Safety Shows Improvement

There are probably few cities or towns in the United States these days that can make a boast like this: 50 per cent decrease in accidents in two months.

But that is one boast The Armored Center can make so far as the Transportation Office's assigned drivers are con-cerned. This week Mr. A. L. Perry, civilian assistant to Lt. Col. Henry M. Stiebel, post transportation officer, said that assigned driver personnel have completely cut in half the number of accidents involving government vehicles wolving government ventrees they drive in the past two months of record. These drivers, he said, include both civilians and military per-sonnel. Much of the credit for this favorable decline in acci-dents must go to the 40-hour driver's course and the personwho conduct that course, Mr Perry said.

But Mr. Perry pointed to other safety education factors cut accidents. In the Administra tive Motor Pool at the Armored Center, he said, First Lt. Robert L. Waters, motor pool officer, has had constructed a large sign. promoting safety and show-(Continued on Page 8)

DECOMPOSED BODY IS IDENTIFIED

The body discovered in a foxhole last Saturday by two rabbit-hunting soldiers has been identifled by a grief-stricken family as that of Mrs. Edna Iona Hall, 37, whose last known address was Vine Grove.

The discovery was made las Saturday afternoon by Sgt. Sol. Ruder and M/Sgt. James D. Moore as they were hunting on a training site near Tip Top. Their close examination of a filled-in foxhole revealed a human skull that first caught their attention as a gleaming white object, Military police were notified, and investigators, accompanied by a medical officer, dug up the body. Only bits of clothing and long, light brown hair gave evi-dence that the decomposed body was that of a woman.

"Goodbye, brother, and good luck." There was a click and then silence.

Maj. Michael J Lorenzo, signal corps advisor and liaison between the United Nations Ninth Corps and the famed Turkish Brigade, had gone off the air. His radio was silenced as a large Chinese force surrounded him and his small Turko-American unit in the narrow one-way mountain pass the Koreans called Tokchon-Kunuri.

The colorful Third Armored Division Honor Guard combined with 150 men from the 30th Tank Bn. to form one large honor guard for the special welcoming ceromony. They were commanded by Capt. J. W. Cochran of the 30th Tank Bn. A massed army band also joined in the ceremonies outside Post Headquarters.

On hand to greet Gen. Rogers, were Brig. Gen. R. L. Howez, 08-sistant commandant of The Armore C mored School, and Brig. Gen-John R. Beishline, deputy com-manding general of the Third Armored Division.

The welcoming troops stood at attention as the new division commander "trooped the line" at the special Armored Center re-

SPORTS

THE HOLIDAY SEASON all but Grew a final curtain on the collegiate and professional football season with only the Senior Bowl and the Pro-Bowl tills left on tap. The usual long season, stretching out since last August, culminated in a series of rather disappointing out since list August, culminated in a series of rather disappointing contests on New Year's Day which saw the Rose Bowl as the only really fast moving and exciting game. Oklahoma and Maryland proved the disappointment of the day with an altogether dull game as many who viewed over TV will agree. Georgia Tech and West Virginia were poorly matched in the Sugar Bowl and Rice had an easy go in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. Even the pro championship ame between the Detroit Lions and Cleveland Browns wasn't quite up to the caliber of a pro title tilt even though the final count was 17-16. This, however, was due to a soggy, field and a slippery ball aused by a thawing grid-iron.

Tennis stars, left to right, Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas, U.S. team; Ken Rosewall and Lewis Hoad. Australian team, were the principals in the Davis Cup playoffs held in Melbourne. Australia.

WAIT 'TILL NEXT YEAR is all we can say about our Davis Cup tennis aspirations. It was closer this year than in any of the preceding three years but the 3-2 win by the Aussies still retained their hold on the coveted cup. They didn't win before a good fight though as the American contigent grabbed an early 2-1 lead with two singles matches left but Tony Trabert was hampered by rain and Vic Seixas was pretty well off form.

TRIVIA FROM THE SPORTS WORLD: Junior Gilliam is the

He follows pitchers Don Black and Don Newcombe who, incidently, will be back with the Brooks this spring following a two year hitch in the employ of Uncle Sam . . . The football "powers to be" may pass a rule designed to eliminate the phony injury play which Notre Dame was suspected of using in the Iowa 14-14 tie. It just goes to show the strength of publicity. The feigning of an injury to stop the clock in the closing moments of the half has been going on among the pros-collegians and prep gridsters ever since the game began . . . OPEN LETTER TO ALL FORT KNOX PERSONNEL

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all of our customers, both old and new, who have patronized us during our first year in business in 1953. We are, indeed grateful for your consistent visits, which indicates the faith which you have placed in us. It has been a pleasure to see your faces week after week and it indicates to us that you are pleased with our efforts and the merchandise which we are offering. After all, this is the only sure way we have of knowing whether or not you are satisfied.

In addition to showing our appreciation by saving you money in 1954, we resolve to put forth a greater effort and strive to make available to the people of Fort Knox as many unal and practical articles as we can possibly gather in our nation-wide search for quality merchandise that can be sold to you at a real savings.

TRASH & TREASURES has gained the name of being the most unusual store in the nation, not because it is actually unusual, but because of the wide variety of unusual and attractive merchandise that is not normally available and accessible to regular retail outlets. As the year 1954 progresses, you will find this increasingly true.

We continue to solicit your patronage and want you to feel more than ever that you will always be welcome. We will continue to maintain our policy for "100% Satisfaction or Your Money Refunded." Visit us often. We assure you that your trip will pay for itself.

YOURS FOR A PROSPEROUS 1954.

Many Enroll In Mother And Baby Care Classes

Mrs. Marian Reedy, Chairman of Home Nursing, has announced that classes in Mother and Baby Care have nearly reached their enrollment.

The classes, which will begin January 12th and meet twice weekly on Tuesdays and Thursdays for a period of three weeks, are designed to bring practical knowledge in the care of new babies to new mothers and fathers. Volunteer registered nurses will instruct the classes in a special classroom at the Old Cantonment Hospital

Mrs. Reedy has announced that several fathers have enrolled in the evening classes, which meet from 7 to 9 p.m. The morning classes are from 9 to 11 a.m.

New School To Bear Name of Marine Pfc. Leonard Ray Stevens

The newest addition to The Armored Center school system has been named for a Marine. Stevens School located north of Prichard Place and west W, bears the name of Pfc. Leonard Ray Stevens, USMC, who was killed in action in Korea nore than a year, ago. The School will be dedicated in 11 o'clock ceremonies Friday morning, Janary 22nd.

Pfc. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stevens of Ft. Knox, received most of his education in the Ft. Knox schools. He enrolled in the sixth grade here in 1944, and was a Ft. Knox student until his graduation from the Ft. Knox High School on June 5.

He enlisted in the Marine Corps on August 31, 1951, and was serning with the 1st Marine Division when he was killed in action on October 3, 1952.

Pfc. Stevens' father is a civilian employee in Post Ordnance The eleven classroom school built to house comfortably 333 pupils, will accomodate children from kindergarten age through the 4th grade who reside in Gaffey Heights and Prichard Place. NEARLY 1700 MEMBERS ENROLLED IN LOCAL CHAPTER OF PTA; SECOND LARGEST IN STATE OF KENTUCKY

The new year will bring forth a concerted effort by officers of the local chapter of the Parent Teachers Association to further inthe already large enrollment in the association, according to Lt. Col. Albin F. Izryk, chapter president.

At the beginning of the school year the association set for a 200% membership goal. In computing membership rolls, membership" is interpreted to mean that each child is represented in PTA by one parent. Thus far, although the membership is the largest in the history of the Fort Knox Chapter, it is still a considererable distance from its goal

Last year the membership to toled 1510 members. This was the largest enrollment until this year The 1510 members made the Fort Knox Chapter the second largest n the State of Kentucky.

In November of this year, when the initial report went in to State and National Headquarters, the membership of the Fort Knox Chapter was 1636 members. Since hen this figure has risen to almost 1700. With approximately 2000 children enrolled, to reach a 200% membership goal the association must register nearly 4000 mem bers.

In an effort to boost member ship a reminder will be sent early in January to each parent who is still not a member.

Four classes already have enrolled 200% of its parents.

Thus far this year a trem amount of interest has been shown in the P.T.A. Meetings have been held in Sadowski Field House. At the opening meeting approximately 900 attended. This meeting was followed by a vitally interesting panel discussion in October mon itored by Brigadier General John Beishline on school children and problems in the classroom. Another successful meeting was held in November, featured by a panel discussion on water fluoridation as which time the P.T.A. formally endorsed this program.

The January meeting will be held on January 25th. Full par-ticulars of this meeting will be published well in advance of the meeting.

A CCR Wives Luncheon will be held at the 3rd Armored Club on January 14th. It will begin at 12:30. Reservations can be made by calling Mrs. W. S. Walker, at 23194. Please make your reservations no later than January 11th.

THE instant you see these 1954 Buicks, you'll know that something sensational has happened in automobile styling.

Here is vastly more than the usual model changeover. Here is vastly more than could be done just by warming over what Buick had before. Here is something accomplished by going far beyond artful face-lifting.

Here is that rarity of rarities—a completely new line of automobiles.

But Buick didn't stop with the bolder, fresher, swifter-lined beauty you see in raised and lengthened fender sweep—in the huge and back-swept expanse of windshield—in the lowered roofline—in the host more glamor features of exterior modernity.

They upped all horsepowers to the highest in Buick history.

They engineered a new V8 for the SPECIAL — and in the process came up with new Power-Head Pistons that boost gasoline mileage in every engine.

BUICK the beautiful buy

They brought to market a sparkling newcomer with a famous name, the Buick CENTURY—a car with phenomenal horsepower for its weight and price—a car with more pure thrill per dollar than any Buick ever built.

And they did all this without change of the price structure which, for years, has made Buick the most popular car at its price in the world.

We invite you to come in and inspect these great beauties, these great performers, these great buys. Then you'll see why the Detroit previewers are already saying, "Buick's the beautiful buy!"

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them the homeless children. The main hospital and orphanage is located on the Chun-chon Road on the outskirts of Seoul. The hospital is the receiving station for the orphans who are given a thorough medical check-up and medical attention if necessary. The hospital cares for 50-75 children.

Two miles up the road from the medical center is the main or-phanage which houses about 300 youngsters ranging in age from infancy to early teen age years. The second orphanage is located in Pusan caring for a slightly smaller number of children.

Rue is aided greatly by his wife, a trained nurse, as well as a staff of Koreans who display the same well-ordered efficiency to be found in a properly organized hospital in the U.S.

It is not unusual to find several of the homeless children gracing the Rue residence since the Doctor and his wife hold to the theory that love and attention is the greatest need for most of the members of their large "family.

Although supported by contri-butions from the United States many additions to the Seoul and Pusan facilities have been developed through Dr Rue's own personal efforts. The war has caused an increase in the number of par-entless and homeless children, many of whom are alone because their parents had the courage to resist Communist invaders.

Items of all kinds are needed .by Dr. Rue and his associates. Clothing, needles, pins, yardgoods, linens, toys, shoes, powdered eggs —almost every kind of useable items that can be used directly or traded for valuable materials urgently needed. Even torn

Safety Sign Made

The sign alone shows pictures of past accidents where the vehicle involved was severely damaged. "Be Con-structive, Not De-structive" is the theme on the large sign. Such safety slogans, the driver's course and the extensive safety program we're conducting at the Armored Center will help to cut accidents and save money and lives, Mr. Perry said honefully.

Army's New Stove Weighs 20 Ounces Costs Only $4.75

WASHINGTON-The cooking with gas on a little one-burner stove that has saved the American taxpayer $1,500,000(M) during the past two years.

Developed by the Army Quartermaster Corps for use by combat soldiers in heating rations, beverages, and water, this small gasoline cooking stove was used extensively in Korea.

It was found to be so much better than its predecessor that the Army decided to procure it in quantity. During the past two years, more than 322,000 new-type single-burner stoves were bought at an average cost of $4.75 each. Had the older-type stove been purchased during this perithe cost would have been $9.95 each.

Not only is the new-type stove cheaper to produce, but it also weighs less, has a much longer life, produces 35 per cent more heat, and is easier to operate than its predecessor.

The new stove weighs 20 ounces, just one-half the weight of the World War II model. It is made of carbon steel and produces 5,500 British thermal units hour as compared with the per nour as compared with the old-type stove made chiefly of stainless steel which put out 4,000 BTU's per hour. The new one-burner also has other advantages. It uses fewer parts, generates easily-even in temperatures as low as 67 degrees below zero—and is designed so that it may be operated by a sol-dier wearing heavy Arctic mit-

Cooking with gas on this little one-burner has proved to be popular with soldiers in the field.

Soldiers Learn To Climb Icv Austrian Peaks

(AFPS)

SALZBURG, Austria-Picking 'em up and laying 'em down is old stuff to men in the Army, but for a select group of soldiers here at the Mountain Training Center, the routine has taken on High on a mountain range near here, small groups of soldiers are climbing up and down cold, stippery mountains of ice. As students of one of the Army's most novel and experimental schools, they are becoming specin the art of glacier climbing.

A small tent village just below the timberline of one of the high-est mountains in the Leferer Steinberge range deep in Austria has become "home" and classroom for these men. Here, for 14 days, they learn how to handle themselves in terrain that some day might have to be defended against communist aggression. Along with other men who will receive this training, these gla-cier-climbing soldiers are forming a small nucleus of available alists for military operations and tactics in such terrain.

"STRAIGHT FROM THE CENTER'

Thousands of men have been discharged from active duty once, many twice, but few have been released three times by the age of 17. As you may suspect, there is such an individual at the Personnel Center, answering to the name of Pvt. Harry C. Maynard.

Pvt. Maynard RA 15 481 875 joined the 468th FA, Sv. Btry. of the National Guard when he was 13, at Williamson, West Va. Pvt. Maynard was in the National Guard 16 months and seven days on active duty. At the end of that time he transferred into the that time he transferred into line Regular Army and was sent to Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky where he completed basic train-ing. Near the completion of his Basic, the Superintendent of Schools of Pike County notified the Commanding General at Camp Breckinridge of Pvt. Maynard's true age which at this time was was then discharged on 22 July 1952

On the seventh day of January 1953 Pvt. Maynard once again slipped past the enlistment officials and returned to active duty.

This time he escaped detection for one month and twenty six days which were spent at Ft. Meade, Md. At the end of this time, hav-ing been read the Articles of War. especially those relevant to froudulent enlistment, Pvt. Maynard confessed to the post officials at Ft. Meade. This time he was discharged the second of March 1953 at the age of sixteen.

Backing up claims that Pvt. Maynard made after his last discharge, he has once again re-turned to active duty by enlist-ing on the 18th day of December 1953, his 17th birthday.

Talk about your RA's, here is one from the word go. Pvt. May-nard is now starting on a six is now starting on a six enlistment. Counting all National Guard service, Reserve service and active duty, Pvt. Maynard has some 32 months of duty.

So far as he anticipates now, vt. Maynard plans to go to Pvt leadership school and, eventual-ly, Officers Candidate School. Here's hoping he'll be old enough then.

3rd QM Man Invents "Wake-Up" Machine

A GI "Goldberg", Pfc. Roy Luoma, points with pride these cold mornings to his recent invention, rumored to be the great-est thing since the yoyo.

With winter here, Pfc. Luoma, parts man at the 3rd QM Bn. Drivers' School, decided that something should be done to make it easier to get out of the sack on a cold morning. Putting his ingenuity to work, he rigged up a "wake-up" machine that would put Rube Goldberg to shame. When the alarm clock

Special Services on Safari -- Or So Show To Show Soon

The big musical variety show, sponsored by the 3d Armored Division Special Services, has been pushed back a week and will be held Thursday evening, January 21, instead of the 14th as was previously announced. The eagerly awaited entertainment extravaganza will be held in Sadowski Field House.

The later date, it was explained by the Special Services personnel who are busily rounding out preparations for the show, will enable Painers from Louisville and afford the many persons connected with the show additional time to in-sure its success.

The show's predecessor, "Hi-Tankers," was a rollicking hit, and to top it Special Services is going all the way-all the way, in fact, to the jungle.

Tentatively named "Follies of 1954" the show's story line involves a lion tamer and a circus clown who, in preparing for their last show of the season, take off into the wilds of Africa on a safari to capture animals. What happens to the two circus men should happen to them and certainly will if everything goes as planned with the smoke effects, lighting tricks and the numerous gimmicks designed for the occas -sion.

Girl Burned Alive

Four large production number: are incorporated into the happen ings, all of which include beautiful dancing girls, beautiful scenery and more beautiful dancing girls. One of the girls is doomed to be burned alive in the last number. Her fate, however, depends on the Special Service incendiary wizzards who haven't yet come up with an agreeable (to her) solution as to how it's to be done.

Good time to look both ways!

Along about now Southern Bell folks like to look back at the year's record of telephone growth, and ahead toward our job of providing more and better service for Kentucky.

1953

More than 18,000 new telephones were added, making a total of about 372,000 in the state. Large amounts of cable. central office and other equipment were provided.

1954

Wherever you look, Kentucky is moving ahead. This means another busy year for us-building to meet continuing telephone needs.

To get investors to supply the money to continue expanding and improving telephone service requires a fair profit on the money already ed in telephone equipment.

So what if you want to go to town, play bridge or just get 'em out of your way for a while? Or maybe you'd just like to let your offspring get the benefits of working in a group with other children and learning a few fundamentals before they start in to kindergarten.

Anyway, just to find out what The Armored Center furnished for years of age, I visited the Ft. Knox Nursery School the other day. And here's what I found.

Now, I've seen Nursery Schools before. As a matter of fact, I can still remember when I went to one. The teachers'll probably never forget it either. But you don't find any wild, "holy terror" scooting around the Ft. Knox Nursery School. And I could readily see why.

Miss Brown Leaves As Post Librarian

Miss Betsy Brown, staff librarian for The Armored Center Spe-cial Services libraries, left Fort Knox this week to begin new du-ties as librarian at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Downev. Ill., near Fort Sheridan, Miss Brown came to Fort Knox s post librarian in July of 1951. During that period, the Special Services library system was cited by Department of Army for its "outstanding" publicity program, and Miss Brown served as an officer of the Kentucky State Li-brarians Association.

The former post librarian served in Germany with Special Services from November 1948 to March 1951. Prior to that she was children's librarian at the Youngstown. Ohio public library.

Sadowski To Be Setting for 'Hamp' & Band

Lionel Hampton, "King of the Vibes" will bring his world famed orchestra to Sadowski Field House for a two-hour show-Thursday, Jan. 21, Lt. Col. Edmond Padgett, The Armored Center Special Services Officer, announced today.

For the past decade-and-a-half,

Hampton has been rated as one of the world's outstanding entertainment attractions, winning countless popularity polls and playing to capacity crowds wherever his big band traveled. He will bring with him to Ft. Knox, a 16-piece aggregation that features some of the outstanding side-men in the musical world today.

The two-hour program will be gin at 7:30 Thursday evening, and will be open to all Fort Knox personnel. Special seating arrangement?s will be made for the program, which is expected to draw large audience, Col. Padgett

Hampton has recorded more than 100 records for Victor, Decca and MGM and has "Flying Home," to his credit, one of the all-time to his credit, one of the all-time best sellers in record history. "Hamp's Boogie" and "Heh! Ba-Ba-Re-Bop" are also well estab-lished hits to the "Hamp's" credit.

The popular band leader recently returned from a tour of Europe, which was hailed as a smash success by critics o fthe countries visited. A leader in the "bop" trend, Hampton has been able to incorporate the newest innovations of modern music into his established repertoire of "big band" iszz.

A native of Louisville, Hampton vibra-harp to front the band in its appearance at Sadowski.

Several thousand years before wrote: "A star shall rise out of video and a sceptre shall spring tion Office, telephone 28282, to up from Iracal." The evangelist, Matthew, related the fulfillment of that prophecy: "We have seen his star out in the East and the star out in the star out in the star out in the star out of the star his star out in the East, and we have come to worship him." The Gospel calls the men who followed the star, wise men. They were wise with a greater understanding a higher wisdom. They had be-lieved the word of the prophet and trustingly awaited the coming of the star. So when it came, they were not surprised or puzzled, but simply followed it. If they had not been supernaturally wise. but merely scientifically learned, they might have investigated the appearance of the star astronomically and written a book or two about it. And their learning would be buried with them. However, since they believed, wheresoever the gospel is preached, their memory is also preserved and the story of what they have done is told.

To every man comes the star of heavenly enlightment. Only a small proportion rise up and follow the call. Most men are sad when they see the star. They see the beauty of the star, but have not the courage to follow it; they glue their eyes to the earth and continue to grovel in the dust.

LT. WADDELL, MISS DUGGAN WED IN NEW JERSEY CEREMONY JAN. 2nd

The First Presbyterian Church in Merchantville, New Jersey, was the scene of the wedding of 1st Lt. Thomas King Waddell, son of Mrs. Irma Van Deren, Tucson, Arizona, and Miss Mary Ryan Duggan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Duggan of Merchantville. Rev. A. R. Kurtz, USNR, performed the double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of January 2nd.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white lace and nylon tulle for her wedding. The gown had a white white face and nylon tune for her weathing. The gown had a white lace fitted bodice with Peter Pan collar, long pointed sleeves, and the skirt was designed with three tiers of crystal pleated nylon tulle. Her finger tip veil fell from a bonnet of pleated tulle. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid.

1-Night Performance Wednesday, Jan. 20 On Sadowski Stage

By Nick Flocos

Next Wednesday evening at 8:30 there will be a big show at Sadowski Field House (The preceding sentence may prove to be the understatement of 1954.)

