But he doesn't like spirituals. He likes blues-tremendously. And by the way he has some latent ability as a composer f'rinstance "Automobile (censored) Blues."

-G. E. Burton.

BAND

The Band and the First Battal-Pvt. Ribs having a bruised eye and ion played host Tuesday to the cadets from Tuskegee Institute who paid their annual visit to Fort Benning and the 24th Infantry. A battalion parade was demonstrated by the first battalion during the

The Band Commander was well pleased with the full field inspection Monday morning. We believe that we have some of the cleanest Geech Vanderhorst's skin game and and best looking equipment in the army.

The Happy Heart boys furnished the rhythm for the Company Officers Class dance at the Muscogee Club last Saturday night. The music was well received and compliments were heard on all sides.

Pfc. Riley is the proud possessor of a week old pup, breed unknown. Riley says if he can make a saxophone player out of the dog he will consider his life work accomplished. Pvt. Letmon, not to be outdone, says that he once had a cat that could play the piano.

Coming events cast their shadows before them. Corporal "Squaw Trouble" is again in great demand at the telephone and this can mean thing; an affair of heart.

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

Private Ross, The Street Singer of the 24th Infantry, has taken on for another three years. . . He knows a good thing when he gets it... The Company is getting ready to organize one of the strongest volley ball teams ever seen in this regiment. . . The material is there and we are going to develop it. . . Corporal Allen Redmon has returned from C. C. C. duty, where he made an enviable record. . . Ofstationed were not pleased at los-

-Louis A. Scipio.

COLONEL McADAMS (Continued from page 1)

until late in the fall of 1918. During this period of duty he enjoyed the confidence and was continually in council with the commanding general of the S. O. S. and was especially trusted by General Harbord and General Connor. His efforts on this assignment contributed in a large measure to the success of the S. O. S. in the A. E. F.

Since the World War Colonel McAdams has served in many responsible positions. Government and was instrumental in formulating many of the methods of procedure now used in pre-funds to be submitted to Congress. Just prior to his present assignment as commanding officer of the 66th Infantry (light tanks) he was senior instructor of the Illinois National Guard, and has been highly commended for the excellent having first worn the uniform as work performed while on this important duty. In recognition of I of the 9th Cavalry. Later he his wartime services Colonel Mc-Adams has been decorated with the Distinguished Service Medal by the United States, and was also appointed an Officer of the Legion of Honor by the French Govern-

While visiting at Fort Benning Colonel McAdams was the guest of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Stutesman at their quarters.

We Make RUBBER STAMPS Columbus Office Supply

OFFICER'S

ENLISTED MEN'S Regulation

GARRISON CAPS

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your dealer or post exchange

Ask for Meyer or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons.

N. S. MEYER, Inc. NEW YORK

TESTED SEEDS

There's no way of positively guaranteeing yourself a beautiful garden, but you can greatly increase your chances by using tested and certified seed. We sell only the best of garden seed . . . every kind you may require.

BRADFORD And MEADOWS 1240 BROADWAY

Tuskeegee R. O. T. C. Students Pay Short Visit Here; Guests of 24th Approved By War

Fort Benning was visited by more than fifty members of the R. O. T. C. unit from Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala., yesterday afternoon, when the colored cadets came to the post on a visit of observation, which had been arranged by Colonel Benjamin O. Davis, Cavalry, commander of the unit.

While here the students, who After his make an annual trip of observation graduation from the Army War to Fort Benning witnessed sever-College in 1920, he served under al demonstrations by members of General Dawes as one of the Ar- the 24th Infantry, a retreat parmy Officers who composed the ade, and were taken for a tour new budget bureau of the Federal of the post. Yesterday afternoon two combat demonstrations using blank ammunition were staged by the 2d Battalion, 24th, Infantry, paring the annual estimate of and Company B of that regiment gave a special drill. The 1st Battalion was the unit which marched in the retreat parade.

Colonel Davis, who was in charge of the cadets on their visit here, has an interesting military career, a private and corporal of Troop was made squadron sergeant major, and during the Spanish American War served as a 1st lieutenant of the 8th Infantry. 1901 he was commissioned a second lieutenant of cavalry, regular army, and four years later was promoted to first lieutenant. 1915, just prior to the Punitive Expedition into Mexico, he was made captain, and in 1917, was commissioned a major (temporary) which rank he held for a year. His worth as a leader of colored troops was recognized then by his promotion to lieutenant colonel, national army, and he served in that capacity until the close of the war, when he reverted to his regular army rank.

In 1920 he was promoted to lieutenant colonel of regulars, and in 1930 to colonel, regulars, which he holds at the present time.

The cadets returned to Tuskegee last evening at the completion of their observation of the Infantry School activities.

BATTERY "C"

The reporter was too busy last week cleaning up the Detail Squad Room. The brass glittered all last week like a new dollar and passed every inspection that was made, with no skins. As a reward for the hard work the Detail has to water the horses for one week. Unless there was a secret ballot, why the Detail waters is still a mystery.

A lot of credit for the inspection of the Maintenance section last Saturday goes to the chiefs of 2nd and 4th sections for their efforts to prepare this section for inspection.

Dan Cupid has got another gunner of the Second Section. So it other bachelor gunner.

favor of us for the night maneu- ed actor. ver Saturday morning.

a settled man since his return hard fighting of the men themfrom CCC duty. He says he is selves and the many hours of Lt. trying to forget the CCC but we Harris spent to get these boys in believe he is trying to forget his shape, the lightweight champion girl friend.

quarters quite frequently now so ley as if he were a champion. Alwe believe Pop has crossed a line. We don't know what line. We he had a hard fight the night bealso have another roomer on the fore in which he got a bad cut last floor. His stay in quarters is over his eye and this is the only improving his checker game considerably.

fought so hard in the late tourna- in his weight.

Lieut. McKinnon Is Made Captain In Recent Orders

Assistant Commandant Of B. & C. School Gets Commendation

First Lieutenant William Ross McKinnon, assistant commandant of the School for Bakers and Cooks at Fort Benning, has been promoted to the rank of Captain, it was announced recently in orders from the War Department at Washington, D. C. The promotion became official on March 5.

Captain Mackinnon was born in Michigan on the fifteenth of Feb the print shop is now located is ruary 1896. He gained his first one of the old buildings of the ruary, 1896. He gained his first military experience as Color Sergeant of Headquarters 71st Infantry, New Jersey National Guard, in 1916. He became 2nd lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps, National Army, on the fifteenth of July, 1918. On the 22nd of October in the same year he was promoted to 1st lieutenant. He was made 1st lieutenant in the regular army in September, 1920.

In 1927, Captain Mackinnon graduated from the Quartermaster Corp Subsistence School. He completed a sixteen weeks' course of instruction at the American Baking Institute in the later part of December, 1932, following which he was assigned to the Quartermaster Corps at Fort Benning as Assistant Commander of the School for Bakers and Cooks.

At the beginning of the Civilian Conservation Corps work, Captain Mackinnon was detailed on duty as Assistant to the District Supply Officer of District "H," which position he held until late in the year. While the Reserve Officers' Training Corps camp was at Fort Benning in June, 1933, Captain Mackinnon acted in the capacity of Mess Officer.

A conference on mess management was given by Captain Mackinnon to the Reserve Officers attached to the 66th Infantry, on Tuesday, February 20, 1934, and was of such merit that Lieutenant Colonel John H. Stutesman, Commanding Officer of the 66th Infantry, commended him in a letter to the Commandant of the Infantry School, saying: "The scope and content of this conference were superior, well chosen to cover the essentials of the matter under discussion within the limited time available; his appearance and method of delivery were superior and in my opinion these three hours will prove to be the most valuable that these officers will receive during their course here." Captain Mackinnon also received the commendation of the post Commandant.

As a member of the Infantry School Dramatic Club, Captain seems that the B. C. Detail will Mackinnon is well known by those have to furnish this section and of Fort Benning and Columbus who attend the production The weather seems to be in club as a very capable and talent-

Sgt. Jack Johnson seems to be ment. We have as a result of the of the South East, Joe Filipone, Sgt. Decatur Johnson sleeps in and we are just as proud of Whitthough he lost his fight because reason why Whitley is not a champion of the Southeast today and Again we must not forget to I further say he is as good a fightmention our amateur fighters who er if not better than the champion

Bid On Print Shop Department

Word has been received at Fort Benning from the office of the Quartermaster General, Washington, D. C., that the bid of the J. A. Jones Construction Company, Charlotte, North Carolina, on the construction of a new print shop at Fort Benning has been approved. The bid of the North Carolina company, which was the lowest of about twenty submitted from all over the country, amounted to $39,500.00.

The new print shop will occupy the area behind the officers' club at the post, and will fill a longfelt need of this activity for adequate space in which to carry on its work. The moving of the print shop into its new building upon completion will mark the removal of one of the land marks of Fort Benning, as the structure in which Bussey plantation, and was here when the site of Fort Benning was taken over by the military service in 1919.

Also awaiting approval in the office of the Quartermaster General is the bid on the new chapel at Fort Benning of the Perry Fireproofing company of Chicago. That firm having been low bidder on this project, as reported by the Constructing Quartermaster to the Quartermaster General on Feb. The new chapel which will be one of the most beautiful buildings on the post, is to be constructed in the Georgian style of archi-

All three denominations, Protestant, Catholic and Jewish will use the chapel for their services. Studies for the chaplain of each of the faiths have been provided, and the church laid out in such a manner as to accomodate the ritual of each denomination.

Change . . .

Changing conditions necessitate changing viewpoints. The service of this firm is available to accredited individuals who wish to adjust their investment plans to present conditions.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272 Columbus, Ga.

MEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

TRY OUR

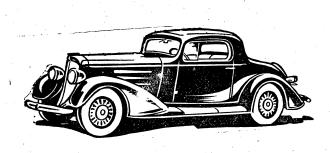

Delicious Packed NEW BUTTER ROLLS 10c

WATCH FOR

Week-end Special Cakes . . . a different

On Sale At The Post Exchange

COLLINS BAKING CO. 1144 13th Street

Like A Sewing Machine

YOUR CAR PURRS ALONG WHEN IT HAS HAD OUR SERVICE.

A thorough cleaning, inside and out, lubrication, and a mechanical inspection involving thirty-three different operations—that's our DeLuxe Service—one that's an expenditure not to have. Drive by today for just a minute and let us tell you about it.

> We Do Painting Work On All Makes Of Automobiles

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1934

BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, March 12-Students' orders have been rushing in by ones. The first influx of war department assignments had us sort of keyed up to a jittery expectation until we had reached the state where we were beginning to feel the strain of running the whole gamut of human emotions from to B. But now that the let-up has set in we scarcely know what to expect. To express our feelings in the words of one philosophical soul, we don't know which is preferable. right disappointment. Anything may happen.

As witness the case of classmate Cox, the horsey branch's worthy representative at the infantry school of arms. Friend Cox is one of those fortunate men who go about their daily chores, in a cool, efficient manner, preforming well the task at hand. But even the most practised eye would have been deceived at this man's extreme versatility were it not for his orders of yesterweek. For here is a cavalryman who came to us from the tank school, now attending the infantry school and under orders assigning him to ordnance duty at which there is no whicher.

Johnny Johnson has a rather into prominence occasionally that is both surprising and original. Johnny is a boy who can finish a rest of us are bemoaning the absence of NRA hours and then head tain, while he was at Benning. for the athletic association's portals to start anew on the multitudinous duties connected with his stable of harhard-hitting pugs. Such work as resurfacing a ball diamond, refereeing an entire fight program or engineering repairs to the swimming pool are jobs to be taken in one's stride. The verve and enthusiasm of an energetic arousing the interest of lagging spirits, sated and torpid after a noon meal's excess. His peeling down to normal clothing for indoor problems is an example. When the ton. one o'clock bell has sounded and he takes his seat near the stove in A. H. No. 4 as he does on occasions of combined classes, his transition from outdoor cold to indoor comfort is startling to say the least. series of sweaters with extreme shifts from purples to greens to pinks. For the infrequent ten-minute breaks, in order to get back in the open for a breath of head-clearing fresh air he spends five minutes building up to his overcoat and then it's time to start peeling again in order to be in his seat at

This long drawn out introduction has sort of drawn us off at a tangent. What we started to publicize was his dramatic entrance into Kriz Hall one one o'clock last week head first, somewhat after the manner of one sliding into second base feet hindmost.

It reminds us of the story of the inebriate on the seventh floor of a (Please turn to page 6)

BENNING DAY-NUMBER OF OFFICERS ASSIGNED TO Ten Officers Are POST IN RECENT ORDERS

Two Officers From New Instructors Army War College Here For 1934-35 Ordered To Post

Information has been received at Fort Benning that two officers now on duty with the War Department General Staff, Washington, D. C., will be assigned to duty at the Infantry School sometime in the near future. They are Majors pleasurable anticipation or down-Paul J. Mueller and Franklin C. Sibert, who was on duty at the Infantry School of Arms as an instructor in the first days of that institution's coming to Columbus.

Major Sibert is one of the pioneer officers and instructors at the Infantry School, having been assigned here upon his arrival from Germany in 1919, as an instructor in the department of the machine gun when he held the war-time grade of lieutenant colonel.

He began his military career as a cadet at the United Staes Military academy in 1908, being commissioned a second lieutenant four years later. In July 1916, he received his first promotion to 1st the chemical warfare school! Than lieutenant and in May 1917 was commissioned captain.

The temporary rank of major of the national army was given abrupt tendency to break out him in June 1918, and in November of the same year he was advanced to lieutenant colonel of infantry, which rank he held until long arduous student day when the February, 1920, when he reverted to the regular army rank of cap-

He left this post on conclusion of his tour of duty to take up assignment at Milwaukee, Wis., on recruiting duty, but returned in 1923 as a student in the advanced course of the Infantry School, Upon graduation he was enrolled at the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, which course he completed in 1925 as a distinguished graduate. In But Johnny has other means of 1928 he was assigned as a student to the Army War College, Washington, D. C., graduating in 1929, and in 1930 was detailed on duty with the general staff at Washing-

Major Sibert's work at the Infantry School of Arms in 1920 as an instructor played a leading role in the formulation of the methods and course of instruction now being imparted at this institution, The removal of his overcoat is but particularly in the use of firing of a preliminary to the removal of a machine guns, one of the most important factors of modern warfare.

Major Mueller has never seen service at the Infantry School. He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., as a cadet in 1911, and was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry in 1915, remaining in that grade slightly over one year, when he was promoted to first lieutenant. In May, 1917, shortly after the entry of the United States into the World War, he was promoted again, to the grade of captain.

A month later he was commissioned major (temporary), which rank he held until he received his regular army commission in this grade, in 1920.

While no detailed information (Please turn to page 6)

Academic Year

Advance notice of the annual change of officers on duty with the Academic Department of the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, has been received at post headquarters in War Department orders which assign 10 officers now on duty at other service school to Fort Benning as instructors in the 1934-35 Infantry School

Nine of the officers concerned are students at the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, at the present time, and will report to Fort Benning for duty on their new assignments on completion of their present course of instruction. They are Majors William C. McHahon and John T. Murray, and Captains Charles M. Ankcorn, Marcus B. Bell, Frank E. Brokaw, Harold P. Gibson, Raymond G. Lehman, John R. Hodge, and Norman Mc-Neill. The tenth officer, Major Samuel A. Gibson, Infantry, is a student a tthe Army War College, Washington, D. C., and will come to Fort Benning on completion of his studies there.

Lieutenant James R. Manees, who at the present time is on duty with the Finance Department, has been transferred to the infantry, and will be detailed to the 29th Infantry at Fort Benning, according to the same order. At the present time he is on duty at Fort Riley, Kansas, and will report here for duty in the near future.

Major W. C. McMahon Major McMahon first came to

Benning as a captain on August 20, 1929, following an assignment at the United States Military Academy, West Point, New York, While here he was a member of the 1929-1930 advanced course of the Infantry School. Upon his graduation from this institution he was assigned to the 16th Infantry, Fort Jay, New York, where he had finished a tour of duty at the time of his appointment to the Comand and General Staff

This officer was appointed as cadet at the Milit in 1913, as a representative of the state of New York. He graduated from this institution on April 20, 1917, receiving his commission as 2nd lieutenant of infantry on the same date. On May 15, 1917, he was promoted to 1st lieutenant, and on August 5 of the same year he advanced to the temporary rank of captain. September 16, 1919, saw his receipt of a commission as captain in the regular army. Major McMahon gained his present grade within the last year.

While a member of the United States Army he has graduated from the Infantry School Advanced Course of 1930, and is at present a member of the 1934 Com-

(Please turn to page 6)

ADVANCED

An informal photo of Harry El Knight, former executive officer at Ft. Benning, who recently was named in a list of newly appointed brigadier generals, according to reports received at Fort Ben-

Bridge Tourney At Officers' Club Ends Monday

The 1st round in the bridge tournament now being held at Fort Benning, was played Monday night at the Officers' Club.

The ranking of contestants is as follows: Section 1-North and South-1 Major Thomas S. Arms and Captain Arthur E. Burnap; 2 -Captain and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis; 3—Lieutenant and Mrs. C. E. Williams; 4-Lieutenant and Mrs. Charles T. Lanham. East and West: 1-Captain and Mrs. Fay Ross; 2-Colonel and Mrs. Charles F. Morse; 3—Captain and Mrs. Don left here last August for duty as C. Faith; 4—Captain and Mrs. a student in the Cavalry School, Harold W Gould Section 2—Fort Riley, Kansas, is now under Harold W. Gould. Section 2-North and South: 1-Major and Mrs. Paul W. Baade; 2-Mrs. Thomas J. Leary and Mrs. Thomas S. Arms; 3-Lieutenant and Mrs. Lincoln Jones, Jr.; 4-Mrs. Colson and Lieutenant August E. Schanze. East and West: 1-Lieutenant and Mrs. Montgomery McKee; 2—Lieutenant and Mrs. Dwight W. Rosebaum; 3-Lieutenant and Mrs. Russell G. Emery; 4-Mrs. Arthur S. Luse and Mrs. Geoffrey Marshall.

In the championship play next Monday night the above contestants will vie for high honors. In the event that any of the scheduled pairs cannot play, the runner-up pair in that section will be substituted.

Ordered From Post To Other Stations

In latest orders of the War Department 10 infantry officers are rdered from Fort Benning to other stations, while one is under orders to report here from the Cavalry School, Fort Riley, Kan-

The officers who are assigned to other stations are those who have attended courses at the Infantry School for the year 1933-34.

1st Lieutenant Willet J. Baird, who came here after an assignment to the 19th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, will report to the 3rd Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Lieutenant James W. Clinton, who was on duty with the 66th Infantry (Light Tanks) at Fort Benning, prior to his attendance of the Company Officers? Course, is assigned to the 16th Infantry, Fort Jay, New York. Lieutenant Theodore A. Seeley, who came here from the 1st Tank Company, Miller Field, Staten Island, New York, goes to the 3rd Infantry of Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Lieutenant Carl W. Westlund, officer of the 29th Infantry, before his duty as a student, is assigned to Headquarters, Special Troops, 1st Division, Fort Hamilton, New York. Lieutenant Cyril E. Williams, Ordnance Department (Infantry) will take up station at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, for duty with the 6th Infantry. Lieutenant Horace L. Beall, jr., who was assigned to the school from foreign service, is under a new assignment to the 12th Infantry, Fort Lewis, Washington. Lieutenant Francis H. Boos, 29th Infantry, will report to the 16th Infantry, Fort Jay, New York. Lieutenant Andrew T. McNamara, formerly of the Hawaiian Division, now a student in the school, is assigned to the 3rd Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minn. Lieutenant Paul J. Mitchell, Infantry, will report to the commanding Officer, 34th Infantry, Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, upon completion of his present course of instructions. Lieutenant James P. Hully, came here following an assignment to the Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and upon graduation will take up duty with the 29th Infantry.

Lieutenant Ovid O. Wilson, who orders to return to Fort Benning

Lieutenant Wilson is well-known here as "Zero" Wilson, crack polo player, having been a two-goal handicap man since 1930. He has played throughout the polo circles of the south.

Former Benning Officer Dies At Home

Word has just been received at the Infantry School, of the death of a former member, Major William T. Brock, (Retired). Major Brock died on March 3, 1934, at Fayetteville, North Carolina, where he had made his home since retirement.

The baseball season is now calling. Sergeant LaBonte is a good all around player. Sergeant Jimmy Hayes a star fielder and batter, Mauldin is one of the best infielders in the post. Hebert, all round track man, is also a good fielder. We think we have a real baseball

The E. M. bowling team finished in second place. Sergeant LaBonte, Red Burns, Hall and Bitala have done some wonderful bowling during this post season.

All the company athletes are coming from Illinois at present. Beckmeyer and his brother are the latest finds from Illinois. One of the Beckmeyer brothers is in Recruit Center now. Suggest we send a Recruiting Officer up there.

Fred Haigler, after having gone thru some tough maneuvers last week has been granted 30 days furlough to visit his home in Miss-

The company welcomes Private Lee, D., to the company who came

Dependable Electric and Gas Service

FORGIA COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

Dry Cleaning

Plain Dresses Men's Suits

Cleaned and Pressed

THE HOUSE OF BEAUTIFUL CLEANING

PHONE 613

Our green Austins give you 1-day service. Mr. Godfrey, Driver Accounts by month.

War Department Office Of The Chief Of Infantry Washington

The Benning Herald, Fort Benning, Ga.

Dear Sirs:

A very good friend of mine in the 29th Infantry sent me a copy of your interesting publication as he had learned that I had been ordered to the 29th Infantry. After reading it, I found that I was getting into the atmosphere of my new station, which is invaluable to a newcomer. Hence the check for a year's subscrip-

Very truly yours,

H. B. CREA, Lt. Colonel, Inf.

io operator.

Pvt. 1cl. I. H. Perry, (2nd Lt. Infantry reserve), fast shorthand writer and typist in the Sergeant Major's Office, is getting discharged per ETS next week. The company hopes he will reenlist in the parts "unknown". company after he is discharged.

The company is glad to have Tech Sergeant Mitzen and 1st Sergeant Houghtby for duty in the company at the present time, and appreciates their good treatment. Mitzen has recently been on a furlough. He is one of the best golfers in the post.

SERVICE COMPANY

Sergeant Freeman, Hutto, Whetsell and a few others found their names on the B. B. the other day ordering them to pack their troubles in the old kit bags and depart from this station via motor tramp and report to Capt. Albright at pier No. 13 at Savannah, Ga., without delay. Naturally this created some confusion and caused them to ask one million, nine hundred and thirteen questions, as to where they were going and why? It finally dawned on them that they had missed the annual mob day and that they were now in the process of being mobbed. Anyway they did get to ride out on the new First Division road.

It won't be long now, the old ball season is just around the corner all of our old timers and several of the newcomers can be seen in last week. He is an expert rad- almost any afternoon out trying to get the winter kinks out of their

> Sgt. Smith and Pvts. 1cl. Hoyle and Huggins must have felt the spring fever coming on, they all left on furlough yesterday for

> The Company continues to amble along in high gear despite all the paint, measles and other pains in the neck incidental to the daily grind in the "We Lead the Way"

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

We feel a pang of regret, that due to unusual circumstances, boxing team be discontinued. Howmeaning quarantine of measles and etc., it was necessary that the ever it is with pride that we tell you of our own boys, and noteworthy members of the boxing team, were awarded the new zipper jacket each, the Battalion Award. Sgt. Frank White was also awarded a zipper jacket-you know Frank, so I won't have to make an introduction. In case you don't, well, he's the guy that will be slinging speed balls over home plate to the catcher's mitt. If they don't reach the mitt, it isn't Frank.

That's probably laying it on a little thick for Frank, but he is our own and naturally we like to brag just a wee bit. Frank gets discharged in a few months, and swears he does not intend to reenlist, but we know better.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY FIRST BATTALION

Hurrah for the warm weather!! Spring will soon be here and with the spring a young man's fancy turns to love and baseball. For the present we will talk about baseball. We understand that Company D and 1st Battalion Headquarters are combining their players to form one team to compete for the Battalion and Regimental Championshps. We have many potential Ruths, Gehrigs, Foxes, Hubbels or what have you and we have our optics cast in the direction of the baseball trophies which may or may not adorn our own recreation

While we are on the subject of baseball we would like to remind our kind readers of a diagnosis, by a former 1st Bat coach, of a certain diminutive outfielder on the Irish nine who found it a hard task to make the willow meet the horsehide. The coach's object of attention: RAY-Bn. Hq. Co. Covers lots of ground in the outfield, is dead on anything within 600 yards of him, fast on the bases if he could ever get on! No harm meant, Ripper, some sunny day you may pole out a Charlie Bank's special.

Of course you heard the one about the cock-eyed batter whose eyes were crossed to such an extent that he struck out when the opposing twirler heaved the agate to first three times in an attempt to catch the runner napping. We'll stop the foolishness now and try to deliver this week's news notes.

All the schoolboys in the outfit who are attending the Communication course have been issued a practice buzzer for the purpose of improving their hitting during their spare time and of all the distress signals, you have never heard the like. All evening long like an ominous chant of the jungle one can hear the DIT DIT DIT, DAH DAH DAH, DIT DIT DIT, SOS, SOS. Whether or not it means Save our Souls, we cannot say, but it has been known to have other mean-

Tsk, Tsk! Hop to it you budding Marconis, may you blast the ether with your disintegrator rays.

Our hope for a speedy recovery goes to our message center, Corporal James R. Hendry, sprained his ankle in a recent volleyball game. It is reported that "Stunky" Davis of the Davis, Davis & Wisenberg Corporation hit our little Jimmy on the head with the ball so hard that it caused the accident. Which all goes to prove that the Message Center Section can't take it.

FLASH: The latest report is that Ellis, "Kid Chocolate", Haik can be had!! We wunda!!

'Sall for now -Norman H. Hobbs.

COMPANY ""B"...

The track season started off with a bang. The following men of this company have turned out for the first practice: Brunson, Jones, C. W., Hammock, Greeson, Everett, Cooper, Parr, Motes, Ellitt, Austin, Santy, Leach, O'Neal, Dorsett, Griffin, Renfroe, Taylor, A. P., Corbin, Ritchie, Carter, A., Parker, Hester, and Barnett. Lt.

(Please turn to page 3)

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Drink more milk!

But first be sure it's FOREMOST!

There's nothing adds the flavor and interest to a meal that milk does-and in addition, it's very healthful for young and old. Always ask for Foremost Milk and ice cream.

toremost Dairies,

By taking constant care of your car, you avoid maunnecessary repair bills which result from lack of attention. Have it greased and lubricated at regular intervals and keep it cleaned at all times.

Our DeLuxe Service

will greatly assist you in cutting down repair bills and keeping the car in the best of running shape.

We Do Painting Work On All Makes Of Automobiles

DEPARTMENT AUTO

POST EXCHANGE

FT. BENNING. GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

Remember

. . . expert printing will always pay in the long run.

When you want fine printing work, or office supplies of any kind, always come to this store. We will make every effort to give you the best promptest and most courteous service.

COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY COMPANY

111 TWELFTH STREET

PHONE 328

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 2)

D. W. Smith and Cpl. Cannon, are coaching this year's squad. We feel sure that many of the candidates for the track team will find permanent berths on the team.

Among those who have recently returned from furlough are Corp. Willard (Frog) Onellion and Private Booker. Corp. Onellion spent most of his time in the vicinity of Baton Rouge, while Private Booker was at his home in Evergreen, Ala-

Private McBroom and Davis, G. W., were discharged last week and have returned to their respective

COMPANY "F"

The Company has finally followed the example set by the majority of the other companies of the regiment, by being quarantined for

How about Roy (Ace) Whatley? As usual he put all his opponents out of the way in short order. We didn't see the fights because of the quarantine, but we heard all about them. Ace has gone to Mobile for the Southeastern Amateur Championshipship finals. Whatley will be remembered as the boy who held the S. E. A. A. Middleweight Championship title for the past two years and we believe he has an excellent chance for the National Amateur Tournament to be held in

Pfc. Wheeler and Pvt. Edwin Walker were discharged during the past week. Wheeler by the E. T. S.

BATTERY "A"

Battery "A" was quarantined with measles which will cause all the battery shieks to stay away from town for some time. Our new Battling Bozo-Pvt. Scottlost his last battle to Pvt. Fraser Scott declares the fight would have been much better if Fraser wouldn't have slipped around the mosquito bar to hit him. Pvt. Cameron is now in training for another bout with Scott. It is believed Cameron will put up a better battle this time.

The battalion basketball team seems to be in better shape as they are showing more speed and seem to be hitting the bull's eye with the ball.

BATTERY "C"

The shack men are somewhat concerned over some information the week end. that they might soon sleep quarters.

Our Scout Corporal No. 2 was route and Walker by purchase.

Pvt. Ed N. Davis, a former memher of this organization, has reenlisted in the 29th Infantry with assignment to this Company. Welcome back to the fold, brother Da-We knew you couldn't stay away; they never do.

-Turner and Bennett.

ENGINEERS

COMPANY "A"

Power is the fourth of our recruits to hit the up-grade. He is now the sole owner of a sixth class rating. Power has just quituated the Mechanics School and is now an expert truck driver.

Mason's wardrobe has gone to that far bourne from which no wardrobe returneth due to the pastime called blackjack. Said ward robe consisted of fifty four pieces; 52 cards and one pair of socks.

The Company is going on a onenight maneuvers Thursday. Well, that beats this quarantine.

The second platoon, of which St. Sgt. Slater is in charge, consists of three squads and one white rat. The company went on a picnic Saturday and everyone had a grand captured by an enemy patrol, while marking a gun position. from such patrols.

Sgt. Jack Johnson can no longer stay away from Haleyville, so he is planning to go up there over

We miss a lot of jokes since Sgt. Miller has gone to the hospital. So we wish him a quick recovery and return to the bat-

Pop Brantley claims he is the best pistol shot in these parts. op says that if a man turns two birds loose and they both fly in different directions he can, with two pistols, calibre .45, shoot the head off one and kill the other. soon. Believe it or not!

Glee Club From U. Of Georgia Plays At Main Theatre

The University of Georgia Glee Club will present a variety musical and dance program at the Main Theatre at Fort Benning on the evening of April 5. Hugh Hobson, well-known composer and pianist, will direct the Glee Club. The program will be featured by special dance numbers by co-eds, and dramatic sketches and songs by the collegiate melody makers.

"Trial by Jury," a humorous bit of drama, will be one of the highilghts of the evening's entertainment. There will also be a special dance number by a co-ed of the and glorious time? Anyway, we had one square meal, since you guess when!

McSween's brother and cousins were guests of the company over the week-end. Glad to have you, fellows. Come again!

Snuck-up is still wondering how much a man's clothes cost all told. Wonder if he is thinking of buying a new suit.

Watts and Mason are spending their afternoons at the matinee performances at the theater working.

Sgt. Goudeau has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for treatment. We hope to have him back with us

—Elfred Lassiter.

Physical Education Department of the University, and a ballet by others of the versatile troupe. The musical program for the evening contains a pleasing variety of vocal and instrumental music by the Glee Club and the famous Bull Dog orchestra.

The collegiate orchestra will play a dance at the Polo-Hunt Club, later on in the evening.

Tickets for the show and the dance will be on sale next week.

Change . . .

Changing conditions necessitate changing viewpoints. The service of this firm is available to accredited individuals who wish to adjust their investment plans to present conditions.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272

Columbus, Ga.

MEMPERS NEW YORK STOCK RYCHANGE

HIS most modern way of moistening tobacco for stemmingfirst used in the manufacture of Chesterfields—opens up the pores and puts the tobacco in condition to remove the stems.

This picture shows the machines used to remove the stems from Chesterfield tobaccos.

The tobacco is put into the wire baskets stems down and enters the long steel ovens where the steam comes up from below, softening the stems without wetting the rest of

The stems are removed by stemming machines of the latest type.

Everything that modern science knows about, or money can buy, that can make a milder cigarette, a cigarette that tastes better, is used in making Chesterfield.

the cigarette that's MILDER • the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

St. Patrick's Dance At Officers' Club Is Prominent Event Of Current Week

the week at the Officers' Club will cream which will be of green moldbe the St. Patrick's dinner dance which will be held Friday evening. For this occasion the club will be served at eight followed by appropriately decorated in Irish dancing until midnight. Reserving colors of green, gold and white. tables were Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Green flags with the shamrock J. Cross, Lieut. and Mrs. William emblem will decorate the walls and C. Lucas, Miss Margaret Hall, Miss tables. The St. Patrick's motif Lillian Ryan and Lieut and Mrs. will be carried out throughout the William H. Bache.

Of outstanding social interest for dinner from the entree to the ice ed with the shamrock. Dinner will

Colonel And Mrs. E. G. Peyton Hosts At Dinner Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Burnett

Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Gordon Burnett of Atlanta. Peyton were the hosts Friday evening when they entertained at a dinner at their attractive quarters on Eames avenue complimenting their house guests Mr. and Mrs.

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

Double Your Money

Buy at Silvers'-where you have the benefits of a large stock, easily accessible merchandise and most economical prices. Everything you want is here, and you are invited to come in at any time for your everday needs.

$\underset{5-10-25 \text{ and } $1.00}{\text{STORE}} \text{S}$

Corner Broad & 11th St.

color scheme was green and yellow the table being laid with a lovely lace cloth over green silk. In the center of the table was a silver bowl of yellow gladioli shaded to orange. Flanking the bouquet were silver candlesticks bearing green tapers. The guest list incuded: Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. McDowell of Goshen, N. Y., and Lieut. and Mrs. Henry C

EZART HONORED AT MISS TEA

Miss Frances Ezart of Atlanta the attractive house guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Jesse T. Traywick was the honor guest Friday afternoon at a bridge tea given by her hostess. The guests arrived at two o'clock for bridge and played until half past four when a delicious salad course was served. Invited to meet Miss Ezart were: Mesdames William B. Yancey, Roy J. Herte, Howard R. Robinson, Clyde D. Eddleman, James E. Purcell, John A. Stewart, Robert R. Martin and Albert N. Hickey.

MRS. JOSEPH E. BROWN HON-OR GUEST AT BRIDGE LUN-CHEON

Mrs. Joseph E. Brown was the honor guest Wednesday when her hostess Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly, entertained with a bridge luncheon. The luncheon table was laid with an antique lace cloth in the center of which was a silver bowl of yellow jonquils and lilac sweet peas. The guest list included; Mesdames Brown, Joseph A. Atkins, Charles W. Morse, Thomas J. Leary, Henry J. Matchett, Wilbur E. Elliott, Guy C. McKinley, Lynn E. Brady, George P. Howell, Calvin Des Portes and Miss Katherine Lemly. Among the other affairs for this popular visitor on the Post was a bridge luncheon Tuesday given by Mrs. Calvin Des Portes and Wednesday evening Capt. and Mrs. Elliot entertained at dinner.

BRIDGE TOURNEY AT OFFI-CERS' CLUB 1ST OF SERIES TO DETERMINE CHAMPION PLAYERS OF POST

Of decided interest to all bridge lovers of Fort Benning was the Daughters Of The United States Army Hold Highly Successful Fashion Show

ion Show at Biglerville on Saturday afternoon? If not, you missed Boulevard Nurseries. a very artistic revue of Spring fashions shown in a most interesting manner by members of the chairman of the committee to make Fort Benning Chapter and their arrangements with the Columbus children.

The stage, designed by Lieut. Aloyisuis E. O'Flaherty, was a pavilion of black and white with a runway outlined with ferns extending into the center of the hall and ending in a circle which facilitated a graceful showing or the styles from all angles. The guests were seated at jonquil decorated tables around the runway.

The program, arranged by Mrs. Herbert A. Wadsworth, commenced with a group of school children showing dresses from the Children's bazaar at Alsobrook's. In compliment to her mother, who is the president of the Chapter, little Helen Huling was asked to lead the group; with her were Joan Arnold, Jean Hearn, Beverly and Josephine Nichols and Jo Anne Selleck leading the Matchetts' fluffy, white and black puppy caught and bathed the eleventh hour but lookquite unperturbed for a dog at a fashion show.

Mrs. Malcolm Lindsey and Mrs. Theodore Dunn were selected to model Summer riding habits for the Associated Military Stores. The riding clothes failing to arrive, in time for the show, Fort Benning's leading equestriennes were equal to, the occasion; Mrs. Dunn fitted herself from stock on the store's shelf and Mrs. Lindsey was her own sweet self, very much at home in her own white riding clothes.

A bathing beach tableau with costumes from Chancellor's and one with lingerie from the Lady Jane Shop were effectively staged by Mrs. Henry B. Lewis to add a novel feature to the program. Individual styles were from Kayser Lillienthal, Kirven's, Alsobrook's, and the P.-T. A. Craft Shop, with shoes from Miller-Taylor and hose from the Archer Mills. An unusually well received number was the lovely dance presented by Mrs. Albert H. Dickerson in a floating red chiffon evening dress.

For a picturesque finale a wedding procession stepped down the runway to the strains of the Wedding March, Miss Betty Williams, the bride, followed by three attendants and little Mary Jane Grif-fing as flower girl. This group tournament that was held Monday evening at the Officers' Club. This affair was in the nature of an elimination tourney to determine the champion players of Fort Benning. The Mitchell system was used. Seventy-six players assembled at eight o'clock. Of these, sixteen couples were chosen from the evening's play, these were: Major and Mrs. Paul W. Baade, Mrs. Thomas J. Leary and Mrs. Thomas R. Arms, Lieut. and Mrs. Lincoln Jones, Mrs. Charles W. Colson and Lieut. August E. Schanze, Lieut. and Mrs. Montgomery McKee Lieut. and Mrs. Dwight A. Rose baum, Lieut. and Mrs. Russell G Emery, Mrs. Arthur H. Luse and Mrs. Geoffrey Marshall, Major Thomas S. Arms and Captain Arthur E. Burnap, Capt. and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, Lieut, and Mrs. Cyril E. Williams, Lieut. and Mrs. Francis H. Lanham, Capt. and Mrs. Fay Ross, Colonel and Mrs. Charles W. Morse, Capt. and Mrs. Don C. Faith and Capt. and Mrs. Harold W. Gould.

On Monday evening there will be the tournament to determine (Please turn to page 5)

Did you see the D. U. S. A. Fash- was gowned by Kirven's and the bouquets donated by the Benning > Mrs. Archibald V. Arnold was chairman of the committee to make firms; Mrs. Thomas G. Hearn, the refreshment committee; Mrs. Leroy W. Nichols, table decorations; Mrs. Oscar W. Griswold, table reservations and Mrs. Claude B. Ferenbaugh, publicity.

Thanks are due to the Girl husbands who aided in several capacities and to all the friends who lent their support.

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

Let your hat express your individuality!

Buy it at

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

At Alsobrooks'

Spring hats priced from $2.95 to $12.50

Ft. Benning Charge Accounts Solicited

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER ..$ 550,000.00 ..$3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Special

BEDROOM SUITE

THREE PIECES

FOUR-POSTER BED, WOODEN CON-STRUCTION.

VANITY — BUILT WITH TRIPLE VE-NETIAN MIRRORS.

ROOMY FOUR DRAWER CHEST OF DRAWERS.

$5950

Small down payment $1.00 per week

LIVING ROOM SUITE

A BEAUTIFUL SUITE TO FIT ANY HOME — AT A VERY REASONABLE PRICE.

CUNNINGHAM FURNITURE COMPANY

1014 BROADWAY

PHONE 460

40 REASONS

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every diffi-

We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burnett of lanta, Ga., spent last weekend the house guests of Colonel and s. Ephraim G. Peyton.

Mrs. James R. Pierce returned Fort Benning on Thursday from ort Leavenworth where she was guest of friends.

Miss Harriotte Atkins returned Fort Benning on Thursday. She ent several weeks visiting ort Leavenworth and in Chicago

USE TESTED SEEDS

ly guaranteeing yourself a beautiful garden, but you can greatly increase your chances by using tested and certified seed. We sell only the best of garden seed . every kind you may require.

BRADFORD and

MEADOWS 1240 BROADWAY

OFFICER'S

and

ENLISTED MEN'S

Regulation

GARRISON CAPS

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most dis-criminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your Look guarantee of quality.

At your dealer or post exchange

Ask for Meyer or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons.

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

NEW YORK

Always ask for the best— KINNETT'S

When you ask for Kinnett's Ice Cream, you're getting just what you vant—and more too.

old at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club

Garden Section Of Club Meets Monday

The Garden Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club will meet at the quarters of Mrs. Thomas G. Hearns on Monday March 19th at 2:30.

There will be a tour of the Post greenhouse. Mrs. Laurence Mur-ry, president of the Marguerite Garden Club, of Columbus will speak on "Annuals" and Major Elbert J. Lyman will speak on "Dahlias."

Literary Section Reviews Books On Current Events

At the meeting of the Literary Section of the Fort Benning Woman's Club Miss Carroll Stevens opened a discussion of the events of the world today which introduced the program. Mrs. Elbert J. Lyman reviewed the "Intelligents Man's Review of Europe Today", which was written by C. D. H. Cole, an Englishman who has studied the situation and made a most interesting survey of the background needed to understand the many facets of the European problem.

Mrs. Charles W. Weeks discussed the "Far Eastern Front," by Edgar Snow. This book which is the only report that has come out on the recent trouble between China and Japan was especially interesting as many people have heard first hand reports from army officers stationed there at the time. In discussing the Russian problems Mrs. Weeks reviewed "A History of Russia," by Mirsky and "Russia and by Loba nov-Rostovsky Particular emphasis was put on the importance of the Trans-Siberian railroad and the importance of air defenses for Japan in case of war with Russia.

Mrs. Charles T. Lanham discussed the American problems at nome with her emphasis on "The American Way," by Looker. This book tells many incidents in the development of the President's policy that have not come out in the press, and is important as it clarifies some of his major points. In sur-where she was the house guest of Miss Mollie Brown formerly of Fort Benning.

Friends of Captain Lloyd Barnett will be glad to know that he has returned home from the Station Hospital where he was a pa-

Lieut. and Mrs. William S. Triplett have as their house guest the latter's aunt, Mrs. Oliver Allen of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. William C. Lucas returned Monday from Columbia, S. C. where she was the house guest of her parents Captain and Mrs. Dan

Miss Frances Ezart of Atlanta, Ga., is the house guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Jesse G. Traywick.

Lieut. and Mrs. Henry C. Britt have as their guests the latter's mother and father Mr. and Mrs. McDowell of Goshen, New York.

Mrs. Gustin M. Nelson with her house guest, Miss Charlotte Ball, left Wednesday by motor for St. Augustine and Daytona Beach where they expect to spend about a week.

Mrs. Robert C. Williams of Fort Humphreys, Virginia is the house guest of Capt. and Mrs. Walter O'Brien.

Among those motoring to Thomasville for the polo games and the horse show from Fort Benning this week are: Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, Major and Mrs. Neil C. Johnson, Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly and house guest, Mrs. Joseph E. Brown, Mrs. Clyde D. Eddleman, Mrs. Charles N. Howze, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph I. Greene, Mrs. Walter P. O'Brien, Mrs. Robert C. Williams, Miss Katherine Lemly and Lieut. Arthur L. Cobb.

veying the recent events in Germany Mrs. Lanham reviewed "Hitler's Reich," by Hoover. The inter esting story of how he secured his financial backing for his coup d'etat from munitions manufacturers was told. The most authoritative story of Russia that has come out in recent years "Duranty Reports Russia," by Walter Duranty, the New York Times reporter for Russia was reviewed with its interesting stories of how the Russians have modified their plan and are finally working out a national policy that is more acceptable to other

Mrs. Jesse Stewart Entertains Friends

Mrs. Jesse Stewart of Fort Benning entertained a number of her friends Wednesday afternoon with a shower for Mrs. W. E. Grimes. The shower was held from two until four o'clock in the afternoon at Mrs. Stewart's quarters on First Division Road. Many useful gifts were received by the hon-

At the conclusion of the shower and the opening of the gifts, a salad course was served. The guests were Mrs. Hugh Foster, Mrs. F. B. Harris, Miss Marie Harris, Miss Laura Greene, Miss Genevieve Wilcox, Mrs. C. M. Schnitker, Mrs. R. E. Daugherty, Mrs. R. V. Wall, Mrs. F. B. McCarthy, Mrs. E. C. Davis, Mrs. I. L. Simpson, Mrs. A. E. Tooze, Mrs. M. C. Wolfe, Mrs. Chester Gray, Mrs. C. H. Banks, Mrs. H. M. Allen, Mrs. Zera L. Bauman, Mrs. W. J. Stewart, Mrs. John Magoni, Mrs. P. J. Mc-Nulty, Mrs. Ida Bush, Mrs. W. M. Brandt, Mrs. Gene Foster, Mrs. J. S. Fuller, and Mrs. Clarence Stout from Hamilton.

Officers' Club To Handle Sale Of Bus Tickets

A new convenience offered to the officers and their families and the men of Fort Benning will be the sale here of bus tickets for any point in the country. The arrangements have been made with the Old South Lines, Inc. and will greatly assist the personnel of this post in getting their tickets easily. They may be purchased at the office of the Club, from Mr. Blackmon.

According to information given by the Club, officers may place the amount of their ticket on their Club bill, payable when that bill is paid. They may also purchase tickets for relatives anywhere in the country and place the amount on their bill. This will be a very convenient method of handling the sale of tickets and will serve to assist those who have not ready cash on hand at all times.

The Old South Lines, in addition, has issued the statement that, in the near future, it expects to place more completely equipped buses on the route leading to Benning and increase terminal facilities at Columbus. All connections with the buses will have to be made, as usual in Columbus.

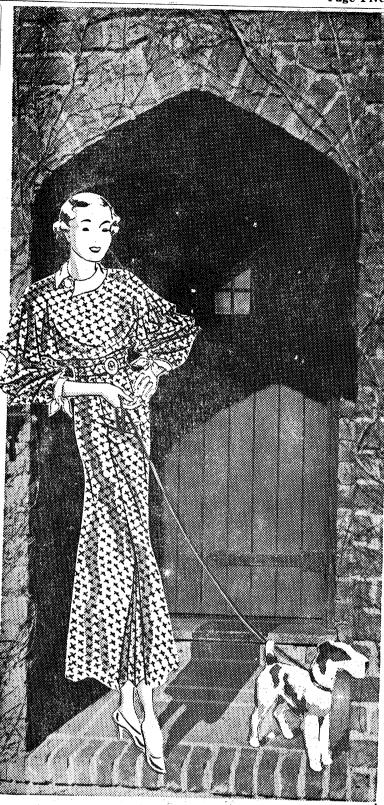

> SOCIETY (Continued from page 4)

the winning couple from the above sixteen pairs. Monday's play will be under the Howell system. The Officers' Club will award a suitable trophy.

SUBSCRIBE

To The BENNING HERALD

$1.50 PER YEAR

Easter

Dresses

fashions for the smart Fort Benning women in the Easter Fashion Parade

THE BENNING HERALD Columbus, Georgia

Published Every Friday

NO. 47 MARCH 16, 1934

VOLUME III Society Editor Felicia C. Howell.... Sports Editor Jack Gibney ...

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

Officers Assigned To Post

(Continued from Page 1) mand and General Staff School School.

Major John T. Murray Major Murray, while a captain in 1926, was relieved from an assignment at the University of Oregon, and assigned to the 24th Infantry, Fort Benning, which regiment he joined on October 11 of the same year. On March 1, 1927, he was detailed in the Air Corps and reported to Brooks Field, Texas, for primary training in that branch. Then Captain Murray was relieved from this detail and assigned to the 9th Infantry, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, serving at that station until his appointment as a student in the 1929-1930 Advanced Officers' Course of the Infantry School. After he had been awarded a diploma of the Infantry School, Major Murray was ordered to the 7th Infantry, Vancouver Barracks, Washington, but before this order could be placed in effect, he was directed by the secretary of war to report to Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland to pursue the special course given at the Chemical Warfare School for Field

Major Murray was appointed as a cadet at the United States Military Academy in 1913, from the state of Mississippi, and graduated to the rank of 2d lieutenant of infantry on April 20, 1917. He was promoted to 1st lieutenant in the same branch on May 15, 1917, and on August 5 of the same year, advanced to the temporary rank of captain. His commission as captain in the regular army came on June 6, 1919, and his majority went into effect during 1932.

Since his graduation from West Point in 1917, this officer has completed courses at the Infantry School Advanced Officers' Class, and Chemical Warfare Field Officers' Class.

Capt. Chas. M. Ankcorn

In 1923, Captain Ankcorn was relieved from duty with the 13th Infantry, Fort Warren, Massachusetts, and ordered here as a student in the Company Officers' Class of that year. Upon completion of this detail he was ordered to Camp Dix, New Jersey for duty with the 50th Infantry In 1929 he again returned to Fort Benning, this time for duty with the advanced Officers' Class of 1929-1930. He came here from the State College of Washington, Pullman, Washington. He was then sent to the 10th Infantry, Fort Hayes, Ohio.

Captain Ankcorn began his military career as a 2d lieutenant of the Officers' Reserve Corps, being accepted for duty in the regular army on October 26, 1917. On the same day he advanced to 1st lieutenant as a temporary rank, and promoted to the same rank in the regulars in 1918. His promotion to Captain was made in of the two classes of the Infantry

Capt. M. B. Bell

Captain Bell was sent here in 1924 for duty with the Company Officers' Course, which he completed in 1925. While here he was a member of the Infantry School Football Team and the La crosse Team of the same post, being well-known in both sports. From here he was ordered to the Hawaiian Department for service with the infantry, and sailed from New York City on August 11, 1925, to take up this assignment.

In October of 1933 he sent a request for assignment to the Infantry School as instructor to the Chief of Infantry, Washington, D. C., and this request was grant-

Captain Bell began in the army as an enlisted man and served for several years prior to the war in this capacity. In 1917 he was appointed a 2d lieutenant of infantry, advanced to 1st lieutenant on the same day, and promted to captain in 1920.

He is a graduate of the University of Missouri and holds the Bachelor of Science degree of that college. He is a graduate of the Infantry School Company Officers' Course at this station.

Capt. Frank E. Brokaw

1926 saw lieutenant Brokaw's first tour of duty at this station then as a member of the 1925-26 Company Officers' Class. He was on duty in the Hawaiian Department at the time of receipt of these orders. While here Captain Brokaw was known as a baseball player of some worth, having played with the Infantry School's team of 1925 and 1926. He was relieved from this assignment the day he graduated from the School, and ordered to the 8th Infantry, Fort Moultrie, South Carolina.

Captain Brokaw started in the army in 1908 as an enlisted man in the 3rd Cavalry and Hospital Corps, and during the course of his duty with this organization rose to the rank of Sergeant. In 1917, he was commissioned a 1st lieuenant of cavalry and during the war rose to the rank of captain. His permanent commission came in 1920 in the form of a 1st lieutenantcy. He was promoted to cap ain on July of the same year, and ransferred to the Infantry branch n 1922.

Capt. Harold P. Gibson

Captain Harold P. Gibson, Inantry, was a member of the 1922-23 Company Officers' Class of the Infantry School at this station, with the detail to this institution being his first at Fort Benning. From here he went to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for duty with the 2nd Division.

