Mission of the Officer Candidate Program of the United States Army Infantry School

"To develop selected personnel to be Second Lieutenants of the Army of the United States who will be capable of performing duties appropriate to their grade in Infantry units, and who, with a minimum of additional branch training, will be prepared to serve as Second Lieutenants of other branches designated by the Department of the Army. The secondary mission is to serve as a basis for mobilization as the needs of the service require."

The Officer Candidate Course at the United States Army Infantry School is a period of transition, training, and leadership development for selected enlisted men and warrant officers who have demonstrated leadership potential, which prepares them to assume the increased responsibilities of a commissioned officer.

ACADEMICS

The attaining of professional knowledge enables the officer candidate to successfully assume the duties of a second lieutenant upon graduation. Thus, one of the principle duties of each candidate is to study, understand and retain the instruction presented. Study time is allotted each day in the evenings. During this time the officer candidate prepares for the following day's classes.

Class time comprises over seventy-five percent of the officer candidates' daily schedule, in which fundamentals, theories, and controlled problems are analyzed and learned. Later phases of instruction enable the Officer Candidate to demonstrate his acquired knowledge through practical exercise.

OFFICER CANDIDATE PRAYER

ALMIGHTY GOD, WE WHO WILL SOON BECOME LEADERS OF MEN, COME TO YOU FOR GUIDANCE IN THIS AWESOME RESPONSIBILITY.

WE PRAY FOR HUMILITY, O LORD, THAT ANY EXISTING SELFISHNESS, ARROGANCE, AND VANITY MAY BE REMOVED FROM OUR LIVES.

GRANT US PATIENCE IN DEALING WITH THE MISTAKES OF OUR FELLOW MAN. LET US NEVER FORGET THAT NO MAN IS PERFECT, BUT THAT PERFECTION FOR FRAGILE HUMANS IS TRYING EACH DAY TO BE BETTER THAN THE DAY BEFORE.

KEEP EVER BEFORE US OUR GOAL, WHICH IS NOT TO PERPETRATE WAR BUT TO SAFEGUARD YOUR GREATEST GIFT TO MAN — FREEDOM.

LET US NEVER FORGET OUR DUTY TO THE MEN WHOM WE WILL LEAD. MAY WE INSTILL IN THEM THE QUALITIES OF HONOR, INTEGRITY, AND DUTY.

REMAND US THAT WISDOM IS NOT GAINED IN AN HOUR, A DAY, OR A YEAR BUT THAT IT IS A PROCESS THAT CONTINUES ALL THE DAYS OF OUR LIVES.

GIVE US COURAGE, O LORD, IN THE FACE OF DANGER. KEEP US PURE IN HEART, CLEAN IN MIND, AND STRONG OF PURPOSE.

MAY YOU ALWAYS BE NEAR, TO GUIDE US IN OUR DECISIONS, COMFORT US IN OUR FAILURES, AND KEEP US HUMBLE IN OUR SUCCESSES.

WE ASK YOUR DIVINE BLESSINGS AS WE CONTINUE TO PREPARE FOR THE GREAT HONOR OF SERVING OUR COUNTRY.

WALK CLOSE TO US ALWAYS, OUR FATHER, THAT WE MAY NOT FAIL. AMEN

THE BEGINNING . . .

It doesn't take the new officer candidate very long to become familiarized with the Officer Candidate Program. The first day is regarded by many as "The Longest Day". As part of the transition, your insignias are removed. You are no longer CWO, Sergeant, PFC, but Candidate. In that first day you never thought you could be made to remember so much in so short a time, and Senior Candidates insure that you don't forget. From now on you're on the move.

... Those "Blues" were always there to assist us in everything with expertise ...

PHYSICAL COMBAT TRAINING

Stamina, endurance, aggressiveness are but a few of the qualities developed through the Physical Combat Training Program. Many hours are spent in the sawdust pit learning the finer points of hand to hand combat. On the bayonet field, practical exercise is performed with pugil sticks. The physical strength of one individual over another is not essential, but rather the finesse of executing correct offensive and defensive movements. The final graded test for endurance is the Physical Combat Proficiency Test. The physical training received by the officer candidate not only strengthens him physically, but also strengthens him mentally to better enable him to cope with the rigors of combat.

LEADERSHIP REACTION COURSE

... is a test of leadership potential and ingenuity. The Course is designed to require the Officer Candidate to exercise leadership traits in solving situational problems, thereby providing him and the instructor with a basis for identifying and improving his personality weaknesses.

Each Candidate is given the opportunity to be the leader of his team. He must analyze the situation, formulate plans, and then direct the accomplishment of his mission within a specified time.

The course involves land and water situations and there are times when the "most obvious ways" are "dampened . . ."

WEAPONS

As in any profession, the skilled worker has certain "tools of his trade". For the Infantryman the tools are many weapons which vary from small caliber to the larger sophisticated types. During weapons training the officer candidate learns not only how to fire, but the mechanical characteristics and capabilities of individual weapons as well.

Proficiency is the key to handling all weapons organic to Infantry units. As a potential platoon leader, the officer candidate must learn to operate and be able to teach his men the steps necessary to maintain proficiency. Without such knowledge the tools of combat are useless.

EXAMINATIONS

As in all fields of education, retention of knowledge is measured through examination. Exams are scheduled throughout the entire course with several unannounced quizzes. This is where daily study and class participation is necessary. The entire course comprises a 1,000 point grading system of which a student must attain a 700 point average.

Just as other fields of endeavor are becoming more and more demanding academically, so too is the Infantry Officer Candidate Program. With modern electronic equipment, examinations are graded instantaneously. The student finds himself competing against his classmates for both academic and leadership honors. No longer is the potential officer solely measured by leadership ability, but rather the balance of leadership and academics. A good leader must be able to think as well as lead.

MAINTENANCE

Peer under a hood, check water, battery, fan belt, fluid levels . . . these are steps learned in proper maintenance. As a platoon leader you may be responsible for the equipment.

Where to look, what to check, and how to inspect equipment is all taught in class. The students are then given vehicles to inspect for areas that do not measure up to standard, and record deficiencies noted.

COMMUNICATIONS

The backbone of the Infantry is communications. Essential to all operations is control, and without communication, control is impossible. Whether it be voice commands shouted from one position to another, a squad leader signalling his men, or transmission from the Company Commander to the platoon leader, communications is the connecting factor.

The Officer Candidate learns to operate many varied types of radio equipment both in the classroom and the field. These radios vary from the hand and shoulder carried radios to the larger vehicular mounted radios.

TACTICS

The primary mission of the Infantry Officer Candidate Course is to produce qualified Lieutenants of Infantry. To attain this goal over fifty percent of the Officer Candidate Program is devoted to combined arms tactics.

The basic rudiments of leadership from the smallest unit tactics, the rifle squad, to the larger company and Infantry Team Tactics, along with "School Solutions" are thoroughly discussed in classroom instruction followed by long hours of practical field exercise. The officer candidate is placed in tactical situations and given the opportunity to apply his knowledge of tactics. He soon learns that without a sound knowledge of Infantry tactics and proper utilization of supporting elements, the mission cannot be accomplished without the needless loss of lives and material.