The show is the entertainment extravaganza to be proudly presented — rather unleashed — Jan. 20 by 3d Armored Division Special Services.

The name of the extravaganza "Follies of 1954." Technically, it's to be a musical variety show. Actually, from all indications, it's going to be a "lollopa-

The assignment marks the general's first stateside duty since returning from Korca. He headed the KMAG from May 15, 1953, until October, after a month's scrvice as Deputy Chief.

Gen. Rogers succeeds Maj. Gen. R. W. Stephens who left last week to assume command of the 47th Infantry Division at Camp Rucker, Ala. The two men were classmates at the United States Military Academy from which Gen. Rogers received his commission as a second lieutenant of Cavalry in 1924.

Gen. Rogers' first assignment was as a Cavalry troop commander in the 1st Cavalry Regiment. In 1928 he attended the Cavalry School at Ft. Rilev. Kansas, and was graduated from both the regular and advanced equitation classes. In 1930 he was a member of the Olympie Horse Show Team.

.. Honored for New Guinea Action

Following troop duty in the 10th and 2nd Cavalry Regiments, Gen. Rogers attended the Army's Command General Staff School from 1938-39. Upon graduation, he was assigned to the Sixth Cavalry at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., where he served as a troop and squadron commander. In February, 1942, he joined the 3rd Cavalry Regiment

Two categories of decorations have been established: those decment and those decorations awarded for heroism. While most decorations are awarded for one or the other distinct purpose, the Distinguished - Flying Cross and the Bronze Star Medal may be won for either reason.

MEDAL OF HONOR

The Medal of Honor, the highest and most rarely awarded decoration conferred by the United States, was established by Act of Congress in 1862. It is awarded in the name of Congress to each person who, "while an officer, noncommissioned officer or private of the Army," who in action involving actual conflict with an enemy distinguished himself conspicuously by gallandistinguished try and intrepidity at the risk of his life and above and beyond the call of duty.

In order to justify an award of the Medal of Honor, the in-dividual must perform in action a deed of personal bravery or self-sacrifice above and beyond the call of duty, so conspicuous as clearly to distinguish him for gallantry and intrepidity above his comrades, involving risk of life or the performance of more than ordinarily hazardous service. the omission of which would not justly subject him to censure as for shortcomings or failure in the performance of his duty. The recommendations for the decora-tion will be judged by this standard of extraordinary merit, and incontestable proof of the performance will be exacted.

The Medal of Honor is a fivepointed star, surrounded by a laurel wreath, suspended from a bronze bar bearing the in-scription, "For Valor," and sur-mounted by an eagle. In the center of the star is a head of Min-erva, encircled by the inscrip-tion, "United States of America." On the reverse of the medal are engraved the grade, name, and engraved the grade, name, and organization of the recipient, with the place and date of the act for which the award was granted. The ribbon is light blue, with 13 white stars.

Whenever practicable, the recipient of this decoration is or-dered to Washington, and the presentation made by the Presi-dent or by the Secretary of the Army or an officer designated

The stunning new 1954 Buick SUPER Riviera, me

One look settles it-

Buy of the year is BUICK

TE knew them for great automobiles the moment we saw them.

But it turns out we have a far bigger hit on our hands in the new 1954 Buicks than we ever figured.

Folks in a steady stream come into our showroom, look over these glamorous new beauties, and tell us-with signed orders-that Buick's really the beautiful buy, hands down.

It's the biggest new-car excitement in a long, long time-and you ought to take a look at it, firsthand.

Because one look at the sensational new styling of these breath-taking Buicks shows them to be the freshest new automobiles in years.

One look into the modern interiorsand through that spectacular new back-swept windshield - firms the conviction.

One look at the new V8 power story, the new ride story, the new handlingease story-practically wraps up the

And then, one look at the prices-one eye-opening experience with the

1953 Safety Record Ends on Happy Note

3d Armored Division members enjoyed one of the safest and sanest holiday periods ever, according to an announcement last week by Lt. Ralph Taylor, As-sistant Division Safety Officer.

Despite the large number of Spearheaders who drove long distances over the 2-week period, only two private motor vehicle accidents were reported, Lt. Taylor said.

According to the lieutenant, such off-post auto accidents were the largest cause of death and disabling injuries to Spearheaders during 1953. Driving too far on weekend passes was the usual reason for these mishaps, he said.

Eleven Division members were killed in private auto accidents off-duty and off-post during last year, and more than ninety Spearheaders were disabled by such mishaps.

On the other hand, Lt. Taylor said, training accidents within the Division produced only five deaths during 1953.

Place Tie With Woltz

The Hoffmans regained their first place tie with Woltz Studio by whipping Banks & Banks 4-0 while Woltz could do no better than 3-1 against Roy West Motors.

Kaglin paced the Hoffmans with a 225-553 while Burns rolled a 206-546 for the losers.

Anderson Holds Third

Woltz was paced by the 571 series Les Unerstall' and Walt Leopards 544. Burbin and Kozlowski topped the losers with a 554 and 542.

The golffers from Anderson squeezed through to take three from New Dixie: the difference of 19 pins being the factor for the 3rd point on total pin fall. "Spud" Rawlings had a 584 for Anderson Rawlings had a 584 for Anderson with Smith hitting a 542 for the losers. Honeycutt New Dixie's unchor man shared the shot of the night picking up a 5-7 spare as did Anderson's Baumbach.

Hardin Furniture moved out of the cellar by scoring a 4-0 upset over Fehrs Beer. Horvath of the Hardins has served notice that his team will be mighty tough from here on in. Garrison scored a 224-591 for the former cellar dwellers aided by Horvaths 548.

Greens Retain Eighth

Greens Cleaners hung on to eighth place taking three from Craddocks Garage. Brown of Craddocks was high man with a 241-550. After starting his third game spun seven consecutive strikes, Brown caught an 8-10 split in the 10th to deprive him of Hempel's 260 high game mark. Peterson rolling with the Greens picked up the difficult 2-4-10 split

"Destination Korea"

"Destination Korea" Dubbed by its initiators, the campaign began as an idea to furnish clothing for orphans in Seoul and Pusan. From there it blossomed into a full-blown push to get clothes not only for the orphans but for adults who care for them as well. Other items like bedding, notions, yard goods, toys, etc were welcomed too

Originally, the drive was to end Saturday. But by press time, clothing was still pouring into the Public Information Office, central collecting point for the drive on post. However, the va-rious chapels on post will also take packages that anyone may want to donate.

Saturday afternoon found full crew of regular and volun-teer personnel sorting and packaging the literally hundreds of items that came flowing into the Public Information Office. Be-cause of the enthusiastic and generous response of Ft. Knox people, the Public Information Office in the basement of wing A. Headquarters Annex, still is accepting packages.

Mrs. Nordholm Renders Own Compositions At Music Guild Meeting

The Music Guild met Tuesday evening, January 12th, at the home of Mrs. Mary Walker. Betty Swift, Betty Moffet, and Bobbie Brown were hostesses.

A most enjoyable program was presented during the evening. Carmen Swartz rendered several numbers by Albeniz, Liszt, and Chopin, Betty Nordholm, assisted by her daughter Diane, entertained with several selections from a play for which she had composed both words and music. The play was given as a community project in Yorkfield, Illinois recently.

The Guild Chorus weelomes new members to its group. For information as to their activities, call Mrs. Walker at 5189.

WOMEN'S CLUB OFFERS VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES FOR ITS MEMBERS

By Babette vonHalban

On a post the size of Pt. Knox there is bound to be a periodic, nigh-mass turnover of families. During the past few months the incoming and outflowing exchange has resembled a tread-mill in a squirrel cage. For those with friends already situated here the challenge of getting ensconced and acquainted is not quite as harrowing as it is for those arriving "cold," and I use the word quite liberally these days.

The Women's Club of the Ft. Knox Officers' Mess is a growing and extremely nimble organization wherein imagination and varied interests are unleashed upon a wide scope of activities for the benefit of all its members and those who would like to join; either for the sport of it-all, the social contacts, or, to develop their intellectual or creative avocations.

The Special Interest Groups, sponsored by the Club, have been an outstanding success from both the standpoint of enthusiasm as well as individual accomplishments. To the stupefaction of many a lordly husband of late his ever-dutiful, seemingly-plain-vanilla hausfrau has suddenly blossomed forth with all due temperament becoming an artiste.

"Child Development" Theme Of Jan. 25 PTA Meeting

The Ft. Knox Parent Teachers Association will inaugurate its 1954 season with a regular monthly meeting to be held on Monday evening, January 25th, at 7:30 p.m. at Sadowski Field House. An interesting and well-balanced program has been planned to follow a brief business session. It is anticipated that the meeting will be informative, educational, and entertaining.

The theme of the meeting will be child development. A movie based on this theme and entitled "Preface to Life" will be shown. Following the movie there will be a talk by Capt. Joseph Cicerrella of the Pediatric Staff of the Ft. Knox Army Hospital.

The audience will be given an entertainment treat during the meeting. Both the rhythm band, consisting of approximately one hundred first and second grade tudents, and the Tonettes, consisting of fourth grade students, will perform.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

His favorite chair finally gives way to seasonal avior du poids or termites, as the case may be. Wifey now sallies to the rescue, don't worry, honey, I'll far it in the Furniture Repair Class—after I've made the bookshelves." Smitten speechlessiy asunder he gropes for a cigarette. The everpresent humidor wooden box has been replaced by a be-posied "do" in china. "Where did this perishable come from," thunders HE. "Oh, I whipped it up in Ceramics Class the other day." intil SHE.

With "The Way Of All Flesh" poised precariously over his shoulder he makes a final exasperated lunge. Our Barbara Fritchie (1984) heroically holds her withering own, "don't! I have to review it for the Literary Group." And so it goes, "War (or) Peace," those who join the Women's Club are unwittingly, defensively, pledged to self-expression.

The Music Group is ever-machodiously beseeching new voices to join their chorus. The Language classes, taught by linguistic experts in Spanish, German and Freuch, offer one of those particular assets no migratory army wife should be without. For those lashed to a litter the Knitting and Sewing classes are, needless to say, invaluable. Even a professional "Singer" course is available to these who bought one in flight and are still unable to disserve a bobbisted.

The techniques of Photography are a blessing in the dark room; with or without cumera. Swimming is an open-house affair, snugly under cover, in which free-style or expert instruction are a matter of personal choice. Lessons on Bridge for beginners or fiends are likewise available in its many variable forms. And, last, but far from least, the Dog Obedienee Classes have quite evoluted our local canine society within recent months. Anyone with stronger increnal fortitude than I may praetice on my obdurate quadruped tree of charge!

All neucomers interested in joining one or more of the Special Interest Courses may obtain further detailed information by calling Mrs, Greener: dial 33136. Those with interests other than special may fend for their own outlets at the next meeting of the Women's Club on February 5th.

Don't forget to make plans to attend the Ft. Knox Little Theater Group's presentation of "Ten Little Indians" Thursday, Feb. 4th, and Friday, Feb. 5th at 8:30 p.m. at Theater 1.

Bookmobile Changes Are Announced

Changes in The Armored Center Special Services Bookmobile schedule were annuonced this week by Miss Julia Trimble, librarian for the vehicle.

The schedule has been modified slightly in order to serve the maximum number of troops and dependents. Stops on Monday have been eliminated in order to allow are and maintenance of the huge "library on wheels" while the regular Friday visits to the Brick Hospital have been shifted,

Two weekly schedules are in operation on alternate weeks. On Tuesday, the schedule calls for a visit to the Brick Hosp, from 0900 to 1100 and the Rose Terrace area from one o'clock to four. On other days, places and times to be vis-ited are: Division Artillery PX, Wednesday, five o'clock to nine; Gaffey Heights one to four, and Service Club No. 4 five o'clock to nine, Thursday; and EM Trailer Court nine o'clock to 11, and Officers' Trailer Court one to four,

Friday.
On the following week, Brick Hospital 9 o'clock to 11 and Goldville, one o'clock to four Tuesday; Division Artillery PX, five to nine Wednesday; Wilson Road Quarters, one o'clock to four and Service Club No. 4 five o'clock to nine Thursday; and Prichard Place, one o'clock to four Friday.

Twenty-five special Christmas services were held in the five 3d Armored Division chapels during the recent holiday period, according to an announcement last week by Lt. Col. Henry L. Gillenwaters Division Chaplain.

More than 5.480 Spearheaders attended the special worship services, according to Col. Gillen-waters. "This does not account for the hundreds of men who, we believe, were in religious services planned by The Armored Center and in civilian communities while on leave," the chaplain said.

Maj. Charles J. McLaughlin assumed command of the 36th Ar-mored Infantry Bn., CCA, last last week, replacing Lt. Col. Char-les G. Turner who is attending the Associate Advanced Officer Course at The Armored School.

Maj. McLaughlin comes to the 3d Armored Division from The Armored Center Public Information Office where he was tempo-rarily assigned after completing the Associate Advanced Officer Course at The Armored School last August.

Prior to his coming to Ft. Knox he served in Europe with the 6th Armored Cavalry Regiment as the S-2 of the 1st Bn. and also as Athletic and Recreation Officer. During that tour of duty he attended the Intelligence School at Oberammergan, Germany.

During World War II, Maj. Mc-Laughlin was with the 12th Armored Division in Europe and saw action in three major campaigns. He wears the Silver and Bronze Stars in addition to other awards.

Armored Assoc. Meet Set

Many Armor "Greats" To Attend 65th Meeting

Gen. Charles L. Bolte, U. S. Army Vice Chief of Staff, today is scheduled to deliver the principal address at the 65th annual convention of the United States Armor Association being held at The Armored Center.

The general's speech will be one of the highlights of the day-long program of conferences and demonstrations.

Gen. Bolte's address comes at a time when reports from Gen. Bolte's address comes at a time when reports from Washington indicate that changes are in the offing concerning national defense plans. The formulation of military plans has been prominent among the Vice Chief's military duties in past years. He was the first chief of staff of the newly-established European Theater of Operations in England in 1942 and later joined Headquarters of the Army Ground Forces in the nation's capital

In July, 1944, Gen. Bolte took command of the 34th Division in Italy and directed its operations until World War II ended in the He returned to the Army Ground Forces as chief of staff, thence to director of Special Joint Planning Group, Washing-ton; Director of Plans and Operations Division, General Staff. Washington; Assistant Chief of Staff for Operations, and finally, Deputy Chief of Staff for Plans.

Just before being appointed to the job of Vice Chief of Staff, Bolte was commander of the Seventh Army in Europe.

Many of the men who will visit Ft. Knox today for the As-sociation meeting include some of this country's most distinguished soldiers of current years.

Among them is Lt. Gen. Willis D. Crittenberger (Ret.), current president of the Armor Association, whose first assignment with president of the present of the same time, an armored unit was at Pt. Knox in 1934 with the 1st Cavalry Education Center here announced (Mechanized). "There is no better insurance in my mind, than to have a prehensive savings plan which can be and is accomplished through Payroll Savings deductions," stated General Waters

The guest speaker was Mr. Ray Augustus, head of the Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Dept. in Kentucky. His office is located in Louisville, Mr. Augustus stressed the importance of the drive at The Armored Center. Last year was the biggest year for Bond sales since 1946, as there were purchases of $4,368,000,000, increasing the amount of bonds in circulation to 36 and a half billion dollars, which according to Augustus represents tremendous

SUBJECT: Savings Bond Drive

TO: Major Unit Commanders Fort Knox, Kentucky

- 1. This command plans to conduct a campaign to stimulate the purchase of United States Savings Bonds beginning 1 February 1954.

 This campaign will stress the purchase of bonds through the automatic Payroll Savings Plan by civilian and military personnel. Therefore, this campaign is a continuing process and not a one-time
- The dominant position of our country has been attained by our willingness to work, the utilization of our natural resources and the confidence to invest our wealth at home. It is now important to defend this position.
- Every Savings Bond purchased aids in the defense of our country and our standard of living. In addition it provides the pur-chaser with the means to defend his individual home and way of life. It occurs to me that each member of this command can well afford to buy a bond of the lowest denomination ($18.75) monthly.
- 4. All members of this command, both civilian and military, are urged to support this Savings Bond Drive wholeheartedly.

Wour New MILITARY LEADERS

Mai. Gen. Gordon B. Rogers, 3d Armored Division Commander, was born in Manchester, Tennes see, on August 22, 1901. He was graduated from the United States Military Academy and commis-sioned a Second Lieutenant of Cavalry on June 12, 1924. Gen. Rogers' first assignment was as a Cavalry troop commander in the 1st Cavalry Regiment. In 1928 he attended the Cavalry School at Ft. Riley, Kansas, and was graduated from both the regular and advanced equitation classes. In 1930 he was a member of the Olympic Horse Show Team.

Following troop duty in the 10th and 2nd Cavalry Regiments, Gen. Rogers attended the Army's Command General Staff School from 1938-39. Upon graduation, he was assigned to the Sixth Cavalry at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., where he served as a troop and squadron commander. In February, 1942, he joined the 3rd Cavalry Regimen (Continued on Page 3)

_Typing, French, Personnel agement, German and English are among the many courses offered. However, Education Cen ter authorities explained that at least 10 enlisted men must regis ter for a course, irregardless of the number of officers and civilians enrolled, before that course can be taught here. And these courses can count toward credit for Army officer college the two year college level, Credit earned in these courses would count in the 60 hours require ment for registration with the DA Corrdinator as outlined in DA Circular 109, dated 3 November. 1953.

However, officers who have attended certain army service schools may get certain credits for this purpose from successful completion of courses in these schools.

Each course in each school outlined in the circular is individually evaluated. But let's take a sample situation:

For a captain, for example, who received his commission from a ground forces OCS, the circular allows 12 hours of credit for advanced military science, plus five hours for business or-ganization and management. That's 17 hours credit just from going to OCS. If our imaginary captain successfully completes the General Education Development test for first year college, he receives another 24 hours. That totals 41 hours. Then, let's say he's a graduate of the Army Language School. That's another 12 hours of credit. New total: 53 hours. Then he comes to Ft. Knox and takes the Armored Officers Advanced Course and gets another 6 hours for more business organization and manage-ment. That brings him up to 59 hours of credit for the college evaluation program for officers. The required number of hours for such evaluation is only 60. The extra hour or hours, if he wished to take more college level work, can be worked out in correspondence courses, USAFI courses or courses taken at local universities or at a cooperative college

For nurses training, the army will allow 30 hours credit, plus 18 hours credit for the first, second and fourth parts of the GED this case the third part of the GED test is not applicable.

Each course an officer has taken while he's been in the Army has to be judged individ-ually. And the education advisors the education center recom-end that interested officers mend come to see them personally. The phone number to the education enter is 2-5165.

Interesting Cage Bill Scheduled at Gammon Tomorrow Night; All-Stars to Play Hanover Cooper Scores 28 To

SATURDAY EVENING WILL be a busy one at Gammon Field House with a good double header lined up by The Armored Center Special Services. In the feature game an 11 man Regimental allstar squad will tangle with Hanover College (Indiana) at 8:45 in what should prove to be a pretty good contest. The all stars were selected by vote of the eight Regimental A & R officers in the league last Monday.

GAINING UNANIMOUS CHOICE on the team were big Dan

Lewinski former star Notre Dame pivot man of CCA; Jim Paxson of DivArty and formerly a starter on the strong Dayton University team last year and Dave Torson, a Little All-American from South Dakota who plays at a guard spot for the Hospital. The fourth spot on the team went to Herb Klapp, formerly on the William & Mary squad who collected seven votes.

CCR CONTRIBUTED THREE stellar performers to the team including Bob Dowery, erstwhile Harlem Globe Trotter; Bill Brote-beck, Little All-American from Western Michigan and little Bobby Lee who played his college ball at Eastern Illinois State Teachers College. Add to this Bill Kemmeries of Student Regiment, Hugh Robbins and Ken Davis of the Medics and 3rd QM's James Ray and you have a very formidable outfit that is liable to give anybody a little trouble. This squad has height, speed, shooting ability and what more do you want.

THE ALL-STAR HANOVER tilt will be preceded by The Armored Center Non-Divisional Battalion League first round title game at seven o'clock. Here is another game that should prove to be a thriller. At the present time the quintet representing Hqs. Bn. 2128 looks like the team to beat following the upset of the Instructors Bn. Monday night by Food Service School.

THE HEADQUARTERS MEN seem to have everything but the kitchen sink in their roll as one of the powerful teams on post. They have two of TAC's leading scorers in guard Jim Flick former Wake Forest cage captain with a 22.6 average and Glen Anderson who has hit 20.3 points per contest. Rebounding falls into the hands of 6:6 Earl Haynes, 6:5 Forrest Borden and 6:1 Lyle Button who many observers feel is the teams best all-around performer. Other strength is added in the persons of Dick Carmichael, Bob Adams, George Ray, Jack Bodary and Gil Schneider. The team is coached by Din Cooper, one of last year's star performers at Knox who is disabled by a bad knee

THE INSTRUCTOR BATTALION team is coached by Lt. Col. Henry M. Byorum and has been outstanding until the upset Mon-The team has been paced by the Non-Divisional high scorer Sam Mitchell who has averaged 26.8 points per game in reg-ular season play. He has been aided greatly by teammates John Demsey, Don Duffy, Ray Brickman and Keith Eckhardt . . . surprising Food Service team has been paced by Don Cooper who has hit for 274 points this year.