In 1929 he returned again, this time for duty in the Advanced Officers Class of the same institution from which he graduated in orders to sail for Hawaii to take up an assignment in the Hawaiian

At the outbreak of the war Captain Gibson was a 2nd lieutenant of the Officers' Reserve Corps, being accepted for duty with the regulars on October 26, 1917. On February 1, 1918 he was commissioned as a 1st lieutenant and on July 1, 1920, advanced to the rank of captain. For his services during the war, this officer has been awarded The Silver Star Citation with the Oak Leaf Cluster, and for wounds received in action he is a holder of the Purple Heart Medal.

Capt. J. R. Hodge

Captain John R. Hodge, Infantry, was sent to Fort Benning for the first time in 1925, for duty in the Advanced Course of the Infantry School of 1925-26. Captain Hodge was duty at the Mississippi A. and M. College at the time of this detail.

After he had completed the prescribed course of instructions here he was sent to the Hawaiian Department for further duty.

When the United States entered the World War Captain Hodge was a 2nd lieutenant of O. R. C., and was accepted for service in the regular army October 26, 1917. He was promoted to 1st lieutenant in 1919 and captain in 1920. Besides holding a diploma from the Infantry School he is also a graduate of the Chemical Warfare School.

Capt. R. G. Lehman

Captain Raymond G. Lehman is a graduate of the Company Officers Class, Infantry School in 1922, and this course of instructions was his first tour of duty at Fort Benning, having come here from the 17th Infantry, Fort Slocum, New York.

At the close of this assignment he was ordered to Hawaii for a tour of foreign service, which is a part of the training of all army

Captain Lehman, before the war was a member of the O. R. C. and in 1917 was accepted for duty as a 2nd lieutenant in the regular army, during the course of the conflict he rose to 1st lieutenant and in 1920 was commissioned as captain of infantry.

Capt. Norman McNeill

Captain Norman McNeill, graduate of the United States Military Academy, class of 1917, was here in the first days of Fort Benning, having been a student in the Infantry School of Arms which was the forerunner of the present Infantry School.

In 1923 Captain McNeill, while serving with the Punahou School, University of Hawaii, was ordered again to the Infantry School, this time as a student in the Company Officers' Course for 1925-26. During his stay here he was a member of the Infantry School Baseball Team. After completing a course at the school of arms Captain McNeill was ordered to the 34th Infantry, Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Captain McNeill was appointed to West Point as a representative of the State of Georgia.

Major S. A. Gibson

Major Samuel A. Gibson, Infantry, will be relieved from duty at Colonel (temporarily) and follow-Jar College, which institution he is attending as a stulent, upon the completion of class, and will report to the Commandant, The Infantry School for duty with the Academic Department.

Major Gibson was here in 1922-23 as a member of the Advanced Class of the Infantry School. At the completion of his detail herè he was ordered to Hawaii for service with the Hawaiian Division. Before coming here he had served with the Intelligence Division of General Staff, Washington, D. C.

This officer is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, class of 1913, with his commission as 2nd lieutenant of infantry, dat-1923. In 1930 he completed his ing from that year. On July 1, Captan Ankcorn is a graduate course of instructions and received 1916, he was advanced to 1st lieu-

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from page 1) hotel who stepped into an open elevator chute, only to yell up from the basement floor to his partner above, "Look out for that first step, it's a heller."

Our column would be lacking in reportorial fairness this week were we to overlook a citation to Sub-Caliber Dan Norman who more than redeemed himself at a recent tank combat practise when he performed the rare feat of leading five position with all five. So far Dan's troop of horses prancing around.

record is still untied.

Major Arnold, the school's artillery expert, wound up an interesting terrain exercise last Tuesday afternoon with a thoughtful variation of the normal procedure of returning mounted when he injected a little cavalry drill in what might otherwise have been a dull and uninteresting ride home. A line formation at a walk, trot and gallop, reminiscent of the cavalry troop of yore, brought exhilaration to the souls of many and palpitation to slow tanks to the objective over the hearts of the rest. The fondest difficult ground and reaching the thing we're of is the sight of a

TWO GENERAL STAFF OFFICERS COMING (Continued from page 1)

(Continued from page 1) is available at Fort Benning as to Major Mueller's war-time service, begun by Major Mueller in 1927, it is known that he received a Silver Star citation for his work during that period.

In 1922 he entered the Army School of the Line, and finished in 1930, and he has served conthat course of instruction as a distinguished graduate the following then.

year. Study at another service school, the Army War College, was and completed with his graduation in 1928.

His present assignment to duty with the general staff corps began tinuously with that body since

MEDICOS

The Hospital Mess is indeed fortunate in having Runt and his loyal and qualified staff persistently and efficiently placing before us such 'tummy" delicacies of the sort that makes this the best feedin' outfit in the Army.

A bean-burning picaroon, in re ferring to recently discharged personnel questioned a chap's congenial legitimacy and sires. Add simile: "Folks who live in glass houses should undress in the cel-

The makings of a Regular. . . Major: "Oh, Sergeant!" Sgt.: "Yes, Sir."

Major: "I'm trying to locate a bit of correspondence pertaining to CCC worker."

Sgt.: "Yes, Sir." Major: "I've hunted H----l and High Water for it. The darn thing is holding up my monthly report. Find it, will you?"

Sgt.: "Yes, Sir."

(Sgt. checks entire CCC files, about 18 companies; all miscellaneous baskets (tactfully passing up waste type); compartments of all desks; all offices connected with CCC activities, etc. Sgt. perspires freely. Consumes about two hours No success. Reports fact.)

Major: "@*$% &!! It's around here somewheres. I only had it this morning. Well, keep looking." Sgt.: "Yes, Sir."

(Sgt. keeps looking. Time elaps ed since onset: 4 hours. Same lo cale but more perspiration.)

Major: "Oh, Sergeant!"

Sgt.: "Yes, Sir."

Major: "That communication has been located." Sgt.: "Yes, Sir." swiped pillow.

my desk."

tain coming in 1917. During the the place of Captain Royal G. Jenl war he was appointed a lieutenant declaration of peace, reverted to his peace time rank of captain. On July 1, 1920, he received his majority in the regular Major Gibson is a honorary graduate of the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and a member of the General Staff corps eligible list.

Lt. J. R. Manees

1st Lieutenant James R. Manees, was transferred from the Finance Department to the Infantry Branch on February 16, 1934, and is now under orders relieving him from duty at Fort Riley, Kansas and asigning him to the 29th Infantry, Fort Benning, Georgia.

Sgt.: "Y-a-a-s, SUH!!"

Finis de la Reo. Stand by for Belcher's Burpings, to wit:

The Medical Corps basketball team has a scrapping squad of boys who have the spirit of some high school fro ma country town. Judging from games won and lost the season has been a very unsuccessfu one but on the other hand look at the scores. The Pillrollers have lost by a very small score all the season. Take in consideration the time off the team has to practice and the number of men on the squad and judge for yourself, anybody can see they are to be given credi for their showing.

Take the two Williams boys, with a little more practice they will play ball with any other two players in the Post.

Heath, Hobson and Reeves, a tri of scrappy little forwards with on season under their belts will pla much better ball next season. Red Pyle a fiery guard who ca play ball when he wants to shoul be given plenty of thought thi next season because he is improve ing fast. (Don't rush the referee

Toots Cummings one of the bes guards in the post should be con sidered very much in the runnin for all Post Honors.

Look out for the Pillrollers ne season because they will be hard stop after playing together or Obie Johnson "the chronic grow er of the Medical Detachment" on call every time the first se geant wants a man for a detail.

"Sad" Smith can't sleep goo these nights because some one ha swiped the "brick" he uses for tenant, with a promotion to cap- in 1929, for the first time, to ta while the latter office was on lea of absence. Upon the return Captain Jenkins, his detail w ended and the officer returned his proper station at Headqua ters 4th Corps Area, Atlan Georgia.

-T. H. Belcher.

This officer is a graduate of t United States Military Acaden class of 1918, and was commission ed 2nd lieutenant of infantry that year. On the 1st of July, 19 he was advanced to 1st lieutena and in 1928 transferred to the nance Department. During the v he served as a 2nd lieutenant in National Army, which rank he cated in 1920, to accept a comm sion as 1st lieutenant in the r ular army.

Lieutenant Manees is a gradu Lieutenant Manees was sent here of the Tank School, class of 19

Built to Specifications

Today, more than ever, Life Insurance Policies must fit . . . Fit the need, the pocketbook too!

With most people today, the need for permanent protection looms even greater than before; but with many, the means to purchase are temporarily inadequate.

This double adjustment—fitting future needs to present circumstances, and present needs to future circumstances—is now handled simply, economically, and conveniently in a new policy.

Extremely low initial premiums for 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5 years fit the "readjustment" or "recovery" program of the individual. At the end of the term chosen, the policy converts AUTOMATICALLY to Ordinary Life, Endowment, or other plans of insurance, so that possession of the full benefits provided by this form of protection is delayed no longer than present circumstances compel—with full protection meantime.

Fitting the immediate means with lower initial premiums; fitting the ultimate need with permanent protection, to be acquired as early as improved future circumstances permit; doing this automatically and without further attention from the insured—that is the function of our automatic 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5-year "AUTOMATICS"—the UTMOST IN PRESENT ECONOMY, FUTURE CONVENIENCE, AND ALL-TIME PROTECTION.

Monthly Premiums To Army Officers Per $1,000.00

Age 25, 93c—Age 30, 98c—Age 35, $1.05—Age 40, $1.16—Age 45, $1.40—Age 50, $1.88—Age 55, $2.72. (Minimum Policy $2,000.00).

DIVIDENDS CREDITED AT THE END OF THE FIRST POLICY YEAR WHEN PREMIUM THEN DUE IS RECEIVED AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER. The Guardian is a mutual company, all the profits not needed in the conduct of its business being paid ANNUALLY to its policyholders. Future dividends depend upon future earnings of the company. THE GUARDIAN PAID ITS FIRST DIVIDEND TO POLICYHOLDERS IN 1868 AND HAS CONTINUED DIVIDENDS UNINTERRUPTEDLY EVER SINCE.

THE GUARDIAN was established in New York in 1860, ranking among the nation's leading life insurance companies in financial strength, conservative practices and progressive record. Assets on Dec. 31, 1933, were $98,264,899.00. THE 1934 DIVIDEND SCALE PROVIDES FOR 5% INTEREST TO POLICYHOLDERS ON DIVIDENDS LEFT TO ACCUMULATE AND 5% TO BENEFICIARIES ON PROCEEDS OF POLICIES LEFT WITH THE COMPANY.

Address for full details,

DUDLEY SPAIN. MANAGER

The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America

SUITE 504-506-508-510 SWIFT-KYLE BLDG., TELEPHONE 379

COLUMBUS, GEORGIA

Especial Attention to Army Business—A Branch Office in Columbus For Your Service

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Benning Team May Enter National Event

Captain Fry Is Now Trying To Arrange For Team's Entry

Fort Benning showing in the Southeastern boxing tourney which was held at the post March 1, 2, 3, gratifying as it was in its results to post personnel, may result in still further and better results, if the plans now under in the Athletic Office come to a head.

Captain Phillip T. Fry, post athletic officer, yesterday announced that the I. S. A. A. planned to send at least five of the more outstanding of Benning's seven Southeastern champions to compete in the National Amateur tourney which is scheduled to take place in St. Louis, Mo., along about April, and if possible he intends to send the entire squad that won the Southeastern team title, along to gather further laurels for the Infantry

Just what the selection of the five men will be is another matter, as all the fans have their favorites in one weight or another. It is most likely however, that the men who will represent Benning will be McShea, flyweight, and former national contender; Charlie Floyd, featherweight champion of the Southeast; Roy Ace Whatley, Southeastern middleweight king, and Olympic quarterfinalist, possibly Phil Carpenter, former welter, middle, and heavy champ; and Marvin Penland, 1933 Southeastern heavy champion.

These are the men on the squad who would make the best showing, based on their records over a stretch of time and a number of fights, and they should bring no discredit on the post by their ef-

> SUBSCRIBE To The BENNING HERALD

$1.50 PER YEAR

When in Atlanta make the Henry Grady Hotel your home. 550 fireproof rooms, each with bath, ceiling fan, circulating ice water and

Our food is the best, both in the Terrace Dining Room, overlooking Peachnd in the Coffee Shop. The prices are most reasonable.

Room rates are in keeping with the times.

We will be glad to have you, and will make you feel at home while in the city.

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

ATLANTA, GA.

Robins are twittering, sap is running, colds in the nose are frequent, and the veterans of the post on cinder track and diamond are beginning to limber up the old soup-bone, and rub down the winter's crop of Charley horses. Or in sensible language, the time has come when the thoughts of all the sundry turn more and more to the a post team. realm of outdoor sport.

King basketball has almost ended his reign. The post league seems in a way to end up with the Blue Thunderbolt of the 2d Battalion, undisputed champions of the Infantry School, with no playoff for the title, and what will the sport fans do then, poor things. It might not be a bad idea, if the Athletic Association could be persuaded to stage another of those 2d Battalion-Vaganbond series that proved so popular when the same situation existed at the end of the Baseball this year, which is the entered.

most important summer sport at Benning, is scheduled to really get under way about the first of June when the post league will swing into action. Various leagues will take place prior to that date, and no definite information has been made public as to the possibility of

There will most likely be five teams entered in the post track meet which is scheduled for the end of May. The 2d Battalion, always strong competitors for the post which title which has been held since time immemorial by the Terrible Tanks, will come out stronger than ever this season, with all of the old veterans still on the squad, and one or two newcomers and dark horses, especially in the long distance events, that are expected to show post personnel a thing or two about time. The 1st Battalion, baseball season last year. The 2d 83rd Headquarters Battalion, and Batts against the rest of the post. Tanks complete the list of teams the second half of the post intra-F, and Bridges tied for high with mural basketball season, the hand- 12 each in a 50-16 score. writing on the wall is becoming quite plain and visible to all concerned.

SECOND BATTS LEAD BASKET LEAGUE

race has turned into a series of White, of the Gunners was high surprises for all concerned, with with 16, and Cummings, Pill Roll-under-dog teams rising in their ers, and Pyle of the same quintet, way-side in the home stretch, What the remaining five days of play will bring forth is a question hard at the half; retaining it at the who made such a wonderful showing in the first half, and only dropped the lead of that section Pirates was high with 13 points. to the 2d Batt Kelly's after a hard with the well-known and stylish standing for the Pill Rollers. measles, which are quite the thing at this season. The absence of the back-bone of the team, which and good as two men may be, they leaders, have dropped two games, on the top of the perch is the fight with 11 each. being made by the Green Wave from first Battalion, who will un- when the hospitalized Pirates doubtedly finish in a tie with the fought valiantly to win over the Kellys for the second half, but are 83rd sharpshooters, but went unslated to lose in the play-off according to the dope sheet.

13 points each. The second game points and take a one point vicbetween the 2d Batts and Special tory in the last few minutes 31-30.

With five more days to go on Units ended as expected, with Lee,

Friday night the 83rd Gunners came through in the last quarter to down the fighting Medicos 43-31, The second half of the post title after trailing all through the game. wrath to smite the league leaders, both played nice games. The secand league leaders dropping by the ond game, between the Pirates and third quarter, and stepping out in Headquarters Pirates, the boys the last period to win by a 33-25 score, after the loss of Bigler by

Saturday night the Kellys played postponed game against the and bitter fight, have already lost a postponed game against the three games in this bracket, and Medicos, winning easily 45-25 with stand to lose more, with Bigler, Bridges' 12 points leading the Coen, and Burgess off the squad scoring. Cummings was again out-

The 2d Batts went into action against the Tankers Monday night downing them 44-40 in a fairly was formed by these three, leaves the burden of the work on the shoulders of Green and Bryant, ing by one basket at the half, but came back strong enough for a win in the last period, Bridges again are three short of a basketball being high with 13. The second game of the evening between Spe-The Blue Thunderbolt, first half cial Units and the Medicos was won in the first half, when the although managing to stay in the Pill Rollers took a 22-10 lead, and lead, and bid fair to come through although the Greencords outplayed for the second half title and un- their opponents in the second disputed championship of the In- frame, they went down 35-30. fantry School. The only opposition Cummings, Medicos, and Daniels, that they have offered them so far Greencords, were tied point honors

Tuesday night was a der 49-31. Greeson and Burgess, who was sick on his feet, played Since last week there have been above themselves, but the loss of eight contests played in the post Bigler and Coen was severely felt, loop. Last Thursday night, the and the marksmanship at long Pirates took the Tankers into range of McGee and White, comcamp after a hard fight in the pleted the downfall. White was first half, with Bigler, Greeson and high with 15, while McGee and Coen the big shots for the Head- Greeson tied with 14 each. The quarters five. Turner of the league leading Irish had a bad ses-Tanks, did his bit in the second sion in the second contest, when half but could not stave off defeat. the Thunderbolt, easing along in The final score was 35-23, with the first half, came through strong Greeson Turner tied for high with in the last quarter to run up 16

Thomasville To See and a large crowd of spectators is expected, since the game has prov-Of Series Sunday

Benning's poloists have played two of their three scheduled games at the Thomasville, Ga., horse-show, with the "Reds" defeating he Whites 6-2 last Sunday before a crowd of approximately 1,500, in a game featured by the playing of Lieutenant Heriot of the 83rd.

Lieutenant Sweeney starred in Wednesday's contest, when the Whites, who had developed a slight sun tan in the meanwhile, and played as the Yellows, scored a 4-2 win over the Reds. Sweeney was responsible for a brace of the goals scored by the Yellows.

The third game of the series is to take place Sunday afternoon,

It was a close game, and an exciting one, and the result dumped the Irish from the throne, and shoved the Kellys to the top of the heap. Jordan, with 14 points, was high man.

1st Bn.10 .500 .212 Tanks Medicos 9

Third Polo Game ed to be exceedingly popular at Thomasville.

For ...

PLACARDS FOLDERS CARDS

Etc.

Columbus Office Supply Co.

111 12th Street

PHONE 328

Strike!

AND YOU KNOW THE THRILL OF A LIFETIME!

There's nothing quite so full of real 'kick" as the first mad plunge of a hooked game fish—nothing that is so unforgettable.

Get ready for your fishing season now by getting the best of tackle. We sell the finest and most reputable of sporting goods of all kinds. Phone 608.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

IEADQUARTERS COMPANY

Rev. J. S. Evans, Pastor of Gaines Chapel, A. M. E., Church, invited the Joy Makers Club to attend a program which will be held at Gaines Chapel, Sunday Afternoon, 3 o'clock at Girard, Alabama. . The President, Elbert Gaston, requests all officers, members and friends to attend the program. . . The 24th Infantry Glee Club came over fine on the Company's new radio. . . The reception was so clear that individual voices could be distinguished without effort. . . Many letters and cards are being received at Regimental Headquarters praising the concert and asking for another in the near future. . . Lieutenant Martin and his singers have done much toward favorable publicity for the regiment. . . The trip to Atlanta was enjoyed by the men and they are looking forward to one to a very important city. ... Let's hope they get it... Sergeant Major Dewitt threw a large amount of dust on one Ford V+8 driven by Sergeant Wysinger, thereby showing us that some of reporter is quite sensitive. Now be those wonderful advertisments careful Liberty if you want to were all wrong.

SERVICE COMPANY

Maybe Danny will be a little more cautious te next time he picks a bronc for a joy ride. Here's sympathy Corporal, a broken leg is no joke especially when it separates a guy from the last heart beat.

If anyone needs the services of a cracker jack mouthpiece phone, write or telegraph A. W. Jennings, the law student, after July 15, 1937. Yes sir, the parson has taken up law, and believe mother he's going into it in a big way-portfolio, specs 'neverything.

First Sergeant Reeves couldn't get that Glee Club genetta distributed fast enough Monday noon, and from all indications the recipients are rarin' to go again.

No word has been received from the boys in Thomasville with the Horse Show-but if dreams come true there's no telling whether Tally is absent, confinement, awol or What excuse can a guy offer when he goes to see a gangland picture, after 7 years of insistence that he doesn't like anything but westerns? Lest we forget-it's spring, and papa Shakespeare's deductions apply to Bill as much so as anyone else.

-G. E. Burton.

BAND

Mr. 1st Class Private Laurin Decuir, maestro extraordinary has joined the pencil and manuscript gang of the Band. He is composing and arranging a fox trot and can be seen only by appointment. Chism is also writing a song, "I'm A Worried Man", and will dedicate it to himself.

On Wednesday the 14th instant both orchestras will play at the gymnasium from four until eight o'clock. A large crowd is expected quite popular and dancing will be continuous with Pirates playing for two hours when they will be relieved by the Hearts who will play for the next two hours. Thursday will be a holiday for the orchestras and an orchestra party is planned, with both orchestras attending.

Pfc. Fendall Williams has been issued a bass violin for orchestra work and expects to be the best in the country in a week or two Keep up the good work, Mr. Colmonths or several years or probably not at all.

Pfc. Monroe Lee has cornered the newspaper market and tho he Wood and Kid Shadow were seen has no leased wire from the associated press he has associated tele- lumbus, Ga. Entertaining their phone lines. For any information week-end guest. The Professor

Mr. Lee. If it has been printed in any paper he will have it. If it has been broacast he will know it.

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

COMPANY "A"

Old '98 retires on March 31, 1933. Is he happy? Just watch that broad smile he wears each day. But what we can't understand is why the old boy wants to open a first-class Pig-Ankle joint in a small town like Columbus and worse still, he wants to know if the men of Co. "A" will give him their support, knowing too that his special "Bill of Fare' for the past ten years was: Pig feet for dinner; Pig snouts for supper and believe it or not, he even had pig tails for breakfast. What a nerve you have, Sarge!

Corporal Jackson rejoined from furlough on the 9th inst., and believe it or not, every one seems to be so very happy since Father Jackson returned, especially the Blimp. We truly hope the Corporal enjoyed himself in Omaha. (not Nebraska) but Georgia.

Pvt. Liberty Johnson was, on March 3, 1934, aptd Pvt. 1cl. On March 4, 1934 Liberty was unjustly accused of being Chief Big Snitch of the Company by no other than our own Wise man. Just what the poor boy will be accused of next is unknown to this reporter but this careful Liberty if you want to make Corporal when Lightning Mikell retires.

Pvt. General-Worthless Tony Tate was AWOL from his Company and duties Thursday past; knowing that he would probably get tried by C. M., when he returned, retained the services of a defense council, who was no other than Liberty Johnson. When asked by the 1st Sergeant just where he had been stated: "Now Sarge, my lawyer told me not to talk and \boldsymbol{I} refuse to talk, but you know durn well, Sarge, that if I wasn't here I must have been there. In other words, Sarge, just see my lawyer.'

After having been kicked out of his shack for more than two months, Pvt. Deep-Stuff Rogers is again wearing a broad smile. Don't trouble vourself to tell us about Rogers Old Pal; we know she took you back. But why take so many hams to the shack at one time?

Pvt. 1cl. Roosevelt Johnson, better known as the Vagabond Lover, can be seen very much in the company of the sheik here of late. Now be careful Vag. You had better take Tony Tate's advice and stay out of those apartment houses.

We notice that the Sheik is still going strong in an old way. We wonder if that is the best the handsome Keed can do. Well, it may be that the boy is on his last roundup. If it is, what a fall he must have had.

> Yours, —Corporal Murphy.

COMPANY "B"

The Company is 100%, especially this week. All of the boys are standing well out and looking forward to fill the vacancy for Corporal and Pvt. 1cl. in this organization. Several have been mentioned and had a talk with the C. costume dance given at the post hard boys and may the best man O. himself on the subject, fight

> Our supply Sergeant Pitts has stepped down from the war path and turned religious; he was heard asking his madam to teach him his prayers on one Sunday afternoon. What is wrong with the poor boy.

The Ace tennis player of the Company had to show his tennis ability in the big City of Atlanta, Georgia, Saturday afternoon before a crowd of a few thousand people. Then he went to the Broadcasting station to tell the world that he could play tennis as well as sing. lins, and you will rank with the best in your line.

Our noted singing team, Prof. and heard down in the City of Coupon the bonus or pay question ask played the piano while Kid Shadow did the singing.

A Little Information Please: What has happened to our song writer, Pvt. McDixon? We don't see any more of his songs on the

Why is Pvt. 1cl. "Cue Ball" Nick ens using Glover's hair tonic?

Where is the Champ of the Company, Pvt. Barnes?

Why can the reporter be seen in the Recreation room every night from 10 o'clock until? He just can't

COMPANY "C"

Corporal Redmond has returned to the company after a stay of several months at Jackson, Aabama, on duty with the CCC's. He has experienced many interesting events which have occurred among the CCC's. Now that he is again with us we wish him to know of our great appreciation for his presence.

Pvt. 1cl. Harding is again for duty with the company, having recently been relieved from duty at the A. & R. Exchange.

There has been some recent changes of status in the company. I might mention that one was the promotion of Private Thomas (Pick Tom) to Pvt. 1cl. The others won't mention due to fact that the action is regretted, but had to be done. No, no fault on the part of the individuals concerned.

-C. J. Ragsdale.

COMPANY "E"

Sgt. William H. Cook, and Corp. Doc Williams, this organization have rejoined the company from CCC duty.

Sgt. Cook and Corp. Williams, were stationed at Camp Tenn. MP-2 "Booker T. Washington" Chickamauga National Military Park, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Letters of commendation, with his chops into the window of a cerreference to the efficient manner in which they discharged their duties were forwarded from their CCC Commander.

It is quite a pleasure to have these two non-commissioned offiers present with the company.

Pvt. 1cl. Alonzo R. Strong, was discharged on March 4, 1934, but immediately took on another stack.

The costume dance given by The West End Legion Club, March 12, 1934, was a gala affair, every one reported a delightful evening.

The decorations were of green and vellow.

The club certainly appreciates the co-operation of friends of Fort Benning and Columbus, towards making our entertainment a suc-

-Rufus E. Williams.

COMPANY "F"

The company was well represented in the glee club which broadcasted a programme over radio station WSB, Atlanta, Ga., on March 10th, having the following named members: Corp. Adams, Pvts. 1cl. Jones, Burrows, Lee, Sprueil, and Pvts. Gilbert, Morris, Rucker and

The Privates' prayer on inspection day: "Oh Lord please send Corp. Bucu Adams back to CCC duty"

We feel much pride and pleasure over the promotion of Pvt. 1cl. Hugh Taylor to the grade of Corporal. This promotion was well deserved and improved the morale of the company 100%, as we, the rest of us, have something to look forward to except bed check. Much luck to you Hugh, and may nation, in a dark corner of the your reign be long and prosperous. room, a RADIO. Pvt. Gab Estes was seen sticking tain ford sedan Tuesday morning, upon withdrawing it his face was all smiles. Wonder what happened. Use more privacy, boy.

-Jno. W. Jones.

COMPANY "G"

The House of David basketball team met first defeat of the second half of the inter-company league Tuesday at the hands of C Company, by a score of 38 to 29. We still have the enviable percentage of 900, having played eleven games and won ten of them. Not so bad; and then too we know that this is the only game we will lose.

Acting Private Raymond Lamb, big man from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, was discharged on the 12th It is reported that Mr. Lamb was slated for a high office position in Washington, but because of the fifteen percent cut he has refused and decided that he will accept the generous offer of the recruiting officer of three brand new years.

Sergeant Thompson has returned from a brief furlough during which time he visited many points of interest in the United States; namely Columbus, Georiga and Cashtown, Fort Benning.

Pedestrians passing the supply room of Company G need not be alarmed at hearing a woman scream, a man groan or a pistol shot. The writer, nonchalantly strolling past the said supply room after the show Friday night meditating over the events of the day was suddenly startled at hearing a piercing scream followed by a pistol shot then quiet. Dashing madly into the room I saw to my conster-

-Sgt. William W. Hodges.

To A Soldier

... see if you can find your company's notes in this issue of the Herald. If you don't ... then hunt up, your Company Correspondent and find out why, the Herald is your way of seeing yourself in caricature each week ... so why not subscribe today. The price is only $1.50 per year sent anywhere in the world.

KRESS

5c - 10c - 25c STORE

Store Will Close Thursday For The

Re-opening Friday, March 23rd

After weeks and months of intensive work we present to Fort Benning a remodelled Kress Store. We are pleased to offer a larger, fuller and more complete variety and the same efficient service to the people of Ft. Benning, whose patronage we consider a valuable asset.

This, we feel, is an opportune time to remind you what a Kress Store stands for.

A Kress store is something more than an ordinary trading place—it is an institution founded 47 years ago on the policy of "Quality Merchandise—Rightly Priced"—an institution in which each unit is striving at all times to serve the public—an institution that is continually searching the markets at home and abroad to secure the utmost in quality merchandise to sell at 5c-10c and 25c.

Our flood-lighted parking lot with a capacity of one hundred cars is always open to you.

Watch Kress Windows

VOL. III

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1934

NO. 48

BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, Mar. 19.-Va garies of a student talking to himself: Areas of responsibility. Areas of occupation. Eighty-seven days to the end of school. No more cold spells. No more hot spells. Running noses, chattering teeth and frozen mustaches. Cartoonist Jimmy Wharton, fast approaching perfection in tactical dexterity, devoting relaxing noon-hours to sketching with a few well-chosen pencil strokes the passing moods of all and sundry. Birmingham freezing this morning, Atlanta this afternoon and Columbus tomorrow. Pay freeze without end, amen. Tom Cross hovering on the verge of a captaincy. A marked terrain exercise on tank combat principles with a weight of three on the schedule which was changed to eight on the bulletin board which came up again as three on the mimeographed problem which was changed to eight which made happy all who hit it right.

Celebrating with Major Irving's quiz the end of a well presented course and the last of the school's marked problems (less to go). In the same exercise skirting the right flank for a ten yard loss with three-fourths of the combined student bodies to comfort us in mutually exchanged condolences. As Major Roberts would say, "the Major Roberts would say, school didn't do so well on that one," a remark well chosen to soften anguished expressions of embryo but erring tacticians.

Running low on coal. Running lower on cash. The most comfortable seat on a machine-gun bus is not in back. Battalion Executive Higgins rising to the occasion, vice battalion commander a casualty. Whatever became of the myth of the restoration of five per cent effective February first? B Company will attack in conjunction with A Company, on the latter's signal of three rifle volleys. Bill Castner earning two silver star ciations during the week, one for jumping into the breach and leading the tanks to gory and glory when the platoon commander, dutifully performing a personal reconnaissance as becomes a true tanker, was captured by a red flag. Again by G-2ing the school solution by following the tank tracks. And earning with the latter a bulletinboard cartoon and the soubriquet "Tank Track Bill." It isn't true but the story's a good one just the Orchids to the 29th doughboy who participates day in and day regimental problems and on neverending demonstrations, taking them all in his stride. Carnes and Fitts registering with the first approved leaves. A confused struggle to get under the wire with our income tax blank, without succeeding in making our income tax payment blank. Getting valuable training guiding our younger brethren in the pathways of tactical righteousness, poignant memories of manifold "U's" to the contrary notwithstanding. The school's penchant for a progressively increasing number of terrain and field exercise is hard on one's volleyballability. Sergeant Morgan, dis-penser of knicknacks on last minute requests of scurrying students, say-(Please turn to Page 4)

BENNING DAY-Post Riders Win In Show Recently At Thomasville

Fort Benning riders and horses made a good showing in the Thomasville horse-show held recently, capturing a number of first places and making almost clean sweeps in several events.

Riding against the championship Miami show team in the "touch and out" Mrs. Waler P. O'Brien, of Benning, riding Lumpkin, came through for first place, with Lieutenant John A. Stewart, 29th Infantry, on Bobby Arnold, taking second, and Lieutenant Clyde D. Eddleman, 29th Infantry, on Bobby, taking third

In the pair jumping class Captain John W. Blue, on Bluepoint, and a substitute entry from Thomasville, took first place, Lieutenant Stewart and Lieutenant Eddleman, on Bobby Arnold and Bobby took third, closely following Lieutenant James J. Mathews, 24th Infantry, on Middleburg, and Major Kramer Thomas, Cavalry, on Howdy, the later team capturing second place.

In the polo pony bending Major Arnold, riding Ruth Hamilton, took second place, and in the polo teams competition the trio led by Captain Blue captured first place.

Mrs. O'Brien tied with the rider of the famous Georgia horse "Sunshine" for first place in the ladies jumping, but lost out in the jumpoff. Her mount was again Lump-

The three exhibitions of polo playing which were given by Benling teams in the past week at Thomasville were largely attended, and proved quite popular with the Thomasville citizens.

Four Officers Of 22nd Infantry At Post Tuesday

Four officers of the 22d Infan-Edwin E. Aldridge, Albert H. Dumas, Henry W. Robinson, and Theodore J. Sledge, arrived at Fort Benning Tuesday morning for a brief visit of inspection to the motorized 2d Battalion of the 29th Infantry, demonstration troops stationed at the Infantry School.

The Atlanta officers came here for the purpose of observing the out on student field exercises, on methods and procedure followed by the 29th Infantry in the orga tion and use of the motor trains for the transportation of troops and combat purposes, as well as the personnel required for the proper maintenance and operation of the trucks and truck trains.

Captain Aldridge at the present time is on duty as adjutant of the 22d Infantry, Captain Dumas as supply officer, and Captain Robinson is commanding the Headquarters Company of that regiment, of the first groups in a regiment to be motorized.

The officers departed from Benning from Fort McPherson on Tuesday afternoon after spending the day at the 29th Infantry motor park and in inspecting the truck seriously ill, and prevented from came to Benning for a short stay trains and methods of their use.

FIVE ARE ORDERED ARMY WAR COLLEGE

Majors Selleck, Arnold, Hobson, Bonham and Lindsey Chosen for Posts As Students

five officers now on duty at the Infantry School will be students at the Army War College, next term. It is expected that Department orders assigning them to duty as students in the 1934-35 course of the War College will be received at Benning within the next few days.

The officers who will leave the local post to attend the military school next fall are Major Archibald V. Arnold, Field Artillery Major Clyde A. Selleck, Field Artillery, commanding the 83rd Artillery at Benning, Major William H. Hobson, 29th Infantry, Major Francis G. Bonham, and Captain Malcolm F. Lindsey. Major Arnold and Major Bonham and Captain Lindsey are on duty as instructors in the Academic Department of the Infantry School.

Major Arnold, who came to Fort Benning from the Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he was a student in the 1929-30 class, has become well-known throughout the Southeast for several reasons, chief among which are the excellent work that he has been doing as a lecturer to the various Reserve Officers' Associations throughout Georgia and the surrounding states; and also his work on the polo committee of the Infantry School in arranging matches with civilians and military teams of this region. His first taste of military was commissioned a second lieuten- vanced to the rank of first lieutenhis promotion to first lieutenant

According to important infor- in 1916, he transferred to the field mation received at Fort Benning, artillery, in which branch of the service he was shortly commissioned captain. During the World War he attained the grades of major of field artillery National Army, and lieutenant colonel of field artillery, National Army, which latter rank he held until his promotion to major, regular army, in 1920. In 1921 he was graduated from the Field Artillery School, having attended the Battery Officers' course, and in 1928 returned to that institution for another course of study in the Advanced class, graduating the following year. He has also graduated from the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, class of 1930, at the conclusion of which assignment was ordered to Benning. During the summer of 1933, when so many Fort Benning officers were scattered over the entire country on duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps, Major Arnold was sent to Coutolene, Calif., in command of a company of veterans, returning from that detail shortly before the opening of school in September.

Major Selleck Major Selleck, who has commanded that 1st Battalion 83d Field Artillery since 1931, came to Benning from duty in the office of the Chief of the Military Bureau, Washington, D. C., for his first tour at the Infantry School. He began his military work as a cadet at the Military Academy in life came in 1908, when he entered 1906, graduating from that instithe U. S. Military Academy at tution in 1910, when he was com-West Point, N. Y., as a cadet. On missioned a second lieutenant of the conclusion of his studies he field artillery. In 1916 he was adant of infantry; and a year after ant, and just after the declaration

(Please turn to Page 4)

cry, Fort McPherson, Ga., Captains Lt. Bonesteel, Ordered To Benning, Is Also Rhodes Scholar Now At Oxford University

> 3rd Corps of Engineers, at the due to the unusually high academic present time studying at Oxford University, Oxford, England, has been relieved from his detached service at that institution, upon the completion of his course there, ond lieutenant in the Corps of Enand assigned to duty at the Infan- gineers. try School, Fort Benning, Georgia, with Company A of the 4th Engineers, stationed at this post.

Lieutenant Bonesteel, who is the son of Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Bonesteel, Infantry, instructor in the Academic Department, of the Infantry School, holds the unique distinction of being the only graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., who did not complete the course of instruction as outlined by the War Department. Entering the Military Academy as a cadet in 1927, he successfully completed the entire course to within the last few months preceding graduation and finishing his studies, normally a in March.

Lieutenant Charles H. Bonesteel, bar to graduation. Nevertheless, record he had made and the marks gained in the previous examina- Col. & Mrs. Morse tions, he was commissioned a sec-his place was not misplaced, Lieutenant Bonesteel, shortly after his commission in 1931, competed in the annual Rhodes scholarship examinaions, in which thousands of college and university students from the United States try to win a scholarship to Oxford University, one of the greatest educational in stitutions in the world, Lieutenant Bonesteel was one of the successful few, and is now completing his graduate course at Oxford, at the conclusion of which he will report to Benning for duty.

Colonel Bonesteel was paid a short visit by his son in the spring commission, when he was taken of 1933, when the Rhodes scholar

TO Last Play Will Be "Ladies Of The Jury" Here Tonight

It is often very difficult to give any idea of a play in advance. even though one may have read the book, seen the players in rehearsal and known intimately every part of the action and dialogue.

But one thing that can safely be predicted about the plays presented by the Infantry School Dramatic Club is that they will have an almost professional flavor and movement, that they will be intensely interesting for every moment of their action and that they will be expertly staged and directed. All this by way of preliminary for the opening night of the last play of the Club, "Ladies of the Jury" tonight.

We got quite a kick out of see-"The Bad ing Major Lewis in Man," and his calm threats to murder everybody in sight gave us a turn-for a while. Likewise, the fast action and evident enjoyment with which "Stop Thief" was played gave promise that tonight's play will be one of more than ordinary interest and enjoyment.

Of course, one can lay on the platitudes too thickly-and we'd be foolish if we should say that the plays did not have their imperfections. It is impossible to get a cast which does not have one or two nervous players or one that does not have a player or two who overdoes his part-but the Benning players have either been remarkably lucky or remarkably skilled, for we have noticed much less of this than we would ordinarily expect. The scenery, too, is usually a mirror of the Club's taste and ability, and in this too, the Benning group has shown itself up well, for one could have seen very little to find fault with in the stage settings.

On past performances, we'd recommend "Ladies of the Jury." cannot say exactly what it will be like, for one could hardly know without having seen it himself, but we can say this: We'll be there, and if our expectations are even equalled, we'll see a play well worth seeing-and one whose performance would be a credit to any

Win Tournament As proof that the confidence in At Officers' Club

The championship pair, contract bridge, of the Infantry School was won by Colonel and Mrs. Charles H. Morse in a tournament staged by the Officers' Club of Fort Benning, the final round of which was held on Monday evening, March 20.

A large number of the bridge players of the post participated in the contest, which was the culmination of a series of bridge tourneys of various kinds staged by the Officers Club during the winter months. Sixteen couples took part in the final round Monday.

Colonel and Mrs. Morse are to be presented with a trophy by the Officers' Club, emblematical of their victory.

ESOCIAL HIGH GHTS BY MARJORIE H. GREENE

Number Of Dinner Reservations Made At Club Preceding Play

Benning and Columbus society when on April fifth at the Post Theatre they will be given a chance to hear the University of Georgia Glee Club. one of the outstanding choral clubs of its kind in the South Hugh Hodgson, the wellknown composer and pianist, will direct. The program will consist

Men's, Ladies' & Children's READY - TO - WEAR CANDIES

TOYS and BASKETS. and EVERYTHING

for

EASTER

SILVERS Cor. Broadway & 11th Street sketches and special dance num- George S. Simonds, Mrs. Albert S. Arthur H. Luse and Mrs. Geoffrey bers by co-eds from the Physical Education Department of the University. Following the performance at the Main Theatre, the University of Georgia orchestra will play for a dance at the Polo-Hunt Club. This delightful event will be sponsored by the Infantry School Woman's Club.

MRS. JONES HONOR GUEST AT INFORMAL TEA

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin entertained at a delightfully informal dinner Thursday evening in honor of their daughter, Mrs. William H. Jones, Jr. of Governors Island. Throughout the house and on the dining table early Spring flowers were used. The Chaffins' guests were: Mrs. Jones, Miss Harriotte Atkins, Miss Katherine Lemly, Lieut. Arthur L. Cobb, Lieut. Cari W. Westiund and Lieut. Frederick G. Crabb. After dinner the guests were escorted to the dance at the Officers' Club.

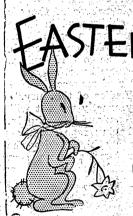

HOUSE GUESTS HONORED AT DINNER PRECEDING DANCE

Miss Katharine Lemly will be the hostess Friday evening when she will entertain at dinner for two attractive house guests who are visiting on the Post. The honorees will be Mrs. William H. Jones, Jr., who is visiting her parents, Lieut Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin, and Miss Nancy Baker, the house guest of Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider. The guest list will include: Mrs. Jones, Miss Baker. Lieut. and Mrs. Lynn E. Brady. Miss Harriotte Atkins, Lieut. Ar thur L. Cobb.

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

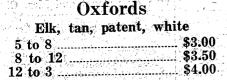

ASTER SHOES

For Children

Easter . . . such an important occasion demands new footwear for the kiddies. Bring them in and see the smartest styles!

Edwards One-Strap

White and Patent
	$3.00
8 to 12	$3.25
12 to 3	$4.25

MILLER-TAYLOR SHOE CO.

"WHERE THE NEW STYLES ARE SHOWN FIRST"

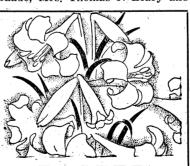

be the house guests of Major and Mrs. Dwight A. Rosenbaum, Lieut. A real treat is in store for Fort of dance numbers, clever dramatic Mrs. William H. Morris were Mrs. and Mrs. Claude D. Emery, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. George Grun- C. Marshall. ert of Washington, D. C. Many delightful affairs are being plann- presented in the near future with ed in their honor. Saturday ev- a trophy emblematical of the ening, Major and Mrs. Morris will championship by the Officers' entertain at the Columbus Country Club. Club for their guests and on Sunday they will give a dinner at the Officers' Club. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. George H. Estes is planning a tea from four to six. Saturday, Mrs. Frances C. Bonham will entertain these popular guests at a luncheon. Tuesday evening, Mrs. Henry Terrell will be the hostess at dinner, while Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly will give a dinner Monday evening.

LAST THURSDAY EVENING SUPPER DANCE OF SEASON WELL ATTENDED

The popular weekly Thursday evening supper dances came to an end this Thursday with a capacity number of reservations. For the occasion the Club was decorated with green ferns and yellow jonquils. Dinner was served at eight fifteen and dancing was enjoyed until ten thirty. Those making reservations were: Captain and Mrs. Harold S. Kelly, Capt. and Mrs. James P. Gammon, Capt. and Mrs. Wendell L. Bevan, Capt. and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, Lieut. and Mrs. Burns Beall, Lieut. and Mrs. Gustin M. Nelson, Lieut. and Mrs. John W. Warren, Lieut. and Mrs. Albert H. Dickerson, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold W. Mace, Lieut. and Mrs. William H. Bache.

COLONEL AND MRS. MORSE WIN POST BRIDGE CHAM-PIONSHIP IN TOURNEY

The final contract bridge tourney to determine the post championship was held Monday evening at the Officers' Club with Colonel and Mrs. Charles H. Morse winning top score, thereby becoming Fort Benning's contract bridge champions. Competing against them in the finals were sixteen couples that qualified from the elimination play of Monday a week ago. Playing cards in addition to Colonel and Mrs. Morse, were Major Thos. S. Arms, and Captain Arthur E. Burnap; Captain and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis; Lieut. and Mrs. Cyril E. Williams; Lieut. and Mrs. Chas. T. Lanham, Captain and Mrs. Fay Ross; Captain and Mrs. Don C. Faith, Captain and Mrs. Harold Gould, Major and Mrs. Paul W. Baade, Mrs. Thomas J. Leary and

EASTER FLOWERS

DELIVERED EVERYWHERE BY TELEGRAPH

TRIO OF ATTRACTIVE VISIT- Mrs. Arms, Lieut. and Mrs. Lin-ORS ARRIVE FROM WASH- coln Jones, Mrs. Colson and Lieut August E. Schanze, Lieut. and Mrs. Arriving Thursday by motor to Montgomery McKee, Lieut. and

Colonel and Mrs. Morse will be

NOW!

NUMBER OF DINNER RESER-

VATIONS MADE AT OFFI-CERS' CLUB PRECEDING DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY The last Dramatic Club play of (Please turn to Page 7)

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

SEE THE NEW ARRIVALS AT DOLAN-HENRY HATSHOP

AT ALSOBROOK'S

SPRING HATS PRICED FROM $2.95 TO $12.50 FORT BENNING CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

SEND FLOWERS FOR

EASTER

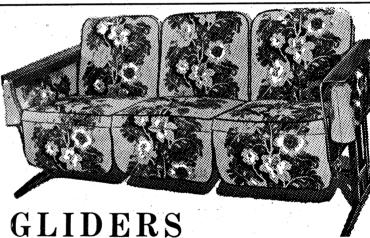

Whether to friend, family or sweetheart, Easter flowers are the most beautiful possible gift . . . full of spring freshness and beauty. We send flowers for you by wire.

Benning

Boulevard Nurseries

Telephone 4176

Benning Road

The smartest showing of gliders in town! Individual style, to suit your likes. Our glider with six separate cushions covered in fine quality waterproof fabric is the talk of the town.

OTHER GLIDERS AS LOW AS $16.75

Smart Porch Chair

Tilted for real relaxation and comfort! A chair you'll be glad to

Deck Chairs

A feature for the outof-door lounging season. Deck chairs with arms are featured for $1.40—limb rest, 40c

1141 BROADWAY

Buy now for Summer. Come in and view our stock while it is yet complete. You'll be pleased with the variety of comfortable out-of-door furniture and you'll be glad to take note of our modest prices.

CONVENIENT TERMS

EASTER FASHIONS

require a subtle distinction, a fascinating freshness, a discriminating sense of chic to be authentic fashions for the glorious day of Spring.

It has been Kirven's privilege to create ensembles of distinction season after season for many of the smartest fashionables of Benning.

It is Kirven's pride that again this season we present to the ladies of Benning enravishing ensembles for Spring and for the Easter Parade.

All The News That's Smart To Print.

THE BENNING HERALD Columbus, Georgia

Published Every Friday

VOLUME III MARCH 23, 1934 NO. 48 L. C. Kunze.... ..Publisher F. Kunze... Sports Editor ..Circulation Manager.

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

OFFICERS LEAVING BENNING

Lieutenant Chas. L. Olin

Lieutenant Charles L. Olin, Infantry, student in the company ofcourse of the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, has been assigned to duty with the 24th Infantry at Fort Benning, on completion of his present course of instruction.

Lieutenant Olin, who was grad-uated from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in 1930, came to Fort Benning from with the 28th Infantry, at Fort Niagara, N. Y., and is serving his first tour at the Infantry School. While at Fort Niagara he was on duty as recreation officer.

Captain Perry

Fort Benning's finance officer, Captain Arthur J. Perry, who has acted as paymaster for the Infantry School since October, 1931, has been relieved from this post, and ordered to report to the Chief of Finance, Washington, D. C., for duty as commandant of the Finance School of the United States Captain Perry will leave Fort Benning sometime early this summer for his new detail.

Those who are familiar with the payment of salaries, from the housewive's cook to the employed factory hands, will realize the extent and importance of the position that Captain Perry has held at Fort Benning in supervising the payment of over 5,000 members of the military personnel stationed at the post, and during the past summer of the payment of more than 10,000 members of the Civilian Conservation Corps who were sent here for reconditioning; and all with a minimum of errors. The War Department at Washington, D. C. is determined that the money of the United States Government, as allotted to the Army, shall not makes Captain Perry's record of four years' service at Fort Benspeak for itself.

Captain Perry began his supervision of the large sums expended October, 1931, reporting here from pointed to the regular army com-Corps Area. His service with the grade of captain in the near fu-Finance Department of the Army ture.

began in 1926, when he was placed on special duty with branch, transferring to it a year later. Prior to that he had had service as a fare field officers' course, class of second and first lieutenant and 1931, and the Command and Gencaptain of infantry, Indiana Na- eral Staff School, class of 1931 tional Guard, his first commission In addition he is a member of the being dated in 1906, as captain of General Staff Corps eligible list. the Officers' Reserve Corps on His promotion to the grade of maactive duty, in 1917, and as major of infantry, National Army, in 1918. He received his commission as captain of the regular army in July, 1920.

Lieutenant Thomas J. Cross

Lieutenant Thomas J. Cross, Infantry, now a student in the advanced course of the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia, has been assigned to duty with Headquarters Staff, the Infantry School, by War Department orders recently received at the post. It was stated at Headquarters Tuesday that while it had not been determined just what duty to which Lieutenant Cross would be assigned, it probably would be to one of the activities under the supervision of the Provost Marshal.

Lieutenant Cross came to Benning as a student at the opening of the school year in September, 1933, having concluded a tour with the 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Washington. His last work at Vancouver Barracks had been duty as executive officer of the 5th Infantry Brigade, with headquarters there.

The New York National Guard was the first organization with which Lieutenant Cross served. both as corporal and sergeant of Company H, 2d Infantry, N. Y. N. G., in 1916. Later he was transferred to the 105th Infantry, again in Company H, in 1917, and was with that organization when he was commissioned a second lieube wasted, and every penny short tenant of infantry in 1918. After must be accounted for; a fact that a year's service in that grade he was advanced to first lieutenant. National Army, in July, 1919; and ning without a nervous breakdown in July, 1920, was commissioned a first lieutenant of infantry, reg ular army.

Lieutenant Cross was born in at Fort Benning each month, in New York in 1894 and was ap-Fort Hayes, Ohio, where he was missioned ranks from that state. on duty with Headquarters 5th He is due for promotion to the temporary rank of major, and his leadership. shortly thereafter lieutenant colonel of field artillery in the National Army, which he held until proof war by the United States in important part of the demonstra-1917, was promoted to captain. In tion section of the Infantry School September 1918 he received the has been due in a great deal to

OFFICERS GO TO WAR COLLEGE (Continued from Page 1)

Major Bonham

Major Bonham, who also is completing his first tour at the Inmoted to major, regular army, in fantry School as an instructor, was 1920. He was detailed on duty a member of the 1917 class of the with the Militia Bureau in 1927, Military Academy which was comand at the same time was serving missioned before the completion of with the 16th Field Artillery at the regular four year course, due Fort Meyer, Va. Major Selleck to war-time emergency. One month has done excellent work with the after his commission as second cisco, Calif. Just prior to his re-83rd Field Artillery since he has lieutenant of infantry he was pro- assignment to Benning as an inbeen at Benning, and the manner moted to first lieutenant, and three structor in 1932, he graduated from

Capt. Johnson To Probably Relieve Captain Perry

Captain William T. Johnson, Finance Department, has been relieved from duty and assignment at the Army Industrial College, Washington, D. C., and detailed to Fort Benning as finance officer, according to information received at Headquarters the Infantry School on Friday. While no orders have been received to that effect it is understood by post authorities that Captain Johnson will relieve Captain Arthur J. Perry, present finance officer of the post, who has been on duty in that capacity since October rank until 1919, when he was commissioned a captain in the regular army. Major Bonham is a graduate of the Tank School, Fort Geo. G. Meade, Md., class of 1925, the Infantry School advanced course class of 1929, the Chemical Warjor came since his assignment to Benning, he having received his commission as such in 1932. He came here in 1931.

