

MILITARY ADVISOR TRAINING ACADEMY (MATA) BIBLIOGRAPHY

Intent: The Intent of the MATA reading section is to enhance the ability of MATA Cadre, Students, and the SFA Enterprise to expand their personal development of pertinent topics through targeted and specific book selections. Selected titles address key topics and lessons throughout history and current operations.

Broadening Perception: The MATA Reading Section will also create understanding outside of the SFA Enterprise that advising is a specialized skillset requiring focused training and development to successfully achieve its respective mission goals. Similar to the evolution of Strategic Studies as an academic endeavor, the MATA Reading Section will also drive acceptance of Advising as an academic study field and understanding of its past failures and successes.

Note: Call numbers listed below are for Donovan Library customers only. Additionally, titles may not be available at your respective libraries. Students can also check Worldcat at <https://www.worldcat.org/> to see what libraries that are closeby that may have the below titles. Please contact library staff if you have any additional questions.