Visit Vine Grove Tonight— EAGLES RIP E'TOWN CATHOLIC 72-52

The Ft. Knox Eagles rolled up their second 72 point total in seven days as they swamped Elizabethtown Catholic 72-52 at Gammon Field House last Friday night.

Obbie Fryxell had one of his better nights of the year as he the winners in their seventh win in 14 starts with a 29 point effort. This brought the junior forward's scoring average for the year up to a cool 19.7 per contest.

The game was actually a team fair with the Eagles breaking loose after a sluggish first half and a 29-27 lead at halftime sparked by the rebounding of big Bob Howey and Bill Luther and good team defensive play that limited the visitors to only nine points in the third period the Green & White piled up 22 counters.

Garry Perry played excellent defensive ball and scrapped his way to 15 points with Howey adding an even dozen before leaving the game on fouls. Luth-er, displaying his great competi-tive spirit, chipped in with three fielders and a charity toss to the winning effort.

Tough Game Tonight

Food Service Upsets Inst. Bn.

Snap Long Win Skein

Instructor Battalion's 14 - game win streak came ti an abrupt end Monday night at Gammon end Field House as Food Service up set the American League champions 77 to 65 in the opening game of the Non-Division Bat-talion League playoffs. Head-quarters Battalion, 2128th ASU, undefeated winners in the Na-tional circuit, copped their 15th in a row by dumping 784th ACW 62 to 42.

Finals Tomorrow

2128th and Food Service were scheduled to meet in the win-ners' round Wednesday evening while Instructors and the losers' bracket championship game is scheduled Saturday night at 7 o'clock at Gammon Field House. If an additional game is required in the double elimination tourney, it will be played at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Food Service led nearly all the way in its upset over Instructor Battalion as Dick Cooper, the winners' scoring ace, pitched in 28 points. Knox Men Compete In Golden Gloves 1954 Louisville Golden Gloves started on a somewhat sour note last Tuesday night, at least as far as Ft. Knox was concerned. Knox's two first-night participants, Pvt. Robert Red-man, 83rd Ord. Bn., and Pvt. Roosevelt Adams, 962nd Ord. Bn., both dropped their initial bouts, one by knockout, the other by decision.

Pvt. Redman, a middleweight weighing in at 159, put up a game fight against Johnny Austin, 156, but was definitely outclassed by his more experienced Louisville opponent. Redman went down from a hard right to the head at the end of the second round, and only the bell saved him from being the victim of a

The Ft. Knox Little Theater Group is in final rehearsal for its first presentation of the season, "Ten Little Indians." The play will be presented Thursday, February 4th, and Friday, February 5th, at 8:30 p. m. at Theater 1.

The play, which will star Capt. Philip Allen and Mrs. Charm Sorbello, was written by Agatha Christie. Every moment of the story lives up to the author's reputation for writing spine tingling drama.

Set on a lonely island off the coast of Devon, the plot revolves around ten Indian statuettes found on the fireplace mantel of an isolated country home. A nursery rhyme is embossed over nursery rhyme is embossed over the figures, telling how each little Indian met his death, "un-til there were none." Ten people, all strangers to each other, have been invited by a mysterious host to spend the weekend in this house, and it be-comes evident that there is a gruesome and fatal connection between their lives and the menacing figures of the "Ten Little Indians"

MP's START ON 14th

Feb. 1, 1941 is, by the calendar, only 13 years ago. But measured in miles and adventures and historic accomplishment, it curls like a thriller novel through war and peace, through the teeming streets of Shanghai and diplomatic salons

For the yellow-and-green-span-gled 701st Military Police Battalion the 13 years of the calendar are not enough to measure the 13 spectacular years of its brilliant history as the first military police organization. And it was just such a distinction that marked the birth of the 701st at Ft. Snelling, Minn. in those dawning days of this nation's pre-war mobilization.

But that was 13 years ago, Feb. 1941, when the 701st was activated, and each succeeding battalion birthday has seen its his-tory book grow with an active and often adventurous narrative.

It has served many state-side post and stations from Ft Snelling, Minn. to Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga.; from Ft. Belvoir, Va. to The Presidio of San Francisco. And as the Army grew and traveled to littleknown places to accomplish its mission, so grew the Military Police Corps and the 701st with it.

During World War II, the 701st served as a demonstration battalion for the Provost Marshal General's School, provided internal security for the Sixth Service Command, subdued the race riots in Detroit, meanwhile supplying cadre for other MP units throughout the Zone of Interior and overseas commands.

In 1945, the Commanding Gen eral of the Sixth Service Command awarded the battalion the Meritorious Service Plaque for outstanding performance of duty.

Such an award was a rare hon-or, and the 701st received it for the outstanding performance it gave at such crises as the Detroit Race Riots, the Chicago Strikes nd other special duties where it distinguished itself.

In August, 1945, the 701st pre-pared to go to the Pacific Theater of Operations. Before they could embark, however, the war ended After more garrison in the states, the 701st shipped out for exotic Shanghai. That was eight years ago, February, 1946.

The police problem facing the MPs in Shanghai was the type of mars in snangnai was the type or istuation for which a field manual hadn't been written. The crime and vice of the Orient, flavored with peppery intrigue and the mysteries of Eastern life, taxed and tested to the utmost the cool courage, and common sense of the men of the 701st MPs.

Such underworld operations as the widespread Black Market and the widespread Diack Maires and the theft of Military property were curbed sharply when the 701st took over. In addition, the battalion furnished security for the War Crimes Trials. They were also active in the evacuation of Peiping when that city fell to the Reds. Members of the battalion's company B, were once assigned to the Chinese interior to look for bodies of Americans killed during the war. Such searches were characterized by forays into jungle country and up mountain peaks, often towering 14,000 feet.

In 1949 the unit returned to the States. They furnished the honor guard for Gen. Douglas Mac-Arthur upon his return from the Far East and served in a similar capacity for the 1951 Pacific Pact Signing Ceremonies at the Presidio. San Francisco.

While at Ft. Knox, the battalion, now commanded by Lt. Col. Ar- regular Post MPs.

Joy and sorrow are both a part of man's life in this world. Tears and laughter are woven into the ery fabric of human life. In the gospel of John Jesus asks the weeping Mary, "Woman, why weepest thou?" Mary apparently was weeping because they had slain her Lord and she was sor-rowful. We read clsewhere in the Bible that Esau wept beacuse of a lost heritage: Delilah went because Samson would not tell her his secret; M aryMagdelene because of her sins; Peter because he had denied his Lord; and Jesus over a doomed city. Life is filled with sorrow and rejoicing. Laugh-

Silver Star The Silver Star was not instituted until 1935, but like the Distinguished-Service Cross and Distinguished-Service Medal, is retroactively awarded. It is granted to persons serving in any ca-pacity with the Army cited for allontry in action which does not warrant the ward of a Medal of Honor or the Distin-guished Service Cross.

The design is a silver star superimposed on a bronze star, the rays of the two coinciding. On the reverse is engraved the in-scription "For gallantry in action" and the name of the recipient. On the ribbon are stripes of blue, white, blue, white, red, white, blue, white and blue

After a full 23 years of Army service, the last three years of which were spent at Ft. Knox, M/Sgt. John A. "Mickey" Maguire is ready to quit his post as op erations sergeant at the 3d Armored Division G-3 section and ioin the retired ranks.

A combat record which included action in both Europe and the Pacific, an Infantry commission which took him to the grade of captain, an amateur and pro-fessional boxing career which brought him countless titles and honors - all of these have been a part of Sgt. Maguire's 23-year Army corees

He held a Hawaiian Depart-He held a Hawaiian Depart-ment boxing championship con-secutively from 1932 to 1937, moving from the junior light-weight class as he added pound-age. The sergeant possibly put his title on the line oftener than any other champion—he estimates he defended his crown at least once a month during that period.

"Mickey" represented the Ar-my in an International boxing tournament held in China in bouts to walk off with the junior lightweight championship of Northern China, The following year, he reached the semi-finals in the Olympic tryout at Chicago Returning to the states and Ft. Thomas, Ky.. in 1937, Sct. Ma-guire fought extensively in the 5th Corps Area and held Corpswide championships (welter and middle) in 1937, '38 and '39. ___

In the professional ring, from 1939 to 1942, he lost only one de cision in 60 middleweight bouts All-in-all—in both amateur and pro competition - the sergeant lost just six of his 150 bouts and was never knocked out. Approximately half his victories came by KO's, however.

"Mickey' was virtually a self-made boxer, usually serving as his own trainer and coach. At Ft. Thomas, however, he was tutored by Capt. George E. Decker, now Lt. Gen. Decker, Comptroller General of the United States Army.

Sgt Maguire became 2nd Lt.

Maguire upon graduation from The Infantry School at Ft. Ben-ning, Ga., in 1942. He immediately left for Europe as company commander of a rifle unit of the 86th Infantry Division. Following V-E Day the 86th finished out the war in the Pacific theater. Sgt. Maguire wears the Bronze Star and Combat Infantryman's Badge among his decorations.

After a brief occupation as-signment in Japan, (then) Capt Maguire reverted to an inactive status as master sergeant and served as a recruiter in Cincinserved as a recruiter in Cinem-nati for three years. Capt. Maguire's next assignment was with G-3, The Armored Center. In July, he once again reverted to the rank of master sergeant for the purpose of retiring and was assigned to the Division G-3 section.

Sgt. Maguire has made his home in Rose Terrace for the past three years with his wife, Betty, and 14 - year - old son, "Mickey Jr." His retirement plans center about the establish-ment of a restaurant in Dayton

Spearhead Libraries Provide Home-Like Atmosphere

Poetry, Spillane and Kinsey Are Popular; NEW BOOKS Librarians Serve As 'Information, Please'

"A circulating library in a town," a writer of some past century said, "is as an evergreen tree of knowledge."

The 3d Armored Division has two such evergreen trees "standing

" in its own back yard.

Not Hush-Hush Places

They aren't hush-hush libraries in the tradition of maintaining absolute silence at all times—the kind of library where the thump-thump of the librarian's rubber stamp sounds. in the stillness of the place, like a regiment on the march. Whisperingquictness is out of style now-at least in progressive libraries like and Three. The librarians have been trained in modern library science, and they en-courage a talky atmosphere.

As Miss Nancy O'Hare, librar ian at Two, puts it: "We try to make the library seem as much like home as possible. With the comfort of our fireplace and those soft lounge chairs, talking in a normal voice should come natural. But some people come my desk and whisper as

Miss O'Hare, a graduate of the University of Kentucky where she majored in library science and worked in the campus library, has some interesting com-parisons to make on Army and college book borrowing. Soldiers, has noted, are much conscientions about getting books back on time than college students are, even though there are no fines charged here. "I guess the boys in the Army feel more grateful for the facilities of the library. In college the students take the library for granted and many abuse the privileges."

Spearheaders throughout the Division have about the nicest and most convenient library facil-ities you'll find anywhere.

visited The Armored Center last week, at least two of these lines crossed once again. The other man was Sgt. James D. Batton, field first sergeant of Co. C, 45th AMB. His story of their previous meeting is one not to be forgot-

It took place in the town of Taejon, Korea, during July, 1950 -the darkest days of the Korean conflict. Sgt. Batton was assigned to the 34th Regiment, 24th Infantry Division, and during the retreat campaign had served as a machine gunner, jeep driver, mechanic—in fact in any capacity that was called for.

Drove Three Days

When his unit entered Taejon, he was driving a teen for regimental headquarters, and on July 18, he took over as Gen. Dean's driver when the general's regu lar driver was wounded. He served in that capacity for three days and well remembers the

Sgt. Batton Escape

Sgt. Batton escaped with the last of the field artillery during the night the burning village finally fell. During the escape, the jeep in which the general had ridden was hit by a shell and demolished, Luckily, Battan was not in it at the time.

The chronicle of Gen. Dean's next three years is now known throughout the world. Sgt. Batton, on the other hand, returned to combat, and was wounded twice on Aug. 14th. He was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for his action during the fighting around Nous-Son.

After spending the next fifteen months in hospitals in Washington, D. C., Boston, Mass., Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., and here at Ft. Knox, Sgt. Batton returned to duty, serving with the 500th Car Company, Div. the 500th Car Company, Div. Trains and B-86th (now the 709th). He was assigned to the 45th last October.

Sgt. Batton is a native of Blandenboro, N. C., and he and

Heavy Drop in URI Over 52-53 Winter

The number of 3d Armored Diupper respiratory infection this year is greatly below last winter's figure, according to an an nouncement last week by the Division G-1 Section.

Vision G-1 Section.

During December, 1952, there were more than 250 Spearheaders hospitalized with URI every day for 27 consecutive days. The maximum number in the URI ward on any one day was 423 men

The peak of the infection this winter was reached on Jan 18 when 37 Division members were hospitalized by URI.

Although weather conditions greatly influence the number of cases, G-1 officials also cited greater watchfulness by commanders as one of the reasons for this winter's URI drop. Care has been taken throughout the Division in the erection and maintenance of "cough tents" and "sneeze sheets" between ad-

Kinsey Was Missing Mrs. Marjorie Giles, librarian

at Three who also worked at the U. of K. library, found that to be true too. She added that there are surprisingly few books stolen here, and when compared pro-portionately with the number of books lost in the university library, it can clearly be seen that a book of love poems which was the fast favorite of Spearheaders, has been among the missing since last September. It was checked out of Library Two but the borrower apparently became carried of any nature. away by the amorous rapture of the poetry, for neither the soldier nor the book has been seen since.

Another book was conspicuousabsent from shelf formations ly absent from shell formations at Library Three, It was — you might have guessed it—Kinsey's "Sexual Behavior in the Human Female." It mysteriously disappeared from the reserve bookshelf and then just as mysteriously appeared back on the shelf sev-eral weeks later, tattered, torn and virtually worn out.

"How the book came back, I n't know," Mrs. Giles redon't know," Mrs. Giles re-marked, "but whoever had it got quite a kick out of it, judging by the condition it came back in. We keep the book on reserve because if it gets into the barracks we might never see it again."

Love Poems Popular

Love poems get a big play from Spearheaders. Elizabeth Barrett Browning is one of the current big favorites. Kimball and Service also rank highly.

Miss O'Hare says the soldiers like to include poetry in their letters to sweethearts. Some soldiers seem so agonized when they write letters that Miss O'Hare has ordered a book which should help to lessen the pain. It's entitled: "How To Write Love Letters."

Mickey Spillane is popular in the fiction stacks. Not long ago, two novels by the mystery, sex and sadism specialist helped solve a local mystery. State Troopers found two Spillane novels in an automobile abandoned on Highway 31-W. The occasion for their gathering was the 65th Annual Meeting of the U. S. Armor Association last week here at Ft. Knox, the Home of Armor. The man to whom they turned their attention with rapt in-terest was the Vice Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, Gen. Charles L. Bolte who deliv-ered the main address of the conference.

Attacking rumors that descry the role of ground forces in an atomic age, Gen. Bolte said he knows of "no responsible official in our national governmen: who advocates the elimination of our Army or is unaware of its vital importance." Strong land, sea and air forces will continue to be the backbone of our defense program, he hoped.

UNITED STATES ARMY THE CHIEF OF STAFF

TO THE MEMBERS

OF THE UNITED STATES ARMOR ASSOCIATION

AT THEIR ANNUAL MEETING FORT KNOX, KENTUCKY, JANUARY 29, 1954

Because of the pressure of my duties. I am not able to be with you at your Annual Meeting, an event I was looking forward to with great pleasure. However, I extend to each of you my best wishes for your success and my appreciation for the enthusiasm and deep interest in your branch which is indicated by your pres-

The requirement upon all soldiers to master their profession always of fundamental importancehas gained new with the advent of new weapons and the resultant greater capawith the advent of new weapons and the resultant greater capa-bilities and responsibilities of the Army. Armor, with the improved tanks and other armament at its disposal, now has to a greater degree than ever before the characteristics of speed and shock action which have always distinguished it. Armor will, therefore, be a decisive force in any test of the future. Of greater importance than the quality of Army weapons, however, is the quality of our officers and non-commissioned officers and of the fighting men in the ranks. The increasing complexity of ground warfare and the greater demands that modern warfare makes upon the individual place upon the members of the Army the necessity for ever greater professional competence, increased devotion to the principles of duty and service, and higher dedica-tion to the ideals which have made our nation spiritually and morally strong and which have strengthened our Army throughout its long and glorious history.

I extend to all the members of the United States Armor Association my heartfelt congratulations for your many accomplishments. I am confident that from this meeting you will derive renewed inspiration and the determination to make the coming year the occasion for even greater achievements for Armor and for the Army as a whole.

Old Story, New Twist

"Oh, this doesn't pertain to me," is a natural trend of thought, but believe me, here is one story that is directed to every Mr. and Mrs. John Doe and family that has residence in this area.

Utility conservation is the subject. A subject on which rank or position holds no effect. Each and every person sharing the luxuries of modern day conveniences can pitch in and help cut expenses for the government as well as tremselves. Oh, you say this still doesn't pertain to you, well just read on a few more paragraphs.

Did you know that congress has cut operational monetary funds in an effort to, in turn, cut taxes? Well, they did. Did you also know that in the month of January, the use of electricity here was 18% greater than during the same month last year. Well, it was. Need I go into detail explaining what happens when you try to buy a $100 suit with $75. So, here's a go di tp to remember, that is if you don't want your electricity shut off. Turn off all unnecessary lighting, use only authorized wattage bulbs, and keep an eye open for wasteful practices around you.

Electricity isn't the only utility being wasted. Heating facilities are being misused, resulting in the waste of heat, and taxpayers money. Transportation should be shared by more persons, thus decreasing gas consumption. Paper is wasted daily by office personnel who use only one side of their scratch paper, wasting the other 50%, not to mention the unnecessarily deducts from your tax money.

Yes, surplus supplies are nice to have around, but someone else may need them more than you, so share them, and I'll bet you still come out ahead. Salvage all unserviceable items too, they can be repaired for much less than they can be replaced. This list could go on and on, yet it could not equal the waste we all see every day.

Well Mr. and Mrs. Doe. there's the situation. The "necessary Action" is all up to you. Why not be wise, and economize.

Special Services Makes Good Move: Second Army Tournament March 15-19

By Sid Pankin
THE REGIMENTAL AND Non-Divisional Battalion basketball leagues at The Armored Center have undergone changes as each begins a new round of play. The change in the regimental loop is minor one-it being the addition of a ninth team to the league with the appearance of a quintet representing CCR.

THE CHANGES IN the TAC battalion circuits are a little more revolutionary with the top four teams in the old American joining revolutionary with the top four teams in the old American joining the top best quartet to make up the National League while the remainder will compose the American This is a fine move by The Armored Center Special Services since it will afford better competition for the stronger teams and also make it more enjoyable for those units not being fortunate in having top flight material within their organizations. The stronger circuit will include the first round championship 2128th ASU team, runner-up Instructor Battalion, Food Service School, 701st MPs, 3rd Ordnance, 784th ACW, Army Medical Research Lab, and the 30th Tank Battalion. The American will be formed by AFF Bd. No. 2, 131st Tank Battalion, School Troops No. 1, Hospital 484th Engineers, 695th Armored Field Artillery Bat-talion and School Troops No. 2. Congratulations to TAC Special ervices for this wise move that has paved the way for a more favorable outlet for basketball playing soldiers.

THE SECOND ARMY basketball championships are scheduled THE SECOND ARMY basectoal championships are scheduled for March 15-19 at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md. From all appearances given off during the play of the post's three leagues Ft. Knox should be able to outfit a good representative to travel to Maryland next month. The winner of the tourney will travel to Ft. Lewis, Wash., for the All-Army Tournament.

A FT. KNOX BOXER has gained the semis in the Louisville Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament being run off in the city's Co-lumbia Gym. Nathaniel Ellison put on a very impressive demonstration as he cooled Billy Shepherd in 1:29 of the second round in their quarter final bout. A terrific body attack proved to be the de ciding factor that ended to Shepherd's "down-fall."

ne spirit of the "Lady with a Lamp" that for 53 years has thrown the light of mercy on bat-tlefields where U. S. troops have fought is nowhere exemplified more than in the person of Lt. Col. Edith Grimes, Chief Nurse of the U.S. Army Hospital here.

It has been almost eighteen years since Col. Grimes received her commission in the Nurse Corps. And in that time she has lived through some of the most thrilling, most rewarding, and most dramatic hours few women are ever privileged to encounter.

After a few assignments in the late 1930s at pleasant peacetime installations in Texas, California, and Indiana, she was given a coveted assignment: to one of the two hospitals then located on Bataan Peninsula, There, routine duty crupted into days of glory for the gallant band of Army Nurses who stayed at their posts until the night before Bataan's surrender in the early days of 1942. Then she and all other Army nurses stationed there at the were evacuated to Corregidor. On May 6, 1942, she and her sister purses, as well as troops on the island, surrendered to the Japanese.

The Japanese interned the nurses at Santo Tomas University in Manila, and there Col. Grimes remained until her liberation on February 3, 1945. During her years at Santo Tomas, she served as Monitor of Nurses (Continued on page two)

Fort Knox Scouts To Pass In Review At First Scout-o-Ree This Saturday

To the tune of a high stepping march, five hundred Scouts will march down the center aisle of Sadowski Field House this Saturday at 7 p.m for their first Scout-O-Ree. It will probably be the largest number of Scouts sponsored by one institution that ever participated in a program of this type together.

in a program of this type together.

A tableau formed by representatives of the Brownies, Cubs, Intermediate Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Senior Scouts and Explorer Scouts will be the first sight to great the spectators when the program begins. Much planning and practicing by the Scouts and their aders has gone into the program, and the skits and songs to be presented promise to be most enter taining. An all-Scout band will furnish music during the evening.