(Please turn to page 5)

Major Hobson

Major Hobson is another of the officers of Fort Benning who have made themselves well and favorably known throughout this section for their work with Reserve Officers' units. Major Hobson is especially well known in Columbus where he has been in charge of the school for the R. C. A. during the winter months, and has arranged many varied and interesting sessions for the local officers, including on the programs some of the leading officers and most promispeakers at Benning. He came here in 1933 from duty as professor of military science and tactics at the University of Georgetown, Washington, D. C., being assigned to the 29th Infantry on arrival at the Infantry School. Major Hobson entered the Military Academy as a student in the same class with Major Arnold, in 1908, and was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry in 1912. Since that date he has held the grades of first lieutenant in 1916, captain in 1917, Major, National Army, 1918, and major regular army, 1920. He attended the command and general staff school in 1923-24 finishing that course as a distinguished graduate in the latter. His military service has included two terms at Georgetown University, the first ending in 1922, when he was conferred the degree of Doctor of Science by the University. Captain Lindsey

Captain Lindsey, the junior in rank of the four officers, is senior in the point of service at the Infantry School, since his first duty here was as a student in the company officers' course, from which he graduated in 1922. His military service began with the World War, when as a member of the Officers' Reserve Corps, he was ordered to active duty in 1917, and in a machine gun company. At the Infantry School in 1922, he was but shortly returned to Benning as a student in the refresher course of 1922. At the completion of this as an instructor in the Department of Military Art at the Infantry School, and remained on that detail until 1925, when he was assigned to the 3rd Division, 9th

BENNING DAY BY DAY

BY MAJOR RAMBLE

(Continued from page 1)

ing little, doing much, and that cheerfully and well. The new bridge. Bridging the noon hour.

the heights of Olympus one day as a week to and fro, or 3,080 miles regimental commander, meriting a in the student year. At ten miles well-earned promotion the next to to the gallon, a total of 308 galthe command of a foot-slogging lons per car or pool of three, which platoon in Benning's brambles and with a hundred students living in bosques. Ham Meyer and Ollie Hughes monographing again by popoular request. For the statistically inclined, the master schedule forgotten. provides the following hurdles from now till graduation: four demonstrations, seven unmarked size of the class is temporarily cut terrain exercises, thirteen marked by two, with Bivins Beall in the terrain exercises, eleven marked hospital as a result of a painful map problems and twenty-one injury when a spike imbedded itfield exercises, including five night self in his foot on a recent field problems and maybe six. So what?

following facts and figures on stu- return to duty will be soon.

dent mileage have been computed for your information and not for your guidance. Assuming the average distance from Columbus to the The new Officers' Club will post and return to be sixteen miles open the first week in May. Scaling | John Student travels eighty miles town means 10,266 gallons of gas. This proves something but just what by this time we've long since

As this column goes to press the exercise and Walter Cox with a serious case of pneumonia. To them Something to worry about: The both, a united class hopes that their

29TH INFANTRY

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

The company was commended for its excellent showing made in the personnel inspection and the mounted parade held last Saturday.

The company will be glad when this measles epidemic is over.

The basketball team is playing some great basketball but due to the measles epidemic some of our star players, namely, Bigler and Coen are out of the game and are having the measles.

The stable crew headed by Sergeant Gammage and Corporal Edmunds second in command, with Sandow, the best saddler in the army, are in the best of spirits these days, athough the weather has been very cold and rainy during the days of the ground hog which have ended or supposed to have ended the middle of last week. Tradition and the current almanac says it is for a period of six weeks but the ground hog does not seem to be satisfied.

The volley ball game in the comdeveloping some good pany is men in the company. The entire company is taking it. The stars of the game are none other than great message center chief, Cpl. Wahu Walton. Sergeant La-Bonte stands out too in the game due to his six feet and 4 inches in height. Last but not least to be mentioned is Cpl. Bouton. Everytime he hits the ball it is good for at least 200 yards.

The company is proud of its supply room crew and the good work they turn out. Supply Sergeant Riley is one of the most experienced men in supplies in the Regiment. He has an able assistant in Charlie Cain.

The following named men have the past week:

Pvt. 1cl. Bozeman to Corporal. Pvt. C. A. Wright to Specialist, 6th class.

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

Perhaps you remember the episode of our walking old Julie right in the regular army in the same off her feet. "May her soul rest can Expeditionary Force in Siberia, eared, droopy-faced specimen of take it all back, we were only foolthe mule family was chosen as conclusion of his studies at the Julie's successor. Unlike Julie, Tom still possesses a well concealordered to Camp Custer, Michigan, ed spark of energy, which every so regularly bursts into flames. That's poor judgment for an old soldier who has reached the short class, Captain Lindsey was detailed end of the thirty year retirement period. But Tom was plumb mad, for when the cart was hitched on. all his emotions, combined with surprising agility, were concentrated in an effort to be rid of such a ridiculous and humiliating contraption as a machine gun cart. A series of bucks and plunges were exhibited, but Tom is well along in which the gunner troops have months later to the temporary the command and general staff in years, and, "can't take it like fulfilled their assignment as an rank of captain. He retained this school.

won the battle with slight damage, and now Tom, a much wiser mule, quietly consents to do his bit. but still believes, and firmly states that this form of work should be left to the recruits, "any old jackass can pull a machine gun cart.'

SERVICE COMPANY

Pvt. 1cl. "Tiny" Ricker has submitted his application for a Short Discharge for the purpose of reenlisting for Panama, however the Medicos said he would have to get a waiver to reenlist as he was 1,000, pardon me I mean 100 pounds overweight.

Pvt. Henson returned to duty after a month's rest in the hospital, but he will not be for duty long as his application for discharge by purchase has been approved and he is leaving us in a few days.

Boy, oh boy, are we climbing socially. Last Saturday we were honored with a visit by Mrs. Estes and other ladies of the post who inspected our kitchen and dining room.

At last the painters have left us, but not without leaving their marks as evidenced by spots and stripes on lots of our coats, breeches, etc.

Pvt. 1cl. Sonnier will be discharged per ETS on the 21st, says he is going to try the outside for a while. Luck to you big boy, you can always find a team of mules waiting for you here in case you care to return.

-The Snooper.

HEADQUARTERS CO., 1ST BN.

We haven't much to say this week except that we are still immune from the fashionable measbeen promoted in the company in les and hope that we can continue to be. Our measles barometer is slipping gradually through on account of another new case. Alford was sent to the hospital last Monday. Here's hoping for a speedy recovery to our two stricken boys may they be released from their incarceration soon and be back with us again as good as new.

> Did we say something about in ing and so was the weatherman. Last Sunday however would have done justice to any dog day in July and most of the boys in the Company cavorted and frolicked on the greensward in front of the outfit like unleashed hounds in quest of their elusive quarry. Ben Solier and Jerry Hays were experimenting with a gymnastic act while the rest of the fellows unlimbered their arms with the horse-

> Brrr!!-Now it has turned cold again—yea even freezing, so back to the old faithful flannels and overcoats for a few more days, (only days we hope).

(Please turn to page 6)

Corporal Roorda Is Promoted

Corporal Henry M. Roorda of Company E, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, has been promoted to the grade of Sergeant, by recommendation of his company commander, Captain Don C. Faith. Sergeant Toorda first enlisted into the army on July 6, 1925, and was assigned to Schofield Barracks in Hawaii.

DRY CLEANING Men's Suits 65° Plain Dresses

Cleaned and Pressed

HAMMOND Service Cleaners

The house of beautiful cleaning

PHONE 613

Our green Austins give you 1-day service.

Mr. Godfrey, Driver
Accounts by month.

A Symbol

THAT REALLY MEANS SOMETHING

The Foremost symbol on your milk products means the same thing that a doctor's signature on a prescription means—it is your guarantee of perfectionrich flavor, healthfulness, purity. Always ask for Foremost!

toremost DAIRIES

Inc.

After spending an enlistment with the United States military forces there Roorda enlisted for the 29th Company E, where he has served for almost six years. His father is a resident of Danville, Virginia, where Sergeant Roorda lived prior to his enlistment into the military service. He was born on February 26, 1907, in Greenville, Tennessee.

Private First Class Edgar B. Sisk, Company E, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, has recently been appointed Corporal. He began his military career on April 12, 1928, at which time he enlisted for the Twenty-Ninth Infantry and was assigned to Company E. Corporal Sisk's father, Roy L. Sisk, is a resident of Shelby, North Carolina, where the Corporal made his home before his enlistment into the army. Corporal Sisk was born in Cleveland City, North Carolina, on August 22, 1909. He is wel known in the Second Battalion as a baseball player.

Corporal Nathan F. Smith of (Please turn to page 7)

It Always Happens

By Corporal N. H. Hobbs

It always happens that some meanie will sing out, "Why don't you buy that suit, it looks good on you" just as you are stepping out to meet honey, who is waiting for you within earshot of the remark.

When one enters the squadroom after dark, some national nuisance will have your bed-sheeted and to add to the misery, loaded down with shaving brush bristles.

Whenever you are in Charge of Quarters some goldbrick will want to go to the infirmary on the sick

When you are pulling your first guard you will invariably be assigned number one post and will turn out the guard for everybody from a rear rank buck to a warrant officer.

When you render the snappiest salute possible you find, to your consternation that you have highballed a big juicy Master Sergeant.

Whenever a night maneuver is being planned old Jack Frost is charting the problem with the Commanding Officer. (Added Note): And he very seldom misses the zero mark.

Just as you are planning to duck a pair of muddy hobnails in ye good olde barracks bag the platoon sergeant appears on the scene.

Last but not least it always happens that you will attend the Main theatre with a brother soldier that has already seen the picture and who gratefully tells you what is going to happen next while he munches his popcorn.

FLOWERS For EASTER

BEAUTY . . . SENTIMENT and LOVE IN ONE GIFT.

A basket of flowers or a pot of lilies . . . no matter what kind you send . . . there are no other things which quite so well tell your story of love and affection. Order them now, for Easter delivery.

GURLEY'S

FLOWER SHOP

at the Eastern end of the Viaduct.

First Promotions there Roorda enlisted for the 29th Infantry and became attached to Since 1931 Made In Twenty-Fourth

THE BENNING HERALD

The first promotions in the 24th Infantry to the grade of Corporal since May 1, 1931, took place in the regiment this month. The men promoted were Pvt. 1cl. Hugh Taylor, Co. F, Edward J. Nickens, Co. B and Jarvis Walker, Service Co.

Corp. Taylor has been with the 24th Inf. his entire service having enlisted for the regiment at Columbus Barracks, Ohio, on Feb. 6, 1915. The regiment at that time was stationed at the Esado Major, Manila, P. I.

Corp. Nickens first entered the service on May 8, 1918, when he enlisted for the 301st Stevedore Regiment. He served over seas with this regiment at St. Nazaire, and in June 1919, joined the 24th Infantry at Columbus, N. M.

Corp. Walker first enlisted for Troop G, 10th Cavalry on February 16, 1916, and remained in that organization until May 1, 1929 when he joined the 24th Infantry at this station.

CAPTAIN JOHNSON COMES (Continued from Page 4)

Captain Johnson is a native of Georgia, and entered the military rvice as an enlisted man in the Georgia National Guard in 1917, ng discharged as sergeant to ccept a commission as second lieuenant of infantry National Army in the following year. At the conlusion of hostilities in 1919 he was ischarged from his emergency reenlisted as a sergeant in the Coast Artillery Corps, in Apri., 1919. On July 1, 1920, after examination, he was appointed a second lieutenant of Infantry, and promoted to first lieutenant on the same

In 1927 he was placed on special duty in the Finance Department of the Army, and in 1928 transferred to that branch of the service. His promotion to the grade of capcommission, and liking army life, tain came in 1933.

Easter Candies

for everyone

Page Five

Chocolate rabbits, candy eggs, complete baskets, tiny chicks of candy—everything that revives memories of other Easters. Make this Easter the sweetest one you've ever had by buying candies at Mitchell's.

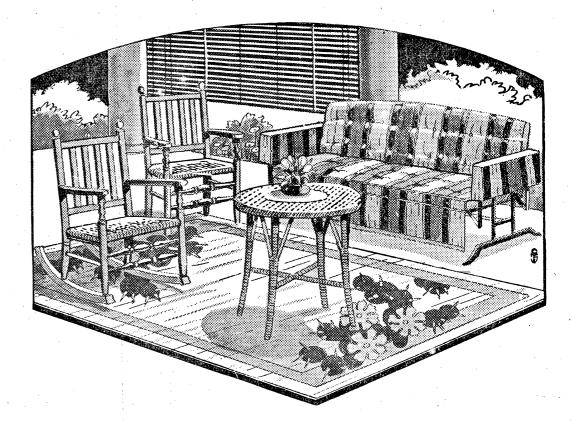

IN BASKETS AND IN GIFT BOXES

MITCHELL'S HOME OF A HUNDRED CANDIES

1203 BROADWAY

PHONE 1085

Wednesday March 21 First Day of Spring.

NOW THAT SPRING IS HERE:

ISN'T IT ABOUT TIME THINK ABOUT OUT-DOOR NITURE ? — WE HAVE COMPLETE STOCK OF ALL KINDS OF PORCH AND LAWN FURNITURE — GARDEN-

HOSE, ETC.

GLIDERS: $1395 up

PORCH CHAIRS DECK CHAIRS STEEL CHAIRS

$3.50 $1.15 $4.95

STEEL TABLES — SUNSHADES -WICKER FURNITURE, ETC.

ROTHSCHILD

LEADING FURNITURE DEALERS IN COLUMBUS FOR 40 YEARS

29TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 4)

We have seen the word "ironical" used before but we think it applies best to our supply sergeant who graciously issued the men their "Chino" khaki uniforms last Mon-

Dad burn it!! Topkick Bruner A. Burke has inherited something, we wonder what it is? Hello Palsy Walsy.

Dit dah, dit dah dit. Norman H. Hobbs.

COMPANY "B"

Company "B" baseball candidates have commenced to work out under the direction of Lieut. Moore and Corporal Waldrop. The squad is getting an early start this year and expects to be well represented on the 1st Battalion team later in the season. Members of the Company who have just returned from furlough include the following: Pvt. Mattingly, ten days at Robertsdale, Alabama; Pvt. Thorpe, fifteen days at Aiken, S. C.; Pvt. Peters, thirty-five days in Blakely, Georgia and Pvt. Thurman, ten days at Ducktown, Tennessee.

Recent promotions in the Company include Pvt. Skipper to the grade of Corporal, and Corporal Romploskie to the grade of Ser-

Men who have recently received their discharges are Cpl. Evans, Pvt. 1cl. Branch, C. S., and Pvt. 1cl. Sudendorf.

Cpl. Honea has transferred to the 17th Ordnance Co. (Maint), in the grade of Private.

COMPANY "F"

Another week has passed and the Company remains in quarantine for measles. Judging from some of the pleas that the "shack men" have been putting up, hoping that they will be allowed to go to Columbus, approximately half of the population there is either sick or starving.

Corporal William L. Sims has decided once again to bid farewell to the old 29th Infantry and seek adventure and romance among the waving palms and brown skinned natives in the Philippine Islands. Corporal Sims left Company "F" once before, but judging from his talk at that time, his return could not be classed as an unhappy event. We wonder how long he will stay away this time. Pvt. Wilkie and Pvt. Turner have recently been appointed Privates

First Class. On a recent two day maneuver of the First and Second Battalion, Company F soldiers had taken a of prisoners from the number Brown Forces (First Battalion). Pvt. "Unterschuetze" was guarding a prisoner who had been searched by an officer and also relieved of his rifle bolt. Pvt. Unterschuetze was seemingly quite curious about just where the prisoner's rifle bolt had been placed. He looked through the prisoners' pockets and in his hat and was about to give up when First Lieutenant Duffner jokingly told Pvt. Unterschuetze that perhaps the prisoner had swallowed Pvt. Unterschuetze seriously replied, "Noh suh, I done looked in his mouf."

-Turner & Bennett

COMPANY "G' (Please turn to page 7)

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager March 6, 1934.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt The White House Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Solomon is reputed to have said that all republics, like men, walk and stand on two feet. The right foot to be the punishment of every crime and the left, remuneration of every virtuous deed. He added that, if either of these two things through carelessness or corruption be neglected, the republic that so acts must unquestionably walk lame; and that if the ignores both she could not stand at all stand at all.

That you concur with this fundamental priciple is evidenced by the speed with which you acted in the matter of the fraud in the air mail contracts. It is therefore the more unfortunate that the same speed was not applied to the correction of the injustice in the 15 per cent pay cut and pay "freeze" as they concern the Army and Navy officers and enlisted personnel.

The intentional neglect on the part of the Senate to consider the officers of the Army and Navy in the redrafting of H. R. 6633 which restored longevity pay privileges to all federal employees but the officers of the military services is alarming.

Is it not sufficiently deplorable that the uniformed services have been discriminated against these twenty-five years past in the matter of pay increases without their having to bear this additional injustice?

The efficiency and morale of our Army and Navy, called upon as often in peace as in war, must be maintained. This can not be done if these services are constantly made to feel that their sacdone if these services are constantly made in many cases. rifices are not appreciated. Untold, and, in many cases, uncounted sums are being spent to protect our citizens and to preserve our government, yet those upon whom we most largely depend for loyalty and assistance in this regard, are neglected. How much longer can we continue to allow loyalty and devotion to duty to go unrewarded?

Your fairness in all matters thus far will, we are certain, provide a speedy remedy that will indemnify rather than penalize these obedient servants and friends in need.

Very respectfully, N. S. MEYER INC. BY: A. A. RUEBEN Vice-President

We reproduce it merely because it may prove a matter of in-Mr. A. A. Ruben, vice-president of N. S. Meyer, Inc., a leading manufacturer of military equipment, to President Roosevelt We reproduce it merely because i may prove a matter of interest to the army and it is not to be construed as reflecting the editorial policy or belief of this paper or as a statement of such policy. such policy.

Order Changes

Twenty-Ninth Infantry Headquarters makes public the following changes and additions affecting the enlisted personnel of Fort Benning, by order of Colonel William E. Persons, regimental commander.

Privates Samuel I. Patrick and Henry C. Taylor have enlisted for the Twenty-Ninth Infantry and are assigned to Cannon Company.

Private Joe B. Nicholson is assigned to Company B, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, where he will take up his new duties as soon as he is released from the regimental recruit school. Private Robert E. White has enlisted for Fort Benning and is assigned to Company F, Tweny-Ninth Infantry.

Private George Middleton, Jr., Company B, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, is transferred to the Detachment Quartermaster Corps.

Private Clarence G. Skipper of Company B, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, has been promoted to the grade of Corporal, by recommendation of his company commander. Corporal Skipper first enlisted into the army almost eleven years ago. His first three enlistments were spent in Company B. He began his present enlistment with the Eighty-Third Field Artillery but later transferr ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN ed back to Company B, Twenty-(with apologies to Dorothy Dix). Ninth Infantry. Corporal Skipper was formerly a resident of De Suniak Springs, Florida, prior to his enlistment into the army. He is well-known at Benning as a football player. He is now doing regular duty with Company B.

Private Walter W. Daniels has enlisted for the Twenty-Ninth Infantry and is assigned to Regimental Machine Gun Company.

Privates James W. Burruss and Harvie A. Slaton have been assigned to Service Company.

Private Hugh A. Smith and Private Otto S. Speer are assigned to Company A.

Private Seab W. Stowe is assigned to Company C, and Private

Robert L. Evans is assigned to Company D.

Private L. T. Drennon has been assigned to Company H, and Private Harry G. Benton is assigned co Cannon Company.

Private Woodrow M. Noble is assigned to Headquarters and Headquarters Company and will take up his new duties there as soon as he is released from the regimental school of orientation and instruc-

Printing That Will Please You

Quotations are furnished on request. For all kinds of Printing - Lithograph-- Office Supplies Engraving.

Columbus Office Supply Company

Subscription To The Herald > is a message to your home. Send the Herald to every family, every week-let them see what you are doing at Benning-give them an idea of your life with the Army. The price is only—

$1.50

Mailed anywhere. 111 - 12th ST.

PHONE 328

DAHLIAS DISCUSSED BY MAJOR LYMAN IN TALK TO CLUB

man's Club met on Monday, March 19, at the house of the chairman, Mrs. Frank A. Heileman. Major Elbert J. Lyman gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "Dahlia Culture." After seeing the gorgeous display of dahlias in Major Lyman's garden last summer, we know he is the Benning Authority on the subject. He stressed the point that unless the tubers come from north of here there is danger of fungus growth, which of course causes inferior flowers. In order to replant the tubers raised here, Major Lyman advocated the

USE TESTED SEEDS

There's no way of positive-ly guaranteeing yourself a beautiful garden, but you can greatly increase your chances by using tested and certified seed. We sell only the best of garden seed ... every kind you may require.

> BRADFORD and MEADOWS 1240 BROADWAY

REAM

an ideal dish

It never becomes tiresome, esepecially Kinnett's - and it is most economical and delicious.

Sold at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club

The Garden Section of The Wo-|slip cutting method of growing This was carefully explained and the division of the plant so as to include a part of the crown, was illustrated. He suggested the following varieties as doing particularly well in this locality-Jersey Beauty, Ida Von Worner, Jersey Beacon, Sagamore, and California

> Mrs. Lawrence Murray, president of the Marguerite Garden Club of Columbus, spoke on the subject of "Annuals." She named a long list which contained all the old favorites and in addition the new novelties which have been recently developed and are being introduced this year. Mrs. Murray has beautifully mounted illustrations in colors, which she used in her discussion. From her experience in gardening in Columbus she was able to suggest certain annuals which grow well in spite of thee hot summers we have here.

Mrs. R. W. Pearson was appointed Chairman of the Flower Show which will be held early in May. Mrs Charles Weeks will be Chairman of the Ribbon Committee, Mrs. R. G. Mangum Chairman of the Prize Committee and Mrs. C. M. Easley will be in charge of classification of entries. Mrs. Guy G. Cowen will have charge of the Club Garden this year. At the conclusion of the meeting tea was served.

> SOCIETY (Continued from Page 2)

the season, "Ladies of the Jury, which will be staged Friday and Saturday evenings is expected to command a capacity attendance. A large number of dinner reservations have been made at the Officers' Club. Entertaining Friday evening will be Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton, Major and Mrs. John N. Robinson, Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnett, Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Partridge, Capt. and Mrs. Harold S. Kelly, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert R. Martin and Mr.

PERSONALS

Colonel and Mrs. William B. Wallace plan to leave the first of next week for a motor trip through Florida.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin have as their house guest their daughter, Mrs. William H. Jones, Jr., of Governors Island, N.

Friends of Mrs. Louis B. Ely will be sorry to learn that she is ill in the Station Hospital.

Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider have as heir house guest the latter's niece Miss Nancy Baker of Greenwich, New York.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles D. Landon have as their house guests the latter's uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Kothacker of Great Neck, Long Island.

Major and Mrs. G. S. Woodward of Fort McPherson plan to spend the weekend as the house guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Charles D. Lan-

EASTER--make it a day of Rejoicing

. . . and make your gift a jewelry one . . . one that will match the recipient's Easter Costume . . . one that will mean lasting pleasure and lasting beauty . . . one from ROSENBERG'S!

Rosenburg's

JEWELERS

1217 BROADWAY

Bridge Section Of Club To Meet

The Bridge Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting at the Officers' Club on Monday, March 26th at 2:00 o'clock.

CORP. ROORDA PROMOTED

(Continued from page 5)

Cannon Company, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, has been promoted to the grade of Sergeant. Sergeant Smith enlisted nearly nine years ago for Cannon Company and has spent all his military service in that company. His home is in Bellrose, Tennessee, where he attended school before entering the army.

Private First Class Lloyd M. of Corporal. Corporal Harris enlisted into the army so as to become a student in the West Point prep school at Fort Benning, and Better luck next time, H. F. has rendered such excellent service that he won his company commander's recommendation that he be made Corporal. He was a resident of Birmingham, Alabama, before he entered the army, and graduated from Birmingham High Privates Albert L. Chance, William T. Noedel, and Clarence Prince have enlisted for the Twenty-Ninth Infantry at Fort Benning and are assigned to Company B, where they will take up their new duties as soon as they are released from the regimental school of orientation and instruction.

Sergeant Johnson Is Retired

First Sergeant Pearl Johnson of Company A, Twenty-Fourth Infantry at Fort Benning, will be placed on the retired list of the United States Army on the 31st of March. Sergeant Johnson has been in the military service for more than 28 years, during which time he has traveled with the various military units over many of the states and has seen service in the Philippines and in Mexico.

First enlisting into the army in 1898, Sergeant Johnson was assigned to Company D of the Twenty-Fifth Infantry. His following enlistment was spent in Company K of the same regiment. Sergeant Johnson next enlisted for Troop C of the 10th Cavalry. He joined the Twenty-Fourth Infantry in 1913 and has been with Company A of that regiment continuously since

Soon after enlisting in 1898, Sergeant Johnson saw actual service in the Spanish-American War, in which the colored soldiers so effectively demonstrated that they were equal in skill and bravery in warfare to the greatest soldiers of all time. Sergeant Johnson was with the troops which were stationed in the Philippines to quell the uprisings of insurgents there. He went with the Twenty-Fourth Infantry in 1916 to Columbus, Mexico, in 1916 and served as a part of Pershing's famous Punitive Expedition. During the World War, the Twenty-Fourth Infantry, of gean Johnson was a part, remained in Mexico assisting in guarding the long line of communications there. He came with the Twenty-Fourth Infantry on October 9, 1922, and has been at Benning with that regiment continuously since then.

Sergeant Johnson was born in Troy, Ohio, and later made his home in Dayton. Upon his retirement from active military service, Sergeant Johnson and his family plan to live in Seattle, Washington

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 6)

We hesitate to chisle in on Miss Dix's racket, but find a young man so in the throes of love that we feel something should be done. If the young lady talks all evening glad to see Billy back. without even mentioning your name while you are away, "S. J." why you just try to talk some other evening without mentioning her name. It'll probably be a hard job, but then there's her "jug." Perhaps if you leave it alone, she'll not throw you out again.

We're also sympatnizing with "Bug. J." It seems he is at a loss to understand why there should be any objections to his coming in in high spirits and turning on the lights in his squad room for a friendly chat with the inmates. Well, you can look at it two ways, Johnnie, but maybe the said inmates felt the same then as you did the following morning when somebody wanted you to get

A JOB FOR THE POST IN-SPECTOR. Pvt. Marley is threatening to withdraw his patronage Harris of Cannon Company has refrom the Post Laundry because ceived a promotion to the grade they did not wash a pair of G. I. shoes; and further, the tent poles and pins with various other field equipment were not even touched.

COMPANY "H"

Billy Hyde is back from furlough bringing with him various and sundry borrowed articles of clothing. Most of the lenders are

The measles have had us for the past two weeks and it is almost time for us to resume the free life again. It will be just our luck though to have a fresh batch of the spotted ones on the eve of the day we come out.

Shorts-'Chesty' Cooper is back. Amos Dowden swam the Upatoi with a machine gun on his back (so they say). . . Anyway the 2nd Bn. won the war. . . And it looks like winter is going to hang on a while longer.

-Steve.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Money To Loan

on watches, diamonds, clothing and articles of value. Unredeemed Pledges for sale

Cheap.

CITIZENS LOAN CO. 1043 Broadway

TRY OUR

Delicious packed NEW BUTTER ROLLS 10c

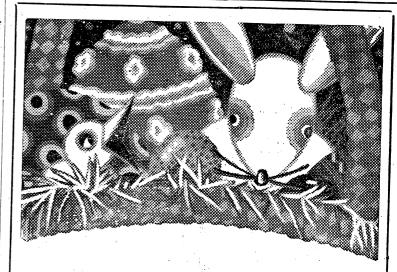

WATCH FOR

Week-end Special Cakes . . . a different

On Sale At The Post Exchange

COLLINS BAKING CO.

1144 13th Street

Easter Candies

BOXES AND EGGS GROWNUPS AND LITTLE CHILDREN.

Whether you're intending to please the youngest in your family, or whether you are making a play for a feminine fancy, you'll find our stock of Easter candies one of the best. Fresh, complete stock; the finest brands you can buy.

MAIN BRANCH SODA FOUNT

Post Exchange

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

future teams to shoot at.

In their second game the Officers rolled a new high for single game with 1082 which gave them

1062

983

COMPANY "A"

1st Sergeant Pearl Johnson, this organization, better known to his many friends as "Old 98," retires from Active Service March 31,

1934 and will be sent to his home,

1st Sergeant Johnson, for the next few months, will live in Co-lumbus, Ga., until he can accustom himself to civil life. Is such necessary? If you are asking me, I would say yes. 1st Sergeant Johnson first entered the service in July, 1898 as a volunteer from

Ohio, his native state and served with the colors until February,

1899 when he again chose civil life. Not being satisfied after having spent seven years in civil life,

Sergeant Johnson again enlisted in August, 1906 and served continu-

After having spent more than 36 years in and around the Army, one can readily understand why it is necessary that Sergeant Johnson remain around for a few months. Judging from the many smiles that greet him each morning, one could very easily be deceived in believing that the enlisted men of the Company are when you're gone," but it just hap-

Johnson was both friend and father as well as a wise old counsellor. Each man is, deep down in his Company as well as to the Army, caused by the retirement of Ser-

To he and his family, wherever they may chose to live in these

United States of America, heartiest congratulations and best wishes from the Officers and Enlisted men of Company "A" 24th Infan-

COMPANY "B"

Everything is OK in 'Gator land.

Private First Class Edward J.

All of the boys are back home safe-

Nickens was appointed Corporal after a very hard fight, and strong competition among the senior

Privates First Class of the Com-

(Please turn to page 9)

-Corporal Wm. P. Murphy

try shall follow them.

ly after the week end.

geant Johnson.

ng the loss to the Seattle, Washington.

ously to date.

901

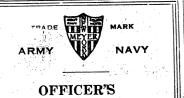

Of Intramural

The playoff in the post intramural basketball series, which will see the 2d Batt Kellys and the Green Wave from the 1st Batt clash again for the pennant of the Infantry School has been postponed until the end of the Georgia-Alabama tourney, now playing in which both the two mentioned, and the Black Pirates of the Headquarters Battalion, are entered.

The Kellys and the Irish have three games or less to play to decide the championship of the second half of the league race, and from past records it appears that the Blue Thunderbolt will capture the title. In the four contests that the two teams have had with each other this season, the Kellys have emerged victorious without exception, although some of the games have been close, and the experts of the gym are giving them a long lead in the odds for the second half win, which with their first half lead will make the 2d Batt auintet the undisputed king of the court.

Fans have a possibility of more games in store however, if the Irish should come for the second half victory, as such an occurrence would necessitate an additional play-off between the leaders in each half. This is far from being in the realm of impossibilities; the Green Wave has played some good basketball this season, and have upset the dope bucket several times. Their teamwork has been improving steadily, and the discovery of several new stars this season has made up for the loss of last year's standbys.

Whatever way is goes, it has been a good season, with a full

and

ENLISTED MEN'S

Regulation

GARRISON CAPS

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your dealer or post exchange

Ask for Meyer or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons.

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

NEW YORK

Kells And Wave To ENLISTED MEN F Clash In Playoff OFFICERS' PIN

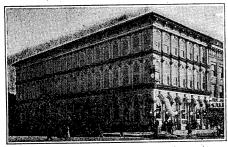

Enlisted Men Trim Officers

Followers of the ancient art of ten pins watched pins and records fall together last Friday evening at the local alleys as a picked Enlisted Team piled up a 23 point what looked like an an unbeatable margin in five games against a lead. However, the tide turned team from the Officers' League. the other way in the fourth game Even the losing team bested the when Bitala came in as pinch hithigh five game total for matched ter and turned in two successive season while the win-

	play of the season while the ner's 4729 will be something	win-	games	of 235	and 256	•
	Officers						0.00
	Sauer, Co. Officers	203	225	173	166	196	963
	Howard, Hq. The Inf. Sch	178	192	168	181	203	922
ŀ	Stuart, J. A., 66th Inf	159	165	159			483
	Roberts, Instructors	199	243	190	168	171	981
l	Williams, L. L., Instructors	221	257	201	180	204	1063
	Stuart, W. A., Co. Officers				145	182	327
		960	1082	891	840	956	4729
	Enlisted Men
	Davis, I. S. D.	182	157	155		233	727
1	Heckert, I. S. D.	201	187	231	179	188	986
١	Cerne, I. S. D.	160	189	112			461
-	O'Blenness, I. S. D.	192	179	204	187	-182	94!
١	Glenn, I. S. D.	201	158				359
	LaBonte, Hqs. Co., 29th			199	182	202	58
1	Bitala, Hqs. Co., 29th				235	256	49
	Trott, I. S. D				200		20
	,

quota of exciting games. And right here would not be a bad place to make mention of the play for athletic honors made by an organization that only recently has emerged from the realm of the weaker brethren at the post. In the past years the Big Three of Benning, the Tanks, the Kellys, and the Irish, have fought it out between them for athletic leaurels, and made the other competitors of the post appear in the light of being allowed to play lest their feelings be hurt. This season however, from the first game of the basketball lead, a new threat appeared on the sport horizon, in the persons of five very energetic and able young men from the Headquarters Battalion, backed by a coach who knew the game, and pulled for his team. Basketeers Bigler, Greeson, Burgess, Coen and Bryant, and their cohorts Hayes, Estes, Bickermeyer, and others whose names do not come to mind, together with Coach Ferenbaugh, lost the first half lead by the slimmest margins; and had the bad luck to lose most of their power in the most critical part of the second half through sickness. Nevertheless they showed the stuff was in them, and they are hereby tossed one of Mr. Winchell's orchids for being a wonderful team, a winning team, and a game team.

> SUBSCRIBE To The BENNING HERALD $1.50 PER YEAR

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER ...

$550,000.00 $3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

THE HOME SAVINGS BANK OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

ENGINEERS

es this week. Red Long beat him to sixth class by a nose. Well, a nose doesn't mean very much any-

Barnard transferred to Fort Bliss, Texas and Hancock purchased. We were very sorry to see Wonder when we are going to Van Hoose?

Attention, all shack men-our 28 days' quarantine expires Thursday. Our measles victims are returning to the company two at a time

Marshburn and Lester left on emergency furlough this week.

The company was on maneuvers the past week. Every one had a fine time—or didn't you?

Roscoe, our white rat, won on a decision over two wild ones Tuesday afternoon. Twenty men witnessed the bout. Roscoe challenges you! all comers in his weight and class.

Last Game Of Cage Season For 24th Bell was a victim of circumstanc- Be Played Friday

The 24th Infantry Regimental Basketball Team has finished its way unless it belongs to Chow-line home season and on Friday of this week goes to Tallahassee, Florida, to play A. & M. College. This will be the last game of the season.

The team has so far won more than half its games, having defeated Spencer High School of Colummove into our new barracks? Will bus twice, Tuskegee Faculty team, someone please inform Corporal Booker T. Washington Faculty team of Atlanta, Ga., and the Hanley Undertaking team of Atlanta. The team was defeated by Morris Brown College of Atlanta, the Collegians of Atlanta, and Florida A. & M. The latter game was lost by looking just fine, with nothing but a very small margin and the team has great hopes of taking the game to be played in Tallahassee.

> Roscoe's manager says never mind the weight, just come all.

"Elmer the Great" has returned to the old outfit after purchasing. The Engineers are just like the "ole rocking chair." They'll get

_Pvt. Alfred Lassiter.

'Mid Cypress and Grey Moss

... there is where the big-mouth, the most fighting bass in the world, hangs out. So get out your tackle -make whatever additions you need, and go for him NOW! The Main Branch carries at all times a complete line of fine athletic and sporting equipment made only by the world's most reputable mak-

MAIN BRANCH

TELEPHONE 608

Post Exchange

Ft. Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

-Rags.

INFANTRY

BATTERY "C"

Since the battery has been in quarantine, McKenzie reports that by the increase in business he is having, it seems to him that times are normal again.

Our Instrument Sergeant was captured Tuesday by the Reds while feeding his horse. He joins in with a lot of others and says that a horse belongs on a farm

We have all heard the song of a dream walking but Battery "C" saw it in reality one day last week when the Gunner Corporal of the 2nd Platoon was walking in a dream while the battery marched to the stables.

Again our boxing squad appears in the Limelight. This time not to knock 'em out, but to receive their awards for their hard work to make the 83rd Field Artillery rank the highest it ever has in thirteen years in the amateur world. The awards were presented by the Battalion Commander and we are sorry that the battalion could not be present due to the measle epidemic. The squad received a big hand just as they did from the ring side through all their fights.

Private Lackey has returned from furlough, and reports times in Tennessee a little better but is real glad to be back with the battery again.

Our stable Sergeant told us how he once could have rescued a cow from an island in a flooded river if it had not been that the cow tramped the bottom out of the boat. We hope we will get advice from him as to how we might get our horses across streams in our spring maneuvers.

24TH INFANTRY (Continued from Page 6)

pany. But Nick was the better and won by a wide margin. Hold fast Cue Ball, you know what it is all

The reporter and Private Hooper were seen sleeping in Quarters on Saturday night. That is something very unusual for the two and the boys want to know what it is all Private Moore is held by the Company Bachelors for larceny af-We do not know just what he did but Cue Ball will give you the dope.

around Private First Class McCoy, around Private First Class McCoy, "Song" cried out, as he walked the Sugar Man of the Company, away—"Well, I'll be d—d, I was in the race and was made thought you were talking about Latrine Orderly. Keep on the job, Sweet Cakes. Promotions are fast from that section. Ask Corporals Brown and Cue Ball.

Private Spencer can be seen in mourning since the vacancy for Corporal was filled. He was in the running for a few days but just what happened we can not tell. The poor boy is taking it to heart. Better luck next time Cicero.

COMPANY "C" Don't "Butt In."

Cook Worsham was in the midst of a goodly gathering of soldiers in the barracks, during a recent rainy night, telling of some of his travel experiences. After cover ing practically the entire United latter is the trouble. States, he finally wound up his travel by saying that he went home (West Point) to settle down. Now it seems that he had been on the road for a long, long time. Hence, when he reached home eight years had elapsed since he was last there. So. naturally, he began telling of the many changes which he had noted since his return. "Now," says Worsham—"The Old Mill had burned down, and Hanson's Lot had been made into a city park." In the meantime one of his listeners who generally answers to the name of "Song" happened to be a native of the East, and had readily assumed the idea that Mr. Worsham was speaking of a well known eastern Burg of the same name. At this point "Song" interrupted by saying "Whose lot are you talking about, I've never heard of any Hanson's Lot before." Worsham not desiring to be disturbed, continued with his narration about his home town by saying—"Keep quiet, wait until I get through, please.

"Oh, yes! and as I was saying, they have a City Park now, just opposite the Old Cotton Gin-'Song" the easterner, could stand no more of this and abruptly denied that there were no such things as cotton gins in West Point. Worsham alarmed over the ignorance of his adversary offered a wager of a dollar that there was a gin in the city in question. Each man's money being covered, and each being confident that he would win, left it to the other for proof. It being decided that Worsham furnish the proof from anybody in the crowd (most of the men being familiar with Worsham's home town) it was no trouble for him to get a reply to his questionthat there were cotton gins in West Point. Upon hearing this "Song" became suspicious and inquired after more definite description of this "West Point." When he learned from Worsham that Georgia While promotions were going was the state of this proud city,

West Point, New York!'

COMPANY "E"

The following Social Memo, is ublished for the information and guidance of all concerned:

CO. "E" 24TH INFANTRY Fort Benning, Ga., March 16, 1934. MEMORAUDUM: To Co. E, 24th

The following named "Heart Breakers" have lost their "Shacks." What is the trouble? Have you lost that old "sex appeal?" you become so popular that one shack is not enough.? The writer of this article believes that the

Since the "West End Legion Dance, March 12, 1934, there have been several gentlemen, notified via telephone, that their services are no longer desired. Cheer-up gang there are still plenty of other guy's "Shacks."

Grass Widow List

Russell T. Crawford, Johnnie Paramore, Robert Rogers, Emile Landry, William W. Richardson, Motel Jett, Johnnie Martin, Carter Smyre, Melvin Orsben, Samuel D. Soughall.

Famous Last Words On Departing Crawford—You ain't what you used to be.

Parramore-I don't need you anymore.

Landry-I don't want your candy. Rogers—Don't be sore, you've got to go.

Richardson—You can pick up your bed and walk.

Smyre—Come back tomorrow.

Orsben-Don't start yelling, it's all over now

Southall-You've made you last call.

Martin-We're parting. I'm through. Jett—You've played h—ll.

The above named members seems to be in great need of aid. Boys, see what you can do toward lending a helping hand. Boys, I hope you don't feel hurt, with regards to the above, but don't blame me. Pvt. 1cl. Jimmie Lee, was discharged March 16, 1934, per ETS and immediately asked for more.

-Rufus Williams.

COMPANY "F"

Since the recent transfer of Pvt. Dotson to The Army War College there have been about fove more applications for transfer to that station. Wonder what's up Corp. Hugh Taylor, our company clerk, who was recently promoted to that grade, use to walk about 120 steps per minute, now he steps out the full 128. Step right out Hugh.

With much regret the company mourns the loss of Pvt. George Currence who died Sunday at the Station Hospital. Pvt. Currence, affectionately known to his many friends as "G. C." was a veteran with over 20 years' service and was well known both in Fort Benning and Columbus. In his demise the government lost the services of a valuable and faithful soldier. On all of his many discharge certificates, he received character "Excellent." Pvt. Currence had been a patient in the Post Hospital since the early part of December, and although fighting a losing battle was game until the end, a charistic of all all soldiers of the old school. Corp. "Bucu" Adams was recently placed on D. S. with the Logging Detachment. Will the privates of the company kindly notify this reporter when the smoker will be held.

All the boys worth mentioning have their eyes and ears open wondering who will get the string left vacant by the promotion of Pvt. 1cl. Taylor. Step out bucks.

Q.: "What is the song Pvt. Marko Henderson sings in the presence of Pvt. Gab Esters?"

A.: "You gonna lose your gal." Have you ever had the pleasure of serving under an officer whose devotion, sense of duty, and con-command make soldiering a pleasure?; and yet so naturally endowed with tact in the enforcement of regulations, makes you obey his every wish with joy? Come to Co. "F"!

Jones & Gilbert.

COMPANY "G"

E Company's five went down in defeat before the terrific onslaught of the House of David in the basketball game played Tuesday to the tune of fifty-five to eleven. The game was a comedy in two halves Or have and it has reached the ears of the reporter that a certain corporal on E Company's team wanted to quit because he believed that G Company's five was using two basket-

Corporal Seats: "Sergeant Powell, do you think it will rain today"?

Sergeant Powell: "No, Corporal, don't think so".

Corporal Seats: "Why Sergeant it's beginning to rain now'

"Corporal Sergeant Powell: Seats, I still don't think it will rain".

Private Major Williams hit the proverbial door knob with his eye and now he knows what happens when an irrestible object meets an immovable force.

Our volley ball team has been called to the colors and we are looking for new fields to conquer.

Captain on inspection: "Ha! Ha! No shave.

The Kingfish: "He! He! No razor." (Curtain)

We have already picked a spot to display the flag which we intend to win in the next flag race. And the House shall stand.

-W. W. Hodges.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY THINGS WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE, HAPPEN OR KNOW

Staff-Sgt., Scott Bradford, the sideration for the wellbeing of his Beau Brummell, win an argument. Kid Purvis, the Louisiana Specialist, qualify as a soap-box orator.

Staff-Sgt., L. A. Scipio, when he is the least bit peeved.

Pfc. John Berry tell the truth just once.

Kid Scottie when he is not figuring in the billions in lieu of hund-

Pvts. Houston and Houston, with anything of their own, reequipment. Pfc. Vaughn, Sidney, change his brand of tobacco especially when talking. And above all the fifteen per cent cut restored.

The company as a whole takes this opportunity to congratulate the members of our basketball team for their victory over E Company, due to the fact Company E is considered one of the strongest teams in the regiment. They all played well and we would like to make a special mention of Myers, Ellerby and Stallsworth, for the hard fought battle and duties performed during the game.

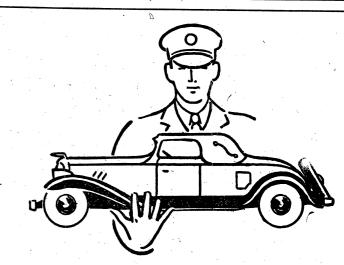

We regret very much to state (Please turn to Page 10)

Columbus Fender & Body Works

1420 1st Ave.

Phone 165

Thousands of Miles

ADDED TO THE LIFE OF YOUR CAR BY OUR DE-LUXE SERVICE.

It stands to reason that you can save money and add mileage by taking care of your car-and there's no better way in the world than by using our DeLuxe Service. It is nominally priced and it gives you a full series of important operations which will greatly assist you in keeping your car running well.

We do painting work on all makes of automobiles.

AUTO DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

NEATNESS---

Counts for a great deal in printing. We will assist you in laying out your work and our shop will turn out a first-class job.

COLUMBUS OFFICE SUPPLY COMPANY

111 - 12th Street

Columbus, Ga.

24TH INFANTRY

(Continued from Page 9)

that one of our comrades, Private tion strikes a snag. There's a Cor-L. D. Houston, (the female technician), is absent from guard due to the fact he is confined in the hospital. Of course we all wish him a speedy recovery

Private Major Moore, our mainful athletic leader is now whipping in shape the famous volley-ball team which will be a sure winner

This is the big year for all the old timers to take on new stacks for another three years. Pattie-Ru-Scip, the one and only Paderewski of the regiment, endowed with all the legal talent of Clarence Darrow the mighty, after starving himself for twenty-four hours without food or drink and using his magic wand on the hospital scales was unable to convince the power that he was not over weight.

-John Morris.

SERVICE COMPANY Grades and ratings take spotlight this week. Jimmie Ellison leads off with a 4th for a 6th. But right there is where the situaporal vacancy hovering over the company. And boy, oh boy! How the one string boys are sprucing up. Discussion has reduced the eligibles to two: Pop Eye and Yerks. Our local cartoonist, "Bud" Brown made a lovely picture of the situation and published it on the bulletin board. The picture shows a pair of winged non-com gadgets in flight, and about to descend in the company street. Pop Eye and Yerks are having an exciting race to the point of descent with Pop Eye, minus his pipe, in the lead by a nose. But that's only half the story. The other half is enacted by Pop Eye, who angrily snatches the harmless little picture off the board and furiously casts it into the greedy flames of a nearby stove. There is a furore of laughter and off our hero hastens to Hoover relative to the proper disciplinary action. Hoover chuckles, to Pop Eye's embarassment, thus forcing him to report the situation to Ham. So Ham says "They call me Ham don't they?" So we have with us today Corporal "Pop-Eye".

If that horse show bunch didn't thrill Thomasville-Glory! And if Shack Jones didn't top kick-Halleluja! Chef Jones is a DS artist. too-graduate of Clayton, Alabama's CCCs-and knows his business. Spasm Frazier takes the ineligible list for misconduct.

Nevertheless that dance tomorrow night should even the score and, here's hoping everybody has a good time.

-George E. Burton.

BAND

The Band, after having mastered auction bridge and sending many players to Columbus and nearby cities where they either won prizes at tournaments or gave a very good account of themselves, has now turned to contract. Classes have been held nightly in our squad room and we will soon be ready to issue challenges.

NRA, CCC, STA, CQD and SOS

have caused a great deal of hardship in the army. Instead of having his shoes shined now the poor private washes them with soap and water as he cannot afford the polish. He even walks to Columbus in lieu of drawing bus tickets, yea, even so; and if he is lucky enough to get to Columbus and is too tired to walk back to Fort Benning instead of a room at the hotel there is the friendly AID STATION. True, brother, true. But the writer has never seen; well, judge for yourself. Our fashion plate (Four or five years ago) desiring to go to Columbus and having no clean white collar washed his dirty collar with a cloth, soap and water, warmed the inside and put it on. It was none other than THE MR. RILEY.

It was reported that upon being warned of the fact by Headquarters that freezing weather was predicted for Monday night Private McCray let the gas out of his tank so it would not burst and locked his radiator cap so that no one would steal the water. Bright boy! -W. W. Hodges

Grain.

The branches of this firm handle transactions in grain futures. The firm holds membership in the Chicago Board of Trade and Winnipeg Grain Exchange, and maintains a clearing office in Chicago.

Henner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272

Columbus, Ga.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANG

about Cigarettes

Practically untouched by human hands

E'D like you to see Chesterfields made. We know you'd be impressed by the absolute cleanliness of our factories.

The tobaccos are the best that money

Expert chemists test for cleanliness and purity all materials used in any way in the manufacture of Chesterfield cigarettes.

The factories are modern throughout. Even the air is changed every 4½ minutes.

When you smoke a Chesterfield you can be sure that there isn't a purer cigarette made.

In a letter to us an eminent scientist says: "Chesterfields are just as pure as the water you drink."

nestertie! the cigarette that's MILDER

the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

VOL. III

FORT ENNING, GA., FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1934

BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, March 26 .-Ramblings: Brush fires. Box rent due. The tasteless monotony of home-prepared sandwiches. Burns Beall has returned to the fold. The engineer film. Eighty-seven days to graduation. Time marches on. The Upatoi University's varsity letter men increasing by leaps and bounds. Horseshoes. When did we last play volleyball? Cavalryman Cox, the class is relieved to learn, is recovering from his siege of pneumonia. Benning's cold spells are getting no warmer fast. Umpires' white hat bands. Red troops in blue denims. Maj. Roberts' blood nicks. The where-do-we-gofrom-here-chart slowly filling. Cappy Wells and Bill Kunzman, monograph repeaters to the company officer audience, clicked. They, like Ham and Ollie the week before, it is reported, went over like a flag show at a special 4th of July matinee for the benefit of the G. A. R.

Apples in attack, pickles in defense. Horses, horses, horses. If only we could find some way to stabilize a trotter. A terrain exercise is well named. The exercise we're getting is guaranteed to improve that schoolboy digestion. Big jobs and little jobs. Wielding a marshal's baton one day (rather weakly at best), contributing menial service the next as unimportant as a conjunction in a particularly long and complicated sentence. The return of our latest defense problem prompts the thought that we could hardly be classed as a brain-truster. A terrain-buster. Several Benning

The signal to turn in papers after a decision problem is the signal for an increasingly louder hubbub, somewhat reminiscent of a women's bridge club when final scores are being computed. An egoist is a student who gives you no opportunity to talk about your own solution. One of the gentler sex, peeking in at the end of the first requirement in a decision problem, would properly describe us all as a brag, a groan and a tank of air.