Lt. Col. Harry C. McClain, the Ft. Knox Institutional Representative, will welcome all Scouts, scouters and guests. He will also introduce Maj. Gen. John H. Col-lier, commanding general, The Armored Center, who will be on hand to inspect all scout units.

After the program, an oppor-tunity will be afforded all parents and guests to visit the many ex-hibits that are now in the process of being made by each of the o see a small part of what their boys and girls do at the regularly hedule i meetings.

This, of course, is only a small part of the many crafts, skills and high ideals that make up the wonderful program of Scouting at Ft. Knox, which owes to the many volunteer workers who give their wholehearted support to the Scouts.

The public is cordially invited to see their Ft. Knox Scouts in action.

ATTENTION ALL SCOUTS!!! In connection with Boy Scout Week, special sections will be reserved this weekend for all Scouts attending religious services on Scout Sabbath; at the 9:00 a.m. Mass at the Post Chapel; and at 11:00 Protestant services at the Post Chapel. All Scouts are requested to wear their uniforms

Number 1 In A Series Of "Scenic Kentucky"

This is the first in a series of trips that will be suggested by the TURRET for Ft. Know military and civilian personnel to aid in acqfainting them with Kentucky—its parks playgrounds, scenic beauty and history.

Because of the uncertainty of the winter weather the initial selection for this series will be a comparatively short one—one that will be very enjoyable for a drive on a Saturday afternoon or Sunday for the entire family.

of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. A picturesque place, it has many old Georgian colonial homes, reminders of its early cultural and political prominence. The town with a population of a little less than 4500 is located only 40 miles from here and 25 miles east of Elizabethtown on US 62.

The trip to Bardstown starts on 31-W heading south to E'town where a right turn at the junc-tion of Dixie and US 62 will back toward E'town and drive round the Circle with its many interesting shops and stores where merchandise of almost every na-ture can be bought. We then again come to US 62 and turn east on the way to Bardstown.

SERVING THE FORT KNOX AREA FOR 46 YEARS

Forty-six years ago Brown Brothers first started manufacturing ice cream in Hardin County. They immediately began servicing the town of Stithton where Fort Knox now stands. The present Post Chapel was nestled in the center of the Stithton residential area.

The Elizabethtown Ice & Ice Cream Co. sold their Brown's ice cream and ice to the surveyors when they began plotting the area that is now Fort Knox. And from that day on Brown's ice cream and ice have been delivered at Fort Knox by the Elizabethtown Ice & Ice Cream Co.

Claud Brown, one of the founders of the firm, and W. A. Brown, who now operates the business, take this means to express their appreciation for your patronage and acceptance of their products.

Even the price is sensational! only

As you look at it, you can see a lot of what makes this new 1954 Buick SPECIAL so sensational.

You can see the long, low, sleek and ultra-glamorous lines that add up to the biggest automotive styling change in years.

You can see the remarkable new windshield with the back-swept cornersgreatest visibility improvement since closed cars came on the market.

And of course you can see the pricethe local delivered price - which is headline news, too.

For that, as a shopping tour will tell you, is just a few dollars more than those of the so-called "low-price three."

But what you can't see is the rest of the sensational automobile that's yours for the low price shown here.

The spectacular power of this Special's brand-new V8 engine. The honest six-passenger roominess. The truly modern interior luxury. The superb new handling ease. The sublime comfort of Buick's famed Million Dollar Ride-now steadied even more by a newly developed front-end

Fact is, there's so much that's terrific about this new glamor car, you ought to drop in and give it a really thorough study and sampling.

That way you'll prove to yourself that the buy-and the thrill-of the year is Buick. Come in this week, won't you?

Today's good telephone service will be even better tomorrow thanks to the transistor, a tiny electronic marvel that would fit in a nutshell.

The transistor - invented by Bell System scientists can do the work of a vacuum tube used in telephone, radio and television equipment and many other things a vacuum tube can not do. It is so small and light, yet so strong and reliable, that it has been called the "mighty midget".

A miracle, yes - but only one of many Bell System advances along the road toward more and better telephone service. To bring these new advances and to keep service good and growing requires a fair profit on the money invested in telephone equipment.

Dedicated Feb 5 Former Federal Housing Administrator Wilson W. Wyatt Louisville, was master of cere-monies at the dedication of the 200-unit, ultra-modern, seven story Newgarden Apartments, the latest addition to the 170-unit Wherry Housing project for military and civilian personnel and their fam-lies stationed here. The formal dedication ceremonies were in the lobby of the new building Feb. 5.

Mr. Wyatt, who praised the de-velopment of the Wherry Housing rogram, called on Maj. Gen. John H. Collier, commanding general of the Armored Center, to present the keys to the apartment's first tenants. A green ribbon strung in front of the two self-service elevators in the lobby was cut by Mrs. Newgarden, widow of the late Maj. Gen. Paul W. Newgar-den, leader in the Armored Forces who was killed in a plane crash The building is named for Gen Newgarden

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ARMY NURSE CORPS

On the occasion of the 53rd anniversary of the establishment of the Army Nurse Corps I want to extend my heartiest congratulations to each of you.

Throughout the existence of your branch, you have performed service of the most outstanding nature. You have earned the admiration of the entire Army for your selfless devotion to the humanitarian tasks of healing. Wherever the Army's duty has taken it, from the tropics to the Arctic, you have gone too, for you are soldiers in the finest sense of that proud word.

I speak for all the men and women of the Army in voicing deep gratitude for your splendid work. I am confident that your future accomplishments will surpass even those now inscribed on the fine record of the Army Nurse Corps.

Sports Sidelines

Ellison, Chalapis to Chicago Golden Gloves; Duo Takes Light-heavy and Heavy Crowns

THE LOUISVILLE VERSION of the Golden Gloves Tournament wound up last Friday night with Fort Knox fighters taking top honors in the light-heavyweight and heavyweight divisions.

Pvt. Nathaniel Ellison scored a TKO over Louisville's "Golden James O'Keefe, in 57 seconds of the third round, and in doing so, he gave the local fight fans an exhibition of 2-handed punching power that will be remembered for a long time. O'Keefe a 16-year-old high school student, fought a game fight, but Ellison's ft hooks and right crosses were too much for the local favorite. Billison opened the third round by landing two terrific rights to O'Keefe's head, and the referee stopped the fight when he was no longer able to defend himself.

PVT. JOHN CHAPAPIS copped heavyweight honors when "Rocky" Thomas of Louisville failed to make an appearance. "Rocky" was sitting in the audience, and when asked why he t fighting, he said he had too mauch on his mind.

The next step up the ladder for the two Knox champions will next month's Golden Gloves match in Chicago.

In the lightweight division, the bout between Pvt. Anthony Clark of Ft. Knox and Danny Jones of Louisville once again proved that "you can't beat city hall." In all fairness, Jones fought an aggressive fight, and definitely won the second round.

ARK, HOWEVER, OUTPUNCHED, outmaneuvered and outclassed his younger opponent, piling up sufficient points in rounds 1 and 3 to win, in this reporter's opinion. It was close all the way, and Jones was given the nod in a split decision. A great my fans, some of them staunch Louisville rooters, felt differ-

The guns of the East and West Batteries of the New Jersey militia are the ancestors of the present 695th, and it was these units that blasted the proud British at Trenton, Monmouth and Princeton battlegrounds that are well-known to any child who reads about America's War for Independence

The famous "Whiskey Rebellion" in Pennsylvania was quelled by this same battalion in the first days of the young republic, and in 1812 their guns again answered His Majesty's Arms at the Battle of Paulus Hook. In the Civil War as part of the 1st Brigade, they joined the Army of the Potoma and fought so well in the battle for Richmond that Gen. Kearney was reported to have said that if there had been enough chickens and peach orchards for the mer to live by, the unit could have captured Richmond by themselves. The battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg found the crack cannoneers in the thick of the fight.

In the Mexican border campaigns in the early years of this century, the artillery men formed a Gatling Gun Company, and from this conflict came its crest and motto

It fought in World War I and as a token of the French influence added a Fleur de Lis to its crest It was a battalion of the 112th during World War II and afterwas designated the 695th AFA Bn. as it is known today As the 695th, it was formed by men who trained cadre. These men had served through five Eudennes Belgium Northern France and Central Europe

Countess Ghislaine d'Hotelans Makes TV Debut Tells of Maj. d'Hotelans PW Experience in WWII Bu Babette von Halban

The Etienne d'Hotelans are being kept at a klieg-lit canter these days, whether they like it or not. However, judging from their ever-prevailing poise and charm, they're apparently immune to the rufflings of spontaneous podium appearances. To wit: Mrs. d'Hotelans' recent debut on WHAS-TV.

Countess Ghislaine d'Hotelans

Interviewed by Marian Gifford, without benefit of script or re-nearsal, Mrs. d'Hotelans glided hearsal. charmingly through her role like a veteran actress, describing her life in France, her titled heritage, the vast contours family estates, and her heart - rendingly prolonged engagement to Major d'Hotelans

prior to their marriage in 1945. During the eight long years of their engagement Major d'Hotelans was a prisoner of the Ger-mans. With the aid of false identity papers, cleverly secreted within small gifts sent him by his fiancee (ie: a walnut shell broken and glued together again), he made several dramatic es-capes, on'y to be recaptured and transferred to more rugged confinements

His final apprehension threat-ened beheading should he be caught again in flight. Fortunately the end of the war precluded any further risk of his life. The d'Hotelans were married a month after the major's release.

In the interim years they have been fully preoccupied pursuing his career in the French army, and raising strapping small fry: five in all, the youngest of which was recently born at Fort Knox. where Major d'Hotelans is presently assigned as French liaison

Many lives are encumbered with rubbish that should be thrown into the wastebasket. The Apostle Paul writing to the church at Phillips exhorted them and us to lay aside every weight as well as the sin that besets our daily lives. We should throw away all worries. grudges, and resentments daily.

Past errors belong in the wastebasket. Everybody makes mis takes; hence the rubber eraser, the wastebasket's first cousin. There is said to be a man in Egypt who has not made an error in five thousand years; but during that time he has been in mummified form. The rest of us, who make errors, must learn to acknowledge them, to make appropriate restitution, and then, having learned our lesson, to consign our errors to the wastebasket.

The Anostle Paul gives us the perfect formula for the beginning of a new day, a new year, or o new life. TWO NEW NOVELS ON TAC SHELVES

Two outstanding new works dealing with the field of medicine, have been added to the shelves of The Armored Center Special Services libraries. The two books, which have been receiving "rave" have been receiving reviews in many national periodicals, are "Not As A Stranger" by Morton Thompson, and "The Doctor," by Andre Soubrian

The two novels, both almost nonumental in size, afford an interesting contrast in the outlooks of doctors in the United States and in France, for Thompson's As A Stranger" youth from the time he is six through every stage of medical training until he is a practicing physician in a small town in northeastern America, and Sou-brian traces the steps of a 17vest-old lad through pre-med and medical school until he begins his practice

egrettably, Morton Thompson died shortly after the completion huge novel for it is ob vious that he left much unsaid about his views on the medica profession. "Not As A Stranger" criticized in quarters as being almost too de-tailed in its medical descriptions. but it has been universally hailed one of the most frank and outspoken examinations of the medical profession's ethics, morals and motivations, ever written.

"From all reports I hear you're pretty nice," began Cpl. Dick Abbot, as he tried to wangle a date before a full house at Service Club No. 2's Blind Date Night.

"You do?" came the reply from the other side of an opaque screen.

Stammering most of the time, nine well-groomed sol-diers vied for an evening at the Blue Grass Room of the Brown Hotel in Louisville, and four lovely dates—well, per-haps only three lovely dates, and one interesting companion.

Placed in the club's Television Room, the men were ushered one by one to the stage where they were alloted five minutes to persuade an unknown voice to accept one of them as a date.

That was how the show was billed, but the way the audience saw it, the contestants approached the stage as though they were going on an extra detail instead of taking a chance on a date with all expenses paid.

The contestants spent the greater part of the first four minutes hemming and hawing, rubbing their hair cuts, and ended the last few seconds with . . . "I sure would like to take you to the Blue Grass Room".

young man, Redman, 83 Ord., knowing the young lady to be from Kentucky, kept talking about his horse and asking her about Kentucky horses, much to the delght of the crowd.

The first three young ladies, Misses Dorothy Thomas, Eliza-bethtown, Joyce Broughard, Valley Station, and Bonnie Reed, Buffalo, Kentucky were quite a success. They appeared quite in-terested adding a timely question now and then to aid the men along.

The last date allowed the men themselves go with smooth speeches. But the last "date", vice Club One, as gay hearts and speeches. But the last "date", cupids herald the coming of wearing a white sheet, trimmed Valentine's Day. To highlight with flowers and a colifeur rethis Hollday of hearts a special sembling a yellow mop, was un-"Hearts and Cupids Carnival" is impressed.

Pvt. Dick Avery, B-29, won this "lovely". When Dick was introduced to his date, Cpl. Andy Carrier, he was flustered as any male would be, face-to-face with a male-service shoes and all.

Last reports from Pvt. Bob Redman, Pvt. Bill Gravit, Pvt. Charles Tait, and the lovely trio are "the steaks in the Blue Grass Room are superb.'

53 Years of Standing Proof

The world of the titans had just flipped the page on the century of colonization. This was the world of Teddy Roosevelt and William Randolph Hearst, of Rockefeller and Carnegie, of Czars and kings and ringing debates in the parliaments of the nations,

The 20th Century had just turned one year old, when the Congress of the United States gave legislative birth to an Army unit that has since carried its banner of golden yellow and crimson to battlegrounds all over the world. It was in such a climate of big men and big events that the 15th was in such a climate of big men and big events that the 15th Cavalry Regiment came into being by act of Congress, Feb. 2, 1901. But succeeding changes in military organization have changed its name and its mission. Today it is known as the 15th Armor Group. And it is this crack outfit, now stationed at Ft. Knox, that celebrates its anniversary on Feb. 12, the day when the 15th Cav was actually organized in 1901 at the famous Presidie of San Francier.

Three enlisted men of 2128th ASU Station Complement were awarded citations by Lt. Col. Delbert M. Tanner, Headquarters Commandant, in his office at a brief ceremony on February 2

The Bronze Star Medal was awarded to M/Sgt. Eugene G. Perry of the Range Section and Sgt. Bud E. Wheeler, Jr., G. Perry of the Range Section and Sg. Data & Wilson and My Sg. Ball in the 2128th ASU. The who is with Army Aviation at Godman Air Force Base. M/Sgt. William C. Slusser who is parts predeterminator at mg a wonderful job. They dethe Post Motor Pool received the Commendation Ribbon with metal pendant.

Sgt. Perry was cited for meri-torious service while serving in Korea with the 3rd Infantry Di-vision from March 1952 through vision from March 1992 through February 1953. In his position as a platoon sgt he planned and supervised the building of Rim-rock Road in the Punch Bowl sector under enemy observation, in a minimum of time,

Through his expert supervision and complete disregard for per-sonal safety camaflouge nets were erected on Skyline Drive under fire in record time, which enabled munition and supply trucks to proceed forward with the maximum of safety.

As a rifle squad leader with a reconnaissance platoon of the 245th Tank Battalion 45th Infan-240th Tank Battation 45th Infatter try Division, in Korea, Sgt. Wheeler was largely responsible for keeping his squad at peak ef-ficency at all times. His squad was always prepared to move out and accomplish any given mission with a minimum loss of time, during the period from June 1952 through July 1953.

While serving as a captain of the Munich Military Ordnance Division Command Maintenance Inspection Team from July 1949 to May 1953 M/Sgt. Slusser distinguished himself by the effic-ient and enterprising manner in which he directed the activities of the team that reduced the maintenance deficiencies from an average of 32 per vehicle to 2.6.

Through his efforts Sgt. Slusser saved the government thousands of dollars reduced the number of mechanically unsafe vehicles operating in the Munich District and made available larger numbers of their organic transporta-tion equipment to units for proper performance of their assigned missions.

He also distinguished himself following the death of the Department of Army civilian chief of the Command Maintenance Inspection Team by taking over as acting chief and turning in an outstanding performance.

With the advent of nation-wide
television, the antics of professional "grunt-and-groan" boys such as Gorgeous George and The Masked Terror, have almost completely obscured the real sport of wrestling. This ancient sport can rarely be found today other than in our secondary schools and colleges. Yet there it remains tremendously popular.

One young Spearheader become quite adept in this field of athletic endeavor. He is A/Cpl. Ralph Schneider Jr., of Co. A, 7th Med. Tk. Bn., CCB. Cpl. Schneider first started wrestling in his second year at Academy High School, in his hometown of Erie, Pa. Weighing 133 lbs. at the time, Schneider felt he was light for football.

Although he lost his first match, he nevertheless took up the sport in earnest. In his junior year, with just one year of ex-perience under his belt, Schneider won both the City and Dis-trict Championships. As a senior, he went on to win 17 straight, taking the city, district, and state championships in the 145 lb. class.

In his second year at Waynesburg, he was once again undefeated until he went to the Nationals at Ft. Collins, Colo. There he lost a close decision to Joe Lymere, who went on to win the championship. Schneider won his consolation matches handily, and took third place honors in weight division.

An interesting note which indicates Schneider's prowess on the mats is that he has defeated the two men, Dickenson (Cornell) the Army who have distinguished themselves by heroism not infor the national championship in for the national championship in

3AD Guard, Band To Perform Today At Lincoln Memorial

Vaunted as one of the class est drill units in the ZI, the 2d Armored Division Honor Guard is scheduled to make its first public appearance of 1953 today (Friday).

The 25-man guard and a piece 3d Armored Division band are slated to perform this afternoon at Abraham Lincoln Na-tional Historical Park near Hodgenville, Ky., in commemora-tion of the Great Emancipator's birthday.

The Spearheaders will share the spotlight at Lincoln's birth-place with Illinois Senator Chauncey Reed, who is serving his tenth term in Congress and is considered an outstanding Lincoln authority. Senator Reed Col. McMains, G-3, will give the principal address.

A Half-Hour Performance The Division Guard and Band will give a half-hour performance, starting at 2 p.m. in front of the memorial building which houses the traditional birthplace cabin and is believed to stand on or very near the original site of the 1-room log structure. The park itself, located three miles south of Hodgenville and 33 miles from Ft. Knox, is one of the favorite spots for Spearhead

Our Enemy in Action

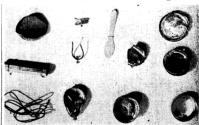

Waste' Campaign Begins

There is an enemy right he in the 3d Armored Division that is every day - every minute, in fact - taking a terrific toll of what keeps an army alive: Money. This enemy is a vicious one, cloak-its devastation with the deceivingly innocent name of WASTE This is the first in a series of picture-exposes of WASTE in the 3d Armored Division. The series is intended to bring the enemy into the open so that it can be more effectively combatted.

If you know the whereabouts of any WASTE, no matter how much or how little of it, let us know and we will send our pho-tographer to "shoot" it. It will be exposed in this series. Phone the 3d Armored Division Public Information Office at Star 9281.

Capt. Armstrong Is New (O of Hg. Co.

Capt. Robert R. Armstrong this week assumed command of Hq. Co., 3d Armored Division, succeeding 1st Lt. Frank Legas.

Capt. Armstrong comes to the Spearhead Division from Ft. Benning, Ga., where he attended the Infantry Officers Advance Course. Prior to that he was Motor Officer with the 5th Cavalry Regiment of the 1st Cavalry Division in Japan from Jan., 1952, until Aug., 1953.

He served in Korea with the Military Police of the 25th Divi-sion from July, 1950, until Jan. 1952. During that tour of duty he was awarded a Bronze Star for meritorious achievement as Operations Officer of the U.N. Prisoner of War Command. Last February he was recalled to Korea for three months with the 5th Cav. Regt. on a special prisoner security mission.

Commissioned at Ft. Benning in 1943, Capt. Armstrong was an enlisted man with the 3d Armored Division during World War II in Europe. He held the rank of corwhen he entered OCS.

His hometown is Springfield, thio, where his wife, daughter and twin sons are now preparing to join him here. They will reside on post.

Ex-Spearhead Visits

AMONG VISITING who attended the Armor Association meeting here on Jan. 29 were three former Spearhead commanders. Col. Charles T. Rivel of the Army War College in Carlisle Barracks, Pa., is pictured at Godman Air Force Base where he arrived for the meeting. Col. Bixel was greeted there by Maj. Gen. Gordon B Rogers, 3d Armored Division Commander. Col. Bixel was Asst. Spearhead Com. in el was Assi. Spearnead com. in 1951. Also in attendance were Brig. Gen. John T. Cole, USA-Ret., who was Assistant 3AD Commander from March, 1952, until Nov. of that year, at which time he assumed command of the Division for a month, and Maj. Harry J. Anderson, a former executive officer at the 3d QM Bn., and now Deputy Chief of Information, Hdqs. Military District in Washington.

Spearheaders Start Shooting for Knox Marksmanship Title

3d Armored Division sharpshooters will be zeroing in their 'eagle eyes" this month as the annual Ft. Knox pistol and rifle marksmanship competition gets underway.
Within the Division, inter-battalion matches will be conducted this month by the four major commands and Special Troops (in-cluding the 45th AM and 3d QM Bns.). The names of the ten best rifle and pistol marksmen, plus five alternates, in each command must be submitted to the Division G-3 office by March 8.

The Inter-Command Rifle and Pistol Matches will be held March 27 at Forrest Hill Rifle and Custer Hill Pistol ranges. The ten best riflemen and pistol shots in the Division, as determined by this meet, will be entered in The Armored Center tournament, set for April 17.

The post-wide shoot-off will determine the ten best rifle marks-men and ten best pistol shots at and The Armored Center. Competing along with the top Spearhead marksmen will be crack shots from The Armored School, School Troops and Headquarters Battalion, 2128th ASU.

Tournament weapons will be the Rifle, Cal. 30, M-1, and the Pistol, Cal. 45.

Awards and prizes to be presented in the Division's inter-bat-talion and inter-command meets will be announced soon, according to Capt. N. L. James, assistant G-3 and co-ordinator of the competition within the Division.

UNITED STATES ARMY THE CHIEF OF STAFF

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ARMY NURSE CORPS

On the occasion of the 53rd anniversary of the establishment of the Army Nurse Corps I want to extend my heartiest congratulations to each of you.

Throughout the existence of your branch, you have performed service of the most outstanding nature. You have earned the admiration of the entire Army for your selfless devotion to the humanitarian tasks of healing. Wherever the Army's duty has taken it, from the tropics to the Arctic, you have gone too, for you are soldiers in the finest sense of that proud word.

I speak for all the men and women of the Army in voicing deep gratitude for your splendid work. I am confident that your future accomplishments will surpass even those now inscribed on the fine record of the Army Nurse Corps.

Brig, Gen. John Knight Waters Deputy Commanding General of The Armored Center was born in Caltimore, Md. on December 1906 Attending school in Baltimore he graduated from Boys' Latin School in 1925 and then entered John Hopkins University for two years. He later entered the United States Military Acad-emy at West Point and graduated Inspection Night on June 11, 1931 with a commission as 2nd Lt. of Cavalry.

General Waters first assignment was with the 3rd Cavalry Regi-ment at Ft. Meyer, Va. where he remained until August of 1934 when he entered the Cavalry School at Ft. Riley, Kan. After completing the regular course the following summer, he was as-signed to the 13th Cavalry at Riley prior to his re-entering the school in July 1936 for the advanced equitation course.

Following his graduation he became a company tactical officer at West Point until June 1941 when he assumed command of the 1st Battalion, 68th Armored Regi-ment at Ft. Benning, Ga. Seven months later he became com-mander of the 3rd Battalion, 67th Armored Regiment.

In May 1942 General Waters went to Ireland as executive of the 1st Armored Regiment and later assumed command of the 1st Battalion in the same regt. He landed in North Africa with that unit in November and in December took over as executive officer of the regiment.

He was captured by the Gerhe was captured by the Ger-mans in February 1943 and was interned in a prisoner of war camp until April 1945 when he was returned to the United States.

In March 1946 General Waters was assigned to Theater Group, Operations Division, of the War Department General Staff and later that year named Aide to the Secretary of War, the Honor-able Robert P. Patterson. He entered the Command and

Staff General College at Ft. Leav-enworth, Kan. and the next year upon graduation entered the Armed Forces Staff College at Norfolk, Va. Following graduation in January 1949 he was named Assistant Commandant of Cadets Assistant Commandant of Cadets at West Point and in June 1951 Commandant of Cadets. In July 1952 the general was transferred to Korea for duty as chief of staff for I Corps with the rank of Brig. Gen. In September 1953 he returned to the United States to assume duties as Deputy Commanding General of The Armored Center here at Ft. Knox.

Among his decorations are included the Distinguished Service Cross, Distinguished Service Med-al, Silver Star with two Oak Leaf Clusters, Bronze Star Medal for heroic achievement, Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Cluster and the French Croix de Guerre with GOLDEN GLOVES IS THE topic of discussion bety S. Wilkinson, Post Athletic Officer and Pvt. Nathaniel Ellison and John Chalapis, titleists' in their respective weights and Cpl. William Hall, 3AD Special Services NCO, who handles the fighters.

Sports Sidelines

Ellison, Chalapis to Chicago Golden Gloves; Duo Takes Light-heavy and Heavy Crowns

THE LOUISVILLE VERSION of the Golden Gloves Tournament wound up last Friday night with Fort Knox fighters taking top honors in the light-heavyweight and heavyweight divisions.

Pvt. Nathaniel Ellison scored a TKO over Louisville's "Golden James O'Keefe, in 57 seconds of the third round, and in doing so, he gave the local fight fans an exhibition of 2-handed punching power that will be remembered for a long time. O'Keefe a 16-year-old high school student, fought a game fight, but Ellison's ft hooks and right crosses were too much for the local favorite. Billison opened the third round by landing two terrific rights to O'Keefe's head, and the referee stopped the fight when he was no longer able to defend himself.

PVT. JOHN CHAPAPIS copped heavyweight honors when "Rocky" Thomas of Louisville failed to make an appearance. "Rocky" was sitting in the audience, and when asked why he t fighting, he said he had too mauch on his mind.

The next step up the ladder for the two Knox champions will next month's Golden Gloves match in Chicago.

In the lightweight division, the bout between Pvt. Anthony Clark of Ft. Knox and Danny Jones of Louisville once again proved that "you can't beat city hall." In all fairness, Jones fought an aggressive fight, and definitely won the second round.

ARK, HOWEVER, OUTPUNCHED, outmaneuvered and outclassed his younger opponent, piling up sufficient points in rounds 1 and 3 to win, in this reporter's opinion. It was close all the way, and Jones was given the nod in a split decision. A great my fans, some of them staunch Louisville rooters, felt differ-disappointment was delt to Ft. Knox fan: Richard Keeling, OF LOUISVILLE, was awarded the Paul Karem Memorial Trophy as the tournament's "best fighter." The guns of the East and West Batteries of the New Jersey militia are the ancestors of the present 695th, and it was these units that blasted the proud British at Trenton, Monmouth and Princeton battlegrounds that are well-known to any child who reads about America's War for Independence

The famous "Whiskey Rebellion" in Pennsylvania was quelled by this same battalion in the first days of the young republic, and in 1812 their guns again answered His Majesty's Arms at the Battle of Paulus Hook. In the Civil War as part of the 1st Brigade, they joined the Army of the Potoma and fought so well in the battle for Richmond that Gen. Kearney was reported to have said that if there had been enough chickens and peach orchards for the mer to live by, the unit could have captured Richmond by themselves. The battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg found the crack cannoneers in the thick of the fight.

In the Mexican border campaigns in the early years of this century, the artillery men formed a Gatling Gun Company, and from this conflict came its crest and motto

It fought in World War I and as a token of the French influence added a Fleur de Lis to its crest It was a battalion of the 112th during World War II and afterwas designated the 695th AFA Bn. as it is known today As the 695th, it was formed by men who trained cadre. These men had served through five Eudennes Belgium Northern France and Central Europe

It was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation for holding ground for 10 days in face of heavy arat the Mosselle River.

Countess Ghislaine d'Hotelans Makes TV Debut Tells of Maj. d'Hotelans PW Experience in WWII Bu Babette von Halban

The Etienne d'Hotelans are being kept at a klieg-lit canter these days, whether they like it or not. However, judging from their ever-prevailing poise and charm, they're apparently immune to the rufflings of spontaneous podium appearances. To wit: Mrs. d'Hotelans' recent debut on WHAS-TV.

Countess Ghislaine d'Hotelans

Interviewed by Marian Gifford, without benefit of script or re-nearsal, Mrs. d'Hotelans glided hearsal. charmingly through her role like a veteran actress, describing her life in France, her titled heritage, the vast contours family estates, and her heart - rendingly prolonged engagement to Major d'Hotelans

prior to their marriage in 1945. During the eight long years of their engagement Major d'Hotelans was a prisoner of the Ger-mans. With the aid of false identity papers, cleverly secreted within small gifts sent him by his fiancee (ie: a walnut shell broken and glued together again), he made several dramatic es-capes, on'y to be recaptured and transferred to more rugged confinements

His final apprehension threat-ened beheading should he be caught again in flight. Fortunately the end of the war precluded any further risk of his life. The d'Hotelans were married a month after the major's release.

In the interim years they have been fully preoccupied pursuing his career in the French army, and raising strapping small fry: five in all, the youngest of which was recently born at Fort Knox. where Major d'Hotelans is presently assigned as French liaison

The generous use of a wastebasket sometimes is essential to ones efficiency. "A wise use of the wastebasket," says one distinguished editor, "is the secret of successful editing." A wise and generous use of the wastebasket is also the secret of spiritual bless-

Many lives are encumbered with rubbish that should be thrown into the wastebasket. The Apostle Paul writing to the church at Phillips exhorted them and us to lay aside every weight as well as the sin that besets our daily lives. We should throw away all worries. grudges, and resentments daily.

Past errors belong in the wastebasket. Everybody makes mis takes; hence the rubber eraser, the wastebasket's first cousin. There is said to be a man in Egypt who has not made an error in five thousand years; but during that time he has been in mummified form. The rest of us, who make errors, must learn to acknowledge them, to make appropriate restitution, and then, having learned our lesson, to consign our errors to the wastebasket.

The Anostle Paul gives us the perfect formula for the beginning of a new day, a new year, or o new life. TWO NEW NOVELS ON TAC SHELVES

Two outstanding new works dealing with the field of medicine, have been added to the shelves of The Armored Center Special Services libraries. The two books, which have been receiving "rave" have been receiving reviews in many national periodicals, are "Not As A Stranger" by Morton Thompson, and "The Doctor," by Andre Soubrian

The two novels, both almost nonumental in size, afford an interesting contrast in the outlooks of doctors in the United States and in France, for Thompson's As A Stranger" youth from the time he is six through every stage of medical training until he is a practicing physician in a small town in northeastern America, and Sou-brian traces the steps of a 17vest-old lad through pre-med and medical school until he begins his practice

egrettably, Morton Thompson died shortly after the completion huge novel for it is ob vious that he left much unsaid about his views on the medica profession. "Not As A Stranger" criticized in quarters as being almost too de-tailed in its medical descriptions. but it has been universally hailed one of the most frank and outspoken examinations of the medical profession's ethics, morals and motivations, ever written.

Thompson's protagonist is an Sun., Feb. 14-10 a.m. Tops in Pops, 3 p.m. Sweetheart Contest, uncompromising idealist who looks at his patients as physiological specimens rather than individuals, and works constantly for perfection. the non-medical reader both novels may lack credibility, since it is necessary to catch the almost religious devotion each author seems to feel medical students must have in order to understand their motives. If a choice had to be made between the two books, "Not As A Stranger" would be the more rewarding, because of its closer insight into the minds of the char-acters depicted, but both books have equal merit in stimulating thought and introducing what may be new ideas in the evolu-tion of the story pattern.

"From all reports I hear you're pretty nice," began Cpl. Dick Abbot, as he tried to wangle a date before a full house at Service Club No. 2's Blind Date Night.

"You do?" came the reply from the other side of an opaque screen.

Stammering most of the time, nine well-groomed sol-diers vied for an evening at the Blue Grass Room of the Brown Hotel in Louisville, and four lovely dates—well, per-haps only three lovely dates, and one interesting companion.

Placed in the club's Television Room, the men were ushered one by one to the stage where they were alloted five minutes to persuade an unknown voice to accept one of them as a date.

That was how the show was billed, but the way the audience saw it, the contestants approached the stage as though they were going on an extra detail instead of taking a chance on a date with all expenses paid.

The contestants spent the greater part of the first four minutes hemming and hawing, rubbing their hair cuts, and ended the last few seconds with . . . "I sure would like to take you to the Blue Grass Room".

young man, Redman, 83 Ord., knowing the young lady to be from Kentucky, kept talking about his horse and asking her about Kentucky horses, much to the delght of the crowd.

The first three young ladies, Misses Dorothy Thomas, Eliza-bethtown, Joyce Broughard, Valley Station, and Bonnie Reed, Buffalo, Kentucky were quite a success. They appeared quite in-terested adding a timely question now and then to aid the men along.

The last date allowed the men themselves go with smooth speeches. But the last "date", vice Club One, as gay hearts and speeches. But the last "date", cupids herald the coming of wearing a white sheet, trimmed Valentine's Day. To highlight with flowers and a colifeur rethis Hollday of hearts a special sembling a yellow mop, was un-"Hearts and Cupids Carnival" is impressed.

Pvt. Dick Avery, B-29, won this "lovely". When Dick was introduced to his date, Cpl. Andy Carrier, he was flustered as any male would be, face-to-face with a male-service shoes and all.

Last reports from Pvt. Bob Redman, Pvt. Bill Gravit, Pvt. Charles Tait, and the lovely trio are "the steaks in the Blue Grass Room are superb.'

53 Years of Standing Proof

The world of the titans had just flipped the page on the century of colonization. This was the world of Teddy Roosevelt and William Randolph Hearst, of Rockefeller and Carnegie, of Czars and kings and ringing debates in the parliaments of the nations,

The 20th Century had just turned one year old, when the Congress of the United States gave legislative birth to an Army unit that has since carried its banner of golden yellow and crimson to battlegrounds all over the world. It was in such a climate of big men and big events that the 15th was in such a climate of big men and big events that the 15th Cavalry Regiment came into being by act of Congress, Feb. 2, 1901. But succeeding changes in military organization have changed its name and its mission. Today it is known as the 15th Armor Group. And it is this crack outfit, now stationed at Ft. Three enlisted men of 2128th ASU Station Complement were awarded citations by Lt. Col. Delbert M. Tanner, Headquarters Commandant, in his office at a brief ceremony on February 2

The Bronze Star Medal was awarded to M/Sgt. Eugene G. Perry of the Range Section and Sgt. Bud E. Wheeler, Jr., G. Perry of the Range Section and Sg. Data & Wilson and My Sg. Ball in the 2128th ASU. The who is with Army Aviation at Godman Air Force Base. M/Sgt. William C. Slusser who is parts predeterminator at mg a wonderful job. They dethe Post Motor Pool received the Commendation Ribbon with metal pendant.

Sgt. Perry was cited for meri-torious service while serving in Korea with the 3rd Infantry Di-vision from March 1952 through vision from March 1992 through February 1953. In his position as a platoon sgt he planned and supervised the building of Rim-rock Road in the Punch Bowl sector under enemy observation, in a minimum of time,

Through his expert supervision and complete disregard for per-sonal safety camaflouge nets were erected on Skyline Drive under fire in record time, which enabled munition and supply trucks to proceed forward with the

maximum of safety.

As a rifle squad leader with a reconnaissance platoon of the 245th Tank Battalion 45th Infan-240th Tank Battation 45th Infatter try Division, in Korea, Sgt. Wheeler was largely responsible for keeping his squad at peak ef-ficency at all times. His squad was always prepared to move out and accomplish any given mission with a minimum loss of time, during the period from June 1952 through July 1953.

While serving as a captain of the Munich Military Ordnance Division Command Maintenance Inspection Team from July 1949 to May 1953 M/Sgt. Slusser distinguished himself by the effic-ient and enterprising manner in which he directed the activities of the team that reduced the maintenance deficiencies from an average of 32 per vehicle to 2.6.

Through his efforts Sgt. Slusser saved the government thousands of dollars reduced the number of mechanically unsafe vehicles operating in the Munich District and made available larger numbers of their organic transporta-tion equipment to units for proper performance of their assigned missions.

He also distinguished himself following the death of the Department of Army civilian chief of the Command Maintenance Inspection Team by taking over as acting chief and turning in an outstanding performance.

Commercialism plays an ever increasing role in many modernbut none has been heavily effected as wrestling.
With the advent of nation-wide
television, the antics of professional "grunt-and-groan" boys such as Gorgeous George and The Masked Terror, have almost completely obscured the real sport of wrestling. This ancient sport can rarely be found today other than in our secondary schools and colleges. Yet there it remains tremendously popular.

One young Spearheader become quite adept in this field of athletic endeavor. He is A/Cpl. Ralph Schneider Jr., of Co. A, 7th Med. Tk. Bn., CCB. Cpl. Schneider first started wrestling in his second year at Academy High School, in his hometown of Erie, Pa. Weighing 133 lbs. at the time, Schneider felt he was light for football.

Although he lost his first match, he nevertheless took up the sport in earnest. In his junior year, with just one year of ex-perience under his belt, Schneider won both the City and Dis-trict Championships. As a senior, he went on to win 17 straight, taking the city, district, and state championships in the 145 lb. class.

graduating from high school. Schneider took some postgraduate courses preparatory for entrance to college, and continwith his wrestling. In 1950, ued with his wrestling. In 1950, he won the Allegheny Mountain Association Meet, held in Pittsburgh, and later that year, took first place in the AAU meet held in Baltimore. Wrestling in the 165-lb. class, he then went on to take first place honors in the Religible. Individual Intercollegiate Invita tional Tournament in Cleveland These last two meets were part of the basic eliminations for the United States Olympic team.

Cpl. Schneider enrolled in Waynesburg College in the fall of 1950, and continued to make headlines in his chosen s Undefeated as a freshman, missed going to the Nationals only because he was a first-year student. In his second year at Waynesburg, he was once again undefeated until he went to the Nationals at Ft. Collins, Colo. There he lost a close decision to Joe Lymere, who went on to win the championship. Schneider won his consolation matches handily, and took third place honors in weight division.

An interesting note which indicates Schneider's prowess on the mats is that he has defeated the two men, Dickenson (Cornell) the Army who have distinguished themselves by heroism not infor the national championship in for the national championship in

To Perform Today At Lincoln Memorial

Vaunted as one of the class est drill units in the ZI, the 2d Armored Division Honor Guard is scheduled to make its first public appearance of 1953 today (Friday).

The 25-man guard and a piece 3d Armored Division band are slated to perform this afternoon at Abraham Lincoln Na-tional Historical Park near Hodgenville, Ky., in commemora-tion of the Great Emancipator's birthday.

The Spearheaders will share the spotlight at Lincoln's birth-place with Illinois Senator Chauncey Reed, who is serving his tenth term in Congress and is considered an outstanding Lincoln authority. Senator Reed Col. McMains, G-3, will give the principal address.

A Half-Hour Performance The Division Guard and Band will give a half-hour performance, starting at 2 p.m. in front of the memorial building which houses the traditional birthplace cabin and is believed to stand on or very near the original site of the 1-room log structure. The park itself, located three miles south of Hodgenville and 33 miles from Ft. Knox, is one of the favorite spots for Spearhead

Capt. Armstrong Is New (O of Hg. Co.

Capt. Robert R. Armstrong this week assumed command of Hq. Co., 3d Armored Division, succeeding 1st Lt. Frank Legas.

Capt. Armstrong comes to the Spearhead Division from Ft. Benning, Ga., where he attended the Infantry Officers Advance Course. Prior to that he was Motor Officer with the 5th Cavalry Regiment of the 1st Cavalry Division in Japan from Jan., 1952, until Aug., 1953.

He served in Korea with the Military Police of the 25th Divi-sion from July, 1950, until Jan. 1952. During that tour of duty he was awarded a Bronze Star for meritorious achievement as Operations Officer of the U.N. Prisoner of War Command. Last February he was recalled to Korea for three months with the 5th Cav. Regt. on a special prisoner security mission.

Commissioned at Ft. Benning in 1943, Capt. Armstrong was an enlisted man with the 3d Armored Division during World War II in Europe. He held the rank of corwhen he entered OCS.

His hometown is Springfield, thio, where his wife, daughter and twin sons are now preparing to join him here. They will reside on post.

Division Sgt. To Sell His Military Booklet

Three thousand questions which deal with nearly every phase of Army life are answered by a Army life are answered by a Spearheader with more than 25 years' service, in a booklet now on sale at the bookstores of Ft.

After more than a year of spare time work, M/Sgt. Fred E. Moon, chief clerk in AG Special Orders and Publications Branch, 3d Armored Division, has com-pleted a revision of "A Military Questionnaire." Sgt. Moon's booklet was originally published several years ago by a Pennsylvania publishing firm and wide-ly distributed throughout the country for use in ROTC instruction

Former ROTC Instructe

The information in the book was compiled while he was an ROTC instructor at Staunton Military Academy, Staunton, Va., and John Hopkins University in Baltimore. The book was de-signed to make simple and brief the language used in field and training manuals and to put the information at the finger tips of military instructors, students. trainees or whoever might desire it.

The book is considered especially serviceable for instructors commanders because it is written as a series of questions and answers and has a number of true-false statements and multiple-choice questions at the end of each chapter.

Various Topics Covered

Included in the book are chap-ers on leadership, drill, command, military courtesy, interior hygiene and sanitation, first aid, the M-1 rifle, carbine, marksmanship and map aerial photographs. general sale of the book was delayed due to the necessity of security checks on the information included. Price per copy

Ex-Spearhead Visits

AMONG VISITING who attended the Armor Association meeting here on Jan. 29 were three former Spearhead commanders. Col. Charles T. Rivel of the Army War College in Carlisle Barracks, Pa., is pictured at Godman Air Force Base where he arrived for the meeting. Col. Bixel was greeted there by Maj. Gen. Gordon B Rogers, 3d Armored Division Commander. Col. Bixel was Asst. Spearhead Com. in el was Assi. Spearnead com. in 1951. Also in attendance were Brig. Gen. John T. Cole, USA-Ret., who was Assistant 3AD Commander from March, 1952, until Nov. of that year, at which time he assumed command of the Division for a month, and Maj. Harry J. Anderson, a former executive officer at the 3d QM Bn., and now Deputy Chief of Information, Hdqs. Military District in Washington.