The horse we selected at Major Lee's last terrain exercise patiently let us mount and then took off like Lindbergh. We vaulted our horse and rode off in all directions. Red flags. White flags. Ricochet flags. Personal nomination for an ideal S-3: Doc Sams, whose medico training would stand him in good stead in charge of operations. Whatever became of the six-hour plan? One interesting form of horse-play is the Irish Sweepstakes.

Mangum picking them up and laying them down in true doughboy style. And he huffed and he puffed. Proposed student theme song: "You're Driving Me Crazy, You Rascal, U." The new First Division Road unravelling its kinks. The school's amateur radio station, W4ABS thoughtfully provides effortless amateur radio service. The new club. Only three requirements, gentlemen, and they're really quite simple. Horace Woodward, the student gasman, receives well merited orders, a detail to the industrial ware college. Army pay-cuts. Army promotions. Day after day, month after month and year after (Please turn to page 6)

BENNING DAY-Visit Of General Hagood Postponed Until Later Date

> The prospective visit of Major General Johnson Hagood, and Van Horne Moseley, to Fort Benning, which was scheduled to have taken place Thursday, has been postponed, due to a change in plans of the two officers.

> General Hagood left Fort Mc-Pherson, Atlanta, this morning for Fort Bragg, N. C., where he will make a visit of inspection and ob servation. His visit to Fort Benning will probably take place at the end of his swing through the more northern army posts of the 4th Corps Area, and no definite information is available at headquarters, Fort Benning, as to the date of his arrival.

> It is not known whether General Moseley will make the trip to Ft. Benning with General Hagood when the latter does come.

General Hagood's tour of the 4th Corps Area, which is composed of army posts in Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana, is being made in his capacity as commanding general of the Third Army. The territorial forces of the United States are divided into four main divisions, called armies, and General Hagood holds the double duty of commanding the 8th Corps Area, with Headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and the Third Army, in which both the 8th and 4th Corps Area are included.

Officers Promoted In Recent Orders

Captains Wendell G. Bevan, 83d Field Artillery, and Augustus B. O'Connell, prison officer of the Infantry School, were promoted to grade of major Thursday morning, and at the same time First Lieutenant Thomas J. Cross, Infantry, student in the advanced course, and Second Lieutenant Jno. B. Grinstead, student in the advanced course, became captain, and First Lieutenant respectively, when new caths of office were executed in the office of the adjutant at garrison headquarters, Fort Benning.

Of the four officers, Major O' Connel has the most service at time would ever come when I Benning, having come here as a would freely and truthfully admit student in the company officers' that I had seen one that was not course in 1925, and concluded his first assignment at the post on his graduation in 1926, when he play, the lines are clever, and the play, the lines are clever, and the company of the star, and she certainly made the best of it. She was the tough play, the lines are clever, and the "Mayme Mixter"... ex-chorus girl, was detailed to duty at New York University, New York, N. Y. In cleverest of plays can be ruined ticket seller in a movie palace. . . tail and assigned to Benning a second time as a student in the advanced course, and on graduation ning Dramatic Club last Friday was placed on duty with headquarters staff, the Infantry School, as lasting glory on everyone and all police and prison officer.

Major O'Connell was appointed a second lieutenant of Infantry from New York State during the World War, in 1917, and promoted to first lieutenant the same day. Two months later he was commissioned captain (temporary) in August, and relinquished his tempor-

(Please turn to page 4)

Some Impressions of the Dramatic Club Play

Excellent Performances Of "Ladies Of The Jury" Pleases Post Audiences

More years ago than I like to think, I was the newest and rawest (and most useless) reporter on a newspaper. As such, I was handed all of the amateur performances to review, and the times] have listened while Mother's little darling, adenoids, pigeon toes and all, recited something (Mother and she alone knew what), would, if put together, make a nice long prison sentence. And I often used to think that I would really prefer a term in prison to another amateur dramatic event. . . whether it was by children with adencids, Junfor Leaguers with knock knees and no rhythm, or Little Theatre groups with longings for higher things.

In short I had become thorough ly convinced that there was simply no possible excuse for any dramatic effort, and I certainly never, in my wildest dreams thought the by a poor cast. However, the finished performance of this play by the cast presented by the Fort Benand Saturday evenings cast everconcerned.

In so large a cast it is difficult for a reviewer to give to each one his or her due, so right at the there was not a single badly done of Mrs. Chaffin, who talked practically the entire time, to that of is another story entirely. ary rank for that of captain in the Mary Wadsworth, who never said a word during the entire play.

Of course, Mrs. A. D. Chaffin, who handled so beautifully the part of Mrs. Livingston Baldwin Crane, had really the "star" part of the show. And she was great, enacting to life the character of the society leader who finally, by clever politics, dominates the jury. Mrs. Chaffin was completely at ease all of the time, her well modulated voice carried to the last rows of the theatre, and I have no doubt that her intimates got quite a kick out of her Shakespearian renditions, and certainly her Irish "come-all-ye." Edna Mae Oliver could do them no better.

I hardly recognised Esther Kelly in her spinterish role as Lily Pratt, the lady reformer. Full of "principles," and not at all averse to voicing them, she was, from her chastely nure white collar and cuffs, to the soles of her sensible shoes, the lady reformer in person.

Mrs. C. W. Pence had, in point of "meat" the role next to that of to the ground, and her frank and heartfelt comments on all and sundry, interlaced with frequent "Oh. my Gawd's" furnished much of the humor of the performance. Even Katy's best friends were surprised I imagine, by her hidden talent with the ukelele, and certainly few would have suspected mild mannered Mrs. Pence capable of the beginning of this, I shall say that frequent hair-pulling attempts, the threats at bodily injury and the part in the whole play, from that tough wisecracks. To say nothing of her dance with Tony. . . which

> Esther Weeks had the part of (Please turn to page 5)

Infantry Building Bids Are Invited; Opened April 10th

Bids for the construction of the Infantry School building, the last and most important of the structures being erected at Fort Benning under the $6,352,000 grant of Public Works Administration funds, will be opened in the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of the Infantry School on April 10, at

The Infantry School building, which will house the Academic Department and Headquarters of the Infantry School, will be located in the triangle formed by Morrison Street, Wold Avenue, and the First Division Road, directly opposite the new Officers' Club, with, the front of the building facing toward the north. It will be of concrete, stucco, and limestone construction, with tile roof, conforming to the same general type of architecture used in the majority of the permanent buildings of the post, and will be a long step toward the completion of a better equipped and housed Infantry

The new building, which will act as the center of activities of the school, will replace the wartime wooden structures now located in the Academic Area, opposite the 29th Infantry, and the present Headquarters building, which is rapidly becoming inadequate for the needs of the post. In general dimensions it will be approximately 279 feet long, with two wings each one hundred feet long. The center section of the building is to be Ushaped, the two arms of the U forming two additional wings toward the rear of the building in the center. It will be two stories high, with a basement and tower.

The basement, or ground floor. in the center section, will include a weapons room, communications laboratory, locker rooms, store-rooms, boiler room, janitors' room and washrooms. The east wing of the ground floor will include the court-martial rooms, and board room, together with more store rooms while the west wing will be devoted entirely to store rooms

The main floor will consist almost entirely of the academic section which is under the supervision of the assisant commandant. In the center section will be lecture rooms, code room two doctors' offices, stenographers' office, telegraph and radio room, library, sales room, information office, assistant commandant's section, asthe star, and she certainly made sembly rooms, chief clerk's office and washrooms will contain an assembly and class rooms or offices, with the west wing including reading room, delivery space, and book stack room.

The second floor will consist largely of post headquarters, with the center section containing two lecture rooms, record room and vault, correspondence room, personnel section, commandant's office, aids office, office for the adjutant and assistant adjutant, office for the personnel adjutant, stenographer's room, office for the executive, office for the assistant executive, judge advocate's office, office for the judge advocate's clerk, inspector's office, office for the inspector's clerk, assembly (Please turn to page 3)

SEESOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

Easter Eve Dinner Dance To Be Held Saturday Evening At Officers' Club

One of the most delightful af- of green, purple and white. Dinfairs of the week will be the Easter Eve dinner dance which will be dancing will continue until midheld at the Officers' Club on Saturday evening. For this occasion, the Club will be appropriately decorated in the Easter motif. A large Easter basket filled with eggs, chickens and bunnies will be suspended from the center light while purple and green streamers will be festooned around the sides. A number of individual tables seating from eight to forty guests will be arranged in the feyer and library. These tables will be decorated with little Easter baskets and streamers

FLAVORS

Only pure fruits and flavors are used in the manufacture of Kinnett's Ice Cream, and you are certain of perfect enjoyment with every spoonful. Order Kinnett's EVERY time.

Sold at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club

ner will be served at eight and night with the 29th Infantry orchestra furnishing the music.

Among the high lights of the Officers' Club program for the coming weeks will be the performance of the University of Georgia Glee Club and dance which will be held on Thursday, April 5th. On April 12, there will be a dinner and dance to be given for the Reserve and National Guard officers.

Reserving tables for Saturday's dinner and dance are:

Major and Mrs. M. S. Lough, Major and Mrs. Thomas S. Arms, Major and Mrs. Philip G. Blackmore, Capt. and Mrs. George F. Bloomquist, Capt. and Mrs. John

Albright, Lt. and Mrs. R. S.

HOUSE GUESTS ENTERTAIN-

ED AT DINNER SUNDAY EVENING

Major and Mrs. William H. H. Morris entertained Sunday evening at a delightful dinner party given at the Officers' Club in compliment of their houseguests, Mrs. George S. Simonds, Mrs. Albert S. Williams and Mrs. George Grunert of Washington, D. C. The center pece for the table was a lovely silver bowl of pink and white snap dragons flanked by silver candlesticks bearing pink tapers. Covers were laid for twenty-six. The guests were: General and Mrs. H. Estes, Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton, Colonel and Mrs. Chas. W. Weeks, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. James B. Woolnough, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Albert S. J. Tucker, Major and Mrs. Henry Terrell, Major and Mrs. John F. Conby, Mrs. Simonds, Mrs. Comp. Corby, Mrs. Simonds, Mrs. Grunert, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Donning, Mrs. William H. Jones and Lieut. Joseph B. Crawford.

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER ...

..$ 550,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

40 REASONS

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every diffi-

We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

MRS. JONES COMPLIMENTED AT DINNER PARTY

Mrs. William H. Jones, Jr. of Governors Island, the attractive house guest of her parents, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin, was the honor guest Wednesday evening when her hosts entertained with a dinner given at their quarters on Miller Loop. A lovely bouquet of yellow jonquils, flanked by silver candlesticks bearing yellow candles, was used as the table decoration. The Chaffins' guest list included: Mrs. Jones, Major and Mrs. Herbert A. Wadsworth. Capt. and Mrs. Horace O. Cushman, Capt. and Mrs. John J. Albright, Capt. and Mrs. Charles W. Pence, Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Pierce, Mrs. Harriett Weeks, Mrs. Schaeffer, Miss Kathleen Orndorff, Miss Margaret Hall, Major Kramer Thomas, Capt. John W. Blue, Lieut. James J. Matthews, Lieut. Joseph B. Crawford and Mr. Thurston Crawford.

After dinner the guests were escorted to the Post movies. Among the many delightful affairs given for this popular visitor was a luncheon Tuesday given by Mr. Joseph A. Atkins.

MANY FORT BENNING PEO-PLE AT DINNER DANCE AT COLUMBUS COUNTRY CLUB ON SATURDAY

More than a hundred reservations by members of Fort Benning society were made for the dinner dance Saturday evening at the Columbus Country Club. Among the reservations were those of the Medical Corps which entertained at its monthly dinner. In this group, covers were laid for Colonel and Mrs. Thomas J. Leary, Major and Mrs. Raymond W. Pearson, Major and Mrs. John F. Corby, Major and Mrs. George F. Aycock, Major and Mrs. Homer F. Conner, Major and Mrs. Jas. W. Duckworth, Major and Mrs. Henry E. Frasier, Major and Mrs. Albert G. Kinberger, Major and Mrs. Claude V. Gautier, Major and Mrs. James S. Brummette, Major and Mrs. Walter A. Rose, Major and Mrs. Lucius K. Patterson, Major and Mrs. Charles O. Grace, Captain and Mrs. Stanley W. Matthews, Captain and Mrs. Walter E. Chase, Captain and Mrs. Charles L. Baird, Captain and Mrs. Max V. Talbot, Captain and Mrs. Wayne G. Brandstadt, Captain and Mrs. Crawford F. Sams, Captain and Mrs. Richard McElwain, Mrs. Tichenor, Lt. and Mrs. Robert E. Hammersberg, Lt. and Mrs. Paul C. Borup and Adding to the attractive appearance of the Club was the decorations of early spring blossomscherry, peach, and pear were offset by forest ferns.

MRS. PIERCE ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB MONDAY

Mrs. James R. Pierce was the hostess Monday to the members of her bridge club when she entertained with a lovely bridge luncheon at her quarters on Miller Loop. The centerpiece for the luncheon table was a bouquet of early Spring flowers in pastel shades. The guest list included Mesdames Harriett Weeks, George P. Howell, Clayton H. Studebaker, Lynn E Brady, James E. Bowen, Charles T. Lanham, William C. Lucas, and Miss Harr otte Atkins.

PERSONALS

Major and Mrs. Albert S. Peake of Macon, spent last weekend as the guests of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Elmer F. Rice. While here they attended the Dramatic Club per formance on Saturday.

Friends of Miss Polly Wrightson, the house guest of Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey will be glad to hear that she is recovering from the measles.

A congenial party of young matrons went to Atlanta on Wednesday for a day of Easter shopping. They were Mrs. Joseph I. Greene, Mrs. Malcolm F. Lindsey, Mrs. Burrell Cole and Mrs. George Woodruff.

DINNER PARTIES TO BE HELD BEFORE GLEE CLUB SHOW

Several dinner parties will be held before the presentation, next Thursday, of the University of Georgia Glee Club at the Main Theatre. The parties will be held at the Officers' Club and a dance afterward will also be a center of attraction at the Post.

The Glee Club is planning, under the sponsorship of the Infantry School Woman's Club, a very lively program, full of songs, dances and features. The performance will begin at 8:30 and tickets are on sale at Fort Benning and in Columbus, for 50c The White Company on Twelfth Street and Humes', on Broadway, are selling the tickets in Columbus.

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

EASTER FLOWERS

DELIVERED EVERWHERE \mathbf{BY} TELEGRAPH

FLOWER SHOP

ROSENBERG'S

JEWELERS

Carry

Nationally known and advertised lines and Solicit Your Charge Accounts 1241 Broadway

URNITURE

FOR SUMMERTIME

You haven't a minute longer to wait to buy your porch and lawn furniture. And, when you buy, don't forget to come to this store. We have a beautiful selection of fine outdoor furniture, selling at most reasonable prices.

PORCH FURNITURE

Made of Wicker, with cushions covered with beautiful, $3050 durable material, ideally suited for any porch. This Suite is priced at the economical price of......

GLIDERS

Smooth-running gliders, that will stand the weather well. A glider this summer will add much to your

$Q00

DECK CHAIRS $1.25

PORCH CHAIRS, unpainted$2.75 up

Cunningham Furniture Co. 1014 BROADWAY

"Shadow Of The Cross", Beautiful Painting To Be Shown by Woman's Club

The Shadow of the Cross, celebrated unexplained painting in Easter Services To which a cross has been reappearing over the life-size figure of Christ for more than 40 years, is to be brought to Columbus for a three-day public exhibition it was announced today by Mrs. Frank Lummus, president of the Columbus Woman's Club House Asso ciation.

Arrangements have been made, Mrs. Lummus announced, to exhibit the strange painting in the Woman's Club House, 1425 Wynnton Read, three days, starting April 10.

and over the left shoulder appears world's fair in 1893 and years latworld's fair and in the San Fran-

Henry Ault, its artist, intended it to be "Christ in the Wilderness." by the Men's Choir. Dr. Pierce Harris, Ault was a landscape painter and Luke Methodist Church of Columthis was his first figure of Christ. It was his last.

in the dark he discovered the Dr. Geoffrey C. Hinshelwood, reccross appearing over his unfinity tor of Trinity Episcopal Church ished painting of Christ. He will deliver a sermon to the protesthought that the moonlight stream- | tant congregation. There will be ing in through the window was an Easter Day program Sunday causing the unusual effect, and he morning at nine-thirty especially moved the painting into a darker for the young people of the Sunday room, expecting to escape it. But there he found that he could see ices will be held at ten-forty-five it even better.

again, but spent the last years of at six-thirty. his life trying to find an explana-tion for it. He never found it and died penniless.

Artists, scientists, and religious leaders have studied the painting for more than 40 years but no explanation has ever been found for the Shadow of the Cross.

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Dependable. Electric and Gas Service

EORGIA COMPANY

A Citizen Wherever We Serve 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

USE TESTED SEEDS

There's no way of positively guaranteeing yourself a beautiful garden, but you can greatly increase your chances by using tested and certified seed We sell only the best of garden seed . . . every kind you may require.

> BRADFORD and MEADOWS 1240 BROADWAY

Be Held By Both

In observance of the Easter Day Resurrection, the Catholic and Protestant denominations of Fort Benning have planned special services for Friday and Sunday at the two chapels.

The Good Friday program at the Catholic Chapel will begin in the In the light the canvas represents a life-size figure of "Christ beautiful old custom of the Stain the Wilderness," but in the dark tions of the Cross. The Reverend it can be seen by its own light Thomas P. Corrigan of St. Mary's and over the left shoulder appears a cross that is distinctly a shadow.

The Shadow of the Cross achiev"1 he Crucifixion." Following the ed world fame in the Chicago sermon there will be other Catholic rituals and Good Friday observer was exhibited in the St. Louis ances. Sunday morning at eight o'clock Low Mass will be held, and cisco exposition. It is now on its the High Mass at ten o'clock, with seventh tour of the world. a special program of Easter music

Dr. Pierce Harris, pastor of St. bus will preach at the Protestant Chapel Th'ursday evening at seven-Returning to his cabin one night thirty. On Good Friday evening, in the morning, and the Christian He never touched the painting Endeavor exercises in the evening

> The public is cordially invited to attend the services at either

Girl Scouts

After basketball practice Saturday morning, March 24th, the girls interested in the Pioneer Badge assembled at the Girl Scout Cabin for a hike to Hall pool. Mrs. Schneider accompanied us and brought a welcomed guest from Albany. After arriving at our destination we built fires and cooked lunch.

Practical work on the Pioneer Badge was taken up after lunch under the supervision of Mrs. Matchett. A short period of re-laxation followed, after which heads were counted and the group returned home, tired and happy. Later some of the Girl Scouts ushered for the Dramatic Club.

NEW ACADEMIC BUILDING

(Continued from page 1)

room and washrooms. The east wing will be comprised of offices and an assembly room, with the west wing containing offices and a reading room.

The tower, which will be over the center section, will contain a

The main door of the building be surmounted by a limestone lintel, on which will be inscribed "The Infantry School," above this in the triangle formed by the roof, will be the coat of arms of the United States Army, carved in stone, while above the door, where the transom is usually located, will be the crossed rifles of the Infantry, flanked on either side by the insignia of the Infantry School.

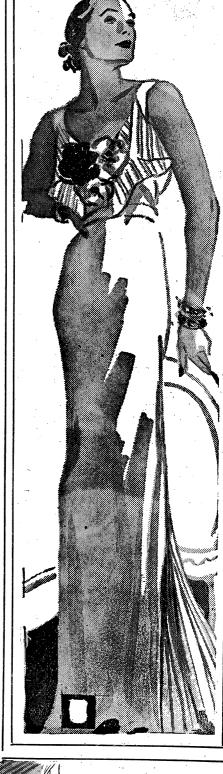

What firms will bid on the contract is not known by post authoriies at the present, as the bids were advertised Monday. It is expected however, that the number of competitors for the construction will be above the average number on projects in the past, due to the size of the project, and its import-smart fashions that make you look like a ...

KIRVEN'S

PICTURE OF SPRING

THE BENNING HERALD

Columbus, Georgia

Published Every Friday

VOLUME IIIS	MARCH 30, 1934	NO. 49
L C Kunze		Publisher
A. F. Kunze		Editor
Felicia C. Howell	 	Society Editor
		Sports Editor
Louis T. Kunze		Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising matter.

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE,
BALTIMORE

ASSIGNMENTS

signment by War Department or der of several student officers now at the Infantry School to other posts, has been received at Fort Benning. It is expected that the official orders will be received at nost headquarters within the next days detailing Lieutenants John A. Farra, ir., to duy at Fort George G. Meade, Md.; William F. Steer to Jefferson Barracks, Mo., William J. Verbeck to Fort Jay, New York, James R. Simpson to Fort Thomas, Ky., and Harold A. Meyer to Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

All of the officers concerned are members of the 1933-34 company officers' course of the Infantry School, with the exception of Lieutenant Meyer, who is taking the advanced course, and all are concluding their first detail at the Infantry School. They arrived here last fall from various stations throughout the world, Lieutenant Verbeck having been on duty at Pettit Barracks, Zamboanga, P. I.; Lieutenant Steer from the Coast Artillery School at Fort Monroe, Va.; Lieutenant Simpson from the 66th Infantry at Fort Meade; Lieutenant Meyer from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., and Lieutenant Farra from duty with the 19th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, Hawaiia.

Captain William C. Lee, Infantry, at the present time a student at the French Tank School, Versailles, France, has been ordered to duty at Fort Benning, as an instructor in the Academic Department of the Infantry School, according to further information received at the post. Captain. Lee was on duty at Fort Benning in the school year 1932-33 when he was a member of the advanced class, and left here for his assignment at the foreign service school last May. He also graduated from the company officers' course, class of 1922. At the time of his last assignment to Benning in 1932 he was on duty with the 1st Tank Regiment at Fort George G. Meade, Captain Lee began his military service as a member of the Officers' Reserve Corps on active duty during the World War in 1917. His regular army commission in that grade was given in 1920, and his captaincy in 1925.

War Department orders received at headquarters the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, on Wednesday morning announced the assignment of a number of officers to duty at this post as students during the 1934-35 school year, and the relief of one of the instructors of the academic department. Those officers affected by the orders are lieutenant Colonel John L. Jenkins, Infantry, ordered to duty as instructor of infantry, Florida National Guard, with station at St. Augustine, Fla.; Captain George F. McDonald, now on duty at Fort McArthur, and Ver-General Hospital, San Francisco, Calif., and Lieutenants King, 7th Infantry, Vancouver 1920, and transferred to the Quartermaster School. School of the Quartermaster School. Onliversity of Illinois, and the Vancouver tenant Stokes left Fort Benning Notre Dame coaching school run by the late Knute Rockne, the Attended the Quartermaster School. Greatest of football coaches. Lieu-

Information of the impending as- Barracks, Wash.; Paul J. Black, 30th Infantry, Presidio of San Francisco, Calif.; Ord C. Crisman, 4th Infantry, Fort Wright, Wash. Willis G. Cronk, 7th Infantry, Van-Barracks; Wallace couver Honnold, 38th Infantry, Fort Douglas, Utah, Kenneth N. Kinsler, 30th Infantry, Presidio; Jay B. Loveless, 7th Infantry, Vancouver Barracks; George P. Lynch, 38th Infantry, Fort Douglas, Harold V. Roberts, 4th Infantry, Fort Wright, and John Stokes, jr., 30th Infantry, Presidio, to duty as students for next year's course.

Colonel Jenkins has been on duty at Benning since 1930, when he came here from duty with the 30th Infantry, at the Presidio, to take up his duties as an instructor in the Infantry School. At the time of his assignment to Benning he held the rank of major, but shortly after his arrival was promoted to his present grade of lieutenant colonel, a rank which had previously attained in the National Army during the World War. His service in the army began in 1903, when he entered the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., a cadet, and he received his second lieutenant commission in 1907. At the entry of the United States into the World War he had reached the rank of captain, and was advanced to the grade of major temporary, and shortly thereafter to lieutenant colonel. He attained the regular army grade of major in 1920. Other details of his military service include the unusual record of attendance at the School of the Line, class of 1922, General Staff School, 1923, Army War College, 1924, Navy War College, class of 1925, and a three year detail on the general staff at Washington, D. C., from 1925 to 1928.

It is expected that Colonel Jenkins will leave Fort Benning about the end of June.

Captain McDonald was on duty once before at Fort Benning with the 24th Infantry, coming here in 1929 from duty with the 45th Infantry (Philippine Scouts) at Ft. McKinley, Rizal, P. I. He left here in 1931 on detail to the Quartermaster School at Philadelphia, Penn., having been assigned to that station as a student. Prior to his first detail to Benning he had had eleven years' service in the regular peginning as a second lieutenant of Infantry in 1918. For his services in the World War, in which he was wounded, he was awarded the right to wear the Order of the Purple Heart. At the present time he is on duty with the Quartermaster Corps at Fort MacArthur, and has been relieved from that branch of the service for duty as a student at the Infantry School. He will arrive at Benning sometime this summer.

Captain Nash's service began as a color sergeant, infantry unassigned, in February 1914, in which grade he served through the World War. He was commissioned a first lieutenant of infantry in regular army in 1920. In addition to graduating from two of the Infantry School courses, Major O' Connell holds an A. B. degree from the College of the City of New York, conferred in 1915.

OFFICERS PROMOTED (Continued from page 1)

Major Bevan also came to Ben ning as a student in 1930, at the conclusion of a period of study at the Field Artillery School at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. graduation from the advanced course in 1931 he was assigned to duty with the 83rd Field Artillery Since his arrivals at Benning Major Bevan has played a major part in the various recreational activities of the post in addition to his military duties, and is one of the most important players of the 83d Field Artillery polo team.

He has been serving in the army since 1916, when he was a sergeant in Battery A, 1st Field Artillery of the Colorado National Guard. He was commissioned second lieutenant field artillery in 1917, and first lieutenant the same day, paralleling to the day the same promotions and commissions as Major O'Connell. For his wartime service Major Bevan has been awarded two Silver Star citations by the War Department.

In the military educational line Major Bevan has graduated from the Field Artillery School battery officers' course, class of 1924, and the advanced officers' course, class of 1930. He also holds a bachelor of science degree awarded by the University of Colorado in 1915.

Captain Cross came to Fort Benning from the 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., in order to attend the 1933-34 advanced course, to which he had been detailed by War Department order. His army service was first as a corporal in Company H, 2d Infantry, N. Y. National Guard in 1916, and later as sergeant in the same organization and in Company H 105th Infantry. In 1918 he was commissioned second lieutenant of infantry, and a year later promoted to 1st lieutenant, serving with the American Expeditionary Force in Siberia as a machine gun officer. In 1920 he received his regular army commission as first lieutenant.

Recently War Department orders assigned Captain Cross to duty with the Infantry School Detachment, effective on his graduation from the advanced course. While no definite information is available to that effect at headquarters, Fort Benning, it is expected that he will be assigned to some duty in connection with the Provost Marshal's office.

Lieutenant Grinstead was also assigned to Fort Benning for the 1933-34 course, coming here from duty with the 45th Infantry (Philippine Scouts) at Fort McKinley, Rizal, P. I. After his arrival at Fort Benning in May, 1933, he was assigned to duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps, and was stationed at Albany, Ga., with a company until the opening of school in September.

Lieutenant Grinstead entered the U. S. Military Academy at West Point in 1924, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in 1928. At the present time he is under orders to attend the 1934-35 tank course at the Infantry School.

Lieutenant Stokes is the only one of the remaining officers that has seen service at Fort Benning, he having been assigned here in 1926 from duty as a student at the Ordnance School at Watertown Arsenal, to command the 72d Ordnance Company at this post. During the four years that he was stationed at Benning he was placed on detached service each fall as a coach of the army football team at West Point, and was largely responsible for the record made by that team in 1927-28-29-30. He attended Lakeland, Fla., football, the summer athletic course at the stay on the ground overnight. One University of Illinois, and the

CLASS SCHEDULES

The Advanced Course class of the Infantry School at Fort Benning is scheduled for a week of work consisting largely of outdoor demonstrations, while the Company Officers' Course class takes up a variety of studies, and the Reserve Officers' and National Guard class will spend most of the week in the study of infantry weapons and tactics.

Monday being set aside as one of the Easter holidays, the Adclass will begin vanced Course their week's work Tuesday, spending the entire day under the direction of Major William F. Lee in a field exercise at Harmony Church and Kelley and Jordan Hills.

Major Herbert A. Wadsworth will direct the class Wednesday morning in a field exercise dealing with the tactics of the battalion in defense, the action taking place on Turner Hill and at Harmony Church. In the afternoon the tactics of tank reconnaissance will be taken up by the class at Ebbert and Davis Hills and Strickland Ridge, under the direction of Captain Edward C. Johnson.

Thursday morning Major Henry J. Matchett will supervise the class in a field exercise consisting of a demonstration of the tactics of the battalion in defense. In the afternoon periods Major Henry Terrell, Jr., will lead the class in a demonstration of the brigade in attack.

Major Wadsworth will submit a marked problem to the class, Friday morning, having to do with the tactics of the battalion in defense. The remainder of the day will be spent under the supervision of Major Neal C. Johnson in a terrain exercise dealing with the tactics of the regiment in attack.

A conference under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel James В. Woolnough on the subject of the tactics of the commander and staff is scheduled for the Company Company Officers' Course class for the first period Monday morning. In the following period, Major John N. Robinson will lead a conference dealing with the supplies of the service company. During the afternoon a conference and demonstration on the subject of the mechanical inspection of motors will be given the class by Captain Laurin L. Williams.

Wednesday morning, the class will be at Turner Hill and Harmony Church in a field exercise which deals with the tactics of the battalion in defense. Major Wadsworth will have charge of the class. Practical work in mechanical inspection under the direction of Captain Williams is scheduled for the afternoon.

An orientation on the delivery of the fifteen minute talk is the subject upon which Major William W. Eagles will lecture to the class, Lieutenant Thursday morning.

Joseph A. Holly will lead a conference on motor convoys in the next period. The final class period of the day will be used in a demonstration of infantry regiment supply, under the supervision of Captain Howard Clark.

Major Wadsworth will be at the head of the class, Friday morning, at which time the class will have a marked problem on the tactics of the battalion in defense. During the afternoon Captain Williams will submit a marked problem concerning the mechanical inspection of motors.

The National Guard and Reserve Officers' class will have its picture taken in the first period Monday morning. Major Robinson will lead the class in a conference which deals with the regimental service company supply. For the first part of the afternoon, Major Easley will lead in a conference, demonstration, and practical work in the care and cleaning, immediate stoppages, etc., of the machine gun. The day's work will end with a conference demonstration, and practical work in the use of bayonet.

Tuesday morning Captain Henry E. Kelly will direct the class in a conference, demonstration, and practical work in a continuation of the study of the use of the machine gun. Next, the class will take up a conference, demonstration, and practical work under the direction of Captain Burton L. Lucas, having to do with the ma-chine gun. Captain Alexander H. Cummings will then supervise the class in a conference, demonstration, and practical work concerning the elements of musketry.

Wednesday, Captains Kelly and Lucas will supervise a test in the elementary training of the ma-chine gun. During the first part of the afternoon, there will be a conference, demonstration, and practical work having to do with rifle grenades. In the last class period of the day, Lieutenant Kameil Maertens will have direction of the class in a conference, demonstration, and practical work with the bayonet.

Thursday morning, the class will take up landscape target firing, supervised by Captain Cummings. Captain Clark will have the direction of the class during the afternoon on the reservation in a demonstration of the infantry regiment supply.

A terrain exercise at Oliver and Anderson Hills having to do with the tactics of the battalion in delaying action is scheduled for the class for Friday morning. Next, Major Easley will lead the class in a conference, demonstration, and practical work in the use of grenades. In the final class period of the week, Lieutenant Maertens will be at the head of the class in a conference.

29TH INFANTRY

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY The company is doing its usual company duties with a demonstration about every day.

After a two weeks' quarantine of measles, the housemen had an enjoyable weekend.

M. Hurs operators said he enjoyed the quarantine listening to Ringenberg's great line. He has talked about every contour line between here and Alaska. Ringenberg is always trying to make someone happy and said if he knew it would make people laugh he would jump off the building.

After the completion of the present signal communication school the company will have lots of little radio bugs running around.

There was a heavy fall of snow here in the post Monday night of last week but the snow did not of the radio sergeants, Murphy, had been over at the post bowling alleys and started to the company barracks in this snow and got lost three different times coming to the company. He finally arrived in the company out of breath and asked if this was Headquarters Company, and when told that it was said he had been lost three different times coming from the bowling alleys.

Pvt. 1cl. specialist 4th class I. H. Perry (2nd Lt. Inf. Res.) fast typist and stenographer in Headquarters 29th Infantry, has reenlisted on the 29th for three years and has taken the measles on the same day and has been sent to the hospital. The company is proud of his reenlistment.

The company is glad to get its new company mechanic. Private George, V. He transferred from Company E 29th Infantry.

The following men of the company have been rated and appoint-

(Please turn to page 7)

"LADIES OF THE JURY" (Continued from page 1)

the lovesick Cynthia Tate, which she portrayed beautifully, and that of Mrs. Dace, the other lovelorn maiden, who spent her time mourning for her bridegroom, was ably handled by Mrs. A. W. Stuart. Mrs. O. W. Hughes, in the part of Mrs. Maguire the cook, both in part and makeup, was excellent.

From a standpoint of acting, the part of Mrs. W. A. Moore was perhaps the most difficult of the whole play. As the prisoner at the bar, an emotional French woman, Mrs. Moore put on a beautiful performance. Before her marriage Mrs. Moore was Phyllis Sargent, and has appeared in other

> Children's Hair Cuts 15c Other prices in proportion FLOWERS BROTHERS Succesors to Metcalf's Barber Shop 1222 and 1030 Broadway

> > We Make

RUBBER STAMPS

Columbus Office Supply

EASTER

BASKETS and CANDIES for the KIDDIES

Please the children this year with chicks bunny rabbits, candles and baskets from Silver's. We have a large assortment at very economical prices.

SILVER'S

Corner Broad & 11th St.

Dramatic Club performances. Ger- Lilly Pratt: Miss Esther Kelly trude Hannah in the part of Evelyn Snow, the maid who betrays her mistress was very good indeed. The part of Suzanne, Mrs. Crane's maid was nicely handled by Mrs. G. C. McKinley.

Capt. M. G. Brislawn had the part of Jay J. Pressley, the domneering and harassed foreman of the jury, whom Mrs. Crane checkmated at every move, even though he was ably seconded in his efforts for conviction by his co-reformer Lily Pratt. Captain Brisawn is another "old timer" with the Dramatic Club, and gave his usual dependable performance. Capt. G. A. Schlieker, as Spencer D. Dozey who just would make speeches on any provocation. . . or none at all. . . was good indeed even if his speeches were not.

Lt. J. E. Raymond had the difficult part of Tony Theodolphulus, Greek candy store owner. Lt. Raymond also has appeared in several Benning productions, and never to better advantage. His weird and wonderful clothes, his accent and his love affair with the tough Mayme, were high lights of the performance. Lt. Ferenbaugh as Steve Bromm who has "a wife, two kids and a gas station" waiting for him, and who wanted a verdict in a hurry, but who helped Mrs. Crane in her monkey wrench throwing, was the profance but determined Steve to the letter. Captain H. L. Barrett handled capably the part of Andrew Mc-Kaig, the Scotch gardener, and Lt. J. B. Crawford as the love lorn poet has no doubt set h m-self for months of poetry reading to his friends. Col. C. W. Weeks handled the most dignified manner the part of Judge Fish, who knew Mrs. Crane socially. . . a fact most embarrassing to the harassed but patient judge of the court. The parts of the two lawyers were well taken by Lt. F. E. Howard as lawyer for the state, and Lt. Tom Kent for the accused, while Lt. C. N. Howze had the "bit" of the Gordon family physician.

Captain A. J. Funk the popular "Sheriff" of Fort Benning very capably handled the part of B.ll Dobbs, the "watch dog" of the jury, and Lt. W. H. Fuller as clerk of the court administrated the court of of the court, administered the cath in the orthodox unintelligible manner, indeed. Two inarticulate actors were Lt. M. L. Pressley and Lt. R. S. Nourse as the waiters, who were "like good children" seen but not heard.

"Ladies of the Jury" is the last play of the season for the Dramatic Club. It was directed by Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth, who may indeed be complimented for ending the season in a blaze of glory. -Mary Meehan Harries.

The list of players who took part follows:

Director Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth

CASTWomen of the Jury: Mrs. Livingson Baldwin Crane:

Mrs. A. D. Chaffin

Ceache

You can earn several hundred dollars this summer, and you can secure a better position and a larger salary for the coming year. Complete information will be mailed on receipt of a three cent stamp. Send for it to-day.

CONTINENTAL TEACHERS AGENCY, INC.

1850 Downing St., Denver, Colo.

Covers the ENTIRE United States

Rural Schools and City Schools Summer Work and School Year Positions

"Thanks for sending me so many good positions to apply for, over 30 during the first five days I was enrolled."—An Illinois Teacher.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS:—We can put you intouch with the very finest teachers. Our service is free to you.

Mayme Mixter: Mrs. C. W. Pence Cyntha Tate: Miss Esther Weeks Mrs. Dace: Mrs. A. W. Stuart Mrs. Maguire: Mrs. O. W. Hughes

Women of the Court Room: Mrs. Gorden (Yvette Yvet): Mrs. W. A. Moore

Evelyn Snow: Miss Gertrude Hannah

Suzanne: Mrs. G. C. McKinley Court Reporter: Miss Mary Wads-

Men of the Jury: Jay J. Pressley: Capt. M. G. Bris-

Spencer B. Dozey: Capt. G. A. Schlieker

Tony Theodolphulus: Lieut. J. E. Raymond

Steve Bromm: Lieut. C. B. Ferenbaugh Andrew MacKaig: Capt. H. L. Bar-

Alonzo Beal: Lieut. J. B. Crawford Men of the Court Room:

Judge Fish: Col. C. W. Weeks Halsey Van Stye: Lieut. F. E. Howard

Rutherford Date: Lieut. T. Kent Dr. Quincy Adams James Jr.: Lt. C. N. Howze Bill Dobbs: Capt. A. J. Funk

Clerk of the Court: Lieut. W. H. Fuller Waiters: Lieuts. M. L. Pressley and R. S. Nourse

THE NEW

De SOTO

WILL BE ON DISPLAY—BEGINNING FRIDAY. SATURDAY AND SUNDAY -IN OUR SHOWROOM-YOU ARE INVITED TO SEE THIS AMAZING NEW ULTRA-STREAM-LINED CAR

McMurria

MOTOR COMPANY

Sixth Avenue Phone 2590

Spring Savings

SPRING ISN'T ACTUALLY HERE YET— BUT WE'VE BROUGHT IT NEARER WITH THESE SPRING BARGAINS.

MEN'S SUITS

Society Brand and Devonshire-including doublebreasted and By-Swing models. All the new light colors

$18.50 to $35.00

Men's Shoes

Bostonians, correctly made so they will fit you perfectly. Blacks, Tans, Sport styles for the warm weather.

$5.00 to $8.00

Neckwear

The largest and most beautiful selection of Spring neckwear we have ever shown. Nationally known makes. Priced at $1.00 - $1.50 - $2.00

MEN'S PAJAMAS

Prices have advanced, but after seeing our new styles at such low prices

$1.50 - $1.65 - $1.95

you will think they have been REDUCED!

MEN'S SHIRTS

Manhattan, Wilson Brothers, Philip Jones, Shirts, Made in white and in all the new colors. Each one of them is ideally suited for your spring wardrobe,

$1.00 - $1.25 - $1.50

Underwear

Union Suits, Shirts and shorts-Man-hattan and Wilson Brothers. Priced

Straw Hats-First showing of the new straw hats for the summer

Men's Hats

50c to $1.50

$1.00 to $3.50

CHANCELLOR

FORT BENNING'S COLUMBUS HEADQUARTERS

BENNING DAY BY DAY

(Continued from page 1)

year as we stand before the same cracked mirror, scraving our neck and chin the thought comes that we're here today and haven't gone far tomorrow.

To the club's last Thursday din per dance last week, marvelling at the intricate calisthenics of the trombone player, which reminds us that the most efficient man in the world is the sliphorn artist that can march through a revolving door without missing a note. This regiment attacks with both flanks abreast. Single-filing by Dowdall's cafeterian, cavorting with an unbalanced meal tray. Ham Meyer has been ordered to San Antone. If the school's marked problems continue increasing in weight we recommend one of the medical corps' obesity letters. The inbound morning traffic is stepping up. The school had us down last week with a case of maldecision. An orchid to Dolly Hughes for representing (and representing well) the advanced class in "Ladies of the Ju-Simmons has been ordered to Fort Themas.

Hint to desicion-seekers: When both flanks are in the air, flapping in unison, and the enemy laughs up his sleeve while he looks down

ENLISTED MEN'S

Regulation

GARRISON CAPS

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your dealer or post exchange

Ask for Meyer or Acid Test Insignia and Buttons.

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

NEW YORK

your throats, face about and take up a pursuit. This, like Major Eagles' latest historical presentation on the British in India, not only produces a successful reconnaissance in force but is guaranteed to bring the entire enemy force back with you intact. Like Lightning, in the play of that name who drove a swarm of bees across the desert without losing a one. Stormy weather and decision problems bode ill for a harassed soul. A rainbow round our shoulder and a rope around our neck. We assisted in a recent field exercise in the capture of a prisoner. Unfortunately our efforts went to naught as he spoke only in Reddish. Doing a swamp-dance in Benning's beter everglades. Maintaining one's direction through thick woods is as difficult as keeping a speck in a glass of water from getting in the mouth when taking a drink. George Taylors masterly conduct of a battalion in withdrawal. Everybody talking at once after decision problems, seeking approbation or sympathy. One man's meat is another man's croquette. More horses. We will always blame them for the seat of cur trouble. The field service regulations, though they help us not, are the fondest authority we're of. There we go again violating the in junction of our old English teacher who warned us long ago never to use a preposition to end a sentence with. And so to bed after another field exercise, preceded by a session of ring-aroundthe-bathtub.

Our citation goes this week to the members of the cast of "Ladies of the Jury" for closing the dramatic club season with a perfect play.

ENGINEERS

COMPANY "A"

Snuck-up admits pulling the worst boner of his career and boy was his face red?

Pvt. Nicholson transferred from "G" Company 29th Infantry to the Engineers. That's fine business young feller, we just had one shovel left.

Schellinger and Tanner left on pass this week going to Jackson-ville. We understand they just couldn't stay away any longer.

We have just started baseball practice this week with Sergeant Tooze in charge. We expect to

. Medicos

Originality is disclaimed for the following but is fundamentally true of a particular buddy's character:

LISTEN WORLD, he's proud! He's lived a lot, made a mess of most of it-yet he's proud! Loved a lot, broken his heart because of it—but he's proud! He's tried, failed and been laughed at; fumbled, fibbed and been shown up-STILL HE'S PROUD! Earned money and lost it; made a name and muffed it; dreamed great visions; two-timed 'em all—yet gone on being proud! Why? Listen! Listen and learn from him! For this goes for you as well as for h.m. Why is he proud? He's proud because he has life; because, out of all the things he might have been, he was born a human with the beautiful and the terrible gift of a brain, and the dangerous and divine gift of a soul. He's proud he has life-and proud because he dared live it, even though he made a mess of it. Proud because once in a million times he's been brave, even though he is a coward; and once in a million times he's been honest, even to ough he's a liar; and once in a million times he's been wise and kind, even though he's stupid and cruel. He's proud he could dream, even though he wallowed; proud he could pray, even then while he blasphemed; proud that something in h.m was always taller, always finer, always whiter than his outward acts. Most of all, he's proud because he's loved; because he dared to demand love; dared to risk everything he had in the service of love; dared to go on loving even when he failed at love-dared to go on rejoicing, even when he lost the one he loved! For love is worth all it costs, anything it costs-tears, prayers, shame, suffering, loneliness, heartache—a grave. Love is worth anything. Life is worth anything. He's proud because he has learned it; proud because he's risked it—and if there isn't any more? If this is all there is? Then still he'll be proud! Still glad he's born. And if, in that last moment before the long darkness, he shall see Death stand waiting, On God, give him the gumption to thumb his five fingers and whoop in his ear-"lo, death, you old two-spot, you think you can scare him? You've come here to take him? Baloney! Stop kidding! Get this:

"You're nuts!
You can't hurt him,
or rob him, or break him,
he's licked you, you faker,
he's lived!!

-Robert E. Olsen.

win the pennant in the Twilight League in a walk?

Chief Philips is paging Sherlock Holmes to help him to solve the mystery of the trench digger. He says Sgt. Johnston will do if he can't get Sherlock. It's a question of too many clues.

The Baer and Copey will be back in a few days. Both boys stayed longer than they intended.

Puggy Weinert was a guest of the company Tuesday afternoon for tea. . ALL right—slum, then.

Crews has ordered a breast protector and mask. Wonder what you are going to do with them Thomas?

We move in the new barracks next week—or do we?

Elfred Lassiter

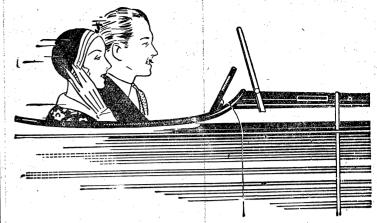

SUBSCRIBE NOW

To The

BENNING HERALD

$1.50 Year

LIKE FLYING

with

Your Car In Good Repair

A smoothly running engine—vibrationless ease of control—these are the results of having a car in perfect condition. Keep yours that way with our DeLuxe Service—one that combines thirty-three mechanical operations with a thorough cleaning.

We do painting work on all makes of automobiles.

Auto Department

Post Exchange

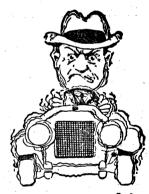

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

DANGEROUS to drive & your car

.... when it shimmies ...

You're not safe to go on the highway—or even drive around town—with a car that shimmies, wanders, weaves, or steers hard.

You Can't Control a Car With Steering Out of Line

It's liable to take you in the ditch any minute or cause a collision you'd always regret. We line up axles, wheels, and steering so that your car will steer and handle like new with —the method all leading manufacturers recommend —straightens bent and twisted axles COLD—in the car STOPS ALL SCUFFING, PITTING and GOUGING OF TIRES

Check-up FREE No charge for checking-upour accurate gauges show whether you need corrective service.

Columbus Fender & Body Works

The Post Exchange Is Our Agent At Fort Benning

GOOD for EASTER AND GOOD FOR ALL THE YEAR

FOREMOST PRODUCTS

You can depend on purity and health-fulness when you ask for Foremost—our business and plants were built on this principle. Delicious Ice Cream, pure pasteurized milk, these are Foremost products which you can buy at any dealer.

Always ask for Foremost

Ice Cream and Milk

foremost dairies, inc.

Commended In His Fingerprint Work

Corporal Harry W. Bennett of the Military Police Section of the Infantry School Detachment at Fort Benning has received special commendation from the Commandant for his highly efficient service as a finger-print expert. Corporal Bennett, upon his own initiative and at his own expense qualified himself as a finger-print expert capable of rendering valuable services to the Government in the detection, prosecution, and conviction of criminals.

Enlisting in the army of the 27th of November, 1926, Corporal Bennett was assigned to Company C, Tweny-Ninth Infantry. Fifteen months later he transferred to the Infantry School Detachment and began his career with the Military Police Section of the Twenty-Ninth. In October, 1930, Corporal Bennett received a letter of commendation from Colonel George F Baltzell for outstanding efficiency in work. In the meantime, he was studying, in his spare time and at his own expense, the art of fingerprint detection. A few days ago, Corporal Bennett received a special letter of commendation from the office of the commandant, part of which read as follows: "It has been noted by this headquarters that you, upon your own initiative and at your own expense, have qualified yourself as a recognized finger-print expert, capable of ren-

Grain . . .

The branches of this firm handle transactions in grain futures. The firm holds membership in the Chicago Board of Trade and Winnipeg Grain Exchange, and maintains a clearing office in Chicago.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272 Columbus, Ga.

Corporal Bennett dering, without cost to the government, services of great value to Well, here we are folks, back the military establishment at this station in the detection, prosecution, and conviction of criminals."

The court records at Benning attest that at least three convictions to the highly expert service performed by Corporal Bennett as a finger-print expert. On special request from Maxwell Field, Alabama, he flew by plane to that station in March, 1933, to work on a criminal case there.

Corporal Bennett was a resident of Akron, Ohio, prior to his enlistment into the army.

> 29TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 4)

Private Googe to Private first class, specialist 6th class.

Private Guy D. Preston (better known as Dusty) to specialist 6th

SERVICE COMPANY

Kitty! Kitty! Will somebody please page Pfc. J. W. Brown? It seems that Brown got lonesome while on guard at the corral the other night and decided that he would like to pet a small insignificant-looking cat that was walking post with him. Brown caught the kitty allright, but very quickly turned it loose. The kitty turned out to be one of the common Georgia pole-cats.

It has been suggested that Privates Criswell and Lackey turn out for the next Post Boxing Tournament—how about it boys?

Sergeant Sisco can't loose his goat, he keeps his goat tied up at the Corral every night.

Sergeant Smith returned yesterday from a short furlough spent at his home at LaGrange, Georgia.

Private 1st class Chuck Gaydos. our well known saddler added another "Character Excellent" to his string Sunday-not many more are there Chuck?

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

There is not much of anything to say this week.

We are glad to learn that the wife of Corporal Tidwell is making a quick recovery after being severely burned a few weeks ago. Private Tallant is leaving the army by the purchase route, and we wish him the best of luck in civilian life. Pfc. Smith also left by the same route, and we also wish him luck. Cpl. Geddings, a clever Machine Gunner, also completed his second hitch, Friday, the 23rd and gave us quite a surprise by taking on another stack. I'll bet he has the thirty years' retirement period in mind.

NON-COMS OF THE 24TH WHY PAY RENT?

When we have attractive Homes and Home Sites in Eastview at prices and terms that make it profitable for you

BUY A HOME

Consult

THE JORDAN COMPANY

18 — 13th Street

Phone 1190

Well, here we are folks, back after an absence of a couple of weeks, due to the lack of news. Did anyone hear that one about the fellow who wanted to get out of the service so that he might get in the CCC? What's this army coming to?

Someone asked the other day who that fellow was in Hqrs. Co., that was always attending the Reserve Officers' meetings. What's the dope, John? Going to be a Reserve 2nd. Louie? That's the spirit, ole boy, you might make the grade SOME day.

I heard a fairy tale the other day. Someone told me that Chowey Franklin missed the first table. What's the excuse, Chowey?

Sgt. Duck is going on a furlough. He says that he is going to see some of the CCC boys back at the camp where he was stationed. Well, that is as good an excuse as I can think of. Have a good time. Duck?

All the members of the company and Staff welcome the return of Lieutenant James E. Bowen, who has been confined to the Post Hospital for some time recovering from an operation. Here's hoping you good health in the future. Lt. Bowen.

Bridge has taken the company by

(Please turn t opage 9)

THE FASHION STORE

LADIES', MEN'S AND CHILDREN'S READY-TO-WEAR

For The Ladies

Ladies Silk DRESSES for Easter

$1.95 - $2.95 - $3.95 - $4.95 Waffle Swagger Suits$5.95 Linen Suits$3.95 - $5.95

LADIES WASH DRESSES Fast Colors—Newest Patterns

Winnie Mae Frocks$1.49

Ladies SILK UNDERWEAR

Silk Panties29c, 2 for 50c Ladies' Hats98c

Ladies Full-aFshined national

1226 Broadway

For The Men

Osh Kosh By Gosh OVERALLS Union Made$1.49

Piedmont SHIRTS

98c — $1.19 — $1.25

Princess Peggy Frocks98c Hanes UNDERWEAR 33c each onnie Bright Frocks$1.98 Hapgrade PANTS$1.59 New Spring HATS98c

TIES19c

Men's Sport

SLIPPERS$2.45 - $2.95

Columbus, Ga.

Here At Last!

REAL MOTH PROTECTION

IN A STEEL AND HEAVY SOLID FIBRE

WARDROBE AND UTILITY CHEST

At A Price You Can Afford

WARDROBE MODEL ONLY

$2.95

EACH CHEST INSURED BY LLOYD'S

> A CAKE OF KEEKOLENE WITH EACH CHEST PROTECTS YOUR BLANKETS AND WEARING APPAREL DURING SUMMER MONTHS.

The Chest Shown At the Right

50c DOWN 50c WEEKLY

FURNITURE

1223 BROADWAY

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin-Fortenberry Fight April Fourteenth

Weinert-Liggett Matched In Semi-Final Of Card

The professional boxers of the post stables will swing back into action on April 17, when John Corn Griffin clashes with Gordon Fortenberry in their third encounter in the squared circle, with Puggy Weinert the P,olack Buzz-Saw meeting Abe Liggett in the semi-Fortenberry and Griffin have clashed twice before in Florida with Griffin losing the first time and taking a decision in their most recent encounter, an outcome that was slightly unpopular with the 'Gator state fans. Fortenberry himself was none too well pleased with the result of their last battle, and jumped at the offer of a rematch when it was made by Captain Fry last month.

It should be a good battle, and the Florida dopesters give Fortenberry slightly the edge over Corn. Griffin has shown no signs of slipping however, from the form that he has held for the last two years, in which time he only was beaten badly once, and that by the man that recently trounced the redoubtable Johnny Risko.

Weinert is showing at the post again after a trip to Chicago in

The Benning Herald $1.50 A Year

The Best Place To Buy A Used Car

LATE MODELS

'32 Ford V-8 Coupe$375

222 Ford (4) Sedan $425

04	Tord (1) Sodding
'31	Studebaker Sedan$395
'33	Ford V-8 Tudor$525
'33	Ford V-8 DeLuxe
	Tudor with Radio$595
133	Plymouth Coach$495
'32	(2)-32-57 Buick Sedan $575

Also many others to select Convenient Terms. from. Easy Trades.

BURR MOTOR

USED CAR DEPT.

Phone 606 1213 1st Ave.

Enlisted Men Beat Officers: Plans For Pin Tournament Being Made

The enlisted men's bowling team rolled over the officers' five last night by the score of 4600-4482, winning four of the five games and winning the individual high score for a single game and again for the entire five. The officers won the second of the series of five games by the score of 920-893. The enlisted men took the remainder of the contests by the scores of 952-910, 902-884, 891-844, and 962-924. Glenn of the enlisted men bowlers amassed the largest individual score in the five games with a total of 979 and an average of 195. O'Blenness of the same team was second with a total of 950 and an average of 190. Henderson for the officers was third with 909 and a 180 average. The individual high scoreer for a single game was LaBonte of the enlisted men's team, with a score of 232. Monahan for the officers was a close second with 230.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT

A handicap singles bowling tourney is being planned at Benning for March 29-31, the entries being restricted to officers, warrant officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees on duty at the post. The average scores of all bowlers who participated in the Officers' and Enlisted Men's Bowling League have been computed and the handicaps used on scratch 190. Two thirds of the difference between the bowler's average and scratch will constitute the individual handicap with a maximum of 25 pins per game. Handicaps for bowlers who did not participate in the Officers' and Enlisted Men's Bowling League, but who have bowled as many as 50 games during the bowling season, will be computed on the same basis. Bowlers who have not bowled as many as 50 games during the season will bowl for scratch. Entry fees will be pooled and at the termination of the tournament, prizes for first, second and third places will be awarded as follows: 50 percent of the pool will be awarded to the individual winning first place; 30 percent second; and 20 percent third.

Captain Phillip T. Fry and Lieutenant George H. Decker teamed together for the recently doubles handicap bowling tourney held on the Infantry School alleys to run up a total of 2072 points in ten games and lead the nearest competitors by fifty-five points. Forty-four bowlers altogether took part in the tourney.

The single high game for the match was won by Sergeants O'-Blenness and Glenn of the Infantry School Detachment, who bowled 256 each to tie for this honor. Second place of the team match went ots Glenn and Davis of which he received an injury to his leg. Whether it has affected his speed in the ring is a matter of conjecture, as Puggy claims he was robbed of the Florida decision, and is breathing death and destruction to Liggett when he gets him in the ring at the post. Fans who saw the Chicago boy in action at Benning in the past will remember that he is one of the most popular little fighters to have shown, and has always given the fans their money's worth.

The remainder of the card has not been announced as yet by the Athletic Association, but it is rumored that Chick Liddell will be one of the main preliminary boys to appear the Infantry School Detachment, with a total of 2,017 points. Captain W. P. O'Brien and Lieut. C. B. Ferenbaugh, both members of the 29th Infantry, won third place in the match with a total of 1984

Teams, scores and average score per game are as follows: Fry-Decker 2017 201 Glenn-Davis O'Brien-Ferenbaugh 1984 198 Sauer-O'Blenness 1983 198 Henderson-Steer 1973 197 Swantic-Kulikofsky _1954 195 LaBonte-Maciejewski 1944 194 Howard-Monahan 1931 193 Pence-Dunn 1929 192 Baade-Renth 1903 190 1871 187 Bitala-Berday Fairchild-Stuart, J. A.... 1869 186 Burns-Hall 1857 185 Traywick-Fowler 1818 181 Schneider-Churchill 1815 181 Stuart, A. W.-Bennett..... 1806 180 McNamara-Martin, G. E. 1801 180 1786 178 Lewis-Wilson 1755 175

Next Week To See Ending Of Cage Tournament

Benning's basketeers seem to have forgotten about the unfinished post league for the time being in their effort to win further laurels in the Georgia-Alabama tourney which is under in Coulmbus at the present time, but Captain Fry announced on Thursday that the next week would see the final ending of the post series a,nd the selection of the champion for 1934.

Two teams are tied for the lead in the second half, the 2d Battalion and the 1st Battalion, with the powerful Headquarters five unfortunately laid low by the measles in the home stretch. The Kelly's already have one leg on the trophy by winning the first half session from the Pirates, and a repeat in the second frame will give them the undisputed title.

Should the Green Wave crash through for the necessary victory in the coming play-off, it will mean another play-off series between the two for the post title. Wise money is riding on the Blue Thunderbolt right at the present moment, although their loss to the "Woodpecker" team from Butler in the Georgia-Alabama meet does not augur so well for their condition in next week's contests.

The Irish and the Pirates are still in the running for the pennant in the civilian meet, and one of the two will most likely ride through to the finals. Captain Fray has announced that the playoff in the post league will take place after the boys have had a one-day lay-off from their efforts in Columbus, which most probably will place the first game about Monday night.

We Make Rubber Stamps Columbus Office Supply Co.

Whites Probably Golf Teams Play Will Do In Planced Post Entrants Will Be In Playoff

The hand-writing on the wall, or more properly the goal-posts was seen last Sunday in the last game of the informal round-robin tourney held by the poloists of Benning, when the 24th Whites downed the 83rd Gunners 9-7 and the Freebooters rode over the 29th Blues to the tune of 9-6. The two winning teams had been picked at the beginning of the season as the two strongest of the post quartets, and the outcome of the informal tourney place them in the leading position for the post title in the spring tournament.

Definite announcement as to when this will take place has not season as the two strongest of the post quartets, and the outcome of the leading position for the post title in the spring tournament.

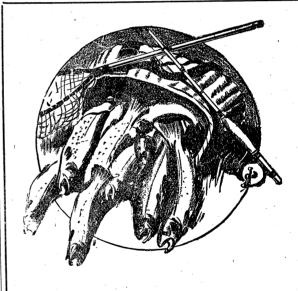

Definite announcement as to when this will take place has not been made as yet, but it is expected to be about the beginning of

Freebooters And Tech Tennis And

Georgia Tech golf and net stars will make an invasion of Fort Benning on Saturday afternoon when teams from the Atlanta University arrive at the Infantry School for a combined golf and tennis match which will be played Saturday at 1:30 on the Officers' Club courts and links.

Heading the visiting golfers will be Charlie Yates, No. 1, golfer of Tech's team, which conquered all challengers last season. Yates recently competed in the Masters' Open tourney held at Augusta, finishing one stroke behind Bobby Jones, and ahead of practically all other amateurs entered. At last year's National Amateur Championship, Yates reached the quarter-final round, and is one of the been made as yet, but it is expected to be about the beginning of the known. Other members of the team will be Berrien Moore, jr. George Harris, and Frank Ridley the informal tourney place them in the same quartet that formed last year's squad. Yates and Moore are to arrive at Benning Friday for an early practice round with Dick Leary and Julius Newgord, jr., two of the outstanding younger golfers of the post.

(Please turn to page 10)

There's a thrill with every Strike!

OWN in Florida—in the inland waters or off the coast—there's some of the finest fishing in the country. There's truly a thrill in every stroke—whether you catch a bream or a tarpon—and you're almost sure to come back with a creel-ful.

The Main Branch sells the best of sporting goods of all kinds-for the sport that happens to be in season or out. Drop by and see our tennis and fishing equipment, or phone 608.

MAIN BRANCH POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING, GA. The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 6)

Everybody likes to guess what his partner has. Miller is the worst guesser in the company. Palmer and Isbill (two corporals) use the Culbertson system to their advantage. Keep up the game, Billy Floyd is looking around for some more competition after having won the Bantamweight Championship of the S. E. A. A. Floyd is growing very much lately. He says that he is either going to have to stop eating or get him a new uniform. He will get a new uniform, then.

Clay seemed to think the air on the third floor was polluted so he has moved to the ground floor. What's the matter, Clay? Did the third floor boys "dun" you too

Franklin is getting his palm warm for those First Class ratings that will be open soon.

All in all, the whole company has gone radio. Da-Dee-Da.

-Rennie Hill

COMPANY "E"

The men are considering turning in their bunks one of these days for they have no time to use them because of demonstrations. course Pfc. Newton couldn't this.

Due to Sgt. Gurley's supreme ability as a lawyer and his size, and by the aid of the verbal smoke

SUBSCRIBE

To The

HERALD BENNING

$1.50 PER YEAR

When in Atlanta make the Henry Grady Hotel your home. 550 fireproof rooms, each with bath, ceiling fan, circulating ice water and radio.

Our food is the best, both in the Terrace Dining Room, overlooking Peachtree, and in the Coffee Shop. The prices are most reasonable.

Room rates are in keeping with the times.

We will be glad to have you, and will make you feel at home while in the city.

HENRY GRADY HOTEL

ATLANTA, GA.

screen, he finally proved that Sgt. Dalby's gang lost the shovel. With these qualities he could prove Noah's Ark was lost in the Upatoi.

Oh My! What a tough First Sergeant Company E has! He even invites the whole Company on the grass the first thing every morning—in fact he insists they be there. He is so tough that when he shakes hands with a guy, he knocks him off his feet.

Latamore James Pelk is grieving himself to death because of the sickness of his beloved friend, "Matigue Cavender." The reports state that he has the measles but of course these reports could be wrong.

Sad Sam Jones hopes to have our" bonus money before long. By the way, Sam still doesn't believe that the train stops in Banks, Alabama.

The many friends of Sgt. Roorda congratulate him on his promotion. If one could have seen him several nights ago after the show, trying to roll a "bull," muttering to himself, "I'll guarantee, I'll guarantee"—they would wonder how he ever made sergeant.

There was almost a tragedy late one evening not long ago. Pfc. McLeod was just about ready to jump off the roof garden, whenlo and behold—he found his dictionarv.

Doctors Bowen and Page have at last hit their calling-working on limbs—tree limbs though.

Notice! Please stay away from cart sheds when completed for they may fall at any time. Among the most noted carpenters working on the project are Pvts. Thomas Polk Williams and R. L. Hamblen.

The company baseball team is getting under way fast. There are so many men that throw with the wrong arm that the notice was posted that any left hand player who does not make the team will pay for his glove.

-Slim.

COMPANY "F"

The quarantine was lifted from the Company last Wednesday. We hope that there won't be any more childish diseases breaking out for a long time.

What a swell present for Easter that fifteen percent would be. But it's also April Fool's day so we don't believe that it will be restored this month.

Corporal Cooper, Private First Class Lee, Whatley and Reed and Vallery are being dis charged this week. We'll be losing two good amateur boxers when Whatley and Vallery go. Vallery is the boy who continued to fight his three rounds after his jaw had been broken in the first round.

Robert E. White, recently enlist ed for the 29th Infantry, has been assigned to this organization.

Turner and Bennett.

COMPANY "G"

We're glad to see Private Lowry back after his fifteen day selfapproved furlough. It appears that Private Lowry is trying to relieve Regimental Headquarters of the work of approving his absences; assuming that the above mentioned intentions were good, we nevertheless feel the soldier is due to be disappointed, for it has been our observation that in such cases, semebody insists on improving something, even if it's extra duty.

THE MONARCH BILLIARD HALL

Former Location of Wigwam, In Loeb. Bldg.

Former Location of Wigwam, In Loeb Bldg. BILLIARD HALL

Opens Friday, March 30

Managers: "Smooky" Smith - Walter Parsons

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

Pfc. Fendall Williams was host to several members of the Band and Company G at a stag party enjoyed at Uncle Dee Dee's Place in Alabama. The participants numbered about twenty-five and all had a most enjoyable time.

The music study classes have just received a number of new instruction books along with several books on the works of the great masters.

With their instruments and equipment cleaned and polished as never before in preparation for the escort of honor ceremony to the Corps Area Commander, word was received early this morning that the formation was indefinitely postponed.

The Band volley ball team will meet the Service company sextette Monday afternoon on the regimental court. The Band boys look good and much is expected of them.

The song writing in the band continues. Pfc. Riley has written and arranged for the orchestra a number called "The Geetchie number Crawl." Geetchie The key and melody is as yet undetermined but it is believed that in the not too distant future something may be done which will make the number play-

This column has been completed by a superhuman effort amidst the unearthly din caused by the screeching and wailing of a clarinet, the player evidently in desperate circumstance; methinks his girl must have given him the proverbial gate. Page Corporal Ruffin. -W. W. Hodges

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY Staff Sergeant Scott Bradford is now wearing a streamlined suit at home, so that he can bring his ashes out of the basement with the least wind resistance. He was also noticed displaying his iron nerve by clinging frantically to the roof while hanging his radio aerial. . . The writer admits his excess weight at reenlistment inspection but wishes to add that his weight was evenly distributed and not confined exclusively to the head, as evidenced by the profile of a certain staff sergeant, who was instrumental in reporting the average in pounds. . . It is now springtime and some of the old fellows who are past forty have to endeavor to fool their better halves (junior) by appearing to be spry in spite of charley horses, lame knees and inclination to stay at home and listen to the radio. Corporal Booker, our Regimental Chauffeur, was seen studying (?) a book on plane geometry but a few minutes later was unable to figure the price of ten gallons of gasoline at 71/2 cents per gallon. A filling station operator through error filled Private James West's spare tire full of Blue Sonoco gasoline and caused quite an explosion outside of Regimental Headquarters. . . Some of the windows in Headquarters were shattered and West suffered from extreme would just love to learn my art

The stingiest man on earth: Due unforeseen circumstances the writer at this time desires to ask an opportunity to apologize for the remarks in this column of the issue dated March 23, 1934, reference to Pfc. John R. Hines and assurance is hereby made that the same will never occur again until next week. . . This soldier has vehemently objected, protested and detested his name appearing in this column but theoretically speaking, with all due respects, attention is invited to the following:

Little Boy: "Soldier, give me a penny. I want some candy."

"What kind do you

Little Boy: "I want an all day ucker.'

Hines (Looking at his watch) It's three o'clock now, wait until tomorrow morning—then you will get more satisfaction."

This guy is known to have slept all day in order to save the wear and tear on his eye glasses. The company has a new radio and the boys are busy twisting the dials trying to get places at least 75 miles from their homes.

-Louis A. Scipio.

SERVICE COMPANY

Changes are taking place in the old outfit these days. Corporal Walker's recent promotion created a vacancy for another private first class. Gabby Williams took that on, and with it a delightfully attractive smile of victory, and willingness to do his bit in any capacity.

And by the way, who started that Paper Dress Dance idea? Whoever did sure gave the young darlings of the opposite sex something to stretch their imagination on. And ask a keen observer if they didn't do it in a big way. That Service Club looked like a well tended flower garden last Saturday evening. So many novel, pretty and varicolored gowns would is more room to pour. have graced the floor of any dance hall. To call it a huge success would only half express the many pleasant parting expressions of those present. The splendid program rendered by the orchestra cannot be overlauded. To the members of Orchestra No. 1 the company wishes to extend its deepest appreciation, for upon it largely depended the success of the evening's entertainment.

Then too, Keystone, the feed bag man, sure put on the dog! Yes sir and mam, that menu hit the

After more than a month of indecision Private George R. Gilbert decided he'd re-up for the Service Corporal George Rob-Company. inson also joined the long timers' list last Tuesday. With less than 8 years to do. his enlistment was almost a certainty.

COMPANY "A"

Just why the men of Co. "A" wish to give this reporter the name "The Invisible Man" is still a mystery to me. Of course there is a time to stand still and a time to run or vanish in the face of certain dangers. Suppose your girl friend puts on her war-paints, straps on her six-gun and goes gunning for you, locates you in a poor little room with only one door, just what would you do? Never mind the answer; I know it already. You would most certainly vanish into thin air if you could. Well, why give me the ha ha because I mysteriously disappeared on the fateful Sunday afternoon?

I have often wondered why Pvt. 1cl. Gink Marshall seeks my company on every possible occasion. I learned recently that he too was in trouble of a like nature and also wants to learn the art of vanishing. Well I can't blame you for that, Gink, because if you continue to run on 4th avenue you most certainly need it. Just continue to stick to me and you will learn things that will surprise even you.

Cook McGaffey stated that he shock, having just purchased the of disappearing for one only. Asked for his reason, stated, "Just so those durn Bus drivers on Howard Bus Line can't see me when I get on the Bus." Quite wise of you Mack old boy but my advice to you is: Continue to pay your bus fare and leave this disappearing stuff to me and my late scholar, Pv. 1cl. Gink Marshall.

-Corporal Murphy.

COMPANY B

2nd Lieut. David Angluin is back with the Company from Special Dua soldier will take a chance and ty. And the Company baseball nine are rejoicing, because he will be a great help to the Gator Sluggers. The boys are doing their Spring training in Barracks.

> Our Ex-Half-Pint Mess Sergeant Bradwell was seen about 3:30 a.m. on the morning of March 24, 1934, walking south on the Cusseta Road about two miles past the Fort Benning Road. When asked what he was doing walking that time of morning he said, "I am only doing my training for a return bout with the Battle Ax." But was later found exhausted some where near the Logging Camp with a swollen hand and a blue eye.

The Prof. Wood was going on Guard Friday evening but was without clothing to wear for the formation, when asked what he was going to do about the formation he said, "I will have to send over an R. A. C. dispatch for my goods because the battle ax will not let me in the house to change."

Kid Shadow was appointed Pvt. 1 cl after missing Corporal by two feet.

The reporter is still in mourning over his shack. Just where he is going and what he is doing; wuoldn't the boys like to know Well follow him some night.

The Company will be two men short after the 3rd of the month. 1st Sgt. McCauley will retire after 39 years of faithful service in the old U.S. A. Private Barnes will be discharged and said he will go back to Oklahoma, where there

Yours.

RANDOLPH.

COMPANY C

Sgt. Williams and Opl. Thomas. both of Company C, 24th Infantry, are ordered to report in to their organization by the morning of the 30th of March to be discharged per expiration of service. It has been quite some time since Sgt. Williams has been over to visit us, however, Corp. Thomas comes over every once in awhile. Upon completion of their discharges and re-enlistments they will return to their camps to continue with CCC

Well after a long season of basketball Co. C's team came out as runner-up (second place) and was present at the Regimental Commander's presentation of both money and sweaters as well as a small rophy. In the beginning it seemed that the breaks were against our team, but with steady fight and stamina we finally came out in a respectable place. The writer feels that much credit is due each man on the team, as they have demonstrated to the regiment the benefit of team work. Three of our men, namely: Lite, Harris and Blockman were members of the regimental team and have recently returned from Florida where they played a game with Florida A & M College. Although beaten by the Floridans by a score of 22 to 21. it is reported that the game was well played by both teams.

"RAGS."

COMPANY G

And the House Shall Stand! On last Wednesday afternoon the Commanding Officer 24th Infantry presented our basketball team with the cup and about ninety dollars cash which he had announced at the start of the basketball season would be given to the winning team. The House lost one game in each of the two halves. In recognition for their faithful service the Company Commander granted the members of the team a three day pass

And the House shall lead the multitude on to victory, yea, even so, for it pelaseth us. Company G has been designated as the escort (Please turn to page 10)

We Make Rubber Stamps

Columbus Office Supply Co.

TECH TEAMS PLAY HERE (Continued from page 8)

Representing Benning in the golf section of the match will be Lieutenant Willet J. Baird, runnerup for the post title, and Lieutenant Lynn E. Brady.

The Benning tennis team will consist of Major Frederick Irving, winner of the post singles title, Lieutenant Newman R. Burns, Inf.-Res. Lieutenant Forrest A. Hornisher, Mrs. Murray Calhoun, Major Phillip G. Blackmore, and Private 1st class Ralph A. Martin, Service Company, 29th Infantry. They will meet the veteran Tech team of Randy West, Malcolm Kaiser, Marion Rivers, Billy Reese, Tommy Tomlin and Nelson May-

Tech is bringing three reserve players along for the match, who will meet Lieutenant John F. Evans, J. B. Bonham, and Julius Evans, jr., the results of the match having no effect on the outcome of the team match.

The one day of the year when everyone should look his best.

Men's Suits

In the Shepherd plaid designs and weaves. Moderately priced

$9.75 to $29.75

Men's Shirts

The newest shades and patterns. Special at $1.55 and up.

Also

The newest straw and felt hats are here. Buy now, and be in readiness for summer.

PAYNE CLOTHING CO.

1203 Broadway

Last Survivor Of Famous Battle Still In Army Will Be Retired

Fort Benning loses its oldest soldier and the last of those who fought in the memorable battle of San Juan Hill, when First Sergeant William McCauley retires from the army on March 31. Serunder the Stars and Stripes in almost every part of the world, including action under the command of the then First Lieutenant John J. Pershing in the Spanish-American War, when the colored troops demonstrated that the American negroes have fighting ability equal to the best soldiers of all time.

Sergeant McCauley first enlisted into the army in 1896 and almost immediately took part in the quelling of an uprising of a tribe of Indians in Montana and their removal to California. Lieutenant Pershing, destined to become commander-in-chief of all the American forces in the recent World War, directed the campaign. In of honor company for the regiment.

24TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 9)

This is indeed a signal honor but we are not surprised as we know that we are good. Our only unanswered desire now is that we be allowed to compete against other escort of honor companies of the

On warm days our baseball battery may be seen warming up and we believe that we already have the baseball trophy in the prover-

COMPANY E ...A Few Questions and Answers... Who was that certain gentleman, that proposed and now says that he was slightly intoxicated? What kind of liquor have you been drink-

Who was that gentleman that

"What is the matter now," asked a certain swain, as he was being ejected in a forceful manner from he dance by a member of the weaker sex. Don't try to have them all present at the same dance, Hicks.

night in and around Columbus? His name is "Doll," ain't it Baugh? Some things we would like to happen in the Company:

Johnnie Martion, Normal. Booker T. Patterson, Miss a bus.

about love in a cottage.

Story Magazine.

Bridge.

thing.

number.

Bobbie Blackmon, In step at drill.

Tommie J. Baugh, Not talking

Robert Rogers, Without a Love

Jett Motel, Trying to be serious. Marcellous J. Garth, Master Ser-

N. T. Lewis, Not broadcasting.

Jack Larkins, Doing the Camel

David Fields, Win at auction

Baugh, Love is the Sweetest

Crawford, Boys, she is a hot

N. T. Lewis, Linticker, Spasmo-

Jack Larkins, You Rotten ???? Garth, You D.....n Recruit.

Walter Rogers, My hands is tied.

Jackson, She started to take

S. D. Southall, Ain't she Grand?

Richardson, That's my money.

J. W Slater, Hold them, A Nickle

Hicks, Ladies will fall in love.

dix, Dumus Spasbedix.

poison about me.

Orsben, Shucks Now!

J. Martin, I am in Love!

R. Green, Tops and deal,

"Famous Words"

Who is that gentleman that can be seen riding with Baugh late at gave 1st Sgt. Reeves a fake invitation to the dance on last Saturday night? Ask Amos Snowden for ing Crawford?

full details.

W. W. HODGES.

The Twenty-Fourth Infantry of the Spanish-American War, Sergeant McCauley again fought under the direction of Lieutenant Pershing and side by side with the Twenty-Fourth Infantry. In the massacre of Samar in the Philippines, he once more took up arms geant McCauley has a long and for the United States. For more colorful career, which includes than thirty years he has soldiered more than thirty years of service in nearly every glamorous corner of the earth.

> It is interesting and appropriate that this venerable old soldier was born on the Fourth of July-July 1, 1874—on the plantation of the famous Fitzhugh Lee, within a stone's throw of Spottsylvania Battleground, where Sergeant McCauspent many a day playing make-believe war in the trenches and shell holes with his boyhood companions. Interested in the army, in which his grandfather had served, and having a fascination for horses, he ran away from home at an early age and joined the cavalry, enlisting for Troop F, of the Tenth Cavalry.

SUBSCRIBE

To The BENNING HERALD

$1.50 PER YEAR

Money To Loan

watches, diamonds, clothing and articles of value. Unredeemed Pledges for sale Cheap.

CITIZENS LOAN CO.

1043 Broadway

THE TIME: You are to select.

THE PLACE: Is undoubtedly the Grocery Department—for no other nearby grocery store can offer you nearly the variety—the quality—the service we make it a point to give. Orders delivered to your quarters (if in Ft. Benning).

TELEPHONES 16 and 17

Grocery Department

Post Exchange

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange is not authorized to sell to anyone not in the Military Service.

It Will Be Of Interest To Know That, In Most Cases,

You May Provide More Than

An Additional $5000.00 OF PROTECTION WITH A 5% RESTORATION OF PAY An Additional $10,000.00

OF PROTECTION WITH A 10% RESTORATION OF PAY.

It always affords me genuine pleasure and satisfaction to render Specialized and interested service in all Life Insurance matters to Army Officers and their families, without regard to personal profit. Call me for a thorough analysis of your policies. My advice will not obligate you.

LIFE INSURANCE 210 Murrah Bldg.

ROBISON BROWN, JR.

ANNUITIES 'Phone 1637

Front view of the Academic Building, bids on which will be opened here soon.

ARMY GETS ONE THIRD OF PAY CUT RESTORED

Five Percent More To Be Restored To Services On June First

According to detailed information received by radio Saturday morning at Fort Benning, army personnel, post office employees, and other government workers will have restored five per cent of their pay reduction that has been in effect for the past year. The effective date of the restoration is February 1, 1934. An additional five per cent will be restored effective July 1, 1934.

Another important angle of the economy legislation passed by the Congress on March 28 over the veto of President Roosevelt, is that restriction on so-called "pay period" increases are removed effective July 1. The act, however, does not remove restrictions on increases in pay that under existing pay tables accrue to army personnel because of length of service-longevity.

The legislation also has the effect of changing rental and subsistence allowances of army officers, according to information received, each being increased by the same five per cent on February and July 1.

In his message to the Congress vetoing the Independent Offices bill, to which the economy legislation has been attached as a rider, President Roosevelt made no serious objection to partial restoration of pay to government employees, that phase of the legislation apparently having been satisfactory to him as passed. His message indicated that his veto of the whole bill was based on the veterans' legislation it contained.

ROTC Students To Soon Be Here For Annual Course

Announcement of the tentative assignment of 316 members of the R. O. T. C., and 185 Reserve Officers to attend the annual summer encampment at Fort Benning, Georgia, has been received at headquarters the Infantry School. The summer camp for reservists of the 4th Corps Area is an annual feature of the work carried on at the Infantry School.

Last year 355 students from the University of Ala., University of Florida, Georgia Tech, Auburn and University of Tennessee were enrolled at this post for the five weeks' course. This year the same schools will send representatives, Auburn heading the list with 138 members of the field artillery and 35 engineers, with the University of Florida second with 82 members of the field artillery. The remaining three schools will send representatives as follows: Georgia Tech, 16 members of the signal corps, University of Alabama 26 engineers, and University of Tennessee 19 engineers.

the command of Major Gustav H. was a boy or a girl. Franke, Field Artillery, professor of military science and tactics at Auburn. Other officers who will be present at the camp will in-clude Captains W. A. Metts, and terial in Block 21, that portion of E. H. Almquist, Field Artillery, Benning's better residential section Auburn; lieutenants T. S. Gunby, set aside for the isolation and pre-H. L. Watts, J. V. Phelps, Field servation of bachelors. Whether Artillery, Auburn; Captain R. W. this unintentional slight is due to Grower and Lieutenant F. O. Bow- an oversight or to a sense of dis-Barco and C. A. Bennett and Lieu-Artillery, University of Florida; and it due merit. We are remind-Captain L. A. DesPland, Field Ared, however, of the quip attributed tillery, Marion Institute, Ala.; Captain C. C. Knight, Field Artillery, Robert E. Lee Institute, Thomaston, Ga.; Captain J. M. Harman, (Please turn to page 4)

BENNING DAY-GOVERNOR TALMADGE BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, April 2.--Our column this week is characterized by its nothingness. We find ourselves confronted with a situation which calls for the delivery of a weakly blank with a world of material conspicuous by its complete absence. Last fall had anyone told us that a week could pass without some class celebrity crashing the headlines we would have classed it among the impossible. We still believe that many a potential story is lurking somewhere in the background but our nose for news has been at the grindstone too long. The school must be getting us.

Johnny Johnson, advanced classite, assistant post athletic officer, sweater fancier and nose-diver, at the time of this writing, is among those absent. Johnny has earned for himself a well-merited trip to St. Louis with his stable of amateur pugs for competition in the finals. May he return with a flock of champions.

Our good friend Tom Cross finally came across with a captaincy. We don't know just who has waited the longest, Tom or the class, but now that it has finally arrived the faith of the class in the inevitability of promotion is partially restored. It remained for Dan Norman to inquire, on receipt The camp will again be under of the customery cigar, whether it

We have been reminded from man, Engineers, Auburn; Major D. cretion we are purposely non-com-A. Connor, Field Artillery, University of Florida; Captains E. T. lord Phipps, has so far succeeded lord Phipps, has so far succeeded so well in covering up all tracks tenant R. T. Quekemeyer, Field that we are unable to give him ed, however, of the quip attributed to one of the ballroom boys: "What America needs most today is not a good five cent cigar but more good telephone numbers." The corollary

(Please turn to page 4)

AT POST THURSDAY

Swimming Pool Is Expected To Open Earlier This Year

Preparations for the opening of Russ Pool, Mecca of Fort Benning personnel during the summer months, have been under way for some time, and the repair work and new construction on the swimming pool of the Infantry School, which is one of the largest and best in the South, have almost been completed.

While the exact date of the opening of Benning's playground has not been set, it is expected to be earlier this season, possibly about the end of April, in contrast to former years, when the first plunge occurred officially about the middle of May.

The main item of the work that has been going on the huge basin for the past month or more, is the replacement of all wooden diving stands and platforms with more substantial and lasting concrete work. The cement bottom of the pool has been carefully checked and repaired and the water supply purification system and drainage overhauled.

Concrete evidence of the fact that the pool will open sometime in the near future, is the placing on special duty of nine men of the Private 1st class Earl Norwood. Company A, 29th Infantry; Private Homer R. Popo, Company E, 66th Infantry, Johnny W. Weaver, Company D 66th Infantry, Herbert E. Kasper, Company A 29th Infantry, Leon Polewada, Company G, 29th Infantry, Oscar O. Rader, Company G, 29th Infantry. Dean A. Littlefield, Headquarters Company 2d Battalion 29th Infantry, John A. Brooks, Battery A, (Please turn to page 4)

State Executive Entertained At Dinner At Club By General Estes

Governor Eugene Talmadge, chief executive of the state of Georgia, paid a brief visit to Fort Benning yesterday as a part of his visit to Columbus and Muscogee County. A program of much interest was arranged for the Governor, including a luncheon given for him at the Officers' Club by General G. H. Estes, the Commandant.

Governor Talmadge arrived at the post headquarters at 12:30 o'clock, after having been escorted from the reservation line by the motorcycle police detachment. At headquarters the guard of honor, consisting of picked men from the 29th Infantry, which was commanded by Captain Don C. Faith, was drawn up, standing at present arms while the governor's salute of 19 guns was fired by a detachment from Battery A, 83rd Field Artillery, under command of Lieutenant George A. McManus.

The governor and his party made a brief inspection of the guard of honor, at the conclusion of which the party paused while the post photographer made a permanent record of the event by camera. Governor Talmadge then addressed a few words to the troops, commending their appearance, and thanking them for the honor done him. e men of the Major Sidney G. Brown, formerly an annual head of the Public Relations branch detail at the post. The men who of the War Department general have been selected this season are staff, acted as aide to the govern-

General G. H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School, and his staff then escorted Governor Talmadge to the Officers' club, where a luncheon was given in his honor, at which about twenty-five members of the governor's party and fifteen Fort Benning officers were present.

The guest list included, in addition to Governor Talmadge, Briga-83rd Field Artillery, and Wood-row W. DeMere Battery C, 83rd Field Artillery. These men are all expert swimmers and divers, Colonel Sandy Beaver, Colonel

(Please turn to page 8)

公園SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS NO.

Mrs. Parsons Honored By Mrs. Lemly At Beautiful Luncheon Thursday

Mrs. James K. Parsons who is Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall, Mrs. Joseph the house guest Monday when Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly entertained at her quarters on Miller Loop with a delightful luncheon. Throughout 29TH INF. LADIES the house and on the luncheon table early Spring flowers in pastel shades were used. Mrs. Lemly had as her guests; Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Charles W. Weeks,

Ideal

FOREMOST PRODUCTS FIT EVERY NEED

For parties Foremost products provide flavor and deliciousness, for invalids they provide protection. Why don't you avail yourself of this double measure by buying Foremost next time.

foremost DAIRIES

Inc.

during this Close Out Sale.

nally sold around $25.00.

A. Atkins, Mrs. John F. Corby and

29TH INF. LADIES' BRIDGE CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The 29th Infantry ladies' bridge club met Tuesday afternoon at two fifteen o'clock at the 29th Infantry club with Mesdames Edward Renth, Walter P. O'Brien, John A. A. Wimberly, John E. Nelson, Wil-Otto, Theodore J. Conway, Norris liam W. O'Connor and Merriam as hostesses. This meeting was unusually interesting in that it served two purposes, social and business. After bridge and preceding tea, a business meeting was called by Mrs. William E. Persons. A few changes were made in the club's administration and Mrs. Wimberley was elected secretary and treasurer for the remaining season. Five tables of contract bridge assembled to play with the prize winners being; first, Mrs. James E. Purcell, second, Mrs. Morris B. De-Pass and third, Mrs. Raymond A.

POPULAR HOUSE GUEST IS

Mrs. William H. Jones, Jr. the charming house guest of her parents Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin, has been the recipient of a number of delightful affairs while at Fort Benning. Among those entertaining this week in her honor was Capt. and Mrs. John J. Albright who entertained at a dinner party given a tthe Officers' Club. Wednesday evening Capt. and Mrs. Horace O. Cushman were the hosts at an informal picnic at the 29th Infantry camp. Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Pierce also entertained at a picnic at the picturesque 29th Infantry camp.

MEMBERS OF LADIES' EQUITATION CLASSES GIVEN ENJOYABLE PICNIC

The members of the ladies' equitation classes were the guests Tuesday of the instructors of the

FINAL CLOSE OUT SALE

Every article in this store will be sold, regardless of cost. NOTHING RESERVED.

Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Silverware

Sterling Silver Bread and Butter Plates, each $2.75

$150.00 Gruen Watch, brand new, only 60.00 $25.00 Brand New Wrist Watch, only 10.00

$100.00 Diamond Rings, only 40.00
26 piece set table ware, special, only 4.75
Seth Thomas Clocks, brand new, only 8.75

And many hundred other items at tremendous savings.

I will sell 50 diamond rings at $5.00 each Saturday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. These rings origi-

Come early and take your pick. Only one to a cus-

Come in and be convinced of the sensational values.

A small down payment will reserve any article. BUY at the same old location of

MAX RONES

KINSEL & PETRI

to go at 60 cents on the dollar

Just a few of the many bargains we have to offer

Infantry School stables at an en- York and Washington. joyable picnic which was held at the gravel washer along the picturesque Upatoi Creek. Capt. John W. Blue, who was in charge of Maryland. the intermediate riding class of the Many five ladies' classes this Winter, was in charge of the picnic. Five platoons of ladies left the stables trip through Florida. Among at nine-thirty o'clock out by various routes, the Upatoi Trail, the mond C. Pearson and their young First Division Road and the Marne sons. Jack and Bill. and Cant. and Road, arriving at the gravel wash- Mrs. Arthur F. Perry and their er at ten-thirty. At eleven a de-lightful picnic lunch was served to about one hundred twenty-five ladies. To make this affair even Beach Sunday to be the house guest more enjoyable the 24th Infantry band was transported on trucks to furnish the music.

The instructors for this past Winter's ladies' equitation classes were: Major Kramer Thomas, senior instructor, Capt. Michael E. Halloran, Capt. John W. Blue, Capt. Joseph A. Nichols, Lieut. Hammond McD. Monroe, and Lieut. Jas. J. Matthews.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA GLEE CLUB GIVES PERFORM-ANCE THURSDAY

The University of Georgia Glee Club gave an interesting program Thursday evening which began at eight thirty o'clock at the Post Theatre. Some of the outstanding numbers were a group of piano solos given by Mr. Hugh Hodgson, the director. Claire Harper of Chicago, guest violinist, rendered some lovely violin solos, Bobby Brooks sang a group of negro spirituals, while Art Cunningham gave an exhibition of the latest in tap dancing. An amusing skit with Costa's, the rendezvous of Georgia students, as a setting was given.

Following the performance at the Theatre a dance was held at the Polo-Hunt Club with the fa-mous "Bulldog" orchestra furnishing the music for the dancing.

Many Fort Benning parties attended. Among those entertaining at the Officers' Club preceding the performance were: Major and Mrs. Philip T. Wood, Lieut. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Selina Waddington, Lieut. George C. Lightcap.

PERSONALS

General and Mrs. George H. Estes have as their house guest Mrs.
J. K. Parsons, wife of General J.
K. Parsons of Vancouver Barracks.

A congenial party of friends consisting of Capt. and Mrs. Morris B. DePass, Mrs. Herbert L. Harries and Mrs. Selina Waddington spent Wednesday in Atlanta.

Capt. and Mrs. Herbert L. Harries have as their house guest the latter's mother, Mrs. Thomas E. Meehan of Bluffs, Ill.

Mrs. Melissa Riess returned Monday from Washington where she was the guest of friends.

Friends of Lieut. and Mrs. Henry C. Britt will wish to congratulate them upon the birth of a son, Henry McDonald, born April 3rd at the Station Hospital.

Lieut. and Mrs. Andrew D. Chaffin, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. William H. Jones, will depart Sunday by motor for New

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD

COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

Major and Mrs. George F. Aycock have as their house guest Mrs. S. L. Van Valvah of Baltimore,

Many congenial parties from Fort Benning took advantage of the Easter holidays for a motor were Major and Mrs. Raysons, Jack and Bill, and Capt. and family.

Miss Betty West of Washington, D. C. will motor up from Palm of Miss Katharine Lemly.

> Fresh Limes MITCHELLS 1204 Broadway

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Reduced Prices

On

Photograph Frames

for one week only

MargaretHarrison

At Rosenbergs

ROSENBERG JEWELRY CO.

Nationally Advertised Goods

Charge Accounts Solicited

1217 BROADWAY

40 REASONS

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furni-ture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and problems, and the proper way of avoiding every diffi-culty. experience has taught us the solution to each of

We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCHII

FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

Time for Vegetables

HEALTHFUL — NOURISHING — DELICIOUS

The Grocery Department will carry a fine stock of fresh vegetables in season, and you will find much to vary your menu in the assortment offered every day. Always depend on the Grocery Department for variety in foods and you'll have interesting menus every day.

TELEPHONES 16-17

Grocery Department

POST EXCHANGE FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell to Anyone Not In The Military Service green to the green form following the annual con-

I BUY OLD GOLD 1105 BROADWAY

NOW AND SAVE.

PHONE 4131

Girl Scouts

Cardinal Troop

Tuesday, April 3, the Cardinal's meeting opened with a singing contest with Mrs. Tucker as judge. The points were given to the Blue Eagle Patrol though the Bamella was a close rival. After the contest Mrs. Tucker led in hymns.

Madeleine Hatchett, patrol leader of the Blue Eagles, will be recommended for a Gold Eaglet. She is rather young for this important honor, but everyone is hoping she will get it anyway. Every scout and many of her friends realize how well she deserves this.

Jane and Anne Kraft led in the games while Mrs. Schneider took certain scouts aside to straighten Cardinal court of awards looming on the horizon and moving rapidly nearer the badge question must be settled. All athletes be at the tennis courts monday if you care to complete this badge.

The meeting ended in a goodnight circle. Before the meeting closed Frances Lewis was wished a happy birthday by her sister After the meeting Mrs. Schneider called a meeting of the

(Please turn to page 4)

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

USE TESTED SEEDS

There's no way of positively guaranteeing yourself a beautiful garden, but you can greatly increase your chances by using tested and certified seed We sell only the best of garden seed . . . every kind you may require.

> BRADFORD MEADOWS 1240 BROADWAY

COLONEL BALTZELL TO Chesterfield COMMAND 22 INFANTRY Start New Program

To Succeed Col. Mooreman In Command Of Regiment He Formerly Led

Colonel George F. Baltzell, Infantry, pioneer member of the Infantry Board, and holder of the Distinguished Service Medal, has been ordered from Fort Benning and duty with the Infantry Board to the 22d Infantry, Fort McPherson, Georgia, according to information received at headquarters, the Infantry School, Tuesday. Colonel their badge programs. With the Baltzell's orders, which were published by the War Department Tuesday, relieve him from duty at Fort Benning about July 31, when he reports to his new station for duty, where he again will command the 22d Infantry, relieving Colonel Thomas S. Mooreman, the present commander.

> Colonel Baltzell has been intimately associated with the development of Fort Benning and the Infantry School since its transfer to Columbus, Georgia, more than fifteen years ago, and has played a major part in many of the important works and events that have influenced the growth of that institution to its present place among the foremost military schools in flower show. the world.

He was assigned to the infant post in 1919, and for more than a year remained on duty there, building up the post and school. He was relieved in 1920 by a detail to the War Department General Staff, later to return as a student in the refresher course of 1925. At that time he was commanding the 22d Infantry at Fort McPher-

In 1930 he started his third tour at Benning when he was relieved from duty with the Organized Reassumed the responsibilities of senior member of the Infantry Board, designated by the chief of infantry.

G-5 of general headquarters, A. E. regarded as one of the outstanding leader in the military educa-tional line. In addition Colonel Baltzell has been decorated as an Officer de Etoile Noire by the services.

Colonel Baltzell was born in Marianna, Fla., and was appointed to Point, N. Y., from that state. He has completed forty-one years' service in the army.

Colonel George F. Baltzell

Flower Show Plans Made By Garden Club Members

Plans are on foot for the annual

Now that Spring is here, our thoughts turn to Gardening.

Let's remember when planning our flower garden, to plant flowers that we would like to enter in our Annual Flower Show which takes place the early part of May at the Polo Hunt Club.

Last year, the Garden Clubs of Columbus, extended to the Garden Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club an invitation to enter exhibits at the wonderful flower serves of the 4th Corps Area, and show that is held annually in the City; but our efficient Chairman, Mrs. Frank Heileman, felt we could not compete with different clubs of Columbus, but saw no reason Colonel Baltzell recently was why we could not have a show all decorated with the Distinguished our own, so with little time for Service Medal for his services with plans, we passed the word on, and the famous 43rd Division, and as on May 15, we opened the doors of the Polo Hunt Club with 116 F. during the World War. He is entries of the loveliest flowers one can imagine. Needless to say, the show was a huge success, and an inspiration to do bigger and better things this year. Let's get busy and plan toward making this year's French Government, for his war display one that will always be remembered, and one to be proud of.

This show is to be open to all members of the Post, and we hope the U. S. Military Academy, West all will at least enter one or more exhibits. Now let's get out the shovel and hoe, and have a banner year with flowers. The date of the show will be announced later in the Herald and Bulletin.

Capt. Woodward To Be Student at The Industrial School

Captain Horace M. Woodward. a student in the Infantry School at Fort Benning, has been detailed to attend the 1934-35 course at the Army Industrial College in Washington, D. C. He came to Fort Benning in the fall of 1933 as a student in the Advanced Course

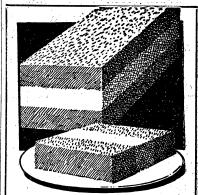

Captain Woodward was awarded the Silver Star Citation for outstanding service in the late World War. He is a graduate of the Cavalry School, the Troop Officers' Course, and the Chemical Warfare School. He was advanced to the rank of Captain in 1929. The course which Captain Woodward is to take at the Army Industrial College will begin sometime in the latter part of August.

To With Several Stars

Rosa Poneselle, world-famous soprano; Nino Martini, noted radio tenor; and Grete Stueckgold, popular concert singer, will sing the best-loved American songs of yesderday and today in a new series of broadcasts to be heard three times weekly over the Columbia network, beginning Monday, April 2nd. A forty-piece orchestra and a chorus of sixteen voices, directed by the nationally-known CBS conductor, Andre Kostelanetz, will accompany the vocalists and present unusual arrangements of modern dance tunes and ballads.

Presented under the auspices of Liggett and Myers Tobacco Company, in behalf of Chesterfield Cigarettes, the programs will be broadcast from 9:00 to 9:30 p. m., EST, every Monday, Wednesday, Saturday Miss Ponselle will hold the spotlight on Mondays; Martini will be presented in the Wednesday night period; and Grete Stueckgold will be the Saturday evening star. For the first week only, Grete Stueckgold will be heard on Wednesday, with Marti-

(Please turn to page 4)

Buy it in BULK

For parties and entertainments of every kind, buy Kinnett's Ice Cream in bulk . . . in any flavor you want. It is a most economical and delicious dessert . . . one that pleases everyone.

Sold at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club

FOR YOUR SUMMER CLOTH-ING THIS YEAR THERE'S ONLY ONE CHOICE ... Go To ...

CHANCELLOR'S

THERE'S AN EXTRA APPEAL TO CLOTHES FROM THIS STORE

... something ultra-smart and modern; yet made with conservative taste that will appeal to you and every other man who appreciates the best in clothing. CHANCEL-LOR'S is Columbus' only store in which the man-about-town can find every thing that is satisfying.

WHEN YOU WANT SOMETHING BETTER ... GO TO CHANCELLOR'S

Fort Benning's Columbus Headquarters

reachers

You can earn several hundred dollars this summer. and you can secure a better position and a larger salary for the coming year. Complete information will be mailed on receipt of a three cent stamp. Send for it to-day.

CONTINENTAL TEACHERS AGENCY, INC. 1850 Downing St., Denver, Colo.

Covers the ENTIRE United States Rural Schools and City Schools

Summer Work and School Year Positions "Thanks for sending me so many good postiions to apply for, over 30 during the first five days I was enrolled."—An Illinois Teacher.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS:-We can put you in touch with the very finest teachers. Our service is free to you.

Published Every Friday

VOLUME III APRIL 6, 1934 L. C. Kunze.... Publisher A. F. Kunze. Society Editor Sports Editor Jack Gibney.. ...Circulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT, SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY (Continued From Page 1)

fairer sex is, "There is no closed students. Even the school must be season on second lieutenants."

The week just passed saw us exposed to two problems of decision. Tacticians Hones and Reeder poured, collecting in return a fee ever became of our Cuban friend? of six points per each per student. In our own case we hit the center the class' excess prophet: this vigorously and viciously both times, feeling blissfully Napoleonic the days prompts the thought that while, only to be brought up short with the school's solution of a the quick and the dead. A foredouble withdrawal. We continue to persist in audacity when the school in the mind of the architect who signals temerity or something.

The school's first night field exercise passed off too smoothly and cent cut has been uncut. One parfor this columnist's efficiently good. We had expected to reap therefrom a few choice morsels for paragraphing but our alertness availed us not. So far as we know no one got lost, no holes were stepped in, and no one got himself captured, in spite of the fact that the combined classes were worked laying the table. And so to bed.

to that, according to Columbus' on, some hundred and twenty odd weakening.

Columbus, Georgia

Rambling: Seventy-three days to graduation. Easter vacation. Spring weather. CCC pains. What-Our nomination for obscurity as columnist. Benning traffic these there are two types of pedestrians, boding of evil must have lurked designed the new academic building—the structure will be in the form of a "U". The first five per ticular home grown sandwich last week brought us up with a start when we discovered too late that the egg had been cooked long enough but not soon enough. A protest to the missus that night brought the rejoinder not to blame the maid as her duties ended on ni taking the Saturday position.

CHESTERFIELD BEGINS

(Continued from Page 3)

. Every program will be broadcast from the Columbia Radio Playhouse in New York, where the most modern technical equipment, including wide-range, high-fidelity microphones, will transmit the paralleled richness of tone.

The three great singers will bring their unusual voca ltalents Miss Ponselle and Grete Stueckto the presentation of many familiar and well-loved American songs, such as "Kiss Me Again," "Just A Song At Twilight," and "At the Bend of the River." Songs of more recent composition will also be included in the vocal programs.

Familiar arias from the most famous of operatic productions will form another portion of the vocal presentations with a special selection featured on each of the programs. Miss Ponselle, Martini, and Pool one of the best in the country Moore. The girl scouts are proud Grete Stueckgold will sing numbers which have been associated with their names throughout their public careers.