Spearheaders Start Shooting for Knox Marksmanship Title

3d Armored Division sharpshooters will be zeroing in their 'eagle eyes" this month as the annual Ft. Knox pistol and rifle marksmanship competition gets underway.
Within the Division, inter-battalion matches will be conducted this month by the four major commands and Special Troops (in-cluding the 45th AM and 3d QM Bns.). The names of the ten best rifle and pistol marksmen, plus five alternates, in each command must be submitted to the Division G-3 office by March 8.

The Inter-Command Rifle and Pistol Matches will be held March 27 at Forrest Hill Rifle and Custer Hill Pistol ranges. The ten best riflemen and pistol shots in the Division, as determined by this meet, will be entered in The Armored Center tournament, set for April 17.

The post-wide shoot-off will determine the ten best rifle marks-men and ten best pistol shots at and The Armored Center. Competing along with the top Spearhead marksmen will be crack shots from The Armored School, School Troops and Headquarters Battalion, 2128th ASU.

Tournament weapons will be the Rifle, Cal. 30, M-1, and the Pistol, Cal. 45.

Awards and prizes to be presented in the Division's inter-bat-talion and inter-command meets will be announced soon, according to Capt. N. L. James, assistant G-3 and co-ordinator of the competition within the Division.

RED CROSS MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDING GENERAL ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL AND CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES

The American Red Cross will conduct its annual membership and fund raising campeign at Fort Knox, Kentucky, between the 25th of February and the 25th of March 1954. For all of us, this will be an opportunity to participate in a great humanitarian endeavor.

The achievements of the Red Cross are well known. In time of disaster its trained workers are always among the first on the scene. Among the Armed Forces, in peace and war, it has rendered vital services to fighting men. The Red Cross is a most important instrument in our crucial blood program, so necessary to military operament in our crucial blood program, so necessary to military operament.

It is my sincere hope that this year the response from the Ar-mored Center's Military and Civilian Personnel will be a fitting acknowledgment of the unselfish service which the Red Cross is giving to all distressed humanity.

Food Service School, went down 320 feet into the earth and struck out from there as much as 5.8 miles, through twisting, tortuous passageways, full of beauty never before seen by man; full of mysteries of scientific significance full of tricky curves and bottomless pits, where one misstep could mean a black and territying death.

"My biggest scare," he said, "came when I was lugging more than 30 pounds of communications equipment over Straddle Canyon" Streib explained that Straddle Canyon was a fissure in the cave which could be negotiated only by straddling the gap with one's legs and arms.

"I fell ten feet before my safety rope luckily looped around a jutting rock and saved me," he said. But even with such close calls, Streib, who has been spelunking seriously since his college days at Butler University in Indiana, was enthusiastic about the discoveries made in the cave and the unusual, enchanting beauty of some of the rooms the spelunkers found. One small room, especially, caught the group's attention. Streib refers to it as the Gypsum Room, where "flowers" of gypsum, of brilliant and varied hues, "grow" in profusion. But a piece of such flowers, if even only the size of a dime, takes 1000 years to form.

"Some of the fellows in the barracks think I'm crazy to risk my neck in spelunking," said Ray Streib goodnaturedly. "But I get a great thrill out of being someplace where no one else has ever been before.

"After all," he added thoughtfully, "in a way, spelunking offers the only pioneering chance to explore the last frontiers here on earth."

ed for Eastern waters

"We sank 24 Japanese ships, took 10 prisoners and downed on plane," the sergeant recalls. And all the while, with torpedoes buzing and bullets flying about, Petty Officer 2nd class Proper was in the sub's kitchen, which isn't any more desirable a place to be on a fighting sub than anywhere sles.

"Of course," he said, "working in the cramped quarters in a sub-marine is not as 'luxurious' as a nice spacious mess hall at Ft. Knox." But one of Sgt. Proper's reasons for enlisting in the Army was the fact that submarine quotas in the Navy at that time were closed and he couldn't get back into the underwater service he came to like so much.

The soldier-sailor sergeant, who's been in the army two years now, has seen his share of action on land as well as on and under the sca. He was in Korea a year and spent 205 days on the line with the 7th Infantry Regiment of the Third Infantry Division. Among his battle stars he counts the action and evacuation at the Chosin Reservoir. He also has been decorated with the Bronze Star.

By a strange twist of fate, there are two former submariners (and you pronounce that sub-MAR-iner, friend; not sub-mar-EEE-ner) in the 38th Recon. The other is Sfc. Martin Schenck, a platoon leader in the School Troops outfit. But neither man know the other until they met in the 38th.

Darkhorse Role For Eagles In District Cage Tourney, Tuesday

By Sid Pankin

By Sid Pankin

THE WT KNON P 61 FS rate as a strong dark horse in the 2ard District Basketball Championships schouled for Sadowski Field House this coming Tuesday evening through Saturday. The favorite in the 10 team field is the very strong Vine Grove quintet which rates as one of Kentucky's prep cage powers, Rineyville is rated second in the district followed by Elizabethtown, Glendale, Lynnvale, Ft. Knox, Elizabethtown Catholic, with Sonora, West Point and Howevalley holding up the rear part of the standings. Vine Grove actually has the easiest go of them all drawing into the lower bracket where they play West Point and probably Etown Catholic to gain the finals. This should be easy for the team that has only lost twice this season.

THE ILIPER BRACKET is a little toucher with Flower square.

has only lost twice this season.

THE UPPER BRACKET is a little tougher with E'town squaring off with Glendale and Rineyville against Pt. Knox. These games could go either way and should be interesting contests. The winners of these two games will undoubtedly meet in the semi-finals for the berth in the 6th Region playoff for a State Tourney bid. . Ft. Knox definitely rates as a strong contender as the team has come a long way since the opening of the season. The difficulty seems a long way since the opening of the season. The difficulty seems a long way since the opening of the season. The difficulty seems a long way since the opening of the season. The difficulty seems a long way since the opening distinct game. Lost for the games last weekend against Hodgenville and Fern Creek were occaptains Garry Perry and Obbie Frysell and little Bobby Carrico and also reserve Bob Wrenn. Perry is the only doubtful starter with hopes that the others will be ready for action.

RINEYVILLE AND Etown have been victims of the Knox cagers while Vine Grove had a tough time taking the Green and While in a recent game winning by only six points. Etown was dropped by the Eagles by one point in an overtime at the opening of the season and Rineyville was set down after winning earlier by 15 points. Coach Kingsolver has done a fine job in bringing his team along being blessed with a young and inexperienced squad. However, with the top play of Bob Howey under the boards and on the scoring line along with the one hander of Fracell and the great hustle displayed by Perry, Carrico and Bill Luther the team is tough.

THE GAME TIME FOR the opening game each evening is seven o'clock with the nite-cap coming at 8:30. Admission prices will be $75 for adults and $50 for children for each evening. The finals are scheduled for Saturday night at 8:30. The Eagles play Rineyville in the opener on Tuesday at seven and will play Sonca on Thursday night at seven if they get by their first road block.

Mrs. Rojas Wins Coveted Red Cross Award For Work With Plane Crash Survivors

In response to many requests, we are resuming the "Meet The Volunteers" series which ran in the Turret for several months last year. This column is intended to serve a dual purpose; to introduce to you the civic-minded women who find time in their busy schdeules to contribute their time and efforts to the volunteer needs of the Ft. Knox community, and to salute these women for their contributions.

For our first salute—we wish to introduce a lady who came to Ft. Knox from her native Venezuela, and in her comparatively short time as a volunteer worker, has won the admiration and respect of all the people with whom she has come in contact: Mrs. Caesar

Mrs. Rojas had been living a quiet life visiting here with her friends, Maj. and Mrs. Raul Croce, last September when an event occurred that changed her whole mode of living: the crash of an

Smorgasbord

The word Smorgasbord, the Encyclopedia Britannica tells us is a Scandinavian name for a collection of individual dishes spread on separate table.

At DOE RUN HOTEL Smorgasbord each Friday evening from 5:30 to 8 is the most delightful meal of the week. There are salads galore—shrimp, potato salad, congealed salads, deviled eggs, celery, radishes, olives, pickles and lettuce with dressing to suit each individual taste; tangy cheese, pickled pigs feet, pickled and mar-inated herring—and the many meat dishes are a feast for the sight as well as the palate—baked ham, baked salmon, roast beef and potatoes, meat balls and turkey.

If you haven't yet got around to making Doe Run's Smorgasbord a habit, start this Friday night. Bring the family and friends and enjoy good food, and a visit to-gether. Its economical too, $1.50 for adults, 75c for children. Sunday Dinner 12 to 8.

For this week's trip into Kentucky we will go into Lou-isville for a weekend of entertainment. Although most of the readers have frequented the largest city in Kentucky many of the points of interest and historical sights have probably been missed.

Louisville history goes back to 1778 when Col George

Rogers Clark and a company of pioneer families arrived at the present site of the city. The original fort served as a ur Division Should Be on Top'

G. B. Rogers By Mai. Gen Division Commander

In the first place I am very proud to have been given command of the 3d Armored Division. It is a distinct honor to me to be assigned to the famous Spearhead Division whose ous Spearhead Division Whose mission in World War II was to lead the attack all the way from the beaches of Normandy right into the heart of the enemy homeland to win the vic-

The Division's present mis-- training young Americans for permanent assignment to Armor and Infantry units in all parts of the world-presents a definite challenge. I am determined that the high standards already achieved will not only be maintained but improved. As your Commanding General, I want the 3d Armored Division to be top-notch and second to none.

Constant Improvement

The best is good enough for me. I have no patience or compromise with mediocrity; we must do it better. That is, and always has been, my policy— constant improvement.

Everyone is looking for the whom you can give job, and know that it will be done whether anyone is check ing or not. That is dependabil-ity and it's the way to get ahead whether in the Army or on the outside. As a matter of fact, it takes no more effort or energy to start doing the job than it does to think of reasons why it cannot be done.

The chief trait of the non mmissioned officer is depen dability. It has often been said that his dependability is "the backbone of the Army". This is just as true today as it ever was. In my estimation, non-commissioned chevrons are kept the same way they are earned—by meritorious service.

This means that non-coms must act like non-coms, they must be dependable at all times, and they must continue to earn their chevrons. It is my policy that if a man is not acting like a non-commissioned officer, he should not be wearing chevrons of one.

Smart Appearance

It is my firm belief that a smart appearance has a positive military value. The soldier who is sharp, well turned out, and military, is alert and proud because he has something to be proud of. A man who looks sloppy will feel sloppy and act

QM Inspector Has Praise for Messes. Lauds Hg.-DivArty

3d Armored Division kitchens and dining rooms received praise last week from a man whose job it is to know a good mess hall when he sees one

The man is Maj. George W. Kelley of the Food Service Di-Quartermaster General, Washington, D. C. Maj. Kelley visited the Spearhead Division last week and picked 30 mess halls at random. He paid each a visit to observe operations and make suggestions, Upon concluding his visit, he was happy to report that he was "generally very well pleased" with 3d Armored Division mess facilities and operations.

Particular praise was lavished on Hg. and Hg. Btry. of DivArty. Maj. Kelley enthusiastically said it was the best he had ever seen in his two years of looking at mess halls on Army posts all over the country. He said the work done at the DivArty mess all has been marvelous, and pointed out how they have managed, DivArty had 27,467.

Pay was little President—to publicize some of and irregular and desertions were the military wisdom of the man common. Out of this heterogen who was "first in war, first in eous mass Washington created an army that was good enough beat the rich, well-trained British forces. Probably no other general waged so successful a war under so many handicaps.

Washington always felt a sense of indebtedness to the citizensoldiers. In a speech to Congress and the whole Army, in 1776 he said: . . . They were indeed, at first, 'a band of un-disciplined Husbandmen,' but it band of brothers, willing and ready to die for each other." is (under God) to their brave and attention to their duty, that I am indebted for that success say. He said: "Three things prompt men to a regular discharge of their duty in time of action: natural bravery, hope of reward, and fear of punishment. Natural bravery and hope of reward are common to the untutored and disciplined soldiers; but fear of punishment most obviously distinguishes the one from the other.

George Washington was a "soldiers' general" in the true sense of those two words. He stands out among military leaders of all time for the devotion he inspired in his men. This devotion he re turned with a comprehension of their difficulties and sorrows

Frist pointing out the failure of that legislature to supply food, men and clothing, he then wrote: "But what makes the matter still more extraordinary in my eyes is that those very gentlemen should think a winters campaign and the cover ing of those states from the invasion of an enemy so easy and practicable a business. I can answer those gentlemen that it is a much easier and less distressing thing to draw remonstrances in a comfortable room, by a good fireside, than to occupy a cold bleak hill, and sleep under frost and snow, without clothes or blankets. However, although they seem to have little feeling for the naked and distressed soldiers, I feel superabundantly for them, and from my soul I pity those miseries which it is neither in my power to relieve nor pre-

> We conclude this article quotes with one that is perhaps (to soldiers) the most humorous of all things Washington had to say about soldiers. It concerns swearing in the Army. Its a gem. Recorded July, 1776 it goes: "I am sorry to be informed that the foolish and wicked practice of profane cursing and swearing, a vfce heretofore little known in the American Army, is growing into fashion. I hope the officer will, by example as well as influence, endeavor to check it and that both they and the men will reflect that we can have little hope for the blessing of heaven on our Army, if we insult it by our impiety and folly."

GRE HOUND

By Nick Flocos

Spearhead Sparkle focuses this on a marvelous mess steward whose story of mess hall wiz-ardry, long held dearly in the bosoms and bellies of 3d Armored Division men, last week reached throughout the country he had the military eyes and ears of never seen one as beautiful.

A rather large gentleman by the tana, who looks like he swallowed the kitchen's largest pot, is think-ing of hanging up his GI spoon, after more than 32 years of dishing out food in Army mess halls.

Set. Santana is mess steward of Hq. and Hq. Btry. of DivArty, but the title of mess steward doesn't begin to describe the work he does. In fact, the best was to describe his work would be to picture in one's mind the cleanest neatest and most pleasant Army mess hall that is possible. That's the kind of work he does--that's his mess hall.

Since January, 1952, when Sgt Santana took over at DivArty, he has performed wonders in the old type mess hall there. He has transformed it into a beautiful eating place. One of the first things he did was to take the long squadtype tables and cut them into 4-men tables.

Then he purchased lumber and paneled the walls, giving the mess hall cory lodgelike effect. He bought mirrors and bright, vari-colored tablecloths, and put fancy imitation flowers on each table. This all was done with the help of the company fund, but mostly through his incenuity for saving, salvaging and just plain scrounging me

Most of the labor was done by Sgt. Santana himself. In fact, (al-though he doesn't like to admit it) a considerable amount of the money for all the improvements have come out of his own pocket. The Puerto Rican-born master of the mess hall has received many awards in his culinary ca-reer, including 25 "Best Mess" awards from the 3d Armored Division. He undoubtedly holds the Spearhead record. Prior to coming to DivArty, he was mess stew-ard at Co. C, 122nd AOM Bn., CCR, where his outstanding work netted him 14 awards,

Maj. George W. Kelley, of the Food Service Division, Quarter-master General, Washington, visited here to observe mess hall facilities and operations in the 3d Armored Division. He picked thirty mess halls at random. Luckily he included the DivArty mess. The major was amazed at the beauty of it. He termed the work of Sgt. Santana as "marvelous," and said that in his two-years of visiting Army mess halls

The major said he would take colored picture of the mess hall which was presented to him by Capt. Fred Landon, company commander, to Maj. Gen. Kester Hastings, the Quartermaster General in Washington, with word of the amazing work done by the DivArty men.

Sgt. Santana has cavorted his portly frame in kitchens ever since he was fourteen. He was portly born in San Juan, Puerto Rico, 51 years ago and came to Brooklyn fourteen to help in his father's cafe. He has been in kitchens in numerous Army camps and, except for a short time when he was a foot soldier in France during World War I, has been a cook or mess steward throughout his Army career

He enlisted in the Army in 1917. reenlisted after the war was over in 1918 and was with the 26th Infantry Division until he came to the word "served" never was so Division metal pin centered on applicable as it is in this show their fatigue caps. This will help king's case) in Casablanca, Camp Blanding, Fla., Ft. McClelland, Ga., Ft. Benning, Ga., and in Ala-bama when he was in the National Guard for three years back in the

Now Sqt. Santana is making "retirement" plans. He tells the mess personnel at DivArty — all of whom have a fond admiration for him - that maybe next year he will be going out on the coas San Francisco, probably, to buy his own business out there. May be it will be a small hotel business, he has said. "Just so eet have a keetchen."

Sgt. Santana lives in Elizabeth town, where his wife, Juanita, does the cooking for him and their I5-year-old son, Nandy. "She do closed Mondays for private all the cooking at home. She don't parties; Mattness Sat. & Sun. 2 wanna me in thee kitchen," he to 5 pm. said rather plaintively. "But thas all right because shee's preety good cook herself."

Commands To Start Firing Competition

Regimental marksmanship com-petition will get underway in the 3d Armored Division next week as the Spearhead com-mands begin to sift out their best marksmen for the approaching post-wide meet.

Combat Command "A" and Reserve Command have scheduled inter-battalion matches for Sunday, and Combat Command "B" will hold its competition next Thursday and Friday. The Div-Arty match will be held on two days - next Saturday and the following Saturday, March 6, At this writing, Special Troops had not yet set its firing date.

The ten best rifle and pistol marksmen from each command will compete in a Division-wide match March 27. The Spearhead's top marksmen, as determined by that meet, will vie for The Armored Center Laurels April 17.

3AD Permanent Party To Wear Name Patches

3d Armored Division perman ent party members, both officers and enlisted men, will soon be wearing distinctive name patches over the left pocket of their field jacket and fatigue shirts.

The patches will be of herringbone twill material, and the letters will be half-inch block capstencilled in permanent black ink These specifications were announced in a Division memorandum issued last week Armor trainee tank commanders, according to the same order distinguish them from members of their crew. Another uniform change, announced by The Armored Center last week provides that the work uniform (fatigues for trainees) may now be worn in PX 18 on Mississippi Stre and in Telephone Center No. 3 at Sixth and "E" Streets.

Our Division

I have always encouraged the nen to take up complaints with their commanding officers. They are responsible for their men, and if there is some hardship or problem, it is only fair for the men to tell the officer, who is responsible for his welfare, before he tells anyone else. He still has the right to see the Inspector General, but I want to encourage him to see his commander instead. That is the manly, soldierly way. Commanders must do their part by being available to their men, by giving their problem serious and thorough consideration, and by correcting any inequities.

I want to say again that I I want to say again that I am very proud to have this command. I have heard good reports of the 3d Armored Di-vision to date. With cooperation and careful attention to duty on the part of every officer and enlisted man, I am sure we can raise previous Spearhead standards to a new high in the days ahead. Let's make that our goal.

Consider These Facts!

Campaign Begins

Membership and Fund Raising Campaign received record-breaking support on this post. In 1951, fund raisers had been delighted when they approached the $30,000 mark and smashed a Fort Knox record which had stood since World War II, In 1952, however, that remarkable record was shattered as Fort Knox gave the Red Cross $37,948,27

Approximately 60 percent of that record contribution $22,514.48—came from the 3d Armored Division. The Red Cross said it was a new all-time Division-level record. Contributions averaged $.97 per man as Spearheaders surpassed their record 1951 total by $5,000. Why?

The answer is simple. That year-1952-was a pretty hot one in Korea. At that time, combat veterans were coming to the Division in large numbers direct from the battle zone. They were processing through the Division's 45th Armored Medical Battalion.

It was the contributions of that lone battalion that padded the donations of the whole post and enabled the 3d Armored Division and Fort Knox to set such records.

Although a rec hall scoreboard was the only device to call attention to the drive, that battalion gave nearly $10,000-more than one-fourth the total contributions of the post. More than 2,800 men from nearly every overseas unit passed through the 45th during the campaign, and the vets gave better than $3 per man.

BC Trainees Earn An 'Excellent' Rating In Feb. Pro-Tests

Basic Combat trainees within the 3d Armored Division last month raised the proficiency test passing-average of the Division from "Satisfac-tory" to "Excellent."

According to figures released last week by Division G-3 oflast week by Division G-3 of-ficials, 88.7 percent of the trainees Chest Drive Gets who took the Basic Combat protest during February received passing scores. During January, the average passing percentage was 81.1.

According to the G-3 scoring table, a passing percentage of 95-100 is Superior, 85 to 94.9 is Excellent, 70 to 84.9 is Satisfactory, and anything below 70 percent is Unsatisfactory.

Each major command in the Division showed improvement last month over January. Eight Spearhead Basic Combat companies took the test, and CCA led percentage-wise, CCA had only one company take the test, and that unit had a passing percentage of 99.5. The CCA January mark had been 87.3.

Three companies in DivArty averaged 90.8 passing, a 0.5 im-CCR gained 5.2 percentage points over January as two of its companies averaged 88.5. CCB rose from its "unsatisfactory" rating of January when two of its units earned an average passing percentage of 75.9.

Weak subjects in the February testing were scouting and patrolling, map reading, and the light machine gun, it was learned from G-3.

Training Time Cut 4 Hours Per Week

Training time for 3d Armored Division trainees has been re duced by four hours per week Department of the Army week approved reduction of the current five-and-a-half day, 48hour training week to a five-anda-half day, 44-hour week, and the change went into effect here Monday, March 1.

An order from the Office of the Chief of Army Field Forces last week directed that Individual Training Programs for use in training divisions, replacement training centers and general reserve units would be modified

The order said Army Training Programs would not be changed. but commanders concerned would modify their training programs to conform to a 44-hour training week. No mandatory training will be omitted in the modifica

According to Division G-3 of-ficials, the time reduction will be accomplished by reducing the number of hours devoted to certain training subjects. Recommended reductions were included in the OCAFF order. No subjects required by the ATPs will be entirely deleted.

Bond Drive Rolls 3d Armored Division par-ticipation continued to spark the post-wide February bond drive last week. However, final figures on total Spearhead sales and percentage of participation were not available at this writing. Final results of the campaign will ap-pear in next week's SPEAR-

Lt. Col. Robert L. Webb, Exec Officer of Reserve utive mand, has been named Unit Assistant for the 3rd Armored Division in the 1954 Ft. Knox Community Chest Drive. The cam-paign will begin March 25th, and will run through May 6th.

Coordinators have been named in the major and separate commands to aid the Division director in the drive. They are Lt. Hugh Mayberry, CCA, Capt. F. Hugh Nayberry, CtA, Capt. F. September 100, 10 and 100 Giordano, 3d QM Bn.

Col. Cocke Heads 761st Support Bn.: Col. Vars To 23rd

Two 3d Armored Division battalions received new commanders last week as Lt. Col James W. Cocke assumed command of the 761st Tk. Bn., and Lt. Col. Donald O. Vars took charge of the 23rd Armd. Engr. Bn.

Col. Cocke comes to the 761st from the 23rd where he has been CO since last August. Prior to that he had served as CO of the 7th Med. Tk. Bn., Division Transportation Bn., and the 86th Tk. Bn. (now the 709th), all in the 3d Armored Division.

Col. Cocke joined the Spearhead Division from the G-2 Section, USAF, where he was assigned from 1949 to 1952. He was Instructor Training Officer and Chief of Methods of Instruction Committee at the Ground General School, Ft. Riley, Kan. from September 1945, to May, 1949.

Know Your Medals. Decorations & Badges

This is the eighth in a series of articles which explain how the Army awards its decorations, medals and badges for heroism and achievement. The series will follow the order of precedence for which they are given dealing this week with the highest award for achievement.

Distinguished Service Medal The Distinguished Service Med-

is awarded to persons, who while serving in any capacity with Army, distinguished themselves by exceptionally meritorious service to the Government in duty of great responsibility.

The term "duty of great respon-sibility" means duty of such a character that exceptionally meritorious service therein has contributed in high degree to the success of a major command, installation, or project. The performance of the duty must be such as to merit recognition by the service as clearly exceptional.

A superior performance of the normal duties of the position will not alone justify the award. The accomplishment of the duty for which the award is recommended should have been completed, or it should have progressed to an exceptional degree if the person rendering the service has been transferred to other duties prior to its full accomplishment.

The Distinguished Service Medal will be awarded to personnel of foreign nations only under excep tional circumstances.

The medal is described as fol-lows: The coat of arms of the United States in bronze rounded by a circle of dark blue enamel bears the inscription "For Distinguished Service" and the year of award. On the reverse is engraved the recipient's name up-on a scroll on a trophy of flags and weapons. The ribbon is composed of bands of scarlet, a stripe of dark blue, a band of white, dark blue, and scarlet.

The word Smorgasbord, the Encyclopedia Britannica tells us is a Scandinavian name for a collection of individual dishes spread on separate table At DOE RUN HOWEL Smorgasbord each Friday evening from 5:30 to 8 is the most delightful meal of the week. There are salads galore—shrimp potato salad congealed salads. deviled eggs, celery, radishes, olives, pickles and leituce, with dressing to suit each individual taste; tangy chesse, pickled pigs feet, pickled and marinated herring—and the many meat dishes are a feasi for the sight as well as the palate—baked ham, baked salmon, roast beef and potatoes, meat balls and turkey.

If you haven't yet got around to making Doe Run's Smorgasbord a habit, start this Friday night. Bring the family and friends and enjoy good food, and a visit together. Its economical too, $1.50 for adults, 75c for children. Sunday Dinner 12 to 8.

Paxson Scores 29

Jim Paxson, playing for the Medics, was high scorer for the evening with 10 field goals and nine free throws. Other players were handcuffed. A similar situation existed on the CCB side of the scoring column as Thomas racked up eight buckets and nine free throws, while the remaining 43 points were split among six other play-ers. Dan Lewinski was second high for CCB with 13 points.

Ivy League Drops Out Of Big Time Football

by George M. Glasser

THE IVY LEAGUE COLLEGES recently formed an conference consisting of eight colleges. In the past, no official league existed and the schools were governed more by tradition than any-thing else. The schedules of these colleges will now primarily consist of games with each other, this will leave several long-time rivals off the list of opponents.

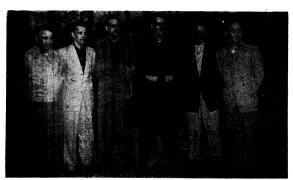

THE MEETING which resulted in the creation of the le also yielded a very important and sensible athletic code. The NCAA has long sought to establish a clear policy without much luck. The ntial points of the program set out are: a) No athletic scholarships of any kind, direct or indirect, b) Strict eligibility requireships of any kind, direct or matrext, by surest enginery requirements, i.e. no student will be considered eligible until he has completed satisfactorily a full year's academic work at the school he is to represent in sports; and he must continue satisfactory progress toward a recognized degree, c) No spring football practice, d) Only post-season games are to be NCAA competitions.

EVEN THE COACHES are being restricted in the league's desire to remove a bit of the taint of commercialism from college sports. Ivy Coaches will no longer be permitted to give advertising endorsements. The cigarette companies will now have to look to another source for a picture of someone smoking their product.

IN MY OPINION the Ivy League deserves congratulations in taking a step in the right direction to cure some of the ailments of present-day college sports. I hope this serves as an indication of what we can expect from other conferences in the future.

TRIVIA: Al Schacht, the famed comedian of baseball, has been cited by the Defense Department for his unselfish entertaining of servicemen overseas. outstanding sidemen and instru-mentalists. His program is expected to be built around many of the songs he has written, arranged, and made famous.

The Duke has been an amazing success in every field of musical endeavor. His record sales have soared into millions of copies, with such "standards" as "Solitude," "Mood Indigo," "Do Nothin' Til You Hear From Me,' and many others. Ellington's more serious compositions for concert stage have hailed by critics as one of the few truly American art forms evolved in the history of the country. He has appeared with his band in several motion pictures, and he already has made a mark in television.

Duke's record of a quarter-ofa-century of popularity has forced a number of style changes that have resulted in more brilliance and colors, sme variation in colors, smoother presentation, the increase to five in the brass section, richer and deeper saxes, and a rocking rhythm section. Even in the case of "Mood Indigo" Ellington, finding himself in competition with earlier renditions by his own orchestra, has dropped his arrangement an octave so that "people will think it sounds as good now as they thought it sounded when they

A-36 Tanker Highly Regarded By Yanks

With major league baseball | that goal. players beginning to work out their winter kinks, we turn the Spearhead Spotlight this week on 3d Armored Division trainee uho may someday take his place on the Yankee Stadium pitching mound

With spring just around the corner, at least one young Spearhead is carressing that old horse hide and looking around for a prospective battery mate. He is Put Edward DeSimon who is our rently serving with Co. A AI Bn., CCA, as a tank commander in the new Armor packet training system.

Before entering the service, Ed had been making baseball circles sit up and take notice for several years. He graduated from Washington and Lee High School in Arlington, Va., in 1950, with a magnificient baseball record as a pitcher. Over a span of four years of mound work, he had lost only two games

During his senior year, it was not uncommon to find major league scouts giving him the "once over" from the stands, and on graduation, Colonel Dawson of the New York Yankees, con vinced him that the World ampions were the team with which to sign.

Ed was sent to Olean, N. Y., in a Class L league, and he immediately made eves pop by pitching seven shutouts in his first seven games and establishing an overall record for the year of ten victories against three defeats

His good showing merited his noving up to Joplin, Mo., in Class but the faster seemed to have no effect on his winning ways as he chalked up four straight wins. The Yankee front office took quick notice of this, and sent Ed to the Norfolk (Va.) Tars, in Class B, where he won three more games, still without a blemish on his record

With the beginning of the 1953 season. Ed found himself on the roster of the Birmingham, Ala club of the Southern Associa nd he was maintaining his fine record there when indu

After completing basic training, Ed attended Leaders' Course before going to his present assign-ment with A-36. HEADQUARTERS SECOND ARMY OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL FORT GEORGE G. MEADE, MARYLAND

RED CROSS MESSAGE FROM THE ARMY COMMANDER ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL AND CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES:

The high purpose of the American Red cross and its important function in our nation make it worthy of full support and justifies our pride in its accomplishments. This organization has served the Army superbly in war and peace. Its members have accompained our troops on every battlefield of World War II and in Korea. The assistance it gives our oversea soldiers when distress comes to their families at home is of greater value than anyone can possibly de-termine. The Peace of Mind that results from the knowledge that we have an organization that is fully prepared and dedicated to finding solutions to personal problems of our soldiers justifies our efforts on its behalf.

I am confident that the personnel of the Second Army, both military and civilian, will join wholeheartedly in the fund-raising cumpaign during March 1954 and take pride in such membership. is a privilege for me to renew my membership for another year and to share in this vital auxiliary to our national defense effort.

Plan To Separate NCOs & Specialists Underway

One thousand opinions from Armored Center officers and NCOs on what they think about the method proposed to separate noncomes from specialists are on their way to fine Pentagon for consolidation with other opinions from each major command in the Army. Two hundred officers and 800 enlisted men from Ft. Knox took part in the survey, according to Lt. Col. John F. Beck, Adjutant General's Office, who conducted the opinion poll berg.

Department of the Army requested the opinions, half of which were to come from men who had been in the Army requested the opinions, and of which were to come from men who had been in the Army prior to 1942, to determine what method it should use to separate the Noncom or "leader" ranks from the "specialist" ranks. The weekly newspaper Army TIMES this week broke the story on the questionnaire.

The paper's report said that G-1 officials have made it clear that Tankers Believe in "Keeping in the Know" the idea of separating Noncoms from specialists and the insignia for the latter have already been approved. The plan, according to he TIMES, provides that all NCOs will rank above all specialists. Thus, a corporal, or E-4 NCO, vould rank above a Master Specialist, ir E-7 specialist.

Men in the top four enlisted rades will be notified before they are "converted" to specialist rat-ings, said the TIMES. But an NCO who is to be converted to specialist may appeal his case to higher authority on certain bases laid down by DA. Past leadership positions will be considered in such appeals by NCOs who wish to retain their NCO rating rather than converting to the specialist rating.

NCOs under the plan will be used for supervisory roles only and will not be subject to fatigue duties or, as in the case of guard duty, to private of the guard. As for specialists, E-7 and E-6 specialists will be exempt from fatigue or guard duty, but E-5 and E-4 specialists will not be so exempt. Pay and other privileges will remain the same both for Noncoms and specialists

Mobile X-Ray Unit To Be Here Through April

Do you know that it is possible to have tuberculosis and not real-ize it? For this reason alone, every ivilian dependent, military de-pendent or adult over 15 years of age should avail themselves of the facilities of the Kentucky State Department of Health Mobile X-Ray Unit by obtaining a free x-ray during the visit of this unit to The Armored Center in the very near future.

The mobile x-ray unit will be available to all the above person-nel from the 6th of April through the 23rd of April. It is hoped all personnel mentioned above avail themselves of this service at the Crittenberger School.

A unit personnel officer sees a lot of the world's troubles come up to his desk and pass on to be resolved to many a happy ending. Here is a mythical case:

The young corporal's wife had just arrived on post to be with him. Accommodations were scarce and a small, dingy room in a nearby town was the best she could find. Jobs for people like her were'nt easy to get, and it was getting near the end of the month. The landlady was ready to evict the girl. Other relief agencies for policy or other reasons were unable to provide help. The soldier needed help and needed it fast.

Who could he turn to? He went to see his company commander who sent him to his nearest unit personnel officer who, in this case, happened to be at regimental headquarters. He explained his case and the officer sent him up to see the Army Emergency Re-lief officer at Division headquarters. It wasn't long before a

Smorgasbord

The word Smorgasbord, the Encyclopedia Britannica tells us is a Scandinavian name for a collection of individual dishes spread on separate table.

At DOE RUN HOTEL Smorgasbord each Friday evening from 5:30 to 8 is the most delightful meal of the week. There are salads galore—shrimp, potato salad. congealed salads, deviled eggs, celery, radishes, olives, pickles and leituce, with dressing to suit each individual state; tangy cheese, pickled pigs feet, pickled and marinated herring—and the many meat dishes are a feast for the sight as well as the palate—baked ham, baked salmon, roast beef and potatoes, meat balls and turkey.

If you haven't yet got around to making Doe Run's Smorgasbord a habit, start this Friday night. Bring the family and friends and enjoy good food, and a visit to-gether. Its economical too, $1.50 for adults, 75c for children. Sunday Dinner 12 to 8.

Little Theater To Present Arena Style Plays

—Photo by M/Sgt. Clifford Rutter Richard Leclair and Dorothy Young of the Little Theater Group rehearse a scene from "Home of the Free," a comedy by Elmer Rice. The play is done in costumes of the 1920's.

The Ft. Knox Little Theater Group brings an unusual form of entertainment to the Post on March 17, 18 and 19, when they present a program of four one-act plays staged in the Arena or Theater-In-The-Round Style.

In this type of theater, which dates back historically to the Greeks, the play is presented in a circular or oval acting area with the audience scated on all sides, rather than on a platform stage at one end of the auditorium, as in most modern theaters and movie houses. Thus the audience actually surrounds the actors instead of seeing them only from one side

There can be, of course, little or no scenery, the setting con-sisting mostly of furniture and properties. This is compensated for by the audience being so much closer to the actors than in a normal theater. Facial expressions are more easily seen; lines are more natural and easily

The four plays to be presented by the Little Theater Group are Home Of The Free, If Men Played Cards As Women Do, a farcial skit by George Kaufman; The Rising Of The Moon, an Irish drama by Lady Gregory and the Prologue from Androcles And The Lion, George Bernard Shaw's comical modern version (Continued on Page 4)

Cissy Gregg, food consultant for a Louisville newspaper, is shown addressing the wives of Staff and Faculty members at their last Friday's luncheon at the Country Club. Following the luncheon, she was escorted to two of the 3rd Armored Division's famous mess halls, where she saw the mass production of food, and inspected the menu for the day's fare. She was most impressed with the quality of food served the men, and with the spotless and attractive mess halls.

First Anniversary Of Thrift Shop This Week: Mrs. Milo H. Matteson One Of First Officers

of those she serves. Thus, one of the richest women at Ft. Knox is Mrs. Milo H. Matteson, ex-president of the Thrift Shop; for her services have benefitted literally thousands of people here.

When the Thrift Shop opened for business last March, Mrs. Matteson was named vice president. Two months later she became president. An experienced worker at the Thrift Shop, it was logical that she be chosen for the top spot there. She was an officer in the Thrift Shop that operated here until the summer of '52, and also played a great part in the planning and reorganization of the present facility that was opened just a year ago. She has worked in Thrift Shops on many Army posts; she says that this shop is the largest and nicest she has ever come across

If you're familiar with Thrift Shop schedule, you know that it is open only 71/2 hours a week. Yet, for all the groundwork. such as checking, pricing, tele-phoning, etc., that must be done before opening hours, Mrs. Mat-teson and other Thrift Shop volinteers found it necessary to work

It's said the only pay a vol-nteer worker gets is the gratitude quite a slice to take from a busy quite a slice to take from a busy schedule. It virtually eliminates nost social functions, and makes other volunteer work impossible.

And don't get the idea that the service performed by the Thrift Shop in helping the military dispose of unused household items, and at the same time, providing a market for purchase of goods, is all the Thrift Shop does. Oper-ating on a commission basis, the shop had sales amounting to $31,-894.48 in the past year. Ten perent of this, plus $2,169.94 in out-right donations, has gone to var-ious charitable causes at Ft. Knox. Praises for the tremendous amount of good the Thrift Shop has done cannot be sung too highly.

M.s. Matteson's keen sense of humor never permitted her tour as the proxy to become humdrum, Her lightest moments were provided by little neighborhood girls coming in to buy the "real" bargains in evening gowns hey could play "Queen Elizabeth." She has witnessed scenes of pathos and humor, has dealt with the fortunate and unfortunate.

For Second Army

Under a new Army policy which insures that all soldiers peginning basic training have education, the 3d Armored Division has been given the assignment of operating the Second Army Area Transi-tional Training Unit.

Co. D of the 23rd AEB last began operations of the school. Men screened at the 2048th ASU Reception Center as not having the equal of fourth grade training, will be sent to D-23 for a period of from two to four

A test will be given at the end of the first two weeks, and those who successfully meet the Army standard at that time will go directly to basic training units

Make Basic Easier

It is anticipated that attainment of at least this minimum educational level by new soldiers will facilitate their understanding of military subjects presented basic training.

(Continued from Page 1) Sometimes, however, the guilty soldiers have left for another post before the damage is discovered.

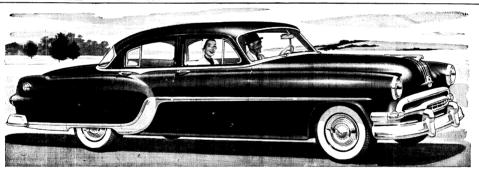

And what does this damage

If every member of the 3d Armored Division would give a dol-lar apiece, the total still wouldn't begin to pay for one phase of the damage done to Division barracks last year by thoughtless soldiers

Before you mail that check for your income tax this month, consider these figures: A total of $27,915.16 was spent at Fort Knox last year to replace and patch wall covering in temporary barracks with soft-type walls. To repair such damage as pictured above, $7,865.16 was spent for material — and $20,050.00 went for labor. Of the total, $23,-592.36 was spent in the 3d Armored Division which has about 450 of the 625 temporary barracks on post.

These figures concern just one item of barracks repair — wall covering. The needless damage of the wooden buildings takes many other forms. However, all of them have one thing in common with wall covering - they cost you money.

twins, who are 18, undoubtedly would love to follow in their older brothers' footsteps for both Frank and Lloyd rose to their present rank in less than four years.

Frank, who is sergeant major of the 367th AIB, CCR, served 13 months in Korea as a weapons platoon sergeant and later as the company first sergeant. He came to Fort Knox two years ago and was with Co. A of the 761st Tk. Bn., CCB, and Co. A of the 122nd AOM Bn., CCR, before joining the 367th.

Lloyd also spent 13 months in Korea where he was rifle platoon sergeant. He came to the Division in December, 1951, and also served with A-761 before taking his present assignment as first sergeant of Co. C of the 57th AAA (AW) Bn., CCR. He recently re-enlisted to fill his own vacancy.

Herkus is presently training with Co. B of the 7th Med. Tk. Bn., CCB, and Harold is with Co. B of the 54th AFA Bn., CCA.

Frank, who is 22, and Lloyd, who is 24, are both married and living on post. It's a pretty safe bet both of them invite their younger brothers to dinner when-ever possible. What better way to get the dishes washed?

Knox Boxer Bows In Chicago Finals

Ord. Co., Pt. Knox's hope in the 1954 Chicago Golden Gloves Box-ing Tournament, advanced into the Championship round last Thursday night but lost the de-ciding match to Orville Pitts of Dayton, Ohio on a close decision.

Ellison, a pre-fight favorite in the light-heavyweight division be-cause of three stunning knock-outs earlier in the tournament, moved into the finals without lift-ing a glove, as Jim Boyd, of Evansville, his scheduled oppon-ent, failed to show up.

Aside from the personnel changes, the nursery board announced that a completely re-modeled nursery will be ready for public inspection in the immediate future, possibly around April 1. Rooms have been enlarged, paint applied, and various innovations to catch the children's fancy and attention have been installed. Another important addition is the instal-lation of refurnished bathrooms the installation of junior size plumbing. The nursery now is operating at its peak of 125 children. But the waiting list, which changes rapidly has decreased at a discour aging rate.

Maj. Gen. Collier Praises Spearhead Division RC Campaign Rolling For Rush Modification of Tank Power Plants

84th, 761st Tk. Bns. Work for CCA, CCB

The part played by the 3d Armored Division in a recent tank transmission modification project last week received high praise from Maj. Gen. J. H. Collier, Command-General, The Armored Center.

According to a Letter of Com mendation sent from Gen. Col-lier to the Division, the sudden necessity to deadline more than 425 medium tanks at Fort Knox to correct a previously unsuspect ed transmission defect presented a serious problem to the contin-uation of training. Every ing schedule involving the use of tanks had to be hurriedly changed, the letter said, and a vast modification project was established to correct the defic-iency and return the tanks to use in minimum time.

'Responded Splendidly'

The 3d Armored Division "re nonded splendidly to this challenge,' Gen. Collier said. "Inves tigation revealed that 335 tanks within the Division had defective transmissions. These constituted 51 percent of the medium tanks in the Division. Over the weekend of Feb. 13-14, Division staff officers and subordinant manders reorganized training schedules, areas and equipment with the result that training was able to continue with practically no interruption.

effective plans "Concurrently, were put into effect to modify the transmissions without delay. Every member of the Division (Continued on Page 4)

Outstanding performances and chievements by individuals or achievements units within the 3d Armored Division are currently recognized with ten different Division awards. The establishment of additional awards is expected in the near future, and announcement of them will appear in the SPEARHEAD as soon as they are officially adopted.

One of the most long-standing Division awards is the semi-monthly "Best Mess" plaque. An inspection team, consisting of officers of the Inspector section, G-4 section and food advisors of the major commands, inspects the top mess hall from each major and separate mand on the second and fourth Friday of each month. The winning mess hall, as determined

Smorgasbord

The word Smorgasbord, the Encyclopedia Britannica tells us is a Scandinavian name for a collection of individual dishes spread on separate table.