The orchestral and choral interludes will be unique as performances of present-day popular music. Kostelanetz, whose scintillating arrangements of current tunes rank high in the favor of radio listeners throughout the country, has prepared special versions of many danceable melodies to be played in smooth, rythmic style. An extraordinary feature of his orchestra will be the use of twentythree string instruments out of the total of forty. This unusual set-up will provide Kostelanetz with the Reserve officers will be detailopportunity of obtaining freshness ed definitely selected.

and variation in every number. The gentle rhythms of the waltz will be given a premier position in each program with a special waltz melody included in every broadcast.

The programs have been designed to flow calmly from opening to closing in the manner Kostelanetz made popular, when he first presented a complete program without the usual announcements of voices and the music with an un- numbers interrupting the musical continuity.

In the forthcoming series, both gold are taking part in a regular radio series for the first time.

RUSS POOL TO OPEN (Continued from Page 1)

and have proved their ability in the various swimming meets of this region ,both at the post and the surrounding territory. Benning's body of life-guards makes Russ for a swimmer's safety, as well as providing competent instructors

R. O. T. C. CAMP TO OPEN for the beginners.

(Continued from Page 1)

Engineers, University of Tennessee; Lieutenant Howard Kerr, Engineers, University of Alabama; lieutenant O. C. Maeir Signal Corps Georgia Tech.

Definite announcement of the dates of the camp was not made by Corps Area headquarters, neither are the localities from which

Reconditioning Camp For CCC's To Reopen Here

Acting under the executive order of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, continuing the Civilian Conservation Corps for another year. and ordering the discharge of all men on the completion of one year's service, the reconditioning camp of District, where incoming members of the reforestation army are prepared for work in the field, and equipped with clothes, has been reopened at Fort Benning, with 75 colored enrolled already at the post, and 96 white enrollees expected. Administration and operating of the reconditioning camp has again been placed in charge of the Benning authorities. Lieutenant Colonel Thomas B. Catron, commanding officer Special Units, has been relieved from duty with the Academic Department of the Infantry School, in order to assume command of the camp, in which more than 2,000 new members of the CCC are expected to be received this spring. Other officers and enlisted men of the post who have been detailed on special duty with the camp are Captains William R. MacKinnon, Quartermaster Corps Herbert L. Harries, Infantry, and Charles M. Baird, Medical Corps, Lieutenants Malin Craig, Jr., 83rd Field Artillery, Carl F. Duffner, Laurin W. Merriam, Edward G. Winston, and Francis E. Gillette, all of the 29th Infantry, and Donald T. Beeler, 66th Infantry (Light Tanks); Sergeant William T. Kern, Company B, 29th Infantry, Corporal Norman J. King, Company D, 29th Infantry, Private 1st class Louis McGahee. Company E, 66th Infantry, Private 1st class George C. Webb, Battery C 83rd Field Artillery, Private Charles O. Dexter, Company F 66th Infantry, Private Thomas J. Ramey, Company A 4th Engineers, and Private William Judkins, (Please turn to page 8)

GIRL SCOUTS

(Continued from Page 3)

patrol leaders to settle welfare

Daffodil Troop

The Daffodils had their troop court of awards Friday, March 30, 1934. They started the meeting with a hello song and after that a horseshoe was formed. Edith Horton, Betty Foster, Elizabeth Guthrie and Mary Hundertmark were color guards while Harriet Moore gave the commands. The captain, Mrs. Matchette gave an interesting talk on steps in scout-Then the following songs were sung, Cowboy's Lullaby, Aunt Jemima, Little Chinamen, Come on you Girl Scouts. These were led by Mrs. Writson.

following received their second class badges; Bettsy Ross, Eileen Kelly, Mary Neundorfer Mollie Negrotto, Patsy Elliot, Mildred Guthrie, Elizabeth Guthrie, Betty Foster, Mary Hundermark, Grace Hundertmark and Harriet that there are only two enderfoots left to be made second class.

The following came up to receive their merit badges; Edith Horton, Hostess, Home Nurse; Ruth Crosby, Hostess, Home Nurse; Margaret Frazier, Housekeeper, Ring Around Hostess; Dorothy Negrotto, Ring Around Hostess; Mollie Negrotto, Health Winner; Patsy Elliot, Health Winner; Helen Matchett, Horsewoman, Ring Around Hostess; Mary J. Merrill, Home Nurse.

After Miss Wright told about repeated badges the good-night circle was made and the following songs were sung: Golden Sun, My High Silk Hat, etc., and the Daffodil Court of Awards was ended with Taps.

Helen Matchett Ruth Crosby

Weekly Jumping Contest

(March 31, 1934)

The Jumping Contest last Saturday reminded one of the Spring Horse Show. For once in a long while the weather smiled brightly and the Ring was dry and fast. An interested crowd of around twohundred people were provided entertainment by a course that called for the best in each horse and rid-The sunshine, green trees, and colorful, Easter apparel in the grandstand gave to the contest the gala appearance and air of a regular Spring Show.

Several days before the jumping Lovett's Daily Times announced that the course for the coming Saturday would be very interesting for spectators. The prophesy was correct but the Times forgot to mention the contestants. In fact the course proved so intensevly interesting to the riders who were negotiating the jumps that it attracted their entire attention. set of triple in-and-outs was located with fiendish ingenuity in the lane between Ring No. 1 and Ring No. 2 and it was disastrous for many a would-be cup cup win-

The Three Foot-Three Inch Class started the day, with Lt. Landon leading off on Harpist. The indiidual scores were:

Three Foot-Three Inch Class Lt. Landson on Harpist-97 Mrs. Gee on Jiggs—90 Mrs. Golightly on Jesse Carter-86 Lt. Ely on Toby—96 Lt. Winston on Reggie-Eliminated Capt. Huling on Shandygaff-97 Mrs. Lindsey on Snippy—97 Major Grace on Jupiter—92 Lt. Brown, S. G. on Woody-100 Lt. Emery on Easy-95 Mrs. Otto on Goby-Eliminated

Three Foot-Six Inch Class Lt. Howze on Coffee-Eliminated Mrs. Haisley on Jetmore—100 Peggy Arnold on Sun Brier-92 Major Johnson on Miss Vixon-

Eliminated Lt. Eddleman on Bobby-96 Mrs. Arnold on Siren—92 Mrs. Huling on Dickson-93 Lt. Horton on Richmond D .-- 96 Tommy Arms on Sister Susie—Eliminated

Lt. Bache on Shotgun-97 Mrs. Dunn on Colista—Eliminated Lt. Mathews, W. S. on Spaghetti-

Eliminated

Mrs. Studebaker on Crook-83 Three Foot-Nine Inch Class

Mrs. Cole on Henrietta-Eliminat-edMrs. Heileman on LaJunta—92 Lt. Monroe on Harry W.—92 Lt. Stewart on Bobby Arnold—88 Mrs. Bevans on Anita—90 Mrs. O'Brien on Lumpkin-93

Lt. Brown, S. G. and Mrs. Haisley tied for first place with scores of 100 each, and Mrs. Lindsey, Capt. Huling, Lt. Landon, and Lt. Bache tied for third place with scores of 97 each. On the Jump-Off Sid Brown turned in another neat 100 with a very pretty performance around the course. Mrs. Haisley couldn't get Jetmore to repeat his 100 percent score so she had to be content with second place. In the field of four competing for third place, Lt. Landon won out with a score of 92. General Estes presented the cup and ribbons with a few words of presentation and congratulation to each winner.

Jump-Off Score

FIRST-Lt. Brown-100, time: 1 min. 4 sec. SECOND-Mrs. Haisley-96, time:

1 min. 8 3-5 sec. THIRD—Lt. Landon—92,time: 1

min. 10 4-5 sec. Capt. Huling-88, time: 1 min.

Lt. Bache-88, time: 1 min. 11 2-5

Mrs. Lindsey-Eliminated.

Major Thomas, Capt. Blue, and Lt. Mathews, J. J. deserve much thanks and credit for the efficient and appreciative manner in which they carried out the task of judging and announcing the contest. Jimmie Mathews is an excellent announcer. He realizes that for every rider that goes over the jumps there is someone in the grandstands who wants to know what score that rider made, so Jimmie sounds off in a stentorian voice that reaches to every corner of the stands.

Consolation prizes go to Mrs. Otto and Tommy Arms for getting undignifiedly and unceremoniously policed in the vicinity of the Irish Mound and the triple in-and-outs respectively.

MEDICOS

distance trip to Florida for CCC replied, "Swill, Brother, Swill!" patients. An applicant for original enlistment, obviously slated for rejection, pilots his schnozzle into the confab and opens with:

"How many miles didya make on the trip."

"About 900."

"Gosh! Ya made it in one day?"

"Oh no. In about 11 hours." "Didya get many sick fellas?"

"Yeah. Fifteen of 'em."

"Gee! An' ya gottem all in one ambulance?"

"Oh, sure. You see, fourteen were measles and one had double pneumonia. And you ain't supposed to put measles and other kind of patients together, so, because we could only get fourteen we stuck this guy with double pneumonia OUTSIDE and let him ride the fender."

"Oh.'

Quite recently, two chaps were seen sobbing on a Columbus corner for several hours, eagerly anticipating culmination of a "sleigh-ride." Just another bulls-eye for dot ol' debbil "broad."

Amusing sight: KP trying to lo- at high school. cate a fire with a flash-light in daylight.

your midst. Phooey on Horace Greeley, says he. Slightly emaciated but hardly nowiser.

When asked how the garbage sit-

Two men were discussing a long uation was in his home town, he Measles. . . Paycut. . . CCC. . .

Measles. . .

Etc.

o-o-o-O-O-OH!!

Intended fictional acquisitions for detachment library:

Street of Strange Faces

One Way Ticket

Black River

Single Woman

River God Phantom Rustlers

His First Million Women

Strange Loves

Would Greek" by Tiffany Thayer. Warranted interesting and definitely amusing even for unfortunates of the intelligentsia.

Ah! Hamilton, Ga.—Rendezvous d'amour!!! And-perhaps, the Bo-

And they learned about life in the cloakroom of a biology class

As a kindred soul adroitly puts it, "The darlings refuse to realize that it is never lack of time, lack ExPfc. Pfc. Noe is again midst of courage or lack of opportunity that restrains the militant in pursuing them; it is nothing on earth but lack of interest."

-Robert E. Olsen.

Lt. Colonel Collins To Take Command Of 83rd F. A.

Lieutenant Colonel Leroy P. Collins, a member of the General Staff Corps in the Office of the Chief of Staff, Washington, D. C., will assume command of the Eighty-Third Field Artillery Battalion at Fort Benning, arriving at Benning early in July to take up his news duties. Colonel Collins will relieve Major Clyde A. Selleck, who is at present in command of the Eighty-Third Field Artillery at Fort Ben-

Colonel Collins entered the United States Army in August, 1904, as a private. In less than three years he was promoted to the grade of Sergeant. Colonel Collins was commissioned on July 23, 1907, and was advanced to Captain in 1916. After serving as Major during the World War, Colonel ant Colonel Albert S. J. Tucker. Collins was given the rank of Major in the regular army in 1920. On September 1, 1930, he was made Lieutenant Colonel.

Colonel Collins completed the Mounted Service School in 1911, and took the second year course in 1914. He was a distinguished graduate of the Command and Gengraduated from the Army War College in 1929. In 1930 he finished a course at the Naval War Later in the same year, Colonel Collins was appointed to the General Staff Corps at Washington, D. C.

Colonel Collins is expected to arrive at Fort Benning in the early part of July to assume command of the Battalion of the Eighty Third Field Artillery stationed at the post.

Money To Loan

watches, diamonds, clothing and articles of value. Unredeemed Pledges for sale Cheap.

CITIZENS LOAN CO. 1043 Broadway

Diamond Sacrifice

have a beautiful perfect bluewhite diamond ring. Stone weighs one and one-eight carat. Worth one and one-eight carat. Worth $600.00 Must sell immediately for $300.00 Cash!

Address P. O. Box 368, City

Silver . . .

Silver is one of the important metals dealt in on the Commodity Exchange, Inc. Through its membership and experience in handling commodity transactions, this firm is in a position to supply service in silver futures to banks, investors and traders.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272

Columbus, Ga. WWW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

M. P.'S WORK THURSDAY

The military police had more than their handsful on Thursday afternoon, for in addition to the escort for Governor Talmadge, the Women's Missionary Society, which was holding its convention in Columbus, visited the post at 3:00 o'clock and again the motorcycle did its stuff for the visitors.

The long motorcades of la dies, 85 car-loads in all, was met at the reservation line by the motorcycle escort and conducted into the post and on a tour of observation that included all spots of interest.

Lt. Col. Tucker Is To Be Assigned To Fort Howard. Md.

Information has been received at Fort Benning that War Department orders transferring Lieuten-Infantry, who has been on duty as an instructor in the Academic Department of the Infantry School for the past four years, to duty with the 12th Infantry at Fort Howard, Md., will be issued short-

Colonel Tucker had previously eral Staff School in 1924, and been on duty at Fort Benning in 1923-24, when he attended the advanced course of the Infantry School, and in the interim between his graduation from that course and his assignment here in 1930, had attended the Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and the Army War College at Washington, D. C. At the present time he is serving as chief of the second section of the Academic Department of the Infantry School.

> Colonel Tucker has been in the military service for the past twenty-six years, having been appointed a second lieutenant of infantry in 1908. For his services with the American Army in the World War he holds two Silver Star citations

April 7th Will Be Holiday For 29th

Commemorating the thirtyfourth anniversary of its organization, the Twenty-Ninth Infantry of Fort Benning will be given a holiday, Saturday the 7th, and will have a special program in the cuartel at ten in the morning. celebration, which was to have taken place on March 3, was postponed until Saturday because large number of the companies were under measle quarantine.

The program will begin at ten o'clock Saturday morning, at which time the various companies of the regiment will form at the bandstand in the center of the quartel. Following music by the 29th Infantry Band, there will be an interesting presentation of uniforms Benning Sergeant of the United States Army which have been worn at different periods in its history. Included among the uniforms will be those of the Reovlutionary War, with the threecornered hats, the blue uniforms of the War Between the States, and the khaki ones of the late World War. Colonel William E. Persons, commanding officer of the 28th Infantry, will address his regiment. Colonel Person's address will be followed by a talk by Brigadier General G. H. Estes. The playing of the National Anthem by the regimental band will conclude the pro-

There will be a dance at the post gymnasium, beginning at 8:0 p. m., for the members of the 29th Infantry and their families.

UNIFORMS OF ARMY TO BE SHOWN SATURDAY

iods in the history of the United States Army, dating from the old continentals to the present day serges and whipcords, will be a feature presentation in the special came as the result of a tip-off furexercises Saturday morning at nished by Mr. C. P. Bush, of Co-Fort Benning, commemorating the thirty-fourth birthday of the The cele-Twenty-Ninth Infantry. bration, which was to have taken place on March 3, was postponed until Saturday because of measles quarantine at the post.

The Twenty-Ninth Infantry will assemble at the bandstand in the cuartel at ten o'clock Saturday morning, at which time a musical program will be rendered by the regimental band. Following the insrumental music, there will be the interesting presentation of a heterogeneous collection of uniforms which have been worn by soldiers in the United States army at various periods in its history. The oldest and most unique of the uniforms is the continental, which consists of a dark blue coat and trousers, light shoulder-straps and waist-belt, and a gay cocked hat. The hat is black and tall, with the wide, stiff band turned up and attached to the bowl in front and rear. There is a black-and-white rosette on the left front, and a white queue trailing behind. The uniform representing the 1813 period consists of greyish-blue trousers with a black stripe down the sides, and a black coat with crimson trimmings. The garb used by the Federal Army in the War Between the States is dark blue with a flat-topped cap and large bill. The next uniform to be presented represents the 1881 period. It is composed of light blue trousers with red stripes on the sides, a dark blue coat with brilliant red trimmings, and a tall, dark cap with a swanky red cockade topping it off. The khaki uniform service hat of 1900 closely resembles the present-day summer uniform of the army. There is also among the collection of uniforms a Staunton Military Academy cap, a tall black affair with the entire front almost concealed behind an enormous brass spreadeagle and seal.

Following the presentation of the uniforms, Colonel William E. Persons, commanding officer of the Twenty-Ninth Infantry, will address the regiment. His address will precede a talk by Brigadier General G. H. Estes, Commandant of Fort Benning. At the conclusion of the program, the regimental band will play the National An-

A dance is being given by the Twenty-Ninth Infantry at the Post rymnasium, beginning at 8:30, for the members of the regiment and their families. Friends of the regimental personnel from Fort Benning and Columbus are cordially invited to attend the dance. The Howard Bus Line will furnish transportation for the young ladies of Columbus who wish to attend.

Accused Of Crime 19 Years Old

Staff Sergeant Larry Johnson, Company A., 4th Engineers, Fort Benning. Georgia, who was arrested by Columbus police and Fort Benning military authorities on Friday night at the request of the sheriff of Wilkinson County, Georgia, for the slaying of a citizen of that county nineteen years ago, was taken immediately to Irwinton, Georgia, to answer charge placed against him.

Mayor W. C. Moore, of Irwinton, came to Columbus Friday to make the identification of Johnson. Mayor Moore stated that he had known Johnson as a boy, living Uniforms used at different per- next door to him in Irwinton, and said that at the time of the killing he was known as Lusk Mixon.

The arrest and identification lumbus, who runs a store there. Mr. Bush knew of the crime and notified Irwinton authorities when Johnson came into his store sometime ago to make purchases.

Army records at Fort Benning show that Sergeant Johnson gives his place of birth as Wilkes County, N. C.; that he was born in 1900 which would make him fifteen years old at the time of the killing; and that his mother is living at the present time at High Point, N. C. His entire service in the army, which began in 1922, has been at Fort Bragg, N. C., and at Fort Benning, and all of it in the 4th and 7th Engineers. He first enlisted at Fort Bragg in 1922, serving there from that date until 1929, when he purchased his discharge from the army, and remained in civilian life for about a year. He then reenlisted on special assignment for Fort Benning, in 1930, and has served here continuously since.

Company officers state that his record in the company as a soldier was excellent, and that all of his discharges from the army have been as sergeant with excellent character rating. Recently on the reorganization of the engineer company at the post, he was promoted to staff sergeant, and was living in quarters at Benning at the time of the arrest. He was married to the former Mrs. Miza Connell, of Columbus.

Lieutenant Mark M. Boatner. commanding the 4th Engineers at Fenning, states that he is strongly of the belief that the authorities have arrested the wrong man. When questioned about Sergeant Johnson's record Saturday morning he stated that the man was of a very phlegmatic temperament, and that in the four years that Johnson had served under him, the accused had never lost his temper, even under great provocation. Lieutenant Boatner also stated that Johnson was a very intelligent

(Please turn to page 8)

Dependable. Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve 1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

5%

A SMALL NUMBER . . . BUT IT LOOKS MIGHTY BIG NOW!

We're mighty glad to see that you have this much of the cut back, and we're pulling for you to get the other ten. And meanwhile we want you to remember that we do some of the best tailoring, and pressing work that you've ever seen!

ARTHUR PERLITIUS

"The Tank Tailor"

N. C. O'S ATTENTION

Beautiful

ANDREWS WOODS

The ideal location for families of moderate income. The conveniences of the city with the comfort and privacy of the country.

On Paved Highway Between Columbus and Fort Benning.

THE JORDAN CO.

"Home Builders"

REAL ESTATE

18 - 13th Street

INSURANCE

Phone 1190

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

SPORTCAST

ed breath for the final playoff in the work-outs seen in training the the basketball league between the 2nd Batts will be strong in that 1st and 2nd Battalion teams, the other varieties of athletics at the post are more or less at a standstill.

The only organization so far to take an ardent interest in track, which is the next event on the sports calendar to be competed for, is the 2nd Battalion, who are de-termined to topple the Tankers from their throne of long stand-path artists out for almost a in this affair, with the games lastmonth now, and the boys are round- ing five innings, and taking place ing into wonderful shape. Sever- after work hours. al new additions have been made to the Thunderbolt squad, mainly the horizon to worry over.

With the post waiting with bat- in the distance events, and from phase of the meet this year.

Baseball is slowly but surely emerging from its winter hideout, with almost all organizations taking a more or less tentative crack developing teams. The Special Units, big contenders for last year's title, are engaging in a 'twilight" league that will run for a few weeks before the selection of the Greencord team. Five teams The Kellys have had the cinder from the Special Units are entered

Swimming is still too far over

GREEN WAVE VICTOR IN CAGE SECOND HALF

The Green Wave from the 1st | serious until Snead came through Battalion came through in oldtime with four points to give the Irish form the first of the week to win the game 42-49. High point was the second half championship of divided between Bridges and the basketball league from the 2d Batt Kellys in the third game of the play-off. Apparently the Irish had been heartened by the men scoring 15 points. showing made in the Georgia-Alabama tourney, for they showed more of the form of the teams of other days than they had all sea-

The first of the three games, on Monday night, was pretty much of a walk-away for the Irish after the third quarter, when they piled up an impressive lead that kept them far enough ahead to stay out of danger. The Kellys made a bid in the last period that looked

TRADE MARK

CAPS

Regulation Garrison

for

Officers

and

Enlisted Men

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your Post Exchange or Dealer

Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid Test Insignia and Button

N. S. MEYER, Inc. NEW YORK

Knight, both centers on the 2d and 1st team respectively, both

The second night's game, however, the Kellys came back strong to down the Irish 38-23, in a reversal of form. Without a bit of trouble the Thunderbolt forged ahead in the first half to take the lead 16-11 at the period, and continued their match in the last frame. Snead and Ray were the most effective players for the Wave, while Bridges and Chamberlain led the attack for the 2nd Batts. Bridges was high with 11

The final and deciding game was a tough one for the Kellys to lose, and they fought hard, but ran into one of those streaks of luck in the last period where the ball simply will not go through the net. Highlights of the game were the playing of Cofer and Ray, of the Irish, and Johnson and Darden for the Kellys, all four men putting a hard fight all the way. Bridges was again high point, this time with thirteen.

Captain Fry had not announced the date of the play-off for the post title at time of going to press, but it is expected to take place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, with the two teams, each victor in one half of the post league, clashing once more for the

> BENNING HERALD $1.50 PER YEAR

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

$ 550,000.00 $3,000,000.00

Showing Up Well In National Event

The post amateurs began their series of battles in the National Amateur boxing tourney in St. Louis last Wednesday night, with one win and one loss to their credit

McShea, husky and classy little flyweight who captured the Southeastern title at Benning the first of March, came through in fine style to take a victory in the first round of his class, while Charlie Floyd, of the Tanks, lost a decision that was reported to be very

Results of the second round and the remainder of the first round matches were not known at time of going to press.

Most likely fighters to make good showing in the tourney are Al Schneider, who was reinstated in amateur standing just before the team left Benning, Phil Carpenter, Southeastern lightheavy champ, and Penland, the Big Chief, who fights in the heavyweight division.

SERVICE COMPANY Well it's time to put in a few more word again.

Everything is very quiet now. Private 1st Class Ricker has been discharged and has re-enlisted for the Panama Canal Department and left today for the port of embarkation. Private 1st Class Bolaski was discharged on expiration of his enlistment and returned to his home in Salt Lake City, Utah. Private 1st Class Berday was also discharged and chose to return to his home rather than take on another hitch.

Sergeant "Ike" Smith, Privates 1st Class Hartley, Huggins, Henley and West and Private Holcomb have returned from furlough in good spirits and are back on their regular jobs.

HEADQUARTERS CO.

The Company and the regiment also are celebrating their organization day on Saturday April 7, 1934, instead of March 3, 1934, the original day. This holiday was postponed on March 3, 1934, due to quarantine for measles at that time. We will have as speakers of the day, the Commandant, and the Commanding Officer, 29th Infantry. After that we will have an excellent dinner by our efficient mess sergeant John Falk. A free movie will be given in the evening at the main theatre, and a dance that might at the post gym. This is one of the great events of the year.

The Company welcomes its five per cent increase in pay and also this wonderful spring weather.

Our great basketball team last week Friday, March 30, 1934, won the Georgia Alabama Basket Ball Tournament. Both teams were neck and neck until a few minutes before the end of this game when Headquarters Battalion fighting spirit arose and forged ahead for the 2nd time and staved in the lead until the final whistle. Bigler was high score man with 12 points. Headquarters Battalion captured the second, third, fourth and fifth highest honors in scoring in the following order.

Bigler, Greeson, Coen and Bur-

A silver loving cup was presented to the team as a trophy.

Sergeant Jimmy Hayes, a star

Post Amateurs Are Sgt. LaBonte, star hitter Mauldin, infielder and Hebert star player are getting in shape for the coming season.

Our kitchen force headed by Trogden the first cook, Ralph Holleman and Adcock are doing some wonderful cooking. The Spring fever has not affected any of them.

CANNON COMPANY

Under the tutelage of Lieut. Lon H. Smith the company has just started training for baseball with the hope of turning out several Battalion Players. If the Battalion has inter-company games we intend to make a good showing. The company placed eight men on the battalion team last year, including a left handed batter known as 'Chick" Morrow, and a bean ball tosser called "Slats" Parsons.

Everyone in the company taking a great interest in the Company Progress Chart originated by Captain Edward J. Renth. The chart shows how every man in the company is progressing. Because no man likes to see unsatisfactory marks after his name, there has been a visible improvement in every man in the company.

We have noticed that interest in the Chart has not been limited to the company. Several other companies in the regiment have already adopted the plan and we extend invitations to the other companies to come over and see the chart.

Corporal Smith our Mess Sergeant has recently been promoted to the grade of Sergeant. Privates First Class Harris and Penland have also been promoted to the grade of Corporal.

REGIMENTAL MACHINE GUN COMPANY

These holidays, meaning Easter, what awful temptations they offer to us common adventurous soldiers when allowed to roam at will. Some of the boys whe were granted passes still show signs of stupor, the after effects of excess stimulants and frolic, more commonly known as a hang-over. That will pass though, as soon as we have caught a few winks, and digested an extra helping of slum to replace the now exhausted supply of energy.

It may be of interest to some folks around this post to know that Cpl. Theodore R. Lowe, of this organization, has taken on another three years after being discharged April 2nd. Looks like he is headed for the 30 year retirement period, why, we don't know, only that he feels the women like him best as a soldier.

HQ. CO., FIRST BN.

The first thing in order for this week is a lot of praise for the 1st Battalion basketball squad who emerged from the Georgia-Alabama tournament as runners-up. We are very proud to say that we have three of the first string Irish basketeers in this organization, namely, Snead, Ray, and Knight.

Next is boxing; we also boast of Two of Fort Benning's foremost amateurs, namely, Privates Phillip D. Carpenter and Alfred B. Schneider who are representing the In-(Please turn to page 7)

PEP... in every step

> Use (-1100D-)

Heels and Soles

Hood Rubber Products Co., Inc. Watertown, Mass.

We're Ready To Play Ball!

... and to prove it, we have a fine stock of baseball equipment, one which is sure to have everything you need for the diamond season. Don't wait until the opening game—get your equip-

The Main Branch carries a complete stock of nationally advertised sporting goods—tennis, baseball, fishing, and accessories to every sport. Phone 608.

MAIN BRANCH

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING, GA.

Committee the committee of the committee of the

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell to Anyone Not In The Military Service

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from page 6)

fantry School at St. Louis for National honors. Luck to you fellows may you return wearing the crowns in your respective weights.

We wonder who the two soldiers were who chased a slip of paper purposely tossed from one of the passenger planes that soared over Fort Benning last Sunday. (April Fool's Day) and what they found written on the paper after they had pursued the missive for over half a mile?

Reports have it that Sgt. "Breezy Story" McGaha, intelligence platoon sergeant extraordinary, has been thoroughly perusing all the local papers for further info on the bonus question. "Mac" says that he has his eyes on the house that some high powered realtor sent him a picture of recently.

A few of the scribe's friends incidentally the same scribe who is knocking out this boloney on the Underwood, have asked me to publish a few "seldom seens" for the benefit of all concerned. Here they are:

Cpl. Ray without a cigar and a statement that they come like dead men-One In A Box.

Bruner Burke without a cue stick in his hand.

Benny Stolier without one of the latest song hits.

Stunky Davis, Jerald C. Hays. Marvey C. Smith and Goober Mauldin without a calendar in their hand. (We were the same way when we were short timers.)

This will be all the blarney for this week.

-N. H. Hobbs.

COMPANY "B"

The quarantine was lifted from the Company last Tuesday. We hope we will be able to escape what childish diseases might come up in the future.

What a RUMOR-The 29th Infantry is to leave Fort Benning, Ga. for the World's Fair in Chicago around the middle of June and return to duty towards the last of July. This is one time we hope a rumor will come true.

Sgt. Kern and Pfc. Bergeron are leaving us to help get more CCC's in the pink of condition before sending them into the woods.

Sgt Barr now at the Station Hospital for minor cuts, is expected to be back with the Company in a few days.

COMPANY "E"

Lost, strayed or stolen: One (1) of quarters" belt and incision, Cracker. bunch of keys. Lost somewhere between Pvt. Buckelew's bunk and the orderly room. Any information kindly appreciated. Reward Please notify Cpl. Browning.

At last Company "E" has a real track star, Cpl. Paul Raines. Can he run? And how! Of course what made him run would make almost any good man run.

The "Four Horsemen" company, Tosh, Butler, Stanley, and Jordan ran a good race but made a bad finish. Cheer up boys even the Prince of Wales had falls when he was a "beginner."

If anyone can strain his imagination enough to see ten tigers, thirteen lions, nine wildcats, and one wolf, all together in a cage with one fat calf, he can very well see how Polk, Emory, the two Williams brothers. Baldridge, Jackson, and guess who the wolf was.

At last Cpl. Oscar Feagin has beat the "Ring Woman" out of her business. Now Oscar, is that the human thing to do?

About two days after Pfc. Austin's three day pass was turned down, he was noticed reading the Film Fun Magazine. Now, now, Austin!

that "Duck Town" happened to get his lip busted in a fight. He is very much afraid of losing some business while he is in this shape.

Pvt. Lavender Cavender was very much upset when informed that he could not get three silver spoons. He asked them to see Polk and please don't blame him because he had to ask for that many spoons.

The men of this organization are very glad to have Sgt. Bridges and Cpl. Swords back after being on Detached service with the CCC. Yep! Cpl. Swords is still the great big, brawny, hard talking man that he was before leaving. Welcome home, Sergeant and Corporal.

COMPANY "F"

The Company baseball team has been getting into shape for the past two weeks. By all indications, our team will be one of the best on the diamond this season. The lineup is as follows: Corporal Ritch, pitching, Pop Dorsey, catching, Lugenbuhl, short stop, Pistol Pete, first, second and third base. Sgt. Vines gets right field by winning a toss-up with Rubberball Johnson. Rubberball plays left field and Pfc. Lamb and Pvt. Hight will be umpires. Substitutes are Peter Barron and Corporal Haynes.

Corporal Roscoe Holland has been placed on Special Duty in the Supply Warehouse at the C. C. C. Reconditioning Camp.

Pfc. Whatley, Lee, Reed and Pvt. Vallery have been discharged during the past week and all of them say they are going to follow "Old Beck" down the "cawn" rows again. The Company regrets their loss but wishes them luck and happiness as farmers.

Pfc. "Red" Herrington has been promoted to the rank of Corporal and spent his first Sunday afternoon on Charge of Quarters.

Pvt. "I wanna transfer" Pope has failed again. This time he wanted to go to the 4th Engineers.

Wonder why the brass in Company "F" is shining so this week. Maybe it's due to the fact that there's six vacancies for Pfc. in the Company.

Since Lt. Duffner has been on Special Duty as Supply Officer with the Civilian Conservation Corps, we are wondering how many of the C. C. C.'s will be a "soldier."

The laugh of the week came when Pvt. "Gimme a cigarette' Yancey tried to bum one from 'Have ya gotta Bull" Lager.

Sgt. "Cracker" Sterling Gardener Thompson has recovered from his recent operation and has been returned to duty. Let's see your Dad Singletary, Company Cribbage Champion, has been losing lots of games to Sgt. "All Right" Cummings. Maybe this is due to the fact that Dad is unable to concentrate on his game because "In the Springs ay oung man's fancy often turn to thoughts of love and

Turner & Bennett.

COMPANY "H"

A catastrophe was narrowly avrted on the troop train last week when Corp. Wells came to the front with a display of presence of mind that would be a credit to anybody. There is not enough ask Wells about it, he was in what had his garrison belt misplaced in Boy they say this is the demonstration period and we are not arone week in camp. Pvt. 1 cl. (Liber-for the boys, one thing they had a Abbott looked in town several guing. Step by step we are scour- ty Johnson could have beat that good chance to spend their money. p. m. and ending at 11:30 p. m. ing the reservation. If we are not case for you, Louis B.) searching for the reds it's the blues who trade punches with us.

Shorts-Hyde splashed hot coffee in his pan but came out with just a few blisters. . . Joe Harvin will be well on his way via purchase when you read this. . . Roy Hutto did not even pause to buy a bus ticket, we have a feeling he won't be gone long though. Somebody has the rumor out And now back to grind out a few mark and says he will make his more weary miles. Pvt. 1cl. Phail and Pvt. Earl Davis were discharged ETS the 23rd and immedi ately reenlisted for 3 more years. At the best, K. P.'s are hard enough They are now enjoying a wellearned rest on furlough.

Battery "A" has had another great man return, Corporal William (Bill) D. Holt. Cpl. Holt was on D. S. with the CCC in Florida and it seems as if the Florida bug bit him for he is planning on going back soon. We wonder why.

The battery is on Fire Guard again and we are having some fun, while we are all together again. Sgt. Wilson has gotten up a checker tournament, and Sgt. Gilbert a pool tournament, to see who is the best.

We have been wondering how Sgt. Cole gets his face scratched so much in spite of the old saying that lightning never strikes in the same place twice. This makes twice for Cole and almost the same place. What a cat, Cole.

BATTERY "C"

The Battery Mechanic is planning a trip to the wilds of Florida for a check-up on the wild fruits, from this check-up he will determine whether or not he will reenlist.

Outside of two skinned faces and a week-end in the ball park the battery had a rather quite pay-day.

The vacancies in the battery were all filled this week and quite a number of serge shirts are now packed away in lockers for the

From the information we have so far, we believe that Battery C will put on a real Fort Sill problem Wednesday night, such as selecting and occupying a position at night. Compute the necessary firing data and begin the firing at

COMPANY "A"

Speaking of the Seven Great Wonders of the world is quite interesting; but what about the eighth? You are somewhat puzzled and no wonder. If you really wish to see the eighth wonder of the Sgt. Caesar Slade were discharged world just drop around Company 'A" some time and see our twins. No introduction is necessary, no charges of any kind. They stick so close together that the Company Commander wished to know if they really sleep together and too when you see them you too will think 25 years, 9 months, and 10 days of the same.

Pvt. 1ci. (Bach) Bernard and Pvt (Hoggie) Saffold spent the weekend in Montgomery, Alabama, and did they enjoy themselves? Just listen to the boys talk about it.

We most certainly would hate to lose our youthful Mess Sgt. but the habit the poor boy has adopted here of late can have but one end. Now be careful Mack and quit running out on the girls. Remember I am your pal. It is too space to tell the entire incident but bad that our foremost Pvt. 1 cl. is known in these parts as a strain. the city this week-end past be-

COMPANY "B"

Every thing is OK in Gator Land except one of the bad boys went AWOL for a few weeks, and one is in the can for exceeding the speed limits in Block 23.

Our Veteran 1st Sergeant William McCauley retired March 31, 1934, with a few years over the 30 home in old Virginia.

Pvt. 1 cl. White Willie backed down for Pvt. McGoodson to move up a file.

Pvt. 1 cl. Tellis and his Bachelor boys are practicing tennis and will -Steve. be ready for all matches this sum- recently discharged and immedi-mer.

Corporal Nickens was appointed Mail Orderly for the 24th Infantry. And think he will stay on the Regimental Staff for a while. The appointment didn't swell the boy's head, he can be found at the Company with the rest of the boys.

Boys watch your SHACK. The men from the CCC are back. Pvt. 1 cl. Curtis returned from the Ala. camp, and will be firing from all Private Osborn Bryson our acting 1st Sergeant was reappointed 1st Sgt. April 1, 1934, after retiring 1st Sergeant McCauley. This is the 6th time our Top Kick have seen them leave with his rank as first Sergeant.

The Company baseball nine will try to place four men on the Regimental team this year. Corp. Brown G., Pvts. Boyd, Harper, and Randolph, and ... make the grade.
Yours, dolph, and we do hope the boys will Kid Shadow & Randolph.

COMPANY C

So far the company has lost three men via discharge, namely: Sgt. John G. Reed, Pvt. 1 cl. Shivers and Pvt. Esters. To be sure they will continue their service without a break upon entering the next three years. Let us hope that success follows them throughout this period.

Sergeant George Williams has reported in from Jackson, Ala., for preparation for discharge on April 3, 1934. Sgt. Williams has been on duty with the CCC at that station for quite some time, and upon completion of his discharge and reenlistment here, he will again return to Jackson, Ala., for further service with the CCC's.

Corp. Homer Thomas, upon reporting in for discharge, having not been with the regiment for some time forgot the usual proce dure for the discharge of an enlisted man, and demanded that he receive transportation to his home as well as a Discharge Form given to the CCC's. Well, Old Boy it's time you were coming back for duty.

Rags.

COMPANY "E"

Well they squawk and squabble, but yet they come and go.

Sgt. Joseph Clark, recently from the 25th Infantry was discharged on the 25th day of March, and was sworn in for theree more years.

1st. Sgt. George B. Larkins and on the 1st day of April, Cpl. Doc Williams on the 2nd.

1st Sgt. George B. Larkins has completed 22 years of service.

Sgt. Cesar Slade has completed 20 years of service. Sgt. Joseph Clark has completed

Cpl. Doc Williams has completed 15 years of service.

We hope that we have some more good soldiers in the company to take the places of the old timers after they are gone.

Company "E" 's (9) nine are beginning to warm for the coming baseball season, they have been tossing, batting and catching a few balls. We hope that Buster McCrary, former captain of the team retains his position this year.

Every member of the Company surely enjoyed themselves during Theodore S. Hicks.

COMPANY "F"

Everything around the company is normal again now, Private Elija Lewis having been awarded the string left vacant by the promotion of Pvt. 1 cl. Taylor to the grade of Corporal, the rest of the boys have settled down to win the next honorable mention.

We are glad to hear that Pvt. c¹. John H. Frazier who has been in the hospital for some time with a fractured underpin is convalescing rapidly and will soon be back with us.

Pvt. Minnewetter Henderson was ately took on another stack. We are glad to have you stay with us old pal, and respect your knowledge of conditions beyond the skies for the best song after all is "In My Uncle's Arm."

Some things we would like to see: Pvt. Jones not on 6 and 8; Sgt. Lay with a spare tire; 1st Sgt. Smith stay awake; Pvt. Sprueil not with his poker face; and Sgt. Porter not worrying about the uniform of the Mystic Knights of the Things have come and things have went.

But oh, how we welcome that five per cent.

So much good for us 'twill do, I'm sure that you'll welcome it

We can buy more tobacco and drink more rum.

And meditate over the good to Let the 30th of June hurry and ar-

So that we will be blessed with another five.

Then oh boy, the fun will start, We'll take that ten right to our heart. For we'll be mourning for the other five.

But not for long will the Glee Club abide.

-John W. Jones.

COMPANY "G"

Several members of the company have joined the Antlered Herd and several more have their applications in for the same.

At this writing we are standing by for the colorful ceremony of Escort to the Governor. As our Semper Paratus, really motto. means Always Ready as far as the House of David is concerned we are prepared to carry on as G Company always has.

Columbus seems to be in mourning as far as several members of the fair sex is concerned. Reason-The Mr. Private Raymond Lamb is in the hospital. Kingfish: "Say Corporal, got fifty cents?"

Cpl. Seats: "Nope, but I've got forty-five.""

Kingfish: "Good, I've got a nickel, lets you and I go to town and make whoopee."

The company buglers, in addition to their other duties are learning the art of landscape gardening under the capable direction of Corporal Rodger Porter who seems to be a master in the art of making flowers grow.

Sgt. W. W. Hodges.

BAND

On last Thursday afternoon both orchestras of the Band enjoyed a joint stag party at the home of Private Harold McCray in Columbus, where the party started and also at the home of Pfc. Slone Williams where it terminated after each participant expressed himself as having had a wonderful time. Several more of these get-together parties are to be held in the fu-

. Both orchestras will play for the dance to be held at the post gymnasium on Wednesday night, April 18th, sponsored by the 24th Infantry. At the present time it is beieved that Wysinger, one of the band bridge players, succeeded in breaking down a bridge table at a party in Columbus when, with his pile-driving fist, he trumped his adversary's ace.

Truth is stranger than fiction. Pfc. Decuir, upon being invited in an ice cream parlor by Sgt. Hodges and asked what he would have, decided that he would have Chop Suey ice cream. When this delicious and tempting dish arrived Decuir wanted to break up the furniture and turn out the place because there was no meat in his order.

Sgt. W. W. Hodges. (Please turn to page 8)

GOV. TALMADGE HERE (Continued from page 1)

George F. Baltzell, Colonel Ephraim G. Peyton, Colonel Charles W. Weeks, Colonel J. DeCamp Hall, Colonel Charles F. Morse, Colonel William E. Persons, Lieutenant Colonel John H. Stutesman, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph A. Atkins, Lieutenant Colonel Thomas B. Catron, Major Clyde A. Selleck, Major Sidney G. Brown, Major Lucius K. Patterson, Major Elbert J. Lyman, Captain Edward C. Betts, Lieutenant Charles H. Landon, Chairman Ed Wohlwender, R. E. Dismukes, J. H. Dimon, T. G. Reeves, J. W. Woodruff, H. Dixon Smith, J. E. Page, W. G. Morton, T. C. Crawford, H. B. Crawford, L. W. McPherson, F. D. Foley, E. P. Burrus, J. Wright Brown, W. C. Jeffries, Marshall Morton, A. F. Kunze, Karl Thompson, Walter E. Pike, Willis Battle, William DeL. Worsley, Herbert Porter and C. E. Cabaniss, the latter two of Atlanta.

Fresh Limes MITCHELLS 1204 Broadway

Hear Col. Kelley

The regular meeting of the In fantry School Woman's Club will be held Monday April 9 at the Polo-Hunt Club at 2:15. At this time the election of officers for the 1934-35 year will take place.

After the election of officers Col. Reginald H. Kelley will speak on "World Danger Spots." Col. Kelley is one of our most popular speakers. Mr. Rex Lavender of Columbus will sing several selec-man, and that, in his opinion, would have selected some army post further away from the scene of the killing to serve in, if he were guilty. Both Fort Bragg and Fort Benning are within three rundred miles of Irwinton. Lieutenant Boatner also said that Johnson was one of the best and most efficient members of the engineer company, and the best construction sergeants that he had seen in his army career.

SERGEANT JOHNSON

(Continued from page 5)

Johnson, according to a state-panies of District H.

Woman's Club Will ment which he made at the time of the arrest, claims that he can furnish a birth certificate in proof of his claim that he was born in North Carolina, and that his present name is his correct one. Men who have served with him both at Fort Bragg and Fort Benning state that to their knowledge he came from North Carolina, where his mother Mrs. Johnson, is now living, and that he has continuously written to her under the name of Johnson, and sent her money as a gift at a number of times.

> C. C. C. CAMP (Continued from Page 1)

Company A 24th Infantry.

The reconditioning camp is to be split into two sections, with the colored enrollees being stationed at Harmony Church. A number of the men who will pass through the Benning camp are expected to be assigned later to other districts of the 4th Corps Area than District H, as Fort Benning is the only camp in the Corp Area with facilities for separate reconditioning. The men who will be trained here are to serve as replacements for those whose year in the CCC will be completed this spring, and will be mainly sent to the eighteen com-

24TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 7)

SERVICE COMPANY

It is with regret that the company awaits the departure of 1st Lt. H. M. Monroe for his new station on April 23rd. Having been with the company more than four years he has become personally acquainted with every man in the organization. By his helpfulness and advice in the little problems incident to routine, and personal relations he has endeared himself to the entire company. Our best wishes accompany him in his new assignment.

Privates Beavers and Pearson took a month's furlough each on the 1st, and "Chippy" got jealous and took one too on the 3rd. That started the mad spring rush but it soon ended when word went around that there wasn't any more. "Vick" couldn't wait for his, so he's on an extended French leave, effective on or about April 1st, Easter Sunday. They call it spring fever, but furlough fever would be more appropriate for Army usage. But our old pal, Key, has a remedy for that—the old adage in modern version "chow". And he's clever about it. Last week he put it in the company street and served beer too—and—that formation looked like a dental inspection. G. E. Burton, Reporter.

Pvt. Pier, Of 29th Commits Suicide

Private 1st class Stanley A. Pier, Company F, 29th Infantry, committed suicide at the home of his father in Chicago, Ill., yesterday, according to information received at Fort Benning early Friday morning. Private Pier left the post the first of this week for a ten day furlough, which he intended to spend in the northern Authorities at Fort Benning know of no reason for the soldier's killing himself, as he had an excellent record as a soldier in his company, and was in no trouble at the post as was known. At the time of his death Pier had approximately ten years' service in the army, all of which had been spent in the 29th Infantry, seven of it in the same company.

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1934

BY-DAY

By MAJOR RAMBLE

FORT BENNING, April 9.-Highlights of the Infantry schooldaze to date: Opening exercises, Equitation. Scouting and patrolling. George Bloomquist's hiding and shooting ground. The night ride with Cappy Wells and Jimmy Wharton investigating backyards and crashing private coon-hunts. Fox and Gally responding to the lighthouse signal. Seventy-three degrees. Platform nose dives. The fear and trembling prior to the school's first graded work, a twopint map reading exam. Walking miles over our first battalion defense area. The combat engineer regiment. Monographs. Logistics. Motor cereals. Doc Dabney's RJ 501-CC. Evacuation. Learning to place hospitals in Penn College. Learning not to bury the dead in existing cemeteries. Cold baths Concertina wire. The medical exam. Schildroth and his bees. Cappy Wells on an inspection tour of the Polo-Hunt Club. The oberschutzer story. Gobboons and boggoons. And dragoons. The Crafts Shop offering to take orders for little boys and girls. London breeches falling down. Doc Sams and his Bull Run bull. Fitts and Phipps competing in outsitting contests. Tannenberg Supply. The fluidity of horse cavalry. Afghan folk lore. Christmas bells and bills. The motors course The annual physical. Howdy Clark's forget-them-nots. The Cus seta sheriff. More motors. Truck convoying. Biglerville at 2 a. m. And so on, ad infinitum.

Giving publicity where publicity is due makes us feel guilty of running this column in circles or cycles or something. Our latest copy source, Johnny Johnson, should have lost patience with us long ago but Johnny, to his credit, has the what-it-takes to work hard and come up smiling, an enviable trait noticeably absent in so many of us who are gradually slipping under a never-ending succession of marked problems. We therefore, feel that one more will slide off like those that have gone before.

Johnny, since last September, has had a penchant for attacking in a column of what-nots echeloned to the left rear. Any attack problem presented by the first section was a signal for him to so dispose his troops, only to find as we all did sooner or later, that what was sauce for the goose wasn't necessarily cranberry sauce. Thanksgiving turkey was one thing, Christmas turkey was something else

At any rate Johnson returned from his St. Louis trip with more laurels for his Benning boxers, just in time to take Monday's decision problem. The sad part of it was that for the first time in a graded map problem the school saw fit to echelon to the left rear. And Johnny attacked with two companies abreast.

Rambling: Harbingers of spring -a neat looking baseball diamond and an increasingly large number of decision problems. Orders, orders, who has the orders? Another mounted terrain exercise prompts us to advocate shorter ficers, Captains James P. Gamlegs for horses at Mr. Benning's (Please turn to page 2)

BENNING DAY-General DeWitt Is To Take Refresher Course Here

Brigadier General John L. De-Witt, Quartermaster General of the United States Army, will arrive at Fort Benning Monday to take up a month's work in the Refresher Course at the Infantry School. General DeWitt was last at Benning in November, when he made a tour of inspection of the Quartermaster activities of the Infantry School and the new construction under way at the post. He vacated the office of Quartermaster General, recently, upon the expiration of his assignment to a tour of duty with that service, and reverted to his regular army rank of Colonel, but was almost immediately given the rank of Brigadier

First Golf Rounds Ended Wednesday

The first of the matches in the Fort Benning team championship golf tourney ended yesterday afternoon, with the unusual result of three teams tying in points, wo of them with sixteen and one half each.

In the eight matches, the Infantry Board and Department of Experiment team tied with the Third Section, 12-12, the Second Section lost to the A. C. Headquarters and Tank Section, 8-16, the National Guard and Reserve team lost to the 83rd Field Artillery, 3½-20½ the Medical Corps and Quartermaster Corps beat the Advanced Class 15-12, the 29th Infantry (A) defeated the Tank (A) team 181/2 8½. the 29th (B) beat the Tank (B) 19-8, the First Section tied with the Company Officers 161/2-161/2 and the 24th Infantry tied with Post Headquarters 161/2-161/2.

The teams are composed of a varying number of players, from thirteen to eight, playing match play, with one point to the winner of each nine holes, and an additional point to the winner of the eighteen.

Players who made a clean sweep of all three points in their matches are Major Jesse A. Ladd and Maxon S. Lough, of the Infantry Board; Major William W. Eagles, of the Second Section; Captain Laurin L. Williams and John A. Captain Charles F. Colson of the Advanced Course, Captains William B. Yancey and Guy J. McKinley, and Lieutenant Claude B. Ferenbaugh of the 29th (A), Lieutenants James R. Pierce, James R. Davidson, and Walter C. Britt, of the 29th (B), Lieutenant Ralph B. Keiler of the Tanks (A), Majors Hugh C. Gilchrist and William mon and Clinton E. Fenters of the (Please turn to page 5)

F. Lee of the First Section, Lieutenant Charles L. Olin and Theodore Bogart of the Company Of-

EXPECTED

Major General Johnson Hagood who is expected late this afternoon for a visit to the Infantry School.

GENERAL ESTES MAKES ADDRESS TO REGIMENT

The 29th Infantry, largest peace- | 3, was postponed because of the my, observed the organization day at Fort Benning at the time. of the regiment Saturday by a holiday, an interesting ceremony was originally scheduled for March ime infantry regiment of the ar- measles epidemic that was raging

The ceremony yesterday had ve ry interesting features that made staged in the morning, and a dance it different from the usual run of for all members of the regiment such affairs. Uniforms worn by last night. The observance of the the regular army of the United founding of the regiment, which States since 1775, were presented (Please turn to page 2)

THE SPIRIT OF OLD JOHN PEEL

The Hunt Field assembled at the wanted some more scenes with School Stables Sunday morning at picturesque backgrounds so the hounds, all spread out on the oak trees, presented a picture that reminded one strongly of paintings of old hunt scenes.

After much dashing around on the part of the Whips the hounds

Laurin L. Williams and John A 7:00 o'clock and rode directly to Andrews of the A. C. Ha. and Tank Section; Captain Pierre Malat the Kennels, riding formations at the Hole, some Boy Scouts, blisslet, and Lieutenants George A. were broken and members of the fully ignorant of the approachlet, and Lieutenants George A. were broken and members of the McManus, William A. Harris, and George D. Vanture of the 83rd raphers made ready to take pictures. Viewing the scene from the good, jr., Captain Walter E. Chase and Arthur E. Jackson, of the quartermaster Medical Corps; heart of any hunter. The reduction of the graphers of the graphers of the Kennels, the panorama was one to warm the calculate the property of the graphers and property of the graphers of the graphers made ready to take pictures. Viewing the scene from the suddenly appeared on the banks of the creek, there was a mad scramble of little white bodies diving into the water and rupping to Monday. April 6th coated Whips, colorfully garbed ing into the water and running to riders, restive horses, and baying cover under the high banks. We Mrs. Philip S. V give it as our opinion that the greensward beneath the towering lady Whips were more embarrassed than the Boy Scouts. Pictures charge of the meeting; after the were made of the Field crossing routine matters were disposed of the creek and of the Hunt Staff holding a live fox. Marie Dunn, bedecked in the vivid scarlet and were finally packed and pho-Infantry blue of the Infantry tographs were made of the entire School Hunt Club, posed with Brer Field. The Hunt Staff then led Fox, and blushed conspicuously unthe way toward Lumpkin Road der the withering verbal hazing and arriving there, the hounds were of members of the Field. After let out on a drag trail. A nice hunt was conducted down to Gilbert Creek. The photographers dispersed.

Of the Field. Fired, Fir

Perry Low Bidder On Contract For Academic Building

Bids from almost fifty construction firms throughout the South and Middle West, for the construction of the Infantry School building, last and most important of the projects to be constructed at Fort Benning under the $6,352,000 grant of Public Works Administration funds, were opened in the office of Captain Carl H. Jabelonsky, constructing quartermaster of the post, at 10 o'clock this morning. The winning bid on the project was selected by Captain Jabelonsky and forwarded to the office of the Quartermaster General in Washington, D. C., for approval. It is expected that official announcement of the award of contract will be made within the next few days. Perry Fireproofing Company, of Chicago, was the low bidder with a figure of $472,000.

The Infantry School building will house the Academic Department and Headquarters of the Infantry School and will be located in the triangle formed by Morrison Street, Wold Avenue, and the First Division Road, directly opposite the new Officers' Club, with the front of the building facing toward the north. It will be of concrete, stucco, and limestone con-struction, with tile roof, conforming to the same general type of architecture used in the majority of the permanent buildings of the post, and will be a long step toward the completion of a better equipped and housed Infantry School.

The new building will act as the center of activities of the school, replacing the wartime wooden structures now located in the Academic Area, opposite the 29th Infantry, and the present Headquarters building, which is rapidly becoming inadequate for the needs of the post. In general dimensions it will be approximately 270 feet long, with two wings each one hundred feet long. The center section of the building is to be U-shaped, the two arms of the U forming two additional wings toward the rear of the building in the center. It will be two stories high, with a basement and tower.

New Officers Elected By Woman's Club

Mrs. Philip S. Wood, who has served most capably as president during the 1933-34 year, was in routine matters were disposed of the president asked Mrs. Charles W. Weeks, chairman of the nominating committee, to present the slate of officers selected by the committee for the year 1934-35. The slate as presented was unanimously elected and the following ladies will take office: Mrs. John

THE BENNING HERALD

Phone 328

Columbus, Georgia Published Every Friday

VOLUME III	APRIL 13, 1934	NO. 5
L. C. Kunze		Publisher
A. F. Kunze		Editor
Felicia C. Howell		Society Editor
Jack Gibney	.	Sports Editor
Louis T. Kunze	Circ	ulation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT,
SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

> BENNING DAY BY DAY (Continued From Page 1)

of our written monograph grades? hives. One suggestion heard last Cavalryman Cox continues to improve and is preparing for sick leave. The class wishes him well. Sixty-six days to graduation. Nine weeks and a butt. Five marked problems and two night exercises in one week's schedule. The Benning Herald is overlooking a potential columnist if it fails to sign up the anonymous reporter of last week's jumping contest write up. Overheard from a 29th Infantryman-The suggestion that the dinky railroad cars be equipped with round wheels. A noticeable laxity in motor warming as the motors course fades into the great beyond. Proposed invention for gimcrack designers: a non-writing fountain pen to be used in marked problems for not getting "U's." A few more problems on seven maps and school for boys. Whatever became All we'll need then will be the week is worthy of note—a degree for Benning graduates. What could be better than our grade before our name and a few spare initials in the rumble? The finance officer's pay off.

Remembering what we did in our last decision problem leaves us a little gun-shy at those ahead of us. We pounced on our last marked problem with much eclat, like six kittens on a tennis ball only to find when the smoke got out of our eyes that we had provided the school with one perfect solution of a horrible example. We view with unconcealed envy and admiration those analytically minded classmates who persist in throwing the school for a loss. It must we'll all make good paperhangers. be a gift. Like wiggling one's ears.

GENERAL ESTES, SPEAKER (Continued from Page 1)

to the regiment, being worn by regiment. soldiers from the various organizations. Lieutenant Joseph B. Crawford, 29th Infantry, introduced the program and identified the various uniforms as they appeared. Beginning with the uniform of the Continental Army in 1775, the soldiers of 1813, 1851, 1861, 1870 1900, and the soldier of today all appeared before the assembled regiment, and gave a comprehensive idea of the revolution of the garb of the United States regular.

Following this feature, Colonel William E. Persons, regimental commander addressed the troops. Colonel Persons is a capable and interesting speaker, and in his remarks keynoted the purpose of the 29th Infantry, its aims, and the need of cooperation of every individual to achieve the result to which the regiment is working.

The motto of the 29th Infantry, "We Lead The Way," is simply the plural of "I Lead The Way" said Colonel Persons, in an especially pertinent part of his address. "And when each one of you leads the way in the performance of the military duties of the individual, then the country and world will know that the motto of this regiment is not merely a trite phrase, but is a true statement of the fact that we, the members of the 29th Infantry, lead the way for the armies of the world."

At the conclusion of his talk Colonel Persons introduced Brigadier General G. H. Estes, post commandant, who stated his pleasure interest in its welfare and soliciat being invited to address the tude for its future.

The first part of General Estes' speech was as follows:

"Another year has rolled around and here we are again commemorating another natal day of the 29th Infantry, a little delayed by some measly cause or other but none the less enthusiastically celebrated. This program marks another year full of interest and instruction. The regiment may be young in years but it is mature in knowledge and experience of efficient soldiering.

"Our professional life is a constant shifting of scenes and acts. Officers and men come and go in a never-ending but always changing stream. It is like a busy rushing stream, whose general form, appearance and action remain constant though the constituent elements are ever changing and mov-

"For another year, the 29th Infantry has maintained its enviable reputation for discipline, efficiencv. and morale. It still leads where others follow.

"Such an occasion as this can not but be inspiration to any one soldier or civilian, who is interested in the preservation and perpetuation of our country and in the stability of the government with which we are ble

"No one can serve with this regiment without developing a high regard for its personnel, a deep respect for its attainments, a keen amination is as follows, Corp. 'Red' Pyle is so regusted over the outcome of the exam that he swears he is going to put in for a short discharge for Oahu. Pvt. 'Jessie' Parker in drill says if he can't stop the detachment by hollering attention he will holler "whoa." 'Toots' Cumings is transporting ty-

MEDICOS

The preview of the sergeant ex- phus fever by the means of the rat flea. 'Pop' Tynes was almost eliminated on the first day by running members of the board out of the shade and parking the detachment therein. 'Sad' Smith who bought a Ford on the strength of making sergeant has since decided he will still have to buck tens on

Give the Service Tribe a few lines this week for if strength means anything we should have a good portion of your paper allotted us. We are one under strength and have eight men from the 22d Infantry attached, giving us a total of two hundred and forty men, and what's more others are coming in every day wanting to transfer. We wonder what causes this.

On Monday, eight men of the 22nd Infantry were attached to the Motor Transportation Platoon of this company for the period April 7th to 29th in order that they might learn some of the fine points of motor transportation, and believe me, if it's information they want, we have it.

Private Hewell, formerly a member of Company H of this regiment has returned to the post and has been assigned to the company.

Private 1st Class Young. Waldorf Chef" has returned from the hospital after resting his feet a few days. Several arguments have come up as to the correct mileage between the post and Columbus but we think Young can give us the low down on it from experience.

Sergeant T. E. "Ikey" Smith took on another stack today. Good boy. Ike, keep it up and when the rest of the company has been discharged, you are next.

Sergeant "Peggy" Roper, since his return from CCC duty at Waycross, Georgia, has taken over his new duties as Company Supply Sergeant.

Wanted to trade-One late copy of Capt. Billy's Whizz-Bang in excellent condition for any kind of publication on "How to fix a Lawn" -See the First Sergeant.

COMPANY "B"

Changes in ratings in this organization during the past week include the following: Pfc. Elkins and Davis, H. M., appointed Corporals, Privates Brown, J. L. Dorsett and Melvin appointed privates first class, Private Brown, W. S. appointed private first class and rated specialist 4th class, and Privates Griffin and J. C. Howell rated specialists 6th class.

We are happy over the return of two members of the company from CCC duty, only to lose two more boys to the same cause. Cpl Albritton was the first to return when he blew in from the famous Waycross, Ga., camp. He expressed his delight in being back, stating that the work was too hard at first and too monotonous at the end. Pvt. Kent was the other member of the company to return from the 3C's. His time had been spent at Marion, La. Kent cele-(Please turn to Page 3) the side. Tullie Allen modestly admits that the lowest grade he made is 97. 'Hoosie,' Pvt. 1cl. Stanley is trying out a new set of drill regulations for the war department, the first command being march by twos column right march. 'Son' Belcher since taking the exam has started wearing his garrison belt over his left shoulder practing to say.

Who is the high ranker that has started a "You Drive It" service but is showing poor business management and is "going in the hole" on the deal?

"Doc (Bing Crosby) Krout" has quit talking and gone to crooning.

We wonder who he's crooning to?
We hope that Staff Sgt. VanDusen did not get 'Ma' Bryant mixed up with the patient on the trip to Walter Reed.

Latest additions to the Detachment by transfer and enlistment: Pvts. Peacock, Ringenberg, Howard, Wallace, Hughes, Crowdre, Harvey and Stone.

WEEKLY JUMPING

(April 7, 1934) Lt. Ely of the Thundering 83rd crashed through with a score of 98 last Saturday to win the Jumping Competition from a large field of eager but baffled contestants. Lt. Bache on Shotgun, with a score of 96, took second place. With scores of 92 each, Peggy Arnold and Major Grace tied for third When the tie was announcplace. ed at the end of the jumping it developed that Peggy had already sent her horse back to the stables but the good Major instead of forcing Peggy to default by requesting a jump-off, did with Knightly Grace consented to the tossing of a coin to decide the winner. The Maj. lost, and Peggy won the silken token of victory. Major Grace and Peggy Arnold both rode well and handled their horses nicely and deserved the applause they received for their performance.

The marvelous ingenuity of this man Kramer Thomas!! He has every jumper wondering what on earth is he going to pull out of his sleeve the next time. Heard from one of the Persecuted Crowd, Oh, Kramer, when are you going to have us jumping through the Flaming Hoop?". Last Saturday's course was not especially hard for the horse but what it did call for was good hands and presence of mind on the part of the rider. Marie Dunn, galloping dazedly around the Ring, "Where do I go now?" A judge, "Wouldn't you like to know?" Talk about being in a daze, poor Willis Matthews was in one for awhile, and with a good cause too. He did very well on the course until he jumped into the final "box." He was supposed to stop there, but Spaghetti had "high ideas" and attempted Mrs. Bevan on Ricochet, Eliminated to jump the ring gate on the other side of the "box." It didn't work, the gate, Spaghetti, and Willis all went down in heap of cracking boards and flying splinters. Willis got up and staggered off looking as if he had been dragged across country face downward. He took a nasty fall but fortunately was not seriously hurt.

The individual scores were:

FIRST-Lt. Ely on Toby, 98 SECOND-Lt. Bache on Shotgun,

THIRD-Miss Peggy Arnold on Sun Brier, 92

Three Foot-Three Inch Class Lt. Landon on Harpist—Eliminated Mrs. Golightly on Jesse Carter-Eliminated Lt. Ely on Toby, 98

Capt. Huling on Shandygaff, 76 Major Grace on Jupiter, 92 Capt. Sams on Xanthippi, 80 Mrs. Gee on Jiggs—Elimiated Lt. Kendall on Baby Boy—Elimi-

Three Foot-Six Inch Class Lt. Hampton on Baldy, 90 Mrs. Haisley on Jetmore, Eliminated Peggy Arnold on Sun Brier, 92 Major Johnson and Miss Vixen, Eliminated Lt. Emery on Fresno, Eliminated Lt. Eddleman on Bobby, 88

Mrs. Arnold on Ruth Hamilton, 86 Mrs. Huling on Dickson, 82 Lt. Horton on Richmond D., 91 Tommy Arms on Sister Susie, Eliminated

t. Bache on Shotgun, 96

t. Mathews, W. S., on Spaghetti, Eliminated Lt. Brown, S. G. on Woody, Eliminated Lt. Howze on Coffee, Eliminated Mrs. Studebaker on Crook, Eliminated Mrs. Stutesman on Wallflower, 88 Three Foot-Nine Inch Class

Mrs. Cole on Henrietta, Eliminated Mrs. Heileman on LaJunta, 86 Lt. Monroe on Harry W., 91 Lt. Stewart on Bobby Arnold, 82 Mrs. Otto on Middleburg, 77 Four Foot Class

Mrs. Dunn on Blueprint, 87

The three people having the highest total scores for the season to date are: Lt. Ely-858.2, Peggy Arnold-857.0, Mrs. O'Brien-850.2.

Jimmie Mathews' announcing was again highly appreciated by the occupants of the stands. Keep up the good work Jimmie, we nominate you for Announcer at the coming Spring Horse Show.

24TH INFANTRY

COMPANY "A"

The entire Company regrets the accident that happened to Corporal William P. Murphy, the Company's Greatest reporter, who by some late afternoons doing his bit of means met with a serious accident training. on the morning of the 6th. Some of the Company detectives had suspected that The Blimp, or some one that the reporter had been annoying had put him on the spot. But we later found out that Corporal Murphy (Dummy) had tried to derail one of the C. of Ga. R. R. cars. Hope for better luck next time, Dummy.

Private 1cl Charlie Lloyd was admitted to the hospital on the morning of the 6th, and seems to be recovering very well. Private Ervin King, who recently was relieved from the Station hospital. is back doing duty with the company again. For the first two regularly that some of the boys begin to ask just what was his trouble, knowing him to be a great ticing wearing a sam brown, and shacker, so he solved the problem Corp 'Tut' Taylor says he has not- by telling them that he is no shacker and never will be. But for the past week his story has changed. He is seen coming in every morning. He said this morning that he thought he wasn't but he was. Pvt. 1cl McCain set an unofficial record by stepping from 6th & 8th, in 18.3 seconds, better than 275 yards, when he was chased by three R. A. C.'s. Here's hoping that Mack will enter the track and field meet this year so his speed can be recorded.

COMPANY "B"

The boys are not so hot on Volley ball. They dropped one by a wide margin to Company C, the -Belcher pride of the Battalion in that sport.

But the boys boast a good baseball nine, also a very good track and field team. Slug Roberison, the 100 yard dash man, can be seen in the early morning and the

We need information from Plug just what happened to our mana-The boy returned from the week end with his face looking like a ten cent mop.

Our dear ex-Mess Sergeant Bradwell had his return match with the battle ax, but K. O. in the The mess said he first round. will not go in training any more soon, because it is against health.

After many weeks of worry and several months without sleep Pvt. Moore has just about taken the reporter's last girl. He can be seen at all hours of the night coming from across the way. weeks he stayed in Barracks so yourself Sleepy, the reporter packs a painful right.

-Randolph and Kid Shadow.

COMPANY "C"

The following named individuals were discharged during the month of April and each one reenlisted to fill his own vacancy; Sgt. Reed, Sgt. Mays, Sgt. Douglas, Sgt. Williams, Pvts. Hilson, Esters and Shivers.

"Everything is peaches" in the office now since "Rags" . . oh, well, ask him—He's not too modest to tell you. Yes, the 1st Sgt. is contemplating an eating campaign to make up for lost time—Heck no, not indigestion, just watch him smile and see "the works."

COMPANY "G" 1st Sergeant Walter Jones, pivot (Please turn to page 8)

29TH INFANTRY

(Continued from Page 2)

brated his return by immediately going on a ten day furlough to Greensboro, Fla. The company lost Sgt. Kern and Cpl. Elkins to the newly established CCC Reconditioning Camp located in the ROTC Area. Sgt. Kern is the First Sergeant of that organization, while Cpl. Elkins is in the supply branch.

Furloughs in the organization last week went to the following

Silver . . .

Silver is one of the important metals dealt in on the Commodity Exchange, Inc. Through its membership and experience in handling commodity transactions, this firm is in a position to supply service in silver futures to banks, investors and traders.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272

Columbus, Ga. MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Carter is now in Rome, Ga., on a is sojourning for a like period in and around Chipley, Fla. pennies for it. Shorts—Wim try were downed 7-5. H. A. Johnson, did some excellent pitching model knee-action cars limping. . . till he blew up in the 4th, being replaced by Foster. Elliot was the best hitter for the day, get-Miller, E. departed on furlough ting three hits out of four trips to last week. Pitts has learned his the best hitter for the day, get-

COMPANY "A"

This week finds us all back of our Company base-ball team. We think that as far as competition is concerned, we won't have any in the 1st Battalion, but it is doubtful that Companies B and C look at it this way for they haven't seen the "Old folks" in action. Our infield is composed of "Old folks" except Hankins Whitmire, at 1st base, who seems to be doing fine work.

We are all busy with our team so that's the limit for this week.

COMPANY "H"

Sgt. Allen has been back with us for a couple of weeks now and after such a long sojourn on D. S. he seems to be having a pretty hard time getting back into our style of doing things. And of all the wild yarns, Baron Munchausen is a rank amateur compared to him.

Everyone is looking forward to the fishing trip the Company is men: Pfc. Horton to go to Shan-planning. The trip is to be taken non, Ga., for 30 days. Pvt. Alfred about the 20th of this month. Quite a number of the Isaac Wal-10 days leave, while G. W. Jones tons of the outfit are saving their Shorts-Wimpy Herndon shaved The company is well satisfied with the pre-season showing of the baseball team. In a recent practice game of the 66th Infan-week, he lost two bits. . And water on the knee? . . Pvts. Burke, Butler, Cochran, Hanna, Little and serial number as he is back in our midst.

-Steve

COMPANY "F"

Pfc. Grimes has been promoted to the rank of Corporal. Everybody give the junior Corporal a big hand, he already has big feet.

The Company will drop back to normal now that all the vacancies for Private First Class have been filled. There were seven Privates promoted during the past week.

We notice that First Sergeant Lance has a spring in his step and a twinkle in his eye the last few days. Maybe the new automobile, assisted by the Spring, is paying dividends.

Leo Brown says that this Spring Romance is the bunk because he found out that when the green color faded from his purse his gal started looking for greener pastures.

Corporal Vaden has returned from Detached Service with the CCC and believe it or not he hasn't (Continued from Page 7)

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS

THEN you are planning a home . . . remember that you want accessibility, city conveniences and country conveniences . . . and you'll find them in .

ANDREWS WOODS

Between Columbus and Fort Benning

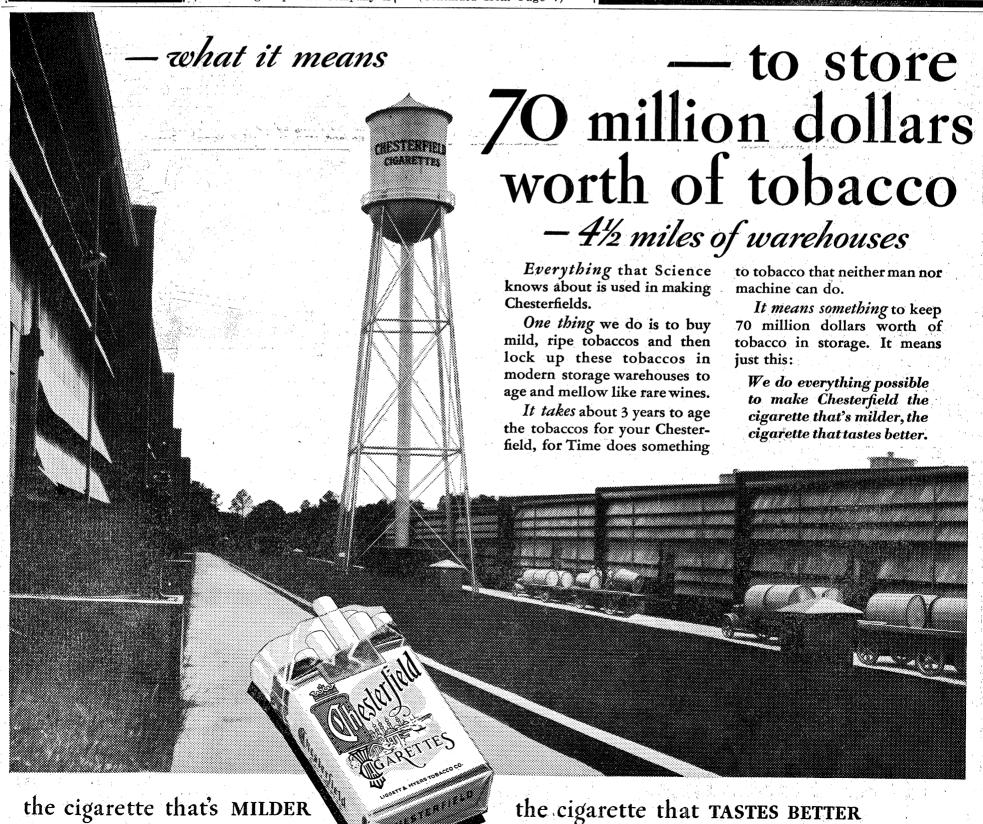

on the Benning Road

THE JORDAN CO.

18 - 13th Street

TELEPHONE 1190

© 1934, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO Co.

SOCIAL HIGH CHICK CHTS IN SECTION OF THE SECOND SECTION OF THE SECOND SECTION OF THE SECOND SECTION OF THE SECOND SECOND

Engagement Of Interest To Ft. Benning And The Army Announced Recently

Of especial interest to Fort Benning and Columbus society is the announcement and forth coming marriage of Miss Molly Pritchett of Birmingham, Alabama to Lieutenant Donald Cameron Cubbison, of Fort Oglethorpe. Miss Pritchett, the charming daughter of Major and Mrs. Febier R. Tupper, will be remembered by her many friends in Columbus, her father having been stationed at Fort Benning before. While here, Miss Pritchett was a popular member of the younger set. Lieuten-

> Our Pledge of Purity

The Foremost organization is pledged to maintain a high standard of purity in its products, and we take pride in keeping the standard high. You may depend on the products with the Foremost seal.

toremost DAIRIES

Inc.

ant Cubbison, the son of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Donald C. Cubbison, of Leland Stanford University, is on duty with the 6th Cavalry at Fort Oglethorpe. He attended the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., graduating with the class of 1933. The wedding will take place in June in Birmingham where Major Tupper is on

ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER AND MOVIE PARTY

Captain and Mrs. Ralph B. Lovett will be the hosts Sunday evening at a dinner party to be given at the Officers' Club. Covers will be laid for twenty-eight. The guest list will include: General and The Officers' Club program for Mrs. George H. Estes, Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Rowan P. Lemly, Major and Mrs. Benjamin G. Wier, Major and Mrs. Maurice G. Welty, Major and Mrs. William H. Hobson, Major and Mrs. Sidney G. Brown. Major and Mrs. Henry B. Lewis, Capt. and Mrs. John E. Hull, Capt. and Mrs. Samuel G. Buracker, Capt. and Mrs. Edward C. Betts, and Lieut, and Mrs. Chas. R. Landon.

After dinner the guests will be escorted to the Post movies.

NATIONAL GUARD AND RE-SERVE OFICERS' DINNER AND DANCE TO BE HELD THURSDEY EVENING AT OFICERS' CLUB

On Thursday evening there will be a reception and dance in honor of the National Guard and Reserve Officers' Class to be held at the Officers' Club. A special dinner will be served at seven o'clock and dancing will commence

We make awnings. given. No obligation. Estimates

We sharpen and repair lawn mowers, hedge shears and all edge tools. Phone 155. Geo. E. White, 12 East 10th St.

CONVENIENT LOCATION—MODERN EQUIPMENT RATES REASONABLE

Phone your agent or call our Superintendent, Mr. Trussell, Phone 3062

DIMON COURT APARTMENTS

TRY OUR

Delicious Packed NEW BUTTER ROLLS 10c

WATCH FOR

Week-end Special Cakes . . . a different

On Sale At The Post Exchange

COLLINS BAKING CO.

1144 13th Street

40 REASONS

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every diffi-

We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

ROTHSCH

FURNITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

at eight, to continue until eleven-thirty with the 29th Infantry or-chestra furnishing the music. Durtes departed Sunday by motor for Charleston, S. C., where they plan ing the first part of the dance a to visit Magnolia and Middleton receiving line consisting of Gen-Gardens. They will stop over at eral and Mrs. George H. Estes, Fort Screven to be the guests of Colonel and Mrs. Charles W. Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Clyde A. Abraham until Thursday.

General and Mrs. John L. De-Weeks, and Capt. Henry Thompson, who will represent the Classes, will be formed. Major Claudius Fort Benning and are planning to M. Easley will introduce the guests. live at the Ralston Hotel. General The Club will be decorated in pine DeWitt is taking a refresher course boughs and other forest greenery. prior to joining the First Brigade A large number of reservations for in New York Harbor as commanddinner have been made. Among ing officer. those reserving tables are: Major and Mrs. Claudius M. Easley, Cap-* * * tain Henry A. Thompson, Capt. CAPT. AND MRS. LOVETT TO Huddleston, Lieut. and Mrs. Franby Mrs. Clyde Eddleman motored to Atlanta Monday for a shopping cis E. Gillette, Lieut. and Mrs. Keller, Lieut and Mrs. George P. Howell, Lieut. and Mrs. James R. Davidson, Lieut. and Mrs. Albert H. Dickerson, Lieut. and Mrs. George the month of April is full of interesting affairs. On the 19th, the Daughters of the Army plan to have their luncheon and month-ly meeting. On the 21st, the evening of the night ride, the Polo-Hunt Club will be the scene of a dinner followed by dancing. Wednesday, April 25th, the Colonial Dames will hold a tea and meeting at the Club. The evening of the 28th has been reserved by the Benning Bachelors for their monthly dance.

HOUSE GUEST HONORED

Miss Betty West, the attractive guest of Miss Katharine Lemly, was entertained Thursday evening by her hostess at a dinner party. A bouquet of vari-colored snapdragons flanked by silver candle sticks burning yellow tapers formed the center piece of the table. Covers were laid for twelve, the guests being: Miss West, Miss Harriotte Atkins, Miss Nana Seeley riotte Atkins, Miss Nana Seeley, Miss Kenneth Kendall, Lieut.
Thomas Kent, Lieut. F. Easterbrook, Lieut. Robert W. Neeley, Lieut. Henry B. Kunzig, Lieut.
Stephen O. Fuqua, and Lieut.
Ephraim M. Hampton. After dinner the guests were escorted to the Officers' Club for the National Guard and Reserve Officers dance.

TANK BRIDGE CLUB MEETS TUESDAY EVENING

The Tank Bridge Club held its monthly evening meeting Tuesday at the Tank Club with Lieut. and Mrs. Reeve D. Keeler and Mrs. Andrew J. Evans as hosts. Five tables of contract bridge and one table of poker assembled for play. Winning the high honors at bridge were: Mrs. Joseph A. Stuart, first place; Mrs. Dwight A. Rosebaum, second place.

PICNIC PARTY HELD AT BULL CREEK

In compliment to Miss Betty West of Washington, D. C., Miss Katherine Lemly entertained this evening with a delightful picnic which was held at Bull Creek. Guests were: Miss West, Lieut. Col. Mrs. Wilbur Elliott, Lt. and Mrs. J. R. Pierce, Lt. and Mrs. Lynn E. Brady, Lt. and Mrs. G. P. Harcourt, Miss Clyde Eddleman, Major Kramer Thomas, Capt. Blue, Lt. James Matthews, Lt. Stephen HERALD

Fuqua, Lt. Henry B. Kunzig, Lt. James O. Boswell, Lt. Thomas

Among other affairs to be held in her honor this week will be an informal tea Friday given by Mrs. Howell.

PERSONALS

Lieut. and Mrs. Harold L. Mace and Mrs. Albert H. Dickerson motored to Atlanta for the weekend of the sixth.

A congenial party from Fort Benning are planning to leave Saturday by motor to spend the week end at Radium Springs.

Money To Loan

on watches, diamonds, clothing and articles of value. Unredeemed Pledges for sale Cheap.

CITIZENS LOAN CO. 1043 Broadway

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

Miss Dolan is back from New York with a Selection of the SEASON'S LATEST HATS

Witt are spending a month at

Mrs. Arnold Jones accompanied

(rlease turn to page 5)

PRICED FROM $2.95 TO $12.00

DOLAN-HENRY HAT SHOP

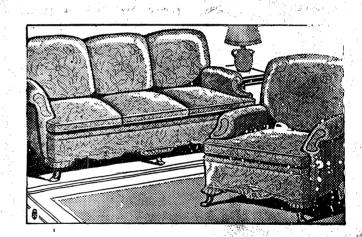

FORT BENNING CHARGE ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

ROSENBERG'S

JEWELERS

Carry

Nationally known and advertised lines and Solicit Your Charge Accounts 1241 Broadway

3-piece Living Room

SUITE - SOFA, CHAIR and OTTOMAN

$6350 Up

ALSO A COMPLETE LINE OF PORCH ROCKERS — BEACH CHAIRS, GLIDERS

Simmons

WE HAVE FULL LINE OF SIMMONS MATTRESSES and SPRINGS

Exclusive agents for Sellers Kitchen Cabinets, Breakfast - Room Furniture, etc.

UNNINGHAM FURNITURE COMPANY

1014 BROADWAY

SOCIETY (Continued from page 4)

tour.

Mrs. Walter P. O'Brien returned Tuesday from Ft. Humphries where she was the guest of friends.

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager

AS A DESSERT

There's nothing that can match Ice Cream; and there's no Ice Cream that can match Kinnett's for purity, for flavor, for deliciousness and for economy. For every des-sert, buy Kinnett's.

Sold at the Post Exchange and the Officers' Club

Literary Section tor. Studies Biography was given.

The program of the Literary Section of the Fort Benning Woman's Club on Monday afternoon will be biographies of the year. This season's productions lend themselves to a very interesting

Mrs. C. F. Colson will review a group of books on music. This will include recent biographies of Stephen Foster, Paderewski, Walter Damrosch, and a history of the development of modern music in "From Bache to Stravinsky."

Miss Esther Kelley will discuss two books on the southwest, "Journey of the Flame," by Fierro Blanco, and "Junipero Serra," by Agnes Repplier. She will also review the biography of Eva Le Gallienne called "At 33."

Mrs. H. L. Barrett will review the "Man of the Renaissance" by

The Elizabethan group will be discussed by Mrs. F. A. Heileman. It includes "Elizabeth" by Neale and "Samuel Pepys" by Bryant.

Mrs. A. E. Burnap will review the foibles of the Victorians in her synopsis of "Edward VII," by Benson, "The Edwardian Era" by Maurois and "Victorian Aftermath" by Wingfield Stratford.

Miss Carroll Stevens will discuss biographies of a more modern trend. "I was a German," by Ernest Toller gives the reaction of a famous dramatist to the Germany of today. Louis Adamic in "Native's Return" tells of an immigrant boy's return home after living in America. "Colonel Law-rence" by Liddell Hart is the illuminating story of the man behind the legend of Lawrence of Arabia.

WOMAN CLUB OFFICERS (Continued from page 1)

Vernon Evans, second vice-president; Mrs. James P. Hulley, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur E. Burnap, recording secretary; Mrs. Claude D. Collins, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, audi-

Mr. Rex Lavender of Columbus sang three lovely selections: "Hear Ye Winds and Waves" by Handel, "Song of Steel" by Cadman, and "Shoes" by Manning. Mr. Lavender was accompanied by Mrs. K. C. Kierce.

One of the most interesting speakers of the year was Col. Reginald H. Kelley, who spoke on "World Danger Spots." Colonel Kelley gave us a "peep" with the things that are happening in Europe today and are causing the 'World Danger Spots." Very few of us realize the great changes that have and are taking place in Europe today. Col. Kelley had several maps to illustrate point out how Europe has changed since 1914. He is one of our most delightful speakers and his talk on current topics was most enjoyable.

Mrs. James B. Woolnough was hostess for the afternoon and was assisted by Mrs. Henry Ferrell and Mrs. William Lee.

24 Infantry Observes Army Day Friday

Army Day was appropriately observed at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, Friday, April 6th when the 24th Infantry Band broadcast over station WRBL, Columbus, Georgia by remote control from the regimental service club, a specially prepared program of patriotic songs. The feature number of this program was the march "Semper Paratus" (Always Ready) composed and arranged by Warrant Officer R. B. Tresville and dedicated to the members of the 24th Infantry. The appropriately named march "Semper Paratus," the motto of the the motto of the 24th Infantry, is a stirring and full melody with a beautiful trio. Captain Ralph B. Lovett, Public Relations officer of the Infantry School gave a short and very interesting talk upon The United States Army and Preparedness.

The 24th Infantry Band is one of the finest in the entire United States Army and is oftentimes called upon to participate in various programs in this section of the country.

C. C. C. Enrollees Arrives For Reconditioning

The second large increment or replacements for the nineteen Civilian Conservation Corps companies stationed in District H, of which Fort Benning is the headquarters, will arrive at the reconditioning camp at the post at 11:00 o'clock tonight, when 250 enrollees will come from Alabama.

> GOLF TOURNEY (Continued from page 1)

24th Infantry team.

The remainder of the matches in the tourney will be played in the near future.

The ladies' team tournament, match play, which began at Fort Benning last month, was completed on the Officers' Club links on Wednesday afternoon with the team captained by Mrs. William W. Eagles taking first place. Members of the team in addition to Mrs. Eagles included Mrs. George L. Kraft, Mrs. Charles F. Morse, Mrs. H. B. Lewis, Mrs. James E. Purcell, Mrs. William T. Fitts. Mrs. Wendell G. Johnson, Mrs. Horace L. Beall, Mrs. James R. Pierce, Mrs. Orryl S. Robles, and Mrs. Clyde A. Selleck. Second place was won by the team captained by Mrs. Goss

The teams were rated according to the handicaps of the different members, with points being awarded for each nine holes and additional points to the winners of the eighteen. About 44 of the feminine golfers of the post took part in the tournament.

A luncheon was held at the Officers' Club after the end of the Clyde A. Selleck won first place, final round on Wednesday with At the conclusion of the business meeting a delightful program about 35 of the players present. The bi-monthly tourney which took the form of a putting tourover the nine-hole course.

with Mrs. Benjamin Weir second. Plans were also laid at the luncheon Wednesday for the annual spring tourney for the women's ney, was also held on Wednesday championship of Fort Benning, morning, the players competing which will take place about the Mrs. middle of April.

Teachers

You can earn several hundred dollars this summer, and you can secure a better position and a larger salary for the coming year. Complete information will be mailed on receipt of a three cent stamp. Send for it

CONTINENTAL TEACHERS AGENCY, INC.

1850 Downing St., Denver, Colo.

Covers the ENTIRE United States

Rural Schools and City Schools Summer Work and School Year Positions

"Thanks for sending me so many good postiions to apply for, over 30 during the first five days I was enrolled."—An Illinois Teacher.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS:-We can put you in touch with the very finest teachers. Our service is free to you.

J.J. NEWBERRY CO 5-10-25¢ STORES Where Values Outweigh Dollars

1147 BROADWAY

COLUMBUS, GA.

NEW LEADERSHIP Celebration Follow Our Leaders

LILLE LYDBUSS. RESERVED SON S. A. LE E!

SPECIAL LADIES' HOSE

Full Fashioned Pure Thread Silk Slightly Irregular Every Pair Guaranteed New Spring Shades All Sizes

Hose For The Entire Family

5000 Pair Children's Misses' and Ladies

New House Frocks

NEATLY STYLED TAILORED TO FIT

BEAUTIFUL PRINTS.

GUARAN. TEED FAST COLORS

SIZE 36 to 44

500 DOZEN SIZE 18x36

LARGE TURKISH TOWELS

Made in Columbus. Keep the home fires burning. Buy as many as you wish. No limit to a 10 c

WASHABLE PRINTS

64x60 quality new patterns, Guaranteed Fast

We Welcome At All Times the Members of the Fort Benning Personnel

YOU CAN'T EXPECT YOUR CAR TO MAKE RACE-TRACK RECORDS

. . . but you do expect a certain amount of speed and good performance out of it. And you'll get it too, if you are cautious enough to keep the automobile in good running shape all the time. Our deluxe service will greatly assist you in doing this very easily.

We do painting work on all makes of cars.

AUTOMOBILE DEPARTMENT

POST EXCHANGE FT. BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin Fights Last Bout As Soldier

Abe Liggett In 8 Round Semifinal

For four years or more John Corn Griffin has fought at Fort big and small, during that time, fights in a way that pleased the fans. And next Tuesday night John Corn will fight his last battle at the post, when he meets Gordon Fortenberry of Cocoa, Fla., in the feature bout of the first professional card at the post in over a month.

For John Corn is getting a shot at the big time, under the management and direction of one of the high moguls of boxing, Charles T. Harvey, former chairman of the

Regulation Garrison

for

Officers

and

Enlisted Men

Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your Post Exchange or Dealer

Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid Test Insignia and Button

N. S. MEYER, Inc. NEW YORK

Weinert To Fight Benning Bowlers Make A Creditable Showing In Matches Held In Atlanta

Results obtained from the re-cently played SOUTHERN HAN-S. C., Asheville, N. C., Rome and DICAP TEN PIN TOURNAMENT held in Atlanta show that the Fort Benning, taking on all opponents, Benning entries made a very creditable showing with teams compet- single, 110 in the all-events. Results and winning a majority of his ing from Nashville and Chatta- of the Fort Benning Bowlers are nooga, Tenn., Birmingham, Gadsen, shown below.

	No Place
	Man Teams	Tea	m
9	Ft. Bennin	g. N	ο.	1
5	Ft. Bennir			2
wo	Man Teams	_
4		is-Bi	tal	a
5	O'Blenne	ss-S	aue	er
5	Ste	er-C	ern	ie '
0	LaBonte	-Hec	kei	cŧ
2	Williams, L.	LG	len	n
	Singles
7		D	av	is
4	Alberta de la Carlo de Artigo de La Carlo de	LaB	ont	te
6		S	aue	$\mathbf{e}\mathbf{r}$
8	a fine along our end fresh fresh that the same same of	\mathbf{B}	ta!	la
31	Willia	ms I	a. 1	L.
34		Hec	kę:	rt
38		S	tee	er
13	O'	Blen	nes	ss
55		G	len	ın
100		1	ro	tt
114		·C	eri	ıе
	All Events
3		. 1	av	is
8		S	au	\mathbf{er}
20		LaB
28	. O	'Blen
29		_	ita
41	Willia	ms,	L.	L.
55			Ste	\mathbf{er}
79	ali ir vitti vilali vali ital	20 A S	er	100
80 -	Concession of the State of the	He
84		C	leı	nn
	and a second sec	27 T T	-

New State Boxing Commission. fought next Tuesday night. Fort-And John Corn is leaving the Army enberry was recently on the wrong and Benning for good, in more ways than one.

This man Fortenberry will not be the best man that Griffin has met at Benning, neither will he be the biggest. But fans are slated to see one of Corn's best battles

Atlanta, Ga. There were 42 five-nown below.

Team Captain L. L. Williams	Total	Pins 2846
J. L. LaBonte		2651
		1211
		4.
,1		1203
		1172
		1111
	*	1088
the state of the s		635
		000
	i aza	615
		612
		611
		590
		589
	100	584
		578
		57 8
		568
		524
		508
		500
		1881
		1811
		1774
		1736
		1733
Mark to the second		1700
1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1	12 Tu	1676 end of a decision in a fight with Griffin in West Palm Beach, Florida, and is burning for revenge. And Griffin is fighting his last right at Benning, and will want to give the fans something to remember him by.

1623

1622s

1616

Griffin's list of scalps that he has garnered while at the Infantry School includes the names of almost every one of the great or near-great in the boxing game, He has lost fights, but he has always lost fighting, and always has gained greater popularity by his

Captain Fry, in an effort to give a grand and glorious farewell party for Griffin, has picked an unusually good fight card to support the main-go. Topping the list of the fights will be the semi-final be-tween Puggy Weinert, one of Benning's biggest favorites, and Abe Ligget, the tough boy from West Palm Beach who handed Puggy a defeat not so long ago in the 'Gator state.

Heading the preliminaries will be Chick Liddell, who meets his old time enemy, Ginger Jernigan, in the feature six-rounder. Both men are accurate boxers, and it should be quite a fencing duel before the finish.

"Chittling" Smith, diminutive scrapper from the tanks, is matched with Frankie Miller of Columbus in the first six-rounder. Smith has won his last two starts at the post, and is gunning for Miller's hide to tack to the old barn door with that right hand of his.

Felix Ferroux, the fightin' fool from the Field Artillery, will meet Young Wallace in the main fourrounder, while Huff, the Southern Sand Scorpion, will once more mingle blows with Tony Viggins the Wild Bull of the Highlands.

Second Battalion Wins Post Basket Ball Championship Last Monday Night

Battalion crashed through last not overcome in the second session. from their throne of two years' standing, taking their second ing the other team. straight game in the championship

The Irish quintet did not have a chance in eithe rgame with the Kellys, as the boys in blue were playing inspired ball and handled themselves like veterans. It would be hard to mention any particular star but Chamberlain, Kelly forward, and Bridges, Kelly center, proved their right to a place on any man's team.

In both games the Kellys swept like a steam-roller over the Irish in the first half, gaining a big

The Blue Thunderbolt of the 2d | enough lead that the Wave could Monday night to win the post title And in both games the Irish went in basketball and dump the Irish down to defeat fighting desperately and slowly but surely overhaul-

Saturday night the Kellys swept ahead to a 23-12 lead at the half, with Bridges outstanding on the scoring column with 11 The last half saw the Irish starting their creeping up march, but the delayed offensive was ineffectual and the game ended with the score 40-26.

Monday night was the same story over again, only with a few elaborations. The Kellys again stunned the Irish by the swift and sure way in which they handled the

(Please turn to page 8)°

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

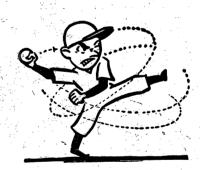

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

550,000.00 $3,000,000.00

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative-MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

THAT PITCHER'S GOT MEAN EYE!

... but you're ready for anything he has if you've bought your baseball equipment at the Main Branch. Scorching singles sun-splitting flies or just plain measley fouls are all gravy if you're properly equip-

The Main Branch carries complete lines of standard, nationally known equipment for practically every sport. Call 608.

BRANCH MAIN

POST EXCHANGE

Fort Benning, Ga.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

BOXING TUESDAY, APRIL 17 POST GYM 8:15 P. M.

Corn Griffin vs. Gordon Fortenberry

Fort Benning 10 Rounds

Puggy Weinert Abe Liggett VS. Fort Benning West Palm Beach 8 Rounds

Chick Liddell Ginger Jernigan VS.

Fort Benning 6 Rounds

"Chittling" Smith Frankie Miller VS.

Tanks 6 Rounds

Felix Ferroux Young Wallace VS. 83rd F. A. 4 Rounds

Sandy Huff . Tony Viggins VS -4 Rounds

Tickets on sale at Officers' Club and all orderly rooms.

Amateur Fighters as Cpl. Palmer says, someday we Show Fine Records In Matches

Benning's amateur fighters returned to the post from St. Louis and the national amateur boxing tourney on Monday morning, their heads a bit bloody, but still unbowed. For of the number of young scrappers from the Infantry School who made the journey to the Missouri city to fight for the championships of the United States, four went into the quarterfinal round, two lost hard and game games in their first encounters, and one went to the championship battle, where he lost a tough

As remarked in last week's issue, those boys who doped to do the best in the tourney were Schnieder, lightweight, Carpenter, lightheavy, and Penland, heavy. And they did very good for the first national Post fans are already familiar with the results of the events, and there is no need to repeat them. It might be well however, to mention a few factors in the tourney that had a great influence on the showing made by the Benning boys.

First and foremost, the boys had a good time, as each and every one will say. And they did it in a way that brought credit to Un-cle Sam's army. Their showing in the tourney, and the manner in which they comported themselves (behaved themselves, in English), while in public caused considerable comment in the St. Louis papers, and earned Benning, the army, and the South a new respect in St. Louis.

As to the influences on the fight results themselves. Benning's battlers were fighting away from home, for the most part for the first time. Also the two rings set (Please turn to page 8) said a word about his emotional triumphs with those Florida girls. We think he should have the fur-lined mess-kit or sump'in.

29TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 3)

The Company baseball teams will start the series next Sunday, April 15th. The line-up of Company F is as follows: Norvell, catcher; Pope, first base; Grimes, second base; Barron, third base; Foster, shortstop; Maitland, center field; Bright, left field; Moore L., right field; McCullough, C. R. and Langford, pitching.

Did you notice that "cutting" line at the Organization Day Dance Saturday night? And was Harvey Skates in it? Naw, Sir! "Wood-pecker" Turner tried his best to catch a partner but you know how those chiselers take every girl away from you almost before you start to dance. "Gigolo" Hancock and "Columbus" Gill got tired of looking at so many cuties in someone else's arms so they danced with each other for several rounds. All jokes aside, it turned out to be quite an affair and the doughboys seemed to enjoy it even if they couldn"t dance with the same girl for more than three steps at a

HQ. & HQ. CO., 2ND BATT.

Cpl. Caucer has been very busy finding a place for the seven new recruits to move in. They are Pvt. Tidwell of Lithia Spring, Ga. He claims that he was Deputy Sheriff down there. The others are: Pvt. Sutton, Pvt. Noble, Pvt. Williams, Pvt. Bridges, Pvt. Bailey, and Pvt. Stevens. We will be glad when the boys finish Recruit School and can help us out with the K. P.'s.

No, we won't forget the shack. Not that one! The one down on Most every one in Shell Creek. the company has spent one or more pleasant weekends there sitting around the fire swapping yarns and toasting bread over it. We caught some (1) fish one night. Just the same, boys, it's all clean sport. There's only a few in the company that haven't been yet, but will make the last round-up.

FORT

We are glad to have Pvt. Brown back again. He's been on a three months' detail up at Oglethorpe. Pfc. Newsome went A. W. O. L. to Fort Mac. We can't get the dope on him. He claims he went to see a parade. Well, we'll get one of our secret agent X9's on Command Post Hanson is building another model airplane. He claims when he gets it built, he can get in it and jump off the porch. If he does, you'll hear from

See you next week, Folks. -Bill C. Jacks

HEADQUARTERS CO.

The drill schedule this week is unusual as we have no Infantry School demonstrations. Nothing but company drill, demonstrating all the phases of a Regimental Headquarters Company. The walls of the Company Barracks are being scraped preparatory to repainting by the CWA.

The company is looking forward him, boys. Our cook, Alderman, to the Spring Horse Show in the is getting to be a short timer, and near future. Saddler Sandow is to the Spring Horse Show in the the dope I get, he's going to take going to make a good star riding his three months' furlough and go Joe Dickman. Joe Dickman has so to the land of flowers, oranges, many medals that Sandow will have and alligators, and see that girl to wear some of them on his leg. he talks about so much. Of course, Sandow is taking good runs every the place is Florida. Good luck, morning from the house to be in good condition for it.

The company is proud of Pvt. Jenkins. He is one of the best iumpers in the company and is figuring on first prize in the company this year.

Louey Satina, charge of the mule section, is jumping Beck this year and he thinks he will make a good showing.

Sergeant "Goober" Gammage, our great stable sergeant, still has his famous saying, ringing in the boys' ears every morning:

"Come on boys, let's doublé up and don't get foxy."

Corp. Edmunds, his second in command, is also a great sport.

Cpl. Fuller, one of our Signal men who is taking a course at the Infantry School with twenty other men says the school is a wonderful training for men. He says, "we are out in the field now with our sets every day with radio procedure and it has certainly got us

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 18th Street

Wear Clothes From CHANCELLOR'S

. Because They're SMART

as low as

Because There Is VARIETY

$1650

Because They're INEXPENSIVE

. . . but principally because you'll KNOW you're correctly dressed and looking your best. Smart Men-About-Town choose Chancellor, because this store is the perfect combination of everything that makes a men's store good.

CHANCELLOR COMPANY AND BOYS WEAR

BENNING'S COLUMBUS HEADQUARTERS

AMATEUR FIGHTERS (Continued from page 7)

up with battles going on in each at all times. The Benning boys were obliged to fight more than once in each night, sometimes as late as 1:00 and 2:00 o'clock in the morning, because of the number of fighters. And lastly and most important, the competition was the toughest and keenest in any amateur sport in the world.

To the Benning fighters a victory meant prestige to the Infantry School, and honor and a medal to themselves. To the majority of the competitors victory spelled "Money" in capital letters, for nine-tenths of them will enter the professional ranks of boxing within the next few months. And they were doing everything in their power to attain that victory

This is not an excuse for Benning's team, it needs none. It is simply an explanation of the factors that prevented the post fighters, whom Benning knows are good, from giving the best possible account of themselves. Next year's tourney will be another story.

BASKETBALL (Continued from page 6)

ball, and when the gong rang for the half, the Wave was trailing on the short end of an 18-3 score. The third quarter was a bad session for the Kellys, as the Irish matched them point for point, and the final period made things look a bit serious as the Kellys failed to find the hoop while the Wave washed up point after point. The offensive was again too late however, and the Kellys were on the long end of a 36-25 score at the

It was a fitting end to a good basketball season, with all due credit to the victors. Had team from the Headquarters Battalion not run into their hard-luck streak at the end of the second half of the league, things might have been even more exciting, with three teams instead of two battling it out for the title.

24TH INFANTRY (Continued from page 2)

man of the House of David, will leave Tuesday for Hot Springs where he will play in the hot mud. During his absence Sgt. Thompson will be the reigning sergeant.

The House has a large representation on the regimental baseball team, furnishing more than one fourth of the players.

The Company Commander probably did not know it but he was shadowed and his every movement was known from the time he left his quarters Monday morning until he went to the Bank, drew the money (ten percent) and paid the company. Strange to say it took less time to locate the men and pay them than it does when they draw a full month. Probably it was because ten dollars feel like twenty on the tenth of the month.

Corp. Porter: "Corp. Seats, let's you and Sgt. Jones go to town and buy the dinners and everything."

Corp. Seats: "'Salright by me if Sgt. Jones pays."

—Sgt. W. W. Hodges.