At DOE RUN HOTEL Smorgasbord each Friday evening from 5:30 to 8 is the most delightful meal of the week. There are salads galore—shrimp potato salad. Congealed salads, deviled eggs, celery, radishes, olives, ptckles and lettuce, with dressing to suit each individual taste: tangy cheese, pickled pigs feet, pickled and marinated herring—and the many meat dishes are a feast for the sight as well as the palate—baked ham, baked salmon, roast beef and potatoes, meat balls and turkey.

If you haven't yet got around to making Doe Run's Smorgasbord a habit, start this Friday night. Bring the family and friends and enjoy good food, and a visit to-gether. Its economical too, $1.50 for adults, 75c for children. Sunday Dinner 12 to 8.

Knox, Bardstown Teams To Debate at PTA

The Ft. Knox P. T. A. will add more variety to its series of programs by featuring during its March meeting a debate be-tween the Ft. Knox and Bardstown High School Debating Teams. The meeting will be held on Monday evening, Mar. numbers of streamlined glamour 22, 1954, at 7:30 p.m. at Sadowski Field House,

The subject of the debate is an interesting, timely, and vital one. It is: "Resolved that the President of the United States should be elected by direct vote of the people."

A second feature of the pro gram will be a period devoted to the subject of voluntary chest X-rays. A post program has been organized to have chest X-rays made of all civilians, school children, teachers, and military and civilian dependents on voluntary basis. This is in keeping with the present preventive medicine program to diagnose disease in its early stage. During the meeting this program will be explained. In addition, a colored movie entitled "Inside Story" will be shown. Band music will be played before and after the meeting, Refreshments will be served during the social hour following the meeting.

Sadowski Becomes Churchill Downs For Womens Club "Derby Fashions"

By Babette vonHalban

Veritable packs and droves were turned away from the doors of Sadowski last Friday night as the capacity house welcomed this year's lavish and fanciful fashion show, presented for the members of the Officers' Mess.

Derby Fashions exuded at every pore the gay and sparkling spirit of its theme. The approach to the track led along white fences, through starched turnstiles, past swaying umbrellas and formal gardens, on to the tabled grandstand from which the exuberant audience participated with vociferous enthusiasm in the chic parade of Spring and beach wear,

Against a very elever and colorful background of Churchill Downs the show was launched Downs the snow was summer, Monday at Girl Scott Lodge, with the carbranee of a small this was also the first session dampe jo key, the mascot of the mannequins, Christopher von Halban by name, who set the course, trade-down statement of the saft and the mood for the those from Ft. If you happen to be in the vicinity of Navajo and North Carolina Streets on the morning of the third Friday of the month, you'll witness the operation of one of the finest volunteer activities at Ft. Knox-the Blood Bank.

At 7:30 a. m. the frame building on the corner is quiet, giving no evidence of the activity it will house within the hour. By 8 a.m. the volunteer staff is on duty, and donors have already begun filing past the registrar's desk. And from then until noon, the staff won't be still for a moment—for by the five office registered nurses, takes time they leave the building, the blood pressure and hemoglomore than 250 pints of blood will bin of every donor before he is have been collected . . some 300 taken to the donor room. # Do You Remember

The following letter was sent to our office by George M. Chancellor, who is with the 8th Inf. Regt. His rank was not stated. The letter contains "memories" of interest to Fort Knox personnel and members of the Armored Force, ED. NOTE.

"As a reader of Armor Magazine for a period of several years and as a former member of the Mechanized Cavalry and the Armored Forces, the many articles by distinguished writers appearing in the magazine are very instructive to me particularly as a contrast between the old Armor and the new. I recently received a copy of the book "Forge The Thunderbolt" and its contents brought back many fond memories to me as I was at Ft. Knox that dreary day in January 1933 when the 1st Cavalry arrived from Fort Marfa, Texas. At that time Lt. Col. Adna R. Chaffee (later general) was executive officer of the Post and Col. Daniel Voorhis was in command of the unit with Brigadier General Julian R. Linsey as Post Commander.

I remember well when Lt. Gen. Willis Crittenberger was a Major in the 1st Cavalry Mechanized as was General Robert W. Grow. Other names like Baird, Scott, Hasbrouck, etc. are plain in my memory. Former Chief of Cavalry (Maj. Guy V. Henry) signed my Sergeants Warrant in March 1933 and later on Captain Isaac D. White (Now law-abding citizen into an "auto intoxicated" boor (i.e. a motorist warrant in March 1933 and later on Captain Isaac D. White (Now drunk with the power at his Li. Gen. White) administered the oath of office as a 2nd lieutenant

The first brick buildings at Fort Knox were those now on 7th Avenue and Old Ironsides and were completed in November 1934 as was the Armored Center Hq. Later on the 13th Cavalry came to Fort Knox in 1936 under Col. Charles L. Scott and that with the 68th Field Artillery Bn. formed the 7th Cavalry Brig. (Mechanized) and that can be truly said to be the forerunner of the mighty Armored that can be truly said to be the forerunner of the mignty Armorea Divisions of World War II. Although I am at present in an Infantry Organization, I hope and look forward to again returning to Fort Knox and shall always look forward to reading the Armor Magazine and the Fort Knox counterpart, "Inside The Turret." At press time this week, 107 'superior' ratings had been recorded for various Armored Cen ter units in the detailed Second Army Annual Ordnance Inspec-tion which continues at Fort Knox with Operation 100 per Knox with Operation 100 per cent Superior still the guiding light.

The "superiors" came in such broad fields of ordnance as armament, automotive vehicles and supply. In one unit alone, name ly the 30th Tank Battallon, inspectors this week noted a commendable record of only two de-ficiencies after inspecting a dozen of the unit's tanks.

The inspection of School Troops was scheduled for completion by Thursday, March 25. Meanwhile, the armament teams moved into the Third Armored Division area March 16 and the inspection is well underway in the training division.

Beauty Shop Gets At Ordinance Plant

WAHOO, Neb. — An automatic "beauty parlor" for ammunition in which bombs are painted faster than milady can powder her cheeks now is in operation here at the Army's Nebraska Ordnance

The "beauty parlor"—a spank-ing new paint machine designed and built at the plant—can doll up ten explosive customers a minute regardless of whether they weigh 100 or 1,000 pounds.

The versatile machine is a wellarranged assortment of conveyors wheels, hissing spray valves, and compressors.

It accords customers at this rejuvenation shop unusual treatment. They are moved along in a horizontal position until they are in a vulnerable spot. Then a battery of five spray guns lets with the new look as the bomb gracefully completes a 360degree revolution under the shower of paint. After the bomb the has been rotated, the paint is shut off automatically.

The bombs-doused uniformly without overlapping-then move onto a power-driven conveyor which carries them through 35 feet of drying oven.
As a bomb enters the conveyor on its way to the drying oven, it also operates an air valve. This re-sets the paint machine and brings another bomb in for painting.

The "beauty parlor" far exc manual paint-spraying methods It is estimated that the automatic inter will save approximately $1,000 a week in paint and labor

The 1st platoon under the supervision of Lt. Dollar and Sgt. Curry started work on a bayonet course for the 3rd Armored Division. It is expected to take about ten days to complete.

Lt. Lipscomb and his crew have resumed operations at the Post Rock Quarry and he is hoping to beat Lt. Woolover's record of 1000 tons of gravel in one night of operation.

в The busy "bees" came through nother week with another job added to their schedule. The job to assist the Post Engineers in lashing tanks to flat cars and getting them ready for shipment

The day has finally arrived that the battalion has been looking forward to for some time. The Pedestrian Underpass on 31W is at last completed. B Company is very proud of this project and invites anyone who is interested to go out to the project site and inspect the completed underpass.

As the time finally arrives so that "light" can be seen, at Steeles' Range, the efforts being expended have been intensified. The quag-mires, which have so long hampered progress, have dried up suf-ficiently so that progress is now possible. When laying the rails it was found, that they were not all identical and special measures had to be effected to accomplish the proper fit on the "joint plates."

In a special effort to meet the deadline on the Steeles Range project, the company worked through the holiday weekend. It is hoped that completion will be realized by the first day of March.

Charlie company took special pride in its men who were detailed for Main Post Guard during the week of February 8 through the 13th of February, as the supernumery of the guard was awarded for each consecutive day to their representative.

U. S. Army Moves Heavy Industry To South Korea

Badly damaged and worn tanks, trucks and automobiles now are being re-built and re assembled in this war-torn country and are being re-issued to try and are pening re-to-size troops.

Previously, heavy re-building operations were carried on only in Japan or the United States. But in order to reduce expenses, the Army decided to move its heavy repair operations to Korea.

Three companies of the 59th Ordnance Group are performing these wholly new-to-Korea operthese wholly new-to-Korea oper-ations, technically referred to as "fourth echelon maintenance." "Untold thousands of dollars in shipping and transportation costs will be saved," predicted Colonel William A. Davis, commander of the 59th Group. "For example, hydraulic steering gears now be-ing re-built at the 512th Ordnance Heavy Automotive Main-tenance Company formerly were re-built in Japan."

The beginning of heavy rebuilding operations in Korea was not without problems, among them the training of skilled machinists and mechanics and providing machinery. The first problem was taken

ABERDEEN TAKES CHAMPIONSHIP

The Aberdeen Proving Ground basketball team captured the Second Army Basketball Championship last week, by the Second Army Basketball Championship last week, by defeating a scrappy Ft. Knox five 95-89.

They were led by Johnny O'Brien, former Seattle U.

All-American, who netted 96 points in the tournament. The Aberdeen quintet recorded three victories on the final day of play to take the honors.

Going into the final day, the Ft. Knox entry was the only team with an unbeaten record. Then came the Aberdeen Proving Ground combination to hand the Knoxmen two de-

Open At Knox High

Baseball takes over picture at Ft. Knox High as the season begins with an encounter with E'Town Catholic on the second of April.

This marks the first year that the school has participated in the South Central Kentucky Conference in baseball. The confer-ence requires that all members, to be eligible for the champion ship, must play at least six contests with conference teams and those games are to be with at least four different opponents.
As a result, the Ft. Knox H. S. nine will meet some of the highest ranking teams in the state. The Dickerson System is used by the conference to determine the standings and the champion-leer team, rolling three 900 ship. This merely consists of games, defeated the crew from ranking teams as to strength and Hardin Furniture 4-0; smashing lower ones.

Knox coach Matarazzo has his work cut out for him as but three experienced men are re-turning from last year's squad. To add to his problems, not one of the veterans happens to be a mored Division, to determine the pitcher. The boys are showing other two participants in the great spirit and enthusiasm in fighting for the various positions, so we should witness some good baseball this spring.

All enlisted men stationed within the continental United States, except those alerted or under orders for overseas movement; those who are attending a school already; those under court-martial charges, or under investigation; basic trainees who have been reported to the Adjutant General for assignment; are eligible to volunteer for this training.

The following courses of instruction, conducted by the Armed Forces Special Weapons Project at Sandia Base, Albuquerque, New Mexico, are open to volunteers: Assembly (Mechanical) Course; Electrical Technician Course; Duclear Technician Course; Nuclear Technician Course;

Selection for attendance at courses of instruction will be made by Department of the Army from qualified applicants.

Enlisted men who desire to volunteer for atomic weapons training will submit a p p li c a tion, through channels, to the Commanding General, Second Army. If the individual has any special qualifications which may relate to the course in which training is desired, he will include that information in the application. The immediate commanding of-

The immediate commanding officer and the commander having personal jurisdiction over the applicant will be responsible for processing and forwarding applications

Volunteers who will not have the required minimum service remaining upon completion of the course must, at the time of final selection, either extend their enlistment or accept discharge and recenlist.

Special emphasis will be placed on securing Regular Army enlisted men with relatively long terms of remaining service.

Bu George M. Glass-

NOW THAT THE TOURNAMENTS are over, the basketball season is just about history. This year the favorites didn't fare too well in post-season competition.

DUQUESNE HAS PLACED an entry in the NIT six times in the last 14 years and not once have they come home with the crown. This year was no exception as they lost out on another opportunity. They entered the tournament rated as the top team in the country, but this was of no help to them as they dropped the big one in the finals to Holy Cross 71-62.

THE CRUSADERS played careful and controlled ball to pull the game out of the fire. They took very few shots, but made a high percentage of those attempted. They were led by Palazzi, who potted 20 points for the evening. He was the winner of the tourney's Most Valuable Player Award.

THE LASALLE EXPLORERS took the measure of Bradley's Braves to cop the NGAA championship 92-76. This victory was the result of a brilliant example of team play, spearheaded by the outstanding Tom Gola. He was the only unanimous choice for the All-Tournament Team.

Trivia: CONGRATULATIONS to the FT. KNOX "TANKERS" on their excellent showing in the 2nd Army Basketball Playoffs.

BOBY THOMASON broke his ankle in an emergetic slide during spring training. THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BASKETBALL COACHES has demanded the dumping of the ONFAND-ONE RULE. Has anyone come out in favor of retaining it?

MAL WHITFIELD has added two KC, track titles to his collections.

tion . . TURN-TO and PORTERHOUSE are the KENTUCKY DERBY favorites, in that order, at the moment . . The MILWAUKEE BRAVES have gotten shortstop ROY SMALLEY from the CURS for pitcher Dave Cole and undisclosed sum of cash . . WILMER "VINEGAR BEND" MIZELL star hurler of the CARDS is now pitching for the FT. MCPHERSON baseball team . . On Monday, the 29th of March, the POST BOXING TOURNAMENT will begin at Sadowski Fieldhouse. . .

thorized to waive such requirements only in "exceptionally meritorious individual cases." Army personnel officials felt that the term was too difficult to define and drew up this new policy.

The new directive contains no special promotion criteria for men overseas. The original Cir. 22, dated Mar. 27, 1953, contained special time-in-grade provisions for some of these individuals. That provision was rescinded by Cir. 72, Aug. 19, 1953.

Current requirements for regular EM promotions call for two months service in a position for which a higher grade is authorized, and the following amounts of service in present grade:

WASTE EXPOSE SERIES - No. 4 Drivers' Neglect Wastes Tires, Money

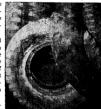

Neglect and carelessness on the part of a few 3d Armored Division drivers is causing such tire damage as that shown in the accompanying photograph.

According to Capt. Harold Prince, Motor Officer of Division Trains, 3d QM Bn., most of the Division's assigned drivers are not guilty of the usual causes of automotive waste. Their most common fault, however, is driv-ing on flat tires or tires which have the incorrect air pressure.

Blood Bank Canteen Workers Serve Donors Mrs. George D. Park, teacher of speech in the Ft. Knox schools.

Mrs. George A. Kuhn, chairman of canteen workers, and Mrs. James nan of Blood Bank, prepare sandwiches for donors in the Blood Bank kitchen. -Photo by Clarence Collins

The "end of the line" at the Ft. Knox Blood Bank is a very pleasant experience for the donor-for there he meets a smiling canteen worker, and is served his choice of sandwiches, doughnuts, orange juice or milk.

There are four waitresses whose faces are familiar to every donor, and then there are two women "behind the scenes" who prepare the food for the 300 donors who pass through the blood line each week. Chairman of the workers is Mrs. Val Kuhn, who exudes enthusiasm for her work. Famous for her cheerful manner and ready wit, she has attempted to bring a homelike atmosphere to the can teen, so that the donors will not feel that they are eating "mess-hall" style. Her success is evident in the easy camaradorie of the canteen.

Mrs. Kuhn also does volunteer work at the Red Cross Production and Supply Room every Wednesday, making bandages for the local hospital. She has been active in Scout work, too, serving for years as an assistant, Brownie leader.

Her husband, Lt. Col. George A. Kuhn, is Post Veterinarian. They have a 16 year old daughter, Gail.

Another regular at the Blood Bank is Mrs. Dorothy Scanlon, co-chairman (along with Mrs. Ellen Turner) of all Blood Bank activities. Mrs. Scanlon celebrates her first anniversary as co-chairman this month, but she has worked at the Blood Bank in variour capacities since Nov. 1952.

In addition to her regular duties during the operating hours of the Blood Bank she does all the cessary shopping for the food that is prepared by the canteen

Mrs. Scanlon is a Staff Aide, and last December she was capped as a Gray Lady. She now works weekly as a clerical worker at the Hospital Red Cross. Her other volunteer activities include working at the Thrift Shop.

Her husband, Maj. James

night, March 28 at Theater No. 1. night, March 28 at Theater No. 1. Winners from all major commands, and a probable slate of four finalists from 3A1D to be service of the service of the service of the championships. First place will include a $15 cash prize and a trip to Ft. George Meade, Md., on or before April 22, as the Fort Rhox representative in Second Army Competition.

The winner of the Second Army contest will then compete in the All-Army finals in New York, probably in May. On post here, the second place winner will receive $10 and third place $7.50.

The finals are expected to produce one of the finest and most unusual variety shows to appear at Fort Knox in recent years, as competition has been keen in major command presentations.

The staff of judges was selected on the basis of wide and diversi-fied knowledge in variety and en-tertainment fields, since all types of acts are expected to compete.

The Life You Save May Be Your Own . . .

Free Chest X-Ray Available to All Military & Civilian Personnel

Within the next few days all military dependents and civilian personnel of Ft. Knox will be offered a free health service. The Post Surgeon, in co-operation with the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association and the Kentucky Health Department, has arranged to provide every man, woman and child in this area with a free chest examination without any cost or obligation whatsoever.

This campaign is part of a state-wide plan to reduce the incidence of tuberculosis. Officials planning the survey estimate that approximately 6.000 persons will receive a free chest x-ray Ft. Knox Boy Scouts are taking time out today to distribute pamphlets explaining why YOU should have your chest X-rayed. We can tell you why, but it is up to you to see that you take advantage of this opportunity, and who knows, you might save a life, your own.

That prevention is better than cure, all will agree. In the prevention of tuberculosis, mass X-ray surveys have been found to be among the most effective measures. It is hoped, therefore that everyone will take advan (Continued on Page 8)

This is the first such program in a series which will be aired over WAVE and WIEL each Sunday afternoon.

Gasoline Waste Can Be Cut and Money Saved

This is a sad story. Once upon a time there was sedan — an Army sedan — that lived in a big motor pool with a lot of other little Army sedans. This sedan though, had a name, Its driver, a big, husky lad named Dan somebody - or - other, thought so much of his vehicle that he christened it Sam.

As time went by, Sam the Sedan and Dan the Driver became the best of friends. That's because they always took care of each other. Even when there wasn't an inspection coming around, Dan would wash Sam real carefully and polish his chrome fittings 'till the colonel who rode in the back seat could just see himself in the reflection.

Nothing ever went wrong with Sam. His motor always turned over, even on the coldest days, his oil was always clean and pure and his gasoline tank was always full. But life isn't always sugar honey, or rather clean (Continued on Page 4)

Management

To acquaint the people of Fort Knox with the new owner and Yates Motor Company, we submit the following facts to you. v owner and manager of the CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH agency in Elizabethtown, The L. C.

THE OWNER, L. C. Yeles, is an Elizabethiown businessman who has spent a lifetime in building a reputation for fair and honest dealing with the public. L. C. Yates Motor Company is entering the automobile business with claims in order to make a sale, and we will back up our promises to you. THE MANAGER, John Greenwell, for several years operated the Chrysler-Plymouth agency in Teylersville in an honest and reputable manner. You can always count on his courteous and fair service.

OUR POLICIES—We are not entering the automobile business to make a quick dollar at the expense of our business reputation, but to build a record of service and attention to your automotive needs that will make you think of us when you want to trade cars. The honesty and integrity of the dealer is one of the main factors to consider when you're trading. Will he back up his promises? Is he representing his car honestly? Are you getting a fair trade-in price? Test us on those three points!

WE STILL NEED LATE MODEL

When we purchased this agency two weeks ago, we did not buy a stock of used cars. So we are giving unusually large allowances on trades to build our stock of late model cars. Drive in or call us for the top allowance on your car... then you'll drive out in a new 1834 CHRYSLER or PLYMOUTH... several models and body styles now ready for immediate delivery.

Swope Motors cuts prices on used and nearly new cars to make way for more 1954 models

Residents of Fort Knox will have the opportunity of buying nearly new and used cars at the lowest prices in years at Swope Motors this Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The used car Festival — it is really a "Used Car Auto Show" — is being staged by Swope Motors, E'town's Volume Auto Dealer, on the Leitchfield Road at College Street.

Swope Motors has just completed the largest Dodge-Plymouth year in Elizabethtown's history and is jammed with used cars. Rather than wait for higher prices later this Spring, the Swope folks decided to move all of their used cars our now, to make way for more trades on new 1884 Dodges and Plymouths.

PRICES SLASHED ON PLYMOUTHS. DODGES, FORDS, NASH, CHEVROLETS...

Almost every make of car you can think of is on sale at this bargain car show!

And you will find every one of them priced so that you can afford to buy and drive a finer, better car — right now when it is important to own a good, safe car. Smart car buyers realize that they are money ahead if they buy early, and comfort ahead, too. And at Swope's low, low prices you'll find it to your advantage to trade in that old car at once, will start quickly, stop safely, and give your family more pleasure.

So if you are thinking of buying you might as well get much more for your money with a newer car during Swope's sale. Your old one will also bring more now than it will later. So any way you look at it you're money ahead. Ask the experts!

Of course all of Swopes sale ars are completely reconditioned and all ready to go.