BAND

The Band journeyed to Hamilon, Georgia, on the 6th instant at 7:30 a. m., and played a concert at a school exhibition before a crowd of over a thousand school children many of whom had never seen a band. The Band left Hamilton for Benning at about 11:00 a. m. At 6:30 the Band broadcast by remote control, a program in observance of Army Day. At 8:30 p. m. the Jazz Pirates played for a dance at Pierce Auditorium, Columbus, which lasted until 12:00 p. m. After these few duties were performed we had nothing at all

Herald Want Ads

EXPERIENCED NURSE: call Miss Virginia Crowder, 1132 Third Avenue, by telephone, call 328, City.

to do until the next morning.

Pfc. Odell Butler (Skippy Joe) the band's rich private is richer in knowledge than he was yesterday at any rate. Dressing faultlessly as though going to his own wedding he put on a small pair of two tone shoes against the advice of all his brother soldiers who knew at a glance that the said shoes were too small for the said feet. Skippy journeyed to Columbus to see the girl friend, his feet becoming hot and bothered enroute, and the wearer suffering untold agonies. When the bus ar-

Eighth Skippy waddled from his seat, fell through the door in a trance. Having made up his mind to call an ambulance he spied Radcliffe in his car and promptly crawled therein. Interested spectators saw the car jump up and down, stand upon its end and right itself; then quiet. The door opened and Skippy emerged and upon his feet were-Radcliffe's furnished him with a bottle of lyn—he said Columbus, Ga.

-W. W. Hodges.

Mexi Pep for training purposes, Headlines we'd like to see: Mexi Pep for training purposes, so when he goes to Alabama and Rassie Pollard out of Suspense. orders barbeuce, plenty hot, noand pour water down his throat to straighten him out.

The recent transfer of Private Hawkins to the company pulls the old outfit up to 126. Only one more vacancy left, fellows. It won't be long before some bright barbecue locks his jaws. SHE has didn't say he was going to Brook-

Mom Woods learns "Star Dust." body will have to lie him down Gen Futch opens dancing school. Armistead grows hair. Villavaso makes ice water. Roy Morris buys cigarettes. Namon Walker gets the bonus. Chubby Watkins buys a hat. Liddell quits trying to sheik. Sam Young marries wealthy heir-

SERVICE COMPANY

Well if it ain't Ollie Heynes for a month's vacation Tuesday.

Iad gobbles that in.

Ned "Rip" Jackson breezed off for a month's vacation Tuesday.

The Count admitted to the bar.

Boys Can BE Boys

In These Happy Kid Clothes

WHAT can a fellow have if he knows his clothes are liable to rip, tear or wear when he plays the games of real HE-boys?

What satisfaction can a mother have if she must watch and reprove her sons to protect their clothes from strenuous boyish activities

The answer to both questions is, NONE!

Therefore these new 1934 spring numbers from the famous Happ factory are big news to both mothers and boys. They are tough as cowhide in wearing qualities, stylish in results and surprisingly low in cost at Metcalf's boys department.

> NO 1058 Brown tweed effect knickers, plus four, styled, quarter top pockets, pockets and strain points bar tacked, rust-proof buckles, all open seams serged Other patterns and sizes.

Metcalf's Price

Shorts of light gray NO 2047 Shorts of light gray diagonal stripe, sanforized, full cut, correctly styled, properly proportioned, made to fit the boy, of the age specified. Separate waist band, rust proof buckles, seven belt lops. Other patterns.

Price _____89°

Boys longies, age 6 to 315 18 made of white with attractive brown stripes, sanforized, made with same care as our line of men's trousers. Separate waist-band with outlet and other patterns of the new spring lines.

> Metcalf's Price

989 Boys Longies, cord, black double pin stripe, sanforized, ages 8 to 18. Just as stylish, well made and sporty as anything dad will have this summer. The same tailoring that made the Happ line famous. Other patterns.

Metcalf's Price

Tom Sawyer and Rugby Sport Shirts . . . buttons or zipper fronts . . . all colors and sizes.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT

1040 Broadway

FORT BENNING, GA., FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1934

By Day

By Major Ramble

FORT BENNING, April 16.-From the student viewpoint the ump has been hurdled. A number of map problems and terrain exercises still remain but John Pupil counts only those productve of blood-nicks, "U"-cuts and denning horseshoes. Of this vaiety, as the current issue of the Herald comes off the press, a grand total of nine still lies ahead, onsiting of one lone marked problem, and eight marked terrain exercises. Further than hat, deponent careth not.

The ranks of the tactically pure of heart are fast depleting. Sooner or later each problem-solver eaves himself wide open and the school sets best when the opponent is vulnerable. The latest census reveals a total of four advanced classites, out of thirty odd students whose armor reliains to be pierced.

Superstition prevents disclos ing their names. To reveal them t the present time si but to inite disaster. For Benning legend has it that one shouldn't ount one's chickens until one's bridges aré behind one. Or some-

The "U" is my bogey. I shall ot want for another. It maketh me to delay in green swamplands. boggeth me down beside the still waters. It confuseth my oul and leadeth me into the aths of the enemy for his name's ake. Yea, though I defend in ne valleys and miss all the hillps I needs must fear all evil or thou art with me. Thy thirst and persistence don't comfort me. hou shalt paveth a way for me to the positions of mine enemy hou anointest my brow with veat. My share runneth over he thought of they presence nall haunt me all the days of life and I shall bask in the nowledge of my own futility

Ramblings: Fifty-nine days to riduation. . Beall has been rdered to the Presidio. . . So as Dan, Norman. . . Red Clay. Red bugs. . A hot spot is a thing a studnt sits on when he draws the atalion commander's assignent. . . Attacking with one comany abreast. . . Whatever beame of the man who said a Benning student had nothing to do and nine months to do it in?. oison oak. . . Poison ivy. . student umpire is a man who an make bad decisions like a udent commander only it doest go in the book. . . Eight ank is a tank in which you get of the best polo players there. Continued on Page 4

Be Students Next

Information has ben received at the Public Relations Office, Fort Benning, by telegraph from the Army and Navy Journal, that a number of officers of the post are included on the list of those detailed as students next fall to the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kas.

They are Captains Arthur C. Blain, George F. Bloomquist, Harry W. Caygill, Horace O. Cushman, Fremont B. Hodson, John E. Hull, Robert B. McClure, and Lieutenants Hammond McD. Monroe, Robert V. Murphy, William H. Schildroth, and Francis H. Lanahan, jr.

All of the officers concerned, with the exception of Lieutenant Schildroth, have been on duty at Fort Benning for some time.

Captain Blain was ordered to this post from duty at the Tank School, Fort George G. Meade Md., in 19313, and was assigned to the then 1st Tank Regiment, now the 66th Infantry, (Light Tanks), where he has been on duty ever since. He was promoted to captain in 1931, shortly after his assignment here.

Captain Bloomquist first came to Fort Benning as a member of the Company Comanders' class of the Infantry School in 1920 the same year that he was promoted to captain. He was assigned to duty at Oregon Agricultural College on graduation, and returned to this post as a student in the advanced course in 1929. At that time he was on duty with the 4th Innfantry at Fort Lincoln Nebraska. On his graduation he was detailed to take a one year's course at Princeton University, when he returned here and took up his presnt duties as an instructor in the Academic Department of the Infantry School.

timer in point of first service at Benning, as his first duty here was in the Company Officers' course, class of 1923. Upon graduation he was detailed to duty at Fort Eustis, Va., returning here in 1932 as a member of the Infantry School, Fort Benning, gram now under way at the post, ficers' Club, and to have my advanced course. Prior to his Georgia, has been relieved from and it is due to his planning in a name permanently associated with last detail here he was on duty as assistant professor of military tion and will report to Fort Sill tactics and science at Columbia Oklahoma, not later than June 30 University, N. Y. Upon his graduation from the advanced course he was assigned to duty with the 24th Infantry at Benning.

Captain Cushman has been on duty with the 29th Infantry since 1930, when he was assigned to that regiment from duty at the University of Boston. Prior to that detail he had attended the Company Oficers' course here gore columns to go. . . A fast is well known at the post as one class of 1927. Captain Cushman

Continued on Page 4

Benning Day Eleven Officers To Generals Hagood And Brigham General King Made Year At GS School At Fort Benning Recently Non Con's Club

Major General Johnson Ha-eral Estes, Brigadier General ning Friday night for a brief in- refresher course at the Infantry spection of the Infantry School, 9 Saturday as a salute of 13 Field Artillery, under command Persons, of Lieutenant Louis B. Ely, boomed forth as the visiting general inspected the escort of honor, composed of selected soldiers from the 24th Infantry, commanded by Captain Llewllyn D. D. Tharp.

General Hagood expressed him_ self as pleased with the appearance of the escort, and compared them favorably with the colored troops stationed at Fort Sam Houston, which he commands. At the conclusion of the ceremony he was taken on a tour of the post by Brigadier General G. H. Estes, commandant of the Infantry School.

Later General Hagood returned to post headquarters where he conferred with General Estes, and Colonels Ephraim G. Peyton, executive officer, and Charles W. Weeks, assisstant commandant of the Infantry School, relative to details and methods of training citizen soldiers in case of a national emergency. General Hagood is the author of a publication outlining details of this training, and there was completed recently at the Infantry School a program of training to be used in such an emergency.

A short tour of observation of the activities being carried on at Fort Benning by a luncheon at the Officers' Club at 12:30, at which a number of the senior officers of the post were present. The guest list included, in addition to General Hagood and Gen-good, who arrived at Fort Ben-John L. DeWitt, who is taking a School at the present time; Colwas officially received at head-onel Fred L. Munson, Colonel quarters the Infantry School at Peyton, Colonel Weeks, Colonel ceipt of a letter from Major Gen-J. DeCamp Hall, Colonel Charles guns, fired by Battery C, 83rd F. Morse, Colonel William E. Lieutenant Colonel Reginald H. Kelley, Lieutenant Colonel James B. Woolnough, Lieutenant Colonel Thomas B. Catron, Major Clyde A. Selleck, Major Henry B. Lewis, and Lieutenant Walter C. Sweeney.

General Hagood left the post shortly after the conclusion of the luncheon, en route to Pensa-

Major General Claude E. Brigham, chief of the Chemical Warfare Service of the United States Army, arrived at Fort Benning at 5:00 o'clock Sunday night, in company with Colonel Charles W. Weeks, assistant commandant of the Infantry School, the two officers having motored from Fort McPherson, Atlanta, Ga., that afternoon. General Brigham, who made his first trip to the home of the Infantry School was at detached service in connection with chemical warfar work here

General Brigham has been appointed on a four year detail to that office in May 1933. For the previous four years he had been comandant of the Chemical Warfare School and commanding of_ ficer of the Edgewood (New Jersey) Arsenal, where is located much of the Chemical Warfare supplies. Experimental work in this branch of the army's activities is also conducted at Edgewood Arsenal, along industrial as

Continued on Page 4

Life Member Of Lieutenant Colonel Thomas B.

Catron, commander of the Infantry School Detchment, is in reeral Campbell King, (Retired), former commandant of Fort Benning and the Infantry School conveying the latter's acknowledgement of a life membership of the Noncommissioned Officers' Club of the Infantry School Detachment, and the position of honorary president of the body.

The honor that was bestowed on General King by electing him a lfe member of the club and its honorary president is a very distinctive one, as there are but few officers of the army who have ever been so elected, and but two honorary presidents. The other commissioned officer who holds that title is Colonel Catron, who is in command of the I. S. D. at the present time.

The Noncommissioned officers' Club is an unique organization among those of the army, having been in existence at Fort Benning for the past ten years. There Fort Benning for a short time on are at the present time about 175 active members, all of them of the I. S. D. The Club is supported entirely by its members, and functions entirely under their control. The active membership is confined entirely to the enlisted personnel, and election to honorary life membership is given only to those officers who have displayed more than the usual amount of interest in the organization, or aided it in its activities.

> General King, in his letter to Colonel Catron, expressed his appreciation in part as follows: "In acknowledging my acceptance it is scarcely necessary for me to say that I appreciate indeed the honor done me and particularly the manifestation of regard which this action so gracefully evi_ dences. You know the esteem and affection in which I hold that splendid body of men who constitutes the Noncommissioned Ofthem as honorary tribute that touches me deeply."

Captain Caygill is another old- Colonel Atkins To Command 3rd Battalion Of 29th Inf.

Atkins, headquarters staff, the nected with the construction produty and assignment at that sta- large part that the work 1934, to assume command of the 3rd Battalion of the 29th Infantry, which forms the infantry demonstration troops of the Field Artillery School.

Colonel Atkins has been on outy at Fort Benning in his present office of assistant executive for administration and supply since 1930, when he was detailed here from Washington, D. C.

Lieutenant Colonel Joseph A. kins was also most actively con_ under way as quickly as it was.

Prior to coming to the Infantry School on his present tour of duty, Colonel Atkins was on duty in Washington, as secretary of the general staff, in the office of the chief of staff, and had much to do with the advancement and development of the Infantry School during its earlier days at Columbus.

He has almost completed thirty During that four year tour of years service as a commissioned duty at Benning he has made officer, having been graduated many favorable contacts and from the United States Military friends in Columbus. Colonel At- Academy in June, 1904, and is a

NOTICE

The Editor wishes to apologize for the delay of the paper this week and also for the omission of the Company Notes. A fire which caused a suspension of work in the printing plant was the reason for this delay, and we'll try to remedy the trouble next week.

EESOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN

Colonel And Mrs. Peyton To Leave ent. Benning During Last Part Of May

Colonel and Mrs. E. G. Peyton during their brief stay at Benwill leave Fort Benning on May 29th for a visit to their daugh_ ters and sons-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. George Honnen and Lt. and Mrs. N. A. Matthias at West Point, N. Y. before their removal to their new station at Fort Sam Houston. While at West Point, Colonel eyton will attend the reunion of the Class of '99 during Com--nencement Week. Colonel and Mrs. Peyton wil return to Fort Henning after a three weeks' stay at the Military Academy and afterward will leave for Texas.

GENRAL AND MRS. DEWITT HONORED BY COL. AND MRS. E. G. PEYTON

Colonel and Mrs. E. G. Peyton honored General and Mrs. Dewitt,

Drs. Miller & Davis Dog & Cat Hospital

Office Phone 1313 1006 13th Street

Pasteurization

DESTROYS NOT ONE BIT OF THE FLAVOR!

Every bit of the milk or ice cream's flavor is preserved while it being heated to kill the bacteria-it does not lose one bit of the healthfulness or deliciousness. Buy Foremost for this double value-flavor and protection.

toremost dairies, Inc. ning, with a dinner at their quarters. The guests were: General and Mrs. Dewitt, Colonel and Mrs. C. W. Weeks and Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp Hall.

COLONEL AND MRS. HALL MAJOR AND MRS. FOGLE HOSTS AT PICNIC

Colonel and Mrs. J. DeCamp and Major and Mrs. Fred M. Fogle were the joint hosts Sunday afternoon at a delightfully inform al picnic supper. Plans had been termaster camp along the Upatoi made to entertain at the Quarbu, due to the inclement weather, the picnic was held at the quar ters of Colonel and Mrs. Hall. Included in the guest list were members of the married and subdeb set. They were: Major and Mrs. Frank V. Schneider, Major and Mrs. Frederick A. Irving, Capt. and Mrs. James E. Woods Capt. and Mrs. Robert G. Mangum, Capt. and Mrs. Clough F. Gee, Capt. and Mrs. Johnson, Lieut. and Mrs. Washington M. Ives, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter A Huntsberry, Lieut. and Mrs. Earl J. Macherey, Lieut. and Mrs. Raymond E. Kendall, the Misses Ruth Harchie, Nana Seeley, Lou-Cargill, Elizabeth and Ports and Lieut. Thomas Kent Lieut. Sidney C. Wooten, Lieut. Ephraim M. Hampton, Lieut. J. A. Cleveland, Lieut. Robert A. Ports, Lieut. Lauren W. Merriam, Mr. Evans and Mr. Julius Newgord. Serving at this affair were Mesdames Schneider, Irving and

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS ROB-RTS ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Firm Roberts of Columbus announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Louise, to Lieutenant Allen Thayer of Fort Benning. Miss Roberts attended school at Columbus High School. Lieutenant Thayer, who is assigned to the 24th Infantry, graduated from the United States Military Academy with the Class of 1928.

The wedding will take place June 14th.

COLONEL AND MRS. PEYTON WILL ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER PRECEDING DANCE.

Colonel and Msr. E. G. Peyton will be hosts at a dinner on the 21st preceding the dance at the Polo Club. About forty guests from the personnel of the post and from Columbus will be pres_

MRS. VAN VALZAN HONOR GUEST AT LUNCH

Mrs. Raymond W. Pearson was he hostess Thursday at a delight. | luncheon were Mesdames Archiful luncheon at her home on Mill- bald V. Arnold, John Huling, er Loop complimenting Mrs. Ola Van Valzan of Washington, D. C. who is visting Major and Mrs. George F. Aycock. Throughout H. Bache, John H. Stutesman, Lethe house Spring flowers in pas-roy W. Nichols, John F. Farra, tel shades were used. The lun-Oscar W. Griswold, Thomas G. cheon table was laid with a filet lace cloth, the center piece being a large silver bowl of Spring Clark, Athleen Munson, Esther flowers flanked by silver candle- Kelley, and Maxine Rife. sticks bearing green tapers.

Covers were laid for twelve guests, they were: Mesdames Van Valzan, Charles F. Morse, Reginald H. Kelley, George F. Aycock, Thomas J. Leary, Homer L. Conner, Lucius K. Patterson, Chas. O. Grace, John F. Corby, Walter A. Rose, James S. Brumette and James W. Duckworth. *

POPULAR VISITOR ENTER-TAIRED

*

Mrs. Peter A. Fernga, nee Katherine Hutchens of Columbus, who is the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph I. Greene, was the honor guest Wednesday at an informal buffet luncheon given by her hostess. The center for the luncheon table was a lovely silver bowl of pink and white snap dragons flanked by candlalabra bearing pink tapers.

Enjoying Mrs. Green's hospi tality were: Mesdames Feringa. Tracy Davis, George Woodruff, Calvin Des Portes, Malcolm F. Lindsey, George P. Howell, Clyde D. Eddleman, Charles T. Lanahan, William C. Lucas, Burrell Cole and Miss Polly Wrightson.

Among those entertaining in Mrs. Feringa's honor are Mrs. William C. Lucas, Mrs. Burrell Cole and Mrs. George Woodruff.

CFFICERS' CLUB DANCE TO BE HELD SATURDAY EVEN-ING AT POLO HUNT CLUB

The next event on the program of the Officers' Club will be a dance which will be held Saturday evning at the Polo-Hunt Club. Ther will be dancing from eightthirty o'clock to eleven-thirty with the 29th Infantry orchestra furnishing the music for the dancing. Preceding the dancing a special dinner wil be served at seven. Among those reserving table were; Colonel and Mrs. Ephraim G. Peyton, Capt. and Mrs. Alexander F. Cummings, Capt. and Mrs. Horace M. Woodward, Lieut. and Mrs. Francis E. Gillette and Lt. and Mrs. HoHward R. Johnson.

TANK AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

The ladies Tank bridge club met Tuesday afternon at the Officers' Club with Mrs. Donald P. Spalding as hostess. Luncheon was served at one followed by two tables of contract bridge that was held at the Tank Club. Winning high honors for the afternon's play were, Mrs. Cleland F. Sibley, first and Mrs. Fay Ross, second.

DAUGHTERS OF U. S. ARMY HOLD LUNCHEON THURSDAY AT OFFICERS CLUB

The monthly meeting of the Fort Benning Chapter of the Daughters of the United States Army was held Thursday with a luncheon at the Officers club. mmediately after lunch, which was served at one o'clock, a short business meeting was held to discuss the national election plans for the coming year.

Among those attending this Claude B. Ferenbaugh, Archibald W. Stuart, Francis E. Gillette, Herbert A. Wadsworth, William Hearn and the Misses Mary Wadsworth, Betty Williams, Nan

Capt. and Mrs. Robert G. Mangum have as their house guest Miss Ruth Harchie, of Troy, Ala.

Miss Nancy Stilwell, formerly of Fort Benning and now of Los Angeles, California, is the house guest of Miss Harriotte Atkins.

Lieut. and Mrs. August E. Schanze have as their house Continued on Page 8)

NOW!

GENUINE CHINESE CHOP SUEY CHOW MEIN

Cooked fresh daily by the South's foremost Oriental Chef

Wynnton Delicatessen

Open every day till midnight A Retreat for jaded appetites

KENNY'S

VACUUM PACK NORWOOD COFFEE

is sold at Fort Benning through the

Post Exchange

TRY A POUND

YOU WILL BE PLEASED

ROSENBERG'S

JEWELERS

Carry

Nationally known and advertised lines and Solicit Your Charge Accounts 1241 Broadway

Accounts of Fort Benning Personnel Solicited.

"The White Bank"

CAPITAL & SURPLUS RESOURCES OVER

WE OFFER EVERY BANKING SERVICE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK THE HOME SAVINGS BANK

OFFICE: Post Exchange Building. Fort Benning Representative—MR. R. M. HALL, Jr.

FURNITURE FOR EVERY ROOM-TO SUIT EVERYONE OF YOUR PERSONAL WHIMS

SIMMONS'

Wood and Metal Beds

Beautyrest and Deepsleep Mattresses and a complete line of springs

GLIDERS PORCH

ALL NEW DESIGNS AND COLORS

CUNNINGHAM

FURNITURE COMPANY

1014 Broadway

Phone 560

40 REASONS

Every one of our more than forty years is but another reason why you should do all your shopping for furniture at this store. Experience is a great teacher, and experience has taught us the solution to each of your problems, and the proper way of avoiding every diffi-

We will be glad to have you visit our store and see for yourself that we are fully stocked and most dependable.

H. ROTHSCH

FURŃITURE

For Forty Years Columbus' Leading Furniture Dealer

DVENS

with a sincere pride, formally presents to the fashionable women of Benning an entirely remodeled department store—rearranged for the greater convenience to our customers. Especially is Kirven's proud to present the modern and beautiful ready-to-wear, the millinery and the footwear sections.

Now you may select your dresses, your millinery and your shoes amid new--even lux-urious---surroundings---in a store that reflects the modern spirit in Columbus.

You'll receive individual attention---you'll have everything necessary to flatter your own individuality. Come in at your first opportunity, Kirven's newly remodeled store will display its charm to you.

KIRVEN'S

THE BENNING HERALD

Published Every Friday

VOLUME III APRIL 20,	1934	NU. 52
L. C. Kunze		Publisher
A. F. Kunze		Editor
Felicia C. Howell		Society Editor
Jack Gibney		Sports Editor
Louis T. Kunze	Ciro	culation Manager

Advertising rates will be quoted on request. The Benning Herald reserves the right to classify, edit, or reject any advertising

The Benning Herald by mail to any address in the United States or its possessions, $1.50 per year. Single copy 5 cents.

Application for entry as second-class matter is pending.

PUBLISHER'S REPRESENTATIVE FROST, LANDIS & KOHN CHICAGO, NEW YORK, ATLANTA, ST. LOUIS, DETROIT, SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, SEATTLE, BALTIMORE

BENNING DAY BY DAY (Continued From Page 1)

Cavalryman Cox is recuperating nicely on sick leave in Florida. *

A good commander is a man who can make good decisions no matter how many umpires are listening. . . There is nothing more guaranteed to make one gun-shy than a few good decisions gone shy wrong. . . Harvey Cassedy will be back with us again the first of the week. . Recollecting Major Roberts' remark uttered earlier in the season, "A tank can knock out anything but an umpire" . . . Suggested addition: "Or a red flag' . . . Thinking seriously of reporting to Major Dabney for something to cure a chronic case of acute indecision. . . Lanahan, Murphy and Schildroth have been ordered to Leavenworth. Three more night problems. The normal progres of enemy red flags, blue dispositions to the contray notwithstanding, was the inspiration for the spiritual, "All God's chillun got wings."

A fast tank is a tank in which you can't see nothing like in a slow tank only you have bigger slit to see i through . . . Pro-tank only you do it faster. . | ening the class to the rigors of war. One or two more of our own and our particular all-round defense mechanism will be completely set up. . . In Major Roberts' recent problem on the First Division Road we lost five points on Holliday Hill, ten or Sackett Hill and four on Buma. . . It was some consolation to know the exrcise stopped before it got to Harmony Church. . . Else we'd have to take lessons as a makeup artists. . . Recommended by Collins to prospective Leavenworth students-a visit to the Post Theatre lobby. . . To practice looking at big pictures.

Peewee Vanture, energetic artilleryman-student, set a pace leading his doughboy battalion into position last Friday night that had hardened foot soldiers begging or mercy. . . Which availed them not. . . Which proves that all good doughboys are not in the infantry. . . Suppressing with difficulty a desire to spend our next free afternoon railbirding at the new bridge construction. . Placing bets on the next in the dwindling ranks of the tactically presto be blood-nicked with a "U"-bolt. . . And so to the circle at the moment. miscuous "U"-gathering is hard-studying for the next three hours

Notes Keservist rom

(By Robert F. Evans) (2d Lieut. MI Reserve)

The rank civilian surrendered his papers at Headquarters at Fort Benning and stood awkwardly before the desk looking over his shoulder at all the uniforms.

"Hmmmmmm. How much military training have you had?' "None, sir."

"Not even ROTC?"

"No sir."

"And you're an officer?"

"Why, errr-yes sir."

"My God!" Following this introduction and much gnashing of teeth and scratching of heads among the much to his surprise nobody higher-ups the civilian, who is barked at him or raked him over happen to an uninitiated if submerged at high tide of instruclucky enough to have somebody in the opinion of the writer there to follow, but one afternoon he is no class of men who more ning Monday.

suddenly found himself out in the middle of a field at the head of a file. He heard an order given but hoped it was for the other file and kept on going. A shout from the company commander woke him up to the fact that he was marching off all alone, the file having turned right some time ago without him.

Despite such embarrassing incidents as this, however, the civilian can say that he has never enjoyed three weeks more than his first weeks at Fort Benning. On all sides he found many officers offering to help him catch on to the ways of army life, and your writer, was finally dumped the coals unnecessarily. His pell mell into the National-Guard ideas of army life being mainly and Reserve Company Officers' those gathered from Liberty mag-Class. Already the class had been azine, Kipling, and the movies, under way for six weeks but au- he arrived with visions of several be interesting to see what would hands of a group of automatic, unsympathetic, disciplinarians. Quite to the contrary he found the officers sympathetic, consider-Your writer is here to say that ate, and most polite. There may there was plenty, such as the in- be more brilliant men than the cident of a few days later. The officers of the United States Arcivilian had been able to follow my; there certainly are wealthier vaguely the classes indoors and in ones, and there are undoubtedly the occasional drills he had been more highly educated ones, but chemicals.

justly deserve the title of gentlemen.

Perhaps one of the greatest surprises that the civilian received here at Benning was nonchalance with which so-called world crises were considered. On his arrival he expected to hear every. body talking of the coming war, the situation in Manchuria and the French problem, but to date he has not heard a word. Here where the prime interst is war and national safety there is less discussion of foreign affairs and international complication than at any place the writer has visited for some time. Several times he Russian menace or the Japanese peril, to be met with only slight interest and no real concern. Perhaps the explanaton of this may lie in the fact that the army knows what war is and does not like the idea of getting involved in other people's troubles. After all, past wars have been entirely political until the Army was called out.

A pleasantly erroneous idea is circulating about the country that the army is living in the lap of luxury at the expense of the tax-payers, and that the officers are really a pretty lucky ond, and Third places. The jumpbunch of fellows after all. The off was conducted under Intertruth of the matter is that the fact that the NRA says that noless a ten percent cut or economy. And the same scale allows for the officers in proportion to their rank. With boots being what they are and the NRA administration boosting away, at prices, the writer does not understand how the officers afford to dress well, much less live comfortably. Perhaps that is something he will find out in the future, but it looks like squaring well as military lines.

BRIGHAM-

Continued from Page 1

For several years previous to that time General Brigham had been executive officer in the office of the chief of Chemical Warfare at Washington, during the tours of both Generals Hugh C. Gilchrist and Amos A. Fries, when those two officers held that po_ sition.

Originally General Brigham was a coast artillery officer, and assistant chief of coast artillery for the army.

The branch of the military ser. vice which he heads does not confine its activities strictly to military work, and many of the industries of the world have profit-$6,352,000 was inspected, tested, ed from the discoveries and re-The development and use of gas perts are constantly being consulted by firms throughout the and has held other temporary t Fresno, California. pertaining to industrial use of

Gen. Brigham left Fort Ben-

Weekly Jumping Competition

(April 14, 1934) Wonders will never cease!! Last Saturday we ambled down to the Campbell King Horse Show Bowl trying to guess on our the stands was glad to see him way, what intricate and complicated course of jumps Major Thomas would have waiting for an unsuspecting Competition Class. When we saw a plain Figure of Eight course below us we could hardly believe our eyes. From the remarks heard from many of the jumpers "backstage," we gathered the course was highly acceptable to them. The only has hopefully brought up the tricky obstacle in the ring was the broad jump which had two poles laid scissors-like across its center. Contrary to the expectations of many riders this jump caused very little trouble. Mrs. Cole spoiled a perfect score by getting very gracefully policed on the scissors contraption, which was Mrs. Gee on Unle Bim-97 the last jump. Spectators thought she should have been given a ribbon for making a perfect twopoint landng from the poop-deck of her horse. Sixteen people made scores of 100 the first time around and had to jump off for First, Secnational Equitation Federation writer can figure ou how the ar- rules which calls for deduction of my lives at all. Considering the points for time and disobediences only. Acquiring a good score on body should work for less than the jump-off proved to be differforty dollars a month, not even ent matter, as was indicated by for charity, it seems strange that the elimination of sevn of the the Government is paying its sol-sixteen. Tomy Arms, who hasdiers twenty-one dollars a month, n't been doing very well in the past, showed a remarkable improvement Saturday, and came through with two 100's to his credit. By clicking off two onehundreds, Willie Mathews showed that he was not suffering from though not cery successfully, at any ill effects from his crack-up Saturday before last. Mrs. Brien did some very pretty riding on Lumpkin to put him in the finals but on the jump-off Lumpkin knocked off the top of the stonewall and ruined his score.

When the smoke of the jumpoff rolled away, Lt. Sams of the 29th Infantry was on top with a score of 100 in 31 4-4 seconds, and Lt. Monroe and Lt. Emery tied up for the last two places with scores of 100 in 32 1-5 seconds. They matched for places. Lt. Emery won Second, leaving Lt. Monroe holding Third. We understand this is the first cup

| that Lt. "Sambo" Sams has won in his several years of jumping competition. He was visbily proud of his trophy and everybody in win it. The individual scores were:

sec. 2d-Lt. Monroe, 100, time 32 1-5

1st-Lt. Sams, 100, time 31 4-5

3d-Lt. Monroe, 100, time 32 1-5 sec.

Three Foot-Three Inch Class Lt. Landon on Harpist—100 Mrs. Golightly on Jesse Carter-100

Mrs. Dunn on Bobbie-96 Capt. Huling on Shandygaff-100 Mrs. Lindsey on Snippy-100 Lt. Sams on Budly-100 Capt. Sams on Xanthippi-96

Lt. Kendal on Piby Boy-97 Three Foot-Sk Inch Class Lt. Ely on Tob-92 Lt. Brown, S.G. on Woody-

Eliminated

Peggy Arnold a Sun Brier-100 Maj. Johnson o Miss Vixen-100 Lt. Eddleman n Bobby-96 Mrs. Arnold o Ruth Hamilton-

100 Mrs. Huling n Dickson-Eliminated

Lt. Horton o'Richmond D.—96 Tommy Arm on Sister Susie-100

Lt. Bache c Shotgun—96 Lt. Mathewon Spaghetti-100 Mrs. Studeker on Applejack-Lt. Emeryn Fresno—100

Mrs. Haisl on Jetmore-100 Three Pt-Nine Inch Class Mrs. Cole n Henrietta-Eliminated

Mrs. Heilan on LaJunta-96 Lt. Monron Harry W.-100 Mrs. Otton Middleburg-96 Lt. Stew on Bobbie A.—100 Mrs. Bel on Anita-100

ur Foot Class

Mrs. O'en on Lumpkin-100 Barrinhe unexpected, the last Jumpin Competition of the season wife held next Saturday aternoof:30. A large crowd is expect to be present to witness the fircontest and the rewarding one trophy to the person havin e highest total score for the son.

Sea high scorers to date are: rst-Miss Peggy Arnold; Seco-Mrs. O'Brien; Thirdnar ood, Wash., as a member of Company Officers' course.

thdetailed to duty with the Arcan Army forces in China.

reing to this post and duty wthe 29th Infantry in 1932.

btain Monroe first came here

West Point, N. Y., where he on duty at the United States

ary Academy, in 1928, when ilso attended the Company

he Cavalry School, Fort Ri-where he attended the Troop griting in 1929. He

G. S. School Continued from Page 1

Captain Hodson was detailed to duty at Benning in 1930 from during the world war served as the 1st Infantry Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyoming, and entered the Infantry School as a student in the Company Officers' course. At the time he was a first lieutenant, his promotion to captain coming March 1933. Upon his graduation from the School in 929, he was assigned to duty 1931 he was detailed on duty with the headquarters staff, and search which has been done by placed in charge of the bookicers course, class of 1930.

masks, insecticides, vermin exter- ferent assignments to Benningeutenant Murphy, who was on thorities seemed to think it would weeks of justified torture at the minators, and many other items first as a student in the Companty as an instructor in commuwhich render life safer and more Officers' course, class of 193 cations in the Academic Dellivable to the people of the United and later as a student in the artment of the School, was first States originated or were brought vanced class of 1931-32. Upstailed to Benning in 1930 from to their present state of perfec graduation he was assigned e 9th Infantry at Fort Sam tion by he C. W. S., and its ex-duty at post headquarters as plouston, Texas. Last summer sonal adjutant of Fort Benne was on duty with the C. C. C.

> country today on various matters signments in addition, as act Lieutenant Scholdroth was asassistant adjutant, and recruifigned to Benning from duty at he State College of Washington officer.

Captain McClure first cam ast summer, as a member of the (Please turn to page 5) Benning in 1928 from Fort hop at the post.

Captain Hull has had two diff h the 24th Infantry in 1930.

EARN MOREY

YOU can learn Bookkeeping, Banking, Shorthand and Typewriting at home i nhalf the time, and at onefifth the cost of attending a business college. You can complete the course in bookkeeping or banking, and receive your diploma in two months. You can learn to write over 100 words a minute in shorthand in less than two months, and you can become an expert, rapid typist in six weeks.

A small down-payment an deasy monthly terms will get you started immediately. Complete satisfaction and a good position guaranteed, or your tuition will be refunded in full. Send ten cents in coin or stamps for complete discriptive literature of the courses in which you are inteersted. Do it todya.

AMERICAN CORESPONDENCE SCHOOL

1850 Downing St., Denver, Colo. Covers the ENTIRE United States

PRINTING

Buy Your Printing at this shop. The advantage of skilled labor, good machinery and interested service will more than offset any other things that may be offered.

COLUMBUS fice Supply Co

Garden Section

The Garden Section of the Infantry School Woman's Club will meet on Monday, April 22, at Mrs. George H. Estes.

There will be a tour of the Post Green House and the final plans of the Flower Show will be made. The Flower Show will be held on

All members who have extra plants are asked to bring them as there is to be an exchange of

Incinerato Herels Ready To Be Used

The new incinerator at Fort Benning, one of the first projects on which construction began last fall under the P. W. A. grant of and turned over to the quartermaster of Fort Benning this morn_ ing. Construction of the project started on November 22, the elapsed time taken to complete amounting to 167 days. The contract price for the work, which was carried on by the T. E. Eagan Refraction Engineering Company, Inc., of Brooklyn, N. Y., was $14,-

The new incinerator is located alongside of the old furnace which has served Fort Benning since the early days of the post, for the disposal of waste and garbage. Its capacity is approximately 2 1-2 tons of waste an hour, which will be burned in the huge furnace, the dimensions of which are 28 feet length, 10 feet width, with 80 square feet of grate surface. This waste to be burned is charged into the furnace from above through two man-holes in the main floor of the building, brought to the combustion point on the grate, and the gasses pass_ ed into the combustion chamber, which is equipped with a blower for draft, capable of putting a pressure of 6,000 square feet in a two and one-half head of air.

On the main floor of the building is anotter feature that will make for greater convenience and effiency. A "bath-tub" for the garbage cans, in which they are soaked after being emptied, is located in one corner, while a spraywasher in a cabinet removes all grease and particles from them with hot water before they are returned to the organizations.

The entire building is of brick,

Municipals...

Most large investment portfolios contain a diversified list of municipal bonds. Through its Investment Department, this firm is able to supply quotes and bids on municipal bonds of the extensive territory served by its private wires.

Fenner & Beane

13 West Eleventh Street Phone 2272 Columbus, Ga

MEMBERS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

crete and steel construction, with a 70 foot stack to carry off any gases unburned in the combustion chamber. It is expected that the new unit will be put into use immediately.

> G. S. School (Continued from Page 4)

advanced course. He arrived here fire-insulation, fire-brick, con_ | from Pullman, Wash., in August. Lieutenant Lanahan has been duty at Benning as post signal officer since 1930, when he was assigned here from duty in the same capacity at Fort Monmouth. N. J., where the Signal School of the Army is located.

> All of the officers will leave Fort Benning this summer to take up their new duties as students.

A HOME OF YOUR OWN

You may have waited and planned for years and not yet realized your dreambut it's coming true soon, and in Columbus' best development,

Andrews Woods

Located on the Columbus-Fort Benning road—beautifully shaded by tall pines, cool, inviting, attractive.

The Jordan Co.

EIGHTEEN 13TH STREET. TELEPHONE 1190 Insurance — Real Estate

YOU MAY NOT KNOW - WHAT GOES ON INSIDE YOUR ENGINE

> . . . BUT WE DO—and that's why you should entrust your car only to skilled workmen. Let us look it over now . . . the cost is nominal and you'll get many added miles of pleasure and smooth driving from it. We do painting work on all makes of automobiles.

Auto Department

POST EXCHANGE

FORT BENNING, GA.

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

Griffin Wins Decision Over Fortenberry

John Corn Griffn won his last day night, taking a clear-cut ten Fort Benning, will take place on round decision from Gordon For- May 11 and 12, according to a tenberry of Cocoa, Fla., in the fight cards at the post in some in Campbell King Horseshow moons.

'All, credit is due to the athletic association, and especially events starting at 9:00 a.m. on Captain Fry and Lieutenant John- the 12th. son for an entertaining evening of good fights as a fitting opening to the summer season of the post Infantry School is one of the oldfight game.

Griffin's battle with Fortenberry was a quite close affair in the 1919. Each year since 1922 the opinion of some of the fans, and officers, ladies and enlisted men one judge and the referee gave their decisions as such. The de- a carnival of jumping, riding and ciding vote was cast in Griffin's favor by the other judge. Griffin clearly outfought Fortenberry, but lost a number of points on drawn vehicles in use by the post low blows.

Both boys were bloodied up badly in the latter part of the fight after they butted heads accidentally in Griffin's corner and for a time it was feared that the stream of blood would blind Fortenberry and stop the fight. The Floridian gamely continued how. ever, and gave the fans double their money's worth in action and

The opening fight of the evening, a Huff-Viggins maelstrom, had a large number of the fans declaring that the curtain raiser was the best fight on the card. Huff opened up with a cautious offensive and lightning footwork in evading the steady rain of blows from the aggressive Viggins. In the first two rounds of the melee Huff easily out-fought the Columbus pugilist, nauevering himself around the ring with clever footwork, landing several stinging jabs on Viggin's jaw, while Viggins was unable to lo-

ARMY

MARK NAVY

N. S. MEYER, Inc.

CAPS Regulation Garrison

Officers

Enlisted Men Made in various styles and qualities to suit the most discriminating and economical purchaser. Look for our shield trademark, it is your guarantee of quality.

At your Post Exchange or Dealer

Ask for Meyer Metal or Acid Test Insignia and Button

N. S. MEYER, Inc. NEW YORK

Was Last Fight Of Spring Horseshow Army Battler At Is Scheduled For Fort Benning May 11th And '2th

The twelfth annual spring fight at Fort Benning last Tues- horse show of the Infantry School circular published at the post remain event of one of the best cently. The event will take place bowl the irst day's program beginning at 1:15, and the final

> The spring horse show of the est events of that institution, dating from shortly after the arrival of the School in Columbus in of the garrison have competed in esquestrian skill on mounts that bal tournament at Fort Benning, rank with the best in the country for beauty and ability. Animalorganizations are polished and varnished to a glittering perfection to vie for the coveted blue ribbons; horses are trained by their riders for months in advance; and novice riders take spill after spill over the jumps in anticipation of their first horse show competition.

Twenty-eight different events are comprised in the program for the show, from the bareback jumping to the jumping sweepstakes, climax of the affair, and they cover all phases of equestri-cate the Benning boxer with his slugging "dukes". Viggins later reverted to clowning, which won the approval of the fans but failed to alter the outcome of the

The second fight lasted but a of the evening. few moments. Young Wallace of Tampa, Fla., waded in cautiously but was rushed by Felix Feroux of the 83rd Field Artillery, who connected a haymaker with the Floridian's jaw and stretched him entertainment. Lieutenant James on the canvas for the count.

Stratton Smith had little trouble in out-pointing Frankie Miller of Columbus in the third fight Rice was awarded a pair of boxon the card. Miller had the reach ing gloves for the protection of on Smith but was unable to keep away from the stocky little Bencut in the fourth round.

worth in the fourth fight of the evening, with Lidell dancing through for another decision with his feinting footwork and effective jabs.

The eight round semi-final between Age Liggett of Cocoa, Fla., and Puggy Weinert of Illinois, was packed with action from the beginning until the sound of the Mess-Sergeant "Swede" Oikari, final gong. Both pugs stood up and slugged it out, landing blows hard enough to topple a build-ing served, K. P. Moore's Student ing. With both still going strong orchestra, under the direction of was called a draw.

an activity. Jumping, riding, trained mounts, teams, wagons, and machine gun carts all have their different classes, and all will be keenly competed for.

Drawing of horses for entry in the show will take place on Saturday morning, in time enough to give the riders a chance to become accustomed to the horses, and vice-versa, that both may make a good showing.

C tizens of Columbus who are interested in riding and horses are cordially invited by the military authorities to attend the show as they have in years past. Details of the various events are to be announced in the near fu-

Dinner Given To 2nd Batt. Team

Celebrating its victory in the recent post championship basketthe Second Battalion basketball squad was guest at a special dinner Friday evening in the Company E mess-hall. A program of varied entertainment, including special music by K. P. Moore and his Student Melody Makers and the presentatin of booby prizes by "Red" Gibbs, company funster, was provided for the occasion.

Captain Don C. Faith, host and toastmaster, introduced the guest speaker, Lieutenant Colonel Elmer F. Rice, commanding officer of the Second Battalion. Colonel Rice, who has always attended the games in which the Second Battalion quint played, commended the members of the team and the coaches for the splendid display of athletic ability shown by them in the tourney. With a short, humorous talk, Colonel Rice kept everyone in an uproar fight, which easily whent to Huff. of laughter during the remainder

The presentation of booby prizes to various members of the team by Corporal "Red" Gibbs, was one of the features of the R. Pierce "self-made" water-boy, received a gaudily colored pail with which to carry water in the next basketball season. Colonel Mrs. Rice, with whom the Colonel sparred (unknowingly) during ning fighter and lost by a knock- the exciting moments of close games. Frank Lee, smallest mem-Chck Lidell and Ginger erniber of the team, was given a bot_ gan gave the fans their money's tle of milk—complete with nipple—in hopes that the nourishment would help him become more the size of Primo Carnera. Walter Bridges, the team center who had to jump against some skyscraper centers during the past season was presented with a lad-

The dinner was prepared by under the supervision of Captain Don C. Faith. As dinner was beat the end of the fight, the match | Bert Moody, rendered a varied selection of recent song-hits.

BASEBALL SEASON IS HERE

Surely you don't want to be unprepared when the first ball at Fort Benning is thrown. Come in and see our fine stock of baseball gloves, mitts, bats and other paraphernaila. We carry the sporting equipment for every sport, made by nationally known makers.

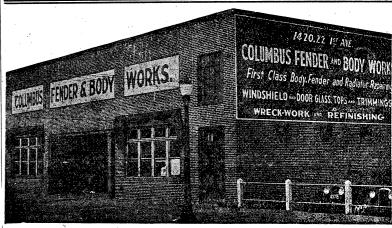

POST EXCHANGE Main Branch

Fort Benning, Georgia

The Post Exchange Is Not Authorized To Sell To Anyone Not In The Military Service.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE

BENNING HERALD

1420 FIRST AVENUE PHONE 165 THE POST EXCHANGE OUR AGENT AT BENNING

la sa Agrano Persa en esase de Septembrio.

and for the arm water of a to be and park sublisher yell

rakan di di dibirah kebija dalah bilik Kacambar di meringkan kebisari ke

I the the weather the will be to the on edilika kan opide validika e Saka delika egitika birak

A THE AND THE PARTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE Commercial and State State States and States

Promin die Antoe bedroop hittories gewinde Die Son Bourt Builde Administration hie in a line of the state of the property of the

2 a Milly of section of windows (Vi gilo - godin oraș e sagona (j. polifordor gj. polag ji 🎉

The Benning Herald

A Paper Devoted To The Interests

Of The Personnel, Confining Itself

To Matters Of Interest To The Post

$1.50

Per Year

Literary Section

The Literary Section of the Womans Club of Fort Benning met at the Polo Hunt club on Monday. Mrs. Arthur E. Burnap, the program chairman, in a charming introduction contrasted the art of the biographers of a w years ago with the entertaining character studies written today. She stressed the point that a person is interesting only as he reflects the age in which he livstudy history.

Mrs. H. L. Barrett reviewed the "Man of the Renaissance", by

Money To Loan

on watches, diamonds, clothing and articles of value. Unredeemed Pledges for sale Cheap.

CITIZENS LOAN CO. 1043 Broadway

Ralph Roeder. Through these biographical studies of four men, chosen to illustrate phases of the intellectual and moral life of their time, the Renaissance is re created in animated, dramatic fashion with all its lawlessness. sensuality, and intellectual activity. Of these four the most interesting are Savonarola, the mad monk of Florence and Machiavelli, the statesman.

Mrs. F. A. Heileman reviewed 'Elizabeth' by Neale against the ed and that indirectly this is the background of her age. The tragmost inspiring way in which to ic Mary Queen of Scotts, the sad Bloody Mary and the imperious Elizabeth, the Queen, come to life in its pages. In "Samuel Pepys" by Bryant the dashing diarist comes home to box his wife on the ears; to test the maids voice before hiring her to see if she can take part in the family music and to confide in his diary his amours.

Miss Esther Kelly discussed two books with the Southwest as a background. "Junipero Serra" by Agnes Repplier is the story of the Franciscan monk who colonized California. "Journey of the Flame" by Fierro Blanco is the story of the adventures of Juan Obrigon in California in 1810. On this trip he stopped at old of Lieut. Feringa of Jacksonvile, missions, fought Indians, crossed mountains and deserts. All of brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. the color of the pioneer west is and Mrs. Joseph I. Greene. in these books. "At 33" by Eva

Le Gallienne is the autobiography of the famous actress and founder of the Civic Repertory Theatre. Because of her youth the great and near great whom we meet in her pages are of great interest to us as they belong to our gene-

Mrs. C. F. Colson reviewed the history of music in "From Bach to Stravinsky" touching on the contributions of the different great musicians. In "Stephen Foster" she told the tragic story of the life of the man who wrote "Way down upon the Suwanee River." Mrs. Colson gave a very interesting picture of the dual life Mrs. Matchett, is not well. Howof Padereweski in hsi love for ever, Star Finder is assured at Poland and his devotion to his guest, Mrs. Martin Chamberlain of Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. Major and Mrs. Chamberlain were stationed at Fort Benning a few years ago.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Peter A. Feringa, wife Florida, is the house guest of her

GIRL SCOUTS

The Cardinal Scout meeting played baseball. on Tuesday was very informal due to the numerous things to be accomplished before court of awards. Mrs. Eagles took aside the athletes to straighten out their points. The others played unorganized games until the Patrols were called together. Then two base ball teams were organized, announcements made and the official meeting ended.

There will be a Pioneer Hike Saturday. Probably Mrs. Wadsworth will take this over since the former examiner, the Captain, Mrs. Matchett's Friday evening after the first show. The much postponed scout dance is scheduled for June 1 and only those

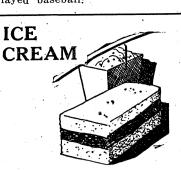

> Dependable Electric and Gas Service

GEORGIA

A Citizen Wherever We Serve

1330 Broadway R. M. Harding, Manager who have advanced this year may

The rest of the time the troop

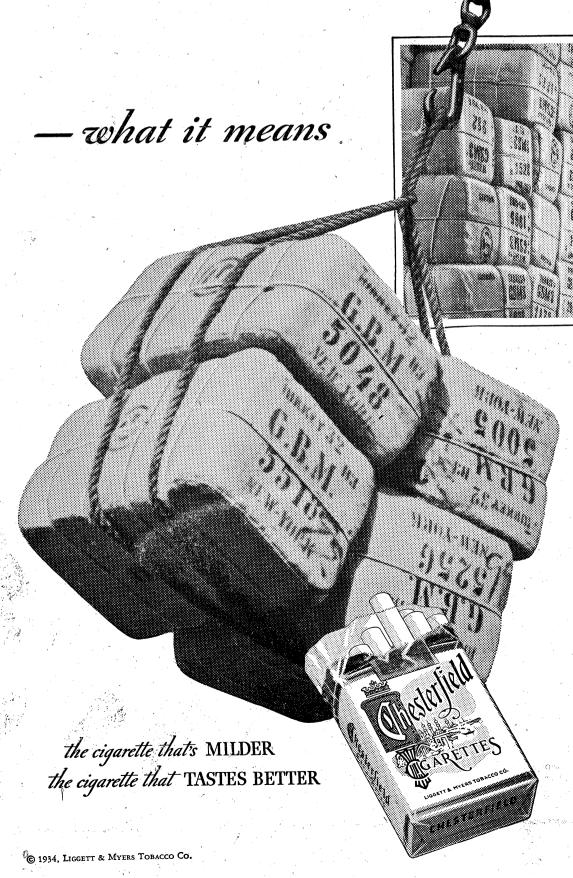

In all FLAVORS and QUANTITIES

You can get Kinnett's Ice Cream in all flavors and quantities, and at any time you want it. And remember, for fine flavor and for extra enjoyment there's no match for Kin-

SOLD AT THE OFFICERS CLUB AND THE POST EXCHANGE

—to keep on hand 350,000 bales of Turkish tobacco to add something to the taste So important is Turkish to- bales of this aromatic Turkbacco in the Chesterfield blend that we maintain a modern up-to-date tobacco factory in the far-off city of Smyrna.

Turkish tobacco adds something to the taste and aroma of a cigarette that no other tobacco can give.

It means something that Chesterfield always has in storage upwards of 350,000 ish leaf.

This Turkish tobacco is blended and cross-blended with ripe mild home-grown tobaccos to give Chesterfields a taste and aroma that is not like other cigarettes.

Everything that money can buy is used to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.